Fighting against harness racing's status quo

Scioto, the Meadowlands and Ontario Racing are experimenting with a range of new ideas.

by Dean Towers

We've often heard how harness racing clings to the status quo, even when the cries for change become deafening. It's a warm blanket and it seems we fall back on it as much as we can.

However, a few entities in this sport have thrown that mindset out the window of late and are experimenting or trying new directions. They aren't settling, just because they can.

SCIOTO BEGINS TO SIZZLE

Ten years ago, if you asked a hundred harness fans outside Ohio where Scioto Downs was located, I bet maybe five would know. It's not like that anymore. In 2022, Scioto has entered the lexicon of tracks that customers find worth looking at.

Full fields and the willingness of drivers to mix things up has created some interesting racing, the result of which has been good prices (which is so important in a sport plagued with low ones). It's not pure chaos, either. Scioto is one of the few racetracks where a $40 horse crosses the wire and when I look at the past performances, I can often see that the horse kind of figures.

The latest adventure for Gabe Prewitt and the Scioto team has been the $1 Pick 8. The jury is still out on this wager, but it is something new for players to examine, and it is attractive. As well, carryovers abound with the new betting menu, and we all know by now how carryovers mimic a takeout reduction and drive money.

Ohio has a vibrant slots program. It has a great American race in the Little Brown Jug. It possesses a track — Northfield — that has a good historical following. It's doling out some solid purse money. Some might say that this is enough and would rest on these laurels.

The Scioto team hasn't done that, and for that I send a hearty good cheer.

AT THE BIG M THE GLASS IS HALF FULL

I caught the racing at the Meadowlands on the last weekend in June, and I was impressed with the product. The races were fast and exciting; the drivers were on their games and the horses did not disappoint. Tremendous performances from the likes of Bulldog Hanover and Charlie May lived up to the billing and Rattle My Cage going toe to toe with Cuatro De Julio was a real barnburner. These races proved without a doubt restarting the Graduate Series was a good idea.

As for the Meadowlands overall (outside the GSY races which can, at times, not look like harness racing), I think things have gotten better.

I, like many of you, wish the "no holes" policy was determined by consistent judging – allowing holes, but only to get a horse out of the way, or to use for cover – but I can't deny the racing is more contentious. A year ago, drivers waiting for cover and clogging the flow (which plagues harness racing at so many places) has almost been eliminated by executive fiat.

The partnership with Insideharness.com is the newest addition, with the goal of addressing long-term customer complaints. Telling the public what happened to a horse the previous week, how a horse is coming into a race, or off a qualifier, along with driver thoughts is a level of transparency this sport has never seen.

This is important, in my view, because it strikes right at the heart of one of this sport's deepest critiques – that harness racing is "fixed."

We all know Ron Burke and Tony Alagna are far too busy running a stable to engineer betting coups, and their comments on this website (if you have not read them, I suggest you give it a look) help your everyday fan now know that, too. The general comments thus far have shed light that when a horse is in the box, insiders are often as confused as bettors are. There's no willingness to pull the wool over anyone's eyes, and if a horse races better or worse than they expect, well, that's racing. This is a fantastic lesson.

Say what you want about Jeff Gural and the Meadowlands team – and reading these pages we know several of you have opinions – but they aren't running out the clock until a subsidy goes away. Good policy or bad, they believe the glass is not half empty, but half full.

NATIONAL COMMERCIALS? YES!

Last up, I was watching – like every good Canadian boy – the Stanley Cup playoffs this spring, and I can't even count the number of times I saw a television ad for Ontario harness racing. Outside the Super Bowl, the Stanley Cup playoffs are the highest watched sporting event in the country, with national brands paying top dollar for ad space, and harness racing was right in the thick of it.

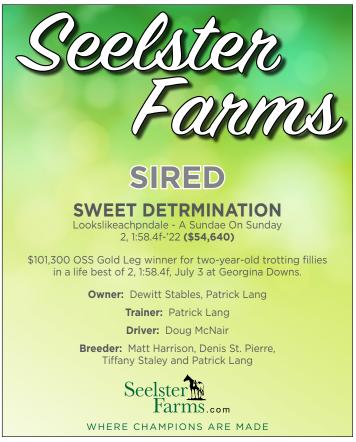

After the slots contract was cancelled in Ontario and reengineered for the future, there was a lot of hand wringing. And to be fair it was not unwarranted as purse levels and the number of racetracks fell. But, true to their word, the Ontario government has sunk money into the demand side of the sport.

We won't see harness racing commercials in the U.S. during the NBA Finals or World Series anytime soon, but we do see them in Ontario, right in prime time. That's something many have wished for in this sport, and it truly is something different.

There's quite a bit to grumble about in harness racing, and many of us wish the status quo did not have its boot so firmly placed on this sports' neck. In the above three instances we are seeing something new; something innovative. The status quo is a comfortable excuse for never taking a shot, and as the Great One once said, we miss all the shots we don't take.

A brief history of the 1:46 miles

Bulldog Hanover has joined Always B Miki and Lather Up in the exclusive club.

by Bob Heyden

Always B Miki, Lather Up and now Bulldog Hanover are now tied for the 1:46 world record thanks to Bulldog's huge mile Saturday (July 2) at The Meadowlands.

Also, keep in mind that Bulldog Hanover was breeding earlier this year.

Always B Miki set his mile in Lexington, while the other two did it at the Meadowlands.

Bulldog Hanover's trainer Jack Darling (with an assist by Noel Daley in New Jersey), joins Miki's trainer Jimmy Takter and Lather Up's trainer George Teague, Jr. as trainers of a 1:46 winner.

This year marks the 25th anniversary of Darling having a pair of standouts in Gothic Dream, the North America Cup winner, and Northern Luck, the fastest sophomore ever at night with a 1:49.1 mark in 1997. The drivers were David Miller (Miki), Montrell Teague (Lather Up) and Dexter Dunn (Bulldog).

Remember that when ABM posted his incredible mile of 1:46 in 2016 there was a similar logjam at the top with four 1:46.4 efforts starting with Holborn Hanover's Hambletonian Day spectacular in 2006, Somebeachsomewhere's Lexington mile of 1:46.4 in 2008 and the same time for Warrawee Needy in 2013 and then He's Watching in the 2014 Meadowlands Pace. He is still the fastest Pace winner.

HANOVER'S HUGE NIGHT ON JULY 2

Horse produced at Hanover Shoe Farms were 1-2-3 across the wire in Saturday's second Roll With Joe elimination, headlined by an all-time best equaling 1:46 from Bulldog Hanover. This was after Hanover-bred Rockyroad Hanover scorched the oval in 1:46.2 taking the first division.

It was similar to the 2006 Hambletonian Day when Donato Hanover dominated in $1.5 million main event and sire Andover Hall with his first crop from Hanover, taking down the 1-2 spots in the Hambletonian and won the $750,000 Hambletonian Oaks, too with Danae.

It was the richest single day ever recorded for a sire.

There have been 19 Triple Crown winners in our sport's history combined. Five of the 19 winners were foaled at Hanover.

TRIPLE CROWNS UNDERWAY

Speaking of the Triple Crown, the Messenger and Yonkers Trot got the Triple Crown underway on Friday (July 1) at Yonkers. The first time they were held together was 34 years ago at Yonkers.

This year's combined purse for the two races was $542,634. In 2006, when Yonkers re-opened, both races went for more than that. The Yonkers Trot, won by Glidemaster, had a purse of $728,930. The Messenger had a purse of $546,830.

The 1968 Yonkers Trot had no betting. Nevele Pride romped — much like Joviality this year. The latter went off at 1-5-after paying the minimum $2.10 in each of her first four tries.

HOW SWEDE IT IS

If Marcus Melander, Lucas Wallin or anyone else from Sweden starts in the 2022 Hambletonian, fans/bettors should take these numbers into consideration:

Four of the last eight Kentucky Futurities have been won by a Swedish trainer.

Eight of the last 13 Yonkers Trots have been won by a Swedish trainer.

Five of the last 12 Hambletonians have been won by a Swedish trainer.

In total, that makes Swedes 17-for-33.

Add in two of the last four Yonkers International Trots and it is 19-for-35 — over 50 per cent.

On the flip side, three American trainers have win the Elitloppet in 71 editions.

POOR RALPH

Only two pacers have won a million-dollar race and a Triple Crown in the same year — Niatross in 1980 and Ralph Hanover in 1983.

Each set the new single-season earnings record during that magical season.

But you rarely hear Ralph's name.

True, the 1983 sophomore pacing division were not tough or distinguished. That is not Ralph's fault.

It is also true that Ralph, a son of Meadow Skipper had high expectations as a stud prospect and only wound up with progeny earnings of $17.4 million. Quite disappointing. But that shouldn't diminish his on-track accomplishment.

A RARITY THAT COULD HAPPEN IN THE 2022 HAMBLETONIAN

Let's for a second assume that Andy and Todd McCarthy each will have an assignment in the 2022 Hambletonian final. It did not happen last year. If it happens this year, it will be the first time since the Hambletonian has been contested in New Jersey that brothers will battle in the final.

Brothers Ulf and Jan Nordin competed in 1984 in the elims — each with a Breeders Crown winner no less, Sandy Bowl and Baltic Speed. But, that year there was a race-off won by Historic Freight. So the Nordins did not compete against each other in the final.

Rising Sun race already an instant classic in its second year

The race, to be contested Saturday night in Brisbane, pits 3-year-olds against 4-year-olds.

by Adam Hamilton

Innovation is certainly a buzz word when it comes to racing, sport or even modern business for that matter.

In the harness racing world, it may be the single most important thing.

In many ways, harness racing has been standing still, somewhat tied so passionately to tradition, while other sports have been creatively innovative.

That is why a new Australian race – the $A305,000 Rising Sun – has become such a popular, interesting and important race in just its second year.

TWIN B JOE FRESH

p,2, 1:52.2 ($49,637) Roll With Joe - Fresh Breeze

$51,300 NYSS division winner for 2yopf's at Saratoga for owners Chris Ryder, Dexter Dunn, Peter Trebotica, Barry Spak and trainer Chris Ryder. Bred by Twinbrook Farms and sold at the 2021 Standardbred Yearling Sale for $65,000.

It will be run for the second time at Queensland's Albion Park track in Brisbane in the evening (Aussie time) on Saturday (July 10).

So why does it tick the innovation box? And what makes it such a wonderful PR tool for the sport?

Simply, there is no other race like the Rising Sun in this part of the world. It is restricted to 3- and 4-year-old pacers only.

Then there is the added flavor of four early "invitational" tickets into the 2,138-metre mobile start event.

When Racing Queensland first played around a concept, they felt a fair slice of negativity back from the trainers they canvassed in regard to 3-year-olds taking on older horses at a relatively early stage of the season.

So, they added a crucial tweak. Three-year-olds get the best barrier draws – in the case of this year's race, barriers one, two and three.

"One part we probably forgot a bit about at the time was the 4-year-old mares," Racing Queensland and key creator of the race, David Brick, said.

"We needed to have an incentive for them to take on the boys, so we added that middle layer of preferential draws for the mares... they draw outside the 3-year-olds, but inside the 4-year-old boys."

And that has proven crucial in the first two years.

It essentially "won" the race for champion mare Amazing Dream – who has obviously since moved to the U.S. to continue her career.

Amazing Dream started from gate three, began well enough to drop in behind the leader, Krug, and made the most of a gun run to use the sprint lane and win the inaugural running of the Group 1 feature.

The connections of Australia's current champion mare Ladies In Red have been abundantly clear they are only tackling the race because of the preferential draw she gets (gate four) and the fact Amazing Dream showed a girl could beat the boys in the race.

Owner/breeder Bill Anderson explained: "It was Anne's (Anderson's wife) call. She said if Amazing Dream could do it last year, then we had to give Ladies In Red her chance."

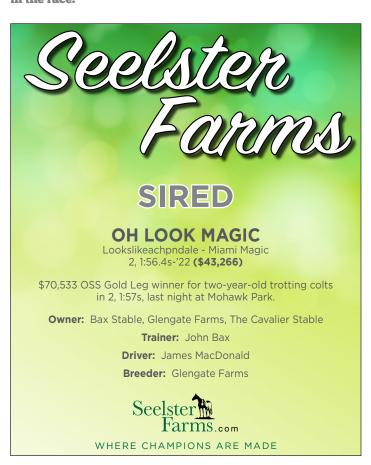

Co-trainers Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin admitted they were "pleasantly shocked" when the Andersons accepted the invitation to race.

"When we rang to tell them about the offer, we were sure they'd say no, but they surprised us. It's exciting," Stewart said.

Stuart McCormick

The connections of Australia's current champion mare Ladies In Red (David Moran, 2021 Victoria Oaks final) have been abundantly clear they are only tackling the race because of the preferential draw she gets (gate four) and the fact Amazing Dream showed a girl could beat the boys in the race.

We think the 3 year-olds just add so much to the race. It really came about when our CEO, Brendan Parnell, talked about how important the 3-year-olds are in a big thoroughbred race over here like the Cox Plate.

~ David Brick

This will be the first time Ladies In Red will race against boys in her 22-start career which has netted 18 wins and four seconds.

Tonkin said: "With most mares you'd be nervous and doubt them, but not here. She's something else. I'm not saying she'll win it, but I'm sure she will be very, very competitive.

"Emma and I debate this all the time at home... I think she's the best we've ever trained. But Emma thinks we need to wait and see how she goes this year, especially in a race like this, before giving her that title.

"We've been lucky enough to train some amazing horses, but just for sheer dominance, I don't think we've had one like her. She's got it all and she's repeatedly done what looks impossible on paper or during a race."

In a race of stars, Ladies In Red is the main attraction for all the reasons above.

Such is the diversity of the race, there is strong argument to say the other most "important" horse in the race is untapped local (Queensland) 3-year-old Leap To Fame. He's the pacer money couldn't buy despite some thumping offers after his breathtaking NSW Derby win in early March.

Daringly, trainer/driver Grant Dixon has opted to go first-up since that Derby win into the Rising Sun with Leap To Fame.

"We think the 3 year-olds just add so much to the race," Brick said. "It really came about when our CEO, Brendan Parnell, talked about how important the 3-year-olds are in a big thoroughbred race over here like the Cox Plate. He asked if we could ever get 3-year-olds to run in our biggest race, the Blacks A Fake.

"That wasn't going to happen, so we went away and workshopped things and came up with the concept for the Rising Sun.

"Not only do the 3-year-olds get a preferential draw, but there is a $A100,000 bonus for any 3-year-old who wins the race.

"The 3-year-olds were competitive without fighting out the finish last year and we'll be watching closely again this week. It's so important to the race they are not only part of it but run well. Giving away an extra $A100,000 is not something you usually want to do, but in this case, we would love to for the sake of the race."

Brick admits he and Racing Queensland were a tad peeved and bemused when Australia's national body, Harness Racing Australia, announced the world's richest new race – the $2.1 million Eureka – would also be for 3- and 4-year-olds.

"We made our point, but in many ways it is a complement to our concept and we think both races could value-add to each other," he said.

"The Eureka is a bit different being for Australian-bred pacers only, while ours is open to all.

"Given the Eureka is a slot race and will be run a couple of months after our race, we think lots of the slot holders will be watching our race closely for a potential horse to race in their slot."

While the Rising Sun has already changed the game Down Under, Brick said the strive to innovate meant Racing Queensland will unashamedly reserve the right to keep tinkering with it.

"We certainly don't say we got everything right from day one. We will continue to review and make any changes we think can make it a better race.

"We got the prize money up from $A250,000 to $A305,000 this year and aim to have it at $A500,000 before too long. That doesn't include the bonuses."

Cinema standardbred: a plot to promote the sport of harness racing - Part 2

by Frank Cotolo

Alternative Actions (AA) continues its series developed to offer the solution that has the best chance to change the nature of the film industry's ambivalence towards harness racing and perhaps inspire someone to pioneer a project that could be the most successful promotional tool standardbred racing ever utilized.

Part 1 is here.

Hollywood's love affair with thoroughbred horse racing was consummated four years before the element of sound was added to the medium and a dozen years before the opening of Hollywood Park racetrack (more to come about the film industry's connection to the track).

It was a 1926 silent movie release titled "Speed Demon" that first featured a thoroughbred-race setting woven into a screenplay. According to International Movie Data Base (IMDB), this was the storyline: "A New York racetrack con artist tries to swindle a thoroughbred owner out of his prize filly, but the plot is interrupted by a race car driver Speed Sherman."

The movie is one of the IMDB-listed 10,000 lost films so we can safely assume there were no significant efforts to assure its survival and for all we know this AA series is the first time it is mentioned in the context of film history.

In 1926, thoroughbred racetracks were becoming enormously popular in Illinois and by the 1930s Chicago was home to six racetracks, more than any other metropolitan area in the United States. Harness racing in urban areas shared racetracks featuring thoroughbred racing. However, the self-proclaimed "oldest operating racetrack," The Milwaukie Mile in Wisconsin, "started hosting open-wheeled races," which a lack of documentation must allow us to assume was harness racing.

As sound revolutionized the medium in the 1930s, Hollywood flirted with movies concerning thoroughbred horseracing. These included "Racetrack," "Racing Luck," "Racing Blood," "Hot Tip," "Thoroughbred," "Breezing Home," Men Of Chance," "Broadway Bill," "Three Men On A Horse," "Down The Stretch," "You Can't Buy Luck," "Speed To Burn," "Sporting Blood" and "Saratoga," the latter two starring box-office giant Clark Gable. (Sidenote: "Saratoga" was one of the earliest movie scripts written by a woman — Anita Loos — who later wrote the bookturned-movie smash "Gentleman Prefer Blondes.")

For the most part, though, the industry found more success using racetracks as a stage for comedy. "A Day At The Races" ('37) was a huge hit for Broadway-turned-movie-stars The Marx Brothers and the lesser known but money-making Ritz Brothers put their brand of crazy in "Straight, Place And Show" ('38).

In 1933, Hollywood began to adapt short stories by popular newspaper-reporter-turned fiction author, Daymon Runyon, into movie scripts. He wrote clique tales featuring underived hustlers, gangsters and gamblers. Among them, Runyon created thoroughbred betting characters that Hollywood (and many Broadway productions) helped to turn into humorous stereotypes. All in all, 20 of his stories became films. Some were reworkings of the same stories and others were film versions of stories adapted into Broadway musicals, the most recognized being "Guys And Dolls."

Hollywood movie-industry mavens became bigger fans of thoroughbred racing than movie audiences through the '30s and by '38 they produced something other than a movie to satisfy their fancies — a modern horse racing track named Hollywood Park.

In 1943, three years before his death, one of his stories, "Princess O'Hara" was remade from a 1935 production with the same title into a comedy by the hottest comedy team of the WWII years, Abbott and Costello. It was retitled "It Ain't Hay." After its theater run, it was unavailable to the public for many years due to legal issues with the Runyon estate.

In the earthquake-ridden city of Inglewood, which in the '20s became the Chinchilla Capital of the world and the home of LAX Airport and The Forum sports center, Jack Warner (of the famous Warner Bros. movie studio), headed an array of seminal industry figures investing in the venture. They included Bing Crosby, Walt Disney, Al Jolson, Samuel Goldwyn among directors and stars. A year before, Crosby and other celebrities funded Del Mar Racetrack, expanding the state's thoroughbred circuit. At its peak of growth were enough crossover audiences to keep the doors open for all entertainment businesses.

After WWII, gambling on horse racing thrived around the world. Harness racing, too. Standardbreds raced in Canada, Australasia, Scandinavia and Europe. In the USA, it was attracting huge urban crowds hungry for legal wagering and another entertainment venue away from home.

And as the '50s began, though harness racing attracted larger urban audiences and financial stability, Hollywood remained incurious to the sport.

In Part 3 we will analyze the failure of horse racing movies and edge towards our plot to create "Cinema Standardbred."

Pekka Korpi dominated in Suur-Hollola

by Thomas Hedlund

The $212,500 Suur-Hollola-Ajo in Lahti, Finland is a quite tough race to win. Finnish-bred trotters qualified for the 1.3 miles long race on Saturday (July 2) afternoon with a final waiting as soon as the day after, on Sunday (July 3).

Pekka Korpi trained Run For Royalty (R.C.Royalty) won the Finnish Kriterium for 3-year-olds in 2017 and the horse has waited for his next big triumph until Sunday's final in Suur-Hollola. During the seasons of 2019 and 2020, the R.C.Royalty son had 10 starts without putting his nose first and when Janne Korpi defended front position from post 1 in Sunday's final, the road to victory was open. Run For Royalty could held stablemate Magical Princess behind him by a neck as he won in a mile rate of 1:55.4. The big win on Sunday meant that Run For Royalty is undefeated in three starts 2022 and the 8-year-old trotter seems to be a serious factor in Finland's bigger races later this season.

Pekka Korpi drove Magical Princess and after a pocket trip she finished strongly as second, ahead of Majestic Man.

STOLETHESHOW AGAIN?

Frode Hamre's Stoletheshow (Dream Vacation) chases another big triumph in his new home country of Norway and after an impressive win in Oslo Grand Prix in June, the horse will try the $160,000 Ulf Thoresen Grand International over 1.3 miles at Jarlsberg racetrack this Sunday (July 10).

A 10-horse field will gather at Jarlsberg with the big race scheduled during the track's weekend meeting. Stoletheshow has great chances to repeat his success from Oslo since he draws post 1 behind the gate and, as in Oslo, trainer Frode Hamre is in the bike.

GOCCIADORO KING IN NAPLES

Alessandro Gocciadoro's success at European racetracks continue and when Naples track Agnano played host to the $160,000 Gran Premio Citta di Napoli and the $68,500 Gran Premio Citta di Napoli Filly on Sunday (July 3) night, the dominant Italian trainer claimed both titles.

In the Group-1-race Gran Premio Citta di Napoli for 3-year-olds, Gocciadoro sat behind Dundee As (Maharajah) and the duo secured a safe win after a first over trip in mile rate 1:56.4 over 1.3 miles.

In the fillies' division, Gocciadoro used the same tactics as in the first race. His Delicious Gar (Father Patrick) was sent to position first over with 3/4 of a mile remaining of the race and Delicious Gar defended herself bravely when attacks were set in by opponents over the stretch.

The Father Patrick filly came home in 1:55.1.

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

A crowd of more than 300 people gathered Sunday evening (July 3) at the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame to celebrate the induction of the Hall of Fame class of 2022.

Driver Yannick Gingras, trainers Ron Burke and George Teague Jr., and trainer/driver Chris Boring led the group, which was honored during the annual induction dinner on the Museum lawn.

Also inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sunday were immortals Aime Choquette, Sterling Elliott, Chip Noble and Bill Mulligan, as well as horses Andover Hall, Credit Winner, Presidential Ball, Great Memories and In A Safe Place.

Going into the Communicators Hall of Fame were Jay Bergman and Joe Kyle.

Burke is the top trainer in harness racing history in both wins, with more than 12,700, and purses, with nearly $280 million. He has led all trainers in North America in both categories each of the past 13 years and received the Trainer of the Year award three times.

"I don't like people talking about me, but I love taking about myself," Burke said to laughter as he began his speech. He thanked his family, numerous horsemen associated with his career, and his owners over the years.

One of the drivers who has played a big role in Burke's career is Gingras, with the two teaming to win countless major stakes races.

"When we started making the move (east), he was the first guy out there that believed in me, that we could do something special. It meant a lot. We grew up together. We did it together. We moved up from Freehold to the Meadowlands to the Grand Circuit. That's meant a lot."

Among Burke's numerous stars were 2017 Horse of the Year Hannelore Hanover and Hall of Fame pacer Foiled Again, who retired in 2018 with 109 wins and a record $7.63 million in purses.

"I can't thank (Foiled Again) enough for what he's done for me and my family," Burke said, "and probably the biggest thing, reminded me why I love horses.

"Hannelore was my first Horse of the Year. I can't ever forget her. She is going to have a baby this year; it's supposed to be wonderful. Hopefully, we'll get it. We'll see. Everybody save up."

He concluded by congratulating his fellow inductees.

"We made it," Burke said. "It's hard. It really is. It's hard."

Gingras, a native of Quebec, moved to the United States in 2001 at the age of 21 and two years later was the sport's Rising Star Award winner. He led the sport in annual earnings four times  $-2014\ through\ 2017$  — and he was named Driver of the Year in 2014 and 2017.

"This definitely means a lot," Gingras said. "It's not something that I really thought about when I first started out, when I first came to the U.S. You're driving against the best of the best. But it's always been my mentality to be a small fish in a big pond. That's how you get better. I believe that racing against the best is how you become the best."

For his career, Gingras has earned more than $206 million in purses, the sixth most in history. He has won more than 8,100 races including 24 Breeders Crown finals, also the sixth most in history, as well as countless other Grand Circuit stakes.

Gingras got emotional during his speech while talking about his family, even speaking directly to his family in French for a couple minutes, as well as when discussing the horsemen who helped him throughout his career, among them Burke and trainers Mark Ford and Jimmy Takter.

"Ronnie, it's so fitting that me and you are going in at the same time," Gingras said, later adding, "I figure it's been about 15 years now we've been working together and I wouldn't change a thing. The security and the loyalty you've given me over the last 15 years, it's not normal in this business. You're a family guy as well. I can take days off and never have to worry about being taken off a horse. It's something so important to me so that I can be with (my family). I can never thank you enough for what you do for us."

During his own often emotional speech, Teague talked about his upbringing, his family and the people that make up Team Teague and the stable's success.

"With the work ethic from my parents, the love of horses and the opportunities from great people that came along, I made it here today," Teague said. "To me, that's what the Hall of Fame is. It isn't about me as much as the team and us working together."

Teague's training stable is best known for two Horse of the Year Award winners, Rainbow Blue and Wiggle It Jiggleit, as well as the co-fastest horse in history, with a 1:46 mile, pacer Lather Up. Wiggle It Jiggleit and Lather Up were driven by Teague's son, Montrell.

"Wiggle It Jiggleit was over-the-top fun," Teague said. "When you can have a horse like that, and have your son to drive, if you can write a story better than that, I'm ready to read the book, and I don't read books."

Teague has twice been recognized as Owner of the Year. Other honors include two William R. Haughton Good Guy Awards, in 2004 and 2016, from the U.S. Harness Writers Association. In the latter year, USHWA also presented Team Teague with its highest honor, the Stan Bergstein-Proximity Achievement Award, presented for "outstanding contributions to harness racing."

"I was lucky enough to have a few people along the way that gave me opportunities and kept telling me that I could do this," Teague said. "That's what has gotten me here, with a lot of support from family and friends, and a lot of great owners. Too many good people to name. I can't thank them enough. Thank you for the opportunity to train horses, to be a partner, to have a little fun along the way. And this has been fun.

"That is my Hall of Fame, the whole team of people, the opportunity that got me here, kept me here. I never thought it would happen to me. Hard work, timing, opportunity; all these horses are a great story from a little guy from a small town that made it up on this stage tonight. It's about keeping it fun."

Boring, a member of one of Michigan's founding families of harness racing, won races in seven different decades, amassing nearly 4,000 victories and $20 million in purses as a driver. He hit the national spotlight with True Duane, a winner of over $360,000 more than 50 years ago.

He also was the handler of Colt Fortysix, winner of the 1984 Little Brown Jug, and another outstanding 3-year-old, Albert Albert.

"All I've ever thought about being in the horse business is driving and training horses," Boring said. "I had a very supportive family. I had good teachers in my father (Leon) and my uncle Harold. I tried to always surround myself with good people and work for good people.

"God gave me the ability to try to keep up and hang in there. I love the horse business more than anything. I always will. I really appreciate being here. It's a great honor and a great privilege and a lot of wonderful people."

Bulldog Hanover equals 1:46 world record in Roll With Joe series

by Ray Cotolo for the Meadowlands

The 4-year-old Shadow Play—BJ's Squall stallion Bulldog Hanover proved himself as one of the top dogs of the older pacing ranks by doing most of the work on the front to clock a stakes-record and track- and world-record-equaling 1:46 mile in the $99,500 second of two divisions for the Roll With Joe on Saturday (July 2) at The Meadowlands.

Allywag Hanover hustled for the lead to a :26.2 first quarter while Bulldog Hanover, scratching into the pylon post, settled for the pocket. But driver Dexter Dunn had plenty of pull in his hands up the backside and soon circled Bulldog Hanover for the lead before a :53.4 half. From there, the field gave futile pursuit as he clicked three-quarters in 1:20.2 and cruised home to best Allywag Hanover by 1-3/4 lengths with the next-closest finisher, Abuckabett Hanover, well behind in third.

"[Dexter] was sort of speechless," trainer Noel Daley said after the race. "Jack [Darling] said the same thing, that [Bulldog Hanover] was pretty special; it's just so easy. [Dexter] said it took a half mile to pull him up tonight, too."

Noel Daley oversees the Jack Darling-developed pupil, whom Darling co-owns through his Jack Darling Stables Ltd. with Brad Grant, during his residency in New Jersey. In taking his 19th win from 27 starts, not only did he elevate his account to $919,520, but he also became just the third horse in harness racing history to post a 1:46 mile. Always B Miki became the first at The Red Mile in 2016 and Lather Up the second at The Meadowlands in 2019.

"We take no credit – we got him 48 hours before his first start," Daley said. "We're just checking him over, that's it; we've done nothing with him. He hardly trains, but they don't need to when they go that quick."

Bulldog Hanover, off at 1-5, returned $2.40 to win.

Fresh off a :24.4 final-quarter chase to Bulldog Hanover in the Graduate Series, Rockyroad Hanover procured a second-over tow behind Charlie May and ripped off cover to post a 1:46.2 victory in the $98,000 first division of two for the Roll With Joe.

"That's a dream trip for him," winning driver Todd McCarthy said, "and it's a dream mile, too."

Receiving late play down to 6-5 favoritism, Rockyroad Hanover floated off the wings to race fifth as Workin Ona Mystery motored for the lead to a :26 first quarter with Splash Brother sitting the pocket. Charlie May, the 7-5 second choice, sat patiently in fourth before committing to race first-over past a :53.3 half, giving Rockyroad Hanover a slipstream to follow.

Charlie May marched to match strides with Workin Ona Mystery by three-quarters in 1:20.4 and soon forged to the lead as Todd McCarthy edged Rockyroad Hanover toward open racetrack. In a matter of strides, the four-year-old stallion by Captaintreacherous-Romantic Moment accelerated clear to win going away by 2-3/4 lengths over Charlie May in the stakes-record mile, which bests the 1:47.2 mark set by State Treasurer in 2015. Workin Ona Mystery held third and Nicholas Beach took fourth.

"I felt like I had a lot of horse; I knew it was going to be a pretty big mile," McCarthy said after the race. "[Charlie May]'s a very hard horse to get past, but my guy had a lot of sprint left in the stretch, so he finished really strong."

Rockyroad Hanover notched his eighth victory from 31 starts and pushed his career bankroll $679,572. Tony Alagna conditions the stallion for owner M3 Racing Stable. He paid $4.60 to win.

Bella Bellini sparkles in Six Pack, sets career-best 1:50.1 mile

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Bella Bellini and driver Dexter Dunn rallied in the stretch to overtake When Dovescry and win Saturday's (July 2) $131,250 Six Pack mares open trot by one length in a career-best 1:50.1 at The Meadowlands. Weslynn Quest finished third and Atlanta was fourth.

Bella Bellini, a 4-year-old mare winning for the third time in her past four starts, was fourth throughout most of the mile. Next Level Stuff led the field to the opening quarter in :27, then yielded the front briefly to Weslynn Quest on the backstretch, but was back on top at the half, which was reached in :54.1.

Heading around the final turn, Next Level Stuff remained in front, but When Dovescry and driver David Miller were making a first-over move and Bella Bellini followed their cover. When they reached the stretch, When Dovescry took the lead but was unable to hold off Bella Bellini, who covered the last quartermile in :26.2.

"She is really, really fast," winning driver Dexter Dunn said about Bella Bellini. "Once we found David's helmet, it was a good helmet to follow, and it took me right into the stretch. Once you tip her off a helmet, she really explodes. She did the rest. It couldn't have worked out any better.

"Tonight, to be honest, is probably the sharpest she's felt all year. It's exciting. I just have to try to get her in the right spots and let her show her speed."

Bella Bellini is trained by Richard "Nifty" Norman for breeder/owner David McDuffee. The daughter of Bar Hopping—Bella Dolce has won three of seven starts this year and 14 of 33 lifetime, earning $1.27 million.

Last year, Bella Bellini won 11 of 19 races, missed the board only once, and received the Dan Patch Award for best 3-year-old female trotter. He wins included the Hambletonian Oaks and Breeders Crown, both at The Meadowlands.

She was winless in seven starts at age 2.

"I think she's gained a step, to be honest," Dunn said about Bella Bellini's improvement this season. "She's been really good this year. She actually grew a lot from her 3-year-old year, and she looks amazing. She obviously improved a lot from 2 to 3, so I'm hoping for the same thing. She's really hitting her stride."

Sent off as the 8-5 co-favorite with When Dovescry, Bella Bellini paid $5.40 to win.

Racine Bell posts gate-towire win in Perfect Sting mares pace

by Frank Cotolo for The Meadowlands

Racine Bell and her driver Jason Bartlett took command of the 10-horse field in the $143,000 Perfect Sting and paced best to win the event in a personal- and stakes-record 1:47.2 at The Meadowlands on Saturday (July 2).

Test Of Faith – the 2021 Dan Patch Horse of the Year – drew post 10, which did not stop her supporters from making her the overwhelming favorite at 3-5, while Racine Bell was the fourth choice at 6-1 leaving from post 6.

Bartlett wasted no time launching Racine Bell to the front over Gia's Surreal, with Watch Me Now N and Fire Start Hanover lining behind them. Test Of Faith sat sixth into the :26.2 first quarter.

Those positions did not change until Test Of Faith took to chasing first over, gaining slowly as Racine Bell cut the half in :54.2.

All of the action focused upon Racine Bell's flashy threequarters in 1:21.3 and Test Of Faith closing into second while Gia's Surreal, Watch Me Now N, Lyons Sentinel and the others remained out of range. Racine Bell easily coasted over the line 1-1/2 lengths over Test Of Faith, with Gia's Surreal getting the show spot and Lyons Sentinel completing the superfecta.

"Tonight, I kind of let her go at her own speed and I got a little bit of a breather in the second panel," Bartlett said. "Then I let her do her own thing. Around the last turn she was still grabbing me pretty good, so I felt pretty confident.

"We've had a very difficult time with her running out. Over time we found something to help her to go a lot straighter. I think we're on the right track solving that and she's gotten a lot faster going straighter. She has gotten better and better every year."

The final time was Racine Bell's fastest win and three ticks off of Shartin N's 1:46.4 track record for pacing mares. But it did best the stakes record 1:48.3 set by Camille in 2013 when the race was then named the "Artiscape".

David Dewhurst trains the 5-year-old daughter of So Surreal for owners Chris S. and Dale G. Lawton. She has now won 27 races from 63 starts and earned $903,966 in her career.

Racine Bell paid $15.80 to win.

Alrajah One IT debuts with a stunner in Crawford Farms

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Alrajah One IT introduced himself to North America in winning fashion, capturing Saturday's (July 2) $147,000 Crawford Farms open for older male trotters by 2-1/2 lengths over Lovedbythemasses in a stakes-record-equaling 1:50.4 at The Meadowlands. Ecurie D DK finished third and Forbidden Trade was fourth.

The Italian-bred Alrajah One IT was a multiple Group 1 stakeswinner in Europe prior to joining the stable of Ake Svanstedt this season. The 6-year-old son of Maharajah-Mariu won 13 of 34 races overseas and earned $1.17 million.

Most eyes were focused on Alrajah One IT's stablemate, Ecurie D DK, in the Crawford Farms open. Sent off as the 1-9 favorite off a world-record win in May's Arthur J. Cutler Memorial, the Svanstedt-driven 6-year-old was forced to battle through an opening quarter of :26.4 to get the lead Saturday. He remained on top through a :55.2 half and 1:24.4 three-quarters but could not maintain his advantage in the stretch following his sixweek layoff.

Alrajah One IT was sixth throughout the first half of the race, then followed the first-over cover of Ahundreddollarbill around the last turn. Driven by Dexter Dunn, Alrajah One IT exploded through the lane, coming home in :25.3, to score the upset at odds of 18-1. Lovedbythemasses, who was second through much of the mile, nipped Ecurie D DK for second place at the wire.

"The race kind of came to him with those fractions," said Sarah Svanstedt, the wife of Ake Svanstedt and the stable's second trainer. "He had trained great; he had qualified quietly twice. I shouldn't say I thought he could win the race right away, but I thought top three for sure. I'm very happy that he performed.

"It's the best horse on the day that wins and I'm very impressed that he came like he did. I didn't see him too much in Europe, but he beat some good horses over there. I'm happy he is showing up now."

Alrajah One IT is owned by Scuderia My Horse Inc. and was bred by Luca Crosetti. He will be pointed toward the Breeders Crown and other Grand Circuit stakes this season.

"I'm happy that they took the chance," Svanstedt said. "This is a great horse and it's nice to have those coming overseas. I'm very happy for them.

"You never know before you start racing them, but he has been kind of uncomplicated from day one. He eats and drinks and likes to train. That makes the work easier for us."

Alrajah One IT paid $39.20 to win.

Quartet of talented Ohio 2-year-olds win $150,000 Next Generation tests

by Ashley Dailey / OHHA public relations ambassador

Ohio's brightest 2-year-olds went behind the gate in four $150,000 divisions of the Next Generation on Monday (July 4) at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Swinging Senorita (Anthony MacDonald) won in gate-to-wire fashion in the event for filly trotters. The daughter of What The Hill—Lei Trevino confidently tripped the finish line in 1:56.1. Truly Relentless (Chris Lems) was second and Cali Red (Aaron Merriman) finished third.

Swinging Senorita has won two of three starts for trainer Jason McGinnis. The stable Senorita Group co-owns alongside Hutchison Harness. She was bred by Spring Haven Farm and Doug Millard Holdings USA.

Going off at 9-1, My Red Sea (Kayne Kauffman) won the filly pace division in 1:53. The daughter of Downbytheseaside—My Hare Lady found herself racing in the middle of the pack for the entirety of the mile. As soon as she spotted racing room, My Red Sea went from fifth to first for her debut victory. Valley Of Fear (Merriman) finished second while Lofty Treasure (Brett Miller) was third.

Kauffman trains and drives for Redline Racing Stables, Redracer LLC, and David Van Dusen. My Red Sea was bred by Schare Adams.

Scott Zeron sweeps PASS stakes at Philadelphia

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

Whenever driver Scott Zeron makes a visit to Harrah's Philadelphia, it's usually the prospect of a live drive that lures him, and fans should take note.

The horse that brought Zeron to Philly on Sunday afternoon (July 3) was Keg Stand, who won one of two $66,153 divisions of the third preliminary of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 3-year-old colt trotters in 1:53.1. And while he was here, Zeron picked up the catch-drive behind Outside The Fire, who won the other Sires cut in 1:53.4. Both sophomores took new lifetime marks.

Keg Stand, a son of Bar Hopping, looked ready to go after two good qualifiers at the end of April, but then was out for six weeks before winning another qualifier. Trainer Nancy Takter determined that the winner of $177,042 was then ready to race, and he vindicated her judgment.

The opposition must have known it was in for a long afternoon when, after Zeron floated out with the horse, he set him down sharply at the eighth and roared up to take the lead just after a :28.1 quarter. Fractions of :56.4 and 1:25 followed, and in the stretch Keg Stand was all alone, winning by 3¼ lengths in a comfortable 2022 debut for Black Horse Racing, Christina Takter, and John Fielding.

Trainer Anette Lorentzon, also co-owner with ACL Stuteri AB, tapped Zeron to handle the Cantab Hall gelding Outside The Fire in the other Sire Stake, and horse, trainer, and driver teamed well. Zeron yielded early and was content to sit in the pocket behind Famous Father through fractions of :27.1, :56.1, and 1:24.4. Belying his name, Outside The Fire went to the inside in the stretch, made the lead, and held off closer Fiftyfour K by 1¾ lengths, with Famous Father another length back in third.

Outside The Fire had actually crossed the wire first in a Sire Stake at The Meadows, but broke just before the wire and was placed; here perfect behavior resulted in a positive result.

In the three $20,000 complementary Stallion Series divisions, one division was taken by 2021 Stallion Series champion Oh Boy, who posted his second victory in the StS this year while reducing his mark to 1:55.3. Tony Morgan sent the Donato Hanover gelding to the lead near the :28 quarter, backed off the half to :57.4, then passed the three-quarters in 1:26.1, drawing clear of his field by 4¾ lengths for trainer Jason Shaw and owner Tammy Carter.

The other two Stallion Series divisions were won by Explosive Matter geldings in 1:56.2. That clocking was a lifetime mark for MrMayor Hanover, who quarter-moved past a :29 opener, put up middle numbers of :58.3 and 1:27.3, then came home in :28.4 to ward off favored Dribbling Bi by 1½ lengths for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Rod Bolon, and the partnership of Douglas Dunbar and Frederick Woolford.

Also becoming a two-time Stallion Series winner Sunday was Andoverthewinnings, who won his third straight race. Emerald's Legacy, undefeated in four lifetime starts and the favorite, set fractions of :28.1, :58.4, and 1:27.3 with Andoverthewinnings pressing him first-over, and in the stretch the outside horse wore down his rival by a half-length for driver Corey Callahan, trainer John Butenschoen, and Claude Gendreau Stable Inc.

Sea Silk shines again in Ohio

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

Stablemates Sea Silk and Cape Cod Hanover swept the two divisions of the $55,00 Ohio Sires Stakes 3-year-old filly pace at MGM Northfield Park Saturday evening (July 2).

In the first division, Sea Silk made it look easy, winning in 1:50.4.

Dragon's Revenge with Aaron Merriman raced to the lead off the gate but was quickly reeled in by Sea Silk and Chris Page grabbing the lead at the quarter-pole in :26.4.

The daughter of Downbytheseaside covered the half in :54.4 and hit the three-quarter mark in 1:23.3.

Cold Hearted Gypsy and Chris Lems challenged Sea Silk entering the final turn, but as they entered the final stretch, Sea Silk opened her lead and cruised to a  $2\frac{3}{4}$  length victory.

The 1-9 favorite is trained by Ron Burke and owned by the Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Bruscemi, Knox Services, and Hatfield Stable.

The lead did not last long as 6-5 favorite Do It Like Bobbi and Tony Hall grab the lead at the half in :54.

As the field headed down the back stretch, Page pulled Cape Cod Hanover and took the lead at the three-quarter pole in 1:22.1.

Rookie trotting colts make their Gold Series debut at Woodbine Mohawk Park

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

In the first $70,533 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series division for 2-year-old trotting colts held Monday (July 4) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, a pair of Muscle Mass colts engaged in an exciting stretch duel with Mass Market taking advantage of a pocket trip to win by a neck over odds-on favorite Snowpiercer.

Trevor Henry settled Mass Market into second after leaving from the rail position, and Paul MacDonell moved Snowpiercer to the front from post five and led for most of the mile, setting fractions of :29.1, :59.1, and 1:28.3 along the way.

Henry tipped out Mass Market as the pair entered the stretch, and he moved in front just before the wire, winning in a final time of 1:56.1.

"I knew going into tonight he had a good shot. He's a nice colt," said Henry. "With Paul's horse, it's tough with a young horse on the front, they get a little green, and that's probably the reason I picked him off late."

Both colts showed strong closing speed, with final panels of :27.1 and :27.3 respectively. Trainer John Bax was proud of Snowpiercer's effort in just his second career start.

"He doesn't know what he's doing yet. He just looks like a big goofy kid out there," said Bax. "They sprinted home, and he took him on. At some point you'd like to not be on the front end, and have him pick somebody off, but he looks like he's going to be around all year."

Trainer Robert McIntosh co-owns Mass Market with Douglas McIntosh, and Randy Liepa. Bax Stable co-owns Snowpiercer with Brad Grant, David Anderson, and Richard Gutnick.

The Great Emotion rounded out the top three, closing in :27.1 for driver Louis-Philippe Roy. Cassandra Lecourt trains and owns the Lookslikeachpndale colt.

Bax got another trip from the front in the second $70,533 Gold division, and the second time around 3-5 favorite Oh Look Magic won by three lengths over his nearest rival.

Doug McNair made a move with second-choice Osceola to challenge early, but the Muscle Mass colt went off-stride in his attempt and James MacDonald piloted Oh Look Magic to fractions of :28.2, :59.2, and 1:28.2, before closing in 28.3 for the gate to wire win.

The Lookslikeachpndale colt, has now led at the quarter-mile marker in both his pari-mutuel efforts, and lone qualifier.

"I think it showed tonight that he'd been to the front, because he wanted to go there again," said Bax. "Going forward we are going to have to work on that."

Bax Stable owns the gelding with Glengate Farms and Cavalier Stable.

A pair of longshots finished second and third. Jody Jamieson piloted 28-1 shot Passarino to a closing panel of 27.2 to overtake 64-1 third-place finisher Airborne (Wheelin N Dealin) in the stretch.

Passarino is a Lookslikeachpndale colt trained by Ted Macdonell. Macdonell co-owns with breeder Seawind Amg Stbs. Trevor Henry drove Airborne, a Frederick Clarke homebred for trainer Blake Macintosh in his third-place effort.

The final $71,434 Gold division went in race 7, where Dowedealinandwhy was victorious.

Sent off as the odds-on favorite, the Wheelin N Dealin gelding was guided to the early pocket position by Sylvain Filion after leaving from the rail.

The Rob Fellows trainee sat behind Deadline Hall who Chris Christoforou sent to the early lead from post eight. Deadline Hall set a first panel of 29.0, and Filion moved Dowedealinandwhy just past the guarter mile marker with a strong first up move.

"Any time you have the rail with a two-year-old trotter, you don't know how they are going to act," said Fellows. "We were cautious because you don't want to get away fifth and come first up for a half-mile. It was more of a see what happens."

After a soft second panel of 31.2 Lookslikeadream (Lookslikeachpndale) tried to overtake the leader, but Dowedealinandwhy was up for the challenge, and powered home in 27.2 for a winning time of 1:58.0.

"(Sylvain) cut out very nice fractions for him, and he was able to sprint in the lane," said Fellows. "Now it's all about keeping him healthy and sound for the rest of the season." Dowedealinandwhy now has two wins from two starts and $43,717 in earnings for owners Yolanda Fellows and Irene Carey.

John Bax's strong night continued with Deadline Hall's runner-up finish. Bax Stable, Steve Organ, and Rick Heinz own the Muscle Mass gelding.

Muscle Mass colt Templeton was third for trainer Jonas Czernyson. James MacDonald was in the race bike for Czernyson's fellow owners Aldebaran Park Inc, and L Berg Inc.

MARGARITAS ANYONE? YOUNG DRIVES UPSETWINNERINGOLDACTIONATGEORGIAN

A pair of Ontario Sires Stakes Gold divisions for freshman trotting fillies took place on a beautiful summer night July 3 at Georgian Downs. The OSS action got underway in race six of nine on the card, with Scott Young piloting Margarita Morning to an upset win.

The daughter of Muscle Mass left from post four at 11-1, the third longest odds in the field of seven. Young settled her into third position behind first half leader Heavens Field (Muscle Mass) who set opening fractions of 29.4 and a 1:02.3.

She moved to the front in the third panel, and powered home in 28.4 to win by a length, setting a mark of 2:01.0 for her first career win.

"She's a very mature filly. She trots very nice," said Young. "From her first qualifier she's done everything I've asked her to do. Tonight, it was a non-stressful half. So, I was able to make the lead, and when I asked her to get home, she was full of trot."

Margarita Morning is out of Seeuinthespring a Striking Sahbra mare who won the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Final as a 2-year-old in 2012. Her trainer Paul Reid believes the Richard and Regina Beinhauer homebred is ready for a big season.

"She is so calm. I have never had a trotting filly who is that relaxed and easy to deal with," said Reid. "It helps when you have owners like the Beinhouers who give you a nice horse to train."

Heavens Fury finished second after holding the lead at the half. Louis Philippe-Roy was driving for trainer Desiree Jones. Gino Toscani owns the filly who has now finished fourth, third, and second in three career starts.

John Bax trainee and betting favorite Its Your Choice (Muscle Mass) finished third. Doug McNair drove for owners Al Libfeld, Marvin Katz, and Lynn Katz.

In the second Gold division Sweet Detrmination led gate to wire with Doug McNair in the race bike.

McNair left from rail position and after fending off an early challenge from Shiny New Penny set fractions of :28.3, 1:00.0, 1:29.4, and 1:58.4 to win by half a length over a late charging Righteous Resolve.

"She made the lead fairly easy, and she trotted easy," said McNair.
"I just scored her out. She scored out so nice, and I Figured as long as she trotted nice she had a chance and she ended up being able to cut the race out."

The Lookslikeachpndale filly is trained by Patrick Lang and is a half-sister to Sweet Soul David who had five wins at the Grassroots level last season. Lang co-owns the filly with Dewitt Stables.

The second-place finisher Righteous Resolve (Resolve-Motown Muscle) is a full sister to 2021 OSS Star Duly Resolve. It was the second career start for the John Bax trainee who now has a record of 1-1-0 and $33,325 in earnings for owners Bet Max Stables, and Benenati Inc.

Louis-Philippe Roy had Believe U Me (Muscle Mass) challenging Sweet Detrmintation down the stretch before the Meg Crone trainee was passed late to finish third by half a length. It was her first career start for owner W J Donovan.

STEACY EARNS SECOND OSS GOLD SCORE WITH MACHO PHIL

Shawn Steacy picked up his second Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series win of the 2022 season when Macho Phil claimed the first of two divisions on Saturday (July 2) at Woodbine Mohawk Park for 3-year-old pacing colts.

Jody Jamieson sent the son of Shanghai Phil to the early lead from post five, before settling into second at the half-mile marker behind Chucky Hanover (Hes Watching).

Odds-on favorite Kolby Two Step (Betterthancheddar) made his move as the field went around the far turn and was driving four wide down the stretch, but Jamieson moved past everyone along the rail, and held off his rival to win by a head.

"Going to the front early was just how it worked out, but you usually want to be forward placed," said Steacy. "He's a bit of a trip horse, and with a little bit of help he has a big explosive move, and tonight it worked out really well."

Macho Phil made five OSS starts last season, winning twice at the Grassroots level. He was sixth in his lone Gold start.

"I think he was a quality horse last year as well," said Steacy.

Harness Racing Update

"But over the winter he matured really good. He is an intelligent horse all around, so he took care of himself, and now he races with brains this year."

Winning the $102,200 division pushed Macho Phil over $148,000 in career earnings for his owners Hudson Standrdbrd Stb Inc.

James MacDonald drove Kolby Two Step to his second-place finish for trainer Tim Gillespie, and Gilliespie's co-owner Jason Churchill. Chucky Hanover finished third in his OSS debut for trainer Paul MacDonell, who moved over $100,000 in earnings for owners Glb Stable.

The second Gold division was won by 8-1 shot St Lads Sterling for trainer Jean Tournigy. Louis-Philippe Roy piloted the son of Control the Moment to his first career OSS score.

Leaving from post three, Roy settled into fourth at the quarter pole, but made a strong move to the lead down the backstretch and didn't look back from there. The trip was reminiscent of the grey colt's first win of the season on June 13 at the Campbellville oval.

"The first time I did this trip, I wasn't sure how much he would have left down the lane," said Roy. "He is so quick for a little pacer you can use him anywhere. That race I just let him pace the last 1/16 mile, and it was like he was just leaving the gate. So tonight, I was less nervous about the same type of move."

The three-length win was completed in a time of 1:50.3, the first time St Lads Sterling dropped below the 1:51 barrier, and on a night when the first OSS division was won in 1:52.0.

"It's tough to compare miles all night long because the track hasn't been the same all night long," said Roy. "But you can tell it was a big mile by the way he beat his opponents."

St Lads Sterling moved over $100,000 in career earnings for owners Les Ecuries Morel Inc, nearly doubling his career total with the win.

Magical Arthur (Artspeak) was second for trainer Anthony Beaton with Trevor Henry driving. The David Lumsden homebred now has a record of 2-3-0 in six OSS starts, and over $80,000 in earnings -in his sophomore campaign. James Dean trainee Ron finished in third. James and Wilma Mackenzie own the son of Sportswriter.

CLEMENTS CAPS DRIVING HAT TRICK IN GRASSROOTS ACTION AT HIAWATHA

The Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots season for 2-year-old trotting fillies kicked off July 2 at Hiawatha Horse Park with a pair of divisions.

In the second $21,800 division Daniel Clements completed a driving hat trick when he piloted Angeliki to victory.

The daughter of Muscle Up The Goal was first at the quarter pole, when odds-on favorite Priceless Resolve was sent to the lead by Matt Bax. Clements dropped back to fourth position before urging the filly into the lead as they exited the final turn and driving down the lane to win by two lengths.

"It was her first lifetime start so I wasn't sure what to expect out of her," said Clements. "I let her play it off the gate, and we shuffled into third. When there was a little confusion on the last turn, she kicked in really nice and finished well."

It was the first OSS score for trainer Jason Libby since a Gold victory in 2013.

"Jason is doing a great job up here in Sarnia," said Clements. "I have schooled a few 2-year-olds for him, and I am kind of excited to see what he has."

John Bax trains second-place finisher Priceless Resolve (Resolve), who is co-owned by Bax Stables, and Glengate Farms. St Lads Tricky rounded out the podium with Sylvain Lacaille driving for trainer Dolores Basilone. It was the first career start for the St Lads Farm homebred.

In the first $22,200 division Kenogami Courage held off a late charging The Ballykeel Deal to win her first career start.

The daughter of Lookslikeachpndale was moved to the lead by Stephane Brosseau along the straight and led as the field set a half-mile pace of 59.4. Along the backstretch The Ballykeel Deal moved from sixth to second in the third panel and challenged by closing in 30.2.

It was the first OSS score of the season for trainer Jean Tournigy who had two runner up results with his first two starters. Jean-Francois Reid, Marie-Claude Reid, Stephane Brosseau, and Maurice Houle, Contrecoeur co-own the filly.

Dealin Fashion (Wheelin N Dealin) finished third for trainer Eric Nadeau with Marie-Claude Auger driving. Ecuries Maguire Inc, and Jean-Francois Maguire co-own the filly.

HENSLEY'S FIRST HOMEBRED SCORES IN GRASSROOTS ACTION AT CLINTON

Trainer Ashleigh Hensley has more than 400 wins in her career, and her husband Ed has piloted horses to over $35 million dollars in winnings, but the pair combined for a special victory on July 3 at Clinton Raceway when their first homebred won the third Grassroots division for 2-year-old trotting colts.

Leaving from post two Floyd The Freak settled into second around the first turn, and Ed popped him from the pocket to take the lead before the quarter-mile pole and set an opening panel of :30.2.

Bob McClure made a move with Tuscan Prince (Kadabra) just past the half-mile, but he could not track down the Hensley's son of Archangel, who led the entire way and closed in :29 to win by a length.

"We raised him, so Ed knows everything about him," said Ashleigh. "So, he thought he would give him a shot because he had a good post position and was training well. I thought he did everything right and looked good today."

Floyd The Freak is out of ABC Garland mare Escuela, who the Hensley's raced throughout her career, and purchased in the fall of her six-year-old campaign. From October 2016 onward she made 62 starts for them, posting a record of 6-8-9 and earning over $92,000.

"She was good to us. That is why we decided to keep her and breed her," said Hensley. "Now we have three colts out of her, and (Floyd The Freak) is our first homebred, so it's pretty special to us."

Luc Blais trains second-place finisher Tuscan Prince who is owned by Determination. Resolve To Win was third for trainer John Bax, whose Bax Stables co-own the colt with Bradley Grant, Gaelic Stable, and Don Allensen.

The Grassroots action began in race 3 with John Bax trainee Darbyshire winning. James MacDonald navigated a start that saw multiple trotters go off stride out of the gate, and sat in the pocket until the stretch when he popped out and passed Sayonara Royalty who had led until that point.

"It was a very interesting start. Babies on that track, and first lifetime start is very tricky," said MacDonald. "Team Bax had told me he was good gaited, and they were spot on. We were rolling along and he sat comfortably. When I tipped him, he knew exactly what to do."

Darbyshire (Muscle Mass) is owned by Bax Stable, Glengate Farms, Goin To The Show Stable, and Happy Trails Stables.

Second-place finisher Sayonara Royalty (Royalty For Life) is trained by Keith Jones, and owned by Douglas McCarthy. Certified Agent finished third, driven by Matt Bax for his father John. Bax Stables, David Hudson, Gaelic Stable, and Don Allensen own the colt.

Timonier won the second Grassroots going off a 13-1. Driven by Brett MacDonald from post five he worked his way to the lead by the quarter pole and fended off challenges from Muscle Line (Muscle Up The Goal) and Hasty Bid (My MVP) to win in a photo.

Benoit Baillargeon trains the Lookslikeachpndale colt for owner Jean Dessureault. Muscle Line is trained by Shannon Henry and was driven by her husband Trevor. James MacDonald drove Hasty Bid, who was trainer Paige Austin's first career starter. The pair co-own the colt.

Clinton Raceway's signature race, the Kin Pace for 3-yearold Ontario Sired pacing fillies capped off the 10-race card. MacDonald completed a driving hat trick winning in 1:54.3 with Velvet Stinger, matching the track record for her age, sex, and gait.

"It's fun anytime you can win a signature race and see a good crowd with kids cheering everyone on it's special," said MacDonald. "Now I have the Kin Pace off my bucket list."

The Nick Gallucci trainee benefited from a shoe change prior to the race.

"I switched her from steel to aluminum to try and get her gait a little lower," said Gallucci. "She was interfering, bringing her right front foot into her left knee. Now it seems like she's starting to go underneath her knee which is very beneficial to her gait."

The win pushed the Bettors Delight filly over $98,000 in earnings for owner Millar Farms.

Cant Stop Lou (Sweet Lou—Can't Stop Me Now) stopped the clock in 1:54.2 in the sole division for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings. The son of Sweet Lou and Can't Stop Me Now (Josert Fonseca) left from post seven in the field of seven. Already carried wide, the colt's momentum was seriously impacted after Base Stealer (Logan Loney) broke shortly before the half-mile marker.

Cant Stop Lou he gathered himself and strode to the wire with a :27.4 last quarter-mile. Seven Out (Andy Miller) was second and Lootable (John Macdonald) were third.

Owned by Nancy Takter, Jaf Racing, Rojan Stables, R A W Equine and Jeffrey Bell, Cant Stop Lou is trained by Takter. He was bred by Diamond Creek Farm and is a full sibling to Fortify ($452,215). His record now stands at two-for-two.

Can't Stop Lou paid $5.60 to win.

Hungry For Love (John MacDonald) collected her second victory in the lone leg for 2-year-old pacing fillies. Leaving from post position 10 in the field of 10, the race favorite settled in fifth after leaving the gate but assumed command after the first quarter-mile. Prideful (Andy Miller) was the public's second selection and raced accordingly as the filly started in second and remained there until the wire. My Nay Nay (Devon Tharps) closed mildly to be third.

Owned by Thomas and Scott Dillon, Hungry For Love Hungry For Love is a half sibling to Rock Me Baby (Rock N Roll Heaven, $394,523), Art Scene (American Ideal, $530,431) and Summer Charm (Bettor's Delight, $422,238).

Yo Lucky Moni took the first division for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters for his owner/trainer/driver, Verlin Yoder, in a swift 1:55.1. The gelded son of International Moni—Unbelindyble began to trot his mile from post position three and remained in that position until the three-quarter mile marker. Overkill Hall (Dewayne Minor) made the race interesting but settled for second. Longtail (Dexter Dunn) was third.

Sent off as the second choice in the field of seven, Yo Lucky Moni paid $6.80. He now sports a record of 3-1-1-1.

Over And Back (Andy Miller) won the second leg for his age, sex and gait by a head in 1:58. The son of Trixton—Chim Swift took the lead right at the start but relinquished after the first quarter mile content to sit in the garden seat until the stretch drive. When given his cue, Over And Back battled last week's winner and heavy favorite Whole Nother (Dexter Dunn) to the wire. Make A Wish Deo (Todd Warren) was third.

Trained by Chris Beaver, who also co-owns the gelding with Aaron Merriman, Renee Bercury and Johanna Beaver, Over And Back collected his first win in his second start.

Now that the two sire stakes rounds for 2-year-olds have concluded, a $25,000 consolation and $100,000 final will be held on July 17.

Mark H Herron

On Sunday (July 3) Yo Lucky Moni (Verlin Yoder) took the first division for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters in 1:55.1.
