Karl vs. T C I – Be careful what you wish for

It's better for the sport if Karl and T C I don't meet until Hambletonian Day.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

by Debbie Little

Ever since Karl got the better of T C I in last year's Breeders Crown, the anticipation for their next showdown has been building.

But as the old idiom says, "Be careful what you wish for."

When both Karl and T C I dropped in the entry box for the W.N. Reynolds on Saturday (June 29) at The Meadowlands, some hoped they'd finally get to see the rubber match between the two top 3-year-old colt trotters.

But is that really what's best for everyone? Because, after all, who doesn't love a good rivalry story?

With the Paris Olympics set to start in less than a month, the story of "Dan and Dave" immediately comes to mind.

A Reebok ad campaign that started airing during the 1992 Super Bowl turned U.S. Olympic decathletes Dan O'Brien and Dave Johnson into household names.

Just like T C I and Karl, Dan and Dave were rivals, and each hoped to claim the gold in Barcelona.

One thing the Dan and Dave campaign shows us, is even if you're dealing with top-level athletes, things can go wrong. Five weeks prior to the games, Dan failed to qualify for the Olympics. Dave competed in Barcelona with a foot injury, yet still managed to win the bronze medal. Dave retired following the games while Dan represented the U.S. at the Atlanta games in 1996 and did, indeed, win the gold medal.

The most important takeaway from Dan and Dave is the value of a good rivalry, which brings us back to Karl and T C I.

“ [Highland Kismet is] the dark horse now; adds to the intrigue. ”

~ Ron Burke

The first and only time, other than the Crown, that Karl and T C I have met to date, was as 2-year-olds at Lexington's Red Mile in the International Stallion Stakes where T C I prevailed by the smallest of margins. Going into this weekend's races, the two colts are undefeated for the year.

Karl's 2024 campaign has been completely contested at The Meadowlands, where he is three-for-three in the New Jersey Sire Stakes, after winning two preliminary legs and the final.

T C I – named for the Turks and Caicos Islands – has taken a different tack, plotting his path through divisions of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes. He is two-for-two.

Karl – a nickname for breeder/co-owner Michelle Crawford's sister-in-law – is the 1-5 morning-line favorite in the first of two Reynolds divisions (race 6) for male trotters, while T C I is the 4-5 early choice in the second division (race 9).

Trainer/co-owner Nancy Takter dropped two into the box for the Reynolds – Karl and Stormcloudfashion – meaning those horses would be split if there were enough entrants to require more than one division.

It was purely luck that put T C I in with Stormcloudfashion and not Karl, because unlike the Hambletonian, which currently seeds its eliminations, the Reynolds is a blind draw.

When asked if she was happy that Karl and T C I were not meeting in the Reynolds, Takter said, "I am very confident in my horse, but this is a nice group of 3-year-olds and one has to respect the competition at all times."

Asked a similar question, T C I's trainer Ron Burke said, "Yes for sure. It's the path of least resistance."

In regard to the rivalry being good for the sport, Burke said, "For sure. I hope we both do our part."

Once the Reynolds is behind them, there is still at least one more pre-Hambletonian hurdle to face for Karl and T C I.

“ I am very confident in [Karl], but this is a nice group of 3-year-olds and one has to respect the competition at all times. ”

Karl (Yannick Gingras) winning last fall in Lexington.

On July 13, both are eligible to the Stanley Dancer Memorial, as is Highland Kismet.

Although not eligible to the Reynolds, gelded Canadian invader Highland Kismet made quite a name for himself winning the Goodtimes at Woodbine Mohawk Park on North America Cup Night (June 15).

“He is the dark horse now; adds to the intrigue,” Burke said.

Since the Dancer, like the Reynolds, is raced in divisions, the questions will start again.

Will all three drop in and will any of them end up in the same division?

Like the Reynolds, the Dancer is a blind draw, once horses are divided by ownership and trainers.

Perhaps there is something to be said for seeding stakes, which has certainly worked out well for the Hambletonian.

Saturday night at The Big M was designed to feature older competition, with the Six Pack (mare trotters), Perfect Sting (mare pacers), Crawford Farms (open trot) and Dave Brower Memorial (open pace), but don't be surprised if a pair of 3-year-olds steal the show.

Supreme Court will not hear case challenging HISA's legality

The USTA and Jeff Gural both respond to a case that may impact harness racing's future.

by Dave Briggs

Andrew Cohen reported this week in his Keeping Pace column in The Paulick Report that the U.S. Supreme Court has announced it will not hear a case challenging the legality of thoroughbred racing's controversial Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA).

Specifically, the justices' decided not to review a decision by the Sixth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals that ruled that HISA is a constitutional exercise of Congressional power and authority.

"The justices did not specifically rule in favor of HISA," Cohen wrote. "But their decision not to hear an appeal in the case styled Oklahoma v. United States is a strong signal that they are comfortable with the lower courts' decision in favor of the new racing law. It's also a strong signal that a majority on the court saw nothing meritorious enough in the anti-HISA arguments to justify a substantive review of the case.

"The denial of a writ of certiorari, as it is called, is a major blow to the anti-HISA faction within thoroughbred and standardbred racing. That includes the states of Oklahoma, West Virginia and Louisiana, racing commissions in Oklahoma and West Virginia, and also the United States Trotting Association (USTA)."

Charles Scheeler, the chair of HISA, issued a statement that read:

"We are pleased the Supreme Court has decided to let the Sixth Circuit Court's ruling affirming HISA's constitutionality stand. As evidenced by the 38 per cent decline in equine fatalities recorded for the first quarter of this year, HISA's uniform standards are having a material, positive impact on the health and well-being of horses. It is long past time for opponents of HISA to drop their outstanding lawsuits. In light of this decision, continued litigation only serves to take time and valuable resources away from our core mission of improving the safety and integrity of thoroughbred racing."

Shortly after the decision, the USTA posted a story on its website saying, in part, "The denial effectively ends the USTA's litigation challenging HISA's constitutionality but does not conclude the legal fight itself. In November 2022, the Fifth Circuit ruled HISA unconstitutional in a case filed by the National Horsemen's Benevolent Association and 12 of its affiliates. Parts of the law subsequently were rewritten, and the case is being reheard by the same judicial panel. Oral arguments were made in October."

In that story, USTA president Russell Williams was quoted as saying, "It's well known that the Supreme Court only takes about 80 out of 8,000 discretionary cases filed, and we in racing know a longshot when we see one. But HISA threatens to turn the racing industry into a club sport, so we are extremely disappointed. Given that the plaintiffs in our case include several states, a Cherokee Nation entity, and several tracks and breeders along with US Trotting, our disappointment is felt at the highest levels.

"If the Fifth Circuit strikes HISA down again, the Supreme Court likely will hear the claim that the Constitution forbids delegating governmental authority to a private entity. We shall remain vigilant to make sure that the HISA Authority does not arbitrarily prefer optics to science."

On Wednesday, Meadowlands Racetrack owner Jeff Gural – who is advocating for standardbred racing to join HISA – sent HRU a letter, unprompted. It reads as follows:

"I assumed the Supreme Court would not hear the appeal of the legality of HISA since they only take three-tenths of 1% of all of the appeals that come their way. What shocks me is that the USTA seems to want to continue spending members money on what is essentially a hopeless case. I would hope the members tell their representatives that it is time to try to make peace and work with the people at HISA to come up with rules and regs that we can all live with.

"With the exception of The Meadowlands, our industry is essentially totally dependent on revenue from slots, and we need to be careful that we don't send the wrong message to politicians who can pull the plug at any time.

"The majority of thoroughbred organizations are going out of their way to let their customers know that HISA is working, fatality rates are down and they are showing that they care about the health of their horses. We are doing exactly the opposite.

"Anyone who thinks that the USTA will be able to get new legislation enacted in Congress is delusional. USTA members should start by demanding to know how much the USTA has spent so far in this fruitless effort to have the law overturned. I have to believe our dues could be better used to get on TV so that I don't have to pay NYRA Bets to televise our races."

Ontario Sires Stakes memories roll in as province-wide 50th anniversary celebrations roll on

The OSS 50th anniversary tour will chug into Clinton a week after this Sunday's huge Legends Day card.

by Matthew Lomon

When the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) program was first established in 1974, its paramount purpose was clear: promote the breeding of standardbred horses in Ontario and provide breeders with economic incentives to improve the quality of horses sired in Canada's most populous province.

Half a century later, the bottom line remains the same. Over the years, however, the OSS has steadily evolved from a plan designed to enhance the appeal of Ontario's standardbred product into a celebration of the sport's most cherished contributors.

The program's allure has been on full display throughout the 2024 campaign, which will also be remembered as the Ontario Sires Stakes' 50th season.

As part of its half-centennial celebration, the OSS will be making stops at 11 racetracks around the province.

The festivities officially kicked off on May 19 at Flamboro Downs before moving to Woodbine Mohawk Park (May 25), The Raceway at Western Fair District (May 31), and most recently, Rideau Carleton Raceway (June 23).

With seven stops still left on the celebration tour, one of the OSS program's leading visionaries, Sandra Snyder, took a moment to reflect on how far the legacy event has come.

"I've said over the course of our anniversary tour that when Lloyd Chisholm was criss-crossing Ontario trying to put this thing together back in the late 1960s, early 1970s, I am fairly confident he and his other organizers would never have been able to envision where we're at today, with Bulldog Hanover being the fastest horse and Nijinsky winning the North American Cup," Snyder said. "We've had multiple North America Cup winners; it's become a regular thing. It's not a surprise, it's not a big deal anymore. We expect to be there and we expect to be able to win it.

"The quality of the breed, the way that breeders have elevated their game, and what that's meant to the standardbred industry in Ontario, I'm not sure it can be overstated."

Snyder, who holds the title of senior manager, Horse Improvement Program administration and governance at Ontario Racing, has been involved with the program in some way, shape, or form for the majority of her adult life.

While she has several fond memories of her time with the program, the simple joy of meeting different people at racetracks around the province and sharing stories always stands out.

"The opportunity to hear other people's memories of the Ontario Sires Stakes and why it's important to them has been the best part of it for us," Snyder said. "We've asked people, 'If you want to write them down and throw them in our memory box, we'll amalgamate that and put together some kind of a commemorative piece at the end with everyone's memories.'"

The OSS' role as a pseudo-time capsule has given supporters a chance to connect with the athletes, both human and horse, beyond win, loss, and earnings totals.

As Snyder put it, "It's been about great horses but it's also about the horses they love the most."

That rings true, even for someone who knows a thing or two about winning big races.

"[Champion driver] James McDonald was joking about it," Snyder said. "The drivers were signing autographs on Sunday, and I can't remember which horse it was, but he said, 'I see this horse didn't make the grade.' We've got this 30-foot banner that's broken down by decade, and it's got histories, pictures, and little tidbits on horses and people that have had a huge impact on the Ontario Sires Stakes program.

"The horse he was talking about was never going to get his picture up there, but he was a horse that was important to James."

Snyder shared a similar story of a conversation she had with a man at Flamboro on the first night of the OSS 50th anniversary tour.

"Like James' story, this one wasn't about a horse that broke records or anything," Snyder said. "It was the horse that he took care of as a young man getting him started in the industry, who worked his way into his heart. That's the story and the memory that he wanted to share."

Whether the one sharing their story is a champion driver or a horseman fondly remembering his early days, it all circles back to Chisholm and Co’s. mission some 50 years ago.

For Snyder, who continues to play a significant role in championing the sport, the OSS is an opportunity to uplift and embrace the literal lifeblood of Ontario’s harness racing business.

“Regardless of where you’re located in North America, your provincial or state breeding program is basically the foundation on which you build everything else,” she said. “The horses that are produced here in Ontario are the ones that are fueling our racing economy in almost every way. Breeders have made great investments in their breeding stock, they’ve made investments in stallions, they’ve attracted good stallions here for people to breed to.

“That means you produce a good horse, you get a good price, and then that horse goes on to compete in the Sires Stakes and hopefully stays here to compete in overnight races throughout its career. Ontario-sired horses are also ridiculously attractive investments for folks across the border. They are racing everywhere, and they are succeeding everywhere. But that breeding program is essential.

“You don’t have a thriving horse racing industry if you don’t have that solid foundation of Ontario bred and sired stock.”

Ahead of the tour’s next stop at Dresden on Canada Day (Monday, July 1), Snyder also discussed some of the exciting giveaways her team has planned.

The bounty, which will also be available to patrons at the remaining seven tour destinations, includes two season-long draws, each rewarding the winner a dinner for four at Mohawk, individual draws on the night of each OSS event where the winner will score OSS branded wine glasses, and a selection of prizes for the kids in attendance.

Those who enter the wine glass draw will also receive a commemorative OSS 50th anniversary hat while supplies last (all 200 available hats were given out last weekend at Rideau).

After a stop in Dresden, the OSS tour is off to Clinton on Sunday (July 7). For Snyder, that stop will be her second at the half-mile oval in as many weeks.

Her first visit to Clinton is scheduled for Sunday (June 30) for Legends Day.

“ They’re always so willing to come here. We’re not really big, we aren’t necessarily in the middle of everything, but it says something about Clinton’s appeal. Legends Day has such a homecoming feel and that’s really what our track’s about on any given day. It’s a down-home atmosphere and that’s why I think they enjoy coming here. ”

LEGENDS DAY ON TAP THIS SUNDAY

“It’s always a great day,” Snyder said of Legends Day. “One of our pop-up banners for our anniversary tour is all of the Ontario-sired horses that are in the Hall of Fame, and because Clinton partnered with the Hall of Fame this year, we’re taking that pop-up down there to display as part of their party, too.”

The 12th edition of Clinton’s title event is sure to be, as Snyder put it, a party.

This year’s running of the HPIbet $15,000 Legends Trot features an all-star cast of drivers in Carl Jamieson, Randy Waples, Doug Brown, Wally Hennessey, Sylvain Fillion, Chris Christoforou, Paul MacDonell, and Steve Condren.

Also in attendance, but not competing, are John Campbell, Ron Waples, Trevor Ritchie, Bill O’Donnell, and Dave Wall.

One of the leaders working behind the scenes to make Legends Day possible is Clinton’s marketing manager Jessica Carnochan.

A native of the town of 3,200, Carnochan praised the who’s who band of drivers for always making Legends Day a priority on their busy schedules.

“They’re always so willing to come here,” Carnochan said. “We’re not really big, we aren’t necessarily in the middle of everything, but it says something about Clinton’s appeal.”

“Legends Day has such a homecoming feel and that’s really what our track’s about on any given day. It’s a down-home atmosphere and that’s why I think they enjoy coming here.”

The special day will be jam-packed with a bevy of on- and off-track entertainment.

This includes the 50/50 Legends Day Raffle in support of the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation, two food trucks, free Legends Day pens with the first 300 programs sold on site, a virtual reality driving experience presented by the Bill Galvin Racing Alliance, the fan favorite barbecue chicken dinner, and a VIP meet-and-greet with the drivers during the Hall of Fame Reunion.

Kin Pace eliminations also begin that day, and as Carnochan noted, it serves as a visual representation of the game’s greats passing the baton to the next generation of reinsmen.

“At the end of the day when it’s all come together, you can take a step back and see all the people that have taken the time to come here and celebrate the horses, the heroes, and the history,” Carnochan said. “That’s a very special feeling.”

Clint Coy's career changed the day he started having fun

by Chris Lomon

It wasn't so long ago that Clint Coy believed his driving career was over.

Just over a year ago, the young horseman, in what was shaping up to be a personal-best campaign, was ready to throw in the towel.

"I wanted to quit," Coy said. "It just felt like things weren't going right. I wasn't mentally tough enough at that point to deal with the ups and downs."

A conversation with trainers Doug and Julie Rideout convinced Coy to keep his wheels in motion.

"I work for Doug and Julie," Coy said. "I went to them one day and said, 'Can I just stop driving?' They would probably call it tough love – I didn't feel it at the time – but they ended up convincing me not to give up.”

Now, all Coy had to do was go out with a renewed purpose and confidence in his abilities.

The night of Sept. 5, 2023, would be an ideal test for his newfound outlook.

“After our talk, Doug and Julie put me in to drive in an Indiana Sires Stakes race,” Coy said. “The purse was $96,000. It was the biggest race I had driven in.”

Leaving from post 5 at Hoosier Park, Talent Scout, a trotting son of Swan for All, and Coy went to the front and carved out an opening panel in :27. The outer flow kicked in through a half in :55.4 but Talent Scout kept his rivals at bay heading into the final turn.

Down the lane, Talent Scout trotted away from his pursuers, coming home in :28.1 for the win in 1:52.3, a new lifetime mark.

Sent off at 31-1, Talent Scout rewarded his backers with a $65.80 win payout.

Trained by Doug Rideout, the brown gelding is owned by Julie Rideout, Dr. Alan White, and Dave Gamble.

A $14,000 Lexington Select Sale yearling purchase, Atlantic Trot Inc. and Steve Stewart bred Talent Scout.

“It was a very rewarding win on a lot of levels,” Coy said. “Not long before that, I wanted to quit and then this happened.”

The victory prompted several moments of self-reflection.

“I used to dwell on all the little things,” Coy said. “Whenever I did well, I would never enjoy it. It was more along the lines of, ‘Well, I didn't screw that one up.’ After I won that race, it was, ‘I can do this.’”

“After that, I would let a bad drive go and I would take time to enjoy the wins. It has been a slow grind, but the needle is pointing up and to the right, so that makes me feel good. I can say that I truly enjoy racing.”

Just as Coy did early on in his life when he would go and watch the races.

He was immediately fascinated by everything that he saw playing out in front of him.

“My parents divorced when I was young,” Coy said. “I lived with my dad, Scott Coy, and he was gun-shy about me getting into horse racing. My mom, Ann Rose, was actually the person who got me into it.

“We went to the fairs and to Hoosier Park to watch the races. She bought a horse for me when I was 15 – her parents and her grandparents were also in racing too – and I would go see her on the weekends and clean stalls, learn to harness, and eventually, she taught me how to jog a horse. Some of the old-timers at the fairs would help us out.

“From the first time I jogged a horse, I was hooked.”

An early role model for Clint was a driver who put himself in the record books.

Although he hoped to achieve something similar, Clint recognized early on in his career that it would be an impossible feat to duplicate.

“Growing up, I always watched Tyler Smith and he made it look pretty easy,” Clint said. “He is the youngest driver to reach 1,000 wins. I learned early on that I wasn’t on the same path as he was.”

He has great admiration for another contemporary, someone he followed closely before Clint ever contested his first race.

It wasn’t only the reinsman’s skills that caught Clint’s eye.

“Purple is my favorite color,” he said. “I would see Brandon Bates at the fairs, and he became my favorite driver because he wore purple. I got to know him, and I ended up copying his colors. The only difference is that I have black trim and he has Kelly green, with diamonds across his back and chest, and I have stars.”

Those stars were out for all to see at the Shelbyville Fair on June 27, 2018.

After a 2017 rookie campaign in which his best finish was a second from 10 starts, Clint was champing at the bit to visit the winner’s circle.

The moment came just over six years ago to the day.

“I worked for trainer Larry King, and he gave me a horse by the name of Shoot To Win to race for the summer,” Clint said. “I got him when he was training in about 2:40, and we trained him down.

“We ended up winning the race at Shelbyville. We had the 2-hole and I popped out in the backstretch and went right on by. He won by almost five lengths. It was a slow mile, 2:07.1, but we got the job done. When I crossed the wire first, it was a huge relief to finally get that first one. My dad was there, and my mom was working, but she was quick to give me a phone call after the race.”

Now, more dialed-in than he has ever been in the race bike, Clint is on the path to another milestone moment.

“Going into this year, I needed 33 wins to reach 100,” Clint said. “I have about 20 more to get there. The way the year has been going and the way last year went – I had 33 wins in 2023 – I think I can reach that mark. That would be cool.”

As would be achieving another objective, specifically, reaching the 1,000-win plateau.

Clint will look to a particular pair of pacing fillies to add some more victories to his stats sheet.

“One that I have right now, Sweet N Speedy, won her first two starts at the fairs,” he said. “The other one, C C Rockin Rosie, who I own a quarter of, is a little behind, but she is training down well. We had to have throat surgery on her. So, we will work to get her to the races and hopefully, we can have a fun summer with the both of them.”

Fun is a word Clint now uses regularly.

For a time, it was a term that never came to mind.

But after a life-changing talk and a new, optimistic point of view, the driver from Portland, IN, is more comfortable and content in the sulky than ever before.

He isn't about to let that feeling escape him again.

“Last year, everything seemed to finally come together at one point,” Clint said. “Before, I felt like I was a step behind everyone else. Near the end of last year and into this year, I feel like I belong.”

Horsy Dream is the new regent in Europe

by Thomas Hedlund

Pierre Belloche's Horsy Dream (Scipion du Goutier) has returned to France, Paris and Vincennes after his successful adventure in Sweden in May, when he claimed the Elitloppet. In Sunday's (June 23) $215,000 Prix Rene Balliere, Horsy Dream established his position as king of older trotters in Europe.

Eric Raffin, the driver – who experienced the biggest win in his already well-merited career at Solvalla – played it very cool in Sunday's show at Vincennes.

Horsy Dream was placed second over by Raffin and that was probably the best position to have since the leader, favorite Idao de Tillard had to defend himself from an aggressive outside trotter in Izoard Vedaquais.

But the race included some of the best horses in the world and Raffin's move, of not moving position when Hokkaido Jiel attacked three wide just before the last turn seemed to be a bad decision when the field turned for home. Horsy Dream was stuck between horses and leader Idao de Tillard was acting like a super hero in front. But, with 100 meters to go, Raffin found room to lift out Horsy Dream for a late attack and that was enough for Belloche's trotter to hit the wire first, with a length advantage to the heroic leader Idao de Tillard. Vivid Wise As finished strongly on the inside in third and Alessandro Gocciadoro's Yankee Glide son received an invitation to Yonkers International later this year.

The mile rate for Horsy Dream in the Prix Rene Balliere was 1:51.2 over 1.3 miles.

Vincennes played host to several big races during the Sunday card, among them three big monté races and the $260,000 Prix du President de la Republique for 4-year-olds that ended with an upset win by Kyrielle des Vaux (Rolling d'Heripre), trained by Charly Mottier.

The mile rate was 1:57.4 over 1.6 miles.

Prodigious son Jeroboam d'Erable claimed the $260,000 Prix de Normandie for 5-year-olds and Clement Thomain's horse won in a strong mile rate of 1:55.3 over 3,000 meters.

Jean-Michel Bazire steered the favorite in the $215,000 Prix Albert Viel for 3-year-old trotters, but his weapon Liza Josselyn (out of Prix d'Amérique winner Belina Josselyn) had to settle as third behind runner up Loulou de Mye and winner Lombok Jiel (Enino du Pommereux). Lombok Jiel impressed a lot when he won in a stakes record 1:55.4 over 1.6 miles. His position as one of the last horses in the field didn't bother him as he followed three wide on the backstretch, before the serious attack was set in at the top of the stretch. Jean Luc Dersoir trains and Pierre Yves Verva sat in the bike.

TIME FOR E3 FINALS

Two division finals of the E3 for 3-year-old trotters are scheduled at Färjestad racetrack in Sweden on Saturday (June 29) and in the $380,000 race for colts and geldings, Alessandro Gocciadoro has a great shot with the Face Time Bourbon colt Free Time Jepson.

Face Time Bourbon is the stallion behind two of the favorites in this final. Per Nordström trained Magic In has been impressive in his 2024 appearances and from a perfect post 2, in the hands of Erik Adielsson, Magic In should be the race's first choice.

The high purse of $380,000 applies to horses born in Sweden, which did not participate in a special baby race as a 2-year-old.

The same conditions apply for the fillies where Roger Walmann trained S.G. Empress chases her sixth consecutive win since her debut in April this year.

Tetrick has rail advantage in Triple Crown races at Yonkers

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Tim Tetrick will enter tonight's (June 28) two Triple Crown events for 3-year-olds at MGM Yonkers Raceway driving horses starting as No. 1. He hopes to see that number again, connected to their finishing positions, when the races are completed.

Security Protected and Tetrick will leave from post 1 in the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot, the first jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown. The Marcus Melander-trained colt, unbeaten in three starts this season, is the 3-2 morning-line favorite.

One race earlier, Armada Hanover and Tetrick will leave from post 1 in the $225,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes, the first jewel in the Pacing Triple Crown. The Brett Pelling-trained gelding is the 4-1 third choice on the morning line.

Post 1 is statistically the most advantageous starting spot at Yonkers, producing winners at a 19-per cent clip.

Security Protected was one of three horses to receive a bye to the Yonkers Trot final. He heads to the race with three victories on the Pennsylvania stakes circuit, including a 1:53 triumph at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs in his seasonal debut on May 19 with Tetrick in the sulky. The colt rallied from sixth place in the stretch with a :27.2 last quarter to win by a half-length. His time is tied for the season's second best for a 3-year-old male trotter on a five-eighths mile track, trailing only T C I's 1:52.2 clocking.

"He flew through the stretch and came home strong," Tetrick said. "He raced really good. He's always been a pretty nice handy horse, and this year he's just more mature. He's a true professional. He gets the job done."

Security Protected has hit the board in 12 of 14 career races, winning seven and earning $442,540. His four victories last year included a 1:52.4 triumph in a division of the International Stallion Stakes at The Red Mile, which was the third-fastest mile of the season by a 2-year-old male trotter, behind only millionaires Karl and T C I. He finished second behind T C I in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship and third behind Karl and T C I in the Breeders Crown final.

Karl and T C I are ranked 1-2, respectively, in Meadowlands announcer/analyst Ken Warkentin's Road to the Hambletonian. The $1 million Hambletonian, which will be contested Security Protected (Tim Tetrick, shown winning in Lexington last fall) has post 1 in tonight's MGM Yonkers Trot.

Aug. 3 at The Big M, is the second jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown. The Kentucky Futurity, held in October, completes the series.

"Those two are awful special," Tetrick said about Karl and T C I. "Hopefully, [Security Protected] keeps getting better and stronger and catches up to those guys."

Security Protected, a son of Father Patrick—Thatsnotmyname whose family includes 2010 Hambletonian champ Muscle Massive, will be making his first start on a half-mile track when he visits Yonkers for the Yonkers Trot.

"He should be fine," Tetrick said. "He's great gaited. He's handy, light on his feet; I see no problems with him handling that track."

Situationship and Sir Pinocchio, who were the other Yonkers Trot bye recipients, are the second and third choices on the morning line, at 3-1 and 4-1, respectively. Situationship, who is 2-for-2 this year and won a division of the Empire Breeders Championship on June 14, will leave from post 8 with trainer Ake Svanstedt in the sulky. Dexter Cup winner Sir Pinocchio will leave from post 2 with Jason Bartlett driving for trainer Ed Hart.

Bargain, who won last week's lone elimination race in 1:54.3 for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Nancy Takter, will leave tonight from post 3 and is 10-1. Svanstedt's second entry in the event, Flying Kronos S, will start from post 5 with driver Dexter Dunn and is 8-1. He finished fourth in the elim.

“There are no easy races,” Tetrick said. “Any of them could jump up and be good.”

The past five editions of the Yonkers Trot have been won by horses trained by either Svanstedt or Melander, with Svanstedt winning in 2018 with Six Pack, 2021 with Johan Palema, and 2023 with Up Your Deo. Melander won in 2019 with Gimpanzee and 2022 with the filly Joviality S. There was no race in 2020.

In the Messenger Stakes, Tetrick will drive Armada Hanover, who finished second to Howlenthedhills in one of the event’s two eliminations last week. He was beaten by a head as Howlenthedhills won for the sixth time in six starts this year.

The other elim was won by Janelle Granny, who was driven by Tetrick. Howlenthedhills will leave from post 4 in the final with Matt Kakaley driving for Travis Alexander and is the 2-1 morning-line favorite. Janelle Granny, who will have George Brennan driving for Scott DiDomenico, will leave from post 6 and is the 3-1 second choice.

“I’ve driven Armada off and on for the last two years for Brett,” Tetrick said. “I like the horse. I think he’s going to get better with age. I thought last week was a very good performance for him. He likes to chase and comes off a helmet really good. Hopefully, we can do good with him.”

Armada Hanover, a son of Stay Hungry—Anderosa Hanover, is a three-quarter brother to Dan Patch Award-winner Allywag Hanover. He has hit the board in 12 of 15 career races, winning three and finishing second on eight occasions. This year, he has four seconds and a third in six starts. One of his runner-up finishes came behind 2023 Breeders Crown champ Gem Quality in a division of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes.

“He’s been racing against a tough 3-year-old group,” Tetrick said. “The Pennsylvania-bred sire stakes horses are a lot of times the best in the country. He’s been chasing them, he just hasn’t beat them yet. This is a good race for him. Hopefully, he can get his picture taken.”

The Messenger is the first leg of the Pacing Triple Crown, followed by the Cane Pace in August and Little Brown Jug in September.

tonight’s card at Yonkers also includes the $90,000 Park MGM Filly Pace for sophomore female pacers and two $55,000 divisions of the New York New York Mile for sophomore female trotters. Peace Talks is the 6-5 morning-line favorite in the Park MGM while She Shaq and Southwind Banshee, both at 8-5, and R Melina, at 3-5, get the nods in the New York New York splits.

Racing begins at 7 p.m. at Yonkers. For free programs, visit the Standardbred Owners Association of New York website here.

Andy McCarthy wins six in 2-year-old races at Magical Acres

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Andy McCarthy sat behind six winners Wednesday (June 26) as Magical Acres held 14 qualifiers for 2-year-old pacers and trotters.

McCarthy's victories included the day's fastest mile, a 1:56.3 score with Linda Toscano-trained female pacer Allegra Hanover. It was the filly's second winning qualifier this month, following a 1:58.1 triumph on June 18 at Harrah's Philadelphia.

Allegra Hanover, a daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Arodasi, was purchased for $90,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Jablonsky Held Stable, South Mountain Stables, JAF Racing, and Camelot Stable. She was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms.

Calculus Risk, Chapvious score in New York Sire Stakes at Yonkers

Calculus Risk and Chapvious gave sire Devious Man a sweep in the $74,500 New York Sire Stakes divisions for rookie trotting fillies that headlined Tuesday night's (June 25) program at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

Shonda and trainer/driver Trond Smedshammer posted fractions of :28.3, 1:00 and 1:30.1 in the first split, but Calculus Risk was guided first-over by driver Jordan Stratton heading to three-quarters, made steady progress on the outside, and went past Shonda in the stretch on her way to the victory by three-quarters-of-a-length in 2:00.1. Shonda held second from pocket-sitter Morning Angel (Scott Zeron).

Perry Simser trains Calculus Risk, who was bred by Winbak Farm, for owners Dennis Nye, Carl Leuchten and Jodi Leuchten. Calculus Risk finished second and first in a pair of baby races at Saratoga, broke her maiden in her pari-mutuel debut and returned $3.50 to win as the 3-5 favorite. The exacta was worth $6.30 and the trifecta kicked back $14.80.

The second flight played out in similar fashion as Royal Mission (Zeron) had control through stations of :29.3, 1:00.1 and 1:29.4 with Chapvious (Jason Bartlett) committing to a first-over attack out of the third spot on the way to three-quarters. Chapvious moved up on the rim to get side-by-side with Royal Mission late on the final bend, and although Royal Mission was game, Chapvious was able to wear her down late in the mile and was up for the win by a neck in 1:58. On The Radio (Tyler Buter) collected third.

A homebred for Purple Haze Stables LLC., Chapvious was sent out by trainer George Ducharme. A half-sister to Chapercraz, last year's NYSS champion in the 3-year-old male trotting group, Chapvious tallied in both of her qualifiers at Vernon Downs and added tonight's win to her ledger so far. She was the 7-5 choice, returning $4.90 to win and keying a $12.60 exacta and a $31.80 trifecta.

There were also a pair of $20,000 New York Excelsior "A" Series tests for the 2-year-old filly trotters on the card, and they were won by Tuff Stuff (by Chapter Seven, bred by Eli Miller, paid $21.40 to win) in 2:03 for trainer/driver John Stark, Jr. and owner Barbato Breeding LLC. and Smoke Show (by Credit Winner and bred by owner Kevin Manley, paid $4.50 to win) in 2:02.4 for driver Jordan Stratton and trainer Julie Miller.

Tonight (June 28) showcases one of the biggest programs of the season at MGM Yonkers Raceway as the Trotting and Pacing Triple Crowns for sophomore colts and geldings begin with the $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot and the $225,000 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes finals, plus there are the $90,000 Park MGM Pace and two $55,000 New York New York Mile contests for 3-year-old trotting fillies. Fans attending tonight's races live will be treated to an outdoor market on the track apron. FRONT END WAS THE PLACE TO BE IN NYSS AT BUFFALO

The front end was the place to be on a rainy Wednesday afternoon (June 26) at Buffalo Raceway as a pair of big purse New York Sire Stakes races were captured in wire-to-wire fashion.

Super Duper Cooper ($4.00) was super in taking the $119,800 event for the 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters while Sister Mary Maude ($4.20) cruised to victory in the $117,700 race for the 3-year-old trotting fillies.

With rain starting to fall just before the featured trotting races, the track was downgraded from fast to sloppy.

Super Duper Cooper (Jason Bartlett) got the early jump on the field and marched out fractions of :29.2, :59.2 and 1:29.4 in the first test. Keep Asking (Tyler Buter) sat in the pocket in second while Victor Laszlo (Mark MacDonald) was first over and in contention with a final panel to go.

But Super Duper Cooper stayed strong on the front end and held back the timid rallies from Keep Asking and Victor Laszlo who had to settle for second and third, respectively. His margin of victory was 1¼ lengths.

Owned by Timothy Drag, James Crawford and Carl Austin, Jr., Super Duper Cooper (E L Titan—Pink Power) is trained by John Butenschoen. The victory, the third in six attempts in 2024, jumped Super Duper Cooper's seasonal earnings to $100,248 and $200,357 in his career.

In the main event for the ladies, Sister Mary Maude (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) let Sadbirdstillising enjoy the top for a few steps before retaking the advantage nearing the opening quarter marker. With splits of :29.3, :59.4 and 1:29.3 posted, Sister Mary Maude was looking for any threats heading down the long Buffalo Raceway home stretch. None materialized.

With Sadbirdstillising (Buter) and Winning Alliance (Todd Ratchford) nearly two lengths behind at the top of the lane, Sister Mary Maude easily stayed on task and rolled to the convincing 2½-length decision.

Owned by the Burke Racing Stable, William Switala, James Martin and Weaver Brusceci, it was the first win of the year after five straight second place finishes for Sister Mary Maude (Crazy Wow—Perfect Mass). The victory increased her seasonal bankroll to $116,090 and $232,548 lifetime.

In the $20,000 Excelsior Series races for the 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, Woweress (Buter) notched a neck victory over Pepper Wow in 1:58.1 while Tobern (John Stark, Jr.) posted a $20 upset with a stunning 8¼-length score over Promises Met (Jim Morrill, Jr.) in 1:59.1.

The bracket for the sophomore ladies saw Communion Money (Jared Bako) roll to a 9¼-length victory over Shirin (Hunter Myers) in 1:58.3 while Osodevious (Bartlett) topped Really Don't Care (MacDonald) in 2:01.

Racing will return this afternoon (June 28) at 2:30 p.m. with 12 races scheduled.

Admiral Hill wins KYSS final in fastest mile ever at Oak Grove

by Oak Grove racing publicity

After finishing third in the first Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) final at Oak Grove, Admiral Hill not only scored retribution when winning the $150,000 series final for 4-year-old pacing horses and geldings but did so with the fastest mile ever recorded in the short history of the track: a 1:48 front-stepping effort.

Launching for the lead from post 6, Admiral Hill (driven by Yannick Gingras) seized the point past a :26.2 first quarter and maintained his speed through a :54.4 half and to three-quarters in 1:21, where he faced a first-over assault from El Rey (Dexter Dunn). El Rey stayed persistent at Admiral Hill's throat all through the final turn while Gingras called on his charge to fight spinning for home. Admiral Hill held his ground all through the stretch and held El Rey at bay to the beam by a neck with For Once Inmy Life (Andy McCarthy) giving chase off a pocket trip in third and Blue Lou (David Miller) taking fourth.

Per Engblom trains Admiral Hill, a gelding by Sweet Lou, for owner Morrison Racing Stables. He won his 16th race from 34 starts, has now earned $509,008 and paid $3.20 to win. His 1:48 mile bests the track record for 4-year-old pacing geldings of 1:48.3 that he set just a week ago and also beats the all-time record of 1:48.2 set by All Or Nothing last year.

Once In A Lifetime (Todd McCarthy) also exacted revenge in the $150,000 KYSS final for 4-year-old trotting horses and geldings when going down the road in 1:52 after he finished as the runner-up in the $100,000 series final just a month ago. McCarthy hustled the Jim Campbell trainee for the top from the pylon post and refused to relinquish control past a :26.3 first quarter. The Hazelton (Gingras), left with nowhere to sit at the pylons, committed to race first over but made little inroads past a :55.2 half. Once In A Lifetime then stole a big breather as The Hazelton sat parked and much of his competition raced locked at the pylons to three-quarters in 1:24.2. From there, McCarthy hit the accelerator and Once In A Lifetime jetted away to a 2½-length win over pocket-sitting Djimon (David Miller). French Wine (Andy Miller), the 4-5 favorite, emerged third after a bottled trip and Brodeur (Atlee Bender) rallied up the pylons for fourth.

Sad Frog Farms owns Once In A Lifetime, a gelded son of Father Patrick who now has 12 wins from 30 starts and $604,197 earned. He paid $11.14 to win.

Vindication continued later in the card when Railee Something (Andy McCarthy) finally turned the tables on 1-9 favorite Mambacita (Dunn) with a 1:52.1 win in the $150,000 KYSS final for 4-year-old trotting mares off five straight runner-up finishes to her main rival. McCarthy landed on the point with Railee Something after a :27.1 first quarter out of post 5 while Dunn floated forward out of post 6 with Mambacita looking for a seat. Mambacita could only find a seat behind Railee Something, who freewheeled to a :55.3 half and three-quarters in 1:23.4 with steam still in reserve through the final turn. Dunn pulled the pocket, ducked back into the pocket and made any move he could to implore Mambacita turning for home but Railee Something chugged down the track to grab victory by 2¼ lengths. Mambacita settled for second, having her unbeaten season snapped, with Picaboo Lady (Gingras) closing for third from Cessna Pride (Todd McCarthy) in fourth.

Roger Cullipher conditions Railee Something, a daughter of International Moni, for owner/breeder Ronald Mersky. She paid $8.80 to win in collecting her 13th win from 36 starts and adding to her account now worth $785,686.

Strong Poison (Gingras) was the only horse to sweep both series for 4-year-olds when she won the $150,000 KYSS final for 4-year-old pacing mares in 1:49.4. Gingras looped Strong Poison to the lead past a :26 first quarter and maintained her speed through hot middle fractions of :54.3 and 1:21.4. Spinning for home, Gingras called upon Strong Poison and she hit her top gear come midstretch to fend off the late surge of Hungry For Love (David Miller) and win by a length. Zanatta (Andy Miller) gave chase off a pocket trip for third and Prosecco Princess (Todd McCarthy) took fourth.

Virgil Morgan, Jr. trains Strong Poison, a daughter of Always B Miki who has now won 13 races from 33 starts and banked $999,475, for owners Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing. She paid $3.12 to win.

Tuesday's card also featured three $40,000 opening-preliminary divisions of the KYSS for 3-year-old pacing fillies. Defining Moment (David Miller) took top honors with a second-over charge to win by a half-length in 1:50.3 over pocket-popper Real Deal Lindy (Bender). Ron Burke trains the daughter of JK Endofanera for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci LLC, Frank Baldachino and Lawrence Karr. She won her fourth race from 13 starts, has now earned $62,009 and paid $4.48 to win.

Viki Hill (Dunn, 1:51 winning mile; $5.54 to win) popped pocket to the final turn and held late to win the second KYSS division for sophomore pacing fillies by three-quarters-of-a-length over fast-closing Shezahungrygigi (Bender) and Seeuontheotherside (Marvin Luna). Chris Ryder trains the Always B Miki filly for owner Tom Hill. Direction (Todd McCarthy, 1:51.2; $2.36) later maintained her unbeaten record this season with a down-the-road win by 2-1/2 lengths over Capytreach (David Miller). Brett Pelling trains the daughter of Always B Miki for owner Diamond Creek Racing.

A pair of Open events also went postward on the Tuesday card. Dougs Babe A (Dexter Dunn, 1:50.3; $5.46) cruised first over to a two-length win over pocket-sitter Yankee B Something (Andy Miller) to win in the $41,000 Fillies & Mares Open Pace while Pioneer As (Luna, 1:52.1; $21.24) later skimmed the pylons and snatched victory from Oh Look Magic (David Miller) by a neck to take the $40,000 Open Trot. Richard "Nifty" Norman trains Dougs Babe A, a 7-year-old daughter of Western Terror, for owners Tom Vassiliou, Nicholas Tallarico and Enzed Racing Stable Inc. while Anette Lorentzon trains Pioneer As, a 5-year-old daughter of Devious Man, for owner-breeder ACL Stuteri AB.

On Monday (June 24), the Greenshoe filly Youhadmeathalo went a robust mile on the 14-race Kentucky Sire Stake (KYSS) day at Oak Grove matching the track record for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Driver Luna pushed forward with Youhadmeathalo before yielding the lead to Du Maurier (driven by Todd McCarthy) past a :27.4 first quarter. Luna found himself shuffled to third as Green Mercedes (Andy Miller) circled forward to lead the field to a :56.4 half. Moving for the backside, Luna angled Youhadmeathalo first over and came in earnest before inheriting the lead when Green Mercedes broke stride past three-quarters in 1:25.2. Youhadmeathalo extended her lead all through the lane to post a 5¼-length win over rallying The Roxbury (David Miller) with Du Maurier third and Bonn (Peter Wrenn) finishing fourth.

Dewayne Minor trains Youhadmeathalo for owner Beentheredonethat Racing. She won her fifth race from 23 tries, has now earned $62,785 and paid $14.06 to win. Her 1:53 mile equaled the track record set in 2022 by Blue Bayou Deo and matched in 2023 by Mambacita.

Two other KYSS divisions went on the card. Tove Palema (Andy Miller, 1:55 winning mile; $2.46 to win) won the opening division with a quarter move to the lead and Woman Of Passion (David Miller, 1:53.1; $2.18) later followed suit with a similar trip to victory. Julie Miller trains Tove Palema, a daughter of Walner, for owners Andy Miller Stable Inc., Patrick Hoopes and Mortgage Boys Stable. Woman Of Passion, also a daughter of Walner, is trained by Carter Pinske for owner/breeder Al Libfeld.

The fastest division of the three KYSS divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings came from 6-5 favorite Better Is Nice (Andy McCarthy) when he bolted off a pocket trip to a 1:50 win. McCarthy secured the trail seat through a :26.2 first quarter from Courtship (Gingras) and stayed put through middle fractions of :54.3 and 1:22.3 before pouncing off the bottom corner to a 1¾-length win. Copperfield (David Miller) closed for third and Women Layer (Todd McCarthy) finished fourth.

Tony Alagna trains Better Is Nice, a colt by Bettor's Wish, for owners Alagna Racing LLC, Pryde Stables and Birnam Wood Farms. He won his eighth race from 17 starts, has now banked $605,783 and paid $4.44 to win.

Arson (Scott Zeron, 1:50.4; $4.54) pounced off a second-over trip in the first division for sophomore pacing colts and geldings to just land a head win over Dancin Champion (David Miller). Total Stranger (Gingras, 1:52; $2.28) later went pillar-to-post to win by a length over Steely Knife (David Miller). Eric Patalan trains for owners Thestable Arson Group and Hutchison Harness LLC while Nancy Takter conditions Total Stranger for owners Mitchell Friesen, Caviart Farms and Chuck Pompey.

Lindy's Coyotito (Andy Miller) got top honors from the pair of KYSS divisions for sophomore trotting colts and geldings with a 1:53.3 pocket-popping win. Securing the trip behind Naked Cowboy (Anibal Borjas) after a :27.3 first quarter, Lindy's Coyotito followed suit through middle sectionals of :55.4 and 1:24.4 before striking the blow in the lane to win by three-quarters-of-a-length over fast-closing Memorynimagination (Scott Zeron) and International Law (Atlee Bender).

A colt by Chapter Seven, Lindy's Coyotito won his fourth race from 10 starts and has now earned $54,810 for owners Andy Miller Stable, Panda Monium Stable and Lindy Farms of Connecticut. Julie Miller trains the $7.22 winner.

Crown Monarch (Andy McCarthy, 1:54.1; $33.78) nailed tempo-setter Pick Pocket (Scott Zeron) and waded the persistent Hung Over (Luna) in the other division to score as the longest shot on the board. Per Engblom trains the Father Patrick colt for Engblom Stable LLC, Amos Lengacher and Tomas Andersson.

Realmenwearblu (Gingras) rolled in the lone KYSS split for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Gingras got an easy lead and strolled unfazed through a clip of :29, :58.2 and 1:27 to win by 1¼ lengths over rough-gaited Got Bourbon (Todd McCarthy). Nancy Takter trains the son of Tall Dark Stranger for owners Nancy Takter, Patrick Hoopes, R A W Equine Inc. and Rojan Stables. He paid $3.18 to win.

Skywalker Sea (Gingras) later demolished her competition to make a winning debut in the lone KYSS division for 2-year-old pacing fillies. The filly by Downbytheseaside seized the lead after a :57 half and kicked away from her peers to a 10-length victory in 1:53 with High Proff (Todd McCarthy) holding second from a fast-closing Hip Shot (Scott Zeron). Todd Luther conditions the Greg Luther Racing LLC homebred who paid $3.60 to win.

World By Storm (Brandon Bates) won the faster of the two KYSS divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts with a front-stepping win in 1:55.4. The Mike Hollenback trainee strolled to the lead past a :29.1 first quarter and coasted through a :58.4 half and 1:27.4

three-quarters before wading off the late charge of Memento Mori (Scott Zeron) by a half-length. Hollenback also owns the Tactical Landing colt who paid $7.52 to win.

Goo Goo Gone (Andy McCarthy, 1:58; $7.92) won the other KYSS division for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings. Chris Beaver trains and co-owns the Googoo Gaagaa colt with Martin Yoder.

Stacking Green (Gingras) broke stride in late stretch but came to quickly enough to hold the win in 1:56.2 in the faster KYSS division for freshman trotting fillies. The Todd Luther trainee circled to the lead past a :29.2 first quarter and cruised through a :59.1 half and 1:27.4 three-quarters until making a bobble in late stretch. Losing ground and veering inside, Stacking Green regained stride in the final yards and just hit the beam a neck better than pocket-sitter Sound Judgement (Jim Oscarsson). Greg Luther Racing LLC owns the Greenshoe filly who paid $5.34 to win.

Yo Tillie (Verlin Yoder, 1:57.1; $5.92) powered first over off a pocket trip to victory in the other KYSS division for 2-year-old trotting fillies. Verlin Yoder owns and trains the daughter of Tactical Landing.

Live racing resumes at Oak Grove on Monday (July 1) with first-race post time at 3 p.m. (CDT). Monday's card will feature a $147.75 Pick-3 carryover, starting in race 4, and an $825.81 Late Pick-4 carryover, which covers the last four races on the card. Agent Of Fortune scores in Indiana Sire Stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

After tasting defeat for the first time in 2024 in her last outing, Agent Of Fortune avenged her loss with a victory in the lone $95,000 division of Indiana Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies at Harrah's Hoosier Park. The feature of the 13-race Tuesday (June 25) card was round three of eight for the sophomore trotting fillies.

Leaving from post 2 in the field of eight, driver Robert Taylor floated Agent Of Fortune into the third position off of the gate while Black Gold (James Yoder) found the front to the first quarter in :28.3. Ill-content with the pocket spot, driver Trace Tetrick moved Somebody Special to the lead on the backstretch as the fillies trotted to the half in :57.4. Entering the final turn, Taylor tugged the right line and hustled Agent Of Fortune first-over, surging into second on the outside of the leader at three-quarters in 1:27.1 while 1-5 favorite Skyway Paige (LeWayne Miller) gapped her cover.

Agent Of Fortune powered to the lead turning for home, putting away Somebody Special and gaining a two-length advantage on Skyway Paige who was beginning to find her best stride in the lane. Agent Of Fortune proved game on the lead, trotting home in :28 to secure the victory by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:55.1 over a surging Skyway Paige and Hail Broadway (Jordan Ross), who rallied to round out the trifecta despite being last turning for home. Sent off in the wagering at 9-2, Agent Of Fortune paid $11 to win.

Taylor also trains and co-owns Agent Of Fortune as a part of Taylor Racing LLC along with Bert Paddock. A winner in six of seven in 2024, Agent Of Fortune has banked $114,020 on the year and $192,970 in her career. Bred by Black Creek Farm, the daughter of Dover Dan—Posterity has now won eight of 17 lifetime.

The victory was one of two in the bike for Robert Taylor who had a driving double on the card along with Trace Tetrick and John Delong. Mike Oosting led the way in the driving category on the night, driving four winners on the card.

My Sweet Revenge, Mrs Foxy Roxy take Maine Sires at Bangor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Two $16,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies splashed through the off-going on Sunday (June 23) at Bangor, both resulting in double-digit win tickets.

In the first $16,421 division for sophomore distaffs, the field had to contend with slippery conditions as well as each other. Behind the gate the 1-9 favorite Gowestyounggrace (Dave Ingraham-Fred Ward) briefly lost her footing and was forced to settle into fifth position as the field entered the first turn.

Heath Campbell sent Who's Perfect right out for the lead in a :30.4 opening panel, which was swift given the lack of traction. My Sweet Revenge (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) settled right in to draft along in second, with Summertime (Steve Wilson) gapping out in third.

Heading into the 1:02.3 decreased tempo half-mile marker Ingraham pulled Gowestyounggrace to the outside and moved first over while advancing from fourth to third. At the 1:32.3 swifter third panel it was clear that the favorite had her work cut out for her as the leader, Who's Perfect, had put four lengths between them. However, the loose pocket sitting My Sweet Revenge was gearing up for her challenge, poised to pounce.

As the field turned for home Switzer found another gear and the race was on. Who's Perfect battled gamely down the stretch but the :29.3 final quarter fashioned by My Sweet Revenge was too much to overcome, as she prevailed by three-quarters of length at the wire in 2:02.4.

Trained by Marc Tardif for owner Leighton Property, the daughter of Western Maverick picked up her third lifetime win and a new record. Paying a handsome $24.60 to win, she was bred by Laurie Harding and Reginald Duguay.

Gowestyounggrace rallied to be third.

The second $16,197 division was delayed slightly for track maintenance, but nonetheless provided for an exciting stretch drive and another close finish.

When the starting car scurried out of the way driver Drew Campbell scooted to the lead with Mrs Foxy Roxy and found himself on top by five until his brother Heath Campbell blasted past a challenger to grab the 2-hole with Pembroke Red. They hit the opening quarter in :31.1 with the rest of the five-horse field stretched out like a quarter to three.

With the pack tightening up dramatically past the 1:01.2 half, the first to pull to the outside was 3-5 favorite Ghost Of You (Switzer-Tardif), and considering following cover was stable mate Push Your Luck (Walter Case, Jr.). At the 1:32.4 third panel Heath's charge was breathing down his brother Drew's neck. A slingshot move off the turn and Pembroke Red was gaining momentum on the pacesetter, as Ghost Of You was three wide and brushing down the center of the track.

With Drew on the inside and Heath in the middle, it was 'mano a mano,' brother against brother in a dog fight sprint down the stretch. Add-in Switzer and the event developed into a thrilling three-horse race, right down to the finish.

The wire arrived just in time for Mrs Foxy Roxy who won the family feud over Pembroke Red by a scant neck in 2:04.3.

Trained by James Dunn for owners William McElvain, Jr., Diane Dunn and Bradford Veilleux, the daughter of Deuce Seelster grabbed her fifth career victory and a new seasonal mark. Bred by Kristina and Gary Hall, she paid $16.60 to win.

Ghost Of You finished third by a tight length.

The Maine Sire Stakes resumes today (June 28) at Cumberland with the return of the 3-year-old trotters. The following day, Saturday (June 29), the sophomore male pacers take center stage at First Tracks. Post time for both days is 3:15 p.m. The aforementioned group of 3-year-old pacing fillies comes back to Bangor on Sunday (June 30) with the first post at 3 p.m.

Winbak Farm is sad to announce the passing of Sass Newton, p, 2, 2:03.4h; 3, 2:00.1f; 1:51s ($607,466). She was a 30-year-old retired broodmare who resided at Winbak Farm of Maryland. Sass Newton was a 38-time winning daughter of Storm Compensation. She passed on June 11, 2024.

“Sass Newton was a great race mare that also had an excellent broodmare career,” said Joe Thomson, Winbak Farm owner.

“We purchased her in 2011, after she was already a proven producer, and she produced some very nice Winbak Farm-bred performers, including millionaire Newborn Sassy.”

Sass Newton’s offspring have earned $2,563,530. Sass Newton was the dam of 10 winners including Adio Volo Stakes winner, Newborn Sassy, p, 2, 1:51.1f; 1:50 ($1,097,155), James Lynch Memorial winner, Ideal Newton, p, 2, Q2:02.1h; 3, 1:50.2f; 1:49.4f ($629,731), Isaac Newton, p, 3, 1:53.2; 1:51.3f ($367,090), and Smart Rokker, p, 3, 1:54.1h; 1:50.1f ($300,666).

“Sass Newton produced four winners of $100,000,” said Jack Burke, Winbak Farm general manager. “I am glad that her legacy continues with her daughters who have already produced several winners.”

Sass Newton’s daughter, Newborn Sassy, is the dam of Sir Issac Newton, p, 2, 1:52.4f; 3, 1:50.3f -23 ($136,058), Ideal Newton is the dam of Closing Statement, p, 2, 1:50.4s; 1:49.1f ($545,175), and Inverse Hanover, p, 3, 1:52.2; 1:49.2 ($357,411). “Sass Newton will be missed, but we look forward to continuing her strong pedigree through her daughter, Philly Sass,” said Thomson. “Winbak Farm owns Philly Sass in partnership with Jim and JoAnn King and we hope that she will be as great of a producer as her dam was.”

Saturday will be super with big stars at The Big M

A four-pack of stakes with purses totaling over $500,000 plus the first appearance on the same race card of the two horses who make up harness racing's most intriguing matchup of the year will be presented at The Meadowlands on Saturday night (June 28).

Live racing takes place tonight and Saturday, with 14-race programs that get underway at 6:20 p.m.

The Big M's Championship Meet continues to roll closer to the Meadowlands Pace (July 13) and Hambletonian (Aug. 3) with some of the game's biggest stars going at it in the Perfect Sting, Dave Brower Memorial, Crawford Farms and Six Pack.

In addition, the dynamic duo of the 3-year-old colt and gelding trotting division – Karl and T C I – will race in separate splits of the W.N. Reynolds Memorial Scott Frost division.

The Perfect Sting (for open mare pacers) features Twin B Joe Fresh (4-5 on the morning-line), the Roses Are Red winner, against Sylvia Hanover (5-2), the 2023 Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Pacing Filly of the Year.

Ruthless Hanover (5-2) is looking to defend his title in the Brower, the race named for the longtime Big M lead TV host and oddsmaker. In his two starts this year, Ruthless has lived up to his name, recording winning times of 1:47.1 (on May 19) and 1:47.2 (May 26) in his outings at Harrah's Philadelphia. The clockings are the fastest two this year in the sport. Linedrive Hanover also went 1:47.2 this year.

The Crawford Farms pits Maxie Lee winner Venerate (2-1) against It's Academic (3-1), a lifetime earner of over $2.3 million. The Six Pack features three current stars in Cutler winner Jiggy Jog S (6-5), Armbro Flight champion Call Me Goo (7-2) and 2023 Hambletonian Maturity winner M-M's Dream (5-2).

The first of the two Scott Frost splits (race 6) features Karl (1-5), the Nancy Takter trainee who's won 12 of 13 lifetime starts, and, on the strength of a win over T C I in the Breeders Crown, walked away with the Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Male Trotter hardware a year ago.

T C I (4-5), 12-for-14 lifetime and the leading money-earner in the division a year ago with over $1.2 million, tops the second Scott Frost dash (race 9) for trainer Ron Burke.

There is no shortage of great storylines with the pair, as Yannick Gingras, Karl's driver, is in search of his first Hambletonian win, while Burke, the all-time leading trainer in the history of the game, is also seeking his first grab at the Hambletonian brass ring.

In addition, the duo has met twice, and each has one win.

Finally, while many fans are hoping for a dream Hambletonian Day matchup, it's possible Karl and T C I will meet for round 3 on Meadowlands Pace Night in the $250,000 Stanley Dancer.

"Saturday's program lights the candle for what should be an incredible stakes season," said track chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemoir. "And with the Breeders Crown returning to The Meadowlands [eliminations on Oct. 18 and 19; finals on Oct. 25 and 26], you can expect a constant flow of the sport's greatest stars to be competing here for year-end honors throughout the 2024 racing season."

In addition to the Pace, Hambletonian and Breeders Crown, The Big M will also play host to Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night (on Nov. 30).

BIG M IN NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT: There is a lot of great Meadowlands action that will be shown this year on the networks of FOX Sports. The Big M will be a part of "America's Day at The Races" throughout the year, starting next week with the eliminations for the Meadowlands Pace.

Here is the tentative schedule for The Big M broadcasts with the marquee event that will be shown. Where not listed, specific networks – FOX, FS1 or FS2 – will be determined:

- July 6: Graduate finals/Meadowlands Pace eliminations, 8-11 p.m. (FS2)
- July 13: Meadowlands Pace final, 8-11 p.m. (FS2)
- Aug. 3: Hambletonian, 4:30-5 p.m. (FOX)
- Oct. 18: Breeders Crown eliminations, 1-6 p.m. (TBD)
- Oct. 19: Breeders Crown eliminations, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)
- Oct. 25: Breeders Crown finals, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)
- Oct. 26: Breeders Crown finals, 8-11 p.m. (TBD)

PLENTIFUL PAYOUTS: It was another weekend of big payouts at The Meadowlands last week (June 21-22), as low minimums, low takeouts and big pools gave everyone a chance to make a big score.

Friday's fabulous windfalls came in the Late 20-cent Pick-5 ($26,480), Early 50-cent Pick-4 ($15,254) and 20-cent Survivor Pick-7 ($6,794).

Saturday's super scores were collected at the conclusion of the 20-cent Pick-6 ($31,337), Survivor ($8,008) and Late P5 ($7,913).

Some of Saturday's highlighted total pools were the 20-cent Pick-5 ($81,234), Early Pick-4 ($93,063) and Late P4 ($79,882).

The 11th race 10-cent Hi-5 (or Pentafecta, if you prefer) saw a carryover of $15,253 lead to a total pool of just over $74,000. Those with tickets with the correct combination of 1-5-7-8-6 walked away with $1,837.83.

BABY, YOU'RE A FIREWORK: Head to the track on Saturday (July 6), for Fan Appreciation Night, when the Cafe, Rooftop Terrace and Backyard will offer low-priced concession items. Available for $1 will be hot dogs, pretzels, popcorn and soda (limit five of each item per transaction). Available for $2 will be Bud and Bud Light drafts (for those 21 years of age and older).

Discount prices are available from 6-11 p.m., and after the races, fireworks will light up the sky for all on-track patrons to enjoy.

MEADOWLANDS PACE NIGHT: Come and be a part of the "Biggest Party in Harness Racing", as Meadowlands Pace Night takes place on Saturday (July 13).

The track's signature event features the following festivities:

- "Pace Be With You" t-shirt giveaway – Begins 5 p.m. for the first 5,000 guests
- DJ in the Backyard – DJ ALX
- Carnival rides and games – including mechanical shark, toxic moonwalk, 3-in-1 sports game, toxic obstacle course, axe throwing and two carnival games
- Win free $500 Win Bets – Five winners will have a chance to place a $500 win bet on a designated race. Entry in the live racing program
- Meadowlands Burger Battle
- Food Trucks
- Dining
- You can guarantee a spot to dine and watch all of the races in The Lounge, which is the center of the action with front-row seats to Victory's giant screens. There are two- and four-top tables and bar seats available. Ticket purchase acts as food and beverage credit for Victory Sports Bar menu

Vivid Wise As gets first invite to MGM Yonkers International Trot

There is just over two months before the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot on Sept. 7 at MGM Yonkers Raceway and the connections of 2023 winner Vivid Wise As have accepted an invitation for the 10-year-old to defend his title.

Somewhat lightly raced since his U.S. victory and unplaced in the Prix d'Amerique in January at Vincennes Racecourse, Vivid Wise As returned from a two-plus month break in action on June 23 over the same course and sat the pocket to be a very good third behind perhaps Europe's best horse – Elitloppet winner Horsy Dream – and Prix d'Amerique champion Idao De Tillard in the $200,000 Prix René Ballière.

A 2¾-length winner in 2:23.1 (1¼ miles) last year, Vivid Wise As won as the 5-2 favorite versus a strong international field over the Yonkers surface in 2023. The Alessandro Gocciadoro trainee, who has earned just shy of $3.7 million in his career while winning 37 of 93 career races, is the first of 10 invitees expected to be announced in the coming weeks.

The MGM Yonkers International Trot will be the centerpiece of a spectacular afternoon card (12:15 p.m. EDT post time) on Sept. 7 that also features a pair of $250,000 invitationals for older horses and the $1.8 million finals of the New York Sire Stakes.

Tetrick hot with Philly babies

Two-year-olds continued their education into the racing wars on Tuesday morning at Harrah's Philadelphia, with 10 events for babies held; three for pacers of each sex and two each for male and female trotters. Driver Tim Tetrick had a big hand in the proceedings as he won six times, two times with pacers of each sex trained and once in each of the trotting divisions.

Quickest of the Team Tetrick / Scott Di Domenico males was Nikola J, a Tall Dark Stranger colt out of Ideal Newton, who had a smashing mile of 1:56.2 in his first start. Coming from third at the half, Nikola J streaked home in :56 - :27.1 in winning for Oompa's Farm Inc. and Joseph Barbera. The same connections and Vincent Barbera combined with Curry's Flurry (Papi Rob Hanover—All Cool Hanover), now a two-time winner after a 1:58.4 - :28.1 mile.

Among the filly pacers, it was Tetrick / Di Domenico / Oompa's / Joseph Barbera again with the fastest performer, the Captaintreacherous—Sammy's Magic Girl distaff Sammy Jo Hanover, who blitzed home in 56.1 - :27.3 to stop the timer in 1:57.1 for her second success.

Fastest of the freshman trotters was the Walner—Southern Senorita filly Admiring, who won her debut in 2:00.3. Sitting third at the half, Admiring powered home in :57.4 - :28.3 to take the decision for driver Simon Allard, trainer Nifty Norman, and owners Tony Holmes and June Zent.

Their colt counterparts were headed by Dive Bar Hanover, a Bar Hopping gelding out of Deli-massive. Dive Bar Hanover fronted his field throughout in 2:02.1, with identical :30 back-end quarters in making his first start successful for driver Tetrick, trainer Kevin Lare, and owner Frank Chick.

With many of the 2-year-olds now to be racing on the pari-mutuel cards or on the fair circuit, which begins today at the Big Butler Fair, the weekly baby race recaps will be discontinued, although if something spectacular happens during the a.m. the news will be dispersed, and we of course will continue to provide highlights of freshmen in betting races.

Replays of the baby qualifying races are to be made available at www.phha.org.
