Swedish case could spark dangerous precedent around the world

On Tuesday, a Swedish trainer was handed a one-year ban from using a whip by the municipality where he lives, not the sport's governing body Svensk Travsport which has aggressively punished those that violate its whipping rules.

EUROPEAN REPORT
with THOMAS HEDLUND

Swedish trainer/driver Joakim Lövgren is at the center of a unique case that some worry could set a dangerous precedent for harness racing around the world. On Tuesday (July 6), the municipality where Lövgren lives — not the sport's governing body, Svensk Travsport (ST) — handed him a one-year ban from using the whip anywhere in Sweden.

Lövgren — a man who won the 2011 Elitloppet with Brioni and has more than 1,400 career wins as a driver and over 1,500 as a trainer — was given the punishment by the county administrative board for jurisdiction of Skåne, near Malmö in the southern part of Sweden. The region is home to Jägersro racetrack.

The case stems from an incident in April when Lövgren was fined ($420) and suspended for 10 days after racing his horse Piccadilly at Jägersro. The twist is that the fine and suspension came not from the judges, but rather, after a report was filed by the veterinarians working in the stable collecting blood samples to be tested for doping. The vets noticed marks on Piccadilly's body consistent with those caused by a whip. Rules say that a veterinarian must report cases like this to the county board in the region where the races are held.

In its decision, the board wrote the following to Lövgren (translated into English using Google Translate):

"You have intentionally inflicted unnecessary physical and mental suffering on an animal in order to win a competition and money.

"The County Administrative Board has considered notifying you of an animal ban because you have seriously breached the supervision and care of a horse and because what happened falls under the abuse of animals. However, in light of the circumstances of the case, the County Administrative Board considers that such a decision could be disproportionate and that a less intrusive decision may be sufficient to ensure that what has happened is not repeated."

It should be noted that Sweden has some of the toughest whipping regulations in the world and ST has been known to aggressively punish those it feels have misused the whip. So much so that recent questionable whipping penalties handed to French drivers led those horsemen to boycott racing in this year's Elitloppet (full story here).

Similar cases to Lövgren's have previously been processed differently in Sweden. If a county board has had complaints about drivers using their whips in an inappropriate way, cases have been handed over to a civil prosecutor for judgement and fines have been the most common penalty.

Taking the whip out of Lövgren's hand entirely for a full year is particularly harsh because it would put him at a competitive disadvantage, especially since he regularly drives the horses he trains.

The whip can also be an important safety tool to have in one's hand. It can help drivers prevent accidents when horses break or fall suddenly.

While there is no doubt animal welfare is critical to the sport's survival, this case marks a dangerous precedent of a municipality stepping in to impose whipping penalties, particularly when ST has proven to be more than up to the challenge.

As animal welfare issues rightly become more of a societal focus, the worry is this will be just the first of many cases where local governments around the world begin stepping in to impose their own punishments in horse racing cases.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Samantha Blystone's first training win was deeply bittersweet

by Chris Lomon

Joy. Sadness. Hope. Resilience. Samantha Blystone's first career training win was as emotional as it gets.

The toteboard and bettors certainly felt Startin Something, a 9-year-old gelded son of Rockin Image (IN), had a huge shot at taking all the spoils in the 11th race at The Meadows on the night of March 4.

Sent on his way as the 6-5 choice, the veteran pacer, contesting his 188th career race, collared the leader late to eke out a neck win in 1:54.4 with Tony Hall in the race bike.

"We bought this horse for $7,000 from a friend of ours," said Blystone. "I put him in a claimer and he was just amazing. I wasn't really expecting a win I really thought we might get third, but he dug in and got there. I was really happy."

The thrill of recording her first training triumph was short-lived.

"Unfortunately, he broke down after that start. It's very upsetting. Obviously, you are very happy to get that first win, but it's a horrible feeling when you have a horse break down. He gave his all in that race. Chris Gooden posted a photo of Tony and I with the horse after the race, and I got a lot of texts and phone calls congratulating me. I look back on that night and it felt more like a dream. And then afterwards, it felt like a nightmare. It was such a strange mix of emotions. When I got the call the next morning about Startin Something, that's why I didn't enjoy my first win so much. It was tough to hear that."

Blystone has been able to enjoy other drama-free victories since then.

The native of Clarksville, PA, has high praise for the 17 horses that comprise her barn, including Hurrikane Lori Ann.

A 5-year-old daughter of Lis Mara, the bay, bred by Our Horse Cents Stable, earned her lifetime speed badge on April 28 at The Meadows.

"There have been some really nice moments so far. I took care of Hurrikane Lori Ann for [trainer] Mike Palone when I was working for him. That owner followed me over – it was amicable between Mike and myself – and he gave me some opportunities, including with this horse. I knew she was fast. She would go in 1:54, but I felt she had more speed to offer. She ended up pacing in 1:51.4., and became my open mare. She's been trying her heart out every time. I tell people that she has the tiniest little legs, but the biggest heart on earth. She probably stands 14 hands, so she's very pony-sized in her look. But when she gets out there, she shows that size doesn't matter."

Another star for Blystone comes in the form of Ben Rockin, a 5-year-old son of A Rocknroll Dance owned by Collin and JR Ryan.

She claimed the bay gelding, bred by Robert Becker, for $15,000.

"I gave him a chance to see if he could do better than his previous-best mark and he did, going in 1:50.4 [a one-length score on May 22, at The Meadows]. I'm still waiting to see if he has something more. I really think he hasn't come near his full potential yet."

In spite of her outstanding rookie numbers, Blystone, who points to Bicornie Hanover as her "hardest-trying horse," would apply that same thought to herself.

She's quick to heap praise on her pacers and trotters for helping her get off to a strong start.

"I couldn't ask for a better group of horses. They all try so hard and I'm just thankful I have the horses I do to start off my career. I'm very busy, but I love it. I might say I'm tired and that I don't have much time at all for myself, but I am so happy to be in the position I am."

That she has found a career in standardbred racing is no longshot.

Blystone has been around horses, horsepeople and horse racing her entire life.

"I was born into the business. I grew up around the barn. I actually started out with my grandparents, John and Beulah Bigley. They taught me everything. They owned, bred and trained – they did it all themselves. I spent a lot of time in Doug Snyder's barn as a kid. I got a crash course in racing before I even knew what I was doing. After that, I groomed for about 10 different trainers. One trainer I got to do a lot more than I ever had was Mike Palone. He showed me that I could do it by myself and that I should get my trainer's license. That faith he had in me really helped me. He wasn't happy that I was leaving, but he was happy to see what I could do. That means a lot."

One particular piece of advice from her grandfather has become more meaningful as Blystone's career evolved.

"He told me long ago that a good trainer can make a horse fit a training program, but a great trainer can fit a training program to a horse. I just do what each horse needs and I don't try to make them fit my training program. For me, that has been a huge help. Every single one of my horses has a different training program. That's what I learned from my grandfather."

Blystone has also learned a lot about herself in her relatively short time as a trainer, most importantly, having faith in her abilities.

That, she will tell you, is still a work in progress.

But she's starting to see the finish line.

"Honestly, I didn't expect it to be this good at all. I was just hoping it would be this good. I am still waiting for the other shoe to drop. I really hope it's not just beginner's luck. That's kind of how I still feel, but I'm getting closer to feeling a little bit of confidence in myself. And that makes me really happy."

Ron Burke, George Teague and Yannick Gingras on the 2022 Hall of Fame ballot

Chris Boring has already been elected as a veteran.

by USHWA

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) Hall of Fame Screening Committee is proud to announce an outstanding slate of candidates for induction into the 2022 Harness Racing Hall of Fame. Trainers Ron Burke and George Teague, Jr., along with driver Yannick Gingras, have been placed on the Hall of Fame ballot for this summer's election.

This trio was then given a unanimous thumbs-up by four Hall of Fame trustees, who are all members of the Hall of Fame, to finalize the process. As well, the committee elected Chris Boring to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame, through the Veterans designation process.

"I am so proud of USHWA's Screening Committee, headed by chairwoman Judy Davis-Wilson," said Kimberly Rinker, USHWA president. "She and fellow committee members Tim Bojarski, Jason Settlemoir, Gordon Waterstone, Steve Wolf and Leon Zimmerman worked professionally and tirelessly to provide the Hall of Fame with an outstanding slate of candidates for 2022."

Burke, Gingras, and Teague will go before the Hall of Fame voters, who are made up of eligible members of USHWA and all Hall of Fame members, via ballot, to be distributed on Aug. 1. If the trio secures 75 per cent of the yes-no votes of the electorate, they will join Boring as 2022 Hall inductees.

Ron Burke has rewritten the definition of the modern trainer while shattering all previous records for trainers in earnings and money – he currently has sent out over 11,700 winners, 4,900 more than any other conditioner, and the $250 million+ earnings of his trotters and pacers are nearly double of his closest competitor. He is a three-time winner of the Glen Garnsey Trainer of the Year award selected by USHWA, in 2011, 2013, and 2018.

The list of champions with whom Burke has been associated could go on for paragraphs, but some top horses would be the highest earner of all-time, Foiled Again ($7.6 million); Hannelore Hanover, the trotting mare who was 2017 Horse of the Year; Mission Brief; and Sweet Lou. His stable has sent out 18 Breeders Crown champions.

Foiled Again and some other top Burke Brigade horses were driven by Yannick Gingras, who came to the United States from his native Quebec, was USHWA's Rising Star of 2003, and has gone on to establish himself among the very highest ranks of drivers that trainers seek out to handle their champions, while additionally continuing to post a high UDR with all the horses he drives.

Likely before the end of the year to become the sixth driver to join a select club of horsemen whose horses have earned $200 million, Gingras is a two-time Driver of the Year (2014, 2017) who led the sport in earnings for four years and finished second four other times. He has to his credit 24 Breeders Crown championships, six of the last seven Hambletonian Oaks and countless other major races, and has guided stars such as 2020 Horse of the Year Tall Dark Stranger, Foiled Again (as noted), Mission Brief, and at times the redoubtable evergreen trotting mares Manchego and Atlanta.

George Teague Jr. has campaigned some of the top horses of the 21st century. That list would begin with Rainbow Blue, a pacing distaff who was the 2004 Horse of the Year while winning all but one of her 21 seasonal starts and who is generally regarded as one of the most talented female pacers of all-time.

A second Horse of the Year campaign by a Teague horse came from Wiggle It Jiggleit (2015), who was as prolific a winner as Rainbow Blue and who earned over $4 million in his combined 3- and 4-year-old seasons, with his most famous win coming in the Little Brown Jug where he was passed in the stretch but fought on to claim the victory. Most recently Team Teague has campaigned Lather Up, a tremendously fast pacer who shares the 1:46 record for the fastest mile ever with Always B Miki.

The exploits of George Teague Jr. have earned him the William R. Haughton Good Guy Award (2004, 2016) and HHI's Dominic Frinzi Person of the Year (2016); in that same year, his outstanding Team Teague received the Stan Bergstein Proximity Award, USHWA's highest honor.

Boring is a direct member of the Hall of Fame through the Veterans provision, which permits the Screening Committee once every three years to make a direct assignment of a person 70 years of age or older, who has contributed greatly to harness racing.

Chris Boring, a member of one of Michigan's founding families of harness racing, began to make his reputation in his native state early in his career, and then made his first foray into the national spotlight with True Duane, a winner of $360,000+ more than 50 years ago. True Duane is best known for defeating older stars Cardigan Bay and Bret Hanover while a sophomore in the American Pacing Classic at Hollywood Park, obliterating the world record for 1 and 1/8 miles.

Boring was the handler of Colt Fortysix, winner of the 1984 Little Brown Jug, with whom he had earlier won in 1:50 at Springfield (the fastest time ever in a race), and another outstanding 3-year-old, Albert Albert. A member of the Michigan Harness Hall of Fame and inaugural class of the Hazel Park Hall of Fame, Boring won races in seven different decades, amassing 3,979 wins and $19,832,277 as a driver. He had the respect from his peers as a master horseman, especially with younger horses.

Any further inquiries can be directed to USHWA at ushwainfo@gmail.com.

Bulldog Hanover makes case for being among this year's elite sophomore pacers

Post 10 was no problem for the Jack Darling-trained colt in Saturday's $158,800 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold event.

by Sandra Snyder / OSS publicity

Woodbine Mohawk Park played host to the first 2021 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold event for 3-year-old pacing colts on Saturday (July 3) and Bulldog Hanover delivered a performance that brought fans to their feet.

Starting from the outside Post 10 in an 11-horse field, Bulldog Hanover and driver Jody Jamieson never saw the inside of the racetrack. As the starting gate swept away from the field, Control

Ontario

Heaven took early command, but was quickly overtaken by Second Bruiser, who led the field to a :26.3 quarter. Fan favorite Lawless Shadow then had a brief turn on the lead before P L Ozzy took over and paced by the half in :54.1.

As each horse ahead of him in the outer lane moved to the front, Bulldog Hanover moved steadily forward, but Jamieson opted not to battle for the lead when it was his turn, choosing to match strides with P L Ozzy through the 1:21.2 three-quarters. Once the colts squared up in the stretch Jamieson asked Bulldog Hanover for another gear and the colt pulled away from his rivals to a 1:49.1 victory and the winner's share of the $158,800 purse. Second Bruiser closed hard to be second, one length behind the winner, and Lawless Shadow was two more lengths back in third (replay here: Bulldog Hanover)

"The horse, he's just an honest horse. He likes to race horses, he likes to beat horses, and he gives you what he's got, and I think he felt good so Jody was kind of sitting there waiting as long as he could to ask him," said trainer Jack Darling. "(Jamieson) just can't say enough nice things about him. He's really impressed."

Darling, who shares ownership of Bulldog Hanover with Brad Grant, said it was a relief to get the first sophomore stakes win in the books.

"Just the way the year has gone, I mean he was ready to go for the first Sires Stakes back in May and then they cancelled the races so you've got to back off a little bit," said Darling. "You want to keep them ready, yet you've got to keep them fresh and happy, so it's been a little tougher trying to figure out exactly what to do. And then we drew the 10-hole tonight in the big field and I thought, 'Oh this is going to be tough', but he's just a special kind of horse and he just pulled it off."

At 2, Bulldog Hanover made just six starts, two in the Grassroots and four in the Gold Series. The son of Shadow Play and BJs Squall elevated his game to another level in the season ending Super Final, cruising home nine lengths ahead of his peers in a personal best 1:50.2. As a result, the colt has a full slate of stakes engagements this season including Woodbine Mohawk Park's signature event, the Pepsi North America Cup in early September.

Before the 3-year-old pacing colts waged their primetime battle, the 2-year-old pacing colts squared off in their very first Gold Series event and driver James MacDonald emerged victorious in both divisions.

In the race bike behind fan favorite Camealongway in the first $101,400 division, MacDonald got away fourth from Post 4, but had the Casie Coleman Herlihy trainee firing to the front before the :57.1 half. From there the Sportswriter son never saw a challenger, cruising home a four and one-half length winner in 1:52.2. Erinwood Yves was second and He Bee Sunny was well back in third. (replay here: Camealongway).

"He was great. He's so fast, I asked him to clear, he just took off right now," said MacDonald. "He was a little green on the front, and kind of spotted some stuff down the lane, but I mean all kinds of go and all kinds of talent, that's for sure."

of Cambridge, who offered up $45,000 for the youngster at last fall's Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Timonium, MD.

MacDonald and Betterhavemymoney were also the favorites in the second $102,200 division and got away from the starting gate in similar fashion, landing fifth from Post 5. MacDonald moved the colt into the outer flow behind Sundance Lou heading for the three-quarters and at the head of the stretch Betterhavemymoney hit a bigger gear and pulled away to a six and three-quarter length victory in 1:53. Sundance Lou finished second and Century Inspector was third (replay here: Betterhavemymoney).

"He's just a big, strong powerhouse," said MacDonald, who drives the son of Betterthancheddar for trainer Nick Gallucci and owner/breeder Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON. "He's had two qualifiers and a start now and I haven't had to start him up yet or push him hard, so I think he's got a real bright future."

As for which freshman pacer could emerge as this year's Ontario Sires Stakes star, MacDonald said it is too early to say.

"They're just different horses, it's hard to compare at this point," he said. "Casie's horse is kind of slick, a little speedster, and Nick's horse is a big powerhouse. So they're very different types of colts and you never know what could turn into what."

The 2-year-old pacing colts return to Gold Series action at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 16, while the 3-year-old pacing colts will wage their second heavyweight battle on July 25 at Georgian Downs.

Bruce Aldrich, Sr dead at 71

Bruce Aldrich, Sr., surrounded by family, died suddenly on June 30, 2021 due to medical complications at Garnet Health Center in Middletown, New York. He was 71.

The son of Basil and Gloria Aldrich, Bruce was born on Nov. 13, 1950 in Brattleboro, VT.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Linda, who died in 2003 and second wife, Maureen, who died in 2009.

Bruce is survived by his fiancé, Linda Boyd; his son, Bruce Aldrich, Jr. and fiancé, Laura Perino; his daughter, Michelle Hallett and husband, John Hallett; his grandchildren, Jessica and Jonathan Hallett, Brianna Aldrich and Jordan Hoffman; his siblings, Basil, Bernie, and Brenda Aldrich; and several nieces and nephews.

His greatest joy in life was his family. He was a successful trainer and former driver with a current stable full of racehorses at Monticello Raceway. His proudest moments in horse racing were working with Jazz Cosmos for Mickey McNichol and Sundance Skipper for Carl Allen. His favorite horses were Samsawinner and Witch and Famous.

Many remember Bruce for his sense of humor and positive attitude. He was a true hero throughout his life and faced every battle with a smile. The world will not shine as bright without his smile and it will be quieter without his laughter. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who knew him.

A remembrance will be held Thursday (July 8) at Ramsay's Funeral Homes in Monticello, NY from 6 to 9 p.m.

Woodbine congratulates Jim Lawson on his induction to Burlington Sports Hall of Fame

Woodbine Entertainment proudly congratulates Jim Lawson on his induction into the Burlington Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2021.

Lawson is being inducted as an athlete and builder due to his immense contributions to hockey, football and horse racing, alongside Sean Foley (builder, golf), Carol Angela Orchard (builder, gymnastics), Dr. John Kendall (athlete/ builder, running), and Don Lovegrove (builder, media).

In addition to his current role as chief executive officer for Woodbine Entertainment, Lawson has been heavily involved in sports his entire life as both an athlete and executive.

As a hockey player who grew up in Burlington, ON and graduated Aldershot High School, Lawson played 'AAA' midget hockey and was drafted by the Ottawa 67's before receiving a scholarship offer to play at Brown University in Providence, RI. Lawson was then drafted by the National Hockey League's Montreal Canadiens and played for the Nova Scotia Voyageurs of the American Hockey League.

Following his playing career, Lawson began practicing law and quickly started his calling as a builder in Canadian sports. This eventually led to his appointment in 2013 as the first independent chair of the Canadian Football League's Board of Governors, where he held the position for seven years and served as interim commissioner twice. In 2019, Lawson was awarded the CFL's prestigious Commissioner's Award which is presented to an individual who has demonstrated dedication and made a significant contribution to Canadian Football.

"Jim is a great example of someone who has become a better person and a great leader through the lessons he learned as a talented athlete," said Bob Young, the long-time owner and caretaker of the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats. "In turn he has been able to make remarkable contributions through Canadian Football, the Horse racing industry, and a myriad of other projects that have made Burlington, Ontario, and Canada a better place. Thank you, Jim."

In 2012, Lawson was appointed as chair of Woodbine Entertainment's Board of Directors, before being named CEO in 2015, a position he still holds today.

"If there is anybody who deserves this recognition, it's Jim. He's always been so gracious with his time, and an amazing contributor to both Canadian sport and the communities in which it's played," said John Fielding, who sat on Woodbine Entertainment's board of directors for 17 years. "The contributions he's made to the horse racing industry are unparalleled, he's just done an amazing job leading Woodbine and the sport of horse racing in Ontario."

The Burlington Sports Hall of Fame Induction ceremony will be celebrated with a reception on Tuesday, Oct. 26 at the Burlington Golf & Country Club. Tickets are $60 per person. For more information, please contact Wayne Heslop at wayne.heslop@cogeco.ca.

Mike Merton gets 4,000th win at Tioga

Mike Merton drove his 4,000th winner with Solo Story at Tioga Downs on Sunday (July 4).

Merton who was the 2018 driver's champion at Tioga guided Solo Story ($6.30) first-over around the final turn and wore down Furious Beach (Joe Chindano Jr.) to get win number 40,000th in 1:53. Solo Story (Bettor's Delight) is owned by JP Houle Stables and trained by Gaston Lareau. Merton had two wins on the night. His 4,0001st win came with Waimac Attack N ($3.00).

Alagna and McCarthy repeat in the Nadia Lobell at Harrah's Hoosier Park

The fans that packed the apron at Harrah's Hoosier Park were treated to fireworks both on and off the track by way of the $110,000 Nadia Lobell and the return of the $75,000 Hoosier Cup at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Sunday (July 4). Both stakes produced dominant performances by way of the favorites and two Indiana breds that continue to assert themselves at the top of their divisions.

Trainer Tony Alagna and driver Andrew McCarthy teamed up to take 2020 edition of the Nadia Lobell stakes with Reflect With Me who was victorious in a track record of 1:48.2. This year the duo returned with the highly-touted Indiana bred, Hot Mess Express, who put her undefeated season on the line looking for her fifth victory in as many starts in 2021.

In the early stages, it was Grace Hill with Dexter Dunn in the bike finding themselves on top. They would have to work hard to clear 2020 Indiana Sire Stakes champion, Somethingbeautiful and LeWayne Miller through the opening quarter in a hot :25.4. As the fillies made their way up the backstretch, Yannick Gingras launched his bid with a quick brush to the lead, clearing before the halfway point in :54. After watching the action unfold from the fifth position in the compact field of six, McCarthy would wait no longer, pulling as the field went into far turn, quickly marching to Gingras' wheel at three quarters in 1:22.1.

In the stretch, Hot Mess Express and McCarthy would duel Blue Diamond Eyes, before beginning to gain separation at the eighth poll. Hot Mess Express used a :26.4 final panel to take the victory by a length and a quarter, Grace Hill and Dexter Dunn would use the passing lane to pick up the runner up spot ahead of Blue Diamond Eyes third.

"They were going pretty hot fractions in the early on," McCarthy said. "I had to move her a little earlier than I would have liked, but she's a very nice filly. This was a very nice bunch of fillies she beat tonight, and I'm looking forward to getting her out east in some of the bigger stakes this summer."

Dean Gillette

Hot Mess Express (Andrew McCarthy) won the $110,000 Nadia Lobell on Sunday (July 4) at Harrah's Hoosier Park with a lifetime best 1:49.1.

It was the ninth career victory for the daughter of Panther Hanover, pushing her career earnings to $318,815 for owner Samuel Bowie. The 1:49.1 set a new lifetime mark for Hot Mess Express and pushed her record to a perfect five-for-five on the season for trainer Tony Alagna. McCarthy guided Hot Mess Express through her Meadowlands qualifiers debut this spring, before handing the lines over to Indiana driver John De Long for Indiana Sire Stakes. Getting behind Hot Mess Express for the first time in a month, McCarthy noted the fillies continued improvement.

"She's actually gotten smaller since I drove her last," McCarthy said, laughing. "She's continued to keep getting in better and better shape and she is extremely sharp right now. I liked her a lot this winter when I went to Tony's to train and she is certainly a very nice filly."

In the evening's ninth race, it was the colt's turn in the return of the $82,500 Hoosier Cup. The Hoosier Cup returned following a 10-year hiatus, coming back in 2021 as an Indiana Sired event for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Favoritism fell onto elimination winner, Rockin On Venus as he and driver Mike Oosting looked for their third consecutive victory on the season.

Oosting would be aggressive with Rockin On Venus early, leaving from post four before briefly relinquishing Whiskey Wizzard and Brandon Bates to the lead thought the opening quarter in :26.2. Oosting utilized a give-and-go off the first turn, quickly retaking the lead up the backstretch. After regaining the lead, pressure was quickly applied in the form of fellow elimination winner, Joelsy Hanover and Dexter Dunn first up at the half in :55.4. The two continued their battle around the far turn as the pace again quickened with Rockin On Venus beginning to regain control at three quarters in 1:23.2.

In the stretch, Rockin On Venus shrugged off the challenge of Joelsy Hanover, gaining separation on the field. Utilizing a :26.4 final quarter, Rockin On Venus powered away from the field by two lengths on the wire, taking the Hoosier Cup victory in 1:50.1. Joelsy Hanover fought valiantly to hold on to the second position, 62-1 long shot, Nick's Monster and Dave Miller got up for third.

The Hoosier Cup was the sixth career victory by the Emerald Highlands Farm homebred son of Rockin Image. After making just two starts at age two, the Kelly O'Donnell trained Rockin On Venus has won six of nine in 2021 and boast earnings of $96,125 this year.

"He really is an extremely talented colt," Kelly O'Donnell said. "He trained down great all year, and he's just so easy on himself. He always wants to do more and is eager to please, a colt like this really makes my job pretty easy."

Live harness racing will continue at Harrah's Hoosier Park tonight (July 7). The card will feature the continuation of Indiana Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies, with the 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings set to go with two divisions of their own on July 8. For more information on live racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Scarlett Hanover victorious in return to Ontario

Super Final champion Scarlett Hanover made her sophomore debut in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) on Monday (July 5) and marched straight back into the Woodbine Mohawk Park winner's circle.

Reunited with driver Ed Hensley and trainer Ashleigh Hensley after wintering south of the border, Scarlett Hanover lined up at Post 4 in the first $100,600 Gold Series division. The fan favorite let Best Head West lead the field of seven to a :29.1 opening quarter and then swept to the front. Unchallenged through a :57.4 half and 1:25.3 three-quarters, Scarlett Hanover kept Best Head West at bay in the stretch to record a neck victory in 1:53. Nightlife Seelster rounded out the top three (replay here: Scarlett Hanover).

"We weren't sure if we were going to get her back or not, because things are opening up a little bit more, but I think it's a lot easier for everybody if they stay here because there's so much racing for them here for the summer," said Ashleigh Hensley. "We enjoy having her. She does nothing wrong, she's very smart to work with in the barn, and on the track and everything, and on race day she always knows, she lays down and sleeps in the morning. She knows it's game day."

At 2, Scarlett Hanover made four visits to the Woodbine Mohawk Park winner's circle, capturing one Gold Leg and the season ending Super Final, along with her Champlain Stakes division and Shes A Great Lady Elimination. Through 14 starts the Bettors Delight daughter tallied six wins, four seconds, one third and earnings of $449,690 for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC of Fredericktown, PA, Frank Baldachino of Harvey Cedars, NJ, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby of Delray Beach, FL and Weaver Brusceini LLC of Canonsburg, PA. For her efforts the filly was honoured with the O'Brien Award for two-year-old pacing fillies.

This season, trainer Ron Burke prepped Scarlett Hanover for the sophomore stakes season with a trio of qualifiers and two overnight starts prior to sending her back to the Hensley's Dundas-area farm.

"She has grown a little bit and she's really filled out, she's got a nice, big, round bum on her and she's gained a lot of weight, she looks really good," said Hensley. "I enjoy taking care of her and I'm just really happy that she's back. Hopefully she can have another good summer, because she deserves it."

The second $100,600 Gold division saw Voelz Delight get her third win of the season with a pocket trip behind fan favorite Jody. Starting from Post 3, driver Sylvain Filion and Voelz Delight hustled off the gate and were sitting second behind Alumni Seelster when that filly reached the :27.1 quarter. Filion opted not to remain behind Alumni Seelster and moved Voelz Delight to the front, but was quickly overtaken by Jody. Jody powered through a :55.4 half and 1:24 three-quarters, but when Voelz Delight tipped out in the stretch she pulled away to a three-quarter length victory in 1:52.2. Jody settled for second and Ourlittlemiracle was third (replay here: Voelz Delight).

"She comes to play most every race. She didn't change much from last year you know, but she tries, she's a good mare," said trainer Ben Baillargeon, adding that the track seemed a bit heavy on Monday. "Horses are getting tired tonight over that track for some reason, so I think it's a very good mile, 1:52.2. I am really happy with her, like I said, she comes to play."

Baillargeon trains Voelz Delight for owner/breeder Richard Berthiaume of Pointe-Aux-Trembles, QC. As a 2-year-old, the daughter of Bettors Delight and $1.7 million winner Voelz Hanover captured one Gold Leg in an eight race season that saw her amass a record of two wins, two seconds and three thirds for earnings of $164,943. In the season ending Super Final she finished second, just a head behind Scarlett Hanover.

The 3-year-old pacing fillies will return to Woodbine Mohawk Park for their second Gold Series start on Friday, July 23.

The Mighty Hill sets Northfield track record in BSS opener

The Buckeye Stallion Series invaded MGM Northfield Park Monday night (July 5) with five division of 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters and for divisions of 3-year-old filly trotters. Each of the nine divisions carried a purse of $ 17,500.

The Mighty Hill kicked off the night setting a track record for 2-year-old gelded trotters. Aaron Merriman drove the son of What The Hill out of Maxine The Mighty for trainer Chris Beaver in 1:56.3. The Mighty Hill is owned by Beaver, Donald Robins and VIP Internet Stable.

Other 2-year-old winners include: Muscle Count (Long Tom) with Chris Lems for Miles Wollam in 1:59.1. The colt is owned by Dark Horse Farm.

Count Jogging (Full Count) was a winner in 1:59.1 for Aaron Merriman and Marty Wollam. The gelding is owned by Wollam, Julie Ann Sweet, and Dale Sweet.

The fourth division went to All Gas No Brakes (Uncle Peter) with Tyler Smith driving for trainer Todd Luther in 2:00.3. The colt is owned by Black Magic Racing.

The final division was taken by Phantom Tom (Long Tom) in 1:59.4 with Greg Grismore for Steve Carter. The gelding is owned by Jughead Stables, G Peters and David Lindsey.

The fastest of the 3-year-old filly trotters was Jogging Sweets who stopped the timer at 1:54.3. She was handled by Kurt Sugg for trainer Edward Miller. The Dontyouforgetit filly is owned by Miller, Rebecca Sugg, and Ashley Dunn. Jogging Sweets is a half-sister to Count Jogging who was a winner in the 2-year-old division. The two are out of the Tom Ridge mare Jogging Home.

In other divisions, Cash N Chips (Cash Hall) with Hunter Myers for Steven Bush scored in 1:55.3. The filly is owned by Bush and Alvira Fassett.

Major Credit Card was a winner in 1:55.1 with Ronnie Wrenn Jr for Chris Beaver. The Credit Fashion filly is owned by Martin Yoder.

The final winner was Ima Lovely Lady (My MVP) as Anthony MacDonald drove for trainer Jason McGinnis in 1:56.2. The filly is owned by Thestable Imalovelylady.

MGM Northfield Park will host the first leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series 2-year-old filly trot tonight (July 7). Five divisions will go to the post. First race post time is 6 p.m.

First win for Fuzzy Angel comes in track record style

Fans enjoyed an entertaining afternoon of racing at Clinton Raceway on Sunday (July 4), capped off by a 3-year-old trotting filly track record mile from Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots competitor Fuzzy Angel and a Kin Pace title for undefeated 3-year-old pacing filly Saulsbrook Olympia.

Starting from Post 3 in the third $21,100 Grassroots division, Fuzzy Angel got a confident steer from driver Jody Jamieson.

The fan favorites went straight to the front and rolled through fractions of :29.2, :59.3 and 1:30.1 before pulling away from the field in the stretch to record a 1:58.4 victory. Pocket sitter Hadiknownbetter finished four lengths back in second and Can You Swing It was five more lengths behind in third. The mile peeled one-fifth of a second off the 1:59 3-year-old trotting filly track record set by Profound Paragon in Grassroots action last summer.

"I was starting to wonder if she was every going to break her maiden," said trainer Blake MacIntosh with a chuckle. "She's a nice filly that really likes the half. She can trot the turns better than the straightaways."

In 13 previous starts, two this season and 11 in the freshman campaign, Fuzzy Angel had never found the winner's circle, finishing second three times and third three times for earnings of $38,681. With her record setting victory, the Archangel daughter boosted her career earnings to $49,231 for St. George, ON resident MacIntosh and his co-owner Hutt Racing Stable of Malvern, PA.

Tipsy In Dixie kicked off the stakes action in the first $21,450 Grassroots division, overcoming the outside Post 7 to record a front-end victory in 2:01.1. Century Highness finished two lengths behind the fan favorite in second and LMC Smores was three more back in third.

"She is just one of the handiest and best gaited horses you will sit behind. She has tons of gate speed," said driver James MacDonald, who also guided the Muscle Mass daughter to three Grassroots wins last season. "She's just a real pleasure to drive; makes my job very easy."

MacDonald steers Tipsy In Dixie for trainer Harry Poulton and owners TheStable Tipsy In Dixie of Guelph, ON and Hutchison Harness LLC of North Ridgeville, OH.

Like their peers A Blue Blood and driver Doug McNair captured the second $21,450 Grassroots division with a front-end effort, holding off favorite Fox Valley Liza for a one and three-quarter length win in 2:00.3. Prestige Worldwide rounded out the top three.

"They made a few changes with her hobbles and bridle today, and it worked really good," said McNair, who had called the Muscle Mass daughter tricky to drive heading into the race.

Gregg McNair trains A Blue Blood for Matthew and Roy Trelford of Mildmay, ON. Sunday's win was the filly's third of the season and her first in OSS action.

The last Grassroots division went to Fortune Tellers K and trainer/driver Donnie Rankin, Jr., who benefitted from miscues by fan favorite Rubys Are Nice and pacesetter Charmbo Princess. Taking full advantage of the errors, Fortune Tellers K trotted under the wire in 2:01.4 to earn her first lifetime victory. Larrys Girl finished second and Havana Moon was third.

Rankin shares ownership of the Angus Hall daughter with Ralph MacKinley and Mike Leeming of London, ON. Fortune Tellers K and her peers will make their second Grassroots start of the season on July 16 at Grand River Raceway.

The $58,300 Kin Pace Final for 3-year-old pacing fillies wrapped up the afternoon's stakes action and Saulsbrook Olympia got a perfectly executed second-over steer from driver Brett MacDonald to score the 1:56.3 victory over Sports Duchess and Jackieofalltrades. Favorite A Better Game finished fourth after giving Saulsbrook Olympia a windbreak in the outer lane.

The win was the fourth straight and seventh lifetime for Saulsbrook Olympia, who was four-length winner in her elimination last weekend. The Big Jim daughter has yet to be bested this season for reinsman MacDonald, trainer Brian Lee and owner Saulsbrook Stables Inc. of Windsor, ON.

Replays can be viewed on Clinton Raceway's YouTube channel.

Ontario Sires Stakes action will return to Clinton Raceway on Sunday, Sept. 5 with the fourth Grassroots event for the 2-year-old pacing colts.

Keg Stand, Global Pandemic impressive in Monday Pocono stakes action

Keg Stand and Global Pandemic were the winners in two $37,500 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 2-year-old trotting colts at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono on Monday afternoon (July 5), as the freshmen saw their first stakes action at the mountain oval in 2021.

Keg Stand, a colt by Bar Hopping–Palm Beach Bi, was kept just off the upfront action by Dexter Dunn as Big Miles gave way to S I P nearing the :28.1 quarter; Whiskey Hanover came out in front of the stands and took over the top before the :58.1 half. Dunn moved Keg Stand first-over and was in gear going to the 1:27.1 three-quarters, and through the stretch Keg Stand had too much while finishing his mile in 1:55.4 for a maiden mark. S I P rallied for second, 1¼ lengths behind Keg Stand, who is trained by Nancy Takter for Black Horse Racing, Christina Takter, and John Fielding.

Keg Stand had been a closing third in his only other purse start, in a Tompkins-Geers stake; the horse who won that race, Global Pandemic, is now undefeated in two starts after clocking his All-Stars mile in 1:57.2. Big Ben Hanover set the pace with fractions of :28.3, :58.3, and 1:27.2; Yannick Gingras moved the successful son of Cantab Hall – Nicole's Promise uncovered from third down the backstretch, and in the lane drew away to finish four lengths ahead of the fraction-setter for trainer Ron Burke and the partnership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC along with Hatfield Stables.

On the 11-race Monday card, if it wasn't a stakes race, chances were – literally – that driver Marcus Miller won it, as Miller paraded back five winners to Victory Lane, moving him into a tie for fourth with Tyler Buter in the local drivers' standings.

Buffalo's last NYSS event of 2021 is tonight

The final appearance of the New York Sire Stakes for the 2021 season at Buffalo Raceway will take place tonight (July 7) as the 2-year-old filly pacers will have the honors in two divisions worth over $50,000 apiece.

A dozen young ladies are split into two brackets of six and will go off as the second and fourth races on the 12-race program. First post is scheduled for 5 p.m.

The first division looks like a showdown between Twenty Grand (Huntsville—Up Front Kellie Jo) and Dudes Sweet Bet.

Twenty Grand (Mark MacDonald) arrives fresh off a win at Pocono Downs on June 28 in 1:55. In her career debut, she was second at Pocono in 1:54.2. Drawing the inside, the Ray Schnttiker trained Twenty Grand looks to take advantage of the rail and has been the tabbed the 9-5 favorite.

Dudes Sweet Bet (Dude's The Man-Sweet Bettor) has looked strong in two qualifying victories at Northfield Park. She romped to an easy six length win in 1:57.2 on June 24 in preparation for her pari-mutuel debut. She drew the three post with Chris Lems handling the driving duties.

Not to be overlooked from the six hole is American Ticket (American Ideal—Free Ticket). She stunned the field at Woodbine in her career debut in 1:54.3 on June 24 at 19-1 odds. Greg Merton will steer the damsel.

Others in the field include: Rock N Spree (Drew Monti), Symphony Girl (Jim Morrill Jr.) and Lorrie Sue (Kevin Cummings).

The second division, slated for the fourth race, will have a definite hometown flair to it as Pink Delight (Huntsville—Gentlemen's Delight) headlines the field.

Owned by John and Linda Brei of nearby Batavia, NY, Pink Delight is trained by Ryan Swift and will be driven by Ray Fisher Jr., both regulars at Buffalo Raceway. She was a solid half-length winner at Northfield Park in her racing debut on June 30 in 1:58.3. Pink Delight will start from the four hole.

The major danger could be American Jazz (American Ideal—Southwind Jazmin) who registered an impressive 8-1/2 length score on June 22 at Harrah's Philadelphia in 1:56.4. Monti gets the call aboard her from the six post.

A Girl That Twirls (American Ideal—Heels On The Beach) has won both of her qualifiers at Pocono Downs including a 1:55.2 effort on June 23. Lems is scheduled to drive her from the two spot.

Others in the race include Goodlucksweetheart (Cummings), April Angel (Morrill Jr.) and Kele Kele (MacDonald).

The track mark for the 2-year-old filly pacers is 1:55.3 set by Fashion Hill on July 3, 2019 with Tyler Buter in the bike.

There will also be two $15,000 Excelsior A Series races on the regular program while a $6,300 Excelsior B event will go as a non-betting affair at 4:30 p.m.

MGM Springfield elims

Eliminations drawn for MGM Springfield Stakes at Yonkers The Grand Circuit will be back at Yonkers Raceway again on Friday night (June 9), as a trio of $25,000 eliminations of the MGM Springfield Stakes for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers will take place in races six through eight on the program.

The connections behind last Friday's MGM Grand Messenger Stakes champion American Courage — owner-breeder Fiddler's Creek Stables LLC., trainer Travis Alexander, and driver Matt Kakaley — have Pleaseletmeknow, a gelded son of American Ideal, in the first elimination. Pleaseletmeknow enters off a second-place finish in the first leg of the New York Sire Stakes at Buffalo Raceway.

Stretch The Line, a gelding from the first crop of Huntsville, picked up a stakes victory in a division of the Landmark at Goshen Historic Track on July 2, and he'll start from post two in the second elimination for owner-trainer Erv Miller and driver Tyler Buter. Bred by Eric Taddeo, Stretch The Line was purchased for $16,000 at last year's Goshen Yearling Sale.

Hurrikane Chuck, a winner in the New York Sire Stakes at Buffalo on the 30th of June, leaves from post four in the last elimination for driver Mark MacDonald, trainer John McDermott, and owners Jonathan Klee Racing, Justin Bolasci, William Garofalo, and Peter Kleinhans. Hurrikane Chuck, another one from the initial crop of Huntsville, was a $21,000 Goshen Yearling Sale buy from the consignment of Vieux Carre' Farms. Wolftrax (post one, Scott Zeron/Paula Wellwood) and River Ness (post eight, David Miller/Ron Burke) also come into this event off victories.

The first two finishers in each elimination, plus the two third-place finishers with the fastest individual times in each elimination, return for June 16's $100,000 (est.) final. Post time for Friday's 12-race program at Yonkers is 7:15 p.m.

Kristina Verruso, Logan McKenzie and Ryan Fusco win SOA of New York scholarships

Sandra Kaufman, chairman of the SOA of New York/Yonkers Raceway John R. Brennan Scholarship Committee, has announced that Kristina Verruso is the 1st prize winner of the 2021 Scholarship Award in the amount of $5,000. The 2nd place winner is Logan McKenzie in the amount of $3,000 and Ryan Fusco is the 3rd place winner in the amount of $2,000. Joe Faraldo, president of the SOA of NY said that this year's award winners are the recipients of a scholarship named after a long-time good friend, horse trainer and SOA field rep John R. Brennan. We lost John to the COVID-19 virus and our hearts.

Kristina Verruso is currently attending CUNY Queens College. She is pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Nutrition and Exercise with a minor in Health Sciences. Her father, Anthony Verruso has been an amateur driver since 1999, a trainer since 2002 and has owned racehorses since 1993.

Logan McKenzie is currently enrolled at Brandeis University in Walham, MA. He is pursuing a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration and Economics. His father, Scott has owned racehorses since 1993.

Ryan Fusco is currently enrolled at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He is pursuing a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology. His father, Paul has been a trainer and driver since 1991 and his mother, Robyn has owned racehorses since 2008.

The annual SOA/Yonkers Raceway John R. Brennan scholarships are awarded to SOA members, members of their immediate families, covered individuals (backstretch personnel) or a member of their immediate families for study beyond the high school level. The recipient is chosen based on merit and financial need. The applicants were judged first by an independent third party to produce the top five candidates. Then the Committee selected the top three winners from the five finalists. Personal information from all the candidates was redacted when presented to the independent party and the Committee to assure a blind judging process.
