Amateur races at The Meadowlands need a tweak or two

For 2024, here are a couple of changes that I think can help the series remain a fabric of the betting landscape.

by Dean Towers

BRUSH AND CRUSH

by DEAN TOWERS

When someone brings up the Meadowlands Amateur Driving Club, you're sure to hear some strong opinions.

On the positive side, the races are contentious (some may say chaotic) and bring in the depth of field for bettors because so many horses can win. The amount wagered on these races is not poor, and they're an avenue for small-time hobby horsepeople to enjoy their craft, which is important for a grassroots game.

Unfortunately, in my view, many of these strengths are also weaknesses.

Chaos and contention are fine for any form of racing (single-file racing is never preferred) but amateur drivers on cheaper horses who are eight, nine, 12 or 14 years old often lay down a half in :54 or :55, and that's troubling.

These trips also confound bettors, and I think this is a bigger issue than some think it is. It's not like patrons can turn the page and not participate in the amateur races, because on a typical Friday they are a part of the popular Pick-5 and Pick-4 wagers. There's simply no way for a serious horseplayer to avoid them.

The amateur races sometimes don't look like harness racing at all. They're a parking ticket free-for-all. As one observer put it to me, "It's like nobody seems to think a pocket in a :56 half with an eight claimer is a good trip." Addressing this, in my view, is of paramount importance. Some normalcy has to be injected into the races because it's good for the drivers, trainers and the horses.

Can anything be done? I have a couple of ideas that I hope you'll allow me to share.

First, The Meadowlands made big news over the past 12 months with dictums for drivers. For example, the giving of "courtesy tucks" and passing up the inside were addressed in driver meetings.

I believe something similar should be done with the amateurs.

The amateur races sometimes don't look like harness racing at all. They're a parking ticket free-for-all. As one observer put it to me, "It's like nobody seems to think a pocket in a :56 half with an eight claimer is a good trip." Addressing this, in my view, is of paramount importance. Some normalcy has to be injected into the races because it's good for the drivers, trainers and the horses.

Second, The Meadowlands is the number one harness track in the world for bettors. It's the track with the best drivers, the best horses and the best handle. To keep that branding in place, I believe the amateur races should not be a part of the regular card.

I'd suggest the four amateur races a week should be raced in races 1 through 4 on Fridays. This would remove them from the first Pick-5, and would allow any driver who is driving at Harrah's Chester to make it in time for their Big M drives.

Creating a Pick 4 with this set of amateur races (with a possible seeded pool) should keep the handle strong, and it shouldn't hurt the bottom line too much, if at all. The way these races tend to go, we might even see some Pick-4 carryovers, which would triple or quadruple the first Pick-4 on the regular card.

The end result: Serious bettors would be able to fire on the serial bets with no amateur races and it should restore some order to those important pools. It would also signal to bettors that The Meadowlands is, was, and always will be a gambler's racetrack.

Don't get me wrong, I think the amateur racing series at The Meadowlands is a good thing. I love that people who enjoy this wonderful sport get to compete at the Mecca of harness racing. It's a part of what makes this sport unique. I just hope it can be done better; for the horse, for the horseplayer and for those who compete in it.

Feel the Bern

Bjorn "Bernie" Noren learned from two of the best – Takter and Svanstedt.

by Murray Brown

Very few in the world of harness racing have received a better equine education than Bjorn "Bernie" Noren. He has studied under arguably the two greatest equine masters in North America and perhaps the world – Jimmy Takter and Ake Svanstedt – both for relatively lengthy periods of time.

“ There is likely very little I can say about Moni Maker that hasn't already been said. She was as close to perfection as can possibly be found in a trotter. She had it all. She was already an accomplished trotter when she first arrived at Takter Stable from Bill Andrews. Jimmy Takter, Conny Svensson, and our team at the Takter stable set about her transition from an extremely good trotter to becoming the greatest trotter in the world. ”

~ Bjorn “Bernie” Noren

It began back in Noren's hometown of Vara, Sweden. Noren had become a great fan of American trotting. Three of his earliest equine idols were Mack Lobell, Peace Corps and Napolitano. He bonded with them when they came to Sweden to race. At the age of 20, he was offered the opportunity to go stateside to work for Takter. He jumped at the opportunity. He began as a groom in the Takter ranks. And after five years, he was elevated to the position of second trainer with the top trotting stable in North America and perhaps the world. Among his fondest memories while with Takter were those with maybe the greatest of all trotting mares, Moni Maker.

“I recall training her a week before what I believe was her greatest accomplishment, her monumental world record time trial under saddle while being ridden by Julie Krone,” Noren said. “I've been fortunate enough to have seen and even sometimes to have played a small part in a few of the greatest events in harness racing history. That effort by Moni Maker might be the one at the very top.”

“It was an overcast day. The mood at the track was like no other I can remember ever before or since. The feeling in the place was electric. It was as though those there knew something monumental was about to happen. To say that I wasn’t nervous would not be correct. After all, this was something that had never been tried. Here we had a great mare, the best one ever in my opinion, being ridden for the first time by Julie Krone, the greatest female jockey in horse racing history before a large crowd at what I consider our finest racetrack.

“Actually, it wasn’t the first time Julie had sat astride her. Earlier that week, she went a training mile with her and felt confident that Moni Maker was poised to make history. Jimmy and Wally Hennessey were driving the prompters. Before the event, Julie, Jimmy and Wally were cool as cucumbers, but I was nervous. Everything went off like clockwork. If the event had been scripted better, I wouldn’t know how that would have been possible. After the performance, Julie, Jimmy, and Wally signed autographs and spoke with the fans in the grandstand. It was one of, if not my greatest day in the sport.”

What is it that in your opinion made Jimmy Takter the great horseman that he is?

“Everything. He is a great manager. He is adept at all things regarding horses. He has a great eye and perhaps more importantly a great ‘feel.’ Sometimes I had the feeling that he knew what a horse was going to do before the horse itself knew it. He was more than an adequate driver. Although he might not be as good at getting results as our greatest, he was still better than most. He most certainly knew more about a horse and how it might be helped than most of our best drivers do after sitting behind it for the first time. Perhaps most importantly he is a great diagnostician. He knows how to manage and take care of a horse before it gets sore.”

After working with Takter you went out on your own?

“Yes. The opportunity presented itself. I felt I had to give it a try, so I set up shop at White Birch Farm in Allentown, New Jersey. I got some horses with the help of Richard ‘Nifty’ Norman. I was doing all right the first year with horses like Show Her The Money ($871,161) who won the Miss New Jersey at The Meadowlands, and Vertical Horizon ($856,063). I had a good year with lots of wins at The Meadowlands. It helped to get a few more horses and some nice new yearlings. The following year, I had Southwind Samurai, who finished second in her Hambo Oaks elimination for my favorite catch driver of all the time, Mr. John D. Campbell. But in the Hambo Oaks final we were unlucky and got run over in the last turn, and she made a break. After three years in New Jersey, we decided to give it a try in Canada. The horses were racing well up there. In the spring of 2013, I received a phone call from the great Swedish horseman Ake Svanstedt, who said he was going to establish a stable on this side of the Atlantic, in New Jersey. He was looking for someone fluent in both Swedish and English and knowledgeable in the ways of North American racing to help him with administering his American stable. That person was to be me. I was to become his jack of all trades.”

So, you went to work with Ake Svanstedt?

"I went to work with Ake. I did a little bit of everything there, such as office work, administration, staking, training, going to the farms to look at, and help evaluate possible yearling purchases. Like many young people, I might have thought I knew more than I actually did know. Ake Svanstedt taught me a lot about what I didn't yet know. I dealt with many of the owners in the stable. Among them was Tristan Sjoberg who was to become a great friend and my biggest benefactor. I helped Tristan buy White Bliss for his mother, who loves white horses. He and his family owned the great trotter Sebastian K. What a wonderful horse he was. Second only to Moni Maker in the horses I feel strongly about. I had a great time with Ake and learned a lot about training on a sand track, and the importance of having horses sound so they are able to absorb training well. The first two years working with Svanstedt, my wife Laura was waiting for her visa, so she and our two kids were unable to join me in the United States. Then they finally came over, but I felt I didn't have enough time to spend with our kids when I had to work six days a week. In the summer, we might also race on Sundays. So, Laura and I decided to move to Sweden before our kids got too old.

"That's when destiny took over. Tristan approached me and asked if I would be interested in helping him administer his family's horse holdings throughout the world. It was a once in a lifetime opportunity. Of course, I jumped at it. I'm pretty much on my own. I try to stay on top of the racehorses here in Sweden and in the States. I also look after the broodmares, and the foals they raise in the States with Bob Brady at Kentuckiana Farms. We raise them mostly to be sold as yearlings, although we sometimes keep a few to race ourselves. I try to help Tristan in choosing yearlings to purchase to race and hopefully to breed if they become good enough. One of these was Captain Corey who I absolutely loved as a yearling, even though he is by the stallion Googoo Gaagaa, who was a great trotter despite being bred to be a pacer.

"Tristan is not afraid to go against the prevailing grain. Robert Lindstrom had purchased him at Lexington for $150,000. I suggested that we try to buy a piece of him. Robert was agreeable. We bought a 25 per cent interest. He went on to become an excellent trotter for Ake Svanstedt and won the Hambletonian. He was syndicated as a stallion and his book has been full and closed, his first two years as a stud. His first foals were born this year. Needless to say, they look great. I suppose all breeders probably say that. I hope they grow up to race as well as they look."

What differences, if any, do you find in Takter and Svanstedt's training methods?

"I think that I would start with their similarities, rather than their differences. They are both the hardest of workers. They are both highly intelligent. They both speak this uncommon language, called horsemanship. They think like a horse would and they try to respond to whatever issue a horse might have. They both have the same goal, to develop horses to become as good as their genetic makeup will allow. In order to get to that point, they need to keep a horse sound. They both are experts at doing that.

"As far as training is concerned, Takter believes in lots of miles on a regular racetrack to make them strong and fast. He will go fast with them occasionally, maybe just to see what is in the tank. Svanstedt trains his young horses mostly on the sand track to build strength. When strength is there, they will be able to go fast when they need to. Both have remarkable hands; hands that tell them just about all they need to know about a particular horse. It's a trait that very few possess."

What keeps you occupied these days?

"I try to stay in close contact with all the horses under my watch and with racing throughout the world. My family and I live in the village of Tråvad, Sweden. I oversee our racehorses here in Sweden, and I also follow those who are situated elsewhere. I try to get to the U.S. a few times a year for the Lexington and Harrisburg sales. Also, for any big races in which we might have a legitimate contender. It looks as though I may be back on Aug. 5. I think we have a legitimate Hambletonian contender in Kierkegaard K."

Fister's small investment pays big dividends

by James Platz

In late 2008, Walter Fister purchased Four Starzzzz Hope at Harrisburg for a bargain basement price. The Cam's Card Shark—Wizzardmania mare has gone on to become an incredible producer for the Bluegrass-based breeder. Today (July 23), freshman pacing filly Go Now will compete in one of several $50,000 Kentucky Proud Series championships offered at The Red Mile. Four Starzzzz Hope is the grandam of the Always A Virgin 2-year-old, trained by veteran Kentucky conditioner Randy Jerrell.

"When I bought her, I paid very little for her," said Fister, who will turn 80 later this year. "She was a fast mare. I would have to go back through the records, but I believe I only gave $1,300 for her at the Harrisburg sale. She was a real gutsy horse; she never quit."

When the owner and breeder acquired Four Starzzzz Hope, the mare had four foals to her credit. Bred to The Panderosa once and Western Hanover for three consecutive years, the dam had not produced much when she passed through the sale ring. That would change after Fister brought her home to Kentucky.

"They had not really started producing too much," Fister said. "She had a record of 1:52. She was a strong mare. One of the first horses I ever had was a mare called Ah So Bingo. She wasn't a big mare, but she had a big rear end. That's the reason I bought this mare. She wasn't too big, but she had a big, strong rear end."

After Fister purchased the mare, Carter Duer made a statement that served as a foreshadowing for the events to come.

"Carter and I are good friends," Fister said. "I bought this horse and he walked down there and said, 'Well, he probably bought the cheapest horse in the sale and she'll probably end up being the best damn mare.'"

Once in Fister's broodmare band, those early foals began to generate results on the track. The first foal, Four Starz Hand, made two starts and earned $375 in her abbreviated career. She was followed by geldings Four Starz Hold Em, p, 4, 1:50.2m ($114,135), 39 wins; Four Starz Trace, p, 5, 1:50.3f ($704,295), 32 wins; and Four Starzzz Z, p, 7, 1:50f ($310,053), 29 wins. The breeder had purchased Four Starzzzz Hope again in foal to The Panderosa. She foaled a filly that Fister named Podges Lady for his mother. She went on to bank $414,100 while taking a sophomore mark of 1:51.4. As a broodmare, she has five winners from six foals, with total earnings nearing $900,000.

"Podges Lady was so good, and Podge was so good," Fister said. "They started breeding to Western Hanover before I had her and those were good horses. They became good horses after I bought her. It seemed like anything you bred to, she would do well."

All told, Four Starzzzz Hope has produced 14 foals, with 13 starters and 12 winners. Besides Western Hanover and The Panderosa, she was bred to sires including Mach Three, Jenna's Beach Boy, Ponder, Pet Rock, Always A Virgin, Big Bad John and Fear The Dragon. Combined, her offspring have earned more than $2.2 million. Fister has kept some mares from the dam and is again reaping the rewards from the next generation. Walstan's Lady, an eight-time winner on the track, produced six-figure earners from her first three foals. Top Honors, an Always A Virgin mare, won last year's $50,000 Kentucky Proud Series championship for sophomore pacing fillies for the team of Fister and Jerrell, driven by Elliott Deaton.

"I really liked Walstan's Lady," said the owner, who purchased his first horse in 1968. "She got a little injured, which is why I had to quit with her. She's produced really well, too. I'm probably going to be one of those guys with four horses that are all sisters."

In keeping with that theme, he has also retained Oh How Gracious, a Pet Rock mare with a 3-year-old mark of 1:55.4 on a five-eighths. Go Now is the first living foal from the dam, and in keeping with his affinity for the Western Hanover line, the filly is sired by Always A Virgin. He describes the young pacer as slick-gaited, sound and a good eater. Jerrell trains the filly and also serves as driver. He also campaigned Oh How Gracious for Fister.

"She's been a really nice filly to work with all along," Jerrell said. "She's got a good attitude, good to work around, good-gaited from day one. I raced her mother. This filly probably has quite a bit more speed than her mother had."

“When I bought [Four Starzzzz Hope], I paid very little for her. She was a fast mare. I would have to go back through the records, but I believe I only gave $1,300 for her at the Harrisburg sale. She was a real gutsy horse; she never quit.”

~ Walter Fister

Go Now, owned by Walter S. Fister LLC, Walter M. Fister and Justin Fister, has contested each of the seven Kentucky fair stops this season, hitting the board each time out. The freshman has tallied four wins and leads the points heading into today's contest. Her latest win one week ago produced her fastest mile to date, a 1:57.3 clocking at Lexington with Jerrell at the lines.

“She was in the better division this past Sunday and three of them left out of there real hard,” said the 61-year-old horseman. “I dropped in behind them and tipped her with cover going into the last turn, popped off the cover at the three-quarter pole and she got by them pretty handy. Her attitude is good in the barn, her attitude is good on the track. She's easy to drive. She can race on the front end or out of a hole, either one.”

With $20,595 in seasonal earnings, Go Now looks to close out the fair season with a winning performance this afternoon. Ironically, she will compete against a filly from the same family. Tameudown, ranked third in points, is a Fear The Dragon freshman that is the last foal from Four Starzzzz Hope, making her a sister to Go Now's dam. Jerrell trains and has guided her to two wins on the fair circuit.

“Tameudown will end up being the better horse, I think,” said Fister, who plans to add her to his broodmare band when she is done racing. “She's grown a lot. Right now, she's not the best horse. I think eventually she will be.”

Regardless of today's outcome, Fister can be proud of the generational talent that Four Starzzzz Hope and her offspring continue to produce. His small investment has yielded incredible returns, and should for years to come.

Philip Antonacci off to fast start at Saratoga

The young thoroughbred trainer from a harness racing family has won his first two races at The Spa.

by Bill Finley

The Antonacci name and the Lindy Farms operation may symbolize excellence in standardbred racing, but that means little on the backstretch of Saratoga Race Course during the sport's premier thoroughbred meet. Philip Antonacci wants to change that.

Back in 2020, Antonacci, whose Hall of Fame father, Frank \(The Elder\) Antonacci, is co-owner of the powerful Lindy Farms operation, decided he wanted to train thoroughbreds. He knew it wouldn't be easy. He was in his mid-twenties at the time, had little experience with that breed, and, even though Lindy would supply him with some horses, he didn't have the backing off a major thoroughbred outfit. And there were the expected growing pains. He went 3-for-28 in 2021, his first full year as a trainer.

But the now 28-year-old trainer persevered and vowed to continue to work hard, and it looks like his efforts are paying off. Philip won with his first two starters at this year's Saratoga meet, and that's exactly the sort of thing that can open doors for a young trainer.

"There are people who will take shots with a young trainer and when you have success at big meets like Saratoga things can

“ I think the owners enjoy the experience we give them. There's a lot of communication and we give them a lot of updates. We send them videos every week. We are a boutique operation and I think that's one of our selling points to owners, that we provide a level of detail and communication that you may not get from the trainers who have the huge numbers. ” snowball,” Philip said. “It was a good way to start. A lot of it is timing. A lot of our horses were in good condition and in good form. We ship horses up from Florida and sometimes it takes them a little while to get going. I'm happy they ran to their form and that things came together over those two days.”

Philip got his first winner on opening day of the meet, sending out Monet Never to a win in a maiden special weight race on the grass. He struck again two days later with Thundara, the winner of a $40,000 maiden claimer.

“The start we've gotten off to is very gratifying,” he said. “When you get a couple of winners like that there's no better feeling in the world. There are a lot of days where it's hard work for your whole team and it's great to see it all come to fruition.”

As has been the case from the start, Philip's team includes Hall of Famer Jimmy Takter. When Philip started out the two were considered co-trainers. Takter has stepped back some but is still involved in the operation.

“Jimmy is an advisor,” Philip said. “We talk every day about certain horses and he's a good sounding board for me to tell him what I am seeing. He's had years and years of experience and has a lot of good advice. He'll listen to me, then tell me not to worry about certain things. When you go through ups and downs, he has a good way of making things level out. He comes by the barn once every couple of weeks, but we stay in touch daily.”

It's not just Takter. While it has taken time, Philip has surrounded himself with a good team.

“We were a new operation and we came in starting from scratch,” Philip said. “When you do like we did and when you don’t have a legacy to follow or a father that was a trainer, it takes a little bit of time to build your team. It took two, three years for us to get the right people around us to make sure we had all the right pieces and we could get enough quality horses that we could deliver results. We’re starting to see it now. You win here in Saratoga and you get a lot of exposure and I think that can help you get rolling.”

Monet Never is owned by Lindy Farms and David Reid’s Ice Wine Stable. Lindy is the sole owner of Thundara. Philip said that about half his horses are owned by Lindy. He has 15 stalls at Saratoga and says his barn is made up of a mix of 2-year-olds, allowance horses and claimers. There are another six horses residing at Lindy Farm in Somers, CT, which is also the home of the Lindy standardbred operation. He said that the Lindy farm in Connecticut is in the process of being upgraded with the goal of turning it into a top-class thoroughbred farm that can serve as a satellite facility while Philip is stabled at place likes Saratoga and Belmont Park. The Lindy team recently installed a seven-furlong wood chip track for the thoroughbreds to train over.

While things are heading in the right direction for Philip, he hopes to build on recent success and attract more owners and better horses. In an effort to do so, he tries to go the extra mile to keep his clients informed.

“I think the owners enjoy the experience we give them,” he said. “There’s a lot of communication and we give them a lot of updates. We send them videos every week. We are a boutique operation and I think that’s one of our selling points to owners, that we provide a level of detail and communication that you may not get from the trainers who have the huge numbers.”

The major thoroughbred yearling sales are right around the corner and Philip said he hopes to be active. It’s all part of the process, to get a little bit bigger and better every day.

“We’re seeing some owners reach out to us and saying they’ll be giving us horses,” he said. “Hopefully, we can go to the sales and get some quality stock for next year. I’d like to keep growing every year. We want to get quality owners and quality horses and continue to deliver on the big stage and get the best out of all our horses. We’re working on developing the farm in Connecticut and that can only help.”

Philip won’t be the leading trainer in Saratoga or anywhere close. That’s never been the plan. The goal was to show the sport that he belongs here, that he can come away from the toughest thoroughbred meet in the country with five or six winners. It looks like he’s on his way.

Joviality chases new big trophy

by Thomas Hedlund

Courant Stable's homebred mare Joviality (Chapter Seven) has been an exciting element in the Swedish 4-year-old races this season and the former Marcus Melander trainee has charmed the harness racing fans with her splendid technique since she arrived in Sabine Kagebrant's barn.

After her victory in the Drottningpokalen in early May, Joviality was defeated by Jazzy Perrine at Solvalla on the day of Elitloppet, but after an easy win in the Prix Diana Zet and in her elimination heat of the $465,000 Stochampionatet on July 14, she will carry the pressure as a heavy favorite in today's (July 23) final at Arevalla racetrack.

Six elimination heats were held on July 14, all over the distance of 2,640 meters, which was another new experience for Joviality. Since she moved to Sweden, she has handled the 1.6 miles distance perfectly.

There are no opponents that can be compared to Joviality in the 12-horse field, in terms of merit, but it's horse racing and anything can happen. Joviality will be the big favorite and

It's My Show scorches to 1:47.4 Adios test victory; Cannibal wins other elim

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

It's My Show put on a show once more, blazing to a 1:47.4 mile Saturday (July 22) in an elimination of the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Cannibal captured the other elimination.

Those two will be joined in Saturday's (July 29) $350,000 final by the rest of the top four finishers in each elim as well as the fifth-place finisher with higher career earnings. Thus, in addition to It's My Show and Cannibal, the Adios final field will include: Redwood Hanover, Seven Colors, Fulton, Ken Hanover, Ervin Hanover, Flite Craft and Bamboozler (who was the qualifying fifth-place finisher. Linda Toscano will be the only trainer with two finalists, sending out It's My Show and Fulton.

The draw for Adios final post positions will take place Wednesday (July 26), with the connections of It's My Show and Cannibal choosing their post positions after a random draw to determine their selection order. All other post positions will be determined by random draw. The July 29 Adios Day card shapes up as a blockbuster, featuring five Grand Circuit stakes in addition to the Adios. First post that day is 11:45 a.m.

Ervin Hanover cut the fractions in his elimination, throwing down a swift 1:20.1 three-quarters while It's My Show followed patiently in third. But when Scott Zeron tipped him off the cones, the Sweet Lou—Put On A Show gelding left Ervin Hanover in his wake and defeated the closing Ken Hanover by a length while Ervin Hanover saved show. The mile is the fastest ever by a 3-year-old gelding on a five-eighths-mile track, knocking a tick from the record shared by Wiggle It Jiggle It and Lucan Hanover. However, Papi Rob Hanover holds the world record for the fastest mile by a 3-year-old male pacer on a five-eighths mile track for his 1:47.1 mile in his Adios elimination victory in 2020.

It's My Show, the Pepsi North America Cup winner, is now undefeated in seven outings this year, with career earnings of $536,215, after a winless freshman season. But he hadn't raced since the June 17 North America Cup, skipping the Meadowlands Pace by design, and Toscano, who conditions the homebred for Richard Young and Joanne Young, wondered if he'd be as tight as he needed to be.

"This was a really nerve-wracking race for me because it's chancy when you give one five weeks off," Toscano said. "It was what I wanted to do, I wanted to freshen him up, I want to try to keep him fresh for the whole season. Yet at the same time, you want him to be tight, happy, sound. The race was important because it's the Adios.

"I'm really happy that he didn't power move back to the lead because that would have created a really tough race for him today."

Cannibal suffered his only defeat of the year in the Meadowlands Pace final, when he struggled to make up ground from the back of the pack. Though he hadn't been better than third at the quarter in any start this year, Yannick Gingras was determined to give him his chance this week, battling hard for the lead before yielding to Seven Colors. Winning trainer Nancy Takter said getting to the point early wasn't necessarily a key goal.

"This was a different race from last week," Takter said. "The flow just didn't develop in the Meadowlands Pace the way I would have liked. But he raced super; he just wasn't in a good spot. He can race on the pace, he can race off the pace. It's the first time he's ever been here, and he got around the track good. So, I think we'll keep things the same for next week."

Cannibal kicked clear in the lane and defeated Redwood Hanover by 1-1/2 lengths in 1:48.2, with Seven Colors third. Diamond Creek Racing owns the homered son of Sweet Lou—No More Losses, who lifted his lifetime bankroll to $194,978.

Takter said Cannibal is ticketed for the Kentucky Sires Stakes as well as most of the rich late-season events.

Aintbluenomore springs 12-1 upset in PASS for 2-year-old pacing colts

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

Aintbluenomore avenged last week's defeat by Special Menu big time in one of Saturday's (July 22) three $56,600 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes event for freshman colt and gelding pacers at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows, scoring a 1:51 front-end victory at 12-1.

Lyons Rock and Tua Many Kings took the other splits.

In a June 15 Pop Up Series leg at The Meadows, Special Menu got to the point cleanly, and Aintbluenomore couldn't track him down from the pocket. But on Saturday, the Heston Blue Chip—Jenna's Delight gelding turned the tables for Jeremy Indof, pocketing his rival. As they turned for home, the leader maintained his margin while Special Menu faded to fifth. Aintbluenomore triumphed for owner/trainer Mitchell York, 1 1/4 lengths better than Lou's World, with Captain Fear Not third.

Things appeared bleak for Lyons Rock, trailing by six lengths at the half. But the son of Captaintreacherous—Planet Rock launched an impressive, uncovered bid for Tim Tetrick that carried him to victory in a career-best 1:53. Sweet Beach Life was 1 1/2 lengths back in second while Swiftly Lazar completed the ticket.

Jim King Jr., who conditions Lyons Rock for Threeelyons racing, said he wasn't surprised by the power of the colt's first-over move.

"He's been progressing right along," King said. "His manners aren't exactly where we want them yet, but he's a high-speed horse, and he likes what he does."

PENNSYLVANIA STALLION SERIES

Saturday's card also offered six Pennsylvania Stallion Series divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts, with Gem Quality, Hunger Strike, Syed Ali K, Tyreek Chill, Mikis Best Shot and T H Tyson taking the splits. Trainer Chris Ryder enjoyed a stake double with Gem Quality and T H Tyson.

When first-timer Gem Quality peeled off cover for Dexter Dunn, he found another gear and drew off to prevail by 4 1/2 lengths in 1:53. Fredericktown Lad and Steam Play rounded out the ticket.

"He's a nice 2-year-old, pretty intelligent," said Dunn, who handled the son of Captain Crunch—Twinkle in both his qualifiers. "He's bred well, and he's a good-looking horse as well. I didn't even turn the stick on him in the race. He knows what's he's doing."

Let It Ride Stables, Bottom Line Racing, Brad Grant and Enviro Stables campaign Gem Quality.

Indof piloted three winners on the 14-race card.

Live racing at The Meadows resumes Wednesday (July 26) when the program features a $1,840.77 carryover in the Early Pentafecta (race 4). First post is 12:45 p.m.

Its A Love Thing flies late to win Gold on busy OSS night

by Kara Martin for Ontario Sires Stakes

Its A Love Thing won the second race Friday night (July 22) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, a $102,200 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold division for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

James MacDonald kept Its A Love Thing (Bettor's Delight) off the pace set by leader Resilience (Jimmy Freight) out of post 2 through fractions of :27.1, :57, 1:25.1, and was in fourth at the three-quarter pole.

On the far turn, Douglas McNair piloted Blazing Belle (Bettor's Delight) into second to challenge Resilience and driver Louis-Philippe Roy, but Resilience remained in front.

Then in deep stretch, Its A Love Thing came flying and they were two across at the line with Its A Love Thing crossing the wire first in a time of 1:52.3.

"I think it takes a little more trust in the horse, it's like a partnership out there," said MacDonald. "When I went to move her off cover, Trevor's horse drifted out and she overreacted and went two, three wide. I just tried to make sure I didn't run up on someone before I moved her, maybe give her a little bit of extra room, because she likes doing her work.

"I had it in the back of my mind for sure, and I think the more she races and the more times I sit behind her she'll maybe learn to trust me and maybe not do it anymore."

The Bettors Delight filly has an OSS Grassroots win in her previous start collecting $62,400 OSS earnings this year for owners Eric Good, Thomas Biederman, and Joshua Green.

Its A Love Thing's win paid $27.80, but it was something trainer David Menary knew she was capable of.

"She was my favorite all winter," said Menary. "I want her to be known for being a good racehorse not for having one eye, so that's the game plan. All winter long she should've trained with older horses not babies. She had a couple bumps in the road, I thought she was a gold filly all the way along, things are headed in the right direction and hopefully they keep heading that way."

The second-place finish for Resilience collected $24,017 in earnings. The Eric Nadeau trainee is owned by Louis-Philippe Roy, Ecurie Francis Richard Inc, Ecurie Csl and Weaver Brusceci Llc.

Also a Bettors Delight filly, Blazing Belle trained by Gregg McNair, collected $11,528 in earnings for owner James Avritt. Menary touched on Its A Love Thing and her being a strong contender.

"She just goes fast easy, she's big," said Menary. "I've never had any real good big Bettor's Delights, all my good ones were small, but they're always tight at the wire."

A full card of racing Friday contained a busy OSS night.

In race 3, the second OSS Gold division of the night, Do Better (Bettor's Delight) got his third straight win for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

The third OSS Gold division of the night was race 6 on the card, and Odds On Platinum (Bettor's Delight) driven by Sylvain Filion came away with the win. A successful night for Filion with back-to-back OSS wins on the night.

In the fourth and final OSS Gold division and the seventh race, favorite Mirage Hanover (Bettor's Delight) won his first OSS Gold with driver Bob McClure. Pacing colt Mirage Hanover won in a time of 1:50.4 becoming the fastest North American 2-year-old of 2023.

My Way, Allegiant make amends in NJSS at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

After disappointing their fan bases in their most recent starts, My Way and Allegiant got into the win column Friday night (July 21) at The Meadowlands by winning their respective $30,000 divisions of the second leg of the New Jersey Sire Stakes for 2-year-olds on the trot.

My Way (Muscle Hill—Fine Tuned Lady) broke early a week ago in leg one as the 4-5 favorite but had no such problem Friday in the first of three splits for colts and geldings, displaying two moves on the way to a 3¼-length score in 1:54.4 to win his second career betting start. Poof Of Record, the 6-5 favorite, was second best.

“[My Way] took a bad step and I lost him,” said winning driver Tim Tetrick of last week’s start. “Tonight, he wanted to run on the last turn, but I yelled at him to make him pay attention.”

My Way, a Marcus Melander student, returned $5.80 to win as the 9-5 second choice in the wagering.

Last week, Allegiant (Tactical Landing—Too Good For You) finished second as the 3-5 public choice, but her fans came back for another try, this time at odds of 2-5. The Vernon Beachy trainee delivered by three-quarters-of-a-length after going a pocket trip in 1:54.2 in the second of three divisions for fillies.

“She’s an excellent horse,” said winning driver David Miller. “She tries very hard and has good manners and good speed. Behind the gate I saw Dexter [Dunn, driving eventual second-place finisher Special Talent] was right on the gate and I was thinking it would be good to get a trip right behind him.”

Now a winner of three-of-four career starts, Allegiant returned $2.80 to win.

AND THE OTHER WINNERS WERE: The other fillies emerging victorious were Walcango (Walner—Tamgo Donato) in 1:54.3 for driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Jim Campbell as the 9-2 third choice and Soiree Hanover (Walner—Spring Gala), who stayed perfect in two NJSS outings after scoring in 1:55.4 for Tetrick and Lucas Wallin as the 3-5 public choice.

On the colt and gelding side, Sig Sauer (Muscle Hill—Sigilwig) made his pari-mutuel debut a winning one for Andy McCarthy and Noel Daley in 1:54.4. The 9-5 second choice took down 4-5 favorite Stormcloudfashion, who finished second.

Finally, Mars Hill (Muscle Hill—Cardinale) made it two-for-two in Sire Stakes starts in 1:55.2 for Todd McCarthy and Tony Alagna. After winning last week at odds of 14-1, he once again rewarded his backers, scoring as the 7-1 third choice.

Buzzsaw Russ razor sharp in track record equaling performance at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sires Stakes for the 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings reached the midway point as round four of eight highlighted the 14-race card on Friday (July 21) at Harrah's Hoosier Park. A lone $96,000 division for the glamour boys featured Coach Stefanos putting his undefeated 2023 season on the line, but it would be the 2-year-old champion, Buzzsaw Russ pulling the mild 9-2 upset in track record equaling fashion.

Leaving from post 2 in the field of eight, driver John De Long was content to let Why Not Now and LeWayne Miller call the shots on the front end through the opening quarter of :27.2 as Buzzsaw Russ settled into the pocket. Why Not Now would have things his own way up the backstretch as Miller tapped the brakes to the tune of a :28.1 second quarter to lead the field to the halfway point in :55.3. Not content to leave Why Not Now alone on the lead any longer, driver Trace Tetrick gave Coach Stefanos his signal from third, quickly moving first over to engage Why Not Now at three-quarters in 1:22.4, with Buzzsaw Russ stalking intently behind the dueling leaders as the field straightened for home.

In the stretch, De Long angled Buzzsaw Russ immediately to the rail to make it a three-across battle for the lead as Why Not Now and Coach Stefanos drifted off the pine in the high-speed pursuit of the wire. Buzzsaw Russ wasted no time shooting the gap, powering home along the pylons behind the strength of a :25.2 homestretch blitz, capping off a sensational :52.3 back-half to score by just over two lengths on the line in 1:48.2. Coach Stefanos and Tetrick nosed out Why Not Now and Miller for the place position.

It was the second win in six seasonal starts for the Missy Essig trained gelded son of Rockin Image out of the Yankee Cruiser mare, Up Front Cruiser. Bred by Devon Beechy and Devon Knepp, Buzzsaw Russ has now banked $324,775 for owners Russell Beeman and Charles Weaver. The 1:48.2 mile matched the track record for 3-year-old pacing geldings established by JK Victory in the 2022 edition of the Hoosier Cup and gave driver John De Long his third driving victory on the card.

Helpfirstedition captures ISS for sophomore trotting colts

Indiana Sires Stakes action continued at Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Thursday (July 20) as the evening's 14-race card was highlighted by the $94,500 Indiana Sires Stakes final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings. Helpfirstedition, with John DeLong in the sulky, pulled the slight upset to score in 1:53 for trainer Missy Essig. After a narrow miss in the last round of stakes action, Helpfirstedition used a determined stretch rally to find the wire first and score his fifth win of the season.

Leaving from post 3, Helpfirstedition left just enough to grab a spot along the rail in third while Kyle Wilfong sent Ponda Jet to the front and Texsong Soprano and Michael Oosting sat the pocket. Ponda Jet led the field through splits of :55 and 1:24.2 while the field remained in single file order. DeLong gave Helpfirstedition his marching orders and he was on the attack first-over turning for home. Ponda Jet appeared up to the task but Helpfirstedition was determined. Using a :28.1 final quarter, Helpfirstedition got the win by a length and a half. Texsong Soprano also came charging late and a photo was unable to separate Ponda Jet and Texsong Soprano who finished in a dead heat for second. Sent off at odds of 5-1, Helpfirstedition returned $13.20 to his backers at the betting windows.

Unraced at 2, Helpfirstedition pushed his lifetime purse earnings to $127,100 for owners E. Wickey, J. Graber, Running Wild Stables and J. Schmucker. The son of Helpisontheway—She Knows Swagger was bred by Martin Wickey. The victory with Helpfirstedition was one of two winners on the program for the DeLong-Essig combination.

Harrah's Hoosier Park kicked off the 30th season of live racing on Friday (March 24) and is set to host the richest open stakes schedule ever throughout the 2023 live racing season. Seeuattthesmoke makes it two straight in the Buckeye Stallion Series

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

The second leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 2-year-olds wrapped up Friday night (July 21) at Eldorado Scioto Downs with six divisions for freshman colt pacers. Seeuattthesmoke was the only first-leg winner to win again as he captured the first division of the night.

Kurt Sugg raced Seeuattthesmoke off the gate and never looked back going gate-to-wire to win in 1:55. The son of Racing Hill is trained and owned by Michel Lee. Seeuattthesmoke is a perfect four-for-four in his young career.

Hot Rod Hill finished second with Well That's Marky third.

In the second division, Dragons R Fearless and Chris Page were the fastest stallion series winners of the night. Page took the pocket trip, pulling Dragons R Fearless around the final turn, and drew away to win by three lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:52.3. It was the second win in three starts for the Fear The Dragon colt. Tim Lane trains Dragons R Fearless for owners James Stambaugh and Alan Keith.

Abitofbettors Buns reeled in All Lathered Up mid-stretch to win by a length in a new lifetime mark of 1:54.4. Michael Arnold trains the son of Bit Of A Legend N for owners Rob Rittorf and Martin Budkey. In three starts, Abitofbettors Buns has two wins.

All Lathered Up held on for second place with Dragon You Along third.

In the fourth division, Bronx Drifter with Austin Hanners was fifth through the first half mile but went three wide up the backstretch to grab the lead at three-quarters and pull away to win easily by five lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:54. Bronx Drifter has hit the board in all four starts this year winning two. Steve Carter trains the son of Yankee Cruiser for owners Sheila Hummel and Peggy Carter.

Rainrock finished second with Jd's Zack Attack third.

1:55.2. It was the first career win for the son of Well Said. Dan Altmeyer trains Cheyenne Tuff for Ruth Altmeyer.

He's Hot And Ready hit the wire third.

Attention Span with Brady Galliers and Ridin The Seaside with Dan Noble dueled up the backstretch and final turn before Attention Span pulled away to win by a length in 1:53.4. Galliers trains the Downbytheseaside gelding for Galliers Racing and David Kryway. It was the first win in three starts for Attention Span.

Mr Legend finished third.

BEAUEASTEL STAYS PERFECT IN BUCKEYE STALLION SERIES WIN

Six divisions of freshman colt trotters took to the track Thursday (July 20) at Eldorado Scioto Downs in Buckeye Stallion Series action. The only first-leg winner to survive was Beaueastel, who now has victories in the first two legs.

Peter Wrenn took Beaueastel to the lead heading to the half-mile mark and cruised to an easy two-length victory in a new lifetime mark of 1:58 to win the $20,000 second division. The son of What The Hill is three-for-three this year for trainer Melanie Wrenn and Wrenn Racing.

In the first division of the evening, Wavethefreddiebird with Brett Miller went to the lead off the gate and fought off a back stretch challenge from Liberty Street and Kurt Sugg before winning by four-lengths in 1:58. It was the first win in three starts for the Scott Cox trainee. The son of Long Tom is owned by Green Wave Racing, CJ Davis Farms, and Wayne Zollars.

What A Dandy was third with Liberty Street holding on for third.

The fastest division of the night was captured by Gypsy Hill. Anthony MacDonald sat in the pocket with the What The Hill colt until the stretch and shot down the passing lane to win by a length in 1:57.4. Gypsy Hill has won two of three for trainer Jason McGinnis and the ownership group of Thestable Gypsy Hill, and Hutchison Harness.

Bob Da Bomber finished second with He's A Tuff T third.

In the fourth division, Mr Wwc with Elliott Deaton raced to the lead just past the quarter pole and cruised to a one-length victory in 1:59.1. Trained by Wes Hershberger, it was the first career win for Mr Wwc. Mr Wwc is owned by Callum Racing.

Sir Maverick and Swan Hilluva Rush rounded out the top three.

The final two divisions waited through a two-hour lightning delay before taking to the track.

In the fifth division, 37-1 long shot Source Code with Tyler Smith grabbed the lead off the gate and went wire-to-wire to win by two lengths in 2:00.3 for his first career win. The son of Mister Anson is trained by Herman Hagerman and owned by Top Shelf Stable.

No Nap Nash rallied down the stretch to finish second with My Name Jeff third.

The final division of the night was captured by Irresistible Son and Anthony MacDonald. It was the second BSS win of the night for MacDonald. Irresistible Son made his move around the final turn and reeled in the leader mid-stretch to win by three lengths in 1:59.2. It was the first win of the year for the Triumphant Caviar colt. McGinnis trains for the ownership group of Thestable Irresistible Son and Hutchison Harness.

Mrs Foxy Roxy wins another Maine Sire Stake

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

Mrs Foxy Roxy returned to her winning ways Friday (July 21) at Bangor, capturing her second Maine Sire Stakes event of the month.

One $15,298 nine-horse division of 2-year-old pacing fillies went postward in an early non-wagering race. Driven by Nick Graffam, the daughter of Deuce Seelser rolled out smoothly to the front from post 2, taking an early command of the large group of freshman distaffers. Who's Perfect (Drew Campbell, Valerie Grondin), who was last week's victor, inherited the two-hole from the second tier, post 9, and followed intently into a :30.2 opening panel.

As the field hit the reduced tempo half mile marker in 1:03, Kevin Switzer Jr. driving Ghost Of You was the first to move first over for trainer Marc Tardif. At the 1:33.2 third panel she had gotten to the wheel of Mrs Foxy Roxy with Who's Perfect up close in third on the pylons.

But as the field turned for home the two inner-most combatants had sped away from the rest of the field and battled eye-to-eye down to the wire, similar to last week where the winning margin was a nose.

Graffam continued to urge Mrs Foxy Roxy and kept her engaged to prevail by a neck over Who's Perfect in 2:02.3, a new lifetime mark.

Trained by Mike Graffam for owners William McElvain Jr., Diane Dunn and Bradford Veilleux, it was her second win in three stakes events. Mrs Foxy Roxy was bred in Maine by Kristina and Gary Hall.

Ghost Of You finished third.

Risenshine Seaside blazes to The Meadows track record 1:48.3; Wrenn wins six

He didn't see the cones until the three-eighths, but that didn't bother Risenshine Seaside a bit, as he blazed to a track record 1:48.3 in Friday's (July 21) $19,300 open handicap pace at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and trainer Ron Burke swept Friday's pair of open handicap events, with Wrenn winning six overall on the 12-race card.

Risenshine Seaside duelled with Sandbetweenmytoes and Double Metal for the early lead, but once he crossed over for Wrenn, he put a gap between himself and the rest of the field. The Downbytheseaside—Vivid Shine gelding triumphed by 7-1/2 lengths, clicking off fractions of :26, :54, 1:21 and 1:48.3 in knocking a tick from the standard for 4-year-old geldings established by Backstreet Shadow in 2019. Bronx Seelster and Wild Wild Western completed the ticket.

Risenshine Seaside now has banked $240,145 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC and Phillip Collura.

In Friday's companion feature, a $21,200 open handicap trot, Tequila Talkin zipped to the lead from post 5 and never was seriously threatened as he rolled to a decisive victory.

Longshot challenged briefly when he angled off the cones from third but soon broke stride, leaving Tequila Talkin and Wrenn to win as they pleased and score by 5-1/4 lengths in 1:52. Jujubee, the 2021 Trotter of the Year making only his 10th start over the past two seasons, closed well for second after a miserable trip, with Joey third.

Tequila Talkin, an 8-year-old Cantab Hall—Margarita Nights gelding, lifted his career bankroll to $459,742, for Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brussemi.

Dave Palone collected three Friday wins, giving him 12 over the past three programs.

Track record holder Moonshine Kisses has home-field advantage in Beckwith

Moonshine Kisses has been a very high percentage performer his entire career and since coming into the barn of trainer Jackie Greene, has been nothing short of a win machine. The 7-year-old son of Sunshine Beach has been racing for six years now but just like a bottle of fine wine, he just keeps getting better with age.

With a perfect three-for-three win record at Plainridge Park this year, Moonshine Kisses will be ready to protect his turf when he competes in the $75,000 Bert Beckwith Memorial Pace that will be held during Spirit of Massachusetts Day this afternoon (July 23).

"We bought him privately at the end of his 3-year-old year in 2019 from Mark Steacy and he did well for us in some of the non-winners classes," said Greene. "The following year when he was 4, was a tough transition for him moving into those open classes against aged horses. But he held his own and did well, winning a total of eight races.

"Then in 2021 he started having some soundness issues. We tried doing the short-term things to get him back in the box, but eventually we decided to give him the proper amount of time off and do the right things to get him back sound long term. And I hate to say anything — knock on wood — but ever since that time he's been awesome."

Moonshine Kisses was off three months that year but made a solid comeback in the fall, winning his first start back in September in the open handicap at Saratoga in 1:52.1 by over three lengths. Then he won five more starts by the end of the year, all in the top class at Yonkers, Plainridge and Saratoga.

This year, Moonshine Kisses is in the midst of the best year of his life. He started out winning five races at Yonkers and two at Saratoga, almost all of which were in open company. Then he came to Plainridge in late May and made history in three consecutive starts in the open there.

On May 25, Moonshine Kisses won in 1:49 to set a track record for older pacing horses and a new lifetime mark for himself. Then on June 1, he won again in 1:49 to tie both the record and personal mark. Two weeks later on June 15, he won in 1:48.1 to set another new record for older pacing horses, tied the all-time pacing record at Plainridge alongside Shartin N and Lyon's Sentinel and took another lifetime mark for himself.

Greene couldn't have been happier with the way her horse raced and said his routine remained the same and attributed his success to schedule and his own demeanor.

"Those three weeks, he just had the same care he's had prior to those starts," said Greene. "The weeks he goes back-to-back we train him once, the weeks he misses a week we train him a couple of times. We turn him out, he has grass and pastures, he's just a happy horse. He's an easy one, if only they were all like that.

"We normally try to race him every two weeks and then give him a week off. If he's had a tough couple weeks, we might give him an extra week off. We just try to keep managing him and spacing out his starts."

With that in mind, his start in the Beckwith will be less than a week removed from his 1:50.3 open win at Yonkers on June 17, which also happened to be the fastest win he's ever had over a half mile track. So, it's a bit of a departure from his norm.

"Coming back to race in six days this week has been a question for me, but we're doing it and we'll see what happens," said Greene. "Obviously his owner, Wayne Kellogg, thinks highly of him. He could have raced in the Gerrity at Saratoga on Saturday (July 22), but we chose not to put him in there because he really doesn't like Saratoga. He actually prefers the Yonkers surface because of the straightaways. He wears a spreader and touches a knee and for whatever reason, he prefers Yonkers over Saratoga. So instead of the Gerrity, we put him in the Beckwith at Plainridge, and obviously the five-eighths mile track versus a half.

"Coming into this week... so far so good. It's a tough field but they're all tough fields when you get up to that level."

The Bert Beckwith Memorial Pace originated at Foxboro Park in 1994 and was held there through 1996. It was named in honor of one of the best overall horsemen to ever come out of Massachusetts and recall all the great racing moments he was a part of in the state.

The race had gained such popularity it was scheduled to be broadcast live on ESPN in 1997. But Foxboro Park was closed for good that year and the broadcast never came to pass. When Plainridge Park opened in 1999 just five miles down Highway 1 from the shuttered track, Plainridge officials brought the race back by popular demand and have hosted it ever since.

Previous winners of the Beckwith include some great pacers including Space Shuttle, Maltese Artist and Foiled Again.

Post time for Spirit of Massachusetts Day (July 23) is 2 p.m. but the gates will open at 1 p.m. for an afternoon filled with an array of activities.

Owners, trainers and their connections of horses racing in the stakes will be treated to a welcome luncheon in the Boylston Room, upstairs in the grandstand.

Todd Angilly of the Boston Bruins will be singing our national anthem before the first race and will also be performing at other times during the day along with the Berkshire Valley Boys who will be providing entertainment throughout the day between races.

Guests will be able to get a free Plainridge Park commemorative 25th anniversary hat compliments of Plainridge Park Casino and the Harness Horseman's Association of New England and B101-FM Providence will be on the property giving fans a chance to win racing binoculars compliments of Plainridge Park Casino and B101-FM.

The Home Stretch food truck will be available near The Patio and a bar will be open at The Hut outside of the grandstand.

Follow Plainridge Park on Facebook or log onto the website at plainridgeparkcasino.com to download free racing programs and for news and updates.

Alagna wins five, Venerate sharp in The Meadowlands qualifier

Breakfast With The Babies – sponsored by Jules Siegel's Fashion Farms – came early on the morning of July 22, starting at 8 a.m. due to stakes commitments across the continent on this busy day. Conditions were perfect, track fast, temperature 71 degrees and little to no wind. A road weary Dave Little had the call, hot on the heels of another success in the Battle of the Meadowlands Masterminds competition on Friday (July 21) night's races.

Cutler Memorial winner Venerate (Brian Sears) was out for some exercise this morning in a qualifier that also served as a return to the races for last season's trotting sensation Alrajah One IT (Ake Svanstedt). The result was a very impressive 1:51.1 mile by Venerate who, having been stalked all the way by Alrajah, turned on the jets for an in hand :26.4 final quarter to score by five lengths. Alrajah One was valiant in defeat.

Trainer Tony Alagna continued to impress with his seemingly endless parade of talented freshmen, victorious in half of this morning's ten baby races.

To get things started, a pair of talented Captaintreacherous colts from the Alagna barn squared off for the length of the stretch and ultimately Captain Luke (Dexter Dunn) prevailed over Remember The Alamo (Andy McCarthy) in 1:53.4. The winner, owned by the partnership of Robert LeBlanc, Pryde Stable, Brad Grant and Steve Head, was a $135,000 Lexington buy from breeder Vieux Carre Farms.

Fasnacht Hanover (Todd McCarthy) was Alagna's second winner of the morning, taking over from an erratic Avellino (Jordan Stratton) before the half then winning a stretch battle with Pop It (Tim Tetrick) through a :27.3 final quarter for the 1:54.2 win. Marvin & Lynn Katz share ownership with Brad Grant on the $190,000 son of Stay Hungry, a Hanover bred Harrisburg yearling.

Winter Soldier (A. McCarthy) survived a furious rally from Longfellow (Sears) and the wire arrived just in time to preserve his perfect record, winning for the third time in as many tries. This was a forwardly placed effort, making the front before the :59 second half, scooting away as they passed the 1:28 three panels then lasting in a :29.1 end to the 1:57.1 win. Pete Alagna and Pryde Stables are the owners, Tony Alagna the trainer of the gritty Face Time Bourbon colt, bred by Order By Stable and sold in Lexington for $140,000.

Vocalize (A. McCarthy) was an impressive wire-to-wire winner in 1:56 this morning. Stalked throughout by stable mate Benny J (Dunn), Vocalize rattled off a speedy :57 half but had enough to hold his challengers at bay through the stretch. Vocalize is another winner from the Alagna barn, owned by Donna Lee, Pryde Stables, Pure Cotton Stables and James Gianuzzi, who gave a mere $30,000 (LEX) for the Father Patrick colt from the Brittany Farms consignment.

The final 2-year-old race of the day saw Tony get his fifth with the Captaintreacherous filly Gifted One (T. McCarthy). McCarthy orchestrated a start to finish score here, setting lively fractions and using a :28.1 end to the 1:53.3 mile to hold off the serious late charge of Debut (Tetrick). The winner, a $180,000 Lexington yearling bred by Brittany Farms and Marvin & Lynn Katz, is owned by Robert LeBlanc, Joe Sbrocco, Brad Grant and Pryde & JAF Racing.

Sears put Lynam S on the lead from the start, set moderate fractions and held sway, despite drifting a bit late, over the fast-closing Edvard Palema S (Svanstedt) through the :29.1 end to the 1:59 mile. The winner is a Greenshoe half-brother to Joviality S, bred and owned by Anders Strom as AM Breeding and Courant, Inc and trained by Marcus Melander.

The Norwegian-bred daughter of Googoo Gaagaa, Go For Gaagaa, was a 1:59.3 winner for Yannick Gingras and trainer Per Engblom. She left the gate nicely, settled in behind Volcanic Blue Chip (Svanstedt) as that one cut moderate fractions, slipped out midway on the turn then out gamed that rival through a :28.3 final quarter to get the win. Eric Good owns the winner, bred by Rune Hansen and Stall Friends.

Todd McCarthy drove the impressive Walner filly Miss I La to a 1:58.1 win in her second try for owner Ken Jacobs and trainer Noel Daley. It was a pocket trip conversion, as McCarthy settled his charge in behind French Champagne (Svanstedt) through a series of 30 second quarters before fanning off that one as they straightened up and surged by with a :27.4 final quarter. Miss I La was a $275,000 Lexington purchase for Jacobs, bred by Blue Chip Farms and Stefan Melander.

Chris Ryder and Dunn combined for a winner, with Tarrific, a Huntsville half-sister to Niki Hill, a filly with which they have enjoyed remarkable success. Saturday's trip was from behind, as Dunn sat last of five until calling upon Tarrific on the final bend where she responded by sweeping by the field, then holding safe over the close of Sweet Flowers (Troyce Thomas) through a :27.4 end to a mile in 1:56.2. The winner was bred by Stephen Dye, who retains a stake in the filly with partner Let It Ride Stables.

NYSS sophomore pacing fillies tackle Tioga today

Tioga Downs welcomes two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old pacing fillies today (July 23).

Earthwindfire (Jack Pelling) should be the one to beat in the $60,300 first division. The 6-5 morning line favorite is a filly by American Ideal trained by Brett Pelling. She is coming off a win in the $115,000 Park Filly Pace final at Yonkers. Earthwindfire is four-for-four this season including NYSS wins at Monticello and Saratoga and has won over $400,000 in her career.
