The “wait until next week” harness racing culture needs to go

As a bettor and customer, I have a few important asks of the industry and its participants.

by Dean Towers

BRUSH AND CRUSH

by DEAN TOWERS

On Friday (July 9), the Meadowlands released a note that there would be drivers meeting on July 16. The gist of it appears to be the perceived lack of competitive racing at the Jersey oval.

“I’d like to talk about how we might improve the product, especially considering we are going to show some of the races on national TV (America’s Day at The Races on Fox Sports 2) on Pace night,” said Meadowlands president Jeff Gural. “The idea is to do some things differently, evaluate the results during the break between the Hambletonian and when we reopen on Sept. 3 and decide if in fact these changes helped or hurt.”

Although I believe the Big M is pretty decent when it comes to contentious races, they certainly have had their share of snoozers. When Dovescry getting a :58 half and 1:27.3 three-quarters in the Miss Versatility caused much chatter. One of the Graduate legs equally so, with one friend “chucking his keyboard” (in 2021 people throw keyboards instead of programs I guess) because of a passive steer.

The lack of competitiveness has been a complaint from Joe Public for some time. In response, the sport often talks about speed bikes, frail horses, or too much week to week purse money as the reason for some of these sleepy races; the races that at times look more like qualifiers.

But let’s be honest and blunt. The reason some drivers (and trainers) don’t put forth an honest effort in a given week is because they choose not to. They’re the ones who choose to sit; they make the decision to take the week off. They give a hole when they have no interest in mixing it up.

As a bettor and customer, I have a few asks of the industry and its participants.

Critical response	page 18

- To drivers, if your horse is a contender and is well bet, the responsibility is on you to put the horse into the race. This is the expectation of the betting public. They're betting you tonight, not for next week.

- To trainers, if your well-bet contender is taking a week off from racing – to be buried to braven up, to be taken to the back and brushed at the finish in preparation for next week – don't enter. Do this at the farm or in a qualifier where people are not wagering their hard-earned money.

- To the judges, if a 4-5 shot is taken back to last, a 3-5 shot doesn't pull a two hole or sits third in slow fractions (and other little-effort scenarios, like passively opening a hole for no strategic reason) the connections should be called up. There are rules written to prevent this from happening. They need to be enforced.

I fully realize the above items are considered heresy by some factions of the sport, and I know they will elicit condemnation. It shouldn't. They're basic planks of any game or sport; even more so in one that derives purses from over $2 billion in wagering handle each year.

In a 1998 study, Piron & Smith concluded that it's racing's job to "bring together horses and purse money in a way to encourage people to bet on those horses," and to maximize this purse money, there should be a goal to create competitive races that, "in a perfectly handicapped race, all horses would finish in a dead heat."

That can't happen the way many races unfold today. And it needs to be addressed.

Leaked document reveals dual-breed racetrack proposal for British Columbia

If approved, the new track would replace both Fraser Downs and Hastings Park in the "Horse Capital of BC."

by Melissa Keith

Langley Township, British Columbia wants to become home to one of Canada's newest racetracks, leaving the futures of two historic racing venues up in the air. That's if a proposal for a facility in the eastern area of Metro Vancouver meets approval.

A document anonymously shared with the Langley Advance Times news outlet revealed that Langley Township reached out to the BC Horse Racing Industry Management Committee (BCHRIMC) in a letter dated June 21, 2021. Mayor Jack Froese has since confirmed to local reporter Matthew Claxton that discussions are at an early stage.

The leaked letter references a "special closed meeting" of the Township of Langley Council that took place on July 27, 2020. In that session, a resolution was passed that would see Council direct municipal staff to advise the provincial government and BC Lottery Corporation (BCLC) that Langley Township was "willing to become a Host Local Government (HLG) of a casino, community gaming centre or teletheatre, in partnership with Kwantlen First Nation (KFN)."

In BC, host local governments receive 10 per cent of net gaming revenue from approved gaming venues located within their boundaries. The funds may be used as the host local government wishes, and must be reported annually to the provincial gaming policy and enforcement branch.

The letter states that council would "like to explore the relocation of the two major racetracks, both thoroughbred and standardbred, to a new, one-mile, all-weather racetrack and training centre to be established on agricultural land" in the "Horse Capital of BC." The proposal includes an on-site racebook. When permitted, an unspecified "ancillary gaming facility" would be added. There is currently no casino in Langley Township.

A "Sunny Riding Stables" sign stands in front of the vacant land earmarked for the project.

Council staff were directed to inform the BCHRIMC that the municipality wished to start consultations with racing industry representatives, including "various stakeholder groups," plus Great Canadian Gaming Corporation (GCGC), other BC gaming operators, and "operators of both Hastings Racecourse Casino and Fraser Downs at Elements Casino Surrey."

Hastings Racecourse opened in 1889 at what is now known as the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) grounds in Vancouver. The PNE is a non-profit organization that holds a summer fair, a tradition that began in 1910. Horse racing pre-dates the fair: The provincial government granted 160 acres of land to Vancouver City Council in 1888, for public use and recreation; a group approached Council about allocating a portion of the land for racing. Sixteen acres were leased to the newly-created BC Jockey Club in 1890. In the 1950s-60s, Hastings was upgraded with a larger racing surface, new grandstand, and lights for nighttime racing. It is one of GCGC's nine BC gaming properties.

Fraser Downs (aka Elements Surrey Casino) occupies 48 acres of the Cloverdale Exhibition grounds. Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame "Builder" category inductee Jim Keeling Sr. partnered with the Fraser Valley Fair Board to open Cloverdale Raceway on New Year's Day 1976. He owned and operated the Surrey harness track. Grandson Chuck Keeling later became Fraser Downs' vice president of racing operations and general manager. He stepped down in 2010, and is now executive vice president, stakeholder relations and responsible gaming for GCGC.

Fraser Downs stopped racing ahead of schedule on April 17, 2021, when Harness Racing BC (HRBC) ran out of funds. Lengthy casino closures due to COVID-19 precautions had hit racing hard. Twenty-five per cent of net slot machine profits at Fraser and Hastings are allocated to supporting live racing in BC.

Nearly a decade ago to this month, rumours circulated that Hastings would be moving thoroughbred racing to Fraser Downs, which in turn would be renovated to host both breeds. A July 25, 2012 Chilliwack Progress article by reporter Jeff Nagle pointed out that if Hastings Park renewed its lease to remain at the PNE, a deal to consolidate BC thoroughbred and standardbred racing at Fraser Downs would be dropped.

In January 2020, Hastings Racecourse and the City of Vancouver signed a new five-year lease extension with a five-year option in place. This year, both tracks continue to operate separately under GCGC ownership. Hastings' meet is underway now, with racing tentatively slated to continue through October 25.

In a release on its website Saturday (July 10), Harness Racing BC (HRBC) noted that the reopened casinos at provincial racetracks were performing "better than expected," which is good news for racing. Fraser Downs is now tentatively scheduled to start its new season "sometime during the week of September 20, 2021," with one weekly live card for the first four weeks of the meet, followed by two cards per week if horse population is sufficient.

The HRBC site mentions Hastings and Fraser racebook reconfigurations being discussed with GCGC, but there is no mention (yet) of the breaking news out of Langley Township. A possible merger of all BC racing at one new track is far from assured, although Langley Township Mayor Froese stated in the leaked letter that he "looks forward to discussing this proposal further."

Longshots Hellabalou, Southwind Gendry score in Meadowlands Pace eliminations

Hellabalou posted an 81-1 upset and Southwind Gendry recorded a 10-1 score.

by Frank and Ray Cotolo, for The Meadowlands

The lights of the tote board shone brightly across the “sloppy” track after each of the $50,000 Meadowlands Pace eliminations on Saturday (July 10) at The Meadowlands when a pair of long-odd competitors crossed the beam first.

A breathtaking 81-1 upset by Hellabalou, with Andrew McCarthy at the lines, was the highlight of the first $50,000 elimination for the Meadowlands Pace.

The Sweet Lou—Majestic Blue Chip colt, trained by Eddie Dennis, got everyone’s attention right off the gate as he swept to the lead from post 7 moving to the first turn.

“I had a look across [as the field got started off the gate] and nobody really looked that dedicated to leaving hard,” McCarthy said after the race, “so I bounced him out of there and got him to the front.”

Charlie May settled into the garden spot with 2-5 favorite One Eight Hundred in third. One Eight Hundred then sprung off the pylons to take the lead from Hellabalou to a :26.4 first quarter and rolled to the half in :56.1 under minimal pressure. Heart Of Chewbacca meanwhile pulled first over from fifth and made slight gains through the final turn.

One Eight Hundred took the field to three-quarters in 1:23.2 but came under attack as Charlie May launched out of the pocket and then downed the tiring pacesetter into the stretch. However Hellabalou was full of pace, and in deep stretch angled three wide to take the lead and win by a half length in 1:49.2.

“I was just trying to get him into the final,” McCarthy said, “but he raced great. He had a lot of punch in the stretch. I’ve driven this horse a lot. He’s very talented. He’s been racing good without showing it on paper.”

Michael Lisa

Hellabalou (Andrew McCarthy) blew up the toteboard at 81-1 while winning the first of two Meadowlands Pace eliminations in 1:49.2 on Saturday at The Big M.

Charlie May finished second. Chase H Hanover swerved through traffic to snag third from One Eight Hundred while Rockyroad Hanover rallied to take fifth and complete the first elimination's finalists.

Hellabalou, the longest shot in the seven-horse field, paid $165.60 to win. Eric K. Good owns Hellabalou, who raised his lifetime earnings to $93,886 in his fourth win from 15 starts.

Bred by Andray Farm and Sergeant Stables LLC of Pennsylvania, Hellabalou sold for $42,000 at the 2019 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

The second "Pace" elimination went the way of another, but slightly less, high-priced contender when the Ron Burke pupil Southwind Gendry grabbed the front and cruised to capture a 1:49.1 win at odds of 10-1.

Also leaving from post 7, Southwind Gendry slid to the top and pocketed Lawless Shadow moving to a :27.1 first quarter while even-money favorite Perfect Sting landed in third. Southwind Gendry continued up the backstretch leading a headstrong Lawless Shadow through a :56.1 half and then cruised under minimal pressure to three-quarters in 1:23.3 before the sprint for home.

Southwind Gendry's lead began to diminish come the final sixteenth, but the gelded son of Always B Miki—Gambler's Passion held on by a neck to keep a resurgent Lawless Shadow at bay. Perfect Sting—angling from the pylons off the final turn—rallied down the center of the track for third while American Courage and Abuckabett Hanover checked in fourth and fifth, respectively, to round the finalists.

"I was planning on taking him back and just maybe one-move him, just to get in the final for next week," winning driver Yannick Gingras said after the race. "But then nobody was leaving, so I took a shot out of there. But he was more willing today. He hasn't been wanting to leave all year really and today I planted him on the gate and he left out of there on his own.

"He's definitely better following horses actually," Gingras also said. "On the front, he's a little bit lazy. Of course those fractions helped tonight, but you could see even late he's just waiting on them to get close to him."

A winner in 13 races from 18 starts, Southwind Gendry has banked $734,841 for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Phillip Collura, Knox Services Inc. and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby. He paid $22.00 to win.

Bred by Southwind Farms, Southwind Gendry was sold for $30,000 at the 2019 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The draw for the $700,000 Meadowlands Pace final set for Saturday, July 17 is as follows (Morning-line odds will be available Sunday):

PP. Horse (Driver, Trainer)

1. Perfect Sting (David Miller, Joe Holloway)
2. Hellabalou (Andrew McCarthy, Eddie Dennis)
3. Chase H Hanover (Brian Sears, Scott Cox)
4. Southwind Gendry (Yannick Gingras, Ron Burke)
5. Lawless Shadow (Mark MacDonald, Ian Moore)
6. Rockyroad Hanover (Dexter Dunn, Tony Alagna)
7. One Eight Hundred (Tim Tetrick, Nancy Takter)
8. Abuckabett Hanover (Andrew McCarthy, Tony Alagna)
9. Charlie May (Brett Miller, Steve Carter)
10. American Courage (Matt Kakaley, Travis Alexander)

The second Pace elimination was won by Southwind Gendry (Yannick Gingras) in 1:49.1.

Ready For Moni captures Graduate Series for trotters

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Ready For Moni rallied in the stretch to win Saturday's (July 10) $250,000 Graduate Series final for 4-year-old trotters in 1:50.3 over a sloppy track at the Meadowlands. Hypnotic AM, the lone mare in the 10-horse field, finished second and It's Academic was third.

Amigo Volo, starting from post 10, battled with Play Trix On Me and It's Academic to gain the lead in an opening quarter of :26.4. It's Academic moved to the front on the backstretch and led to the half in :55.1 before facing first-over pressure from Hypnotic AM on the last turn.

Ready For Moni, who was sixth during the first half of the race, followed Hypnotic AM around the turn and into the stretch before moving to the outside to charge to victory for driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Nancy Takter. The margin of victory was 1-1/2 lengths.

"Timmy gave him a great trip," Takter said. "He found some cover, which (Ready For Moni) hasn't had the last couple weeks. Hypnotic AM towed him right into the finish and he finished really strong. That's a great mile on this track. I'm pretty proud of him."

New Jersey

"My colt was really great today. He had the ball in his court and he took advantage of it."

Ready For Moni has won two of four races this season and 11 of 23 lifetime. The win in the Graduate pushed his career earnings over $1 million.

By Ready Cash out of Nothing But Moni, Ready For Moni is owned by Lindy Farms of Connecticut, John Fielding, Herb Liverman, and Bud Hatfield. The stallion was bred by Moni Maker Stable and sold for $220,000 at the 2018 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

"He's raced super every start this year," Takter said. "He's been closing really well. It's tough sometimes for 4-year-olds to make the adjustments for their 4-year-old year, especially when they've had long 3-year-old seasons. He seems to be handling it pretty well and I look forward to racing him the rest of the year."

"He has the Hambletonian Maturity next weekend, so we're really looking forward to that. And then he's in all the big stakes following the Hambletonian Maturity."

Sent off at odds of 6-1, Ready For Moni paid $15.40 to win.

Michael Lisa

Ready For Moni (Tim Tetrick) won the $250,000 Graduate final for 4-year-old open trotters on Saturday at The Meadowlands in 1:50.3 over a sloppy track.

Cattlewash scores in 1:47.1 in Graduate Series Pace final

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Cattlewash won Saturday's $250,000 Graduate Series final for 4-year-old pacers in 1:47.1, equaling this season's fastest mile, over a sloppy track at the Meadowlands. Poseidon Seelster finished second and Tattoo Artist, the leader for much of the mile, was third.

Tattoo Artist, starting from post seven, went straight to the front, with Poseidon Seelster settling in second from post six and Cattlewash dropping in third from post eight. Tattoo Artist led to the quarter in :25.3, half in :53.3, and three-quarters in 1:20.1.

Captain Barbossa made a first-over move on the backstretch but got no closer than third. Favorite Ruthless Hanover went off stride prior to the half-mile point.

Poseidon Seelster and Cattlewash both came after Tattoo Artist in the stretch, and Cattlewash won the battle by a head thanks to a :26.2 last quarter.

New Jersey

"I was going to take a shot, and hopefully it worked out, whether I had cover or not," winning driver David Miller said about the start of the race. "There was a great big three hole, so I took it, and it worked out.

"Last year, I thought he raced best on the lead, but this year so far they've been going so much that I've had to sit him in a hole. I thought he raced tremendous tonight."

Miller guided Cattlewash, a son of Somebeachsomewhere out of Road Bet, to the win for trainer Ron Burke and breeder/owner Bill Donovan. It was Cattlewash's first win this season in four starts. The stallion has won 11 of 34 in his career, with earnings of $973,527.

"He's just an all-around great horse," Miller said. "He can race any way you want him to. He's just a good solid horse."

Cattlewash, sent off at 7-1, paid $16.20 to win.

Michael Lisa

Despite a sloppy track, Cattlewash (David Miller) equalled the year's fastest mile with a 1:47.1 victory in the $250,000 Graduate final for open pacers on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

National season's records set in Ohio Sires Stakes

Six of the nine divisions were won by progeny of Downbytheseaside.

by Kimberly Rinker / OSDF Administrator

Nine $40,000 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) for 2-year-old pacing colts and fillies were contested Saturday night (July 10) at Northfield Park, with multiple national season's records broken and set.

Secret Side Piece began the night with a bang, winning the first OHSS division for fillies in 1:53.3, a national season's record for driver Mike Wilder. The daughter of Downbytheseaside is conditioned by Todd Luther for Black Magic Racing and upped her earnings to $57,500 with the victory, the second of her brief career. Secret Side Piece, at 1-9 odds, bested 10-1 second-place finisher Fear Our Fayth (Tyler Smith) with 25-1 longshot Sleepwithoneyeopen (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) notching third place honors. Bred by Spring Haven Farm, Secret Side Piece is the third foal out of the unraced Rock N Roll Heaven mare Brazilian and is a half sister to Brazen Brazilian (by Thinking Out Loud) 3, 1:55.1h ($58,797) and to Loud Brazilian (by Thinking Out Loud) p, 3, 1:57.1h ($11,995).

Cape Cod Hanover took the second OHSS filly division, duplicating the national season's mark of 1:53.3 set a few races earlier by Secret Side Piece. Driven by Chris Page at 2-1 odds for trainer Ron Burke, the daughter of Downbytheseaside cruised to a front-stepping victory for Burke Racing, Weaver Brusce, Rich Lombardo and Ras Racing. The victory was the second in as many tries in her career and upped her earnings to $23,400. Cape Cod Hanover bested 5-1 Mermaid By the Sea (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), with 5-1 Fear The Smoothie (Aaron Merriman) third.

Cape Cod Hanover is the 11th foal out of the Artsplace mare Clouding Over p, 3, 1:57f ($20,417), and has half-siblings in: Artsy Princess (by Western Hanover) p, 4, 1:52f ($294,973); Clear View Hanover (by Western Ideal) p, 5, 1:50.2 ($251,647); Climate Hanover (by Western Ideal) p, 6, 1:51.3f ($240,011); Clouseau Hanover (by Western Ideal) p, 4, 1:49.2f ($197,291); Cluster Hanover (by Badlands Hanover) p, 3, 1:52.4s ($177,288); etc.

Cold Hearted Gypsy flew to a new national season's record of 1:53.1 in the third OHSS division for freshman pacing fillies with Chris Lems driving for owner/trainer Herman Hagerman

JJ Zamaiko

Cold Hearted Gypsy (Chris Lems) flew to a new national season's record of 1:53.1 in the third OHSS division for freshman pacing fillies on Saturday at Northfield Park.

of Millersburg, OH. This homebred Racing Hill filly was making her pari-mutuel debut and left the gate at 8-5 odds. Finishing second was longshot Suge (Josh Sutton) with 6-5 Targaryen Empress (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) third. Cold Hearted Gypsy is the second foal out of the Badlands Hanover mare Blueridge Adalia p, 3, 1:53Z ($113,378), and is a half-sister to the McArdle gelding Adalias McMoney p, 2, 2:00.1h ($27,299).

Dragon's Revenge stormed as the 3-5 favorite to a 1:54.1 clocking in the fourth OHSS contest for pacing fillies. Driven by Danny Noble for trainer Christi Noble, the brown daughter by Fear The Dragon picked up her first lifetime victory for Tim Homan, Jim Burnett and Norman Rae Racing. Dragon Lady (Chris Page) was second at 7-1 with Ginger Again finishing third with Ryan Stahl at the lines. Dragons Revenge is the first foal out of the Jereme's Jet mare My Hare Lady p, 7, 1:53.1f ($169,687).

Sea Silk, the 1-9 favorite, literally romped to a 1:53.3 clocking for driver Chris Page and trainer Ronnie Burke in the fifth and final OHSS contest for 2-year-old pacing fillies. The daughter of Downbytheseaside notched her second straight victory, having captured the $150,000 Next Generation Pace on July 3 at Scioto Downs. Owned by Burke Racing, Weaver Brussemi, Knox Services and the Hatfield Stables, Sea Silk defeated 21-1 runner-up Allnight Micki (Mike Wilder) with 25-1 Sloopy (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) finishing third. Sea Silk is the third foal out of the Bettor's Delight mare Silk Purse p, 3, 1:53.2s ($112,336), making her a half-sister to Odds On Greenville (by Yankee Cruiser) p, 2, 1:54.1s ($51,623) and Lima Spartan (by Art Major) p, 3, 1:53.4 ($47,151).

Sling Shock left no doubt he was much the best, capturing the first OHSS division for pacing colts in a blistering 1:52 – just three-fifths off the track record – and a national season's mark. Driven by Dan Noble for trainer Christi Noble, the son of Downbytheseaside notched his second career victory in as many tries and now has $95,000 in career earnings for owner Michael Cimaglio, William Richardson, William Salmeri, and Rhonda Gilmartin. The bay colt, who left the gate as the 1-9 choice, bested 30-1 longshot Rose Run Xplosion (Mike Wilder) by more than seven lengths, with another longshot, 30-1 Seaside Way (Chris Page) third. Sling Shock is the second and only foal to race out of the Art Major mare Shocking Beauty, p, 3, Q1:58s ($18,926). He was bred by Billy Walters, Joe McLead and Rtk Racing.

Gulf Shores notched his first career victory in the second OHSS event for 2-year-old pacing colts, stopping the clock in 1:52.4 for owners Country Club Acres, Diamond Creek Racing and Wingfield Brothers. The son of Downbytheseaside was reined by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., as the 3-5 choice for trainer Brian Brown, besting 30-1 longshot Velocity Chaps (Josh Sutton) and 2-1 Pearl Snaps

JJ Zamaiko

Sling Shock (Dan Noble) won the first OHSS division for pacing colts in a blistering 1:52 – just three-fifths off the track record – and a national season's mark.

(Aaron Byron). Gulf Shores is the third foal out of the Dragon Again mare Western Drag p, 3, 1:53.3f ($107,831) and is a half brother to Captain Western (by Captaintreacherous) p, 2, 1:57.1f ($9,532).

Mr Nuttin Nice lit up the tote board as the 23-1 winner in the third OHSS division for colts, stopping the clock in 1:55.1. Driven by Ronnie Gillespie for trainer Roshun Trigg and owner Charles E. Hurst of Houston, Texas, the bay son of Racing Hill used the passing lane to get by the leaders in the final stride and score his third consecutive victory. Chris Page steered The Fear Is Real to a second place finish, with 5-1 The Mad King (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) getting third-place honors. Bred by Chester Miller of Ohio, Mr Nuttin Nice is the sixth foal out of the Western Ideal mare Baia Hanover p, 2, 1:55.4f ($30,851) and has half-siblings in: Baia's Delight (by Bettor's Delight) p, 4, 1:54f ($69,371); Cloud Diva (by Somebeachsomewhere) p, 3, 1:52.2s ($65,624); I've Got Hootspa (by Sportswriter) p, 5, 1:52.4s ($34,545); etc.

Buckeye Seaside took advantage of a leading breaker to take the final OHSS division in 1:53.4. Driven by Kayne Kauffman for trainer Mike Polhamus and owners Aws Stables, Constance Polhamus and Mary Beth Walters. It was the first lifetime win for the son of Downbytheseaside, who was bred b Larry R. Miller. Risenshine Seaside (Ryan Stahl) was second at 3-1 with Vintage Cowboy (Dan Noble) third at 3-1 odds. Buckeye Seaside is the sixth foal out of the McArdle mare McGrin N McBare It p, 3, Q1:58f ($4,165) and is a half-brother to Rocktavius (by Rocknroll Hanover) p, 7, 1:50.1f ($271,601); Flash A Smile (by Bettor's Delight) p, 5, 1:53.1f ($75,711); and Sharp Razor (by Well Said) p, 3, 1:54.4f ($49,605); etc.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Remembering the very first Meadowlands Pace

by Bob Heyden

Let's take a look back at the very first Meadowlands Pace in 1977 with a dozen notes of interest:

1. The inaugural pace was held on a Tuesday night (July 12, 1977).

2. Going into Pace Night, the Meadowlands track record for sophomore pacing colts was 1:55.1 set by Oil Burner on Sept. 6, 1976. The overall track mark was 1:54.3 by Shadyside Trixie. Both were lowered in the Pace elims by B Gs Bunny to 1:54.

3. It was a 10-race card with an 8 p.m. post, seven of 10 winners paid between 4-1 and 5-1, 11 drivers in the two elims went on to the Hall Of Fame. The two longest-priced horses were Keystone Banshee with Peter Haughton at 77-1 (eighth) and Stan Banks drove Thorpe Messenger to a fifth and qualifying spot at 87-1 and then was sixth in the final at 81-1 — both times the longest price.

4. Pace Night, the winning drivers were Ed Lohmeyer with Lincolns Streak $11.00; Fortune Jim with Jim Doherty $8.20; Troubador Chip with Buddy Gilmour $11.00; Crash won the first Pace elim for Billy Haughton at a healthy $32.80; B Gs Bunny paid $12.60 in his world record 1:54 flat (with former all-age track record holder Jade Prince 1:54.1 second); Hurricane Star for 22-year-old Charlie Connor, Jr. returned $12.00; Mannart Kerry for Buddy again $11.60; Law Breaker for Ted Wing at $6.80 as the evening's only favorite who won; Escort took the final of the Meadowlands Pace with a payout of $10.20 (2nd in elim); and White Richelieu took the final race of the night at $10.60 for Mike Gagliardi.

5. Bill Drummond found that fancy credentials only went so far in the very first edition. His 18-for-21 overall best record going in didn't amount to a lot when he finished seventh and didn't advance to the $425,000 final.

6. The name John Campbell appeared in the program in 1977 — even though it was five months prior to his arrival to the Big M. He had driven a colt named River Captain at Detroit Race Course who did not qualify to the 12-horse Pace final among the 24 that tried. He paced in 1:56.4 for Lester Pullen. Campbell had driven that colt to victory for a $48,000 purse just 31 days or three starts prior. He raced for Frank Nakagawa of London, ON.

7. The two Pace favorites BOTH came from the Kopas barn and both started from the second tier — Nat Lobell-4th at 2.50-1 and Jade Prince second at 3.60-1.

8. Big Towner was able to make the final but brought up the rear. He was the most successful commercial sire at well over $100 million later. Governor Skipper won the division title that year for 3yocp, but was next to last in his elimination.

9. For Billy Haughton, who upset with Crash, the fractions looked quite similar to those the very next year when he won the Pace final with Falcon Almahurst. Crash — :28, :56.1, 1:25.3, 1:55.1 / Falcon Almahurst — :28.1 :56 1:25 1:55.1.

10. Exactas in the elims: $176.20 for Crash and Escort and $54.40 for B Gs Bunny and Jade Prince. There was no exotic wagering in the final.

11. Six of the nine drivers in the final (B Gs Bunny scratched and never raced again) never competed in another Meadowlands Pace final.

12. The best for last. In the first five editions of the Meadowlands Pace, the winning driver never ever won a single Meadowlands Pace elimination:

40th anniversary of Campbell's first million-dollar drive

Next Saturday, July 17 marks the 40th anniversary of John Campbell's first million-dollar drive. In 1981, he was fourth with Slapstick in the Meadowlands Pace won by Conquered. Campbell was sent off at 5-1 driving for Lee Broglio.

Delayed reaction?

Genghis Khan was fifth in the 1979 Meadowlands Pace won by Sonsam in 1:53.2.

It would be three years to his record-breaking earnings season of 1982 when he banked over $550,000 and was clearly the top older pacer in the sport.

Remembering Andrea Chadwick

Women have won the last two editions of the Meadowlands Pace — Nancy Takter with Tall Dark Stranger and Linda Toscano with Best In Show. But it was Andrea Chadwick in 1992 who got the ball rolling in the Meadowlands Pace with Lord Willing. Though the chestnut finished eighth, it was the very first time a female trainer tried it versus the boys. The son of Energy Burner was 3rd in his elimination at 72-1, then was sent off 22-1 in the $1 million final. Allen Cullen drove. (Carlsbad Cam won that year).

Oh Canada!

From 1980-1990 every winning driver in the Meadowlands Pace was born in Canada: Clint Galbraith, Dr. John Hayes, Jr., John Campbell twice, Ron Waples, Buddy Gilmour twice, Bill O'Donnell, Trevor Ritchie, Mike Lachance and Ray Remmen.

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

Long Tom and old friends

by Alan Leavitt

One of my oldest and smartest friends, Steve Katz, suggested I take a look at Long Tom's pedigree, so I did.

Long Tom, for the record, is a 7-year-old stallion who earned $410,512 at 2 and 3 and won some stakes both years. His first crop is now racing at 2. He's by Muscle Hill, and out of Ilia, by Windsong's Legacy, and therein lies the plot of this caper, as we say in the detective trade.

For starters, Long Tom is 4 x 5 x 5 to Yankee Duchess, who was Charlie Keller's foundation trotting mare. But of much more significance, Windsong's Legacy, the sire of Ilia, Long Tom's dam, is a half-sister to Ilia's second dam, making Ilia 3 x 3 to Yankee Scottie.

I know this is starting to sound like something from the great song of my youth "I'm My Own Grandpa," but it gives us an important clue into knowing why Ilia is such a great producer. Which she is. From four foals of racing age older than 2, she has three that have earned, respectively, $625,074, $506,887 and $410,513.

They are all three by different sires, and I question whether there is another trotting dam today who can equal her production. It is no surprise that her yearling brought $400,000 last fall at Harrisburg. Ilia is clearly a mare with a genetic deck that probably starts with a Jack, and goes up from there. Which means she is going to always throw a very high card for her half of the genetic makeup no matter whom she's bred to. Obviously her mates only have to throw a medium range card, possibly an eight, for the average to come out high enough to result in a stakes winning trotter.

In an earlier piece, it was mentioned that there is a breeding concept of giving back to a sire the best blood of his dam. That was a concept of my Italian friend, the great breeder Federico Tesio, and Ilia is a prime example of that.

Muscle Hill, the leading trotting sire of the present day, has a pedigree that is drenched in the blood of the family Charlie Keller created. Both lines in Ilia's pedigree are likewise Charlie Keller's creations, although this kid does take a little credit for the tail-male line of Windsong's Legacy. Tail-male, as you may not remember, is the top sire line in a horse's pedigree.

All of this supports this kid's belief that is you want breeding pyrotechnics, inbreeding is the way you get it. And as a final note about Ilia, I was delighted to learn that she's owned by another of my oldest and dearest friends, Pete Spears. Congrats, Pete. It couldn't happen to a better, or nicer, guy.

Old friends

With the racing season now in full bloom, I find myself remembering some of the great friendships I've enjoyed over the years with a number of trainers who have had horses for me. Some are gone now, others, such as Bob Stewart, Bob McIntosh, Brett Pelling, and Randy Jerrell, are still practicing their trade at a high level and doing fine.

Of those in the past, I learned the most important life lessons from Curly Smart and 'The Boss' Howard Beissinger. Curly, who looked in a way like one of the Seven Little Dwarves, the happy one, was a great trainer and driver, with wonderful stories from a time now long gone by.

In his driving days, before the breathalyzer was invented, Curly was in great demand during the Red Mile fall meeting as a time trial driver.

"It was a little nippy this one morning, so Monty Moncreif and I had a couple of sips before we got started time trialing. So we got over to the half with the first one, and I yelled over to Monty, who had the prompter, 'How fast did we get over here?'"

Curly stopped for a moment to smile at the memory, and then he said to me, "Monty yelled back, 'I thought you had the watch.' "But," he finished the story, "We still put two minutes on six of them that morning."

I also learned from Curly that there were a tremendous number of people named, "Bub."

That one I haven't put into much practice, but the most important one he taught me I use almost every day. As Curly said, from the depth of his wisdom, "You have to know when the race is over, Bub."

Howard, the Boss to me, was an equally great trainer and driver, although he probably didn't drink as much in a year as Curly and I could put away in one night at his kitchen table.

The Boss had a metal working shop in his basement, and he told me, "I always sharpen my tools before I put them away."

So simple, and yet so smart. It's a principle I've tried to apply all my life. But the most important thing The Boss taught me was that "people never change."

That has stood me in such a good stead ever since he said it to me, and it has a universal application. So, if you didn't know it before, you know it now and if you're smart, you'll never forget it.

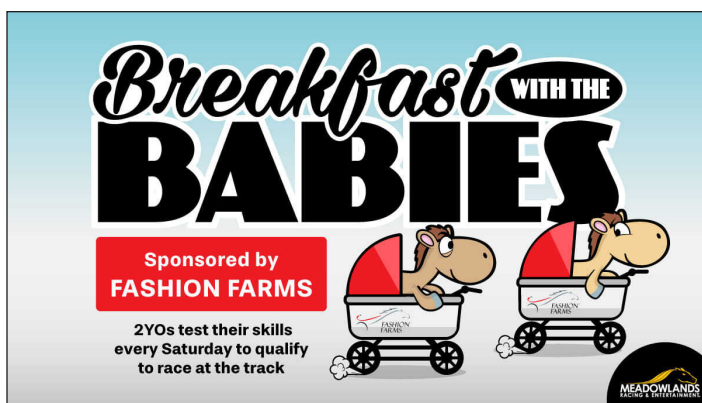

Curly and The Boss are both gone now, and as Frances McDormand said in Nomadland, "I'll see you both down the road."

That's if I'm lucky, Bub.

Breakfast With The Babies provides tune-ups heading into major stakes

by Nick Salvi / Meadowlands media relations

The Meadowlands played host to Breakfast With The Babies, sponsored by Jules Siegel's Fashion Farm, Saturday morning (July 10) under cloudy skies with no wind and the temperature at 75 degrees.

While the baby races are winding down, the horses using the qualifiers to get a fast mile in yielded some useful insight into the next month's major Grand Circuit stakes.

The great Ramona Hill got a good workout in with a 1:53.1 win for Andy McCarthy. She followed stablemate Hello I Love You through the 1:24.4 three quarters then sailed by under her own power, looking forward to next Saturday's Hambletonian Maturity for trainer Tony Alagna and owners Bred Grant, Crawford Farms, Robert LeBlanc and John Fodera and Steve Wienick as In The Gym Partners.

Pacing fillies Staycation Hanover (Todd McCarthy) and Firestart Hanover (Dexter Dunn) went to the wire together in a :27.2 end to the 1:52.4 mile with the former edging the opponent right on the blink. The Mistletoe Shalee is next week for the sophomore girls.

Ake Svanstedt brought the flashy Hambletonian prospect Captain Corey to The Meadowlands this morning and gave him a 1:53 / :26.4 airing out. Alone on top virtually all the way, the Goo Goo Gaagaa colt is certainly a head turner and appears to be about where you'd want him going into the first Saturday in August.

Finally, two Jenn Bongiorno trainees, the vaunted Nicholas Beach (Brian Sears) and his new stablemate Major Betts (A. McCarthy) went to the wire in tandem in a 27-second end to a 1:49.4 mile with Nicholas declared the winner by the slimmest of margins. That pair appears to be ready for anything.

The first of the 10 2-year-old races was a filly pace where Dexter Dunn had Isnitalovelyday on a long lead throughout and was moving like a winner until right there at the end when Sweet Rock Deo and Jack Pelling rallied from well back to snap Isnitalovelyday right on the wire in 1:54.4. Superbly (T. McCarthy) was third. Brett Pelling trains the winner, a Sweet Lou filly from the great race mare Rocklamation, a $190,000 Lexington (LSYS) purchase by David Mc Duffee from breeders DEO Volente Farm and TLP Stable.

Giza Dreams (Scott Zeron) was a start-to-finish winner in her very first endeavor, setting comfortable fractions then tacking on a :28.3 end to a mile in 2:01.1. Grandeur (Pat Lachance) rallied but fell just short late to be second. Giza Dreams, by the red hot Walner, is trained by Hall Of Famer Linda Toscano for Wiseman Farms and Carter Duer is the breeder.

Quick Snap (Dexter Dunn) was a winner at first asking, getting up between horses through a :27.4 end to a 1:55 mile. Layton Hanover (A. McCarthy) rallied just wide of the winner but couldn't get him while Top Genius (Zeron) held third after cutting the mile. Let It Ride Stable (also the breeder), Bottom Line Racing and MT Pockets Stables own the winner, a Betting Line colt, in partnership with trainer Tony Alagna.

The sharp-looking Nuncio trotting colt Letsdoit S (Sears) took over mid-stretch from Abruzzo (Marcus Miller) then dug in impressively to hold off the late rush of Fast As The Wind (Dunn) for a 1:56.4 / :28.1 win. A Stall TZ homebred, Letsdoit S is trained by Marcus Miller.

Niki Hill (Dunn) impressed in her career debut, converting a nice pocket ride into a 1:54.4 / :27.2 win over pace setter Captain's Princess (A. McCarthy) with Treacherous Dragon (Tim Tetrick) third. The winner, an Always B Miki filly, was a $155,000 Lexington purchase by Tom Hill from breeder Stephen Dey III. Chris Ryder, who trained the great Party Girl Hill for the same connections last season, conditions the winner.

The Ready Cash filly Jeannica S (Mattias Melander), another winner at first asking in 1:59.2 / :29.1. Melander tracked along behind eventual place finisher Intellect Hill (Dunn) through even fractions before tipping off that one at the three-quarter pole and going by. Just Be Awesome (Dave Miller) flashed good late trot while in hand to get up for second. Courant Inc owns the winner, bred in France by Julinus Stable and Marcus Melander is the trainer.

Arsonist (Dunn) led all the way for a 1:54.2 / :28.1 win over Captain Cook (Yannick Gingras) and the late charging under a grip Bounty Hunter (Sears). Arsonist is a Captaintreacherous homebred colt from Candlelight Dinner owned by Let It Ride, Mac Nichol, Howard Taylor and Robert Cooper, trained in the Chris Ryder barn.

Ducasse (Jimmy Takter) got up in the last step to nail Highgate, who had set all the fractions for trainer/driver Greg Peck, in 2:01.3 / :29.1 while Mr Michelin (M. Miller) followed along for third. Ducasse is a Father Patrick colt, bred by Fair Island Farm who retained a piece with partners Brixton Medical, Christina Takter and Hatfield Stables after he went through the Lexington sale for $100,000.

The Captiantreacherous filly Don't Fence Me In had them on their feet at stately Bell Manor in Boynton Beach when Dexter fanned her off the cover of Yes Indeed (Tetrick) then stormed by on her own for the 1:54.4 win, her individual final fraction in the sub :27 zone. Captiva (T. McCarthy) stayed on for third after cutting the mile. Don't Fence Me In was bred by Myron and Stephanie Bell's Riverview Breeding and now owned in partnership with Steve Head, Jerry Glantz and trainer Tony Alagna.

Butterfly Face S was in the right place at the right time for trainer/driver/owner Lucas Wallin, taking advantage of Pink Coco Chanel's late stretch break then fighting off Ladybugs N Bourbon (Dunn) to post a 1:56.1 win. The Swedish-bred Raja Mirchi filly was bred by Lufti Kolgjini and Anna Svensson.

The letter in last week's column was similar in tone to several pitches of mine. One of my rules is never to be afraid of looking like a fool. More unusual approaches to widening the racing base are in the queue.

Strange rules.

Another of my rules is to aim high and jump fast. Once upon a time, I wrote to an editor I did not know, who worked in a business I had no experience or understanding. My bizarre approach letter used sarcasm to threaten that I did not take rejection well, and my favorite Uncle Vito had Joey "Three Chins" Bonino on speed dial. The letter included several off-the-wall comments and weak puns. I concluded by asking for an outlandish amount of money.

I was lucky he had a sense of humor and wrote back with a joke of his own and a counteroffer of a single dollar bill. I worked for him until the day he retired. This incident brings to mind another rule of mine. When possible, look for recipients who are open to coloring outside the lines.

Yes, but I prefer unknown roads. Here is another wild shot that landed. One January morning, nestled beneath a green quilt, I decided that I wanted to make a baseball movie. I had a vague concept for a film in my head, and I did not know a single person in movie production. I could not operate my phone camera, nor did I have a script. I did not have money, and I knew absolutely nothing about the movie industry. I began immediately.

I crawled out of bed and googled – Ohio Film Production. I began scrolling and clicking. Within an hour, I had three names and email addresses. I chose the first name, someone who was an instructor of film at Dennison College. Before the crack of noon, I sent him a quirky email. He wrote back. We set up a lunch, the adventure began. The result was two exciting years of work and learning. And a movie DVD that wound up on library shelves.

About 20 years ago, I was a VERY casual fan who wagered a few races from the grandstands on an occasional Friday night. I had never set a foot onto the backstretch of a racetrack and did not know a single person involved in this sport. I began to self-educate myself by voraciously reading about the sport. After a few months of research, I took a wild shot in the dark. I called a writer at Hoof Beats magazine and asked him for the name of a potential trainer in my area. He suggested a fledgling trainer who might be a good fit. The result was two decades of adventures and a great friendship.

Exactly. Phishing for new owners and gamblers is difficult. Is your bait going to be: join us for a serious, wise financial investment? We ain't that. IMHO, our best lure is: we are an entertaining, fascinating, quirky, unique hobby where you will have fun. Why not give us a look?

Race videos now at Preferred

For the first time, race videos of horses selling in the Preferred Equine Marketing consignment at the upcoming Tattersalls Summer Mixed Sale are available on the company's website, preferredequine.com.

To watch the videos, click on the site's "Sales" tab and then Summer Mixed > Sale Details > Roster.

While buyers always have the opportunity to watch race videos at the sale itself, this enhancement to Preferred's website offers them even more decision-making tools prior to the sale, said Preferred's owner David Reid.

"The updated racelines and 'live' TrackIT pedigrees have made it much easier for potential buyers to stay on top of the horses they're interested in," Reid said. "We added the videos as a bonus to the racelines. They can now see how a horse looks on the track, how it moves, and what equipment it wears."

"Watching these races ahead of time will hopefully free up owners and trainers and give them more time at the sale for hands-on inspection."

The Summer Mixed Sale, to be held in the Meadowlands race paddock on Sunday, July 18 at noon, wraps up a big weekend at the track, highlighted by the Meadowlands Pace Final the night before.

Mandatory meeting for drivers at The Meadowlands

The Meadowlands is announcing a mandatory meeting for all drivers racing there on the weekend of July 16 and 17. It will be held in the Paddock Driver's Lounge at 5:30 p.m. sharp on Friday, July 16.

"We want to discuss the unfavorable comments we have received from our customers regarding the lack of competitiveness in many of the races. I'd like to talk about how we might improve the product, especially considering we are going to show some of the races on national TV (America's Day At The Races on Fox Sports 2) on Pace night," said Meadowlands president Jeff Gural. "The idea is to do some things differently, evaluate the results during the break between the Hambletonian and when we reopen on September 3 and decide if in fact these changes helped or hurt."

"Our goal is to have the best standardbred racing product in the world, as it is our belief that we have the finest drivers in the world competing at The Meadowlands."

Drivers currently racing at other venues who may plan to be in for stakes over the next month and would like to be connected remotely should contact Jason Settlemaier jsettlemaier@play-meadowlands.com.

Esplosione and Duly Resolved complete pros in OSS Gold debut

Esplosione lived up to his name in 2-year-old trotting colt Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series action at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Thursday (July 8).

After stalking pacesetter Renegade Gypsy through fractions of :29.2, 1:00.1 and 1:30.3, the freshman trotting gelding laid down an explosive :27.4 final quarter, drawing away from the field to a six and one-half length victory in 1:58.2. Royal Champagne closed well to be second, leaving Renegade Gypsy to settle for third. Fan favorite Kipper Whipr Snipr made a series of breaks that saw him finish at the back of the seven-horse field.

Replay here.

"From the time we got him, he's been a nice, big, strong, beautiful colt," said trainer Meg Crone. "He's just like an aged horse. Actually my 11-year-old son Cian looks after him at the barn."

Crone trains Esplosione for owner/breeders Herb Liverman of Miami Beach, FL and Melvin Hartman of Ottawa, ON. The son of Kadabra and Dynamite Dame learned his early lessons from New Jersey-based trainer Richard "Nifty" Norman before shipping north on June 20 for his freshman OSS campaign.

Crone and her partner, driver Anthony Haughan, sent the youngster behind the gate twice to prepare for his Gold Series debut. The gelding finished fifth on June 24 and seventh on July 2, but Crone said the second start was marred by confusion in the backfield that caused interference to three horses. Trevor Henry stepped into the race bike for Thursday's start and gave Esplosione an ideal trip from Post 5.

"It was just a perfect spot for him," said Crone. "Trevor and us and Richard have had a lot of success in the past, he's drove so many of these horses he knows the routine, how they get driven and how they like them raced."

Esplosione and Henry will team up again for the second Gold Series Leg, which takes place Thursday, July 29 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In the second $100,600 division fan favorites Duly Resolved and driver Paul MacDonell coasted out of Post 2 and settled in third as Bar Brawl zipped through fractions of :27.3 and :58.2. Heading for the 1:28.4 three-quarters MacDonell tipped Duly Resolved out behind pocket-sitter Mr Fritter and the pair went by a tiring Bar Brawl. Once the duo squared up in the stretch, Duly Resolved found the bigger gear and powered away to a one and three-quarter length victory in 1:57. Mr Fritter was second and Drinks At Home finished third, six and three-quarter lengths behind the leaders.

"I was more nervous tonight, for some reason," said trainer John Bax of the Resolve gelding's second start. "He's the flagship this year."

The win was the second straight for Duly Resolved. In the July 2 event that saw Esplosione get shuffled around, Duly Resolved toured Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:58.1. In qualifying efforts on June 11 and 25 the gelding logged one fourth and one win. Bax said the trotter had been impressive from his earliest lessons, once he completed the transition from colt to gelding.

"We had his half-sister (Bright Eyes M, $318,637). The sister she was a bit of a handful, but this guy we could geld him. He wanted to shake hands right away, so we fixed that," said Bax. "He's great on the track. He's a bit of a handful walking to and from the paddock. You've got to be a little careful, because he'll rear up. He wouldn't be any fun as a stallion I can guarantee you that."

A $30,000 purchase out of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, Duly Resolved is owned by Bax Stables, David Hudson of Dallas, TX, Don Allensen of Wyoming and Gaelic Stable of Sharon, ON. Purchasing yearlings has always required patience, but Bax was especially grateful to see the gelding succeed after the ups and downs his owners have faced since the start of the pandemic.

"I appreciate them sticking it out for a year and half with what's gone on," said the trainer. "I can't thank the owners, all the owners, enough for being loyal and staying with it. It would have been an easy time to bail and they all were great, so it's nice to get rewarded."

Walner progeny continue to roll at Big M

One week ago, Walner sired six of the seven divisional winners of the opening leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes (NJSS) for 2-year-old trotters at The Meadowlands, and the sport's newest super sire stayed sizzling hot Friday night (July 9), as five of his progeny reigned supreme in the six $25,000 NJSS leg two events at The Big M.

Four Walner babies stayed unbeaten in two NJSS attempts, beginning with Temporal Hanover ($7.00 to win as the second choice), a colt who scored from just off the pace for driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Marcus Melander in a lifetime-best 1:54.1.

"The [Walner babies] are smart and have tons of speed," said Tetrick. "He's real handy, super nice and likes his work. He surged down the lane and was really impressive."

King Of The North ($2.80 as the 2-5 favorite) impressed in his split for colts and geldings, as the Ray Schnittker-trained colt moved to the lead at the half and just held off Bully Boy Hill by a head at the wire in a lifetime-best 1:54.2.

"He's a professional out there," said winning driver Mark MacDonald. "[Early on] I thought I was going to be in a bad spot, so I just pushed forward a bit to get the lead. I might have shut him down a little bit too much in that third quarter. He got a little sleepy there in the last 100 yards. My ear plugs got caught on the gating pole [so I couldn't pop them]."

Completing a three-race Walner wipeout of the colt and gelding divisions was Majestic J ($3.00 as the 1-2 public choice), who held off the pocket-sitting Classic Hill by a nose in a lifetime-best 1:54.4 for Dave Miller and Tony Alagna.

Venerable ($3.20 as the 3-5 favorite) won one of the filly divisions for Miller and Nifty Norman in a lifetime-best 1:54.3 to stay perfect in two NJSS tries while Raised By Lindy ($35.60) pulled off an upset for Scott Zeron and Domenico Cecere, winning her parimutuel debut in 1:54.3.

Like last week, there was one non-Walner-sired winner, a Muscle Hill filly, Delilah Hanover ($6.20 as the 2-1 second choice), who scored in her second career outing from off the pace for Dexter Dunn and Norman in 1:54.4.

'VINTAGE' SWEEPS AGAIN: Like seven days ago, Great Vintage-sired horses scored in the two $20,000 NJSS splits for 2-year-old pacers.

In the leg two events conducted before the betting card, both filly Not So Evil and colt Vintage Valentino stayed perfect in two series outings.

Not So Evil, who was driven by Pat Berry for his wife Traci, stopped the clock in a lifetime-best 1:56.4 while 'Valentino' scored in a lifetime-best 1:56 for Yannick Gingras and John Urbanski.

A LITTLE MORE: There were no winning tickets sold in the 20-cent Pick-6, setting up a carryover of $6,969 for Saturday's card. Those with five correct cashed in for $1,161. Free past performances for all Meadowlands cards are available by going to playmeadowlands.com... Scoring twice on the program were drivers Tetrick, Miller, Andy McCarthy and Corey Callahan. Callahan swept the late double that returned $78.20... Trainers Norman and Tony Alagna each trained a pair to victory lane... All-source wagering totaled $2,500,429.

Rookie pacing colts and geldings face off in MGM Springfield Stakes elims

Pleaseletmeknow, Gone Before Dawn, and Letmecallyouback were victorious in the three $25,000 MGM Springfield Stakes eliminations for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers that took place on Friday night (July 9) at Yonkers Raceway.

Brought to you by the same connections that won the MGM Grand Messenger Stakes final with American Courage – owner/breeder Fiddler's Creek Stables LLC., trainer Travis Alexander, and driver Matt Kakaley – Pleaseletmeknow raced in second behind Silverstone (George Brennan) through fractions of :27.4, :57, and 1:25 in the opening elimination, then went by that rival in the lane on his way to a 1 1/2 length decision in 1:54.1. Silverstone held second over American Artist K (Jason Bartlett).

A gelding by American Ideal and out of the Well Said mare I Said Please, Pleaseletmeknow broke his maiden in his second try after a runner-up result in the New York Sire Stakes at Buffalo Raceway. Pleaseletmeknow paid $6.30 to win as the 2-1 second choice and led a $16.40 exacta and a $37.00 trifecta.

In the next elimination Gone Before Dawn (Bartlett) brushed to the lead at the :28.3 opening quarter and then backed down the tempo to :58.2 at the half and 1:27.1 at three-quarters. Through the stretch both second-over Thebiznes Bluechip (Jordan Stratton) and pocket-sitter Te Amo Blue Chip (Jim Marohn Jr.) rallied towards the leader, but he held on determinedly, winning by a neck in 1:56. Thebiznes Bluechip was next, followed by Te Amo Blue Chip.

Trainer Andrew Harris also co-owns Gone Before Dawn, a colt from the first crop of Huntsville, with partner Bowie Racing LLC. Gone Before Dawn, who was bred by Steve Jones, was making his pari-mutuel debut after finishing fourth and second in two qualifiers in New Jersey. Gone Before Dawn went off as the 2-1 second choice and returned $6.30. The exacta was worth $19.00 and the trifecta kicked back $77.50.

Jovian (Kakaley) carved out stations of 28.3, 58.1, and 1:27.1 in the last elimination, but Letmecallyouback (Joe Bongiorno), who came first-over from fourth as they raced off the third turn, wore him down on the last turn and put him away in the lane. From there, Letmeyouallyouback was able to hold off a hard-to-steer pocket-sitter Wolftrax (Scott Zeron) to win by a neck in 1:55.3. Hurrikane Chuck (Tyler Buter) finished third after a second-over trip.

Jenn Bongiorno trains Letmecallyouback, a gelded son of Huntsville, for owners Joe Di Scala Jr., Pit Bull Stable LLC., and Patrick O'Brien. Letmecallyouback, who was third in an overnight race at Harrah's Philadelphia in his debut, was bred by Ontario's 30 Plus Stable and was a $42,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale acquisition. Letmecallyouback, a 7-1 offering, paid $16.20 to win and keyed a $14.90 exacta and a $38.75 trifecta.

The top two finishers from each elimination advanced to the final, as did American Artist K, the third-place finisher in the first elimination, by virtue of his finishing time. The two remaining third-place horses, Te Amo Blue Chip and Hurrikane Chuck, ended up with the same clocking of 1:56, so there will be a draw between those two for the last position in next Friday's $100,000 (est.) final.

Trotting colts tussle in ISS at Harrah's Hoosier Park

Sophomore trotting colts and geldings were the featured attraction at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Thursday (July 8) as they tussled in the third round of the Indiana Sires Stakes (ISS) action. Two $48,500 divisions were sent to post on the evening's 14-race card and each division produced a slight upset.

Bridge To Success and John DeLong staged a big rally late in the lane to track down the pace-setting and heavily favored Breckenridge and Dan Shetler in the first division. Stopping the timer in 1:53.4, Bridge To Success utilized a :27.1 closing kick to get the win by nearly two lengths. It was the first win of the season for the Roger Welch trainee and also a new lifetime best.

"He's had some issues here and there that we've been tinkering with," DeLong said of the colt. "The last few starts he has been improving and he put it all together tonight. Hopefully, he keeps improving as the year goes on just as he did last year. He's got a lot of nice races this fall."

Bridge To Success was the 2020 Indiana Sires Stakes champion for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings and is a full brother to the multiple Indiana Sires Stakes champion Bridge To Jesse's. The son of Jailhouse Jesse—Bridge to Nowhere is owned by William C. DeLong, William P. DeLong, and Roger Welch. Bridge To Success was bred by Michael and Randy Wilt of Missouri.

In the second division, Brookview Bolt and Sam Widger turned a pocket trip into a 1:53.1 victory. Utilizing a :26.3 closing kick, Brookview Bolt was able to track down the heavily favored Swingforthefences and Trace Tetrack and also repel a late surge from Predator and Prey and Jared Finn. The 1:53.1 effort established a new lifetime best for the Ron Burke trainee.

Owned by Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, J&T Silva, Purnel&Libby and Weaver Brussemi, Brookview Bolt has now notched three consecutive victories from five trips behind the gate this season. The son of Swan For All—Witty's Winner pushed his lifetime purse earnings to $231,800. Brookview Bolt was bred by Brookview Farms of Indiana.

Grand Spa, Cool Papa Bell, Molotov Cocktail get NYSS wins at Vernon

Vernon Downs played host to three divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for freshman trotting colts and geldings on Friday afternoon (July 9). The combination of driver Scott Zeron and trainer Linda Toscano won two of the three divisions with Grand Spa and Molotov Cocktail. The other win went to Cool Papa Bell (Jason Bartlett).

Grand Spa ($8.90) was a gate-to-wire winner in the $33,600 first division.

Grand Spa went to the front and led to the first quarter in :28.1. He used a :30.1 second quarter to hit the half in :58.2. Jackson Steinem (Brian Sears) came first-over and challenged for the lead as they went around the final turn. Grand Spa hit three-quarter first in 1:28.3.

As they made the turn for home Grand Spa shook off the challenge of Jackson Steinam. Second place finisher Chapheart made a late bid but Grand Spa was too strong and got his first career win in 1:57.0. Debs Prince Hall (Alek Chartrand) finished third.

Grand Spa is a colt by E L Titan—Day At The Spa. Toscano trains for owner Bay Pond Racing Stable.

Cool Papa Bell ($7.80) took the ($34,200) second division.

Quincy Market (Corey Callahan) battled Branded By Lindy (Scott Zeron) as they headed for the first turn. Branded By Lindy went on a break and Quincy Market led to the first quarter in :28.3. Cool Papa Bell made his move down the backstretch and led to the half in :59. He led to three-quarters in 1:28.1.

As they reached the stretch, Cool Papa Bell continued to control things but had to brace for a late charge from second-place finisher Branded By Lindy. Cool Papa Bell won in a lifetime best of 1:56.2. Quincy Market held on for third.

Cool Papa Bell is a gelding by Chapter Seven—Blk Thai Optional. He is owned by Runthetablestables and trained by Jim Campbell. He is now a perfect two for two in his career.

Molotov Cocktail ($6.40) captured the ($34,200) third division.

Velvet Style (Jason Bartlett) took the lead and led to the first quarter in :28.1. Molotov Cocktail had to go wide to avoid breaking horses as they headed around the first turn. He worked his way to the front and led to the half in :58.1 and three-quarters in 1:28.0.

As they headed down the stretch Velvet Style popped out of the pocket and made his move. Molotov Cocktail dug in and won easily in 1:57. Velvet Style had to settle for second with Barn Bully (Corey Callahan) getting third money.

Molotov Cocktail is a colt by Chapter Seven—Moonlight Cocktail. Toscano trains for owners Richard Gutnick, Thomas Pontone, and Gary Cocco. It was his first career win.

Frankly My Dear wins Arden at The Meadows in career-best 1:55.1

Frankly My Dear saved ground through three-quarters, then moved powerfully first over to capture Friday's (July 10) Ned McCarr, a $38,345 Arden Downs Grand Circuit Stake for 3-year-old filly trotters, at The Meadows.

Once Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. asked her for trot, the daughter of Southwind Frank—Temple Of Athena had little trouble overtaking May Karp and downing her by 2-1/4 lengths in a career-best 1:55.1. Dazzling Reign completed the ticket.

Wrenn said it was his plan to put Frankly My Dear in a spot where her brush could be most effective.

"Last time out in the Currier & Ives, she got in a bad spot," he said. "She was on the right line, and it was a little tough to steer her in the last turn. Today, I just wanted to get away decent. She has one really good move, and I was able to use it. She's a nice filly, but she's more of a trip horse."

Ron Burke trains the winner, who extended her career earnings to $137,458, for Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, Weaver Brussemi LLC and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby.

Freshman pacing colts sharp in Grassroots debut

Two-year-old pacing colts were featured at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Friday (July 9), competing in five $22,500 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots divisions, and Bob Loblaw kicked things off in the first race with a 1:54.2 score (replay here: Bob Loblaw).

Starting from Post 7 with Sylvain Filion in the race bike, Bob Loblaw hustled away from the starting gate and led the field of 10 to a :28.3 quarter. Silk Road Smash swept to the front heading for the :58 half and carried on to a 1:27.1 three-quarters with Bob Loblaw on his heels. Coming off the final turn Filion tipped Bob Loblaw out from behind the pacesetter and the gelding responded with a :27 last quarter that saw him hit the wire three and one-quarter lengths ahead of co-favorites Up The Creek and Silk Road Smash.

"Knock on wood, he trained down as good as any horse I've ever had," said Woodbine Mohawk Park announcer Ken Middleton who bred, co-owns and trains Bob Loblaw. "He has a great personality. He likes to work, he always went forward when you asked him to training down and he has a pretty good attitude about everything."

Middleton and the late Bill Galvin, a member of the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in the Communicator category, bred the son of Sunshine Beach and Lady Marina. The long-time voice of Woodbine Mohawk Park shares ownership of Bob Loblaw with David Walls and James Grant of Sarnia and Starting Centre Stables of Cambridge, ON.

"He's still green like a lot of young horses, but he seems to be getting better every time he comes to Mohawk," said Middleton. "It's a bonus to get a guy like Sylvain Filion in the bike, as well. Not only is he an incredible talent in the bike, but he provides great feedback when he gets off the bike and hands you the lines. He's been doing this a long time, and when he talks it's wise to listen."

Prior to Friday's start, Filion had piloted Bob Loblaw in two qualifiers and a June 25 overnight event where he finished a fast-closing sixth.

Filion also captured the third $22,500 Grassroots division with Stews Watching. Sent off as the fan's top choice, Stews Watching left well from Post 10 and was able to take command just after the :28 quarter. The Hes Watching son reached the half in :58.3

and then fought off a challenge from Hashtag Watch Me on the way to the 1:27 three-quarters before drawing away to a three and one-quarter length win in 1:55. Nassau Hanover and ATS Hanover rounded out the top three (replay here: Stews Watching).

Filion piloted Stews Watching to the win for trainer Dr. Ian Moore of Cambridge, ON and owners Ratchford Stables NS of North Sydney, NS, who purchased the colt from last fall's London Virtual Yearling Sale for $32,750.

Driver Bob McClure also scored a pair of Grassroots wins, guiding Kolby Two Step and Dynomites Peak to victory in the second and fourth divisions.

A 1:56.3 winner in his July 1 debut, Kolby Two Step was the heavy favorite and the son of Betterthancheddar did not disappoint his backers, sprinting from fifth to first in the last quarter to score a three and one-quarter length win in 1:54.2. My Blueberry Buck finished second and Almost There Boss was three more lengths back in third (replay here: Kolby Two Step).

"He's a very fast horse and as a bonus he's got a very good head on his shoulders," said McClure. "Two fingers to drive and he's always ready when you ask him."

Timothy Gillespie trains Kolby Two Step and shares ownership of the gelding with Jason Churchill of Colborne, ON. The partners offered up $12,000 for the gelding at last fall's Ontario Select Yearling Sale.

In the fourth division, lightly rated Dynomites Peak made an even bigger rush from the backfield than Kolby Two Step, kicking home in :26.3 to go from seventh to first. The second longest shot on the board, Dynomites Peak stopped the teletimer at 1:55.1 and forced fan favorite Contact Zone to settle for second, one-half length behind the leader. Lyons Pride was hot on their heels in third (replay here: Dynomites Peak).

"He's a fast horse," said McClure, who was making his first appearance in the gelding's race bike. "He had to do a lot of work to make it from back there. Hopefully he stays good all summer."

Robbie Robinson had driven Dynomites Peak in his first two starts, both at Rideau Carleton Raceway, and trains the Artspeak son for Jacqueline Dinelle and Paul Smyth of Metcalfe and Earl Casselman of Winchester, ON. Dynomites Peak was a bargain-priced $7,000 yearling at the Ontario Select Sale.

Driver Scott Young prevented neither McClure nor Filion from making it a Grassroots hat trick in the last division. Young piloted Stone Carver to a 1:55.1 victory, finishing one length ahead of fan favorites McClure and Stonebridge Helios and another three-quarter lengths ahead of Filion and Sport Addiction (replay here: Stone Carver).

"Stone Carver is a handy little guy that aims to please you," said Young. "I couldn't be happier with his performance tonight."

Young drives Stone Carver for trainer Anthony Beaton and owner/breeder Robert Bridges of Campbellville. The Bettors Delight son finished second in his July 2 debut at Woodbine Mohawk Park after a pair of solid qualifiers.

The two-year-old pacing colts will make their second Grassroots start at Grand River Raceway on July 19.

Chris Beaver dominates in Ohio Sires Stakes

Ohio racing fans witnessed the debut of some of the Buckeye State's finest stars on Friday night, July 9 as eight $40,000 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) were contested for 2-year-old trotting colts and fillies. As well, trainer Chris Beaver captured five of the eight OHSS events.

As expected, the 3-5 Caviar Gold smoked his rivals in the first OHSS division for freshman trotters, and his first career start, trotting to a 1:58.3 triumph with Bret Miller driving for trainer Chris Beaver. The son of Triumphant Caviar finished 1¼ lengths ahead of 7-1 Guido Di (Brady Brown) with 10-1 Desperado Hall (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) notching third. Caviar Gold is owned by Chris Beaver, Bill Manes, Leo Fleming, and Steve Zeehandelar and now has $20,000 in career earnings. This homebred is the third foal out of the Holiday Road mare Gee O'Keeffe 3, 1:55.2h ($90,487) and is a half-brother to the gelding My Pal Sparky (by Uncle Peter), 3, 1:59f ($13,817).

In the second OHSS division for trotting youngsters Go Long lit up the tote board at 84-1 odds, paying $171.00 to win on a two-dollar ticket. Driven by Don Irvine, Jr., for trainer Garry Martin, notched his first career triumph in a big way, coming up the passing lane in the final yards to score in 1:58.1, besting 14-1 rival What In Sam Hill (Brady Brown), with 3-5 favorite Bambo (Dan Noble) grabbing third. Go Long is a son of Long Tom bred by Melvin Detweiler and owned by Gary Martin and Kleinberg Racing. He is the second foal out of the Ilooklikemymom mare Nickie K 8, 1:54.4f ($273,415), and a half-brother to Susiek (by Climb Higher) 3, 2:03.4h ($18,446).

Gabby's Bit Coin made his debut a winning one, scoring in 1:59 with Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., at the lines at odds of 14-1 in the third OHSS division for freshmen trotting colts. The homebred son of Uncle Peter is conditioned and co-owned by Chris Beaver along with Johanna Beaver. No Edge Lines, the 6-5 favorite was second for Kayne Kauffman, while 13-1 Rose Run Extra nailed down third-place money for Chris Page. Gabby's Bit Coin is the first foal out of the Triumphant Caviar mare Gabbysloosechange 3, 1:54.4h ($186,585).

Capturing the final OHSS division for 2-year-old trotters was 2-5 favorite Chulo, who posted a 1:58.3 dramatic clocking for driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., in a near blanket finish. The striking What The Blaze was second for Danny Noble at 13-1 odds, while 7-2 Slim Jimmy (Anthony MacDonald) was third. The son of What The Hill is conditioned by Per Engblom for Buckstone Land Livestock of York, PA and had previously captured the $150,000 Next Generation Trot at Scioto on July 2 in 1:57. Bred by Renee Spahr, Chulo is the first foal out of the Majestic Son mare Chula 4, 1:55.4f ($35,506).

Capturing the first OHSS division for filly trotters was 5-1 Gabby's C Note, a daughter of Triumphant Caviar conditioned and co-owned by Chris Beaver and Johanna Beaver and Steve Zeehandelar. This homebred lass stopped the clock in 1:58.1 with a perfect steer by Brett Miller in her parimutuel debut, besting rivals 27-1 Lovely Liv (Chris Lems) and 70-1 Abbey D (Shawn Barker II). Gabby's C Note is the third of five foals out of the Credit Winner mare Gabby's Creditcard 4, 1:58h ($135,694) and has full siblings in Gabbysloosechange 3, 1:54.4h ($186,585) and Gabby's Wild Child 4, 1:56.2f ($56,347).

The second OHSS filly division went to 3-1 Caviar Roxie Due, whose steady gait earned her first prize in 1:58.4, with Aaron Merriman at the lines for trainer Chris Beaver. This daughter of Triumphant Caviar was making her first career start for trainer-owner Beaver, Steve Zeehandelar, Tim Homan, and VIP Internet Stable. Bred by Dublin Valley Farms, Caviar Roxie Due bested 12-1 Kirsi Dream (Mike Wilder) and 6-1 Canterawishing (Brett Miller) easily. Caviar Roxie Due is the second and most prolific foal out of the Kadabra mare Rose Run Roxann ($4,182).

Aaron Merriman steered 7-2 Stephanie Hill to a 2:00.4 victory in the third OHSS filly division, giving trainer Chris Beaver his fifth OSS victory of the night. The daughter by What The Hill used the passing lane to get up in time and best 1-2 favorite Be My Baby Now (Chris Page), while 9-2 Ivory Road (Mike Wilder) nailed down third place honors. Bred by Double Spring Farm, Stephanie Hill is owned by Chris Beaver and Moger-Delia Racing and is the ninth foal out of the broodmare I Like Stephanie 3, 1:56f ($205,610). She is a half-sister to: Cold Certified (by Kadabra) 5, 1:54.1s ($464,237); Magical Steph (by Kadabra) 3, 1:55.3s ($112,782); I Like Purple (by Dejambro) 3, 1:57.2f ($86,698); and I Like My Kaddy (by Kadabra) 3, 1:55.1s ($61,406), etc.

Martysmagicmoment, the 4-1 choice, led at every step in the final OHSS event for 2-year-old trotting fillies, clocked in 1:58.3 for driver Ray Paver in her first career victory. The brown daughter by Creatine is trained by Danny Collins for owners Marty McLain, Charles McLain and Harry Burger and now has $32,400 in career earnings. Marge At Large, the 7-2 choice was second for Aaron Merriman, while 3-2 favorite I'll Annie Up was third for Chris Page. Martysmagicmoment is the third and most prolific foal out of the BJ's Mac mare Trot To The Macs p, 5, 1:53.4f ($47,370).

'General' superb in Atlantic Sires Stakes

Local colts hoping for a little luck as OSS comes to Ottawa tonight

Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) excitement arrives at Rideau Carleton Raceway tonight (July 11) in the shape of 39 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings and, for the first time this season, fans will be on hand to cheer them home.

The trotting colts will square off in two $99,800 Gold divisions and a trio of $22,150 Grassroots Series divisions. In the Gold Series contest, two of the competitors will carry the hopes of local owners. Royal Tyrone starts from Post 5 in the first split for Ottawa resident R. William MacQuarrie's 1187422 Ontario Inc. and Tokyo Seelster gets Post 4 in the second division for Braveheart Racing principals Frank Spagnolo of Ottawa and Kenneth Donald of Nepean and their partners Michael and Sam Sergi of Canton, NY.

"We were very happy with his first start and hoping to build on that for sure, because he only had a limited amount of starts before that race," said trainer Jason Ryan of Royal Tyrone. "He's come back a lot stronger this year for sure and a little longer, so he's not as rough gaited as he was as a two-year-old. We're just hoping for the best on Sunday."

Royalty For Life son Royal Tyrone was a winner in the Gold Series at two before an injury cut his season short. Since returning to the racetrack in mid-June the gelding recorded one third and one fourth in overnight action and then benefitted from an error by one of his peers in the July 1 Gold Series opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park, getting bumped from fourth up to third. Leading Ontario Sires Stakes reinsman James MacDonald was in the race bike for the last two starts and will steer the gelding on Sunday.

"James (MacDonald) is getting along with him great, so that works out as well," said Ryan. "Right now I think everybody wants him (MacDonald), but we were lucky enough to get him early before he got too hot."

Just six horses will go postward in each Gold division. Among the rivals lining up alongside MacDonald and Royal Tyrone are reigning Super Final champion Fashion Frenzie at Post 1 and Lexus Kody, who finished in between Fashion Frenzie and Royal Tyrone in the season opener, at Post 3.

Four Grassroots colts will compete for local connections, including Amigo Mio, owned by Wade and Philip Tousignant of Cardinal, ON and A Star Galaxy, co-owned by Katherine Steacy and Landmark 13 Racing Stable of Lansdown and A K Malik Stable of Ottawa, in the second division. In the last division the Steacy Stable sends out Diehard Seelster and Defcon Seelster competes for Gatineau horseman Guy Gagnon and his partners Gestion Louis Latulippe Inc. and Gestion Bruno Blouin Inc. of Saint-Ferréol-les-Neiges, QC.

"I tried him in Toronto, but I brought him back to Rideau, he likes the five-eighths, the shorter track," said Gagnon. "I think Mohawk, the stretch is longer for him, and he's tired at the end of the mile, but he raced very good last week. Right now he looks very good."

Since the June 15 start at Woodbine Mohawk Park that saw him finish ninth, Defcon Seelster has been sharp over the Rideau Carleton oval for the track's leading trainer-driver. He finished second on June 24 and then reeled off a personal best 1:56.4 to win his July 1 outing. In his sophomore Ontario Sires Stakes debut the son of Muscle Mass will line up at the trailing Post 9.

"I would prefer to be on the gate, he likes to leave, but we have to deal with the position, with the nine-hole," said a philosophical Gagnon. "He's a nice horse to work with. He's very honest, never made a break from the time he started to race at two, he's a nice trotter. He just needs some racing luck and he should be competitive in there."

Among the horses Defcon Seelster will face in Sunday's twelfth race is Sweet Soul David, who was a winner in the July 3 Grassroots season opener at Hiawatha Horse Park.

The Grassroots colts will compete in Races 6, 10 and 12, while the Gold Series colts battle in Races 4 and 8. Rideau Carleton Raceway's first race goes in behind the starting gate at 6:30 pm.

Complete entries for Sunday's program are available here and fans can download a program and watch the live stream on Rideau Carleton Raceway's website. Those wishing to cheer the colts on in person can make a reservation by emailing Suzanne.Mcdonald@hrcottawa.com or calling (613) 822-2211, ext. 4303. Test Of Faith leads NYSS entrants next week at Yonkers

Fresh off a win in the Park MGM Pace final on July 2, Test Of Faith returns to Yonkers Raceway on Thursday (July 15) to race in one of three New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) divisions for sophomore pacing fillies.

Test Of Faith, a daughter of Art Major trained by Brett Pelling for owners Mel Segal, Kentuckiana Racing Stable, and Eddie Gran, has drawn post four in the opening $51,300 flight (race two). Regular driver David Miller is listed on Test Of Faith, who has a record of 12-1-0 from 13 lifetime starts to go with earnings of $637,700.

Heart Of Mine leads the second $50,400 split (race three) and drew post three. Heart Of Mine is two-for-two so far in the New York Sire Stakes program in 2021, won her elimination of the Park MGM Pace, and was second to Test Of Faith in the final. Scott Zeron will drive the daughter of Roll With Joe for trainer Linda Toscano and owners Bay's Stable, Radio Racing Stable, Fred Wallace, and Camelot Stable. Summer Rae (post two), Purameri (post five), and Rightfully Mine have also won in New York Sire Stakes action this season.

All the fillies in the third $51,300 section (race four) are in search of their initial New York Sire Stakes tally in 2021, but Easy To Please, post five, Jordan Stratton) was the runner-up to Heart Of Mine at Buffalo Raceway back on July 2nd, as was So Diva (post one, Jason Bartlett) to Rightfully Mine.

Yonkers Raceway also has NYSS action on Tuesday night (July 13) for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, featuring MGM Yonkers Trot runner-up Ambassador Hanover (post four, Ake Svanstedt) in one $74,500 contest (race two), and Ahundreddollarbill (post four, Andrew McCarthy), who won his MGM Yonkers Trot elimination and was fourth in the final, in the other (race three).

Both Tuesday's and Thursday's cards get underway at 7:15 p.m.

Tioga to play host to NYSS sophomore trotting fillies today

Tioga Downs welcomes two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old trotting fillies today (July 11).

Splash Blue Chip (Ake Svanstedt) is the 2-1 morning line favorite in the $56,000 first division of the NYSS. Svanstedt trains the filly by E L Titan. She has a second and a third-place finish in her four starts this season. She has earned nearly $200,000 in her career.

Contested Hanover (Scott Zeron) looks to be her top competition. The filly by Chapter Seven is trained by George Ducharme. She has a second and two thirds in four starts this season

Iteration (Brian Sears) is the one to beat in the $55,000 second division of the NYSS. After an up and down freshman season the full sister to Gimpanzee is unbeaten in three starts as a 3-year-old including wins in the $150,000 New York New York Mile at Yonkers and the $102,500 Empire Breeders Classic at Vernon Downs. Iteration (Chapter Seven) is trained by Marcus Melander. She has eight career victories and has earned nearly half a million dollars.

Her main competition appears to be the Joe Holloway trained Sweeping Rainbow (David Miller). She has finished second three times in a row. She was second to Iteration in the New York New York Mile as well as a leg of the NYSS at Vernon Downs. The filly by Chapter Seven has two wins as well as six second place finishes in her career.

Quebec Jockey Club has new general manager

It is with pleasure that Claude Lévesque, chairman of the board of directors of the Quebec Jockey Club, announced Friday an important appointment for the future of the Quebec Jockey Club, an appointment to a position left vacant in recent years, i.e. the post of general manager.

To avoid any confusion, it should be clarified that this is not a position for the Hippodrome 3R racetrack, but an appointment as general manager of the Quebec Club Jockey.

Appointed to the position is François-Patrick Allard.

"Mr. Allard is a seasoned manager who has a solid knowledge of games of chance and gambling," Levesque said. "Having worked at Loto-Québec for 21 years, as general marketing director of the Société des établissements de jeux du Québec (SEJQ) which manages the VLT park and gaming rooms across the province. He was also general manager of the Société des bingos du Québec as well as in various management positions within the Société des casinos du Québec, particularly in loyalty and business intelligence.

"The main task entrusted to Mr. Allard," Levesque stated. "Will be to work to develop and materialize a revenue growth plan for betting houses and online gambling by working in concert with partners, regulators and owners of the salons betting in Quebec in order to maximize spin offs for the horse racing industry."

Mr. Allard will take office on July 12.

RE: New crooks same as the old crooks

It's been awhile since I've responded to Feedback but in the July 4 edition David Perry's letter Meet The New Crooks Same As The Old Crooks (full story here) had me going. First off, I believe that everyone has a right to counsel and in many cases should be innocent until proven guilty, but not all crimes should be painted with the same innocent brush. How many times just in the past few months/years have crimes been committed and have been caught on video and yet these cases have clogged up the justice system? I truly believe that outside of a few that have already bargained a plea deal that were involved with this large indictment case of horsemen nothing substantial will come out of it and it will be "business as usual."

Back in the day when racing had overflowing crowds if you won a race improving your best time by tons, the way we see now, you wouldn't be there next week, the head judge would call you in and tell you to pack up your trunks and get going. The sport today has been very lax with their pass the buck attitude with their standard line of "not enough funding."

Here is the real story, the accredited labs that do the testing, horse racing is not a big deal with them. They have better paying clients than each provincial or each state government which is the real reason why it takes weeks and in some cases months for tests to come back. The only fair game in racing is in the Far East where they protect their betting public by the strictest of pre- and post-race testing and the reality of prison time should you be foolish enough to try. I have emailed this government, the previous government and the government prior to them in Ontario and all of my emails have gone unanswered as to why years ago they washed their hands of racing but always were around for their piece just like the protection rackets of the '20s/'30s. The reality is all have a small piece, your favorite hockey player, baseball, football player and team owners, your trainers, drivers, jockeys all of sports have their piece. And to keep this running smoothly just like the old days they all have to kick a piece of their piece up to the top guy (government). Now you might think I have been hitting the sauce too much when writing this but just think about it the next time the heavy favorite breaks or backs through the field, or last year's Super Bowl and don't think it won't happen again with another player and team, in fact that script is probably done just waiting for January.

Yonkers: To bet or to not bet

After reading Brett Sturman's piece on the Yonkers No Contest debacle (full story here), one must wonder if transparency is of paramount importance at any track today. You have to ask yourself why Yonkers finds it necessary to create an aura of suspicion regarding how its racing is overseen. From a track that has had issues with finish line camera placement, passing lane-no passing lane and the Lou Pena saga, you'd think that getting things right the first time would be #1 in lessons learned.

1. What we do know is that this is 2021 and the general public for the most part has an educational background far superior to the betting public of the '70s, meaning if it isn't transparent and honest you're going to get called on it.
2. Every racetrack has a Gaming Official on-site so the person THEY the track would normally defer to is already there in-place.
3. The computerized tote system used today is smart enough to launch a NASA satellite so betting transactions can be easily and instantly analyzed on the go.
4. Betting portals such as TwinSpires give me and my laptop access and ability to see real time pool and betting numbers moment to moment, meaning answers were available on the run. If I'm Yonkers then I've got an IT department that can instantly analyze irregularities in real-time so it appears something else is going on here.
5. The fact that Yonkers has all tools necessary for instant mitigation of issues and still went in the opposite direction is troubling and may indicate a systemic issue.

In closing I would add that I personally witnessed this kind of issue at a half-mile track here in Michigan. It was in the '80s-'90s timeframe. Early on, the tote betting was shut down at the sound of the OFF BELL, all terminals and ticket sales were shut down with a system shutdown. In this case the hesitation in recognizing the system failure resulted in a few thousand dollars' worth of sales, the track ate the mistake.

Now fast forward to today and with the available technology at the track's fingertips and tell me if you think the tracks actions make any sense? Someone once said when you put PEOPLE, OPPORTUNITY and MONEY together strange things can sometimes happen.

Modern sulkies have greatly damaged the sport

The Meadowlands issued a press release this week announcing a driver's meeting for July 16. It includes this statement: "We want to discuss the unfavorable comments we have received from our customers regarding the lack of competitiveness in many of the races. I'd like to talk about how we can improve the product."

In my opinion, even though the Meadowlands racing isn't anywhere near as good as it used to be, it still has the best harness racing product in the U.S. I give them credit for trying to improve it. Many racing fans complain about the lack of movement and action at harness tracks throughout North America. Those of you who are old enough to remember the glory days of the Meadowlands know that the action on the track was frenetic. The late and legendary racing secretary, Joe DeFrank, wanted the drivers to be on the move early and often, and they obliged. The result was the most exciting and action-packed harness racing the sport has ever seen.

Today you hear complaints that the race flow is stagnant. In many races at various tracks, the horses are lined up in single file until well past the half. Years ago, by the time horses reached the half mile pole, in most races, four horses were already out and on the move. On half-mile tracks, you'd often hear the words, "four in and four out at the half."

So what happened? The drivers get a lot of the blame. You hear people say things like, "It's the old boys club out there, the drivers are too friendly." I have to admit, it does often look like the drivers aren't aggressive. One of the most boring tracks is Harrah's Philadelphia, a five-eighths track. The races are so dull there that it looks as if the drivers choreograph each race in the locker room before hand. Usually a horse leaves and cuts the mile, or yields to a quarter-mover who cuts the mile. There's rarely a contested pace. Not surprisingly, even though the horses and drivers are top quality, very few people attend the races and the handle is modest.

But, I have to defend the drivers because I know that there's more here than what meets the eye. The truth is, the lack of movement in the races has a lot to do with the faster times and faster bikes. Years ago, the Meadowlands was doing some interviews in the paddock, right before the races. Unfortunately, I can't find them on YouTube anymore, but I remember seeing George Brennan and Brian Sears being interviewed on separate occasions. They were both asked about the fact that there wasn't as much movement in the backstretch as years ago. I'm paraphrasing here, but they both said essentially the same thing: "No one wants to pull first over into a :27 third quarter."

And that's there is the rub. If you go back to the old days when there was a lot more action, the driver on the lead was trying to slow the pace down. That's why horses were able to rush into contention during the action-packed third quarter. Now, harness racing has a severe speed bias. The drivers know this. Look at a track like Northfield Park. Year ago, Northfield had the most movement of any half-mile harness track. Generally speaking, they still have more movement than most half-mile tracks, but nowhere near the kind of action they used to have. Northfield's driving colony is probably better than ever, so it's not like the drivers aren't talented. Northfield's two leading drivers are Aaron Merriman and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. Both are winning at over 21 per cent. Both have similar styles when they get the lead with a horse, they rate the half and then step on the gas during the third quarter, often opening up by a few lengths. When this happens, the first over horse gets left in the dust and the outside flow is backed up. You can't blame the drivers for driving like that. They know that's the smart approach to just try to bottom out the field, because the front runners don't get tired.

The bottom line is, the sport has an extreme inside speed bias. Outside posts win half as often as they used to. Posts 7 and 8 on half mile tracks are essentially automatic throw outs. Mohawk just added a staggered starting gate because horses from post 10 hardly even won.

Part of the reason why there's a bias is the modern day sulkies, which have greatly damaged the sport. Most of the bikes now are 10 inches offset, which is weird, quite frankly, and they have a design that's simply detrimental to good racing. Years ago, the drivers sat close to the horse. Now, the drivers are far behind the horse, and their hands are so far behind the horse, it's as if they were driving a car from the backseat. And, now almost all of the drivers lean far back. This means that there's several more feet in between each horse. When you extrapolate this out, in a ten horse field, the horses sitting 9th and 10th are somewhere around twenty feet farther away from the leader than they were in the old bikes. If you don't believe me, look at the charts from Mohawk and Hoosier Park, two tracks that use Trakus to record their charts. In 10-horse fields, many times you see horses 15 to 17 lengths behind! And you wonder why closers don't win?

In today's sport, to win from third or fourth over is almost impossible. Way too many races are won by leavers, either the horse on the lead, or the pocket horse. First over does pretty well because the driver doesn't have to go wide. Second over isn't usually a good trip anymore.

You can try to put the blame on the drivers, but the truth is, as long as we keep using these ridiculous speed bikes with the driver leaning way back, leavers and inside posts will dominant. Unfortunately, not only does this make the racing look less exciting, but the inside speed bias also greatly contributes to the low payoffs and high percentage of winning favorites. No one bets the outside posts or closers so a horse that would have been 2-1 years ago, now goes off at 4-5.

What's sad is that everyone knows that the bikes suck, but no one does anything about it. Look at the racing from France as an example. The drivers are closer to the horse and sit up straight. The races are action-packed and the outside flow is strong. And, hey, look at the stands and the apron, they're full of spectators!

It is what it is. Stop complaining about the product if you have no intention of fixing it. You can chat with the drivers all you want. It won't make much of a difference because you're not going to get a good outside flow with these speed favoring bikes.
