On Legends Day, John Campbell contemplates a race between all-time greats

His dream race would be to see Hall of Famers spanning generations compete against each other driving 2024 horses.

JOHN CAMPBELL

Dave Landry
John Campbell at the 2017 edition of Legends Day with tiny Billy O'Donnell and a Campbell fan.

This afternoon (June 30) at beautiful and bucolic Clinton Raceway – nestled between two Great Lakes on the Ontario peninsula – John Campbell will take part in his 12th Legends Day. He's never missed the biannual event since it began in 2001.

In 2017, he officially retired from driving in a special ceremony at Legends Day. Clinton Raceway is less than an hour north from where Campbell grew up in the Ailsa Craig area.

"Personally, I just enjoy the day so much," Campbell said. "I have each and every time."

In the past, the event predominantly featured drivers inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. But, this year, Legends Day creator Ian Fleming has opened up the guest list to any and all harness racing Hall of Fame inductees and their families.

Campbell is a Canadian Hall of Fame inductee, of course, as is his grandfather, Dunc Campbell. Fleming is also enshrined as a builder.

"I think that's part of the genius of Ian, is changing things and keeping it fresh," Campbell said. "I think combining that with the Canadian Hall of Fame and coordinating with them is really a great idea. Obviously, with my grandfather's connection being in there, our family is pretty excited about it.

"I think that's going to bring more interest and more people to Clinton and I think it's a brilliant idea."

The HPI Legends Day Trot, which will be the last race on a 10-race card that begins at 1:30 p.m. (ET), will feature Hall of Famers Wally Hennessey, Randy Waples, Steve Condren, Carl Jamieson, Paul MacDonell, Chris Christoforou, Sylvain Filion and Doug Brown doing battle. You can watch the entire card live on Clinton Raceway's YouTube channel here.

John will be present to meet and greet fans, but is not driving.

The Legends Day Trot, featuring Hall of Famers competing against each other, has been a mainstay of the event. So, we asked John which drivers from history would he like to see compete against each other. He went with a field spanning generations all driving a field of horses from today.

"I'd pick a couple of drivers from the late-'50s, early-'60s, late-'60s, early-'70s, through the '80s, through today and try to just get a mix of drivers from back then," he said. "I think that would be the ultimate... If you could work that out through AI in a race, that would be really special."

“ Personally, I just enjoy [Legends Day] so much. I have each and every time. ”

~ John Campbell

“I would want to see Clint Hodgins, Bud Gilmour, Herve [Filion], [Bill] O'Donnell, Doug Brown – you'd have to have Keith [Waples] in there – then bring in some of the guys from today. I think that would be the most interesting for me.”

The reason? Campbell would love to know which driver, in their prime, would prevail and how.

“Obviously, it can't happen, but you can go through it in your mind and think just what the strategy would be of each guy,” he said. “One race, balls-to-the-wall type of thing, and how they would go about it.”

Legends Day, has raised $330,000 for local charities since its inception. This year, the proceeds will go to the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation. John said building bridges between harness racing and the community is essential.

“When you look at the amount of money it has raised over the years... it's twofold, it helps the community and people that need it and it makes the community aware of harness racing and the fact it is giving back,” John said.

Legends Day is also a great opportunity for John to go back to his roots. His career began an hour south of Clinton Raceway at The Raceway at Western Fair District in London, ON.

“It's a special day for me,” he said. “I get to see so many people – well, not as many as there used to be – but a lot of people that were at Western Fair when I started out and I always look back fondly on that.”

Legends Day is also an opportunity for regular fans to meet a multitude of their harness racing heroes.

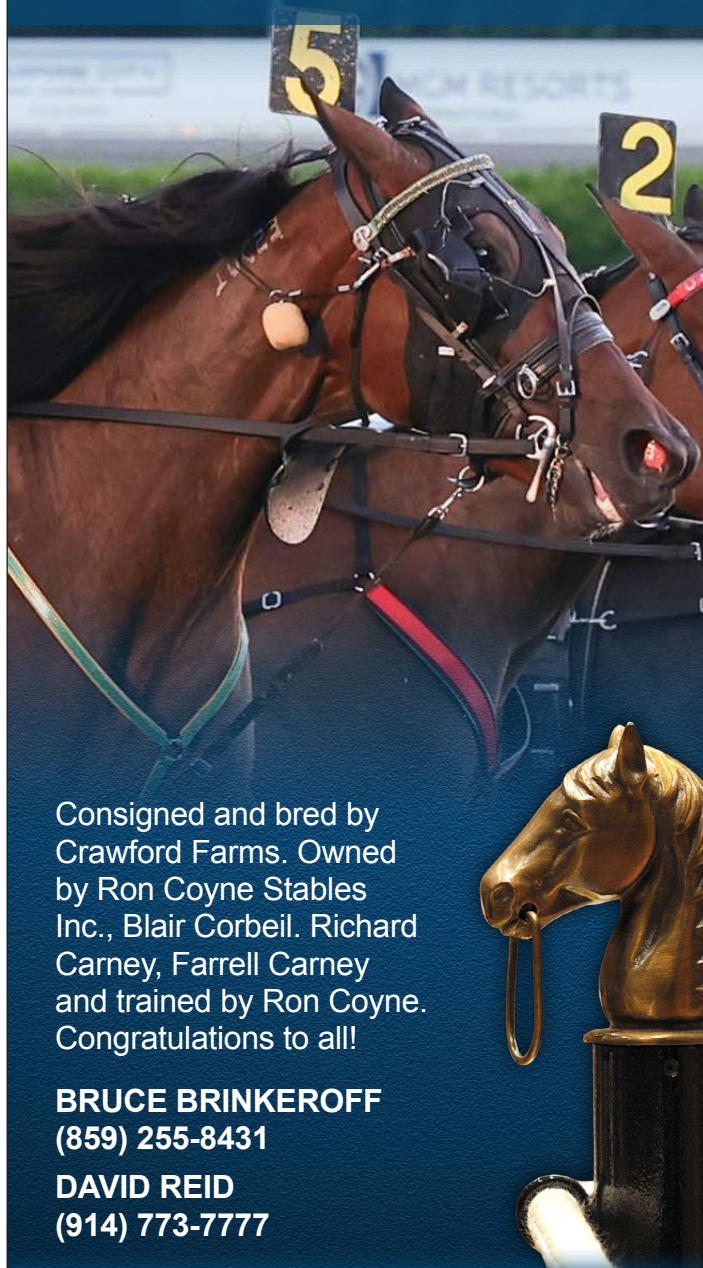

Asked which harness racing legends he most wanted to meet as a boy, John said Ronnie Feagan.

“I looked up to him, but I was fortunate enough to see him all the time and he really treated me well when I was a kid,” John said. “That part was really good. Also, Bud Gilmour. All you did was read about him. I was really looking forward to the first time I met Bud. It didn't disappoint. I don't think anyone was ever disappointed when they met Bud Gilmour.”

Re-thinking the structure of maiden races in light of Baynes suspension

by Brett Sturman

In this week's USTA Fines and Suspensions published on Friday (June 28), driver and trainer Ray Baynes was levied with an unusually large penalty ($5,000 fine and 180 days), stemming from a recent drive at Harrah's Philadelphia two weeks ago in which judges deemed the drive as "conduct detrimental to the best interest of racing."

In the third race from June 13 at Philly, Baynes and his horse Brickyard Rally, sent off at odds of 7-2 and racing in a nw1PM trot for $10,500, left from the outside post and were able to settle into the third position. At three-quarters, he was able to gain clearance to the outside, trotted up nicely to close and move past the race leader in the stretch, only to be caught in the final stride by a surging longshot.

Judges ruled that Baynes, "did not put forth his best effort to win by failing to drive his horse at the finish." Upon review of the replay, it does seem, at least visually, that there was a lack of driver encouragement as Brickyard Rally approached the finish. On the other hand, I've seen much worse. Two of which come to mind from Delaware over 10 years ago when in separate incidents drivers were given lesser penalties for drives that would have resulted in lifetime bans if I were running things. Not to mention the near daily occurrence of horses driven with less-than-optimal efforts with not a word said.

As for this incident, was there a decided effort to intentionally finish second in the maiden-level race, or was Baynes doing what he could do to keep his 5-year-old maiden gelding trotting nearing the finish? I honestly can't say. The judge's ruling also stated that "aggravating factors" were considered in determining this penalty. It doesn't state what those aggravating factors are, but my guess is that the judges didn't look kindly on the fact that Brickyard Rally has raced nearly all year in the nw1PM condition, and this race was his opportunity to move out of it.

If there's the implication of a horse not winning in order to stay in the same class, it's where these maiden and non-winners of one or two races almost always occur. Whether by design or not, Brickyard Rally has now made $25,594 this year for his work in the nw1PM condition. After four races to start the year in lower-rated classes at Freehold, he has raced literally every single week at Harrah's Philadelphia from April 14 to now, and he's in to go this upcoming week, all while racing for $10,500 against fellow maidens. In the process, he's only finished out of the money twice and his record for the year stands at eight seconds and six thirds from 16 starts.

I'm not sure if what's led to this suspension is an indictment of the horse or on the system.

The situation reminded me of a conversation I had prior with longtime owner and breeder, Eric Cherry, who I have cited here before. Never short on ideas, Cherry has long felt that maiden races should be in the form of winner-take-all. The winner of the race gets 100 per cent of the purse.

On the surface, I could see how it may seem like a radical idea but it would actually serve a couple of different purposes. There's been discussion in the past that the purses of maiden and other races for younger horses should be increased as a way to help horses as they begin their career, allowing owners to get earlier and higher purse returns on their yearling purchases. What could be a better way to help kick-start that process than to provide the full purse of a race to the winning horsemen? I'd imagine it would help yearling sales in the same process. It would be enticing to buy a relatively inexpensive yearling for $10,000 if you knew all of it could be earned back with a single maiden win.

[Eric] Cherry has long felt that maiden races should be in the form of winner-take-all. The winner of the race gets 100 per cent of the purse... or, as an alternative, what if there were a condition that stipulates how long a horse can stay in a nw1 or nw2 race? It could be indefinite for a horse that isn't competitive, but there could certainly be a rule that states after let's say three second-place finishes in the last five races, you have to move up a class for a period of time before you can move back down.

But secondly, it would completely destroy any incentive to want to remain in the same class. You either have to win the race or you don't earn anything. Any notion of milking the same class would be eliminated and imagine what it would do to the aggressiveness of the race.

Or, as an alternative, what if there were a condition that stipulates how long a horse can stay in a nw1 or nw2 race? It could be indefinite for a horse that isn't competitive, but there could certainly be a rule that states after let's say three second-place finishes in the last five races, you have to move up a class for a period of time before you can move back down.

Each of these options could be used as ways to keep getting horses moving through the nw1 conditions faster, and help replace mainstays in the condition with newer, fresh horses.

At absolute minimum, they would have helped to cast lesser doubt on what went into the Baynes situation. More than that, it would help improve the quality and integrity of the racing product and the introductory conditions for younger horses.

Jim Gillespie drives on as new Mohawk/Grand River race secretary

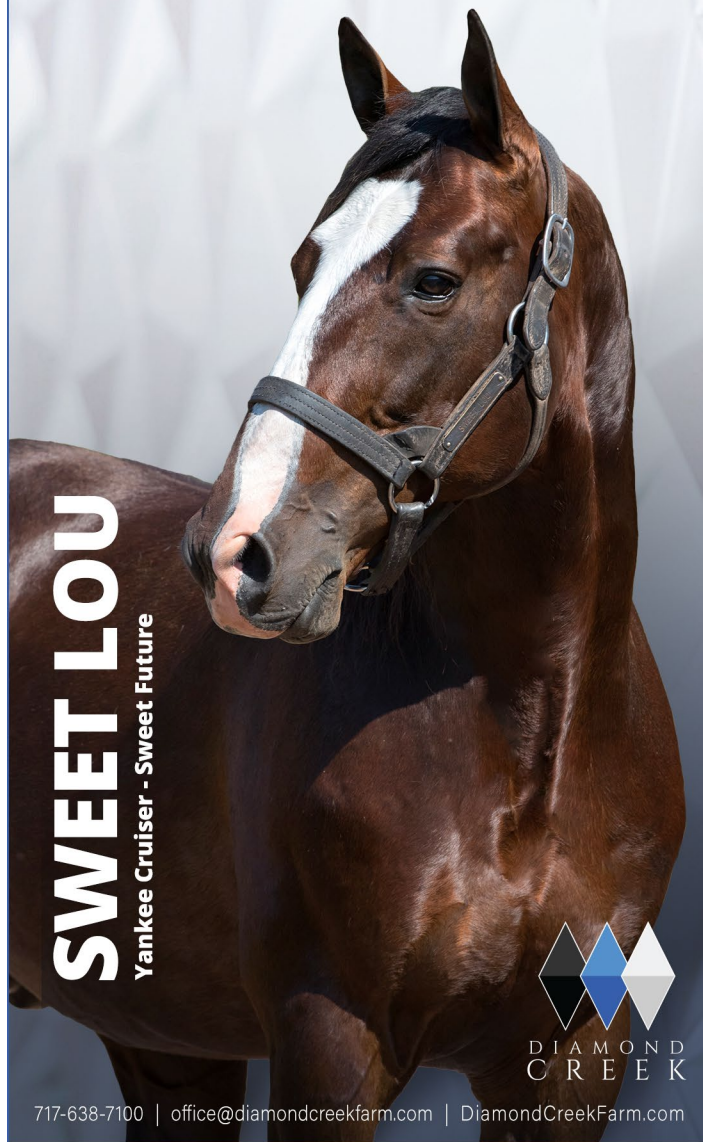

by Melissa Keith

Next Friday (July 5) will be current Woodbine standardbred race secretary Tony O'Sullivan's last day on the job, as Woodbine Mohawk Park welcomes Jim Gillespie to the role. The news was first announced in a June 19 Woodbine media release.

O'Sullivan had been race secretary since Dec. 1, 2021. He was profiled in HRU in June 2022.

Gillespie is a seasoned beginner, thanks to working as assistant Woodbine standardbred race secretary since November 2020. He previously worked for his father, trainer Tim Gillespie.

Tim has been an active trainer since 1994, when he sent out his first trainee, Brigadier Indy (p, 4, 1:57.1h; $59,287), at Woodbine Racetrack, winning with him two starts later at Belleville. The Grafton, ON horseman has 253 wins and $2,073,740 in purse earnings from 1,965 starts as a trainer, most recently on March 1, 2024 at Woodbine Mohawk Park with Wildcat Star (p, 4, 1:51.2s; $142,077), who lowered her lifetime mark that race.

Tim's son Jim shared his interest in the sport and also decided to pursue a career in the harness racing industry. The younger Gillespie took a different route, after being introduced to the Woodbine Mohawk Park race office by a friend.

"My good friend Mark McKelvie [Woodbine Entertainment's senior manager of communications] approached me with the idea one day," Jim told HRU.

The incoming WMP race secretary said that his basic interest in following live racing at Mohawk soon led to an unexpected opportunity at the Campbellville, ON track.

"I was always around the track talking horses with everyone, and I believe [VP of Standardbred Racing for Woodbine Entertainment] Bill McLinchey mentioned to Mark that I might be a good candidate to work in the race office," Jim said. "I gave it some thought, and we had some conversations that took off and I started late in 2020."

He learned from two former WMP race secretaries before his recent promotion to the position.

"I think I had the best of both worlds," Jim said. "I got to start under Scott McKelvie, who had 40 years of experience. You couldn't get any better than Scott to learn from and see how he handled situations. Then Tony [O'Sullivan] came in and it was good to see first-hand how he navigated taking over the role. Tony had lots of ideas and I really enjoyed working with him."

The race secretary position is important from the perspectives of both horsepeople and bettors.

"Keeping it simple, it's our job to put together the cards of racing and to put together the most competitive races possible," Jim said. "We create the condition sheets, conduct the draws, handle driver changes, line up the qualifiers and lots of other duties that aren't that fancy."

While he had helped out with his father's horses in the past, Jim said that ended when he began his new career path.

"I stopped working with the horses when I took the job in the race office," Jim said. "Up until then I was driving a little and was very active in the barn with my dad."

U.S. Trotting Association records show that Jim drove in 449 races between 2012-20, winning 47 times and earning $169,790 in purses.

His most recent victory was Sept. 5, 2020 at Kawartha Downs, winning an Ontario Sires Stakes Prospect Series leg for 2-year-old filly pacers with Blake McIntosh trainee Beach Moment (p, 5, 1:51.0m; $179,691). His last drive was also with Beach Moment, finishing fifth at Flamboro Downs on Oct. 11, 2020 in an Ontario Autumn Series leg for 2- and 3-year-old filly pacers.

As race secretary at Canada's top harness track, Jim now faces a different kind of competition: Continuing to attract sufficient quality and quantity of horses to race at WMP despite ongoing industry-wide issues with horse shortages.

“We’re trying to make Mohawk for everyone by having classes that cover a lot of levels while maintaining our commitment to world class racing,” Jim said. “Being accommodating and understanding of what we have is important, but we also want to show those not racing at Mohawk the opportunities that are available.”

With Mohawk currently racing five nights a week, Jim said he is not content to stay with the status quo with regard to classifications.

“We’re always looking for more horses, so that means constantly reviewing the sheet,” he said. “We’re always open to new ideas.”

Crossing over from hands-on horseman to assistant race secretary and now race secretary brings new challenges, but not without support from within the WMP racing community.

“You always get feedback from the horsemen on ideas or thoughts of things we can do,” Jim said. “I will say that I’ve received a lot of positive feedback from many trainers and drivers since my new position was announced. I want to keep those relationships strong.”

Jim will oversee the daily duties of the standardbred race office, including all draws for Woodbine Mohawk Park and Grand River Raceway, beginning on Monday (July 5).

For one glorious night, the power wasn't concentrated at the top

by Dean Towers

I'm the first to admit, I write a lot about the problems in this sport we call ours. But I think if we're being honest, it's because there are quite a few of them.

However, on North America Cup Night this year I found myself smiling a little bit more; cheering instead of sitting on my hands, wondering what could be better.

What did I like about the night so much? I thought about it for a spell and I think it's because it felt more like the harness racing I grew up with.

The stakes night kicked off with trainer Jason Skinner winning the Armbro Flight in smashing fashion with Call Me Goo, a Maryland-bred, Virginia-owned mare. Jason's post-race interview was so good; you could feel how happy he was.

Two races later in the $225,000 Goodtimes, Highland Kismet crushed his foes with an eye-catching performance for owner Highland Thoroughbred Frm and Ontario trainer Mark Etsell. To say this son of Father Patrick wasn't on anyone's radar a few months ago is a massive understatement. It was a man with a horse no one thought would amount to much competing and winning on the sport's biggest stage.

The Mohawk Gold Cup has always been one of my favorite races, and this year we saw Melissa Essig ship Buzzsaw Russ from the Midwest, Ron MacDonald enter a local hope in Saulsbrook Victor, and the very good Oakwood Arden IR try his luck under the tutelage of Robert Cleary. While many harness stakes races can be chalky, this one wasn't with a $22 winner in Linedrive Hanover. These horses, drivers and trainers were all there to take a swing.

As a kid, I attended the first North America Cup and watched Dr. John Hayes and Legal Notice storm home, beating an assortment of colts who came from virtually everywhere. Not long after, horses with everyday bloodlines trained by everyday people like Staff Director and Apaches Fame had their names etched on the trophy.

But on [NA] Cup night [this year] I remembered why I adored stakes seasons of the past. That to me has always been the essence of harness racing.

Sure, Cup 41 had the usual big stars, but this year it was different.

Driver Brett MacDonald, who toils mostly at B tracks, had a mount with Janelle Granny. Funtime Bayama, the wonderfully-fast homebred, was given a 7-2 chance for local connections.

And you just have to love it: the 5-2 favorite Captains Quarters was sent out by overnight trainer Herb Holland.

In 2024, horsepower is famously concentrated at the top, and it's not just in harness racing. In fact, just a couple of weeks ago thoroughbred trainer Chad Brown sent out four of six starters in a Grade I race in New York. It's just the way it is.

I should be very clear; I don't begrudge this. The Chad Browns, and Ron Burkes and Nancy Taktors and Diamond Creeks and Marvin Katzes, invest a ton of money into the game and deserve to win races just like anyone else. The sport is better off, not worse off because of them.

But on Cup night I remembered why I adored stakes seasons of the past. ## Cullipher/Pollack team has another ISS threat in Dashing Danny

by James Platz

Driver Kyle Wilfong sat patiently in the pocket seat with Dashing Danny on Thursday evening (June 27) at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Sent off as the favorite, the tandem bided their time behind A Blue Million until the field raced out of the last turn. A nose off the leader at the top of the stretch, the Dover Dan—Sashay gelding trotted on to capture the $50,500 Indiana Sires Stakes division by 1½ lengths in a lifetime best 1:53.4.

"I think we're spot on," trainer/co-owner Jeff Cullipher said Friday afternoon. "So far, I'm loving everything." "Kyle has done an amazing job driving. He really hasn't had any tough miles yet. Last night he raced the last eighth. That's a trainer's dream."

The victory was the second in three starts – all Indiana Sires Stakes – for the sophomore, owned by Cullipher and Tom Pollack's Pollack Racing LLC. The partners are known for competing in the state's top program with horses they select each fall at the yearling sales. By contrast, this year they have a pair of contenders that came to the barn through private purchases.

Dashing Danny began his freshman campaign on the Indiana fair circuit. Purchased for $7,000 out of the Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale, the trotter was campaigned by trainer Donna Loney for owner Mark Wright. The 2-year-old notched six-straight wins on the circuit to begin his career with Logan Loney at the lines. 'Danny' would move to Hoosier Park for two rounds of sires stakes action, finishing off the board in his initial attempt before racing second in the next leg.

Returning to the fairs in August, Dashing Danny picked up another win before entering Grand Circuit action at the Indiana State Fair. Cullipher and Pollack were there that day with a couple of entries of their own. They watched as the gelding finished second to Flirtwiththepilot in the $12,890 Hoosier Stake.

"We sat there and saw him and talked about him then," Cullipher said. "We thought he would be a good one to make an inquiry on. He was going some decent miles."

The Steve Stewart and Black Creek Farm-bred freshman accumulated enough points on the fair circuit to qualify for the $25,000 Governor's Cup final, held Aug. 16 at Indianapolis. His new owners, however, scratched out of the race and turned their attention to racing at Hoosier Park. Dashing Danny made six starts for the new connections, winning a sires stakes leg and taking his 1:55 seasonal mark his first time out. The gelding trotted second in two more divisions and finished second in the $250,000 Super Final.

Despite a long campaign, the owners entered the freshman into the Breeders Crown, held at Hoosier Park. Dashing Danny qualified for the final with a fourth-place effort in his elimination, but finished ninth in the final.

"We took a shot at the Breeders Crown," Cullipher said. "In reality, we probably shouldn't have and wouldn't have if it wasn't at Hoosier Park. There were no major issues, but with as many miles as he had been, he just had typical wear for a 2-year-old. A lot of colt soreness. When we got him, we had to press on trying to make him eligible to the sires stakes finals."

The gelding had raced 17 times as a freshman while afflicted with the aforementioned colt soreness. Cullipher was concerned with how Danny would return in 2024, so he decided to give him an additional month off to recover.

"A lot of times, ones that race that much don't pick their game up the next year," Cullipher said. "Knock on wood, he's really grown up. I had him turned out at a nice farm and they did a great job. He's grown up to be a man and filled out nicely. He's a big boy now. He's muscled up really nice."

Dashing Danny began the season with a victory in the opening leg of Indiana Sires Stakes action for sophomore colt trotters. His 1:54 clocking on May 27 matched that of divisional favorite Gruesome Twosome. In the second leg, Danny squared off against the You Know You Do colt, managing a runner-up effort. His other entry, Knowyoucando, won the second division that night in 1:56 for driver Atlee Bender.

“Gruesome Twosome, he's probably going to be the horse to beat all year,” Cullipher said. “Hopefully he stays sound and healthy for his connections. No matter what division he's in, he's the one to beat. I'd like to think Danny's going to be competitive with him. Hopefully I'll get my turn and be able to beat him here or there. I hope we peak at the right time.”

Thursday night, Dashing Danny turned in a solid performance where he was not used hard in victory. The triumph pushed his seasonal earnings to $63,250, and his career bankroll to $244,337 In the division held earlier on the card, Gruesome Twosome fired home in :26.1, trotting from the back of the pack to win by nearly two lengths. Knowyoucando, first over turning for home, briefly led before coming home fourth. Acquired in May, it was the fourth start for the gelding under Cullipher's tutelage.

“He's one of them that I think is going to improve in time,” Cullipher said. “We probably didn't buy him for a sires stakes horse, but I think he fits. He won the one leg when he drew away from Gruesome Twosome. Last night I think he raced great. He was first up a pretty good way. Horses like that are going to be the ones that step up I think.”

Dream Mine outstanding in E3 final

by Thomas Hedlund

Jörgen Westholm is one of the most successful trainers in Europe, or at least in the Nordic countries on the continent and the 51-year-old experienced some great minutes when Färjestad racetrack played host to the $380,000 E3 finals on Saturday (June 29) afternoon.

His winner in the division for colts and geldings is a real Westholm product. Jörgen is the breeder, trainer and driver to Dream Mine (Maharajah), who entered the final with three wins in four starts in his back pocket and when Westholm hit the lead after 150 meters, his tactics were clear. Dream Mine would race in front, especially important this time as favorite Magic In went off-stride soon after the start.

With Magic In out of the game, much indicated that Alessandro Gocciadoro's Free Time Jepson would be the winner. Gocciadoro found a spot second over, but Free Time Jepson seemed to be out of power already before the last turn and the trainer was obviously disappointed as his horse finished fourth, many lengths behind the superior winner.

Because Dream Mine was so impressive when he pulverized his opponents, trainer/driver Westholm was probably one of the happiest people on earth when Dream Mine hit the wire in a mile rate of 1:55.4 over 1.3 miles.

Phantom Express did a great job as the runner-up and Dream Mine's stable mate Conrads Stefan finished strongly from a bad position as third.

In the $380,000 final for fillies, the race went in more of a "Swedish style," which means a fast opening followed by a slow half-mile and then a full gas operation from all drivers. The problem that occurs when the leader is allowed to slow the pace down significantly is that horses far back in the field are more or less without a chance challenging for the win.

And the winner, Screen Time Limit (Face Time Bourbon) did everything right this day. Driver Ulf Ohlsson played it safe from the start but could overtake the lead after 500 meters. Favorite S.G.Empress (five-for-five before the final) was obstructed in the first turn and made a break and it seemed like there were no other horses that could make a serious move towards the leading Screen Time Limit. So, when Ulf Ohlsson entered the top of the stretch, Screen Time Limit got a couple of lengths advantage, which was good enough for claiming the big title for trainer Reijo Liljendahl. The mile rate over 1.3 miles was 1:58.

Pretty Be Linda held strongly as the runner-up after a first over trip and Oriana Boko did a great job, finishing third.

Liljendahl has won the E3 before and he is well known for his skills with young horses, which might be the reason why Liljendahl is aiming for a career in America this fall. Kentucky and Florida will be the regions for his new career.

If you are a fan of harness racing, I'm sure you have heard the name Filion, for the Filion brothers are one of the most iconic families in the sport. At times throughout the decades one and in most cases more of the Filion brothers have lit up the tote board or set a track or world record.

“ My objective is to get help from the government since we are the only province in Canada that doesn't receive financial help. It is with a lot of pride that we have the only track in Quebec without any subsidies, but it is necessary to renovate our track and increase purses to keep both our two- and four-legged athletes here in our province. ”

~ Sophie Mongeon

The eight Quebec-born brothers were Gilles, Renald, Marcel, Denis, Yves, Henri, Rheo and last, but not least, the great – and I mean GREAT – Herve have left an indelible mark on our sport.

Herve left school at the age of 13 to drive on the county-fair circuit. In 1961, Herve came to the United States, and by the late 1960s he had taken over as the annual money and race-winning driver. He was certainly gifted, talented and quite a character. The ultimate showman is remembered by many as after winning The Little Brown Jug in 1979 with Hot Hitter, Herve stood up in the sulky seat on his way back to the winner's circle.

Records show that combined the Filion brothers earned more than $164,465,226 (and growing).

Although Gilles, Denis, and Herve have left this world – hopefully to continue their love for horses and racing in the heavens – several of their children continue their legacy. One is Sophie Mongeon, the daughter of Andrea Filion (sister to the eight brothers) who married Dr. Rejean Mongeon.

In 1968 Rejean was a construction worker who enjoyed spending time around horses. After his passion took over, young Rejean enrolled in vet school, graduated, and moved to St-Hyacinthe to practice his trade.

Growing up as she did, it's no surprise that Sophie ended up involved in harness racing.

"I was born in 1973 in Buckingham in the Outaouais region," Sophie said. "My mother Andrea was the youngest Filion. In 1978 our family relocated to New Jersey to my godfather [Herve's] farm so my father could be near The Meadowlands Racetrack and perfect his knowledge. After a year living there, a tragedy struck; a fire broke out that tragically killed 40 horses, a blacksmith and a groom. Our family then moved to New York where my father worked at Yonkers.

In 1980 Sophie and he mom and dad moved back to Quebec's Hudson region.

"There was a polo field nearby so I got a job working with the horses there," she said. "My parent's 'dream home' located in Oka came up for sale after the owner fell and died on the farm. At the time the farm was owned by the Mathers family who owned a quarry on the north shore and owned horses that raced mainly at Blue Bonnets."

The farm had a half-mile track and a swimming pool for horse rehabilitation.

"We bought the farm in 1989 and the next year there was the Oka crisis," Sophie said. "Our farm was located in the Reserve and was rampaged. A couple years later, the government bought our farm after the insurance company refused to pay since it was considered an exclusion. That is where I learned to deal with government bodies and how difficult it is to negotiate with insurance companies. That was the straw that broke the camel's back and when I decided to become an attorney to help people who were in situations like my parents', dealing with government bodies and insurance companies.

"In 2018, my associate Mrs. Desroches was named judge and I was nominated president of the firm. I began doing interviews on radio and television and eventually had a weekly column on a Sports Radio, 91.9FM. I would comment on sports news, but from a legal point of view.

In 2021, every Sunday in July, Hippodrome 3R was presenting the races at the same radio station.

"I commented on the races, even though I had not been involved in the sport for 20 years," Sophie said. "I wanted to give it a try since harness racing has meant so much to my family and still have relatives involved, like my cousin Sylvain."

That same year, Sophie was asked to join the board of directors at The Club Jockey du Quebec, and in December 2023 was officially nominated to the role of president.

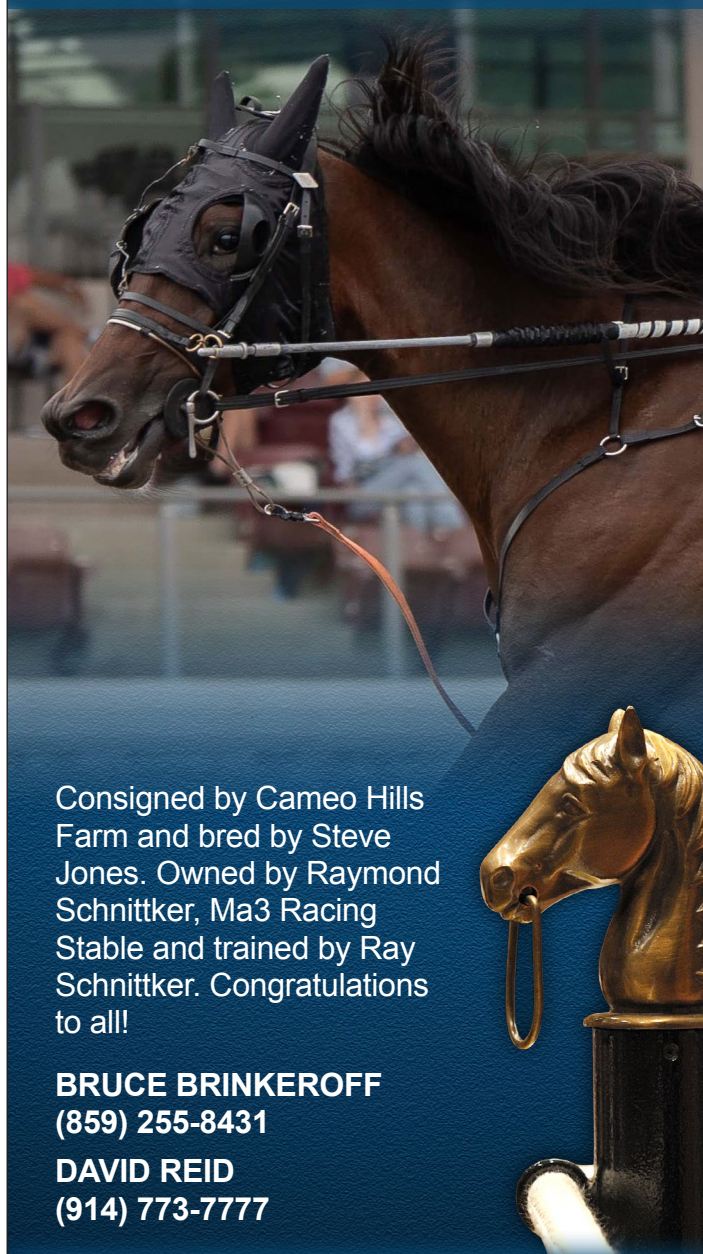

"My objective is to get help from the government since we are the only province in Canada that doesn't receive financial help," Sophie said. Sophie said their marketing team has gone all out this year to publicize the sport.

“Since the closing of Blue Bonnets, people think there are no more races, so this year we will have a show called “Trifecta on RDS” [French TSN] and will be going back to announcing programs on the sports station [BPM Sports],” she said. “We also are bringing back the Prix d’Ete to try to get national coverage.

“I am so honored and blessed that the Jockey Club put their trust in me: the first woman ever to preside over a horse organization in Quebec. I’m so excited to see “woman power” at our track, such as Marie Claude Auger and Jessica Turenne, but there is still more room for women in our sport. Our marketing director, Cynthia Theriault, is also a female. Our announcer, Guy Lafontaine, proudly says that our racetrack is directed by the best women in town, an iron fist in a velvet glove. Although it is quite a challenge, I think I have a wonderful team in place at H3R.

“With all their knowledge and abilities, we can bring our wonderful sport back to the hearts of the citizens of Quebec and to propel it back to the top.”

Author’s note: When I co-wrote the book Roosevelt Raceway: Where It All Began, we had a book signing at The Meadowlands. I was so excited to meet my idols in the business such as Carmine Abbatiello, Ben Webster and Herve Filion. They all were wonderful and gracious and I will forever be grateful.

We are due for a harness racing sequel

by Trey Nosrac

Another alert reader of this publication emailed headquarters concerning the Breaking Stride columns for this month.

“Interesting stuff on harness movies. Why do you think there was a 37-year gap between April Love and Eden Valley? Weren’t those boom years for harness racing? Did Hollywood think there was insufficient interest to make money?”

Technically, Eden Valley should be in the category of a foreign film. If you eliminate Eden Valley, many harness fans have “never” had a “single” film about their sport or set in the harness racing world debut in their lifetime. There has not been another American movie based on harness racing since Pat Boone starred (and crooned the tune April Love).

It is not like April Love, our last harness racing movie, bombed; it turned a nice profit. On a side note, April Love, a song written for the film, became a number-one hit in the United States for Pat Boone and spent 26 weeks on the U.S. pop charts. It spent six weeks at No. 1 and was nominated for an Oscar for Best Music, Original Score, but lost to All the Way.

Returning to the original question, why have no harness racing movies been produced in recent history? Let me state clearly: I do not know. However, I have firsthand experience concerning the rejection of our sport for a national audience. Twice, I had harness horse stories pending in significant national magazines. Neither article on the drawing board reached print. One editor feared offending anti-gambling readers in the audience.

The other editor passed on the story due to demographics. He said, “What do our readers in Idaho know about this sport? Many people have never seen harness horse racing and do not have access to it on television.”

These reasons were understandable in 2012, but today, they are quaint concepts when we can watch racing and gamble from our hand-held devices. Gambling and demographics are no longer taboos for movies or print material.

A hit movie can do wonders for any sport struggling for attention. A movie set in a unique sporting world can draw attention. Harness racing could use a shot in the arm and a movie project to raise all spirits. I subscribe to the anything is possible school. Other minor sports keep getting featured roles in the movies. For example, here is a short list of recent films on obscure sports:

Chess – Queen of Katwe and Queen’s Gambit

Rugby – Invictus and Murderball

Wrestling – Foxcatcher

Arcade Gaming – The King of Kong: A Fistful of Quarters

Arm Wrestling – Over the Top

Dodgeball – Dodgeball: A True Underdog Story

Roller Derby – Whip It

Formula One – Rush

Tae Kwon Do – The Foot Fist Way

Motorcycle racing – The World’s Fastest Indian

Ping Pong – Ping Pong

Harness horse racing? After extensive googling, the best I could scrape up in movieland since April Love, with a whiff of harness racing, was a 2011 movie, The Eagle, a historical drama featuring the sport of Roman chariot racing.

As The Dude says in The Big Lebowski, “This must not stand!”

Ergo, Trey is working on another absurd plan. Next week, the Breaking Stride column will contain the first in a series of movie scenes in which the “sport of harness horse racing,” characters, animals, and setting will be part of the picture. Consider these scenes artistic springboards or not-so-subtle cues for the laggards in Hollywood who have ignored the trotters and pacers for the previous 68 years.

After several scenes are in the public domain via this site, a short story based on harness horses (working title – Abandoned Horses) will be posted, a story just “waiting” for Hollywood to turn into a screenplay. All this material will be in the public domain and copyright-free. In addition, the barrage of random movie suggestions, sometimes referred to as elevator pitches or proposals, will be forwarded to real people working in California’s fantastical land.

Now, you may find such tomfoolery a waste of time. You may not believe in miracles. You may never play long shots. However, you must take that first tentative step when gambling on horses, raising horses, racing horses, or making a movie. Or, as someone once said, “You will never hook a fish if you don’t put a line in the water.”

Happy 74th Birthday Catello Manzi

by Bob Heyden

No question Catello “Cat” Manzi, born on June 27, 1950, was one of the busiest men in harness racing history.

Ten years after his 2014 retirement Manzi is still well over 10,000 drives to the good with 95,690. Tony Morgan is next at 84,849 assignments.

Now 74, the “Catman” carved out a career like no other. Let’s take a look at some numbers and milestones from this Monticello, NY, native who came from a family loaded with driver-trainers.

After leading Monticello in 1974-75, Manzi made a move early on to become a fixture at The Meadowlands. He trained too, Snowball Express anyone?

His first million-dollar season was 1978. That same year, a race called the Coliseum Cup was held on the grass at The Meadowlands with only Manzis allowed. Cat didn’t win it but a relative of his obviously did.

Cat’s first drive in a million-dollar race came in the 1982 Wilson ($1,957,500, the third richest race ever held) with the longest shot in the field, Charlies Bunny, 76-1, who finished seventh.

The next year, 1983, was particularly frustrating for Cat who missed a neck with Hit Parade for Jerry Silverman in the $1,062,000 Sweetheart won by Shannon Fancy and then 20 days later (8/8/83) was a dirty nose off Carls Bird with second-choice Trutone Lobell (Second choice at 2.70-1 in the fifth richest ever race, the $1,700,000 Wilson after a three-length lead in midstretch!

Cat didn’t drive in a million-dollar race in 1984 or 1985 but resurfaced with Lachance Lobell (sixth) in the 1986 Governor’s Cup and then none until 1990 when he would drive in at least one per year until 1994. Cat got money with Cocktail Talk (fourth) in the 1991 NA Cup, finished third with Stormin Jesse in the 1991 Meadowlands Pace just a nose off of Artsplace for runner-up honors, was second with Blair Burgess' longshot Driven By Design in the 1992 Pace won by Carlsbad Cam and then was third with Riyadh in the 1993 Meadowlands Pace (captured by Presidential Ball over Life Sign) a week after becoming the first sub-1:50 Pace elim winner ever going 1:49.4.

Cat actually holds the record for money won in all million-dollar events prior to winning one at $1.7 million plus.

He would have to wait 21 years for that elusive seven-figure score when he upset at 27-1 with Mantacular in the 2004 North America Cup.

He pinch-hit for John Campbell with Harmonious in the 1990 World Trotting Derby and won it in a career best 1:53.2 for a $600,000 pot and Harmonious was named Trotter of the Year.

Cat's lone Breeders Crown score came with Winky's Goal in 1992 for Chuck Sylvester in the 2YOFT. Six years later he would handle David Raymond, the runner-up to Muscles Yankee in the 1998 Hambletonian, also for Sylvester.

Fifth on the all-time wins list (14,812) it's tough to fathom Cat was just 2-for-51 starting out in 1968-69 combined.

His breakthrough victory came in 2004 driving for Larry Rathbone in Canada's richest event, but there was a two-year wait before Cat won the Meadowlands Pace (in his 10th try) with Artistic Fella. That colt became the first Pace winner ever to win both the elim and final in sub 1:49. It was even more significant for Cat since the colt's sire was Pacific Fella, who back in 1998 became harness racing's first ever 1:48.2 winner in the Dan Patch at Hoosier Park in their fifth edition.

Oops, I zoomed past the two world records Cat set in the 1990s, one on each gait. The fastest miles ever by the way, June 20, 1992 driving Artsplace (William Haughton prelim) to a 1:49.2 all-time race record. This was seven years after Nihilator's 1:49.3 from Hambletonian Day in 1985 and the only time Cat drove him. Two years later, July 8, 1994, also at The Meadowlands, and this time driving the 4-year-old mare Beat The Wheel for Ron Gurfein, he came out of the Pine Chip pocket to score in an all-time trotting mark of 1:51.4.

Cat also won the richest ever DQ race, the 2000 Wilson ($703G) final where Whitefish Falls was placed first after The Firepan's disqualification (first placed 10th).

Cat is the only driver in the 48-year history of The Meadowlands to pilot two $100 winners on the same card.

On July 31, 1991 he won with Hundred Kisses ($100.60) and then with Fake Left ($191).

Some of the other top horses handled by Cat include Direct Current (Robert Apice trainee), Anxious Robby, Santa Royale, Nuclear Siren, Wesgate Crown and Syrinx Hanover.

He also handled McArdle for Chris Ryder.

“Cat helped me out quite a bit when I first started years ago at Freehold,” Ryder said. “A straight-up guy.”

Not only did Cat win the NJ Classic with Ryder’s McArdle but with his son McCedes too.

Cat was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2002.

Who’s the winningest driver in N.J. history? Cat Manzi. He had well over 11,000 wins just in the Garden State alone, with titles at all three tracks, Garden State Park, Freehold and The Meadowlands, as well as numerous NJSS races.

Cat also was an “HTA Driver of the Year” in 2005, at age 55, when his 727 victories led the way.

A simply amazing career. No other jockey or driver in the history of this planet has ever started more times. Ten years into retirement his records hold. Happy birthday Catman!

Sir Pinocchio wires field in MGM Yonkers Trot final

by Yonkers Raceway media

Sir Pinocchio became a two-time winner on harness racing's Grand Circuit this year, as the Dexter Cup champion was a front-stepping 1:54.4 winner in Friday night's (June 28) $300,000 MGM Yonkers Trot at MGM Yonkers Raceway, giving him the first leg of the Trotting Triple Crown.

Driver Jason Bartlett fired Sir Pinocchio out from post 2 and battled for early command with pole sitter and favorite Security Protected (Tim Tetrick), but that horse made a break on the opening turn, leaving Sir Pinocchio in front well before the quarter, which went on the board in just :29 seconds. Facing no outside pressure in the second quarter, Bartlett kept the tempo easy, getting to the half in just :58.3.

Passing the half-mile marker, trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt swung Situationship, who had made a break before the start but reset and sat fifth, to the outside first-over, and he came with a strong bid that carried him to within a half-length of Sir Pinocchio at the 1:26.3 three-quarters. Sir Pinocchio was game, though, keeping Situationship at bay on the rim and going on to the win by a half-length in 1:54.4. Situationship was second over elimination winner Bargain (Yannick Gingras). Fly By (Scott Zeron) also recovered from an early miscue to collect fourth and I'm Out (Marcus Miller), who also went off-stride from fourth before three-quarters, was fifth.

This completed a day to remember for Bartlett as he was able to get to MGM Yonkers Raceway before the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes after watching his son Kobe graduate from high school.

"I got to see him walk across the podium and receive his diploma," Bartlett said. "I made record time down here to get here just so I wouldn't miss it. It was a big day for me."

While others were unable to keep trotting in both the Dexter Cup and tonight's MGM Yonkers Trot, Sir Pinocchio has kept his cool both times.

"Tonight, we had [Security Protected] beat out of there," Bartlett said. "Eddie [Hart, trainer] told me that he watched him warm up and he looked a little weird in the turns, so we went out of there with him in the turn, and he blew up. You can't really go into these races with any sort of plan or anything. They all sort of go out the window in the first eighth."

Hart trains Sir Pinocchio, a gelding by Met's Hall—Lady Cromwell, for owner/breeder Carolyn Atherton. Sir Pinocchio has six wins, four seconds and two thirds from 14 appearances, has pocketed $341,853 and paid $10.80 to win as the 4-1 third choice. He was atop a $33.40 exacta and a $162.50 trifecta.

"It was a tough field," Hart said. "We had a good post and I was hopeful. We got a little lucky for sure. He's the real deal. He's a nice horse, and he's getting better, too. He's a little better on a big track, I think."

Yonkers Trot on Friday.

“He has the Canadian Trotting Classic in September and a few other races. He’s staked up a little bit, but no Hambletonian.”

Irv Atherton represented wife Carolyn in the winner’s circle ceremonies. The Athertons are from nearby Scarsdale, NY, and have enjoyed success in the sport before, but perhaps not at this level.

“He’s up at Vernon next week for the Zweig,” Irv Atherton said. “We’ll go from there. We’ve had some really good ones, but this is a long time coming. The little guy gets to the winner’s circle.”

The filly companion event to the MGM Yonkers Trot is the New York New York Mile, and it was raced in a pair of $55,000 divisions. In the first one of those, Eloise (Corey Callahan) worked out a second-over trip and forged her way by first-over Tactical Lori (Tyler Buter) late in the mile to win by a neck in 1:57. Kinesiology (George Brennan) was the third-place finisher.

Eloise, bred by Crawford Farms, is trained by Ron Coyne, Jr. for owners Ron Coyne Stables Inc., Blair Corbeil, Richard Carney and Farrell Carney. A daughter of Tactical Landing—Tuvalu, Eloise has six wins from 16 career starts, has earned $114,061 and returned $7.10 to win as the 5-2 second choice. She led an exacta of $16.20 and a trifecta of $66.50.

Miss I La (Joe Bongiorno) led throughout in the second split and won in 1:57.2 as favorites R Melina (Buter) and Date Night Hanover (Dexter Dunn) both made breaks before the half. Draw The Line (Gingras) was game after a first-over trip and held off a closing Cocktailwithakick (Svanstedt) for the second spot.

“Once I saw [R Melina break], it kind of put the race in my hands to decide if I wanted to cut it or be in the 2-hole behind Date Night Hanover, but I didn’t love the way Date Night Hanover looked scoring down,” Bongiorno said. “I thought she looked a little off in her gait, so I took the shot of being on the front. I know this one is probably better with a target, but in this field on a half-mile track, I thought I’d take my chances and see if I could hold them off.”

Miss I La, a filly by Walner out of Southwind Venus, is trained by Noel Daley for owner Ken Jacobs. Miss I La is now a four-time victor from 15 trips behind the gate, sent her bankroll to $211,588 and paid $14.60 to win as a 6-1 shot. The exacta was $110.50 and the trifecta kicked back $607.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Travis Alexander trainees finish 1-2 in MGM Grand Messenger Stakes final

by Yonkers Raceway media

Trainer Travis Alexander won the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes final for 3-year-old male pacers at MGM Yonkers Raceway for a third time and swept the exacta in Friday night's (June 28) $225,000 edition of the first leg of the Pacing Triple Crown, as Sweet Beach Life rallied past stablemate Howlenthedhills for a 1:53.1 victory.

Elimination winner Janelle Granny, driven by George Brennan, went to the lead from post 6 and cut an opening quarter in :27.2 with Lou's World (Todd McCarthy) in the pocket, followed by elimination winner Howlenthedhills (Matt Kakaley) and Armada

Hanover (Tim Tetrick). Janelle Granny would remain unpressured to the half in :56.2, but Kakaley guided Howlenthedhills first-up shortly after that marker, and he would be tracked in the outer tier by Armada Hanover, Sweet Beach Life (Tyler Buter) and Wish You Well (Scott Zeron).

Howlenthedhills made steady progress on the outside to get side-by-side with Janelle Granny at the 1:24.4 three-quarters, and their duel would continue around the final bend, with Tetrick sending Armada Hanover three-wide late on the turn and Buter fanning Sweet Beach Life out four-wide.

In the stretch Howlenthedhills forged his way into the top spot as Janelle Granny tired, but Sweet Beach Life had the best kick to the wire and was up to take the race by a half-length. Howlenthedhills out-lasted Armada Hanover for second and Lou's World, who had to move out to get past the tiring Janelle Granny and then swung back to the inside, had to settle for fourth. Wish You Well came on to get fifth.

"They filled me in on the horse," said Buter, who picked up the drive on Sweet Beach Life when Kakaley opted to stick with Howlenthedhills after he qualified both for the final. "He drove perfect, couldn't ask for more. Matt told me just keep him quiet, and he'll have a good kick coming home. He wasn't kidding. He's nice to drive, and he got the job done."

Sweet Beach Life (5, Tyler Buter) winning the MGM Messenger on Friday.

A Sweet Lou—Life Is A Beach gelding bred by Sergent Stables LLC., Sweet Beach Life is trained by Alexander for owner A Sweet Beach Life Stable. He has a summary of 5-3-3 from 17 outings, has put away $189,732 and paid $15.40 to win as the 6-1 fourth choice. He keyed a $41.80 exacta and a $174.50 trifecta.

“That’s pretty cool,” said Travis Alexander’s wife Alaina, who assists in the training of the stable. “We’ve always thought really highly of this colt. He just is his own worst enemy. We couldn’t ask for a better drive.”

Sophomore pacing fillies took to the track in the companion event to the MGM Grand Messenger, the $90,000 Park MGM Pace, and Camerican (Yannick Gingras), got up from the pocket to defeat 1-5 favorite and pace-setter Peace Talks in a 1:54.2 mile. Leanne’s Choice (Marcus Miller) was third.

Ron Burke trains Camerican, a daughter of American Ideal—Camille, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC., Larry Karr, M1 Stable LLC. and Jack Piatt III. Bred by Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brusceci LLC., M1 Stable LLC. and Piatt, Camerican made her fifth trip to the winner’s circle, has now earned $346,332 and returned $6.80 to win as the 2-1 second choice. The exacta was worth $11.80 and the trifecta kicked back $43.40.

“I drove her once last year in Kentucky and she won in 1:50.3 and I raced her in the Breeders Crown,” Gingras said. “We got a good trip and it worked out. She finished third in the Breeders Crown last year. I don’t know if she can race much better than those. She raced the best fillies in the country and finished third, so I think she’s a nice horse.

“I felt really confident. I think that’s her kind of trip. She likes to follow a little bit, and obviously following that one was the right one.”

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Fast Choice (Scott Zeron) winning his New York Sires Stakes division for 2-year-old pacing colts on Thursday at Yonkers.

<h1>New York</h1>	SIRES STAKES  REPORT

Successful debuts for Fast Choice and Thirsty Thursday in NYSS at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

The New York Sire Stakes circuit was once again at MGM Yonkers Raceway on Thursday night (June 27) as 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers competed in a pair of sections.

In the first test, worth a purse of $77,300, Fast Choice (Scott Zeron) and Baleville Bomber (Braxten Boyd) hooked up in a duel for the lead to the :28.1 opening quarter, but Zeron, who was on the inside, was unwilling to let Baleville Bomber go and left him on the outside. Courts On Fire (Yannick Gingras), who was also on the rim, was then guided three-wide to get around both Fast Choice and Baleville Bomber, and he took a brief lead on the second turn before Zeron re-moved Fast Choice to the top prior to the :57.4 half.

With much of the field bothered past the quarter by a break from Sg Exit Velocity (Jason Bartlett) and then Baleville Bomber gapping in the 3-hole, Fast Choice and Courts On Fire got away from the others and continued to race first and second to the 1:26.2 three-quarters before Gingras took another shot at Fast Choice by tipping out on the final bend. Fast Choice had something left in the stretch, though, and kicked back clear, prevailing by 1¾ lengths in 1:54.3. Courts On Fire was second and Holt Hanover (Mark MacDonald) finished in the third position.

Breeder Winbak Farm and sire Courtly Choice swept the exacta with Fast Choice and Courts On Fire. Fast Choice, a gelding trained by Jared Bako for owners Ashley Bako and Randy Zane, was making his pari-mutuel debut off a first and a third in two baby races at Pocono and paid $6.40 to win as the 2-1 favorite. He keyed an exacta of $18 and a trifecta of $105.50.

Thirsty Thursday (Matt Kakaley) left out from post 8 in the other $78,700 division but wound up four-wide on the first turn and three-wide until the :28.3 opening quarter when he was able to get by both Red Blooded (Bartlett) and Digging For Gold (Gingras) for the top spot. After getting looped by Thirsty Thursday, Digging For Gold would not settle in the third spot and wound up sitting two-wide to the outside of Thirsty Thursday through middle-half panels of :57.2 and 1:26.3.

On the last turn Digging For Gold began to tire, but Thirsty Thursday was full of pace, pulling away from the rest of the field to take a 3¼-length victory in 1:55.3. Idealofaday (Zeron) was up for the second spot and Red Blooded faded to end up third.

Coming off a third and two victories in his baby races at Pocono, Thirsty Thursday was a winner in his first outing for owners Flying A Racing Stable and Chuck Pompey. Thirsty Thursday, trained by Hunter Oakes and bred by Pompey in partnership with Northfork Racing Stable, is out of Yonkers track record holder and world champion Tequila Monday and returned $6.90 to win as the 2-1 third choice. The exacta was worth $53 and the trifecta kicked back $242.50.

A pair $20,000 New York Excelsior "A" Series races for the rookie pacing males also went behind the gate, with the victories going to Spirit Of Freedom (by American Ideal, bred by Winbak Farm and paid $38.00 to win) in 1:58.4 for driver Tyler Buter, trainer John Butenschoen and owners Harmony Oaks Racing Stable Inc., Andray Farm, Son Of A Beach Racing and Carl Austin, Jr. and Cigar Smoking Joe (by Huntsville, bred by co-owners Kristie Leigh Farm and Ian Behar along with Joseph Betro, paid $5.60 to win) in 1:59 for driver Jason Bartlett and trainer Scott Blackler.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday-Tuesday-Thursday-Friday-Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EDT).

SIRES STAKES

Glamour boys do battle in sire stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sire Stakes continued at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Friday (June 28) with a pair of divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings highlighting the 14-race card. Tellmeitmatters and Rolling Image each delivered as the bettor's choice to claim the victory in their respective divisions of leg three of eight.

Sent off as the 2-5 favorite in the $49,500 first division, 2023 Super Final champion Tellmeitmatters extended his win streak to three on the season. Leaving from post 4, driver John De Long settled in the fourth spot off of the gate while Trace Tetrick hustled Packedwithluck to the lead through the first quarter in :27. Packedwithluck remained unchallenged to the halfway point in :55.1 before Tellmeitmatters wheeled to the outside entering the final turn. Tellmeitmatters powered to the leader's wheel at the three-quarter poll as Packedwithluck led to that station in 1:23.3.

Turning for home, Tellmeitmatters took command and surged to the lead by a half-length at the top of the stretch. Noblesville rocketed up the passing lane to make a late bid, but Tellmeitmatters sped to the wire in :26.1 to win by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:50. Packedwithluck held on to third to round out the trifecta.

Trained by Roger Welch, Tellmeitmatters is now three-for-four in his sophomore campaign with the three wins all coming consecutively. The homebred son of Tellitlikeitis—Art Matters is owned by William C and William P De Long and has now banked $267,300 for his career.

In the $50,000 second division, 2-5 favorite Rolling Image crossed the wire second, before being placed first following a pylon violation on the final turn by M-M's Bud. Starting from the rail, driver Trace Tetrick floated into the fourth position early while Martz Telly (Marvin Luna) grabbed the lead to the quarter in :27.2. The pace slowed on the backstretch as Martz Telly backed things down on the lead to the halfway point in :56.3 with the seven pacers in straight-alignment. Shooting In Place (Atlee Bender) were the first to move from third, rolling first up with Rolling Image in hot-pursuit as Martz Telly led to three-quarters in 1:25.

Dean Gillette

In the stretch, Jay Cross angled M-M's Bud towards the passing lane while Rolling Image looked to launch off of his cover. M-M's Bud crossed the wire three-quarters-of-a-length in front of Rolling Image in 1:51.3, however, was deemed to have gone inside multiple pylons on the final turn, resulting in the 11-1 shot being placed second. The victory then belonged to Rolling Image who paced home in :26.1 and was awarded the career best winning time of 1:51.4. Stat That and LeWayne Miller rallied for third.

Trained by leading trainer Tyler George, the victory was the first for Rolling Image through three starts in his sophomore campaign. Owned by John and Robert Esposito along with Greg Samples and T G Stable LLC., the gelded son of Rockin Image—Rolling Delight now sports a career bankroll of $68,550.

On Thursday (June 27), 3-year-old trotting colts took center stage at Harrah's Hoosier Park with the third leg of Indiana Sire Stakes. A pair of $50,500 splits highlighted the 14-race card, seeing Gruesome Twosome and Dashing Danny deliver as favorites in their respective divisions.

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite in the first division, Gruesome Twosome and driver Daryl Bontrager took back in the early stages from post 7, landing in the seventh position as CS Flying Co-Pilot (Trace Tetrick) flew to the front to lead to the opening quarter in :27.2. CS Flying Co-Pilot continued to lead on the backstretch to the halfway point in :57.2, while Gruesome Twosome wheeled to the outside from seventh. Gruesome Twosome found himself third-over entering the final turn, spotting the leader nearly seven lengths while CS Flying Co-Pilot led to three-quarters in 1:27.4 now under pressure from Knowyoucando (Atlee Bender).

CS Flying Co-Pilot jumped it off turning for home, allowing Knowyoucando to inherit the lead at the top of the stretch while Gruesome Twosome began to pick-off foes. Musclegfantastic (Robert Taylor) stalked Knowyoucando's cover before moving to the lead mid-stretch, however, Gruesome Twosome uncorked a vicious :26.1 final quarter to blitz to the lead and cross the wire first by 1¾ lengths in 1:55.1. Musclegfantastic finished second, Water Torpedo (Mike Oosting) split horses late to finish third.

Still perfect through his first three starts in 2024, Gruesome Twosome is also trained by Bontrager who co-owns along with Ira Steinberg. Bred by Merle Yoder, the son of You Know You Do—All Set Lets Go has now banked $75,500 this season and $300,875 lifetime following his ninth career victory in 12 outings.

In the second division, Dashing Danny and Kyle Wilfong sat closer to the action, grabbing the pocket seat from post 3 while A Blue Million (Mike Peterson) crossed over to take the field to the first quarter in :28. The field of seven remained in straight-alignment on the backstretch, with A Blue Million leading the way to the half in :56.3. On the turn, the lead duo began to separate from the remainder of the field with Dashing Danny hot on Mike Peterson's helmet at three-quarters in 1:26.2.

Dashing Danny popped the pocket spinning for home, quickly going nose-to-nose with A Blue Million at the top of the stretch. From there, Dashing Danny powered home in :27.1 to take command, trotting strongly to a 1½-length victory in a lifetime best time of 1:53.4. Flirtwiththepilot (Pete Wrenn) staged a rally up the passing lane to finish second, Customer Support (Robert Taylor) finished third.

Trained by Jeff Cullipher, Dashing Danny is now a two-time winner in three starts this season, with his lone defeat coming at the hands of Gruesome Twosome in leg two of sire stakes. Cullipher owns the gelded son of Dover Dan—Sashay with Pollack Racing LLC. Dashing Danny was bred by Steve Stewart and Black Creek Farm, and now sports career earnings of $244,334.

Maine

SIRES STAKES

REPORT

Grondin sweeps Maine trots at Cumberland

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

Trainer Valerie Grondin made a clean sweep of both Maine Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotters at Cumberland Raceway on Friday (June 28), the second trainer to do so in as many weeks.

In the pair of $16,000-plus divisions of Pine Tree State-bred harness horses, the Bangor-based conditioner, along with her husband Heath Campbell, are always a formidable force on the local stakes circuit and proved that point once again.

The action began with an early non-betting race for Maine-sired 3-year-old male trotters, where Mark Athearn had sent last week's winner Carrabassett to the top from pylon position. Following splits of :29.3 and 1:01.3, it appeared as if the pacesetter would have things his own way.

However, driver Drew Campbell piloting Grondin's Chipper Dale was sitting comfortably in the 2-hole following a 1:31.1 third panel and tipped out in the lane to overcome the leader and score in 2:02.1 by 2¼ lengths.

The sophomore son of Shake It Off Lindy trotted his final quarter in :30.4 and took a new lifetime mark for owner/breeder Lynn-Marie Plouffe to take home the lion's share of the $15,758 purse. The connections surely have high hopes for Chipper Dale as he won six of eight starts last season.

Carrabassett finished second; Pembroke Will (Heath Campbell-Grondin) was third.

The regular card featured the $16,208 3-year-old filly trot, which was a rematch between last week's victor, My Saving Grace (Mark Athearn-Gretchen Athearn) and last year's 2-year-old filly champion Pembroke Breeze (Heath Campbell-Grondin), who finished second last time out.

Once again, Athearn left with his filly My Saving Grace, setting reasonable fractions of :30.3 and 1:03.1 to the half. With the tempo increasing dramatically moving into a 1:33.1 third stanza, Heath Campbell had Pembroke Breeze first up and gaining ground with every stride. By the head of the stretch the only question was 'how fast' and 'by how many' the daughter of Pembroke Slugger would be victorious.

The Grondin trainee did everything her aviator asked of her, scoring in 2:03 by 4¾ lengths, taking a new lifetime mark in the process. Owned and bred by Bill Varney, she paid $4.20 to win.

Twisted Venture (Mike Cushing-Charlene Cushing) finished second; My Saving Grace was third.

Friday's program also included a tribute race, in memory of Frank Dubreuil where dozens of his fellow horsemen, admirers and friends formed a horseshoe tribute at the finish wire in honor of their former presiding judge.

Drivers Kevin Switzer, Jr., Walter Case, Jr., Aaron Hall and Dave Ingraham had driving doubles on the program. However, none paid more than 'Double-Digit' Dave's score in the ninth race where he paid $131.40 with the Michel Bilodeau-trained Age Is A Number in 1:58.4.

The First Tracks Cumberland meet continues throughout the summer months with regular racing on Friday and Saturday each weekend during the extended pari-mutuel meeting, which runs through Aug. 3.

Jiggy Jog S soars in Six Pack; Southwind Tyrion scores 1:49.2 stakes record in Crawford Farms Trot

by Frank Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Defending champ Jiggy Jog S coasted in the $112,500 Six Pack on Saturday night (June 29) at The Meadowlands, gliding home over her five foes to win in 1:52.1.

The short field presented a casual start as the public's second choice, M-M's Dream, took the top from post 5 to a crawling :29 first panel. Longshot Tactical Mounds slid behind the leader and Jiggy Jog S floated into third. Positions remained unchanged through a lazy :58.2 half. As M-M's Dream picked up the trot, Jiggy Jog S left the line to begin her challenge.

Jiggy Jog S was unimpressed with M-M's Dream acceleration. By the 1:26.4 three-quarters, the 5-year-old paved an outside path to meet the finish line first with a 1¾-length win in 1:52.1. M-M's Dream held for second, Tactical Mounds was third and Call Me Goo finished fourth.

Jiggy Jog S is trained and co-owned by Ake Svanstedt with Steve Stewart, John Lengacher and Hickory Hollow Stables. The Six Pack was her second win in two races this season; her first was The Cutler Memorial on May 18 at The Meadowlands against males. She has won 20 times from 37 starts in her career.

Jiggy Jog S won as the overwhelming favorite, paying $2.20 to win.

"She's strong like she was last year," driver Dunn said about the easy win and then said he had little problem with the mild three-quarters. "She had around six weeks rest after the Cutler and [came back] with high speed."

Jiggy Jog S, a daughter of Walner out of the dam Hot Mess Hanover, has now earned $2,292,927 lifetime.

Southwind Tyrion put on an imposing performance winning the $131,250 Crawford Farms Open Trot. With trainer Ake Svanstedt in the bike, the son of Muscle Hill set a stakes-record mile of 1:49.2; the time was also the second-fastest trotting mile in Meadowlands history.

On a wet track downgraded to "good," Southwind Tyrion defied the public's dismissal at 7-1 from the moment the gate opened. He was on the lead when his six foes rounded the first turn, followed by the favorite, Asteroid, and outsider Helpfirstedition. A mighty brush by longshot Periculum landed him into second after the :26.4 first panel, but he could not find a seat and took back first over as Southwind Tyrion cut the half in :54.2.

The contest came to terms with a Southwind Tyrion romp after a 1:22.3 three-quarters, where Svanstedt let him loose and notched the lifetime-best win by 4¾ lengths. Venerate closed from a second-over trip for second. Helpfirstedition held for third and It's Academic came from last for fourth.

Southwind Tyrion paid $16 for his first win of the season, which earned him millionaire status by taking the biggest share of the purse, boosting the trotter's lifetime earnings to $1,059,095. Saturday's win was the 14th victory from 28 starts for the 6-year-old out of the Cantab Hall mare Taylor Jean.

Commenting about the trotter's first win of the season, Sarah Svanstedt said, "It took a few starts last year for him to get good, too." As for the blowout performance she said, "He likes the front for sure."

The Svanstedts own Southwind Tyrion with S.R.F. Stable, Knutsson Trotting, Brittany Farms & Riverview. His 1:49.2 mile came just a fifth of a second off the trotting track record for an older horse of 1:49.1 set by another Svanstedt pupil, Ecurie D DK, in the 2022 Arthur J. Cutler Memorial.

Karl, T C I continue winning ways in Reynolds

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Karl and T C I entered their respective divisions of Saturday's (June 29) W.N. Reynolds Memorial for 3-year-old male trotters at The Meadowlands ranked as the top two contenders for August's $1 million Hambletonian Stakes, and both solidified their standing with victories.

Karl won the first $34,250 Reynolds division by 1½ lengths in 1:51, equaling his career best time. Bright Star finished second and French Kronos was third.

Three races later, T C I overcame rain and wind in his $34,750 division to win by 2¼ lengths in 1:53.1 over a track labeled good. Tony Adams S finished second and Caballero was third.

Both winners were sent off as 1-9 favorites.

In the opening division, Bright Star led the field to the opening quarter in :27.3 before driver Yannick Gingras put Karl, ranked No. 1 in Meadowlands announcer/analyst Ken Warkentin's Road to the Hambletonian, in motion from third and took the lead in a :56.1 half. Nothing changed from there, with Karl hitting three quarters in 1:24.2 and stepping home in :26.3 to victory.

"I just let people settle [on the first turn]," Gingras said. "When you're 1-9, just trying to keep him out of trouble, not have someone make a break in front of him, then march my way to the front and go from there."

Undefeated in four races this season, Karl has won 13 of 14 career starts and earned $1.2 million for trainer Nancy Takter. He has captured eight in a row since his lone setback, which came by a nose against T C I, last October.

Karl, a 2023 Dan Patch Award winner, is owned by Christina and Nancy Takter, Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing, and Bender Sweden Inc. The son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious was bred by Crawford Farms.

In the second division, Ron Burke-trained T C I, the No. 2-ranked horse in the Road to the Hambletonian, methodically worked his way to the front with driver David Miller in a :57.2 half and remained in control, reaching three quarters in 1:26 and coming home in :27.1.

Lisa Photo

Early Hambletonian favorite Karl (Yannick Gingras) won his Reynolds division on Saturday at The Meadowlands by 1½ lengths in 1:51, equaling his career best time.

Lisa Photo

T C I (David Miller) won his Reynolds division by 2¼ lengths in 1:53.1 over a track labeled good.

“Our plan was to trip him out, get him in a hole, but it really wasn’t developing around the first turn,” Miller said. “Everybody was just kind of floating out of there. There was one little hole in the first turn, but it closed up quickly, so I had to go on. But I thought he raced well. He finished up strong.”

Unbeaten in three races this year, T C I has won 13 of 15 career starts and earned $1.32 million. A 2023 O’Brien Award recipient, T C I is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services Inc., and Weaver BrusceMI LLC. The son of Cantab Hall—Nicole’s Promise was bred by Concord Stud Farm.

In addition to the two Reynolds divisions for the boys, there were three splits for the fillies on Saturday at the Big M.

Sunkist Beauty won the first of the three $25,667 divisions for the sophomore female trotters by three lengths in a career-best 1:52.2 for driver/trainer Ake Svanstedt. St Pauli Girl finished second and Dolce Amara was third.

Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, Sunkist Beauty was third for the first half of the mile before moving for the front on the final turn and overtaking leader Cheval Rapide at the top of the stretch to win her seasonal debut. Sunkist Beauty, a daughter of Six Pack—Orange Bigi, is owned by Ake Svanstedt Inc. and Stall Kalmar Inc. She was bred by Kiefer Elite Bloodstock and Martin Michalik.

She has won three of six career races and earned $110,583.

In the second division, 6-5 favorite Elista Hanover grabbed the lead after the opening quarter and never relinquished it as she extended her win streak to eight with a 3½-length victory in 1:52.3. Spy Coast finished second and Slip Sliding Away was third. Returning Dan Patch Award-winner Soiree Hanover finished fourth in her seasonal debut.

David Miller drove Elista Hanover for trainer Annie Stoebe, who co-owns the filly with Lynn Curry and Philomena Curry. The daughter of International Moni—Evermore was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms. She has won eight of nine races this year and nine of 18 lifetime, earning $175,958.

The third division went to Buy A Round by 3¾ lengths in a career-best 1:53.2 on a track labeled sloppy. Honey’s Sweet finished second and Only One Cosmo was third.

Buy A Round, the 6-5 second choice, was driven by Andy McCarthy for trainer Noel Daley. The daughter of Walner—On Your Tab is owned by breeder Frederick Hertrich III. She has won two of three races this season and eight of 12 in her career, earning $390,933.

All three filly winners are eligible to August’s $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks at The Meadowlands.

Abuckabett Hanover cashes in Dave Brower Memorial; 'Joe Fresh' first in Perfect Sting

by Ray Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Driver Dexter Dunn perched himself into a second-over tow with Abuckabett Hanover and vaulted to the lead in the stretch to grab gold in the $152,190 Dave Brower Memorial with a 1:47.3 mile on Saturday night (June 29) at The Meadowlands.

Leaving from post 5 in the event for older pacing males, Abuckabett Hanover landed into third past a :26.3 first quarter while Ruthless Hanover circled out of the pocket and passed early leader Allywag Hanover for the lead. Ken Hanover – the 9-5 favorite starting out of the second tier – then pulled off the pylons to make his attack for the lead, though Ruthless Hanover took none of it.

Ken Hanover raced stuck on the rim outside of a stubborn Ruthless Hanover past a :53.4 half, all while Dunn tipped Abuckabett Hanover off the cones and planted his charge second up. The duo dueled all through the last turn and to three-quarters in 1:21 until Dunn had enough and abandoned his cover. Like a shot, Abuckabett Hanover darted forward and scooted away to a widening win by 2¾ lengths over fast-closing Charlie May. Ken Hanover managed to hold third and Allywag Hanover wove through traffic for fourth.

“I was pretty happy when I saw Dexter slip out there,” trainer Andrew Harris said. “I was like ‘Oh, this is a pretty nifty trip right here. If he doesn’t capitalize here, he never will.’ In the last turn, when Dexter had a good hold on him and he wasn’t running in, we were licking our chops.”

A 6-year-old stallion by Betting Line out of the Western Ideal mare All Tucked Up, Abuckabett Hanover has now won 17 races from 63 starts and earned $1,311,703. Harris co-owns the $7 winner with William Pollock and Bruce Areman.

Twin B Joe Fresh (Dexter Dunn) won the $112,500 Perfect Sting for older pacing mares in 1:49.1.

In the $112,500 Perfect Sting for older pacing mares, Twin B Joe Fresh racked up another win against her longtime rival and last year's champion sophomore filly Sylvia Hanover.

Dexter Dunn floated Twin B Joe Fresh away fourth, just behind Sylvia Hanover and driver Bob McClure, to a :27 first quarter carved by Racine Bell. Dunn cemented Twin B Joe Fresh to McClure's helmet up the backside and waited for their move, which came after a :56.1 half. Sylvia Hanover blitzed Racine Bell through the far turn and seized the lead after three-quarters in 1:23.3, all while Twin B Joe Fresh spun for home poised and primed to pounce off the helmet. Dunn angled to the center of the track as McClure called on Sylvia Hanover to fight in mid-stretch, but Twin B Joe Fresh cruised by her adversary to notch a neck win – and win No. 2,000 in North America for Dunn – at the end of a 1:49.1 mile.

Sylvia Hanover settled for second with Silver Label slipping through off a pocket trip for third and Valar Dohaeris rallying for fourth.

"She's been great for us her whole life really," Dunn said. "It's been a thrill to be a part of her and she's come back great this year. Sylvia Hanover is such a hard horse to get past, and usually I couldn't last year, but [my mare] sprinted up good today."

Chris Ryder trains and co-owns Twin B Joe Fresh, a 4-year-old mare by Roll With Joe out of the Captaintreacherous mare Fresh Breeze, with partners Dunn, Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak. She has now won 23 races from 32 starts, has banked $1,673,616 and paid $2.40 to win.

Tompkins-Geers take centerstage at Woodbine Mohawk Park

The Tompkins-Geers Stakes for 2-year-old colts and geldings was the main event of Friday (June 28) evening's card at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Administrated by the Hambletonian Society, the Tompkins-Geers attracted a single division for both the pacing and trotting events.

Prince Hal Hanover rocketed home and edged a flying rival to win the $50,760 Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings in 1:52.3.

Driven by Bob McClure, Prince Hal Hanover got away fourth and watched his Dr. Ian Moore stablemate Glowing Lou cut out fractions of :27.3 and :57 before moving first-up on the far turn to get to within a couple lengths at three-quarters (1:26). Lite Up The World, who followed Prince Hal Hanover throughout, was situated second-over at three-quarters.

In the stretch, Prince Hal Hanover powerfully stormed to the lead and would kick home in :26.1, holding off a strong Lite Up The World by a head in 1:52.3.

Bitcoin Hanover was a good third, while TH Kay C Crunch got fourth.

A son of Captaintreacheraus, out of the Dr. Moore developed Percy Blue Chip, Prince Hal Hanover was making his career debut Friday off a 1:55.3 qualifying score.

"He's really gotten to be an impressive colt in recent times," said Dr. Moore. "I just love racing the babies for the first time, it's so exciting and it never gets old.

"[Prince Hal Hanover] was mediocre until maybe about two months ago. He started growing, he was a slim build and not real big, just an average size colt, but I liked him... he grew and filled out an awful lot. He got tall recently. We've let his hobbles out five inches in the last two months, that shows how much he's grown."

A $130,000 yearling purchase, Prince Hal Hanover is owned by Prince Hal Hanover Stable of Cambridge, ON.

A $2 win ticket on Prince Hal Hanover returned $3.50.

Go Ahead Makemyday showed no prisoners to win the $47,925 Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

Driven by Sylvain Filion, Go Ahead Makemyday left out strong to get early control and would carry favorite Manforce on the outside until early on the backstretch. Filion immediately removed to the lead after letting Manforce clear.

Go Ahead Makemyday set the fractions of :28.2, :59.2 and 1:29.3 before powering home in :27.3 and turning away Manforce by 2¼ lengths for the 1:57.1 score.

Galen Erso was third, while Uncensored finished fourth.

Trained by Blake MacIntosh, Go Ahead Makemyday was making his career debut after two good qualifiers, including a 2:00.2 win on June 14. Despite the nice morning efforts, the son of Walner went off at odds of 7-1.

"He's done everything right in the qualifiers and training down," said MacIntosh. "We trained him in [1]:57, so I knew he had a lot of speed and I thought he was a good price at that."

A $17,000 yearling purchase, Go Ahead Makemyday is owned by MacIntosh, Van Camp Trotting Corp., Mortgage Boys Stable and Ozzie MacKay.

Go Ahead Makemyday paid $16.10 to win.

Wicked N Single and Incantation became the first 2-year-old Grand Circuit winners of 2024 in Thursday's (June 27) Tompkins-Geers Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Administrated by the Hambletonian Society, the long-standing Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-olds was moved to Woodbine Mohawk Park for the first time this year.

Wicked N Single rallied by rivals with a :27 final-quarter to win the $46,845 Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Driven by James MacDonald, Wicked N Single took back to last in the field of six to watch how things played out. Saddlebags got to the lead ahead of Charlotte Station at a :27.3 opening-quarter. Heavy-favorite Famous Fast Words brushed to the lead from third to hit the half in :56.3 before catching a :30.2 breather.

Wicked N Single started advancing around the far turn and sat in behind Saddlebags at the head of the lane. The Tony Beaton trained Wicked N Single swung out wide and surged by all to win in 1:54.3.

Charlotte Station pushed up the rail to finish second by a length and a half. Famous Fast Words was third, while Saddlebags was fourth.

"I was waiting to sit behind her, she was exciting to qualify," said MacDonald post-race. "She's a big strong filly, perfect gait, perfect mouth just like 99 per cent of Tony [Beaton's]. I just kind of settled in and let her do her thing. I knew she was going to give me a big kick finishing."

A daughter of McWicked, Wicked N Single was making her career debut on Thursday after a pair of winning qualifiers. She quickly racks up $23,422 for owners Lisa LeFort and David Mercer.

Wicked N Single paid $9.50 to win.

Hall of Fame trainer Bob McIntosh sent out Incantation to a 1:57.3 win in the $53,123 Tompkins-Geers for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Race-favorite Monalishi made a break at the start to change outlook of the contest. The favorite's stablemate Medley Seelster trotted out to command and led through fractions of :28.4, 1:00.1 and 1:29.4.

Sitting fifth through the opening-half, Incantation got under way for driver Sylvain Filion on the far turn. The duo would force Exquisite Taste to pop the 2-hole ahead of the three-quarter pole.

In the stretch, Exquisite Taste would grab the lead briefly before making a mid-stretch break for the second consecutive start. This allowed Incantation to power by and win by 2½ lengths over Medley Seelster.

Bright Green finished third, while Sister Sara was fourth.

"It was a great effort, Sylvain [Filion] did give her a great drive," said McIntosh. "I've liked this filly all along... she's been a beautiful gaited thing since day one. We made a couple of adjustments and it seemed to pay off."

A homebred daughter of Muscle Mass, Incantation now has a win, a mark of 1:57.3 and $26,561 earned for Robert McIntosh Stables and Tyrone Valley Farm.

McIntosh noted his delight with the move of the Tompkins-Geers to Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"It's a great thing for us here in Ontario and Canada... this is perfect," McIntosh said.

Surprising the betting public, Incantation paid $37.30 to win.

Maryland, Ascendance score in Big M's Kindergarten

Maryland and Ascendance were two of the more impressive-looking – and high-priced – winners as the Kindergarten Series for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait kicked off Friday night (June 28) with six $20,000 divisions of the opening leg at The Meadowlands as every horse in the event made their respective parimutuel debuts.

The Marcus Melander-trained Maryland (a colt by Chapter Seven–Crucial) took the second of two colt and gelding trots in 1:56.4 with Dexter Dunn at the controls. The $475,000 Lexington Select Sale purchase made the lead at the quarter while parked in :30 and never relinquished the point through fractions of 1:00.2 and 1:30.2 on the way to a head win over a late-closing Mr Walner Fashion.

“He’s done everything right from the start and has been great training down,” said Melander. “Tonight, he dug in like a good horse the last eighth when [trainer Jim] Campbell’s horse [Mr Walner Fashion] came up on the outside. I couldn’t be happier with him in his first start.”

As the 3-5 favorite, Maryland paid $3.40 to win.

Hall of Fame trainer Linda Toscano looks like she has a good one in Ascendance, who overcame post 7 to win with Scott Zeron driving in 1:53 as the even-money public choice, paying $4.20 to win in the lone filly pace.

“She had pedigree [a daughter of Captaintreacherous–Higher And Higher] and size,” said Toscano of the $260,000 Lexington purchase. “[My owners] stepped up for me. She showed last week she’s as good off a helmet [when fourth in her second baby race, closing in :26.1] as on the lead. I don’t know if she was running in in the stretch, but I do think she’s really green. It’s just so new to all of them.”

Ascendance grabbed the lead at the half in :57.4 and remained on top at three-quarters in 1:26.3 before an easy jaunt through the stretch led to a 1½-length win over Shes A Streaker.

FOUR MORE: The other Kindergarten winners included Margareta Hanover (Maharajah–Hot Mess Hanover) in 1:56.1 in the lone filly trot before the betting card began, giving the team of Dunn and Melander their first of two winners on the night.

The first colt and gelding trot went to 4-5 favorite ($3.80) Hidalgo, a son of Muscle Hill–Brooklyn, for Yannick Gingras and Ron Burke in 1:56.2 while the two colt and gelding paces were taken by Papis Pistol (Papi Rob Hanover–Bang Bang), the 7-2 second choice who returned $9.20, for Brett Beckwith and Sam De Pinto in 1:53.3; and 3-2 second choice ($5.00) Namaste Hanover (Papi Rob Hanover–Naughty Marietta) for Jordan Stratton and Christopher Choate in 1:54.3.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT: The Early 20-cent Pick-5, which saw four winning favorites score at even-money or less, returned a mere $36.14, while the Late P5, which included 9-1, 15-1 and 14-1 shots, returned a whopping $5,488.16.

A LITTLE MORE: Brett Beckwith, 21, currently the second-leading dash-winning driver in North America, the red-hot Yogi Sheridan, Dunn and Dave Miller tied atop the driver-colony leaderboard with two winners each on the card. All-source handle on the 14-race program totaled $2,532,714.

Babies continue to impress at The Big M

Breakfast With The Babies came on an overcast, dry and comparatively cool morning with a helping breeze at the back of the babies through the stretch. The track, she was fast.

Don't Ask For More was a handy winner for Ake Svanstedt, inheriting the lead when Hatfield broke, easing through medium fractions then sprinting home in 27 seconds to hold off an impressive late rally from Go Boom (Dexter Dunn / Marcus Melander) to win his second try in 1:59. The winner is a son of Walner bred by Moni Maker Stable, from the family of that great mare, who sold for $240,000 (LEX) to the partnership of Svanstedt, Nils Munkhaugen and Barry Carter.

Svanstedt came right back with a Six Pack colt he owns alone named Camera Man who took over past the :31.4 quarter, set easy fractions then sprinted home in :27.3 to hold off the spirited late bid of Grande Via (Dunn / Andrew Harris) for the 1:58.2 win. Camera Man was a $16,000 (LEX) bargain, bred by Glengate Farms of Canada.

Natural hat trick time for Svanstedt driving Getastarfromthesky when he again inherited the top after a break by Sparkling Volo, eased by the half in 1:00.3, three quarters in 1:30 then tacked on a :27.3 end to the 1:57.3 mile under no urging. Mountcastle (Scott Zeron / Melander) trotted home sharply and was gaining quickly on the winner through the fast final fraction. Getastarfromthesky is a Muscle Hill homebred for Story, INC from their accomplished stakes winning Seviyorum.

Todd McCarthy and Noel Daley combined for a win with Kenny Jacobs' nice looking Bar Hopping colt, Jeffrey J. On the lead from the word go, Jeffrey J was a cool customer throughout friendly fractions of a 1:02 half then a fast :27 quarter to hold sway over pocket sitter Renewable (Sarah Svanstedt / Ake) in 1:58.4. Bred by Al Libfeld, Jeffrey J was a $175,000 Harrisburg yearling.

Race 5 was an interesting one, as several had good late trot. Get It All (Dunn / Melander) was the 1:58.1 winner with Xalapa (Tim Tetrick / Lucas Wallin) right with her for second as Conversano

(T. McCarthy) and View From Above (Ake) were also flying late through the :27.4 official last quarter. The winner, a son of Muscle Hill, sold for $250,000 (LEX) to Brixton Medical, Marvin Katz and Bud & Kelly Hatfield Stables. Katz also has a breeder credit in partnership with Al Libfeld.

Swoop won race 6 for the Tim Tetrick / Lucas Wallin combo, sitting in behind Beautiful Sight (Ake) past the 1:31.1 three quarters then sliding through on the inside as Spicy Nice (Yannick Gingras / Nancy Takter) rallied to the outside during the :27.1 end to a mile in 1:58.2. Wallin Racing, Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Harbor Racing and Van Camp Trotting Corp. The Walner filly, bred by Steve Stewart and Michael Andrew, brought a winning bid of $80,000 at Harrisburg last fall.

Jimmy Takter has been picking his spots in the baby races, driving here and there for daughter Nancy. Today, Jimmy picked Deja Blu, the Muscle Hill first foal of the great Atlanta, and sent her right to the front through 30 second splits until the last one, which was covered in a remarkable :26.3 for the 1:56.3 win. Deja Blu demonstrated some of her mom's grit, digging in through the stretch to hold off the serious close of the $535,000 Gimpanzee filly Vougish (Gingras / Harris). The winner is co-owned by Al and Michelle Crawford as Crawford Farms Racing in partnership with Tom Pontone. The breeders are Crawford Farms Racing, along with Brad Grant and Howard Taylor.

Caviart Adele (Gingras / Takter) converted a 2-hole ride into an unhurried 1:59.1 / :27.1 victory this morning. Steppin Tall (Tetrick / Jim Campbell) was a closing second in her first foray and Hangover had some good late trot for Sarah Svanstedt. Crawford Farms gets another breeding credit here on the $260,000 (LEX) Chapter Seven filly and owns her in partnership with Caviart Farms.

The great pacing mare Pure Country has produced a sharp looking colt named Fusion, the result of a mating with Always B Miki. Making his first start today, Fusion gave a glimpse of prodigious talent with a furious wide burst through a :25.4 final panel of the 1:58.3 mile to zoom by Furnaux (Pat and Chris Ryder) for the win. Breeder Diamond Creek Farm kept the colt and entrusted his care to Nancy Takter. Yannick Gingras drove the winner.

Anibal Borjas drove Knockout Round to a 1:55.3 / :26.3 win for trainer Tony Alagna. The quarter leader, Borjas turned American Son (Dunn / Ryder) loose to set middle fractions then popped out when they straightened up for home and was going by late when that rival broke on the wire. The winner is a son of Sweet Lou, bred by Farhi Standardbreds and sold in Lexington to Micki Rae Stables and Tim Twaddle for $95,000.

Chief Bogo (Zeron / Per Engblom) was an off-the-pace 1:56 / :27 winner, pouncing on a dead game Floor It Freddie (Stacy Chiodo) to put his head up on the wire. Bogo Stable paid $45,000 (HBG) for the winner, a son of Always B Miki, from breeder Princeton Farms, INC.

Fallout (Tetrick / Alagna) was an impressive 1:54.1 home in :27 flat winner over stablemate Quote Me Not N (T. McCarthy) who was going forward at the end. A Brittany bred, the son of Captaintreacherous was a $250,000 (LEX) buy for Rob Leblanc, Pryde Stables, INC and Caviart Farms.

Takter and Gingras struck again with the Sweet Lou filly My Sweet Lily from just off the pace to win in 1:56.4, home in :26.1 to hold off the close of Treacheryinthedark (Dunn / Harris) and Caviart Rose (T. McCarthy / Alagna). Bred by Burke Stable, Weaver Brussemi, et al, My Sweet Lily was bought by Marvin & Lynn Katz along with Caviart Farms for $130,000 at the Harrisburg sale.

Flossy Hill (Dunn / Ryder) lived up to advance billing as the blue-bred daughter of Tall Dark Stranger and the wonderful stakes winning Party Girl Hill who was raced by all of the same connections including breeder / owner Tom Hill. Held off the early pace by Dunn, the filly followed up on the leaders on the final bend and went by on her own through a :26.2 end to the 1:55.3 mile in her Meadowlands debut. Millie May Hanover (Tetrick / Harris) followed the winner and was pacing forward late for second.

Lily White Hanover (T. McCarthy / Harris) ended the day's 2-year-old races on a winning note for owners Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman and trainer Harris when she came home :26.2 to finish the 1:55.1 mile over the late rally of Caviart Delight (Andy McCarthy / Alagna). The Hanover bred Captaintreacherous filly was a $350,000 Harrisburg buy.

Rookies roll at Gaitway qualifiers

Female pacer Point Breeze was the day's fastest 2-year-old winner at Gaitway Farm's qualifiers on Thursday (June 27), stopping the timer in 1:56.3 for driver David Miller and trainer Joe Holloway.

The daughter of Sweet Lou—Lovely Laura is from the family of past Holloway stars She's A Great Lady and Lady MacBeach and was purchased for $135,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale. The filly, who was fourth in 1:55.1 last week, is owned by Val D'Or Farms and L&L Devisser. She was bred by Wayne Miller.

Driver Joe Bongiorno and trainer Jennifer Bongiorno teamed for three wins in the eight races for the rookies. They won with male pacers Victory Joe and Steamboat Springs as well as with female trotter She's A Con.

Victory Joe won in 1:57.2 a week after finishing fourth in 1:58.1. The son of Roll With Joe—Flibbertigibbet was purchased for $25,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Robert Weinstein. He was bred by Winbak Farm.

Steamboat Springs, from the family of millionaire Hypnotic Blue Chip, won in 1:58.1 in his debut. The son of Sweet Lou—Hedgie Blue Chip was purchased for $135,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Jennifer Bongiorno Stable, Barbara Urciuoli & Frank, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, and Scott Rau. He was bred by Vieux Carre Farms.

She's A Con, a daughter of Cantab Hall—Jesse's Con who made a break while on the lead last week, won in 2:02. She is owned by breeder Lee Sitto. Her family includes Grand Circuit winner Phaetosive as well as Dan Patch Award-winner Broadway Hall.

Bongiorno also drove female pacer Beach Babe to victory for trainer Ron Burke.

Beach Babe, qualifying for the third time, won in 1:57. She was purchased for $85,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, Bill Donovan, and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby. The daughter of Cattlewash—Backstreet Sweetie was bred by Karen Carroll. The filly is a half-sister to millionaire Backstreet Shadow.

Driver Andy Miller and trainer Julie Miller had two victories with the 2-year-olds, winning with male trotters Century Love and Brulee.

Century Love won in 1:59.3 in his qualifying debut. The son of Love You—Century Empress was purchased for $85,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Patrick Hoopes. He was bred by Robert Miller. His family includes Grand Circuit winners Celebrity Sweedie and Celebrity Speedie, as well as Jolene Jolene, the dam of Dan Patch Award-winner Venerable.

Brulee, a son of Walner—Biscotti, won in 2:01 in his debut mile. The colt was purchased for $280,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and is owned by Andy Miller Stable, Patrick Hoopes, and Plouffe Racing. He was bred by Brittany Farms and his two siblings are Grand Circuit winners Pizzelle and Espresso.

Completing the list of 2-year-old winners was female trotter Halfadozen, a daughter of Six Pack—Tactical Caviar, who won in 2:02.2 for driver Dan Dube and trainer Pierre Paradis. The filly was purchased for $20,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sale and is owned by Dube and Jean Dessureault. She was bred by Sherri Meirs and W. Boyd Henderson. Her family includes Grand Circuit winners Triumphant Caviar, Prayer Session, and Centurion ATM. It also includes 2-year-old filly Baffle, who won a qualifier last week at Gaitway in 2:00.2 for Trond Smedshammer.
