MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

A new standardbred training center is coming to the heart of the Bluegrass State. Construction is slated to begin next month on a facility in Versailles that will feature a five-eighths-mile oval and seven-eighths-mile strip, and will be a short ship to The Red Mile.

Alex Riddle, a Versailles native, is one of the primary partners in Versailles Standardbred Group, LLC, the project's developers.

He said that the group previously struggled to solidify plans for the center just west of Lexington in Woodford County, but now the project is a reality.

"Four years ago, we started working on finding a location to do this project," Riddle said. "We've had a couple of locations fall through. It's been a slog, but we're really excited about where we are now. This is definitely the best location we have had. We had one location in Lexington that we were actually under option on when the city approached us about this idea of moving it back to Versailles."

“ I think harness racing is the best, most approachable, most exciting way to get new fans into the industry. I fell in love with the sport for that reason. I think this is a great addition and something really fun to really drive horsemen and help the industry, and also drive tourism. That’s kind of my dream for this, to be a place where people can experience their first harness horse. ”

~ Alex Riddle

The partnership between Riddle’s group and the city is mutually beneficial. In 2020, the City of Versailles purchased a 337-acre tract of land formerly known as Edgewood Farm. The property is situated along U.S. Highway 60 (Lexington Road) and Paynes Mill Road east of downtown. It was purchased for $6.3 million. A 135-acre section of the land is permanently zoned A-1 for agriculture, and will be the site of the training center.

“The piece of land is an incredible location,” said Riddle, also a director with the Woodford County Economic Development Authority. “Any developer would love to develop it into something commercial or industrial. I’ve sat on advocacy boards and also on the economic development board, so I see the big picture. I’m really excited that we are able to keep it ag, so we are able to keep it zoned A-1, which is a key component for this.”

Riddle, son of Rood and Riddle co-founder Dr. Tom Riddle, serves as the marketing director for an equine pharmaceutical company, but also is a successful entrepreneur that has already left his mark in Versailles. Working with another partnership, he has renovated multiple historic buildings in the Woodford County seat’s downtown, operating businesses out of each. When looking to tackle the latest project, Riddle again felt Versailles offered the best location.

“All local, all central Kentucky, all within a 15-minute drive of The Red Mile,” he said. “That was our goal. And really my goal as a Versailles advocate and a member of the economic development authority there, I really wanted it to be in Versailles, but also wanted it to be in the best place for the project.”

In Versailles, Riddle has found allies that believe in the project and want to support it. Recently, the City Council voted to issue a $5.4 million bond for the training center. The vote paved the way for Riddle and his team to begin construction in short order.

“They really want this project there, and we’ve had several conversations about trying to make Versailles and Woodford County the capital of standardbred racing in Kentucky,” Riddle said. “They are very excited to help us. They are basically improving the land and then we are putting anything training center specific on top of that. That will be our contribution. We are putting up quite a bit of capital. The city is obviously coming in with quite a bit of capital, so it will be a great partnership with them.”

The training center will be a phased development plan and the timeline for Phase 1 is aggressive. Riddle wants the facility open in time for racing in 2025, meaning that construction needs to begin next month.

“We’ll break ground in July,” he said. “There are a couple small tweaks on the plan based on the core drillings. Then we’ll be ready to go in July. The bond issue goes out this week and then funds should be with the city by that first week of July. That’s kind of our plan as well, come in alongside them that first or second week of July.”

Horseman John Duer is a partner on the project, as are two others that will serve as the management team for Versailles Standardbred Group, LLC. Riddle said Duer has been instrumental in providing feedback and expertise as the vision for the training center has formed.

“He was my first contact in the standardbred industry,” Riddle said. “He is the key industry partner on this for us. He’s very well connected and had a good career training. He has worked in a lot of training centers, so he has been very helpful in that perspective.”

Phase 1 of the training center calls for the construction of a five-eighths-mile training track and seven-eighths-mile straight strip. A total of 250 stalls are planned for the first phase. Riddle said Versailles Standardbred Group, LLC has projected the first phase will cost $1.7 million, with funding generated from the partners and a handful of limited partners that have come on board as investors.

“The city bond is for infrastructure and land improvements that stay with the land,” Riddle said of the 20-year agreement that provides an option to buy the land at its conclusion. “Their lease to us, we add improvements on top of that. As of right now, that’s all investor funded. We have an opportunity where we could put some financing on it. I like to keep things as investor funded as possible to reduce the debt load.”

Later phases call for another 200 stalls, shedrows for seasonal clientele, a restaurant/track kitchen, and dormitories. The partnership is currently fundraising for the later phases. Riddle believes that once open, the facility will prove an attractive option for horsemen.

“We’ve had quite a bit of interest,” he said. “Because we’ve been working on it for so long, and because we’ve been working on four different pieces of land, we’ve had a couple of false starts with a lot of good support. We feel very confident, based on conversations we’ve had, that we’ll fill it up pretty quick. With the incentive fund being what it is now, we have a lot of horses that want to come into Kentucky, they just don’t have any place to stable.”

With a background steeped in thoroughbred racing, Riddle fell in love with standardbreds five years ago when he attended his first harness race. The race? The Little Brown Jug. Since then, he has participated in partnerships on a few claimers.

“We’ve broken even,” he said of the experience. “That’s a win. We haven’t lost any money yet, knock on wood.”

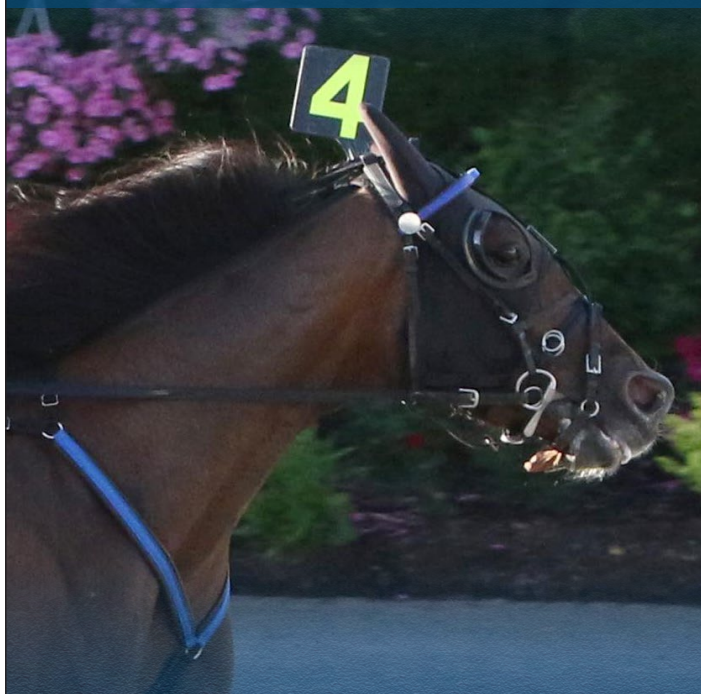

Much like his Jug trip and subsequent ownership endeavors, Riddle sees the training center as an opportunity to expose others to harness racing.

“I think harness racing is the best, most approachable, most exciting way to get new fans into the industry,” he said. “I fell in love with the sport for that reason. I think this is a great addition and something really fun to really drive horsemen and help the industry, and also drive tourism. That’s kind of my dream for this, to be a place where people can experience their first harness horse.”

So Much More, Canada's pacing queen, advances to fifth-consecutive Roses Are Red final

by Melissa Keith

The reigning O'Brien Older Pacing Mare of the Year has her trophies – three divisional O'Brien Awards (2020, 2022, 2023) to be specific. Yet she is still in search of her first roses, Woodbine Mohawk Park's Roses Are Red Stake, to be precise.

So Much More has raced in the eliminations and/or finals for the last five editions of the Roses Are Red, Canada's first Grand Circuit event of the year for female pacers 3-years-old and up.

Her results have been frustratingly close.

Third to 2023 Dan Patch Pacing Mare of the Year Grace Hill in 2023.

Second to 2021 Dan Patch Horse of the Year Test of Faith in their 2022 elimination, but eighth in the 2022 final after a parked-out trip.

Third to 2021 Dan Patch Pacing Mare of the Year Lyons Sentinel in 2021.

Third to 2019 Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Filly Pacer of the Year Warrawee Ubeaut in the 2020 edition.

So Much More (p, 7, 1:49.1s; $1,260,547) is owned by Don Beatson of Granton, ON, Kenn Beatson of Palgrave, ON, and Cole England of Exeter, ON. The daughter of Big Jim—Ladysai was bred by Doug MacPhee of New Haven, PEI, who welcomed a Malicious half-brother to "Canada's Pacing Queen" this spring.

Friday night (June 7), the 8-year-old mare defied her 32-1 odds with a fast-closing place finish behind 1-9 favorite Twin B Joe Fresh in the first of the card's two Roses Are Red eliminations.

Driver James MacDonald skillfully positioned So Much More for a ground-saving late rally at Mohawk in her race 3 elimination. They trailed seventh to the half, then emerged third-over on the final turn, encountering stalled cover as first-up Dabarndawgswatchin failed to advance from fifth.

Raceway at Western Fair District.

For the stretch drive, the mare nicknamed “Sophie” went back to the pylons and sprinted to the wire in :27.4, the fastest closing quarter in the 1:50.4 mile won by Twin B Joe Fresh.

Driving back to So Much More’s home at the farm of Don Beatson, England said he was proud to be the mare’s caretaker when his family takes her on the road to race. His grandfather, Don Beatson, takes care of her on a daily basis at his farm.

England said he was confident in Sophie’s chances in the 2024 Forest City Pace at The Raceway at Western Fair. On May 31, So Much More defended her title with a going-away 1:53 victory over 2024 Margaret Juravinski Memorial winner Talk Curdy To Me.

“I would never say we expect to win a race, but she loves the half-mile track, and it all worked out,” said the mare’s part-time groom.

Trainer Don said James MacDonald “gave her a really good drive” in both the Forest City Pace and the Roses Are Red elimination, but So Much More remains a powerhouse in her own right.

“She’s older and everything, but she’s as good as she ever was,” he told HRU.

The elusive Roses Are Red title is one that the co-owners agreed was a longstanding goal for So Much More.

“It sure is!” said Don. “We’d really like to get that one. They always bring the heavy horsepower.”

“ We were worried when [So Much More] was trailing the field. But she keeps trying and the amount of wins she has, she’s a fan favorite, that’s for sure. ”

~ Don Beatson

The quantity and quality of distaff pacers in the 2024 Roses Are Red required two eliminations, the second of which was won in 1:49.3 by Always B Naughty (Louis-Philippe Roy), who staged a mild 5-2 upset as she held off 2023 Canadian horse of the year Sylvia Hanover.

“There were 22 paid in to start, and only 14 of them entered,” said England. “We thought that our heat was pretty tough, going into the heat with seven horses instead of six.”

As usual, they watched together with Kenn in the WMP paddock.

“It was the three of us,” said England. “[Other horsepeople] were all watching their own horse, but lots of people came up to us after the race to say congratulations.”

So Much More’s latest Roses Are Red elim was not without suspense.

“We were worried when she was trailing the field,” said Don. “But she keeps trying and the amount of wins she has, she’s a fan favorite, that’s for sure.”

So Much More has never followed the Grand Circuit like many divisional peers. Plans to compete in the 2023 Cleopatra Invitational at Scioto Downs fell through last July due to a heatwave, said England. It would have been the mare’s first American start.

“She was scratched because it was about 35 degrees [Celsius] and it felt like 40 degrees [Celsius], so we didn’t think it was a good idea,” England said. “It was a seven-hour drive, not including the border [crossing].”

This year, So Much More will remain based in Ontario, despite two past invitations to Red Shores Charlottetown’s prestigious Gold Cup and Saucer in the province of her birth. She won her first baby race at the PEI oval on June 23, 2018.

“We don’t have anything else this year, except the Milton,” said Don, who enjoys retirement while looking after his one-mare racing stable. “She’s happy and healthy and she likes the routine of racing.”

“As far as it goes now, she’ll stay at Mohawk,” said England, even if it means occasionally facing male pacers as she has in the past. “It didn’t hurt her, racing the boys. It isn’t the best, but it’s better than three or four weeks off.”

Don said he jogs So Much More twice a week, and she is turned out for a few hours daily with a pasture buddy.

“Norman is a mini-pony,” Don said. “He’s been there for about three years. They go off by themselves and roll and play and run [over the] seven or eight acres.”

Like other equine mascots, Norman can't accompany So Much More to Mohawk.

“[Norman] stays at home,” said Don. “They don't like you bringing them [to the track].”

It doesn't bother So Much More, whose resilience continues to draw admirers whenever she races. England said that “people bring her carrots.” Her braided mane, on display in her bigger races, attracts compliments.

“Kenn's the one who likes to braid her,” said England. “She'd be mad at us if we tried!”

Australian SKY Racing presenter Brittany Graham told this publication in March that she hoped to meet the celebrated mare on North America Cup night.

“It would be great to see So Much More in the flesh, as her longevity and overall record is so admirable,” Graham said.

With 72 wins from 170 starts to date, So Much More's remarkable consistency and love of the game make her an outlier among the top mares.

To put her longevity in perspective, 2019 Roses Are Red champion Warrawee Ubeaut has now produced two foals. Lyons Sentinel, the 2021 winner, had her first foal this spring, a Bulldog Hanover colt. Test of Faith, the 2022 winner, retired in August 2023.

The defending Roses Are Red champion Grace Hill finished fifth in this year's elim, just making it into the 10-mare Saturday night (June 15) final. So Much More swept past her down the long Mohawk stretch, seemingly immune to the passage of time.

Two years older than Grace Hill, and twice the age of several finalists, Sophie is still making her mark. So Much More drew post 8 in the $305,000 Roses Are Red final, set for Saturday (June 15).

~ Richard Arnold

Eventually, their friendship led to Bart encouraging Arnold into expanding his highly successful and nationally-known cattle ranch into breeding harness racehorses. Arnold, a federal court trial lawyer, with offices in Miami, Washington D.C. and Austin, TX, agreed if Bart would teach him the ropes. Unfortunately, early in Arnold's education fate tragically intervened – Bart passed away.

By that time, the Arnold and Glass families had become close friends and Arnold turned to Bart's son, Jim, to help him find his way into our business. From that point, Arnold added horses, to cattle, genetics, law and basketball on his list of favorite subjects.

Arnold began his sojourn to the racehorse business by reading just about all that he could find on the sport and attending the occasional sale. He is, to quote my greatest teacher John F. Simpson, Sr., “a man who studies his lesson.” In 2010, he purchased his first mare Armbro Exquisite. She was to be the first member of a broodmare band that now numbers 26.

You are now deeply involved in the sport. How deep is your involvement?

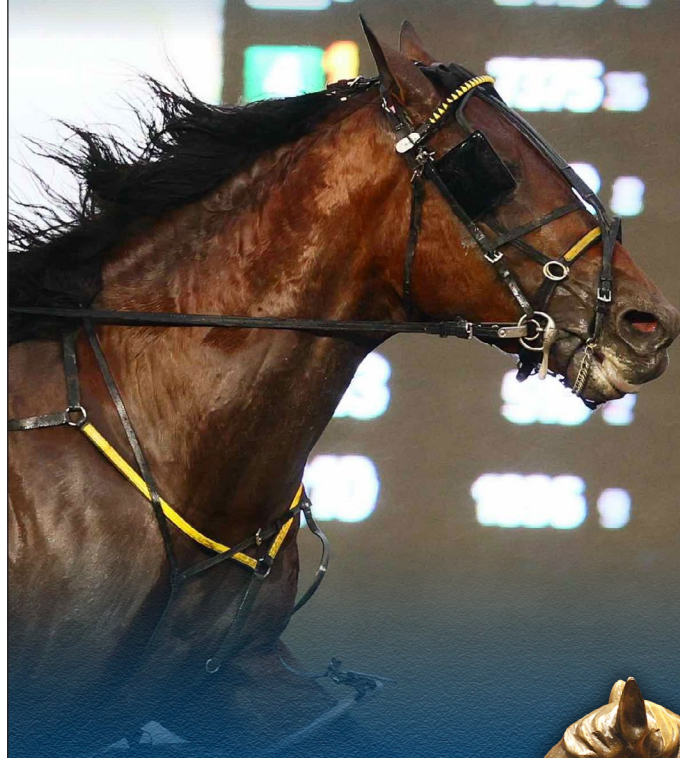

“As you mentioned, we have 26 broodmares, 11 trotters and 15 pacers. We have 11 horses at the track. We regard the breeding of these horses as a critical part of our ranch business. The great thing about this business is it is loaded with data and historical information and it combines two fascinating subjects: livestock genetics and athletics. We were initially only interested in breeding and selling yearlings but it became pretty clear that breeding the right animals requires a detailed understanding of their function. So, as we studied this, we concluded we needed to be invested in racing to have a complete picture. Just as we did in the cattle business, we concentrated on confirmation and maternal families.

“We try to build our broodmare band out of attractive athletic correctly conformed mares out of the best bloodlines we have an opportunity to obtain. As one of my favorite basketball coaches used to say, ‘The only thing that matters is everything.’ And I believe that applies to all competitive endeavors.”

You both breed and race. Do you consider yourself to be primarily a market breeder?

“The answer to that is a qualified yes. Our goal is to offer all of our yearlings at public auction. There are sometimes exceptions to that rule. For example, this year we are retaining three trotting fillies who will ultimately become members of our broodmare band. The main reason for that is the extremely high prices high quality trotting bloodstock is bringing when it is available. My feeling is that it is far too difficult to acquire high-quality trotting bloodstock at reasonable prices.

“In all our business endeavors, I am a firm believer in standing behind our product, so much so that if anybody that buys one

Richard Arnold (left) on the cover of American Chianina Association's magazine in honor of his lifetime achievement award that came from being breeder of the year five straight years. To Arnold's right is his mentor, George Wheeler, an Angus cattle pioneer.

How do you go about planning your matings?

"We believe in the importance of conformation. Every mare that becomes a member of our broodmare band is a very correct individual. The same applies to stallions. We only breed to a stallion that either I or Jim Glass have seen in person and passes the 'wow' test. It goes without saying that these stallions must have been top performers on the racetrack. Today's greatest performers, almost without exception, are also great individuals. This was not always the case. But it appears to be so today. We own shares in many of the top commercial stallions around. They include the trotters Gimpanzee, Father Patrick, Muscle Hill, Muscle Mass and Temporal Hanover. We also owned shares in Bar Hopping and Cantab Hall before their demise. Among pacers, we own shares in Bulldog Hanover, Captaintreacherous, Cattlewash, Confederate, Sweet Lou, Tall Dark Stranger and Well Said. All of these horses possess all the attributes that you would be looking for in a stallion, but not all of them will become what is accepted as being successful. That is the number one puzzle that a breeder faces. As my friend, Myron Bell, says, 'It takes knowledge and judgment to breed a good horse but it takes all of that plus luck to breed a great one.'"

Are there any special methods employed in raising your yearlings?

“The answer would be to employ nature at its best. We raise them with plenty of room, great terrain and in groups; how nature intended them to be raised. Willow Oak Ranch, here in Rogersville, TN, encompasses 1,500 acres, 200 of which is devoted to horses and the rest to cattle. The horses have plenty of room on which to run and play. We feed them the best grain and hay available. The pastures are deep in necessary nutrients. We have the same lime rock-based pastures they have in Central Kentucky.

“They are looked after in the best manner that we know how. Because we are relatively small, we try to make what could be a disadvantage, an advantage. With 19 foals, we are able to closely manage the babies and yearlings in a manner that is more difficult in large numbers. The horse is a herd animal; we raise them in groups of the same sex where they can play and even fight. They usually develop a pecking order where one becomes the boss. We rotate groups to give every foal a chance.

“There are some who believe that this might carry over to the racetrack where the boss in the field becomes the best on the track. I haven’t as yet raised enough horses to have a firm opinion on this. We have 39 stalls for horses on the farm. They are all quite large, with the stalls for mares and foals being somewhat larger in size. Unless harsh weather dictates otherwise, they spend the vast majority of their lives outdoors. We are very fortunate in that the climate in this area is fairly mild and is quite conducive to raising livestock.”

Now, may be the most important question. You are an avid sports fan, most specifically a follower and lover of basketball. The NBA finals started on Thursday. Who do you like?

“That may be the most difficult question you’ve asked me. Talent wise, the Celtics are loaded. They may have a strong balanced team, especially if [Kristaps] Porzingis is available to play as now appears to be the case. They were the best team throughout the season. Nevertheless, their one weakness might be an over tendency to shoot the three, too many of which are off the dribble.

“If it isn’t dropping, then who knows? The Mavericks are on a roll. They might have the best backcourt currently with [Kyrie] Irving and [Luka] Doncic. They are both playing remarkably well and are great finishers. The team also has a great deal of momentum.

“Insofar as comparing rosters, the Celtics probably have an edge. But just like in horse racing, the best horse does not always win, in the same manner, that also applies to sporting events with regard to the best team. My pick to win it all is Dallas. But Boston is way overdue. As I tell my friends in Boston, welcome to the 21st Century. As a Heat season ticket holder, I remind them, in this century, Miami has been Eastern Conference Champion seven times with three O’Brien trophies and Boston is three and one. Like I said, Boston is overdue.”

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Desiree Dessureault's daily menu always includes harness racing

by Chris Lomon

When it comes to the recipe for success, Desiree Dessureault is worthy of a five-star review.

That she continues to fare well in standardbred racing is by no means simply good fortune.

Instead, the horsewoman from Norway, ME, has worked earnestly in every role she has had over the years.

Her love of standardbreds and standardbred racing comes naturally.

"I was born into racing," she said. "I went to high school and graduated college. I moved to Pompano in 2008 and that's where I met my husband [trainer Mario Dessureault]."

"My grandparents have had horses, my parents have had horses, my brother has had horses, and my husband has horses."

Desiree has now added the title of trainer to her long list of harness racing achievements.

And, to no surprise at all, it has been a winning beginning for the woman who also works at Oceanic, a popular Florida oceanfront restaurant in Pompano, known for its American cuisine and fresh seafood dishes.

"I can't say that I see any similarities between racing and restaurants," Desiree said with a laugh. "I suppose both can be demanding at certain times."

Whatever the role, Desiree is guided by the same philosophy.

"When you work hard, it is a rewarding feeling," she said.

That approach can also make others take notice.

In 2013, Desiree earned Caretaker of the Month honors at Pompano Park.

She earned the recognition from the Florida Chapter of the United States Harness Writers Association for her work with

"I was born into racing. I went to high school and graduated college. I moved to Pompano in 2008 and that's where I met my husband [trainer Mario Dessureault]. My grandparents have had horses, my parents have had horses, my brother has had horses, and my husband has horses."

~ Desiree Dessureault

L M Canon, who went undefeated with four straight wins that May.

The following month, Desiree was feted with a special winner's circle presentation.

"We have that plaque hanging in our barn," she said. "We had the mare L S Cannon. She was a good mare with us. One day, they told me I had been recognized for an award. It was nice to receive it, but I can't believe it was 11 years ago."

A lot has changed since then, but not Desiree's love for racing and its equine athletes.

Winning her first race as a trainer, a milestone she achieved on May 17th at Tioga Downs.

The victory, an unexpected one, came with a bona fide veteran of the sport.

Kokanee Seelster, an 11-year-old son of Camluck—Kiddie Cocktail, has nearly 300 career starts to his name.

Desiree, along with Dennis Whittemore, claimed the brown gelding less than two weeks before the milestone score.

Sent on his way at 9-1 with Aaron Byron in the race bike, Kokanee Seelster got away third before taking over the proceedings before three-quarters.

He crossed the wire three-quarters of a length clear of his closest rival, stopping the teletimer in 1:53.3.

“ I have a sentimental attachment to fair tracks. Fryeburg Fair has always been a special place for me. I would go there with my family when I was growing up and I loved it. That’s where I first remember going to the racetrack. I would like to train and race there for sentimental reasons. ”

~ Desiree Dessureault

“It was nice to break the ice,” Desiree said. “I didn’t know how long it was going to take, so it was nice to get it out of the way early. He’s an older horse, who I think knows more about things than I do at times. But that’s okay.

“It was very exciting. We weren’t expecting it, which makes it even better. He is a nice horse, very friendly and great to be around. It’s a win-win.”

The original $17,000 purchase at the 2014 Forest City Yearling Sale appeared to know what he had accomplished.

“He definitely knew that he had won that day,” Desiree said. “He was very proud of himself.”

Desiree had no shortage of support, both on and off the racetrack.

“It was nice to share it,” she said. “My husband was there, and my parents were watching and cheering us on, so that was wonderful. I was still on cloud nine the next day.”

As she was one week later when Kokanee Seelster was back in the Tioga winner’s circle again, this time courtesy of a head triumph in 1:54.2.

Desiree is content to remain in the moment, rather than casting her thoughts towards the future.

“I am just going week-to-week and enjoying everything in the moment,” she said. “Hopefully, all goes well between then and the fall when we return to Pompano.”

She is grateful for the journey that took her from Florida to Nichols, NY.

“We have been racing in Saratoga for a few years, and I have been working in the restaurant business for the last little while in Florida,” Desiree said. “My husband and I were talking, and I thought if we did go to Tioga – we had been there before – it would be nice if I could train there. And that’s how it ended up working out.

“We still have our house in Pompano, even though the racetrack has closed. When I’m not working with the horses, I’m working at the restaurant.”

Desiree is grateful for the opportunity to work alongside her husband at the barn.

Does that mean the couple that races together, stays together?

“Definitely!” she said. “We do work well together. We’ve been doing it for a long time. Mario has five horses now and I have my one, so it’s six in our barn. It’s the right number and the horses are wonderful.

“I’m so grateful for Mario’s support. I have learned so much from him and his father. It’s been very important to me. This is one of those industries where you never stop learning, so I am very fortunate to have a lot of people by my side and helping me.”

For now, she will keep her focus on the short term, content to campaign Kokanee Seelster as her lone trainee.

But if the chance were to arise, there is one place where winning a race would be deeply meaningful for Desiree.

It is a racetrack she knows well.

“I have a sentimental attachment to fair tracks,” she said. “Fryeburg Fair has always been a special place for me. I would go there with my family when I was growing up and I loved it. That’s where I first remember going to the racetrack. I would like to train and race there for sentimental reasons.”

Her life is a busy one.

Between working at Oceanic and the barn, there is little time for outside interests or personal pursuits.

Whatever happens to be on the menu for the day, Desiree is simply happy to be along for the ride.

“I do like to read, but I end up falling asleep,” she said with a laugh. “If we aren’t at the track, we are getting things ready for the track or we are on our way to another track. And that is a good thing.”

Jazzed for June

by Bob Heyden

Summer is on the doorstep, the 99th Hambletonian is only eight weeks away and the Belmont was run in a new venue. Welcome to June 2024.

Let's take a look at what the sixth month of the year has brought us in the past and could bring in the future.

LETTER PERFECT

Did somebody say Hambletonian? Will Karl and T C I pick it right up at 3? Early indicators say yes. If either wins America's Classic Trotting Race it'll be the fewest letters ever in a Hambletonian winner's name. Currently Ayres (1964) holds that at five. If they finish 1-2 in either order it'll be by far the fewest combined letters at seven; no other combo is in single digits. The very first New Jersey Hambletonian heat winner had four (Olaf 1981), but he made a couple of breaks after and got third money. Keno was second in the 1931 final, Kuno third in 1940 and Uma was third in 1995 in the elim but she wound up ninth in the final.

DEJA VU ALL OVER AGAIN

What did the 1984 North America Cup have in common with the 1992 Meadowlands Pace? Both had half the field wiped out before the first quarter. In 1984, Ideal Zeke jumped it off from a close-up spot sitting fourth at the eighth-of-a-mile marker, no more than 12 or 13 seconds into the event, knocking all those behind him either temporarily off-stride or very wide. The 1-2 finishers – Legal Notice and Walton Hanover – were also 1-2 at that point. Guts, who wound up as the 1984 Meadowlands Pace favorite, who finished second to On The Road Again, lost all chance. In 1992, in the Meadowlands Pace, second choice Western Hanover – Direct Flight was the slight choice – had no realistic chance. A bit past the eighth-of-a-mile marker about 15-to-16 seconds in, Shipps Purser broke taking essentially every other horse out of contention. Included in there was Western Hanover who wound up seventh in his only off-the-board finish as a sophomore.

DATES IN JUNE

June 5, 1991 – Brett Pelling wins at The Meadowlands as a driver in 1:58 flat.

June 6, 1979 – The daily double returned $599 on the strength of two Mike Gagliardi driven $50 horses. Mike Dudley $51.60 and Pop Shekar $59.60.

June 8, 1979 – John Campbell registers his first sub 1:55 victory with New Lew in 1:54.3. Ironically, the very next year Ray Remmen records his first 1:55 ever win with, you guessed it, New Lew in 1:55 flat.

June 9, 1978 – Berndt Lindstedt records his very first Meadowlands win with freshman Spring Dash.

June 10, 1985 – Meadow Road wins the Statue of Liberty in 2:57.3, a track record for a mile and a half. Meadow Road also won the other leg, at a mile, in 1:54.2 in his only two Meadowlands starts. Both resulted in track records. The 1985 edition of the Statue of Liberty was the first of five held at The Meadowlands.

June 13, 1986 – HOY Forrest Skipper time trials in an all-time Meadowlands best for time trials, 1:50.3.

June 14, 1956 – Trevor Ritchie is born. He holds the unique distinction of being either first or second in consecutive years in the same major stake, the North America Cup, by a nose, with winner Quite A Sensation (1986) and Frugal Gourmet second to Jate Lobell (1987).

RETIRE
RETRAIN
phsap.org 518-669-2715

June 15, 1944 – Doug Arthur born. The man who brought us CAM FELLA turns 80 this year.

June 15, 1988 – Matt's Scooter steps onto the track for the first time in as a 2-year-old in 1987 and pays $48.60 for Harold Stead.

MUSCLE HILL AND SECRETARIAT

Some consider these two possibly the best of each breed. Both were champion 2-year-olds and both were syndicated for $6 million before ever taking step onto the track at age 3. Oh, and both ended their careers at 3 at Woodbine in Canada.

BROTHER, CAN YOU SPARE A DIME?

Here's a look at my Top 10 Hambletonian finalists of the past two decades who did not get a dime in the final.

10. Rebuff, sixth in 2022
9. Venerate, eighth in 2021
8. Hot Shot Blue Chip, 10th in 2008
7. Pampered Princess, sixth in 2007
6. Tom Ridge, eighth in 2004
5. Uncle Peter, eighth in 2012
4. Creatine, eighth in 2013
3. Father Patrick, 11th in 2014
2. What The Hill, ninth in 2017 via DQ
1. Mr Muscleman, from the first crop of Muscles Yankee, failed to cash in 2003 but went on to earn over $3.5 million career.

NJSS ON THE RISE

The New Jersey Sire Stakes seems to be rebounding in a big way. Karl is a walking advertisement for it. There used to be a day when NJSS stars automatically did the same on the Grand Circuit.

- In 2010 Rock N Roll Heaven started his HOY season and captured the final in a snappy 1:48.3. His sire Rocknroll Hanover made over $1.1 million in New Jersey alone in 2005, his HOY season.
- Muscle Hill's only career loss came in a 2YO NJSS event, otherwise he too would have banked better than seven figures just in the Garden State in 2009.
- Rainbow Blue's only 2YO loss came in a NJSS also in 2003.
- No Pan Intended wasn't a dominant force during the 2003 NJSS season but represented N.J. well as not only the HOY, but the only Triple Crown/Breeders Crown winner ever!
- Cam's Card Shark in 1994 and Presidential Ball the year prior were forces of nature in the regional program, as was Precious Bunny in 1991. All three of those for the Bill Robinson stable.
- Let's not forget Peace Corps in 1989 and Malabar Man in 1996-97.

You can plainly see the profound influence the Garden State has had recently and what it seems on the edge of recapturing.

Down a racing rabbit hole, Part 2

Eden Valley movie review.

by Trey Nosrac

One morning, I woke up and decided to make a movie set in the lowest level of professional baseball. The film project took 14 months of joyful toil, from sketching a rough outline through a long, grueling summer with a baseball team to opening night in front of a live audience.

The film Touching Home was very much a DIY project. The budget was microscopic, and my experience making films was less than microscopic. As you may imagine, the film was not A Field of Dreams, with Kevin Costner, or The Natural, with Robert Redford, but every day was a learning experience.

I learned that making a film is challenging and, like many things, much more complicated than it appears. Each finished movie, from a microbudget indie film to a Star Wars sequel, is a minor miracle.

Eden Valley is one of those miracles.

Recommending this gritty, low-budget movie is tricky business. My thumb is up, especially for harness racing enthusiasts, an introduction to a distant corner of the sport that few know exists or ever existed. This film is far from a mainstream production. Prepare yourself for low-budget filmmaking. Fortunately, a trailer here allows you to see what you are getting into.

After watching the trailer, much to my surprise and delight, I discovered that a tab on the top right allowed me to rent the entire film for 48 hours for a mere $5, much less than the price of my popcorn at a screening of Willy Wonka. Finding a 30-year-old foreign harness racing film available for rental was a happy and rare occurrence.

Let's classify Eden Valley as a docudrama, one of the more obscure genres of film. In a docudrama, the filmmakers create a working script with real locations, local people as performers, and actors free to go off-script. Often, the production of films such as this can veer into uncharted waters.

A basic synopsis for Eden Valley: Set in the 1980s in northeast England, a young inner-city street punk can avoid prison by living with his father in a rural section of the country. The kid has not seen his father for 10 years. The father is a weather-beaten harness horse trainer who walked out on his wife and young son to live an alternative lifestyle. He resides in a cramped trailer on a hardscrabble horse farm. The father and son collide but develop a cautious relationship based on a mutual affinity for horses.

Eden Valley is not always a pretty picture. I was reminded of Appalachia in America, sometimes beautiful, sometimes brutal. Should you decide to visit via this movie, prepare yourself for human failure, profanity, live castration of a horse, cheating and swindling in racing, drinking, and a local dialect that screams for subtitles. The small budget fill shows harness racing at its most rudimentary level.

The movie's pace will feel glacial for those used to watching the last 235 Marvel Movies or Mission Impossible 14. The racing scenes are intense, and yes, spoiler alert, a "big race" on which the plot hinges, a scene that seems mandatory for any horse racing movie, does occur, but the ending is complicated.

The bucolic pastoral scenes and the majesty of watching horses contrast with the ultra-gritty real world of those living in this area. Amber Films, a cooperative responsible for this movie, purchased a racehorse, lived at the locations, cast local harness racing participants in roles, and showed viewers glimpses of the various steps in training and racing racehorses.

From conception to completion, the whole film project of Eden Valley reminds me of our sport; small, hardy, interesting groups struggling against the odds. With a few clicks on your iPad and $5, the box office is open. Put your feet up and grab your popcorn. Visit an unknown corner of our sport.

Hooker Berry back as a winner, sets stakes record in France

by Thomas Hedlund

He's one of the best "H-horses" in France, but hadn't won a race since the big victory in the 2023 Prix d'Amérique. Hooker Berry (Booster Winner), trained by Frank Leblanc and driven by Nicolas Bazire claimed the $1250,000 Prix Chambon P at Vincennes in a new stakes record on Saturday (June 8) afternoon. The mile rate over 2,850 meters was 1:54.4.

Hooker Berry was served a nice cover trip in second over and showed great speed and form when Bazire attacked at the stretch.

Replay here.

First over trotter Hokkaido Jiel (runner up in the Prix d'Amérique this year) got the bronze medal when Elvis du Vallon finished strongly in second.

Vincennes played host to four half-classic races and when the 5-year-olds faced off in the $125,000 Prix Jean le Gonidec, the entertainment landed at a high level. Winner Jamin de Brion (Charly du Noyer) was served a ground saving trip in third on the inside by trainer and driver Matthieu Abrivard, but it looked like the win was quite far away when the field turned for home. Leader Jasper des Charmes went off-stride at the top of the stretch and Matthieu Abrivard found a path between horses, inside of attacking opponents and the speed was enough for claiming the win in a mile rate of 1:53.3 over 1.3 miles.

Replay here.

William Bigeon's Kana de Beylev was the first choice when 4-year-old mares battled in the $125,000 Prix Guy le Gonidec over 2,700 meters and for a long time it looked like the dominating lady in the crop could win, but the first over trip cost her some power as it turned out in the end of the race.

Kana de Beylev fought bravely, but couldn't defend herself when Kelle Beaute (Uniclove) finished strongly from third and second over. Alexandre Abrivard drove Laurent-Claude Abrivard's mare who claimed her biggest victory so far in her 17th career start in a mile rate of 1:55.3 over 1.6 miles.

Replay here.

Upset specialist Krack Time Atout (Face Time Bourbon) entered the $125,000 Prix Jules Thibault as one of many horses with a great chance of winning and Sébastien Guarato's 4-year-old continued to show that he really is a horse that belongs among the very best in the French "K-crop."

Krack Time Atout delivered a big upset in the Criterium des 3 Ans last year and followed up with another upset in the Prix Ourasi in January this year. So, the bettors seem to have learned the lesson when it comes to Krack Time Atout.

In Saturday's event Paul Philippe Ploquin had to settle in fifth over before the three wide attack was set in with three-quarters-of-a-mile remaining in the 2,700 meters long race. Ploquin drove a perfect race as he let attacking King Opera pass him by before the last turn, so Krack Time Atout could rest with great cover in second over throughout the last turn.

King Opera put hard pressure on leading favorite Koctel du Dain and seemed to have some advantage before Krack Time Atout was given the full order of attack at the stretch. And it was an outstanding Krack Time Atout that flew to win in a mile rate of 1:54.4 over 1.6 miles.

Replay here.

HAIL MARY DEFENDED THE TITLE IN ÖSTERSUND

Daniel Redén trained Hail Mary (Googoo Gaagaa) proved best in Saturday's (June 8) $115,000 Jämtlands Stora Pris and Örjan Kihlström did everything right in the bike.

Mellby Jinx came to the lead and Hustle Rain connected on the outside as the field formed after a quarter of a mile. That meant that Hail Mary could save power in second over, but at the same time there was a bit of great tactics from Daniel Wäjersten and Magnus A Djuse in front. The pace was relatively slow for this kind of race and Hail Mary tried one attack on the backstretch, which ended with hesitation on Kihlström's part, so he went back to the back of Hustle Rain and stayed there until the top of the stretch. Then the race was more or less over. Hail Mary sprinted to an easy win, for the second year in a row, and the 8-year-old Googoo Gaagaa son came home in a mile rate of 1:55 over 1.3 miles.

Hustle Rain was a brave runner up and leader Mellby Jinx held to third place.

One for the other hand. John Campbell with the Pepsi North America Cup in 1999 after winning his sixth title in nine years.

AN ONGOING CONVERSATION WITH JOHN CAMPBELL

by DAVE BRIGGS

Remembering all six of Campbell's Pepsi North America Cup victories

The Hall of Fame driver – and the reinsman with the most NA Cup victories to his credit – recounts all six of his triumphs in just a nine-year span in the 1990s.

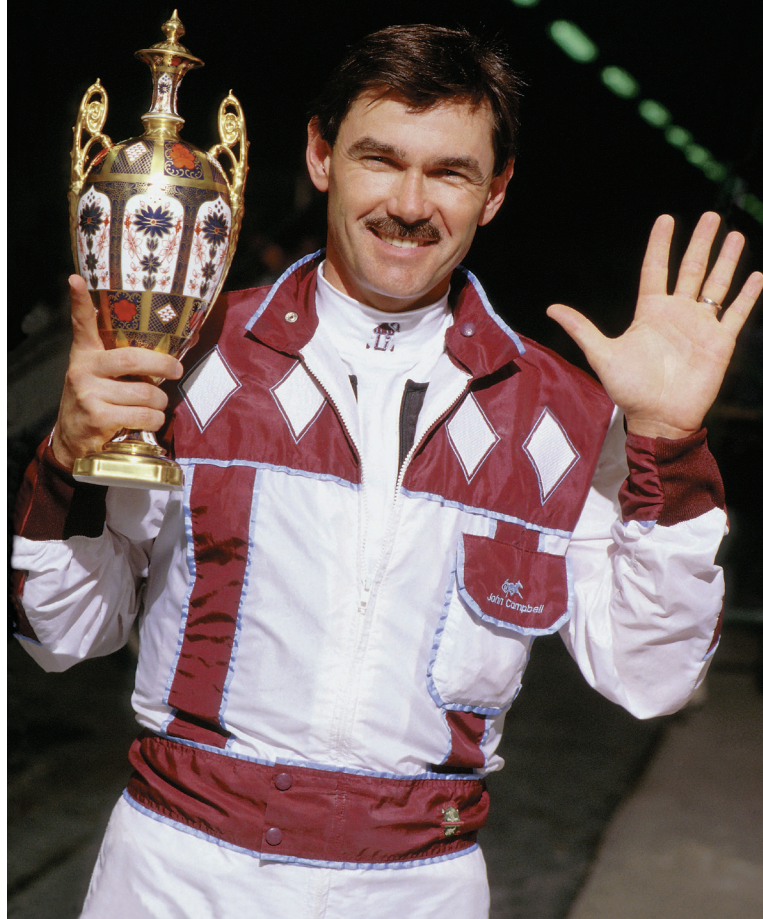

by Dave Briggs

John Campbell still holds the record for the most Pepsi North America Cup victories by a driver with six. Even more impressive is the fact he won all six in a nine-year period in the 1990s that included four straight wins from 1994 through 1997.

"I did have some unbelievable horses in it, for sure," he said. "And I had some unbelievable good fortune in it as well, there's no

“ I did have some unbelievable horses in [the Pepsi North America Cup], for sure. And I had some unbelievable good fortune in it as well, there's no question. It just all fell together there during that time period. If you're going to have good luck in a race, it may as well be in a million-dollar one. ” question. It just all fell together there during that time period. "If you're going to have good luck in a race, it may as well be in a million-dollar one."

The streak began in 1991 at Greenwood with Precious Bunny (replay here).

"I had driven him bad in his previous race, in the Jersey Classic," Campbell said. "I just got him in a bad spot, then a horse made a break in front of him and he came charging to be second. I was certainly upset with myself for that race and looking to make amends in the next stake that came up.

"He drew well, drew inside the competition. I had all the confidence in the world and he was so handy at the gate. I just went to the front. Die Laughing was parked and I just left him out there and I got a pretty good breather the middle three-eighths of the race and it was pretty well all over by then."

Campbell's second NA Cup win came in 1994, the first year harness racing was held at Woodbine Racetrack. He drove Cams Card Shark to victory (replay here).

"[Cams Card Shark] was dominant there for a period of time," Campbell said. "He actually got beat in his elimination, if I remember correctly, so there was a little bit of doubt there. I sat in the 2-hole in behind Pacific Rocket and I raced him a little more conservative than I did sometimes, just because he hadn't raced that well in the elimination, and maybe even the

“ Tony Kerwood was driving Stout. Tony got trapped down at the rail and it was a screwed up race. The outer tier was out there and it stalled and I went three-wide really early with [Arizona Jack] and made the front and Tony never shook loose until late and, believe me, that ‘nose’ was diminishing every half stride at the wire. It was one of those things – it was a screwed up race and we were lucky to win it, just because Tony had bad luck. ”

~ John Campbell

Burlington. So, I was a little apprehensive about how much I could use him, but he ended up getting a great trip. He sat right in the 2-hole until the head of the stretch and, when I moved him, he won easily.”

In 1995, Campbell won the NA Cup with Dauids Pass (replay here), a horse notable for also winning the Meadowlands Pace.

“Dauids Pass, his star shone for a brief time and that time was North America Cup and Meadowlands Pace,” Campbell said. “He was a horse that needed a really good trip. He wouldn’t overcome bad luck and he got perfect trips in both races. It worked out well and I was able to follow cover right through until the head of the stretch.

“He always gave you a good run as long as you didn’t use him the first part of the mile. Fortunately, for him and me, the trips worked out great both in the Meadowlands Pace and North America Cup. He really wasn’t heard from too much after that.”

A year later, Campbell posted a 12-1 NA Cup upset with Arizona Jack (replay here) by a nose hair over Stout at Woodbine the first year the race was held in the afternoon.

“I had a big favorite in one of the other eliminations and I didn’t have anything in Arizona Jack’s elimination and it was Billy Fahy’s drive,” Campbell said. “Billy wanted to stay at The Meadowlands. Gary Machiz trained [Arizona Jack] and asked if I’d just go with him in the elimination. They assumed that whatever horse I had would get into the final and then Billy would come up and race him in the final. I said, ‘Fine.’

“Well, mine didn’t make the final and Arizona Jack did, so they discussed it amongst themselves and said, ‘You go with him in the final.’ So, I drove him. It was an afternoon race and the wind was blowing 35 miles an hour. I said to Gary, ‘This is going to be a screwed up race because of the wind. I just hope we’re on the right side of it.’ And, we were.

“Tony Kerwood was driving Stout. Tony got trapped down at the rail and it was a screwed up race. The outer tier was out there and it stalled and I went three-wide really early with [Arizona Jack] and made the front and Tony never shook loose until late and, believe me, that ‘nose’ was diminishing every half stride at the wire. It was one of those things – it was a screwed up race and we were lucky to win it, just because Tony had bad luck.”

In 1997, the last of Campbell’s four straight NA Cup wins, he drove Gothic Dream to victory at Woodbine (replay here) for the Ontario team of trainer Jack Darling and his co-owner Dan Smith.

“I had driven quite a bit for Jack at that time, so that was special, just because Jack and I came from the same part of [Ontario],” Campbell said. “We’d had some success prior to that, but when you make it to North America Cup, it doesn’t get any higher than that.

“[Gothic Dream] was one of the favorites going into the race and he was in good form. He was better off a trip and he got a good trip. Once I showed him daylight into the stretch, he paced home and won it kind of easily.”

Two years later, Campbell won his final NA Cup when The Panderosa took the 1999 edition at Woodbine for trainer Brett Pelling (replay here).

“[The Panderosa] was just dominant at that time,” Campbell said. “Brett Pelling had brought him back and he had come back super good. We were prepping him for that race and, obviously, the other ones after that, but we knew he was really on his toes and good going into that race. I had all kinds of confidence... I just kept him out of trouble and I didn’t have to do much else.”

That Campbell never won another Cup is strange. He thought one, in particular, got away – and it was a horse that, notably, was sired by The Panderosa.

“Going around the last turn with Dapper Dude [in 2012 at Mohawk], I thought he had a really good chance of winning,” he said. “He got outkicked by Thinking Out Loud and finished third [ahead of Sweet Lou]... Around that last turn, I was licking my chops with Dapper Dude and I thought he had a really good chance to win. He raced well, he just got beat.”

As for his string of great luck in the 1990s, he said it was something of a coincidence.

“It was just having the right horses and the right luck through that time frame,” he said. “I’ve got to tell you, around that time, I looked forward to the North America Cup every year.”

PICKING ELITLOPPET WINNER HORSY DREAM

During last week’s Elitloppet trip to Sweden, Campbell correctly picked the eventual winner, Horsy Dream, on the broadcast.

At dinner on the Friday before the big race, Campbell was seated next to one of Horsy Dream’s owners. “We chatted throughout the evening and then I saw him Saturday and Sunday on a number of occasions and he wanted me to come down and take a look at his horse, which I did,” Campbell said. “So, it was kind of a connection there and it was an easy pick for me. Then, when I saw [Horsy Dream] in the elimination, he was so impressive in his heat and looked really strong. I was very impressed with him from an athletic standpoint, looking at him, too.”

Horsy Dream set a 1:49.2 European record in his second and deciding heat of the day.

“He did that with the ear plugs in,” Campbell said. “He wasn’t extended all out, either. The French have so many good horses. The horse that everybody thought was their best horse [Idao de Tillard] didn’t qualify for the final and they went 1-2-3 in one elimination and won the other elimination and the final, it just shows how strong the French breed is now.”

As for other takeaways from this year’s Elitloppet, Campbell said the depth of quality horses racing on Saturday and Sunday and the variety of the races, particularly in terms of different distances.

“Something you take away every year is that they have so much variation in distances, the different starts, the different handicaps for horses at the start – behind the gate they are handicapped or if they are going from the circle start, they have to start a certain distance behind,” he said. “There are just more variables that are put into play for the betting public and it’s unfortunate that we’ve missed the boat on that over the last 30 or 40 years.

“I think we made a mistake not continuing on with distance races that, you know, some of our bigger races had back in the ‘60s or ‘70s.

“You look at [Swedish racing with] envy that they have all those variables. Then, they have the monté racing, which is so popular. We took a stab at that and it just wasn’t followed through with enough or didn’t catch on enough or whatever. We just can’t seem to get away from what we always do and I think that’s to the detriment of long term.”

Goodtimes and Roses Are Red eliminations held at Mohawk Park

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Elimination weekend at Woodbine Mohawk Park kicked off Friday (June 7) with splits for the Goodtimes and Roses Are Red.

A pair of eliminations were required for both events, with the Goodtimes for 3-year-old trotters battling for $30,000 an elimination and the Roses Are Red for pacing mares at $35,000 apiece.

Top Mast powered up to win a three-horse photo in the first Goodtimes elimination.

Driven by Sylvain Filion for Desiree Jones, Top Mast showed early speed and would sit third throughout. Shermont made the lead at the quarter, posting clips of :27.3, :56 and 1:24.3. Pick Pocket sat right behind for a 2-hole trip.

In the stretch, the three leaders would square off right down to the wire, with Top Mast reaching up to win by a head over Pick Pocket and a neck over Shermont in 1:53.4.

Goober Smack finished fourth, while Finite was fifth to make the final.

“I [thought] I’m just going to stay here [in third] and see what happens,” said Filion about the trip. “Eventually it worked out for us. It goes to say you need luck to win big races. I knew the two front horses were battling hard and I was just staying covered up as long as I could and when I moved him and pulled the plugs he went on.”

Top Mast is now one-for-two to launch his 3-year-old season for owner Gino Toscani. The son of Walner won three of 10 starts at age 2, banking over $150,000. The victory of 1:53.4 was a new lifetime best.

Top Mast returned $16.90 to win.

The much-hyped Highland Kismet lived up the noise by scoring a comfortable 1:54 win in the second Goodtimes elimination.

Driver Bob McClure took his time with Highland Kismet in a short field by getting away fifth and making a first-up march around the far turn. The heavy-favorite got up to leader Winter Soldier at the head of the lane and trotted away for the victory.

Private Access followed the winner with a good kicker to finish second, beat a length and three-quarters. Winter Soldier settled for third, while Griff and Myretirementdream completed the top five.

Trained by Mark Etsell, Highland Kismet is now three-for-four to begin his career and has impressed many.

“This horse can give you a lot of confidence,” said McClure. “When I moved him over tonight it was just hang on and go. He puts his head down and takes off on you. He wants to win. He wants to chase them down.”

A son of Father Patrick, Highland Kismet is a homebred for Highland Thoroughbred Farm and has now made $37,000. He paid $3.30 to win.

Winners Top Mast and Highland Kismet secured a post position anywhere from 2 to 6 by winning their respective eliminations. Below is the draw for next Saturday’s (June 15) $225,000 Goodtimes final.

1. Pick Pocket
2. Finite

Twin B Joe Fresh kicked off the Roses Are Red eliminations with a blowout victory for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Chris Ryder.

Making her third start as a 4-year-old, Twin B Joe Fresh got away fourth and was on the move early in the second-quarter. Prohibition Legal moved from third and was stretched a bit by Grace Hill to the half in :54.3.

Twin B Joe Fresh wasted little time overtaking the new leader entering the far turn and opened up a few lengths of separation at three-quarters in 1:21.4.

The stretch drive saw a wrapped-up Twin B Joe Fresh cruise to a 4¼-length triumph in 1:50.4.

So Much More stayed to the rail after getting away seventh and finished second. Tells On A Roll rallied from sixth to finish third. Valar Dohaeris and Grace Hill got through some traffic to round out the top five, as Prohibition Legal came to a walk and backed up to finish outside the final.

A daughter of Roll With Joe, Twin B Joe Fresh has returned in fine form to begin taking on older foes.

“She’s so relaxed you can do anything you want with her,” said Dunn. “When I saw 1:21.4 pop up I was sort of trying to make sure I didn’t get up the home straight too quick on her. She was doing it really good and I’m really pleased with her.”

Dunn shares ownership of Twin B Joe Fresh with Ryder, Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak. She’s now a 21-time winner and has made over $1.5 million in her outstanding career.

Twin B Joe Fresh paid $2.10 to win.

Always B Naughty made a loud statement in the second elimination, posting a 1:49.3 front-end score.

Driven by Louis-Philippe Roy, Always B Naughty surged out and would keep Silver Label to the outside through a wicked :25.3 opening-quarter. Silver Label took back into second and followed Always B Naughty through fractions of :54.3 and 1:22.2.

In the stretch, Always B Naughty closed things out with a powerful :27.1 kicker to win by a length and three-quarters. Sylvia Hanover came first-up to finish second, while Kobes Gigi, Talk Curdy To Me and Silver Label completed the top-five.

Trained by Nancy Takter, Always B Naughty was just one-for-five this season entering Friday, but had finished second in her last two starts.

“Nancy texted me earlier today and said she’s a pretty honest mare and you can use her a couple times as long as you get her a breather at some point,” said Roy. “I knew with the short field, once we were going to get into position anyone was going to risk their spot in the elim by trying to move.”

A 4-year-old daughter of Always B Miki, Always B Naughty is now an 11-time winner with nearly $550,000 earned for owners Let It Ride Stable, Odds On Racing, R B H Ventures and Takter.

Always B Naughty paid $7.20 to win.

Elimination winners again earned a starting spot from post 2 through 6 with their victories.

Below is the draw for the $305,000 Roses Are Red final on June 15.

1. Talk Curdy To Me
 2. Silver Label
 3. Always B Naughty
 4. Twin B Joe Fresh

Field set for 41st Pepsi North America Cup

Captains Quarters, Funtime Bayama and Nijinsky were all elimination winners on Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Captains Quarters, Funtime Bayama and Nijinsky captured Saturday night's (June 8) Pepsi North America Cup eliminations at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A total of three $50,000 eliminations were contested on a rainy evening in Campbellville. The top-three finishers from each split punched their ticket to next Saturday's (June 15) $1 million final.

Metro Pace winner Captains Quarters converted off a perfect second-over trip to win the first elimination in 1:49.1 for driver Jody Jamieson and trainer Herb Holland.

The opening stages saw Gem Quality shoot out to grab command, posting fractions of :26.1, :54.1 and 1:21.4. Race favorite Captain Albano moved out from third to come first up on the far turn, while Captains Quarters followed out from fourth.

In the stretch, Captains Quarters powered by Captain Albano in the final eighth to win by a length. Ivy Park finished third to grab a spot in the Cup final, while Janelle Granny finished strong for fourth.

A son of Captaintreacherous out of Prescient Beauty, Captains Quarters was back on his top game Saturday after a second-place finish in last week's Somebeachsomewhere Stakes.

"I think we knew last week that the horse wasn't the Captains

Quarters that we know," said Jamieson. "I expected a bigger effort. Last week's effort was pretty monstrous, but all things considered, he was bound to be better, and he showed it there tonight.

"I was able to slide into a slot where I could just wait a long time. We were stepping right along. And, you know, he's a great horse. And, what else can you say about a great horse? They just do great things."

The well-managed Captains Quarters now has two wins in three starts this season and four in eight starts overall for his career. He's now earned $582,154 for owner Rich Stiles.

A $2 win ticket on Captains Quarters paid $5.

Funtime Bayama edged Legendary Hanover in 1:50.1 to take the second Cup elimination.

Driven by Sylvain Filion, Funtime Bayama went forward as expected and got command at a :26.2 opening-quarter. Legendary Hanover quickly moved out from third and rushed to the lead in the second-quarter, posting clips of :55.3 and 1:23.1.

In the stretch, Funtime Bayama angled out to set up a stretch duel with Legendary Hanover, ultimately getting up on even terms in deep stretch and reaching up to win by a head.

Captain Luke was able to beat out Mirage Hanover for third.

Trained by Richard Moreau, Funtime Bayama improved his seasonal record to four wins from five starts and career record to eight wins in 12 starts for Bayama Farms.

"I was hoping to get covered up, which did happen, and I was pleased with the way he was relaxed," said Filion. "He's used to racing on the front, but he was pretty good in the hole, sitting good. And he came out of it pretty good when I moved him. I was real pleased with him."

Funtime Bayama (Sylvain Filion) edged Legendary Hanover in 1:50.1 to take the second Cup elimination.

The third and final elimination saw Nijinsky (Louis-Philippe Roy) continue his winning ways.

“He means so much to all our family, to all the Filion family. They’re all cheering for him. It’s just an amazing thing right now.”

A gelded son of Hes Watching out of Tymal Sugrbabydoll, Funtime Bayama has now made over $400,000. He paid $4 to win.

The third and final elimination saw Nijinsky continue his winning ways for driver Louis-Philippe Roy and trainer Anthony Beaton.

Total Stranger kicked things off with a wicked :25.4 opening-quarter. The leader backed things down to the half in :55 before stepping it up for a 1:22.1 three-quarter clocking.

Its Saturday Night came first up at the leader, while Nijinsky was out early from fifth looking for that cover and would eventually sit on that rivals back in a striking spot.

In the stretch, Nijinsky shot off cover and paced strong to a 1:50.2 victory. Storm Shadow hugged the rail throughout in fourth and fired up the inside to a second-place finish.

Total Stranger was able to win a battle for third over Its Saturday Night.

A son of Bettors Delight out of Pirouette Hanover, Nijinsky is now undefeated in four starts this season after winning just once in 10 starts last year.

“I thought I actually could get the cover on Storm Shadow, letting him in in front of me there, but we were forced pretty early on the backside to move and Storm Shadow elected to stay in,” said Roy. “I kind of grinded a little slower, and finally got Dexter to go first up. It helped get a little break for my horse there.

“He sprinted again the last sixteenth there. So, I was really happy with him.”

Nijinsky has now made over $200,00 for owners West Wins Stable, John Fielding and Mark Dumain. He paid $2.50 to win.

Following the eliminations, a draw was held to determine the fourth-place finisher that secured the 10th and final spot in next Saturday’s rich final. Janelle Granny for trainer Ron MacDonald won the draw and will compete in the final.

The Pepsi North America Cup elimination winners all secured a starting spot in the final anywhere from post 2 through 6. The draw will take place on Tuesday (June 11) at noon during a special press conference and luncheon.

The $1 million Pepsi North America Cup is the main event on next Saturday’s (June 15) marquee night at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Post time is 6:30 p.m.

Fan Hanover and Armbro Flight eliminations in the books

by Grace Martin / Woodbine communications

The finals for next Saturday's (June 15) Fan Hanover Stakes and Armbro Flight were determined Saturday night (June 8) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A pair of eliminations were required for both events, with 3-year-old pacing fillies clashing in the Fan Hanover and older trotting mares meeting in the Armbro Flight.

My Girl Ej handed Geocentric just her second loss in the first $35,000 Fan Hanover split.

Driven by Dexter Dunn, My Girl Ej got the lead exiting the first turn before being covered up heading to the half. The Ron Burke trainee angled out going to three-quarters, grabbed the lead and would go the rest of the way.

Geocentric sat fourth throughout and was put down to the drive in the lane, working up at the leader, but ultimately coming up a head short in 1:50.1.

Pass Line, Flawless and Reigning Jade rounded out the top-five.

A daughter of Sweet Lou, My Girl Ej picked up her first win of the season in her second outing. She posted five wins in 13 starts last year, including a victory in the Breeders Crown.

"She was wandering a little when she got by herself," said Dunn of My Girl Ej entering the stretch. "But then when she heard [Geocentric] coming she took off again. She's a game little filly."

My Girl Ej is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi, Elizabeth Novak and Mitchell Friesen. She paid $11.20 to win.

The second Fan Hanover elimination saw Canigetalooploup ride the rail from last to a 1:51.1 upset victory for Dunn and Burke.

Its A Love Thing rallied from overland at the head of the lane and looked to have a victory in sights. However, the rail opened up for Canigetalooploup to fire through and pull off a 28-1 upset win by a length and three-quarters.

"I mean, there was a lot of speed early... we got away last, and there was lots of action," said Dunn. "We were just sort of sitting back there, and we did a bit of ducking and diving and weaving, and she sprinted up the lane pretty good."

Odds On Platinum, Pass And Stow and Caviart Belle completed the top five to advance.

Call Me Goo (Tim Tetrick) winning the second Armbro Flight elimination.

Canigetalouploup is now two for three this season and five for 18 overall. She's earned over $170,000 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Lawrence Karr, Phillip Collura and Weaver Brusceci.

A $2 win ticket on Canigetalouploup paid $59.90.

The draw for the $425,000 Fan Hanover final took place following the eliminations. Elimination winners secured a post from 2 to 6.

1. Its A Love Thing
2. Pass And Stow
3. Canigetalouploup
4. Reigning Jade
5. Geocentric
6. My Girl Ej
7. Pass Line
8. Odds On Platinum
9. Caviart Belle
10. Flawless

The Armbro Flight for older trotting mares saw a pair of small field eliminations held.

M-Ms Dream took care of business in the first $35,000 elimination for driver David Miller and trainer Ron Burke. The five-year-old took the top spot in the second-quarter and trotted home to a 1:52.4 score, improving to a perfect four-for-four this season.

"She's pretty steady, pretty consistent," Miller said after the race. "I mean, she does some pretty amazing things."

M-Ms Dream is now a 29-time winner for her career with over $1.5 million in earnings for Eleven Star Stables, Frank Baldachino and Hillside Stables.

Tipsy Moni, Hp Mama B, Rose Run Yolanda and Adare Castle completed the top-five.

M-Ms Dream paid $2.90 to win.

Call Me Goo moved to the lead in the second-quarter and went on to a 1:53.3 win in the second elimination. Tim Tetrick guided the Jason Skinner trainee to her third win in four starts this year.

A 4-year-old daughter of Googoo Gaagaa, Call Me Goo is a 19-time career winner with over $500,000 earned for owners Graham Grace Stables.

Call Me Goo paid $3.60 to win.

The draw for the $233,000 Armbro Flight final took place following the eliminations. Elimination winners secured a post from 2 to 6.

1. Rose Run Yolanda
2. Tactical Mounds
3. Chake
4. Refined
5. Call Me Goo
6. M-Ms Dream
7. Adare Castle

Allegiant goes 1:52.3 in fastest Currier & Ives ever at The Meadows

Allegiant blazed the back half in :55.2 en route to victory in a stakes-record 1:52.3 in Friday's (June 7) $52,355 Currier & Ives for 3-year-old filly trotters at The Meadows. The time is the fastest of any winner – regardless of gender – in the 50-year history of the prestigious stake.

Allegiant took the field through the opening half in :57.1, but when the 4-5 favorite Pizzelle launched a challenge from third, Allegiant found another gear, with no urging from winning driver Hunter Myers.

"I gave her a few taps down the stretch just to keep her attention, but the whole mile was 100 per cent her," Myers said. "We finished with her ear plugs still in. She has tons of upward potential."

The daughter of Tactical Landing—Too Good For You defeated the pocket-sitting Tactical Lori by 3 lengths, with Pizzelle third.

Allegiant, a Hambletonian Oaks eligible, is heavily staked this season, so her eye-popping performance was a relief to trainer Vernon Beachy after a slow start to her sophomore campaign which saw her lose three straight New Jersey Sire Stakes.

"She had bad luck in Jersey, and the competition was tough," Beachy says of his $50,000 yearling acquisition. "Last trip she got locked in. Probably her next start is the Moni Maker at Scioto."

Allegiant now has banked $343,392 for owner Ryan Smith.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and trainer Ron Burke each enjoyed a four-bagger on the 13-race card, giving them nine and eight wins, respectively, over the last two programs.

Odds On Sara Sara takes McCoy final at Scioto Downs

Eldorado Scioto Downs held its last final of the mini-series for Ohio sired non-winners of one on Friday (June 7). Odds On Sara Sara and Sam Widger took the $30,000 Steve McCoy, for 3-5 year old filly pacers, in 1:55.

Leaving from post 7, stablemate Seaside Party (Brett Miller) crossed over quickly to take the lead and took the field to the :27.3 opening quarter. Race favorite John's Shadow (Beau Brown) pulled midway through the first turn and took over through fractions of :56.3 and 1:25.4. Meanwhile, Odds On Sara Sara got away in the middle of the pack, pulled down the backstretch to be third over and followed the three-wide cover of Bella Rain (Dan Noble) through the last turn.

It was a cavalry charge to the finish with Odds On Sara Sara on the far outside winning by a quarter length over Jumpstyle Hanover (Chris Page) who split Seaside Party, who got the pocket trip to finish third, and John's Shadow who was fourth.

Odds On Sara Sara is by Racing Hill out of the Bettor's Delight mare Keystone Paula. Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains the filly, who now has $27,870 in lifetime earnings in eight starts, for Odds On Racing.

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Thursday (July 4) with a post of 3:15 p.m. and Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Periculum wins again at Big M

Periculum is a Latin word that means danger, risk or peril, and lately, the horse with the same name has been creating that kind of chaos for his opponents at The Meadowlands, as the Marcus Melander trainee won the Friday night (June 7) feature, an $18,000 high-end conditioned trot.

The 5-year-old son of Muscle Hill—Amour Heiress usually does his best work from off the pace, but that's not the way it went this time.

Seeking a third win in four seasonal tries, Periculum was away well from post 6 in the seven-horse field as Purple Lord had the lead out of the first turn and made it to the quarter in :27.2.

Driver Mattias Melander, Marcus' brother, kept on going with Periculum while parked until they made it to the point just after the three-eighths. They raced past the half on an easy lead in :55.4, and when the pocket-sitting Purple Lord went off-stride midway around the far turn, Periculum was left with a 2¾-length advantage at three-quarters in 1:24.1.

From there, the only thing in question was how much the lifetime earner of $484,833 would win by, and he completed the mile in 1:51.3, 6¼ lengths ahead of second-place finisher Outside The Fire. Nelsonbriteagle NO was flying late for third in an effort that handicappers will no doubt take note of.

"It was a very good effort," said Marcus of Periculum. "Especially doing it on the front. He's usually best when he follows someone. But he's been doing everything right so far this year except when he made that break in the Cutler. Next for him will probably be the Crawford Farms Trot in about three weeks. Maybe he'll go in one overnight in between."

Owned by Brixton Medical Inc and Holly Lane Stud East LTD, Periculum won for the eighth time from 37 lifetime starts. He returned $2.80 to his backers as the 2-5 favorite.

A LITTLE MORE: Andy McCarthy, Andy Miller and Dave Miller ended the night tied atop the driver leaderboard with two winners apiece. Michael Carter was the winner on Night 2 of the track's Battle of The Meadowlands Masterminds handicapping contest. Carter was the only handicapper of the five (which includes Jessica Otten, Dave Little, Ken Warkentin and Gabe Prewitt) to cash a ticket, ending the night with $210.00. All-source wagering totaled $2,940,142 on the 14-race program.

Breakfast with the Babies begins

Breakfast with the Babies, 2024 edition, graciously sponsored by Jules Siegel's Fashion Farms, got underway on a perfect Saturday morning (June 8). The sky was clear, temperatures in the 70's and track fast.

Headlining today's bill was the usual array of expensive young talent along with several representatives of the hotly anticipated first crop of Tall Dark Stranger, who did not disappoint.

Quite possibly the most impressive performance of Opening Day was by the Captaintreacherous filly Ascendance, who was basically restrained by driver Scott Zeron throughout a remarkable 1:54.4 mile to be a geared down 3-length winner over a willing Ronstadt (Todd McCarthy).

Zeron settled Ascendance into third early in the :30.2 quarter from her outside post, but she was having none of that. Off to the front through fractions of :58.1 and 1:26.3, about as slow as Zeron could get her to go, and she finished in hand.

An imposing bay, Ascendance is from the top race mare and producer Higher And Higher. Trained by Linda Toscano, she was bred by Steve Stewart, Conquest Acres and David Schmucker, Jr. and purchased by Jablonsky Held Stable, Joe Sbrocco, Bill Elliott and In The Gym Partners for $260,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale (LEX).

The curtain raiser was a four trotting colt field with a combined worth of $580,000, should you choose to use their selling price at last fall's yearling auctions as your barometer.

Ake Svanstedt opened up a winner with the Chapter Seven colt Happy Jack B, converting a pocket ride into a comfortable 2:00.2 victory, using a :28.2 final quarter to hold Civilian Drone (Yannick Gingras) at bay by a length.

The winner was a $110,000 (LEX) purchase by B Nasstrom Holding Inc, Wolfgang A Stable Inc, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing and was bred by Winbak Farms.

Goodgirl Bi (Mattias Melander) inherited the lead by three-quarters when the leader self-destructed then took the second race over a fast-closing Time For Landing (Andy McCarthy) in 1:59.4.

Champagne Problems (Gingras) showed promise despite wandering then going off-stride while cutting the mile and Beautiful Sight (Svanstedt) also impressed after a break just after the start.

Goodgirl Bi is from the second crop of Greenshoe, bred in Italy by Az Agricola Biasuzzi and owned by Courant, INC. Marcus Melander trains.

The Walner filly Kendra (Gingras) was powerful this morning, leading all the way in a 1:57 romp, home in :29 with Gingras only calming her through the stretch. Amazon Fashion (Tim Tetrick) was a willing second, inheriting that position when Morning Angel went off-stride late while in pursuit of the winner.

Kendra, bred by Karen Carroll, was a $140,000 Harrisburg (HBG) purchase by Black Horse Racing and Eric Good who entrusted her care to Nancy Takter.

Dexter Dunn arrived in time for race 4 and immediately set to winning, converting a perfect pocket trip into a 1:58.2 career start for the Chapter Seven colt Super Chapter. They followed stablemate Meshuggah (Mattias Melander) from the word go until mid-stretch where Dunn tipped Super Chapter from behind the leader, and he went by very willingly through the :28.4 final panel. Meshuggah held sway for second.

Marcus Melander trains the winner for Jeff Snyder and Arthur Pronti who paid the princely sum of $300,000 (HBG) to secure the colt from Hanover Shoe Farm.

Mr Mouton (Svanstedt) was a very impressive winner this morning, setting all the fractions then powering away from his rivals with a snappy :27.4 end to the 1:57.4 mile under no encouragement from the driver. Blue Cartier (Gingras) followed throughout but proved to be no match on this day.

Another by top sire Chapter Seven, Mr Mouton was bred by Kevin Greenfield and sold for $140,000 (LEX) to Knutsson Trotting, Little E, LLC, Dave Stolz, Art Geiger, and Jorgen Sparredal.

Zeron piloted the Walner filly R Lady W who closed resolutely through the :28.2 end of the 1:57.3 mile to get the win over Royal Mission (Dunn). Conditioned by Toscano, R Lady W was a $290,000 (LEX) buy from breeder Lindy Farms. She races with M&L Of Delaware listed as lessee.

Two exceptionally well-bred Chapter Seven colts went to the wire together in the seventh race, with the bargain priced ($25,000 LEX) Banksy Monkey (Tetrack) clearing through inside a drifting leader, getting the jump on, then holding off the strong close of his $475,000 (LEX) opponent Maryland (Dunn) for the 1:59.1 (:28.2) win.

Lucas Wallin trains and owns the winner in partnership with breeder Order By Stable, who chose to stay in at the shockingly low price on the brother to the great Gimpanzee. Today, it certainly looks as though Lucas made a great buy.

Pink Chou Chou (Dunn) is owned by Crawford Farms Racing and trained by Nancy Takter, and it looks like the girls may have another reason to get new outfits as the Chapter Seven half-sister to the great Manchego followed the leader Credit Worthy (A. McCarthy) until mid-stretch then brushed by that rival through the :28.3 final quarter of the 1:59.1 mile. Credit Worthy held the place.

Pink Chou Chou sold for $225,000 (HBG) and was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms.

Pacers came around in race 9 and we got our first look at the Tall Dark Strangers (TDS).

Realmenwearblu got them off to a flying start with a front running 1:56.3 win, off a half in a minute, last quarter in :28 flat as he pleased over another TDS, Strangerinthenight (A. McCarthy) who was gaining mildly on the wrapped-up winner.

Realmenwearblu physically resembles and hails from several of the same connections as his famous sire. Nancy Takter trained both and owns a share of the winner with Patrick Hoopes, RAW Equine and Rojan Stables and Gingras was along for the ride. Crawford Farms, also a partner on the sire, bred the colt who sold for a sensible $42,000 (LEX) last fall.

Wavemaker (Zeron), another by TDS, was a 1:56.3 winner, asked late to gamely hold off closers on both sides as Oogleville (Jason Bartlett) rallied wide for second while Blue Onyx (Gingras) came through inside for third. This colt, from a Captaintreacherous dam with a classic Brittany maternal pedigree, seemed to resemble that line physically.

The winner was a $300,000 (LEX) purchase with breeder Brittany Farms retaining a piece to join Myron and Stephanie Bell's Riverview Racing, Steve Head and Pryde Stables. Tony Alagna trains.

Another big-ticket Captain filly, Duration (Dunn) rallied from off the pace to sweep by the field for a 1:54.4 (:27.1) win for trainer Tony Alagna. Dunn followed the cover of stablemate Simply Perfect (A. McCarthy) until late in the stretch before sliding over and asking Duration for pace. She responded to get by Simply Perfect who stayed on for second.

The winner was a $200,000 (LEX) buy for Rob Leblanc, Joe Sbrocco, Pryde Stables, INC and JAF Racing. Michael Robinson, Robert Mondillo, Steve Cheatham and Steve Stewart bred her.

Captaintreacherous capped off a big day with a 1:56 winner Captain Optimistic (Gingras) who stormed out of the pocket with a :26.2 close to get the win over the game pacesetter Attaboychet (Anibal Borjas). The winner is another Takter trainee who was a $160,000 (HBG) investment in the future by 3 Brothers Stables, Marvin Katz and Caviart Farms. Fair Winds Farm is the breeder.

A few qualifiers with notable horses making their early appearances followed the 2-year-olds.

Dan Patch Award winning freshman trotting filly of 2023, Soiree Hanover (Tetrack) was a winner at first asking over the 2023 Breeders Crown winner Warrawee Michelle (Svanstedt) in 1:54.4. Both performed as expected, restrained through early stages then finishing well in tandem through a :27 final quarter.

Legends Day confirmed for June 30

Legends Day will celebrate its 12th edition on June 30, 2024.

The jewel event in Clinton Raceway's racing calendar, Legends Day is a biennial event created by the track in 2001 to showcase harness drivers from the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. The spectacle serves as a major fundraiser for the Clinton community.

Since its inception, Legends Day has generated more than $330,000 for the local hospital and schools.

The event will include a full afternoon of harness racing highlighted by the HPIBet Legends Day Trot which is contested by eight Hall of Fame guest drivers: Wally Hennessey, Doug Brown, Steve Condren, Chris Christoforou, Sylvain Fillion, Paul MacDonell, Randy Waples and Carl Jamieson. Additional special guests include: John Campbell, Trevor Ritchie, Dave Wall, Ron Waples and Bill O'Donnell.

The incredible talent of this Hall of Fame lineup is illustrated in their combined statistics – 92,435 winning drives and purse earnings of $1.4 billion.

New this year, the track is partnering with the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame to host an official reunion for inductees of the institution which was created in 1976.

Fans can access the Legends throughout the day in the Hall of Fame Tent and rub shoulders with them at the OLG Chicken BBQ dinner after the races.

The race card will also feature eliminations for the Kin Pace. The Bill Galvin Racing Alliance (BGRA) will be onsite to showcase the Drive To Win virtual reality harness driving experience.

Fundraising for Legends Day is generated through a number of initiatives, including a large online auction, 50/50 draw and sponsorships.

All donations and sponsorships are sent in their entirety directly to the benefitting organization. This year's recipient is the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation.

All sponsors receive acknowledgement on Clinton Raceway's website, race broadcast, and race program.

To participate, please contact Ian Fleming at 519-440-9171 or email ifleming@clintonraceway.com.

Nineteen horses nominated to the 2024 Ron Banks Memorial at Running Aces

The racing office at Running Aces has processed 19 nominations for the 2024 Ron Banks Memorial FFA Mares Pace, which will get underway with $17,500 elimination races on Sunday (June 23) and will culminate with the $35,000 final on Sunday (June 30).

Should all 19 nominees enter the box for the eliminations, there will be three elimination divisions with the top three finishers from each elimination division returning for the final, should 18 horses or less enter the box for the eliminations, there will be just two elimination divisions and the top four from each division as well as the fastest fourth place finisher shall advance to the final.

The list of nominees in alphabetical order are:

1. Ain't She Special
2. Always A Dancer
3. Always Choose Chip
4. Better Double Flip
5. Catch N Kill
6. Crazy Cute
7. Disaronno Hill
8. Divine Art
9. Fox Valley Leah

10. Give Me This Dance
11. Graceful Horizon
12. Illusion Seelster
13. La Rockin Shania
14. Lady Angel
15. Magical Maya A
16. Majors Miracle
17. Premier Delight
18. Racin For Royalty
19. Two Pistol Annie

The Ron Banks Memorial honors the memory of a prominent figure in harness racing in Minnesota and the region. In addition to being an owner, trainer, breeder and announcer in the sport, Banks served on the board for the Minnesota horsemen for many years and was one of the people that worked diligently to bring a pari-mutuel harness track to the state. His efforts, along with many others, eventually led to the opening of Running Aces in 2008. He was inducted into the Minnesota Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2018. Banks passed away in October of 2020 at his home in Cannon Falls, MN, at the age of 73.

T C I, Security Protected PASS repeaters

The three-year-old trotting colts T C I and Security Protected both remained undefeated in their 2024 campaigns after each won his second straight Pennsylvania Sire Stake on Saturday afternoon (June 8) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

The Cantab Hall colt T C I was in front of his field before the :26.4 quarter, took advantage of the prevailing wind on the day to get a rest to the half in :57.1, then continued on to the three-quarters in 1:25.4. Daiquiri Hanover, who had yielded the early lead to T C I, came up the Pocono Pike in the stretch, but the winner trotted home in :27.4 and driver David Miller didn't look worried late even though his foe got to within a half-length at the wire, as the timer froze in 1:53.3.

T C I is two-for-two as a sophomore for trainer Ron Burke and the ownership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Bruscelli LLC, Hatfield Stables, and Knox Services Inc. For his brief career, he has 12 wins in 14 starts, with earnings now at $1,311,286.

Braxten Boyd, 24, tapped for the catch-drive behind Security Protected by trainer Marcus Melander, looked like a patient Grand Circuit veteran amidst heavy traffic on the first turn of his contest. He handled his trotter to be the "last horse to the top," and even with foes on both sides of him breaking, he rode cover to the :28 quarter, then went on to take control before the :56.2 half and proceeded to the three quarters in 1:25.4, giving his horse a breather.

The breather was surely welcome to the Father Patrick colt in the stretch drive, as Blackhawk Zette continued to advance first-over and pocket-sitter Coors Hanover loomed to the inside. Boyd had Security Protected a neck ahead of his righthand foe at the end of the 1:54.2 mile, with the challenger to his left another half length behind. Security Protected, owned by Mitchell Friesen, Brad Grant, and Order By Stable AB, has now won the two Sire Stakes and a Pennsylvania All-Stars stakes in three starts, and his lifetime earnings now total $442,540.

It was logical to think that the final of four $20,000 Stallion Series divisions would produce the fastest time, as three first-round StS winners were matched in it. That prediction was correct, as the race went in 1:54.4, while the other three sections all went in 1:56; however, the crowd's heavy favorite, Usain Hanover (a 1:53 winner last time) was not the horse to post it.

Going down the backstretch the outer tier consisted of the three StS winners, Loxahatchee, Usain Hanover, and I'm Out. Loxahatchee cleared to the lead at the three quarters, Usain Hanover went to challenge but lost his gait in doing so, and I'm Out closed well but couldn't reach the leader by 1¼ lengths at the finish. Loxahatchee is a Greenshoe colt out of Hannelore Hanover (hence the $435,000 yearling price tag) driven by Mattias Melander for Courant Inc., and trained by Mattias's brother Marcus.

Marcus Melander added a third stakes winner (with a different driver of each one) as another Greenshoe colt owned by Courant Inc., Lamtarra (a $500,000 yearling), was successful in the first StS cut for driver Matt Kakaley.

The other two Stallion Series winners gave sire Father Patrick a second and third Saturday stakes credit: Splendid, winner of two StS contests and five in a row for owners Rooney Racing and Trotting For Bourbon and the South Dakota-Vermont combo of driver Chris Lems and trainer Todd Rooney; and the gelding Father Mike, who established a lifetime best for driver Ridge Warren, trainer Richard Perfido, and owners Dr. Scott Leaf, Dr. Michael Ternisky, and Gerald Fielding.

Horner: "Anyone who partners with Howard Taylor on horses has a stain on their credibility"

I write in response to the letter of Vince Lee defending the Howard Taylor to Judith Taylor transfers. Mr. Lee seems impressed that a sale from son to mother was paid by wire transfer. How naive. The transaction can simply be reversed by sale from mother to son by wire transfer or any other way. Scary to even contemplate but is Howard really going to stiff his mother? I doubt Mrs. Taylor has ever bought many (if any) horses in decades other than as arranged, in partnership with or as directed by her son. For harness racing purposes, she is the alter ego of Howard. That said, she likely has less personal connection than Howard with the leagues of punished dooper trainers employed by Howard. Would they have bills for purchasing horse dope sent directly to her for payment?

To be blunt, anyone who partners with Howard Taylor on horses has a stain on their credibility as an asset to the sport. It is similar to being a sponsor of a Chinese athlete disqualified in the Olympics for being doped with dope purchased by Taylor.

Sadly, many harness racing owners and trainers are prepared to sully the business by doing just that. Howard Taylor's unwillingness to identify which of his trainers purchased drugs from Fishman tells you all you need to know. He isn't even willing to clear the names of those who possibly didn't. Think about that; if you train for Taylor, he won't even stand up for you not being a doping trainer.

If you partner with Howard Taylor, you are complicit in sullyng the reputation and future of harness racing.

On an unrelated matter...

I write with reference to Jeff Gural's letter identifying another example of Joe Faraldo acting against the interests of the standardbred industry. Joe is acting as an old school local union leader solely devoted to the status quo of Yonkers as a C league track other than as a disbursing agent for slots revenue. When was the last time the 3-year-old champions have even raced at Yonkers? When was the last time the 2-year-old champions even raced at Yonkers? When was the last time a great stallion even raced at Yonkers?

While NYRA leads Belmont through a huge transformation into a showcase for thoroughbred racing with a fantastic facility, Joe leads to nowhere. There is no reason for Joe to stand in the way of broadcasting any harness race in New York. None.

Further, his positions at the USTA on important issues are generally completely contrary to the best interests of harness racing. How can there be a [chairperson] of the USTA whose main trainer in the last decade, Richie Banca, is a convicted felon horse dooper? Is that the image we want for the business? In simple terms, Joe seems totally devoted to taking the industry backward. Can you name one accomplishment of the USTA under the current leadership that has had a material win for harness racing? I can't.
