With two weeks to go, the complexion of the Hambletonian has changed

Neither Karl nor T C I are still shoe-ins and Canadian invader Highland Kismet also has question marks.

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Following a shocking turn of events in both divisions of the Stanley Dancer Memorial this past weekend as part of the Meadowlands Pace undercard, I'd almost go so far as to use the word 'dramatic' as to how the Hambletonian picture has changed. What was viewed just days ago as a two-horse race or even a single-horse race, the viability for many different horses is now real with Hambletonian eliminations a week from Saturday (July 27).

Despite his loss in the Dancer, the first defeat of his season and just the second of his career, Karl remains squarely as the one to beat in the Hambletonian. At least for now though, the thought of him being simply unbeatable has been quelled.

Looking back now, you could have taken Karl's win in the Reynolds at the end of June as a first sign of vulnerability. He went into that race following six-, four-, and seven-length margins of victory in his first three races of the year, but he won by only a length-and-a-half in the Reynolds. It's difficult to know how hard he was being used late in that race, but longshot Bright Star thought well enough to angle from the pocket and third-place finisher French Kronos was right there as well and he's not even staked to the Hambletonian. On Saturday (July 13), in the Dancer, Karl was beaten with an eighth-of-a-mile still to go and finished third.

Two races later, the second division of the Dancer figured to be a matchup between T C I and the upstart Goodtimes champion Highland Kismet, where the winner of the two would have been considered the most likely to rival Karl in the Hambletonian. With no real excuses for either, T C I could do no better than third and Highland Kismet finished last of all horses in the race that maintained their stride.

In sports betting odds, it would probably have been -20000 or even greater odds that Karl, T C I and Highland Kismet would finish neither first nor second in clean-run races. So, who exactly then has the door now been opened for?

One contender who has seen his stock rise in recent weeks is that of Situationship. Enough can't be said of that miraculous second-place effort in the Yonkers Trot from his race prior, and Situationship delivered in the Dancer after being bet down all the way to 9-5 off a 10-1 morning line. Trained and driven by Svanstedt, he was able to two-move to the lead, fight against an unused T C I from three-quarters onward and narrowly but bravely fend off all comers to the end. He's clearly trending in the right direction.

Another that will vault on everyone's Hambletonian radar will be Sig Sauer. I still remember how powerful his 2-year-old career debut was here at The Meadowlands last year, and he was a winner on last year's Hambletonian Day in the NJSS final. After racing evenly on June 29 for his first start since last September, he picked up cover of the would-be winner, actually gapped it a little bit in the stretch, but then came back on at the end to wind up paying $138 to win and $335.80 to place as Karl blew up the place pool. His winning time of 1:50 flat is a North American-best for 3-year-old trotters. That race could have been fluky or he could continue to get even better; who knows which one.

Security Protected is another that caught the eye in his Dancer division. The third best 2-year-old last year, he broke two back in the Yonkers Trot and then raced less than enthusiastically in the Zweig, but he seemed immensely better last weekend when he lacked room through the stretch right in behind Karl; raced encouragingly.

Others who come to mind that are within Hambletonian shouting distance include Secret Agent Man. Lightly tested thus far for Andy and Julie Miller, he was bet like a good thing

In sports betting odds, it would probably have been -20000 or even greater odds that Karl, T C I and Highland Kismet would finish neither first nor second in clean-run [Dancer] races. So, who exactly then has the [Hambletonian] door now been opened for?

when last seen a couple of weeks ago, in a nw2 race that he won in a fast time of 1:50.3. That race came two races after a big middle move in a race won by (non-Hambletonian eligible) Tony Adams S, who of course was powerful last weekend in the Dancer. Bright Star qualified to a win this past Friday and prior to that he did well for himself to trot not too far behind Karl; he's overachieved in his first five starts this year. Caballero has actually been pretty honest in every race this year when he's stayed flat, and he just missed springing the big upset in his Dancer division; still needs to show he can go a few ticks faster. Benny J put together an assertive 1:51.2 score early in last Saturday's card over fellow 1:52 Hambletonian-eligible winners Bella's Musclehill and Waterfall; seems to have improved steadily in recent weeks. Dame Good Time sprung the upset two back in the Zweig, capitalizing on the break from T C I. You don't hear much on Smart Schooner but he battled to a pretty fast 1:53.2 win at Chester a week ago where the top two were miles clear of everyone else.

Current Sturman Hambletonian future odds:

Karl: 6-5

Situationship: 5-1

T C I: 6-1

Sig Sauer 8-1

Highland Kismet: 10-1

Security Protected: 12-1

Secret Agent Man: 20-1

Bright Star: 25-1

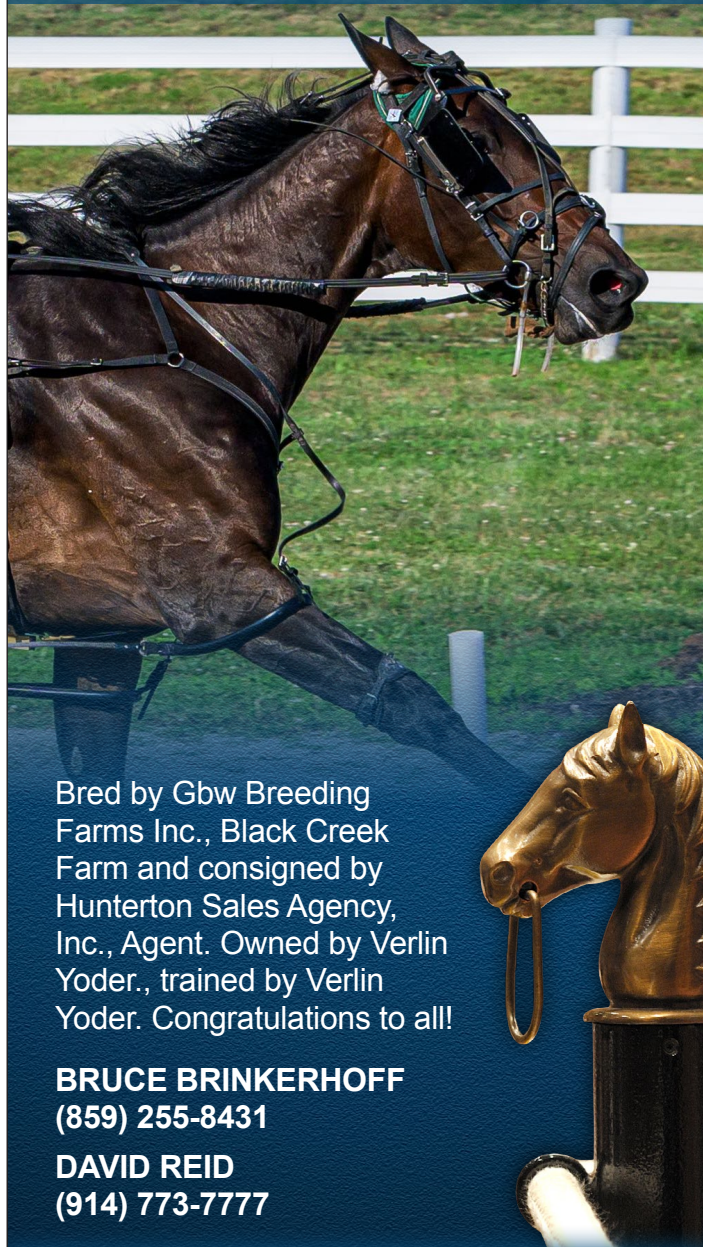

All other 3-year-olds: 10-1

A rich new juvenile race has everyone talking Down Under

by Adam Hamilton

The $500,000 Protostar – by far Australasia’s richest race for 2-year-olds – will be contested for the first time on Saturday (July 27) at Brisbane’s Albion Park.

Like so many new races, the Protostar is a slot race and has driven plenty of talk since it was launched late last year.

Some slot owners went early to lock-in their starter, while two of them – Leviathan owners Kevin and Kay Seymour and Terry Cluse – are without a confirmed pacer just days out from the race.

Kevin, a huge owner, breeder, sponsor and administrator in Queensland, is one of the Protostar’s most outspoken fans.

The Highlight Reel (Mark Pitt).

"I think the Protostar is going to change the face of the industry," he said. "We've been crying out for a half-million dollar 2-year-old race. It's the richest in the country and will bring together a fantastic field.

"All those with slots in the race, including myself and Kay who jumped at the chance to be part of it, will endeavor to get the best horses in the country to race at Albion Park.

"Looking at the horses already confirmed for the race, it's the best group of young horses we've seen come together in a long, long time. Certainly, the prize money has brought the best out in the country."

The Seymour slot is a fascinating one. Their best juvenile, Fate Awaits, will race in a rival slot, filling one of the two slots wagering giant and race sponsor Ladbrokes has in the 10-horse race.

Fate Awaits, a son of Always B Miki, won his first three starts and was the first confirmed slot starter in the Protostar.

"We've got some nice 2-year-olds, but he is the best of them," Kevin said. "We were happy to do an early deal with the offer Ladbrokes presented and it gives us the chance to take another one of ours to give us a second runner, if that's what we think is the best move. We'll know more after this weekend."

Maybe Seymour is referring to his Bettors Delight gelding Fire Raiser, who has raced four times for three wins and a second?

He tackles the last of the lead-up races and clashes with Fate Awaits – and some other exciting contenders – in the $52,000 Paleface Adios Classic (1660m) at Albion Park on Saturday night (July 20).

It will be another huge night for Seymour as he also owns Down Under's champion pacer Leap To Fame, who will be a hot favorite to win his second successive $200,000 Group 1 Sunshine Sprint.

And so much interest will be around Fate Awaits, who won his first three starts and then made the long trip from Brisbane to Hesitate (Damien Burns).

Melbourne where he finished third to current Protostar favorite, The Highlight Reel, in the $250,000 Nutrien Classic sales final on April 20.

Although Fate Awaits hasn't raced since that Melton race, he smashed the clock with a mile rate of 1:51.4 winning a 1660m Albion Park trial on July 12.

"He really is exciting," Kevin said. "I think the trip to Melbourne has made him a little better and his trial probably showed that.

"It's amazing how fast these 2-year-olds are going now. And Grant [Dixon] said he still had plenty left in the tank, too."

Parked right on Fate Awaits back in the trial was boom NSW filly Bittersweet, who looked to hit the line as strongly as the winner and with plenty still to offer.

Bittersweet, a daughter of Captainteacherous, won her first three starts including the $150,000 Group 1 Gold Tiara at Bathurst on May 30, lost no fans with a close second at her only race since at Wagga on June 28.

But Bittersweet will have to beat the boys on her merits. Unlike most of the new slot races Down Under, there is no preferential barrier draw advantage for a filly against the colts and geldings in the Protostar.

We get a much better guide where the Brad Hewitt-trained filly lines up against the boys when she starts from gate 3 in the Paleface Adios on Saturday night.

The Highlight Reel, a bargain $20,000 yearling purchase by exciting first season sire Poster Boy, is one of four Victorian-trained youngsters already locked-in for the Protostar.

The Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin-trained colt is unbeaten in three starts and brilliantly won the best juvenile race contested so far this season, that Nutrien final at Melton.

That night he zoomed clear in a mile rate of 1:54.7 for the longer 2240m trip and ripped home in :56.2 and :27.7.

The Highlight Reel, who will race in the Jamie Durnberger-Smith slot, hasn’t raced since May 24 win, but clocked a brisk mile rate of 1:55.1 winning a 1720m Melton trial on Monday night.

“He’s a real natural,” Stewart said. “He’s been our best since early on, he’s a real runner. Very fast.”

Stewart, who has dominated Australia’s juvenile races for much of the past decade, will have a second starter with the emerging Cigano.

The other Victorian pacers – Damien Burns’ Hesitate and Forty Love for trainer/driver Aaron Dunn – both head to Brisbane a week early to clash with Fate Awaits and Bittersweet in the Paleface Adios on Saturday night.

Hesitate, who has won three of five starts, grabbed the eye when he finished strongly in a :26.9 last quarter to get close to The Highlight Reel in last Monday’s Melton trial.

This hobbyist trainer Damien Burns will take the reins himself this week, but has booked premier driver Kate Gath for the Protostar.

Two-year-old racing may not be everyone’s cup of tea, but there’s no arguing the Protostar has been a great addition to Australia’s harness calendar.

It’s yet another example of the innovative nature of Racing Queensland and the Albion Park club.

They are also behind the recently unveiled Ultimate Driver Challenge, which has sparked great interest around the world, especially in North America.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Jesse Barnard has a hunger for harness racing success

by Chris Lomon

With an eye for talent, an ear for good advice and a good head on his shoulders, Jesse Barnard finds himself on the fast track to success in the standardbred world.

While his family tree is rich with harness racing DNA, the teenager from Canonsburg, PA, has, in some ways, branched out on his own in a sport he knows well.

Barnard's father, Robert, is a trainer. His mother, Tinamarie Gelly, who comes from the Canadian racing Turcotte family, trained pacers and trotters from 2002-07.

"My family has supported me so much," said Jesse, who also noted trainers Chris Shaw, Ashley Brown, Dirk Simpson and Tim Twaddle as helpful figures in his career. "If I have any questions, I ask my mom and dad, who are happy to help me. My dad has a barn of horses, so I can watch and learn every day. I also ask my sister, Savannah, questions too. All three have been in the business much longer than me. I owe a lot of my success to them."

While he might respectfully resist talking about himself too much, there is ample reason to believe the young horseman has the skill and will for a winning career.

Although his first race – the milestone dash was on June 15 at Circleville in Ohio – didn't pan out as expected, Jesse didn't hang his head in disappointment when he crossed the wire.

Instead, he saw the result as a teachable moment.

"My first drive, I planned on going to the front," he said. "I got parked and ended up going back to last. I learned that the hard way."

Undaunted, the young driver picked himself up, dusted himself off, and set his sights on the next opportunity.

Courtesy Jesse Barnard
Driver Jesse Barnard
(wearing colors) and friends.

“It’s always fun to develop young horses. I like that side of the business. It’s fun to figure them out. There is always that ‘What if?’ factor when it comes to seeing if they will become a superstar or a solid horse. The whole point of me buying younger horses is to develop them the best that I can.”

~ Jesse Barnard

After four starts, he teamed with a familiar face in Dig Deep, a bay pacing filly he bought as a 2-year-old in 2023.

On June 26, the two took to the Butler racetrack named after the city it calls home, located about 35 miles north of Pittsburgh.

This time, going to the front was not an option.

“There were seven horses in the race, and I was the trailer,” Jesse said. “I followed the rail horse, but it couldn’t keep up with the leader, so I moved around, and sat in second. At about the three-quarter pole, I popped out and we won.”

The victory played out in front of a vocal cheering section.

“My family was there with me,” Jesse said. “It was a nice moment to share with them.”

Less than 20 drives into his career, the young man who holds status as both a driver and trainer, is committed to improving his crafts daily.

The proof of his labor is found in the racing charts and on the training track.

“Dig Deep just won three in a row at the fairs,” Jesse said. “The first time, I sat the 2-hole and blazed by in the final quarter. The last two times she has won on the front. She is getting very brave, and I think she will be able to handle the step up in class at the fairs.”

The daughter of Heston Blue Chip doesn’t mind the spotlight in the least.

“She likes taking pictures,” Jesse said. “There are these two young girls – their mom works for [trainer] Bill Daugherty – and they love taking pictures with her. She will pose for the photos. She just loves that attention.”

And then there is Dine With Kings.

The bay son of Stay Hungry has afforded Jesse a welcome chance to expand his racing education.

“Dine With Kings, I bought him off Cory Stratton last year in October,” Jesse said. “He has been more of a project horse, but he is fun to figure out. It’s a big part of the game, trying to figure out these horses, but he gives it his all every time. He’s a solid horse.”

Jesse, who has posted a pair of training wins at The Meadows, views his work with his sophomores as assembling a puzzle.

“It’s always fun to develop young horses,” he said. “I like that side of the business. It’s fun to figure them out. There is always that ‘What if?’ factor when it comes to seeing if they will become a superstar or a solid horse. The whole point of me buying younger horses is to develop them the best that I can.”

“Dine With Kings saw some stakes action at 2, but I never put that in my mind that it was my expectation. I just wanted him to be a solid competitor.”

Mission accomplished.

When he speaks of goals with his two horses and others, Jesse is a man with a plan.

“Short-term goals are to get Dig Deep to the fair finals and to get Dine With Kings going and developing him,” he said. “I am trying to build a bigger stable. I’m saving up money to buy some prospects to develop, and I plan on driving everything that I train so that I can get the full harness racing experience.”

And he will do it all sporting an on-track look that is an homage to his parents.

“My colors are based on my dad’s colors,” Jesse said. “My dad combined his idea with the Turcotte colors and then made his own version. I took his colors and modified the look a little bit.”

When he’s not in the barn, in the race bike or at the races, Jesse is at the gym, keeping his body in peak condition.

But he also has another area of interest, one that feeds his appetite for the world of gastronomy.

“I try to get in the gym as much as I can, but I am a big food lover too,” he said. “If there is a food convention, I am always there.”

As for his ideal dinner and dinner guests, Jesse opted for a favorite cuisine and a familiar trio.

“I love Mexican food, so I would like that, maybe burritos and other dishes,” he said. “I would choose my mom, dad and sister; good family and good food.”

Which makes perfect sense for someone who has set the table for a long and prosperous career in standardbred racing.

Don Fanucci Zet splendid in Mikkeli

by Thomas Hedlund

Daniel Redén's trainee Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin—Kissed By The West) proved best when Mikkeli's $150,000 St. Michel Ajo was contested on Sunday (July 14). One of Finland's more interesting races for older elite trotters usually ends up as a speedy affair where the winner often hits a 1:51 or faster mile mark. That was true again this year.

Alessandro Gocciadoro sent quick opener Denver Gio to the front with Castor The Star following on his back. That left Don Fanucci Zet in position first over, which also was according to plan, at least in terms of pre-race speculation.

Örjan Kihlström looked pretty confident on the leader's outside as the field turned into the last turn and the three horses in front left the rest of the gang some lengths behind at the top of the stretch. Don Fanucci Zet easily bested Denver Gio and sprinted to an impressive win in 1:50.3, holding runner up Castor The Star in a length's distance. Mellby Jinx finished third after a strong finish from third over. Replay here.

The story of Don Fanucci Zet seems never ending. Bred by Redén's company Brixton Medical AB and owned by the same company, Don Fanucci Zet continues to claim group 1 events in Europe. The 8-year-old colt would be very interesting to see on a mile track, maybe one day in America.

With his pace blood, it's proven that Don Fanucci Zet can handle all sorts of distances and he is for sure one of the best mile trotters in Europe.

HOHNECK BACK AS A WINNER

Philippe Allaire's Hohneck (Royal Dream), who won Elitloppet in 2023, was winless in 2024 before he entered Enghien's $130,000 Prix de Washington on Saturday (July 13) afternoon, but he finally broke through for his first win of the year.

The Prix de Washington mile race attracted several top horses from France, including Go On Boy, Hohneck and Ampia Mede

Sm. Hohneck was the one who was sent to the lead by Gabriele Gelormini.

Go On Boy got a perfect cover trip in second over, with Ampia Mede Sm following behind. When the latter attacked three wide with 700 meters to go, the excitement rose. Go On Boy's ability to finish strongly has been proven several times, but even if he did his best to capture the leader, Hohneck never really was seriously challenged for the win. Allaire's top trotter came home in 1:51.1. Go On Boy was second and Ampia Mede Sm third. Replay here.

AMERICAN-BRED CLICK BAIT SHOWS NEW STYLE

Stefan Melander-trained Click Bait (Cantab Hall—Fun At Parties), bred by Hanover Shoe Farms' Russell Williams in Pennsylvania, has been at the top of the game for a long time and summer always brings out his best.

Click Bait, a quick opener and front runner, showed new attributes when he claimed the $100,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp in Årjäng, Sweden. Per Lennartsson drove the 8-year-old and started behind horses from post 9, which meant that Click Bait had to carve out his own path three wide up the backstretch and throughout the last turn.

Leader Beartime was beaten by outside trotter Hail Mary as the field turned for home and Click Bait looked strong three wide at that point. Lennartsson then relaxed coming home as Click Bait easily sprinted to a 1:53 win, ahead of Hail Mary and Theresnolimit.

Click Bait has battled in a very strong crop that includes Hail Mary, Don Fanucci Zet, Aetos Kronos, Brother Bill and Power and it seems like the American-bred trotter is growing stronger every new season – at least when it comes to the summer months. Melander has said Click Bait is just like his owner (Melander) – someone who needs a lot of clothes during the colder parts of the year in Sweden.

Ryder Stable plays host to event for preschoolers

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

The Chris Ryder Stable welcomed more than two dozen preschoolers from Fantazja Przedszkole, a bilingual daycare center for Polish-American and Ukrainian children located in Trenton, to Winners Training Center to meet and learn about standardbred horses last week.

Harry Ryder, the son of Patrick Ryder and Nadia Tarnawa, attends the daycare.

Patrick Ryder did a presentation with 4-year-old female pacer Lisa Lane, teaching the children about horses and horse care before putting on the mare's harness and jogging her. He also took children for rides around the farm in a Gator while Nadia brought children through the barn so children could brush the horses and feed them horse snacks.

In addition, the children were treated to snacks and activities that included a bounce house and games.

The children, who had no prior knowledge of horses and spent two hours at the farm, all left with a USTA standardbred coloring book, Hambletonian stuffed pony, and other items.

Patrick and Nadia believe it is never too early to start introducing new generations to standardbred horses and harness racing.

"Before I met Patrick and his family, I had no prior experience or knowledge about harness racing," Nadia said. "The entire industry seemed extremely intimidating. Now that I work for the Hambletonian Society [as staking manager] and am more involved in the sport, Patrick and I want to introduce new people/children to the sport who might feel like this is out of their reach. Hopefully, we will be able to create more of these kinds of events in the future."

Century Lucifer battles back for OSS Gold score

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Century Lucifer showed his determination again on Monday (July 15) to win the $140,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

An overflow field of 11 rookie male pacers competed in Monday's second Gold leg of the OSS season. Opening leg winner Stonebridge Wizard went off as the even-money favorite, while the other first leg winner Century Lucifer went to the gate at odds of 6-1.

Century Lucifer and driver Tyler Borth shot out from post 5 to grab command, posting a :27.2 opening-quarter. After getting an easy :29.3 second-quarter, Century Lucifer ramped things up as Stonebridge Wizard moved first-up from third with Sterling Choice spotted on his back second-over.

After reaching three-quarters in 1:25.3, Century Lucifer was put under extreme pressure in the lane by Stonebridge Wizard and the far outside challenger Sterling Choice. Stonebridge Wizard appeared to edge ahead, but Century Lucifer dug in and fought back late to win by a head in 1:53.1.

Sterling Choice finished just three-quarters of a length back in third, while Fifth And Five was fourth.

A son of Shadow Play, Century Lucifer is trained by Rene Dion and has now won two in a row at the Gold level. His win on July 5 was a game effort, making multiple moves without any rest and winning by a neck.

"I like him better off a helmet and they had asked me if I could be off a helmet tonight, but just the way the rest set up and had the middle of the gate," said Borth about the trip for Century Lucifer. "They were actually ahead of me down the lane and my guy fought back on and dug in and beat them..."

"I just think he kind of waits on them on the front. He wears a blind bridle and when he could see [Stonebridge Wizard] in front of him I could feel him kick back into gear and I thought we had a shot."

A $25,000 Lexington Select Yearling purchase, Century Lucifer is owned by S&R Racing Stable, Marc Trudeau, SMS Ventures and M And L of Delaware. He's now earned $119,420 in three starts. The time of 1:53.1 was a new career best.

Century Lucifer paid $14.70 to win.

Woman Of Passion crushes Oak Grove track record in KYSS final

by Oak Grove racing publicity

Oak Grove hosted eight $100,000 finals of the Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) for 2- and 3-year-olds on Sunday (July 14), a card that saw the track record for 3-year-old trotting fillies destroyed when odds-on choice Woman Of Passion won her KYSS final convincingly early on the card.

Woman Of Passion (driven by Scott Zeron) zipped for the lead out of post 6 and cleared to the top past a :26.3 first quarter before gearing down for a breather to a :55.3 half. As the tempo softened, Black Velvet As (Marvin Luna) angled first over out of third and marched after Woman Of Passion moving to three-quarters in 1:23.4. Black Velvet As remained persistent around the final turn but begrudgingly gave way off the bottom corner to Woman Of Passion, who then strode in a winner by a length in 1:51.4. Tove Palema (Andy Miller) settled for third in a tight photo with Black Velvet As and Stella Volo (Dexter Dunn) checked in fourth.

Carter Pinske trains Woman Of Passion, a daughter of Walner out of the Donato Hanover mare Womans Will, for owner/breeder Al Libfeld. She won her seventh race from 16 starts, has now banked $154,449 and paid $3.70 to win. Her 1:51.4 mile lowered the track record for sophomore trotting fillies of 1:53 previously held in a three-way tie between Blue Bayou Deo, Mambacita and Youhadmeathalo.

Zeron led all drivers in KYSS action with a total of three wins in the finals. After scoring with Woman Of Passion, he capitalized off a heated tempo with Defining Moment to win the 3-Year-Old Filly Pace in 1:50.2. Getting away fifth, Defining Moment stayed steady while odds-on favorite Bath Bomb (Yannick Gingras) and Direction (Todd McCarthy) quarreled through opening fractions of :26 and :53.4. Defining Moment moved wide to catch Direction's cover briefly up the backside before pouncing to grab the lead from Bath Bomb past three-quarters in 1:21.4 and draw away from her competition. Defining Moment strolled in a 2¾-length winner over Capytreach (Andy Miller) rallying down the center of the track for second. Real Deal Lindy (Marcus Miller) caught the live tow to take third and Bath Bomb held fourth.

Mark Herron

Woman Of Passion (Scott Zeron) setting a 1:51.4 Oak Grove track record while winning the $100,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Sunday.

A filly by JK Endofanera out of the Bettors Delight mare Crucial Moment, Defining Moment collected her fifth win from 16 starts and has now earned $122,009 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Frank Baldachino and Larry Karr. She paid $11.02 to win and was the second of trainer Ron Burke's three wins in KYSS finals.

Zeron's third KYSS win of the day came in the 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace when he powered off a pocket ride with Eric Patalan trainee Arson to a 1:50.1 score. Arson pushed for position from the pylon post and perched into the pocket behind Total Stranger (Gingras) while he cut a quick clip of :26.2, :54.2 and 1:22. Zeron pulled Arson out of the pocket midway up the backstretch, powered to the lead through the final turn and carried his speed all through the lane to win by 1¾ lengths over Swaggy Cal (Dunn), who closed from second over for second. Better Is Nice (Andy McCarthy), the 6-5 favorite, also closed to take third and Copperfield (Marcus Miller) came from near last for fourth.

Arson, a colt by Captaintreacherous out of the Western Hanover mare Western Montana, has now won 13 races from 20 starts and banked $250,850 for owners TheStable Arson Group and Hutchison Harness LLC. He paid $4.80 to win.

Burke's KYSS hat trick began in the first final of the afternoon when Lew Hauber (Dunn) lasted on the lead to take the 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace in 1:52.3. Dunn secured the top with Lew Hauber to a :27.3 first quarter and carved a sensible tempo of :56.2 and 1:24.3 while then withstanding a late charge from first-over Doc's Buddy (Andy McCarthy) to win by a half-length at the beam. Realmenwearblu (Gingras) sat a pocket trip for third and Dark Soul (Lewayne Miller) took fourth.

A homebred Sweet Lou colt out of the Third Straight mare Lakeisha Hall, Lew Hauber races for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci and Jack Piatt II. He's now unbeaten from three starts, has earned $75,000 and paid $3.42 to win.

Burke's other win came as a stunner when Karma (Todd McCarthy) surged by 1-9 favorite Skywalker Sea to win the 2-Year-Old Filly Pace in 1:52.1. Skywalker Sea failed to settle once clearing the lead past a :26.4 first quarter and remained headstrong through a :55 half and 1:22.2 three-quarters. On fumes into the lane, Skywalker Sea endured a blitz from Karma as she kicked out of third and went by the weary pacesetter to win by 2¼ lengths. Accede (Dunn) finished third and Hip Shot (Zeron) faltered off a pocket trip for fourth.

Karma, a daughter of Tall Dark Stranger out of the American Ideal mare Alexis Faith, won her first race in just her second start and has now earned $53,200 for owners Thomas and Scott Dillon. She paid $52.26 to win.

Todd McCarthy also scored back-to-back KYSS final wins when he guided Pinske trainee Bank On Me to a narrow front-stepping win in the 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot. McCarthy secured the lead with Bank On Me out of post 6 past a :27 first quarter and held command as he slowed tremendously to a :58 half. He accelerated up the backside to click past three-quarters in 1:27.3 but soon faced a fierce pocket-popping challenge in the stretch from Memento Mori (Zeron). Bank On Me kept chugging through the lane as Memento Mori surged and clung to a nose win at the beam in 1:57.1 with Louise's Legacy (Marcus Miller) saving ground to grab third from Shoe Shine Willie (Dunn) in fourth.

Bank On Me, a gelding by Chapter Seven from the Yankee Glide mare Overdraft Volo, broke his maiden in his second start and has now earned $60,000 for owners Pinske Stables, Enzed Racing Stable Inc. and Lizanne Waples. He paid $14.08 to win.

Hung Over (Luna) notched a front-stepping win in the 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot final with a 1:54 mile. Luna swooped to the point past a :27.3 first quarter and cruised through middle sectionals of :57.4 and 1:25.4 while Mister Dad (Dunn) climbed first over from third to try and cut into the loose leader's margin. Mister Dad eventually levelled off from his bid through the final turn, leaving Hung Over to coast in a two-length winner over Mister Dad with International Law (Marcus Miller) closing for third and Crown Monarch (Andy McCarthy) finishing fourth.

Bob Stewart trains Hung Over, a colt by Creatine out of the Yankee Glide mare Drunkard's Dream. He's now won seven times from 15 starts and earned $232,493 for owners Bluestone Farms LLC and Lynda Stewart. He paid $7.76 to win.

Verlin Yoder also survived on the lead with Yo Tillie as she rolled in a 1:54.2 winner in the 2-Year-Old Filly Trot. Yo Tillie took control from Stacking Green (Zeron) past a :27.3 first quarter and motored on an uncontested lead to a :56.4 half and 1:25.2 three-quarters. Voguish (Gingras), the 6-5 favorite, attempted to make inroads first over but folded turning for home as Yo Tillie gathered her speed and set down for the line. Aperfect Annie (Todd McCarthy) uncoiled a wicked rally down the center of the track late, prompting Yoder to give Yo Tillie a few taps of the whip to keep her to task and to hold on by a half-length at the beam. Stacking Green took third and Sound Judgement (Jim Oscarsson) finished fourth.

Yo Tillie, a daughter of Tactical Landing out of the Triumphant Caviar mare Consolidator, races for owner/trainer Yoder. She's now unbeaten from four starts, has banked $94,500 and paid $6.58 to win.

Burke led all trainers on Sunday's card. Along with his hat trick in the KYSS finals, Burke won in the opener with Kimpanzee (Gingras) in 1:56.3 to make it four wins on the day.

Lets Go Endofaera takes Sire Stakes, Ponda Jet smashes track record at Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

The stars put on a show at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Saturday (July 13) with Lets Go Endofaera taking the $95,500 fourth leg of Indiana Sire Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies and Ponda Jet becoming the fastest trotter in Hoosier Park history in the $21,000 open trot.

Let's Go Endofaera emerged atop a wild scramble in the single $95,500 fourth round of Indiana Sire Stakes for the sophomore pacing fillies. Driver John De Long tucked Lets Go Endofaera into the third position off the gate while Jada Caroline (Marvin Luna) led to the quarter in :26.3 under presser from Teelatini (Pete Wrenn). Teelatini cleared on the backstretch to lead to the half in :54.4 while Flirtin Fanera (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) tipped from fifth to establish the outer-flow. Teelatini continued to lead the field to three-quarters in 1:23 as Lets Go Endofaera found herself buried third in line on the rail and fifth overall turning for home.

In the stretch, Flirtin Fanera put away Teelatini before Lyin' Eyes (Joey Putnam) tipped off her back to make her move while Lets Go Endofaera still desperately searched for room behind the leaders. Daylight finally came in the final sixteenth to Lets Go Endofaera who was able to explode home in :26.1 through a tight gap in between Flirtin Fanera and Jada Caroline to cross the line 1½ lengths clear in a lifetime best 1:49.4. Lyin' Eyes got up for second, Jada Caroline third, and Flirtin Fanera rounded out the superfecta tickets in fourth. Lets Go Endofaera paid $10 for the victory.

The victory was the third in four seasonal outings for the Tabby De Long trainee. The daughter of JK Endofanera—Let's Go Higher is owned by John and William C DeLong, along with breeder Jesse De Long. A winner of the Super Final at age 2, Lets Go Endofaera now sports a lifetime bankroll of $388,540 following her eighth career victory.

The open served as the eighth race on the evening, where Ponda Jet returned to his homebase to team up with driver Kyle Wilfong as the 3-5 favorite in the field of six. Leaving from post 5, Wilfong wasted little time getting to the front, reaching the first quarter in a sizzling :26.2. Wilfong kept his foot on the gas on the way to the halfway point in :54.2 as second-choice Lexus Kody (Devon Tharps) tipped to the outside from last to begin the trek first-over. Ponda Jet led the charge into the final turn to reach three-quarters first in 1:22.2 as Lexus Kody worked ever-closer, moving into third on the outside.

The battle was on turning for home, with Lexus Kody reaching the wheel of Ponda Jet at the top of the stretch. Ponda Jet responded gamely to the challenge, battling to the wire with a :27.3 final quarter to fend off Lexus Kody by a half-length in 1:50. Flagman (Rick Plano) finished in the show position.

Trained by Jay Hochstetler, Ponda Jet has now won three of 10 on the season for owners Connie Hochstetler, Robert Buddig and Allen Schwartz. The 4-year-old gelded son of Dover Dan—Ponda's Lucky Lady has now banked $457,162 lifetime following his 12th career victory.

The 1:50 clocking lowered the all-time trotting track record of 1:50.3 previously established by Whata Swan in May of 2022 and matched by It's Academic in the 2023 Caesars Trotting Classic. Ponda Jet also lowered the previous track record for an older trotting gelding of 1:51 established by Flagman in July of 2023.

Merriman and Beaver double up in Ohio Sires Stakes action at MGM Northfield Park

by Frank Fraas / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Aaron Merriman and Chris Beaver teamed up to win two of the four $50,000 divisions in the Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old colt trotters Monday evening (July 15) at MGM Northfield Park. The pair won the opener with Uncle Moneybags and won the final division with Caviar Creek.

Merriman took Uncle Moneybags to the lead off the gate and was making it look easy through the first half mile with fractions of :29.4, and 1:00.3. As the field headed up the backstretch, Brett Miller pulled the favorite Rose Run Ari three-wide taking aim at the leader. Around the final turn, Rose Run Ari pulled even with Uncle Moneybags, but could not gain the lead. After fighting off the challenge from Rose Run Ari down the stretch, Uncle Moneybags held off a late-charging Silverton and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. to win by a length in 1:59.3. It was the first win in two starts for Uncle Moneybags. Beaver co-owns the Uncle Peter gelding with Barry Carter, VIP Internet Stables, and Tim Homan.

Silverton was second with Rose Run Ari third.

In the final division of the night, Merriman raced Caviar Creek to the lead but yielded to 1-5 favorite Whats Shakin and Ronnie Gillespie, settling into the pocket. Whats Shakin cut fractions of :29, :59, and 1:28.3 through the first three-quarters. Around the final turn, Rose Run Arch and Wrenn swung wide to take a shot at the lead, but Merriman took Caviar Creek down the passing lane blowing by Whats Shakin to win by a length in 1:58.4. It was the first win of the year from the son of Triumphant Caviar. Beaver co-owns Caviar Creek with Steve Zeehandlar, Leo Fleming, and Mark Schwartz.

Rose Run Arch finished second while Whats Shakin faded to third.

In the second division, Lt Loverboy and Kurt Sugg grabbed the lead off the gate but watched as Chris Page with Rose Run Alex went by to lead after a :29.3 opening quarter. The lead didn't last long as Lt Loverboy retook the lead and never looked back cruising to an easy two-length win in 1:58.3. Lt Loverboy has hit the board in all three starts winning two. Daren Harvey trains the Long Tom gelding for Wayne Mast, Jr. and Callam Racing.

Rose Run Alex was second with What A Buckeye finishing third.

Quintuplet with Wrenn had an easy time in the third division as five of the seven starters made breaks. Quintuplet won by four lengths in 1:59.1 for his second win in as many starts. Rosy Weaver trains the son of What The Hill for Mark Martin and Patricia Jury.

Seven Lick Tom finished second with Dublins Angel recovering to finish third.

Ohio Sires Stakes action continues tonight at MGM Northfield Park with the third leg for 3-year-old filly trotters. The first race post time is 6 p.m.

FIRST 2YO OHSS RACES AT SCIOTO DOWNS FOR COLT AND FILLY PACERS

Five divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-olds were held at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Saturday (July 13). Three divisions of colts went for $50,000 while two divisions of fillies went for $65,000 each. Trainer Ron Burke teamed up with driver Chris Page to win four of the five events.

Two of the winners won The Next Generation last weekend, and stayed a perfect two-for-two in lifetime starts.

The Word Is Out won her split in 1:55.3. Queen Of Fear (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) took the early lead towards the :28.4 opening quarter. Not content to sit in the pocket, Page pulled The Word Is Out and they tripped the beam in :58.4 and 1:28.3 before pulling off the victory by three-quarters-of-a-length. Queen Of Fear was a close second with Prolific Fire (Brett Miller) getting up for third. The Word Is Out was a $24,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase and in her two lifetime starts has $107,500 in earnings. The Well Said filly is owned by Burke Racing, Knox Services, Beasty and R A S Racing.

Swingtown, the other Next Generation winner, took his Sires Stakes event in 1:52.1. Copper Penny (Wrenn, Jr.) took the field to the :27.3 quarter and :57.2 half. Page pulled Swingtown going down the backside but by the 1:24.4 third quarter was still four lengths off. The Downbytheseaside colt powered home in :26.3 to win under a hand drive by three-quarters-of-a-length over Copper Penny; Whatchagonnado (Aaron Merriman) came three-wide around the last turn to get up for third. Swingtown is owned by Burke Racing, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services and R A S Racing.

Burke and Page teamed up to sweep the colt divisions by winning with Sippinonsearoc in 1:52.3 and Rick Wink in 1:52.1.

In the first division of colts, Spiritshappyending (Tyler Smith) took the early lead from post 4, but yielded to Fabio Hanover (Wrenn, Jr.) by the :28 quarter. Page pulled Sippinonsearoc before going under the line for the first time and comfortably made the front before the :56 half. They hit the three-quarters in 1:24.2 and won by 2¾ lengths. Spiritshappyending came back to finish second but was placed back to fourth for going inside the passing lane too early; Fabio Hanover was third placed second, with Bars And Notes (Austin Hanners) fourth placed third. Sippinonsearoc, by Downbytheseaside, was a $77,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase and is owned by Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci, R A S Racing and Knox Services.

Pants On Fire (Wrenn, Jr.) left sharply from post 8 in the second division of colts to catch the early top spot. Page had Rick Wink out and moving from the 4-hole just as the field hit the :27.2 opening quarter. The duo took the lead going under the wire for the first time and hit the half in :56 and three-quarters in 1:24.3. Pants On Fire came out of the 2-hole and was charging hard but came up a nose short; Cruisinovertire (Smith) finished third. Rick Wink, by Bit Of A Legend N, was a $27,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase and is owned by Burke Racing, R A S Racing, Knox Services, J&T Silver-Purnel & Libby.

The lone non-Burke trainee to win a Sires Stakes event Saturday was Odds On Hialeah who took the first division of fillies in 1:52.2.

Goodnight Dance (Wrenn, Jr.) left off the gate from post 4 to take the early lead. Sea Her Rule (Merriman) went wide around the first turn and just made the top at the :27 quarter. Just at the :56 half Downthejerseystore (Luke Hanners) came first up with Odds On Hialeah coming second over. By the 1:24.3 third quarter, Downthejerseystore had a nose in front but around the last turn, Odds On Hialeah went three wide and took off to win by an impressive 10-length margin. Witching Blue Chip (Trevor Smith) got up for second with Rose Run Ashlee (Page) finishing third. Odds On Hialeah is owned by Odds On Racing and trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. The Lather Up filly prepped with two qualifiers and a win in the non-winners of one on July 5, winning in 1:54.4.

HANNERS BROTHERS CLAIM BUCKEYE STALLION SERIES WINS

The Hanners brothers, Luke and Austin, each collected a win in the Buckeye Stallion Series Monday (July 15) at MGM Northfield Park. The five $20,000 divisions of freshman pacing fillies closed out the first leg of the BSS.

Luke Hanners set the winning standard in the third division by driving Maa Honey to victory. Not to be outdone by his younger brother, Austin guided Racin Like A Star to the winner's circle in the fourth division.

Maa Honey sat fifth, seven lengths off the lead at the half before moving into contention up the backstretch. The daughter of Well Said went three-wide around the final turn to grab the lead. At 8-1, Maa Honey kept her momentum going, opening up to win in 1:56.3 by 2½ lengths. Tyler Bates trains the filly for Sean Mcghee and Suzanne Bates. The victory was the fourth career win in five starts for Maa Honey. Big Bad Beachbunny (Kurt Sugg) was second with Four Carat Rock (Dan Noble) finishing third.

In the next division, Austin made it look easy, taking 1-2 Racin Like A Star wire-to-wire for the win. The Racing Hill filly set fractions in :29, :58.4, and 1:28 before defeating brother Luke and Trunk Bay Hanover by a length in 1:57.1. It was the first career win for Racin Like A Star who is trained by Steve Carter and owned by Jeff Fought Racing, Adam Friedland, and Hunter Holton. Trunk Bay Hanover was second while Rose Run Alexandra (Anthony MacDonald) was third.

Pink Jammies with Hunter Myers took the first division in 1:58.2. After an early miscue from the 1-5 favorite Gorgeous Package, 12-1 Pink Jammies found herself on the lead for a brief moment. After settling into a pocket trip behind Whiskey Hill, the daughter of Fear The Dragon snuck into the passing lane to overtake her competitors in the final strides. It was the second win for Pink Jammies. Rosy Weaver trains and co-owns the filly alongside Heartland Acres. Gorgeous Package (MacDonald) rallied for second with Whiskey Hill (Luke Ebersole) third.

Maddie's Delite raced to the lead out of the gate and never looked back in the second division. Driven by Noble, the 1-5 favorite fought off challenges down the backside to win in 1:56.2. It was the third win in four starts for the Lather Up filly. Carter trains for Scp Stable. It was a dead heat for second between Spinal Cracker (Trevor Smith) and Lily Grace Hill (Aaron Merriman).

In the final division of the night, Cameron McCown worked 9-1 Guard The Fire through the field from sixth place on the backside. The daughter of Catch The Fire went four-wide around the final turn and charged down the stretch to win by 2½ lengths in 1:56.4. Guard The Fire was making her first career start for trainer Brian Brown. The filly is owned by Hutchison Harness. Fear My Heart (Luke Hanners) was second with Downbytheeastside (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) third.

Sister Mary Maude makes short work of short field in NYSS event at Monticello Raceway by Monticello Raceway media

While many of the upper echelon New York-sired fillies were absent due to competing in the Delvin Miller Memorial over the weekend at The Meadowlands, Sister Mary Maude made short work of a short field Monday afternoon (July 15) in a New York Sire Stake event for 3-year-old trotting fillies at Monticello Raceway.

Sister Mary Maude, the heavy 1-9 favorite ambled from the gate by driver Joe Bongiorno in no great hurry, eventually making the top past the opening panel of :28.2 over Sadbirdstillsing (Jason Bartlett). From that point she controlled the tempo through moderate splits of :58.4 and 1:28.2. Sister Mary Maude was well in command throwing down a last quarter of :28.1 to seal the deal by two lengths in 1:56.3 over the pocket sitting Sadbirdstillsing and Hippie Shack (Tyler Buter) in third. The Crazy Wow—Perfect Mass filly is trained by Ron Burke and paid $2.20 in her second consecutive NYSS win. The win pushed her seasonal earnings to over $171,500.

Also contested were three divisions of the $20,000 Excelsior Series. The first split saw Nymeria (Buter) starting from post 4, take the lead just past the brisk first quarter in :28.2 after which she was uncontested for the remainder of the mile. The favorite, Communion Money, was never a factor and Nymeria cruised home a three-length winner in 1:56.4. The Travis Alexander trained Chapter Seven—Zette Minx paid $8.10 in her second Excelsior win of the year.

Dozen (Buter) put forth the most impressive mile of the afternoon, after sitting fourth during the early part of the mile while the 4-5 co-favorite Central Park (Tyler Miler) cut the mile with splits of :30 and 1:01. At the five-eighths pole, Buter tipped the filly to the outside after Central Park suddenly had two lengths separation over Lady Eight in the 2-hole. Dozen began to make up a lot of ground very quickly and by the top of the stretch she was three lengths from the leader. The Nancy Takter trainee was conditioned well enough to blow right past Central Park for the win in 1:59.1. Dozen, a daughter of Chapter Seven—Sequin, paid $3.80 in her first seasonal parimutuel start for owner Diamond Creek Racing LLC of Wellsville, PA.

Erin (EL Titan—Blurred) and Dan Daley took the final Excelsior dash with a wire-to-wire effort in 1:58. She paid $15.20 in her second-consecutive Excelsior win, and third win of the year for owners Ann Marie Daley, Donald Brenner and Jared Daley.

Chapter Seven lead the day with two winners with Crazy Wow and EL Titan each scoring one winner, while Buter had two winning drives on the Sire Stakes card.

MY DEBT COLLECTOR AND BEAUTIFUL SIGHT NAB NYSS WINS AT TIOGA

Tioga Downs played host to two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for freshmen filly trotters on Sunday (July 14). Driver Tyler Buter swept both divisions.

My Debt Collector (Buter) took the $54,500 first division.

Caviart Adele (James MacDonald) went to the front and led to the quarter in :28.1. She used a :30.1 second quarter to be first to the half in :58.2. My Debt Collector ($7.80) made her move first-up heading to the final turn. Caviart Adele led to three-quarters in 1:28.3.

My Debt Collector and second place finisher Caviart Adele battled all the way down the stretch. My Debt Collector surged by late to get her first career win in 1:57.4. Royal Mission (Matt Kakaley) finished third.

My Debt Collector is a filly by Chapter Seven—Magic Presto. R. Nifty Norman trains for owners David McDuffee, Melvin Hartman, and Little E LLC.

Beautiful Sight (Buter) was an upset winner in the $54,500 second division.

Pink Chou Chou (James MacDonald) was first to the quarter in :28.3. Chapvious (Jason Bartlett) took over control with a lap to go and led to the half in :58.2. Beautiful Site ($50,000) made her move first-up down the backstretch. Chapvious led to three-quarters in 1:28.2.

As they reached the stretch Beautiful Sight came after Chapvious. Chapvious dug in and looked like she was going to pull off a win when Pink Chou Chou (who was behind her) made a quick move to come outside which seemed to spook Chapvious. Chapvious seemed to move sideways. Beautiful Sight then went on by and won her racing debut in 1:56.2. Pink Chou Chou was second best. Chapvious had to settle for third.

Beautiful Sight is a filly by Chapter Seven—Beautiful Sin. She is owned by the S R F Stable and trained by Ake Svanstedt.

Live racing returns to Tioga Downs on Friday (July 19) at 6:15 p.m.

REPORT

Pacing fillies in action at Cumberland

by Chris Tully for First Tracks Cumberland

Mike and Sherry Cushing's Leanne Marie provided one of the most thrilling races of the day when she won the lone $16,071 division of the Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (July 13) at Cumberland Raceway.

When the wings of the gate folded last week's victor and 1-9 favorite Glorilla (Ron Cushing) was sent scampering out for the lead like her tail was on fire. Her authority was short lived as the filly went off-stride in the apex of the first turn, which allowed Whisper Of Luck (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) to assume command.

With an anxious Glorilla back on stride the duo ducked into third moving toward a :31.1 opening panel. Their pylon play was short lived, however, as Ron Cushing pulled Glorilla right back out and was parked through the second turn. At the 1:03 half Glorilla had taken the point while his brother Mike Cushing, driving Leanne Marie, had followed that cover and was now first over.

The Cushing brothers fought tooth and nail through the 1:32.1 third panel with the 10-1 Leanne Marie poking a head in front. Whisper Of Luck was second over around the final turn and also looking to reel in the favorite.

Down the stretch a pack of five fillies had all engaged in battle, with Leanne Marie prevailing by a neck over the fast-closing Whisper Of Luck in 2:03.1. The daughter of Artistic Fella is trained by Charlene (Sherry) Cushing who also co-owns with Pamela Smith and Jane Depompo. The aforementioned trio are also the breeders, with the filly paying $22.40 to win her first career race and take a lifetime mark.

Sherry Cushing also trains the third-place finisher Audry, who was driven by Steve Wilson. Glorilla finished fourth.

On Friday (July 12), heavy favorite Gowestyounggrace used a first over trip to overpower her rivals while equaling the track record at First Tracks Cumberland for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

In the first of two $16,000-plus divisions of the Maine Sire Stakes driver Dave Ingraham was content to let the early speed advance to the front and let his star pacer come from off the pace. The first to leave was Mrs Foxy Roxy (28-1, Nick Graffam) who protected pylon position through the first turn, with My Sweet Revenge (4-1, Kevin Switzer, Jr.) ranging up on the outside to take command by the 29 second opening panel.

Moving into the :59.1 half Ingraham tipped Gowestyounggrace to the outside to challenge the pacesetter My Sweet Revenge. The pace quickened as they battled down the backstretch. The aggressor poked a nose in front of the defender, with the pair pacing a :28.1 third quarter in 1:27.2 and gaining separation from the rest of the field.

As they turned for home Gowestyounggrace showed her grit and determination as she rolled smoothly down to the wire in 1:57.2 to win by 1¼ lengths, equaling the track record and taking a new lifetime mark. Owned, trained and bred by Fred Ward, Jr. and Sharon Ward, the daughter of Western Maverick—Gracie Gracie picked up her second win in a row, paying just $2.20 as the 1-9 favorite.

My Sweet Revenge hung on for second; Pembroke Red (Heath Campbell) was third.

In the second $16,421 division of the Maine Sire Stakes for sidestepping sophomore distaffs, another heavy favorite prevailed in wire-to-wire fashion.

Heath Campbell never left the pylons with Who's Perfect as the daughter of Western Maverick set comfortable fractions of :28.3, :59.3 and 1:29.1 through the first three stanzas. By the head of the stretch the Valerie Grondin-trained filly had scampered away from the field and was on top by three. Under the wire the margin increased to seven lengths as Campbell was on cruise control to score in 1:58.3, she paid $2.20 to win.

Bred by Lynn-Marie Plouffe, who now co-owns with Dick and Patty McKeen, it was Who's Perfect's second win in a row.

Animore Sass (Andy Harrington) finished second; Zoes Precious Rn (Steve Wilson) was third.

The First Tracks Cumberland meet continues racing on Friday and Saturday each weekend through Aug. 3.

Boomboom Tonight crushes in Breeders Trophy Series

by Steve Wolf, for the Quebec Jockey Club

The 3-year-old Quebec-bred pacers were on display at the Hippodrome 3R (H3R) Sunday (July 14) with the opening round of the Breeders Trophy Series. There were four $7,500 divisions, two each for the colts and fillies.

The fastest of the four divisions came in the ninth race second colt division as the overwhelming 1-9 race favorite, Boomboom Tonight (Sportswriter) for the second-straight start, was able to wire the field in a romp.

Leaving from post 4, Boomboom Tonight with driver Pascal Berube sped by HP Coaticook (Stephane Brosseau) and instantly held the field at bay to the first quarter in :29, then the half mile in :59.2 and the three-quarters in 1:28.1.

The gelding did not slow down around the final turn and opened up down the stretch, winning with ease by 8½ lengths in 1:56.1. HP Coaticook was second with Dan Speed (Jessica Turenne) third.

It was the second straight win for Boomboom Tonight, who was bred and is owned and trained by Elisabeth Pothier. He paid just $2.10 to win.

Driver Louis-Philippe Roy came back to H3R to drive just two horses that he owns and did not go home without a trip to the winner's circle. In the eighth race first $7,500 division of the Breeders Trophy Series for the colts, he was able to wire the field with his own Olaf Du Lac (Sportswriter).

Leaving from post 4, Olaf Du Lac took the lead away from Ambitious Mind (Francis Picard) by the first quarter in :28.3. Then cut fractions of :58.4 to the half mile as race favorite Gladiator S BG (Berube) started up first-over.

By three-quarters in 1:28.2, Gladiator S BG was gaining on Olaf Du Lac, but on the final turn, Roy asked his horse for more and it responded.

Those two battled to the wire with Olaf Du Lac holding on to win by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:57.1 over Gladiator S BG. Ambitious Mind was third.

It was the third win of the season for Olaf Du Lac, who was bred by Roy and is co-owned by Roy with his older brother, Pierre-Luc Roy along with Maude Larouche and Jean Allaire. He paid $4.70 to win.

The fastest of the filly divisions was the sixth race where race favorite One More Bet (All Bets Off) and driver Jocelyn Gendron quarter moved on Ronda Du Lac (Louis-Philippe Roy) in :28.1 and then tore away from the field.

One More Bet sliced fractions of :58 and 1:28.1, easily winning in the stretch by two lengths in 1:57. YS Flownumberten (Berube) was second over Ronda Du Lac.

Trained by Jean Tourigny, it was the first win in seven starts for One More Bet. She was bred and is owned by the Morel, Inc. stable and paid $2.20 to win.

The fourth race first division for the fillies saw the race favorite The Heart Valley (State Treasurer) and driver Marie-Claude Auger trade early leads with D Gs Lorigeanne (Jonathan Lachance) and then sit the pocket trip through fractions of :29.1, :59.2 and 1:30.

Then off the final turn, Auger came after Lachance and The Heart Valley tore away in the stretch to win by 2¼ lengths in 1:59.2. D Gs Lorigeanne was second with Ma Diva (Sylvain Lacaille) third.

It was a lifetime mark and the first win in 11 starts this year for The Heart Valley. She is trained by Louis Philippe Turcotte for Investissement KFB, Gerard Demers, and Jean Roch Marois. The Heart Valley paid $3.50 to win.

The fastest mile of the year was recorded in the 10th race $6,500 preferred-handicap pace as Aladdin (Shadow Play) and driver Brosseau led from start to finish in 1:53.4.

Track Notes: Leading driver Berube had a triple Sunday and Gendron a driving double. Live racing resumes at H3R on Friday (July 19) with first race post time at 4 p.m. Featured will be the second round of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old Quebec-bred trotting colts and fillies. Papi Grad again a star in second career start

In Papi Grad's two-race career, the freshman daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Betterthangraduate has won on both occasions in 1:51.1. On both occasions, she won by 10¼ lengths. And on both occasions, she thrilled fans seeing a potential superstar.

Papi Grad added her second success in one of three $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Sunday evening (July 14) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

Driver Brett Miller, a former regular here but making his first Pocono appearance since Breeders Crown Night 2018, reserved his filly in fourth as Sweet Odds yielded the lead to Ballast by the :27.4 quarter, then stayed in as the pacesetter reached the half at :56.1. Miller gave Papi Grad the word nearing the backstretch, and the filly went from four lengths back at the midpoint to a two-length lead by the 1:24.1 three-quarters, then smoked home in :27 under a good hold by the driver. More will be heard from this filly, who is trained by Steve Carter for Brent Hopper, Jay Mossbarger, TKO Racing Stable LLC, and SCPStable&FriedlandRacing.

Tim Tetrick has driven a passel of top-grade pacing females for trainer Jim King, Jr., so when he chose off a King filly in another All-Stars division, the crowd noted the change and made the Brian Brown-trained, Tetrick-chosen Westwinds a heavy favorite. Their faith was justified, as the Captaintreacherous—Muskoka Hanover miss kept her career record perfect in two starts, lowering her mark to 1:52.4. After early fractions of :28 and :57.3, Tetrick got Westwinds in good second-over position, pacing her own back half in :54.2 while advancing to and past the 1:25 three-quarters to win by 1¼ lengths over pacesetter Daily Double Deo for the partnership of Stambaugh Leeman Stable, Joe Sbrocco, Alan Keith, and Wingfield Brothers LLC.

Captaintreacherous added a second sire credit in the other All-Stars section, as Lily White Hanover (dam Lillian Hanover) benefited from a clever Jason Bartlett drive to make her purse bow a winning one in 1:53.2. Lily White Hanover sat fourth through fractions of :27.1, :56.2, and 1:24.4, then when the pocket horse faded on the far turn Bartlett was able to dip her to the inside from second-over, and the Pocono Pike proved the route of success by a length over Gingertree Brenasu. Andrew Harris trains the $350,000 yearling, who completed an All-Stars sweep by the chalk horses, for himself and his primary owners William Pollock and Bruce Areman.

Dash leading driver Travis Henry notches four more on Kids Day at Clinton

The annual Kids Day (July 14) set the pace for the second half of the 2024 Season at Clinton Raceway. The morning began with the Second Annual Open House, giving fans, new and experienced, the chance to check out the happenings at the racetrack from behind the scenes.

Well attended, the guests were able to tour the paddock, had the chance to get up close and personal with retired standardbred Mr Yokassippi, call a horse race with announcer Tim, and even use Virtual Reality to drive a racehorse, thanks to the Bill Galvin Drive to Win Experience.

For the afternoon the kids had crafts, face painting, bouncers and more, keeping them busy on a very hot Sunday afternoon at the Huron County Oval. The Huron Heat Female Hockey Association held the days trackside fundraiser. With great support from the organization, community and fans on track, they were able to raise just over $6,500 during the afternoon romp for the upcoming 2024/25 season.

On track, Clinton's leading dash winning driver Travis Henry, notched another four wins on the 10-race card, visiting the winner's circle in races 2, 5, 8 and 9.

The fourth race on the day's card featured the third leg of the Prospect Series. Seven 3-year-old colt trotters faced off for the $8,000 purse. It was a gate-to-wire finish in 2:01.3 for the post time favorite Buttinski, driven to victory by Todd Ratchford.

Racing resumes next Sunday (July 21) with the ninth edition of the Vic Hayter Memorial Trot. Featuring a fundraiser for the Stratford Perth Humane Society. Little Tracks Petting Zoo will be in the park from 1-4 p.m. More details on all the season's events can be found at www.clintonraceway.com.
