Ashlee Allyn an important key to the success of George Ducharme's stable

by Chris Lomon

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

For Ashlee Allyn, it's all about a smooth operation.

Ask the horsewoman from Warren Center, PA, what her role in the George Ducharme barn is, and she is somewhat hesitant, at least initially, in her response.

It's quite understandable for someone who is happy to fly under the radar.

"I've been working for George for nine years," said Allyn. "I'm the operations manager or barn manager for the entire stable. I deal with all the day-to-day operations with the whole barn, while I still have a small string of horses to take care of. I make sure all the other grooms have what they need, communicate with the vet and blacksmith, order supplies and feed, and to the best of my abilities, make sure everything runs smoothly every day."

Allyn has been part of the standardbred world since 2006, the year she started as a groom at Tioga Downs.

Her connection with the sport, however, dates back much further.

"My great grandfather, Mike Haight, drove and trained. I grew up looking at his win pictures that went back to the 1950s and '60s up until the early '80s. Nobody in my family was involved in harness racing or with horses, but when I was about nine or 10, I started riding horses. I grew up on a dairy farm, so I was around animals, but I really started to gravitate towards horses the older I got.

"The year Tioga opened was the year I graduated high school. That's where I got my first job because my mom was getting tired of taking care of my horses. So, I started working there. The first few years of being a groom, I would work in the summertime and then go to college in the fall and the winner. When Tioga would open again, I'd work for whoever needed help at the time. I went to school for graphic design, but that didn't really work out."

A successful and rewarding career, at the racetrack and in the barns, did pan out.

Since 2012, Allyn has worked for Ducharme, a veteran trainer who is closing in on 1,000 career wins.

Her job might best be described as a little bit of everything, none of it boring, most of it interesting, all of it rewarding.

"I guess I do the stuff that George doesn't want to do, which is fine with me. I was training for him a few years, and we had around 30 or 40 horses. I was doing all the barn stuff, plus the training and shipping. It got a little too hectic for me. I'd rather stay in the barn and be with the horses."

It's something Allyn, who typically has handful or so of horses under her care, looks forward to every morning.

"Having a smaller number of horses to look after is so much more manageable and most importantly, you can really give them the individual attention they deserve. I like being organized and making sure everything is done correctly, so that makes me happy. I like having the training schedules down pat and everything flowing properly. Taking care of the horses is the best part of my day. We have a lot of babies, so that's always fun. Watching them mature, qualify and then race is a huge thrill, to see that development over time. You love seeing them live up to their full potential."

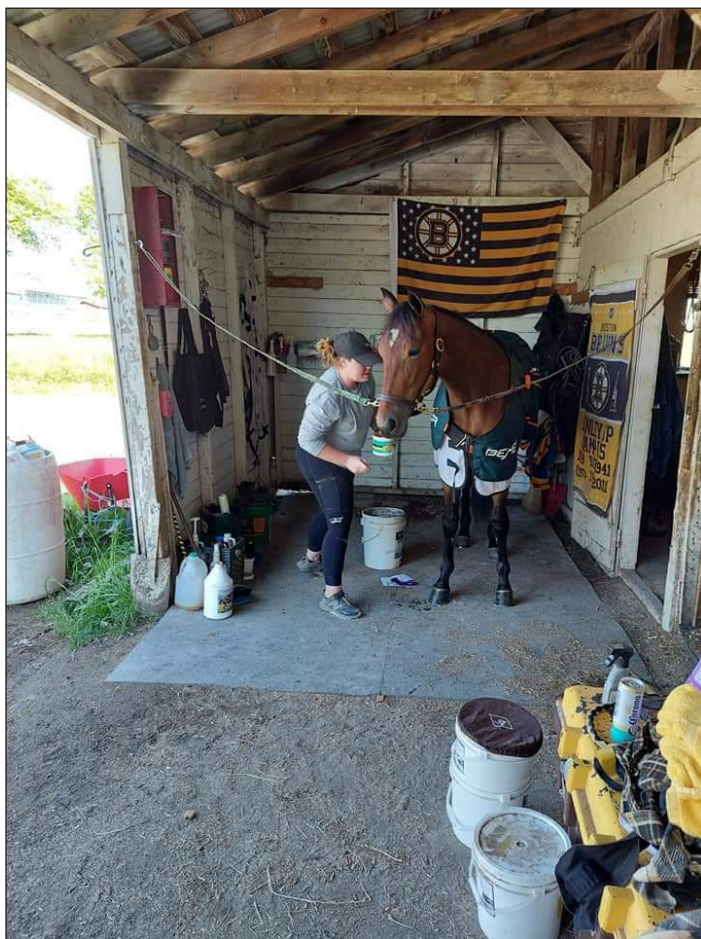

Throughout the years, there have been several horses she's developed a close bond with, many of them pacers or trotters with a big personalities and hard-nosed reputations.

And that suits Allyn just fine.

"I get assigned the horses that nobody else seems to get along with," she said with a laugh. "I don't know why, but I like working with temperamental fillies."

Fortune Starlet would be a prime example of such a horse.

Bred by Deo Volente Farms LLC (NJ), the daughter of Trixton was a handful, to say the least.

On the track, Fortune Starlet was a tough-as-nails trotting talent who often took on top-tier competition.

Her biggest win came on July 12, 2019, at The Meadowlands, a five-length romp in the New Jersey Sires Stakes 2-year-old fillies final.

A knee chip temporarily sent her to the sidelines, but her demeanor remained unchanged.

"When she was 2, she came to us with a bunch of warnings. When George went to Lexington [in 2018] to look at her, the kids who were showing him said, 'Stay back. She kicks and she's really mean.' After hearing that, George wasn't convinced that he wanted her. Bill Donovan, who bought her, went up to George and said, 'Here you go... you're training her.' That was the first time I heard about her, way before I ever met her. And sure enough, she was really, really difficult. I had no problems breaking her, but she had her moments. You couldn't walk in the stall without giving her a warning.

"I had cones around the stall so people wouldn't walk near her. I put her away when no one was around because that was when she was the most pleasant. It was just me and her. She was a great racehorse. After that chip in her knee, she came back and raced well. She took on a lot of big stars, horses like Sorella and Ramona Hill, but she always held her own. And she was just as nasty when she was three. Now, she's a broodmare. I am so happy that I was able to be a part of her career."

Alllyn can take solace in knowing she has another feisty filly,

Contested Hanover, to take care of.

It's more than enough to put a smile on her face.

"It's fun. It's a challenge and I enjoy it. I have a 2-year-old Muscle Hill filly who has that strong-willed personality too. My job is to keep them happy and help them be ready for whenever they race."

As for what keeps Alllyn happy away from the races, the great outdoors and a sound sleep top her list.

"Well, I take a lot of naps. The biggest time to relax is going to Florida. Usually, I get a group of homebreds to break around the end of October. My boyfriend, Frank, and I go to Florida and get the barn set up for the rest of the babies that come in. We get them broke and around Thanksgiving I get two weeks of vacation. I usually go somewhere where I can go hiking, like a national park. If I'm not napping, I love being out in nature."

She also loves her job.

"I'm proud of my work ethic. I don't want it to sound as though I'm being conceited, but I work hard to get the results we aim for. I can be hard on myself, but I like hard work and grinding away at it. There's nothing more rewarding to see our barn have success."

Hickothepooh an upset specialist in Jarlsberg

by Thomas Hedlund

The $125,000 Ulf Thoresen Grand International was held at Jarlsberg racetrack in Norway on Sunday afternoon (July 11) and the winner has become some kind of a specialist of upset wins in northern Europe.

Norwegian-bred Hickothepooh (Triton Sund) shocked fans by winning Finlandia-ajo in Helsinki in May, which meant that he qualified for the Elitloppet at Solvalla. In Stockholm, Hickothepooh had no luck but when the Ulf Thoresen Grand International was on the schedule, driver Vidar Hop used the horse's great ability to leave quickly and the duo hit the lead at an early stage.

When Hop made the last move with his horse in the last turn, the advantage to chaser Moni Viking increased.

Moni Viking fought strongly after an outside trip and Björn Goop's trotter gained several meters against the leader towards the wire, but he could never reach Trond Andersen trained Hickothepooh, who came home in a mile rate of 1:54.4 over 1.3 miles.

Moni Viking was second and Elitloppet bronze medalist Gareth Boko finished third.

Face Time Bourbon in Finland

He might be the best trotter in the world. After two consecutive Prix d'Amérique victories and several top performances on his record, Face Time Bourbon (Ready Cash) is ready for a big battle outside of his home country France and Sébastien Guarato's trotter will face seven opponents in Sunday's (July 18) $190,000 St. Michel Ajo in Mikkeli, Finland.

Eric Raffin will drive Face Time Bourbon in Mikkeli and they drew number 7 behind the gate. Stablemate Billie de Montfort and Timo Nurmos trained Seismic Wave looks to be the toughest opponents ahead of the race, but normally, Face Time Bourbon will show who's the best trotter in the world even over the mile.

ALTERNATIVE ACTIONS

with FRANK COTOLO

A magnificent equine, an unequalled promotional symbol – Part 1

by Frank CotoLO

Every standardbred from Hambletonian on is, in itself, a thousand or so pounds of pure promotional material. Yet, the business of harness racing has never focused upon the standardbred alone as a promotional tool.

Alternative Actions (AA) thrives on painting a broad picture of new ideas to increase pari-mutuel business. What we suggest to standardbred raceways everywhere this month is a sparkling new idea that uses the oldest of elements involved in harness racing first and foremost.

The standardbred is the star of harness racing. More than any other person or accessory connected to its role in the greater picture, the standardbred should get top billing. Though it takes the care and skill and knowledge of many people to adorn the standardbred with the gear and behavior and regimen needed to race, as sure as Hambletonian secured the legacy of trotting horses, the standardbred breed is literally the lifeblood of the business.

To the generic public – and unfortunately too much of harness racing's wagering community – a standardbred is just another kind of horse (the public rarely calls it a breed) that is bigger than a Quarter Horse, slower than a thoroughbred and the descriptions go lame from there, so to speak. Let me give you a current example that is sad, at best.

In Florida, where Pompano Park Harness is teetering on the brink of official closure, a news article in the Florida Sun Sentinel reported on its demise. The most interesting thing about the article is not the news itself, it is the journalist's obvious unfamiliarity with the sport.

Calling standardbred horsemen "the harness racers" certainly shows no acquaintance with the sport, but the journalist includes a definition of "the harness racers" (which we assume includes all persons involved in any aspect of the sport) with the assumption that no Sentinel reader knows squat about any of them.

The journalist's definition of harness racing itself may be unintentionally simple but that is no excuse for its blatant misrepresentation to the uninformed reader as well as its description is an insult to the population of standardbred industry workers in the state – and around the world. Here it is from the article's last line:

"Harness racing resembles a scene from the iconic film 'Ben-Hur,' where racers ride in two-wheel carts pulled by horses."

Aside from the fact that the writer assumes its readers are acquainted with either the 1880 Lew Wallace novel, the 1922 silent-film, the 1959 blockbuster movie or even the 2010 TV mini-series that lasted only two episodes, the writer does not have a clue of what kind of "horses" are pulling the "carts."

It is time everyone in the public who knows or does not know about harness racing learns how mighty is the standardbred. The standardbred itself can be a powerful promotional figure to draw a larger audience and greater wagering base for a new generation to in be more than simply aware of the equines but to be enthralled by them.

DRIVE THE HORSE

With today's inexpensive yet superb high-tech movie gear, it is easy to produce short, exciting video promos. Raceways should find a youngster with the prowess to shoot and edit video promos (there are only a zillion boys and girls on the planet who have these abilities) that are only about the standardbred's unique traits.

Unfortunately, in the past, productions including standardbreds focused on their speed. For breeders and owners and the miniscule members of a nerd fan base, speed is important. However, there is nothing either exciting or sexy about speed in harness racing in the era of the fast and the furious. Standardbreds should have a new focus in promotional material, ignoring the fast and accentuating the furious.

Building the image of the new standardbred must be a profile of power. It must declare the standardbred's mightiness, energy, clout (its special advantage among equines), strength, tenacity and resilience.

Without putting down the thoroughbred, it is important to make a comparison of the two breeds of racehorses just to clear the air of all misconceptions concerning the physical differences of the two. Once you eliminate the matter of speed, think about what you are left to compare: Thoroughbreds are small, delicate, tender, subtle animals (using the term "animals" instead of "horses" is a potent choice) while standardbreds are large, tough, robust, rugged, enduring, abiding, and so on.

Aggressive messages must drive the standardbred's "indestructible," bigger-than-life image into the minds of a prospective audience of fans and bettors. It's an animal that races dangerous miles among treacherous others in its breed.

In Part 2 we will give specific ideas concerning copy and actual clips of races that turn heads, on shooting exciting visuals about a standardbred's new image with courageous, modern examples of getting anyone's attention.

Four trainers prepare for initial Meadowlands Pace

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Eddie Dennis usually remains quiet when watching his horses compete. But as Hellabalou charged down the stretch on his way to an 81-1 upset in his Meadowlands Pace elimination last Saturday, the trainer made an exception.

"I don't ever holler for a horse, but I hollered for him the other night," Dennis said with a laugh. "It was a nice treat. We thought we could make the final. We didn't realize we might maybe have that big of a shot to win."

"He just responded. That's him. If he's in that position and he's healthy and everything is going his way, he responds. He likes to pass horses when he's on his game. He knows what that's all about."

Hellabalou, who left the gate quickly from post seven with driver Andy McCarthy and got a pocket trip behind favorite One Eight Hundred, came home with a :25.4 last quarter-mile to win by a half-length over Charlie May. His time was a career-best 1:49.2 over a sloppy track at The Meadowlands and propelled Dennis and owner Eric Good into the Meadowlands Pace final in their first appearance in the event.

"He had an issue with his breathing last year and we shut him down and got it fixed," Dennis said. "He's been good ever since. He's a good little horse, he really is. I think he's getting better and better. He's getting tighter and more used to these kinds of miles. He tries the whole time."

Hellabalou, who has won three of eight races this season and $93,886 in purses lifetime, will start Saturday's $700,000 Meadowlands Pace final from post two. He is 8-1 on the morning line. Southwind Gendry, who won the second elimination, is the 3-1 favorite for trainer Ron Burke.

"It'll be something I take in probably a little more than I did the other night," said the 53-year-old Dennis, who trains a stable of 14 horses, about going to the final. "I'll just feel a little bit different walking into the paddock this time. To win an elimination of the Meadowlands Pace, that's a pretty good achievement for a little guy like me. They can't take it away from me."

Dennis is one of four trainers making their first appearance in the Meadowlands Pace. The others are Steve Carter with Charlie May, Scott Cox with Chase H Hanover, and Travis Alexander with American Courage.

Charlie May, a homebred owned by Don Tiger, was Ohio's 2-year-old male pacer of the year in 2020. He has won nine of 17 career races and finished worse than second only twice, banking $516,127. Tiger also is making his first appearance in the Pace. "I'm 1-for-1," Carter said with a laugh about reaching the Meadowlands Pace final. "I don't know if I'll get to two. I doubt I'll ever be back. But you never know. You're always looking for the next horse. But this feels great, especially because I think I've got a chance to win it."

In his elimination, Charlie May came first over on the last turn and overtook leader One Eight Hundred in the stretch but was unable to fend off Hellabalou's surge. He will start the final from post nine and is 5-1 on the morning line.

"We're going to need some racing luck," Carter said, adding with a laugh, "I'm hoping for a lot of speed, and (Charlie May) not being in it."

"He's elevated his game, taken it to another level, the last couple weeks. He put a big effort out last time. A big effort. There's not a lot of pressure. I guess there's pressure to keep him physically in shape and in top form, but racing is going to be racing. Whatever happens is out of my control."

Chase H Hanover finished third behind Hellabalou and Charlie May in the first elimination. He was beaten by 1-3/4 lengths. Cox owns the gelding with Jason Ash, who also is making his first trip to the Meadowlands Pace.

"We bought this one and he ended up being pretty good, so we put out some money to stake him this year," said Cox, who like Carter hails from Ohio and operates a small stable. "It feels great. I've watched this race for a lot of years, but to be associated with it, you don't really know how big it is (until you're in it). I'm glad we're in it."

Chase H Hanover has won five of 17 career races and hit the board a total of 14 times. He has earned $326,885. He finished second to Southwind Gendry in last year's Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship.

Elimination winners poised for battle in $150,000 MGM Springfield Stakes

by Gordon Waterstone / USTA editorial specialist

Travis Alexander won the 2020 MGM Springfield Stakes final for 2-year-old male pacers with American Courage, who set a stakes record with his 1:53.3 effort, and the trainer is back for this year's $150,000 renewal on Friday night (July 16) at Yonkers Raceway with Pleaseletmeknow, who captured his elimination one week earlier in 1:54.1, the fastest of the trio of elims contested.

Trainer Jenn Bongiorno finished second to American Courage in last year's MGM Springfield with Town Gossip, and she will give it another go in Friday night's final with Letmecallyouback, who won his elimination in 1:55.3.

The third elimination was won by Gone Before Dawn, who was victorious in 1:56 for trainer Andrew Harris, who did not have a starter in last year's MGM Springfield but finished second in the 2019 renewal (when the race was known as the Lawrence B. Sheppard) with Save Me A Dance.

With an open draw for the rich final (race eight), the three elim winners all drew posts on the right side of the gate, with Letmecallyouback, who will be driven by Joe Bongiorno, faring best with post five. Pleaseletmeknow, who will be driven by Matt Kakaley, and Gone Before Dawn, who will be directed by Jason Bartlett, will leave from posts seven and eight, respectively. They will be joined in the final by the three elim runners-up as well as two of the three third-place finishers.

While Pleaseletmeknow and Letmecallyouback each had a pari-mutuel start under their belt coming into the MGM Springfield elims, Gone Before Dawn was making his pari-mutuel debut. A son of Huntsville—One Last Kiss, Gone Before Dawn's large stature (he's already nearly 17 hands tall) had both trainer Harris and driver Bartlett concerned that his size could be a detriment on the half-mile oval at Yonkers.

"You always have a concern when you go from a big track to a small track, but I did train him a lot on the half-mile track at Gaitway so it's not like he didn't have half-mile track experience," said Harris. "I had a couple others that did struggle but this horse didn't. I still think I'll make a few changes on him but I'll have him ready for the race."

"Huntsville was a big boy too and he got around a half, and the Huntsvilles are such good-gaited animals."

Gone Before Dawn finished fourth in his qualifying race debut at Gaitway Farm on June 14 and then with Bartlett in the sulky for the first time in a June 26 qualifier at The Meadowlands, the colt finished second by a length, race-timed in 1:53.4.

"He was pretty good in the qualifier and the horse that beat him (JK Victory) is one of Nancy's (Takter) better colts," said Bartlett. "I thought he'd be pretty good but I didn't know how it would translate to the half-mile track.

"For a big horse he got around Yonkers pretty well and I was pretty happy with the way he went. He's big gaited too so I didn't know how he'd handle the half. But I scored him down and it seemed like he'd handle the turns pretty good, so we took our shot."

In the MGM Springfield elim, Barlett left from post three with Gone Before Dawn and settled in third, but then made a quarter-pole move to the lead and never looked back to score by a neck over Thebizness Bluechip.

"I settled him in the first turn and then the front end slowed up so I just moved him," said Bartlett. "He has a really good brush so it was pretty easy to get to the front. He got a little steppey in the last turn but with a few changes he'll be good for that."

Gone Before Dawn was purchased privately from breeder Steve Jones by Harris's A Harris Racing and Doug Overhiser's Bowie Racing. He is out of the Artsplace mare One Last Kiss, who sprung a 20-1 upset in capturing the $200,000 New Jersey Sires Stakes final for 2-year-old filly pacers in 2009, with his second dam being world champion Juliet's Fate, who won the 1998 Breeders Crown final for 2-year-old filly pacers.

"We bought two privately before the sales from Steve Jones," remembered Harris. "We were targeting Gone Before Dawn because we had the sister (Kiss The Captain) and knew the sister was nice. Unfortunately she suffered a little bit of a breathing issue...but we were really high on her and knew what kind of speed she had.

"Gone Before Dawn was a colt I had my eye on and I hoped he'd be that type of a horse. I've been high on him all along. He's a little bit green on the front but he's 10 times the horse when he has a little bit of a helmet. If he is sitting close on a helmet he's got a wicked motor on him."

As for Pleaseletmeknow, the gelded son of American Ideal—I Said Please had a fifth and first in his pair of qualifying races at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, and he then finished second in his pari-mutuel debut in a New York Sires Stakes split on June 30 at Buffalo Raceway. That led into his MGM Springfield win where he parlayed a two-hole trip from Kakaley into the victory, downing runner-up Silverstone by 1-1/2 lengths.

"He's getting better and better. He's come a long way," said Alexander, who trains Pleaseletmeknow for Mark Wasserman's Fiddler's Creek Stables. "He has surprised me quite a bit because he was never one you would talk about all winter.

"He was way too studdy. He's not a very big horse but he thought he was King Kong. He was going to hurt somebody," Alexander added about gelding the colt. "It took time for him to get over his castration so it set him behind. (Mark) Wasserman never saw him train because I always hid him from him. The first time Mark actually saw him go was at Buffalo."

Alexander believes Pleaseletmeknow will only get better as he continues racing.

"He's a game horse and likes to race," said Alexander. "He only does what he's asked but he likes to win though, I will say that. Now that he's figured it out, he does like to win."

Jenn Bongiorno said Letmecallyouback captured her eye early on.

"He's always been one of my favorites of the babies we had," said Bongiorno, who trains the son of Huntsville—Ravishnmasterpiece for owners Joseph Di Scala Jr., Pit Bull Stable and Patrick O'Brien. "In his first qualifier (fourth at Gaitway) he was good but we made some changes and definitely happier with the second qualifier (third at Gaitway)."

In Letmecallyouback's pari-mutuel debut in a June 30 overnight at Harrah's Philadelphia, Joe Bongiorno moved his charge from fifth to first in the :27.4 third quarter and then settled for a third-place finish.

In his MGM Springfield elim, Letmecallyouback moved first-over from fourth at the half to clear the lead at the top of the stretch before holding on by a neck over Wolftrax. While his counterparts each won their elims at odds of 2-1, Letmecallyouback rewarded his backers at odds of 7-1.

"The line doesn't look that good in his first start," admitted Jenn Bongiorno. "He got to the front and was a little lost and confused. I was really happy to see last week and that he learned from that. I just think he's a gelding that is going to keep getting better. He's learning more and more every start and every time he trains. He's a horse that is majorly on the improve every week."

As seems to be the norm, Yonkers' half-mile track gave trainer Bongiorno cause for concern, and Letmecallyouback displayed some greenness when he went a bit wide in the final turn while on fast forward for the lead.

"Once he got to the front and cleared he was good," said Bongiorno. "He held off horses so I'm not afraid for him to be on the front, and I'm certainly not afraid for him to come from off the pace because he has that really big move."

"To be honest, getting around a half was a question mark for us," she added. "When Joe warmed him up I was very happy to see he was handling it. He wasn't 100 percent perfect but we're happy that he can handle the half. Being a New York horse he's going to have to get around half-mile tracks. He handled it as well as possible. He has a really nice solid big move to him. I think that will hopefully be to our advantage."

The MGM Springfield Stakes final will go as race eight on Friday night's 12-race program, which gets underway at 7:15 p.m. The full field with listed drivers and trainers is as follows:

Logan Park sails to track record triumph in Ottawa

For the second straight year, a Rideau Carleton Raceway track record has fallen during Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) competition.

In the second of two $99,800 Gold Series divisions at the Ottawa oval on Sunday (July 11), 3-year-old trotting colt Logan Park sprinted down the stretch to reel in pacesetter Highland Mowgli and trip the teletimer at 1:52.4. Highland Mowgli settled for second, one-half length behind the fan favorite, and Macho

Martini was three lengths behind in third. The mile lowered the former 3-year-old trotting colt and gelding record of 1:54.1 set by All Wrapped Up in 2019 and equalled the all-age track record set by P L Notsonice in three-year-old trotting filly Gold Series action last summer.

“He was fantastic tonight,” said driver Jody Jamieson, who guided Logan Park to the win from Post 1. “He charged off the gate and charged to the wire.”

Jamieson drives the son of Archangel for trainer Rob Fellows and owner Outofthepark Stable of Rockwood, Reg Higgs of Strathroy and Arpad Szabo of Bradford, ON. The win was Logan Park’s second straight in Gold Series action and Fellows hopes he can maintain his form through the remaining three legs.

“He wasn’t sure of his gait last year; he made a lot of very, very inopportune breaks. He left a lot of money on the table,” said Fellows. “This year he trained down flawless and then his first start he made a break. With our new rules in Ontario I could just come back and race him the next week with trotting hoppers, I didn’t have to requalify him, and, so far, he’s been good ever since. Tonight was a real good mile.

“It’s still up here, the weather is humid,” the trainer added. “It’s the type (of weather) that track records would be set.”

Dylan St-Amand

Logan Park (Jody Jamieson, right) set a Rideau Carleton track record with a 1:52.4 mile in his Ontario Sires Stakes Gold event on Sunday (July 11).

The first Gold Series division went to Lexus Kody, who caught Publicity Seeker at the wire in a personal best 1:54.3. Emotions Riches was two and three-quarter lengths behind the neck-and-neck leaders. Fan favorite Fashion Frenzie made a series of breaks that saw him finish well back in fifth.

“Not a word of a lie, he’s the biggest horse I’ve ever had and he’s the most nervous horse I’ve ever had,” said trainer Shannon Henry of Lexus Kody. “He’s got a mind of his own, that’s this horse’s problem so we’re actually shocked. We not shocked, we knew he had the speed, but we’re just shocked with how he’s displaying it for us because he actually turns into a racehorse when he gets behind the gate.”

The Arthur, ON resident’s husband Trevor Henry piloted Lexus Kody to the win, his first in OSS action and his third since making his debut in May. Another son of Archangel, Lexus Kody did not race at two. The Henrys and their co-owners Norm Dunstan of Caledon Village, ON, who also bred the gelding, and David Hudson of Dallas, TX, opted to let the trotter to grow into his frame before starting his racing career.

Also on the program were a trio of $22,150 Grassroots divisions for the 3-year-old trotting colts and Walkonthemoon, Muscle Jack and Sweet Soul David emerged victorious, all three setting personal bests in the process.

In the first division, fan favorites Walkonthemoon and trainer-driver Mario Baillargeon took command before the half and sailed home two and one-half lengths ahead of GQ Magic and Kilauea in 1:55.

“That’s his fourth start and he’s got three wins and a second. So far he’s done everything we’ve asked him,” said Baillargeon, who trains the son of Archangel for fractional ownership group TheStable.ca Walkonthemoon of Guelph, ON. “He’s just getting a little stronger, and his next race I think will be in Hanover in the Dream of Glory on the 24th of July. He’s staying healthy and staying happy, that’s the main thing.”

Second choice Muscle Jack picked up his second straight Grassroots win in the second division, reeling in favorite Dewy Deo in the stretch to halt the teletimer at 1:54.3. Moscow Moon was well back of the leaders in third.

“I was a bit concerned with the trailer post (9), but he was very well behaved,” said Jamieson, who picked up his second win of the night behind the Muscle Mass son. “He raced really good.”

Blake MacIntosh of St. George, ON trains Muscle Jack son for his co-owners Hutt Racing Stable of Malvern, PA and Mortgage Boys Stable of Fayetteville, NY.

Sweet Soul David also earned a repeat visit to the Grassroots winner’s circle in the last division, kicking home in impressive fashion after spending the entire mile parked in the outer lane. The Kadabra colt and driver Louis-Philippe Roy hit the wire five and one-half lengths ahead of Arlanda in 1:55. Defcon Seelster and trainer-driver Guy Gagnon of Gatineau, QC were two more lengths back in third.

Roy drives Sweet Soul David for trainer Patrick Lang of Ancaster and his co-owners Simon Swindells of Little Britain, Garth Bechtel of Meaford and Paul Kleinpaste of Orangeville, ON.

The 3-year-old trotting colts will make their second Gold Series start at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 9 and the Grassroots colts will follow their peers to the Campbellville oval on Aug. 10. Ontario Sires Stakes action returns to Rideau Carleton Raceway on Sunday, Aug. 22 with Gold, Grassroots and Prospect Series action for the three-year-old pacing fillies.

Complete results for Sunday’s program are available here and replays can be viewed on the Rideau Carleton Raceway website.

Soaring Now sets National Season’s record in ISS action at Harrah’s Hoosier Park

The Hoosier state’s 2021 freshman crop of 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings was on display at Harrah’s Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Sunday (July 11) as they opened their series in impressive fashion. The evening’s 13-race card featured three $47,500 divisions of the opening round of Indiana Sires Stakes for two-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

Soaring Now with driver, trainer LeWayne Miller stole the show after they were victorious in the second division of the stakes action and recorded the fastest mile of the season in the country for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings with a 1:51 clocking. Starting from post eight, Soaring Now got away mid-pack while the rest of the field sorted out early position. After allowing his colt to settle, Miller was able to give Soaring Now the green light down the backside and work out a perfect, second-over trip. Utilizing a :26.2 closing kick, Soaring Now powered to the wire to finish a half of a length in front of Fulflnmydestiny and James Yoder. As the heavy 1-5 favorite, Soaring Now returned $2.60 at the betting windows.

Owned by James Miller, the son of JK Endofanera—Sunflower recorded his third lifetime victory and remains undefeated in three starts. With a lifetime bankroll of $37,000, Soaring Now was bred by Luckiana Farms of Indiana.

In the opening division of the stakes action, Dalby Hanover made his first lifetime start an impressive one after he staged a big rally late in the lane to get up in the final strides of the mile and pull the 19-1 upset. With Joey Putnam in the bike, Dalby Hanover stopped the time in 1:53.1 and established a new lifetime best mark.

The son of Rockin Image—Dont Deny Me is owned by Charlies Stein and trained by Britney Dillon. With the win, Dalby Hanover has now earned $24,000 in his young career.

In the final division of the stakes action for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings, Ponda Warrior and Brandon Bates turned a pocket trip into a 1:51.3 victory. Utilizing an impressive :25.4 closing kick, Ponda Warrior finished two lengths to the good over The Longest Yard and Michael Oosting.

Trained by Jay Hochstetler, Ponda Warrior is now two for two at 2. Owned by Jay Hochstetler, Finkelberg Racing, and South Of The Tracks Racing, the son of Rockin Image—Sweetnsinful pushed his lifetime purse earnings to $28,000.

Powertrain overcame injury to earn Grassroots win

When Powertrain was injured in a freak paddock accident as a yearling, trainer Nick Gallucci and owner/breeder George Millar did not know if the pacing colt would survive, let alone go on to make a start in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) program.

Thanks to the tireless efforts of Millar Farms broodmare manager Steven Samis, Powertrain made a full recovery and on June 17, 2021 he made his racing debut, recording a 1:51.2 victory against other novice pacers at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Eleven days later he made a second start and delivered an impressive 1:49.3 victory. (replay here: Powertrain).

As a result of those efforts, when Powertrain stepped onto the racetrack for the 3-year-old pacing colt Grassroots season opener on Saturday (July 10), Woodbine Mohawk Park fans sent him off as their top choice. As he has done since recovering from his injury, Powertrain exceeded the expectations of his Stouffville, ON connections and powered down the stretch to a one-length victory in 1:50.1. Pacesetter Jimmy Connor B finished second and YS Do It Right was 11 lengths back in third.

"Everybody at the farm, all the staff, we've all been really excited about the horse," said Gallucci. "It's kind of a miracle that he's come this far. It makes it even that much more special for everybody."

With wins in all three of his starts, Gallucci said the son of Shadow Play and Mmillion Blue Chip may be looking at the Gold Series for his second start in the provincial stakes program. The second Grassroots Leg goes postward on July 24 at Woodbine Mohawk Park while the Gold Series colts meet up at Georgian Downs on July 25.

"We'll see how he comes out of this race and then we'll make a decision, but I've always thought of him to be a Gold horse. I just didn't really think he was quite ready to butt heads with Bulldog Hanover and the likes of those ones that raced up here last Saturday (July 3), so I just kind of took the, I guess you'd call it the more scared approach, and just tried to build the horse's confidence a little bit more," said Gallucci. "Right now he seems like everything we ask of him he's doing, far exceeding our expectations at this point. He's just a really fun horse to have right now and hopefully he can keep it together for the year. I think he's a pretty remarkable horse, so we'll see what he can do in the future."

The Millar Farms team was not finished visiting the winner's circle after Powertrain's win. The group was back in front of the Woodbine Mohawk Park fans after the fourth $22,850 Grassroots division.

Roy sent Cantstoplying right after the lead from Post 7 and had taken command before the :55.4 half. Comfortably in front at the 1:24.1 three-quarters, Cantstoplying drew away from the field of 11 to a 1:52.1 victory. Bettors Donttell finished two and three-quarter lengths behind the fan favorite in second and Twin B Powerball completed the top three. (replay here: Cantstoplying)

"He's always shown lots of ability, but at two he was immature and couldn't quite get everything together. Training, we would never be able to put him on the front in his set," said Gallucci. "Now that he's 3, he is really starting to put everything together. He knows what his job is and he likes doing it. He seems to be improving every start."

The win was Cantstoplying's third of the sophomore season and his second lifetime in the Grassroots program. He won one leg as a two-year-old and finished fifth in the season ending Grassroots Championship.

Fan favorite Proline opened Saturday's program with a two and one-quarter length win in the first $22,850 division, stopping the teletimer in a personal best 1:52. Saltwater Savage finished second and Premier Nacho was third (replay here: Proline).

"I was happy with his performance. First-up is not his trip, so to get a win is great," said driver Bob McClure of the gelding's move up the outer lane to reel in the leaders.

McClure drives the Sportswriter colt for trainer Luc Blais of Campbellville, ON and owner Determination of Montreal, QC. A two-time Grassroots winner at two, Proline finished second in the Grassroots Championship to current Gold Series competitor Second Bruiser.

In the third division Century Heineken was barely within hailing distance of the rest of the field when he tripped the teletimer at 1:51.4 for driver Doug McNair. Between I N U and Cadillac Bayama finished five and three-quarter lengths behind the fan favorite. (replay here: Century Heineken).

"He's coming around; he's starting to learn how to race. He used to be hard to handle, but he's starting to relax," said McNair. "He has a big motor."

"We've got an open bridle on him, he was wanting to do things quicker than we wanted to do them," added trainer Gregg McNair. "He's a real nice horse at home. He's aggressive enough sometimes in a race, or even sometimes warming up if there's a lot of horses around you, but overall he sure is a nice horse."

Father and son train and drive Century Heineken for Ross Family Farms Ltd. of Wingham, ON. Like Powertrain, Century Heineken did not race at two. Through six sophomore starts the son of Bettors Delight now has three wins and two seconds to his credit.

Another father and son team captured the last $22,850 division. Carl and Jody Jamieson teamed up with No Plan Intended, who rang up most of the fractions on their way to a 1:52.2 victory. Century Hannibal was one and one-quarter lengths back in second and Stonebridge Rex was three more lengths back in third. (replay here: No Plan Intended).

"He's missed about a month, but dad had him ready for tonight," said driver Jody Jamieson. "He needed a big effort to win a Grassroots and he gave one."

Up The Credit son No Plan Intended was a two-time Grassroots winner at two and Saturday's win was his fourth in six sophomore starts.

Talented babies impress in PA All-Stars at Pocono

The favorites got the job done impressively in each of three $35,000 divisions of the Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 2-year-old pacing colts during the Sunday (July 11) twilight card at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono.

Driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Nancy Takter each accounted for two of three divisions – though they teamed behind only one winner. That would be Wearinmysixshooter, a son of Captaintreacherous and the first foal of Just Like Kate, who has maternal generations of talented relations. Wearinmysixshooter won by only a neck, and went in "only" 1:53.2, but the victory showed the importance of fractions – Birthday got away with his own pace of :28.4, :58.2, and 1:26.4, but Wearinmysixshooter could quickly find a supersonic last 1/8 to catch the game pacesetter, coming his own back fractions in :54.3 - :26.1. A winner in a Pennsylvania Sire Stake in his only other purse start, Wearinmysixshooter is owned by Perry Soderberg.

Captaintreacherous is also a part of the pedigree of the other Tetrick winner, the Sweet Lou gelding JM's Finaltreasure, who like the "Captain" has Worldly Treasure as his dam. JM's Finaltreasure went patiently guided to the top after the :27.1 opener, rested to the half in :56.2, resisted a first-over challenge to the 1:24.3 three-quarters, and then paced home in :27.3 to finish in 1:52.1, a new mark. Ron Burke trains the winner for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, along with J&T Silva – Purnel & Libby and Phil Collura. JM's Finaltreasure had previously won a Home Grown division in 1:53.4 - :25.4 and then missed a head to Iddit Myway in a Sire Stakes contest.

Takter's second All-Star was a Sweet Lou colt out of the champion mare Economy Terror and thus a half brother to One Eight Hundred, Market Based. Dexter Dunn allowed the youngster to work to the lead past the :27.2 quarter, hung up middle fractions of :56.3 and 1:25, then hustled the horse home in :27.1 to take a new mark of 1:52.1. In his only other purse start (after a pair of 1:55 baby race wins) Market Based had the bad luck of suffering an interference break, but the freshman showed no ill effects and exhibited much talent, downshifting in early stretch impressively in winning here for Chuck Pompey, Ed Gold, and H&M Taylor Stable.

Talented pacing fillies go head-to-head in Grassroots opener

CL Sportsextreme started her Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) career with a win last July and the pacing filly kicked off her sophomore campaign in the same fashion with a 1:53.1 triumph at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Monday (July 12).

Starting from Post 4 in the first $22,850 Grassroots division, driver Chris Christoforou eased CL Sportsextreme away from the starting gate and settled in at the back of the 11-horse field. As Miami Seelster led the field through fractions of :26.2, :56 and 1:25.1, CL Sportsextreme made steady progress forward at the back of the line of fillies marching up the outer lane. By the three-quarter pole CL Sportsextreme was just four lengths behind the leader and a :27.1 finishing kick propelled her down the stretch to a one-half length victory over fan favorite Amini. Docs Delight was five lengths back in third. (replay here: CL Sportsextreme).

"She's a very good filly and I'm very proud for her because she took a good lifetime mark and a very good last quarter. It's good for a three-year-old filly like that," said trainer Dany Fontaine. "She is not a Gold, she's a Grassroots, but she's a good Grassroots. You can say nothing bad about her, you know, because it's only good. She's a little princess."

Fontaine, who makes his home in Terrebonne, QC, trains CL Sportsextreme for owner/breeder Ecuries C. LeBlanc Inc. of Saint-Eustache, QC. The win was CL Sportsextreme's first of 2021 and her connections will be hoping the Sportswriter daughter has kicked off a three-race Grassroots win streak for the second straight year.

In the second division favorite Good Night Moon recorded her first Ontario Sires Stakes win with a 1:53.2 effort from Post 8 that saw her reel in pacesetter Shiatzu Seelster in the stretch. Shes A Comedian completed the top three. (Replay here: Good Night Moon).

"She's a nice, big, strong mare. She has a lot of potential. She's really starting to come into her own and once again James (MacDonald) gave her a great drive, and away she went,” said trainer Jason Ryan of the filly’s personal best effort. “She’s well-bred and very lightly raced so hopefully she just keeps going forward.”

Driver James MacDonald engineered the Big Jim daughter’s second lifetime win for Ryan and owner 1187422 Ontario Inc. of Ottawa, ON. Raced twice at 2, in the first two Gold Series events, Good Night Moon has amassed a record of two wins and three seconds in five starts since making her sophomore debut.

Voluptuous also made her first appearance in the OSS winner’s circle with a 1:53 effort from Post 6 in the third division. The Sunshine Beach daughter and driver Doug McNair took command before the half and sailed home to a two and three-quarter length victory over Celia Bayama and Sports Duchess. (replay here: Voluptuous).

“She’s getting stronger every start. She’s been raced lightly and is on the right track,” said Guelph resident McNair, who drove the fan favorite to her second win in three sophomore starts for US-based trainer Tony Alagna. “Tony (Alagna) always has live stock to drive; it’s nice to get to drive them when I can.”

M T Pockets Stables of Pompano Beach and Victoria Howard of Boca Raton, FL bred and own Sunshine Beach daughter Voluptuous, who made just three starts at two, all of them south of the border.

The final Grassroots division went to Game Of Shadows and Louis-Philippe Roy, who drafted along in the outer lane behind Western Wish and Doug McNair before sprinting down the stretch to a 1:52 personal best. Favorite Saulsbrook Olympia was three-quarters of a length back in second and pacesetter A Better Game held on for third. (replay here: Game Of Shadows).

“She’s a very fast filly for a little piece, but she can quit when she gets tired. Tonight she was full of pace when I tipped her off Doug’s (McNair) helmet down the lane,” said Roy. “Richard (Moreau) and Lynn Cameron, her caretaker, have been doing a great job with her since she had tie-up issues earlier in the season.”

Roy shares ownership of the Shadow Play daughter with 1876472 Ontario Inc. of Guelph, ON, Michel Letarte of Boucherville and Jean Allaire of Montreal, QC. Richard Moreau of Puslinch, ON trains the filly, who was a Gold Series competitor at two.

Trainer Brian Brown collects three Buckeye Stallion Series wins

Trainer Brian Brown was a perfect three-for-three Monday (July 123) as he sent three 2-year-old pacers to the gate, and all came home winners.

Seven divisions of the 2-year-old pace were contested at MGM Northfield Park with each carrying a purse of $ 17,500.

In the first division, Dragon Fly Creek (Fear The Dragon) grabbed the lead at the halfway point and cruised to the win for Ronnie Wrenn Jr. and Brown in 1:56.4. The gelding is owned by Debbie Bird.

Brown’s second win came from Sea Luck (Downbytheseaside) in 1:56.1 with Ronnie Wrenn Jr. Sea Luck is owned by Country Club Acres, Milton Leeman, Joe Sbrocco and Acadia Farms.

The fastest win of the BSS went to another Brown pupil as Dirge (McArdle) was driven by Cameron McCown in 1:55.4. The colt is owned by Kirk Nichols and Tonya Nichols.

The half-brother to Charlie May (McArdle), Shane Falco by Racing Hill was a winner in 1:56.1 with Aaron Merriman for Steve Carter. The colt is owned by Don Tiger, who also owns Charlie May.

Josh Sutton combined with Timothy Lane to lead Moved Bythe Spirit (Western Vintage) to the winner circle in 1:58.2. The gelding is the property of Lane and Storm Haven.

The father/son combination of Jeff and Tyler Smith won the sixth division with Parklane Hill (Racing Hill) in 1:57.4 and paid the longest price of $12.40 to win. The gelding is owned by Shirley Le Vin.

The final division was won by the gelding Western Ready (Western Vintage) with Aaron Merriman for Scott Ferguson. Brendan Toops owns Western Ready.

The 16-race program saw drivers Tony Hall, Aaron Merriman and Ronnie Wrenn Jr. each win three races.

Governor's Plate 53 to Time To Dance

There was no stopping Time To Dance on his way to the winner's circle in the 53rd running of the Governor's Plate, presented by Summerside Chrysler Dodge, Saturday evening (July 10) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

Marc Campbell was aggressive from post 1, setting his trainee on the lead in the $25,000 final while forcing hard leaving Woodmere Ideal Art (Todd Trites) to get in the two-hole headed to the 27 second opening quarter. Day Delight (Gilles Barrieau) found himself caught on the outside as the field approached the half of :55.2 and that is when Time To Dance opened up on the lead going to the three-quarters of 1:24.3 and closing out the mile in 1:53.1. Rose Run Quest (Walter Cheverie) went up the passing lane in the stretch drive to finish eight-lengths back in second with Avatar J (Jason Hughes) rallying for third to complete the $157.20 triactor ticket. Brent Campbell of Charlottetown and Matt McDonald of Edwards, ON share ownership of the winning 5-year-old A Rocknroll Dance gelding, who scored his 23rd lifetime victory.

It was a five-win night for driver Campbell as he also won the $7,500 Bob Dewar Memorial Governor's Plate consolation with Imalookertoo in 1:53.2 for trainer Danny Romo and owner Robert Sumarah of Halifax, N.S.

Campbell's other wins came with Cyclone Alvie (1:58.1) for Ralph Sweet of O'Leary, Hunger Pangs (1:56.3) for trainer Hughie Murphy and with Roselily (1:54.4) from his own stable.

The Campbell barn had another large win on the evening in the $5,000 Ruby Chappell Memorial Open Pacing Mares final as Redmond Doucet picked up the catch drive on the Campbell trained Dreamfair Zenfire and got up in the final strides to win in 1:55.2 for owners Ryan and Everett MacLeod of Souris.

Woodmere Stealdeal (Campbell) tasted defeat for the first time in his 14-race career as he had to settle for second in a $16,400 Atlantic Sires Stakes A-division for 3-year-old colt pacers as Dustylanegoliath battled past in the stretch to win in 1:54. Gilles Barrieau trains and drives Dustylanegoliath for owner Daniel Ross of Belfast.

The other $16,400 A-division for sophomore colts saw Jadensmagicsteel (Myles Heffernan Sr.) deliver the biggest win of his career in 1:55.3 for Boys Will Be Boys Racing of Charlottetown and trainer Ron Gass. It was the third straight win for the son of Steelhead Hanover–Meridian Magic.

The $3,000 B-divisions of the Atlantic Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colts had Whistler (Hughes) prevail in 1:58 along with Silver Jake (Devon Wallace) in 1:58.3 in the other split.

Moonwriter (David Dowling) won the $3,100 Premier's Pace in 1:55.2 for trainer Colin Johnson while the Minister Of Finance Pace was claimed by Woodmere Beachline (Ken Murphy) in 1:56.2 from the Wade Sorrie stable.

The night had an all-time record handle for the Summerside Raceway with $120,231 wagered on the program.
