Heading into Saturday's (July 6) Meadowlands Pace eliminations at The Meadowlands, driver Dexter Dunn will be looking to qualify two for next week's $650,000 final.

Should Dunn be doubly successful, he will have an important decision to make, as he seeks his first victory in The Meadowlands' signature pace.

Dunn will be driving Gem Quality for trainer Chris Ryder in the first of two Pace eliminations (race 7).

In the second Pace elim (race 8), Dunn will make his debut behind Funtime Bayama.

In 13 career starts, Funtime Bayama has only been driven by someone with the last name Filion. Canadian Hall of Famer

“ You can’t have a Plan B because you don’t know who else is going to be in the race. So, to have a Plan B is just lunacy. You go with your gut, you go with the driver that you had come train the horse and if something, God forbid, goes against us and we can’t get [Dexter Dunn], then we have to sit down and look at who’s available and the best fit for our program and horse. ”

~ Andrew Harris

Sylvain Filion drove the gelded son of He’s Watching—Tymal Sugrbydoll in his last 11 races, while his Hall of Fame father, Yves, was at the controls for the first two starts of Funtime Bayama’s career.

When the partnership of Bill Pollock, Bruce Areman and Andrew Harris purchased Funtime Bayama in late June, they knew they needed to find a driver since Sylvain was not looking to travel outside of Canada.

Even though Funtime Bayama has never been off the board in his baker’s dozen of starts, which includes eight victories, finding a driver in the glamour boys division isn’t always easy.

“So, we looked at everything that we could and said at the end of the day, we go for the best driver and we go from there,” said trainer/co-owner Harris. “When we looked through who we considered the top guys, everybody had a horse already in that division.

“We have a great relationship with Dex, so, I mean, that was a big player in it. Dex and I get along great... and I think that Dex is understanding, too, that when we make these big purchases, that he’s in mind. So, I think that helps us, too.”

Harris went into the “Funtime” conversation with Dunn knowing that the driver had guided Gem Quality in all five of his races this year, and in all but one of his 13 career outings. Not to mention that Dunn is extremely close to Ryder, who has been referred to as Dunn’s “American Dad.”

According to Harris, Dunn said, “[Gem Quality’s] been good to me. I won the Breeders Crown with him.”

With that in mind, Harris still asked Dunn to go a training mile with Funtime Bayama at The Meadowlands this past weekend.

Harris said the trip at The Big M was important because Funtime had never raced outside of Canada before and track surfaces are different between the U.S. and Canada, so they needed to be sure the horse was shod properly.

“So, you want the driver to go sit behind them and sit behind them at a high enough speed to where they can get a feel for what they’re capable of and where their strengths and weaknesses are,” Harris said.

According to Harris, after the training mile at The Big M, Dunn said, “Yeah, he’s a really, really nice horse.”

“So, I’m sure it puts Dex in a very hard place,” Harris said. “But at the end of the day, my job is to get the horse ready and put who I think is the best available driver on him.

“If Yannick didn’t have McCrunch, he was a big possibility, but he had McCrunch and he’s got a big, huge account with Nancy Takter.”

McCrunch drew into the same Pace elim as Funtime Bayama, but in the first elim, Gingras is piloting Harris’ other Pace contender, Miki Ray.

At this point, Harris said there’s no Plan B.

“You can’t have a Plan B because you don’t know who else is going to be in the race,” Harris said. “So, to have a Plan B is just lunacy. You go with your gut, you go with the driver that you had come train the horse and if something, God forbid, goes against us and we can’t get him, then we have to sit down and look at who’s available and the best fit for our program and horse.”

Gem Quality raced in a 3-year-old open at The Big M last Saturday (June 29), and although he finished third, he was first-time Lasix and came home in :24.4.

“Well, I’m pretty sure [the Lasix] helped him come the back half in :52, and if I can keep him doing that, we’ll be in good shape,” Ryder said. “I think the 3-year-olds this year are terrific. There are eight horses in there that have a shot at winning it.”

Although Dunn never told Ryder that he’d been asked to drive Funtime, it appears the word got out.

“ You know, I understand [Dunn is] going to take the horse that he thinks has a better shot at winning and that’s okay. ”

~ Chris Ryder

According to Ryder, he had a conversation with Harris to see if the rumors were true.

“[Harris] said, ‘Yeah,’” Ryder said. “I just wanted to confirm what I’d heard, but I haven’t had a conversation with Dexter.”

Should both Funtime Bayama and Gem Quality make the final, Harris and Ryder know that Dunn has to do what’s best for him.

“You know, I understand he’s going to take the horse that he thinks has a better shot at winning and that’s okay,” Ryder said.

Harris said, “He’s my number one driver. I mean, he’s the first one listed on 90 per cent of the stable, I’m not saying he takes all of them, but he takes all the ones that he can, and that’s with any driver. Usually, if they pick off it’s because it’s a better horse and if it’s a better horse, then, I mean, you’ve got to be a real idiot to get mad at them for that. I mean, that’s their job, to win races, and if you tell them you can’t have a good opportunity to win the race because you want them to drive your horse, then I think that bad karma comes back your way for that.

“The beautiful part about The Meadowlands is there are 10 great drivers. So, somebody’s going to be available for that final and at the end of the day, we’ve still got to make the final. This is the type of horse where I don’t have to worry so much about who’s going to drive him. Somebody wants to drive.”

Ryder said he doesn’t get bummed out thinking about whether or not Dunn will choose his horse.

“Life’s too short to worry about it,” Ryder said. “We do what we can; let the chips fall where they may.

“I don’t believe in pushing the issue too much because it usually backfires on you.”

For the first time, in their now three-year broadcast partnership with NYRA – which started with the 2021 Meadowlands Pace – The Meadowlands will be sharing the spotlight with another harness track.

Instead of a thoroughbred track filling the time between Meadowlands races, it will be Ohio's Scioto Downs showcasing 3-year-old trotters in the Moni Maker and 2-year-olds trotters and pacers in the Next Generation.

The good relationship between Meadowlands president/chief executive officer Jeff Gural and NYRA president/CEO Dave O'Rourke is responsible for starting these broadcasts back in 2021, which have benefited the entire harness racing industry as the number of shows have expanded and now include tracks outside of The Meadowlands.

With multiple races being shown from both tracks – 12 in all are planned – as well as commentary from Chris Griffin and Paul Verderosa on set at Aqueduct, Jessica Otten at The Meadowlands and Jenna Otten and Gabe Prewitt at Scioto and possible features and commercials, it is an ambitious undertaking.

With less time in between races than a typical thoroughbred card, which is what America's Day at the Races generally deals with, Eric Donovan, the senior director of TV broadcast operations for NYRA said what contributes to a good broadcast is everyone keeping it tight.

"I mean, that's one thing we tell our talent a lot on the thoroughbred shows, is that when we have a lot going on and a lot of people, the tighter you are, everyone gets a chance to say what they want to say," Donovan said. "And it makes for better TV, actually.

"When some of the analysts ramble on a little bit more, it kind of just makes it a little bit of a tougher watch and when you're short and to the point, that's kind of what it's all about."

Anthony MacDonald high on Next Gen starters

The $150,000 Next Generation series kicks off the 2-year-old stakes season in Ohio.

by Jay Wolf

Anthony MacDonald, patriarch of the fractional ownership group TheStable.ca, is excited for the start of the Ohio 2-year-old stakes season and Saturday night's (July 6) Next Generation events at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

For MacDonald, the easiest part was securing the four entries into the $150,000 events, the harder part was the selection of which Ohio-bred colt or filly would represent TheStable.ca.

When the post position draws were released on Tuesday (July 2), MacDonald had some trepidation – posts 4, 6, 8 and 9.

in the bike in Lexington in 2023.

"I wish we would have drawn a little better, that is for sure," said MacDonald. "What are you going to do? That is the nature of the beast. There is not much you can do about that."

Interestingly, the outside posts (5 through 9) have won nine of the previous 14 Next Gen events. Posts 1 and 2 have been winless despite their perceived advantage.

"That makes me feel a little better," said MacDonald, who won the 2022 edition of the Next Generation for 2-year-old filly trotters with Swinging Seniorita from post 5.

TheStable.ca will be represented by Gorgeous Package in the 2-year-old filly pace.

The Lather Up lass overcame a wide first quarter and bolting in the final turn to score a 1:58.2 victory in her first, and only, seasonal start on June 26 at MGM Northfield Park.

"She trained down with a Murphy blind on the left and we took it off and added a head pole instead, MacDonald said. "She saw something and bolted to the right. To her credit, she was very quick to gather herself back up and she paced strong through the wire. I like her determination and work ethic. She is no slouch, but obviously the 8-hole is a concern."

Gorgeous Package was purchased by TheStable.ca last summer through the online platform OnGait for less than $5,000.

"She wasn't the best training down, but she kept getting better and better," said MacDonald.

In the freshman filly trot, MacDonald will pilot Aunt Lilly, who won her season debut on June 22 at The Meadows.

After a winning qualifier over a sloppy Northfield surface on June 2, MacDonald and trainer Jason McGinnis took their time prepping this one.

"We were not in a big hurry to pile a bunch of starts on her," said MacDonald. "It's nice to talk about the Next Generation, but there is an entire racing year that starts immediately following the Next Generation."

The Uncle Peter filly won her only start by a length in 1:58.4, the last half-mile in :58.2.

"I think very highly of Aunt Lilly," said MacDonald. "She has the breeding. Her sister [Sierra Girl] was by far the best trotter in Pennsylvania last year.

"She was a horse that we definitely wanted and we paid pretty good money for her [$65,000 at the Ohio Select Sale], but she has lived up to her billing. She worked hard at her craft all winter long and it started to pay dividends in May. Aunt Lilly is a gigantic filly. She is a big, big girl and really fast."

Hutchison Harness shares ownership in Aunt Lilly.

Race 9 will be the freshman colt pace and will see MacDonald behind Rose Run Ajay, a $25,000 yearling purchase.

The Dancin Yankee was second, beaten by just three-quarters-of-a-length, in a pop-up series at The Meadows on June 28.

"Realistically, I just wanted to get a good mile in him," said MacDonald. "He showed how fast he is. The last half :55, the last quarter was :27.2. He's no joke. He's a fast colt, a big strong pacer.

"He has to overcome a pretty tough spot [post 9], but the fact that outside posts have done so well in this race is there is a lot of speed and a lot of movement in these races. So, it can play into someone coming off the pace."

Wrapping up the Next Generation will be the 2-year-old colt trot and TheStable.ca entry of Cadeau.

The gelding from the first crop of Marseille was hammered down last fall for $21,000 at the Ohio Select Sale to TheStable.ca and Hutchison Harness.

"I generally don't pick a yearling by their video, but this guy's video was so impressive and he caught my eye and attention right away," said MacDonald. "He was a little smaller than I thought, but I just couldn't get away from him.

"He didn't have the greatest season training down, made a lot of breaks, made a lot of mistakes. When we started feeding him some speed, he put everything together."

He was a fast closing third in his only parimutuel start on June 28 at The Meadows. He was beaten by a narrowing neck in 2:02.

"He wasn't on my radar for this race," said MacDonald. "His qualifier two weeks ago was great [a win in 2:00] and his race the other day was impressive. He showed some versatility. I don't think speed is going to be a problem for this one. He's small but a tough little bugger."

The undercard for the Next Generation includes the $100,000 Nadia Lobell (3-year-old filly pace), the $100,000 Moni Maker (3-year-old filly trot), the $100,000 Ohio Sire Stakes (3-year-old colt trot) and the $130,000 Ohio Sire Stakes (3-year-old colt pace).

The 15-race card, with total purses near $1.2 million, will go to post at 5:45 p.m.

Deep and colorful history from Meadowlands Pace eliminations

by Bob Heyden

With eliminations for the 48th edition of the Meadowlands Pace this weekend, it's a good time to look back at some memorable – and for some, maybe not so memorable – past Pace eliminations.

1977: Back then the elims went the very same night as the final, as they would in 1978. BG's Bunny rattled off a new world record of 1:54 flat for trainer/driver George Berkner, but never did race again. Escort won the final for Carl LeCause after a second in his elim. Team Kopas had the unique distinction of being favored in every 1977 elim/final.

1978: The only year in the first five editions of the Pace where the elim winner also won the final. Falcon Almahurst was a $150,000 yearling.

1979: Sonsam finished second in his elim then posted a new world record of 1:53.2 in the final. He reversed his elim finish with Hot Hitter who was second in the final. Herve Filion, the first catch-driver to hit the board in a Pace final, drove for Lou Meittinis. Hot Hitter would later set the single-season money record of 826G despite not winning the richest race that year, the $750G Pace.

1980: The Niatross year. His famous fourth in his elim was the last race he didn't win. No Campbell or O'Donnell yet in a Pace final in a decade they would completely dominate.

1981: No No Nero won his elim but got post 12 and was 10th in the final. Dr. John Hayes won the final with Conquered who was third in his elim. His $13.80 mutuel was the highest until 1986 when Laughs lit up the board at $23.80.

1982: The headline was: Cam Fella does not qualify for Pace final! "The Pacing Machine" and eventual HOY finished seventh in the elims, but would never again miss the board, and, in full retribution mode, sired four-straight Pace winners 1991-94.

1983: Ralph Hanover did something only Niatross also accomplished; win the Meadowlands Pace and the Triple Crown.

Note: From 1980-88 all Meadowlands Pace finals had 12 starters and of the first 40 drivers to either win the Pace final or an elim 32 of the 40 became Hall of Famers.

1984: A lot of mosts and firsts marked this year. Forty entered for a purse of $1,293,000. On The Road Again was the first winner from post 12.

1985: The 1972 Munich Olympic silver medalist in equestrian, Neal Shapiro, finished fourth in his Pace elim and 12th in the final with Pinocchio. Guess who was third in his elim but 10th in the final in 1985? 1986 HOY Forrest Skipper.

Note: Billy O'Donnell had a unique decade in the Pace, winning it in 1985 with Nihilator and finishing second four times (1981 Computer, 1984 Guts, 1987 Laag and 1988 Camtastic).

1986: Guess who Chuck Sylvester won his first million-dollar race with? Laughs, who finished fourth in his Pace elim. This happened a year prior to Mack Lobell.

1989: A first-time happening where the top four in the Pace final finished exactly the same in their elim: Dexter Nukes over Casino Cowboy over Barefoot Hanover over Preview Lobell.

1991: Jack Moiseyev handled Precious Bunny as John Campbell stuck with Artsplace. "Bunny" would sweep both elim and final and post the first sub 1:50 mile edging clear in 1:49.4 en route to a HOY title. The great Miss Easy tried the boys in the elims but broke right before the start. She did come back to capture the Pace consolation over Cambest.

1992: Andrea Chadwick got the female conditioners into the Pace picture making the final with Lord Willing who finished ninth.

1993: Brett Pelling's Pace debut. He finished seventh with Mystical Prince with Mark Kesmodel driving at 99-1, the longest shot in the field.

1994: Marvin Katz' Expensive Scooter won his elim and was fifth in the final.

1995: The first "shake" (aka coin toss) to get into the Pace final. David's Pass got the nod over CA Connection as they tied as the two fastest fourth place finishers and they both made the most of it with David's Pass getting Brett Pelling his first Pace and CA Connection taking the consolation for trainer Kevin Thomas.

1997: At Point Blank finished fourth in his elim for George Brennan and was second from post 10 in the final for John Campbell despite not winning a single race all year. Campbell also became the first driver to twice draw post 10 in a Pace final (Hilarion 1982) and then just two years later would do it again winning in 1999 with The Panderosa (after a re-draw no less).

1999: The second time in three years a Triple Crown winner was not 1-or-2 in the Meadowlands Pace.

2000: The year of Gallo Blue Chip and the first and richest supplement PB BULLVILLE ($150,000) who did not make it out of the elims.

2001: A matchup of the sports last great rivalry, Real Desire and Bettors Delight. They both won their elims and Real Desire nipped Bettors Delight on the wire in the final.

2002: McArdle won his elim but was second best in the final for Chris Ryder, who debuted in 1998 in the Pace with the favorite Sealed N Delivered who faded to last.

2003: All American Theory won his elim with Dave Miller and the final with Mike Lachance driving him for the first time. Miller would wait 15 years to get his Pace with Courtley Choice in 2018.

2004: Holborn Hanover got the last qualifying spot in 2004 which explained him being 25 points higher than any other at starter at 58-1. He got it done in a race where 95 per cent of the purse money went to New Zealand. Mark Harder was first and fourth (Camelot Hall), Brett Pelling was second with favored Timesareachanging and Chris Ryder's Metropolitan was third.

Down Under's Carter Dalgety heading to the U.S.

by Adam Hamilton

Young gun Kiwi driver Carter Dalgety is about to live his dream.

The 21-year-old is jumping on a plane from Christchurch to the U.S. on Monday (July 8) for a working holiday of at least six weeks "and maybe as long as three months."

And Dalgety has just the right host, his long-time idol and now best buddy, Dexter Dunn.

At the height of his rampaging dominance in New Zealand and before he moved to the U.S., Dunn was like an older brother to Dalgety.

"Obviously Dex worked for mum and dad [top NZ trainers Cran and Chrissie Dalgety] for a long time and when I was younger; he was like a big brother, but now he's more like my best mate," Carter said.

Dalgety will be joining Down Under legend Dexter Dunn (right) on the track in the U.S.

“Every time Dex comes back home, we spend heaps of time together and get closer. I’m so lucky to have him to stay with and, to be honest, getting to have a couple of months with him will be fantastic.”

Given their relationship and Carter’s exciting emergence in NZ – more than 120 wins and already two at Group 1 level – the similarities have been irresistible.

“I remember Dexter spent three months in the U.S. when he was 21 and said how much he learned from it,” Carter said. “I was always going to get across at some stage, but I had a huge surprise recently winning a Young Achiever Award [across the whole NZ racing industry] and there’s a handy monetary prize that comes with it.

“It’s been the spark I needed, a massive spark, to just get over to the States. It’s a dream come true for me. I’ve always followed the U.S. racing closely, especially since Dex moved over, so the thought of being part of it myself is awesome.

“I got my visa and license to drive in the U.S. I’m leaving on July 8 and will stay six-to-eight weeks, but the visa is for three months, so if everything went well, I’ve got that option to stay for three months.”

Carter’s father, Cran, said Carter winning the Young Achiever Award was a proud moment for the family and a big thing for NZ harness racing, which is going through some challenging times.

“ [Young Achiever Award is] mostly won by people in the thoroughbred industry, so for someone in harness racing to get the nod is important for the game and an incredible thrill for us as a family. [Carter’s] in the right hands being able to hang off [Dexter Dunn’s] coattails. ”

~ Cran Dalgety

“It’s an award mostly won by people in the thoroughbred industry, so for someone in harness racing to get the nod is important for the game and an incredible thrill for us as a family,” Cran said. “He’s in the right hands being able to hang off Dexter’s coattails.”

Carter admitted he was somewhat shocked with the award.

“We thought it was a long shot, but worth a crack,” he said. “Most of the part winners have been from the thoroughbreds or veterinary industry.

“When I made the short list, I got excited, but I didn’t know what to think after my interview. I didn’t feel it went that well. They said they would call me back within a week, but rang the next day saying I’d won. It’s a great thing, the award because we all know it can be difficult for young people to get ahead in the racing game.”

Selling himself is something Carter does well and is increasingly important.

To say he “gets” the marketing side of the sport and himself personally is an understatement.

A few years back, Carter launched his own clothing brand, Fuego, which has been a terrific success story.

All that while emerging as a driver and continuing his passion as a first-grade rugby player in NZ’s South Island.

“I’ve had a bit on my plate, but it’s been great,” he said. “I absolutely love rugby, the competitiveness of it and playing with your mates, but I had to give it up to focus properly on the horses. This is the first year I haven’t played rugby. The risk of injury, breaking an ankle or a hand, is just too high, but I still get down most weeks to watch the boys play.”

When it comes to his pending U.S. trip, Carter admits he – with help from Dunn – has already been leaning on the many ex-pat Aussie and Kiwi connections in North America.

“People like Nifty Norman, Noel Daley, Chris Ryder and Ron Burke, who has a few horses with us Down Under,” he said. “Dad [Cran] and Dex know these people, but I’m really looking forward to building my own relationship with them. It’s important for a young person like me.

“This may only be a short visit [to the U.S.], but it’s fair to say I’m looking at Dex and what he’s done and think I should have a go at it full-time a bit later in my career.

“I want to drive as much as I can over there this trip, whether that’s in races or track work. Nifty’s been great, so has Chris Ryder and Ron Burke’s got such a big team, he said he would have a few drives for me. I’ve spoken to Brett Pelling, too.”

The second part of winning the Young Achiever Award that Carter will explore is a trip to Sweden for the iconic Elitloppet next May.

“I need to do some homework on that one,” he said. “I’m going, definitely going, but I have to explore whether the opportunity will be to do any driving over there, too.

“It keeps ringing in my ears what Dexter said after driving at the Elitlopp last year. He said it’s the first time he’s genuinely been made to feel like a rockstar and it was the coolest moment of his career. How can I not go check it out after that?”

While Carter is excited about spending time in the U.S. and Sweden, he still has unfinished business in NZ.

“Things are coming together well and I’m driving some nice horses,” he said. “I’ve got that juggle over how long I stay in the U.S. this trip because some of the nicer horses will be back getting ready for our big carnival [NZ Cup in November].”

“There’s a 3-year-old filly of ours called All You Need Is Me. She’s come a long way really quickly and I think she’s a bit special. She’s the drive I’m most excited about when I get home.

“She gave me the 100th win of my career and second Group 1 when she won the Northern Oaks back in May at just her seventh race start.”

This might only be a brief stint in the U.S., but Carter, with his shock of blonde hair and enviable ability to self-promote, is sure to make a splash.

As he said himself, it feels like an entrée before he follows in Dunn’s hugely successful footsteps and makes the U.S. home.

Gocciadoro hot in Modena

by Thomas Hedlund

Alessandro Gocciadoro was in a hurry after his last race at Färjestad racetrack in Sweden on Saturday (June 29) afternoon since the dominating Italian had objectives in Modena, Italy, later the same evening, and as often happens, Gocciadoro came home a winner.

It was two divisions of the Gran Premio Unione Europa for 4-year-olds on the menu and the main race offered $220,000 in the purse.

Andrea Guzzinati sat behind Gocciadoro's Executiv Ek (Face Time Bourbon) and opted for a three-wide attack with a half mile to go. Before the last turn, Executiv Ek landed outside of leader Expo Wise As, who was the favorite in the hands of Gocciadoro. Expo Wise As made a break just before the homestretch and Executiv Ek sprinted to safe win in a mile rate of 1:56.1 over 1.3 miles.

Guzzinati behind a Gocciadoro trained trotter proved to be the winning recipe this evening in Modena. East Asia (Ready Cash) and Guzzinati claimed the mares' division of the $87,000 Gran Premio Unione Europa after a first-over trip and landed in a mile rate of 1:54.3.

In Naples, the day after (June 30), Holger Ehlert trained Far West Bi (Muscle Hill) was strongest for driver Roberto Vecchione in the $165,000 Gran Premio Citta' di Napoli for 3-year-olds.

Far West Bi attacked from his position in fourth over with a half mile to go and the 3-year-old Muscle Hill son held his pace strongly as took advantage of the race before the top of the stretch. It was a mile rate of 1:55.4 over 1.3 miles for Ehlert's trotter.

JIGGER HAS DRAMATIC WIN IN DENMARK

Steen Juul trained Jigger (Fabulous Wood) impressed a lot when he claimed the $92,500 Jydsk 4-year-old Grand Prix in Århus, Denmark on Sunday (June 30) afternoon.

Jigger had to defend himself bravely during the race's initial quarter before Juul chose to let Just Hans take over the lead.

The foal's details are listed: '2, 1:55.2s-'24 ($36,026)', 'Chapter Seven - Southwind Snow', '$53,500 NYSS division winner for 2yotc's in a life best, July 4 at Vernon Downs.', 'Owned by: Black Horse Racing, 3 Brothers Stable, Joe Sbrocco and Jaf Racing, Order By Stable', 'Trained by: Nancy Takter', 'Driven by: Yannick Gingras', 'Bred by: Order By Stable'. The Concord Stud Farm logo and contact information are at the bottom: 'CONCORD STUD FARM Breeding For Perfection', '(609) 758-9412', 'www.concordstud.com', and 'concordstudfarm@yahoo.com'.

Jigger later would find position in second over when first choice Icebreaker became the new first over trotter, with a little less than a lap to go.

The homestretch became a spectacular show where several horses had chances to win the race. But Jigger, who attacked three-wide with a quarter to go, was too tough this time and Steen Juul's trotter won in a mile rate of 2:00.4 over 1.5 miles.

MAIN STAGE – TWO DAYS IN A ROW

Lahti in Finland played host to the $235,000 Suur-Hollola-ajo last weekend and the horses had a tough schedule with races on Saturday (June 29) and the final on Sunday (June 30).

Antti Ojanperä trained Main Stage (Prodigious) was best both days and in Sunday's race he sprinted to the win in a mile rate of 1:55.1 over 1.3 miles. Santtu Raitala sat in the bike.

FIVE HORSES INVITED TO ÅBY WORLD GRAND PRIX

Joviality (Chapter Seven) received a ticket to the $1,004,500 Åby World Grand Prix earlier this year and on Saturday (June 29), Åby announced some new names for the big race on Aug. 10.

The distance of the new race is 3,140 meters and Åby has managed to attract some of the best horses in the world to the new event.

The winner of the race will receive $600,000 and the interest in coming to Mölndal on the Swedish west coast is big.

Elitloppet winner Horsy Dream, Swedish star San Moteur, High On Pepper and Francesco Zet will join Joviality behind the gate on Aug. 10.

Six more horses will be invited and one spot will be determined by the winner of the Gold division at Axevalle on July 20.

Francesco Zet, who finished fourth in Elitloppet and thereafter claimed the Norrbottens Stora Pris in Boden, had a nice jogging trip when he won the $30,000 Bergslagsloppet in Lindesberg on Wednesday (July 3) night. Francesco Zet played with his opponents in a mile rate of 1:55.3 over 1.3 miles.

IT'S A DOLLAR MAKER BEST IN VICHY

Eric Raffin steered Sébastien Guarato trained It's A Dollar Maker (Saxo de Vandel) to a safe win in the $130,000 Grand Prix du Conseil Municipal in Vichy, France on Tuesday (July 2) afternoon.

It's A Dollar Maker hit the lead early in the race and Eric Raffin noted that he had everything under safe control all the way towards the wire. It was a mile rate of 1:56.2 over 1.8 miles for the winner.

Intuitive appraisal: the common denominator at work

by Frank Cotolo

I awoke to the value of my intuition once James Quinn authenticated the third element of expertise.

The search for a common denominator among the volumes of theories and math from the league of gentleman handicappers resulted in an expanding process including my trust and commitment to succeed; doing it one race at a time without denying anything I learned from brilliant mathematicians; and without a lot of work that I could not – under any circumstances – be subjected to undergoing.

A fellow horseplayer mocked me when I told him about it.

“So now you handicap with feelings,” he said.

“No. I interpret data with what I sense about the data.”

I sighed quoting Barry Meadow and said, “We’re all guessing.” There was no reason to debate anyone because it is impossible for most veteran horseplayers to understand the addition of intuition to handicapping. There were two reasons for this.

First it is because you cannot assign a number to calculate intuition as one does for speed and class. Nor does it have tenets like “always rely on bloodlines for turf and mud runners” or “always consider the importance of positive post-position changes for standardbreds.”

The second reason is intuition is not an equally shared quality in everyone. Though knowledge and experience assist in expanding its power in any brain, no two brains work alike. For instance: Who knows why General Eisenhower felt positive about invading Europe amid a bad storm while most of his counsels urged him to cancel the massive event?

I decided evaluating the potency of intuition in my brain had to be recognized as important in order to conspire with knowledge and experience to assure intimate understanding and follow-through.

I confirmed a process of adding the Quinn triad to my handicapping in a single race at Los Alamitos. I was somehow sure harness racing would be a better landscape to accept intuitive appraisal to my knowledge and experience. That decision in itself was intuitional.

I was with a friend (let’s call him Delaney) who was a pernickety handicapper when it came to thoroughbreds. He respected my prowess for handicapping harness and wanted to learn more about standardbreds in action. It just so happened he accompanied me on the correct evening as I opened the floodgates of my cerebrum for an attack on a one-mile pace (among nine others) on the five-eighths oval. I told him I was most interested in the race involving two local horses I followed.

I decided evaluating the potency of intuition in my brain had to be recognized as important in order to conspire with knowledge and experience to assure intimate understanding and follow-through.

My main focus was the sophomore pacer Dare You To (Abercrombie—Chickasaw Brave—Meadow Skipper) trained and driven by Stan Bayless. His performances proved he was national material (and later he would perform against pacers too good for California).

The second was the Bob Johnson-trained Two Oceans (driven in this race by Joe Anderson). There was no way this older pacer was going to beat Dare You To, said I, but the son of Lumber King (alien to me) had a penchant for finishing in the top three on the circuit. A good earner. And Anderson at the time was a perceptive driver who finished in the money a near 60 per cent of the time.

“That’s it?” Delaney said. “Not much of an argument.”

“I don’t want an argument. I want an exacta. Cold.”

Delaney sensed my enthusiasm even though I said I have nothing else to defend this combination. It’s Dare You To with Two Oceans completing the exacta. Boom.”

To my surprise the betting crowd (at that time limited to those in attendance) was softer on Dare You To than I predicted. Good for me. As for Two Oceans? He was not the second or third choice on the board. Good for me. Because in some cloistered part of my brain those two pacers fit in a cold exacta as tight as Laurel and Hardy.

“You going to box it?” Delaney said.

“Nope. Cold.”

The time to wager was ticking away. I did not hesitate and I took that to mean my knowledge and experience were in harmony with my intuition and this drove me to the window. I called a $50 cold exacta without any calculations and returned to my trackside seat.

Dare You To took complete command; the focus then became Two Oceans. He was steadfast on the inside most of the mile but tight quarters ensued and Anderson had to work him hard when a challenge threatened finishing second. In the waning moments of a Dare You To victory I began to pound the table in four-four time with a fist full of knuckles while screeching

“I got it!” I said because somehow, I was assured Two Oceans’ nostril confirmed my exacta.

I turned to Delaney but he was gone. He showed up when the bloated results became official. He said I scared him. I did not apologize. My intuitive appraisal was worth $570-some-odd bucks.

My Girl EJ comes up big again at Philly

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

My Girl EJ ensured her continued place in the discussion among top 3-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:51 victory in one of three third round prelims of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes on Sunday afternoon (June 30) at Harrah's Philadelphia.

My Girl EJ took her time working her way to the front, taking command past 2023 divisional winner Geocentric late on the first turn towards a :26.4 quarter, with Rocket Deo, the only winner in both of the PASS prelims to date, settling third. They went that away around the track, with the winning daughter of Sweet Lou getting a big breather to the :56.1 half and then sending away outside pressure past a 1:24 three-quarters.

Geocentric ducked to the passing lane, and Rocket Deo could finally angle wide before midstretch, but Dexter Dunn took one look around and saw his filly was safe with a :27 last quarter in her. Geocentric was second, a length behind the winner and a neck ahead of fast-closing Rocket Deo. But they weren't catching My Girl EJ as she boosted her lifetime earnings to $806,971 and won her second Sires race this year for trainer Ron Burke and the ownership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC along with Elizabeth Novak.

The 1:51 time was actually the slowest of the three Sire Stakes divisions; the fastest clocking was the 1:49.3 lifetime mark posted by another filly guided by Dunn, the Captaintreacherous filly Flawless. The Nancy Takter trainee was wide early and moved along to command at the :26.2 quarter, continued on sharply with middle-splits of :54.3 and 1:21.4, with first-over Reigning Jade making a big bid to the latter station until going off-stride, and then finished out 2½ lengths clear of Asweetbeachhere, who and had photo'd out the winner last week. Flawless has now won four of six this year for owners Marvin Katz and Sam Goldband.

The other Sire Stakes split went to the Always B Miki distaff Miki In Luv, who equaled her lifetime best of 1:50.4. Miki In Luv sat a pocket trip behind Miraculous Deo and fractions of :26.2, :55.1, and 1:22.3, then found room up the inside for driver David Miller and got past the pacesetter by a half-length. The winner already has nine victories in her brief career, with Ron Coyne, Jr. training her for his Ron Coyne Stables, Blair Corbeil, and Richard and Farrell Carney.

Stay Hungry sired two of the three Stallion Series winners, including the quickest in Lyons Legend, home first in 1:51.3 for driver Tim Tetrick, trainer Jim King, Jr., and Threelyonsracing. The 10-time lifetime winner added her second StS victory of the campaign, joining Davenport and Parkavenuelisa (who was second in this race) with that distinction.

The other daughter of Stay Hungry winning in the Stallion Series was Ginger Tree Belle, a nose better than Foxy Hill while equaling her career best of 1:52.3 for driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Steve Cook, and the ownership of Sam Beegle, Ginger Tree Ventures LLC, Knollview Stables 2, and Bob Reber, Jr. Driver David Miller added an StS win to his Sire Stakes triumph by guiding the Heston Blue Chip filly Pressure Cooker up the far inside in winning in 1:53.1 for trainer Linda Toscano and Let It Ride Stables Inc., Odds On Racing, and Mac Nichol.

BABY TROTTING COLTS IN POCONO'S PA ALL-STARS

Two-year-olds saw their first stakes action on the last day of the first half of the year (June 30) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, as there were three $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for baby trotting males.

David Miller won his third type of Pennsylvania stake on the day in taking the quickest division, 1:57.1, with Cheers Hanover, adding an All-Stars win to his Sire Stakes and Stallion Series victories notched at Philly this afternoon. The successful Bar Hopping—Chez Lucie colt let Elan Hanover go by at the :29 quarter and was content to wait in the pocket through middle fractions of :59.4 and 1:29.1. Miller tipped him down into the Pocono Pike and the freshman found a higher gear quickly, catching the pacesetter in the :28 kicker by a neck, with the first-over Portobarosso AS NL just another neck off in third. The first-time starter is trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC, Jim Simpson, and J&T Silva- Purnel & Libby.

Tim Tetrick took full advantage of the wind and the talents of the Greenshoe—Fashion Athena gelding Fashion Green to take a new mark of 1:57.2 to open his career with two wins. After a :29.2 opener Tetrick moved the Fashion Farms LLC-owned freshman to the lead, making his move with the prevailing air to reach the top in :58.3. With no backstretch challenger, Tetrick could back off the three-quarters to 1:29.3, then sprint home in :27.4 with the chalk to stave off Meshuggah by a neck. The winner's trainer, Jim Campbell, will next Sunday be 95 miles ENE of Pocono, being inducted into the Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY.

Set The Bar went right out to the lead in a :29 quarter in his division, and then driver Todd Schadel was able to give him a breather to the half in 1:01.1 even with the wind "advantage." The Bar Hopping—Promisemethis gelding got to the three-quarters in 1:31.1, met the outside challenge of Arrowhead Hanover and the Pocono Pike challenge of The Fix Is In, and powered home in :28.2 to break his maiden in 1:59.3, a head ahead of The Fix Is In and three-parts-of-a-length ahead of favored Arrowhead Hanover. Cody Schadel handles the talented colt for his father, the driver, his mother Christine, and Rick and Regina Beinhauer.

Chapvious provides fireworks in NYSS at Buffalo

by Brian J. Mazurek for Buffalo Raceway

It was a day early but Chapvious provided the Fourth of July fireworks in the $108,200 New York Sire Stake event for the 2-year-old filly trotters at Buffalo Raceway on Wednesday (July 3) as she broke the track record with a three-length victory over Devious Babe in 1:58.2.

The heavily backed Chapvious ($2.10) easily beat the previous mark of 1:59 established by Amal Hall on July 11, 2018.

Smoke Show, appearing in the NYSS after a victory in the Excelsior Series on June 25 in her only lifetime start, aggressively fired out for the lead with DW's Lady Diva and Chapvious tagging along behind.

With fractions of :29.4, :59.1 and 1:29.1, Chapvious (Jason Bartlett) brushed toward the lead turning for home and disposed of Smoke Show. Meanwhile, Devious Babe (Tyler Miller) charged hard in the lane but had no shot in beating Chapvious as a :29 last quarter proved to be the final dagger. Smoke Show (Jim Morrill, Jr.) held on for third place.

Owned by the Purple Haze Stables LLC and trained by George Ducharme, it was the second straight win in as many career starts for Chapvious (Devious Man—Chaperess). The huge payday increased her seasonal earnings to $91,350.

Driver Tyler Buter swept both $20,000 divisions of the Excelsior Series in similar fashion with come from behind victories.

In the first race, Inn Of The Stars (Chapter Seven—Met's Inn) came from fourth place at the three-quarter pole and uncorked a :29.1 final panel to get past Carishah Marie by a head in 2:03. Inn Of The Stars paid $8.50 for the win.

The other division saw the favored Michelon's Titan (E L Titan—Royal Melbourne) enjoy a journey from fourth place through the opening half before going to work. Michelon's Titan ($3.50) went first over approaching the final marker and easily went on to defeat Boost (Claude Huckabone III) by 3¼ lengths in 2:01.1.

Racing will continue this afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with an 11-race card to be presented.

COWGIRL HANOVER REMAINS UNDEFEATED IN NYSS ACTION

On paper it looked like a contest between the unbeaten Cowgirl Hanover, winner of last week's New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) race and All Hail The Queen, who was making her pari-mutuel debut after a pair of strong winning qualifier performances at Monticello. However, when the dust settled, Cowgirl Hanover was clearly the best yesterday afternoon and extended her winning streak.

The betting public installed All Hail The Queen as the favorite in yesterday afternoon's (July 1) $106,300 NYSS event. Bronx Mixer (Matt Kakaley) from the rail was the first to the front, while coming out of the first turn Cowgirl Hanover got away second along the rail. For a moment it appeared that Scott Zeron driving Cowgirl Hanover would pull from the pocket to take the lead, but Zeron opted to sit in the garden spot.

Send It Down Slim (Mark MacDonald) a roan daughter of Huntsville scoring from post position 4 was still settling in late and went on for the lead in the opening panel of :28 and quickly opened up a three-length lead. They went to the half in :58.2 with the gap diminishing and the field still in straight alignment; the favorite, All Hail The Queen (Jason Bartlett), was fourth at this point.

Americanbeachdream (Fern Paquet, Jr.) who was a handful in the pocket and was all over Bartlett's helmet, came off the rail just past the half. At the five-eighths mile marker Zeron made his first-over move with Cowgirl Hanover with All Hail The Queen in tow as they hit the next panel in 1:28.1.

Turning for home, Cowgirl Hanover extended her lead and was not to be denied, soundly dispatching her foes and scoring in 1:56.2, last quarter in :28. A fast-closing Bronx Mixer was second followed by Send It Down Slim, the favorite, All Hail The Queen, finished fourth.

Cowgirl Hanover (Huntsville—Code One) extended her perfect slate with two consecutive NYSS wins and a pair of winning qualifiers under her belt now for trainer Jared Bako. The daughter of Huntsville is owned by NY SEB Inc. of Katonah, NY, and the win she pushed her seasonal earnings to $78,900 and put her on top of the leaderboard and is now the leading point earner for her category, her next NYSS race is at Yonkers on July 11.

In Excelsior action, Greg Merton and Blake Macintosh teamed up for a double, first with Courtly Maiden (Courtly Choice—Maid West) in 2:00.2 ($37.80) for her first lifetime win and then with Moms Point (American Ideal—Bullet Point) in a pocket sitting trip in 2:01.3 ($11.20), who earned a new record in the process. Hot off his Messenger Stakes win over the weekend, trainer Travis Alexander saw his Blind Date Hanover (Huntsville—Blind Ambition) lead from start-to-finish to trip the beam in 1:59.2 ($3.90) with Matt Kakaley in the bike.

The New York Sire Stakes returns to the famed Catskill Mountain Oval on Monday (July 15), when 3-year-old trotting fillies come to town.

SIRES STAKES

REPORT

Maryland Sire Stakes on display at Ocean Downs

by Ocean Downs racing publicity

Kasey Bendix and Virginia Marvel's homebred Fancy Like That remained undefeated in Maryland Sire Stakes events this season after delivering a 15½-length drubbing to her four foes in Wednesday's (July 3) $10,000 first-round preliminary event for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Ocean Downs. Only I Exist likewise kept her seasonal stakes record intact with a similarly decisive win in the 3-year-old filly trot.

After coasting to a sweep of the spring Sire Stakes series at Rosecroft, the daughter of Rusty's For Real—Scootin Woody worked her way into upper-level classes at Ocean and won two of her first three starts on the half-mile oval. On Wednesday, she rolled unopposed through splits of :28.3, :57.4 and 1:27.1 in line to Johnathan Ahle before sprinting away from pocket rival Yourgracefound Me (driven by Eric Davis) through a :28.2 final quarter to cap a 1:55.3 mile. Covid For Real (Corey Braden) finished third.

Fancy Like That, whom Bendix also trains, has now won 14 times in 23 career starts and has banked $145,270.

In the trotting split, spring series champion Only I Exist and driver Russell Foster defeated Emily's Locket by 12¼ lengths in 1:57.4. The daughter of Yall Beneath Me—Get Rich Quick is now a perfect four-for-four as a sophomore and has won 10 of 11 career starts and $203,381 for owner/trainer/breeder Richard Hans.

In total, Ahle drove seven winners on the evening, giving him 42 through the first six weeks of the meet. Trae Porter is second with 23; William Carter is third with 18.

On Sunday (June 30) at Ocean Downs, Geralds A Keeper and Cloggs For Real captured their respective $10,000 first-round Maryland Sire Stakes events for 3-year-old colts and geldings giving owner Kelsey Wagner and trainer John Wagner a stakes double.

In the trotting split, Trae Porter secured the pocket with Geralds A Keeper behind early pacesetter War Pony. After stalking splits of :28.4, :59.2 and 1:29.3, Geralds A Keeper hooked three-wide on the far turn around his stablemate K J Dash, who made a protracted first-over bid up the backstretch, and edged away to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:59.4. K J Dash held second over War Pony.

Geralds A Keeper, a gelded son of Lockkeeper—Brilliance Hanover with four career wins and $74,170 in the bank, paid $4.60 to win as the 6-5 favorite.

The pacing split saw Cloggs For Real bounce back from a fifth-place finish in the spring Maryland Sire Stakes final at Rosecroft Raceway. Corey Braden bypassed the 3-hole on the first turn with the Rusty's For Real—Clearly Foxy gelding, electing instead to push forward and clear Firecrackergraham after a :28.3 quarter. From there, Cloggs For Real opened daylight on the field immediately and rolled through middle splits of :57.2 and 1:26.1 en route to a 1:55.2 win. Tony Babe rallied for second over Petes For Real.

Cloggs For Real improved his career record to five wins in 14 starts, and he has earned $60,575. He paid $10.40 to win as the 4-1 third choice.

Live racing returns to Ocean Downs on Sunday (July 7); the 12-race card features a $25,500 Maryland Sire Stakes event for 4- and 5-year-old pacers and a $12,000 open handicap pace. First post is 7:05 p.m.

NJ budget includes appropriations for purses

New Jersey's horse racing industry will receive a $20 million appropriation for purses as part of the state's fiscal year 2025 budget signed recently by Gov. Phil Murphy. The appropriation will be divided equally between standardbreds and thoroughbreds.

Funds allocated for standardbred racing include money for overnight purses at The Meadowlands and Freehold, as well as for the New Jersey Sire Stakes and breeder awards.

The state first introduced the purse appropriations in 2019. The initial legislation covered a five-year period, totaling $100 million, through 2023. The state renewed the funding for 2024.

Last week, the state Senate and Assembly both approved legislation that would extend the appropriation annually through fiscal year 2029. That bill, which passed 76-0 in the Assembly and 40-0 in the Senate, has been sent to the governor for his signature.

"We are extremely grateful to the Legislature and Gov. Murphy for their continued support," Standardbred Breeders & Owners Association president Mark Ford said. "There is no doubt the previous appropriations strengthened our industry and fostered growth, whether it be in breeding or racing.

"Thank you to everyone who supported our efforts and helped deliver our message to the legislators and governor. The SBOANJ board, TrotPAC, and our policy partner AMG will continue to work with the Legislature to ensure that our industry's future remains bright."

Meadowlands Pace elims, Graduate finals top Saturday FS2 broadcast

It's fitting that Saturday (July 6) is Fan Appreciation Night at The Meadowlands, because the track will have a special 11-race program on an evening when the patron is King.

And for those who can't make it out to the mile oval, they can watch all of the action – and more – on FOX Sports 2 (FS2), beginning at 8 p.m.

Not only will there be a pair of $50,000 eliminations for the track's signature event, the $650,000 Meadowlands Pace, but the card will also feature two $230,000 Graduate Series finals, one on the pace and the other on the trot.

The program will be three races shorter than usual so that The Big M can give back to its faithful fans in the form of a spectacular fireworks show that will begin at 11 p.m.

In addition, Fan Appreciation Night will feature discount concessions for those who come out on what is forecast to be a steamy summer evening.

The Cafe, Rooftop Terrace and Backyard will offer hot dogs, pretzels, popcorn and soda (limit five of each item per transaction) for $1. Available for $2 will be Bud and Bud Light drafts (for those 21 years of age and older).

The discount prices are available from 6-11 p.m.

"We are so pleased to be able to offer all that we offer on Fan Appreciation Night," said Big M chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemoir. "The Meadowlands Pace shapes up as one of the more competitive we've had in years. Both Graduates look wide open as well, and after enjoying some discount concessions all night long, everybody can then enjoy a spectacular fireworks show and not have to worry about getting home too late."

INCREASING VISIBILITY: There was a time when standardbred racing was virtually invisible on television.

My how times have changed.

This Saturday will mark the first of two back-to-back weeks that FOX Sports will present live broadcasts of championship harness racing. A total of 12 races will be telecast from The Big M and Ohio's Scioto Downs as part of another edition of America's Day at the Races.

Harness Racing Update on Facebook

Indiana Governor Eric Holcomb recently made appointments to two key harness racing industry groups. In a release dated June 14, the governor appointed members to the Indiana Standardbred Advisory Board and Indiana Standardbred Breed Development Advisory Committee.

The Indiana Standardbred Advisory Board, which sponsors the state’s fair program, consists of five members. Tim Graber, Byron Hooley, Faron Parr and Dwayne Rhule were each reappointed to the board. Jane Ann Runyon, executive director of the United Way of Jay County, and a long-time racing participant and advocate, was appointed to the board. She replaces Pam Cross, who had served on the board since September 2004, most recently as vice chairman. Each appointee will serve a three-year term expiring June 30, 2027.

Trainer Joe Putnam was reappointed to the three-member Indiana Standardbred Breed Development Advisory Committee. Joining him are fellow conditioners Jeff Cullipher and Brett Wilfong. The three men will serve four-year terms, expiring June 30, 2028. Cullipher and Wilfong replace Scott Snyder and Rick Moore. Snyder had served on the committee since September 2011, and was a previous appointee to the aforementioned Standardbred Advisory Board. Moore, Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino's vice president of racing, was first appointed to the committee in April 2016.

The Indiana Standardbred Breed Development Fund receives 50 per cent of revenue generated from slot machines at Harrah's Hoosier Park which is earmarked for standardbred racing. In turn, the Advisory Committee works closely with Harrah's Hoosier Park, the Indiana Standardbred Association and Indiana Standardbred Advisory Board to develop the state's Standardbred Breed Development Program.

In other racing-related appointments, Blaine Davidson, Bruce Murphy and Tianna Richardville were reappointed to the Thoroughbred Breed Development Advisory Committee, and will serve until June 30, 2028. Chris Duke and Randy Thompson were reappointed to the Quarter Horse Breed Development Advisory Committee. Veterinarian Pamela Hann joins the committee as a new appointment. Each will serve through June 30, 2028.

Drivers ready for battle in Canadian Driving Championship

This afternoon (July 5), eight harness racing drivers from throughout the provinces of Canada will battle it out at the Hippodrome 3R in Trois-Rivieres, QC in the finals of the Canadian Driving Championship.

The winner of the eight-race competition will get to represent Canada at the World Driving Championships in New Zealand in 2025.

The competition is run by Standardbred Canada and features two representatives from the four regions in the country. It is the first time that the Hippodrome 3R has ever hosted the finals.

Once the morning line was completed, the point system for the competition was calculated based on the morning line (which is just an estimated indicator of betting odds for the racing fans) and came up with the following possible order of finish.

Stephane Brosseau (Quebec Region) – 65***

Robert Shepherd (Quebec Region) – 54*

Tyler Borth (Ontario Region) – 52

Mike Hennessy (Western Region) – 49*

David Dowling (Atlantic Region) – 45*

James MacDonald (Ontario Region) – 44*

Phil Giesbrecht (Western Region) – 41*

Redmond Doucet (Atlantic Region) – 28

* – Morning line favorite

H3R's Stephane Brosseau was fortunate to have three race favorites to drive. He has been on fire as of late at H3R, scoring four winners this past Sunday. He says he is ready for the competition.

"Currently, I'm in a good place lately," Brosseau said. "I think the win I got at Rideau in a Gold division with a Dr. Moore filly really gave me a boost, so to speak. I'm more confident, the victories are there and not a single day goes by without me thinking about the national tournament. I am looking forward to it and I am in excellent spirits. If I also feel the support of the public, who knows what could happen."

Second in the morning line calculations is the other H3R representative, Robert Shepherd, who has a drive on one race favorite, but his other drives are also competitive.

"I didn't do too bad with the draw for Friday," said Shepherd. "When I looked at the draw, I saw that I did not do that bad. It came out pretty good. It's going to be competitive, they are all good drivers. It seems that when you drive against top drivers it steps up your game. You have to be sharp because these guys will take any advantage they can get."

Shepherd said he has never been to New Zealand and would love to win the championship.

"I was actually teasing my daughter," Shepherd said with a laugh. "I told her if I win, we will get to go to New Zealand and see some kangaroos."

Tyler Borth, who came in third place in the morning-line odds is from Ontario.

"My French isn't good at all," Borth said, adding with a laugh, "It stops at 'Bonjour, je m'appelle Tyler' [Hello, my name is Tyler]. I am pretty happy with the draw. Looks like I have some decent ones early so I hope to get off to a good start."

In his Ontario Regional finals at Western Fair in London, Borth was very pleased to have won and bested fellow finalist James MacDonald.

"It was a thrill to win the Regionals at my home track of Western Fair," Borth said. "And it's always nice to come out ahead of King James as you know you must be doing something right."

All of the drivers will participate in a meet and greet with racing fans at the track today starting at 2 p.m. Then at 3 p.m. will be the official presentation of the eight drivers in the competition. First race post time is 4 p.m. For free race programs, visit www.hippodrome3r.ca.

Hail Mary joins MGM Yonkers International Trot field

One week after announcing defending champion Vivid Wise As as the first participant in the 2024 MGM Yonkers International Trot, Hail Mary has accepted the second invite to the $1,000,000 event slated for Sept. 7 at historic Yonkers Raceway.

Despite being a late bloomer who didn't debut until well into his 3-year-old season, Hail Mary has put together an impressive résumé across Europe, winning 28 of 50 career starts and north of $1.6 million for owner Mehdi Yazdanpanh under the Stall Mary AB banner. Trained in his early years by Robert Bergh, the now 8-year-old son of Googoo Gaagaa switched to the Daniel Redén barn prior to his 6-year-old season where he remains to date.

Hail Mary, who owns a lifetime mark of 1:50.2, has victories in the Swedish Trotting Derby, Breeders Crown, Aby Grand Prix and a number of other Group I races during his time on the track. He made an unsuccessful attempt at the Prix d'Amerique earlier this year, but with regular driver Örjan Kihlstrom, who will make the trip to New York for the MGM Yonkers International Trot, recently won the Group I Jamtlands Grand Prix (June 9) for the second consecutive year.

According to Yazdanpanh, Hail Mary will prep for the MGM Yonkers International Trot with races at Årjäng on July 13 and to defend his title in the Hugo Åbergs Memorial on July 30, before making the exciting journey to the United States.

"We have not participated [in the International Trot] before but we are really look forward to racing Hail Mary at Yonkers," said Yazdanpanh.

The MGM Yonkers International Trot will be the centerpiece of a spectacular afternoon card (12:15 p.m. EDT post time) on Sept. 7 that also features a pair of $250,000 invitationals for older horses and the $1.8 million finals of the New York Sire Stakes.

Randy Waples wins HPIbet Legends Trot, event raises over $61,000

"I just didn't want to fall off the bike, and anything beyond that is a success," said a jovial Randy Waples following his first pari-mutuel drive in almost two years.

The occasion was today's (June 30) HPIbet Legends Trot, the highlight of Clinton Raceway's 12th edition of its biennial Legends Day event which drew a large, enthusiastic crowd and saw over $100,000 wagered.

Showcasing harness drivers from the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame, it also serves as a major fundraiser for the track's community. Waples was one of eight distinguished Hall of Famers competing in the $10,000 race. His competitors were Wally Hennessey, Doug Brown, Steve Condren, Chris Christoforou, Sylvain Filion, Paul MacDonell, and Carl Jamieson.

Hometown race winner Heavy Dude E was a 6-1 victor, wiring the field under Waples' command, and holding on to finish a neck the best over Cool Clifford (with Steve Condren) in 2:01.1. Charmbro Prince (Wally Hennessey) was third. It was the fifth win of the season for Heavy Dude E, a six-year-old gelding owned by breeder Natalie Elliott of Clinton, ON. She also trains the career winner of 25 races and $184,000.

Hall of Fame announcer Frank Salive stepped out of retirement to call the HPIbet Legends Day Trot.

"There are so many great stories in harness racing traced to these grounds, these few hallowed acres of property right here at Clinton Raceway," said Salive. "I really love this place and I'm saying that from the heart."

Through several Legends Day initiatives, this year's fundraising efforts raised more than $61,000 for the Clinton Public Hospital Foundation, bringing the total to $391,000 since the event's inception in 2001.

Today's fundraising included a BBQ for which 900 tickets were sold, and a $500 silent auction score for the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame resulting from Sylvain Filion's donation of the helmet he wore during today's HPIbet Legends Trot.

During a reunion for the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame, fans mingled with the guest drivers and other featured guests of the event who have previously driven in its signature race: John Campbell,

Trevor Ritchie, Dave Wall, Ron Waples and Bill O'Donnell. The distinguished roster has combined statistics of 92,450 winning drives and purse earnings of $1.4 billion.

The race card also featured three elimination rounds for next week's $50,000 Kin Pace final. Today's division winners were Wicked Leader in 1:58 (with Trevor Henry for trainer Tom Gallant), Greatest Pleasure in 1:58 (Louis-Philippe Roy for Luc Blais) and How Much in 1:55 (Doug McNair for Dave Menary).

U.S. Harness Writers Association celebrates new Communicators Hall of Fame display

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) will celebrate the opening of the new, interactive Communicators Hall of Fame (CHOF) kiosk, inside the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame at Goshen, NY, on Saturday (July 6, 2024), with a special ribbon cutting ceremony at 10 a.m.

“The most collaborative and expansive exhibit update this year has been the Communicators Hall of Fame,” said Museum director Janet Terhune. “In association with a committed group of members from the United States Harness Writers Association, the Museum has designed and implemented a new look and digital framework to celebrate the accomplishments of those elected to the Communicators Hall of Fame. This effort is likely to lead the way in other digital installations and updates that will renew and refresh the Museum’s overall presentation.”

Michael Carter, USHWA president said, “We are so thrilled and thankful to the Museum for housing the members of the Communicators Hall of Fame as we move into the future via this new display. Our recognized Hall of Fame members – which includes writers, publicists, and other top communicators within the harness racing industry – deserve to have first-rate recognition, and this modern kiosk does just that.”

With space limited within the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame, the decision was made to showcase the CHOF members in an upgraded, modern format. The CHOF kiosk will allow visitors to search for a member alphabetically and will present the CHOF member’s biography and pertinent information in a digital format, along with accompanying photographs.

An informal, light brunch will be served following the ceremony, which is free and open to the public.

Tom Agosti appointed as race secretary at Batavia Downs

Don Hoover, director of live racing at Batavia Downs, has announced that Tom Agosti has been named as the new race secretary for Batavia Downs starting with the 2024 summer/fall live meet.

“Since coming to Batavia, I have been serving double-duty as both director of live racing and race secretary and in order to have both positions be better managed, I have decided to hire Tom to handle the daily draws so I can concentrate more on running the business,” said Hoover.

“With Tom’s knowledge of the local horse colony and their connection’s needs for proper classification, having him write the condition sheet here to be reflective of the meet they are coming from will be advantageous to all racing participants.”

Agosti has been a fixture on the western New York harness racing circuit since 1977 when he launched a 31-year driving career that ended in 2011 due to back issues. During that time, Agosti won 1,435 races, $4.4 million in purses and multiple driving titles.

Shortly after parking his race bike for the final time, Agosti was hired as the assistant race secretary at Buffalo Raceway in 2011, moved to the top spot there in 2014 and has held that position ever since.

Agosti has also served as the race secretary at The Red Mile early meet since 2016 along with his duties as charter and program director. He has given up his positions there to transition to the Batavia job.

Although Agosti loved being in Kentucky, he said the opportunity to take the Batavia position was something he could not pass up.

“Working at The Red Mile was great,” said Agosti. “I loved the people down there and it was just an overall great environment to be in. But it was only three months out of the year. The position at Batavia amounts to seven months overall, including the winter meet, and the best thing is I get to go home every night.

“Like Don, I also feel having a uniform condition sheet bridging the two meets will be beneficial for all the local horsemen and will also help the smaller stables be more successful year-round. Our main objective here is to have the racing be fair and equitable for everyone involved.”

Live racing kicks off at Batavia Downs on Saturday, July 27 at 6 p.m.

Mark Short named administrator of Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund

The Delaware Department of Agriculture announced today that Mark Short has been named the new Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DESBF) administrator.

“Mark has been shadowing me for over 20 years,” said DESBF administrator Judy Davis-Wilson. “He is the perfect person to serve as my replacement. He is knowledgeable about the industry and looks forward to helping everyone advance their Delaware breeding options.”

Short began working in the racing offices and photo finish at Dover Downs and Harrington Raceway in September 1996. He moved up to the assistant race secretary position before becoming the race secretary for Harrington Raceway in 2019 and Bally's Dover for the 2023-24 season. Short was the first person to cover both tracks in this role since 1996.

“I look forward to continuing the success that Judy Davis-Wilson has created since the Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund was founded in 2001,” said Short.

Short grew up in harness racing, beginning with feeding, watering, and mucking stalls before moving on to jogging horses. Beginning in 1980, his family ran Short's Produce and Stable, with five-to-six horses in their string at a time, which they raced in Delaware and Maryland.

Along with his role at the track, Short has served as the rabies coordinator for the Delaware Department of Agriculture. He will begin his new role as the DESBF administrator on Nov. 1.
