Father and daughter dead heat in match race at Union County Fair

Historians believe dead heat between Roy and Kacey Burns is a first for a father-daughter combo.

by Jay Wolf

Brad Conrad

Daughter Kacey Burns (#1) gets up in the final strides to dead heat her father, Roy, in what is believed to be the only dead-heat in a match race between a father-daughter.

Veteran Ohio trainer Roy Burns has seen a lot in harness racing, but he was not ready for what he saw when the draw sheet came out for the opening day of his hometown Union County Fair in Marysville, OH.

Burns had entered a pair of sophomore colt trotters – Blue Jacket and Big Riggins Joe, listing his 23-year-old daughter, Kacey as the driver on each.

Lo and behold, the Burns' entries were the only two in the box, setting up a $9,035 Burns family match race – father versus daughter.

“That was a very big shock,” said Roy. “I have been driving since the mid-1970’s and is the first time that has ever happened to us.”

Kacey elected to drive Blue Jacket, who was leaving from the rail, giving the assignment behind Big Riggins Joe, a Big Rigs gelding, to her father.

“Kacey gets along really well with Blue Jacket. Big Riggins Joe is a little bull headed at times,” said Roy.

On paper, the two colts were fairly equal. Both were winless during their career (Blue Jacket was 0-for-21, Big Riggin Joe was 0-for-24). Their career earnings were within $103 of each other ($13,843 to $13,740). The punters made Kacey the slight favorite at 2/5.

When the starting gate wings folded, Roy and Big Riggin Joe took the lead, allowing his daughter to sit patiently through the fractions of :34.1, 1:10.1 and 1:45.3. A sensible pace considering neither of them wanted the fun to end.

"We talked a little bit about who see who wanted to go to the front. Whatever happened after that, we were just going to race," said Kacey.

As the pair hit the top of the stretch, Kacey tipped Blue Jacket off the rail and started the chase after her father. The duo hit the finish line together.

The gathered crowd and those watching on the Ohio Harness Horseman's Association's Facebook broadcast debated the results and started thinking about another famous match-race dead heat – the 1989 Hambletonian Final between Probe and Park Avenue Joe.

When track announcer Ayers Ratliff provided the historic confirmation – the father and daughter had in fact dead heated for win in 2:17.3 (The replay can be seen at the 1:13:36 mark of the OHHA Broadcast 2021 Union County Fair Day 1 - YouTube)

"I was going to let his colt do all the work. I was just waiting," joked Kacey.

"You can race or train a hundred times and try to make a dead heat and it will never happen. It was just amazing," added her father.

In the statistical oddity, Roy was credited with two training wins and driving win and his daughter picked up an additional driving win.

"The raced helped all of our statistics," said Roy, laughing. "The only bad thing is that I lost two maidens."

The owner's share of the $9,035 purse was split between Roy and his wife, Melissa, who share ownership of Blue Jacket and Roy and his mother, Joan, who co-owned Big Rigglin Joe.

Both horses paid $2.10 to win, causing a negative pool for the Union County Agricultural Society but plenty of positive press with the record setting dead heat.

If the dead heat wasn't a good enough story, how Blue Jacket became a member of the Burns Stable is also noteworthy.

The Wishing Stone-Jessica Rayne gelding, was originally a member of the Chris Beaver Stable, but was sold in a disbursement sale after his 2-year-old season ($12,272 in earnings). Blue Jacket may have ended up in Amish country, but the older Burns remembered the trotter and called the new owner with an offer.

"I traded a pacer by the name of WJ's Big Breeze for him," said Roy. "We like our trotters and Kacey really likes him."

Kacey is currently pursuing a master's degree at Ohio State University, working full-time with the OSU Extension Office and is a regular participant in the Spring Haven Farms Ladies Driving Series, an all-female driver series that crisscrosses the Buckeye State.

"I enjoy the Lady Pace series. It is an opportunity for us to race each other and show the industry we are capable," said Kacey. "The Lady Pace races are the most competitive events I drive in. It is a drag race from the time they say 'go.' It could be a three-horse race and you might get parked."

For the Burns family, the 2021 Union County Fair will forever be a great memory and will always be in the annals of harness racing history.

Elimination fields set for Hambletonian and Oaks

by Hambletonian Society

This season's five fastest 3-year-old trotters – Dancinginthedark M, Sonofamistery, Johan Palema, Locatelli, and Really Fast – as well as 2020 award-winners Venerate and On A Streak were among 16 sophomore male trotters entered in the $1.1 million Hambletonian at the Meadowlands Racetrack.

Two eight-horse $50,000 eliminations will be contested Saturday (July 31), with the top-five finishers from each group advancing to the $1 million Hambletonian final on Aug. 7.

A total of 20 horses entered the filly companion event, the $570,000 Hambletonian Oaks, including 2020 O'Brien Award winner Donna Soprano and Breeders Crown champion Lady Chaos. The top-five finishers from Saturday's two 10-horse $35,000 eliminations will meet in the $500,000 final, also on Aug. 7 at the Big M.

Elimination winners will draw for post positions one through five. The remaining finalists will go in an open draw after the elimination winners receive their post.

Post positions for the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks finals will be drawn 1 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 3, on Meadowlands Facebook live. Both finals will air live from 5:30-6:30 p.m. Hambletonian Day, Aug. 7, on CBS Sports Network. First-race post time on Hambletonian Day is noon.

In Saturday's second Hambletonian elimination, Yonkers Trot winner Johan Palema meets a field that includes 2020 Dan Patch Award-winning colt Venerate, 2020 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champ Captain Corey, 2021 New Jersey Sire Stakes champ Really Fast, and 2020 Breeders Crown runner-up In Range.

Ake Svanstedt, who won the 2017 Hambletonian with Perfect Spirit, trains Captain Corey and Johan Palema. The Yonkers Trot, held July 2, was the first jewel in this year's Trotting Triple Crown, followed by the Hambletonian and October's Kentucky Futurity.

Svanstedt also sends out two colts in the first elimination, Yonkers Trot runner-up Ambassador Hanover and Delayed Hanover.

The field also includes Stanley Dancer Memorial division winners Dancinginthedark M and Sonofamistry, both trained by Marcus Melander, 2020 O'Brien Award-winning colt On A Streak, and 2020 Peter Haughton Memorial winner Zenith Stride.

Dancinginthedark M won his Dancer division on July 17 in 1:50.1, this season's fastest time, and Sonofamistry scored in 1:50.2. Melander also trains In Range in the other elim.

Really Fast is among three horses from the stable of Nancy Takter, along with Locatelli and Spy Booth. No trainers other than Svanstedt, Melander, and Takter have more than one entrant in the Hambletonian eliminations.

In the Hambletonian Oaks eliminations, Donna Soprano enters off a 1:51.3 win in a division of the Del Miller Memorial on July 17 at the Meadowlands for trainer Blais. The time is the fastest of the season by a 3-year-old filly trotter.

The first elimination features Lady Chaos, You Ato Dream, Beltassima, Darlene Hanover, and Bella Bellini.

You Ato Dream, trained by Jeff Gregory, most recently won a Del Miller division by a half-length over Lady Chaos. Beltassima, from the stable of Tony Alagna, won the New Jersey Sire Stakes title in May and Brett Bittle-trained Darlene Hanover captured the 2020 Jim Doherty Memorial. Bella Bellini, a multiple winner this year on the Pennsylvania-stakes circuit for Nifty Norman, finished second to colt Johan Palema in her most recent start.

Racing begins at 6:20 p.m. Saturday at the Meadowlands.

Sixteen-year-old Kyle Swift celebrates first driving win in first career start

by Chris Lomon

It was a feeling unlike anything Kyle Swift had ever experienced. A state of calm came over the teenager as the starter car began to pick up speed for the third race – and his first – at Batavia Downs on the afternoon of July 15.

The dash, hosted by New York Sire Stakes County Fair series, a program designed to help develop young horsepeople, included 16-year-old Akron, NY, resident Swift, who held the reins of 2-year-old Pink Delight, a pacing filly trained by his mother, Ryan Swift.

When the starter car sped away on the field so too did Swift and the daughter of Huntsville (NY).

The pair carved out comfortable early fractions of :31.2 and 1:05.1 in the field of five before the young reinsman called on his charge, as the duo paced a back half of 1:00.1, with a :29.2 final panel.

As the finish line drew closer, Swift, despite the enormity of the moment, was able to embrace it all, a scenario he had played out in his mind countless times.

“I was pretty relaxed. I was really confident in her because I had sat behind her before. Everything just felt like when I had schooled her. We got out of there, got to the front and at the five-eighths pole, she took off and from there it was pretty much game over. It felt pretty good. I had never felt that feeling before. It was my first race, first win and it was at my hometown track. It felt really good.”

Just as it did for the many family and friends who came out to cheer on Swift.

He certainly gave them plenty of reason to celebrate.

“Everybody was there and it was really nice to be able to share it with so many important people in my life.”

For as thrilled as he was to kick-off his career off in such impressive fashion, Swift didn't dwell on the storybook start for long.

His thoughts, later that day, turned to chasing more moments like had just experienced.

“I watched the replay once or twice, but then it was time to move on to the next one. It's a very surreal moment and the thing that really stuck with me was, 'I want to keep doing it. I want to keep it going.'”

Not only for himself, but also his family.

Swift comes from an impressive harness background. His father Ray Fisher Jr. has recorded over 4,600 driving wins and more than $20 million in earnings during his career, while his mother is zeroing in on 450 training victories and $2.5 million in purse earnings.

“I want to keep doing well for my family and make this a success as a living. Hopefully, I can continue getting good horses and be the best I can be. When I was about six, I started understanding the business, and I knew back then that I wanted to be a part of this industry.”

His connection to the horses was immediate.

Swift has always appreciated the individual attributes of each horse he has known. Not even the stubborn ones dampen his enthusiasm or willingness to get the most out of them.

“They're all different and I like that. Each horse teaches you something different. I've been able to learn something about them and myself every day. Good or bad, they teach you something you need to know.”

Pink Delight would be a prime example of a horse that’s helped Swift in his horse racing education.

Bred by Crawford Farms and owned by John and Linda Brei, the pacer is a hard-nosed type, a rookie with an attitude.

Not a problem for Swift.

“She didn’t really get along with anyone else, so in January I started sitting behind her and she finally started to figure it out. I schooled her behind the gate the first few times. I think she started to trust me and I started to trust her. It’s worked out nicely.”

Swift, who will be starting his junior year at Akron (N.Y.) Central High School this fall, has already developed a list of goals, both short term and long term.

What they are exactly will remain with him.

“I’d like to be the best, but you have to take it one race at a time. You have to start small, but you need to start somewhere.”

He’ll also keep one particular piece of advice in mind, words, though differently stated, preach the very same message.

“Many people have told me something that has stuck with me. There’s a guy at the racetrack, Tony Cummings, who told me that I always need to be respectful of everyone and that I can learn something from each person I talk to. I want to show that respect to people, to be kind and considerate, and to always thank people who give me an opportunity to drive.”

An accomplished athlete – Swift plays centerfield on his high school varsity baseball team – he’s already incorporated some of the skills and lessons learned on the diamond into his driving life.

He notes a few similarities between the two sports.

“You have to be mentally tough in both. If you’re not, things can go bad very quickly. When you’re at the plate, just like in horse racing, if something doesn’t go your way, you have to move on. You can’t dwell on what happened. There’s also the teamwork aspect. You have to work together. With baseball, you have to communicate with your coach, and with racing, you have to have good dialogue and listen to the trainer. You have to be on the same page on everything. You want to make sure the stars are aligned.”

And speaking of stars, Swift, a rising one himself, is dressed for success on the racetrack.

His driving colors are a tribute to his father and grandfather, accompanied by a personal touch of his own.

“My dad uses orange and brown, and my grandpa, Tom Swift, uses baby blue and white. So, I mixed them together. I also have stars, which are offset. The travel baseball team I played for had offset stars and I really liked them. I have those as well as an ‘S’ on there.”

Swift is hoping to see more of that look in winner’s circle photos.

He doesn’t need to be asked what it will take to see that wish come into focus.

“That feeling that I had from the first win, I want to experience that as much as I can. I’m just going to keep working as hard as I can and do my best every single day and every single race.”

Back pain didn't stop Kihlström in Stochampionatet

by Thomas Hedlund

Swedish driver Örjan Kihlström is probably one of the best drivers in the world, when he's in his best shape.

Last week, Kihlström had to terminate a race with a half-mile to go, when he was placed in a perfect spot in second over with a first choice horse at Solvalla and the fans had a feeling that something was very wrong, either with the horse or the driver. And it turned out that Kihlström suffered from really bad back pain that struck him in the middle of the race at Solvalla. So Kihlström had to resign from drives during the following days and it wasn't at all certain that he would show up in great shape when $550,000 Stochampionatet was scheduled at Axevalla racetrack on Sunday (July 25) afternoon.

Kihlström resigned from all races except one on Sunday's race card, opting to sit up behind his 4-year-old trotter Honey Mearas (Readly Express) when the big stakes race was on.

Honey Mearas had finished second in her elimination and struggled with post 11 in the Sunday final, but Kihlström found a nice spot in fourth over at the same time as the front horses Hall Of Am (leader) and Globalizer (first over midway into the race) held high pace. So when Honey Mearas got order to accelerate up the backstretch, Barbro Kronos gave her a cover three wide trip throughout the last turn and when Kihlström asked for some extra speed at the top of the stretch, Honey Mearas exploded and won in a world record performance; mile rate 1:57.1 over 1.6 miles.

Trainer Daniel Redén was moved by his mare's performance after the race.

"She was just great as runner up in Drottningpokalen in May and I had some sort of a plan with her, a plan that should lead us to Axevalla and this race. But in Rättvik in mid-June, she was not at her best and I got a little confused. Had I been mistaken by her? Had I done something wrong during the summer? She was some percentage better in her elimination for Stochampionatet and then I got confident again, because we had a lot of changes in the equipment to make for the final and we've never used ear plugs on her before. I'm shaking right now. I get moved by this little horse because she shows such a great morale, even if she looks much like a 'normal' horse when she trains and in the warm up heat," said Redén, who claimed the trophy in Stochampionatet for the second year in a row. Last year, his Diana Zet won the race.

Barbro Kronos held strongly as second and Eagle Eye Sherry, who followed in Honey Mearas' back, was third.

Wire to wire for Who's Who Pasi Aikio trained Who's Who (Maharajah) played with his opponents in $365,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial at Jägersro racetrack on Tuesday (July 27) night.

Kihlström didn't even have to use the turbo power for keeping the front position from post 1 behind Who's Who, so the big fight for positions, at least the front positions, never appeared. Who's Who in front meant that Kihlström was allowed to keep the pace slow when the field turned for the second half of the mile race.

Toughest opponent Very Kronos went off stride in the first turn, which resulted in a undramatic race all the way towards the wire and Who's Who just cruised to safe win in a moderate 1:53.4 mile.

Cyber Lane claimed the silver medal after a pocket trip and rookie trotter Upstate Face finished strongly three wide as third. "I just feel joy after a victory like this and I was very confident with my horse ahead of the race. When Örjan kept the lead and could keep the pace as slow as it turned out, I felt even more confident and I'm so happy right now", said Aikio after the big triumph.

Who's Who won the Swedish Derby as a 4-year-old in 2018, at Jägersro, but mile races is not something that is associated with the 7-year-old trotter.

"Today it was urgent that I tested the horse in a little bit faster pace minutes ahead of the race and he has just a fantastic head. I can put in the extra gear and in the next second let him trot slowly and relaxed and he's totally fine with that", said Kihlström, who has experienced some nice days at the office after his unintended break from work due to pain in his back.

"Now I'm off duty for three days so I can do some rehabilitation before the V75-races Saturday," Kihlström told Swedish television after the victory in Hugo Åbergs Memorial.

No drama for Colibri Jet

Alessandro Gocciadoro went to Malmö in southern Sweden and dominated when the $161,000 Breeders Course for 3-year-olds, second division, was on the Tuesday night's card at Jägersro.

His Colibri Jet (Ready Expres) was first choice among nine opponents and Gocciadoro could send his colt to the lead after a quarter, whereon nothing much happened in the race. Colibri Jet left his challengers in the last turn and won safely in 1:55.1.

But the great impression of Gocciadoro was not set when he reached the wire with Colibri Jet this night. In the race before Breeders Course, the Italian trainer showed up a 4-year-old horse that just flew around the track of Jägersro in a way that few others have done before. Bengurion Jet (Maharajah) came to Jägersro with good reputation after starts mostly in Italy and the performance in 1:50.4 was just astonishing. Bengurion Jet sprinted away in the lead and left the opponents far behind over the stretch. This 4-year-old will most certainly be the one to catch for all track managers around Europe later on this season. And Åby has already attracted Gocciadoro to race the Åby Stora Pris in August, where Bengurion Jet will face older elite trotters over 3.140 meters.

Bond villain Goldfinger owned standardbreds

by Dave Briggs

Did you know notorious James Bond villain Auric Goldfinger had a standardbred breeding and training farm?

I found this out watching Goldfinger for the first time the other night with my daughter, Erin (See photo evidence)

The sweet ride bowler-wielding henchman Oddjob gets to pilot to take Bond to the farm is hardly an Aston Martin DB5, but I guess times are tough when the main premise of your dastardly plan is to move gold around to different countries to cash in on better exchange rates. Mwah-ha-ha!

Editorial aside: I know the movie is from 1964, but for all you "Connery was the best Bond" people, it doesn't hold up and this is supposedly one of the best Connery Bond flicks. Fight me.*

Anyway, Auric Stud Farm, Inc. – which the narcissistic Goldfinger named after himself, of course – is supposedly located in Kentucky. In a bit of movie "magic" the "standardbred" farm – not sure those are standardbreds – was created on the back lot of Pinewood Studios near London, England.

It should be noted that Auric Stud is the base from which our villain plans his audacious theft of the gold bullion reserves located at nearby Fort Knox. The farm also features a dungeon located beneath the stables where Bond is briefly imprisoned and a rumpus room that turns into a massive gas chamber.

Auric Stud Farms Inc. is full of surprises.

Goldfinger's Auric Stud Farms in Kentucky was apparently home to standardbreds.

To be honest, if it wasn't for that gas chamber thing and killing Bond Girl Jill Masterston (Shirley Eaton) by painting her gold, I think it would be cool to name a horse after Goldfinger or get some Auric Stud Inc. t-shirts made up and sell them in Lexington to people that get the reference to the movie... Though, on sober second thought, this may be about as brilliant an idea as trying to move gold around to different countries for a better return.

Gas chamber aside, the Auric Stud rumpus room is also home to one sweet billiard table that flips over to reveal a giant control panel. What villain can resist a giant control panel?

Apparently, Goldfinger was as keen on tech gadgets as Q. Earlier in the movie, the former displays a giddiness for lasers which proves he was ahead of his time – and, remember, we're talking about an era when Bond was sashaying around Miami in a terrycloth onesie that was available for purchase just a few years ago from British company Orlebar Brown for a mere $545. In one of the original, "why didn't he just shoot Bond in the face and be done with it?" moments, Goldie straps 007 to a table and slowly sends his laser toward Connery's knackers. You can cut the tension with a... never mind... We all know how much Bond cherishes those billiards, right Pussy Galore?

While the array of creatively-named characters makes the movie both cringe-worthy and memorable, all of this seems like a giant distraction to me.

What I want to know is: Are the standardbreds just a front for Goldfinger's villainy or an indication that he was misunderstood and really had a heart of gold?

Manchego delivers in Spirit Of Massachusetts Trot, goes over $3 million

Lyons Sentinel ties Shartin N's all-time track record in Clara Barton; Artful Way wins the $50,900 Bert Beckwith Memorial

by Tim Bojarski for Plainridge Park

Plainridge Park presented their two marquee stakes of the year on Sunday (July 25) and the $250,000 Spirit Of Massachusetts Trot and the $100,000 Clara Barton Distaff Pace both delivered as advertised.

The Spirit trot saw the return of Manchego, who set a world record time of 1:49.3 at Plainridge Park last year in the same event. The Nancy Takter-trained champion trotting mare won the stake again on Sunday – and went over $3 million in lifetime earnings doing it – but not without a serious challenge from Lindy The Great.

Dexter Dunn floated Manchego off the gate and battled Lindy The Great (Andy Miller) for the lead, gaining control in a solid :26.4 quarter. The six horse field continued in single file around the clubhouse turn and up the backstretch where Forbidden Trade (Daniel Dube) pulled from third and tried to mount a challenge. But Manchego (Muscle Hill–Secret Magic) was trotting hard and opened up a two-length lead at the top of the stretch. It was there that Miller tipped Lindy The Great and he came full of trot and conviction. Lindy The Great was in full flight and gaining with every stride while Dunn kept Manchego on task. The gap was closing in deep stretch but as they hit the line, Manchego finished what she started and won by ½ length ahead of Lindy The Great in 1:50.

“It took a while to get to the front but I didn’t push her too hard. But once she got there she went about her business and raced real well,” said Dunn. “It’s a pleasure to come here to Plainridge Park and see all the fans at the track. And the track put on a great show.”

Manchego, bred by Brittany Farms, now has five wins in her six starts this year and has bankrolled $292,971 for owner Black Horse Racing.

Manchego (Dexter Dunn) won his second straight Spirit of Massachusetts thanks to his victory on Sunday at Plainridge Park.

first two editions of the $100,000 Clara Barton Distaff Pace, the team of trainer Jim King Jr. and driver Tim Tetrick returned with a new star and remained undefeated in that stake after Lyons Sentinel brushed to an impressive 1:48.1 victory, tying Shartin N's all-time track pacing record set in the Barton last year.

Scott Zeron fired Rocknificent off the truck and flew to the quarter in :25.3. Almost immediately at that station, JK First Lady (Dexter Dunn) pulled from second, took the lead and continued to the half in very fast :53.2 with Lyons Sentinel tracking from third. The pace continued to be stiff with a :26.4 quarter up the backstretch, hitting the three-quarters in 1:20.1. That's where Lyons Sentinel (Captaintreaceros—Tutu Hanover) pulled from third and just took off. She motored alongside JK First Lady at the top of the turn and pulled away by two lengths heading into the stretch. She was in full flight down the lane where she opened up 2-¼ lengths over Rocknificent and won in 1:48.1.

Her driver Tim Tetrick was all smiles after the race and was very complimentary of his winner.

"My mare was super today. She was on her toes and just dragged me around the track there and just went on her own."

Lyons Sentinel, bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, is owned by the Threelyons Racing of Brantford, ON and has earned more than $1.4 million lifetime and $178,248 in 2021.

Artful Way wins the $50,900 Bert Beckwith Memorial

Plainridge Park also played host Sunday to the renewal of the Bert Beckwith Pace that was contested for $50,900 and Artful Way (Artistic Fella—Art Debut) was victorious on the strength of a season's best performance.

Artful Way (Bruce Ranger) left from post two and led from gate to wire. After getting to the half in :55.4, Andrew McCarthy was out and rolling with Cigars And Port and pushed the pace to the three quarters in 1:22 flat. But that bid unraveled around the last turn and Artful Way swelled up down the lane, opening up a 2-¼ length win in a personal season's best of 1:50.

It was the sixth win of the year for 9-year-old Artful Way ($4.80) owned by Kellogg Racing Stable of Queensbury, NY. Jackie Greene trains the winner who was bred by Robert McIntosh Stables Inc., Clifford Grundy and C S X Stables.

Lifetime, Artful Way has earned $732,515.

Racing reflections with Jeff Gregory

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Before driver Jeff Gregory enjoyed memorable victories with horses such as Bubba Dunn, Jalopy, Chapter Seven, and You Ato Dream, there was Rambling Roxie.

A female pacer trained by Gregory's father, Gary, she gave Gregory his first win.

Twice.

Owned by a family friend, Rambling Roxie carried Gregory to victory in his first matinee drive at the age of 14 and several years later to his first pari-mutuel triumph, also in his first try, in 1984.

"It was kind of crazy, but it happened," Gregory said of the wins with Rambling Roxie. "She was just an average pacing mare, but she tried, and she was easy to drive.

"When I got my license, we had a bunch of horses, and my father let me drive one horse. He said you're comfortable with her, drive her. Then after a while I started driving two, then three, then four. But I started off with one and she was the one.

"He wanted me to learn on our horses that I was comfortable with. It benefited me. I was so comfortable with our horses it gave me a little more confidence driving in the race. I knew their capabilities."

Gregory grew up in northwest New York, not far from Rochester. He jogged horses while sitting in his father's lap by the time he was 5 or 6 and never thought of doing anything other than working with the horses.

"We had a nice stable of 15 to 20 horses most of the time," Gregory said. "We had a lot of horses to learn on. I was a very lucky kid. My mother (Sue) helped in the barn and my father trained horses for 50 years before he retired a few years ago.

"I was at the barn every day, all summer, every Saturday, every Sunday. I didn't play any sports in school because I didn't want to go to practice on Saturday. And I didn't want to go to the games on Friday or Saturday night because I wanted to go to the paddock. I had to go to the track."

Ken Weingartner / USTA

Jeff Gregory and You Ato Dream.

In 2012, Gregory's dad was inducted into the Upstate New York Harness Racing Hall of Fame.

"I was brought along slowly by my father," Gregory said. "He was by far the biggest factor in my career, my only teacher. I worked for him until I was about 20 and then he pushed me off on my own.

"He was a very well-respected horseman, which helped me with my clients. They knew I was taught the right way. But other than my dad, I've been self-employed my whole life. I never worked for another trainer. He just kept pushing me in the right direction."

Gregory's favorite horse while working with his dad was a trotter named Coaltown Smoke.

"He'd been a problem horse for a bunch of other trainers, but we got along good with him,” Gregory said. “He was a very finicky horse, very temperamental, but he ended up being an open trotter for a long time. I loved the horse.”

#BETONHARNESS

Gregory was primarily a catch driver through the early years of his career. More recently, he returned to training a stable as well as driving.

“Knock on wood, it’s been a successful career,” said the 54-year-old Gregory, who has won 6,920 races as a driver.

In 2002, Gregory won the Yonkers Trot with Bubba Dunn for trainer Jeff Smith. Three years later, he captured the Hambletonian Oaks with Jalopy for trainer Jonas Czernyson, besting favorite Blur by a nose.

“Winning the Yonkers Trot was a big thrill, my first major race,” Gregory said. “And winning the Hambletonian, whether it be the Oaks or the boys, it was all you ever think of as a kid who loves trotters. That was big.”

In 2011, Gregory headed to the Breeders Crown finals at Ontario’s Woodbine Racetrack to drive Joe Holloway-trained trotter For A Dancer. He finished third with the filly, but also picked up several other drives on the card after a snowstorm prevented a group of drivers from making it to Canada.

One of the drives was behind Linda Toscano-trained trotter Chapter Seven, whom Gregory guided to victory. He also had a second-place finish with pacer Handsoffmycookie for trainer Scott DiDomenico.

“I can probably thank Joe for that because he told me about three days before the race that the weather was going to be bad and not to mess around,” Gregory said. “I ended up going on an early plane and I got there on time.

“It was a huge night.”

This year, Gregory is hoping to enjoy some more huge nights (and days) with 3-year-old filly trotter You Ato Dream. She is preparing for this week’s Hambletonian Oaks eliminations, coming off a career-best 1:52.2 win in a division of the Del Miller Memorial on July 17 at The Meadowlands.

Gregory trains the filly, which he co-owns with Bill Richardson, George Romanoff, and Martin Garey. For her career, You Ato Dream has won five of 17 races and $384,498. She has hit the board a total of 13 times.

Last year, You Ato Dream had four second-place finishes by a neck or less, including in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final and two Grand Circuit starts at Lexington’s Red Mile.

“She needed a bigger nose,” Gregory said with a laugh. “But it always felt like she was trying.”

This season, You Ato Dream opened her campaign by going off stride in a loss at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono. Since then, she has won four of six starts.

“Our first start at Pocono was a disaster,” Gregory said. “We made a couple of equipment changes in her mouth and since then she’s been really easy to drive. Now that I can sit in a little bit with her, she’s able to beat some better horses. It’s really helped us.”

Gregory is looking forward to the remainder of the Grand Circuit season with his filly, particularly the upcoming Hambletonian Oaks.

“We’re looking forward to it,” Gregory said. “The chances of winning are not great for everyone, but it’s a chance for us to dream. This is probably the heaviest I’ve ever staked a horse. Knock on wood, so far, she’s shown she can go with the better fillies anyway.

“She’s been a pleasure. I’ve got a core group of owners that are older guys that have been around forever and seen it all, the ups and downs, and this is the best horse they’ve had. They’re really enjoying it. Over the years, we’ve bought a lot of horses, and (ones like her) don’t come by that often. We know how lucky we are to have her.”

Hot Mess Express extends win streak to seven

After capturing the $174,400 Mistletoe Shalee for 3-year-old pacing fillies at The Meadowlands last week, Hot Mess Express returned to her home state to continue her winning ways, this time in Indiana Sires Stakes action on Sunday (July 25) at Harrah's Hoosier Park. With a win streak on the line, Hot Mess Express extended her win streak to seven as she delivered as the heavy 1-5 favorite in the $96,000 Indiana Sires Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies. Driven by John DeLong for trainer Tony Alagna, Hot Mess Express went gate to wire and cruised to a length and a quarter victory in 1:49.4.

DeLong sent Hot Mess Express away from the gate to grab the early lead through an opening panel in :26.3 She clicked off fractions of :55.2 and 1:23.2 before ever feeling a threat from the rest of the field. Somethingbeautiful and LeWayne Miller applied pressure from first over and continued to advance turning for home. Hot Mess Express used a :26.2 final quarter to keep Somethingbeautiful at bay and get the win.

Owned by Samuel Bowie, the daughter of Panther Hanover—My Heart Was True recorded her seventh victory of the season and 11th lifetime victory. Hot Mess Express is now four for four in Indiana Sires Stakes this season as she pushed her seasonal bankroll to $449,655.

The evening's 13-race card also featured three divisions of Indiana Sires Stakes action for the 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Trainer Ron Burke doubled up on the program with two stakes victories. Brookview Bullet and driver Sam Widger turned in an impressive gate-to-wire effort to capture the first split of the stakes action in 1:50.1 and deliver as the heavy favorite. It was the third win of the season from seven trips behind the gate for the son of Always A Virgin—Babylon Sister. Brookview Bullet is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Eleven Star Stable, F. Baldachino, and Weaver Brusceci.

Burke's second win came after Roger's Image and John DeLong pulled the 11-1 upset in the second division.

Stopping the timer in 1:50, Roger's Image converted a pocket trip into a near two length victory over Madelines Blk Jack and Brandon Bates. It was the third victory of the season for Roger's Image and a new lifetime best effort. Owned by Burke Racing, J&T Silva, Purnel&Libby, Ras Racing, Weaver Brusceci, Roger's Image has now won four of 23 lifetime.

The biggest upset of the evening came in the final division of the stakes action after Ricky Macomber Jr. and Rockinsomewhere staged a huge rally late to get up in the final strides of the mile at odds of 27-1. Utilizing a ground saving trip, Rockinsomewhere found late racing room up the inside to put his nose on the wire first and stop the timer in 1:50.1 over Skyway Victor and Trace Tetrick. The 1:50.1 clocking was a new lifetime best for the Ernie Gaskin trainee.

The gelded son of Rockin Image—Secludedbeach is owned in partnership by Ernest Gaskin Stables Inc. and Robert Rubin. Rockinsomewhere has now won two of 15 outs this season.

Live racing will continue at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino tonight (July 28). The evening's live racing program will feature a $10,000 Guaranteed Pick-5 after the sequence went unsolved on Sunday and produced a carry-over of $2,678.04. Splash Blue Chip wins NYSS at Monticello Splash Blue Chip won her second consecutive New York Sires Stakes (NYSS) event of the year with a win of 1:57.1 on Monday (July 26) at Monticello Raceway.

The field of seven was whittled to six after a late post time scratch of Dream Chapter. Splash Blue Chip, the 1-5 betting favorite starting from post position 5, eased away from the gate to get the lead and had two lengths on the pack as they hit the first stanza in :29.1. The gap was still the same at both the half in :58.2 and the $\frac{3}{4}$ pole in 1:27.3. It looked as though Splash Blue was going to wade to an easy win but her stablemate, Illuminata (Mark Mac Donald), who was sitting in the garden spot the entire mile, had other plans and took advantage of the passing lane down the stretch and posed a serious threat, but made a costly miscue just yards from the finish line and made a break to finish second. Finishing third was Titans Hope. Time for the mile was 1:57.1.

Splash Blue Chip, the strapping daughter of EL Titan, was driven to victory by driver, trainer and part owner Ake Svanstedt who shares her with Mellby Gard Inc. of Delray Beach, FL. With the win, her seasonal earnings are now in excess of $95,000. Splash Blue Chip is now tied for first place with Moni For Lindy for overall points in her category.

In Excelsior A action, Izzy Demsky (EL Titan) and Mattias Melander scored in a wire-to-wire win in 2:00 - $3.00. Just Joshing (Andy Miller) scored a start to finish with a two-length win in 1:58.3- $3.30. Lovey Belle benefited from a great drive from Jason Bartlett to score in 2:00 - $22.40 over the favorite, Insured Am S. The lone Excelsior B event saw Ruinoutofrsntorun and Bartlett hold off Summer Storm (Jordan Stratton) in 2:03 - $6.50.

Want to share in top contenders' Adios earnings? Now you can Wouldn't it be great to share in the Adios purses won by two of the top contenders, Southwind Gendry and Lou's Pearlman? Now, thanks to a unique contribution from the horses' owners, you may win a drawing that will give you that thrill.

The Ron Burke stable and Weaver Brusceci LLC are donating one per cent of the earnings of those horses in Saturday's (July 31) Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids to help the Standardbred Transition Alliance (STA). Since the Adios final goes for $375,000, Southwind Gendry and Lou's Pearlman could collect up to $281,250 with a 1-2 finish, meaning the lucky ticketholder would win more than $2,800.

The Adios raffle is the centerpiece of the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA) benefit for the STA set for Wednesday, July 28, 6 - 9 p.m., at The Meadows' Parlay Lounge. The event features two ticket tracks. A $25 ticket includes appetizers, a drink and a chance to win $1,000 in a drawing. Entry to the Adios winnings drawing requires a separate $5 ticket, and the winner need not be present. Thus, a $30 donation gets you involved in both drawings.

For tickets or more information, contact the MSOA's Dawnelle Mock, 724.470.8303, dawnellemock@gmail.com.

Ambassador Hanover, Really Fast 'geer' up at Big M

Ambassador Hanover and Really Fast won their respective $48,250 divisions of the Tompkins-Geers for 3-year-old colts and geldings on the trot Saturday night (July 24) at The Meadowlands, setting them up well for this week's Hambletonian eliminations.

Ambassador Hanover, off a dominant victory in New York Sire Stakes action at Yonkers July 13, left hard from post six in his split and was on the point at the quarter in a quick :26.4 as 3-5 public choice - and winterbook Hambletonian favorite - Venerate, who broke in two of his last three starts, was handled with caution by driver Andy Miller and sat in the three-hole behind the pocket-sitting On A Streak.

A slow second fraction of :29.4 left plenty in the tank for the 'Ambassador', who had no problem shrugging off a challenge from Venerate on the far turn before going on to a safe half-length score in a lifetime-best 1:52.3 to lift his lifetime record to seven wins from 13 starts. On A Streak was second with Venerate third.

A son of Chapter Seven—Angel Eyes Hanover, Ambassador Hanover, who is trained and driven by Ake Svanstedt, returned $7.40 as the second choice in the betting.

Really Fast came through for the chalk players, scoring in the second T-G division for males as the 1-2 public choice in a lifetime-best-equaling 1:51.2, a mark he set in a qualifier seven days ago.

Calle Palema left quickly from post one and stretched out Really Fast as that one did not clear the lead until just after the half in :55.3. From there, the son of Muscle Hill—Stubborn Belle had no trouble, hitting the wire 5¼ lengths in front of a fast-closing Spy Booth to complete a 1-2 finish for the Nancy Takter barn. Calle Palema held third.

Unraced at 2, Really Fast, who was driven by Dexter Dunn, has now won four of seven lifetime outings. He returned $3.00 to win.

The 31-year-old Dunn, fresh off a Friday night that saw him guide seven to victory lane, also piloted the winners of both $46,450 Tompkins-Geers divisions for sophomore trotting fillies.

Adirondack (Father Patrick—Mission Brief) did not go the best of trips but reigned supreme nonetheless in her split, vacating the three-hole just past the half before grinding away at leader Hot As Hill on the way to a determined half-length score in 1:52.2 after poking her head in front with an eighth of a mile to go. Miss Vet Hanover and Awesome Trix were second and third, respectively.

"She's really developing into a nice racehorse," said winning trainer Takter. "She was very wound up as a 2-year-old. I think she's going to have a really nice fall."

As the 8-5 favorite, Adirondack returned $5.40 after winning for the third time from 10 lifetime starts.

Eazy Pass (Muscle Hill-Livininthefastlane) pulled off a big upset at 18-1 in the second division for trainer Nifty Norman, returning $38.40 to win after scoring in a lifetime-best 1:53.3.

All eyes were on 2-5 public choice Piper Hanover, who was seeking her fifth win in a row, but she faltered after cutting out rated fractions of :28.1, :57.3 and 1:26.1 on the front end.

When Piper Hanover weakened in mid-stretch, the pocket-sitting Dutiful – who was 49-1 – appeared to be going on to victory, but Eazy Pass, who sat a three-hole trip, caught that one nearing the wire to win by a half-length. Piper Hanover finished third.

A LITTLE MORE: Dunn led the driver colony with three winners on the card, giving him 10 for the weekend. The Big M's leading driver now has 116 victories on the year... There were no winning tickets sold in the 20-cent Pick-6, creating a carryover of $10,855.23 for the next race card. Those with five correct collected $248.50... All-source handle totaled $2,617,831.

Second Bruiser, Desperate Man emerge victorious in second Gold

Ontario's world class 3-year-old pacing colts waged a pair of $99,800 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series battles at Georgian Downs on Sunday (July 25) and it was Second Bruiser and Desperate Man who emerged triumphant from the fray.

Fan favorite Second Bruiser did the bulk of the work on the front end in the first division, leading the field through fractions of :27.4, :55.3 and 1:22.4 before pulling away to a two and three-quarter length win in a personal best 1:50.2. Century Heineken finished second and Bettor Of The West was third.

"He's just a good horse, he's been good since he come back this year and I wanted to drive him like I thought he was the best, because I thought he was the best," said driver James MacDonald. "I pushed him a little bit, but he felt like if someone had come to him he'd have given me a little more too. He's a tough horse, he's just a good horse."

MacDonald drives Second Bruiser for trainer Vernon Cochrane of Fergus and his co-owner Stefan Piekos of Palgrave, ON, who also bred the son of Believeinbruiser and Dear Vicky. The gelding was undefeated in four Grassroots starts as a 2-year-old, including the season ending Grassroots Championship, and MacDonald said the pacer has developed into a more complete racehorse over the last eight months.

"At 2 he was kind of high strung and he'd get really worked up, and this year he's just a complete professional," said MacDonald, who currently leads all drivers in the Ontario Sires Stakes point standings. "You can do anything you want with him. You can leave with him if you stir him up, you can take him back, you can do anything you want, so it kind of gives you a little more leeway behind the gate to make up your mind."

MacDonald needed that flexibility on Sunday when Powertrain went off-stride in front of Second Bruiser around the first turn and then Century Heineken took a brief turn on the lead heading by the grandstand for the first time. Second Bruiser was able to accelerate and decelerate as needed and keep enough energy in reserve to sprint down the stretch.

The win was Second Bruiser's first in Ontario Sires Stakes action this season and his second of the sophomore campaign. Through four starts he now has two wins and two seconds.

The second division gave fans a thrilling stretch drive that required a photo to determine the winner. From Post 2, Meadowlands Pace champion Lawless Shadow took early command and led the field to a :26.3 opening quarter with P L Ozzy in the pocket, Desperate Man angling into third and reigning division champion Bulldog Hanover fourth. The colts followed Lawless Shadow to a :54.1 half without changing position, but as he powered to a 1:21.3 three-quarters, driver Trevor Henry tipped Desperate Man into the outer lane and Jody Jamieson followed suit with Bulldog Hanover. Lawless Shadow and Desperate Man waged a fierce battle in the stretch and the photograph determined that Desperate Man had a nose in front at the 1:49.4 finish. Favorite Bulldog Hanover finished one-half length back in third. All three colts are by sire Shadow Play.

"We didn't even know if he got there, that horse (Lawless Shadow) is iron tough," said trainer Kathy Cecchin. "There were a lot of people around the little booth there and everybody was saying something different about who got it and I'm like, you know what, he raced good and that's really all that matters. He looked like himself so if he didn't get it then we're still really happy with him."

The trainer and her husband John Cecchin share ownership of Desperate Man with their daughter and son-in-law Nicole and Paul Davies and the Arthur, ON residents had been worried about the colt's performance through his first three sophomore starts. A three-time winner in the Gold Series at two, Desperate Man had not finished better than third before Sunday's personal best effort.

"I feel like we've been in the fight to get right and we just haven't been there, (we were) starting to get a little doubt creeping in," said Cecchin. "He's such a good feeling horse, jumps around in his stall and he's always happy, and he was standing in the back corner and that's just not him, very out of character for him. Now just the last week and a half he's been standing at the front of the stall, more bright all the time, eating good and everything. So we're awfully happy. We were getting worried that maybe he just wasn't coming back."

Desperate Man will have a chance to add to his sophomore résumé when the 3-year-old pacing colts return to Woodbine Mohawk on Aug. 7 for their third Gold Series Leg.

Ontario Sires Stakes action returns to the Innisfil oval on Tuesday, Aug. 3 with the second Grassroots Leg for the two-year-old trotting fillies.

Freshmen fly in Ohio Sires Stakes

Seven $40,000 Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts and fillies were contested on a balmy Saturday evening, July 24 at Scioto Downs.

Hotshot Tempress got the evening started by setting a new track record for 2-year-old pacing fillies of 1:51.2, with Brett Miller driving for trainer Kyle Ater. The homebred daughter of McArdle is owned by Rebecca Ewing's Ivy Holdings of Apple Creek, Ohio. The winner left the gate as the 5-2 choice and was well ahead of 9-1 Sloopy (Chris Page) at the wire, with 29-1 longshot Spitting Image (Mike Wilder) getting up for third. Hotshot Tempress pushed her career earnings to $25,200 with the win, the first of her career in three tries.

Cape Cod Hanover made it three in a row with a 1:53.1 score in the second division for pacing fillies. Trained by Ron Burke and driven by Chris Page, the daughter of Downbytheseaside prevailed easily after winning leg one in 1:53.3, and now has $43,400 in career earnings. Cape Cod Hanover was the 1-5 favorite, besting 5-1 Mermaid By The Sea (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), with 10-1 Allnight Miki (Mike Wilder) third.

Dragon Lady (Chris Page) used an inside move to come up in the final strides and best the leading Secret Side Piece (Trevor Smith) in the third OHSS filly division. The daughter of Fear The Dragon stopped the clock in 1:54 for trainer Ron Burke and owners Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci, William Donovan and Let It Ride Stable. Dragon Lady was the 3-1 choice, with Secret Side Piece the 3-5 favorite, and third-place finisher Big Time Barbie (Trevor Smith), a mild longshot at 12-1. The victory was the first in three starts for Dragon Lady, who now has $32,000 in lifetime earnings.

Sea Silk captured the final OHSS contest for 2-year-old pacing fillies, stopping the timer in 1:52.2 with her third consecutive victory and second in this series. The daughter of Downbytheseaside took Leg one in 1:53.3 for driver Chris Page and trainer Ron Burke, who owns Sea Silk in partnership with Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services and Hatfield Stables. Sea Silk now has $115,000 in career earnings and was the 1-2 favorite in this stake, followed by 9-1 Bottle N Cork (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), with 20-1 longshot Avia Hanover (Brett Miller) third.

Seaside Way captured the first of three OHSS divisions for freshmen pacing colts, stopping the clock in lifetime best 1:52 with Chris Page driving for trainer Ronnie Burke. The son of Downbytheseaside is owned by Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services and Slaughter Racing, and pushed his career earnings to $25,760 with his first career triumph as the 6-5 favorite. Shane Falco was second for Danny Noble with 10-1 longshot Seaside Jet (Tyler Smith) getting up for third.

Gulf Shores absolutely cruised to a new lifetime 1:51.3 triumph in the second OHSS division for pacing colts, steered by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., to his second straight win for trainer Brian Brown. The son of Downbytheseaside left the gate as the 1-9 favorite, besting 26-1 Tre Cruz (Brett Miller) by open lengths, with 14-1 Risenshine Seaside (Ryan Stahl) third. Gulf Shores now has $40,000 in career earnings.

Sling Shot didn't disappoint his backers as the 1-9 favorite, scoring his third consecutive victory in 1:53.2 for trainer Christi Noble and driver Danny Noble in the third OHSS division for pacing colts. The son of Downbytheseaside upped his lifetime earnings to $115,000 by defeating 30-1 Terminator (Chris Page), who was second, and 15-1 Rose Run Xplosion (Mike Wilder), who finished third.

Rain did not slow the OSS sophomore pacing colts Saturday

They had to battle over a sloppy, rain-soaked track, but the 3-year-old pacing colts were still sizzling at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (July 23) in a quartet of Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) $22,500 Grassroots divisions.

Saltwater Savage scored the fastest mile of the night, powering through the rain to a 1:50.4 victory in the last division. The State Treasurer son and driver Bob McClure sat on the helmet of pacesetters Bettor Sun and driver Doug McNair through fractions of :26.4, :54.3 and 1:22.2 before sprinting down the stretch to a one and one-half length win. Bettor Sun settled for second and Harpers Hat Trick completed the top three. Favorite Cantstoplying was fourth (replay here: Saltwater Savage).

"He was a nice 2-year-old last year in PEI and the owners wanted to send him up," said trainer Dr. Ian Moore, a native of PEI. "The first day I jogged him, I liked him right from the get go. He just seemed like a really nice colt, good mannered and good gaited, and seemed to have a great attitude, very happy to be out there. And he's just gotten better and better and better every time we've raced him. He's not going to be a Gold, but he's going to make a nice Grassroots colt and he showed it tonight, so we are all very happy."

Moore trains Saltwater Savage for Michael Currie of Cardigan and Jerry MacKinnon of St. Peters Bay, PEI. The win was the gelding's first in Ontario Sires Stakes action and his second of the sophomore campaign.

“It’s nice to see a horse come from home and do well for all my friends and guys down home,” said Moore. “It costs them a lot of money to send them up here and be with a trainer up here, no matter who it is, so it’s always good to have some results for them.”

Driver Jody Jamieson scored a Grassroots double on Saturday, winning the second and third divisions with Twin B Eagle and Armor Seelster.

Starting from Post 1, Twin B Eagle landed sixth in the early going as favorite Cadillac Bayama led the field to a :27 quarter. After tipping into the outer lane Twin B Eagle drafted behind Stonebridge Rex and the two colts advanced toward the pacesetter through a :56.1 half and 1:23.4 three-quarters. Stonebridge Rex had Cadillac Bayama in his rear-view mirror by the top of the stretch, and when Jamieson showed Twin B Eagle open racetrack the gelding hit another gear and pulled away to a 1:52.4 victory. Stonebridge Rex finished one and three-quarter lengths back in second and Jim Blue was third. Cadillac Bayama faded to fifth (replay here: Twin B Eagle).

“I thought he was the best in the race if it set up good and he proved that. He’s a better horse than most of those horses,” said Jamieson, who was making his first appearance in the gelding’s race bike. “It worked out really good, he didn’t even have to do a lot of work. When he gets tired I guess sometimes he loses his focus or something and he’ll make a break, but tonight he wasn’t even tired, he just kind of paced through the line and won pretty easy.”

Anthony Beaton of Waterdown, ON trains Twin B Eagle for Wayne MacRae of Fall River, NS and Daniel Ross of Belfast, PEI. The win was the first of the sophomore campaign for the Sportswriter son, who started in the July 3 Gold Series opener but made a late break and was placed 11th.

Jamieson also employed a come-from-behind strategy with Armor Seelster, who kicked home in :26.4 to best favorite Proline and Saratoga Blue Chip in a personal best 1:53. Gabriella Sasso of Cambridge trains the Bettors Delight gelding for Jeffrey Courchesne of Cambridge and Martwest Racing Stable of Mississauga, ON (replay here: Armor Seelster).

“That horse, he’s a funny horse, he sees things that aren’t there. He got looking at the starter tonight because I was right behind the starter (Post 6) and I couldn’t get him to within two lengths of the gate so I almost started where the 11 horse would start, that far behind,” said Guelph, ON resident Jamieson. “I thought I was kind of screwed because I got so far back, but as it turned out he had a huge turn of foot and swept by the field. He’s a real nice horse, just real green yet.”

The win was the second of 2021 and the first in OSS action for Armor Seelster, who improved his sophomore record to two wins and two seconds in four starts.

The other division saw fan favorites Jimmy Connor B and driver Doug McNair sweep around the leaders to a 1:52.3 victory over Premier Nacho and Mr Charisma. (replay here: Jimmy Connor B).

“He’s getting better. He’s still not a ton of fun to drive until the stretch, when you can let him pace,” said McNair, who steers the colt for his father, owner-trainer Gregg McNair of Guelph, ON. “He’s got a ton of talent, but it will just take more experience, I hope, for him to put it all together some day.”

Like his peers, Saturday’s win was Jimmy Connor B’s first in OSS action. The Big Jim son now has three wins to his credit in 11 sophomore starts.

The 3-year-old pacing colts will make their third Grassroots start at Dresden Raceway on Monday, Aug. 2.

Complete results from Saturday’s program are available here and replays can be viewed on the Woodbine Mohawk Park YouTube channel.

The Ontario Sires Stakes program returns to Woodbine Mohawk Park on Thursday, July 29 with the second Gold Series Leg for the two-year-old trotting colts. Fans can download a program, watch the live stream, or make a reservation on the racetrack’s website.

3-year-old NYSS pacers at Batavia Downs this afternoon

Batavia Downs begins the second week of their meet today (July 28) and the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) will once again be in town. This time it’s a two-for-one deal as both male and female divisions of 3-year-old pacers will convene at the Genesee County track for a total purse of $225,000. With the Excel A and B races also carded, the money distributed by the NYSS alone on Wednesday is $319,800.

Looking at ladies first, eight will go postward in their first division for $58,000.

Summer Rae (Roll With Joe–Solar Eclipse) kicked off her stake season well, scoring a win and a second in three NYSS starts. And in between she took a speedy 1:53 lifetime mark at Yonkers in an overnight event. The filly is the top money winner in this race, drew post one and looks to have all the advantages.

Trainer Tom Fanning has her regular driver Jason Bartlett up and has been tabbed 5-2 by the track handicapper.

Think Of Galaxies (So Surreal–Lightning D Dube) looked sharp in winning back to back starts in overnight races at the Meadowlands in June, including her lifetime best 1:51.3 mile. In her last start in NYSS action at Yonkers, she left from post seven and tripped-out to finish second behind Test Of Faith, who won in 1:52.2. She gets major post relief here as she moves into post three.

Jim Morrill Jr. will drive for trainer John Mc Dermott and starts at 3-1.

The second $57,000 split has seven starters and Heart Of Mine (Roll With Joe—Aquavella) is the prohibitive favorite.

Heart Of Mine has won seven races out of eight starts this year and her only loss was to Test Of Faith in the $150,000 final of the Park MGM stake at Yonkers, in what was then a battle of the unbeaten. Heart Of Mine bounced back last week and won in NYSS action with her seasonal best effort of 1:53.3. The filly likes the front and that should be easily attainable from post four.

Hall of Fame trainer Linda Toscano sends the 7-5 Heart Of Mine out with Scott Zeron in the bike.

Tava (American Ideal—Major Harmony) who starts from post one, will be looking to capitalize with a trip and should sit the pocket here. Although she only has one win in seven 2021 starts, Tava has not missed the board since her first start of the year and that includes three NYSS starts. Her win was a 1:53 jogger at Harrah's Philly in an overnight event which was her lifetime mark. She's spotted well here and has a chance to close the deal.

Matt Kakaley drives the 3-1 Tava for trainer Scott DiDomenico.

The colts and geldings are split into two five-horse, $55,000 fields and both have prohibitive co-favorites.

The first group features I'll Drink To That at 7-5 and King James Express at 8-5.

I'll Drink To That (American Ideal—Margarita Monday) got his first NYSS win this year at Buffalo in June before heading into the Messenger Stake at Yonkers. He fared well in the elimination where he cut the mile and finished second to Abuckabett Hanover in 1:51.3. In the final he got away third and after racing covered, got out coming off the last turn but could not advance on the leading American Courage who won in 1:51.4 over the off track.

Jim Morrill Jr. drove him to victory at Buffalo and is back up for this outing for trainer Chris Ryder.

King James Express (Art Major—More Diamonds) was the NYSS 2-year-old male pacing champion last year and earned $209,201 for the season, and after a slower start this year seems to be rounding into form now. After a third place finish to I'll Drink To That in the first NYSS event at Buffalo, King James Express raced three overnight conditioned events where he showed good closing speed. His last start was back in the NYSS at Saratoga where he went his season's best mile of 1:53.3 in victory with Jason Bartlett aboard. He draws post one here and will be dangerous.

Bartlett is back in the driver's seat for trainer Mark Harder.

The second quintet also has co-favorites with Southwind

Petry tabbed at 8-5 and Town Gossip at 9-5.

Southwind Peytr has two second place finishes in NYSS this year, but they bookend two outstanding overnight wins that include a 1:50.1 career best at the Meadowlands in June and followed that up with a 1:52.4 win at Yonkers over an off track. The competition here is stiff, facing off against Town Gossip who beat him in their last start. But Southwind Peytr did finish ahead of Town Gossip earlier this year when he placed at Buffalo. Southwind Peytr drew wideset in here, but there are only five at the gate.

Jason Bartlett steers for trainer Mark Harder.

Town Gossip has come on very strong lately and enters this race razor sharp. After winning an overnight at Yonkers in a lifetime best 1:52.4 by 2-½ lengths, Town Gossip shipped to Saratoga and fired a 1:51.1 mile at the competition. He sat with cover behind Southwind Peytr who tangled with I'll Drink To That in a :26.4 third quarter before finding room in the lane to win by ¾'s of a length. The time lowered his personal best again and bodes well for his chances in this race.

Joe Bongiorno will drive for sister Jenn Bongiorno and will start from post four.

There are also a total of five $15,000 Excel A races and three $6,600 Excel B events on the card, two of which will go as non-betting races before the pari-mutuel card begins. Post time for the first non-betting event is 4:30 p.m. and the regular card kicks off at 5 p.m.

Three new winners highlight Buckeye Stallion Series action at MGM Northfield Park

Three divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old trotters at MGM Northfield Park yield three first time Stallion Series winners. Each of the divisions carried purses of $17,500.

The fastest winner was Naughty Triumphant. The Triumphant Caviar gelding came home in 1:56 for Ryan Stahl and trainer Steve Carter. The gelding is owned by Tammy Carter, Jacob Beard, Adam Friedland, and Brian Carsey.

The husband-wife combination of Cameron and Jessica McCown won their division with the Uncle Peter gelding My Pal Sparky in 1:57. Jessica McCown owns the three-year-old.

The final division went to Malibu Kid. Keith Kash Jr. drove the son of Wishing Stone for Dalton Walls tripping the wire in 1:58.2. The gelding is owned by Walls, Bruce Soulsby, and Alan Weisenberg.

Buckeye Stallion Series action continues at MGM Northfield Park tonight (July 28) with the third leg of the 3-year-old colt pace. First race post time is 6:00 PM.

31st Industry Day will be celebrated Back at the Track

On Monday (Aug. 2), the 31st annual Industry Day will welcome spectators back in full force as additional areas open at Grand River Raceway.

With the movement into Step 3 of the Roadmap to Reopen Ontario and a few weeks of operating under the revised restrictions, we are happy to welcome additional spectators as we open the Backstretch Picnic area to guests on Industry Day.

Historically the largest day of the race season at Grand River Raceway, Industry Day, hosts two feature races, The Battle of the Belles and The Battle of Waterloo. With an Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) undercard and over $600,000 in purse money it really is a day for those racing and spectators alike.

A special memorial race will be held in memory of Paul Walker, former president of the Grand River Agricultural Society.

So, what can you expect at Grand River Raceway on Industry Day?

The race card will include 11 races, with a post time of 12.30 p.m., Guests will be welcomed from 11.30 a.m. onwards.

All guests looking to watch racing can enter from three different locations, The Casino entrance, The NEW GrandWay, or via the east side of the main building. Those looking to park and picnic on the Backstretch will be able to do so via the east side of the main building, noting that the only services available will be washrooms.

There will be a variety of indoor and outdoor spaces available. Masks must be worn inside of the building and we are not taking any reservations for seating at this time. We ask that guests practice social distancing in all areas.

There will be a variety of food options; the GrandWay Lounge and Bar will be serving pub food, take-out style which can be enjoyed anywhere onsite. An additional hotdog stand will be located on the GrandWay Patio. There will be a series of Food Trucks onsite, and Elements Casino will have a licenced bar open on the Tarmac (cash only).

Mutuel tellers will be onsite to take bets on the Tarmac, the Patio, in the GrandWay Lounge, and on the second floor of the Casino building. There will be self-serve stations available in all of these locations and also in the Tarmac Tent. A reminder if you are coming to the track for the first time, all betting takes place in cash and there are ATM's onsite.

Programs can be purchased from any of the Mutuel teller locations, the bar, each of the entrances, or downloaded free of charge at <https://grandriverraceway.com/programs/>.

Washroom access will be on the second floor of the main building, and in The GrandWay, portable facilities will be located on the Tarmac and the Backstretch Picnic area.

The Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame will be onsite selling Marjorie Simmins latest release, Somebeachsomewhere, the harness racing legend from a one-horse stable.

Canadian Ontario Standardbred Association will be broadcasting live from location, and Grand River's Robert Reid Jr. will also be commentating live onsite.

Joanne Colville will be leading the post parade with a celebrity standardbred coming out of retirement to join us for the day.

The team at Grand River Raceway are certainly planning onsite experiences but a number of the regular activities such as The Neighbourhood won't resume at this time.

Elements Casino will be open to a limited number of patrons, please refer to their website for their protocols <https://www.elementscasinograndriver.com/>.

"We are incredibly excited to celebrate Industry Day this year with guests back onsite! We certainly appreciate everyone's patience and understanding as we navigate this new way of operating," said Katie Giddy, director of hospitality, sales and marketing.

For those not able to join us in person you can still follow along, with live racing broadcast every race night at <https://grandriverraceway.com/livestreams-replays/>.

For regular updates and the most current information please visit www.GrandRiverraceway.com.

Joe Burke wins Maine amateur final

Joe Burke made all the right moves with his own Stonebridge Grand to pick-up the victory and the bragging rights in the $7,500 Maine Amateur Driving Club (MADC) final at Cumberland on Saturday (July 24).

Scoring from post five, the 43-year-old construction manager got away from the starting gate into third position. Favorite Led Schnepelin (post 4, Mike McGee) assumed command, posting a :27.1 first quarter. Noticing opportunity following a slower pace over the back half, Burke pulled the 6-year-old son of Camluck three-wide down the backside heading to the three quarters and overtook the leaders.

Burke kept Stonebridge Grand moving down the stretch amid a flurry of late closers, maintaining a neck advantage at the wire, tripping the timer in 1:59.2. Rose Run Slider brushed quickly down the lane to be second for driver Derek Howes. Wagering favorite Led Schnepelin hung on for third.

Trained by Bob Marston, Stonebridge Grand paid $17.00 to win.

In the winner's circle presentation Burke noted, "This has been a great season for amateur racing in Maine and we are grateful for the support and opportunities to race that First Tracks Cumberland has provided us."

Founded in 2002 by Buddy Burke, the Maine Amateur Driving Club has competed around the Maine commercial tracks and pari-mutuel fair circuit for the last two decades, and is also coordinated by Buddy's son Joe Burke.

During the post parade for the MADC final, regular out-rider Sherry Cushing allowed her trusty steed Leo to be "catch ridden" by one of Cumberland's leading drivers Drew Campbell. As the guest parade marshal trotted in front of the stands, the crowd cheered and Drew exchanged barbs with many of his fans and followers.

Each year the club selects a number of groups and organizations to race for. At the end of the meet, they donate funds from their accrued drivers' fees. All told, the drivers raised and will personally contribute over $4,000 to the various charities, with more funds to be distributed during the winter meet.

This year the MADC will donate to: the Family of Ashley Brown, Eddie Davis Jr., Pacing for a Cure, Travis Mills Foundation, Homeless Animal Rescue Team of Maine, Maine State Society for the Protection of Animals, and the Standardbred Retirement Foundation.

Live harness racing from Cumberland continues today (July 28) and Saturday (July 31), regular post time is 2:30 pm, with two additional dates added Wed. & Thurs., Aug. 4 & 5 with 11 am posts. For more information go to our website: first-trackscumberland.com.

A Night at the races for young harness fans

Fifty-nine contestants vied for $5,000 in prize monies in the 2021 edition of the 18-to-30-year-old handicapping challenge at Meadowlands Racetrack on Saturday (July 24). The contest offered a $5,000 total prize pool, with prize payouts to the top four finishers.

Brother and sister duo Erik and Kristen Polczer of Oak Ridge, NJ took home first and second place. Both contestants scored with Miss Vet Hanover in the sixth race who paid $30 to place and show. They also both hit with long-shot Eazy Pass in Race 8 for a $57 across the board score.

Erik had two other scores, one in race 5 and one in race 10 to give him $101.20 and the $2,000 top prize. Kristen finished right behind with $95 earning $1,500.

"I got the call first and couldn't believe it," said Erik. "Then when Kristen got the call saying she finished in second place we couldn't get back out to the Backyard contest area fast enough. It is a great night!"

Aaron Dudek of Garfield, NJ finished in third place with $83.50, winning $1,000. Chris McCann of Highland Oaks finished fourth earning $500.

There is no contest entry fee. The contest format required players to make a mythical $2 "across the board" wager on one horse in races 2 – 10 at the Meadowlands. The winner was determined by the player that amasses the largest mythical bankroll from their selections.

All contest participants were treated to BBQ and other grill items plus soft drinks and water in the Backyard.

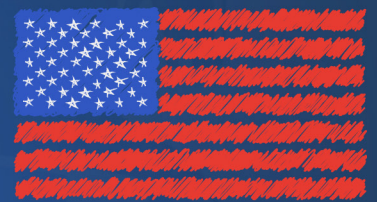

Next up at the Meadowlands Racetrack is the annual Seafood Food Truck Fest on Saturday (July 31). This free event runs from 5-11 pm and fans are encouraged to come out and taste some of the best seafood around. The race card features the eliminations for the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks.

Event details can be found at Hambletonian meadowlands-racetrack.com.
