How good is Papi Grad, and other thoughts from the week that was

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Curtis Salonick
Papi Grad (Brett Miller) winning impressively at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania in a PA All-Stars event on July 14.

Including eliminations conducted for the 58th running of the Adios Pace at The Meadows, much focus this past weekend came from racing throughout Pennsylvania. The potentially biggest star though, came in a 2-year-old Pennsylvania sire stake near the conclusion of the weekend on Sunday evening (July 21) at Pocono Downs. That's where the 2-year-old filly Papi Grad (Papi Rob Hanover—Betterthangraduate) continued her dominating ways.

In just two career starts prior to Sunday, Papi Grad already received the 13th highest points total of all horses in training from the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown weekly poll. This week, or soon enough, she will formally be in the Top 10.

A $47,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale grad from 2023 and from the first crop of Papi Rob Hanover, Papi Grad began her career with identical 1:51.1 wins at The Meadows and at Pocono, both by the same margins of 10¼ lengths. In her first win, she came from off the pace with a back half-mile in about :53. Sunday, she paced her third consecutive 1:51.1 mile and crushed once again, this time by 6½ lengths. The time component is one thing, but Papi Grad has been making well regarded and otherwise talented fillies look totally inferior.

Papi Grad is bred to be fast at 2, but at the same time is bred to be fast, period. Her dam Betterthangraduate was a New York Sire Stakes winner at 2, though her star-laden pedigree can really be seen in her prior generation with her second dam being the world champion Western Graduate. The $1.3 million career earner stormed through her 2-year-old stakes engagements throughout Pennsylvania, just as Papi Grad is doing now. In just six foals, Western Graduate has produced stakes champions I'm Some Graduate, who was a 1:50.3 winner in Pennsylvania at 2, and Summa Cum Laude who posted a 1:50.2 mark as a 2-year-old.

In just two career starts prior to Sunday, Papi Grad already received the 13th highest points total of all horses in training from the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown weekly poll. This week, or soon enough, she will formally be in the Top 10.

It's way, way too early to start comparing Papi Grad to some of the 2-year-old pacing filly greats from this century, of which there's been plenty. But I can't recall many getting off to the type of start Papi Grad has – three wins by almost 30 lengths against stakes competition – and if she continues to move forward, maybe she can do what JK She'salady did and become just the second ever 2-year-old filly to be Horse of the Year.

In other 2-year-old pacing events, Lily White Hanover also won at Pocono on Sunday in her PASS division and did so in a time of 1:51.3 to remain unbeaten through two career starts. That time established the second fastest by a 2-year-old filly in the early season thus far on a five-eighths mile track behind only that of Papi Grad. The fastest freshman filly overall goes to Chantilly, a Big Jim filly out of a Bettors Delight mare who kicked home with a vengeance in an Ontario Gold division a week ago to win in 1:50.4.

On the colt side, Swingtown, a $160,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase by Downbytheseaside established himself Sunday as the fastest juvenile on a half-mile track, pacing powerfully to a 1:52.1 win at Northfield which equaled the same win time from his start prior in Ohio Sire Stakes action at Scioto. The fastest 2-year-old colt on all size tracks currently stands with Railroad Station (Sweet Lou—Rodeo Rosie), a $110,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale buy who followed up his 1:51.1 two back in PA All-Stars with another 1:51.1 in a PASS event Saturday at The Meadows during the card for the Adios eliminations.

Speaking of the Adios eliminations, last year's 2-year-old divisional winner Captain Albano rebounded strongly after battles throughout the North America Cup and Meadowlands Pace to score decisively as expected in a time of 1:49.2 and stamped himself as the Adios favorite, but more intriguing is what happened in the first of the two eliminations. That's where Wish You Well shocked to the tune of $59.

In the deeper of the two eliminations, Wish You Well hadn't shown much form prior to the Adios this year at 3, though he did enter off a crisp win time in a lower-level condition race at Chester. A stronger 2-year-old where he was a Governor's Cup finalist and second earlier in the year in a fast race to Newsroom, he absolutely flew home seemingly back in peak form on Saturday.

Charted eight lengths back in the stretch, he closed in :25.2 to win by almost two lengths in the end. The next fastest final quarter by anyone in that race was :26.4 and after that it was all :27 and slower. With about an eighth-of-a-mile to go, it looked like he was swapped out for Albatross against $4,000 claimers as he kicked it into high gear; you don't see closes like that at The Meadows or for that matter any five-eighths-mile track too often. It sets up for a duel between him and Captain Albano with Huntingforchrome maybe not too far behind. Clever Cody made the final after being hard used early and has been a difficult one to gauge.

In Sunday's $100,000 Clara Barton at Plainridge Park, Sylvia Hanover got her first win of the year in her seventh race, a well-deserved score in a fast 1:48.2 after battling it out against Twin B Joe Fresh in nearly all her recent starts prior. The footnote to the win is that it came on the driving change to Tim Tetrick. Driver Bob McClure has essentially been the only driver that Sylvia Hanover has ever known and has piloted her to divisional honors at both ages 2 and 3, but you do wonder if at least for future races in the U.S., if a change of scenery to Tetrick will stick in the midst of her 4-year-old campaign.

The feature that day at Plainridge was the $250,000 Spirit of Massachusetts and it was interesting to see 4-year-old Chapercraz the favorite over his Burke stablemate and both the reigning Spirit and divisional winner, It's Academic who was making his second start back on the year. It's Academic proved best over Chapercraz who was second best with Canadian invader Logan Park setting the pace but finishing third.

Jason Grimson has harnessed his anger and frustration

by Adam Hamilton

This week marks a year since Jason Grimson, Down Under's most polarizing yet hugely successful horseman, landed one of the biggest wins of his career but also made headlines for all the wrong reasons.

The young NSW country horseman, who has taken Australian harness racing by storm, was banned for 12 months for his role in a "brawl" at Albion Park. It came just hours after his stable star Swayzee upstaged local hero Leap To Fame in the $400,000 Group 1 Blacks A Fake.

Grimson subsequently appealed and beat the ban.

“ I love proving people wrong. I’m from a small town [Young in NSW] and nobody thought I’d be doing what I am now. That certainly drives me. That and making my parents and friends back home proud, which I think I am. When I beat that ban, it gave me a second chance to do what I love and I think I appreciate it even more now. ”

~ Jason Grimson

But during the stewards’ inquiry, Grimson detailed what drove him to snap that night.

“Over the whole time [in the harness industry] I have been considered a drug cheat by integrity people and by people in the industry which has led to this,” Grimson said in a Courier Mail story. “I have worked hard to get where I am, I started with nothing and then I get abused.

“All night I had comments made to me behind my back or in the toilet about me being a cheat.

“It builds up over time. It’s not just winning the Blacks A Fake, it’s before that people were saying that. Even at the presentation, people were dirty at me winning.”

In his most open interview yet with SEN radio’s Gareth Hall recently, Grimson admitted when the penalty was first handed down, he felt “beaten” and was “happily going to take a break and get away from things.”

But just days later his competitiveness kicked back in.

“I love proving people wrong,” Grimson said. “I’m from a small town [Young in NSW] and nobody thought I’d be doing what I am now.

“That certainly drives me. That and making my parents and friends back home proud, which I think I am.

“When I beat that ban, it gave me a second chance to do what I love and I think I appreciate it even more now.”

Within months of having his ban quashed, Grimson proved people wrong again.

The 31-year-old became just the second Aussie trainer since 1987 – the other was Kerryn Manning with Arden Rooney in 2015 – to beat the Kiwis in their race, the iconic New Zealand Cup, with Swayzee.

“The NZ Cup is my biggest thrill, especially once it sunk in and I look back on it,” Grimson said. “Being there, you feel what a special race it is to the Kiwis.

“And to do it with Swayzee, who is such a special horse to me, made it such a big thrill.

“I’d love to take Swayzee and maybe another one or two of my horses back for it again this year, but I won’t decide that until closer to the race [Nov. 12].”

It follows that Grimson’s favorite horse is Swayzee, who will try and upstage Leap To Fame for the second year in succession in Saturday night’s Blacks A Fake at Albion Park.

“He’s definitely my favorite by far,” he said. “I had a lot to do with him as a young horse. I drove him in his first few races and I’d go back home and tell [fellow horseman and friend] Jack Trainor the horse had something special.

“Now I train him and we’ve got this special bond. He just turns for you every time.”

But can he beat Leap To Fame again?

“That won’t be easy,” Grimson said. “I think [Leap To Fame] is a lot better horse than he was last year. A lot stronger and a bit faster now, too.

“We’re going to need to draw the front with him off the back. Swayzee did need the [race] the other day [July 13] when Leap To Fame beat him. My guy was quite fat and hadn’t raced for three weeks.

“We’ve stuck a lot of work into him since and we hope we can give Leap To Fame another challenge.”

Like so many of Grimson’s stars, Swayzee came from another stable and went to a whole new level for him.

He won Inter Dominions with cast-offs Boncel Benjamin (2021) and I Cast No Shadow (2022), a Blacks A Fake and Messenger in NZ with Majestic Cruiser and that’s just a taste.

“I pinch myself every time I win one of these big races,” Grimson said. “I’ve come so far in a short period of time. It’s really good.”

So, what’s his key?

“I think I just get along with horses,” he said. “I spend a lot of time with them, I’m very hands-on.

“Most horses have some ability, but it’s just getting it out of them. It’s hard to say exactly what it is or teach others, but it just comes naturally to me.

“It’s what’s made it so hard and has been my biggest challenge, having people making comments about something I work so hard at and am so passionate about.”

~ Jason Grimson

Grimson, who has trained almost 400 winners – nine of them at Group 1 level – and has a 25 per cent winning strike rate, is already excited about his next challenge with two recent stable additions.

“I’ve picked up Major Moth and Curly James, who have both already done a lot before coming to me,” he said. “Major Moth could be something special. He was a top young horse before his injury problems. I haven’t seen him yet because I’m here in Brisbane and he’s at my Menangle stable, but I’m looking forward to going home to have a feel of him.

“He could even be one to make the track over to NZ if I decide to go with Swayzee again.”

Before then, Grimson will take a “holiday of sorts” to visit some friends in the U.S. for three weeks.

Could it be a hint of what’s to come?

“I’d love to take a team over there at some stage, but getting a visa is the hard thing,” he said. “This is just a trip to get away. I’ll be going to the races over there, but it’s different. They’ll just be days out for me.

“I’ve got some good friends over there, including Brad Chisholm, and I’ll be visiting a few stables.”

For now, returning from that trip to try and win another NZ Cup or his home state Sydney Inter Dominion – and continuing to prove the knockers wrong – is the focus.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Teamwork makes the dream work for Joe Chindano, Jr.

by Chris Lomon

Whether it is the pacers or trotters he pilots or those he drives for, it is a true team effort every time Joe Chindano, Jr. puts his wheels on the racetrack.

It would be easy for the rising star in the race bike to tout his own accomplishments, but the 25-year-old reinsman prefers to look at success through a much wider lens.

“My father and my mother had a barn when I was younger, and they have always guided me and pushed me to chase my goals,” Chindano said. “The support you get from family is amazing. They are always there when you need them. It has been wonderful to do this with them.”

But not only them.

Chindano’s wife, Maggie, has been along for the ride too.

“We have been married just over a year and we started a barn together,” Joe said. “It’s been great. She is training and I’m driving all her horses.”

The horseman has high praise for Maggie.

Those compliments extend well beyond her talents in the barn.

“My wife, who I met through racing, is great with the horses,” he said. “She is always coming up with ideas to improve the horses; she is always on top of everything.”

“But she also supports me through all the ups and downs. If I am having a bad night or a tough week, she is always there to help me strive to go forward.”

Whatever the couple’s formula for success is, it is working, both individually and together.

Joe, who started driving in 2015 and training three years later, has reached the 100-win mark in the former role in the past four seasons.

He hit the century mark this year on July 13 at Buffalo Raceway.

You appreciate that opportunity.”*

Fittingly, the victory came aboard Boston Delight, a 3-year-old pacing son of Boston Red Rocks, trained by Maggie.

“Any win we have together is special for me,” said Joe, who established career highs with 179 wins and $1.47 million in purses as a driver in 2023.

Joe, who has competed at several racetracks including Monticello, The Meadowlands, Pompano Park, Rideau Carleton and Tioga Downs, just to name a handful, is at the top of his game once again in 2024.

So too is Maggie, who has racked up impressive stats in her rookie season.

Their results at Buffalo Raceway are a perfect example of the year they have had so far.

“We have enjoyed a good meet here at Buffalo,” Joe said. “Maggie was second-leading trainer [46 wins], and we were able to finish second [95 wins] in the driver standings. It was cool to say that we did that together. Those have been the highlights of the year so far.”

Another came with Boston Delight, who gave Maggie her first stakes win, the victory coming in the New York Excelsior Series at Saratoga this May.

Joe was in the race bike.

“It was nice to see Maggie have her name in lights for a few minutes there,” Joe said.

Time in the limelight might become a more frequent occurrence for the couple.

We have done this together and it has been so rewarding for both of us. At the end of the day, whatever kind of day it was, we were able to experience it as a couple. You appreciate that opportunity.”

The couple also appreciates the chance to share the horse racing world with their young daughter, who will turn 1 in August.

She has already developed a fascination with the 15 or so horses in her mother and father’s barn.

“You can see how happy she is to go to the barn,” Joe said. “She drives around the barn in her little scooter and goes up to the horses. They will lean their head out of the stall and lick her or nuzzle her. She enjoys it. You can tell she is going to be a sucker for it.”

Time together isn’t confined to the racetrack.

“Any chance we get to spend as a family is very important to us,” Joe said. “Whether it’s taking her to the zoo, the park, or doing anything that is fun for her is what we enjoy.”

Joe’s success hasn’t put him on the fast track to a big ego.

It is the exact opposite, in fact.

“I just try to keep getting better, to learn from my mistakes,” he said. “Whenever you lose, you want to go back and see what you maybe did wrong and accept that. You might be disappointed, but if you can watch video and go over it with a positive attitude and learn from it, then it will help you the next time you drive.”

Chasing wins is anything but self-serving for the couple.

“We try to win as many as we can, whatever the race happens to be,” Joe said. “We want to do the best we can for our owners, for ourselves, and for the horses.”

Continued success for the rest of the 2024 campaign is also on their list of shared goals.

It hardly seems like a longshot for the team-first couple.

“We would like to finish up the year as strong as we started it,” Joe said. “It is always nice when you can maintain that consistency throughout the year. Maybe we can finish up even stronger.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Kinglet Bird gives driver Kihlström ninth Stochampionatet victory

by Thomas Hedlund

Örjan Kihlström has won most of the world's biggest races, some on more than one occasion – though, he's still on the hunt for success in the Hambletonian.

In the $480,000 Stochampionatet for 4-year-old mares, for example, before Sunday's (July 21) edition, Kihlström had won it eight times. Now make that nine wins thanks to Daniel Redén-trained Kinglet Bird (Nuncio).

Kinglet Bird began her career in Finland in owner Janne Korpi's barn and her initial career starts were promising. She looked like she very well could be one of the best fillies in the Swedish-bred crop, but she had one problem – she didn't like to travel too far for the races. For a horse talented enough for the biggest races in Sweden, that became a problem. Korpi lives in Finland.

So, Korpi called Redén in the summer of 2023 and asked him to train Kinglet Bird. Redén couldn't say no. In fact, Redén had one 3-year-old filly standing out from the rest of the crop in his barn, a Father Patrick daughter out of Redén's star mare Miss Sue V (purchased at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's sale in Harrisburg, PA in 2011 from Paul Kelley). Sadly, Hermione Zet died soon after qualifying. So, Kinglet Bird ended up in Sweden, preparing for the big stakes races later in the season. It all started well with an E3 elimination win and a third place in the final. But Kinglet Bird didn't make it to either the Oaks or Breeders Crown. Her 4-year-old season started in the elimination and final in the Drottningpokalen at Åby, without any success.

"I actually called Janne [Korpi] a month ago and told him that I couldn't find the key to Kinglet Bird," Redén told Swedish media after the success at Axevalla racetrack. "He could change trainers or take her home again. That was my thoughts at that point. But he wanted to continue and I told him that we could try the Stochampionatet elimination at least and that's what happened. But I also had to change something for the horse and she got to move from one of my stables to another, with another groom and all of a sudden she has had two super races."

Kinglet Bird opened quickly in the 2,640-meter race and hit the lead after 500 meters. Eventually, she had to let Naomi Bros overtake the front position and Kihlström had to settle in position first over with a lap to go.

In the end, Kinglet Bird was a deserving winner of the Stochampionatet 2024 as she sprinted to the win in a mile rate of 1:58 over 1.6 miles. Replay here.

Not only did Kihlström win the Stochampionatet for the ninth time, it was also the third time in five years he has won it with Redén.

Johan Untersteiner's Farina finished strongly as runner up ahead of Daim Brodda.

EDGAR SABA IMPRESSIVE AT ENGHEN

Enghien in Paris had some great races on Saturday (July 20). In the $100,000 Prix de Milan for 4-year-olds, Italian-bred and trained Edgar Saba (Exploit Caf) impressed while paired with Gabriele Gelormini.

The Erik Bondo-trained gelding settled in fifth over and Gelormini left that position for a three-wide attack up the backstretch, hoping for cover before the last turn and the long homestretch. Edgar Saba had to act as a locomotive three-wide and when first-over trotter Knockonwood overtook the lead at the top of the stretch, it seemed to be a hard task to solve for the Italian attacker. Yet, Edgar Saba answered well when Gelormini pulled the ear plugs and trotted to the safe win in a mile rate of 1:55.3 over 1.3 miles.

Replay here.

LOVINO BELLO OUTSTANDING IN FAST MILE

Jocelyn Robert-trained Lovino Bello (Village Mystic) played in a league of his own when the $100,000 Prix Henri Cravoisier for 3-year-olds was held at Enghien on Saturday (July 20).

Eric Raffin sent the well-gaited Lovino Bello to the lead as the car accelerated from the field. Throughout the whole race, the Village Mystic son looked sharp in the hands of Raffin.

In great style, Lovino Bello sprinted to a superior win in a 1:52.1 mile. Replay here.

FIELD SET FOR HUGO ÅBERGS MEMORIAL

The $320,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial mile race for older elite trotters is held on the last Tuesday in July every year at Jägersro.

The field for the July 30 race was complete on Monday (July 22) afternoon.

Ten horses will battle and title defender Hail Mary was one of the three last horses entered for the race. Some really strong mile trotters will try to grab the trophy, among them Elitloppet runner-up Borups Victory, speedy Click Bait, well-merited Don Fanucci Zet, the never-ending Vivid Wise As and 5-year-olds Barack Face and Hustle Rain.

Jägersro was hoping Önas Prince was ready for the race, but trainer Per Nordström opted to let his horse save his batteries for Åby's $1.2 million Åby World Grand Prix on Aug. 10 instead.

It's Academic repeats in the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot

by Tim Bojarski for Plainridge Park

After two of the best trotters in North America hooked up in an epic fourth quarter match race, It's Academic successfully defended his title by winning his second straight $250,000 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot at Plainridge Park on Sunday (July 21) afternoon.

After a three-horse tussle off the gate, Logan Park (Doug McNair) found his way to the front in a blistering :25.4. With Chapercraz (Yannick Gingras) in the pocket and Take All Comers (Todd McCarthy) sitting third, Logan Park kept the mile moving with a :54.1 half. At that station, David Miller called on It's Academic and the pair rolled out from fourth and made their way towards the leader.

It's Academic drew alongside Logan Park at three-quarters and it was on from there between the 2023 older trotters of the year from the U.S. and Canada. Logan Park and It's Academic matched strides around the final bend and into the stretch, but neither had gotten a clear advantage. However, as they moved into deep stretch, It's Academic swelled up and trotted away from Logan Park while keeping stablemate Chapercraz at bay to win by a length in 1:51.2.

It's Academic joins Manchego as the only two-time and back-to-back winners of the Spirit of Massachusetts Trot.

It was the first win in only two 2024 starts for It's Academic ($8) who has now gone over $2.4 million in lifetime earnings. The 7-year-old son of Uncle Peter—Annapolis is owned by Bradley Grant and trained by Ron Burke.

It's Academic was the second win of the day for Miller.

SYLVIA HANOVER POWERS TO CLARA BARTON VICTORY

The secondary featured $100,000 Clara Barton distaff pace was won by the heavily backed Sylvia Hanover (Tim Tetrick) after she made a strong statement rolling past the quarter.

Always B Naughty (Gingras) grabbed the early lead while Beach Cowgirl (Miller) pushed the issue from the outside as they tripped the quarter in :26.3. But almost immediately after they passed that station, Tetrick had Sylvia Hanover out and pacing three-wide from third and the mare took the lead in front of the grandstand.

As they moved out of turn two and onto the backstretch, Talk Curdy To Me (Todd McCarthy) quickly moved into second while Grace Hill followed and dropped in third as they hit three-quarters in 1:21.1. Sylvia Hanover maintained a two-length lead around that final bend, dug in for the home stretch and turned back all comers as she hit the wire on top by 1¾ lengths in 1:48.2, just one-fifth of a second off both her lifetime mark and the stake record.

The win with Sylvia Hanover gave Tetrick his fifth Clara Barton victory in five Clara Barton starts. Tetrick has won twice with both Shartin N and Lyons Sentinel.

Sylvia Hanover ($2.40) has now earned in excess of $1.6 million lifetime on the strength of her 19 wins. The 4-year-old daughter of Always B Miki—Shyaway is owned by Hudson Standardbred Stable and trained by Mark Steacy.

Tetrick had a driving double on Sunday as well.

Also on the card was the $75,000 Bert Beckwith Memorial invitational pace that was won by Big Skewy N (Drew Monti), who made a first-over move from third past the half to take the lead by three-quarters. From there, Big Skewy N maintained his lead around the turn and into the stretch where he paced away to a two-length win in 1:49.1, tying his lifetime mark.

Big Skewy N ($5.20) is owned by Arrhythmic and trained by Scott Blackler.

Monti joined Miller and Tetrick with two wins of his own.

SPIRIT DAY GENERATES RECORD HANDLE AT PLAINRIDGE PARK

The 2024 Spirit of Massachusetts Trot card at Plainridge Park turned out to be the most successful at the windows in the seven-year history of the event.

The $334,389 overall handle was the highest total ever realized for a Spirit Day card and the $48,137 on-track take was the second highest behind only the 2019 program.

Steve O'Toole, director of racing at Plainridge Park, was very happy with those numbers and was quick to credit those who made it happen.

“We have a very loyal customer base at Plainridge and they came out in force on a beautiful summer day to bet on a very competitive card of racing put together by race secretary, Paul Verrette,” said O’Toole. “I want to thank my entire staff for their hard work in planning and logistics leading up to Sunday in order to put on this first-class event. ### STANDARD BRED OWNERS GRATEFUL FOR DEFEAT OF BILL

A bill that was introduced as a result of the FY25 budget proposal by the Governor and Senate of Massachusetts which would have severely impacted the Race Horse Development Fund in the state, was defeated last week.

This was accomplished in part by the unified support of the hard-working horsemen and women who race at Plainridge Park, many of whom are associated with the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts.

The SOM would like to thank all our members who made calls and sent letters to our representatives in government, whose combined efforts and support helped to preserve our breeder’s fund and purse structure, so racing in the state can continue to grow and remain strong.

The SOM would also like to thank Pilgrim Strategies for their hard work on our behalf, in order to achieve this positive outcome.

SIRES STAKES

Papi Grad tops brigade of Pocono fillies

by PHHA / Pocono

The Papi Rob Hanover—Betterthangraduate 2-year-old pacing filly Papi Grad has now opened her purse career with three consecutive 1:51.1 wins after winning her division of three $60,608 Pennsylvania Sire Stake second round prelims on Sunday evening (July 21) at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs.

Brett Miller moved the undefeated freshman after the :28.2 first quarter and was briefly three-wide en route to the lead by the :56.2 half. The three-quarters came and went in 1:23.3, at which point Papi Grad had the complete command she would maintain to the wire, although her win margin this week was "only" 6½ lengths over the 107-1 Dexter Dunn-driven longshot Treacheryinthedark. (You'll see the words "Dunn" and "longshot" together again in a couple of paragraphs.) Trained by Steve Carter for Brent Hopper, Jay Mossbarger, TKO Racing Stable LLC, and SCPStable&FriedlandRacing, Papi Grad is the only double Sires winner in the division.

The other two Sire Stakes divisions were won by daughters of Captaintreacheraus who are both undefeated and who took new marks. Lily White Hanover (dam Lillian Hanover) rolled right by in the stretch while coming her own last quarter in :27.3 in a 1:51.3 victory for driver Todd McCarthy and trainer Andrew Harris, the latter co-owner with William Pollock and Bruce Areman.

And Westwinds (dam Muskoka Hanover) blitzed home in :26.2 to complete a 1:52.2 tally and add a Sire Stake to her Stallion Series and All-Stars wins earlier. Tim Tetrick drove for trainer Steve Carter and the partnership of Milton Leeman, Stambaugh Keith Stable, Joe Sbrocco, and Wingfield Brothers LLC.

Papi Rob Hanover also had a double within the seven $20,000 Stallion Series races, and like in the Sires he fathered the fastest winner in Giggingonthebeach (dam Always Gigging). The George Napolitano Jr.-driven miss broke her maiden in 1:51.4 for trainer Juan Cano and Hot Lead Farm.

"Papi Rob" combined with the broodmare Paula's Best to produce the only double Stallion Series winner, Pilar Hanover, who recorded the second-fastest StS mile, 1:52.4, to lower her mark for driver Tetrick, trainer Jim King, Jr., and owners Jo Ann Looney-King and Paton Racing Inc.

Captaintreacheros picked up a “double-double” Sires credit with two victories in both series of races. Simply Perfect (dam Stacia Hanover) took a mark of 1:54.4 for driver Andrew McCarthy (who had four wins in total on the night), trainer Tony Alagna, and owners Pryde Stables Inc., Steven and Michelle Head, and Caviart Farms.

Simply Perfect was one of seven favorites to win in stakes on the card; among the 10 stakes races, nine winners combined for an aggregate win payoff of $35.10. The “outlier” was Captaintreacheros’ other winner, Oh Ophelia (dam Hey Lolly La), who made her debut a successful one in 1:55.2 for trainer Nifty Norman, owners Kovach Stables LLC and Enzed Racing Stable Inc., and driver Dexter Dunn, with the longshot paying $123.60 for a $2 win ticket!

Also doubling up in the StS was sire Bettor’s Wish: with Wise Professor (dam Teachers Vet), undefeated in two starts after winning here in 1:54 for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Nifty Norman, and owners Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing, and with Bet On Station (dam Canard Hanover), who took a maiden mark of 1:53.2 for driver Brett Miller, trainer Jamie Sullivan, and owner Frank Chick.

Rounding out the double-digit divisions of freshman fillies was JK Fancy Nancy, a daughter of Captain Crunch out of Horse of the Year JK She’salady, whose first purse start was successful in 1:54.3 (she had gone a tick faster winning a Meadowlands qualifier). Dunn drove the Nancy Takter trainee for 3 Brothers Stables.

Three-year-old pacing colts take center stage at Monticello Raceway

by Monticello Raceway media

Monday afternoon (July 22), the glamour boys division, 3-year-old pacing colts, took center stage at Monticello Raceway in New York Sire Stakes Action with two heats worth $58,100 and $57,000 and four dashes of the $20,000 Excelsior Stakes. This highly competitive group lived up to their reputation and hype and paced two of the fastest miles all season at the Mighty M with Howlenthedhills just missing the track record by a tick and Boston Rocks scoring a nine-length romp.

Howlenthedhills starting from the rail for Matt Kakaley went off as the heavy 1-9 betting favorite in his five-horse heat, Texas Holdem (Mark MacDonald) left from post 5 and tried for the lead but was rebuffed by Howlenthedhills coming out of the first turn, at this point Escape To America (Jason Bartlett) made a break. Once on top Howlenthedhills dictated the pace and clicked the opening panel beam in :28. The pack was in straight alignment at the half in :57.1. Going down the backstretch he started to open a two-length gap, Ameritric (Scott Zeron) pulled from the 4-hole at the next station in 1:25. Turning for home Howlenthedhills was in cruise control and won by six in 1:52.1, last quarter in 27.1. He had plenty of pace still in the tank and the mile was one tick off of the track record. Sporting an ultra-impressive resume this season the Crawford Farms bred son of American Ideal—Arielle Lynn notched his seventh win on the year in eight starts for trainer Travis Alexander. The son of American Ideal is owned by Symmetry Stables LLC. of Pleasant Valley, NY.

Boston Rocks controlled his destiny in a straightforward manner and went wire-to-wire, opening up on his opponents at every station. At the end he won by nine-lengths in 1:52.3 and paid $2.10. Vandiemer Blue Chip (Braxton Boyd) finished second with Taranaki (Mike Merton) garnering the show position. Bartlett drove the son of Boston Red Rocks—Scirocco Sarah for trainer Michael Deters. It was his second Sire Stakes victory of the season, fourth win on the year, and the win pushed his yearly earnings over $110,000 for owners Rick Berks and Peter Blood.

In Excelsior Action, Seen Here ($3.50) scored in 1:55.3 after a pocket trip for his fourth Excelsior win with Zeron in the bike. Bruce's VO N Coke (James Taggart) went wire-to-wire in 1:54.2 and paid $9.40 for trainer John Berger.

The 17-1 Dealers Turn (Zeron) scored in 1:54.3 and paid $36.60 for his first seasonal win for trainer Tom Fanning. Printville ($2.50) scored in 1:54.2 (Zeron) earning a new lifetime mark and picking up his first parimutuel win in the process for owner Purple Haze and trainer George Ducharme.

Zeron had a trio of winners on the day, American Ideal was the leading sire with three winning sons and Huntsville had two.

COWGIRL HANOVER ROMPS IN NYSS AT TIOGA

Cowgirl Hanover simply dominated her competition in Sunday's (July 21) $108,200 New York Sires Stake (NYSS) at Tioga Downs for 2-year-old pacing fillies in a geared down 1:54.1 romp.

Driver Jason Bartlett let the filly drift away from post 5 as the gate pulled away, confident that Cowgirl Hanover would find a tuck as the heavy 1-2 favorite, and he was correct.

The pair sat fourth as the Ray Schnittker trained entry of Bronx Mixer and Send It Down Slim (Mark MacDonald) lined up 1-2 with Ray setting the early pace and stealing a slow second quarter to pass the half in :57.3.

As they set sail up the back, Jordan Stratton sent She's A Streaker up to engage the leader with Cowgirl Hanover enjoying a sweet ride along behind that rival until her cover abruptly stalled, forcing Bartlett to quickly shift the winner into the three path, which she handled like a pro, looped the competition and was gone in the blink of an eye.

Through the stretch, Bartlett was looking for things to do as Cowgirl Hanover continued on to the win, the official margin of three lengths could just as easily have been 10.

Send It Down Slim had good energy late once MacDonald shook her loose from behind her tiring stablemate and The Last Martini (Greg Merton) rallied for third.

Now unbeaten in four NYSS starts, Cowgirl Hanover is a daughter of Huntsville, trained by Jared Bako for owner Bob DiNozzi as NY Seb, INC.

Mom's Point, Love Trouble, Hint Of Spring and Fansville were all NY Excelsior winners on the undercard.

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Chasing Dudes dashes to victory in Maine Sires

by Chris Tully for the Maine Sire Stakes

A single $16,171 division of the Maine Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies opened the card on Saturday (July 20) at Cumberland Raceway, with the Graffam's Chasing Dudes leading the charge.

Discounted at 10-1 in lieu of previous winners, the daughter of Dude's The Man led every call as driver Nick Graffam cruised through moderate fractions of :30.1, 1:02.4 and then a swifter 1:32.3 third panel.

Around the final turn Whisper Of Luck (Kevin Switzer, Jr.-Marc Tardif) took aim at the leader and was first up and applying ample pressure. While the pacesetter was able to gain some separation at the head of the stretch, the pursuer tracked her down and got to within a quarter-of-a-length at the wire.

Chasing Dudes prevailed in 2:03.1, a new lifetime mark as well as her first career victory. Trained and co-owned by Mike Graffam, she was bred and is also co-owned by leading conditioner Bob Marston. The filly paid $22.60 to win.

Last week's victor, Leanne Marie (Mike Cushing-Charlene Cushing) was third.

The Maine Sire Stakes resumes on Thursday (July 25) when the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers return to Bangor for their annual 'Fair' stint. This is immediately followed by the 3-year-old filly pacers on Friday (July 26) at Cumberland, with all the 2- and 3-year-old trotters on Saturday (July 27).

Oceanview Daisy prevails in P.E.I. Colt Stakes grudge match

by Nicholas Oakes for Red Shores

The reigning Atlantic Breeders Crown champion and the fastest sophomore trotting filly of 2024 went toe-to-toe in P.E.I. Colt Stakes action Monday evening (July 22) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway with Oceanview Daisy landing on top.

Fresh off a track record at Truro Raceway her last start, Myles Heffernan, Sr., sent the daughter of EL Rocket to the front in her $13,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes 3-year-old trot filly division and slammed out splits of :29.2, :59 and 1:28.4 with a pesky Dusty Lane Wee (driven by Marc Campbell) on his back. The 2023 Atlantic Breeders Crown champion came out of the 2-hole in the final quarter but could not loop the front stepping Oceanview Daisy as they hit the wire in 2:00. Myles Heffernan, Jr., trains the winning Oceanview Daisy for owners Jackie Heffernan and Barry MacLeod.

Gettin Lit was a winner in a $13,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes 3-year-old trotting colt division by 20-lengths in 2:00.4 for trainer/driver Mike McGuigan and owner Jamie Whalen of Avondale.

Rocket Blast won the other $13,000 3-year-old trotting colt split in 2:01.1 for driver Corey MacPherson and owner/trainer Carl Bagnall.

Oceanview Nikki remains undefeated in her career as trainer/driver McGuigan scored a one-length victory in the lone $13,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes 2-year-old trotting filly division in 2:02.3 over stablemate Supreme Rockette (MacPherson). The winning filly is owned by Blue Diamond Racing and Josh MacDonald.

The first $13,000 2-year-old trotting colt division had Mile Hill Waylon (Gilles Barrieau) open up at the start and trot to an 18-length romp in 2:07.1 for trainer Paul Morrison and owners John and Barbara Breau of Shediac Cape, NB.

The second $13,000 2-year-old trotting colt P.E.I. Colt Stakes race had a solid recovery from West River Jet (Ken MacDonald) as they came back from an early break to win in 2:05.3 over Fire The Rocket (Jason Hughes). Clare MacDonald trains West River Jet for owner Haley MacDonald of Stratford.

Driver Marc Campbell tripled up on the evening as he won with Jazzville (1:58.1) in race 3 for trainer Blaine McKenna and with the Landon Campbell trained duo of The Lady Sheriff (1:56.4) in race 8 and Macho Phil (1:57.3) in the race 12 finale.

Live racing continues Thursday evening with a return to Red Shores Charlottetown kicking off at 6 p.m. featuring the P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series for 4-, 5- and 6-year-old mares presented by JD Marine & Diving. The Fox Group Racing event will also highlight the card.

Elista Hanover ups win streak to nine in Big M's 'Geers'

Elista Hanover maintained her standing as the early favorite for the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks on Aug. 3 with another powerhouse performance Saturday night (July 20) at The Meadowlands, taking the first of three $30,800 divisions of the Tompkins-Geers Stake for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

After finishing third in her seasonal debut, which was at The Big M on March 22, the daughter of International Moni—Evermore has reeled off nine straight victories. On June 29, she won a division of the Reynolds at The Big M in a lifetime-best-equaling 1:52.3. The Annie Stoebe trainee has come back huge as a sophomore after a 2023 that saw her win just once from nine tries.

On Saturday, driver Dave Miller had Elista Hanover sitting fourth to the half before marching up towards leader St Pauli Girl at the five-eighths while first-over. 'Elista' still had two lengths to make up while third at three-quarters, which St Pauli Girl reached in 1:26.1, then seized the top at the head of the stretch before powering clear of her foes by 5¾ lengths at the wire in 1:53.1. Miss I La finished second with Kinesiology third.

"Elista never ceases to amaze me," said Stoebe. "She is possibly the happiest horse I have ever trained. She does have more starts coming in than I would prefer, but quoting Dave [Miller] 'she just keeps getting stronger.' I couldn't be more excited to go into the Oaks next week, especially with the confidence both Elista and Dave have."

As the 1-5 favorite, Elista Hanover returned $2.40 to win while lifting her lifetime earnings to just over $190,000.

In the second T-G split for females, Honey's Sweet rolled in 1:52.1 after making the lead before the half as the 3-5 favorite for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Tony Alagna. The daughter of Chapter Seven—Corazon Blue Chip hit the wire 2¼ lengths in front of runner up Sambuca Hanover to earn her sixth career victory from 16 tries and earnings of just over $190,000.

The third division was taken by Upallnight Hanover for Dexter Dunn and Ake Svanstedt in a lifetime-best 1:53.1. The daughter of Bar Hopping—Upfront Ob's Janet raced in the 4-hole to the half, went first-over heading to three-quarters while providing a live tow for even-money favorite Spy Coast but dug in to hold off that foe by a half-length at the finish as the 2-1 second choice, returning $6.40 to her backers. She's now four-for-13 lifetime, good for earnings of just over $147,000.

The lone $76,700 T-G dash for 3-year-old colts and geldings on the trot went to the Andy Miller-driven, Julie Miller-trained Secret Agent Man. Two weeks after a sparkling 1:50.3 front-end score, the gelded son of Chapter Seven—Feel The Magic won from off the pace after 6-5 favorite Bella's Musclehill went off-stride while on the lead at the top of the stretch.

Secret Agent Man was one-length better than French Kronos at the finish, which was timed in 1:52. He paid $7.20 to win as the 5-2 second choice for his third lifetime win in nine tries.

A LITTLE MORE: Driver Carter Dalgety, a 21-year-old native of New Zealand who will be trying to make a go of it in North America for the next two months, scored his first Meadowlands win in his second try, winning the third race with Stonebridge Reef. The Chris Ryder trainee scored as the 9-2 third choice in a lifetime-best 1:48.4. Gingras led the driver colony with three Saturday scores. All-source handle on the 14-race card totaled $2,669,701. Racing resumes Friday at 6:20 p.m., the first of the final four programs of the Championship Meet.

Muskateer Hanover steals the show at Running Aces with fastest mile ever

The Sunday night (July 21) program at Running Aces featured two $20,000 elimination heats for the 2024 Dan Patch FFA pace which produced very exciting contests and resulted in a brand-new overall track record.

Tuggin On My Heart (Jacob Cutting) and Aces newcomer Muskateer Hanover (Brady Jenson) were both heavily backed at the windows at 6-5, with the latter going off as the slight favorite when the bell rang for the second elimination division.

They were the fastest pair off the gate with Tuggin On My Heart and Cutting asserting themselves from post 5 to take early control while Jenson and Muskateer Hanover secured the pocket and No Lou Zing (Mooney Svendsen) landed in third through an opening panel in :26.4.

Tuggin On My Heart was a comfortable leader through the middle fractions of :55 and 1:22.1 and had the field stacked up on the far turn as No Lou Zing offered a first-over attack and Crooked Smile (Todd Warren) followed his cover.

In the homestretch, Tuggin On My Heart continued to pace strong but Muskateer Hanover was loaded in the pocket and when Jenson tipped him out into the center of the track, he posted a tremendous surge to take the lead and draw clear for a 1¼-length victory, stopping the timer in 1:49.1 to become the fastest horse ever at Running Aces.

Crooked Smile rallied past No Lou Zing late to pick up third money.

The winner is a 4-year-old gelding by Sweet Lou and out of the Bettors Delight mare Marinade Hanover. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and is owned by Mulligan Stables and Calcutta Stable and is trained by Jenson.

The track record mile was also a new career mark for Muskateer Hanover ($4.60) who now shows 12 career wins and earnings of $252,403.

The previous track mark of 1:49.2 was recorded in 2023 by both American Dreamer and Crooked Smile.

Mac's Marvel (Luke Plano) pulled off a 7-1 upset in the first elimination heat, posting an impressive first-over trip to gun down pace-setter and race favorite He'zzz A Wise Sky in a 1:50.4 clocking.

He'zzz A Wise Sky (Dean Magee) battled with PD The Big Easy (James Kennedy) early before taking control near the fast :26.2 quarter mile checkpoint and was well settled on the lead as they ripped off a half in a scorching :54.1 while PD The Big Easy rode in the pocket.

Mac's Marvel launched his attack as they headed down the backside and methodically marched up alongside the leaders as they rounded the far turn and recorded 1:22.4 for three panels.

He'zzz A Wise Sky braced for the challenge in the lane and battled gamely but Mac's Marvel ($16.80) got the upper hand late and edged past to capture victory by a half-length.

PD The Big Easy held third and Ynotthishos (Nick Roland) was home in fourth.

The winner is a 5-year-old son of Captaintreacherous, owned by Jose Cervantes and Terrence Smith and trained by Williams Hernandez. He now shows 17 career wins and earnings of $227,964.

Topville Rocknluck, who was the fastest fifth place finisher (1:51.2) will join the top four finishers from each elimination to comprise the field for next Sunday's (July 28) $50,000 Dan Patch FFA final.

Brady Jenson led the Sunday program with four driving wins and three training wins while Elson Miller posted a driving and training double.

Twin B Tuffenuff trips out in Governor's Plate

The 56th edition of the Governor's Plate, presented by Summerside Chrysler Dodge, had Twin B Tuffenuff take a second-over tow to victory Saturday (July 20) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

The $35,000 invitational event saw Bee Two Bee (driven by Jason Hughes) hit the lead through splits of :27 and :56.1 with elimination winner Rollwithhottytoddy (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) taking the outside route first-over. Twin B Tuffenuff (Gilles Barrieau) grabbed the cover and followed second-over to three-quarters in 1:24.4. Rollwithhottytoddy struck the lead in the stretch drive and Twin B Tuffenuff flipped off cover to power up to a one-length victory in 1:53.4. Rollwithhottytoddy was second while Fern Hill General (Brodie MacPhee) was third. Ron Matheson trains Twin B Tuffenuff for owner Pat Morris of Charlottetown.

Barrieau also captured the Basil Whelan Memorial trophy for top driver of Governor's Plate Week as part of his four-win performance.

The lone $29,200 Atlantic Sires Stakes A-division for 3-year-old pacing colts saw Tobins Chester (Hughes) win in 1:54.4 while snapping the win streak of second-place finisher Merigo Magic (Adam Merner).

The Atlantic Sires Stakes B-divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts were won by Check Your Chip (Heffernan) in 1:57.2, Little Leroy (MacPherson) in a 1:56.2 clocking and Tobins Barn Party in 1:59.

Trainers Ashley Gamester and Jeff Holmes both scored training triples on the program. Hughes drove three winners.

Saulsbrook Ian weaved through traffic to win the $12,500 Bob Dewar Memorial Governor's Plate consolation in 1:54.2 for driver Corey MacPherson and trainer Jamie Smith.

The $7,500 Ruby Chappell Memorial open mares finale was won by upset Tobins Brownie in 1:55 at 15-1 odds for trainer/driver David Dowling.
