Bella Bellini drinks out of the Hambletonian Oaks bowl in 2021 thanks to a helping hand from owner/breeder David McDuffee while trainer Nifty Norman watches.

Ciao, Bella

Bella Bellini has been retired from racing and will now transition to the next stage of her career.

by Debbie Little

The day after making the decision to retire Bella Bellini from racing, the connections of the 2022 Dan Patch Trotter of the Year spoke exclusively with HRU.

Both owner/breeder David McDuffee and trainer Nifty Norman said Monday (July 10) that this was a good time to get the official word out since they expect the rumor mill will soon be in overdrive.

“There’s going to be a lot of questions about why she isn’t in, because we were going to race her this Saturday [July 15, in the Miss Versatility at The Meadowlands],” McDuffee said. “My goal [is] to just publicly announce that we are going to retire her and she’ll go into the next phase of her life.”

The news was so fresh that as of Monday McDuffee and Norman had not, yet, told driver Dexter Dunn that Bella Bellini would race no more.

“It’s hard to find a horse like that, and I know when you have one you don’t want to let go, but at the same time I always said she will tell me what she wants to do and I think she’s telling us,” McDuffee said.

Norman didn’t want to discuss Bella’s future on the phone with McDuffee. So, on Sunday morning, he drove around 300 miles from Central New Jersey to McDuffee’s home in New Hampshire.

Bella Bellini (Dexter Dunn) was a two-time Breeders Crown champion, including this Crown win in October of 2022 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

“We have a little joke between us,” Norman said. “He says ‘If you call me at nine o’clock in the morning, I know it’s not good news.’ Well, in this case, it was arrive at your house at nine o’clock in the morning, so he knew. It’s no fun giving that information, but I thought that was the best way to do it.”

To avoid traffic, Norman left home at 4 a.m. and arrived while McDuffee was enjoying a blueberry cupcake baked by one of his neighbors.

“I had just started to eat it and I made the comment, ‘Jeez, this guy did a nice job making these. This is pretty damn good,’” McDuffee said. “So, I ate about half of it and then Nifty said, ‘Dave, I’ve got some bad news.’ And then he told me and I ate the rest of the cupcake, but it didn’t taste as good after that. The first half of it was good, the second half was horrible.”

McDuffee and Norman started 2023 hoping that their daughter of Bar Hopping—Bella Dolce would pick up at 5 where she left off at 4.

“Basically, she hasn’t really been herself coming back this year,” Norman said. “I thought she might be able to work her way through it, but on x-ray she’s got a lot of wear and tear on her knees. And, the last thing I ever want to do is hurt her or harm her.

“So, we just made basically a group decision to retire her. I think it’s the best thing for the horse. I don’t ever want to see her, you know, go lame at the track or hurt herself in a race. She doesn’t owe anybody anything. She’s been fantastic. We just decided to not risk hurting her.”

Bella fought some minor soreness at 2 and even though she went on to be a world beater at 3 and 4, the soreness returned.

“It’s like trying to patch up an old quarterback,” Norman said. “The time comes you just can’t play anymore.”

As a 2-year-old, Bella made just seven starts and hit the board only once – a second-place finish – with no wins. McDuffee said normally he would have gotten rid of such a poor performer, but something about her intrigued him.

“I guess probably because I’d had the family for so long,” said McDuffee, who bred Bella Bellini’s dam, Bella Dolce, and owned her granddam, Pizza Dolce. “And the most amazing thing is that I staked her to everything at 3, even though she hadn’t done anything.”

When asked if he had a favorite memory or favorite race, Norman couldn’t single one out.

“I think she’s kind of unique in that her racing style isn’t typical of today’s good horses,” Norman said. “Most of the good horses win their races on the front and she never won any races on the front. I think that’s something that a lot of people enjoyed watching about her because her sheer speed was overwhelming. I mean, she could outspurt all of them.”

“Even in the Hambletonian Oaks at the top of the stretch, it didn’t look like she could win and then she won going away. And she did that a lot. If you look back at pictures of her in the winner’s circle, she looks right at the camera and pricks her ears like she almost poses for the photo. She’s brilliant at that sort of stuff.”

The Oaks was definitely a top memory for McDuffee.

“I’ll never forget how far back she was at almost the half,” McDuffee said. “And I just thought to myself, ‘My God, there’s no way this mare is going to catch these things.’ And, man, she

“Basically, she hasn't really been herself coming back this year. I thought she might be able to work her way through it, but on x-ray she's got a lot of wear and tear on her knees. And, the last thing I ever want to do is hurt her or harm her.”

put on her patented run and Dexter had her figured out. He knew exactly where he could move her and she loved racing off a helmet and if he could keep her covered up, which he was a master at, she would do the rest.

“I think that's probably to me the one race I remember as just like, ‘Wow, that's an incredible mile.’ And I still have the recording of it. You know, you can pull it up all the time and I do once in a while to watch it because, I mean, I have all of her races but to me that one was kind of special.”

Dubbed “The Great Pursuer” by The Meadowlands’ TV host Dave Little, Bella had an enviable career winning 21-of-51 lifetime starts while hitting the board on 42 occasions. She was only off the board once each year at 3, 4 and 5 with over $2.1 million in earnings.

In a time when Bulldog Hanover was grabbing the headlines, Bella made ones of her own, and, just like Bulldog, got people to come out to the track.

“I went out to Dayton [Ohio] last year for the Dayton Derby and I'd never been to Dayton and I pulled up and, of course, they got that casino out there. Like most casinos, they're the attention getter and the racetrack is kind of stuck out behind the casino,” McDuffee said. “And I couldn't find a parking space and I couldn't figure out where the hell the track was. I didn't even see the track.”

McDuffee finally found parking and asked the guy parking next to him how to get to the track.

“He says, ‘Follow me.’ I said, ‘You came for the races?’ and he says, ‘Yeah, I'm going in. We came to see a horse that we've been following all year, Bella Bellini, and we came all the way from Kentucky. I said, ‘Well, I own the damn horse and that's amazing.’”

“The way she races coming from behind and all of that, I think it makes it a little bit more exciting than just going to the top and letting them try to catch you. [Going wire-to-wire] is a great way to win, but it's not very exciting.”

There is no official retirement ceremony planned because McDuffee and Norman aren't looking for all the pomp and circumstance. However, if The Meadowlands wanted to show a highlight reel, they would be appreciative.

As for exact plans for Bella's future, McDuffee has decided that he's not ready to make that decision yet. Although he made it clear that there had been tons of inquiries.

“I don't know if I'll do the breeding myself or I'll make some kind of an arrangement where I'll be involved with her in some capacity,” McDuffee said. “I mean, I got two messages just last week from two major, major players, one of them in Europe, just wanting to make sure that I keep them in mind. Right now, I'm going to give her a nice turnout and a little rest and then we'll figure out where we're going and how we're going to get there.

“As you know, you never know until they get behind the gate [what you've got]. Some of them disappoint you, and once in a while, one will step up way beyond your expectations, which she certainly did. You know, I've had a lot of good horses, but I think she's probably the best horse I've ever had.”

Wins and accolades continue to mount for Australia's Leap To Fame

Those in the know think he's currently the top pacer in the world.

by Adam Hamilton

Is young Aussie star Leap To Fame the best pacer in the world? That's the question being thrown around in Australia after the stellar start to his career and mind-blowing win in the $350,000 Group 1 Rising Sun at Brisbane's Albion Park last Saturday night (July 8).

Many have had their say on where he stands on a global stage since, but few are as well credentialed as champion driver Anthony Butt, who has driven in major races in North America and Europe, along with his Hall of Fame career in New Zealand and Australia.

Butt also passionately follows the North American scene and has many friends in the game over there.

"You'd have to say he's in that discussion [as one of the best in the world]," Butt said. "Since the retirement of Bulldog Hanover, North America is waiting to see who the next big thing is. Leap

To Fame is certainly the next big thing Down Under. What he did at both Redcliffe two starts back [in the Patrons Purse] and then last Saturday night was out of this world. Horses can't do what he did, I've said that to everyone. He's got it all. He's so fast, but when it turns into a dogfight, he's the first one up for it, too.

"He equaled the track record [1:52 mile rate for 2,138m] the other night, but was three-wide for the first part of it until he found the front, then he ran his last mile in 1:49.5 without being extended. Look at the hold Grant [Dixon, trainer/driver] had on him. It's crazy to think he can pull away from a field like that under a hold. He's got all the makings of a superstar. The ability, the looks, the presence and the gait... he just does it all so easily. He doesn't take anything out of himself."

Even Dixon, who is renowned for his subdued nature, was buzzing after the latest win.

"The best part was how easily he did it after the [race] he had and the times he [posted]," Dixon said. "He felt so strong on the line."

Leap To Fame's win was the biggest of his career so far, although he did win Australia's three major Derbys (Victoria, NSW and Queensland) last year. He's raced just 27 times for 21 wins, four seconds, a third and a fourth.

And he looks to have gone to another level after a lengthy spell following his 3-year-old season.

"We made the conscious decision to give him that long break," owner Kevin Seymour said. "Grant's done a wonderful job being very selective with the races he's targeted. We were happy to bypass big races like the Chariots Of Fire and Miracle Mile earlier this year to give him a longer time out and focus on a huge back half of 2023. It looks like it's paying dividends."

For Seymour and his wife, Kay, who have long been some of the biggest supporters of Australian harness racing on a financial, breeding, owning and sponsorship level, Leap To Fame is their "dream come true."

"We've been in the game 51 years and he's the horse we've been waiting for," Kevin said. "Leap To Fame's talents, combined with Grant's masterful handling of him, have set us up in a great place."

In a slight change of plans, Leap To Fame will back-up again this Saturday night (July 15) in the $200,000 Group 1 Sunshine Sprint at Albion Park.

It will mean racing for a third consecutive week when he tackles Queensland's biggest race, the $400,000 Group 1 Blacks A Fake at Albion Park on July 22.

Perhaps Dixon and the Seymours are using the three races in as many weeks to help condition Leap To Fame for an Inter Dominion in his own backyard in December at Albion Park.

The Inter Dominion is hectic, requiring all contestants to compete in three qualifying heats in the first eight days then race in the final a week later.

Before then though, Leap To Fame's major target will be the world's richest harness race, the inaugural $2.1mil TAB Eureka, at Menangle on Sept. 2.

“ [Leap To Fame] is the best pacer in the world. I’ve been saying that for two weeks now. That was simply unbelievable what he did the other night. There are horses that give you the ‘wow’ factor. It’s been a long time since I’ve seen it... right since the days of ‘Beach’ [Somebeachsomewhere]. ”

~ Greg Gangle

Former Canadian administrator and now Victorian-based Greg Gangle is another well placed to judge Leap To Fame on a global scale, having seen many of North America’s greatest recent pacers in the flesh.

“He is the best pacer in the world. I’ve been saying that for two weeks now,” Gangle said. “That was simply unbelievable what he did the other night. There are horses that give you the ‘wow’ factor. It’s been a long time since I’ve seen it... right since the days of ‘Beach’ [Somebeachsomewhere].”

Hugely respected Albion Park race caller Chris Barsby has joined the chorus.

“He’s the best horse, not only in the country, but the world,” Barsby said after Leap To Fame won the Patrons Purse at Redcliffe on June 16. “The fame game continues. You are witnessing something very special. He is a freak of nature.”

After last Saturday’s win, Barsby added: “He is a pacing powerhouse. I’m running out of superlatives for him. What a horse! Look at the time and Dixon sat there like a statue.”

Back to Butt, who hopes Dixon and the Seymours will change their mind and consider taking Leap To Fame to North America in his prime as a 5-year-old next year.

“You’d love to see it wouldn’t you,” Butt said. “I said it with Christian Cullen, the great Kiwi pacer in the late 1990s, and I say it about this guy. How awesome would it be to see Leap To Fame go and take on all those top North American pacers in their biggest races.”

But, for now we’ll just enjoy watching him race Down Under and watch the comparisons continue.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Winter is coming

Nineteen-year-old Winter Asher-Stalbaum is starting to carve out quite a career.

by Chris Lomon

Winter Asher-Stalbaum won't ever pull a muscle from patting himself on the back.

It would be easy and perhaps understandable if the 19-year-old driver/trainer might be tempted to take a moment to look back on the start of his career and appreciate what he sees.

But that's not the way the son of Larry Stalbaum – nearly 7,700 combined driving and training wins – prefers to view his standardbred roles.

Instead, it's all about moving forward.

"This year, I would like to get to 100 wins," said Asher-Stalbaum. "I don't know if that's possible, but I'd really like to get that by the end of the year. I don't really look beyond the year that I am in, racing-wise. I bought a few broodmares and I hope to breed a great one, but on the racetrack, it's always about getting better; to look at what I am doing and do what I can to improve."

Asher-Stalbaum announced his arrival on the racing scene with an impressive rookie driving season in 2021.

In 68 starts, he went 15-13-9 accompanied by $47,821. The following year, he launched his training career, a season that yielded 30 wins and $213,349 in the race bike along with 28 triumphs and $197,168 in conditioner earnings.

"I think a couple of wins in Maine, when I first started out, would be some highlights for me," Asher-Stalbaum said. "A horse named Empire Earl N, my sister, Riley, trained the horse back then, we won at Farmington and Cumberland, so those were special. Those were fun wins just because there were so many people there to enjoy it with me."

This year, he's added to his win totals.

Recently, Asher-Stalbaum won his 50th career race in the sulky, the milestone coming with Eyes Don't Lie.

Eyes Don't Lie, a 6-year-old son of Roll With Joe—Michelle's Ideal, sprung an 18-1 upset in the featured mares open handicap pace at Northville Downs on June 2.

Asher-Stalbaum also owns and trains the 6-year-old mare, who rallied for a one-length score in 1:55.4.

The victory was the 17th of Eyes Don't Lie's career. Her lifetime earnings total now stands at $121,242.

"It was a very special win for a lot of reasons," Asher-Stalbaum said. "She was rolling late, which is what she likes to do. I was very happy with that. I didn't think I was actually going to get there for the win, but she kept on coming and gave everything she had."

The original $32,000 purchase at the 2018 Lexington Yearling Select Sale has been a consistent performer for Asher-Stalbaum since he brought her into the fold in January 2022.

"I picked this horse out on my own, without any input from anyone else, so this is a special one for me," he said. "I can't say exactly what it was about her that made me want to buy her. She had a really nice win at Rosecroft [Nov. 24, 2021], but I really liked that she won three straight races at Yonkers [July 28-Aug. 11, 2021]. I thought those were very, very impressive. She is absolutely amazing. She's done 10 times better than I could have ever imagined. She always knows the right thing to do."

As does Asher-Stalbaum, who never lets ego get in the way of his decision-making process.

If he doesn't feel he's the right horse person for the job, he doesn't think twice about handing the reins to someone else.

"One thing I think I've learned this year is that I don't get along with every horse that I drive," he said.

Gotti, a 10-year-old son of Badlands Hanover—Bonita Beach, is one of those horses.

A veteran of 261 career races, the 29-time winner is closing in on $300,000 in lifetime earnings.

In his most recent starts, Gotti, who Asher-Stalbaum owns and trains, has had someone else along for the ride.

"He just did not like me at all, so we went with another driver," Asher-Stalbaum said. "And that's okay. For me, it's always about doing the right thing for the horse and to give us the best chance at being successful."

Other ones, like Story Book, happen to be a perfect fit, whether they win or lose.

The 13-year-old son of American Ideal—Cinderella, bred and raised by his mother, trainer Kimberly Asher, is the first horse Asher-Stalbaum owned.

"He's just absolutely fun to drive," he said. "He does nothing wrong. I have so much fun driving him. I look forward to every chance I get to do that. He's a great reminder of why I love driving so much. Every race I'm in, regardless of the odds, it's exciting for me. My mom has over 2,000 wins, and she taught me everything I know about training horses. I've learned a lot from so many people in the last three years, but I have a lot more to learn. Every start, you learn something."

Courtesy Winter Asher-Stalbaum

Heeding helpful words along that journey, whether it's from his father, mother or other horse people, continues to guide Asher-Stalbaum along the way.

Two pieces of advice immediately came to his mind.

"One is that I was told to always have fun, even if it happens to be a tough result or a tough day," Asher-Stalbaum said. "That no matter what, always try to take something good away from the experience. And that's what I do, to go out every race, try my best, but also enjoy what I am doing. The other one came after my first pari-mutuel start — it was at a fair — and someone told me to just go out there and drive my race, to not worry about what everyone else is doing, but to focus on what I have to in order to get the best outcome. It's about racing my race and trying to win. That stuck with me a lot."

A busy life at the racetrack means there isn't much time for personal pursuits outside of his standardbred career.

There is a chance, however, that Asher-Stalbaum will one day rekindle his passion for a hobby he indulged in for years.

"I used to do a lot of woodworking," he said. "I had a lathe and I made bowls and other things, but I haven't done that of late. I've added horses, which means more responsibilities."

For now, crafting something meaningful in his racing life will remain the top priority.

"I'm very happy with the way things have gone so far," Asher-Stalbaum said. "I'm going to keep pushing myself, but I'm also going to make sure I enjoy it too."

A look at 2023's first-crop stallions

by Philip and Jonathan Sporn

Even though it's very early in the racing season, we wanted to take a look at some of the first-crop sires and see how they were doing, so far. Once I started digging, however, I figured let's examine all sires to date. Of course, it's very, very early, and these figures change every day, but it's always interesting to do some detailed analysis and see what comes up.

The charts cover all sires with at least 10 foals of 2021, with statistics as of July 5, 2023 at noon.

Taking a quick look at the newcomers, New York's Courtly Choice leads the pacers, with 67 per cent of his first crop hitting the track. After him comes Ohioan Dancin Yankee (56 per cent), Minnesota's Karpathian Kid (55 per cent), and another pair of Buckeyes in Bit Of A Legend (55 per cent) and Lather Up (49 per cent). Rounding out the new pacing sires are Indiana's Lost In Time (47 per cent), Ontario's Jimmy Freight (46 per cent), Indiana's Freaky Feet Pete (43 per cent), the Garden State's Bettor's Wish (41 per cent), Pennsylvania's Captain Crunch (40 per cent) and Ontario's Stag Party (29 per cent).

The charts also include the leading sires in terms of percentage of winners, as well as the winners to starters ratio.

In terms of trotting sires, Pennsylvania's Greenshoe leads the way, with 52 per cent of his 2-year-old crop making the races. Other newbies on the list are Ohio's Volstead (48 per cent), New Jersey's Six Pack (46 per cent), Ontario's The Bank (39 per cent), and Indiana's Pilot Discretion (30 per cent).

Interestingly, the overall pacing sire leader – Deuce Seelster – has 70 per cent of his foals started, while trotting sire Fordham Road leads the way with an almost identical 73 per cent.

In terms of winners, Sagebrush has a 30 per cent rate of winners, while Chapter Seven leads the trotters, with 29 per cent winners, a virtual tie.

We'll see how the numbers stack up at year's end.

SIRES STAKES

REPORT

Gallucci and Millar get on the board in OSS action

by Austin Stanton / Ontario Racing management

Trainer Nick Gallucci picked up his first Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) win of 2023 when Millar Farms homebred Chain Gang got up late to win race 6, the second $103,100 OSS Gold division for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Monday night (July 10) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Leaving from post 3, James MacDonald positioned the Bettor's Delight colt off the pace in fifth position through the half as Louis-Phillipe Roy and Control The Piper built up a three-length lead in :28.2 and :57.2.

Entering the stretch Control The Piper faded, and Cowboy Cargo with Doug McNair driving found racing room to briefly get in front before Chain Gang paced by everyone to stop the clock in 1:53.3 and win by a neck.

"He's the fastest colt I am training this year," said Gallucci. "He just seems to pick it up every week. Nice to see him sit behind horses and come off a cover tonight. He's just done everything exceptional so far."

The victory came in Chain Gang's pari-mutuel debut, but Gallucci was confident the horse was ready to race, and the betting public agreed by making him a 3-5 favorite.

"I try not to race my babies before the first sires stakes unless I am trying to place them to see if they're going to be a [Gold] or a Grassroots horse," said Gallucci. "He showed enough in his qualifiers that I was quite comfortable with his fitness going into the Gold."

Chain Gang has natural speed that will make him competitive in the Gold ranks of the OSS, and MacDonald will continue to teach the horse how to develop as a racehorse each time he sits behind him.

"I know the speed will come, and I know the speed is there, so it's just doing it the right way and he did it the right way tonight," said MacDonald. "You don't want to be a one trick pony. I think it was a great start for him I think down the road you'll see him on the lead some time, but tonight we're just happy with the [win]."

Chain Gang (James MacDonald) won the other Gold division.

Runner-up Cowboy Cargo was also making his first career start after a pair of qualifiers at The Meadowlands. The Tony Alagna trainee is owned by Peter Alagna and One Point Six Racing Inc. Crush Kill Destroy finished in the show position with Tyler Borth driving for trainer Per Engblom. He is owned by Evans Nation and Engblom Stable.

Race 6 replay

In race 4, the first OSS Gold division of the evening TH McMurry emerged victorious.

Leaving from post 8 Doug McNair was content to let Chivalry Seelster and Jody Jamieson lead the field through an opening quarter of :27.3.

McNair and the son of McWicked cleared to the front in the second panel, and would stay there the rest of the way to win by a length over Best Night Ever (Betterthancheddar). The final time was 1:51.4 and he paid $5.45 for the win.

The performance was a welcome sight for trainer Dave Menary, as T H McMurry had made a break in his debut start.

“When the gate opened last week, my heart just dropped, I never saw the horse put a ripple in anywhere,” said Menary. “He came a real good back half, it was just a fluke thing, and we treated it as a fluke thing, and made a couple minor adjustments and are happy to be standing here.”

Menary, who trains the colt for owners Jeffery Taylor, Siobhan Andrussek, and Graeme Mitchell, was effusive with praise for Taylor’s role in the colt’s development.

“Jeff picked the colt out and trained him down in Ottawa,” said Menary. “We’ve had him about five weeks, and he came pre made. We are blessed to have the colt come in the barn, and I appreciate the opportunity. He baked the cake, I just put the icing on it, so I give Jeff all the credit.”

Taylor was on-site at Woodbine Mohawk Park to see his $22,000 yearling pick up a $51,550 winner’s cheque.

“Around February we figured he was going to be a pretty nice colt,” said Taylor. “We didn’t want to get too presumptuous or anything, but when he did everything we asked we figured it was time to send him up here and we trust him with Dave and we couldn’t be happier.”

Best Night Ever finished second for trainer Anthony Beaton with Louis-Phillipe Roy driving. Beaton co-owns the colt with David Mercer and West Wins Stable.

Rounding out the podium was 3-5 favorite Mirage Hanover who made a break just after leaving the gate, but fought back gamely. Bob McClure was driving for trainer Scott McEneny, and Marvin Rounick owns the Bettor’s Delight colt.

PASS made stops at Philly and The Meadows over the weekend

It's less than a month away from the Hambletonian Oaks, raced on that big card in New Jersey, and the connections of last year's Oaks winner Fashion Schooner – trainer Jim Campbell, owner Fashion Farms LLC, and driver Tim Tetrick – have a 3-year-old trotting filly peaking at an opportune time in Fashion Annie, who won one of a pair of $69,848 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes third preliminaries at Harrah's Philadelphia Sunday afternoon (July 9) in a track record 1:52.1.

The victorious Donato Hanover filly raced mid-pack through fractions of :26.3 and :55.2, then was out and moving uncovered down the backstretch and to the 1:23.4 three-quarters. Fashion Annie went to the lead nearing the stretch and maintained an advantage of 1¾ lengths over Cando Volo, the horse on her back, while knocking two-fifths off the local standard previously shared by Whose Blues and Anoka Hanover.

In the other division, the International Moni miss Railee Something, who had been second behind Bond in her last pair, showed her appreciation for the absence of that rival by winning in 1:52.4. Railee Something moved after the :27.2 quarter set by Heaven Hanover, got the lead and the middle fractions in :56 and 1:24.2, then had to be sharp to withstand Heaven Hanover's late charge by a neck. Railee Something now has won two sire stakes preliminaries and had the two seconds to Bond in her four starts for the Ron Burke barn, with Yannick Gingras guiding her for owner Ronald Mersky.

International Moni notched another stakes credit when Tipsy Moni won the fastest of three $20,000 Stallion Series divisions in a new mark of 1:53.2. Jim Marohn Jr. came uncovered with the sophomore and trotted a :26.4 third quarter to go by easily, winning in hand for trainer/owner D.R. Ackerman.

Becoming a two-time StS winner was another filly taking a new mark, the Bar Hopping miss Piano Bar, who came home in :57 to reduce her standard to 1:55.2 for driver Dexter Dunn, trainer Åke Svanstedt, and the partnership of Al Libfeld, Marvin Katz, and Sam Goldband. Also sporting a new speed badge is the Father Patrick filly Over Board, rallying up the inside to defeat Lady Lira by a neck in 1:54.3 for driver David Miller, trainer Carter Pinske, and the ownership of Pinske Stables Inc. and Lizanne Waples.

The current schedule at Harrah's is Wednesday through Friday at 12:25 p.m. and Sunday at 12:40 p.m.; the stakes 2-year-olds will make their 2023 bow locally on Friday (July 14) in trotting colt action. Program pages for all races at Harrah's Philadelphia are or will be available at www.ppha.org/harrahspps.html.

First-timer Geocentric fastest in The Meadows PASS; Tetrick brothers sweep Geocentric poured through the lightning lane to score in a stake-fastest 1:52 in her career debut in Saturday's (July 8) $166,058 Pennsylvania Sire Stake for freshman filly pacers at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

The event, known as the Sand Tart, was contested over three $55,000 divisions, with Asweetbeachhere and Lyons Legend taking the other splits. The Tetrick brothers, Tim (Geocentric, Lyons Legend) and Trace (Asweetbeachhere), enjoyed a sweep.

After claiming the early lead from post 5, Geocentric released the ambitious Chiapanecas and settled into the pocket. The daughter of Sweet Lou—Geometry roared through the Lightning Lane, throwing down a :27.2 final panel en route to victory. Brian Brown trains Geocentric for Milton Leeman, Alan Keith, James Stambaugh and Joe Sbrocco.

Lyons Legend, who captured her career debut at Freehold, clicked off an even faster fourth quarter, using that :26.4 burst to triumph in 1:52.1. Jim King Jr. conditions the daughter of Stay Hungry—Skinny Dip for Threelyonsracing.

Asweetbeachhere (Sweet Lou—Some Fancy Filly) converted a pocket trip to victory in 1:53.1 for trainer Erv Miller and owner Douglas Overhiser. My Girl EJ was second, 3/4 lengths back, with Monsoon third.

Gingertree Carilin was the most visually impressive winner in Saturday's Pennsylvania Stallion Series, overwhelming the field by 7-3/4 lengths to prevail in 1:54.4 for Aaron Merriman after an off-the-board finish in her career debut. Sam Beegle trains the daughter of Betting Line—Magic Starlight and owns with Ginger Tree Ventures, Knollville Stable 2 and Reeber and B Stable. Shop Micki and X O rounded out the ticket.

The other splits went to Every Mans Dream, Stay Sunny and Flamboyance.

Freshman pacing colts shine in PA All-Stars races

Precocious 2-year-old pacing males were on display in four $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event on Monday afternoon (July 10) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, and the four winners all emerged as still unbeaten in purse contests.

The only non-favorite to win, the Captaintreacherous—Square Dancer colt Lyons Benjamin, was hardly a longshot at 7-5, and didn't look like one as he did cut the pace and then come home in :55.1 - :26.4 to defeat favored Booming Economy by a neck in 1:53.1. The Jim King Jr. trainee, driven by Tim Tetrick, is owned by Threelyonsracing, and he also stepped home in :55.1 - :26.4 to win his purse bow in 1:55.4 at Philly.

Captaintreacherous earned another sire credit when Ivy Park (dam All Blue) won his purse debut in 1:53.4 after surmounting a first-over grind. Yannick Gingras drove the winning colt for trainer Nancy Takter and the ownership of Black Horse Racing, John Fielding, Joe Sbrocco, and Nancy Takter & JAF Racing.

The timer again froze at 1:53.4 when Gingras crossed the wire first with another making his purse bow, the Heston Blue Chip—Morenci colt Hugh Heston, who moved to the lead early and won handily for trainer Per Engblom and Morrison Racing Stables.

Another 1:53.4 mile was put in by Rose Run Zeke, a Stay Hungry—Rose Run Ultimate gelding who came to town off two purse wins, including a 1:52.1 victory at The Meadows in his previous race. Here pacesetter War Machine got away to a 1:27 three-quarters, with Rose Run Zeke moving into the far turn to challenge, and "Zeke" just got the better of his game rival by a nose, coming his own last quarter in :26.3 for driver Hunter Myers and trainer/owner Mitchell York.

Saratoga played host to freshmen trotting fillies

by Jessica Hallett / Saratoga

Another New York Sire Stakes card was written in the books on Sunday (July 9) afternoon at Saratoga Casino Hotel and Senorita Palema topped the card for the 2-year-old fillies.

Ake Svanstedt was in the bike of his trainee, Senorita Palema, as they went to the gate of the $43,100 trot from post 5 in the field of seven. Erin (Dan Daley) buzzed to the top and led the field through panels in :28.4, :59.4, and 1:28.1. Senorita Palema followed at her heels throughout the mile, tipping out in the final turn for a duel down the stretch. Svanstedt prevailed and Senorita Palema won by a half-length in 1:57. Erin settled for second and Dozen (Scott Zeron) was third.

Owned by Bender Sweden Inc., the daughter of Chapter Seven and the Muscle Mass mare Tosca collected her first win in her first career start.

Svanstedt doubled up in training and driving wins after going wire-to-wire with Honorable Way in the $42,300 division. The daughter of Chapter Seven and the Father Patrick mare Special Honor set the tempo through panels in :30, 1:00.4, and 1:30.2 before taking the win by three quarters of a length in 1:59.3. Seven Year Itch (Brian Sears) was second and Goodbye To You (Wally Hennessey) finished third.

Honorable Way is owned by Brittany Farms LLC, Marvin Katz, and Al Libfeld as she recorded her first win in her first start.

Date Night Hanover took the card opener, another $43,100 division, with Brian Sears in the bike for Marcus Melander. Date Night Hanover followed the pocket trip behind Billie E (Svanstedt) through panels in :29.1 and 1:00.1. Dutee Chand S (Hennessey) made a move up the backstretch, pushing Date Night Hanover to third at the three-quarters in 1:30.1, but a miscue by the outer flow gave Sears clearance to take on the leader. Down the stretch, Date Night Hanover took over and took off to a two-length achievement in 1:59.2. Billie E followed in second and R Melina (Tyler Buter) grabbed third.

Jeffrey Snyder and Onda Racing Stable LLC co-own the daughter of Chapter Seven and the Credit Winner mare Dont Wait Up for her first win in her first start.

In the final $43,100 division, Sister Mary Maude (Joe Bongiorno) got away fourth in the field of seven, maintaining their spot on the rail through the quarter in :28.3 and half in :58.4. Bongiorno pulled his right line to follow Star Attraction (Svanstedt) through the three-quarters in 1:28.1. Sister Mary Maude advanced down the stretch to a 2-1/2 length victory in 1:57.2. Star Attraction took second and Chapalonia (Jason Bartlett) finished third.

Ron Burke trains the Crazy Wow—Perfect Mass (Muscle Mass) filly for Burke Racing Stable LLC, William Switala, James Martin, and Weaver Brussemi LLC. It was her third win in four career starts.

Barn Dreamer (Bartlett; 2:01.2), Mimi (Sears; 2:01.4), Barn Cj (Bartlett; 1:59.1), and Versace Blue Chip (Buter; 1:59.4) each took victories in the four $20,000 divisions of the New York Sire Stakes Excelsior Series.

Maine trotters tussle at Bangor

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Two guys named Mike departed Bangor as winners when their 3-year-old trotters scored in their respective divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes on Sunday's (July 9) early card.

Trainer Mike Cushing's filly She'salilbitmouthy grabbed her second victory of the stakes season, winning the $14,502 sophomore filly trot in a new lifetime best 2:02.4.

Driven by Aaron Hall, the daughter of Victor Blue Chip left from the pylon position and never looked back as she cruised through opening fractions of :31.1 and 1:00.3. With a comfortable two-length lead on the trailing horses, Hall was content to hit the third panel in 1:31.1 before opening up by four lengths to sail home a winner for owner Mona Dodd. She'salilbitmouthy was bred in Maine by Stephen Hall.

It was the filly's third seasonal start and second win where she lowered her mark by over three seconds, and now has 10 wins lifetime. Wild Ending (Ivan Davies) finished second; Another Adventure (Kevin Switzer Jr., Marc Tardif) was third.

The $14,941 sophomore colt trot was up next, which was settled in the final strides by trainer Mike Graffam's Stealin Money.

When the wings folded Outlawofthevalley (Switzer Jr., Tardif) was the first to leave from post 4, followed by Stealin Money (Nick Graffam, Mike Graffam) who got away second, with Pembroke Traveler (Heath Campbell, Valerie Grondin) settling into third.

Switzer Jr. gathered up Outlawofthevalley after a :29.1 opening panel and reduced the tempo into a 1:00.4 half. Last week's victor Wabanaki (Ivan Davies) cruised solo in the outer flow throughout the opening panels but had a miscue following the 1:30.2 third quarter.

At the head of the stretch the leader Outlawofthevalley stepped off stride which allowed Stealin Money to inherit the lead for the Graffam clan, and score by a head over a fast-closing Pembroke Traveler in 2:02. Wabanaki held on to be third.

It was the first seasonal victory for Graffam's homebred colt by Pembroke Slugger, who lowered his mark by nearly 10 seconds in the process. Now co-owned by Mike Graffam with Jacquie Graffam and Joan Harmon, it was just the second lifetime victory for the up-and-comer.

The Maine-bred sidesteppers finish out the week, with the 3-year-old pacing colts invading Bangor this afternoon (July 12) for two $15,142 divisions of seven horse fields. First post is early at 2 p.m. where Luke McGook, the points leader in the glamour boys' division, seeks his fourth consecutive victory. Then, the 2- and 3-year-old pacing fillies are up next on Friday (July 14) at historic Bass Park.

The following day the 2-year-old pacing colts visit Cumberland on Saturday (July 15) for more Maine Sire Stakes events.

Only For Justice romps in $30,000 Quebec final

Only For Justice (Justice Hall) was the most impressive winner of the three $30,000 Quebec-Bred finals for older trotters and pacers Sunday (July 9) afternoon at the Hippodrome 3R in Trois-Rivieres, QC.

The fourth race final for older trotters saw the morning line favorite, Frido PV, scratched from the race, which turned it into a wide-open affair right from the start.

Race favorite Capteur De Reve, who was going for an unrepresented fifth championship final victory, left from post 6 for driver Guy Gagnon and shot right to the lead on the first turn.

With Orlys Pride (Jocelyn Gendron) getting the two-hole trip, Capteur De Reve tripped the teletimer at the quarter mile in :28.2.

Looking comfortable on the lead, Capteur De Reve led to the half mile in :58.2 as Stella Alpha (Pascal Berube), the lone mare in the field, came first-over with Only For Justice (Robert Shepherd) second-over.

Then, on the backstretch, Shepherd sent Only For Justice three-wide and they not only cleared the field, but blew by Capteur De Reve at the three-quarters in 1:28. And Only For Justice did not stop there as Shepherd let him have his head and he tore away from the field in the stretch, winning by 10 and three-quarter lengths in 1:57.4. Capteur De Reve was second with Sammy Justice (Francis Picard) third.

It was the first win in four starts this year for Only For Justice. It was also the third Quebec Championship for Only For Justice, who won the final as a 2-year-old in 2015 and as a 3-year-old in 2016. He is trained by Linda Belanger for owner/breeder Gaetan Bono, Inc. of Laval, QC. He paid $5.30 to win. The race time of 1:57.4, is the fastest trotting mile this season at H3R.

Then came the eighth race $30,000 final for pacing mares.

Celia Bayama started from the rail and was the even money favorite.

She left from the gate for driver Stephane Brosseau and went right to the early lead with Lili GL (Pascal Berube) sitting the pocket-seat to the first quarter in :28.

Then Fancy Girl (Jonathan Lachance) started up first-over with Platine Alpha (Jimmy Gagnon) second over and Kiss Me Bad (Badlands Hanover) and driver Steven Gagnon third over as they passed the half mile in :57.4.

Heading into the backstretch, Jimmy Gagnon sent Platine Alpha three-wide and then Steven Gagnon went four-wide with Kiss Me Bad and they were able to clear by the field and start after Celia Bayama after the three-quarters in 1:27.3.

Kiss Me Bad and Celia Bayama locked horns and raced as a team around the final turn and down the stretch where Kiss Me Bad finally wore down Celia Bayama to win by a long neck in 1:55.4. Lili GL was third.

It was the third win in six starts for Kiss Me Bad. The 7-year-old mare is trained and owned by Steven Gagnon of Sorel-Tracy, QC and she paid $8.20 to win.

In the 10th race final for the older horses, Aladdin and driver Stephane Brosseau left from post 6 and easily got to the lead with Cyclone Joe (Sylvain Lacaille) getting the two-hole trip to the first quarter in a speedy :26.4.

At the half mile, Aladdin tripped the teletimer in :55 as the race favorite, The Light Speed (Moon Beam) and driver/trainer Guy Gagnon, moved up first-over and by the backstretch dropped into third place for a quick breather.

At the three-quarters in 1:23.3, Gagnon came first-over with The Light Speed and started to gain ground on Aladdin. Those two would tangle down the stretch with The Light Speed coming on to win by two and one-quarter lengths. Aladdin was second with Cyclone Joe third. Time for the mile was 1:53. It was the fastest pacing mile of the year at H3R.

For The Light Speed, it was his third straight win and ninth victory of the year for the 5-year-old gelding who is owned and was bred by Michel Nolette of Princeville, QC. The winner paid $2.70 to win. He now has 37 career victories.

Live racing resumes at H3R Friday at 4:00 p.m. with the opening round of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old trotting colts and fillies. For more information and free race programs, visit www.hippodrome3R.ca.

USTA announces new outrider instructional clinic slated for Aug. 31 to Sept. 2

The U.S. Trotting Association announced Thursday (June 29) that it will conduct its inaugural outriding clinic and education program from Thursday (Aug. 31) through Saturday (Sept. 2) in Ashville and Columbus, OH, to identify and train candidates who potentially could become outriders at USTA tracks across the country.

The clinic will consist of three days of intense classroom and on-track instruction to learn the basics of outriding. Thursday and Friday, the program will be held at trainer Virgil Morgan Jr.'s Winner's Circle Training Center in Ashville, and on Saturday at Eldorado Scioto Downs during morning hours for riders deemed capable. Riders will not participate in live racing.

"Outriders are critical to ensuring the safety of the horses and drivers when a mishap occurs," said USTA executive vice president/CEO Mike Tanner. "There's a need for more of them in harness racing and our new program is a great opportunity for the USTA to assist in finding and training potential outriders for our tracks."

Veteran outriders, including the USTA's Wendy Ross, will be on hand to assist in teaching proper fundamentals, correct methods and important techniques that are critical skills to learn about outriding. In addition, the veteran outriders will also participate in a mentor program following the clinic for those candidates that choose to further pursue a career as an outrider.

Participants will also hear from judges, drivers, and the track starter. They will spend two nights at Eldorado Scioto Downs to get a behind-the-scenes look at how live racing is conducted.

Participants are required to bring their own horse, preferably with track experience, helmet and safety vest and are responsible for having their own transportation. There is no registration fee for the clinic.

All horses are required to have a current Coggins and health certificate.

Candidates must submit a riding resume and a video of their horse to wendy.ross@ustrotting.com no later than Friday (July 14). Riders and horses with track and/or extensive riding experience are preferred.

The selection of candidates and decisions regarding on-track participation are completely at the discretion of the USTA staff.

Horses will be stabled at Eldorado Scioto Downs for the three days and will ship to the training center (10 minutes away) for the on-track training.

A special room rate will be offered for the Hampton Inn and Suites adjacent to the track and meals will be provided.
