Pepsi NA Cup free for all

Behind Woodbine Mohawk Park's decision to bring back free admission for Pepsi North America Cup Night.

by Melissa Keith

THE VIEW FROM
WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

There were actually four eliminations for the $1 million 2024 Pepsi North America Cup at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Captains Quarters (p, 3, 1:49.1s; $430,206), Funtime Bayama (p, 3, 1:49.1s; $303,108), and Nijinsky (p, 3, 1:49.0s; $164,890) won the first three on Saturday (June 8).

The fourth is the elimination of the $10 admission cost for fans and bettors visiting the Campbellville, ON track for this Saturday night's (June 15) stakes-studded card.

In 2022, Woodbine Mohawk Park introduced a $10 admission fee for Pepsi North America Cup Night. The Ontario Jockey Club, now Woodbine Entertainment, had eliminated regular paid admission at its tracks in 1998, the same year Mohawk was enlarged to its current seven-eighth's mile configuration.

Bringing back an admission price, however small, was sure to generate feedback from customers.

Mark McKelvie, senior manager of communications for Woodbine Entertainment, spoke with HRU in June 2022 about the decision to implement paid admission for that year's Pepsi North America Cup card.

There was no guarantee that paid admission would become a regular part of the big night, although the $10 fee remained in place for the 2023 edition.

On May 31, McKelvie circulated a media release announcing that admission would again be free for this year's Pepsi North America Cup card.

Lisa Joy Rogers regularly takes in live racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park. She watches from the grandstand with her husband, Bill, and often other friends and family. Lisa and Bill have been significantly involved in both standardbred ownership and the wagering side of the game.

Lisa told HRU that she and Bill had attended recent North America Cups despite opposing the concept of paid admission, because they were already exempt from it.

"We have been to the last two, but the $10 charge has never affected us because Bill is a VIP player, so it's always been waived," Lisa said. "However, if we were forced to pay the $10 charge, we would not go, based on principle. For our situation, for the amount of money we spend in that facility, dining, betting, and owning, being forced to pay another $10 would be disrespectful. As it is to any player that supports their business on the regular race night."

Lisa added that she supported the decision to eliminate the entrance fee. She said that comparisons to major thoroughbred stakes cards are not relevant to the marketing of harness racing, which needs its own template.

For instance, "paying for a reserved seat for the night inside the building is acceptable, as opposed to a cover charge to get into the building," she said.

"Regular players should not be forced to pay for that night, and you should never limit the availability to any potential new bettors or fans. That's our night to shine. They should show everyone what our Mohawk is all about."

Sean Patrick Nolan is a popular public handicapper of thoroughbred and harness racing, including Woodbine Mohawk Park. He said he expects to pay admission to take in major stakes races at any track, and had already done so at Saratoga Race Course when contacted for this article.

"For the Belmont Stakes today [Saturday, June 8] it is $50 and that's the race I'm here to see."

Nolan said the $10 admission for Mohawk's North America Cup card didn't bother him.

"No, not at all," he said. "I think that's very fair for a night such as that."

As a bettor and handicapper who appreciates both breeds, Nolan said the difference in attitudes toward paid admission reflect the greater prominence of thoroughbreds over standardbreds in the public imagination today.

“ I think when an event has charged an admission fee all along it is more accepted by the fans, but when a fee is added to what has been traditionally a free event it makes it more difficult. With the great card of racing and the event we have planned, I am confident we could have charged an admission fee again this year for Pepsi North America Cup Night and had an excellent crowd, but by offering no admission, hopefully it will give us that little nudge we need to increase our crowd on-site. ”

~ Bill McLinchey

“They do differ, because the coverage is much greater for the thoroughbreds, thus the demand is greater,” he said. “People pay $500 for the Breeders’ Cup [admission].”

Bill McLinchey is vice-president of standardbred racing for Woodbine Entertainment. He told HRU that his team removed the admission fee in order to make on-track attendance a more inviting prospect for everyone this Saturday night.

“Early in the planning stages for this year’s Pepsi North America Cup night we established a clear objective to get as many people to take in the event live as possible, and eliminating the admission fee seemed like that would likely help us accomplish that goal,” he said.

The admission charge did serve its purpose, said McLinchey.

“The main purpose of the admission fee was to establish value on the event, as it’s a great opportunity for guests to see the best horses, drivers and trainers in North America compete in some of the biggest races of their careers,” he said.

There was market research value to the now-discontinued admission fee, as well.

“It also had the further benefit of a way to understand how many patrons were attending the event, which is critical information in planning for future events,” McLinchey said. “It was never intended to be an incremental revenue stream. This year, to help track attendance, we are installing temporary turnstiles to accomplish this.”

Reflective of the differing opinions shared by Sean Patrick Nolan (pro-admission charge) and Lisa Joy Rogers (anti-admission charge), Woodbine’s VP of standardbred racing said he had heard both sides.

“The decision to charge admission came with both positive and negative feedback,” he said. “One thing that was refreshing to hear was from some horsepeople that said if we don’t put a value on our biggest racing event of the year, how do we expect anyone else to? That said, we also see an upside to not charge an admission to maximize on-site attendance to provide access to a great event with some of the best standardbred racing in the world.”

It’s not the $10 but the change from previously-free admission that generated discussion about the value of attending Pepsi North America Cup Night at the track.

“I think when an event has charged an admission fee all along it is more accepted by the fans, but when a fee is added to what has been traditionally a free event it makes it more difficult,” said McLinchey. “With the great card of racing and the event we have planned, I am confident we could have charged an admission fee again this year for Pepsi North America Cup Night and had an excellent crowd, but by offering no admission, hopefully it will give us that little nudge we need to increase our crowd on-site.”

Stakes and Pick-5 analysis for loaded Pepsi North America Cup card

by Brett Sturman

As part of seven consecutive stake races over the Woodbine Mohawk Park oval, the 41st Pepsi North America Cup anchors the final leg of the $100,000 guaranteed Pick-5 pool. That race, along with many others look wide open in a tough to figure card. Here is how I see the races shaping up.

RACE 5, $233,000 ARMBRO FLIGHT FINAL

M-M's Dream and Call Me Goo dominated the wagering two back when they met here in the Miss Versatility and it could be more of the same to kick off the stakes portion of the card in the Armbro Flight final. In that race two weeks ago, M-M's Dream needed every bit of the Woodbine Mohawk Park stretch to reach Call Me Goo but she did so as the heavy favorite and then delivered once again last week when similarly backed as Miller always had her on cruise control. Call Me Goo had a tougher go of it in her elimination when she needed a lot of Tetrick encouragement to last against a host of others after putting up a big time third quarter panel on the lead. Refined didn't miss by much in that elimination to Call Me Goo and she upset this race in a similar spot last year against Bella Bellini; goes second start back over the track. Topsy Money couldn't go with M-M's Dream last out despite the pocket trip; she was easily second best in that race but now goes to post 10.

RACE 6, $75,000 PEPSI NORTH AMERICA CUP CONSOLATION

What's the verdict on Clever Cody in here? He broke last week before the start of the race on a good-rated track and the last time he was here prior there were equipment issues. Sandwiched in between was an easy win from the rail in an Ohio Sire Stakes at Northfield, but it looks like he's now up to his fourth different driver in as many races; tough call. Zeron is going back on Number Cruncher and he was well positioned last week in his elimination as a 35-1 longshot but wasn't quite as fast late as some of the best ones; this field seems more to his liking. Like Number Cruncher, Mirage Hanover had the misfortune of trying to close into a slower :55.3 half mile and he had to do it first-over as well; his prior two races from The Meadowlands were excellent. It's Saturday Night took a run at Total Stranger last week and looked for most of the stretch that he was going to go by him and at least make the final, but he hung. Shows good lines against Captain Albano in PA and was second to McCrunch at The Meadowlands at the end of April.

RACE 7, $225,000 GOODTIMES FINAL AND START OF $100,000 GUARANTEED PICK-5

Highland Kismet didn't even start his career until just last month and he's come a long way in a short time. He handled the step up impressively last week when he confidently came first over and went by all his rivals in the stretch. That came after being taken off the gate and being leisurely handled throughout the first half of the race and then marched by everyone when asked and lived up to the hype. In the other Goodtimes elimination, Shermont drove onto the lead after passing up an early 3-hole, cut his own mile and did well to nearly stave off the pocket sitting Top Past and the elimination winner Pick Pocket who surged late after a nice, tracking trip from the rail. Pick Pocket won two back at The Meadowlands when he split through five horses to win in 1:53.3 and now makes his second start in these parts. In his elimination, Private Access tried to follow the winning move of Highland Kismet and did well to get second. Griff led early in that race and wasn't bad late after earlier having to yield to a couple but now moves to post 10; Winter Soldier is another forced to move outside.

RACE 8, $100,000 MOHAWK GOLD CUP INVITATIONAL

There're a couple of intriguing newcomers to the pacing free for all division and one of those is Oakwood Ardan IR who invades for Cleary. A monster at The Meadowlands this year who has won all but one of his eight starts this season, he was relentless last out when coming from well out of it to motor past everyone with a :26.1 quarter to reach in 1:48.3. His win prior came in 1:48; enters here in raging career form. The Sweet Lous are coming from everywhere and in addition to Oakwood Ardan out of Ireland is Bonniprinclouis N out of New Zealand. He won at first asking last out at The Meadows in 1:50.1 for Burke and he gobbled up a ton of ground in the stretch to win going away and that was after being pretty far away even on the final turn. Abuckabett Hanover was a huge overlay last out when winning the preferred handicap here at odds of over 8-1. He was used many times in that second race back and won in good fashion. Things didn't work out for Linedrive Hanover in that unusually slow Battle of Lake Erie but it's now back to the big track and he was a 1:47 winner here last year. Allywag Hanover can never be discounted but this is a tough spot. Blue Hunt was a 1:47.4 winner here three back and Coaches Corner has outraced his odds of late. Taurasi has owned this track all year, but this is an entirely new ballgame as it started to be last week. What a race upcoming.

RACE 9, $425,000 FAN HANOVER FINAL

My Girl EJ was used about four different times last week and what a statement mile she went to hold off Geocentric and win. Despite winning and being guaranteed to draw a post from 2 through 6, she still managed to land outside of Geocentric in here from post 6. If "EJ" is that good again she should win, but she has finished runner-up on a couple of different occasions as the odds-on favorite. Geocentric just missed last week after sitting a mostly friendly 4-hole trip and not having to be used until the stretch; both of her career defeats have come in races My Girl EJ has won. Pass Line completed the trifecta from that elimination and was used herself a couple of times in that race but was beaten a few lengths by the top two in the end. Canigetouloup won the other Fan Hanover elimination and that's now two straight absurd win payouts for the Burke trainee. This was a talented filly last year at 2 mind you, and two back at The Meadowlands she paid nearly 50-1 with a stand in driver, but then still paid 30-1 last week on the change to Dunn and a clear inside lane the entire length of the stretch; amazing. Looks like Dave Miller will get the call now and a win against these would keep the miracle payouts coming. Its A Love Thing took the wider route last week and was still right there with "Louploup." Caviart Belle had really great second over cover in her elimination and probably should have been a little better.

RACE 10, $305,000 ROSES ARE RED FINAL

Always B Naughty delivered last week with one of the best performances I've seen from her. She was insistent on the lead early and pocketed up Silver Label, and then later in the mile when Sylvia Hanover came calling, that rival couldn't really get to within a length at best and then Always B Naughty turned it on from there en route to a 1:49.3 win. That came on the driver change to Roy and it's hard to see her being anywhere but on the front once again. Hard to believe that Sylvia Hanover is 0-for-3 early in her 4-year-old season but is just one semblance of a favorable trip away from posting a big mile. Twin B Joe Fresh was wicked last week and actually had to take back and wait after starting to brush to the lead earlier in the mile and then it was all over in a hurry once she made the front. Sylvia Hanover has traditionally gotten the best of "Joe Fresh" but she looks poised now to turn the tables. So Much More and Tells On A Roll both came on late to pick up the pieces as others in their elimination were spent by that point.

RACE 11, $1 MILLION PEPSI NORTH AMERICA CUP FINAL

You could make a realistic case for nearly everyone in here and I'll start with the subject of last week's column, Captain Luke. Zeron was nearly prophetic in stating how a 2-hole trip could turn out to not be good and that was almost the case with Captain Luke who was locked in for most of the stretch and was just able to ensure his spot in the final. He seems just as talented as anyone else and a 15-1 morning line in a wide-open field suggests he'll offer value. Captain Albano didn't have to vacate the cones in his elimination until nearing three-quarters when he came out from third, when Captains Quarters quickly latched onto that cover and got up late when it counted in the fastest elimination of 1:49.1. Ivy Park who left and sat second, came around a tiring Gem Quality in the stretch and wasn't bad to close for third. Funtime Bayama capitalized off a 2-hole trip and beat Legendary Hanover in a hard-fought late duel; it was the second straight week he bested that rival. Nijinsky ran his seasonal unbeaten streak to four last week and it came off a perfect second over trip; no real reason to knock otherwise. Total Stranger handled the step up pretty well considering he was able to be game for third after blazing the way through an early :25.4 opening panel. Storm Shadow moves all the way inside after a couple of post 10's this year, he had a lot of pace last week when taking the inside route to just miss against Nijinsky.

Million-dollar NA Cups, the beginning

by Bob Heyden

In 1987, in its fourth edition, the North America Cup went for seven figures, a first for Canada in any race. Here's a brief look at the first seven million-dollar NA Cups.

1. In 1987 Jate Lobell ($2.70) stepped on Canadian soil for the first time and held off Frugal Gourmet (33-1). The fractions were :27.3, :55, 1:23.2 and 1:52.3. Rare Review (9-1) was third with second-choice Laag (5-1) fourth. It was the sports 26th million-dollar test. None of the 12 participants from the 25th million-dollar race, the 1986 Governor's Cup won by Redskin, made the trip to the Cup.

2. The 1988 Cup featured Sylvain Filion's dad Yves taking it all the way with Runnymede Lobell in 1:54.4. Exclusive Cam (125-1) was third. He was from the very first sophomore crop of two-time HOY Cam Fella. It was just an eight-horse field with Squirter second and 8-5 second choice Camtastic last. Bayama Farms sent out the winner from post 4.

A big shout out to Albert Albert, Chris Boring's son of Abercrombie. Even though he was just seventh here, he was the only starter who appeared in the prior million-dollar test (third from post 12 in the 1987 $1,422,500 Woodrow Wilson) as well as the very next million-dollar test, the 1988 Meadowlands Pace where he finished fourth.

In 2024 Sylvain hopes to duplicate his dad's victory, similar to the Ron Waples (Presidential Ball) Randy Waples (Thinking Out Loud) daily double.

3. In 1989, Goalie Jeff ($93.60) and Steve Condren won over favored Kentucky Spur and Richard Stillings (the only non-Canadian born driver in the field) in 1:53 2. Goalie Jeff, the third longest shot in the field, won from post 8 and went on from there to dominate the division. Sire Cam Fella scored for the first time. The date was June 24 and the margin a mere head.

4. In 1990, Apaches Fame scored as the second choice ($5.80) while favored Beach Towel (HOY) disliked the going and wound up last. Mark Johnathan was second, Road Machine third, Jake

And Elwood fourth, with the last check to Shipps Schnoops. The 1989 2YO champion Till We Meet Again was eighth. The top six drivers were all born in Canada.

5. In 1991 Cam Fella sired his second NA Cup winner and first HOY with Precious Bunny. Since Artsplace was not there, John Campbell handled this winner – the first of three in a four-year span for trainer Bill Robinson – and the first of an astounding six NA Cups in just the 1990s for Campbell. Precious Bunny, who was just 1-for-14 at 2, started from post 1. Second money went to longshot Start The Fire over Die Laughing with the final two earners Cocktail Talk and Stand And Deliver. The top four in the wagering garnered the top four checks. Precious Bunny paid $3.70. Time for the mile was 1:53 flat.

6. In 1992, Rod Allen would later win the Meadowlands Pace with Carlsbad Cam, but could only manage fourth in the Cup as the 4-5 favorite. Safely Kept, with first-time driver Mike Lachance at the controls, roared out of the pocket to score going away and paying $63.70. Western Hanover was second best. He'd gain a measure of revenge seven years later when his son The Panderosa dominated. Third money went to Kingsbridge and Ray Schnittker gathered in the final check with No Twister.

7. In 1993, subbing for Jack Moiseyev who injured his back earlier that day at Freehold, Ron Waples makes the most of the opportunity with Presidential Ball and scores in 1:51 flat, with The Starting Gate second, Life Sign third, Beastmaster fourth and Pacific Sunshine fifth. Not getting anything was Riyadh, whose very next start would turn out to be the first ever sub 1:50 Meadowlands Pace elim (1:49.4).

40 YEARS OUT, HOW DOES THE NA CUP SHAPE UP WITH OTHER MAJOR STAKES

In 1984, the North America Cup won by Legal Notice went for $357,900.

- The 2017 Meadowlands Pace won by Huntsville went for $738,550, 40 years after Escort got it rolling for $212,500.
- The 1966 Hambletonian went for $122,540 with Kerry Way beating the boys after a sterling 1926 debut of $73,451 on the table.
- The 2011 Hambletonian Oaks was the seventh of eight years of a guaranteed $750,000, 40 years after just $31,500 was on the table in 1971.
- The Cane Pace of 1995 was won by Mattgilla Gorilla for $384,375 compared to a debut 1955 pot of $71,040 won by Quick Chief.
- Dave Palone gathered in his first Triple Crown winner in the 1996 Messenger with Go For Grins for $333,086 as compared to the $71,500 Belle Acton went for beating the boys as the Messenger rolled out in 1956. (Note: Billy Haughton took the first Cane and Messenger but wasn't in the first Jug in 1946).
- Speaking of the Little Brown Jug, Barberry Spur took the winner's share of $407,684 in 1986 – two straight for Bill O'Donnell – 40 years after $35,358 was on the table in 1946 as the first of the three Triple Crown legs for pacers got underway.

- The Jugette started in 1971 for $30,414 and vaulted to $292,350 when Idyllic got the cheese in 2011.
- The Yonkers Trot started at $73,840 with Scott Frost sweeping the entire table in 1955, then CR Kay Suzie overwhelmed her male counterparts for $276,564 in 1995.
- Finally, the Maple Leaf Trot started out as a mere $5,000 event in 1950 but exploded to $293,250 by 1990 for repeat winner No Sex Please.

Hochstetler, Harris hope to “Graduate” at The Big M

by Debbie Little

The Graduate Series makes its Meadowlands debut for 2024 tonight (June 14) with two divisions each for 4-year-old pacers and trotters.

Jay Hochstetler, the 2023 U.S. Harness Writers Association Rising Star Award winner, will make his training debut at The Big M with Ponda Jet.

It will also mark The Meadowlands debut for the gelded son of Dover Dan—Ponda’s Lucky Lady.

Ponda Jet has never raced outside of his home state of Indiana, making all but one of his 34 career starts at Hoosier Park. His lone race outside of the confines of Hoosier was as a 2-year-old at the Indiana State Fair in Indianapolis.

Hochstetler said that Ponda Jet’s racing schedule has been by design and hopes for good results on his horse’s first trip out east, especially because he’s competing on a mile track.

“Being all the way out here in Indiana, I didn’t want to stake him too heavy and just exhaust him by the end of the season just with trailer miles,” Hochstetler said. “I think this is a spot where he’s definitely going to have to put a serious mile together to get a good piece of it.

“One thing about him is, he’s been on a big track his whole life, so he’s a little bit more accustomed to the big-track style of racing. It’s not going to be an adjustment, like for horses that come from a half or a five-eighths, where it’s a lot of different tactics and style of race.”

This trip to New Jersey is a homecoming of sorts for Hochstetler, whose dad, Homer, spent a few summers stabled on the backstretch at The Meadowlands just prior to the stable area being closed and torn down.

“My dad and I used to spend the whole summer there,” Jay said. “I was a groom then. We stabled right on the backside probably four or five years in a row.

“I really liked it. It was really fun. I spent a lot of summers eating at Redd’s [Restaurant] and sitting in the grandstand on the nights we didn’t race.”

Ponda Jet comes into his division of the Graduate off two-straight victories in opens at Hoosier.

“He’s pretty incredible,” Jay said. “He’s had a lot of ups and downs and he’s just tough as nails and gets through it. He was a project when he was 2 and he was kind of a headcase that wanted to go 1,000 miles [an hour] out of the gate. At the end of his 2-year-old year, we got him down to where he was manageable.

“At 3, he became a classy horse. He still liked to be on the front, but he always minded his manners and he’s gotten even better this year about that. He’s a very large horse and he’s got the lungs to go with it, so, hopefully, that translates to a good race [tonight].”

Ponda Jet will pick up a new pilot, David Miller, for his Meadowlands start. Another change for the 4-year-old who has only had two previous drivers.

“My dad drove him for most of his 2-year-old season until like the last two starts, and then Kyle [Wilfong] picked him up and Kyle’s driven him every time ever since,” Jay said. “David [Miller] drove a lot of horses for us in the past when my dad was training, so I’ve got a pretty good relationship with him. He drove quite a few trotters for us in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes and on the Grand Circuit.

“[Miller is] experienced and he can get along with a horse, a big trotter like this, that likes to get a little headstrong sometimes. He’s good with those types of horses.”

“Being all the way out here in Indiana, I didn’t want to stake [Ponda Jet] too heavy and just exhaust him by the end of the season just with trailer miles. I think this is a spot where he’s definitely going to have to put a serious mile together to get a good piece of it.”

~ Jay Hochstetler

“ I was very happy with Seven Colors, the way he came back. I think he’s come back to be an awesome horse. I think the world of him. I think he’s got all the speed and the lungs to go with the speed. So, I’ve been super, super happy with that horse. ”

~ Andrew Harris

Owned by Connie Hochstetler, Robert Buddig and Allen Schwartz, Ponda Jet drew post 3 in race 10, the second of two divisions for open trotters, and is the 4-1 third choice on the morning line.

Should Ponda Jet perform well, Jay plans to stay in New Jersey for next week’s third leg of the Graduate (June 22) at The Meadowlands. The $250,000 (est.) final is on Saturday (July 6).

On the pacing side, trainer Andrew Harris sends out a pair who each drew post 2 in their respective divisions.

Seven Colors is the 5-2 morning-line favorite in race 11, while El Rey is the 7-2 third choice in race 9. Both horses will be driven by Dexter Dunn.

Seven Colors, a son of Stay Hungry—Rainbowinthedark, comes in off a win in his last start, the first leg of the Graduate Series at Woodbine Mohawk Park, on June 1.

“I was very happy with Seven Colors, the way he came back,” Harris said of how his horse has transitioned from 3 to 4. “I think he’s come back to be an awesome horse. I think the world of him. I think he’s got all the speed and the lungs to go with the speed. So, I’ve been super, super happy with that horse...”

“He didn’t start the year off great when I sent him to Canada [in mid-May for the Juravinski at Flamboro], he made a break in the first start. But other than that, he’s come out of it perfect and he went on to do great since then and I think he’ll continue on to do great things.”

El Rey, a son of Captaintreacherous—Mystery Game, is making his Graduate debut. His previous five starts for the season came on the five-eighths mile track at Kentucky’s Oak Grove.

“I think that he’s just not exploding the way he should be on the smaller track,” Harris said. “So, I’m going to bring him back to the big track and see if I can get that :25 last quarter back into him.”

It’s a particularly busy weekend for Harris with stakes races on both sides of the border.

“I’ll be here in Jersey for [tonight] and go to Canada on Saturday, but I have a great team behind me, so I don’t have to worry about too much,” Harris said. “Yes, I definitely put on some frequent flyer miles. You can’t complain because you get to travel, that’s for sure.”

Racing on Saturday (June 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Harris has Abuckabett Hanover in the $100,000 Mohawk Gold Cup and Miki Ray in the $75,000 North America Cup consolation.

According to Harris, who co-owns both Seven Colors and El Rey with Bill Pollock and Bruce Areman, races specifically for 4-year-olds are important.

“If you want people to keep bringing horses back to the track and have your stars keep coming back, it’s of the utmost importance to have those type of races,” he said. “Nothing keeps these horses on the track if they don’t have places to race.”

According to the conditions for the Graduate Series, “To be guaranteed eligibility for the final(s), a horse must start in no fewer than half (50 per cent) of the preliminary legs in their Series division.”

With that being the case, no matter where they finish tonight, Ponda Jet and El Rey would have to compete next week in leg 3 to even be eligible for the final.

“I’d like to see [Ponda Jet] finish top three and show that come the final, I’d be a player to get a piece of it, that’s the biggest thing,” Jay said, adding with a laugh, “I don’t like racing for fifth place.”

Talking about his competition, Harris said, “They’re all respectable animals and I’m scared of all of them. They don’t put them in because they don’t think they have a shot.

“At the end of the day, it’s a very tough group of 4-year-olds and I give every one of them full respect.”

Celebrity Status delivers surprise milestone win for Roland

by James Platz

Nick Roland scored his 1,000th career win as a trainer on Thursday (June 6) at Running Aces thanks to the efforts of homebred Celebrity Status. However, Roland, who was slated to steer the sophomore, was absent from the sulky and the winner's circle. He learned of the milestone as he watched the races from home, where he was resting after an incident in the paddock earlier on the card.

"We were unhooking a horse after warming up earlier," Roland said. "One side was unhooked and the other side was still hooked, and she tried to get away. I popped my shoulder out. It's happened before. It's nothing new. Actually, I had no idea that I was close to [the milestone]. I went home to get some ibuprofen and Tylenol. If I had known I was close, I would have at least been there for a picture."

It's been an interesting journey for the fifth-generation horseman, with Running Aces playing a pivotal role in his success. Roland always had his sights set on working in the industry, but instead of jumping in fresh out of high school, his parents urged him to go to college. He did, graduating with a business management degree. The Iowa native took an office job, but didn't find satisfaction there. Recording his first starts as a driver and trainer in 1998, the call of racing was hard to resist.

"I worked for an insurance company for a year," he said. "After being able to put myself through college with no loans, just racing horses, I was miserable. Working at an insurance company and not being out in the barn, I quit after about a year. That happened to be in 2008 when Running Aces was opening. My sister and I grabbed a couple horses from my grandparents, and I still had two or three horses, and mom had a couple horses. We headed up to Minnesota."

Roland has become a fixture at the Columbus, MN, oval, regularly driving and sending out winners. Unbeknownst to him, he was on the verge of a record entering last Thursday. Sitting on 999 wins, Celebrity Status, piloted by substitute reinsman Luke Plano, led gate-to-wire to pick up the win in Minnesota sired Class A competition. On the screen, Running Aces celebrated the milestone. Roland's reaction?

~ Nick Roland

“It made me think, gosh, I’m old,” said the soon-to-be 42-year-old, with a laugh. “I’ve been doing this for a long time.”

Starting the season in California, Roland has sent out 34 winners in 2024. With 5,330 career training starts to his credit, just under 50 per cent have hit the board, earning more than $5.4 million in purses. As a driver, he is closing in on 2,300 career wins and $11 million in money earned.

It was at Cal Expo in February that the previously winless Celebrity Status collected his first victory. The gelded son of Vlos—Wild About Eagle made 11 freshman starts, registering two runner-up finishes and a pair of third-place performances. One of those second-place efforts came in the $65,000 Minnesota sired championship. Although Roland calls the sophomore a late bloomer, he also admits he was careful in bringing the pacer along due to characteristics displayed in other offspring from the son of Dragon Again.

“That’s kind of the reason why we were so slow bringing him around,” he said. “In my experience with the Vloses, if you get them tired or hurt their feelings too early, they can really get sour fast. I’ve seen it before with others. They are able to go fast, but they are just easy to put a kink in early. I’ve seen some that pace in [1]:56 as a 2-year-old, but then they’ll never go faster than that their entire life.”

After careful management last year, Celebrity Status broke his maiden in his second seasonal start at Cal Expo. In fact, his first two wins came in California Sires Stakes action. He would finish second by a head in another leg.

“He’s just been getting better and better,” Roland said. “When we got to California, he had matured quite a bit and put things together. He won the first couple legs of those Cal-eligible sires stakes. He had a little bit of a filling in a leg, so we missed the third leg. But he’s just been coming around.”

Celebrity Status was bred and is owned by Set The Pace Racing LLC, a partnership between Kenneth Stauffer and Roland’s girlfriend, Jessica Johnson. He is the fourth foal out of The Panderosa mare Wild About Eagle, a six-figure earner that won 33 times over seven seasons. She took her 1:54.2 speed badge as a 6-year-old for trainer Steve Wiseman.

“She was one of Stevie’s favorites,” Roland said. “She wasn’t even on our radar. Steve was done racing her and he said, ‘This is a tough, tough race mare. You need to take her and breed her.’ We bought her just because Steve said that we needed to. She’s been a great mare for us.”

Wild About Eagle produced Alilthundadownunda, a half-brother to Celebrity Status that was named 2021 Minnesota Horse of the Year. The 39-time winner is still racing, with just shy of $400,000 on his card. While Celebrity Status doesn’t possess the credentials to match big brother, as of late he has tangled with the best in Minnesota’s 3-year-old pacing colt division and won.

In the first Class A leg, held May 30, the gelding took control after the quarter and eased to a 2¼-length victory with Roland at the lines in a time of 1:56.2. In the June 6 performance, Plano, substituting for the injured trainer, placed him on the lead and kept him there, stopping the clock in 1:54.3 and shaving nearly two seconds off his lifetime best. The victory was the fourth of the season for Celebrity Status. The pacer has hit the board in eight of 12 starts to date, earning $44,727 and pushing his career bankroll to more than $71,000.

“I didn’t know how fast he would have to go,” Roland said of the win. “I knew the week before when he won by almost three that he was totally shut down halfway down the stretch. I knew he could go quite a bit more than that, I didn’t know he was going to have to go in [1]:54 to beat them. I wasn’t surprised. I didn’t know how fast he would have to go, but I knew he could go quite a bit more.”

Ohio horse racing not benefitting significantly from sports betting

by Bob Duff

The fact of the matter is that the horsepeople of Ohio aren't currently reaping major benefits from the arrival of legal and regulated sports betting across the Buckeye State. That being the case, Renee Mancino can't bring herself to get too upset over the fact, and with good reason.

That's because harness racing is already benefiting quite impressively from both casino gambling and video lottery terminals operating at the state's racinos. Through revenue-sharing agreements, Ohio's government awards three per cent of casino betting and between nine-to-11 per cent of racino earnings to the purse pools for Ohio horse racing.

"It's been pretty successful," said Mancino, executive director of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association. "We've increased purses every year. We added a second tier to the [Ohio] Sires Stakes and bumped the top tier up to five legs and two finals."

The proof is in the purse pool. Last September, they staged the richest night in Ohio harness racing history when $3.7 million was paid out on one race card at Caesars Scioto Downs. The Little Brown Jug went for a $1 million purse for the first time in 2023.

Revenue from racinos alone is contributing $10.5 million to the Ohio harness purse pool in 2024, a 28 per cent increase from the previous year.

"We do have good partners in that regard," Mancino said of the state government's support of horse racing. "I can't complain about our relationship.

"We have a very good relationship and we'd like to keep it that way."

Mancino's work in helping to grow the sport in Ohio earned her recognition last year as the United States Trotting Association's President's Award winner.

SPORTS BETTING GROWS RAPIDLY IN OHIO

Since launching legal and regulated sports betting on Jan. 1, 2023, both retail and online, Ohio has generated more than $10 billion in wagering.

The most recent available numbers for April of 2024 show that $667 million was wagered over the month. That was a 15.8 per cent month-on-month increase.

Three Ohio harness racing tracks – MGM Northfield Park (BetMGM), Hollywood Gaming (ESPN BET) and Caesars Scioto Downs (Caesars) – are owned by companies that operate sportsbooks in Ohio. Since they offer racing as the main product on these sites, it would only seem natural that they'd want to do their part to keep the sport growing.

"About 99 per cent of sports betting revenue goes to out-of-state companies," Mancino said.

Ohio horse racing seems to be holding its own in the midst of the new competition for the gambling dollar from sports betting. Latest data from the Ohio State Racing Commission indicated that both live and simulcast handles were showing slight increases over the previous year.

"We are down on live racing this year, but all sources handle is up in all locations," Mancino said of the numbers so far in 2024. "We still get really good crowds."

~ Renee Mancino

The evidence of the growth in Ohio harness racing can be displayed numerically. Since 2013, Caesars Scioto Downs has seen a 327 per cent increase in handle. At Miami Valley Gaming, handle has jumped 524 per cent since 2014. MVG also saw a 20 per cent uptick in purses last year.

MANCINO THINKS INTEGRATION WILL EVENTUALLY COME

When the sports betting process was getting underway in the Buckeye State, Mancino and the OHHA sought unsuccessfully to garner one of the available sports betting licenses.

Doing well in terms of what they receive from the government on other gambling sources, Mancino is understandably cautious in making further demands to get a piece of the state’s sports betting action. At least not right away.

“Overall, our state legislature is very favorable to harness racing,” Mancino said. She sees that government officials recognize the vast fair circuit operating in Ohio and what that presence means statewide.

“This is a huge agricultural area,” Mancino said.

While she’s comfortable in what the horse people of the Buckeye State are currently receiving from casino and VLT revenue, Mancino isn’t looking to rest on those laurels. The plan at the OHHA is to continue some level of lobbying with the goal of ultimately garnering a piece of the state’s massive sports betting pie.

“We are actively seeking integration,” Mancino said. “And I do think we will get integration.

“I’m pretty happy with where we’re at overall, but we always want to pursue more. It is a continual battle.”

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Patience and learning to move on from the last race is serving Kevin Lambright well

by Chris Lomon

It is certainly appropriate, yet by no means surprising, that Kevin Lambright has plenty of drive.

For as long as he has been part of the standardbred world, the horseman who currently calls Anderson, IN, home, has been guided by a singular approach to his craft.

“It starts and ends with putting in an honest day’s work,” said Lambright. “That is the way I have always gone about things in my life.”

After driving in seven qualifiers in June 2020, Lambright got his first shot at victory in a non-betting race in July of that same year. He didn’t waste the opportunity.

In rein to Dewitfuls Grace – trained by Lewayne Miller, the man whose barn Lambright had been working in since 2019 – the pair got away third in the six-horse field in the trot dash with a $3,000 purse.

Lambright had the bay mare rolling ahead of the turn for home and the pair kept charging down the lane on their way to a 1¼-length win in a time of 2:05.

“It was such a great feeling and a great moment,” said Lambright. “I appreciated Lewayne giving me that chance.”

By season’s end, the young reinsman, who started out racing ponies, had three wins and just shy of $16,000 in purse earnings from 26 drives.

Now in his fifth year in the sulky, Lambright, who worked with Miller for five years before moving into the barn of Robert Taylor, has 68 career wins.

Helpful advice from successful horsemen continues to be the norm.

“Lewayne talked about how tough it is to be a driver, just how competitive things are, and that I need to be patient and I need to learn from the horses,” said Lambright. “Robert has been so good to me too. I am his second trainer. He has taught me a lot. I am grateful for all the helpful tips and education he has given me, including shoeing the horses. I love learning about different sides of the business.”

“If you have a bad drive, you can’t let it bother you. It’s about moving on. If you start dwelling on a bad drive, it does you no good when you go out there the next time. Whether you win or lose, you let it go and then turn your focus to the next race. I like going into each race with a clear mind.”

~ Kevin Lambright

Lambright does have a penchant for piloting a particular type of standardbred.

“I like the trotters,” he said. “They give you more of a challenge and I like that. They help you become a better driver.”

Just like a 3-year-old bay daughter of Muscle Hill has.

Trained and owned by Taylor, Kalibrated Power and Lambright teamed up for a win at Hoosier Park on April 17.

“She is my current favorite,” said Lambright. “She is fun to drive, and she gives it her all every time she is on the track.”

Lambright, who won a career-best 35 races in 2021, is hoping to get more chances to sit in the race bike.

Although he studies the program and video the night before each race card, he isn’t rattled when things don’t go as planned.

Lambright embraces the unexpected.

“The more drives you get, the more confident you get,” he said. “I like that challenge when you have to make split-second decisions. It keeps you on your toes, but it also helps you become a better driver.”

Whether it’s a trip to the winner’s circle, crossing the wire at the back of the pack, or anything in between, Lambright quickly puts his last drive beyond the rearview mirror.

“If you have a bad drive, you can’t let it bother you,” he said. “It’s about moving on. If you start dwelling on a bad drive, it does you no good when you go out there the next time. Whether you win or lose, you let it go and then turn your focus to the next race. I like going into each race with a clear mind.”

He does, however, like to go into each year with a game plan.

Lambright sets a group of goals for himself whenever the calendar flips to the new year.

“I set goals for myself at the start of each year,” he said. “I would like to win at least 20 in 2024.”

He would also, eventually, like to have a barn of his own one day. What would his ideal number of horses be?

“I would like to have around 10 to 15 horses and drive a little more too,” he said.

Beyond those objectives, Lambright is hoping to find success with a 2-year-old filly trotter he co-owns with Taylor.

The two purchased the daughter of Dover Dan for $16,000 at the Northern Indiana Yearling Sale.

“She can be a handful,” said Lambright. “She can tire you out, but those are the types of horses you can learn a lot from. I think she is going to be fun.”

Lambright welcomes the chance to work with young horses.

“I like the babies, watching them develop, grow up and develop into racehorses,” he said. “That is a fun part for me.”

As is sharing his passion for horses and horse racing with his family.

He didn’t have to go into hard-sell mode to get them to the racetrack.

“My fiancée [Kassie Adams], who is my biggest supporter, and our son Kade, who is 11 months, come to the barn every day,” said Lambright. “He went jogging with me today. To see him smile and be happy is the greatest feeling. It means a lot to have them along for this.”

When he isn’t lining up behind the starter car or helping Taylor around the barn, Lambright hits the hardcourt for some fun and exercise.

A fan of the NBA’s Indiana Pacers and the University of Indiana’s men’s basketball team, Lambright won’t be trading in the harness life for hoops action.

“Playing in the NBA would be nice, but it’s not going to happen,” he said with a laugh.

Working hard at his horse racing craft will remain his top priority.

As to where it will lead him, Lambright isn’t certain at this point.

One thing he can control, however, is what he puts into his career.

“It always comes down to your willingness to show up every day and work as hard as you can,” said Lambright. “Not every day is going to be easy and there will always be ups and downs in racing. But hard work and learning new things can always help you find the success you are chasing.”

Alessandro Gocciadoro claims the Oslo Grand Prix with Banderas Bi

by Thomas Hedlund

Italian trainer and driver Alessandro Gocciadoro has had a remarkable year in 2024. With his strong armada of horses, the Italian captured titles wherever he was participating.

The $225,000 Oslo Grand Prix is a race that he had won before, with Vitruvio in 2019 but on that occasion, Jorma Kontio drove the winner for Gocciadoro.

In Sunday's (June 9) race at Bjerke in Oslo, Gocciadoro's weapon was Banderas Bi (Ganymede) and the duo profited off the perfect trip, first in an inside position and eventually in second over.

Joviality effortlessly flew to the front for Erik Adielsson and the 5-year-old Derby winner in Sweden got company from the runner up in the same race, Barack Face, on the backstretch with a mile to go. At that point, Gocciadoro switched third on the inside for second over, but the pace in the race seemed to be well suited for the two horses in front: Joviality and Barack Face. When the latter started to look tired just before the last turn, Banderas Bi had to leave three wide from his position and on his back Kentucky River followed. Joviality still looked like the winner as Adielsson had her in good hands at the top of the stretch, but as soon as the ear plugs were pulled, Joviality showed that she couldn't defend herself anymore from the attacking Italian outside. Banderas Bi held Kentucky River behind him at the wire and Gocciadoro was delighted by his triumph in the bike.

Replay here.

The mile rate for Banderas Bi was 1:53.2 over 1.3 miles. Kentucky River finished second, Joviality third.

Gocciadoro also won the $40,000 Europamatchen for 4-year-olds in outstanding style. In a race where several horses went off-stride, Gocciadoro's Ete Jet (Maharajah) flew to the front before the last turn and disappeared to a superior win in a mile rate of 1:56.3 over 1.3 miles.

BJÖRN GOOP REACHES 8,000 WINS

Swedish driver and trainer Björn Goop reached a great milestone in Oslo on Sunday's (June 9) race card at Bjerke. Behind his Betting Pacer (Maharajah) Goop notched the 8,000th driving win of his career. He has the most driving wins in Swedish history.

Goop, 48, experienced big success early in his driving career and his first wins in classic races were in 1997, when he won the Stochampionatet and Kriteriet in Sweden.

Since then, even bigger trophies have been collected for his prize cabinet. According to Goop, the biggest and most emotional win was in the 2005 Derby, when he steered his father Olle's Conny Nobell to victory.

With Timoko, Björn claimed Elitloppet two times (2014 and 2017) and his first win in the Prix d'Amérique came in 2018, with Ready Express, before he took back-to-back wins with Face Time Bourbon in 2020-21.

The list of big wins can be long and we just establish that Björn has reached a milestone hard to get.

BODEN AND KOUVOLA GET VISITED BY TOP TROTTERS

Daniel Wåjersten's runner up in Elitloppet, Borups Victory, will race in the $170,000 Kymi GP in Kouvola, Finland on Saturday (June 15) afternoon and after the race, trainer and driver are in a hurry to catch a plane heading towards Boden in northern Sweden, where the $195,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris waits.

Borups Victory drew a perfect number behind the gate (4) and will most certainly be the big favorite in the race. Tough opponents will be faced, especially from Go On Boy and Missle Hill.

In Boden, Elitloppet favorite Francesco Zet will try to defend his title in the Norrbottens Stora Pris. Francesco Zet finished fourth in Elitloppet and this time he will battle against Alessandro Gocciadoro's Always Ek and Wåjersten's Great Skills.

The winning time was one second better than the next fastest mile by a 2-year-old (Gannon's Veloucity) and two seconds better than the third fastest (Railroad Station).

"I was really happy with Shes A Streaker," Burke said. "That whole race was really good. That [1]:57 out here, back half in :55 and a piece, that's pretty impressive."

Shes A Streaker, purchased for $80,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale, is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services Inc., Frank Baldachino, and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby. The daughter of Huntsville—Mikayla Rose was bred by Walnridge Farm and Bonnie Benson.

In addition to his stable of freshmen at Gaitway Farm, he has a large group in Pennsylvania.

“I have a lot more at home than in years past,” he said. “Some of my better ones are at The Meadows this year. I needed more room, so I built on to my training center in Pennsylvania. And the game has moved to the Midwest a little bit.”

Daley captures four in 2-year-old races at Magical Acres

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Noel Daley led the way among trainers as Magical Acres hosted its first round of qualifiers for 2-year-olds on Wednesday (June 12), picking up four wins in the 10 events for the freshmen, including a 1:58 score with male pacer P A Piper.

Daley also saw female pacer Champagne Room, male trotter Security Code S, and female trotter Made Of Gold notch victories.

Linda Toscano and Tom Cancelliere both had two wins, with Toscano's male pacer Lou'sbodaciousboy posting the day's fastest mile, 1:55.1.

P A Piper, a son of Papi Rob Hanover—Quebec Blue Chip, won with Andy McCarthy in the sulky. He was purchased for $175,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Patricia Stable, L.A. Express Stable, Sjoblom Racing, and Michael Dolan. He was bred by Mahantongo Farms. He is Quebec Blue Chip's first foal. His family includes Grand Circuit winner Nvestment Bluechip.

Champagne Room, a daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—See You At Peelers purchased for $310,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, won in 1:58.3 with McCarthy. See You At Peelers is the grandam of 2023 Dan Patch Award winning filly Geocentric and the extended family includes 2023 She's A Great Lady winner Its A Love Thing. Geocentric and Its A Love Thing are among the finalists in Saturday's (June 15) Fan Hanover Stakes.

Diamond Creek Farm bred Champagne Room is owned by Patricia Stable, LA Express & Sjoblom Inc., and Michael Dolan.

"I've liked those two Papi Robs all along," Daley said. "[P A Piper] wasn't perfect today, but he won it. Champagne Room has always been nice, everything about her. She's very classy. We'll see if she's the best one. There are other ones out there going [1]:54 already, so we'll see when we get down to those numbers."

Security Code S, who won in 2:02 with Todd McCarthy in the sulky, is from the family of 2009 Horse of the Year Muscle Hill and his extended family includes 2020 Trotter of the Year Gimpanzee. His extended family also includes Blown Call, a 2-year-old colt who won a qualifier at Gaitway Farm on Monday for trainer Ron Burke.

Ken Weingartner / USTA
P A Piper was one of four winners for trainer Noel Daley on Wednesday (June 12) in qualifiers at Magical Acres for 2-year-olds.

Purchased for $100,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, Security Code S is owned by Patricia Stable, Sjoblom Racing, L.A. Express Stable, and Big Daddy Stable. The son of Chapter Seven—Queen Paige was bred by Lina Alm. He is Queen Paige’s first foal.

Made Of Gold, a daughter of Muscle Hill out of the French-bred mare Golden Girl, won in 2:03.3, also with Todd McCarthy. Bred by Jean Pierre Barjon, she was purchased for $200,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Winning Key Inc.

“It was pretty much what I expected with most of them,” said Daley, who had nine starters in Wednesday’s rookie qualifiers. “Everything was all right. We’ll have to make a few changes on a couple of them. It’s always good when you get in with other horses, even if it’s only one or two. You get a bit more of a guide to them when they’ve got to go quick.

“Most of these will miss next week and come the last week [of qualifiers]. We’ve got some others for next week. I’ve got a bunch I’d like to at least get qualified here once in the last week, the ones that aren’t quite ready, just to have their first experience here. It’s easier for us if we can get them done at least the first time here.”

Toscano-trained Lou’sbodaciousboy got Wednesday’s festivities started with his 1:55.1 win with Scott Zeron in the bike. The son of Sweet Lou—Bodacious was bred by owners Conrad Zurich and Hauser Bros Rcnng Ent. His family includes Grand Circuit winner Malicious.

Also winning for Toscano was female pacer Odds On You, who scored in 1:58 with Zeron. A daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Miss You N, the filly was bred by Carl Howard and Bottom Line Racing and is owned by Howard and Odds On Racing. She is Miss You N’s first foal.

Cancelliere picked up his two wins with male pacers Pineapple Crunch and In The Moonlight.

Pineapple Crunch, bred and owned by John Cancelliere, won in 1:58 with Andy McCarthy driving. He is a son of Captain Crunch—Pineapple Hanover and his family includes stakes winners Panther Hanover, Passmaster Hanover, and Platinum Hanover.

In The Moonlight, also bred and owned by John Cancelliere, won in 2:02 with Andy McCarthy. He is a son of Always B Miki—Lasting Love out of a family that includes Hall of Fame trotter Continentalvictory.

Skyway Paige soars in Indiana Sire Stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Round two of Indiana Sire Stakes got underway at Harrah's Hoosier Park with a lone $96,000 division for sophomore trotting fillies which highlighted the 14-race card on Wednesday (June 12). Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, Skyway Paige lived up to the bettor's expectations off of the perfect pocket trip with driver LeWayne Miller.

Leaving from post 5 in the full field of 10, Miller hustled Skyway Paige to the front of the pack off the gate to take the trotting fillies to the quarter pole in :28.2 while Agent Of Fortune (Robert Taylor) applied pressure on the outside of the leader. Skyway Paige relinquished control of the field on the backstretch, allowing Agent Of Fortune to clear and lead to the halfway point in :57.3. Sunny Sundries (Joey Putnam) uncorked a first-over rally entering the final turn, moving from sixth to reach the leader's wheel at three quarters in 1:27.1 while Skyway Paige stalked from the pocket in third.

Turning for home, Agent Of Fortune rebuffed the challenge of Sunny Sundries at the top of the lane as Skyway Paige searched for daylight to the inside of the leader. Pouncing in the passing lane, Skyway Paige unleashed a :27.2 final quarter to drive to the front and find victory by 1¾ lengths in 1:54.4. Hail Broadway (Jordan Ross) shook loose late to rally for the place position, with the previously unbeaten Agent Of Fortune holding for third. Skyway Paige returned $3.20 to win at the betting windows.

Trained by Susan Miller for owners L&S Racing, D&S Stable, Ryan Raber and Anthony Swartzentruber, Skyway Paige is now perfect through two starts in 2024. Bred by Kenneth Slabach, the daughter of Swan For All—Prismatica now boasts a career bankroll of $286,670 following her fifth career victory.

Peace Talks wires field in NYSS at Buffalo Raceway

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

There wasn't any negotiating with Peace Talks ($5.50) in the $117,700 New York Sire Stakes for the 3-year-old filly pacers on Wednesday afternoon (June 12) at Buffalo Raceway. The reigning 2-year-old champion kept a tight hold of her crown and silenced her rivals with a 1½-length victory over Leanne's Choice in 1:54.4 over the fast track.

Peace Talks (Jim Morrill, Jr.) had to work hard to get to the early lead as Bronx Barista played some hard ball before finally relenting. With sensible splits of :27.3 and :56.1 through the opening half posted by Peace Talks, Bronx Barista, sitting in second, broke stride coming out of the clubhouse turn, scattering the field a bit.

With a final panel to pace, Peace Talks still wasn't home free as a wall of three damsels were able to regroup and make one final push. But those efforts didn't materialize as Leanne's Choice (Marcus Miller) took the place position and Blue Point (Kevin Cummings) was third.

Owned by Henderson Farms, Robert Mondillo, Fac Racing and Jeffrey Bell, Peace Talks (American Ideal—Triple V Hanover) now has two wins in three attempts this season. The victory jacked her seasonal earnings to $117,700 and $320,779 in her career.

There were a trio of $20,000 events in the Excelsior Series for the 3-year-old filly pacers.

The only mild surprise came in the opening division as Melanie's Megan ($9.10) turned back OBJ by three quarters of a length in 1:55.4. Marcus Miller guided her to the win.

Shine On Susan ($4.30) found room in the passing lane and got past Chris's Choice by a head in 1:56.1. Brett Beckwith steered her to the popular victory.

A Few Choice Words ($4.10) was the fastest in the Excelsior Series as she snapped Lady Saturn's six-race win streak with a 1:55.2 tour around the Hamburg half-mile oval. Jim Morrill, Jr. was aboard the winner who took the ¾-length decision.

Racing will continue this afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with an 11-race program set.

Esteso collects second Buckeye Stallion Series win

by Frank Fraas / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

The second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old trotting fillies saw only one repeat winner as Esteso rallied down the stretch to win one of the three $20,000 divisions on Wednesday (June 12) at Northfield Park.

Esteso with Chris Lems took the pocket trip behind Homerun Queen and Darren Harvey. Around the final turn, Lems swung the Creatine filly wide and charged down the lane catching Homerun Queen at the wire to win by a head in 1:58. It was the third win in six starts for Esteso. Esteso is trained by Dalton Walls, who co-owns the filly with Bruce Soulsby and Alan Weisenberg. Sister Wives finished third.

In the first division, Madame Pele with Luke Ebersole also took the pocket trip on the way to the winner's circle. Madame Pele followed Big Dreams Count and Hunter Myers until the top of the stretch when Ebersole took Madame Pele down the passing lane on the way to a 1-length victory in 1:57, a new lifetime mark. It was the first win of the year for the daughter of Creatine. Jessica Smith trains and owns Madame Pele.

Westfiftyfive finished third.

In the second of the three divisions, Osaka Hall with Myers grabbed the lead at the quarter pole and cruised to a length victory in 1:59.3 for trainer Brian Georges. It was the second win of the year for the Uncle Peter filly. Osaka Hall is owned by Phillip Groves and Myron Koester.

Tammie Sue finished second with Kaminari third.

Leg 1 winner Maxine's Hill was not entered in the second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series, while two other first leg winners, Sugar Instead and Justasiam AS have set their sights on leg 2 of the Ohio Sires Stakes for sophomore filly trotters.

The second leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old filly trotters is tonight (June 14) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. The 16-race card also includes five $20,000 divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old colt trotters.

JURASSIC HATTIE LOOKS FOR OHIO SIRE STAKES REPEAT

The wait continues as the top two Ohio sophomore filly trotters find themselves in different divisions for leg 2 of the Ohio Sires Stakes, tonight at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Jurassic Hattie, the winner in leg 1, and Sugar Instead last year's freshman trotting colt of the year in Ohio, highlight the two $65,000 divisions.

Jurassic Hattie is the even-money favorite for trainer Eric Nesselroad in the first division. The winner of all four starts this year will start from the number 4 post position. Brett Miller will drive Jurassic Hattie, an easy winner in the first leg as she romped to a 5-length victory.

Justasiam AS is the second choice on the morning line at 3-1. Justasiam AS has hit the board in three of four starts for trainer Anette Lorentzon, winning a leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series. Tony Hall will drive Justasiam AS.

Sugar Instead will look for her fourth win in as many starts in the second division. She is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. and will have Miller in the bike. Sugar Instead is the second choice at 2-1 behind the favorite, lam Independent.

lam Independent finished second to Jurassic Hattie in the first leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes. Chris Page will drive the 9-5 favorite for trainer Ron Burke.

Jurassic Hattie and Sugar Instead, both Volstead fillies, have met one time. That meeting was last July when Jurassic Hattie won the Next Generation at Eldorado Scioto Downs by 3 lengths.

The second leg of the Ohio Sires stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies is part of a 16-race card that includes five divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old trotting colts.

TENNESSEE TOM SCORES IN OHSS AT MGM NORTHFIELD PARK

A month off was no problem for Ohio's 2023 freshmen trotting champion Tennessee Tom as the son of Long Tom scored an impressive victory in the $100,000 Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters on Saturday at MGM Northfield Park.

Tennessee Tom (Chris Page) looked like he might be up against it when they were going to the half with the favorite Spaaaanzano setting comfortable fractions upfront of :28.1 and :57.3.

Page couldn't wait any longer as the flow wasn't developing, so he pulled just past the half and worked on the rim uncovered. He gained moderately and got to the leader's wheel right as they passed three-quarters in 1:26.1.

Around the far turn, he continued gaining ground before putting his nose in front with an eighth of a mile to go and, under very minimal urging, went on to win to remain perfect this season in 1:55.

Spaaaanzano (Aaron Merriman) was able to hold on to the place position as pocket-sitting Royal Precedent (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) wasn't able to gain and finished third.

His eighth career win pushes him to $541,350 in career earnings. Tennessee Tom is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, Hatfield Stables and Knox Services.

MGM Northfield Park currently races four days a week, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday evenings at 6:00 p.m.

DSBF first-leg action on display at Harrington

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) first leg action for 3-year-olds wrapped up Wednesday (June 12) at Harrington Raceway with six $20,000 divisions for trotters.

Going Platinum (Corey Callahan) started the night a 2:02.1 winner in the early non-wagering event, the first division for filly trotters. The EL Platinum filly led all the way for trainer Nick Callahan. Glide Along was second with Chinco Mayo third. It was one of four driving wins for Callahan on the card.

The second division went to Platinum Proposal ($2.10, Jim Morand) in 2:00.4, over Little Silver and Wolfpack Wilma. Owned by Stuart Chambers, Bcjm Inc., and Diving Horse Racing, it was the sixth career win for the daughter of EL Platinum, who is trained by Les Givens, who had three wins on the card.

Deborah Warnick's Royal Beep Beep ($3.80, Montrell Teague) won the first division for colts and geldings in 1:59.4. The Yankee Royalty gelding achieved his fifth win lifetime over Trout Master and Portnoy.

Lg's Bluestone ($5.80, Art Stafford, Jr.) won the second division for male trotters in 1:59.3 over Workslikecharm and Jetsam. The Anders Bluestone gelding notched his fifth career win for co-owner/trainer Givens. Stafford, Jr. had three victories Wednesday.

Another Givens-trainee would capture the final division as Nanticoke Racing's Lg's Jaxon ($2.20, Jim Morand) was a 1:59.3 winner over Daddy Wags and Chief Funster. The Rolls Blue Chip gelding set all the fractions in his ninth career win.

In DSBF action on Tuesday (June 11), Jo Ann Looney-King's Curtsyforpurrseco ($2.80, Tim Tetrick) won the fastest of three Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) $20,000 eliminations for pacing fillies with a 1:56.4 triumph.

The Roddy's Bags Again filly emerged from the pocket and edged past Jett Propelled in the stretch, while American Marvel gained late for third. Trained by Jim King, Jr., it was her ninth career victory.

Eric Davis' Makemymommaproud ($36.40, Davis) sprung an upset in the second split after surging down the passing lane and reeling in front stepping pacesetter Bad Nella Monella, who was second. Salma was third. A daughter of Nova Artist, it was the second career win for Makemymommaproud, who is trained by her owner/driver.

The final DSBF split saw Shawn Hanley's Grace O'Malley ($3.20, Corey Callahan) prevail in front end fashion in 1:57.1 over Smalltown Bad Girl and Bella's Dream. Trained by Crissy Crissman-Bier, it was the Emeritus Maximus filly's third win of the season.

P T Stable's Beat Cop ($3, Tim Tetrick) was the fastest of three DSBF $20,000 divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings Monday (June 10) at Harrington in 1:55.1.

The Dragon King gelding outkicked a game Captain Pete in deep stretch for a narrow win, the 12th of his career for trainer Crissy Crissman-Bier. Matt's Artist finished third.

In the second division, Ross Wolfenden's Cavalli Island ($2.40, Wolfenden) was a wire-to-wire winner over Rowdy Dragon and There Goes Bubba. The Badlands Hanover gelding is trained by Bobby Glassmeyer and notched his fourth career win.

Rodney Wyatt's Shocking Truth ($10.60, Allan Davis) won the final DSBF division in 1:57.1 over Im Still Here and Tug River Patrick. The Badlands Hanover gelding recorded his third win of the season, all at Harrington, for trainer Eddie Dennis.

Live racing will continue through June 26 on a Monday through Wednesday schedule (post time 4:30 p.m.).

Justcallmebuck kicks into gear in the Maine Sire Stakes

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Justcallmebuck showed fans of the Maine Sire Stakes that he is one to watch in the glamour boys' division for 3-year-old male pacers, scoring in 1:57.4 on Wednesday (June 12) at historic Bass Park.

Two $16,416 divisions of the Maine Standardbred Breeders Stakes went postward in the opening two races on the afternoon card, premiering what looks like another exciting season of Pine Tree State-sired harness racing.

As the wings folded in the opener Aaron Hall blasted Whats For Suppaah out to the lead to protect his pylon position, with Wes's Challenge (Walter Case, Jr.) and Justcallmebuck (Heath Campbell) charging hard from their respective outside post positions and settling in behind the pacesetter.

Campbell and Justcallmebuck had nary a moment's rest in the 3-hole as they were back out and rolling to the top and setting a snappy :28.3 opening tempo.

The first to the outer flow was Arts Flight (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) who kept the developing colt's attention through a :59.1 half. Case had Wes's Challenge poised to pounce second over as the field moved down the backstretch and into the 1:28.3 third panel, with Hall maintaining a strong hold on Whats For Suppaah who was locked in the pocket.

Case swung Wes's Challenge three wide around the final turn to challenge for the lead and appeared to have caught the pacesetter. However, Campbell shook the lines at Justcallmebuck and the 3-year-old son of Deuce Seelster responded to hold the would-be spoiler at bay.

The final time of 1:57.4 was a new lifetime mark for the homebred property of Kristina Hall, prevailing by half of a measured length. Trained by Gary Hall, he paid $3.20 to win for the second time in his career.

Wes's Challenge finished second; Whats For Suppaah was third.

In the second $16,461 division of 3-year-old Maine-bred male pacers, the Tardif Taskforce entry prevailed, despite the most accomplished part of the prohibitive betting choice, Two Fold Cold, being scratched sick.

Hesjustadelight (Ron Cushing) last year's freshmen champion took the field to the opening quarter in a smooth :29.1, with the field of five strung out by well over 10 lengths. As the single file queue passed the stands for the first time Kevin Switzer, Jr. moved Ella V Fella from the back of the pack to range up toward the leaders, passing the half in :59.4.

Ella V Fella caught the leader going down the backstretch and those two began their own race, scampering swiftly away from the rest of the pack. With Hesjustadelight on the inside, and Ella V Fella on the outside, the stubborn pair exchanged strides until the 1:29.4 third panel where the aggressor waved goodbye and paced away from the former leader and gained command through the final turn.

Scoring by 3 lengths, the 3-year-old son of Artistic Fella shaved a tick off his lifetime mark by stopping the timer in 1:58.1. Ella V Fella, the 1-5 favorite was bred, and is owned and trained by Marc Tardif, paying $2.40 to win his third consecutive outing.

Hesjustadelight finished second; CBF Windy Fella (Dave Ingraham) was third.

Maine Sire Stake resumes on Saturday (June 15) as First Tracks Cumberland hosts two $16,196 divisions for 3-year-old pacing fillies, which are slated as races 1 and 3 on the regular card. First post is 3:15 p.m.

Posts drawn for strong 41st Pepsi North America Cup

The field for the 41st Pepsi North America Cup is now slotted in for Saturday's (June 15) $1 million race at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The post-position draw for Canada's most prestigious harness race took place Tuesday evening (June 11).

Elimination winners Captains Quarters, Funtime Bayama and Nijinsky were guaranteed to land a post anywhere from 2 to 6. Captains Quarters landed post 5, Funtime Bayama got post 6 and Nijinsky post 4.

"I'm thinking as [they're] drawing the posts, how many times that I've actually been here to experience it and it just never gets old," said Jody Jamieson, who will drive Captains Quarters for trainer Herb Holland. "Herb and Carolyn [MacIsaac] had him just on his toes [in the elimination] and I expect them to be able to maybe even have him a touch better this week and makes it all that more exciting."

Captains Quarters, who won last year's Metro Pace, won his elimination in a career best 1:49.1 for his fourth win in eight career starts. The son of Captaintreacherous is owned by Rich Stiles.

Funtime Bayama races for Yves Filion's Bayama Farms, trainer Richard Moreau and driver Sylvain Filion. Sylvain will look to follow his father to an NA Cup win, as Yves won the 1988 edition with Runnymede Lobell.

"That was amazing," said Sylvain of the 1988 NA Cup win. "All the family was there, and we were so anxious it was unbelievable. "[Funtime Bayama] has been pretty good the whole year... he's good and strong, and hopefully he'll be good Saturday. If he's as good as I think he is, we have a good shot"

Funtime Bayama is four-for-five this season, including a 1:50.1 elimination score. The gelded son of Hes Watching has won eight of 12 career starts, never finishing outside the top three in any of those outings.

Nijinsky is one of two starters for trainer Anthony Beaton. The son of Bettors Delight won his elimination in 1:50.2 to remain undefeated in four starts this season after winning just once in 10 as a 2-year-old. Louis-Philippe Roy will drive Nijinsky for owners West Wins Stable, John Fielding and Mark Dumain.

The other Beaton Cup starter is 2023 O'Brien Award winner Legendary Hanover. The son of Huntsville finished second by a head to Funtime Bayama in his elimination for his first loss of 2024.

"It's such a deep field of horses," said James MacDonald, who drives Legendary Hanover from post 8. "It looks like, usually there's two or three that can probably legitimately win, and this year it looks like there's probably eight or nine. It's an unbelievable field."

Legendary Hanover has won eight of 13 career starts for owners Eric Good, West Wins Stable and Mark Dumain.

Trainer Nancy Takter will send out two Cup starters in search of her third victory in the event. Ivy Park leaves from post 7 with 2020 Cup winning driver Yannick Gingras, while Total Stranger goes from post 9 with two-time Cup winning driver Tim Tetrick.

Captain Albano, who has won nine times and never been outside the top two in 12 starts, goes from post 2 for 2022 Cup winning duo of driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Noel Daley.

Captain Luke also has past Cup winning connections. Driver Scott Zeron is looking to go back-to-back after winning last year with It's My Show, while trainer Tony Alagna won in 2013 with Captaintreacherous. Captain Luke is a three-time winner and starts from post 3.

Trainer Dr. Ian Moore and driver Bob McClure team with Storm Shadow from the rail starting spot. The same duo finished second in 2020 with Tattoo Artist.

The outside starter from post 10 is Janelle Granny. The Ohio standout will race for local father-son duo of trainer Ron and driver Brett MacDonald. Both will be making their Cup debut.

The stakes record is 1:47.2, established in 2019 by Captain Crunch.

The Pepsi North America Cup is scheduled as Race 11 (10:40 p.m. EDT).

The $1 million Pepsi North America Cup is the feature race on a $2.5-million card of racing. The $425,000 Fan Hanover, $305,000 Roses Are Red, $233,000 Armbro Flight, $225,000 Goodtimes and $100,000 Mohawk Gold Cup are all part of the rich program.

First-race post time is 6:30 p.m.

Admission and parking are free for this year's Pepsi North America Cup.

For event information, visit WoodbineMohawkPark.com.

The full field for the Pepsi North America Cup is listed below.

Little Rocket Man upsets in thrilling $200,000 Battle of Lake Erie at MGM Northfield Park

The old saying goes, “third time’s the charm,” and for Little Rocket Man, the third trip to the $200,000 Battle of Lake Erie was a winning one, as he scored an impressive upset victory on Saturday (June 8) at MGM Northfield Park.

Entering the backstretch, Bythemissal powered past Carbine to take over before a soft :27 first quarter. As the field entered the stretch the first time, Little Rocket Man (Jeremy Smith) looked like he wanted to come to the outside, but bided his time, waiting on Coaches Corner (Jason Bartlett) to step off the pylons to do some of the heavy lifting.

With the outer flow developing, Merriman tipped Linedrive Hanover to the outside first over to take a shot at the two-time Ohio Horse of the Year. Bythemissal continued to cruise on the front end past the half in :55.2.

Entering the backstretch, Bythemissal continued to fend off all challengers, but at three-quarters in 1:23, the race was on, with Page looking over his shoulder to a host of pursuers.

As they entered the far turn, Coaches Corner tipped off cover three-wide, bringing Little Rocket Man, who got the perfect trip with him. Pocket sitting Carbine was stacked up around the far turn behind a tiring Bythemissal, with Little Rocket Man roaring four-wide turning for home.

“That four-wide move around the last turn is very difficult,” said a jubilant trainer, Ken Rucker. “He’s got a heart of gold; he wants to win every race he is in.”

Through the stretch, Bythemissal gave way, with Little Rocket Man, dismissed at 20-1, storming down the center of the racetrack in upset fashion to win by a half-length in 1:52.4.

Owned by Russell E. Beeman and Jack A. Freeman, the 8-year-old son of Rockin Image is trained by Ken Rucker. It was the 59th victory for the gelding and brought his earnings to $1,872,799.

“Everything I anticipated to happen in the race didn’t happen,” said winning driver Jeremy Smith. “My horse just overcame it; at the half, I thought if I could be third or fourth, it would be great, but going into the last turn, my confidence swelled. He never lets me down.”

Why Not Now was pulled up before three-quarters, following up with trainer Todd Luther after the race, he said “He’s okay, the vet ran some fluids through him, and we will take him home for further examination.”

In the $75,000 MGM Buckeye Distaff at MGM Northfield Park on Saturday (June 9), Racing For Three made it four-for-four over the “Home of the Flying Turns” with a power-packed victory.

Soft Spot (Jason Bartlett) was put into play early, clearing foes entering the first turn, with Racing For Three (Trevor Smith) taking up the pocket position and Hey Hey Mama (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) finding a seat in third.

Soft Spot led the field in the straight alignment past an uncontested quarter of :27.3. Entering the stretch for the first time, Do It Like Bobbi (Austin Hanners), who was parked from the start, engaged Soft Spot, but Bartlett continued controlling the tempo, with the field getting to the half in :57.

Bartlett sped to three-quarters in 1:24.4, asking his mare for a little more entering the far turn. Ground saving Racing For Three exploded around the final turn, working past Soft Spot, winning by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:54.

“We got lucky coming into the last turn, she likes to drift out a little bit, so when she came out of the pocket, I was very happy,” said Smith. “She’s such a fun horse to drive.”

Owned by Carlo Racing LLC, and C2G Stable, the 4-year-old by Western Terror pushed her career earnings to $237,970.

MGM Northfield Park currently races four days a week, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday evenings at 6 p.m.

Empire Breeders Classic trots at Vernon today

Vernon Downs will play host to the 2024 Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) for NY Sire Stakes sophomore trotting colts and fillies today (June 14) on a matinee card with post time at 12:15 p.m.

With seven fillies entered the EBC will go as a single division for a purse of $193,400 in race 7.

The favorite’s role goes to the streaking R Melina who has won all three of her seasonal starts in NYSS events while adding $100,100 to her career bankroll, which is closing in on a half million dollars for owners Doug and Rosalind Paul as M&L Of Delaware and partners Rita Armitage and James McLane racing as Alabama Harness Associates.

The Chapter Seven filly has dominated N.Y. and boasts a few Grand Circuit scores along the way, but the path to victory here is complicated by several fillies who had successful seasons while competing at the highest level in 2023.

She races out of the John Butenschoen stable and regular driver Tyler Buter will be along for the ride on today.

The colt stake split into a pair of $101,500 divisions.

Race 5 features Sir Pinocchio (Jason Bartlett) who has captured three of five starts this year, including the Dexter Cup, while amassing $118,558 for trainer Ed Hart and owner Carolyn Atherton who also bred the son of Met's Hall.

Competition-wise, Situationship has won his only seasonal start and will contend for trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt. A leader in the regional division, Situationship had a Grand Circuit presence while banking over $137,000 for Knutsson Trotting, Little E, LLC and Tomas Andersson last year. Keep Asking's (Tyler Buter) current form makes him a contender for trainer George Ducharme and partners Bill Donovan, Joe Sbrocco and Jim Winske.

Dame Good Time set a track record of 1:51.1 in a NYSS at Vernon in his most recent start for trainer Travis Alexander and is the horse to beat in race 6. The homebred Chapter Seven gelding posted a Grand Circuit win in the Bluegrass at The Red Mile for John Cummins of Lexington, KY and driver Scott Zeron has stuck right with him.

The main opposition is inside here, as both Bargain (Yannick Gingras for Nancy Takter) and Wild Ticket (Dexter Dunn for Marcus Melander) had six figure seasons as freshmen.

These races are made possible by a joint sponsorship between The Agriculture &

NY State Horse Breeding Development Fund, NY Stallion Owners and Tioga & Vernon Downs who between them provide more than $480,000 in funding for the stakes.

The supporting stakes are a pair of NYSS divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts along with four Excelsior splits.
