McCarthy brothers make history on a memorable North America Cup Night

Todd McCarthy's win with Pebble Beach makes him the third McCarthy brother to win a million-dollar harness race.

by Bob Heyden

There was plenty of history written on Saturday (June 18) on Pepsi North America Cup Night at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Let's go right to the biggie:

A third McCarthy brother has now won a million-dollar race.

Luke McCarthy won the 2020, 2021 and 2022 million-dollar Miracle Mile at Menangle Park in New South Wales, Australia. He and wife Belinda also train and they also raced the 2022 runner-up Spirit Of St Louis.

Andrew McCarthy won the 2020 Hambletonian with Ramona Hill in a record-tying time 1:50.1 for a million beans.

Todd McCarthy just won the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup with Pebble Beach for trainer Noel Daley.

Never have three driving brothers each won a million-dollar harness race. And, they turned the trick in three different countries.

Their father, John McCarthy, himself the winner of back-to-back Miracle Miles in 2005-2006 with Be Good Johnny, had this to say about his boys:

"I am so proud of them... I miss having them with me at home, but I love watching them do well over there. They all have different styles in the way they drive. Thanks go to Andy's wife Kat and Noel Daley. I've been friends with Noel for years. It all started with Noel. I'm proud they've all remained nice people.

Todd McCarthy's victory with Pebble Beach in Saturday's Pepsi North America Cup makes him the third McCarthy brother to win a million-dollar race.

I used to say to them, 'It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice."

John and wife Narelle live in Cobbitty, New South Wales and he still dabbles with the horses.

And if Andy can win the Hambletonian — the lone remaining million-dollar race in 2022 — it would mean all three McCarthy brothers will have won a million-dollar race in the same year.

Oh, and in each of the three million-dollar races won by the McCarthy brothers, they were the betting choice.

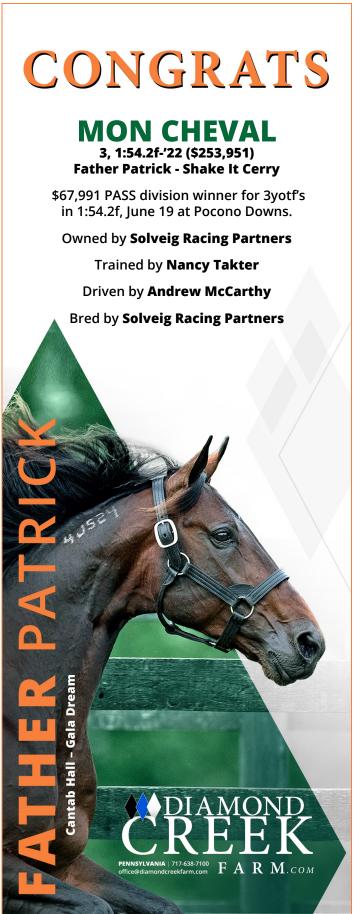

PELLING DELIVERS

Trainer Brett Pelling finished 1-2 in the Fan Hanover with Treacherous Dragon and Wickedly Innocent. No surprise there. Pelling is the only trainer to go 1-2 in a Meadowlands Pace final -2005 Rocknroll Hanover and Village Jolt. He is also the only trainer to go 1-2 in the Little Brown Jug, twice -2004 Timesareachanging and Western Terror and also in 1998 with Shady Character and Cam Knows Best. Pelling also dead-heated in the 2004 Cane Pace with Timesareachanging and Western Terror.

On the same NA Cup card, Pelling also won the Roses Are Red with reigning Horse of the Year Test Of Faith.

SORORITY SISTERS

were also raised together at White Birch Farm in New Jersey? Has anyone seen this movie before? Yes. In 2003, a couple of fillies named Darlins Delight and My Little Dragon were born and raised together at White Birch Farm. They both raced from 2005-2009 with Darlins Delight banking an incredible $2.901,926 and My Little Dragon winning three Breeders Crowns and setting a 1:48.1 female world race record with $2.3 million earned herself. Did I mention My Little Dragon competed for Noel Daley, trainer of Pebble Beach, and is the dam of Treacherous Dragon, too?

HAMBLETONIAN DREAMING

You never ever would have seen this 40-50 years ago.

Two Hambletonian winners — three and four years after winning it — together winning on the very same card in another country.

Forbidden Trade and Atlanta both won on NA Cup Night.

When Atlanta won the Armbro Flight on Saturday at Mohawk, she finished ahead of two Hambletonian Oaks winners — 2019 Oaks winner When Dovescry was second and 2021 Oaks winner Bella Bellini was third.

WAVE TO HER

Atlanta surpassed Manchgeo on the all-time earnings list with her victory in the Armbro Flight. Both are foals of 2015 and both have now surpassed $3.1 million.

DALEY WENT 11 YEARS BETWEEN DRINKS

Trainer Noel Daley went 11 years between million-dollar victories from 2011's Hambletonian win with Broad Bahn to Saturday's NA Cup win with Pebble Beach.

POULTON POWER

Saturday's card concluded with $1.9 million bet into the Jackpot Hi-5. Quietly, the second-place finisher — at 39-1 — was Bolt Power for trainer Harry Poulton, who has a UTRS. of .362. He was the trainer of the one-time richest pacer ever: On The Road Again in 1983-1985. He also trained the one-time fastest ever horse (1:48.2 TT 1988) Matts Scooter, who was the 1989 Horse of the Year.

MIRROR IMAGE

The fractions for the North America Cup were the exact same for each half: :27.3 then :27.2, then :27.3 followed by :27.2. One :55 half followed by another.

FINAL CROPS

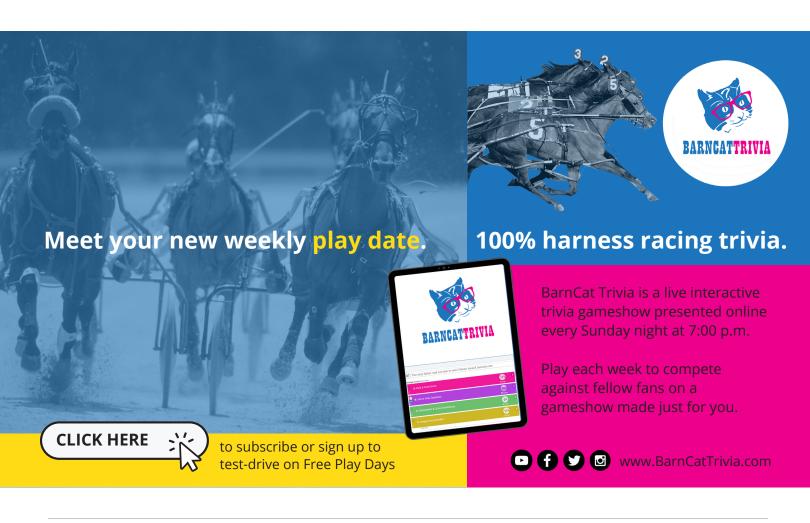

Sons of Somebeachsomewhere were second and third in the NA Cup — and the winner was a grandson. That is it, folks. That was SBSW's final crop to compete in an NA Cup.

Final crops can yield some great ones. Balanced Image did so with Arch Madness and Cam Fella with Eternal Camnation.

NO, NO, NO

This year's NA Cup had no Ron Burke, no Nancy Takter and no female trainers. The last one is especially significant since five of the last seven NA Cups went to female trainer, with Takter going back to back in 2019 and 2020.

McKelvie on the reason Mohawk charges $10 admission on NA Cup night

by Melissa Keith

Mohawk Racetrack, now Woodbine Mohawk Park, opened on April 26, 1963, to a crowd of 4,448 patrons. For perspective: the newborn racetrack's parking lot could accommodate 3,000 vehicles. April 18,1970, a record 11,470 fans and bettors showed up for a leg of the inaugural World Driving Championship, with charismatic Hervé Filion representing Canada.

According to the USTA Trotting and Pacing Guide, the Campbellville landmark reached its current attendance record on Sept. 22, 1984, when 14,606 spectators and bettors packed the grandstand and apron. Those years are now remembered for peak attendance figures unlikely attainable in the online wagering era, which has overlapped with a steady downturn of mainstream interest in the sport: Pompano Park played host to a record 18,451 patrons on December 27,1980; The Meadowlands welcomed 52,974 racegoers on June 11, 1982; Cal-Expo drew attendance of 36,943 on July 4,1982.

3, 1:53f-'22 ($94,772) Bar Hopping - Are You Ready

$67,991 PASS 3YO Filly Trot winner at Pocono Downs for owner Harbor Racing Stable Llc and trainer Lucas Wallin. Bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and sold at the 2020 Standardbred Yearling Sale for $95,000.

Keeping the industry's on-track heyday in mind, a small rumble could be detected when Woodbine Mohawk Park announced a $10 admission fee for its 2022 Pepsi North America Cup card.

Admission fee?

"I think it's a case of: If we don't value our own product, why would somebody who's not already a fan of this industry put much value on it?" asked Mark McKelvie, rhetorically.

A couple of days after Mohawk's premier race for 3-year-old pacers, Woodbine Entertainment's communications manager explained the decision to bring back admission, currently a rarity in harness racing: "You can't go anywhere nowadays without spending money, it seems, and you'd love to provide anybody with free entertainment, but we certainly have to put some value on our product. That's how I look at it."

Handle, rather than attendance, has become the contemporary gauge of how well a live card is received. The 39th Pepsi North America Cup exceeded Mohawk's previous all-time record ($5.6 million (Cdn), set in 2020), raising the bar to a new event/track record handle of $6,317,624.47. An impressive $217,553.20 of that amount was wagered on-track, a 26 per cent increase over the 2020 North America Cup on-track handle.

Attendance nonetheless reveals different information about the overall health of the sport, and contemporary customers. That data has been harder to gather "ever since we stopped tracking attendance on a day-to-day basis," said McKelvie.

Even though an electronic counter once captured the number of people filtering into the grandstand, a mathematical formula had to be used to average and subtract the percentage of customers who left the building and then returned during the card, as well as people dropping in without staying to wager.

With North American harness tracks regularly offering free admission, perhaps some perspective has been lost.

"You consider that if you're going to the movies, you're spending over $20 just to see your movie," McKelvie told HRU. "People don't bat an eye at that. That's what they're accustomed to doing. I think with racing, at least around these parts, we got away from charging admission for so long that it came almost like a bit of a shock to everybody when we brought it back a few years ago. But I think for $10, which is the price we're charging at the door, you get to come in and experience the best racing that we can offer, the best card of the year. Then add in all the other things that go on, on a big event night, such as your food trucks, your [live] music, your entertainment, giveaways... I think for $10, that's a good bang for your buck."

Souvenir programs were being sold for $5, but the less expensive self-serve option remained available – which naturally led to conversation about the customers looking for the latter option. Should die-hards who bet Mohawk year-round be asked to pony up $10 for the privilege of wagering on-track?

"I've heard that [question] as well," McKelvie said. "The thing that I think we have to keep in mind is that we're trying to grow the industry... All the extras don't necessarily target the gamblers. I'm sure the hardcore horseplayer probably couldn't care less if we've got food trucks and a band and we're giving away [souvenir] rally towels. That stuff's not what they're there for, I understand that."

(Bringing back paid admission was a Woodbine Entertainment Group decision, not attributable to any one person, he added.)

One aspect of charging admission worked to the benefit of Mohawk regulars, said McKelvie. "We have our racebook area at Woodbine Mohawk Park and it has carrels. We actually charge for those carrels on a night like that," he said. "I can understand a horseplayer thinking, 'This is my usual seat, on a nightly basis. Over 200 nights a year I'm here, and I sit here for free and I watch the races.' On those nights before we started charging admission several years ago, you would have mass crowds come in, and you would see somebody who's probably never been to the track before taking up those [carrels]... We gave all of our regular horseplayers an opportunity to reserve their [carrel] seats well in advance. If they reserved their seat, it covered their admission." (The cost was $10/carrel.)

By Wednesday (June 22), the numbers were in: over 4,000 patrons attended Mohawk on June 18, for racing and dining. (Casino patrons were not included in the count.)

"Now that we have kind of a new benchmark, we can build up from that and continue to push forward in the coming years," McKelvie said. "We haven't had a North America Cup in June since 2019. If you think about it, we've had over a decade now of the race being at Woodbine Mohawk Park, so I think it's become one of those events that people in the area always knew was coming up around mid-June, toward the end of the school year, to kick off summer."

No record of official attendance exists for the 2008 North America Cup, which he suspected held the unofficial modernday record, courtesy of superstar Somebeachsomewhere. The 2022 edition lacked a horse of that stature going into the race, but in his view, "this was the race that was going to essentially create the star," as Pebble Beach emerged the champion.

Worth the price of admission?

"I understand that some of those within the industry are going to be a little bit sensitive to it, because we want to get as many people in the doors as possible," said McKelvie. "But I think for those that are event-seekers – just like a lot of people we see in the crowd on North America Cup night – they're people just looking for an event. They're looking for a party. They're looking for something a little different, a night out. Could they tell you what horses are on the track? That's our job once they're in the building, to educate them and hope that they get a program. Hopefully the experience we give them will make them want to come back."

"When you see all the lights and the show that's going on, on a night like that, I don't think anybody would be too upset about having to give $10 at the door to have a great night out."

Anders Strom says Joviality is primed to face male rivals in Yonkers Trot

by Brett Sturman

No filly trotter has won the Yonkers Trot in a quarter of a century. It hasn't even been tried in over a dozen years. But don't hold that against Joviality (Chapter Seven-Pasithea Face). Trained by Marcus Melander and driven by Brian Sears in every career start, Joviality isn't simply attempting to take on colts in the 3-year-old open trot race, but she'll be heavily and rightfully favored to beat them.

Joviality enters her Yonkers Trot elimination tonight having looked like a machine this year, unbeaten in three races with a combined winning margin of 20 lengths. Going back to last year when she closed out the season with a gritty Breeders Crown win and subsequent win in the Goldsmith Maid (over Venerable) to make a late push for year-end divisional honors. Her win streak stands at five races and she has won 10 out of her last 11.

Owner Anders Strom races the 3-year-old filly under his stable name Courant, Inc., and he says that the decision to give it a go in the Yonkers Trot was a combination of things.

"She has had proven success at Yonkers half-mile track, and after her impressive start of the season we decided to go for the open and the higher purse," said Strom. "Gimpanzee won it for us 2019 and it would be nice to have a chance to do it again."

Indeed, Jovialty's record at Yonkers is flawless, as it is almost everywhere else. She's raced three times in her career at Yonkers and won all three, including last year's New York Sires Stakes final and a NYSS division by over seven lengths in her first start of this year. Adding in her first career race which took place at Saratoga harness, she's 4 for 4 lifetime on a half-mile track.

At 12 for 15 for her career, Joviality has shown her potential since the very first time she baby-raced last June at the Meadowlands, almost at the very beginning of anyone's 2-year-old season.

"She's a real racehorse with high determination, like her dam Pasithea Face," said Strom. "I saw Joviality train in February, and she really looked like she had developed well with the winter training. Now, her full sister Kayleigh also has started off well (won a 2-year-old fillies NYSS at Saratoga on Monday), which confirms her good pedigree, which stems from a great French line that has produced several Sires."

Her dam, the Swedish-born Pasithea Face should ring familiar. Following a highly successful career overseas, she was a multiple stakes winner in nine starts here in North America in 2017 where she was trained by Jimmy Takter. Paving the way for Joviality, Pasithea Face raced against males multiple times during her North America stint. After finishing third in the prestigious Maple Leaf Trot final at Mohawk, she came back two weeks later to beat males in the Dayton Trotting Derby.

Expectations should be high for the Yonkers Trot. Joviality comes off a nearly six-length romp in the Empire Breeders Classic, and the 1:51 clocking from that race was over two seconds faster than the open EBC race that same day which was won by Justice. That colt, also a Chapter Seven, will be favored in the second of two Yonkers Trot eliminations.

As for Joviality, her elimination test will come from Indiana Sire Stakes champion Dover In Motion. He's lost only twice in his career from 11 starts, and one of those came last week at Hoosier when he was daylight clear approaching the wire when he broke uncharacteristically. It'll be interesting to see how coming off that break, he handles the Yonkers track in his first try over the track.

Naturally, a filly racing in the Yonkers Trot is going to raise the question what that means for later in the year. Is this foreshadowing of a possible Hambletonian try? Fillies have actually won the Hambletonian two of the last four years (Ramona Hill, Atlanta), but a Yonkers Trot and Hambletonian sweep has only been done once before, by Continentalvictory in her landslide 1996 campaign for Horse of the Year.

In regard to the Hambletonian, Strom said, "Understandably, it's simply too early right now to know... We'll have to take this race first and see how the season develops. At the end of the day, we need to consider her form and what the opposition will look like."

GSY? Numbers don't lie

by Debbie Little

On June 10, a statement was put out by Meadowlands' president and chief executive officer Jeff Gural, which said, in part: "As you know, this weekend due to the lack of support at the entry box we had to go with seven amateur races, which is an embarrassment, even though our customers like wagering on them for some reason."

It also said: "I hope to see a major increase this week in entries and for the balance of the year. We intend to limit the number of amateur races to two each week to see if that helps."

No surprise, this started pro- and con-GSY discussions on social media, even though The Meadowlands is far from alone when it comes to using amateur races to fill cards.

To be clear, Gural was in no way saying that the amateur races are an embarrassment, but was instead referring to the lack of entries.

"I don't have a problem with the amateurs, except I have a problem when I have seven of them," said Gural. "Personally, I like having two amateur races on the card. I think that would be my sweet spot."

After tonight (Friday, June 24), the GSY driving club will take its usual summer vacation before returning to the East Rutherford mile oval in September.

In a year that saw more GSY races at The Big M than ever before, how did they do?

That would depend on who you ask. But let's not ask anyone and just look at the numbers.

In 71 GSY races, starting on Jan. 7 through June 17, the average handle was $219,427.

For clarification, all the numbers being looked at took place on Friday nights, except for two dates in June that took place on Saturdays. Also, GSY drivers did compete in a friendship race on Martin Luther King Remembrance weekend, but since it was not solely a GSY race, it was not included in these statistics.

Many factors contribute to handle numbers, including whether the race in question is the start of a multi-leg wager, such as the Pick-5 or early and late Pick-4, the three most popular multi-leg wagers at The Meadowlands. Only 22 of GSY's 71 races started a Pick-4 or Pick-5. In recent months, a GSY race has kicked off the card many times, specifically to give pros a chance to arrive a little late from another track.

The first couple months of the year included the drag experiment, which shortened wagering time and impacted the handle, regardless of who was driving, so let's look at the numbers starting in March, when the top pro drivers were back. In those 61 races, the GSY race average increased to $225,334.

The GSY really hit their stride starting on May 6, registering their top handle of the year, $314,866. They would go on to total $309,608 that same night and $312,690 later in the month. To put those numbers in perspective, the pros top numbers in the same timeframe were $311,675, also on the 6th, $302,376 at the end of May and $305,841 on June 3. All took place on Friday nights.

On May 13, GSY brought in $215,159 in Race 13, the last race on the card, traditionally one of the lowest bet races of the night. Since the beginning of May, the pros have not surpassed that number in the last race on any Friday night card.

The truth of the matter is that since the start of May, no matter how many races they have had, the GSY have outhandled the pros on every card they raced on, including two Saturdays.

Their two races on June 4 averaged $234,128, while their five races the following weekend brought in $231,140, while the pro numbers were $201,806 and $189,115, respectively.

For May and June, GSY is averaging $234,650. For some perspective, for a 13-race card to reach the $3 million level in total handle, the average must be at least $230,769. During that same timeframe, the pros averaged $196,974.

Another number to consider is the percentage of winning favorites, which is currently listed as 38.71 at The Meadowlands.

Breaking that number down, there have been 522 non-GSY races where the favorite has won 223 times for a 42.7-win percentage, while the aforementioned 71 GSY races have seen only 14 winning favorites for a remarkably low percentage of 19.7. At one point, GSY actually had a stretch of 28 races between winning favorites.

The truth of the matter is that since the start of May, no matter how many races they have had, the GSY have outhandled the pros on every card they raced on, including two Saturdays.

While favorites win 19 per cent of the time, horses at odds of 10-1 or more win 18 per cent of the time, leaving the majority of GSY winners somewhere in between.

Part of the GSY's allure is its unpredictability due to the lack of winning favorites and even though familiarity breeds contempt, it also appears to increase handles.

Another big factor is the GSY's ability to regularly card full 10-horse fields, something done with far greater regularity than the pros.

Despite having the amount of their club races curtailed, the GSY continue to be among the staunchest supporters of The Meadowlands. In addition to the 20 horses supplied for their two club races last weekend, there were a total of 18 additional horses dropped in the box whose last start was in a GSY race.

The GSY, a diverse club including men and women, with white, black and Latino competitors, has had 21 different winners this year at The Meadowlands.

Although unquantifiable, the GSY also supports The Meadowlands by bringing people to the track, who bet and patronize food and beverage vendors.

The club also supports the track photographers, since as owners as well as drivers, they purchase photos. And, as a special way to celebrate the first Big M win for around half a dozen of their members this year, Lisa Photo put together a commemorative collage, requested and paid for by the club.

Austin Brubacker cooking up a solid career

In 2021, he set career-best marks in top-three finishes (45) and purse earnings ($140,224) as a trainer and won his first race as a driver.

by Chris Lomon

Whether it's Black Caviar, cheeseburger soup or his daily racing regimen, Austin Brubacker has found the recipe for success.

His career in standardbred racing began in the 2010s, a gig that saw him put in plenty of miles with pacers and trotters in tow, and one that piqued his interest about shifting gears into a different role.

"I started as a shipper for a friend of mine. He didn't have his driver's license at that moment, so I ended up shipping horses to Freehold... That was about 10 to 12 years ago. It wasn't long until I started thinking about wanting to get involved in racing in a bigger way. I ended up buying a cheap $4,000 claimer, just to get started. I didn't make a lot of money at the time, but I got really hooked on it."

It was a bay trotting mare who made his decision to join the harness racing ranks a no doubter.

"Black Caviar, she made around $30,000 in three months. She ended up getting injured and she's a broodmare now. I think that's when I knew I was going to make racing my career. Back then, $30,000 was a lot of money. I owned 100 per cent of her. I trained her down myself and she was amazing. She was easy to work with, had a really nice gait and was just so straightforward. She just made my job a lot easier, and she showed me that if you are willing to put in the work, you can make money in this game."

With the support of his family – he doesn't come from a racing background – Brubacker launched his driving and training career in 2016. In seven starts in the race bike, he posted a pair of thirds. In 64 training starts, he notched seven wins, five seconds and four thirds, to go along with just over $92,000 in earnings.

Since then, he's continued to progress with a relatively small number of horses. Currently, he has nine in his barn.

"I'm very lucky to have my family back me so much in what I do. They are always asking when I'm racing, how things are going, and what's coming up. That's really nice to have."

As it is to have claimed his first win in the sulky.

Near the end of last year, Brubacker, now 31, was given an unexpected opportunity to pilot pacer Gold Star Yoder at Harrah's Philadelphia.

The Gold Star Farm-bred gelding is trained by Tim Crissman.

"It was the 14th race on December 2, 2021. There was a traffic delay that day and some of the drivers were late coming in from Yonkers, so they just grabbed whoever was left in the paddock, and I happened to be one of them."

With little time to prepare, Brubacker did his best to educate himself quickly on the son of Mysticism. He certainly liked what he saw in the form, and after a glance at the tote board, he felt even more confident in his chances.

"I thought, 'If I don't screw this up, I might be able to pick up a nice check for the connections.' I remember they went very fast fractions, and I came first up. It made my job a lot easier. The horse was on the top of his game and won by almost three lengths. It was a big thrill, for sure. It all worked out. He had a strong qualifier the week before at Dover, and I just went on that. I actually raced three of my own at Chester that day and they finished one, two, three."

The training side of Brubacker's stable has fared well over the past few seasons.

other people as well. I'm always getting educated by other people's horses, which I like. Education is key in this business. I also like to drive my own, so I know what I have. I like the whole training end of it too, even though it's a lot of early mornings and late nights, plus all the stress. But I like being in the position I'm in.

~ Austin Brubacker

He set career-best marks in top-three finishes (45) and purse earnings ($140,224) last year.

"It is going well. I have a nice group of trotters. Winning is always fun. That never gets old. I'm really focused on making sure my horses are in the right class, that they can be competitive and perform at their peak. I like my trotters, especially working with the young ones."

For Brubacker, that aspect of training and the entire scope of the role is a genuine labor of love.

Any chance to be hands-on with his horses brings out a big smile for the Pennsylvania horseman.

"It really is rewarding when they work out. I qualify all of my own horses and some for other people as well. I'm always getting educated by other people's horses, which I like. Education is key in this business. I also like to drive my own, so I know what I have. I like the whole training end of it too, even though it's a lot of early mornings and late nights, plus all the stress. But I like being in the position I'm in."

Life is indeed good for the man who sports maroon, white and black colors.

And not just at the racetrack.

Brubacker is anything but the stay-at-home sort, preferring instead to take advantage of the great outdoors whenever he finds the time.

"I love hunting and fishing. I wish I had more opportunity for those, but if I do have any free time, I'll be outside. I'm the type of person that I'll only watch TV if it's a rainy night, and if I do, I'll be watching TVG, tuning into to see The Meadowlands or racing from Canada. I don't like to sit on the sofa. For me, it's all about being outside."

With one exception, however.

Cooking and baking have always played a big role in Brubacker's life.

While he won't be getting his own show on The Food Network, his culinary skills are prize worthy.

"I really enjoy cooking. All my friends come over and I'll make lunch or dinner. Whether it's pasta, lasagna or steaks, I just love cooking. I bake cookies too. When I was little, I would help him my mom in the kitchen. I was her little helper. We did everything together.

"Through my realtor, when I bought the house, they had a little get-together at the end of 2021 for the new homeowners, with a free meal. They also had a soup contest. I forgot about it until about two in the afternoon that day – the party was at five – so I ran out to the store and got all my stuff. I made a cheeseburger soup. I ended up getting second prize and $50."

It's the horses, though, that make Brubacker, who has amassed over $700,000 in career training earnings, feel like a million bucks.

Win or lose, the trotters and pacers feel more like family for the horseman, who doesn't do much winter racing, instead focusing on breaking 15-20 babies a year.

"I love the horses. There is not a morning I lay in bed and say I wish I didn't have to go to work. It's not a job, it's literally a hobby and a passion. I can't wait to get there, even though I live a half-mile the farm. I bought a house about a year and a half ago. I had to pay a lot for it, but I'm glad I did. If I have free time, I'll work around the house, landscaping or doing anything outside. I'm grateful for everything I have in my life."

The main ingredient for his success story?

"That's an easy one... I just love what I do."

Brent Lilley says trotting mare Queen Elida is "the most exciting horse I've trained"

by Adam Hamilton

One of the great vagaries of Down Under harness racing is the relative success of trotting mares compared to their pacing compatriots.

It is quite common to see one of our top trotting mares beat the boys on the biggest open-class stage, but it almost never happens in pacing ranks.

There are three mares – One Over Kenny, Petite Evander and Scotch Notch – in the top 18 all-time richest Down Under-bred prize--money earners. By comparison, if you take out Shartin (who earned the bulk of her money racing mares in North America) there are no females in the top 18 earning pacers.

That history and the sheer awesomeness of 4-year-old trotting mare Queen Elida is driving trainer Brent Lilley to chase the biggest trotting races Down Under, starting with the Inter Dominion series in Victoria late this year.

Like Queen Elida, Lilley is a Kiwi-bred and he knows all about how special the Inter Dominion is.

It was 20 years ago when a then largely unknown (to Australians at least) Lilley came across the "ditch" and upstaged Australia's best to win the 2002 Inter Dominion trotting final in Sydney with Game Bid.

It put him on the map and fuelled the idea for his eventual full-time move across from NZ to train in Victoria.

Lilley has enjoyed great success in Australia, most notably just a few years back with former outstanding trotter Keystone Del (43 wins and $A1,063,560) in the latter part of the gelding's stellar career.

But it is Queen Elida who Lilley has declared "the most exciting horse I've trained."

Queen Elida is by siring sensation Love You, but the bloodlines run deep. Her granddam, Nice One Kenny, is a sister to the great trotting mare One Over Kenny. She is the richest earning trotting mare of all-time Down Under with 32 wins netting $A1,060,394.

Just as One Over Kenny got better over time, it seems the same with Queen Elida. She had three starts in New Zealand for trainer Tony Barron and managed just a third placing before being sent across to Lilley, where she had another four runs as a two-year-old for two wins.

There were glimpses for sure, but she went to another level at 3.

Queen Elida's 15 starts last season netted nine wins, three seconds, a third and $A151,110. Three of those wins were at Group 1 in the Victoria Oaks, Need For Speed final and all-important Breeders Crown final.

Lilley and champion driver Chris Alford knew they had something a bit special.

Harness Racing Update

"But you always wonder how she will go coming back at 4," Lilley said. "It's traditionally the hardest year for trotters (Down Under) because they go against the older seasoned horses. It's even harder now than it was with the change in handicapping system, which means a mare like her has to go straight into the big league."

Lilley's queries have been answered in the most emphatic fashion.

Queen Elida's three races this season have been stunning, including wins at her past two starts in Group 1 and Group 3 company.

It was a runaway 13.7 metre win at Melton last Saturday week which sparked the debate whether she was already the best trotter in Australia.

Time will tell, but she certainly looked awesome.

"That was breathtaking. She's turbo-charged... she's a pretty special unit," experienced race caller Dan Mielicki said after that latest win.

Queen Elida came from at least 20m off the speed in a slowly run race to loop the field and win running away, under her own steam. She was privately clocked to run a 55.9sec last half mile and that's coming three-wide for part of it.

"The most exciting part is that she's still got it all ahead of her," Lilley said.

"She's no one-trick pony. She can lead, do some work and you saw again tonight just how much speed she's got when coming from off the pace."

It was Queen Elida's ninth win from her past 10 starts.

She runs again at Melton on Saturday night (Melbourne time) and will then have a let-up.

"It's another good race for her this time," Lilley said. "Then she can go out as we prepare for the big races at the end of the year and early next year.

"Obviously, we will make a final call on the Inter Dominion closer to it with a young mare like her, but if you asked me now, I'd say we'll be there, and she'll be very competitive."

The quirk to the Inter Dominion is the gruelling format, which requires all horses to tackle three qualifying races in the first week before the final a week later. Four runs in a fortnight doesn't suit every horse.

"That's a plus for her. She is such a great doer. She'll have a hard run, go straight home and eat-up, bounce out of the box the next day and be ready to race again," Lilley said.

Alford, who has driven some of the great trotting and pacing champions Down Under has seen, only added to Lilley's excitement after her latest win.

"He just said it's ridiculous how quickly she goes and how easily she does it when you ask her to sprint," he said. "She's outstanding and is only going to keep getting better."

Another fan is champion driver Anthony Butt, who has driven Queen Elida in a race and is best known as the driver of arguably Down Under's greatest ever trotter, Lyell Creek.

"She's something else. That speed is what separates her. She's got it all, but you rarely see that sort of point-to-point speed in a trotter," he said.

"She's in great hands with 'Lil' (Brent Lilley) as well. He knows how to get the best out of them.

"It will be exciting to see how far she goes and how quickly."

Butt, was part of Lyell Creek's US campaign two decades ago, went further when asked if Queen Elida had the ingredients to take on the world.

"Speed is the key if you want to try and do that and she's got so much of it," he said. "If she keeps improving here and becomes a standout, then she would be the type of mare you'd think about taking to Europe or the US."

Total dominance by Redén-Kihlström

by Thomas Hedlund

Four-year-old races the $118,000 Prix Readly Express and the $79,000 Prix Diana Zet were held at Solvalla on Wednesday night (June 22) and as it turned out, the whole show became a total dominance by trainer Daniel Redén and driver Örjan Kihlström.

Francesco Zet has dominated among the Swedish bred 4-yearolds and he entered the 1.3 miles long race as heavy favorite. And Francesco Zet made an impressive performance from the lead as he crossed the wire in mile rate 1:54.4. The dominant Father Patrick son continues to determine his position as number one in the crop and the main goal for him this season is The Derby at Jägersro later this year. Four-year-old mare Glamorous Rain (Muscle Hill) controlled the newly established Prix Diana Zet from the lead, and when she hit the finish line as winner in mile rate 1:55.4, the night was complete for Redén and Kihlström.

FRENCH ROBBERY IN FINLAND

Jarmo Niskanen-trained Earl Simon (Prodigious) has made a strong comeback after his injury, which he sustained in connection to Elitloppet at Solvalla in 2020, and when the horse entered the $165,000 Kymi Grand Prix in Kouvola, Finland on Saturday (June 18) afternoon, he did so as the favorite from post 1 behind the gate.

Driver Franck Ouvrie couldn't defend the front position as the car accelerated from the field and Earl Simon found his spot as third on the inside while Calle Crown controlled the race in the lead.

Calle Crown seemed strong in front with title defender Ce Bello Romain on the outside. From position second over, Oscar L.A. made his move at the back stretch and behind him, Önas Prince followed three wide.

That's when Ouvrie took his chance. From an inside position, Earl Simon was all of a sudden following Oscar L.A. in the attack and Önas Prince's driver Per Nordström had to move his horse four wide. Oscar L.A. and Earl Simon battled over the home stretch and the French bred Prodigious son proved to be strongest as he hit the wire in mile rate 1:56.3 over 1.3 miles.

The result might have been okay in Earl Simon's home country France, where the judges allow tighter situations when horses change positions, but with objective eyes, Earl Simon should have been disqualified, alternatively finished second or third after the judges' decision. But there weren't any decisions made in that direction by Kouvola's judges and Earl Simon claimed his fifth consecutive win in 2022.

Replay here.

BARONCINI HAS A NEW STAR IN ITALY

Mauro Baroncini-trained Dimitri Ferm (Nad Al Sheba) claimed his second Group 1 victory as a 3-year-old when he won the $162,000 Gran Premio Nazionale in Turin on Saturday (June 18) night.

In May, Dimitri Ferm won $162,000 Gran Premio Tito Giovanardi in Modena and it seems like Mauro Baroncini's trotter has climbed towards the top among Italian-bred 3-year-olds this summer.

Driver Andrea Farolfi sent Dimitri Ferm to the front after 500 meters and when Farolfi stepped on the gas pedal in the last turn, the duo flew away from the opponents and the mile rate was 1:59 over 1.3 miles.

Mauro Baroncini and Andrea Farolfi had a great day at work on this Saturday in Turin. Earlier on the card, the $70,000 Gran Premio Nazionale Filly was held and even then, Farolfi used the front position for his drive Due Italia (Adrian Chip). Due Italia was quite outstanding and she left her opponents several lengths behind over the stretch and came home in 1:55.4.

DON FANUCCI ZET BEST IN BODEN

Daniel Redén's 6-year-old Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin) went off stride as the favorite when the car left the field in the final of Elitloppet at Solvalla in the end of May and on Saturday (June 18) night the Hard Livin son got a little bit of revenge.

One must be honest and say that this year's edition of $190,000 Norrbottens Stora Pris didn't attract the highest level, especially since two of the best horses (Who's Who and Esprit Sisu) was scratched from the race.

That left Don Fanucci Zet pretty alone holding star quality and the 6-year-old did not disappoint. Örjan Kihlström let Don Fanucci Zet open quickly, aiming for the lead, but Vitruvio's driver Mika Forss wasn't too eager to make the race too easy for the heavy favorite, so when Don Fanucci Zet and Vitruvio hit the first 500 meters, the pace was set very high. But then, when Kihlström placed the favorite in front, the excitement was over, at least for a while. The field almost jogged in 700-800 meters, before the last turn and Don Fanucci Zet had everything under safe control, even if stablemate Born Unicorn finished quickly three wide the last 100 meters.

Don Fanucci Zet came home in moderate mile rate 1:58.3 over 1.3 miles.

Skinner and Fleming are back with another top Indiana fair circuit pacing freshman

by James Platz

Last summer trainer Terry Skinner and owner Ar'tarrius Fleming competed on the Indiana fair circuit with pacing filly Rockin Bambi, capturing a Governor's Cup championship and divisional honors with the 2-year-old. This year the two men have returned to the Hoosier State with another freshman and look to repeat their 2021 success. Master Splinter, a pacing colt, has turned in three impressive performances at the fairs, most recently wiring the field Tuesday, June 21 at Converse in a time of 2:00.1.

"We want to take the same kind of path we took with her," Skinner said. "We'll see how he handles it and we'll go from there. It worked for her, so we wanted to try it again."

Rockin Bambi kicked off her freshman campaign with four straight victories on the fair circuit. Skinner then shipped her to Hawthorne, where the filly picked up a win in her pari-mutuel debut. The connections dropped her into Indiana Sires Stakes for her next attempt and she finished out of the money. Returning to the fairs, Rockin Bambi continued her winning ways and qualified for the $25,000 Governor's Cup final, which she won by four lengths. The Rockin Image filly finished the year with nine wins in 11 outings, with purse earnings of $26,290.

Similarly, Master Splinter is off to a fast start this season. An $8,500 purchase last fall at the Hoosier Classic sale, the Always A Virgin—Glass In The Sand colt has quickly separated himself from the competition. Qualifying at Oak Grove in late May, Skinner entered the 2-year-old in the second round of fair action at Converse on June 8. Master Splinter won that day despite broken equipment, nine and one-half lengths in front at the wire, tripping the timer in 1:58.4.

"I forgot to hook the shadow roll. When I got to the gate I realized it because it started flopping everywhere," said Skinner, who steered the colt. "He didn't pay it any mind and kept doing what he was doing."

The pacer continued his dominance the next week at Corydon. Guided this time by Curtis Bradford, the colt opened up by 12 lengths in the stretch, eventually finishing just shy of 20 lengths ahead of the competition.

Trainer/driver Terry Skinner and Master Splinter.

"I had to go to Springfield the day before. The time was so close together and I figured I wouldn't get back in time to go to Corydon," said Skinner. "Curtis has been helping me in the barn jogging and training. I told him I'm going to put this horse in to race and you can go drive him. It worked out perfectly."

This week, Master Splinter rolled out of the turn comfortably in front and finished six and one-half lengths to the good. On Indiana's fair circuit, a horse has to accumulate enough points to finish in the top eight within a division to qualify for the Governor's Cup championship, and make a minimum of seven starts. With three wins collected after four weeks, Skinner wants to have the flexibility to try his colt in Indiana Sires Stakes action when it kicks off July 14 at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing and Casino.

"You've got to have seven starts to get to the fair finals. I wanted to at least get halfway there before the sires stakes started," the trainer said. "We did want to try him on the big track just to see how he would adapt to it. If he isn't good enough to compete, we won't have to run so much in order to get those starts for the fair final."

Rockin Bambi was not successful in her sires stakes attempt last season, but perhaps Master Splinter can be competitive in the state's top program. He has already shown he is one of the stars of the fair circuit and a model horse around the barn area.

"He's pretty easy to be around. He'll holler every now and then to let you know he's in the barn, but he doesn't try to hurt you. He's pretty well mannered, easy to get along with, easy to jog, easy to put the equipment on. He doesn't do anything wrong," Skinner said of his pupil.

The trainer is also enjoying a high level of success at the moment. The Mississippi native has sent out nine winners from 27 starters this season, with a UTRS of .424. Last year, his 52 starters earned $56,521 in purses, a personal best. To date, his stable has banked $45,424 in 2022 and is on course to set new standards for the conditioner.

Now a sophomore, Rockin Bambi has made four starts at Oak Grove, winning twice and finishing second once while taking a mark of 1:53.2. Last week, Skinner guided freshman World Of Rocknroll filly Rags To Riches to a five-length score at Springfield. He owns the 1:58.4 winner. Skinner also co-owns 2-year-old pacing colt Ifudntnomebynow, three-for-three this season. The Indiana-sired pacer is dual eligible, collecting his wins in the Bluegrass State.

"They all trained down pretty good. They did it so easy, I figured they would be halfway decent to try to race this summer. We just put them in and try to get them prepared and go racing," commented Skinner, who is based in Fayetteville, Tennessee and shipping to Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois to race each week.

Skinner's grandfather, Henry Minor, trained horses and nurtured an early interest in racing. He also learned the business from his cousin, Curtis Rice, who shared pointers with the young horseman as he helped train. Skinner will turn 34 next week, and he has high aspirations for his career in racing.

"I want to be able to compete on the big stage one day. I'm just taking it one day at a time, trying to get better every year and be more competitive every year," he said.

Pennsylvania

Manon posts second PASS victory of the year

by PHHA / Pocono

Manon is four-for-four this season, two of them in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes, after she won the faster $67,991 division of the third preliminary for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Sunday night (June 19) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono.

Tim Tetrick handled the talented Bar Hopping filly cautiously early, letting the front end sort itself out, then went to the top past previous PASS winner Samosa before the :28 quarter. Middle fractions of :56.4 and 1:25.3 left Manon with plenty left in the tank for the stretch, and she cruised home in :27.4 to wind up a length ahead of the game Samosa in the 1:53.2 mile.

Third in her only start at 2, Manon has shown impressive development this year for trainer Lucas Wallin and the Harbor Racing Stable LLC.

Mon Cheval, second in both of the first two legs of the Sire Stakes and coming off a Pennsylvania All-Stars victory, posted her second straight win in the other Sires division. Taking the lead in front of the stands for driver Andrew McCarthy, the daughter of harness racing royalty – Father Patrick and Shake It Cerry – set the rest of the pace as she pleased, then dashed home in :27.3 to beat out Tie One On by three-quarters of a length in 1:54.2, a clocking matching her lifetime best, set in her All-Stars race.

Mon Cheval is trained by Nancy Takter for Solveig's Racing Partners, another in a long string of success stories for that pairing.

If you want to talk about the fastest 3-year-old trotting filly of Sunday at Pocono, you'd have to go to the fastest of four $20,000 divisions of the companion Stallion Series races, where the Southwind Frank speedster Baptism, winner of an All-Stars race in 1:52.2 in her last start, went a tick faster here to lower her mark and tie for the fastest trotting mile of the year at Pocono.

What Should I Goo gave close chase from the two-hole through blistering splits of :27.1,:55, and 1:23.2 and is to be commended for staying within a length at the wire. But Baptism looked in command in the latter stages in winning her third straight (her second Stallion Series win) for trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt and the partnership of Diamond Creek Racing and Crossover Racing.

Two horses kept their 2022 records perfect in winning their StS cuts. The quicker was the Donato Hanover filly Chake (SHAH-kay), who won her fifth straight in her first stakes start, a 1:54.3 lifetime best on the engine for driver Tim Tetrick, trainer Per Engblom, and owner Daniel Sarafian. Also successful was the Cantab Hall miss I'll Have A Lindy, a four-time winner including three times in Stallion Series preliminaries, who defeated Rosaline by a neck in 1:56.4 for driver Scott Zeron, trainer Domenico Cecere, and the Greathorse ownership.

The other StS cut saw trainer/driver Todd Schadel, who's been on a tear with his 2-year-old trotting fillies, translate that success to the 3-year-old level, getting a perfect second-over trip with the 31-1 Explosive Matter miss Heart Matters and then catching favored Elegant Charm by a head in 1:55.4 to lower her mark. Schadel also co-owns the winner with wife Christine and Rick and Regina Beinhauer.

Stratton wins three of four NYSS races at Vernon

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Vernon Downs played host to four divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for sophomore pacing colts and geldings on a special Father's Day Sunday matinee (June 19). Driver Jordan Stratton won three of the four NYSS races.

Bounty Hunter (Stratton) won the $30,550 first division.

Bounty Hunter ($12.60) led to the first quarter in :27. JD (Mark MacDonald) then took over heading to the top of the backstretch. He was first to the half in :56.0. Twin B Deluxe (Jason Bartlett) came first-up going around the far turn and took a slight lead before hitting three-quarters in 1:24.0.

As they headed to the stretch JD reclaimed a short lead. Bounty Hunter came powering out of the pocket and went on by to win in a lifetime best of 1:52.2.JD had to settle for second. American Classic (Andy Miller) finished third.

Bounty Hunter is a 3-year-old gelding by Huntsville. He is owned by Royal Wire Products and trained by Robert Cleary. He now has two lifetime wins.

All About The Hunt (David Miller) captured the $29,950 second division.

Hazeville (Mark Macdonald) took the lead and led to the quarter in :26.4. All About The Hunt ($3.80) took over control as they headed for the half. He was there first in :55.3. Gone Before Dawn (Marcus Miller) came first-up and put on the pressure as All About The Hunt was first to three-quarters in 1:23.2.

As they made the turn for home All About The Hunt shook off Gone Before Dawn and breezed down the stretch to get his first career victory in 1:51.4. Hazeville was second. American Classic (Andy Miller) was third.

All About The Hunt is a 3-year-old colt by Huntsville. He is owned by Crawford Farms Racing and Heather Marshall while trained by Ron Burke.

River Ness (Stratton) won the $29,950 third division.

River Ness ($14.80) was first to the quarter in :27.3. Pleaseletmeknow (Matt Kakaley) took over the lead going down the backstretch and was first to the half in :55.4. Early Action (David Miller) came first over around the final turn. Pleaseletmeknow led to the three-quarters in 1:24.

As they reached the stretch River Ness popped out of the pocket and the race was on. Second place finisher Pleaseletmeknow held firm but River Ness used one final burst to win in 1:52.1. Early Action held on to finish third.

River Ness is a 3-year-old gelding by Huntsville. He is trained by Ron Burke (two training wins) for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi, J&T Silva-Purnell & Libby. It was his second win this year. He now has three career victories.

Seven Hundred (Stratton) charged late to win the $30,550 fourth division.

Hurrikane Chuck (Mark MacDonald) led the way to the first quarter in :27.0. Kingsville (Jason Bartlett) then took over and led to the half in :56.0. Blue Collar Man (Dan Daley) was first to make a move going first-over. Kingsville had a short lead to three-quarters in 1:23.4.

As they made the turn for home it looked like a mad scramble. Seven Hundred ($16.20) slipped through on the inside while Top Genius (Tyler Buter) went four-wide and Stretch The Line (Marcus Miller) came five-wide. In deep stretch it became a two-horse race as Seven Hundred held off Top Genius (second place) to win in 1:52.3. Stretch The Line got third.

Seven Hundred is a 3-year-old colt by Huntsville. He is owned by Rick Berks and trained by Bruce Clarke. It was his second win of the season. He now has four career victories.

Four-year-olds shine at Oak Grove

by Kimberly French for the Kentucky Harness Association

On Tuesday (June 21) at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel 4-year-old trotter and pacers strutted their stuff over the Bluegrass oval in the $50,000 second leg of the Kentucky-bred series. Winners Kildare King, Blue Diamond Eyes, Komodo Beach and Beltassima delivered on an exceptionally hot day.

Kildare King (Yannick Gingras) triumphed in gate-to-wire fashion in the first contest, a non-wagering event, over his stablemate Flemsteen (Andrew McCarthy). Mon Amour (Scott Zeron) was third.

A son of Trixton—Exclusivity, Kildare King has now earned more than $135,000 in his career for owner/breeder Robert Goodman of Lexington, Ky.

The gelding is trained by Chris Beaver and tripped the timer in 1:53.3.

Track-record holder Blue Diamond Eyes (Gingras) illustrated her affinity for the five-eighths track by taking things in her own hooves at the start. The defending Kentucky champion led at every pole to record a victory in 1:50.1 over Classicist (McCarthy) and High Minded (Zeron) as the heavy favorite in the first race.

Blue Diamond Eyes is trained by Hall of Famer Ron Burke. The daughter of Captaintreacherous—Aria Hanover now has collected more than $1.2 million in purse money for owners Thomas and Scott Dillion.

Komodo Beach (McCarthy) sailed to the wire winning his $50,000 leg over Mad Man Hill (Todd Warren) and Caviart Lotus (Tony Hall) in 1:49.

Komodo Beach is trained by Edward Gannon Jr, owned by Morrison Stables and was bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut.

The heat did not slow down Beltassima (McCarthy). The daughter of Trixton—Beltane Hanover improved her 2021 record to two-for-two with her pilot confidently holding the lines. Last year's New Jersey Sire Stakes champion was second in the $250,000 Kentucky Championship Series final last year.

Beltassima is approaching the $400,000 mark in purse money. She is trained by Tony Alagna, owned by Crawford Farms and was bred by D Farms of Hustonville, Pa.

The $50,000 third and fourth legs of the 4-year-old series take place on June 28 and July 12. The $150,000 final is scheduled for July 19.

Fanning pupils score in Gaitway 2-year-old qualifiers

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Tom Fanning was pleased with the efforts of several of his stable's 2-year-olds at Monday's (June 20) Gaitway Farm qualifiers, with male pacer Southwind Sambucca and female pacer Uncontrolled picking up victories in their second trips around the training center's one-mile oval.

Fanning was among three trainers to notch multiple victories with 2-year-olds. Trainer Ron Burke had five 2-year-old winners on the day — filly trotter In Italian, male trotters Celebrity Bambino and Point Of Perfect, and male pacers Loubet and Ervin Hanover — and Joe Holloway sent out two in female pacer Summer Dreams and female trotter Trick Play.

Jennifer Bongiorno won the remaining of the 10 qualifiers for the 2-year-olds with female pacer Beach Cowgirl.

For Fanning, Southwind Sambucca (American Ideal—Sister's Delight) won in 1:55.2 with Tyler Miller in the sulky. It was Southwind Sambucca's second time out after finishing fifth in 1:59.2 last week. He is owned by David Van Wart and Fanning Racing and was bred by Southwind Farms. He was purchased for $72,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale. The family includes Fast N First, who won a 2019 Little Brown Jug elimination and finished second to Southwind Ozzi in the final.

"He qualified last week, and I was a little bit disappointed in him," Fanning said. "I don't expect much out of their first qualifiers, but I thought he would be better than what he showed. We made some changes this week, let him see a little more, and it really made a difference. He was really good. He was loaded with pace and interested the whole way. It was a big step forward."

Southwind Sambucca will go to the New York Sire Stakes.

Uncontrolled (Control The Moment—Scarlett O Terror) won in 1:58.1 for driver Tim Tetrick. She was third in her debut last week in 1:58.1. The homebred filly is owned by Howard Taylor and Fanning. Her family includes multiple Indiana Sire Stakes winner Brookview Bullet.

"She will be going up to Ontario soon to race up there in their sire stakes," Fanning said. "She's good. She qualified good. She was handy; Tetrick said she did nothing wrong. She was pretty comfortable winning. We were happy with her. She's a racehorse."

Also qualifying for Fanning was 2-year-old female trotter Mississippi Gale (Cantab Hall—Mississippi Beauty), who finished third in her debut in 2:03. She is owned by Joe Smith and is a full sister to Smith's Mississippi Storm, a Grand Circuit winner.

"We qualified her very carefully, but she was very solid, pretty professional," Fanning said. "We were happy with that. She trained down very well. She can trot."

The lone disappointment was male pacer Fendi Hanover, who went off stride for the second week in a row. Fendi Hanover (Stay Hungry—Fashion Katie) is owned by Taylor and Falcon Racing and is a three-quarter brother to last year's Governor's Cup winner Early Action.

"Of all my babies, I thought he was by far the best," Fanning said. "Last week, he got run into in the first turn. This week, he was uncooperative; wouldn't go on the gate, was trying to kick. I talked to the owner and we're going to geld him."

Early Action also is a gelding.

"I was really excited about him," Fanning continued about Fendi Hanover. "He just needs to get refocused a little bit. He's going to miss a little bit of time now, but he'll still have plenty of races and he's staked up good."

Yannick Gingras drove all five of Burke's winners. In Italian, the full sister to multiple Dan Patch Award-winner Atlanta, won her debut qualifier in 1:59 on June 6 and made it 2-for-2 with a 1:59.3 win Monday. In Italian (Chapter Seven—Hemi Blue Chip) was the sales topper at last fall's Standardbred Horse Sale, going for $750,000. She is owned by Brad Grant and Howard Taylor. She was bred by Order By Stable.

Also winning for the second time were Loubet, Ervin Hanover, and Celebrity Bambino.

Loubet (Sweet Lou—Atsallrite Hanover) won for the second time in three tries, stopping the clock in 1:53, which was Monday's fastest mile. He won his debut in 1:57.2 on June 6 despite making an early misstep, then went off stride in a second-place finish in 1:58.2 last week. He is owned by breeders Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi, Michelle Yanek and Phil Collura. He is a full brother to Grand Circuit winner She's Allright and 2022 Pennsylvania Stallion Stakes winner Code Cracker.

Ervin Hanover (Captaintreacherous—Eloquent Grace) made it 2-for-2 with a 1:56 win, with his back half in :54.4. He won in 1:54.1 in his first try June 6. He is owned by Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva Stables, James Simpson, and Weaver Bruscemi. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and purchased for $115,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale. His family includes millionaires Ginger And Fred and Fred And Ginger.

Celebrity Bambino (Muscle Hill—Celebrity Ruth) won in 1:57.3 with a back half of :55.1 after capturing his opening qualifier on June 6 in 1:59. He is owned by Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva Stables, Knox Services, and Phil Collura. He was bred by White Birch Farm and purchased for $120,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale. His family includes Dan Patch Award winners Housethatruthbuilt and Master Lavec.

Point Of Perfect (Walner—Southwind Fiat) won in 1:58.4 after finishing second in 1:59.4 on June 6. He is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, J&T Silva Stables, and Knox Services. He was bred by Black Creek Farm, Northern Lane Farm, Four Corner Stables, and Hickory Hollow Stables. He sold for $205,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale. His dam is a full sister to Dan Patch Award-winner Southwind Frank and Grand Circuit winner Sans Defaut.

Summer Dreams (Always B Miki—Arrivista Hanover) won in 1:55.4 for driver David Miller and Holloway in her second qualifying appearance. She was fifth on June 6 in 1:58.4. Summer Dreams is owned by Val D'Or Farms and Ted Gewertz. She was bred by Frederick Hertrich III and sold under the name Without Exception for $65,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale. She is a half-sister to multiple Buckeye Stallion Series winner Self Made and her family also includes millionaire Aracache Hanover and Grand Circuit winner Lyons Snyder.

Trick Play (Trixton—Perfect Delight) made a break on June 6 but came back Monday to win in 2:00.3, again with Miller driving for Holloway. She is owned by Val D'Or Farms and Ted Gewertz. She was bred by Jim Avritt Sr. and sold for $55,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale.

Beach Cowgirl (Captaintreacherous—Stonebridge Sundae) won in 1:55.2 for trainer Bongiorno and driver Joe Bongiorno. She finished second last week, timed in 1:56.1. Beach Cowgirl is owned by Joseph DiScala Jr., Zippett Racing Stable, Scarlett Stables, and JAF Racing. She was bred by Crawford Farms and sold for $60,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale. She is a three-quarter sister to Bounty Hunter, a recent winner on the New York Sire Stakes circuit and two-time runner-up on the Grand Circuit last season.

Cancelliere and Norman win three at Wednesday's Magical Acres qualifiers

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

It was a three-win morning for trainers Tom Cancelliere and Nifty Norman at Wednesday's (June 22) Magical Acres qualifiers for 2-year-olds.

Cancelliere won with female pacers Absolute Power and Dole Whip in addition to male pacer Lite N Sweet. Norman was victorious with male pacer Duval Street, female trotter Lockdown Lady, and male trotter Kingpin Hanover.

Also posting multiple wins were trainers Chris Ryder, with male pacers Apertif and Lous The Attitude, and Trond Smedshammer, with male trotters Sevenatchi and Kennebago.

Rounding out the list of winners during the 13-race portion of the morning for the 2-year-olds were Carter Pinske's female pacer To All A Goodnight, Jake Leamon's female pacer Rock My Socks, and Bruce Saunders' male pacer Manferno.

Absolute Power, Dole Whip, and Lite N Sweet all were in their second qualifiers at Magical Acres. Absolute Power, a 1:59.4 winner on June 8, went around the five-eighths-mile oval at the training center in 1:57.1 on Wednesday. The daughter of Sweet Lou—Power Pack Hanover is from the family of Grand Circuit winner Panther Hanover.

Dole Whip (Sweet Lou—Pineapple Hanover) won in 1:58 after finishing third in 1:58.2 on June 8. She also is from the family of Panther Hanover. Lite N Sweet (Sweet Lou—Kahlua Queen) won in 1:58 after being fourth in 2:01.1 two weeks ago.

All three were bred by owner John Cancelliere and driven by Corey Callahan.

Duval Street and Kingpin Hanover were making their first qualifying starts for Norman while Lockdown Lady was a winner in her second try.

The homebred Duval Street won in 1:58.4 with Brian Sears in the sulky. Duval Street (Huntsville—Native Bride) was bred by Sundance Stable and Jay Sears and is owned by Sundance Stable and Kim Chiaramonte Sears. His dam was a Grand Circuit winner and Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion.

Kingpin Hanover (E L Titan—Keepsake Hanover) won in 2:03 with driver David Miller. He is owned by Kovach Stables and Enzed Racing Stable. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and sold for $35,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale.

Lockdown Lady (Father Patrick—Cameron Hill) won in 2:00.1 with Dexter Dunn. She was second in 2:02.1 last week. She is owned by Mel Hartman, David McDuffee, and Diamond Creek Racing. She was bred by Glengate Farms and sold for $67,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale. Her third dam, Cameron Hall, was a multiple Dan Patch Award winner and earned $1.81 million in purses.

For Ryder, Apertif (Sweet Lou—Candlelight Dinner) won in 1:56.2 in his debut while Lous The Attitude (Sweet Lou—Cams Macharena) scored in 1:57.1, also in his first try.

Apertif, from the family of millionaire Romantic Moment, is a homebred owned by Let It Ride Cooper Stables, Mac Nichol, Howard Taylor, and Bottom Line Racing. He was driven by Dunn. Lous The Attitude, a $32,000 Lexington Selected purchase, is owned by Let It Ride Stables, Maurice Chodash, and Barry Cohen. He was bred by Anvil And Lace Farm and Steve Thoke. He was driven by Patrick Ryder.

Smedshammer drove both his winners, Kennebago in 2:01.3 and Sevenatchi in 2:04. Both were making their second starts. Kennebago (E L Titan—First Class Act) is owned by breeder Michael Andrew. Sevenatchi (Chapter Seven-Catching Katie) was purchased for $72,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Purple Haze Stables. He was bred by John Schlabach.

Saunders saw Manferno win his first time out, stopping the clock in 1:57.3 with driver Andy McCarthy. Manferno (Always B Miki—History Repeats) is owned by M And L of Delaware and Alabama Harness Associates. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and sold under the name Hawking Hanover for $100,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale. He is a half-brother to Grand Circuit winner Hammering Hank.

Rock My Socks (Boston Red Rocks—Kattimon) won for the second time in three qualifiers for Leamon, posting the fastest mile of the day, 1:56, with driver Todd McCarthy. Bred by Winbak Farm, she is owned by Rick Berks and was purchased for $30,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale. She is a half-sister to O'Brien Award-winner Classic Pro and Grand Circuit winner Devil Child.

To All A Goodnight (Captaintreacherous – Extreme Dream) won in 1:58.4 for driver Dunn and trainer Pinske in her second attempt. She was purchased for $100,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale and is owned by Pinske Stables and Kentuckiana Racing Stable. She was bred by Kentuckiana Farms. She is a half-sister to Grand Circuit winners Thinkbig Dreambig and Tiz To Dream.

PEO records largest mixed sale

Preferred Equine Online's June 20 Mixed Sale — the company's largest since it opened its storefront — rang up more than $1 million in total sales and had two horses surpass the $100,000 plateau.

View complete sale results

Leading the charge was the 3-year-old Huntsville gelding Hazeville p,3,1:53.2h, a New York Sire Stakes winner two weeks ago at Saratoga and second in the NYSS just last Sunday at Vernon Downs. Consigned by PEO as agent for John McDermott, he was purchased by David Rovine, VIP Stable and Howard Taylor for $130,000 after a spirited bidding battle.

The other six-figure seller, Bolt Of Beauty p,4,1:51f ($289,699), was bought for $106,000 by Mulligan Stables from PEO representing seller Erv Miller. After racing competitively in the Blue Chip Matchmaker Series, she came to the sale fresh off a third-place effort in the Filly & Mare Open Pace June 16 at Yonkers.

Other notable sellers were Four Under par ($86,000) and Cheryls Shadow ($76,000).

Included in the sale were five available slots for the "Next Generation" Stakes at Scioto Downs. Those races for Ohio-sired 2-year-olds of both gaits and sexes — each with a purse of $150,000 — will be contested July 4.

The purse pool will receive the first $10,000 of each lot's final auction price, with the amounts beyond that donated to the Standardbred Transition Alliance. Four of the five slots sold for a combined total of $41,000, creating a $1,000 donation to the STA. The slot for 2-year-old pacing colts remains open on a "make offer" basis.

In all, 40 of 48 lots that were offered sold for a total of $1,168,500 and the sale posted a racehorse average of $31,319.

Sale manager David Reid said the sale set a good tone for the "in-person" Tattersalls Summer Mixed Sale, scheduled in just a month's time, and Preferred Equine Online's next mixed sale, with a date yet to be decided upon.

"It's pretty straightforward," Reid said. "Owners and trainers are hungry for quality racehorses and those that fit the bill sell at a premium. The participation in this sale — from consignors, bidders and buyers — was outstanding."

Eliminations drawn for MGM Yonkers Trot, MGM Grand Messenger

The Pacing and Trotting Triple Crowns get underway for 2022 with two $40,000 eliminations of both the MGM Yonkers Trot and MGM Grand Messenger Stakes tonight (June 24) at Yonkers Raceway. The top four finishers from each race will advance to the finals on Friday, July 1.

All eyes will be on the filly Joviality S (post five, Brian Sears/ Marcus Melander) in the first MGM Yonkers Trot elimination, where she will face six rivals. Joviality S won in New York Sire Stakes action at Yonkers on May 16 to begin her 3-year-old season and then went to Vernon Downs and took another New York Sire Stakes leg and the Empire Breeders Classic for sophomore trotting fillies. Dover In Motion (post four, Jordan Stratton/Jamie Macomber), who has won nine of 11 career starts, invades from Indiana to tackle Joviality S.

Justice (post four, Ake Svanstedt) took the Empire Breeders Classic for 3-year-old male trotters at Vernon last time out and leads the second MGM Yonkers Trot elimination. He'll meet up with five foes, including Double Deceiver (post three, David Miller/Carter Pinske), a winner in Pennsylvania Sire Stakes competition last time out and the winner of the Kentucky Championship Series final as a freshman.

Gulf Shores (post three, Yannick Gingras/Brian Brown) tallied in the Ohio Sires Stakes at MGM Northfield Park on the 11th of June and ships in to headline the first MGM Grand Messenger Stakes elimination. Gulf Shores was the Ohio Sires Stakes champion in 2021 and then finished second, beaten just a nose, by eventual Dan Patch Award winner Monte Miki in the Breeders Crown final. Layton Hanover (post four, Matt Kakaley/Travis Alexander), a recent Pennsylvania Sire Stakes victor, will try to knock off the probable favorite.

Elimination two in the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes will see Hammering Hank (post three, Dexter Dunn/Brett Pelling) make his Yonkers debut. Hammering Hank won the Kindergarten Classic Series final in 2021 and returned to action with a third in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes at Harrah's Philadelphia. He'll try and best the likes of last year's MGM Springfield Stakes champion Pleaseletmeknow (post four, Kakaley/Alexander) and

Mike Hennessy wins 2022 Western Regional Driving Championship

Alberta native Mike Hennessy secured the opportunity to represent western Canada on the world stage by winning the 2022 Western Regional Driving Championship at Century Downs outside Calgary, AB on Sunday (June 19).

Hennessy, a resident of Lacombe, AB, won two of the seven races in the qualifying contest, scoring a minor upset with HF Patrick ($10.70) in Leg 3 followed by an open-length victory in Leg 6 with Naked Burner ($4.70). With two second-place and fourth-place finishes in his other races, Hennessy ended the contest with an insurmountable lead coming into the last race and took home the hardware with 62 points.

"It's awesome. You always come out here to have fun, but when you win, it makes everything a little better," Hennessy said with a laugh.

On the heels of breaking the 1,000-win milestone, Hennessy has driven horses in Western Canada and along its circuits for nearly 20 years. He enjoyed a career year in 2019 with $881,803 in purses earned and 136 wins, which ranks second to his 2017 season where he won 142 races.

Phil Giesbrecht, the current leading driver at Century Downs with 39 wins on the season, broke a second-place tie in the final leg to earn the final berth into the 2022 National Driving Championship. Giesbrecht, who is stationed in Fort Saskatchewan, Alta., had just one win on the day but accumulated enough points to sit tied with Dave Kelly coming into the final leg. A third-place finish with Shark Week, slipping through a late seam at the inside, and a seventh-place finish by Kelly earned Giesbrecht the runner-up spot with 50 points in total.

"I had a couple campaigners that helped push me through, and I'm glad they did," Giesbrecht said. I just want to thank everybody for putting their horses in, it was great. A lot of fun."

Giesbrecht, who started his driving career racing on the Manitoba fairs in 2007, moves to the National Driving Championship in a year where he currently holds an all-time personal best driving average of .419 from 285 starts. He has won more than 1,000 races in his 15-year career and earned just over $6 million in purses.

The winner and runner-up will join the top two finishers of the three other regional qualifiers at the 2022 National Driving Championship at Century Mile on Thursday, Nov. 24 for an opportunity to represent Canada in the 2023 World Driving Championship in Italy.

Ontario Regional Driving Championship winner Louis-Philippe Roy and runner-up Doug McNair qualified in May at The Raceway at Western Fair District. The Quebec / Eastern Ontario Regional will take place next Sunday (June 26) at Hippodrome 3R in Trois-Rivières, Que. followed by the Atlantic Regional on Saturday, July 30 at Red Shores Racetrack & Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The final leaderboard for the Western Regional Driving Championship is as follows:

- 1. Mike Hennessy (AB) 62 points
- 2. Phil Giesbrecht (AB) 50
- 3. Dave Kelly (AB) 45 (tie)
- 3. Glenn Le Drew (MB/SK) 45 (tie)
- 3. Rod Therres (BC) 45 (tie)
- 6. Brandon Campbell (BC) 31
- 7. Kelly Hoerdt (AB) 30
- 8. Scott Knight (BC) 19

"Heinikin" and "Johnny" fastest DSBF winners

A trio of $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund divisions for 3-year-old colts and geldings went post ward Monday (June 20) at Harrington Raceway to complete their second leg of stakes action.

Kdk Standardbeds' Heinikin Bythebay ($2.10, Tim Tetrick) completed a sweep of his eliminations in the first split with a 1:52 score for trainer Kevin Switzer. The Southwind Lynx gelding dominated his rivals for an easy score over It's Above Me Now and Bad And Boujee for his 11th lifetime win.

Meanwhile, Cavalli Pazzi Stables' Casino Bags Vincent ($3.40, Victor Kirby) prevailed over It's Pronounced Jif and Badlands N Wine in the second split in 1:53.4. The Roddy's Bags Again gelding led throughout and held off the pocket sitter "Jif" by a neck. Trained by Vince Copeland, "Vincent" notched his fourth win of the season.

The final division saw last week's track record holder, Johnny Badlands ($2.10, Corey Callahan) complete a sweep of his eliminations with a 1:52 win over Ds Heartland and Kennedy.

The Badlands Hanover colt led throughout for owner/trainer John Dixon. It was one of four winners on the card for Callahan, who earlier prevailed in the overnight feature, the $20,000 open pace with Mike Casalino Jr. and Dylan Davis' Shoobee Doo A ($5.20) in 1:52 over Movin On Up and Mack. Shoobee Doo A, notched his 4th win of the meet off a strong surge in deep stretch off cover as pacesetter Mack retreated late and Movin On Up emerged through the passing lane. Trained by co-owner Davis, it was his 30th lifetime win and second straight, with his June 13 1:49.3 being the fastest of the current Harrington meet.

Odds On Surfer Gal ($5.40, Corey Callahan) and Gaitway Gal ($2.10, Pat Berry) were victorious in the 2nd leg of the DSBF stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies Tuesday at Harrington.

Odds On Racing's Odds On Surfer Gal was a wire-to-wire winner in 1:54 over Tahoe and Smokey's Passion. Race favorite Shabby Chic made a break near the half-mile mark and finished last. A daughter of Badlands Hanover, the win completed a sweep of DSBF elims for Odds On Surfer Gal, who has 4 career wins in 7 starts.

Gty Stable's Gaitway Gal completed a sweep of her eliminations with a 1:55 win over Bank The Win and Two More Dreams. The Jeff Smith-trainee reeled in pacesetter Bank The Win with a first-over charge in achieving her 8th lifetime win.

The top eight point earners from the two rounds of eliminations will return for the $100,000 final on July 28.

Navy Blue ($2.40, Art Stafford Jr.), LG's Reed O Wen ($5.40, Jim Morand) and She's All Woman ($2.20, Victor Kirby) all completed sweeps of their DSBF $20,000 2nd leg eliminations for 3-year-old trotters Wednesday (June 22) at Harrington.

Stafford Jr. and Wyatt Starkey's Navy Blue, a son of Anders Bluestone, notched his 5th lifetime win in 1:58.4 over Canoe Trip and Wolfpack Russ. Navy Blue is trained by co-owner/driver Stafford Jr. The fastest divisional winner was Nanticoke Racing's LG's Reed O Wen, a 1:57.1 winner for trainer Les Givens. The Anders Bluestone gelding set all the fractions and was a narrow winner over Big Daddy D and Jas Bluestone. It was the eighth career win for "LG."

Pam Wagner's She's All Woman had no troubles picking up her eighth lifetime win as the heavy favorite in 1:58.2 for conditioner John Wagner. The Anders Bluestone filly led most of the way and won by 3 lengths over Franky Doyle and True Blue Mist.

The remaining filly division saw Carlo Poliseno's Our Last Penny ($2.40 Tony Morgan) maintain a comfortable lead throughout in a 3-length win over Antares Star and Giant Arbitration. The CR Commando filly atoned for a miscue in her round one elimination, when she broke at the start. She improved to 4-for-9 lifetime for owner/trainer Poliseno. The top 8 point earners from the two legs will return to compete in the $100,000 finals on July 28 on the annual Governor's Day program during the Delaware State Fair.

Haarlow and Marino win Meadowlands Sportscaster Charity Derbies

Eight New York sportscasters competed in two non-wagering harness races to benefit their selected charitable organization on Friday, June 17 at Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment.

Rebecca Haarlow, sideline reporter on MSG for the NY Knicks, NBA on TNT and NBA TV, took the win in the first charity derby race of the night. Haarlow and driving partner Tim Tetrick made a tremendous stretch move "rallying past Marc Malusis as if he was standing still" to take home the win. Haarlow's first place finish gave her charity Rescue Dogs Rock $5,000. The race can be viewed here.

"I'm thrilled to be able to help out Rescue Dogs Rock with this win," said Haarlow upon her return to the winner's circle. "This was a great night, a great experience, our family loved it."

The second charity derby was won by SNY reporter Maria Marino and her driving partner Corey Callahan. She held off fellow competitor Pat Leonard of the NY Daily News to capture the $5,000 prize for her selected charity, the American Cancer Society. View Marino's thrilling win here, Fellow competitors former NY Jets wide receiver Quincy Enunwa (MDA), Marc Malusis of PIX11, SNY & WFAN (Make-A-Wish Foundation), Don La Greca of ESPN-NY "The Michael Kay Show" (Ronald McDonald House Charities), Wally Szczerbiak of MSG (Croatian American Charitable Foundation), and Pat Leonard of the NY Daily News (Golden Lights Foundation) each earned $1,000 for their charities.

Brandon Tierney of WFAN was scratched sick for tonight's derby but Marc Malusis stepped in and drove in Tierney's race, earning the St. Jude's Research Hospital $1,000.

"I tried my best to win it for Tierney," said Malusis in his postrace interview. "This is always a great night, my family loves coming out and visiting the paddock and rooting me on. Thank you to the Meadowlands for putting on this fun event for our great causes."

In addition to the participating sportscasters, Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment would like to thank Mark Ford and Tony Alagna for assisting with the horses and sulkies for the event.

Ellagator breaks world record at MGM Northfield Park

Ellagator became the fastest 5-year-old-and-up pacing mare on a half-mile track in the history of harness racing when she won the $18,000 fillies and mares open in 1:49.3 at MGM Northfield Park on Saturday (June 18).

The previous record was 1:50, held by Godiva Seelster (Greg Grismore) in 2018 at Northfield.

Northfield Park's leading trainer Cory Kreiser conditions the pacer for owner Thunder Racing Stables of Brecksville, OH. Billy Davis Jr. was in the sulky for the winning drive.

Ellagator (Western Vintage—Dame Truth-Total Truth) started from post six. She left from the gate and led at every call through blistering fractions of :25.4, :53.3, 1:20.3 and 1:49.3, easily beating her competition by 8 ½-lengths.

Ellagator now has four wins in 14 starts this year. Saturday's victory represents her 12th career score and bolstered her lifetime bankroll to $299,612. She was heavily favored and returned $3.20 to win.

81-Year-Old Don McKirgan drives first time Buckeye Stallion Series starter to victory

For the first time in her career, 3-year-old trotter Sadodaka stepped up into the Buckeye Stallion Series and did not disappoint.

Owned, trained, and driven by 81-year-old Ohio Harness Hall of Famer Don McKirgan, the daughter of Team Six held off a late charge to win the $17,500 first division of the Buckeye Stallion Series second leg for sophomore filly trotters at MGM Northfield Park Saturday night, June 18.

Sadodaka is named after four people. The SA in the name are the initials of McKirgan's late wife Sandy who passed away earlier this year.

Last year, Sadodaka raced on the Ohio fair circuit but could only garner five second-place finishes in 13 starts.

Harness Racing Update

This year, Sadodaka has been racing in overnight races at Northfield Park. She won for the first time May 18.

Stars In Your Eyes and Billy Davis Jr. raced to the lead covering the first quarter in :28.4 but broke stride just before the half-mile pole allowing Sadodaka to grab the lead in 1:00.

Sadodaka fought off a challenge by Onetwoskipafew down the back stretch and led by a head at three-quarters in 1:29.1

As the field turned for home Sadodaka extended her lead to a 1¼ lengths. Down the stretch, I Luv To Motor and Hunter Myers shot down to the inside of the leader while Rosanna and Ronnie Wrenn Jr. went to the outside. As they hit the line, Sadodaka held on to win by a head in 1:59.2, a new lifetime mark.

Sadodaka now has two wins in 13 starts this year and raised her earnings to $19,055.

I Luv To Motor was second and Rosanna was third.

In the second division, Ryan Stahl took Lady Is Great to the lead off the gate but yielded to Hill Of A Diamond and Hunter Myers as the field hit the quarter pole in :28.3.

Stahl wasted no time reclaiming the lead with the Creatine filly, covering the half in :59, three-quarters in 1:27.1 and cruised to a 1¾ length win in a new lifetime mark of 1:56.4.

The win was her third of the year in eight starts, raising her earnings to $31,725.

Lady Is Great is trained Mathew Burkholder and owned by Arcadia Farms.

Gracious Triumph was second with Brekkenridge finishing third.

In the third division, Kahlua Mudslide and Ronnie Wrenn Jr. charged around the final turn and reeled in the leader Purple Aura at the wire to win by 3/4 length in a 1:57, a new lifetime mark.

The daughter of What The Hill won for the second time this year as she has hit the board in all four starts this year. The win raised Kahlua Mudslide's yearly earnings to $19,190

Kahlua Mudslide is owned and trained by Mike Sowers.

Caviar Roxie Due finished second while Purple Aura was third.

In the final division, Sweet On Pete with Anthony MacDonald went gate to wire for an easy $5\frac{3}{4}$ length victory in a new lifetime mark of 1:55.2.

Trained by Jason McGinnis and owned by The Stable Sweet On Pete and Hutchison Harness, the win was the first of the year for the daughter of Uncle Peter. Sweet On Pete has now earned $15,525 this year.

Lb's Legacy was second and Wegothatsright was third.

Buckeye Stallion Series action resumes Sunday (June 26) at MGM Northfield Park with 3-year-old colt trotters.

Hespoisedtopounce A snatches track record at Cumberland

Aussie expat Hespoisedtopounce A grabbed victory and a new track record at Cumberland on Friday (June 17), defeating some of the best pacers on the grounds in the featured $6,500 Open II Pace.

Scoring from post five, driver Kevin Switzer Jr. sent Hespoisedtopounce A charging to the front and took command by a two length margin by the time the 28-second first-quarter flashed. Moving to the half, Switzer put on the brakes and enjoyed a brief respite in :57.3 as the outer flow started to add pressure. Nagle (Dan Deslandes) flushed the cover of Airspinder (Drew Campbell forcing Switzer to let out a notch on Hespoisedtopounce A as the field moved to the five-eighths pole.

While the challengers were stacked three high on the backside, the leader tripped the three-quarter timer in 1:25.1, and it was clear that no one was backing down. Only Nagle (Deslandes) could withstand the torrid pace as Switzer held Hespoisedtopounce A to his 'A' game and maintained a half-length advantage over his nearest rival at the wire.

The 1:54.2 winning time was the fastest mile ever at Cumberland for a 5-year-old and older pacing gelding, erasing a mark that was shared with three horses, one of which was Rocksapatriot (who finished third).

A 6-year-old Australian-bred son of Bettor's Delight, Hespoisedtopounce A is trained by Jimmy Nickerson for owners Anthony Gruppo and Tim Bojarski. 'Pounce' paid $9.40 to win.

Driver Kevin Switzer Jr. enjoyed two victories on the regular program, and also steered two winners in the early Learn and Earn non-wagering races. Walter Case Jr. won the other two events. All four winners were trained by Marc Tardif and owned by Leighton Property (Lesley and Victoria Leighton).
