

Dear advertisers and readers

Due to a massive, multi-day Internet outage in Canada, we were unable to bring you results from Saturday's Zweig stakes at Vernon and the Graduate finals and Meadowlands Pace eliminations at The Meadowlands in this issue.

The hope is we will be able to post something on social media about those races, but, if not, they will be covered in our Wednesday, July 13 issue.

Winning is in their blood.

Quiet then, less of a filter now

Jerry Graham looks back on the very first Meadowlands Pace and the fascinating connection his Goose Filter had with the Hambletonian.

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

The first Meadowlands Pace in 1977 featured a (then) record purse of $425,000, coverage everywhere and a 10 drivers who would go on to be Hall of Famers – names such as Billy Haughton, Stanley Dancer, Howard Beissinger and Joe O'Brien.

Few noticed 36-year-old Jerry Graham from Illinois. He trained and drove Goose Filter, but the locals didn't really know the name and he was glossed over – even after finishing third at 6-1 behind Crash and Escort in the first elimination.

Now 81 and still a resident of Salem, IL, Graham recently took us back to that first Pace.

"I was quiet. I stayed to myself a lot. My colt wasn't getting the attention the others were. I didn't mind," he said.

In the final, won by Escort, Goose Filter (18-1) wound up eighth, finishing in front of just one colt – Big Towner.

“Billy Haughton parked me with Crash and I never could reach the top (:28.4, :57.1, 1:25.1). I had to hear about this from my brothers for quite a while. For leaving the gate basically. It was a great experience, though.”

Finishing sixth in the final was the longest shot in the final field at 87-1 Thorpe Messenger with Stanley Banks. Graham had driven him at the Meadowlands a couple of times prior.

“He was a good horse. My brother Sonny had driven him before I did. A colt that was not easy to handle,” Graham said.

Too bad the writers and PR staffs of the day didn’t notice something odd about Goose Filter that would have made for a very good story. He was a son of Filter, who 14 years earlier had raced in the... wait for it... Hambletonian (he was 14-7-9 in the 1963 edition).

“(Goose Filter) was a homebred and we trained him as a trotter. But, he would not hit a trot, We tried him as a pacer and it worked,” Graham said.

Maybe you have never heard of Jerry Graham. No problem.

He’s in the Illinois Hall Of Fame and once drove the legendary Tarport Hap for Del Miller to a victory.

“I sat last and circled the field. That was one of my all-time great moments.”

Graham also won the 1976 Jugette with Misty Raquel. He raced at the Meadowlands starting in 1977 on and off for three or four years and had notables such as Smashing Don, Misty Raquel, H As Pet and Rusty Knight.

In a way-you could argue that Jerry should not have been driving Goose Filter at all as a sophomore.

“My brother Tom drove him at 2. The colt was 13-for-18. Tom was really good with a horse, but he never wanted to be a driver. Goose could be tough to get along with, but Tom did. As a 3-year-old I just took my turn.”

Did you ever think a trotting-bred chestnut colt (by Hickory Smoke) would be racing in the first Meadowlands Pace?

“Remember, back then the Meadowlands was new. I came from Phoenix, Arizona in early 1977 to the Meadowlands. Nobody knew what to expect. But it was a great place to race.”

In case you thought Jerry has packed it in with racing, think again. He’s got Ponda Adventure, who has earned well over $300,000 in his first dozen starts in Indiana. Ponda Adventure is a 3-year-old trotting gelding by Swan For All. His only two losses – he is 10 for his first 12 – came in 2021 to the state champion Dover In Motion.

“I have my horses with Erv Miller. I get to see them race in person sometimes. It’s a five-hour or so drive from Salem, Illinois to Hoosier. I also raced in the Hambletonian elims of 2013 with Puxtatawney. He made a break early, recovered, finished fifth (timed 1:53.3) and didn’t make the final. Corey Callahan drove and John Butenschoen trained for me.

TO SALE CATALOG

“ I’m 81 and it’s been eight years or so since I sold my oil business. I still have my office and use it every day. I follow the races. We have a 2-year-old J B Graham, with a lot of promise. I keep my hand in it.”

MEADOWLANDS PACE THROUGH THE EARLY YEARS

July 12, 1977 – The first Meadowlands Pace was held on a Tuesday night with a record $425,000 on the line. The attendance was 30,943, the handle was $3,151,943.

Crash, the horse who won the very first Pace elimination, was a son of the 1949/1952 Horse of the Year Good Time. Haughton drove and was third in final. He is the only driver to finish on the board with his first four drives in the Meadowlands Pace. He was first with Falcon Almahurst in 1978, second with Storm Damage in 1980 and third with McKinzie Almahurst in 1982.

The Meadowlands Pace off time was 12:12 a.m., but it was not the last race on the card. White Richelieu won ($10.40) at 12:46 a.m. in the 10th race.

Albatross’ first crop were 3-year-olds in 1977 – and four of his progeny raced in the second Pace elimination – Shealbat Rainbow (10th), Jonquil Hanover (6th), B Gs Bunny (1st – then scratched from final) and River Captain (8th).

The 1:54 mile by B Gs Bunny in his elimination was a new world record for sophomores and shattered the 1:55.1 Meadowlands track record set in 1976. B Gs Bunny did it over the fastest 2-year-old ever (at that time) – Jade Prince (1:54.1).

Hall Of Famer Ted Wing made only one appearance in any Meadowlands Pace. The first one in 1977. And his colt outraced his odds – twice. Jazzy Spark was 31-1 from post 10 and finished third in his elim and was 24-1 and fourth in the final beaten only 1 1/2 lengths for it all.

Escort, the inaugural winner, raced only at The Big M in 1977 leading up to the Pace. He was the only one of the 24 in the two elims who had New Jersey ownership – Bernard and Rosalind Mann of Fort Lee.

There are two horses who have won the Meadowlands Pace after going 0-15 as age 2. The first one? Escort. The second one? Art Official in 2008, handing Somebeachsomewhere his lone career loss.

Forty-three were nominated to the very first Meadowlands Pace. The most ever nominated was 135 in 1984, which had four 10-horse eliminations.

The 24 entered in the elims had a combined 364 sophomore starts in 1977 entering into the Pace. That’s an average of 15.1 starts per.

Three favorites were on the board in the first Meadowlands Pace final, though not in order. Escort was 4-1, Nat Lobell 8-5 and Crash 3-1.

In the 1982 Meadowlands Pace, the five check-getters were the five favorites who all were part of an entry:

- 1B Hilarion – John Campbell
- 2 No Nukes – Glen Garnsey
- 1A McKinzie Almahurst – Haughton

- 2A Temujin – Beissinger
 - 1 Rompin Home – Bill O’Donnell
- All five drivers are Hall of Famers.

PACE ELIMINATIONS THE FIRST FIVE YEARS

1977 – B Gs Bunny was scratched and never raced again after his world record in 1:54. In 2009 and 2010, a couple of notables also never competed again after not getting any Pace money – Art Colony and Sportswriter.

1978 – The first Pace female, Courageous Lady, was third and sixth in the final. Twenty-four-year-old Bruce Riegle was fourth with Brittany Road in both the elim and final – and was lower odds at 7-1 than HOY Abercrombie (8-1). Abercrombie was second best to Falcon Almahurst in what turned out to be the last year of same-day Pace heats and a final.

1979 – Sonsam was second to Hot Hitter in the elim but that was spun around and reversed for the final. Hot Hitter’s $826,000 set an all-time earnings mark by year’s end (Niatross came along the next year and took care of all the numbers.)

1980 – Niatross was fourth in the elim but a dominant final winner.

1981 – John Campbell debuts in the Pace with Slapstick – second in his elim and fourth in the final.

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

Joviality S is the exception to the rule about what kind of fillies can beat the boys

by Alan Leavitt

Until I was able to ask a few questions of Marcus Melander, the trainer of Joviality S, I was prepared to advance the thesis that it was only big, stout, masculine-looking fillies that could hold their own against the colts. But that went by the boards when Marcus told me that his filly was on the small side, and quite feminine.

So that leaves me with no explanation for why, only very occasionally, we have a trotting filly who can whip the trotting colts.

In this kid's defense, during Deweycheatumnhowe's racing days all of us who owned him felt blessed that he never had to face Snow White at 2. She was probably two seconds faster than our colt.

However, Snow White didn't come back at 3, and then, when she was tried as a broodmare, it was discovered that her chromosomes were somehow messed up, and she was technically a male.

I was prepared to advance the thesis that it was only big, stout, masculine-looking fillies that could hold their own against the colts. But that went by the boards when Marcus (Melander) told me that his filly was on the small side, and quite feminine.

~ Alan Leavitt

But Joviality is all girl, and yet she will go to the Hambo as the betting favorite.

This whole Joviality caper did direct my attention to her trainer, Melander, a 30 year-old Swede. It's a rule of thumb that no trainer is any better than the horses he has to work with, but Melander has already had more top horses than some trainers have in a life-time. They include Greenshoe, Gimpanzee, and now, Joviality S.

(The genesis of the expression "Rule of Thumb" is the ancient British law forbidding a husband from beating his wife with a rod wider than his thumb. One does not believe that that law is still enforced in England.)

No matter how patriotic, or chauvinistic, one is, it's an undeniable fact that transplanted Scandinavians are dominating the American trotting scene.

The only Scandinavian trainer I was ever close to was Per Henriksen, when we both were training stables at the same little training center in New Jersey. Henriksen had a lot bigger stable than I did, and he developed two top trotting colts the same year, one of them was the Hambletonian winner Nuclear Kosmos.

There was a story with his win, because Henriksen got Ulf Thoresen to fly over to drive in this Hambletonian. Bea Farber – one of my dearest friends and herself a great driver – had competed against Thoresen in an international driving competition. She told me that Ulf Thoresen was the best driver she ever saw, and she knew about him first hand from competing with him.

Here, a quick digression about a continuing injustice. Farber proved to the world that a woman could be just as good a driver as any man, and better than 99 per cent of them. Yet she has never been elected to the Hall of Fame. There finally are a few women there, but not Farber, who really was the Queen Bea, and she belongs there, too. Anybody who has any doubts about whether misogyny is alive and well in our sport need look no further than her exclusion from the Hall of Fame.

Back to the Scandinavian trainers. I learned 36 years ago from Henriksen how important a straight track was as a training tool. Now they're greatly improved, with the name Euro Strip, but the primitive one Henriksen used was good enough to produce a Hambletonian winner.

The best of all the Scandinavian trainers, in my humble opinion, is Jimmy Takter. He not only trained, and drove, a Hambletonian winner, he also developed a pacer who won the Little Brown Jug. My friendship with Takter goes back more than 30 years to the days when he and Per Eriksson would drive up to look at the Lana Lobell yearlings, and then stay and join me for lunch. Those were wonderful days for me. I hope they remember them the same way.

Now on to a touchy subject. I love being in the Red Mile stable area on the mornings that there's stakes racing at some other track, maybe Oak Grove, or even Scioto or Hoosier. The other morning I had to wait my turn to drive in through the stable gate while two beautiful big trailers were pulling out, on their way to the races at Oak Grove.

When you're in the barn early on those mornings, the excitement is palpable as the bikes are loaded on top, then the harness bags in the front, and finally the horses are carefully walked up the ramp and into their stalls.

And this leaves me with a question, which up till now I have never heard answered. It would be wonderful for the horse industry, not only in Kentucky, but in the larger sense, if the Red Mile would stay open year-round. I should quickly add that I mean stay open on a basis that not only would all expenses be covered, but a profit be turned for the track ownership.

When I say all expenses covered, I only leave out depreciation, because that will continue whether the plant is open or closed.

On the basis I've proposed, my question is; Why shouldn't the Red Mile stay open year round?

I can't come up with a single reason. If there is one, I wish someone would tell me what it is.

Mr Knowitall a “pleasant surprise” for owner Alan White

by James Platz

Each fall, Alan White shops for, and purchases, a handful of yearlings to race in Indiana. And while sale price is no indication of ability, the retired dentist identified a higher-priced 2021 acquisition as possessing Indiana Sires Stakes potential. Ironically, it is not the aforementioned colt, but instead the You Know You Do freshman Mr Knowitall, a modest $7,000 purchase, that may provide White his best shot this season in the 2-year-old trotting division.

“You give a lot of money for some and they don’t always turn out. And sometimes you don’t give much and they turn out better than you expect. They don’t know what they cost,” said White.

White and his wife, Carol, attended the inaugural Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale in Topeka last September with trainer Doug Rideout and his wife, Julie. A few of the horses they were interested in purchasing brought more than the partners were willing to spend. Buying Mr Knowitall was more luck than strategy.

“I wish I could say it was real scientific. We looked at several of them. With Topeka being a new sale, we didn’t get a chance to look at them at the farms,” White said. “They were having trouble getting bids on him. Doug and Julie were sitting there in the bleachers and I was sitting there with my wife. I said, ‘Doug, what do you think?’ He says, ‘What do you think?’ I said, ‘We’ll bid on him.’ So I bid once and then somebody else bid. Doug said, ‘Hit him one more time.’ We got him for $7,000. We just got lucky this time I think. But that’s the way it goes sometimes.”

As Rideout began training the babies over the winter at his Winchester, IN farm, White would frequently join in the efforts. He witnessed firsthand how the Joe Hostetler-bred gelding developed over time, becoming one of the top first-year trotters in the barn.

“All winter long we didn’t have high hopes for him, but all of a sudden he just blossomed, he grew, he just started doing everything perfectly. Before you knew it, he was my favorite colt,” said the owner, a long-time resident of Fountain City, IN. “Whenever I go up to train horses, I would take him every time. He would be trouble free, easy to drive. I train the easy ones and Doug will always take the hard ones. I would go up a couple times a week all winter. They give me the easy ones and we would usually try to train three at a time. He kept coming to the top. He always ends up in the best group. He’s just been a real pleasant surprise.”

Like in training, Mr Knowitall has risen to the top on the Indiana fair circuit. Through the first six rounds of competition, the trotter collected five wins in as many attempts. Rideout held him out for a week after his first three wins, bringing the 2-year-old back for consecutive starts at Frankfort, IN. Making his most recent start on July 4, the trainer and driver hoped to turn in a time in the 2:05 range in order to qualify for pari-mutuel racing we may quickly get him back to the fairs to qualify for the Governor's Cup. Maybe go back later in the season and try again," the owner outlined. "You can't etch these schedules in stone. You have to try to be flexible and take the horses where they can be the most competitive and make the most money."

The colt that White had eyed over the winter as displaying the most promise makes his second fair start this weekend. Mr Knowitall, on the other hand, is pointed to the biggest test in his budding career.

at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Mr Knowitall rose to the challenge, romping by 25 lengths. His 2:01.4 clocking fell one-fifth of a second off the track record for freshman trotting colts over Frankfort's half-mile configuration.

"The fairs are a really good place to start one out, get them used to being away from home, get them used to seeing things. They learn a lot at the fairs. Whether they win or lose is not as important, but sometimes the horses will start telling you things. They'll tell you how good they are, and sometimes they tell you how bad they are, too. This colt keeps coming to the top," White said.

Mr Knowitall's five wins on the circuit put him in the driver's seat for securing a spot in the $25,000 Governor's Cup final in August at the Indiana State Fair. He comfortably leads the division in points, and between now and mid-August, the rookie trotter can manage two more fair starts. To be eligible for the Governor's Cup championship, a horse has to register a minimum seven fair starts and finish in the top eight in points. He is currently more than 60 points ahead of stablemate Help Dust. The connections are seizing on the opportunity afforded Mr Knowitall's early season success.

"He's proven himself, so his next start will be in the Indiana Sires Stakes," said White, who co-owns the horse with Julie Rideout.

The first leg of Indiana Sires Stakes will take place Saturday, July 16 at Hoosier Park. The second leg follows two weeks later. Depending on the outcome, White and Rideout will have to map out a course for the next month and beyond.

"He may very well stay in the sires stakes. If he's just mediocre and looks like he's not quite good enough,

Francesco Zet, Chebba Mil impressive in Halmstad

by Thomas Hedlund

Just like in Åby's $205,000 Kungapokalen and $205,000 Drottningpokalen in May, Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) and Chebba Mil (Readly Express) were the best horses when Halmstad played host to its popular Sprintermästaren-meeting on Thursday (July 7) night.

The $232,000 Sprintermästaren mile race with three eliminations for the 4-year-olds saw a heavy favorite in Daniel Redén-trained Francesco Zet and the trotter solved his elimination without a problem from the lead. An easy 1:54.1 mile meant that Francesco Zet probably would have saved some power for the final later the same night. And when the other two elimination winners, Sourire Frö (Wishing Stone) and Iznogoud Am (Muscle Hill) both had to do some work in position first over in faster miles, it looked promising for Francesco Zet in the 10-horse final late on Thursday night.

Iznogoud Am, trained by Stefan P Pettersson and driven by Björn Goop drew post 1 in the final and the quick-starting Muscle Hill son kept the lead easily as the car left the field when the sun started to fall asleep in the Swedish summer night.

A :27.1 first quarter with Iznogoud Am in the lead and Francesco Zet connected on the outside raised the race's excitement a lot and when the field turned into the last turn, the leader looked unbeatable while Francesco Zet started to lose meters to the inside trotter.

But, as we've seen before, when Örjan Kihlström pulled the ear plugs from Francesco Zet, the horse exploded. At mid-stretch, the race was in his hands. Francesco Zet flew to a safe 2 1/2-length win in a Swedish record 1:51.3.

This was Francesco Zet's ninth consecutive win and as for now, he's the big favorite to win the Derby at Jägersro in September.

Iznogoud Am held strongly as second while big upset Idomenio Sisu finished quickly as third.

CHEBBA MIL TAKES STOSPRINTERN

Paul Hagoort and Robin Bakker have experienced some great days at the tracks this season and it all started with Chebba Mil's triumph in $205,000 Drottningpokalen at Åby in May. Over the distance of 2,140 meters, the Readly Express mare has proven to be hard to beat and when the final of $155,000 Stosprintern for 4-year-old mares was held in Halmstad on Thursday night, the shorter distance was a bit of a question mark for her, even if Chebba Mil solved her elimination with no problems on June 27.

But there was an opponent with high class outside of her behind the gate. Stefan Melander-trained Imhatra Am impressed over the mile at Solvalla during the Elitloppet day in May and her ability to leave quickly from the start was a factor in her favor this day.

As the car accelerated, Imhatra Am couldn't battle for the lead as inside trotter Global Creation proved to be the quickest and Imhatra Am's driver Mats E Djuse had to leave his position in third over after a quarter of a mile, aiming for the first over position. Because Djuse noted that he had Chebba Mil and Robin Bakker behind, in fourth over, Imhatra Am could control the leader and the pace by herself.

Imhatra Am landed outside the leader halfway into the race and soon thereafter, Robin Bakker left fourth over with Chebba Mil and the Ready Express daughter had to do the heavy work, three wide at the back stretch and throughout the last turn. Djuse seemed pretty confident as leader Global Creation was beaten at the top of the stretch, but when Chebba Mil attacked on the outside, Djuse discovered he was disarmed by the strong finisher Chebba Mil.

Chebba Mil, Bakker and trainer Hagoort claimed the trophy in 1:53.4.

The victory furthered the success of the Dutch duo. Chebba Mil has won two big titles in Sweden this year, Mister F.Daag won Copenhagen Cup in May and the same horse won an elimination for Elitloppet. During Elitloppet Day at Solvalla, Hagoort-trained horses claimed the top three spots in Breeders Course final for 3-year-olds, when Hurricane proved to be the best.

Imhatra Am (runner up) and Global Creation (third) finished behind the impressive winner.

Mysterious islands

by Trey Nosrac

We all love juicy conspiracy theories – Area 51 in Roswell, NM, Nessie, fake Presidential birth certificates, grassy knoll shooters, magnets in vaccines, stolen elections and fake moon landings. They never fail to stimulate.

A good conspiracy theory usually starts with falsehood or exaggeration. Ears perk up, and minds then run amok. The conspiracy marinates in twisted logic and skewed factoids that support the exciting revelation. Bots, people, and algorithms push the “secrets.” Soon, the conspiracy sticks in some minds, and neither dynamite nor facts can dislodge the misbelief.

Horse racing is not immune from theorists. Conspiracies bounce around the backstretch and within the gambling public, fixed races, drivers intentionally holding back horses, doping, cartels, yada, yada. Here’s an odd one:

The teller of this tale was a pirate. We shared flagons in a dark tavern off the Gold Coast in the winter of 2019. Deep into his cups, the pirate let down his guard. I put quill to paper the following day.

“My Captain, MYOB, ‘tis a gambler and a blackheart. He plays many sports, including harness horse racing. He often wagers thousands of dollars on a race. He considers himself a professional gambler. He be sharp as a new dagger.

“Captain MYOB fancies that on a level sea, he was a smidgen smarter than other gamblers, say five per cent smarter. However, Captain MYOB was not daft enough to believe he was smart enough to win money fairly. Like any big gambler, Captain MYOB understood that his hefty wagers would anchor down his odds in smaller pools. His swag would be subject to taxation. Sweetening his bets from outlets or racetracks would help a whale of his ilk but not enough for his liking.

“This pirate captain is not a stickler for the rules of the seven seas. He has spent his life cutting corners, finding loopholes, offshoring, sheltering, and doing dubious deeds to amass and protect his bounty.

“Ya sees lad, the captain had an itch to play the races against fellow pirate captains, but he did not like his odds, he did not like them at all. So, he found a swindle on another shore, on the other side of the gambling line.

“A hornswoggle at heart, Captain MYOB was familiar with the mystical Island nation of Melentiana. He had never sailed his ship to this flyspeck of a nation, but much of his money had spent time in the friendly tropical breezes. Melentiana is a stomping ground for pirates, so Captain MYOB signaled Blackie Bookman and Wire Walker for some swindling.

“The crew of blackhearts got to work. Quicker than you could drop the gangplank, the pirates of Melentiana rounded up a pod of horse race gambling whales who did not mind swimming in dark waters, waters where 90 per cent of the gambled money gets returned.

“They bought high-tech gear and opened a small, discreet island bank that even accepts bitcoins and doubloons. The ruler of Melentiana, King Kockamamie, is very happy with a one percent “hosting fee” because this is much more income than the previous GDP of his nation from the sales of hand-painted sea urchin keychains. Pirates who set up and maintain the highly encrypted Virtual Private Network share the rest of the bounty.

“Most people have never heard of Melentiana. This is no an accident. The pirates advised Captain MYOB and his fellow whales to play their races incognito, keep their operations anonymous, and avoid the prying eyes of the authorities. They understand that technically, well, totally, their ways of playing may not be legal.

“The pirates are not shivering at their timbers. They know that gambling laws in the Internet world are a bit of a muddle.

“The seas may be angry, but they are very wide and very deep with floating boundaries. King Kockamamie will never raise much of a fuss. Prosecution from other realms will be difficult and has not happened since...well...ever. More worrisome for the pirates of Melentiana is that they may need to relocate to the mystical island of Papaponetiami because the rascals of that island are offering the great gambling whales a 91 per cent return.

“Finding Melentiana Island is not an easy task. Controlling the pirates is not an easy task. Pirates are shifty characters, always on the move, always stealing, always unscrupulous, and constantly burying chests of ill-begotten treasures. Pirates also have a rich history of sending innocent victims to Davy Jones’s locker.

“Well, that’s my tale. A tale that may just be another of those wild conspiracy theories – or maybe not. But horsemen, keep a sharp eye on the horizon.”

JK Victory, Soaring Now impress in ISS action at Harrah's Hoosier Park

By Emily Gaskin / Harrah's Hoosier Park

After an impressive performance in the $70,000 Hoosier Cup last week, the Hoosier state's top 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings were back in action at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Friday (July 8) as two $49,000 divisions of Indiana Sires Stakes were featured on the evening's 13-race card.

JK Victory backed up his 1:48.2 track record performance in the Hoosier Cup with a 1:50.1 score in the opening division. With regular pilot Trace Tetrick in the bike, JK Victory opted for a pocket trip this week and utilized a :25 last quarter to surge past the pace-setting Ponda Warrior and Jimmy Whittmore late in the lane. The Longest Yard and Michael Oosting finished third. As the heavy betting favorite, JK Victory returned $3.00 at the betting windows.

Trained by Ron Burke, the gelded son of JK Endofanera—GT Miss Royal recorded his fourth win of the season and fifth lifetime victory. JK Victory pushed his lifetime bankroll to $167,865 for owners 3 Brothers Stable and Caviart Farms. JK Victory was bred by Victory Hill Farm and is a half-brother to Indiana's stand-out open pacer Little Rocket Man.

In the second division, Soaring Now turned in an impressive front-stepping victory to score in a new lifetime best of 1:48.3. With Andy Shetler in the bike, Soaring Now notched his second win of the season.

Leaving from post six, Shetler sent Soaring Now away from the gate firing and he grabbed the lead through the opening quarter in :26.1. Soaring Now dictated fractions of :54.3 and 1:22.1 while Rip Wheeler and Brandon Bates tracked intently from second. When the field turned for home, Rip Wheeler looked poised to strike from the pocket but Soaring Now wasn't finished.

Utilizing a :26.2 closing kick, Soaring Now kept Rip Wheeler at bay and paced strong to the wire. Rip Wheeler was forced to settle for second while Topville Somrocket and Jimmy Whittmore rounded out the trifecta. As the 8-5 co-favorite, Soaring Now returned $5.20 at the betting windows.

Owned by James Miller, the son of JK Endofanera—Sunflower recorded his fifth lifetime victory for trainer Aaron Stutzman. With the victory, Soaring Now pushed his lifetime bankroll over the $100,000 mark. The sophomore colt was bred by Luckiana Farms of Indiana.

Soaring Now (Andy Shetler) set a lifetime best of 1:48.3 winning the second of two Indiana Sires Stakes tests for sophomore pacing colts on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

‘Porsche’ goes slow, wins NJSS at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Dexter Dunn went for a Sunday drive on Friday night (July 8) at The Meadowlands, rating a slow enough pace to allow Handlelikeaporsche to hold off 4-5 favorite Lifes A Puzzle at the wire in the $30,000 second leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for 2-year-old colts and geldings on the pace.

The son of Lazarus N–The Signature used the rail to his advantage as if he were racing on a half-mile track, securing the top around the first turn before reaching the quarter in a leisurely :29.2 as Lifes A Puzzle (Tim Tetrick) sat in the pocket.

There was no action to the half, which went in :58, or three-quarters, which went in 1:25.3. Given the fact that Handlelikeaporsche closed in :26.1 when beaten two weeks ago by Lifes A Puzzle, it would prove tough to catch him this time around.

Lifes A Puzzle almost pulled it off, closing in :25.4, but came up a neck short. Voukefalas was third.

Both Handlelikeaporsche and Lifes A Puzzle now have one win from two lifetime starts, with one win against the other in the NJSS. Handlelikeaporsche, the 9-5 second choice who is trained by Chris Ryder, paid $5.80 to win after completing the mile in 1:51.3.

There were also two $30,000 NJSS splits for 2-year-old colts and geldings on the trot.

The first was taken by Celebrity Bambino, a son of Muscle Hill–Celebrity Ruth, in 1:53. Driven by Yannick Gingras and trained by Ron Burke, Celebrity Bambino, the 7-2 third choice in the wagering, sat a pocket trip before going by leader Ari Ferrari J on the way to a 1¾-length win over Dire Straits, who rallied to get second.

Oh Well was ultra-impressive taking the other division for trotting males, overcoming post nine. Driven by Tetrick for trainer Marcus Melander, the son of Muscle Hill–Fine Tuned Lady made a big move around the far turn to get into contention, then continued to chip away at leader Up Your Deo’s edge before nailing that one at the wire by a head in 1:54.1 as the even-money favorite.

A LITTLE MORE: All-source handle totaled $2,275,512.

Beach Cowgirl smashes stake record in PASS at The Meadows

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

First-time starter Beach Cowgirl powered to the point with a first-over move and kept right on rolling, scoring in a stake-record 1:51 her $55,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stake division for freshman pacing fillies on Friday at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

Proud Mary and My Little Captain captured the other divisions in the event, known as the Sand Tart.

Winning driver Joe Bongiorno said despite her greenness, he had no qualms about moving Beach Cowgirl without cover.

“I was very confident with her,” Bongiorno said. “Off the fast pace I knew I could just grind her up there without talking to her. When I spoke to her in the middle of the last turn, she felt like a horse that’s been doing it for 10 years. She had plenty left.”

The daughter of Captaintreacherous—Stonebridge Sundae drew off late to defeat Ginger Tree Coco by 5-1/4 lengths, with Square Deal third. The time knocked a full second from the stake mark established by Glassine Hanover in 2016. Jennifer Bongiorno trains Beach Cowgirl for Joseph DiScala, Jr., Zippett Racing, Scarlett Stables LLC and Jaf Racing LLC.

Creedence Clearwater Revival sang of a riverboat named Proud Mary “rollin’, rollin’, rollin’ on a river,” and in her career debut, the equine Proud Mary lived up the lyrics. She zipped to the lead from the rail, and though winning driver Dave Palone felt the need to shake the lines at her late, she prevailed by 1/2 length in 1:53.4. Coocooforcoco and Miss Brickley rounded out the ticket.

“She’s light on her feet and has a beautiful mouth,” Palone said. “I spoke to her around the last turn, and she exploded.”

Chris Ryder trains the homebred daughter of Sweet Lou—Tug River Princess for Let It Ride Stables and Bottom Line Racing LLC.

My Little Captain completed the first-time starters sweep when she came first up to score for Mike Wilder, trainer Andrew Stafford and owner Evm Racing LLC. Zanatta was second, 1-3/4 lengths back, while Always B A Star earned show.

“You’re always concerned coming first over with a 2-year-old making her first start,” Wilder said. “But she felt good, and she sure showed up.”

STALLION SERIES

Ambushed was steppy while trying for the early lead, but once Braxton Boyd got her attention, she was all business, prevailing in a stake-fastest 1:53.1. Cobbler was second, beaten 2-1/4 lengths, with Adult Swim third.

“She’s a nice filly – that’s why I came all the way here (from northeastern Pennsylvania),” Boyd said. “Even though it wasn’t the sires stakes, hopefully I can keep the drive on her. I think we’ll try her in the sires stakes next time; she looks like she can go right with them.”

Also taking splits were Duchess Hill, Ginger Tree Lena and Little Lady J. David Miller enjoyed a stake double behind Ginger Tree Lena and Little Lady J.

Goudawon delivers stunning upset in OSS Gold

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Goudawon pulled off a stunning last to first upset victory in Friday evening's (July 8) $157,200 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold division for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Stepping up to the Gold Series riding a three-race win streak, Goudawon and driver Bob McClure sat back before making the most of their opportunity, charging home in :26.3 to pick off her rivals at odds of 40-1.

"I just wanted to use her as little as possible the whole way and cut both turns and try and salvage a fifth and get (the connections) their entry money back," said McClure. "I knew they wanted to try the Golds and they ended up unlucky with a heavyweight division with just eight horses.

It worked out really well and at the head of the lane she had a ton of go, we got out of Prohibition Legal's back and she just kicked home great."

The opening half of the contest saw Speaker Nancy blast out to post a :26.4 first-quarter before Balance rushed to the top from fourth to hit the half in :56.3. The new leader did not rest on the lead, blasting the third-quarter in :27.

Even-money choice Prohibition Legal got away sixth and got into the outer-flow, but sat third-over turning for home. Meanwhile, eventual winner Goudawon got away eighth and hugged the rail throughout the opening three-quarters.

In the stretch, Balance did her best to fight off rivals, dealing with pressure from Speaker Nancy and Prohibition Legal. Balance's game effort would be overshadowed by Goudawon, who angled off the pylons to the far outside and shot by to score by a neck in a career-best 1:51.1.

Balance held second, while 41-1 longshot Got The Gold got third after sitting third at the rail throughout. Prohibition Legal rounded out the Superfecta.

A homebred for Brenda and Mark Lane, who share ownership with Anthony Lane, Goudawon delivered her connection's a great thrill with her stunning victory.

"It just feels fantastic," said Brenda Lane. "Our family is here and I'm really at a loss for words and that's not me. I foaled her out myself and we decided we're all in and it's great."

A daughter of Betterthancheddar, Goudawon improved her 3-year-old record to five wins in 10 starts and now holds the distinction of being a Grassroots and Gold winner in the same season. The Brethour trainee is now a seven-time career winner with $121,770 earned in 2022 and $145,869 lifetime.

A $2 win ticket on Goudawon returned $83.80.

The next OSS Gold leg for 3-year-old pacing fillies is scheduled for August 1 at Grand River Raceway.

New Image Media

Goudawon (Bob McClure) posted a 40-1 upset in Friday's $157,200 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold division for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The mile was a career best 1:51.1.

The inside speed bias is getting worse

I noticed that some horse owners have complained that their horse drew an outside post in five straight starts. Yes, the inside speed bias hurts the sport in many ways. This year at the Meadowlands, a one mile track, the outside posts are winning at what appears to be historically low percentages. As of July 6, post 9 has a 5.7 per cent win percentage and post 10 is at 5.9 per cent. I can remember many meets where post 1 and post 10 at the Meadowlands had roughly the same win percentage, right around 10 per cent. And here's something I don't think I've ever seen, the outside posts at Yonkers, a half-mile track, are winning at a higher percentage than the Meadowlands. Post 7 and 8 at Yonkers are both winning at 6.1 per cent.

The faster final times, longer bikes and driver lean back make it almost impossible to win from far off the pace. It's also harder to leave from the outside because the drivers from the inside are leaving harder to take control of the pace.

Obviously, the smart fix for this would be to use sulkies that are more conducive to competitive racing. But, since the sport seems hell bent on destroying itself, let's look at the alternatives. First of all, for many years, post 8 at Yonkers was winning at less than 4 per cent. Why is it doing a little better now? Well, unless my eyes are deceiving me, Yonkers is using a "run up." In other words, they are starting the race early, actually racing more than 1 mile, but only timing the mile.

Tracks have done this in the past. In fact, Yonkers had several meets where they raced a mile and a sixteenth, but they timed the entire distance.

I think you could make a case that almost all harness tracks should have a run up, and there's no need to time it. The different times confused handicappers when tracks like Freehold and Yonkers tried it.

With a run up, the outside horses can get into the act and it makes for a much better race with a faster early pace, which also helps closers. Yonkers could actually get the outside posts win percentage up a few more points if they simply started the race even earlier.

If you look at some of the other tracks, the bias is severe. Buffalo, another half mile track, has post 1 winning at 26.5 per cent and post 8, a measly 1.2 per cent. This is a terrible contrast that should be unacceptable. Why not do something about it? Post 8 at Monticello is only winning at 4.1 per cent. At Northfield Park, post 8 is winning at 4.3 per cent. Post 9 was doing so bad at Mohegan Sun Pocono that they did away with it.

I know some people would say that the outside posts were always biased, but actually back in the sport's heyday, outside posts at most tracks won about twice as high a percentage than they do now.

The inside speed bias contributes to the low payoffs and percentage of winning favorites because there are less wagering opportunities. Everyone is betting on the inside horses. Pocono, Northfield, Philadelphia, Monticello, Buffalo, all have favorites winning at over 47 per cent and Yonkers is just under that. That's not what gamblers like to see. That's why so many former hardcore harness bettors now bet the thoroughbreds.

Bob Pandolfo / Northampton, PA

I am done with harness racing; fixed odds needed

I have been a fan since I went to Maywood Park when my boss took me in 1976. I can't bet on harness races anymore. The reason is the fast changing odds make it impossible to make a bet.

In the last week I have played a horse I thought went off at 7-1 just before start of the race, then boom 3-1 as the race is going. Another horse I played at 8-5 seconds before the start, goes off at 3-5.

Exacta I played paying $8 goes down to $4.40.

When I make a bet I am looking for value. What happens is the value I saw disappears before my eyes. If I want to see magic, I will go to a magic show.

Something is going on with syndicates to change the odds this dramatically. No one has addressed this, and it seems no one wants to talk about it.

I can't bet anymore until fixed odds become an option. I used to enjoy betting, buy now it is just aggravating. Good luck to all as I am done!
