SHORT PAYOUT in Yonkers EXACTA demands transparency

How did a $2 exacta topped by an 80-1 shot pay a paltry $93?

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Last month marked the 60th anniversary of the infamous 1962 riot at Yonkers Raceway when fans stormed the track and caused destruction following the sharp late drop in odds of a longshot winner. If not for attendance today being virtual — as well as overall apathy — a similar scene could have taken place at the track last Friday (June 24).

In the first race of the night, the winner of the race at odds at just shy of 80-1 paid $161.50 to win, and the second-place finisher paid $5.50 to place at odds of 6-1. The $2 exacta paid a paltry $93.

What makes the matter even more interesting is that in the seconds leading up to the starting car letting the horses go, the exacta will-pay graphics on the bottom of the live video feed showed the eventual winning 8-horse and 1-horse combination paying the more realistic amount of $492. Between that time and the final odds, the winning payout was reduced by over 81 per cent.

If it's to be assumed that nothing out of standard operating procedure occurred, the most assumed reason was the result of "bell bettors." Meaning, a bettor, or group of bettors, saw that the 8-horse was leaving and hammered the 8-horse in exactas at the last possible second.

That very well could be the case, but I have a hard time blindly accepting that as fact. Here's some other data to consider:

In the same screengrab seconds before the race that showed the winning exacta combination paying $492, it showed the odds of the 8-horse at 47-1. If there was a sense that the 8-horse was leaving, why wasn't it reflected in the win pool? Instead, his odds did the opposite as it did in the exacta and drifted up to 75-1 as is typically the case in a post-8 longshot.

Where I think it gets even murkier is when looking at the overall exacta pool picture. At the time the 8-1 combination was paying $492, the combination with 8 and the heavy favorite (3) was paying $171. Following the race, those will-pays were reversed. 8-1 became the shortest payout at $93, while 8-3 would have paid $134. The 3-horse went off at odds of 1-5 and broke, but he didn't break until after the start of the race, nearing the first turn. In fact, he was very much up on the gate at the start of the race. It's not like an instance where the heavy favorite breaks miles before the start and then you do see late odds-changes as there is time to react; that wasn't the case in this race.

So, it seems odd that all that extra attention would have gone to the 1 as opposed to the odds-on 3. And no other horses saw conflicting changes between their final second exacta will-pays and final actual will-pays, so that would rule out a boxing of additional horses included with the 8.

When the 3-horse broke into the first turn, the 8 and 1 then settled 1-2, and that's the way they went all around.

Could overwhelming mysterious wagers have come in at the last second for any reason on a 75-1 and 6-1 combination? Sure, I suppose. That's what you'll be told anyway in nearly any instance of last second odds changes.

I hate to derail this column into a conspiracy theory but let me float this:

As an alternative to explain the 81 per cent drop in odds involving a winning 75-1 longshot, is it possible that wagering was somehow still allowed for a few seconds after the start of the race?

In race 4 of July 6 from last year, Yonkers had to declare a race a no-contest due to a tote malfunction in which wagering did not stop when it was supposed to. In fairness to Yonkers and even more alarming, this has occurred over the past year at other tracks, too. I wrote in a column at that time that every race replay shows the start of the race through the end of the race, but in that instance, the replay only showed the closing stages. Because of that, it was impossible to see the beginning odds, and thus independently determine how odds may have changed during the race as part of the tote malfunction. I just went back to revisit that race and now the replay for that race isn't available at all.

Of course, the real question is, why is there even a need to speculate at all? The track, the judges, the New York State Gaming Commission, all have access to detailed account wagering history for the race. Provided that unusual – albeit allowed – wagers came in at the last second, why not release the relevant information to the public? What's the big deal in doing so? I guess if it's assumed that people will continue to bet no matter what, then what's the need for transparency.

Not to conflate issues, but the other question is even if all that transpired is within the rules – which I'll go on record as being dubious of – should "bell betting" even be allowed as a practice? Not all video feeds are up to the second live; most operate on some form of a few-seconds delay which make it impossible for those with a non-live feeds to participate in that "gate-punching" practice if they wanted to.

Bettors accept when they make a wager that it is pari-mutuel after all, and there will be some odds fluctuation between the price made at time of wager and final price. And good bettors have an idea in mind as to what that final price will be. But no one in their right mind would foresee a $93 payout for an 80-1 and 6-1 exacta combination.

This could all be eliminated if wagering was stopped once the starter takes control of the horses. But that likely won't happen. And unfortunately, it's not much more likely that we'll ever know conclusively what happened in last Friday's first race.

with BOB HEYDEN

The colorful and storied history of the Yonkers Trot

by Bob Heyden

Windsongs Legacy, the 2004 Yonkers Trot winner and Triple Crown champ, may have left his biggest mark on this year's Yonkers Trot. Windsongs Legacy died in 2008 at the age of 7, but not before siring Chapter Seven, the 2012 Horse of the Year. This year's Yonkers Trot field features Chapter Seven offspring in each of the three outside posts. Two others in the field are grandsons of Windsongs Legacy, courtesy of being sired by Walner, a son of Chapter Seven.

TAKTER POWER

Jimmy Takter is the only trainer to win the Yonkers Trot 3 straight years (2009-2011). Judge Joe got it going in 2009 in the $670,779 edition, which was Takter's debut in the race. The trainer won it in 2010 with On The Tab and in 2011 with Leader Of The Gang. Takter then won it again in 2014 with Nuncio and (sort of) took down the Trotting Triple Crown of Trotting that year with two different colts. Nuncio also won the Kentucky Futurity and Trixton won the Hambletonian.

DISTANCE ISSUES

The first eight Yonkers Trots were at a 1 and one 1/16 miles. The 2004 edition was held at Hawthorne and the 2005 at Freehold while the Yonkers slots renovation was still ongoing. Oddly, the two times Trond Smedshammer won it were away from Yonkers Raceway — in 2004 with Windsongs Legacy and in 2005 with Strong Yankee.

RUNNER-UP REVENGE

It happened twice in a row in 1971 and 1972 when the Yonkers Trot runner-up went on to win the Horse of the Year title in another season. Savoir was the '71 Yonkers Trot runner-up and '75 HOY. Delmonica Hanover was second in the Trot in 1972 and was voted HOY in 1974.

DOUBLING UP (OR EVEN MORE)

Four times a trainer has won the Yonkers Trot back to back. Ake Svanstedt (Johan De Palema in 2021) looks to be #5 in 2022 with Justice. Jan Nordin did it in 1984-1985 for his father Soren (we counted this as a Nordin double), Jimmy Takter won three straight in 2009-2011, the Dancers did it three straight with Vernon going first in 1970 then Stanley back to back. Billy Haughton also did so in 1976-1977 when his Steve Lobell and Green Speed turned the trick.

FAMILY BOOKEND

The 1990 Yonkers Trot was won by Carl Allen and Royal Troubador. The 1999 Yonkers Trot was won by his son, Rod Allen with C R Renegade.

Rod also drove C R Kay Suzie in 1995. She was the first female to win the Yonkers Trot.

MACK ATTACK

After a brilliant 2-year-old season, where he raced 20 times, Mack Lobell got a long rest and came back in mid-season form debuting as a sophomore in 1987 and winning the Yonkers Trot by 3 3/4 lengths over a colt named Sir Taurus that Bill O'Donnell drove for Jimmy Takter.

The time of 1:57.4 was a track record. It also equaled the world mark, but was a little shy of the sophomore half-mile record of 1:57 flat from Armbro Devona, who, like Mack Lobell, was also a Chuck Sylvester trainee.

WHAT WERE YOU DOING THE DAY YOU TURNED 30?

Marcus Melander (born July 1, 1992) hopes he is winning the Yonkers Trot.

Melander is looking for a double in the Yonkers Trot. He won it in 2019 with Gimpanzee.

This year, he hopes to be the third trainer to capture the Yonkers Trot with a filly: Joviality S.

Melander was only 27 when he did something that might not be repeated in the next century. He got three checks in a single Hambletonian without winning it. That came in 2019 when Greenshoe was second, Gimpanzee was third and Green Manalishi was fifth. Melander is also the only trainer under 30 to ever get money in four consecutive Hambletonians (2017-2020).

THE CATMAN

Cat Manzi turned 72 on June 27. He will likely be watching the Yonkers Trot with fondness, maybe with a sprinkle of reminiscing thrown in. He won the Yonkers Trot three times – 1994 Bullville Victory; 2004 Sugar Trader for John Brennan (who was born one day before from Manzi in 1950) and then Green Day in 2007. With over 95,000 career drives (the most ever), it is almost a certainty that The Catman would include these moments at or near the very top.

TRIPLE CROWN FACT

Never has a Triple Crown winner – trotter or pacer – sired a Triple Crown winner.

Meadow Skipper did not win the Triple Crown in 1963. He won the Cane Pace and was second in both the Messenger and the Jug. Yet, not a single Pacing Triple Crown winner since 1970, when his first crop appeared at 3, has won a Triple Crown without tracing directly back to Meadow Skipper.

THIRTY YEARS SINCE YONKERS TROT DEAD HEAT

On July 11, 1992, McCluckey and Magic Lobell dead-heated in the Yonkers Trot.

Joe Holloway and Per Henriksen trained – Mike Lachance and Lorenzo Baldi drove.

Over 20 minutes, five prints were needed to determine it was a dead heat.

This came three years after the 1989 Hambletonian dead heat when Probe and Park Avenue Joe tied on the wire.

Lachance is the only driver to have driven in both races. He drove Bon Vivant, who was fourth in the 1989 Hambletonian.

SKIPPED A YEAR

Neither the Yonkers Trot nor the Messenger Stakes were held in 2020 due to COVID-19.

Messenger memories

The Messenger Stakes is the most nomadic of any Triple Crown race. From 1987 to 2004 it was held at six different tracks:

1987 Roosevelt

1988 Yonkers

1989 Freestate

1990-1994 Rosecroft

1995-2003 The Meadows

2004 Harrington

EIGHT IS ENOUGH

John Campbell and Billy Haughton each took home eight Messengers – Haughton won his between 1956 and 1976. Campbell won his between 1986 and 2004.

HUGH WAS HUGE

Owner Hugh Grant took three of the first five Messenger editions:

1957 Meadow Lands

1958 O'Brien Hanover

1960 Countess Adios (who is the only female to win both the Messenger and the Cane Pace)

Elimination winners look to overcome outside posts in MGM Yonkers Trot

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

If either of last week's MGM Yonkers Trot elimination winners, the filly Joviality S or the colt Justice, is going to capture tonight's $280,904 final at Yonkers Raceway, they will have to overcome not only their rivals, but difficult starting spots.

Joviality S will leave from post seven while Justice starts from the outermost position on the gate, post eight. Horses starting from those spots at Yonkers have won 5.6 per cent and 6.2 per cent of the races there, respectively, the lowest percentages at the half-mile track. Post six is next at 8.2 per cent while the remaining five all hit for at least 13.9 per cent or better.

Despite the draw, Joviality S is the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the field of eight 3-year-old trotters. The filly, undefeated in four races this season for owner Courant Inc., trainer Marcus Melander, and driver Brian Sears, is attempting to become the first female to win the Yonkers Trot since Continental victory in 1996.

The Yonkers Trot is the first jewel in this year's Trotting Triple Crown, followed by the Hambletonian on Aug. 6 at the Meadowlands and Kentucky Futurity on Oct. 9 at the Red Mile.

"(Joviality S) can leave the gate so fast, she can handle it, but obviously I would have wished for a better post; at least the four or five hole," Melander said. "I think the elimination winners should draw at least one through five or one through six. Personally, I think it's good when the winners pick their spot, or like in Sweden where first the winner picks, then the horse that was second, then number three (and so on).

"Hopefully, we can get it done anyway. I'm confident in the horse going into the race."

Joviality S, a daughter of Chapter Seven—Pasithea Face S, has won stakes races from outside starting spots in the past. Last year, she won the New York Sire Stakes championship from post eight at Yonkers and the Breeders Crown from post 10 at The Meadowlands.

For her career, Joviality S has 13 wins and two seconds in 16 races, with earnings of $1.06 million. Her victories this year include the Empire Breeders Classic for 3-year-old filly trotters in a lifetime-best 1:51 at Vernon Downs. She won her Yonkers Trot elimination by 1-1/4 lengths over Pour Mea Double in 1:54.

"Brian wanted to take it a little bit easier on her since she had gone two (1):51 miles at Vernon in her last two starts," Melander said. "It was a good first half in :58.2 and then she could sprint home. Brian asked her a little bit at the top of the stretch, and she took off. He was very happy with her. It was good."

Justice won his Yonkers Trot elimination by 1-1/4 lengths over Double Deceiver in 1:54.1. He is 5-1 on the morning line, with trainer Ake Svanstedt handling the driving. The son of Chapter Seven—Religulous has six wins and a second in eight lifetime starts for owners Ake Svanstedt Inc., Little E LLC, Torbjorn Swahn Inc., and Myfab Inc. He won the Empire Breeders Classic for 3-year-old male trotters at Vernon.

"He's a good horse with a good attitude," Svanstedt said. "The draw was bad, but that's how it is. He can leave fast. For the only chance to finish in the front, I must leave fast with him. That's no question, it's just to go. He raced good (in his elimination) but now there is Joviality. If he can be at least second, I'm happy."

Double Deceiver, a Kentucky Sire Stakes champ last year, is the 9-2 second choice in the Yonkers Trot. David Miller will drive the gelding for trainer Carter Pinske. Pour Mea Double, with Dexter Dunn driving for trainer Lucas Wallin, joins Justice at 5-1.

"He raced super good in the elimination," Wallin said about Pour Mea Double. "I was very happy with his performance. He is maybe not the best leaver, but he has such a good attitude and if he gets the right trip he can really kick in and have a good last sprint. That's what I like most about him. He finishes the miles good all the time."

Svanstedt and Melander also will send out top contenders in tonight's $126,165 New York New York Mile, which is solely for 3-year-old filly trotters, at Yonkers. Svanstedt-trained Jiggy Jog S is the 5-2 morning-line favorite while Melander-trained Peyton Hanover is the 3-1 second choice.

Jiggy Jog S, the runner-up in this year's New Jersey Sire Stakes championship and a Grand Circuit winner at age 2, starts from post six with Dexter Dunn in the sulky. She has hit the board in 11 of 14 career races, winning three, and earned $285,974 for owner Jorgen Sparredal Inc.

"She has a good chance to win this race, I hope," Svanstedt said about the daughter of Walner—Hot Mess Hanover. "She trained good, and she has raced good every race this year. I like everything about her. She is a good horse. She has a high capacity and never breaks; she's a very nice-gaited horse."

Svanstedt also has Lady Suffolk Stakes winner Little Pink Lies in the race and will drive that filly himself from post five. The daughter of Chapter Seven-To The Question is owned by Ake Svanstedt Inc., Triple Play Trotters, and Tomas Andersson. She is 7-1.

"She's not a big, strong horse, but she has a very good attitude and always does her best," Svanstedt said. "A good attitude means a lot. And she handles the turns good on the short tracks; she's a very good small-track horse. She takes the turns perfect."

Peyton Hanover, who was a Grand Circuit winner last season and enters the New York New York Mile off a 1:52 victory in a conditioned race at The Meadowlands, is 3-1 with Tim Tetrick driving from post eight. The filly is owned by Jeff Snyder and Four Friends Racing.

Melander's other starter, 20-1 longshot Quick Bet, will leave from post seven with Mattias Melander driving for owner S R F Stable.

"We were very unlucky with the draw," Melander said. "It just stinks that Peyton got the eight hole because she's in really good shape now. Peyton is very good off a helmet, she can chase them down, but from the eight hole it's so tough. She's not a horse that will blast out of the gate."

"Quick Bet is a very fast filly, but there are a couple in there that I think are better than her. If she would have drawn (post) one through five, she can leave fast and she's very good off a helmet. But from the seven hole, it will be tough for her."

Tonight's card at Yonkers, which begins at 6:55 p.m. (EDT), also includes the finals of the $261,730 MGM Grand Messenger Stakes for 3-year-old male pacers and the $104,790 Park MGM Filly Pace, also for 3-year-olds. For complete entries, click here.

Rip Wheeler as imposing as his Yellowstone namesake, but not the least bit ornery

by James Platz

There are certain expectations that come with naming a horse after a famous personality or character. One might think that the Indiana-sired sophomore Rip Wheeler is as tough and ornery as his namesake, the farmhand played by Cole Hauser in Paramount's hit series Yellowstone. At 16.2 hands in height, the gelding has the size to be physically imposing, but breeder and co-owner Jeff Fought admits his personality departs from the well-known character.

"I'll say he fits that part because he's large. Physically, he's got the Rip Wheeler look," Fought said. "Other than that, he's nothing like Rip. This might be the sweetest colt I've ever owned. He's just like a big, gentle giant. He's a pet."

The Rockin Image 3-year-old is quickly making an impression at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino. Last week, he narrowly won his Hoosier Cup elimination for trainer Walter Haynes Jr. Tonight he will attempt to outduel a competitive group in the $70,000 Hoosier Cup final, drawing post two.

"I think that group is ultra-competitive. These colts that are in the sires stakes and this Hoosier Cup race, there are easily five of them that can step up and win at any time. So far, it seems like an evenly matched group," said Fought.

Out of Somebeachsomewhere mare Novascotia Hanover, the young pacer foaled in April 2019 at Fought's Cornerstone Stock Farm in Shipshewana, IN. His half-brother, a Pet Rock colt, possessed a smaller stature. Rip, by comparison, was much larger.

"I purchased her from Joe Bellino when he dispersed all of his mares. That was probably one of the very best mares that I owned. She was in foal to Pet Rock, and that resulting foal was what I would call a peanut. He was just a little guy," Fought said. "Rip is the only foal that I had out of that mare that I raised. They couldn't be two different individuals. The cross just worked its magic on this one. He was a big boy from the time he was born."

Shortly after the colt's foaling, Fought settled on a name.

"I just love the Yellowstone show. Obviously, Rip's a great character in there. This is just a big bruiser of a colt," he said.

Dean Gillette

"When he was born I put the name choice in as soon as I could because that show was really getting popular at that time. I was a little surprised I was able to get it."

By November, Fought dissolved Cornerstone Stock Farm via dispersal at the Midwest Mixed Sale. He kept four Indiana-sired weanlings, however, Rip Wheeler being one of them. Shane Bowermaster broke and trained the baby in Florida before shipping him back to race last summer. Missy Essig conditioned the gelding in Indiana that first season, and Rip Wheeler managed two starts. In his debut he kicked home in :26.2 to finish fourth. The next time out he raced third, registering a 1:54 mile for driver Matt Krueger.

"He did everything right and we loved him. He started to get a little bit sore, and I would say probably just colt soreness," Fought said. "I had no aspirations on trying to push that colt. I thought he would be a better three year old anyway. We made the decision to quit with him. We just got him a little bit of experience and he showed the ability we thought he had, so we decided to hang it up for the year."

Owned in partnership with Fought and his father, Dave, Rip Wheeler has made a strong showing in 2022 as part of the Haynes Stable. In nine seasonal starts, the sophomore has yet to finish off the board, picking up four wins and banking $51,880. After winning the $22,000 Hal Dale final in May, the pacer got his first taste of Indiana Sires Stakes action on Memorial Day. Steered by Brandon Bates, Rip finished four lengths behind JK Victory in a leg one division, pacing the mile in 1:50. In the second leg he was third behind JK Victory and Ponda Warrior.

"Indiana Sires Stakes are about as tough as it gets," the owner said. "There are four or five, depending on the trip, that can win any sires stakes race we're in. A lot of it just comes down to the draw and the trip."

In the second of two Hoosier Cup eliminations held Friday, June 24, Rip Wheeler and Bates raced fourth through a :55.2 opening half. Tipping first up on the backside, the gelding advanced on leader Big Law and grabbed the lead near the top of the stretch. The second choice was able to outlast the Erv Miller-trained The Longest Yard by a head at the wire in 1:50.1. Rip has drawn post two in Friday's final and is the 5-1 fourth choice on the morning line behind favorite and elimination winner Ponda Warrior (Post 1, 3-1), elim runner-up JK Victory (Post 5, 7-2) and Sure Thing Herman (Post 3, 9-2).

The Hoosier Cup was not originally part of Rip Wheeler's schedule. The event, for Indiana-sired 3-year-olds, does not require nominations, but instead a $750 entrance fee. Instead of staking in the winter and hoping a horse is ready in time, connections can make a quick decision and pay the fee. Haynes and the Foughts stand to capitalize on their entry being sharp at the right time if everything falls into place.

"We weren't planning on racing him many back-to-back starts because he's still a green colt. But the Hoosier Cup came along. It popped up and he's pretty sharp right now. Walter and I talked and we decided to race him," Fought said. "It's nice because in this situation, you have a lot more time to gauge how a horse is in the moment. With sires stakes legs, obviously you know exactly when they are and it's all planned out. The colt hasn't raced that hard and he really seems to be sharp right now. The situation really suits a colt like we have."

Fought did not stake Rip Wheeler outside the state. He did make the gelding eligible to the open stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park in the fall, giving his homebred a chance at several big opportunities before season's end.

"He's green and it's a situation where there is so much money to make late in the year. You just see some of these that were managed carefully step up late in the year. I've always liked that philosophy," he said.

Fought offered that Rip Wheeler "gets a lot of people talking about him strictly because of the name." If the sophomore continues to hold his own in this deep group of Indiana-sired pacing colts, he'll give racing fans more to talk about than just his name. Nothing would make his breeder happier.

"It's rewarding. Even though I don't miss the stress of having mares and babies, there, for me, is no replacement for having one that you bred and raised win," he said. "They have more meaning. There's just no way around it."

HARNESS RACING

Second Hawthorne standardbred meet of 2022 underway

by Neil Milbert

With two very successful weekends of non-betting racing at the State Fairgrounds in Springfield serving as a springboard, the Illinois standardbred community had high hopes going into Thursday's start of the last of two 2022 meetings at Hawthorne Race Course.

As a consequence of the decision by corporate owner Churchill Downs, Inc. to reject casino gambling and terminate racing at one of North America's premier thoroughbred tracks, Arlington International Racecourse, to eliminate competition for a nearby casino it co-owns, Hawthorne is the only racetrack in the Chicago metropolitan area.

The track has entered into a time-share arrangement with the Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association (IHHA) and the Illinois Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (ITHA) in an attempt to keep both sports viable.

The harness horses began the unprecedented year by racing from Jan. 7-March 20 after which the thoroughbreds took the reins for a meeting that began April 2 and ended last Saturday.

Now, it's the standardbred's turn and the meeting that began on Thursday will continue through Sept. 11. Thoroughbred racing will resume on Sept. 22 and run through Dec. 31.

Following the cessation of racing at Balmoral Park and Maywood Park in 2015, from 2016 through 2021 Hawthorne held a harness meeting that extended from May into early September, dates that coincided with those of the thoroughbreds at Arlington.

"It's so much different than anything we've ever had to deal with in Illinois," said driver Casey Leonard, whose string of six consecutive Hawthorne titles ended when he finished second to Kyle Wilfong at the year's first meeting.

To compensate for the lost harness racing opportunities, the IHHA, Hawthorne and the Illinois Department of Agriculture reached an agreement to bookend the second standardbred meeting with non-betting racing 175 miles to the south at the Springfield State Fairgrounds on June 17, 18, 24 and 25, Sept. 16, 17, 23, 24 and 30 and Oct. 1.

Hawthorne funded the purses for the 10 races on June 17, the 11 on June 18, the 22 on June 24 and the 21 on June 25.

A total of 285 horses raced during the four days and 29 trainers were represented.

"It was very encouraging," IHHA executive director Tony Somone said. "It looks like there are plenty of horses. Hawthorne understood it was important to get these races in and we were going for decent purses.

"Maybe we'll have full fields throughout the meeting."

This would be a contrast to the just-completed thoroughbred increment during which in mid-May the number of scheduled weekly programs was reduced from three to two while the number of races per program was increased from eight to 10.

"There was sort of a compromise with Hawthorne and going from 24 races a week to 20 helped to increase the size of the fields significantly," according to ITHA executive director Dave McCaffrey.

The harness schedule calls for cards Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week followed by Friday, Saturday and Sunday racing through August and then Thursday through Sunday racing during the final two weeks of the meeting.

Race secretary Robin Schadt carded nine races for Thursday, 11 for tonight (July 1) 12 for Saturday, and full fields were the norm.

The main event on the state's harness racing calendar – the Night of Champions, which consists of 11 championship races for Illinois-bred pacers and trotters with a total pot in excess of $1 million – will be held on Saturday, Sept. 10.

Thursday's card (results unavailable for this story before press time) showcased three 2021 Night of Champions winners: Lousdobb in the $44,100 Cardinal Trot for 3-year-old colts and geldings; Fox Valley Ozzy in the $46,700 Cardinal Pace for 3-year-old males; and Funky Wiggle in the $23,500 first of two divisions of the Violet Trot for 3-year-old fillies.

Last fall Lousdobb won the $114,000 Kadabra for trainer Steve Searle and Fox Valley Ozzy was victorious in the $138,000 Incredible Finale for trainer Gary Rath. Leonard drove both horses and he was back in the sulky on Thursday.

“There was sort of a compromise with Hawthorne and going from 24 races a week to 20 helped to increase the size of the fields significantly,” according to ITHA executive director Dave McCaffrey.

Funky Wiggle's collaborators in $120,500 Robert S. Molaro Memorial on the Night of Champions, trainer Curt Grummel and driver Wilfong, teamed up again on Thursday as she set out in quest of her seventh victory in her last eight starts dating back to last August at Hawthorne, Du Quoin and Springfield. In her lone loss she was second.

During the two past two weekends, the 7-year-old gelding Fox Valley Gemini flashed the form that enabled him to win his Night of Champions races for five straight years. He won his Springfield races for driver Casey Leonard and his trainer father Terry Leonard by landslide margins of 10  $\frac{1}{4}$  and 7  $\frac{3}{4}$ -lengths.

The Leonards and Wilfong all made strong showings during the two weekends at Springfield but they had to yield the spotlight to trainer Erv Miller and his driver son-in-law Atlee Bender. Bender's 14 winners made him the leading driver and Miller's seven were the best showing by a trainer.

In Somone's educated opinion, "Atlee is a very, very capable driver. He's absolutely an up-and-comer."

Casey Leonard's 13 winners were the second most for a driver and Terry, who took his fourth trainer title in five years at the earlier Hawthorne meeting, was the second most successful trainer with five winners.

One of the highlights of the Springfield mini-meeting was the renewal of the Juneteenth Celebration race inaugurated last year at Hawthorne to pay tribute to the contributions made by black drivers. This year's invitational was won by Rock Steady Ron, a 7-year-old gelding driven by his trainer and co-owner Jamaica Patton.

Heavy Pressure, who had Archie Bufford at the reins for trainer Roshun Trigg and owner Latoya Hulitt, came in second and Rollin Coal, a mare driven by owner-trainer Hosea Williams, was third.

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

Breakfast with Alagna

by Debbie Little

The “Alagna Armada” was locked and loaded for “Breakfast With The Babies” on Saturday, June 25 at The Meadowlands.

Trainer Tony Alagna’s pupils participated in 12 of the 14 baby races, but with 24 competing, how did Alagna get not one, but two, races off?

“They wanted me to get something to drink and stay hydrated,” said Alagna with a laugh.

Anyone who’s followed these freshmen events this month, knows that Alagna has averaged 22 starters during the three weeks he’s competed, so this is nothing new to the staff of 18 he had with him that day.

“My crew is very efficient,” said Alagna. “They get it done. A couple of weeks ago we brought 31 up here and it went without a hitch.”

In addition to 23 babies, on June 11, Alagna’s well-oiled machine also had eight horses competing in four races for 3-year-olds and up.

Last Saturday, more than a third of Alagna’s 65 babies were on display, and even though education is more important than winning, some happily did both that morning.

“We’re just trying to see where they’re at fitness-wise, manner-wise and everything else,” said Alagna. “We’re not out to win baby races just to say we won it, so as long as the horse performs, that’s what we’re looking for.”

In more than half the races, Alagna had multiple starters, which, although not being a perfect scenario, was a better choice than racing elsewhere.

“I’m a big believer in going where your competition’s going to be instead of avoiding it, so these are the kind of horses we’re going to be racing against at The Meadowlands,” said Alagna.

“I’m a big believer in going where your competition’s going to be instead of avoiding it, so these are the kind of horses we’re going to be racing against at The Meadowlands,” said Alagna. “It’s still the premier track, it’s a mile, all the top drivers are here, so I put them right in where they’re going to be racing and where their competition is going to be at. I don’t want to go duck competition going somewhere else to feel like I have something that’s not what it really is.”

"It's still the premier track, it's a mile, all the top drivers are here, so I put them right in where they're going to be racing and where their competition is going to be at. I don't want to go duck competition going somewhere else to feel like I have something that's not what it really is."

Racing so many requires a lot of planning because no matter what you do, one go-to driver can still only drive one horse.

"In one race, Andy [McCarthy] had a bunch and they were all mine, so I put Dexter [Dunn] and Todd [McCarthy] down because I use them quite a bit as well," said Alagna.

However, Alagna will use other drivers, especially if he has a horse that he thinks specifically fits someone. There was such a situation when he put Scott Zeron down on 2-year-old pacing filly Bankers Luck.

"And he's done a great job with her," said Alagna. "She's two-for-two in baby races."

In 39 babies races this season, Alagna has won 17 times, including a few that were featured on "What's Otten Spottin'?" a new segment this year hosted by Meadowlands' social media supervisor, marketing coordinator and TV talent, Jessica Otten.

"I look for something that catches my eye," said Otten. "If they come good back halves or good last quarters. Famous siblings, big prices, first crops. Anything to make it interesting."

Three of the four winners showcased by Otten last week were Alagna trainees, including the aforementioned Bankers Luck.

As nice as it is to win and do so in a good time, it's not what's most important in a baby race to Alagna.

"I've had fillies come up here and the first week they went in 2:02 and I was tickled to death, even though we trained them much faster than that at home," said Alagna. "It's all about manning. Getting behind the gate. It's a whole different adrenaline rush for them coming up here."

Alagna wasn't the only one enjoying their Saturday morning at The Meadowlands.

Patrick Ryder was in colors and ready to drive just in case his dad, trainer Chris Ryder, needed him to go with anything.

Patrick, 27, was obviously still elated from finishing third at The Meadowlands the night before with Lisa Lane, a 2-year-old pacing filly trained by his dad, that they co-own.

It was Patrick's first official drive at The Meadowlands, even though he had driven his filly twice in baby races.

"She always felt good in the baby races and she never really opened up," said Patrick. "Racing her last night, she opened up and gave us even more than we expected. She had the nine-hole so we were thrilled with [finishing third]."

Trainer Linda Toscano had several owners on hand in the paddock watching and dreaming

Alan and Ronald Katz of the 3 Brothers Stable were there to watch their 2-year-old pacing colt Tickertape Hanover.

"We enjoy the babies," said Alan. "The excitement. Dreaming. He did good two weeks ago so we're hopeful."

The son of Huntsville finished third that day.

"The dream starts when the purchase is made," said Fred Wallace, co-owner of 2-year-old pacing filly Cultured, who was racing that day.

"Her qualifier last week was unbelievable," said Harvey Nagler, who co-owns the filly with Wallace.

"I thought, let me see for myself," said Wallace, who drove over from Manhattan.

The partners' presence was rewarded as the daughter of Captaintreacherous won her second straight baby race.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Hands-on approach has served Bobbie Jo Brewer well

by Chris Lomon

When it comes to working with pacers and trotters, Bobbie Jo Brewer is all about the one-on-one approach.

Regardless of the hours it takes, the horsewoman from Ohio has all the time in the world to dedicate to each horse that comes through her barn.

Whether it's her own pacers or trotters, or others that are sent to her, Brewer sees each horse as an individual.

Courtesy Bobbie Jo Brewer
Extravagant Art.

"That's exactly what they are for me," she said. "I felt that way the first time I was around a horse."

Which happened to be when she was very young.

"I was a kid – I can't even remember how old I was – and my dad owned a construction company. One year, he oversaw the building of a racetrack, and part of the payment was a racehorse. I don't remember the name of the horse, but it was given to my father."

It also gave something to a wide-eyed kid, specifically, a spark to perhaps one day become part of the standardbred industry herself.

"There was just something about that horse and horses in general that really stuck with me from that moment. I do remember just falling in love with the horses and it's a feeling that never left me."

Brewer went on to work for some top trainers, a list that includes Mike Watson.

"I was very lucky to get the opportunities that I did. I think the one important thing for me was to really listen and learn, to ask questions, and to understand the business. I always made sure to pay attention and pick up pointers along the way."

She wasn't daunted by the thought of going out on her own.

Instead, Brewer immersed herself in the sport, a patient student of the game, who was willing to wait for the right moment to test the training and driving waters.

Courtesy Bobbie Jo Brewer
Royal Cam Hall.

It was five years ago when she felt the timing was right.

In nine appearances in the sulky, she posted a pair of second and thirds in two starts. Training-wise, she won 11 races and posted 41 top-three finishes from 135 starts.

"I wasn't nervous, not really at all. I was pretty much doing a lot for the people I worked for, so the comfort level was there. You picked up those little things here and there from trainers, helpful skills that you could put into your own career. I do a lot of the stuff I learned today from the people I worked for before. That's really been a huge help."

One aspect – and it's a big one – of her personal training philosophy is a therapeutic approach to the horses.

That hands-on approach has served Brewer well.

"I do try and keep the vets away as much as I can. It's something that has worked for me and most importantly, the horses. The horses, they get everything they need. They are never left wanting. It's all about the best grain, the best hay, and the best care. For me, the horses are never just a number in the barn. Each one is very much their own individual self. I always try to find them good homes because that's what they deserve. They gave everything they had for me and that's what I do for them. They have their own personality, and they all get treated differently because they all are truly different."

And then there is Royal Cam Hall.

Now 15, the son of Camelot Hall—Makaylas Star racked up 49 wins and over $326,000 in career earnings in 315 career dashes.

The bay pacer is still a key member of Brewer's operation.

"He was the first horse I ever drove. I claimed him back what feels like 18 times because he was pride and joy. I just could never part with him. When I did lose him to a claim, I had to get him back. He was just that special. He's like a human... he's playful and he's so much fun to be around. Even though he's 15, he acts like a two-year-old. Even though he isn't, he still wants to be out there. He babysits my trotter, Howyadoinbub. If Cam isn't around Bub, he won't eat anything. They have to do everything together. It's crazy, but it's wonderful."

Wonderful is a word Brewer uses often when speaking of her racing life. Goal-wise, she maintains a modest outlook.

"I'm not in it for the fame or the glory. I guess that's just because I love the horses and I love the business. Eventually, I'd like to get a few babies and break some babies. The baby game would be fun."

Currently, Brewer has 10 horses in her barn.

And, as she reiterates, her day-to-day approach is all about one-on-one care.

"I don't look at reaching a certain number of wins or purse earnings each year. Horses come in and out of my barn, so it's most important for me to make sure they get the care they deserve. Other trainers will send me their horses too, horses that need that individual attention. I like the TheraPlate (a device that uses small, circular movements to stimulate muscle contraction and increase circulation) to help them as well. A lot of it is therapy work for me."

Does that make Brewer the horse whisperer?

"I guess so," she said with a laugh. "I won't leave, unless I'm racing, until I'm sure all the horses have been given the attention they need."

Brewer, who has been in a relationship with driver Jason Beattie for almost 10 years, is understandably grateful for how her horse racing journey has unfolded.

Despite little time for outside pursuits, she has no complaints about making a career of harness racing.

"The horses, they really are my life. Jason and I will go out on the pontoon boat and enjoy that when we can, but most of our lives, together and separately, revolve around the horses. And I'm fine with that. It's the way the business is, but when you get the chance to spend your day with these great animals, you feel very fortunate."

Just like she does with her latest one-on-one endeavor, working with eight-year-old pacer Big Bad Arcster.

The well-traveled son of Big Bad John-Andromeda recently came into her care.

"An owner bought him back for me, and he's started qualifying. I wanted to give him a shot again and see where it goes. I just fall in love with them I guess. I fall in love with them easily. It's very rewarding. They all are. All you want is for them to be happy."

And that's precisely what Brewer is herself.

"There is a song by Luke Combs called 'Doin This.' It sums up me and my horses."

Fitting, no doubt, some of the lyrics include the lines: "It ain't about the fame. It ain't about the fortune. It ain't about the name. It ain't about the glory."

Super day of summer racing in Paris

by Thomas Hedlund

Hot summer weather has washed over big parts of Europe this summer and the heat has been a problem in the central parts of the continent.

Vincennes in Paris played host to a strong race card on Sunday (June 26) afternoon, and luckily, the sun shone, but not with the same intensity and heat as earlier in June, so the conditions were as close to perfect as one can get.

Christian Bigeon's 5-year-old Hip Hop Haufor (Up And Quick) started the day when the $95,000 Prix de Grasse, contested over 1.7 miles, was on the menu. After second over trip, Hip Hop Haufor secured the safe win in the last turn and won in a mile rate of 1:57.1.

Thierry Duvaldestin-trained Idao de Tillard (Severino), together with Philippe Allaire's Izoard Vedaquais, are the dominant horses in the French "I-crop" and when the latter trotter was missing in the $85,000 Prix Raymond Fouard, the road to victory was easy, without big obstacles. Driver Cleo Duvaldestin placed Idao de Tillard on the leader's outside and controlled the field all the way. At the top of the stretch, Idao de Tillard got a short reminder that he had to do his job seriously and he flew to outstanding win in mile rate 1:54.4 over 1.3 miles.

Replay here.

Junior Guelpa served his 10-yr-old gelding Charly de l'Aunay a perfect trip where Guelpa could wait with the final attack until the top of the stretch in the $95,000 Prix le Parisien. Charly de l'Aunay got a length's advantage with 150 meters to go and held strong finisher Belker behind by a head as the wire was crossed. Mile rate over 1.7 miles was 1:57.4.

French bred 3-year-olds battled in the $211,000 Prix Albert Viel and two horses who have dominated the crop were in favorite positions. Philippe Allaire-trained Just A Gigolo (Boccador de Simm) is a charismatic trotter and driver David Thomain aimed for the lead a kilometer into the race, a move that resulted in a first over trip for second choice Jazzy Perrine.

Just A Gigolo controlled his opponents all the way and hit the wire as a winner in a mile rate of 1:57.4 over 1.6 miles.

Replay here.

The $211,000 Prix Rene Balliere for the older elite trotters was the card's last big race and the field was one of the best ever seen on European soil this season. Several top trotters, such as Elitloppet winner Etonnant (first choice), Vivid Wise As, Ampia Mede Sm, Diable de Vauvert and Galius went behind the gate for the 2,100-metre race. The race became a show from several points of view.

Etonnant was pushed to the lead after a quarter of a mile in a quick opening since early leader Hohneck and driver Francois Lagadeuc rather opted a pocket trip behind the race's favorite. Alessandro Gocciadoro trained Vivid Wise As (Yankee Glide) was served a cover outside trip by Matthieu Abrivard and when the field turned for home, two horses had some advantage ahead of the followers and both Etonnant and Vivid Wise As fought bravely, aiming for the win. Outside horse Vivid Wise As proved best this day and the Alessandro Gocciadoro trained top trotter hit the wire in an incredible mile rate: 1:51.1 over 1.3 miles, same as Face Time Bourbon noted last year.

Hohneck followed as a strong bronze medalist.

HIGH CLASS SADDLE RACES IN PARIS

The $211,000 Prix d'Essai monté race (racing under saddle) for 3-year-olds became a spectacular show where three or four horses had a serious shot for the win as the field turned for home in the 2,700-metre race.

Leader Jelyson (Timoko), with Yoann Lebourgeois in the saddle, was under hard challenge from outside, and inside horses during the race's last 200 meters and for a while Jelyson was clearly beaten, somehow the horse found more power and gave new leader Joyner Sport a real battle towards the wire. The two horses hit the wire in a close call, where it turned out that leader Jelyson held his nose first in mile rate 2:00.1 over 1.6 miles.

The 4-year-olds made up the $255,000 Prix President Republique-Etrier 4 ans, finale and Swedish trainer Tomas Malmqvist had prepared his Intuition (Brillantissime) in the best possible way. A first over trip during the race's last half didn't stop jockey Adrien Lamy from stepping on the gas pedal in the end of the last turn and Intuition left her opponents by several lengths over the stretch. 23-1 winner Intuition scored her fourth victory when it was serious business going on. And there was no doubt about who was the best horse in the race. Intuition won in mile rate 1:57.1 over 1.7 miles.

Jelyson was an upset winner (27-1) and the third upset in the monté races came in the $255,000 Prix de Normandie for 5-year-olds. First choice Hironnelle du Rib attacked towards the lead in the last turn and jockey Jean Loic Claude Dersoir seemed to have everything under control as the field turned for home stretch. But Franck Leblanc trained Happy And Lucky (Ready Cash) with Adrien Lamy in the saddle gained some speed during the race's last 100 meters and shortly ahead of the wire, Happy And Lucky disarmed the favorite. The mile rate was strong – 1:56.2 over 1.9 miles.

NEW RACE ON NEW TRACK IN NORWAY

Norwegian racetrack Leangen in Trondheim closed its gates in February this year and the region in northern Norway quickly opened a new track, south of Trondheim, named Orkla Arena. On June 25, the track played host to the newly established $50,000 Nils Arne Eggens Minneslopp for older trotters over 3,400 meters (2.1 miles).

Kristian Malmin drove his Oracle Tile over the 3,440-metre distance and hit the lead after a mile. Top trotters such as Moni Viking and Best Ofdream Trio followed behind the leading Oracle Tile (Ready Cash) and the leader was too good this day. Oracle Tile sprinted to safe win in a mile rate of 1:59.2 while Best Ofdream Trio was second, ahead of strong finisher Ble du Gers.

GASOLIN FULL OF GASOLIN

Four-year-old Ens Snapshot son Gasolin proved to be the best when the $87,500 Jyds 4-years-old Grand Prix was held in Århus, Denmark on Sunday (June 26) afternoon.

Jörgen Sjunnesson drove Steen Juul's trotter and in a race where several horses went out of the game due to breaks, Gasolin kept his gait and could sprint to safe win in mile rate 2:02.2 over 1.4 miles.

SET FOR FIRST E3 FINALS OF THE YEAR

The E3-series for 3-year-old European-bred trotters has its first finals this Saturday (July 2). The distance in the race is 2,140 metres and the eliminations were held at Bergsåker racetrack on June 16.

Finnish trainer Pekka Korpi is well known for his ability to have well prepared horses in these kind of races and E3 has been a successful story for him throughout the years. This time, Korpi qualified two horses (both of them won their elimination, respectively) and the most interesting trotter from his stable is probably Express Duo son Corazon Combo, who is undefeated after 12 races so far. Corazon Combo is the horse to beat in Saturday's final for colts and geldings.

Gingras steals the show at Oak Grove

by Kimberly French for the Kentucky Harness Association

On Tuesday (June 28) Yannick Gingras piloted three of the four winners in the third round of $50,000 legs of the Kentucky-bred series for 4-year-olds at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming & Hotel. The Hall of Famer made his time in the Bluegrass State a profitable one as Gingras tallied eight scores in three days of sire stakes and series action over the five-eighths-mile oval.

Gingras set the stage in the first race, as he and Goldie's Legacy took the lead at the gate to score in 1:50.1 in the first leg for male pacers. The duo, however, had some anxious moments in the stretch as Komodo Beach (Andrew McCarthy) laid down in the gauntlet. Each horse paced their last quarter-mile in :25.4. Caviart Lotus (Tony Hall) was third.

After failing to deliver his best in last week's leg, Goldie's Legacy recorded his fifth win from his last six starts. The son of Always A Virgin-AG-N-AU Bluegrass holds the track record at Oak Grove for his age, sex and gait. Owned by Pollack Racing and Jeff Cullipher, the gelding is trained by Cullipher and was bred by Dave Yoder of Paris, Ky.

Goldie's Legacy has now earned $439,910 and has a record of 46-15-4-2. The defending Kentucky champion paid $6.80 to win.

Gingras picked up right where he left off with Kildare King in the second leg for male trotters. The gelding sat off leader Jula Muscle Pack (Andrew McCarthy) until the stretch drive and hit the line in 1:51.4. Favored Flemsteen (Joey Putnam) closed to be second with Platinum As (Hall) in third.

Owned and bred by Robert Goodman of Lexington, KY, the son of Trixton sports a record of 31 8-4-3 and has earned $162,725 in his career. This was his second triumph in the series after finishing second to track-record holder Cuatro De Julio in the first leg.

Track record holder Blue Diamond Eyes was responsible for Gingras' third victory in Tuesday's series legs for mare pacers. The daughter of Captain Treacherous assumed command after the first quarter-mile from eventual runner-up High Minded (Kevin Wallis) to pace home in 1:50. Classicist (Andrew McCarthy) was third.

Blue Diamond Eyes has now earned more than $1.22 million for owners Thomas and Scott Dillion. She is trained by Ron Burke, was bred by Brittany Farms of Lexington, Ky, and captured the 2021 Kentucky Championship Series final.

Andrew McCarthy took his turn in the winner's circle after guiding Beltamissa to the finish line in the series leg for female trotters. Trained by Tony Alagna, Beltamissa stopped the clock in 1:54.3 in gate-to-wire fashion. Shenzi As (Tod Warren) was second and Highly Acclaimed (Dan Shetler) was third.

Beltamissa is owned by Crawford Farms and is now three-for-three this season after sweeping her three legs of this series. Bred by D Farm of Hustonville, Ky, the mare has earned $397,947 in her career.

The $50,000 fourth legs of the 4-year-old series take place on July 12. The $150,000 final is scheduled for July 19.

SOPHOMORES SHINE AT OAK GROVE

On Monday (June 27) 3-year-old Kentucky-bred trotters and pacers competed in eight $25,00 legs of the Oak Grove Early Sire Stakes. While favorites performed according to form, there were some surprising winners.

FAVORITES SCORE IN FILLY TROTTING CONTESTS

In the first two races of the day, Criquette Hall (Yannick Gingras) and Pioneer As (Tony Hall) rewarded their backers with victories in their respective legs.

Criquette Hall ($3.20) led at every pole to record a win in 1:54.3 for trainer Ron Burke. The daughter of Cash Hall set a new lifetime mark and improved her record to 16-7-1-3. Owned by Burke Racing Stable, Frank Baldachino, Beastly LLC and Larry Karr, Criquette Hall has won four of her last five races since taking up residence in Burke's shed row. She was previously with Bob McIntosh.

Pioneer As (Tony Hall) had to work a little bit harder than Criquette Hall but scored by a nose over Blue Bayou Deo (Anthony MacDonald) to win her sire stakes leg by a nose in 1:53.4. Trained by Anette Lorentzon, Pioneer As is owned by ACL Stuteri AB and races as a homebred. The daughter of Devious Man has now banked $105,423 and has compiled a record of 16-5-2-2.

Pioneer As paid $4.00 to win as the even-money favorite. Blue Bayou Deo returned $4.60 with third place finisher Those Blues (Dexter Dunn) also paying $4.60.

PACING COLTS ROCKNROLL GOLD, DANCIN SANCHO VISIT THE WINNER'S CIRCLE

Rocknroll Gold (Andy Miller) outfooted Summer Trader (Hall) and Danger Zone (Andrew McCarthy) to win his respective sire stakes leg. Trained by Edwin Gannon Jr., Rocknroll Gold recorded a time of 1:53.1 for his mile and was placed first after a break by the favorite Mayor Ofthement (Dunn).

Owned by Zippett Racing Stable, Rocknroll Gold has earned $84,777 and has a record of 21-5-4-1.

The gelding paid $11 to win as the public's third choice. Summer Trader paid $5.80 and Danger Zone supplied $10 for the show spot.

Dancin Sancho (Trevor Smith) rewarded his backers with a win in 1:51.4 for trainer Todd Luther. Owned by Black Magic Racing, Dancin Sancho now has a record of 7-3-1. All three of his wins have come this season after going winless as a 2-year-old. The gelding has now amassed $49,794 in purse money.

Dancin Sancho paid $4 to win. River Ness (Gingras) paid $5.20 to place and Rule Of Law (Hall) was $12 to show.

AINTHESAMEWITHOUTU,SAKE BOMB TAKE FILLY PACES

Ainthesamewithoutu (Hall) scored a mild upset in her sire stakes leg after overhauling favorite Msdinois Blugrass (Dunn) in the stretch to prevail in 1:52.3. It was the second sire stakes win on the day for Hall and trainer Lorentzon.

Owned and bred by her trainer, the daughter of Sweet Lou collected her first win of the season and fourth overall from 13 starts. Ainthesamewithoutu has now earned $79,790 and this win was a new lifetime mark.

Ainthesamewithoutu paid $31. Msdinois Blugrass provided $4.60 and Acrimony (Smith) paid $11.80.

Sake Bomb (Gingras) provided her driver and trainer (Gannon) with their second sire stakes wins on the card. The daughter of Betting Line engaged in a spirited stretch duel with Style For A Mile (Dunn) and came out on top by a neck in 1:52.1.

Owned by Zippett Racing Stable, Joseph Di Scala Jr., and Evan Katz, Sake Bomb has a record of 13-4-2-1 and has earned $42,843.

The filly paid $10.40 for her victory. Style For A Mile offered $3.20 for her second-place finish. Lookatmyrapsheet (Charlie Conrad) was third and provided her backers with $5.20.

EZRA, NEVERMIND DELIVER IN COLT AND GELDING TROTS

Ezra (Trace Tetrack) may have decided the Bluegrass suits his better than the Hoosier State with a 1:53.3 win over heavy favorite Gigondas (McCarthy) and second choice Golden Wall As (Hall). The gelded son of Swan For All assumed command at the beginning of the mile and never faltered during his mile. Ezra is trained by Erv Miller and competes as a homebred for his conditioner, as well as Geis Enterprise LLC.

The gelding's record is 16-6-1-2 and he has banked $71,319. Ezra paid $33.80 to win. Gigondas provided $2.80 and Golden Wall As paid $2.40.

Nevermind (Nicolas Roussel) made the first start of his career a victorious one. Trained by his pilot, Nevermind used a :27.2 final quarter-mile to stop the clock in 1:53.1. The son of Trixton left race favorite Ducasse (McCarthy) and fifth choice Fireinmyveins (A. Miller) in his wake.

The colt races as a homebred by D Farm LLC and paid $42.80 to those that wagered on him. Ducasse paid $3 to place and Fireinmyveins was $3.60 to show.

The second leg for 2-year-olds will be July 3 and for 3-year-olds on July 4. The consolations and finals for 2-year-olds will be held July 17 and for 3-year-olds on July 18.

In the first division, Rose Run Xtra and Chris Page raced to the early lead, but gave way to Guido Di with Brady Brown at the first quarter pole in :28.2

Guido Di continued to lead at the half in :58 as Brett Miller pulled Chulo and started to make his move down the back stretch.

As the two hit the three-quarter pole together in 1:26, Chulo started to take control at the top of the stretch. He fought off a late charge by Rose Run Xtra to hang on and win by three-quarters of a length in 1:54. The Mighty Hill was third

In the second division, Doo Wop Kid was looking for his second win in Sires Stakes action this year. He raced to the early lead, but quickly gave way to Up Blueberry Hill at the quarter pole in :28.3.

Chris Lems wasted no time as he wanted the front end, taking the 3-5 favorite, Longshot to the lead as the field headed down the front straight. Longshot led the field past the half in :56.4.

As the field headed to the three-quarter pole, Longshot maintained the lead as Up Blueberry Hill with Chris Page and Bamboo and Dan Noble started to challenge.

Treacherous Dragon, Captain Cowgirl PASS winners at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

Driver Tim Tetrick swept the two divisions of the $135,032 third preliminary of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies during the Sunday (June 26) card at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, taking both sections with daughters of Captaintreacherous: winning first with (inter)national divisional leader Treacherous Dragon, and then with Captain Cowgirl in the faster cut.

Treacherous Dragon had anything but an easy time negotiating traffic in her division, avoiding an early mix-up caused by a horse who made an “ex” before a :26.4 quarter. She tucked in third as Dont Fence Me In, who got around the trouble with the lead, and Lydeo, who was left parked, argued through middle panels of :56.3 and 1:23.3. Tetrick edged his filly out at the three-quarters, but ducked back inside on the far turn as the pocket-sitter gave way, attacking Don’t Fence Me In in the Pocono Pike and getting the job done by three-quarters of a length in 1:51.2 with a sharp last sixteenth.

Treacherous Dragon was thus successful in her debut under the care of Nancy Takter, and kept her record unblemished in six seasonal starts, including two Sire Stakes. She has earnings of $560,613 for owners Hot Lead Farms LLC.

Tetrick took an easier route in the other section with Captain Cowgirl, going up past the :26.4 quarter to take command and putting up mid-splits of :55.1 and 1:22.2 over a track which greatly favored speed. Queen Of Success, who went off at 4-5* to Captain Cowgirl’s 6-5, came out at head-stretch and cut into the winner’s margin, but “Cowgirl” maintained a head advantage at the finish in 1:50.2.

Captain Cowgirl has two wins in three 2022 starts; her other victory came in 1:49.3 in a Sire Stakes at The Meadows. Jim King Jr. conditions the fleet filly, who has earned $323,835, for Jo Ann Looney-King and Kenneth Frieder.

Captaintreacherous and Sweet Lou split the sireing honors in four $20,000 divisions of the Stallion Series, with Team Tetrick/King having the fastest winner in the Sweet Lou miss Lyons Serenity, dropping from the PASS to the StS and liking the competition level better. She set fractions of :26.3, got a breather to the half in :56, then tripped the timer in 1:23.1 and then a lifetime best of 1:50.4 while defeating game pocket horse San Antonio Stroll by three-quarters of a length for Threeelyonsracing.

The other Sweet Lou success was Heartbreak Hotel, who after getting the lead in a :27.1 opener got to loaf to the half in :57.2. The speed sharpened after that, and Heartbreak Hotel came home in :55.2 - :27.1 to complete the 1:52.4 mile a length ahead of Lock Bridge. David Miller drove the winner, now victorious in half of her eight seasonal starts including two StS successes, for trainer Nifty Norman and the partnership of Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Bottom Line Racing LLC.

The McCarthy brothers won with the two victorious daughters of Captaintreacherous, the faster of which was Madeira Hanover, who front-ended to a new mark of 1:51.2 for Todd McCarthy. Fractions of :27, :56.1, and 1:23.3 were the springboard for the Linda Toscano trainee, who now has two Stallion Series wins and a Sire Stakes second after a 1¾ length score over Galleria Hanover for South Mountain Stables, Little E LLC, Mark Mullen, and JAF Racing LLC.

Andrew McCarthy was in the sulky for Southwind Java, who used the evening’s preferred speedy tactics and hung up numbers of :26.3, :55.4, and 1:23.4 before lowering her own lifetime best to 1:52.1 while holding off the inside charge of favorite Sweet Kisses by a head. Southwind Java is trained by Mark Harder, who is also a co-owner with Dean Lockhart, Wayne Carleton, and Deena Rachel Frost.

Treacherous Dragon (Tim Tetrick) remains undefeated in six seasonal starts after taking a PASS at Pocono on Sunday.

Wild Bill Kelso, Kennebago Met Your Request shine at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

Wild Bill Kelso ($6.90) was the fastest of the two $53,500 divisions of the New York Sire Stakes for the 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday afternoon (June 29) while Kennebago ($9.30) was just a step slower in his winning performance.

Wild Bill Kelso rallied late to nip Sevecheetah by a nose in 2:01.2 while Kennebago won the battle of attrition in scoring a 1-1/2 length victory over Daley Rep in 2:01.3 over the fast track.

While the participants in the Sire Stakes didn't break any track records, Met Your Request ($4.50) did so by snapping a long standing mark. In the $15,000 Excelsior A Series, Met Your Request (Andy Miller) covered the mile in 2:01.0, eclipsing the old standard for 2-year-old gelded trotters of 2:01.2 set way back in 2013 by The Lindy Treaty. He beat Southwind Bud (Drew Monti) by 2-3/4 lengths.

Met Your Request (Met's Hall—Quest Blue Chip) is trained by Julie Miller and co-owned by the Andy Miller Stable and Caroll D. Huffman.

Wild Bill Kelso needed every inch of the track to hunt down Sevecheetah in the second leg of the NYSS. With Sevecheetah (Trond Smedshammer) firing out and putting up splits of :29.3, 1:01 and 1:31.3, the pocket sitting Wild Bill Kelso (Scott Zeron) tipped to the outside to take up the chase.

In the stretch, Wild Bill Kelso went wide off the final turn and was drifting out in the stretch but was able to snatch the victory away from Sevecheetah in the photo finish. Hit Like Crazy (Dan Daley) was third.

Owned by Runthetable Stable and trained by Jim Campbell, Wild Bill Kelso (Crazy Wow- Broadway Ell) has now earned $27,235 after collecting his first win in two lifetime starts.

In the other bracket, Kennebago had the rail and avoided four breakers early to score the gate-to-wire victory.

With Maximum Express, At Worlds End, Unique Style and Heza Scoundrel all doing the dance early Kennebago (Smedshammer) inherited a huge and uncontested lead, never looking back in beating Useyourlovetonight (Aaron Byron) by a dialed down 1-1/2 lengths. Daley Rep (Dan Daley) took the show spot.

Owned by Michael Andrew and conditioned by Smedshammer, it was the first victory in the first asking for the gelded Kennebago (E L Titan—First Class Act).

Crazy Fool ($3.80) was able to hold off the late charge from Makes Me Charlie in the lone $6,500 Excelsior B race. Claude Huckabone Jr. toured the track with Crazy Fool in 2:02.2.

NYSS 2-year-old pacers sparkle at Tioga

by John Horne for Tioga Downs

Tioga Downs played host to two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for freshmen pacing colts & geldings on Sunday (June 25).

American Fling (Scott Zeron) captured the $51,500 first division.

American Fling ($7.30) forged his way to the front and led to the first quarter in :27.2. He slowed things down and used a :29.2 second quarter to be first to the half in :56.4. He cruised to three-quarters in 1:24.4.

Its A Me Mario (Jason Bartlett) made his way out of the pocket and came after the leader as they made the turn for home. American Fling had plenty in the tank and won his first career race in 1:53.1. It's a Me Mario had to settle for second. Train Station (David Miller) finished third.

American Fling is a 2-year-old gelding by American Ideal—Feeling You. Ed Hart trains for owners Randall Bendis, Reed Broadway, and Pollack Racing LLC.

Blue Hunt (Wally Hennessey) took the $52,500 second division.

Kid From The Bronx (Mark MacDonald) goes right to the front and hits the first quarter in :27.1. Blue Hunt ($5.60) took over the lead as they headed for the stands for the first time. Kid From The Bronx reclaimed the lead as they headed for the clubhouse turn. He led to the half in :56.1. Davey Day Trader (Jason Bartlett) came first-up going down the backstretch but he fizzled out as Kid From The Bronx was first to three-quarters in 1:25.1.

Blue Hunt popped out of the pocket as they reached the stretch and the race was on. The two battled all the way down the lane. Blue Hunt got by just before hitting the wire in 1:53.4. Kid From The Bronx had to settle for second. Tack Room Chatter (Aaron Byron) finished third.

Blue Hunt is a 2-year-old colt by Huntsville—All On Top Hanover. He is owned by United Process Control Co. and trainer Erica Chartrand. He is now one for one in his career.

Hennessey drove six winners on Sunday after winning five on Saturday. His other wins came with Wasn't Me ($7.70), That Dog Will Fight ($8.50), Credit List ($14.40), Scootnroll ($5.80) and BJ Lorado ($8.60).

Ponda Adventure dominates ISS event for sophomore trotting colts at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Emily Gaskin / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Ponda Adventure, with driver Trace Tetrick in the bike, turned in a dominant performance to find the winner's circle in the featured event of the evening, the lone $94,500 division of Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Wednesday (June 29). Scoring in 1:52.4, Ponda Adventure established a new lifetime best and remains undefeated in three starts this season.

Leaving from post two in the field of nine, Ponda Adventure left just enough to grab the pocket seat while Sam Widger had Bluebird Bishop on a mission to the front. Bluebird Bishop led the field through early splits of :26.1 and :55 while the rest of the field sorted out early position. Ponda Adventure was content with a pocket trip while Sweet Boy Ben and Peter Wrenn were the first to commit to the outer flow and apply pressure to the leaders.

Bluebird Bishop was still on top through the three-quarters in 1:24.3 but the rest of the field was closing in on the leader. Tetrick saw daylight up the passing lane and Ponda Adventure powered up the inside with a :27.4 late closing kick to get the win by two and a quarter lengths. Yo Mister and Verlin Yoder also rallied well late for second while Adamsville Road and Michael Oosting rounded out the trifecta. As the heavy 1-5 favorite, Ponda Adventure returned $2.60 for the win.

Trained by Erv Miller, the son of Swan For All—Wildflower has now won 11 of 13 lifetime starts while bankrolling

M-M'S DREAM REMAINS UNDEFEATED IN ISS ACTION

M-M's Dream continued her winning ways at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino after she captured the featured event of the evening, the single division of the $92,000 Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies, on Tuesday (June 28) with Sam Widger in the bike. Stopping the timer in 1:53.1, M-M's Dream recorded her third straight victory and remains undefeated in stakes action this season for trainer Henry Graber Jr.

Jusmakinyalook and Jordan Ross were the first to get a call through the opening quarter in :28. Luv Lorelei and Robert Taylor grabbed a pocket seat while Call Me Dani and Michael Oosting ranged up to take the lead just before the half in :56.2. Peter Wrenn was content to sit along the rail in fourth with the heavy betting favorite, Bluebird Dove, while M-M's Dream also waited patiently next in line fifth. Call Me Dani continued to call the shots through the three-quarters in 1:25.1 and when the field turned for home it was going to be an all-out sprint to the wire.

Bluebird Dove tipped out to make her bid but went off-stride late in the lane. M-M's Dream was widest and quickest of all—using a :27 closing quarter to get up in the final strides of the mile over Jusmakinyalook and Luv Lorelei. As the 3-2 second choice, M-M's Dream returned $5.00 to her backers at the betting windows. With the win, M-M's Dream established a new lifetime best.

The daughter of Swan For All—Trading Places has now earned $93,000 in three seasonal starts. With the victory, M-M's Dream has now won 9 of 11 lifetime starts and is owned in partnership by Eleven Star Stable, Hillside Stables and Frank Baldachino. M-M's Dream was bred by Mervin Miller.

Rock It Out rocks on after surviving tornado

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

After beating a tornado, Rock It Out is back to defeating horses.

Rock It Out, a 5-year-old female pacer, last week won a $22,000 fillies and mares open at Oak Grove Racing in a career-best 1:49.4 for owner/trainer Donna Holt. The triumph came six months after the mare was one of six horses to survive a devastating tornado that passed through western Kentucky on Dec. 10 and destroyed Holt's house and barn.

The six horses in the barn at the time of the storm suffered varying injuries, mostly cuts and abrasions, as a result of the tornado. Rock It Out and pacing mare Tropical Tracey took the brunt of the impact and were trapped under rubble in the collapsed barn. Tropical Tracey will not return to racing but is ready to begin a new chapter as a broodmare. Rock It Out, after a couple months of care with veterinarian Dr. Kim Abernathy, returned to action.

Rock It Out, who had raced just five days prior to the tornado, came back in early May in the fillies and mares open at Oak Grove. She had two third-place finishes among her first four races this season but has since won consecutive starts.

"After everything she's been through, she's done real good," said Holt, who resides in Benton, KY. "I'm not going to lie, I had doubts. I thought she might come back but she might not be her old self. But she has come back with a vengeance, like 'I'm not going to be beat. This storm is not going to beat me.' The storm might have given her extra determination."

Rock It Out, a daughter of Rockin Image—Musette Mindale, has won 21 of 67 career races and earned $175,285. At age 3, she was a winner on the Indiana Sire Stakes circuit.

"She is a true, honest, mare," Holt said. "When she goes out there, she will give you everything she can give you; she's going to give it all. When she comes in, she knows she's done her best. She is one of the best horses I've ever had. She is my first horse as a trainer or owner to go in (1):49.4. I sold some that went on and took marks like that, but not training or still owned by me."

"I do have her spoiled, but she is a well-mannered sweet mare. My grandkids mess with her. I can put one of my grandbabies on her and she will just trot so slow. But when it's time to go, she's going to go."

On the same day that Rock It Out won in 1:49.4, Holt-trained Ashlee's Joy, another pacing mare who was in the barn at the time of the tornado, won a conditioned race over male rivals in a career-best 1:51.4.

"She's really turned it on too," Holt said. "It was a big day for me."

Holt is still putting her life back together following last year's storm, but she is grateful for the outpouring of support shown to her and her father, Junior, who also lost his house and workshop on a bordering property.

"I'm getting along," Holt said. "Everything is going real slow. But I was fortunate to have some real good horsemen friends and family that have gone above and beyond. I wish I could thank each and every one of them personally. Some of them I don't even know, but they've helped me out a lot. I can't express how much I appreciate what they did for me."

Huckabone focuses on education at Gaitway qualifiers

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Claude Huckabone III picked up two wins in Monday's (June 27) final round of qualifiers for 2-year-olds at Gaitway Farm, but the trainer's focus is never on being first with his horses at this stage of their careers.

"We're just looking for an education," Huckabone said. "I could care less how fast they go as long as they do it right and they learn from it. The main thing is to give them a good experience so when they go to race there's not much anxiety."

"It's not going to be a finished product right from jump street, they have to learn how to do their job from every angle. I want to see good manners and I like them finishing through the wire. If you're good enough to beat someone by passing, that's great."

Huckabone, who last November moved his base from upstate New York to Gaitway Farm in central New Jersey, saw male trotters Nicholas Blue Chip and Heart Of A Titan get victories Monday. Both were driven by Jordan Stratton for owner James Crawford IV.

Heart Of A Titan (E L Titan—Hip To My Heart) won in 2:01.4 just as rain began to fall over the training center's one-mile oval. The colt was bred by Steve Jones and Fair Winds Farm and sold under the name Pedal To The Metal for $14,000 at the Goshen Yearling Sale. He is a half-brother to Chapheart, who won last month in the New York Sire Stakes series.

Nicholas Blue Chip (Chapter Seven—Chasin Clouds Away) won in 2:02 despite making a break early in the mile. He was bred by Blue Chip Farms, Jordan Farkas, and Jeffrey Rabinowitz and sold for $50,000 at the Lexington Selected Sale. His family includes O'Brien Award winners Habitat and On A Streak.

Huckabone also drove one of the morning's fleetest finishers, male pacer Upallnightbluechip, who debuted in 1:57 in finishing second and covered his final quarter-mile in :27.4. Only one 2-year-old came home quicker.

The 48-year-old Huckabone has a stable of 30 horses, with 17 being 2-year-olds.

"I've always loved the horse; since I was in the second grade I knew what I wanted to do," Huckabone said. "I like training horses and watching them develop. It's fun for me. Doing babies is awesome because it's like watching your kids grow up. You get to watch them become grownups. You just have to teach them appropriately."

Huckabone is not afraid to make changes between starts with his horses.

"You're constantly trying to evolve to a better place," he said. "If you're trying to get to a better place, you're not going to keep doing the same thing and hope to get better. They will develop and improve just on their own, but you have to make the appropriate changes and the appropriate times in order to keep them going in the right direction."

Huckabone started driving in amateur races at the age of 15 and has won 2,507 races as a driver and 810 as a trainer.

"I've been very lucky to have the support that I've had," Huckabone said. "I've had a strong backing the whole time. And very lucky coming across the right owners too. I couldn't ask for better owners. They're good owners, and they're even better people. Everybody is rooting for everybody. When somebody wins, everybody else is on the bandwagon sending congratulations. Everybody is on board, we're like one big team. It's the greatest thing in the world."

Other 2-year-old winners Monday at Gaitway were female trotter Mississippi Gale (Cantab Hall—Mississippi Beauty) for trainer Tom Fanning, male pacers Gaitway Guy (Delmarvalous—Brussels Hanover) and Livonjaxandqueens (American Ideal—It's De Lovely) for trainer Jeffrey Smith, female pacers Zanatta (Stay Hungry—Major Dancer) and Love That Journey (Stay Hungry—Gold Not Silver) for trainer Jennifer Bongiorno, and female pacer Ideal Star (American Ideal—Feelinglikeastar) for trainer Ron Burke.

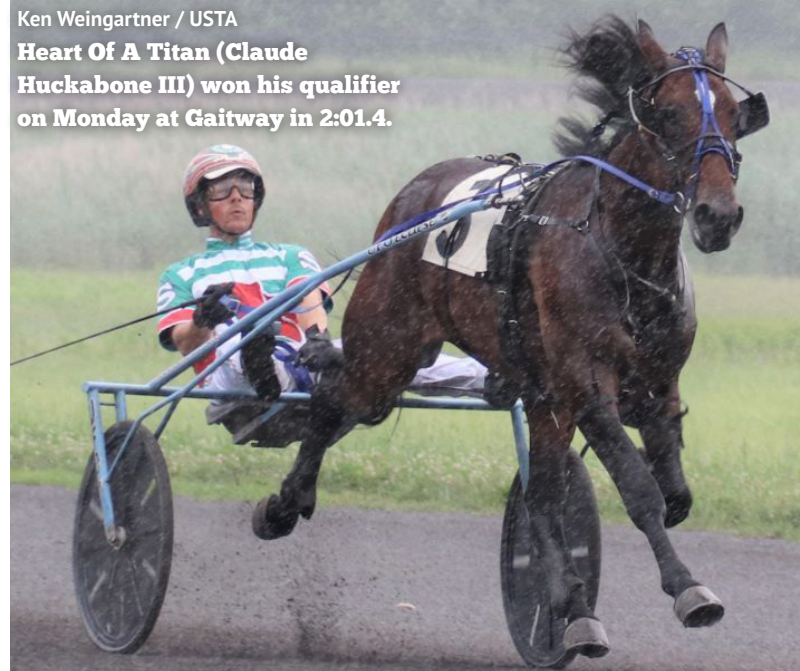

Zanatta posted the fastest mile, stopping the clock in 1:53.4 with driver Joe Bongiorno. She was 2-for-2 in qualifiers at Gaitway, having won in 1:56.1 on June 13.

The fastest last quarter belonged to Gaitway Guy, who came home in :27.1 to cap a 1:58.3 mile with driver Steve Smith.

“Captain” Corey Callahan drives 7,000th winner

The highlight of an otherwise-dreary day at Harrah's Philadelphia on Thursday (June 23) afternoon was the 7,000th career driving victory of “The Captain,” Corey Callahan.

This milestone win for Callahan, who has guided horses to $102.4 million in earnings lifetime, may have been even better for the likable 44-year-old, because the winner Star Razor is trained by his brother Shaun and is co-owned by his father Nick along with Yorwollahan Racing Team (of which Corey is a member) and Greg Godbout. They were all joined in the winner's circle by other, mostly youthful, members of Clan Callahan after the Dejarmbro gelding Star Razor went wire-to-wire in 1:54.4 to give him his fourth straight victory. (“The Captain” nickname, by the way, comes from Corey's days playing ice hockey for the University of Kentucky)

Milestones for McClure and McNair

Milestones for drivers Bob McClure and Doug McNair highlighted Saturday evening (June 25) action at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The 10-race program saw McClure reach 3,000 career driving victories with a victory in the second race, while McNair surpassed $70 million in career driving earning just one race later.

Driving 3-year-old pacer Greatest Ending, McClure hit the 3,000 win mark by powering to the lead in the second quarter and never looking back for a 1:50.3 victory. The win was the first of the evening for McClure, but his third of the day, as he picked up a pair of wins earlier in the afternoon at Hanover.

Currently in his 14th season as a driver, McClure continues to rank among the sport's very best. A 576-win season in 2016 ranks as his career high for a single-season, while 2020 is his best for earnings at $7.1 million.

McNair fittingly surpassed $70 million in career earnings by guiding top older pacer Wheels On Fire to a season's best 1:49 victory. The duo of McNair and Wheels On Fire have now teamed up for 17 wins together, with nearly all having come in the preferred.

Competing in his 15th season on the track, McNair has topped $3 million in seasonal earnings in all but his first year driving. The former O'Brien Award winner has several major stakes victories among his 4,000-plus career wins.

Samuel Fillion wins 2022 Quebec-Eastern Ontario Regional Driving Championship

Driver Samuel Fillion clinched the 2022 Quebec-Eastern Ontario Regional Driving Championship (QEORDC) title with his third win of the day on Sunday afternoon (June 26) at Hippodrome 3R in Trois-Rivières, QC.

The winner and runner-up will join the top two finishers from the three other regional qualifiers at the 2022 National Driving Championship (NDC) at Century Mile on Thursday, Nov. 24 to compete for the opportunity to represent Canada in the 2023 World Driving Championship in Italy.

Fillion ended the eight-race competition with 61 points to overtake Pascal Berube, who was also a three-race winner and had held the lead until the finale. Berube and a consistent Guy Gagnon, a three-time Regional champion who had one win on Sunday, tied in the standings for second with 50 points each. With more driving wins in the QEORDC, Berube will advance to the NDC with Fillion.

“I came here confident. I knew that my colleagues were motivated to win too,” said Fillion, adding that he is very happy to punch his ticket to the NDC. “Thank you for this tournament.”

A 1:58 track record victory by 3-year-old trotting filly Stella Alpha ($4.40) put Fillion in contention early on following back-to-back wins by Berube in the opening legs. Fillion's second win in the sixth leg aboard Fancy Girl ($5) moved him to second-place in the standings and he was left chasing after Berube, who earned another victory later with Mach Play ($2.50).

With Berube sitting out for the finale, Fillion clinched the QEORDC title with a victory in rein to 6-5 favourite D Gs De Vito ($4.40), who shook off a challenge from Siddhartha and driver Gagnon to score in 1:52.1 – the fastest mile of the 2022 harness racing season at 3R.

Fillion has won 224 races lifetime with his mounts earning in excess of $1.1 million. The rising star is coming off his first 100-win season in 2021.

Berube, a veteran reinsman from Portneuf, QC, recently passed the $10 million mark in career earnings and has driven 2,863 winners.

They will be joined at the NDC by Ontario Regional Driving Championship winner Louis-Philippe Roy and runner-up Doug McNair, who qualified in May at The Raceway at Western Fair District, and Western Regional Driving Championship winner Mike Hennessy and runner-up Phil Giesbrecht, who secured their spots last Sunday at Century Downs Racetrack and Casino. The Atlantic Regional Driving Championship will take place on Saturday, July 30 at Red Shores Racetrack & Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park to determine the final two drivers in the line-up.

The final leaderboard for the QEORDC, with point totals, is as follows:

Samuel Fillion – 61 points

Pascal Berube – 50

Guy Gagnon – 50

Nicholas Boyd – 45

Stephane Pouliot – 38

Ryan Guy – 31

Stephane Brosseau – 30

Marie-Claude Auger – 24

Winning Shadow scores 50th career win at MGM Northfield Park

Winning Shadow trotted home for his 50th career victory, winning the sixth race at MGM Northfield Park on Sunday (June 26). The 7-year-old veteran, with 133 career starts, also has 28 seconds and 13 third-place finishes.

Winning Shadow (Credit Winner–Sheena's Shadow) has career earnings of $723,801 with a lifetime mark of 1:52.3 set earlier this month, which equaled a world record. The gelding's richest win was for a purse of $58,000 in a New York Sires Stake at Batavia Downs in 2018. Winning Shadow A is a well-traveled campaigner – his 133 starts have been spread across 13 different racetracks encompassing five states.

Winning Shadow started from post two in the evening's $18,000 open trot. He let his competition set the early :27 and :56.2 fractions before taking the lead in the third quarter and looking back through times of 1:24.4 and 1:54.3, winning by 1 ¼-lengths. He was the favorite in the race and paid $2.60 to win.

Racing To Win Stable of Chittenango, NY owns Winning Shadow. Trainer Jordan Hope called upon Chris Lems for the winning drive.

Kevin Cummings reaches $20 million in career driving earnings

After he won with Yankee On The Move in the first race at Buffalo Raceway on Sunday (June 26), Kevin Cummings eclipsed the $20 million mark in career driving earnings.

"It's a big milestone and it felt good to get there. Especially while racing exclusively in western New York my whole career where the purses were pretty small for a long time," said Cummings. "I learned the business from my father, John Cummings, and if it weren't for him I would have never have been able to achieve this."

When the dust settled on Sunday, Cummings won three races and finished second in two more, bringing his current earnings total to $20,020,202.

Cummings first started in the business grooming for his father – who was a long time trainer and driver – while in school and eventually started driving at age 18. After taking a few years to get established, Cummings' career really started to take off as a catch driver in 2000 and from there never looked back. He became one of the best in western New York, winning multiple dash titles over the years. From 2009 to 2018 Cummings annual earnings topped $1 million each year and just missed that mark again in 2021.

Aside from earnings, Cummings has also won 4,172 races with 3,940 seconds and 3,591 thirds from 24,362 starts giving him a lifetime universal driver rating of .310. His single best year was 2015 when he bankrolled $1,784,657 on the strength of 337 driving wins.

Cummings has spent his entire 34-year career in western New York and has excelled in both overnights and New York Sire Stake competition during that time, earning him the respect of everyone he has competed against.
