For one beautiful evening at The Meadowlands, great horses, good guys and wonderful stories prevailed as Bulldog Hanover set a 1:45.4 world record and Beach Glass won The Meadowlands Pace for his father.

Bulldog Hanover (Dexter Dunn) was in full flight at the wire while setting a 1:45.4 world record in the $500,000 William Haughton Memorial on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Jack Darling has always treated the business of racing horses as exactly that. He shrewdly picks out his own horses to train, tries not to overspend or get too attached or take on many partners. It's all part of trying to maximize his own investment. So the 69-year-old Ontarian was perhaps the most surprised to find himself getting emotional watching his rock star stud Bulldog Hanover stop the teletimer in 1:45.4 on Saturday at The Meadowlands to record the fastest mile in harness racing history (replay here).

The next day, asked what it felt like to forever be associated with the first horse to record a mile faster than 1:46, Darling cried again.

Congratulations to owners Jack Darling Stable and Brad Grant; trainers Jack Darling and Noel Daley: drivers Dexter Dunn and Jody Jamieson.

Harness Racing Update

"When I started out, I was just so happy to be able to race," he said, pausing to compose himself. "I just get a little choked up. Never would I have dreamed I'd get involved with a horse like this.

"I had a tear in my eye as he was hitting the wire. That's unusual for me, but it's pretty exciting. It's strange for me to say, because I always treat this like a business, but in this case it's not about the money. It's just all about the horse."

That Bulldog Hanover set a jaw-dropping world record about an hour and exactly two races before Beach Glass redeemed his sire by winning the Meadowlands Pace — the only race Somebeachsomewhere did not win in his illustrious career — made it one of those all-too-rare nights. Great horses won, good guys and even better stories prevailed and for one beautiful evening the ever-increasing cloud of cynicism was dispersed by everything that makes this sport so appealing.

"I've always thought if you just work hard and do the right things that you can compete," Darling said. "That's the important part, just looking after the horse you've got and giving them the best care you can give them and they'll produce."

It is a common thread interwoven into the Bulldog Hanover and Beach Glass stories; stories that go much deeper than both horses being campaigned by Canadians.

This was about small stables and the blessing of being able to wait on talented horses to develop into great ones. It is also how one great horse can be the ultimate equalizer and the hope that brings to an industry sustained by such dreams.

Darling, who shares ownership of Bulldog Hanover with Brad Grant, is training just six horses.

Brent MacGrath, just as he did with Somebeachsomewhere, is conditioning only Beach Glass.

On Saturday, while fielding congratulations from many fellow horsepeople at The Big M, MacGrath said something another trainer said really resonated.

"Mark Capone came up to me (Saturday) night and said, 'I've been doing this my whole life and I'm half-retired and I really should be buying one horse that I really, really like and give it the time, like you do, and I'd probably have more fun and more luck."

On that score, Beach Glass and Bulldog Hanover prove bigger isn't necessarily better.

Though, as for race nights, they don't come much bigger than Saturday.

FOURTH STRAIGHT ASTOUNDING PERFORMANCE FOR BULLDOG

For one brief moment Saturday night, Bulldog Hanover was even trending on social media. That is unheard of for harness racing.

Hanover Shoe Farms Inc. BRED BY:

That the Hanover Shoe Farms-bred son of Shadow Play out of BJ's Squall — driven by Dexter Dunn — set a 1:45.4 world record after four straight weeks of hard racing at The Meadowlands was incredible enough. That he threw his right front shoe doing it — and still was going full steam for nearly another half-mile or so — was astounding.

He came into the race off three straight weeks of scintillating miles of 1:47, 1:46 and 1:46.1.

"I was a little bit nervous, because this was his fourth week in a row with tough racing, so it's hard to be confident that he's going to be just as sharp this week as he was last week, but I did believe if he went down to the half fast enough... especially if he got a trip where he sat in the two-hole or second cover, I thought for sure he could do it. He's the type of horse that generally does the work himself."

Despite a tough trip, Bulldog Hanover came home in :25.1 and was pulling away from an exceptional field in which all 11 horses recorded miles faster than 1:48.

"When you watch them going across the wire, you see if they went another quarter mile that they weren't going to get to (Bulldog Hanover). He's just got unbelievable stamina," Darling said.

The trainer should know. He already had watched the replay at least 10 times and predicted he would watch it 10 more times before the day was out.

"And then I noticed when he was coming back to the winner's circle that he was flying," Darling said incredulously. "He's just unbelievable that way. There's just no end to him.

"It's not like it was a fluke or (Bulldog Hanover) got lucky. He just did it and you just always get the impression, 'Jesus, maybe there's another tick or two in the tank."

BEACH GLASS COMPLETES THE CIRCLE

If you're even a D student of the game, you know that Somebeachsomewhere was one of the greatest racehorses and stallions harness racing has ever seen. You likely also know his lone defeat in 21 career races came at the hands of Art Official in the 2008 Meadowlands Pace — a race (watch it here) that stands as one of the greatest of all time.

MacGrath, from Nova Scotia, is a parttime horseman and full-time owner of several car and tire dealerships in the Maritimes. In 2006, he cobbled together $40,000 from five businesspeople and purchased Somebeachsomewhere for exactly $40,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The horse went on to be one of the greatest in the sport's history — both on the track and as a stallion. Somebeachsomewhere has been inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame, US Harness Racing Hall of Fame and the Nova Scotia Sports Hall of Fame.

He died of cancer in 2018 at the age of 13.

Beach Glass is one of just 28 last-crop foals produced by frozen semen after Somebeachsomewhere's death.

MacGrath and the other members of the Schooner II Stable — Rhonda MacGrath, Stu Rath, Jamie Bagnell and Mary Louise Pye — pulled their promising stakes filly Im With Her off the track precisely to try to produce one final Somebeach somewhere offspring. The resulting colt is Beach Glass.

MacGrath said he owes much of it to Hanover's vice-president Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky. Somebeachsomewhere stood at Hanover his entire stallion career and Jablonsky loved him beyond measure. It was her advice that led the Schooner II Stable to take a shot at getting one final great Beach offspring.

"(Beach Glass') mother raced okay as a 2-year-old and made $70,000 or right in that area and made money in the Breeders Crown, elim and final, so she wasn't terrible," Brent said. "When Beach died, I got her back around 2:10 and I was talking about flushing her and transferring the embryos and Bridgette said, 'You know, you bought this mare (to breed her to Somebeachsomewhere) and she'll get one shot at it. She's the one that should be in foal, not a surrogate mother. Why don't you put her on the truck and send her here and see if we can get her in foal? This is your best chance.' So, we're so fortunate. She took the initiative."

Saturday, freshly-minted Hall of Famer Yannick Gingras drove Beach Glass to a 1:47.2 victory in the $600,000 Meadowlands Pace that was one-and-a-quarter lengths better than Mad Max Hanover. (Replay here).

The victory completed the circle on Somebeachsomewhere's remarkable legacy.

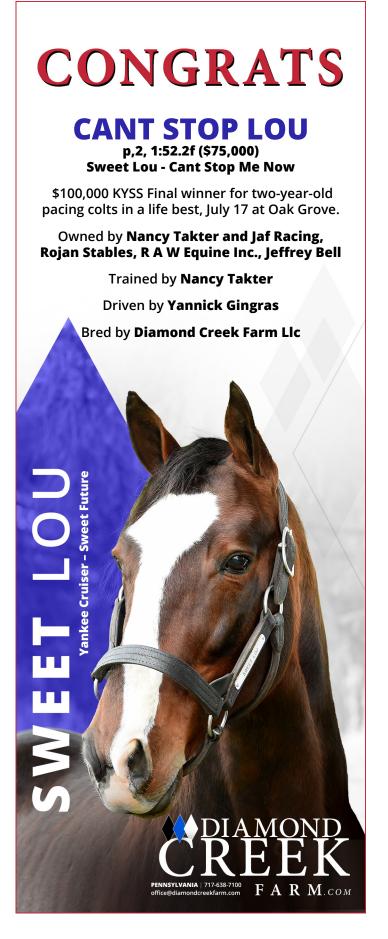

"That was the one we wanted, for sure. It was a fun night and he delivered, and in fine fashion," MacGrath said.

It is still improbable that history is repeating itself exactly here. The odds of there being another Somebeachsomewhere — especially for the same Maritime connections — are still pretty high. Though, admittedly, they are a lot lower than they were a month ago, before Beach Glass won the Meadowlands Pace. Either way, Brent is not taking any chances.

Just as he did with Somebeachsomewhere, he and his wife, Rhonda, have hit the road to personally attend to this one-horse stable. The difference this time is life is very different today for the MacGraths than it was in Beach's heyday.

"It's fun, but there's a 'but' there. We're 15 years older now. Our summers are pretty good and we have our place in the islands and we have a boat. We love the water and kayak and paddleboards...The older you get, the more set in your ways and the more you want to be in your own bed. But, it is exciting," Brent said.

"This horse might be a little bit more gratifying because there were a lot of decisions that had to be made with him to get to where we got with him (Saturday), that's for sure. It doesn't just happen by chance. You have to see them for who they are and wait on them when it's required... Beach was idiot proof. Put the harness on him and he'd be, 'Get me out to the track and get me back in the barn, feed me and I'll do the rest.'

Harness Racing Update

"(Beach Glass) is not that way. He had a lot of issues that we had to work on and wait on. That's a problem in a lot of barns because the owners are pushing and there are stake payments and blah, blah, blah, blah. We're so lucky to have the group that we've got on this colt."

THE SPORT COULD USE SOME HEROES

That both Bulldog Hanover and 3-year-old Beach Glass are just getting started is good news. The sport could use a couple of heroes.

MacGrath said he is planning to race Beach Glass as a 4-yearold. In the meantime, he will skip the Adios and race the pacer next in the Cane Pace on Aug. 6 at The Meadowlands and then the Carl Millstein Memorial on Aug. 13 at Northfield Park.

"He can take the turns as well as he can the stretches. So, I want to try the Milstein," Brent said. "This horse loves the half. I trained, qualified him in Truro and he never wore a headpole. You know, 99.9 per cent of babies, when you start cranking them up, you feel them do something different when you get to the turns. Even if it's before the turn, you can feel them positioning themselves a little differently. He doesn't, nothing different, just zips around the turn like a pony. And he's a big horse."

The tentative schedule for Beach Glass also includes two weeks of racing during the Grand Circuit race meeting at the Red Mile and the Breeders Crown at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"We're going to race this horse as a 4-year-old... You look at (his maternal granddam) Hattie and that whole family and they were better 4- or 5-year-olds than 2- or 3-year-olds. I think this colt will be, too... he's been terribly immature... That's just who he is. He matures slower."

Darling said Bulldog Hanover's next start will be on Aug. 12 in the Dan Patch at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

"He'll get a nice breather here now and I'll just have to get him trained up pretty good for that race. Then, I think it's two weeks after that to the Canadian Pacing Derby here at Mohawk. Then, we're planning on Lexington and that would be exciting to race him there and I think he'll just love that track."

All of which is furthering not only his racing legacy, but also his value as an Ontario stallion.

Bulldog Hanover has already completed the first of a three-year deal to stand at Seelster Farms in Lucan, ON and his value as a stud is already soaring thanks to his incredible string of racing at The Meadowlands.

That part has Darling smiling, not crying.

"I've been lucky enough to have some really good horses, but the bottom line is that for every race like this, you get five disappointments so you just really have to appreciate something like this, that's for sure," Darling said, the business side of him again turning to mush over Bulldog Hanover.

Michael Burns

Bulldog Hanover is just getting started. He has the Dan Patch, Canadian Pacing Derby and Lexington on his schedule next.

"I'm just really looking forward to him getting home this afternoon to give him his banana," Darling said Sunday. "He loves bananas."

That the two Canadian horses rode back to Ontario together on Sunday after conquering The Meadowlands seemed just right. Great stories deserve fitting endings.

Pace night shows what harness racing can be

by Brett Sturman

Hands down, Meadowlands Pace night from this past Saturday at The Meadowlands will go down as one of the most memorable race cards in the history of the sport.

It's easy to look around and complain about all the obvious issues plaguing the sport week after week. They all still exist. But for one night, Meadowlands Pace night showed that when at its very best, what the sport is capable of.

Bulldog Hanover in the William Haughton and Beach Glass in the Meadowlands Pace provided an unprecedented 1-2 punch, with nearly every other stake on the card carrying their weight and then some.

It's not every year that the track's signature pacing event has to share the spotlight with the undercard, but there was real buzz all week long in the lead up to Pace weekend that the 1:46 all-time speed mark had the potential to fall. On the heels of back-to-back 1:46 and 1:46.1 miles by Bulldog Hanover, the anticipated weather forecast and track condition became almost more important than the actual competition in projecting how the Haughton would play out.

There were indications right out of the gate that a special night may be in store. When Backstreet Shadow kicked off the card with a win in 1:47.2 and then three races later Rebuff became only the seventh ever 3-year-old trotter to break 1:50 (doing so in just his second start of the year), the race to beat 1:46 was on. Momentum reached a fever pitch when Test Of Faith paced a 1:47 mile in the Dorothy Haughton, the race immediately preceding the William Haughton.

But then it almost all changed. Right as the horses began parading for the $500,000 Haughton, rain began to fall. It wasn't heavy, but it was noticeable, nonetheless. And Gabe Prewitt, who had been fulfilling Fox Sports broadcasting duties, observed at that time that temperatures had cooled off considerably from what they were even moments before. Figuring pristine conditions were needed for a horse to go a 1:45-type mile, the late change in weather seemed to dash those hopes.

As for the race itself, it can't be overstated enough what type of effort Bulldog Hanover put forth. This wasn't a type of record mile where another horse paves the way to three-quarters in something like 1:19, and then others can pick up the pieces in around 1:46. If Bulldog Hanover got that type of trip he seriously might have broken even 1:45. In the Haughton, Bulldog Hanover was used hard from post seven and was parked until just shortly before the half-mile when he finally cleared to the lead in :53.1. Even track announcer Ken Warkentin noted during his call that Bulldog Hanover was "working hard early."

Once in control, the three-quarter mile time was "only" 1:20.3. Fast for sure, but not 1:45-type fast. No matter, Bulldog Hanover was still somehow able to close with a final quarter of :25.1 and stopped the clock in 1:45.4. And for as much focus that was put on the teletimer, credit must be given to Rockyroad Hanover who gave unbelievable chase through the stretch and in the process made Dexter Dunn and Bulldog Hanover go harder in order to not just break 1:46 which turned out to be incidental, but to even win the race.

Completely aside from any wagering component which is usually the basis of a cheering interest, the Bulldog Hanover performance turned out to be one of those rare moments where it was impossible as a fan of the sport to not be in awe of what just transpired. I can't imagine anyone not having let out some form of positive emotion when that final time of 1:45.4 popped up; it truly was a performance for the ages.

What made the night one of the best I've ever seen in racing wasn't simply because of the balls to the wall effort in the Bulldog Hanover race. It's because that type of effort was on full display in nearly every single race. For all the exhibits of "no-try" drives in recent weeks, all of that was out the window on Saturday.

It's amazing the type of excitement that racing can generate when horses are allowed to actually race. Take the Hambletonian Maturity, for example. A week after allowing Rattle My Cage to coast in a $250,000 race, that same horse didn't get any such breaks on Saturday and was beaten soundly after having to endure a contested pace. Conversely, Cuatro De Julio was put into play early and made another determined account for himself, losing only to an oncoming Bella Bellini who closed along with Ambassador Hanover from well off the hot pace.

It didn't stop there. Just as Andy McCarthy was aggressive with Cuatro De Julio (and Rockyroad Hanover, for that matter), fellow McCarthy, Todd, was aggressive with Boudoir Hanover in the Mistletoe Shalee. That duo set engaged Treacherous Dragon early and set the pace, only to beat that heavily favored rival but lose to longshot Max Contract who flew home with a final quarter of nearly a full second quicker than anyone else. No easy rides though for the favorite. Same thing in one of the Stanley Dancer divisions where Brandy By Lindy posed a strong first-over challenge to King Of The North, only to have another longshot (Slay) fire up the inside to win at odds of nearly 13/1 (Dunn, again). Venerable continued her improvement of late and nearly tracked down Joviality in the Del Miller, and it was announced two days later that following the races from that night, that Joviality would target the colts in the Hambletonian.

This all happened even before getting to the main event, the Meadowlands Pace. Just as Bulldog Hanover was bet down to 1-5 odds, so was Pace favorite Beach Glass. And despite the same heavy favoritism, he didn't get off cheap either. Gingras wasn't able to clear with Beach Glass until right at the half mile, and once he did, he faced serious pressure in the form of I Did It Myway. But just as he did in his elimination, Beach Glass continued to power on. Though longshots on the odds board, both second-finisher Mad Max Hanover and third-place finisher I Did It Myway didn't race like it. They were both put in play throughout, and because of that Beach Glass had to earn his Pace victory, going in 1:47.2 to do it.

Considering Beach Glass' connections, it couldn't be more fitting that he'll be the final foal from Somebeachsomewhere to win the Meadowlands Pace — the one race Somebeachsomewhere failed to win.

A sincere thank you to Bulldog Hanover and his entire team

by Bob Heyden

This is my thank you note to Bulldog Hanover and his entire team (trainer/co-owner Jack Darling, co-owner Brad Grant, New Jersey trainer Noel Daley, drivers Dexter Dunn and Jody Jamieson).

In a business saturated with negativity and in-fighting, you came along and gave us a month for the ages. You came into the arena, raised the bar to its highest level and then cleared it again and again.

1:47, followed by 1:46, 1:46.1 and now the world record of 1:45.4.

You have become the cousin visiting for June who we now want to stay all summer; the soccer camp we do not want to end; the dream we absolutely do not want to awake from.

There's one sure way of telling if you are really outstanding and at the top of the heap. Hitting the wire in a new world record and at least 75 per cent of those watching were not surprised. Elated? Yes. But not shocked. Your previews were every bit as good as Opening Night.

Keep in mind the free-for-all group in 2022 is excellent, top notch. Rockyroad Hanover is lights out. Never before have we seen 10 horses going to the gate —many finishing in :52 and change the last half — and none can make a dent in your margin.

How fitting that you set the record in the William Haughton Memorial. Billy had the fastest ever racehorse too at the time of his passing on July 15, 1986. Nihilator recorded a 1:49.3 mile on Aug. 3, 1985. That mark would not be lowered until 1992 when Artsplace clipped one-fifth off that. And then the Driscoll was renamed the Haughton in 1999 after seeing three horses previously reset the all-time race record in that event. In 1992, Artsplace won in 1:49.2. In 1993, Staying Together won in 1:48.2 and in 1996, Jennas Beach Boy won in 1:47.3.

When you hit the wire in 1:45.4, you allowed us to dream, imagine, reminisce maybe. What might Western Hanover or No Nukes or Sonsam or Somebeachsomewhere or Niatross have done if they competed as 4-year-olds?

Particularly noteworthy was the way you handled all of this. Bret Hanover won three straight HOY titles and was known to bow to the audience afterwards. Zenyatta had a pre-game dance routine. But you apparently never heard of either. There's a workmanlike feel to all of this — kind of like the high school phenom who score 40 points and grabs 30 rebounds and doesn't understand any of the post-game fuss. My goodness it takes at least a half mile to pull you up after the race. If they had a weight/workout room for horses I get the feeling you would be in it after the races.

Hats off to Hanover Shoe Farm. They had 20 in on Pace night no other breeder had more than five. Lots and lots of good work was done by Hanover bringing you up. And your name might be the most appropriate since Moni Maker was foaled in 1993. On top of that you are low maintenance. Jack Darling reports no vet bills and Noel Daley says he is more or less just looking after you in New Jersey. You bred 80 mares earlier this year. Hercules with a love life.

Think of some of the other world records you have witnessed — and almost always they were cameos, or hot summer afternoons, or a fast pace set by somebody else. Not here. You did the work, and for the first time in the sport's history that I can remember you made eight furlongs a sprint. You did all the work. You haven't just dipped your hoof into the pool of immortality, you dove right in.

We've seen you before, just in different horses. Power like Matts Scooter. Complete authority like Always B Miki. Niatross' presence. Electrifying turn of speed like Sonsam.

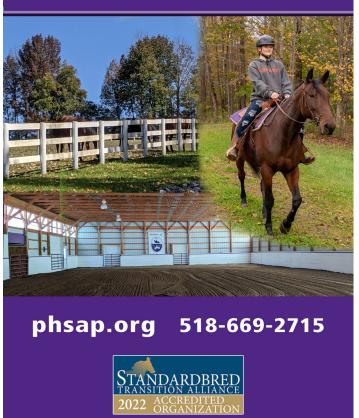

As of July 19, 2022, you Bulldog Hanover, are now officially a rock star. Fan clubs are forming. Your schedule searched. Collectibles wanted. Posters readied. A sure-fire following wherever you go from here.

Maybe we have already seen the Black Type on your forever bio. Maybe not. We can only guess and dream of what may still await. You have gifted us with the greatest month ever. If you keep this up we'll have to start checking out parade routes. No doubt that you will be out in front there, too.

"Do the right thing" RETIRE RETRAIN REHOME

Run For Royalty upsets, again

by Thomas Hedlund

Pekka Korpi trained Run For Royalty (R.C.Royalty) came back strong after the "two races in two days-triumph" in Suur-Hollola in Lahti, Finland two weeks ago. On Sunday (July 17), 8-year-old trotter followed that up with a mild upset in the $140,000 St Michel-Ajo mile race in Mikkeli.

Global Withdrawn flew to the front after 300 meters in battle with quick starter and early leader Next Direction and the pace was set high throughout the race. Next Direction's driver Hannu Torvinen opted for an offensive tactic as he defended position first over when first choice Mister Hercules attacked three wide, aiming for that position after 500 meters. Mister Hercules was, by then, more or less without a chance threatening for the win and leader Global Withdrawn kept the pace high in front.

But behind the leader, Janne Korpi found the right path with Run For Royalty and the duo attacked just as the stretch approached. Run For Royalty disarmed a brave leader and Janne Korpi had control over the rest of the opponents. Makethemark finished strongly between horses as runner up for driver Ulf Ohlsson.

Run For Royalty must by now be considered the best older trotter in Finland since he has claimed two of the country's biggest races within two weeks. When he hit the wire as winner in Sunday's race, he did it in 1:52.1.

Leader Global Withdrawl held to the bronze medal and the race became a great success for the Finnish harness racing business. As told before, Run For Royalty was one of his crop's best trotters as a 3-year-old and it seems like he has found the peaking level as racing horse now, as an 8-year-old.

Race replay here.

IMPRESSIVE DON FANUCCI ZET IN ÅRJÄNG

Saturday's $113,000 Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp in Årjäng, Sweden saw some great horses in the entries and Daniel Redén-trained Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin) was the favorite from post 9.

The race was quite sparkling as leader Floris Baldwin, driven by Kristian Malmin, defended his position in front when outside trotters Usain Töll, Milliondollarrhyme and Click Bait challenged for a spot in the lead. Don Fanucci Zet, who started behind horses had problems following during the race's first quarter of a mile and when the field hit the first 600 meters, driver Örjan Kihlström tried to make a move three wide with the first choice Don Fanucci Zet.

Don Fanucci Zet raced the last kilometer three wide, Brother Bill was served a perfect inside trip by his driver and the two trotters were almost inseparable even when the photo was looked at. By a nose, Don Fanucci Zet hit the wire first and Redén's horse has now claimed two big races in Sweden after the mishap in the Elitloppet final, where he made a break from the start.

The 6-year-old Hard Livin son fought bravely three wide at the back stretch and he reached a position outside of leading duo Floris Baldwin and Click Bait as the field turned into the last turn. From a third inside position, Magnus A Djuse steered his drive Brother Bill out in the last turn and when Milliondollarrhyme couldn't keep his pace, Brother Bill was all of a sudden three wide, covered by Don Fanucci Zet. At the top of the stretch, leader Floris Baldwin was beaten by Don Fanucci Zet, but on the outside Brother Bill attacked with great speed. Brother Bill's driver Magnus A Djuse did not care to keep Brother Bill in the right lane over the stretch, but let the horse run while he got closer and closer to the far outside lane. Brother Bill finished strongly by that move and it was basically impossible to decide which of the two horses reached the wire first.

The mile rate over 1,640 meters was 1:53 and Don Fanucci Zet's next objective is Hugo Åbergs Memorial at Jägersro on July 26.

Usain Töll had no luck with the trip (interfered in the last turn), but finished great as third for driver Björn Goop.

Stockade Seelster and Write Me A Rose repeat in OSS Gold

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Stockade Seelster and Write Me A Rose each posted a repeat victory in Monday evening's (July 18) Ontario Sires Stakes Gold action for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A pair of $101,300 divisions were contested in the second leg of the Gold Series. With the first leg contested nine days prior, Write Me A Rose and Stockade Seelster returned, drawn in separate divisions, with eyes on repeating their Gold success.

The first division saw Write Me A Rose capitalize off a perfect second-over trip from driver Sylvain Filion for a 1:52.4 score. Despite winning as the favourite in leg one, the Rob Fellows trained Write Me A Rose went off as the 3-1 second choice behind Moment Is Here, who finished second to Stockade Seelster on July 9.

Ace Of Aces opened the mile with a :27.1 quarter, while Moment Is Here was parked around the first turn before clearing to the lead. Write Me A Rose got away fifth and sat there until catching cover on the final turn.

Moment Is Here tripped the half in :56.1, but was then immediately overtaken by a snap third to first move from longshot Scribblers. The new leader led by three-quarters in 1:24.4.

In the stretch, Write Me A Rose rocketed off cover and stormed home in :27.2 for a three length score. Midnight Nation followed the winner's path to finish second, while Bettor Bea Terror rallied from seventh and last to finish third.

Favourite Moment Is Here got caught in behind tiring leaders and never saw clear room until late, ultimately finishing fifth. Early leader Ace Of Aces suffered a similar fate, splitting through late for fourth.

Replay here.

A Sportswriter colt, Write Me A Rose is now three for three to begin his career for owner/breeder Windermere Stable LLC. Trainer Fellows received the youngster after the colt made his baby race debut at Magical Acres in New Jersey.

"So far all I've had to do is get him here on time," said Fellows. "He was gift wrapped to me. He's a nice horse, so it's just a pleasure to race for these guys."

The veteran trainer was quick to point out the fortune of his student with the way Monday's race unfolded.

"The 1-5 favourite had to make a decision at the half and it didn't turn out for him but it worked out great for us, he got pinned in and didn't get a chance to race and we were out and had a good lane to run in."

With Monday's score, Write Me A Rose now sports early career numbers of three wins and $109,750 earned. The clocking of 1:52.4 erased his previous mark of 1:53.3, taken in his most recent start.

A $2 win ticket on Write Me A Rose returned $8.80.

Stockade Seelster followed up his dazzling debut with another statement performance in the evening's second split. The Dr. Ian Moore trainee brushed to lead in the second quarter for driver Jody Jamieson and never looked back for an easy 1:52 score over five rivals.

"He's a nice colt, he does everything you ask him to do and so far he's been really good," said Jamieson. "I had figured there would be some guys trying for position off the gate, so I just wanted to make sure I got to the lead last and try to keep it, so we went a little faster tonight to the half, but he was strong finishing and the sky is the limit."

Stockade Seelster took command after Coop A Loop posted a :26.3 opening-quarter. The Dr. Moore trainee proceeded to post fractions of :55.3 and 1:24.3 before pacing home in :27.2, with Jamieson sitting chilly in the bike, to secure the victory.

Coop A Loop did his best to stick with the leader finishing three lengths back in second, while third-place finisher The Moment Arose was nearly nine lengths back of the winner. Lyons Brushmarks and Twin B Risenshine completed the top-five.

Replay here.

A son of State Treasurer, Stockade Seelster is now two-for-two to start his career, posting sparkling 1:51.3 and 1:52 miles. The $45,000 London Selected Yearling Sale graduate has banked $101,300 in just two starts for owners Sally MacDonald and Paul MacDonald.

Stockade Seelster paid $2.50 to win.

Up next for many of Monday's OSS participants is the Battle of Waterloo eliminations on July 25 at Grand River Raceway. Stockade Seelster is eligible to enter, while Write Me A Rose is not among the 96 eligible Ontario sired rookies.

The third OSS Gold leg for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings is scheduled for Aug. 19 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Baby filly Beach Cowgirl in 1:50.2 at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

Beach Cowgirl, a 2-year-old pacing daughter of Captaintreacherous-Stonebridge Sundae, was astounding in winning her $54,986 division of the second Pennsylvania Sire Stakes prelim for her division during the Sunday (July 17) twilight card at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono – in 1:50.2.

Let's take care of all the speed notes for Beach Cowgirl. The 1:50.2 clocking was a fifth of a second short of the track and world record set by Allstar Rating while winning a 2013 Breeders Crown elimination here. She is now the fastest freshman filly on any size of track this year, and ranks behind only two 1:50.1 Kindergarten winners at The Meadowlands last Friday (July 15) for babies of either sex.

And she did that in her second lifetime start, after setting a 1:51 stake record at The Meadows in her debut, also in a Sire Stakes.

Joe Bongiorno was content to wait third with his brilliant filly as Proud Mary rolled to the quarter in :26.3 and Ginger Tree Coco went around that one to the half in :55.1. Beach Cowgirl roared out of the hole near the 5/8, blasted to the lead at the 1:22.4 three-quarters and finished out in :27.3 under only mild coaxing for a 2¼ length win over 29-1 closer Hello Yes Hi. Trainer Jennifer Bongiorno and the ownership of Joseph Di Scala Jr., Zippett Racing Stables, Scarlett Stables LLC, and JAF Racing LLC have themselves a filly for whom the sky is the current limit.

Also notching a second PASS win was My Little Captain, who shares with Beach Cowgirl a two-for-two life record and sire Captaintreacherous (she's out of My Little Delight). My Little Captain was moved out on the far turn by driver Mike Wilder behind Absolute Power, whose uncovered move had carried her to the lead, and ran down that foe by 1:53.2 for trainer Andrew Stafford and EVM Racing LLC.

The third PASS winner was the Stay Hungry–Four Starzz Melisa distaff Racing Hungry, who challenged front-stepping favorite Dole Whip in the last quarter and was game late to catch that one by a neck while posting a speed mark of 1:53.3. Racing Hungry is now two-for-three in her brief career for trainer Charlie Norris and the ownership of Scott McEneny (her developer in Canada), Teresa Davidson, and Floyd Marshall. Her driver, Matt Kakaley, Pocono's leading driver, won five times on the night.

Doublers in the five $20,000 Stallion Series divisions were driver David Miller, sires Stay Hungry (top stakes sire on the night with three wins) and A Rocknroll Dance, and three first-round StS winners. David Miller handled one by each sire, and both posted their second Stallion Series wins: the Stay Hungry–Arodast baby Ginger Tree Lena, taking a new mark of 1:55 for trainer Steve Cook and owners Sam Beegle, Ginger Tree Ventures LLC, Knollview Stable, and Robert Reber Jr., and Little Lady J, by A Rocknroll Dance–Monet's Lilly filly, who already has five wins including stakes at Butler Fair, The Meadows, and now Pocono after reducing her standard to 1:54 for owner/trainer Mitchell York.

The fastest Stallion Series winner and the other double winner, the Always B Miki–Sweet Body filly Ambushed, was ironically the only StS winner Sunday who did not take a mark despite pacing in 1:53.2, fastest of the five cuts. A winner earlier is 1:53.1 at The Meadows, Ambushed won handily for driver Braxten Boyd, trainer Hunter Oakes, and the partnership of D Racing Stable Inc. and Donald Mac Rae.

The second Stay Hungry winner in the Stallion Series was Nevertellmetheodds (dam Armbro Cinnamon), who debuted after two qualifying wins and tasted success at first asking while taking a mark of 1:54.4 for Matt Kakaley and trainer Christopher Beaver, also co-owner with Anastasia Meshkoba. A Rocknroll Dance got a second winner in Frondeur (dam Redhot's Memory), a winner of half her four starts and possessor of a new mark of 1:54.3 for driver Marcus Miller, trainer/father Erv Miller, and the ownership of Shim Racing LLC.

LONGSHOTS ABOUND IN PA ALL-STARS ACTION AT POCONO

Four $30,000 divisions of a Pennsylvania All-Stars event for 2-year-old trotting fillies were featured on Monday afternoon (July 18) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, and after a favorite started the stakes action off, it was a longshot player's delight the rest of the way.

There was no hint in the air of what was to come when the Father Patrick–Evelyn filly Vanessa J won as a heavy favorite while taking a maiden mark of 1:57.3 in an easy 4¼ length victory. Tim Tetrick guided the winner, who had been fourth in a PA Sire Stakes in her only other purse start, for owner/trainer Lucas Wallin, who has had quite the profitable relationship with Tetrick as of late.

Heavy favorite Angelpedia made the lead in another All-Stars division, but then she made a break past the eighth, leaving the race wide open. In the end, it was the International Moni–Possessed By Lindy filly Pembroke Moni who made the best rally in the last quarter, scoring her second career victory in a 1:58.3 mile by 1¼ lengths for meet-leading driver Matt Kakaley, trainer Mark Ford, and owner William Varney. The first four finishers in this race went off at 16-1, 26-1, 6-1, and 99-1.

David Miller won the other two races, although not getting the pari-mutuel respect a Hall of Famer is usually due. He guided the fastest All-Stars winner of the day, the Donato Hanover–Movitational miss Portulaca, who won a Pennsylvania Sire Stakes in her only other purse start and here lowered her mark to 1:56.3 at a truly generous 14-1. The other Sire Stakes winner in the first round, Fashion Annie, was odds-on from the rail vs. Portulaca's starting from the outside post seven, but her own :56.2 late charge landed her a neck behind the winner, trained by Kathleen La Montagne, co-owner with Donald La Montagne.

All of this was mere All-Stars pari-mutuel prelude to the $108.80 winner Broadway Sensation, who took a maiden mark of 1:58.4 in a field of six where the three favorites all made miscues, and the top three finishers were 53-1, 18-1, and 22-1. Broadway Sensation is a daughter of Bar Hopping – Broadway Woman who is trained by Steve LeBlanc for LeBlanc Racing Inc., Douglas Johnson, and Glenn Dyke, and was 1½ lengths clear at the finish.

In fact, Pocono had a second explosion of the tote board three races after Broadway Express won, as TSM Batman came up the deep Pocono Pike to post a $132.60 bomber mutuel for driver Ridge Warren, trainer Bob Krenitsky Jr. and owner Ted Tomson. Although this result was an "upset" in the usual sense of the word, deep readers of the form noticed that on June 13, TSM Batman won and paid $99.20 to win. He becomes the first horse to post two $50+ prices in the 2022 meet; also, the last time there were two $100 winners on the same card at Pocono was nearly four years ago, on Aug. 11, 2018.

Three freshman filly trotters found the winner's circle for the first time in their careers in first leg action of the Ohio Sires Stakes Sunday night (July 17) at MGM Northfield Park. Each division carried a purse of $40,000.

In the first division, Smokinhotirishgirl and Anthony MacDonald grabbed the early lead over the sloppy track cutting fractions of :29.1, 1:00, and 1:29.2.

As the field rounded the final turn, Smokinhotirishgirl went off stride setting up a stretch run battle between Jumping The Line and Cali Red.

Trotting colts tussled in ISS action at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Emily Gaskin / Harrah's Hoosier Park

After a week's worth of 2-year-old stakes action, it was the 2-year-old trotting colts' turn in the spotlight at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Saturday (July 16) as three $47,000 divisions were featured on the evening's 12-race card. It was the opening round of their six round series and the freshman colts did not disappoint.

Texsong Soprano and Matt Krueger won with authority in the opening division for $46,500. With a final time of 1:55.3, Texsong Soprano moved to the lead down the backside and never looked back. Using a :28.2 final panel, Texsong Soprano kicked home seven lengths in front of Facebook Official and Jared Finn. Ahadi As and Trace Tetrick trotted evenly to finish third. As the heavy betting favorite, Texsong Soprano returned $3.80 for the victory.

Trained by Missy Essig, the son of Text Me—Muscling In is now two for two in his young career. Owned by Joe D. and Daryl D. Yoder, Texsong Soprano was bred by Abraham Miller.

Dash Of Luck and Brandon Bates pulled a slight upset in the second division of the stakes action after they converted a pocket trip into a 1:55 score. Help Page and John DeLong dictated fractions of :28,:56.4 and 1:26.2. When the field turned for home, Dash Of Luck tipped from the pocket and was able to wear down Help Page to get the win by a head. Bourbon Courage and Trace Tetrick, the post time favorite, powered home in :26.2 to round out the trifecta. Sent off at odds of 7-1, Dash Of Luck returned $16.00 to his backers at the betting windows.

Trained by Mark P'Pool, Dash Of Luck recorded his first lifetime victory in his first lifetime start. The son of Helpisontheway—Demons N Diamonds is owned by T.L. Defabis, Dolne Farm Services LLC, and M.E. P'Pool and was bred by Luckiana Farms.

In the third and final division, it was Ponda Jet who turned in a determined effort to get the job done in 1:56.3 with Homer Hochstetler in the bike. Leaving from post two, Ponda Jet went to the front and went uncontested through fractions of :28.1 and :59.3. As he reached the three-quarters in 1:29, he was joined on the outside by Just Show Up and Trace Tetrick applying pressure from first-over. As the field turned for home, Just Show Up appeared to have worn down the leader but Ponda Jet wasn't finished. Utilizing a :27.3 final quarter, Ponda Jet dug in gamely to get the win by three-parts of a length over Just Show Up. Jailhouse Dance and Michael Oosting also rallied well late to finish third.

Trained by Jay Hochstetler, Ponda Jet has now won two of his three lifetime starts. The son of Dover Dan—Ponda's Lucky Lady is owned in partnership by Connie Hochstetler, Robert Buddig and Allen Schwartz and was bred by Pond-A-Acres.

$126K PEO Sale Topper; French trotters next?

In the first of several straight weeks of mixed sales conducted by Preferred Equine Online, the July 18 venue grossed an even $450,000 for 17 horses sold and was led by Combs Hanover, who was purchased for $126,000 by Weaver Bruscemi LLC.

(View complete sale results)

Combs Hanover 4,1:52, a trotter with $171,389 on his racing ledger, has been successful in the upper conditioned classes at Mohawk Park and was most recently third by a length in the NW20000L5, timed in 1:52.2. The start prior he finished just 2 1/4 lengths behind Hambletonian champ and $2-million winner Forbidden Trade in the open trot.

He was consigned by PEO as agent for co-owner Chris Storms.

"Once again, I was pleased with the quality of racehorses people are selling with us online, along with the strong participation of buyers," said manager David Reid. "When you have so many people engaged and actively bidding, you can be sure horses are bringing every bit of fair market value."

Another leading seller was the Plainridge trotter Wily Wally 3,1:55f, a Walner 3-year-old who came into the sale off two consecutive wins at Plainridge in 1:55 and 1:56.3 — leading every step of the way in both. He was sold by PEO as agent for Lindy Farms and purchased by Lewis Zirogiannis for $52,000.

The sale posted an average of $26,471. Horses not sold are still listed on the sale page, with "make offer" noted, along with the asking price for some.

Preferred Equine Online's next mixed sale will be held Monday, July 25. The entry deadline is Wednesday, July 20.

Reid had news to share regarding that next auction. "I believe we've lined up some French trotters to offer in next week's sale," he said.

Those horses are coming to the online platform as the result of a recent trip to France by Reid, along with delegates of the U.S. Trotting Association, where they met with leaders of France's LeTrot. It was agreed upon there to introduce a limited number of quality French racehorses to the North American buying public via an online sale.

The roster and catalog for the July 25 Mixed Sale will be available Friday, at which time bidding will open at preferredequineonline.com.

Sports Obsession, Pocket Of Terror A win Beckwith elims at Plainridge

The feature races on Monday afternoon (July 18) at Plainridge Park were two $25,000 eliminations for the $50,000 Bert Beckwith Memorial final that will be held at The Ridge on Sunday (July 24) during the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot day.

The first leg was won by Sports Obsession who shook loose late in the stretch.

Patrickthepiranha A (Bruce Ranger) went down the road from post two, tripping the quarter in :25.4. He continued to lead to the half with Belmont Major N (Leon Bailey) in the pocket, Rollinlikethunder (Jay Randall) first over on the outside and Sports Obsession (Drew Monti) locked in fourth at the pegs.

Positions remained the same as the group passed three-quarters in 1:21.3 and Patrickthepiranha A was looking good heading into the stretch. But as the horses spread out pacing to the line, Monti got Sports Obsession free, moved into the four path and brushed home the best to win by a head in a lifetime best clocking of 1:50.2.

With his first win of the season, Sports Obsession ($27.20) punched his ticket to the final for his owner Joe Trice and trainer Jimmy Nickerson.

The second division was won by Pocket Of Terror A after taking advantage of a swift first half.

There was an early dust-up for the lead between Lake Charles (Nick Graffam), Vel Mr Nice Guy (Brett Beckwith) and Hudson Phil (Jay Randall) who eventually took command in :25.4. The leader continued the torrid pace to the half as Pocket Of Terror A (Leon Bailey) was moving closer first up in the breeze.

Everything started getting tight with Rock Diamonds N (Ron Cushing) joining the fray as the front four past three-quarters and rounded the turn. Pocket Of Terror A took the lead before they hit the stretch but Rock Diamonds N was still making up ground. He got to within ¾ of a length but that was it as Pocket Of Terror A tripped the light in 1:50.3.

Pocket Of Terror A ($9.20) scored his second win in a row at Plainridge Park for owner Scheigert and Allies Racing and trainer Amanda Kelley.

The Grand Circuit returns to Plainridge Park on Sunday (July 24) when the track will play host to the $250,000 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot and $100,000 Clara Barton Distaff Pace. Post time for the special matinee card will be at 2 p.m.

MSOA announces 10 per cent increase in purses at The Meadows

The Board of Directors of the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA) has announced a 10 per cent, across-the-board purse increase, effective Aug. 3, 2022, for races at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

MSOA President Richard Gillock said the increase would provide immediate benefits to horsemen while stimulating handle and persuading more horsemen to locate their stables at The Meadows, making racing there even more competitive and exciting.

He attributed the increase to the stability in the state's horse racing industry produced by the Pennsylvania Legislature's turnback of Gov. Tom Wolf's proposed raid on the Pennsylvania Race Horse Development Fund (PRHDF), which provides about $230 million annually for purses and breeding. Wolf proposed diverting about $88 million from the fund in both 2022 and 2023, a grab that, if enacted, would have crippled — if not killed — racing in Pennsylvania.

Not only did the legislature refuse to consider the diversion, but it also added $5 million previously used for other purposes to the PRHDF annual allocation.

"This is a big win," Gillock said. "The 2022 state budget has been approved, and the governor's proposed raid is not part of it. We owe that to the strong support of our legislators, who recognize the irreplaceable impact of racing in Pennsylvania, which serves as a pillar of the Commonwealth's agriculture sector and provides about 20,000 jobs and an annual economic impact estimated at $1.6 billion."

Gillock praised the efforts of MSOA's partners, including the Pennsylvania Harness Horsemen's Association and the Pennsylvania Equine Coalition. He noted that the team also worked with the legislature to kill a bill that would have allowed for more truck stop video gaming terminals (VGTs), which would cut racetrack handle.

Gillock singled out these lawmakers for their consistent, effective support:

- Sen. Camera Bartolotta (Beaver, Greene, Washington);
- Rep. George Dunbar (Westmoreland);

New look Batavia Downs opens season tonight

The 2022 harness racing season will get underway at Batavia Downs at 6 p.m. tonight (July 20) and when fans enter the property, they will notice the staff and facilities have undergone some major changes. Those started at the top and touched every aspect of the racing program in order to provide a positive and enjoyable experience for everyone this year.

Don Hoover has joined the Downs team and will serve in two positions. He is the director of live racing and also the track's new race secretary. Hoover is a western New York native who has extensive harness racing experience both as a horseman and on the administrative side. He has been on site at Batavia since early spring getting acquainted with his new positions and preparing for opening night.

"I am very excited about the upcoming 56-day live race meet here at Batavia Downs Gaming and Hotel. Henry (Wojtaszek, president and CEO of Batavia Downs Gaming) and Scott (Kiedrowski, vice-president of operations at Batavia Downs Gaming) have provided me with a great team to work with and I feel that we have all the pieces in place for an outstanding year. Obviously the highlight of the meet will be Aug. 26 when we host two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes going for a total of $206,000 and the Robert J. Kane Memorial Pace with an enhanced purse of $75,000. I can't wait to welcome the fans in for the opening night card," said Hoover.

Patty Bruno, who has years of experience in the race office at Batavia, will continue to work alongside Hoover as the assistant race secretary and program director. Bruno's resume also includes race secretary overseeing the New York Sire Stake county fair program.

Mary Bucceri has been named administrative assistant and group sales manager. Although Bucceri has been a Batavia team member since 2005, this new position has her geared towards bringing in new patrons, and providing them with a great time while exposing them to both harness racing and the outstanding facilities Batavia Downs has to offer.

The track itself has been completely re-graded and resurfaced with the best material available, all done under the supervision of track guru Kim Crawford. Crawford had the Genesee County oval lightning fast last year and it was widely hailed by visiting horsemen as one of the best surfaces to race over in New York state.

Missy Rothfuss, who is one of the most respected outriders in the sport, will be joining Batavia Downs after 26 years at The Meadows. She will lead the post parade nightly and provide any necessary assistance to horsemen on the track during race nights to insure the safety and well-being of all the participants.

The last two changes on the racing side include the addition of Wayne Teaven as the voice of the Downs and Wendy J Lowery who is the new track photographer. They will bring a fresh sound and look to their respective positions that will add to the overall race day experience.

This year's schedule starts with a Sunday, Wednesday, Saturday rotation that will run through the end of August. There is one special card on Friday (Aug. 26) featuring two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes and Batavia Down's signature stake, the $75,000 Robert J. Kane Memorial Pace. Post time for the six Sundays is 1:15 p.m. and all Wednesdays, Saturdays and the Friday are at 6 p.m.

The schedule changes in September to Wednesday, Friday and Saturday with two exceptions. There is a special Labor Day matinee on Monday (Sept. 5) at 1:15 p.m. and no racing on Friday (Sept. 9). Again all post times (except Labor Day) are at 6 p.m. In October only the first Friday of the month will be raced and then it will be Wednesday and Saturday until the meet ends on Dec. 17. All post times will be at 6 p.m. except Saturday (Nov. 5) which has a special 3:15 p.m. start due to the Breeders Cup.

All eight divisions of the New York Sire Stakes will be contested at the Downs this year and those eligible horses will compete for an estimated $784,000 in purses. Plus the NYSS Excel "A" and "B" series will also be held on those nights, driving that purse value even higher. The stakes will be in town on Wednesday July 20, July 27, Aug. 3, Aug. 10, Aug. 17, Friday Aug. 26 (when two divisions will go along with the $75,000 Kane Memorial) and Wednesday Aug. 31.

Batavia Downs will continue to provide free downloadable full past performance racing programs on their website at bataviadownsgaming.com under the live racing tab (on the left). The Batavia Downs YouTube channel will also furnish free live streaming of all the races.

There are several promotions to note on opening night. There is a mandatory payout of an $1,188 carryover on the Jackpot Pick-6 in race 5. Free print programs will be available at the track on Wednesday as well. Free OTB programs for Batavia live will also be available for the first three days of the meet (July 20, 23, 24).

Also on opening night will be a free $500 "Lotta Cash" giveaway. Beginning in race two and running through race 11, one lucky winner will be drawn at random after each race from entries submitted and the winner will receive a $50 betting voucher.

You must be 18 years of age to enter and present to win.

And you can enter to win a "Stay and Play" package Wednesday that includes a one night stay at the Batavia Downs Gaming Hotel. Simply swipe your Player's Club card between 4:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. to be eligible for the free random drawing. Again, you must be present to win.

Other promotions scheduled during the year include $2 Sunday's which will offer $2 hot dogs, draft beer and soda on Sunday August 7, 21 and 28 from noon to 4 p.m. Monday (Sept. 5) is the annual Labor Day driver's bike race sponsored by Mama Squirrels Nest. Eight bikes will be given away and $2 hot dogs, draft beer and soda will be available from noon to 4 p.m. And Sunday (Oct. 16) will be the highly anticipated Wiener Dog races.

The newly remodeled Clubhouse and Rail Bar will be open at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Friday (when racing) and Saturday, offering a limited bar food menu along with a full buffet that is now located on the lower level for easier access. Wednesday is a home-style Buffet while Friday and Saturday features prime rib and shrimp.

In the grandstand, the Homestretch Grill is newly remodeled and is offering fresh made-to-order subs, deli sandwiches, hot dogs, burgers and coming soon, brick oven pizza. They are open until 8 p.m. nightly.

The wagering menu is tasty as well. On a 10-race program, besides win, place and show there will be three daily doubles, 10 exactas, 10 trifectas, nine superfectas, two Pick-3's, two Pick-4's, one Pick-5 and one Jackpot Super High Five, all with low minimum wagers.

All of last year's top drivers will be returning including Jim Morrill Jr., Kevin Cummings, Kyle Cummings, Drew Monti and Dave McNeight III. Top local trainers will be headed by last year's leaders Jennifer Giuliani, Maria Rice, Jim McNeight and Shawn McDonough. And they will be joined by some new stables moving in.

Jennifer Sansone will be shipping 16 horses from Kentucky and Pocono to stable at Batavia Downs, all to be driven by Fern Paquet Jr. Western New York native Jim Rothfuss will be returning home from The Meadows with a barn of 20 horses, many of which are locally owned. And other trainers who will be shipping in include Joe Skowyra, Kevin Reynolds Jr., Dale Gilmour and David Daigneault.

There was a 30 per cent increase in stalls allotted this year to handle the large influx of requests from horsemen who wanted to race at Batavia Downs and with that increased horse population, very competitive racing should be seen during the meet.

For more information and updates all year, follow Batavia Downs Racetrack on Facebook or log onto the website at bataviadownsgaming.com.

Buffalo Raceway concludes 2022 season

"It was nice to get through the racing season without any (COVID-19) restrictions," said Buffalo Raceway assistant general manager Jon Cramer as the track completed the live meet on Saturday (July 16).

A switch from evening start times to afternoon racing resulted in pretty good results. "The handle was slightly down both on and off track for the year but the winter months played havoc," Cramer said.

He continued by saying, "We are going to also look at our promotions this fall, on what worked and what didn't. I am sure one of the promotions that will return is the Kentucky Derby Party."

Jim Morrill Jr. collected his second consecutive driving title and fourth overall at Buffalo Raceway by scoring 91 victories in just 303 starts. He was also the leading purse earner with $867,305. Drew Monti was second in the rankings with 75 wins with Kevin Cummings third with 65 victories.

Shawn McDonough won his first ever training crown by sending out 54 winners on the season and also posted 33 driving victories. He was also tops in money collected with $425,218. Gerry Sarama was second in the trainer's standings with 33 while Jennifer Giuliani and Ryan Swift shared third place honors with 31 each.

While enjoying the 'Trainer Of The Meet' award, McDonough also celebrated his trainee Mugshots Bro who was named 'Trotter Of The Meet'.

The 10-year-old Mugshots Bro (Jailhouse Jesse—Photo Emmy) is co-owned by Herman Niedhammer and Herman Niedhammer Jr. Mugshots Bro collected six wins, a second and a third place finish in 10 starts on the season. He earned $48,845 and had a five-race wins streak with four of those coming from outside posts.

Stop Action was a model of consistency and determination throughout the season and claimed the 'Pacer Of The Meet' award.

Owned by Super Mile LLC and trained by Angelo Nappo, the 5-year-old gelded Stop Action (Somebeachsomewhere—The Show Returns, started the campaign in the $5,500 level but steadily worked his way up the ladder and into the Open competition.

In 18 starts, Stop Action finished in the money 16 times including eight victories and bankrolled $69,595, the most of any horse at the track. His seasonal best was 1:54 and was driven by Kevin Cummings through much of the year.

There were eight track records broken during the season including three all-age standards.

The trotters saw two all-age marks fall by the wayside as Je Suis Si Belle snapped the all-age filly time with a 1:56.1 which also was good enough to re-write the 3-year-old filly barrier. Barn Hall established a new record for the all-age and 4-year-old trotting horses with a 1:56.2.

Gotthegreenlight made a name for herself by placing her name in the record book with a 1:52.2 which eclipsed the all-age and 3-year-old filly pacing marks. Vivians Dream broke the 2-year-old filly record with a 1:54.4 mile tour and American Fling erased the 2-year-old gelding record with a 1:55.1.

Statistically, Buffalo Raceway's post time favorites won at a 48.26 per cent clip.

French horses to be offered for sale on July 25

Last month, a delegation of American breeders traveled to France to discuss collaboration with French trotting officials. Over the years, relationships were developed, and discussions had taken place about ways for more collaboration between the two countries. The June trip by the Americans, following an invitation by France's LeTrot organization, which oversees most of the details involving the country's trotting sport, put a concept for selling and importing French horses in the United States on a fast track.

The American breeders on the trip included Jim Simpson of Hanover Shoe Farms, Kevin Greenfield of Hickory Lane Farm, Tom Grossman of Blue Chip Farms, Dr. Andy Roberts from Kentucky, and David Reid, who breeds horses under the banner of Moni Market Breeders and also operates Preferred Equine Marketing sales agency.

Although the North American foal crop has stabilized in recent years, racetracks are still facing horse shortages.

Meanwhile, according to LeTrot data, the French trotting population has a surplus of horses that can't fit in classes where they would be competitive. The race classification structure in France is based on a horse's earnings, and horses will naturally face tougher competition as they earn more purse money and climb the classification ladder.

Harness Racing Update on Facebook /HARNESSRACINGUPDATE

Ideas were exchanged about the specifics of offering French horses for sale to the U.S. market. Reid's company, Preferred Equine Marketing, has an online platform that was chosen as a sale vehicle and the first sale is now on the calendar, scheduled to take place on Monday (July 25).

The French horses to be sold were selected by a panel assembled by LeTrot. The panel conducted a review to identify horses that could be suitable for U.S. racing. The panel, which included bloodstock agents, trainers and LeTrot staff, reviewed over 70 French trotters to identify which horses could be offered for sale.

"This process has gone smoothly," said Emmanuelle Morvillers, who heads the International department at LeTrot. "Piroplasmosis tests were required to enter a horse, and then the team of experts narrowed the list and chose to see 21 horses on the track."

In addition to the scrutiny by LeTrot's panel, potential buyers of the French horses will have the common visual tools to review the horses offered for sale.

"All horses entered for sale will have extensive photos, race and walking videos, as well as health certificates and veterinary exams," said Reid. "The review committee in France has put a lot of effort into recruiting these horses and LeTrot has been very cooperative in all efforts to make the detailed arrangements for pre-sale paperwork, transportation, registration, photos and videos."

LeTrot has submitted the names of 13 horses for sale, with seven to be sold on Monday (July 25) and six slated for sale on Aug. 1. The roster for the horses to be sold on July 25 will be posted on Thursday (July 21).

"We now have the experience of organizing selections," said Morvillers. "I think that if this first sale is successful, it can be organized again in a couple of months. Perhaps we can find a way to offer three to four sales per year?"

Reid said he is also optimistic about the potential of importing French trotters to North America via online sales.

"Over the past number of years, the demand for pacers to be imported from Down Under has seemed to be very successful," Reid continued, "so the thought is to open up the markets and be able to import trotters from France and other countries in the future to compete here in North America. With the conditions being more flexible in the U.S. and Canada, that will allow the French horses to find races to compete in a host of classes based on career earnings and pari-mutuel wins."
