Dr. Seth Fishman sentenced to 11 years in prison in horse doping case

The disgraced veterinarian received the longest sentence, so far, of the 31 individuals involved in the federal government's case.

by Robert Gearty

Dr. Seth Fishman, the Florida veterinarian snared in the federal government's sweeping horse doping investigation, was sentenced Monday (July 11) to an 11-year prison sentence in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

The sentence is the longest meted out in the case that led to charges against 31 individuals, including prominent trainers Jorge Navarro and Jason Servis. Fishman is the 11th to be sentenced, which includes Navarro. Most of the others have pleaded guilty and await sentencing. Servis faces trial next year.

Fishman, who has been behind bars since his conviction five months ago on two counts of conspiracy to commit drug adulteration and misbranding, appeared in court in prison garb and addressed the court before being sentenced. Prosecutors say that over 20 years Fishman supplied illegal performance drugs to hundreds of trainers, including Navarro, who pleaded guilty last year and was sentenced to five years in prison.

"I really have to apologize for what I did," the 51-year veterinarian said. "There's no excuse for my behavior."

In a rare admission, Fishman conceded violating the law and conspiring with others.

"I should have never pushed the envelope and helped trainers," he said.

He told Judge Mary Kay Vyskocil he now lacked any desire to "practice medicine" on animals.

"I have no desire to make another substance for a racehorse again," Fishman said as his family looked on from the gallery.

Fishman concluded his brief remarks by telling the judge that whatever sentence she imposed, "10, 15, or 20 years, I just want to be a better person."

He showed no emotion as the sentence was handed down.

In addition to his prison time, the veterinarian will be held jointly responsible for $25 million in restitution along with Navarro and other co-conspirators.

The restitution represents Navarro's total purse winning during from 2016 to 2020.

In addition, Fishman must forfeit $13.5 million, which is what he earned from his business of manufacturing and distributing his performance-enhancing substances which prosecutors say were designed to evade detection in post-race testing.

His sentence also includes a $250,000 fine. Prosecutors introduced evidence showing that Fishman's business earned millions of dollars a year.

Vyskocil told Fishman's by his actions misled racing regulators and drug regulators, as well as others.

"You misled competitors of your clients and the betting public," she said.

She told him that as a veterinarian, "you enjoyed a special position of trust and you abused that trust."

The judge said the PEDs Fishman manufactured were harmful to racehorses because they were designed to push them beyond their natural abilities.

She said that in addition to putting at risk horses that were doped with his PEDs, Fishman put at risk the other horses who ran in the race and jockeys who rode those horses and could have been hurt if a horse broke down.

She noted that Navarro paid Fishman credit in a text after winning the 2019 $2 million Dubai Golden Shaheen Sponsored by Gulf News (G1) at Meydan Racecourse with X Y Jet and that the horse died less than a year later.

"To say there was no risk to horses is just not accurate," she said.

Vyskocil told Fishman that his motive was greed and that up until the sentencing there had been a complete lack of remorse on his part.

Vyskocil said an 11-year sentence was warranted given the sentences of defendants.

She also said she hoped it would act as a general deterrence.

"I know this case has been followed extensively in the racing industry. It is my hope that the sentence acts as a general deterrent to those who might be engaging in the same scourge of criminality."

Prosecutors had recommended a sentence of 10 to 17.5 years. Fishman faced a maximum of 20 years in prison under federal sentencing guidelines.

Prosecutor Sarah Mortazavi told Vyskocil that a significant sentence was warranted given that Fishman had shipped his illegal PEDs all over the country to hundreds of trainers.

"It was all designed to help a competitor get an illegal edge," she said.

During her remarks she said Fishman's claims at trial that as a veterinarian he cared about animals was a "self-serving myth."

Fishman attorney Maurice Sercarz appealed to the judge for a sentence of less than 10 years.

He said Fishman should be given leniency because of his client's psychiatric disabilities, which he said were "substantial."

He said Fishman suffers from acute anxiety, depression and had been diagnosed with a bipolar disorder.

Fishman missed the last two days of his trial after being admitted to a psychiatric hospital.

The proceeding ended with Vyskocil telling Fishman that she heard what he said and that he wanted to be a better person.

"Hopefully you'll be getting well," she said. "You do have some demons."

Ladies In Red's demolition of the boys in the Rising Sun something to behold

by Adam Hamilton

Mighty mare Ladies In Red could be the pin-up pacer Australia needs.

After two years completely dominating her own age and sex, the girl became a giant at Brisbane's Albion Park last Saturday week.

Ladies In Red's win – well, demolition is a more accurate description – of a stellar field in the $A305,000 Group 1 Rising Sun was something to behold.

And it sparked lavish praise from some of the biggest names in the sport.

Courtesy Albion Park

Ladies In Red (Nathan Jack) dominated the boys in Saturday's $A305,000 Group 1 Rising Sun at Brisbane's Albion Park.

It was a win of great importance, a statement if you like.

Ladies In Red was taking on the "boys" for the first time and left them wallowing in her wake, winning by an increasing 11.7 metres.

It moved her driver Nathan Jack, who is filling-in for the suspended David Moran, to ooze praise.

"She's just something else. She makes great horses look almost second rate," Jack said.

2021 HORSE OF THE YEAR

TEST OF FAITH

The Hambletonian Society, Inc.
Supporting and encouraging the breeding of Standardbred horses for more than 95 years

He admitted to being humbled by the “privilege” of driving the mare for co-trainers Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin, along with owner/breeders Bill and Anne Anderson.

“I’m just the very lucky one who gets to sit behind her,” he said.

Watching on TV from New Zealand, champion trainer/driver Mark Purdon admitted to being “moved” by the win.

“Of course I was, that was greatness,” he said. “She’s been so dominant against her own sex, but to go and do that to the boys like she did is something else.

“We’ve been fortunate enough to have some wonderful mares over here (including Amazing Dream recently) and Ladies In Red would be right up with them after that performance.”

Amazing Dream, who has since moved to the U.S., won the inaugural Rising Sun last year, but after an easier trip from behind the leader and along the sprint lane. She also went slower time (Ladies In Red mile-rated 1:54.3 for 2,138m compared to Amazing Dream’s 1:54.9).

“I think she’ll end-up the best mare we’ve seen (in Australia) and will go down in folklore. They’ll name races after her and things like that.”

~ co-trainer Emma Stewart

Asked to compare the two, Amazing Dream’s regular Aussie driver Anthony Butt didn’t hesitate: “Ladies In Red is better. Amazing Dream was fantastic, but she had good draws in her key races against the boys, while I don’t it would’ve mattered where Ladies In Red drew the other night, she was so dominant.”

That’s an interesting and important take.

Some doubters argued post-race that Ladies In Red simply took advantage of a good barrier to lead, dictate and win.

But gee, that’s a glass half-empty take on things.

She had to burn out of the gate for the first time in her career, had a Group 1 winning 4-year-old boy – Chariots Of Fire winner Better Eclipse – pressuring on her outside in the last lap and simply switched into another gear in the home straight and gaped her rivals.

It was enough for Stewart to concede and agree with her partner and co-trainer Tonkin that Ladies In Red was the best horse they had trained.

“I have to agree now,” Stewart said, grinning. “Clayton’s been saying it for a while, but I guess I wanted to see her take on the boys and beat them... she certainly did that.

“She’s something special. The sport needs superstars like her.”

~ owner/breeder Bill Anderson

“I think she’ll end-up the best mare we’ve seen (in Australia) and will go down in folklore. They’ll name races after her and things like that.”

The Andersons are breeders and have been stunning stock on the back of some daring, expensive and astute purchases from the U.S.

But – and this is great for the game Down Under – they are in no rush to whisk Ladies In Red off to the breeding barn.

“We’ve got enough good broodmares,” Bill Anderson said. “We plan to race her on for another year or two if she holds her form like this.

“She’s something special. The sport needs superstars like her.”

Ladies In Red is having a let-up now before she drops back to racing her sex again for features like the Queen of the Pacific, Breeders Crown and Vicbred finals towards the end of this year.

Despite her awesome talent, she won’t race the boys again this year.

“No, we’ve had a plan mapped out for a while,” Anderson said. “The Rising Sun was the right race to take on the boys, given Amazing Dream won it last year and mares get a preferential (barrier) draw.

“I’m not saying she won’t race the boys again, I’m sure she will, but it won’t be this year.”

So that rules out mega Victorian features such as the Victoria Cup in October and Inter Dominion in November/December.

Nothing is unbeatable but given her dominance and return to racing the “girls” it will be a shock if Ladies In Red is beaten again this season.

The Rising Sun took her record to a staggering 19 wins (and four seconds) from just 23 starts. She’s banked $A789,420.

Doing some crystal-balling, it could be the $A1 million Miracle Mile next March when Ladies In Red tackles both her biggest challenge and the boys again.

Logically, she could go through the Group 1 Ladyship Mile the week before and victory would get her a ticket straight into the Miracle Mile, won for the past three years by the recently retired King Of Swing.

Stoletideshow best in Norway

by Thomas Hedlund

Frode Hamre-trained Stoletideshow (Dream Vacation) followed up his Oslo Grand Prix success by winning the $160,000 Ulf Thoresen Grand International over 1.3 miles at Jarsberg racetrack in Norway on Sunday (July 10) afternoon.

Hamre sat in the bike behind his Dream Vacation son and as in the Oslo Grand Prix, success was earned by a trip in front where Hamre could control his opponents all the way.

Stoletideshow is definitely the top trotter among the older horses in Norway at this moment and he continues to show that he is hard to beat when racing in front.

However, there was excitement in the race when Officer Stephen became a serious threat attacking on the leader's outside during the race's last half kilometer. In fact, Officer Stephen even got some meters advantage at the top of the stretch and it seemed like Stoletideshow was beaten, but Hamre acted in the bike and Stoletideshow showed great moral to come back on the inside and win easily in a mile rate of 1:53.4.

Officer Stephen held strongly as runner up while Oscar L.A. finished great as third.

Stoletideshow was successful as a 3-year-old in Norway. Under Marcus Lindgren's training, he won the Norwegian Kriterium, the biggest race for 3-year-olds and now, as a 7-year-old, the horse has shaped up to be a top trotter among older trotters in Europe.

COMFORTABLE MILE FOR HOHNECK

Philippe Allaire-trained Hohneck (Royal Dream) has been one of the most successful horses in the French "H-crop" of 5-year-olds, and when the $100,000 Prix de la Commune de Communes Thierache Centre was held in La Capelle in northern France on Sunday (July 10) afternoon, Hohneck was outstanding from the lead.

Older trotters gathered in La Capelle and when Hohneck hit the lead paired with Francois Lagadeuc, the race was over. The Royal Dream son left the opponents over the home stretch and Philippe Allaire's trotter hit the wire in 1:54.4 over the mile.

Bulldog Hanover best again; Test Of Faith affirms greatness in Graduate pacing finals

by Ray Cotolo for the Meadowlands

Fresh from his world-record equaling mile in the Roll With Joe Stakes, Bulldog Hanover put in another powerhouse performance to post a 1:46.1 mile in taking the $250,000 Graduate Pace final on Saturday (July 9) at The Meadowlands, while the delightful debutante Test Of Faith fired home first in the $125,000 Graduate Final for pacing mares.

Bulldog Hanover again moved to do his work on the lead, this time clearing to the top after a :26.2 first quarter. But up the backside, another Canadian invader – Linedrive Hanover – flushed first over and blitzed the speedy pacesetter into a :54.1 half.

To the far turn, Bulldog Hanover parked Linedrive Hanover and spun for home off three-quarters in 1:20.1 again throttling to another gear. The Shadow Play stallion held his speed to the beam to just miss his record mark by a fifth of a second while besting a fast-closing Rockyroad Hanover by 1-1/2 lengths. Linedrive Hanover held third and Abuckabett Hanover took fourth.

“I knew there would be some leaving, but we just held our position there early,” Dexter Dunn said after the race. “We coasted to the front, the other ones took back, and he did all the rest. I was down in the end of the backstretch after the race trying to pull him up. I talked to Jody Jamieson, who drove him a lot back in Canada in his early career, and he just said he doesn't get tired. And he's right."

The question then was posited to Dunn: can Bulldog Hanover break the 1:46 barrier?

"Your guess is as good as mine. But he's got the potential to maybe hit it."

Nonetheless, the victory – the 20th in his career from 28 starts – propelled Bulldog Hanover's earnings to $1,038,525. He competes for owners Brad Grant and his primary trainer Jack Darling, who has his star housed with conditioner Noel Daley during his New Jersey campaign, through his Jack Darling Stables LTD. He paid $2.40 to win.

Reigning Dan Patch Horse of the Year Test Of Faith exacted revenge off a pair of strong tough-luck performances to dominate her peers in the $125,000 Graduate Series Final for pacing mares.

Fire Start Hanover protected position from the pylons to lead around the first turn as Test Of Faith and Mikala floated towards the front. Test Of Faith edged to sit slightly in the pocket, but risked getting locked at the pegs as Mikala loomed to her flank nearing a :27.4 first quarter. Driver David Miller reacted and squeezed the Brett Pelling pupil outside and attained the lead with Mikala applying pressure and pushing for a narrow lead into a :55.3 half.

Mikala may have bested Test Of Faith in a final-quarter sprint two weeks ago, but around the final turn Test Of Faith wrung her competitor on the rim in a far-turn hustle that clicked three-quarters in 1:22. Off the final turn, Test Of Faith vanquished her challenger and sprung for the finish, stopping the clock in 1:48.1 to win by 3-3/4 lengths. Fire Start Hanover slid through a seam at the pylons for second while Mikala held third and Grace Hill rallied down the center of the track for fourth.

"She had a post edge on the other two mares I thought I had to beat. I just wanted to make sure I wasn't the last one to the front," David Miller said after the race. "When Fire Start [Hanover] left really hard, I was just kind of waiting for them to make their move, but they were waiting for me. We ended up going :27.4 and :55.3 – at that point, I was like 'You know what, she can do it from here.'"

"I had a ton of confidence in her," Miller also said. "Even if she had went harder to the half, I probably wouldn't have let anyone go. She's just an amazing horse. Brett has done a fantastic job keeping her sharp and I try my best to race her as easy as I can and aim her for the big races."

Winning her 26th race from 33 starts, Test Of Faith has now amassed $1,829,701 for owners Melvin Segal, Kentuckiana Racing Stable and Eddie Gran. The daughter of Art Major returned $2.40 to win.

Bella Bellini, Rattle My Cage reign in Graduate trotting finals

by Frank Coto for The Meadowlands

Star trotting mare Bella Bellini and trotting rising star Rattle My Cage raised their credit with dominant victories in their respective Graduate Trot finals on Saturday (July 9) at The Meadowlands.

Bella Bellini coasted to a 1 1/2-length victory to win the $125,000 Graduate Series Final for trotting mares. She was the public choice at 1-9 against four others. Dexter Dunn was in the bike, guiding the daughter of Bar Hopping—Bella Dolce to her third-straight win.

The field left the gate casually as HP Mama B, at 23-1, took the lead from the pylons with Bella Bellini settling behind her, followed by Cindy Michelle, Chablis and Herculisa, who quickly took over the third spot. The first quarter was a restful :28.2.

Rolling easily – all in a row – HP Mama B led the mares with no change in order to the three-quarters in 1:24.4. Coming off the turn, Dunn eased out of the catbird seat and gunned Bella Bellini with a :26.1 final quarter to pass HP Mama B and win in 1:51.1.

Trained by Richard “Nifty” Norman, Bella Bellini increased her career earnings to $1,333,800 for owner David McDuffee.

“If there was a mastermind involved [to race her at 4], it wasn’t me,” said trainer Norman. “[Mr. McDuffee] loves to race, so here we are. She’s bigger and stronger, too, and she’s loving her work. Like Dexter [Dunn] said, she’s never been better.”

Rattle My Cage (Yannick Gingras) winning the $250,000 Graduate final open trot in 1:51.

Bella Bellini paid $2.10 to win and place. There was no show betting.

Driver Dunn said he was happy to sit in the pocket until the late stretch. "The fractions really weren't worrying me because her kick is so fast. I was hoping David [Miller on Herculisa] didn't come too early but once we got past the half, [HP Mama B] marched on around the turn. We just had to wait into the stretch where I pulled her. It was a stroll for her tonight."

Easily continuing domination of the division this season, Rattle My Cage scored his fourth-straight win the $250,000 Graduate Final for trotting 4-year-olds in 1:51.

Yannick Gingras took the reins for trainer Ake Svanstedt and sat cold as Rattle My Cage cruised toward the lead to a :27.3 first quarter with Take All Comers yielding for the pocket. Rattle My Cage paved the path to victory with no challenges, cutting the half in :56.2 and three-quarters in 1:24.1 as he kept the rest of the field chasing him in progress to a 2-3/4-length victory.

Take All Comers gave pursuit from the pocket to hold second from a late-charging Ambassador Hanover, who ripped through traffic to nab stablemate Delayed Hanover for third.

"I'll take the easy one once in a while," Gingras said about his trip in the race. "Going into the first turn, since the outside didn't leave, I figured the inside [horses] would be more than content to follow me. He had plenty left in the stretch. I knew he has another big race next week so I didn't want to do anything stupid." Rattle My Cage, he said, "couldn't be any better right now."

Gingras drove the trotter at two and trained him before he qualified and guided him through baby races. "He had a world of ability," he said. "He just wasn't mature. He has that French breeding in him (Love You-Caress The Senses), and we all take our time to get to our best, the French."

Rattle My Cage competes for owner Perry Soderberg and now has lifetime earnings of $282,029. He was sent the favorite, paying $3.40 to win.

Elim winner Beach Glass gets nod as Meadowlands Pace favorite

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Beach Glass was made the 7-5 morning-line favorite for the $600,000 Meadowlands Pace on July 16 after winning his elimination by 5-1/4 lengths in 1:48.1 on Saturday (July 9) and drawing post six for next week's final at the Meadowlands Racetrack.

Market Based, who won Saturday's second $50,000 elimination at The Big M by a neck over Night Hawk in 1:48.4 at odds of 11-1, drew post four for the final. He was made 5-1 on the morning line for the final, which will feature a field of 10 3-year-old male pacers.

In the first elimination, Beach Glass was part of an early three-horse battle for the front with I Did It Myway and Greatest Ending, with Greatest Ending eventually claiming the lead in a

:25.2 opening quarter. I Did It Myway moved to the top on the backstretch but held that spot only briefly before Beach Glass got the lead on his way to a :53.2 half.

Beach Glass, the 3-5 favorite, and driver Yannick Gingras controlled the action from there, hitting three quarters in 1:22 before sprinting home in :26.1 to win by 5-1/4 lengths over Captain Cowboy. I Did It Myway finished third, followed by Early Action and Mad Max Hanover to all advance to the final.

"I didn't know, but I thought he might be (ready for that type of performance), and I was hoping he was," trainer Brent MacGrath said. "If you would have told me he would be parked in :25.2 and home in :26.1, I probably wouldn't have went that stretch, but he's good. We're high on him. He's just a really nice colt that's green and he got woke up here tonight.

"Once (Gingras) moved him back to the front, I was very comfortable. We wanted to put him in play and give him an opportunity, and he did, and he got the job done. Hopefully it will set up good for next week."

Beach Glass is a homebred son of Somebeachsomewhere—Im With Her owned by Schooner II Stable. MacGrath and the Schooner partners also campaigned Somebeachsomewhere, who won 20 of 21 career races, with his lone setback being a second-place finish by a neck to Art Official in the 2008 Meadowlands Pace. Somebeachsomewhere died in 2018.

"I said to Yannick when he pulled up in the winner's circle that I've been this far before," MacGrath said with a smile. "We need to finish this off.

"It's almost surreal. It's unbelievable that we would get another horse of this caliber, that we would get another horse in the Meadowlands Pace. To have a son of Beach's last crop, one we bred, Hanover (Shoe Farms) raised him, it's just unbelievable."

Beach Glass has won two of four races this year and five of nine in his career, finishing worse than second only once while earning $264,645.

In the second elimination, Market Based led to the opening quarter in :26.4 before Caviart Camden took the top spot in a :54.4 half. Caviart Camden remained there, hitting three quarters in 1:21.4, but Market Based rallied in the stretch and held off favorite Night Hawk by a neck at the line.

Fouever Boy finished third, followed by Caviart Camden and Captainryanmichael.

Dexter Dunn drove the homebred Market Based, a son of Sweet Lou-Economy Terror, for trainer Nancy Takter and owners Chuck Pompey, Edwin Gold, and H And M Taylor Stable.

"I was quite surprised that he left the gate as hard as he did and cleared over as well as he did because that's been a little bit of an issue with him running into the first turn," Takter said. "Obviously, on a bigger track he has a little bit more room before he hits the turn, so that definitely benefited him."

Market Based has won three of seven races this year and seven of 20 lifetime, earning $288,183. In his prior two starts, he went off stride in his Messenger Stakes elimination on June 24 at Yonkers Raceway and returned with a fourth-place finish in a conditioned race at the Meadowlands last week.

"He's definitely heading in the right direction," Takter said. "He definitely stepped forward with that (previous) race and hopefully he'll step forward off this race as well."

Following is the field for the $600,000 Meadowlands Pace in post order with elimination drivers, trainers, and morning-line odds:

- 1 – Captain Cowboy – Dexter Dunn – Ake Svanstedt – 8-1
- 2 – Caviart Camden – Todd McCarthy – Tony Alagna – 12-1
- 3 – Night Hawk – David Miller – Brian Brown – 4-1
- 4 – Market Based – Dexter Dunn – Nancy Takter – 5-1
- 5 – Early Action – Brian Sears – Joe Holloway – 8-1
- 6 – Beach Glass – Yannick Gingras – Brent MacGrath – 7-5
- 7 – Fouever Boy – Mike Wilder – Tim Twaddle – 10-1
- 8 – I Did It Myway – Andrew McCarthy – Tony Alagna – 10-1
- 9 – Mad Max Hanover – Tim Tetrick – Jake Leamon – 15-1
- 10 – Captainryanmichael – Brian Sears – Joe Pavia Jr. – 20-1

Eliminations winners drew for posts 1 through 6. Second-place finishers drew for remaining posts 1 through 7. Third-place finishers drew for remaining posts 1 through 8. Fourth-place finishers drew for remaining posts 1 through 9. Fifth-place finishers drew for the remaining two posts.

BETTING TOPS $3 MILLION: With four races seeing well over $300,000 in action, all-source handle on the 13-race card totaled $3,282,634, an average per race of $252,510.

The sixth race saw $355,052 pushed through the windows, $113,497 of that on the Early 50-cent Pick-4. A total of $343,476 was bet on the eighth race, with $53,446 in "new money" put into the 20-cent Pick-6 pool, which, with the Friday night carryover added in, totaled $61,861.

In the 10th race, the Late Pick-4 took in $104,829 as wagering totaled $359,295 before the 11th race (Bulldog Hanover's 1:46.1 win) saw $374,626 in total play.

There have been 53 race cards contested at The Meadowlands in 2022, and on 15 occasions, betting has busted the $3-million barrier.

A LITTLE MORE: Dexter Dunn and Yannick Gingras were at the top of their respective games, leading the driver colony with three wins apiece while Tim Tetrick had a driving double... Ake Svanstedt trained a pair to victory lane... Racing reverts back to the normal Friday-Saturday schedule this week (July 15-16). Post time is 6:20 p.m.

Temporal Hanover and Jiggy Jog S notch Zweig wins at Vernon

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Vernon downs played host to the annual Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial races on Saturday afternoon (July 9).

Temporal Hanover (Brian Sears) charged late to capture the $310,000 Zweig Memorial 3-year-old open trot.

Temporal Hanover ($4.70) got the first call but Fast As The Wind (Dexter Dunn) charged up from his outside position to be first to the quarter in :26.2. Branded By Lindy (Yannick Gingras) was one of three horses who broke at the start of the race which changed the complexion instantly. Fast As The Wind used a :29.1 second quarter and cruised to the half first in :55.3. Pretender (Andrew McCarthy) was first to make a mover going first-up and was side by side as Fast As The Wind led to three-quarters in 1:24.2.

As they made the turn for home, Fast As The Wind and Pretender were joined by Temporal Hanover making it three across the track. Temporal Hanover blew right on by in deep stretch to win and equaled his lifetime mark of 1:52.2. Periculum (Mattias Melander) came charging late to finish second, giving trainer Marcus Melander a one-two finish in the big race. Pretender held on for third.

Temporal Hanover is a 3-year-old colt by Walner. He is trained by Marcus Melander for owners AMG Stable Inc., Ken Kjellgren, Rich Wahlstedt, and the Heights Stable. It was his third win in four starts this season. He now owns eight career victories.

Jiggy Jog S (Dexter Dunn) snuck through late to win the $123,000 Zweig Memorial 3-year-old fillies trot.

Yanaba (Brian Sears) wrestled the lead away from Baptism (Ake Svanstedt) and led to the first quarter in :26.4. Yanaba slowed things down with a :29.3 second quarter and led to the half in :56.2. Baptism was flushed out of the pocket by Cash Infusion as they made their way around the final turn. Yanaba had a slight lead at three-quarters in 1:25.3.

Baptism took a short lead as they reached the stretch. Jiggy Jog S needing racing room badly found a small opening on the inside as Delilah Hanover (Todd McCarthy) made a late bid four wide. Jiggy Jog S found a burst of speed and blew on by to win in 1:53.3. Delilah Hanover managed to pick up second money as Baptism held on to finish third.

Jiggy Jog S is a 3-year-old filly by Walner. It was her third won this season. She now owns five career victories.

Venerable (David Miller), who is trained by R. Nifty Norman wins the $25,620 Zweig Memorial consolation race for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Testing Testing (David Miller) hung on to win the $53,410 Zweig Memorial consolation for 3-year-old trotters getting it done for trainer George Ducharme with the fastest time of the day in 1:52.

James MacDonald scores with a trio of OSS winners in Ottawa

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

Ontario Sires Stakes action made its season debut at Rideau Carleton Raceway on Sunday (July 10) with Gold and Grassroots divisions for 3-year-old trotting colts.

The $157,200 Gold division was the feature race of the evening, and James MacDonald capped off his four-win night by driving 4-5 favorite Twin B Archie to victory.

MacDonald sent the Archangel son straight to the front from post eight, and he led gate to wire with fractions of :27.3, :57.2, 1:25.4, and 1:54.1.

"He just gives you that perfect mix of versatility," said MacDonald. "He can leave the gate like no other trotter, but if you want to take him back and trip him out because that's what the race calls for, he likes that as well. He's a really fun horse to drive."

The win pushed the Scott McEneny trainee over $500,000 in career earnings for McEneny and his ownership partners Domenic Chiaravalle (Hamilton, ON), Floyd Marshall (Jarvis, ON), and Martwest Racing Stable (Mississauga, ON).

Jody Jamieson piloted Esplosione to a second-place finish, moving the Kadabara colt's 2022 OSS Gold record to 1-1-0. The Meg Crone trainee is owned by Melvin Hartman (Ottawa, ON), and Enzed Racing Stable Inc (Allentown, NJ).

Rounding out the top-three was Century Invader with Scott Young driving for trainer Shawn Steacy. The Resolve colt now has over $70,000 in earnings for owners Landmark 14 (Lansdowne, ON), Hudson Standrbrd Stb Inc (Hudson, QC), David Reid (Sydenham ON)

Earlier in the evening, MacDonald won two of the three Grassroots divisions for sophomore trotters.

His win with Chantal Mitchell trainee Armstead Cole in the third Grassroots division was popular with local race fans, as the defending Grassroots champion is owned by James Armitage and Dr. Roland Armitage from Dunrobin, ON, Sheryl McDiarmid (Greely, ON), and Grant Watson (Ottawa, ON).

"Chantal said there was a big group here to watch him and she greatly underestimated how big it was," said MacDonald. "It was a gigantic group in the winner's circle."

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite the Johnny William son led gate to wire from post five, to win by four lengths.

Bente Nielsen

Twin B Archie (James MacDonald) winning the $157,200 OSS Gold Series test on Sunday (July 10) at Rideau Carleton in 1:54.1.

"He's just a professional, and so easy to drive," said MacDonald. "I haven't seen the big closing kick yet because I haven't needed it, but he settles on the front, and is a real gentlemen to drive. Really happy for the ownership group tonight, they were pretty pumped up for the win."

The gelding now has over $92,000 in earnings and a career record of 6-1-3 from 15 starts.

MacDonald's other Grassroots win came in race five with Renegade Gypsy. He was settled into pocket position early by MacDonald after leaving strong from post five, and a first-up move sent the Mario Baillargeon trainee to the front by the half. He was game the rest of the way, winning in 1:55.1.

"He raced really well. He has a ton of gate speed, so I used it," said MacDonald. "A couple kept coming, and cleared, and I didn't know how he was going to be first up. But as soon as he got to (Kipper Whipr Snipr) he kind of took off and cleared and was strong to the finish as well."

The first Grassroots division was race four on the card, and odds-on favorite Archery Seelster came away with the win.

Sylvain Filion had the Wheelin N Dealin son positioned third early on, but as the field passed the grandstand for the first time he charged to the front and was able to lead the rest of the way and win by 2 lengths.

Trainer Marcel Barrieau (Cambridge, ON), and Gestion Mastel Inc (Longueil, QC) own the gelding.

ROOKIE PACERS' GOLD SEASON KICKS OFF AT MOHAWK

Every age, sex, gait category of the 2022 Ontario Sires Stakes season is officially underway, with a pair of divisions kicking off the Gold Series campaign for rooking pacing colts July 9 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In the first $101,300 division, Stockade Seelster was victorious in his pari-mutuel debut.

Leaving from rail position Jody Jamieson settled the son of State Treasurer into fourth early on behind a :27.1 first quarter set by odds-on favorite Moment Is Here.

Jamieson sent the Dr. Ian Moore trainee to the front as the field entered the backstretch and took the lead by the halfway marker. Moment Is Here tried another move down the stretch, but Stockade Seelster proved the best, winning by a length in a stout time of 1:51.3.

"When I got up the backside, he got to the front pretty easy," said Jamieson, "Half in 56 and he did the rest himself, he's just a nice colt."

It was Jamieson's first time sitting behind Stockade Seelster, but he saw up close what he could do in his pair of qualifiers that he won by two lengths each.

"I was in both qualifiers with him and saw how dominant he was, and seen how much speed he had," said Jamieson. "I knew he had talent, but you're never sure how they're going to perform the first time, but Doc told me he was ready to go, and he wasn't lying."

The win netted owners Sally Macdonald (Souris, PEI), and Paul Macdonald (Toronto) $50,650.

Moment Is Here finished a game second, closing in :26.3. Trevor Henry drove the All Bets Off son for Hall of Fame Trainer Bob McIntosh. McIntosh co-owns the colt with Al McIntosh Holdings Inc, (Leamington, ON), Frank Baldachino (Harvey Cedars, NJ), and Mardon Stables (Loretto, ON).

Gregg McNair trainee Sounds Good was third, with McNair's son Doug in the race bike. Michael, and Sam Sergi of Canton, NY own the Bettors Delight colt.

Write Me A Rose won the second $102,200 division, giving trainer Rob Fellows his second Gold division win in 2022.

The Sportswriter colt was sent off as the favorite in the field of eight, and leaving from post four found himself off the pace behind a slow first half of :57.3 in sixth position.

"When you watched the race, and saw the cheap half you thought, oh no now we're in a bad spot," said Fellows.

But Sylvain Filion was able to maneuver his charge into fourth as the field entered the stretch, and he powered home in :26.1 to fend off late closing Better Be Bold.

"Every time all these babies go behind the gate, they surprise me every year with their speed," said Fellows. "So far, he's been a nice colt, so let's just hope he can stay healthy, and have a good summer, and we can put him away safe and healthy in October."

The Windermere Stable Llc homebred now has two wins from two starts in his rookie campaign.

Better Be Bold posted a final fraction of :26 to finish second by a half-length, with Louis-Philippe Roy driving. Shawn Steacy trains the Betterthancheddar colt for owners Mark Steacy (Lansdowne, ON) David Reid (Sydenham, ON), and Landmark 15 Racing Stable (Lansdowne, ON). Rod Boyd trainee Nighttime Dancer was third with Johnathan Drury in the race bike.

ALL BETS OFF GETS ANOTHER WINNER FROM FRESHMAN CROP IN GRASSROOTS AT MOHAWK

Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots action for rookie pacing colts kicked off July 7 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and freshman sire All Bets off earned his second OSS winner with Tignanello in the fourth of five divisions.

Sent off as the favorite, Sylvain Filion moved the Benoit Baillargeon trainee to the front from post six, and he led gate to wire in a time of 1:54.1.

"When Sylvain is the favorite, he puts them in play pretty good," said Baillargeon. "Coming in I didn't think a mile in 1:54 was out of reach for that colt tonight. He's very good gaited and covers the ground easily."

Tignanello set an identical closing panel of :27.3 in his qualifier victory on June 25.

"He's out of a Somebeachsomewhere mare that won in 1:51, so there is speed in his family for sure," said Baillargeon. "He trained down good all winter. It was not a problem to bring him to the races, and he was very willing to do his work."

All Bets Off's first OSS winner was filly Big Big Plans in a Gold division on Canada Day at the Campbellville oval.

Paul Reid trainee Teen Tattler was second in the penultimate Grassroots division with Scott Young in the race bike. The Canam Crew (Port Perry, ON) owns the Sportswriter colt.

Watch My Chips (Hes Watching) finished third for Puslinch, ON trainer Scott McEneny and his ownership partners Brad Grant (Milton, ON) and Martwest Racing Stable (Mississauga, ON).

The Grassroots action commenced earlier in the evening in race 2, where Slick N Quick won his pari-mutuel debut with Filion driving.

Troubles A Brewin was sent to the front early by James MacDonald, and held the lead until the 3/4 pole, after fending off a first up move from Morning Watch (Hes Watching).

The field was condensed as they turned for home, and Filion moved Slick N Quick up from seventh, behind cover from Speak Of War (Artspeak), and Better Option (Bettors Delight). The Julie Walker trainee moved out six wide and sprinted down the lane to win by a neck with a final panel of :27.2.

"He seems very versatile," said Walker. "He qualified off the front end, but that was just the circumstances of the fractions, and the speed we wanted to go that day, but he looked good tonight."

Owner Joe Miskokomon (Muncy, ON) recently purchased the Sportswriter gelding from Carl Jamieson.

"Carl does a really good job getting them ready and educating them," said Walker. "When we got him, it seems like he could have done anything already."

Doug McNair got a pocket trip with Gandolf The Black (Shadow Play) and the Dominic Gladu trainee finished second for his TheStable.ca owners. Delightful Leader (Bettors Delight) was third with Phillippe Hudon driving. Melissa Lamoreux trains for 8113564 Canada Ltd.

The second Grassroots division in race four featured another off the pace win from Santana Hanover. Leaving from post five James MacDonald sat the Big Jim colt off fractions of :28.1, :58.1, and 1:27.2. He tipped out from third as the field entered the stretch and drove home to win by a length.

It was the pari-mutuel debut for the Paul Davies trainee, who set a mark of 1:55.3 with a final panel of :28. Davies owns the colt with his wife Nicole.

43-1 shot Sharky finished a game runner-up after Doug McNair made a second up move that vaulted him to the lead entering the stretch. Cannington, ON resident David Browns trains, owns, and bred the Hes Watching colt.

Bettors Delight colt All Attitude led at the half, and finished third. Trevor Henry drove the Robert MacIntosh (Windsor, ON), Dave Boyle (Bowmanville, ON), and Mardon Stables (Loretto, ON) homebred.

In race five, the third Grassroots division, the winner would come from the front. Gregg McNair trainee The Moment Arose sat fifth after the quarter mile marker, before charging to the lead down the backstretch, holding off Best Shadow around the turn, and winning by two lengths.

"He trained good all winter and seemed to have lots of go tonight," said McNair. "He always trained in the front end a little bit, even at 2:30, 2:35. He always seemed better in front than following. Lots of horses are the other way around. It's hard to cut every mile that you're in but he was good tonight."

Doug McNair drove the Control The Moment colt to his 1:55 mile for Bolton, ON owners John Stamatis, Joseph Orofamma, and James Georgakopoulos (North York, ON).

Red Coin was a late charging second driven by Jody Jamieson. Jeffrey Gillis (Fergus, ON) trains and co-owns the Bettors Delight colt with Mac Nichol (Burlington, ON), and Ellen Ott (Buffalo, NY). Rounding out the podium in race three was Shadow Play colt Parsons. Louis-Philippe Roy drove the Tess Waxman (Ridgeville, ON) homebred for trainer Eric Nadeau.

Doug McNair closed out a driving triple in the final Grassroots division in race 10 with Wall Street Bell.

Leaving from post four the Shadow Play colt settled off the first quarter pace of :28.3, and McNair moved him up along the backstretch into a lead he would not relinquish, pacing a mile in 1:55.1 for his first career win from three starts.

Blake MacIntosh trains for owners Hutt Racing Stable (Malvern, PA), Ozzie Mackay (Moncton, NB), Veikko Pajune (Vancouver, BC), and Penny Of Hope Stables (St George, ON).

Jody Jamieson piloted another Shadow Play colt, The Golden Jet to a second-place finish for trainer Meg Crone. It was the pari-mutuel debut for the Claude Gendreau Stb Inc (Buffalo Grove, IL) homebred. Thong Control was third for trainer Jean Tournigy with Sylvain Filion driving. Tournigy co-owns the Control The Moment colt with Steve Garceau, and Roland Trudel (Becancour, QC).

Annapolis Hanover, Bugaboo Lou fastest PA All-Star winners

by PHHA / Pocono

Two-year-old pacing colts, some of whom should be heard from further as the season progresses, were featured in four $30,000 divisions of their Pennsylvania All-Stars event at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono during the Sunday (July 10) twilight card.

The thrills – both high and low – of racing talented but green babies were on display in the first event. Mamba went quickly to the lead; favored Ken Hanover, looped out of the gate, pressed on to command past a :27.4 quarter, while second choice Lousain Bolt, sitting third, came out of the turn a mite wide. Ken Hanover continued on to the half in :57.1 and had the lead deep down the back when the Sweet Lou–Lucy's Pearl colt Lousain Bolt, who had been closing well recently without getting up to win, made a sudden burst to the 1:25.3 three-quarters to sweep on by not long past that call; Ken Hanover drifted into the pylons when passed, but was absolved of any foul.

With Lousain Bolt going by, Swift Operator was left raw, and Mamba backed out behind him on the turn, only to drift very wide off that bend. Lousain Bolt was on cruise control in the process of finishing in :27.1 for a maiden mark of 1:52.4 when another pacer moved up – Ken Hanover, who had been left far behind on the turn, closed in sharply late, but still came up 4¼ lengths short of the winner. Lousain Bolt, who may be as fast as his “namesake,” is backed by new Hall Of Famers Yannick Gingras and Ron Burke for the ownership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Bruscelli LLC, Elizabeth Novak, and Howard Taylor.

First-time starter Bamboozler was the favorite in the next All-Stars section and set fractions of :26.4, :55.1 and 1:24 while looking good on the lead. But the Stay Hungry–All Night Long gelding Annapolis Hanover was ratcheting up his speed nearing the three-quarters to go up and challenge, and that fast freshman had the needed quickstep to gain into a :27.3 sprint home to take a neck decision in a new mark of 1:51.3 for driver David Miller. The three-time-winning baby was the second stakes winner of the day for trainer/owner Mitchell York – the other came at Stoneboro Fair, 264 miles almost due west across Pennsylvania.

More of “Those Unpredictable Babies” came in the third section, with the Captaintreacherous–Scandalous Hanover colt Ship Ship Hooray really the only one leaving with much forward foot, getting to stroll to the quarter in :29.3. Favored Girdad had had enough of that and “rushed” to the lead well before the half – in 1:00.2. Meanwhile, Nolaughingstock, very steppy away from the gate, commenced an uncovered bid, but was three-wide from before the half as the first-over.

The three-quarters came in 1:28.3, with Girdad leading and Nolaughingstock advancing on the wide side, so David Miller moved Ship Ship Hooray out between horses on the turn, and that one proved to have the most by a neck (two feet) over Nolaughingstock, who lost a dozen times that much “distance”/energy on his wide sojourn. But Ship Ship Hooray was the most photogenic in the unusual 1:56.4 mile, and is undefeated in two starts for trainer Chris Ryder and owners Ryder Henderson Mondillo, Ken Jacobs, and Barry Spak.

David Miller picked up his third All-Stars victory of the evening, and Sweet Lou got his second siring credit, when favored Bugaboo Lou (dam Perplexed) tied as fastest All-Star of the night with a 1:51.3 triumph on the engine. The next two choices, Ervin Hanover and Fulton, were undefeated before this race, but Miller sent “Bugaboo” right to the top, putting those two behind him in that order, posted early numbers of :28.2 and :57.3, then visibly asked his horse for more late on the backstretch, which resulted in a 1:25 three-quarters and then a :26.3 last panel, leaving Ervin Hanover 2¼ lengths behind and Fulton Hanover another 1 1/4 lengths back. Bugaboo Lou had lost his only purse start to Fulton, but he showed his quality in that race by coming home in :54.1- :26.4 to be second, and with the race under his girth he was set to win for trainer Brian Brown and owners Country Club Acres Inc., Joe Sbrocco, AWS Stables LLC, and Acadia Farms Inc.

In all, David Miller had five successes on the Pocono card.

Billy Davis Jr. and Trevor Smith double up in Buckeye Stallion Series Action

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

Billy Davis Jr. and Trevor Smith picked up two wins each in the six divisions of the first leg of Buckeye Stallion Series action for 2-year-olds filly pacers Sunday night at MGM Northfield Park. Each division of the first leg carried a purse of $17,500.

In the first division, Elvette Hanover, the 1-9 favorite, made it look easy, going gate to wire to win by six lengths in 1:55.1. Chris Page drove the daughter of Downbytheseaside for trainer Ron Burke.

Wax Tooth Randy took the pocket trip and reeled in the 7-5 favorite Bay City Babe around the final turn and pulled away to win the second division by two-lengths in 1:55.3. Trevor Smith drove Fear The Dragon filly, a 12-1 longshot, for trainer Todd Luther.

In the third division, 1-2 favorite Carmen N The Devil took the lead at the quarter pole and hung on down the stretch to hold off a hard charging The Dragon Queen by a head in 1:57.4. Tyler Smith drove the daughter of Well Said for trainer Dustin Arledge.

Seaside Baby and Trevor Smith raced to the lead off the gate and led the entire way, fighting off a late charge from Scenic Adventure to win the fourth division by a length in 1:57.3. The Downbytheseaside filly is trained by Todd Luther.

In the fifth division, Billy Davis Jr. and Racing For Three sat in fourth place through the first half mile and then made a move down the backstretch, catching the favorite Vintage Memories around the final turn. The Western Terror filly pulled away to win by two-lengths in 1:55.4 for trainer AJ Carlo.

In the final division, Davis and Hill Of A Night took the lead just before the first quarter pole and cruised to a two-length victory in 1:55.4. Herman Hagerman trains the daughter of Racing Hill.

Breeders Crown Charity Challenge presented by Libfeld-Katz Breeding Partnership set to return

Woodbine Entertainment, Hambletonian Society and Breeders Crown presenting sponsor Libfeld-Katz Breeding Partnership today announced the return of the highly successful Breeders Crown Charity Challenge for 2022.

Launched in 2019 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the Breeders Crown Charity Challenge has raised over $800,000 for local charities of each year's Breeders Crown host track. Last year's challenge set a new event high, raising over $400,000 for charities in The Meadowlands (East Rutherford, New Jersey) area.

This year's challenge format will see four teams, consisting each of a prominent owner, their charity of choice, and a Woodbine leading driver vying to secure the largest donation amount possible from a minimum pool of $200,000.

The four teams are listed below:

Team Brad Grant/Doug McNair – Charity: Milton District Hospital Foundation

Team Determination/Bob McClure – Charity: Kids Help Phone Line

Team Steve Heimbecker/James MacDonald – Charity: Pine River Institute

Team Libfeld-Katz/Louis-Philippe Roy – Charity: Toronto General Hospital Heart Research Centre - SickKids Hospital Toronto

Each team has pledged $25,000, which guarantees their charity a minimum donation of that amount. An additional $100,000 has been raised through gracious donations by industry participants.

With a minimum $25,000 guaranteed to each charity, the additional funds will be up for grabs through a DRIVER CHALLENGE and SOCIAL MEDIA CHALLENGE.

The DRIVER CHALLENGE will distribute $50,000 to the charities based on each driver's performance in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Lampman Cup standings. The team with the driver earning the most points in the OSS season will be awarded $20,000. The remaining $30,000 will be distributed $15,000, $10,000 and $5,000 based on each driver's ranking in the standings.

The SOCIAL MEDIA CHALLENGE, beginning Sept. 1, will distribute $50,000 to the charities based on each team's social media engagement. The team creating the most engagement by using #Crown22 and a team hashtag will earn $20,000. The remaining $30,000 will be distributed $15,000, $10,000 and $5,000 based on each team's engagement numbers.

In addition to the various challenges, the popular Cocktails For A Cause will again be held at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale on Tuesday, Oct. 4, serving as another avenue to raise funds for charity.

The 2022 Breeders Crown presented by Libfeld-Katz Breeding Partnership will take place on Friday, October 28 and Saturday, October 29 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Breeders Crown Charity Challenge would not be possible without the generous support of the following individuals and group:

Tyler Smith notches 4,000th career win Sunday at MGM Northfield Park

Tyler Smith entered Sunday (July 10), needing just two wins at Northfield Park to reach another milestone in his career. In town to drive in the Buckeye Stallion Series, he scored a victory aboard Carmen N The Devil (Well Said-Mcdance Desire) and in the finale aboard Lancaster Hill.

Smith wasted no time taking the lead with Lancaster Hill, leaving the gate alertly heading into the first turn. The field was in straight alignment at the opening quarter of :26.3, but Smith had a handful of horse and caught a :29 breather at the half in :55.3.

Heading to the three-quarter pole in 1:23.1, Toot Toot N (Ryan Stahl) and Slater (Patrick Beeler) were his closest pursuers, but Smith asked Lancaster Hill for more, and he responded, opening up by two lengths on his rivals.

Lancaster Hill drew off in the stretch, winning by 4-1/4 lengths in 1:51, defeating Drew The Dragon (Billy Davis Jr.) and Just Bookem (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.).

Lancaster Hill set a new lifetime mark in his tenth career score with the victory. He has $146,140 in career earnings for owner Elliot Deaton and trainer Ryan Deaton.

Smith is quickly approaching yet another milestone, as he has just shy of $40 million in career earnings.

Buffalo Raceway names 2022 award winners

With just three live racing dates remaining on the 2022 schedule, Buffalo Raceway announced its seasonal award winners during the Saturday afternoon (July 9) program.

Jim Morrill Jr. won his second consecutive driving title at Buffalo Raceway, collecting 85 victories in 290 starts, amassing $767,230 in purse earnings with three cards remaining. Morrill Jr. also won the crowns in 2006, 2016 and 2021.

His 2006 season was an unforgettable one as he posted a track record 214 victories which still stands today. He beat Keith Kash Jr. that year who finished a distant second with 108 wins. Shawn T. Gray (206) and Kevin Cummings (203) are the two other drivers who have surpassed 200 victories in a year at Buffalo Raceway. Gray accomplished that in 2012 and Cummings in 2015.

Drew Monti is currently second in the standings with 71 wins and $619,045 in purses while Kevin Cummings ranks third with 63 victories and $601,395 in purse earnings.

Shawn McDonough won Trainer Of The Meet honors, his first ever, as he notched 53 wins in 267 attempts, earning $403,170 in purses thus far in 2022.

"At the end of last year at Buffalo, my goal was to get enough horses to contend for the trainer's title," McDonough said. Mission accomplished. He has 25 horses in his stable currently in East Bethany, NY and was helped out by having Morrill Jr. drive some of his trainees.

"Jim and I are good friends and anytime I can have someone who should be a Hall Of Famer drive for me, I'll do it," McDonough said. "It takes a lot of stress off my shoulders when he does... gives me a break. Jim gets along better with some horses than I do and vice versa. That's how we decide who is going to ride who.

"I've got a good team of five working with me plus I have a good track to train on at the farm. It really has made a big difference."

While enjoying the award for Trainer Of The Year, McDonough also celebrated his trainee Mugshots Bro who was selected the Trotter Of The Year.

The 10-year-old gelded Mugshots Bro (Jailhouse Jesse—Photo Emmy) is co-owned by Herman Niedhammer and Herman Niedhammer Jr. Mugshots Bro collected five wins, a second and a third place finish in nine starts this season. He earned $40,595 in purses and had a five-race win streak with four of those wins coming from the outside posts.

"He's just unreal," McDonough said of Mugshots Bro. "I can't believe how good he is. He puts his nose behind the starting gate and forgets everything else. He just goes."

Stop Action was a model of consistency and determination throughout the season and claimed the Pacer Of The Meet award.

Owned by Super Mile LLC and trained by Angelo Nappo, the 5-year-old gelded Stop Action (Somebeachsomewhere-The Show Returns) started the year in the $5,500 level but steadily worked his way up to Open competition where he found continued success.

Stop Action has 22 starts thus far on the season, finishing in the money 16 times including eight victories and $69,595 in earnings, the most of any horse at the track. His seasonal best was 1:54 and was driven by Cummings throughout much of the season.

Buffalo Raceway has just three programs left on the 2022 season with the first coming today (July 13) at 1:30 p.m. The New York Sire Stakes makes its last trip of the year to the Hamburg half mile oval where a field of six colt and gelding freshmen pacers battle for the $104,400 purse in the sixth race. There is also a $15,000 Excelsior A event and a $6,600 Excelsior B affair.
