checking if there were storms approaching and those types of things,” Settlemoir said.

Since setting up shop in northern New Jersey, Settlemoir still keeps his eyes on the sky, but what he’s seeing is somewhat different.

“This area is very, very strange for weather,” Settlemoir said, adding with a laugh, “And you can count on one thing here in East Rutherford, that if you think it’s going right, it’ll probably go left.”

June is the time when things start to heat up at The Meadowlands, but typically, it’s happening on the track.

This year, the summer solstice (June 20) fell in the middle of an anticipated heatwave.

“It’s just unfortunate that we’re having to pay attention to the heat indexes so early in the year here because as we get into the warmer summer months – the typically warmer summer months of July and August – I don’t know what we’ll see,” said The Meadowlands chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. “It does cause me a little bit of concern to see these temperatures already in the middle of June.”

The fact that weather plays a big part in his job is welcomed by Settlemoir.

“I love weather,” the 47-year-old Settlemoir said. “I’ve been watching the weather my entire life, so I keep a pretty close eye on it. I’ve always been interested in hurricanes and tornadoes and those kinds of things and how exactly these things wind up on our radars.”

Prior to coming to work for Jeff Gural in 2006 at Tioga Downs and Vernon Downs, and eventually, The Big M in 2012, Settlemoir worked at tracks in his home state of Ohio.

“When I was at Scioto Downs, they called me ‘the meteorologist,’ because I constantly had my eye on the weather and was always

It does cause me a little bit of concern to see these temperatures already in the middle of June.”

A heat dome dropped on the Northeast earlier this week with what some news outlets are reporting as the hottest stretch for much of this country in 30 years. On Wednesday (June 19), the anticipated heatwave kicked off with a high of 91 degrees in East Rutherford, prompting heat advisories for the area.

Today (June 21) is expected to be the worst of the hot, hazy, humid days, but having to deal with scorching temperatures is nothing new to Settlemoir and his team.

“Well, there are many things that we do to keep everybody safe,” Settlemoir said. “First of all, we take our direction from the New Jersey Racing Commission and if the heat index is at 105 degrees or above there would be delays that are put in place to see if that number would come down.

“The fortunate part for us is that we race at night. So, generally speaking, the cooler air does start to move in in the evenings, once the sun goes down.”

According to Settlemoir, heat advisories are issued when a combination of the heat and humidity are expected to make it feel like 95 to 99 degrees for two or more consecutive days or 100 to 104 for any length of time.

“Now, as you can see, those numbers don’t quite reach the status of the 105 degrees with the heat index where we would have to start thinking about pushing back the races later until the cooler conditions set in or ultimately cancelling," he said. "While that possibility does exist, it hasn't happened since I've been here where we've had to cancel at night [due to heat].

"It looks to me as though [tonight], which would be the more difficult day of the two [race] days, they're also forecasting thunderstorms for the evening, which would lower the temperature as well."

Anyone racing at The Meadowlands this weekend will see the track's usual heat-related precautions in place.

"There will be buckets of water in the winner's circle with sponges and ice in it to be able to cool the equine athletes down and as soon as they arrive back, there will also be additional water and ice located throughout the paddock. And then, obviously, with the human side of things, we encourage them to stay hydrated as well.

"We have EMTs that are here fully staffed at any point in time that this property is open. As a matter of fact, when we race live, we have EMTs up front and then we have EMTs in the back... And we have the New Jersey Racing Commission and their staff and vets that are on hand that will be paying particular attention to make sure that the equine athlete does not overheat and we'll be keeping a very close eye on them."

In anticipation of a hot July and August, Settlemoir said that The Meadowlands has already ordered even more fans, including the kind that mist.

"I noticed it early on and [Hambletonian Society president] John Campbell and I had talked about it as well," Settlemoir said. "I noticed the weather pattern and, look, let's just be honest, it went from being downright chilly to downright hot."

Trainer Jim Campbell, who will be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, two weeks from Sunday, is racing tonight at The Meadowlands and will be shipping in from Magical Acres, which is about an hour away without traffic.

Jim said under normal circumstances he's not worried about his horse making the trip to the track in the heat.

"The only time when it would really be a concern, and you have no control over it, is if there happened to be a major delay on the road and you're standing still," Jim said. "But as long as you're moving, that keeps the air circulating through [the trailer] and keeps them comfortable."

According to Jim, everyone just needs to use common sense and make sure that the windows are all open on their trailers, so that the horses can feel that breeze.

People of a certain age will certainly remember taking long car trips with the windows rolled down prior to air conditioning being common.

"If it's 70 degrees or 90 degrees, it's the same," Jim said. "You just want to have [the trailer] ventilated very well."

With such an active weather pattern already in the Gulf of Mexico and in the Atlantic Ocean so early in the season, Settlemoir expects there may be more heatwaves to come.

"History tells us that when those types of conditions present themselves so early in the year at the beginning of summer that it will be a long and hot summer," Settlemoir said. "At the end of the day, if the horsemen need anything additional, then they should just let us know and we'll make sure that we're doing what we can to make sure that they're all protected."

Happy 100th Birthday Stan Bergstein

by Bob Heyden

Stan Bergstein was born on June 19, 1924 and died on Nov. 2, 2011 at age 87. He and his beloved wife June had 60 years and 4 days together until she died in 2010.

Nobody ever had a bigger influence on the sport of harness racing than Stan.

The day he died in 2011, I made a promise to myself that I would remember and remind others of the huge impact this man had not only on me but a parade of others. It is the least I could do for a man who spent eight decades plus manning the bulldozer to make the sport seen and heard.

The 1920s saw the birth of not only Stan, but Billy Haughton (11/2/23) and Stanley Dancer (7/25/27) as well as another gift to the world, the Hambletonian in 1926. Those four additions to the sport you could argue did more than any other group at any other time. A century later all are still celebrated.

Stan all but invented the 'claiming' race as we know it today. He was the one who recommended to Dancer to buy Su Mac Lad in the late 1950s. Dancer did and 'Sumie' retired on Sept. 30 1965 as the richest trotter who ever lived.

Stan started the 'experimentals' in 1965 rating the sophomores on both gaits in predicted order of speed.

He championed television coverage whenever and wherever he could. He manned the microphone for many of the biggest races; most notably the Hambletonian at DuQuoin. As well as the mic at sales as a seasoned auctioneer and pedigree reader.

He was most instrumental in getting "Racing from Yonkers/ Roosevelt " on the superstation WOR from 1974-86, thus introducing thousands and thousands of newbies to the sport. Stan was a true visionary, the kind who actually facilitated change, who urged upgrades, who made notables into stars, all the while shunning the spotlight.

The World Driving Championship that debuted in 1970 was his brainchild.

He was chief executive officer of Harness Tracks of America, but he was also Stan "The Fan" and Stan "The Man." Baseball's Stan "The Man" Musial retired in 1963 while ours was just getting started.

It's impossible for me to say the name Stan Bergstein without smiling and recalling almost too many memories. Stan was two parts raconteur and one part rascal. He was the high school principal and your guidance counselor. He was an adventurer, an advisor, an advocate and an art-lover. Oh, how he loved art. He was part showman but never a showoff.

He commanded respect, expected honesty, and saw to it to reward dedication and hard work any way he could. He was a mentor and a mensch. He wore oh-so-many hats while juggling oh-so-many balls in the air at the same time.

He was diminutive in stature but every single ounce was sincere and real. He was the voice of harness racing and its conscience. If harness racing had its own Jeopardy, Stan would be just as comfortable asking as he would answering. He outworked those 20, 30, 40 years younger and was steadfast in his 24/7 positivity.

He did not want you to walk in his shadow. Instead, he preferred you create your own with no need at all to reference his name at the bottom of any page.

He'd downplay his blue ribbons because he was far too busy hoisting up yours.

In the mid-to-late '80s in The Meadowlands press box, Stan [Bergstein] was sitting right next to a, shall we say, "Gum-Flapper Supreme"... Neither had budged even after 30 or 35 minutes had gone by. After it disbanded, I walked over and told Stan, "You are a lot braver soul than I." Stan then pointed to his right ear and told us he saw no reason at all to have flipped his hearing aid on.

He was forever championing the little guy; Google Jodevin mid-1970s when you get a chance.

Stan was the guy out front distributing playbills prior to hustling backstage to help out. You had to look hard during the standing ovation, where 5-foot-something Stan was somewhere behind the stars. When asked once why he seemed to avoid the highest pedestal he remarked, "My legs don't reach that far."

Stan was color blind. If his early years working with the Harlem Globetrotters wasn't proof enough, his promotion of all African Americans in the sport any time he could was evident. Lew Williams comes immediately to mind.

Stan did something very few did, or can do, he remained on top of his game to the end. Stan was stuck at the dock the day the "Ship of Irrelevance" sailed.

With Stan you always got the feeling he was in your corner. No, forget that, he was firmly with you. His was a never-ending effort to prop up harness racing and to tell our thoroughbred counterparts "Hey, we are here too!"

When your group leader is 100 per cent committed and into it, it tends to rub off.

Ever want to get on Stan's bad side? You could if you were a cheat, a corner-cutter, a drug user, an inappropriate self-promoter, or a purposeful disruptor. He might have missed his calling as a Tom Dewey-like prosecutor. Thankfully many of those skills were on display when Stan took you to task, no doubt preferring the woodshed.

Here are a couple of Stan memories that stand out to me.

Stan [Bergstein] was the guy out front distributing playbills prior to hustling backstage to help out. You had to look hard during the standing ovation, where 5-foot-something Stan was somewhere behind the stars. When asked once why he seemed to avoid the highest pedestal he remarked, “My legs don’t reach that far.”

1. The 1986 Meadowlands Pace press conference was on July 15th. Stan, thank goodness, was hosting in Pegasus on the top floor at The Meadowlands. Billy Haughton had just passed away that morning from injuries 12 days prior at Yonkers. I can’t tell you how much we needed Stan there at that moment.

2. In the mid-to-late ‘80s in The Meadowlands press box, Stan was sitting right next to a, shall we say, “Gum-Flapper Supreme.” We watched from a distance, two races worth easy. Neither had budged even after 30 or 35 minutes had gone by. After it disbanded, I walked over and told Stan, “You are a lot braver soul than I.” Stan then pointed to his right ear and told us he saw no reason at all to have flipped his hearing aid on.

When Stan passed away as we embarked on the Harrisburg sale of 2011, I slowly began to notice that nobody there was talking about replacing Stan, or the ‘next Stan.’ Nothing like that at all. Stan was not unlike the recent eclipse; they don’t come around very often.

Finally, Stan was a welcoming presence to me 40 plus years ago.

When I mentioned to a variety of people on several continents it was Stan’s 100th birthday on June 19, nobody said “Who?” Nobody had any problem recalling the helping hand he had extended their way. There was not even a hint of “Out of sight, out of mind.”

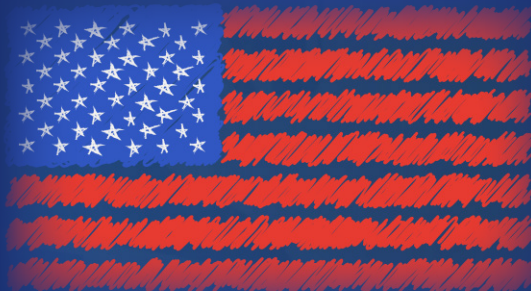

His legacy indeed lives on in so many ways and I strongly suspect that won’t be changing anytime soon.

Highland Kismet's long road to sudden stardom

by Melissa Keith

After his 1:51.3 victory in the Goodtimes Stake final on Saturday (June 15) night at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Highland Kismet (3, 1:51.3s; $109,135) is suddenly a divisional star on the rise at the right moment.

Two years ago, only his owner/breeder, Mary Clark of Highland Thoroughbred Frm, Inglewood, ON, held the gelding in such esteem.

"I'll tell you what, I give Mary full credit for staking him as she did, because in the middle of February [2024], I wouldn't have," said Mark Etsell, who took over training for Highland Kismet this January.

The son of Father Patrick—Highland Top Hill had not even qualified when he came into Etsell's barn at Ideal Training Center, Acton, ON this year.

"When I got him, I was a little leery, because we already had a barnful," said the winner of the 2023 O'Brien Award of Horsemanship, who also co-owned and trained 2023 O'Brien Older Trotting Mare of the Year Adare Castle. "I had 13 2-year-olds and 13 3-year-olds, so we were pretty busy and I didn't really have the time it takes to sort one out, so I was a little leery, I guess would be the best word. But Mary had a lot of faith in him. She just wanted me to give him that second chance."

When Highland Kismet came to Etsell in mid-January, he was still unraced, with a reputation earned under the tutelage of two previous trainers.

"I never had him as a 2-year-old," said Estell. "Apparently, and I'm just going by what the owner told me, they were frustrated because he wouldn't trot a turn."

The gelding had "a few changes" to his shoeing this year, as well as "a little vet work," said Etsell.

Claus Andersen
Highland Kismet (Bob McClure) romping to victory in the Goodtimes.

There were also equipment changes.

“He [initially] wore a massive burr headpole, a Murphy blind, and a gait strap,” said the Rockwood, ON-based horseman. “You couldn’t train him with anybody else at first, because he would lose his mind on the turns. He trotted fast on the straightaways.”

Etsell drove Highland Kismet in his first qualifier, April 26 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. They cruised to victory by over seven lengths, in a 1:58.2 mile with a :26.3 last quarter.

“He didn’t really show that high speed until we qualified him,” said the trainer.

The 2024 Goodtimes champ broke his maiden May 2, winning at Mohawk in 1:54.4 for his now-regular driver Bob McClure. Highland Kismet’s lone defeat in five starts to date came on May 23, when he swept down the Mohawk stretch to finish just a head behind Emoji Hanover.

Capturing his June 7 Goodtimes elimination in 1:54 over Private Access, Highland Kismet was the winning favorite over the same colt in the June 15 final. He spotted rivals a couple of lengths at the start, ending up four-wide early, but quickly took back to fourth along the pylons for McClure. A first-over brush past leader Private Access carried him to the half in :55.3.

The two battled into the stretch, where Highland Kismet pulled away from Private Access, winning by 3¼ lengths.

“North America, meet Highland Kismet!” announced WMP race caller Ken Middleton.

“In all honesty, [Highland Kismet is] going to the Hambo unless he can’t.”

~Mark Etsell

The 1:51.3 clocking matched Trixton’s stakes record for the Goodtimes, and is Canada’s fastest mile by a 3-year-old male trotter this season.

It is not the seasonal record for trotting colts on Canadian soil, although it’s frequently listed as one.

“I’ve told [the racing media] five times he’s a gelding,” said Etsell with a laugh. “I don’t know what else to say. He was gelded last year at some point.”

The news hadn’t reached many in the industry, leading to some confusion among people watching Highland Kismet’s rapid progress.

“The day I qualified him, Myron Bell from Brittany Farms called me,” said Etsell. “He was calling me because he was excited that Highland Kismet was a colt.”

While not a future stallion prospect, Highland Kismet is definitely a gelding to watch this year.

“He’s a special animal, that’s for sure,” said Etsell. “He’ll do whatever you ask of him.”

“ [Highland Kismet initially] wore a massive burr headpole, a Murphy blind, and a gait strap. You couldn’t train him with anybody else at first, because he would lose his mind on the turns. He trotted fast on the straightaways.”

–Mark Etsell

Off the track, the gelding is a horse who takes care of himself. “He lies down a lot; he likes to eat,” said Etsell. “He’s just what you like to see. The horse likes everybody. He’s just come into himself.”

Caretaker Raymond Roach is also part of the winning team behind Highland Kismet. Before the Goodtimes final, Roach ate his dinner alongside the gelding in the Mohawk paddock.

“He worked with thoroughbreds and this is his first go with standardbreds,” said Etsell. “He loves his horses, but he was also under strict instructions not to leave him that night.”

Highland Kismet is a homebred, still owned by Highland Thoroughbred Frm. His dam, Highland Top Hill (5, 1:52.4s; $148,624) was also bred and owned by Clark’s farm, as was her dam, Highland Image (3, 1:54.1s; $17,823), who has since been exported to Italy.

Etsell praised Clark for her “generations of confidence and hopefulness” in Highland Kismet’s maternal family.

“It’s funny because she had a couple of yearlings this year, and her plan was to keep them and sell the mares,” he said. “Now, she’s keeping his dam.”

Highland Kismet is Highland Top Hill’s first foal. The mare has since produced a full sister, Highlandstarburst, now 2. A yearling half-brother by Greenshoe, Highland Destiny, is now in Etsell’s stable. Highland Top Hill’s 2024 foal is a King Of The North filly, Highland Firen Ice.

Etsell said Clark’s foresight is paying off in Highland Kismet.

“I give her kudos,” said Etsell. “This is her first major stakes winner, ever. She’s been in the business a long time, so she’s just floating. She’s really happy and excited to go to New Jersey at the end of July.”

With one more start expected at Mohawk before Highland Kismet makes his American debut in the July 13 Stanley Dancer Stake at The Meadowlands, the gelding’s owner, trainer, and driver share one goal.

“In all honesty, he’s going to the Hambo unless he can’t,” said Etsell.

Anticipating the rubber match between Leap To Fame and Swayzee

by Adam Hamilton

Champions are great, but fierce rivalries are even better.

When it comes to Aussie pacers Leap To Fame and Swayzee, there are so many layers to it.

Leap To Fame is a champion, by whatever measure.

And Swayzee is one of the great modern-day stayers, already with a Group 1 victory over Leap To Fame.

Throw in the fact they are siblings – both out of Art Major mare Lettucereason – and the rivalry burns even deeper.

Swayzee is a big burly son of Rock N Roll Heaven, while Leap To Fame is more compact and athletic, being a son of Bettors Delight.

They were both bred by Paul Kahlefeldt through his family's Redbank Lodge.

Leap To Fame and Swayzee have met just twice and the scoreline sits at 1-1.

Swayzee drew first blood when he upstaged his younger half-brother in the Group 1 Blacks A Fake at Albion Park on July 22, last year.

It left a large and very pro-Leap To Fame crowd gobsmacked.

Driver Cam Hart took Swayzee to the front, forcing Leap To Fame to sit parked and chase.

And chase he certainly had to as Hart “cut the ribbons” on Swayzee and let him charge along in front, smashing the track record with a 1:54 mile rate for the long 2680-meter trip.

More drama emerged post-race when Leap To Fame returned with not only a flat tire, but a tube which had wrapped around his sulky wheel and seized it for the length of the home straight. It became like a handbrake, according to trainer/driver Grant Dixon.

To say it added merit to Leap To Fame's defeat was an understatement.

Hours after the win, Swayzee's trainer Jason Grimson, who claims he was heckled and called a cheat by numerous people on track, was involved in a brawl, which later saw him disqualified for 12 months.

Grimson subsequently fought the penalty and had it reduced to a fine.

Like a boxing title fight, Leap To Fame fans were screaming for a rematch immediately after the Blacks A Fake.

Swayzee (Cam Hart) winning the Blacks A Fake last July.

But they had to wait a few months, for the Brisbane Inter Dominion final at Albion Park on Dec. 16.

In between stoushes, Swayzee underlined his staying greatness by doing what has been almost impossible for Australian-trained pacers... winning the iconic New Zealand Cup at Addington in Christchurch last November.

Swayzee downed local pin-up pacer and favorite Akuta in an astonishing display of sustained speed and strength; much like his Blacks A Fake win.

He became just the second Aussie-trained pacer in 38 years to beat the Kiwis in their biggest race.

Then came the Brisbane Inter Dominion.

Event organizers wisely kept Swayzee and Leap To Fame apart through the three rounds of qualifying heats to build suspense.

Come final time, Swayzee drew inside Leap To Fame but the local hero was still a warm favorite because of his effortless cruise through wins in all three qualifying heats.

Could Swayzee do it again?

The race was effectively over in the first 250 meters when outsider Future Assured was able to get across Swayzee at the start, giving Leap To Fame the advantage of being able to work forward and take the lead.

Swayzee tried hard, but having to reverse the rolls from the Blacks A Fake was too big an ask.

Leap To Fame roared clear to win easily, with Swayzee 11.5 meters away in third place.

Grimson didn't make excuses at the time, but later revealed the tough NZ Cup run and associated travel had taken a toll on Swayzee.

"I'm sure we didn't have the absolute best version of him through the Inter Dominion," he said.

So, Swayzee headed to the paddock for a long spell and missed many of Australia's biggest races earlier this year.

Leap To Fame took full advantage of Swayzee's absence, continuing a winning streak which is now 13 races.

Through that, the 5-year-old completed Aussie harness racing's "Triple Crown," by adding the Hunter Cup and Miracle Mile to his Inter Dominion win.

The only other pacer to do that in the same campaign was the mighty Preux Chevalier, way back in 1985.

Grimson watched, waited and wondered what if with Swayzee.

But now both are back, firing and in Queensland.

They both race this weekend, but not against each other just yet.

Leap To Fame is chasing his 14th successive win and his 38th from just 48 starts when he contests Friday night's (June 21) Patrons Purse at Redcliffe.

The following night, the NSW-based Swayzee opens his latest Brisbane raid as a hot favorite in the Lucky Creed Pace over his ideal 2680-meter trip.

Fans are itching for round three between the siblings.

So, when will it be?

We may have to wait until the $400,000 Group 1 Blacks A Fake again. It's on July 27 at Albion Park.

That's because Leap To Fame will go to the $100,000 Group 2 Redcliffe Cup on June 29 and the $200,000 Group 1 Sunshine Sprint on July 20.

Grimson has indicated neither race is on the radar for Swayzee.

Whenever it is, it'll be worth the wait.

Kawartha's down-home charm still shining bright in 52nd season

by Matthew Lomon

What's Kawartha Downs' secret for churning out impressive attendance numbers year after year?

As Jim Huck, the Fraserville, ON, oval's general manager noted, the simple-yet-effective formula involves going above and beyond to ensure each guest's next visit is more exciting than their last.

"We have a strong following here at Kawartha Downs," Huck said, while also highlighting the steady presence of horseplayers both at the track and at home. "It's our 52nd year of racing. All in all, it's been a good year."

The five-eighths mile raceway officially kicked off its 2024 campaign with a 10-race card on Friday (May 17).

Shifting race days from Saturdays to Fridays was a move Huck, who assumed the GM role in August of 2021, viewed as an opportunity to maximize the multi-purpose event space's busy summer schedule.

"The reason for that is to free up the weekends for any events that we want to have, such as monster trucks, tractor pulls, concerts, or anything that would tie up our weekend," he said. "With horse racing, as you can imagine, you can't have monster trucks and horse racing on the same day. It's just not feasible.

So, we decided to move in this direction, and I pushed for it, and so far, Fridays have been a success. We're really enjoying it."

Clearing the runway for Kawartha's live harness product to take center stage is already starting to pay dividends in the attendance category, even before the summer reaches full swing.

"We think it was a good decision to race on Friday," Huck said. "Our attendance is strong now, but it's beginning to grow a lot more now that summer is kicking in. Once the kids are out of school, the place will be jam-packed."

Situated near Peterborough, an area known for lively summers, Kawartha's offerings may sometimes conflict with other major events going on in the county.

However, Huck and Co. turned a perceived weakness into a strength.

"There's a lot of stuff going on in Peterborough on the weekends, and that's one of the things that has really helped this year," Huck said. "For example, there are free concerts on Saturdays at Del Cray Park, where they bring in 3,000 or 4,000 people.

"Now, we don't compete against that because of Friday racing, and it allows people to realize there's something else going on. Word of mouth has gotten out that Kawartha Downs is now becoming more of an area not only to enjoy horse racing but all kinds of other activities."

Whether it be a car show or any of the other non-harness racing days that Huck mentioned, the decision to separate these events from the on-track racing product has still given Kawartha management an avenue to introduce different breeds of fans to racing.

One of the key spectator segments that Huck's team hopes Kawartha's appeal will resonate with is families.

"We've always emphasized doing whatever we can, say for a couple that has two young kids, 5, 6 years old, to bring them to the track," Huck said. "It's pretty inexpensive entertainment when you only have to buy a program at $2.50 – there's no parking fee, no admission – where can a young family go for next to nothing and be entertained?"

It appears Huck's palpable passion for the sport has already begun to rhyme with this key demographic.

"We think it was a good decision to race on Friday [rather than Saturday]. Our attendance is strong now, but it's beginning to grow a lot more now that summer is kicking in. Once the kids are out of school, the place will be jam-packed."

~ Jim Huck

“We get a lot of kids coming out as is and have a lot of things planned for the summer,” he said. “Aug. 2 is Kids Night at the Downs; there’s face painting, a clown, and balloon animals.”

These small, but considerate gestures have gone a long way in shaping Kawartha’s reputation as a family-friendly venue.

There’s plenty else for racing fans to look forward to over the next few months, particularly on July 19.

The day’s on-track festivities will include a double feature of Ontario Sires Stakes events for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Off the track, fans can (safely) test their driving skills through a simulated reality racing experience.

“The Bill Galvin Racing Alliance will be here that day, as well,” Huck said. “Their team brings a race bike and hooks it up to a virtual reality headset for you to put on as if you’re driving the horse.”

Theme nights aside, Huck said there’s a reason worth coming out for on all 18 race dates this season.

Trivia nights, prizes for non-winning wagering slips, live local music, photos with the equine athletes, tours of the backstretch, and wiener dog races are all on the docket this summer at Kawartha Downs.

During their visits to 1382 County Rd 28, Huck hopes fans will also find a moment to appreciate the high-quality live racing product before them.

Huck specifically shined a light on local legends Reg Gassien, brothers Doug and Carman Hie, and Murray Samons, who all participated on opening day.

Between them, the quartet has accumulated over 11,000 driving wins leading to nearly $55 million in purse earnings.

It was a special moment for Huck, who got to see some of the living legends he grew up watching and working alongside, compete against some of the sport’s up-and-comers.

The lifelong horseman, and former owner, got his start in the standardbred industry working under Doug Hie as a teenager. He’s also maintained a fond admiration for Gassien, as new names begin to take center stage at Kawartha.

“You can’t beat experience,” Huck said. “There are a lot of horsemen that have been driving at Kawartha for a long time. You see how some of the younger drivers look at these guys, especially Reg Gassien. He’s in his 70s and he’s still at the track, still one of the top guys. I tell him ‘You’re like wine Reg, you just keep getting better and better.’”

There are also stars-on-the-rise and established names who have uncorked their own success at Kawartha.

“We’ve always emphasized doing whatever we can, say for a couple that has two young kids, 5, 6 years old, to bring them to the track. It’s pretty inexpensive entertainment when you only have to buy a program at $2.50 – there’s no parking fee, no admission – where can a young family go for next to nothing and be entertained?”

~ Jim Huck

“Samuel Fillion, he was our leading driver last year,” Huck said. “There’s a young trainer named Thomas Riley, Samuel drives all of his horses. Tommy’s having a phenomenal year so far, he’s just a dominant trainer. Jimmy Gagnon, from out Rideau way, he’s now coming down. A lot of established horse people got their feet wet at Kawartha Downs. [Champion driver] James McDonald raced here early in his career, Jonathan Drury [closing in on 2,000 driving wins], too.

“We can say, ‘Hey, these big-name competitors got themselves going here.’ You see the young guys like Samuel, who’s a real up-and-comer, I see him making his way up through the circuit. Once you start getting well known and someone picks you up to drive more, off you go.”

Huck’s hope for those who compete on the racetrack and those who come for a night of racing is the same, that everyone feels right at home at Kawartha Downs.

Favorites impressed in Finland and Sweden

by Thomas Hedlund

Daniel Wäjersten trained Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) and Daniel Redén's Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) didn't have to face each other after two battles in Elitloppet elimination and final since Borups Victory's next objective was the $170,000 Kymi GP in Kuovola, Finland while Francesco Zet tried to defend his title in the $195,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris in Boden, Sweden. Both races were on Saturday (June 15).

And the two top horses did what the bettors expected. Borups Victory looked splendid in a safe triumph from the lead in Kuovola.

Elitloppet runner up Borups Victory, owned by former NHL star Mats Sundin, got company on the outside by Go On Boy with just over a half-mile to go and the big battle between the two eminent trotters was expected. But the race never achieved the drama we hoped for. Borups Victory was completely outstanding and Daniel Wäjersten just sat back and enjoyed the ride during the race's last 500 meters.

Replay here.

The mile rate for the winner was 1:54.1 over 1.3 miles and Go On Boy held strongly as the runner up. Jason's Camden grabbed the bronze medal after a trip behind Borups Victory.

On the other side of the Baltic Sea, far north in Sweden, Boden traditionally plays host to Norrbottens Stora Pris with a midnight sun (hopefully) and great horses. Francesco Zet visited Boden already last year and proved best in his first attempt among older elite trotters. This year, Post 7 behind the gate meant that Francesco Zet had to do some heavy lifting before he could overtake the lead from Castor The Star, a half-mile into the race. The pace was set at a high level, but Francesco Zet was just too good, again, after his Elitloppet adventure, where he ended up fourth in the final. Francesco Zet has dominated Swedish races big time since the fall of 2021 and proved in Boden that he definitely is one of the best trotters in the world.

Replay here.

Redén's star won in a stakes record of 1:53.4 over 1.3 miles, Castor The Star finished second and Great Skills third.

Redén's result in Norrbottens Stora Pris is quite remarkable. Well, Propulsion was disqualified afterwards, but he claimed the title in Boden 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019. In 2022, Don Fanucci Zet won and last year was Francesco Zet's turn.

Redén has visited Boden's winner's circle seven times since 2016.

NINETTA BOKO BEST IN PRIX DIANA ZET

Erwin Bot-trained Ninetta Boko (Father Patrick) hit the lead when 4-year-old mares met up in the $80,000 Prix Diana Zet at Solvalla on Wednesday (June 19) night.

Last year's winner of the Oaks, Adriatica, made her debut as a 4-year-old in this race and she held strongly as the runner up after a first over trip. Adriatica will probably be the mare to beat when bigger stakes races are contested later this year.

Winner Ninetta Boko came to the lead for driver Örjan Kihlström and she cruised to a safe win in a mile rate of 1:56.1.

The boys – and mares if they wanted to – contested the $120,000 Prix Readly Express. Kriteriet winner Fame And Glory (Tactical Landing), just as Timo Nurmos' Adriatica, had his first start for the season in the hands of Björn Goop. After a safe start, Fame And Glory attacked three wide with 1,200 meters remaining and Goop could rest in third over 300 meters later.

Fame And Glory had a great race, but was never close to winner Killiam Fromentro (Villiam), who impressed a lot in a strong wire-to-wire performance for trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro.

Killiam Fromentro won in a mile rate of 1:54.2 over 1.3 miles.

RIKARD N SKOGLUND MAKES A MOVE

Swedish catch driver Rikard N Skoglund tried his luck in 23 races in the U.S. last year and he really got a great taste for the American way of racing. So, he applied for a visa and this week the embassy granted his request. Skoglund will move to America and Per Engblom's stable.

"This is very exciting and fun, but at the same time it will be hard to leave without my family," Skoglund said in Sulkysport.se. "Initially I will get a temporary living and the first six months will be like a test for me. This adventure wouldn't be possible without Per Engblom's help and I will help him as much as I can in the stable."

Skoglund will be in New Jersey by the end of this week.

Elista Hanover, Emoji Hanover win sire stakes at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

Being named “E. Hanover” or “D. Miller” were the keys to success at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Sunday night (June 16), as Elista Hanover and Emoji Hanover won the two divisions of the $143,200 third preliminary of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies, and driver David Miller guided a Sire Stakes winner and three winners in the four $20,000 Stallion Series races.

Elista Hanover won her seventh straight race, a streak which includes five stakes, three of them Sire Stakes, and took a new lifetime mark of 1:52.3 for Miller in one PASS division. Tucking third briefly near the :27.1 quarter, Elista Hanover was then pointed to the front, reaching the top into the second turn and going on to mid-splits of :56 and 1:24.4. Upallnight Hanover, who had the lead at the quarter but had been shuffled to fifth by the three-quarters, came back to be second, 2½ lengths behind the winner, an International Moni filly trained by Annie Stoebe and co-owned by her with R. Lynn and Philomena Curry.

Louis-Philippe Roy, fresh off his success with Nijinsky in the North America Cup the previous night, came to the mountain oval for one drive, and his trip was well worth it as he piloted the Greenshoe filly Emoji Hanover to a 1:53.4 win, her fastest ever, in the other Sire Stakes division. Emoji Hanover and Roy had the rough “tuck-then-first-over” trip in fractions of :27.1, :57.1, and 1:26, but his filly trotted her own last quarter in :27.3 to hold off second-over Paulina Hanover by a length for connections with whom Roy has had previous success, trainer Luc Blais and the ownership of Determination.

Pick any measure of success, and Miller achieved it in the Stallion Series. Lifetime marks? All three of his winners set career bests. The lone double Stallion Series winner of the night? Fastest mile? Both distinctions belong to another daughter of International Moni, Southern Moni, up in 1:53.3 for trainer Blake MacIntosh, co-owner with Hutt Racing Stable, Tim Klemencic, and Ozzie Mackay. Longest-priced winner? Miller rallied the Andover Hall miss Moonshine Memories to a late-rallying 1:56.3 victory for trainer Paula Wellwood and owner Karen Carroll while paying $54.40 to win.

Miller completed his StS triple with the Father Patrick distaff Happy Chopper, who stopped the timer in 1:55 for trainer Mark Harder, co-owner with Dean Lockhart and Deena Frost. And who stopped the David Miller StS dominance? Well, that would be two Millers, driver Andy and trainer Julie, who teamed behind the Greenshoe filly Green Mercedes to win in 1:54, also a career best, for Andy Miller Stable Inc. Patrick Hoopes, and VIP Internet Stable LLC.

Admiral Hill sets track record at Oak Grove with Kentucky Sire Stakes win

by Oak Grove racing publicity

Per Engblom's pacing titan Admiral Hill again exerted authority over his peers to muscle a near gate-to-wire victory in the $50,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) third round at Oak Grove on Monday (June 17) while also going the fastest mile ever paced over the track by an older gelding.

Starting from the outermost post in the quintet, Admiral Hill (driven by Yannick Gingras) floated off the wings and towards the front through a :26.1 first quarter carved by stablemate Blue Lou (Dexter Dunn) leaving from the pylon post. Once on the helm, Admiral Hill filled his lungs to a :54.3 half and breezed up the backside when blitzed by For Once Inmy Life (Andy McCarthy), who stayed at the pacesetter's throat by three-quarters in 1:21.1 and all through the final turn. Gingras hit the pedal at the top of the stretch with a few taps of the whip and Admiral Hill accelerated for the finish to a wrapped-up win by a length in 1:48.3. Tip Top Cat (Todd McCarthy) closed from second over for second with Blue Lou taking third and For Once Inmy Life fading to fourth.

Winning his sixth race from seven starts this season and his 15th from 33 in his career, Admiral Hill has now banked $434,008. Morrison Racing Stables owns the gelding by Sweet Lou who paid $2.76 to win. His 1:48.3 mile bested the previous Oak Grove track record for older pacing geldings of 1:48.4 set by Surfer Beach in 2022 and matched by Goldie's Legacy a month after.

French Wine (Andy Miller) just missed the Oak Grove track record when he won the first of three KYSS divisions for trotting males with a 1:51.2 romp. Miller grabbed the lead from post 5 past a steep first quarter of :26.1 but snagged enough of a breather to a :56 half to storm through the remainder. Easily rebuffing a first-over push from The Hazelton (Gingras) to three-quarters in 1:23.4, French Wine scampered clear of his peers and widened his advantage all through the lane until passing the beam 6½ lengths in front of Brodeur (Dunn) rallying for second. Country Dagger (Andy McCarthy) sat a pocket trip and gave chase in third while Once In A Lifetime (Todd McCarthy) rallied down the center of the track for fourth.

A stallion by the late Bar Hopping, French Wine has now won 11 times from 34 starts and banked $1,119,194 for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc., Daniel Plouffe, Jean Plouffe and One Legend Stable Inc. Julie Miller trains the victor who returned $7.14 to win.

Drink Up Drink Up (Marvin Luna) landed a monumental upset in the second KYSS split when rising from the ash of a torrid tempo and striking a 29-1 blow in the closing strides of a 1:53.2 mile. Action initiated promptly with a three-wide battle to the first turn won by Djimon (David Miller), who paid a :26.3 toll to get to the lead. Cecil Hanover (Peter Wrenn) then followed suit passing the stands to move for the lead with 1-9 choice Bestfriend Volo (Dunn) tracking his cover before taking over control at a :54.2 half. Dunn let Bestfriend Volo roll up the backside towards three-quarters in 1:22.4 but quickly came under pressure to the final turn as Djimon pulled out of third and lead a charge swarming for the lead. Show Me A Million (Lewayne Miller) also came swinging for home but Drink Up Drink Up had the most steam from between horses and motored for the lead in midstretch. Drink Up Drink Up stayed firm to the finish to keep a neck up on Djimon in second and Show Me A Million in third while Cecil Hanover managed to take fourth.

Paying $60.18 to win, Drink Up Drink Up notched his seventh win from 32 starts and has now earned $117,278. Walter Haynes, Jr. trains the gelded son of Trixton for owner Adam Friedland.

A dark blue graphic with white and yellow text. The text reads "HOW MUCH DID YOU BET TODAY?" in a large, bold, sans-serif font. Below this, it says "#BETONHARNESS" in a similar font. In the bottom right corner, there is a logo for "HRU HARNES RACING UPDATE" featuring a white silhouette of a horse's head.

Ari Ferrari J (Dunn) later scored a decisive pillar-to-post win in the final KYSS split for trotting males. Dunn cleared command from Prince Of Honor (Todd McCarthy) after a :27.1 first quarter and marched through the rest unfazed. Clocking a :56 half and three-quarters in 1:24.1, Ari Ferrari J drew clear of Prince Of Honor in the lane to register a four-length win in 1:52.2 with Ahadi As (David Miller) saving ground to take third and Yo Tater (Verlin Yoder) rallying from last for fourth.

Tony Alagna trains Ari Ferrari J, a stallion by Walner, for owner Kenneth Jacobs. He won his ninth race from 35 starts, has now banked $873,681 and paid $2.72 to win.

Strong Poison (Gingras) dominated her peers in the lone KYSS dash for pacing fillies with a 1:49.4 stroll on the lead. Though Hungry For Love (David Miller) took the lead past a :26 first quarter, Gingras moved quickly with Strong Poison to circle back to the top before a :55 half and coasted to the end. She clicked by three-quarters in 1:22 and needed just a tap or two of the whip through the lane to stay on the straight and narrow to a length win over Hungry For Love while Zanatta (Andy Miller) gave chase off a pylon ride in third and Keep My Secret (Andy McCarthy) rallied down the center of the track for fourth.

Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains Strong Poison, a daughter of Always B Miki, for owners Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing. She won her 12th race from 32 starts, has now earned $924,475 and paid $2.66 to win.

Mambacita (Dunn) applied similar dominance to her rivals with a 1:52.1 win in the single division of KYSS for trotting mares. Leaving from the pylon post, Mambacita secured the top with ease and carved a clip of :27.1, :56 and 1:23.4 all with Railee Something (Andy McCarthy) breathing on her back. Dunn braced for the charge of Railee Something moving around the final turn and Mambacita again kept finding more once confronted and waded off Railee Something's bid to the beam by a half-length. Canterbury Hanover (Andy Miller) rallied for third, beaten another four lengths, with Picaboo Lady (Gingras) fourth.

A daughter of Tactical Landing, Mambacita has now won 17 races from 37 starts and earned $970,418 for owners Crawford Farms Racing, Alagna Racing LLC and Pryde Stables Inc. Tony Alagna trains the mare who paid $2.32 to win.

Send It Down Slim, Cowgirl Hanover win NYSS at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek / Buffalo Raceway

Send It Down Slim turned in the fastest mile of the two $51,000 (approx.) races in the New York Sire Stakes for the 2-year-old pacing fillies at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (June 19) while Cowgirl Hanover went gate-to-wire in taking the second division.

It was a great day for driver Mark MacDonald as he posted four victories on the card while trainer Ray Schnittker had three wins, one in the Sire Stakes and two in the Excelsior Series.

In the first race that featured four young ladies, Chanceflightning (Jordan Stratton) set the fractions with a :30.3 and 1:00.4. Send It Down Slim (MacDonald) was sitting patiently in the garden spot and popped first over heading down the backstretch, quickly taking the lead.

Send It Down Slim ($9.20) and Chanceflightning pulled away from the other two contestants going down the stretch and were primed for the final duel. But Send It Down Slim used a :27.3 final quarter mile to hold back Chanceflightning by a length in 1:58.3 over the fast track. Calamity Hour (Jim Morrill, Jr.) took the show spot.

MacDonald said a little pre-race scouting helped him with the winning move down the backstretch the final time.

“I got here early and watched Chanceflightning warm up and I thought she was a little green so I made the move when I did,” MacDonald said.

Owned by Grozcona Racing and trained by Schnittker, Send It Down Slim (Huntsville–Rockinsangria) picked up a ‘fat’ $25,250 check in her first career start.

In the second bracket, Cowgirl Hanover led every step of the way and beat Americanbeachdream in 1:58.4.

Off the starting gate, Cowgirl Hanover ($2.80) was able to secure the inside position from the rail and used solid fractions of :29.4, :59.4 and 1:30.1. Americanbeachdream (Brett Beckwith) and Martini Star (Morrill, Jr.) each were looking for answers down the home stretch but couldn’t find any and had to settle for second and third place respectively.

“I had to be careful around that first turn, but once I did, I knew we were good to go,” Doug McNair said of the trip aboard Cowgirl Hanover. “I could have busted her open more but I didn’t need to.”

Owned by NY Seb Inc. and conditioned by Jared Bako, Cowgirl Hanover (Huntsville–Code One) put $25,750 in the bankroll with her maiden win.

The MacDonald-Schnittker tandem took two $20,000 divisions of the Excelsior Series. On Cloud Wine ($6.40) defeated Bulvilhighonmaggie by 1¼ lengths in 1:59.3 while Bronx Mixer ($4.20) pinned a ¾-length loss of Bulvillkidunotedna in 1:59.

Besta Brynn ($15.80) came from third place down the lane for driver Kevin Cummings and stunned the heavily favored Hanky Panky by a length in 2:00.1.

Racing will return this afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with 12 races set to go to the post.

DSBF second leg concludes at Harrington

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund second leg action wrapped up Wednesday (June 19) at Harrington Raceway as six $20,000 divisions of trotters were contested on the 16-race program.

LG's Bluestone won the early non-wagering division in 1:58 for Nanticoke Racing, D T Doane and Andris Kilpa. The Anders Bluestone gelding, trained by Les Givens, notched his second straight win in elimination action over Royal Beep Beep and Portnoy. It was the fastest division on the evening.

David Hamm and Glenn Phillips' Marino's Prize ($3.60, Ross Wolfenden) notched a 1:59.4 win in the first filly division over Little Silver and Starfish. The E L Platinum filly recorded a new lifetime best in her third career win for trainer Nick Devita.

The second male division went to Jane Dunavant's Pretty Two ($4.20, Carlo Poliseno) in 2:00.3 over Jetsam and Leaveminthedust. The Dusty Winner gelding overtook Jetsam late and cruised to his second career win for his trainer/driver.

Nanticoke Racing's Lg's Jaxon won the final male division in 2:00.1 for trainer Givens. The Rolls Blue Chip gelding notched his 10th lifetime win over Trout Master and Chief Funster.

The second filly division saw Gary Rhodes' Lovie's Place ($4, Art Stafford, Jr.) complete a sweep of her eliminations with a 1:59.1 win over Going Platinum and Platinum Proposal. The E L Platinum filly earned her fourth career win for her trainer/driver.

The final division on the card went to James Craparotta and Pat Berry Racing's Daburg ($2.40, Berry) in 1:59.2 over Rip Away and Luvyas Nugget. The Anders Bluestone filly won her fifth race in her 10th lifetime start with a front-stepping score for trainer Jason Skinner.

Prior to the first race, Graham Grace Stable's Call Me Goo visited the Harrington winner's circle to celebrate her most recent win in in the $170,000 Armbr Flight Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The 3-year-old Googoo Gaagaa trotting filly is currently ranked seventh in the Hambletonian Society's top 10 poll of North American horses. Trained by Skinner and joined by his wife Susan, the star filly has won 20 of 28 starts lifetime and is expected to make her next start at The Meadowlands in the Six Pack on June 29.

On Tuesday, Jo Ann Looney-King's Curtsyforpurrseco ($2.10, Tim Tetrick) was the fastest of a trio of DSBF $20,000 elimination winners at Harrington Raceway with a 1:56.1 triumph in the second leg of stakes action.

Tetrick urged the daughter of Roddy's Bags Again first over near three-quarters where she responded willingly and cleared pacesetter Bad Nella Monella and drew away from the field for her fourth win of the season. Slipinsidewayz finished second, while Bad Nella Monella held third. Trained by Jim King, Jr., "Curtsy" has won 10 of 20 career starts.

Shawn Hanley's Grace O'Malley ($2.10, Corey Callahan) completed a sweep of her eliminations with a wire-to-wire win in 1:58.2 over Makemymommaproud, who was a close second, and Salma. Trained by Crissy Crissman-Bier, it was the fourth career win for the daughter of Emeritus Maximus.

Dylan Davis and Kevin Switzer's Smalltown Bad Girl ($14.40, Art Stafford, Jr.) won the remaining DSBF split in 1:57 over Jett Propelled and Designs On You. The Badlands Hanover filly registered her third career win for co-owner/trainer Davis, holding off a late bid from Jett Propelled as she set a new lifetime best.

On Monday, P T Stable's Beat Cop ($2.20, Tim Tetrick) was the fastest of three DSBF winners at Harrington Raceway with a 1:54.3 triumph.

The Dragon King gelding achieved his 13th career win over Shocking Truth and Papas Son. Beat Cop received a first-over trip that saw him clear the pacesetter, Papas Son, near three-quarters and edge away from the competition. Trained by Crissy Crissman-Bier, he won his second straight start in DSBF elimination action. Crissman-Bier had a training triple.

Mulligan Stable, Calcutta Stable and Denise Davis' Captain Pete ($2.10, Allan Davis) won the first division in 1:55.2. The Roddy's Bags Again gelding was an easy winner over Matts Artist and Rowdy Dragon. I'm Still Here finished second but was disqualified for a pylon violation. Trained by Jason Johnson, it was the seventh win in 10 career starts for Captain Pete and one of three wins on the card for Johnson.

The favorite held serve again in the second split as Ross Wolfenden's Cavalli Island ($2.40, Wolfenden) was an easy winner and completed a sweep of his eliminations with an open length score in 1:55.2 over There Goes Bubba and Tug River Patrick. The Badlands Hanover gelding notched his fifth career win for trainer Bob Glassmeyer.

The top eight point earners from all the DSBF divisions will return to compete in the $110,000 finals on July 25 during the Delaware State Fair.

Live racing will continue on a Monday through Wednesday schedule until June 26 (post time 4:30 p.m.). There will be a customary summer break until the Delaware State Fair program on July 25, before the meet resumption on Aug. 12.

The 'Duke' hopes to rule in Yonkers Trot elimination

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Duke Of Walner will head to tonight's lone MGM Yonkers Trot elimination looking for his first win of the season, and trainer/co-owner Lucas Wallin hopes the trip to MGM Yonkers Raceway coupled with several equipment changes can help the colt get the job done.

The Yonkers Trot is the first jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown, followed by the Hambletonian in August and Kentucky Futurity in October. Eight 3-year-old male trotters will meet in the Yonkers Trot elimination, which goes for a purse of $25,000. The top-five finishers from the elim will join bye recipients Security Protected, Situationship, and Sir Pinocchio in the $300,000 guaranteed final on June 28 at The Hilltop.

Duke Of Walner enters the elimination off a second-place finish behind Amazing Catch in a conditioned race on June 10 at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs, where he was beaten by a neck in 1:53.4. Duke Of Walner went to the lead and set fractions of :28, :56.3, and 1:25.2 before being passed in deep stretch.

Amazing Catch's win time is the eighth-fastest of the season by a sophomore male trotter on a five-eighths mile track. The colt, trained and driven by Ake Svanstedt, was a Grand Circuit winner last year who finished second in the Peter Haughton Memorial and third in the William Wellwood Memorial.

"I thought I was going to give [Duke Of Walner] a good confidence booster the last time and then Ake came with that horse, so that didn't work out," Wallin said with a laugh. "I was hoping for a win when he got to the lead with those fractions, but he didn't race bad. He was fighting all the way to the end. Ake's horse is a very nice horse. It's no shame to get beat by him."

Prior to his most recent start, Duke Of Walner had raced only on the mile ovals at The Meadowlands and Red Mile. Last year, he won a preliminary leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes and finished third in the KYSS Championship Series final.

Although Duke Of Walner has never raced on a half-mile track, such as Yonkers, Wallin is hopeful the colt will respond well to the smaller oval.

"I think he's going to get around Yonkers good because we train on a half-mile track," Wallin said. "My feeling is that he's going to be better the smaller the tracks are, to be honest with you. We'll have to wait and see if I'm right.

"We're going to do a couple of changes to try to get him a little better. He's been racing with an open bridle and stay-in cotton [in his ears] for every start this year. We're going to switch it up a little bit and change the bridle and put pop-outs on him for the first time. We're going to train with it to see if he's OK with it, but I think those are a couple changes that are going to help at the end of the race."

Duke Of Walner is a son of Walner out of the Love You-sired mare Nashville Lindy. He was purchased under the name Grand Ole Lindy for $90,000 at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Berg Bros. Racing, Joe Sbrocco, Daniel Plouffe, and the conglomerate LucasWallinJAFRacingMyFab.

The colt is a half-brother to Grand Circuit winner Shake It Off Lindy. His family also includes millionaires Lookout Victory and Possess The Magic as well as O'Brien Award winner Musical Rhythm and stallion Swan For All.

For his career, Duke Of Walner has hit the board in eight of 13 races and earned a check 12 times. He has banked $136,250.

"He's probably been training better than he's raced so far, but he's been racing OK," Wallin said. "He's been racing against tough horses all his life. But he looks super good, and I think he's going to get better and better. That's been my plan, at least."

Duke Of Walner will start tonight's Yonkers Trot elimination from post 6 with Matt Kakaley in the sulky. He is part of a betting entry with Nancy Takter-trained Bargain, a Grand Circuit winner last year (defeating eventual O'Brien Award recipient T C I) and runner-up in the New York Sire Stakes championship. The entry is 7-2 on the morning line.

"Kakaley knows Yonkers well and he drove [Duke Of Walner] in his last start, so he knows the horse," Wallin said. "Even if he's a pretty nice horse to drive, it's always good for them to know what they're sitting behind."

In addition to the Yonkers Trot, Duke Of Walner is staked to the Stanley Dancer Memorial, Hambletonian, Earl Beal, Jr. Memorial, Canadian Trotting Classic, Kentucky Futurity, and Breeders Crown.

"We have some interesting races for him this year," Wallin said, "and this is one of them."

The Svanstedt-trained entry of Flying Kronos S and Southwind Metric is the 2-1 morning-line favorite in the Yonkers Trot elim. Svanstedt will drive Flying Kronos S, last year's Kindergarten Classic Series final runner-up to Dan Patch Award recipient Karl, from post 2. Southwind Metric will leave from post 8 with driver Dan Dube. Both colts are eligible to the Hambletonian.

Tonight, Yonkers will also host two eliminations for the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes for 3-year-old pacers. Racing begins at 7 p.m. at Yonkers. For free programs, visit the Standardbred Owners Association of New York website here.

Nijinsky tops first Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Pepsi North America Cup winner Nijinsky leaped to the top of the rankings in the season's first Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll released Tuesday (June 18), garnering 20 of 35 first-place votes and totaling 322 points for a 50-point cushion over No. 2 Twin B Joe Fresh.

Nijinsky is 5-for-5 this year, with his other victories including his North America Cup elimination, a division of the Somebeachsomewhere Stakes, and a division of the Ontario Sire Stakes. The 3-year-old male pacer has earned $455,155, which leads all horses in North America.

Twin B Joe Fresh, a 4-year-old female pacer, has three wins and a second in four starts this season. Her triumphs include last weekend's Roses Are Red Stakes and the Betsy Ross Invitational. She received four first-place votes.

Karl, a 3-year-old male trotter and returning Dan Patch Award winner, was No. 3 in the Top 10. He is unbeaten in three races, all in the New Jersey Sire Stakes series, including the final. The colt received 11 first-place votes.

Rounding out the top five in the poll were Fan Hanover Stakes winner Its A Love Thing and Goodtime Stakes champ Highland Kismet.

The next five were Cutler Memorial winner Jiggy Jog S, Armbr Flight winner Call Me Goo, Borgata Pacing Series and Camluck Classic champ Hellabalou, North America Cup runner-up Captain's Quarters, and Auger Memorial winner Ruthless Hanover.

The Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll does not determine Horse of the Year. The members of the U.S. Harness Writers Association vote on all Dan Patch Award division winners plus Trotter of the Year, Pacer of the Year and Horse of the Year.

Funtime Bayama sold to Pollock, Areman and Harris

Funtime Bayama, the third-place finisher in Saturday night's (June 15) North America Cup, has been sold for an undisclosed amount to the connections that have recently put some serious green into the game by acquiring horses such as Abuckabett Hanover and Seven Colors.

'Funtime' will now be trained by co-owner Andrew Harris for his primary owners William Pollock and Bruce Areman.

"His name came up the other day when we were having a conversation about top 3-year-olds," said Harris. "But I never thought they'd actually sell him."

Harris, who acquired Seven Colors at a similar point in time last year, knows how fortunate he is to be connected with Pollock and Areman.

"I sit there and see these amazing horses and they become available and with the support of guys like Bill Pollock, I literally get to sit here and play with all of these fancy ponies; I'm a little kid in a candy store," said Harris, adding with a laugh, "I'm sure I'm the most hated guy in all of the sport when it comes to the other trainers but at the same time, I'm literally getting to live the dream."

Sylvain Fillion, who has driven the 3-year-old gelded son of He's Watching—Tymal Sugrbabydoll in all but two of his 13 career outings for his owner/father Yves, is both happy and sad about the sale.

"My father had already been approached twice before about possibly selling the horse," said Sylvain. "I have mixed emotions but they made an offer we couldn't refuse. At the end of the day, I think my dad is pretty happy."

Funtime Bayama, who was racing out of the Richard Moreau barn, is a lifetime earner of $381,948 with eight wins from 13 lifetime starts. He has never raced outside of Ontario in his career, but will in a few weeks in the Meadowlands Pace, which will have its eliminations on July 6.

"He'll get here sometime this weekend once the paperwork goes through," said Harris. "And now we have two weeks to prep him for the Meadowlands Pace. We know we are buying a ready-made horse."

As for who will drive the horse, Harris said: "We are in conversation about that right now."

Gillespie promoted to Woodbine standardbred race secretary

Woodbine Entertainment today announced the promotion of Jim Gillespie to standardbred race secretary at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The promotion of Gillespie comes as Tony O'Sullivan, current race secretary, is set to depart from Woodbine as of Friday (July 5).

"We want to thank Tony for his contributions to Woodbine over the last two years," said Bill McLinchey, vice president of standardbred racing. "We wish Tony nothing but the best as he embarks on a new career path."

Gillespie has been the assistant race secretary since November 2020. A lifelong industry participant, Gillespie spent several years driving and working with his father, trainer Tim Gillespie, before joining the Race Office.

"Jim is a great replacement for Tony, having had time to grow in our race office," said McLinchey. "Anyone that's spoke or dealt with Jim knows he has a great knowledge and passion for the sport and we're confident he'll succeed in his new role."

Gillespie will oversee the daily duties of the standardbred race office, including all draws for Woodbine Mohawk Park and Grand River Raceway.

Gillespie will officially begin his new position on Monday (July 8).

USTA launches beta version of Equine Health & Wellness Database

The U.S. Trotting Association announced on Monday (June 17) the launch of the beta version of a new Equine Health & Wellness Database (EHWD). The initial phase is for the collection of data. When sufficient data is available, it will all be made available to the public.

Any current USTA member that is connected to a horse including veterinarians, owners, trainers, caretakers, track or state employees, as well as race officials can contribute to assist in the collection of data through their USTA My Account. The link to submitting an incident report for a horse can be found under "Miscellaneous." Anyone can sign up for a free My Account by clicking here.

"The EHWD will allow the industry to identify clusters and types of racing injuries, help all of us investigate the causes, and act as a data repository that can be mined when developing safety measures and policies going forward," said USTA executive vice president and CEO Mike Tanner. "Thankfully, the incidence of standardbreds that experience catastrophic injuries is, and always has been, extremely rare.

“It is the responsibility of everyone in the industry to participate and contribute to help build the foundation of information in the database. The USTA also welcomes any feedback from industry participants on how to improve the process and database.”

The database will include any type of injury and is not just limited to racing but also for training, off-track, on the farm or in transportation.

An incident report requires the horse's or dam's name and registration number and allows the reporting on the details of the incident, any injury, illness or disease, the presence of any pre-existing conditions plus any other pertinent, additional information.

In the future, the database will also include additional information such as test results and vaccinations.

For further information or to get assistance in using the Equine Health & Wellness Database, contact member services at memberservices@ustrotting.com or by calling toll free 877-800-8782.

Hall of Famer Roger Huston to call Triple Crown card at MGM Yonkers Raceway

Even in retirement announcer Roger Huston is a busy man. Tonight (June 21) the 81-year-old will make the six-and-a-half-hour trek from his home in western Pennsylvania to MGM Yonkers Raceway in New York to call the first legs of the standardbred Triple Crowns, the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot and $250,000E MGM Grand Messenger Pace.

“I probably put 500 to 750 miles on my car each week,” said Huston, who travels from Pennsylvania to Ohio weekly to work for the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association and also fills in at Northfield Park and The Meadows as an announcer on occasion.

Huston, a member of Harness Racing's Communicators Hall of Fame who is also well-known as the voice of the Little Brown Jug, has called over 184,000 races in his lifetime at 160 racetracks. While some may think MGM Yonkers Raceway will be an addition to the list, according to Huston he actually appeared there in 1995 as part of a drivers' challenge promotion between Yonkers, Freehold, The Meadowlands and The Meadows.

“The top four drivers at each location faced off against the hometown drivers and I went with them and called the races,” said Huston.

Huston will be able to cross one race off his bucket list on June 28 as he completes the Triple Crown six-pack. The Pacing Triple Crown consists of the Messenger, Cane and Little Brown Jug, all races Huston has called in the past. The Ohio native was able to call the Hambletonian live on NBC in 1979 at DuQuoin and has announced the Kentucky Futurity on radio, but 2024 will mark the first time he's called the MGM Yonkers Trot.

“I'm thrilled to add that last Triple Crown race to my long résumé and I'm really looking forward to it as much as I look forward to anything else,” said Huston, who is known for bringing energy to every call, whether it is a $4,000 claimer or the MGM Yonkers Trot.

Both Triple Crown races will be part of a monster card at MGM Yonkers Raceway that will also feature the NY NY Mile and Park MGM Pace.

In addition to the special guest appearance by Huston on the microphone, fans attending the races live on June 28 will be treated to an outdoor market on the track apron. An integration of the casino and track worlds will take place as patrons from both sides of the gambling world will be welcomed to enjoy special food stands, live music and other promotional items as part of a Triple Crown Fan Fest.

MGM Yonkers Raceway conducts live racing on a Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday to Saturday schedule with a post time of 7 p.m. (EDT).

Countdown to the Meadowlands Pace is on

The Meadowlands has hosted the greatest races in the standardbred sport for almost 50 years now, and that tradition will continue with the most-anticipated dashes of the year coming up at The Big M over the next several weeks as the track's Championship Meet winds its way toward the finish line, culminating with Hambletonian Day on Aug. 3.

The countdown to the mile oval's signature event – the Meadowlands Pace – stands at 24 days, with eliminations seven days prior to that. The date for the Pace is July 13.

The Pace Night card has a laundry list of stakes. They are (with estimated purses):

- $700,000 Meadowlands Pace
- $450,000 William R. Haughton Open Pace
- $400,000 Hambletonian Maturity
- $250,000 Stanley Dancer
- $225,000 Del Miller Memorial
- $200,000 Mistletoe Shalee
- $175,000 Dorothy Haughton Open Mare Pace
- $40,000 Miss Versatility Mare Trot (leg 4)

“All of us at The Meadowlands love the big race cards,” said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. “But I’d also like to talk about all of the other things we offer every weekend here in East Rutherford, counting down to the greatest night in harness racing.

“As you may know, The Meadowlands has morphed into one of the most popular and safe outdoor and indoor entertainment venues in the metropolitan area. Within the perimeter lies the premiere sports betting facility of its type in the country, The FanDuel Sportsbook, which is the destination of many sports enthusiasts in the area.

“The Meadowlands has been getting very nice crowds outside as the weather has been getting warmer. The crowds provide a great backdrop to the competitive racing we offer. That racing affords our players a chance to make big hits. Last Saturday (June 15), one lucky bettor took down the entire Pick-6 pool – which, helped by a carryover, totaled $26,880 – on a 20-cent bet.”

GRADUATE LEG 3: Like last week, the Graduate Series will sit atop The Meadowlands marquee this weekend, with four $50,000 dashes for 4-year-olds – two for pacers and two on the trot – as leg 3 takes place on Saturday (June 22).

After taking next week off, the two $250,000 (est.) finals will take place on Saturday (July 6), when the Meadowlands Pace eliminations will also be contested.

In Saturday’s first trot, the Nancy Takter-trained Winner’s Bet (4-5 on the morning-line) seeks a second straight Graduate score. He’ll likely have to track down Ponda Jet (5-2) again, the Jay Hochstetler trainee who showed high speed from the start in his Big M debut a week ago before getting gunned down.

Winner’s Bet’s mile time of 1:50 tied him as the fastest trotter of the year in the sport with Jiggy Jog 5 and Lexus Kody.

Hasty Bid (3-1), who provided three-time defending O’Brien Award-winning Driver of the Year James MacDonald one of his two Graduate victories, is off an upset, off-the-pace conquest for Takter of the Ake Svanstedt-trained Special Way (2-1), who is likely to go to the gate as the public choice for a second straight start.

The paces also have intriguing matchups.

Coach Stefanos (5-2) will seek a second straight Graduate win for Erv Miller in the first pace.

He stopped the clock in a Big M season’s-best 1:47.3 a week ago, holding off the late charge of New Jersey Maturity winner Voukefalas (7-2).

No Control (5-1) pulled off a big upset at odds of 29-1 in the other pace, as the Tan Micallef student completed the mile in 1:47.3. He and Coach Stefanos now sit tied in the top spot as the fastest performers this year at The Big M.

BABY, YOU’RE A FIREWORK: Head to the track on Saturday (July 6) for Fan Appreciation Night, when the Cafe, Rooftop Terrace and Backyard will offer low-priced concession items. Available for $1 will be hot dogs, pretzels, popcorn and soda (limit five of each item per transaction). Available for $2 will be Bud and Bud Light drafts (for those 21 years of age and older).

Discount prices are available from 6-11 p.m. only, and after the races, there will be a free fireworks show for all patrons to enjoy.

MEADOWLANDS PACE NIGHT: Come and be a part of the “Biggest Party in Harness Racing,” as Meadowlands Pace Night takes place on Saturday (July 13).

Fast babies continue to develop at Philly

Thirteen fields of 2-year-olds faced the starting gate Tuesday morning (June 17) at Harrah's Philadelphia as they continued to prep for their imminent introductions to the pari-mutuel wars. The fastest time in each division, as split by sex and gait, turned out to be achieved by two horses except in the 2-year-old colt pace, where Oogleville earned distinction as the fastest performer of the day at 1:56.1.

A Huntsville colt out of Oogle Google, Oogleville moved to the lead in quarter two and stormed home in :55.2 to be an impressive winner for driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Per Engblom, and the ownership of Morrison Racing Stables.

Among the filly pacers, both Allegra Hanover and Ballast were victorious in 1:58.1. The Papi Rob Hanover—Arodasi debutante Allegra Hanover closed in :57.2 - :28.2 from the pocket in succeeding for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Linda Toscano, and partners Jablonsky Held Stable, South Mountain Stables, JAF Racing LLC, and Camelot Stable Inc. Andrew also drove the only pacing filly who posted a second winning line, the 2:01.3 winner Crystal Coast.

Andrew McCarthy's brother Todd drove Ballast, a daughter of Tall Dark Stranger—Catamaran Fashion, to an engine triumph with back numbers of :57.3 - :28.3. Andrew Stafford conditions the winner for EVM Racing LLC.

Speed honors for 2-year-old trotting fillies were shared at 1:59.2 by In The Air Tonight and Evans Per Fect War. The Father Patrick—Moonlight In Miami miss In the Air Tonight, in her first start, sat third much of the way and closed sharply in :56.4 in winning for driver Andy Miller, trainer Julie Miller, and Willow Oak Ranch. "Team Orange Crush" is also the brain-trust behind another winner at first asking, Duvel, who won in 2:01.4.

Evans Per Fect War led off the day with a front-end tally and a back half of :59.1. Todd McCarthy sulky sat behind the daughter of Six Pack—Usainy B for trainer Per Engblom and the partnership of Evans Nation and Engblom Stable LLC.

The two horses who had the fastest time among the trotting colts, Owls Nest and Calculated Concept, did not sacrifice any honors though in the same race, as they dead-heated for the win while each was running their record to two-for-two. The camera could not separate the pair at the end of a 2:00 mile where Calculated Concept set the pace and Owls Nest was along after a pocket journey for the tie. Owls Nest is a Bar Hopping—Bring Your Best gelding driven and trained by Eddie Dennis for E&K Stable Inc.; Calculated Concept is a Tactical Landing colt trained by Dylan Davis for owner Howard Taylor. Calculated Concept was driven by Tim Tetrick, who also guided the dead-heaters' classmate Out On The Town to a second straight victory, this one in 2:04.

Replays of the 2-year-old qualifiers are programmed to be seen at www.phha.org.
