Per Engblom's stable thrives on meat and potatoes, but he wouldn't mind caviar

by Murray Brown

Dave Landry
Trainer Per Engblom in Lexington in 2023.

STAKES Saturday

Captain Albano wins the Adios in 1:49.2.

Karl (1:50.3) and TCI (1:50.4) win Hambletonian elims.

Allegiant (1:51.4), Elista Hanover (1:51.3) and R Melina (1:51.4) win Hambletonian Oaks elims.

OUR STAKES
COVERAGE BEGINS
ON PG 24.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

As of July 25, Per Engblom is the second leading trainer in North America in terms of number of wins and money earned by his stable – 203 and $4,32,685 respectively – second only to perennial leader the Burke Stable juggernaut.

Much like third-ranked trainer Travis Alexander, of whom I wrote a month ago, Engblom has seemingly been flying under the radar for many of the same reasons.

Like Alexander, Engblom's stable is made up of a mix of young horses and older campaigners who do most of their racing at Yonkers, with a smattering regularly doing battle at The Meadowlands, Pocono Downs and Harrah's Philadelphia. It was at his training center at Magical Acres in Chesterfield, NJ while Engblom was jogging a horse with the lines in one hand and the phone in the other that I caught up with him.

It has been a long journey with several stops along the way that led you to this spot in your career. Can you please outline the steps that brought you to where you now are?

"I started out in the sport like so many young people do. I was in effect born into it. My father was a small trainer in the town of Mantorp in Sweden. He had a small stable and pretty much did it all. He groomed, trained, drove and was the horse shoer for his small stable of horses. I started working for Jimmy Takter as a groom. I was initially with Jimmy for five years, two as a groom and three as an assistant trainer. I suppose my claim to fame as a groom was that I took care of Moni Maker after her last race at Blue Bonnets through her time trial under saddle at The Red Mile.

"After five years with Jimmy, I returned to Sweden where I attended trainers' school. I was in the school for six months and then took a small job training a private stable. I then went to Italy where I trained for a short time.

"At the age of 32, I came back to the States where I worked for Tony Alagna.

"It was 2012. What a great year. Captaintreacherous was having a fabulous 2-year-old season. My MVP won the Kentucky Futurity for us. Tony's stable was on its way to becoming the force on the Grand Circuit that it is today.

"Then Jimmy Takter persuaded me to come back and work for him. I stayed with Jimmy for six years until he retired in 2018. I then began a public stable headquartered at Jimmy's farm and training center. The first year on my own was quite successful. The second year was not so much. I decided I needed a change. We packed up and with 35 horses we moved to where we still are at Magical Acres."

It had to be a great transition growing your barn from then 35 horses to its present size of about 100.

"It was and it wasn't. There were two main factors that allowed for a successful transition. I have always had excellent help. This is not and never was a one man show. Without good help, you are nothing. As my stable grew in size, I was fortunate enough to acquire enough good people to grow with it. My brother Petter joined us from Sweden.

"In addition to being a terrific all-around horseman, Petter is also an accomplished farrier. The old saying 'no foot, no horse' was now well taken care of. My horses' feet were in good hands.

“ [When it comes to sires] there are lots of choices. Nevertheless, it seems more often than not, the [yearlings] that I like and want, prove to be too expensive for my limited pocketbook. But if there is one thing that I have learned in this life of harness racing, it’s that things can often and do often change. Those that prepare for change can often be the ones who most often profit from the transition. ”

~ Per Engblom

“The second and perhaps more important requirement was in getting owners. I was very fortunate in that regard as well. From the beginning, Mitchel Skolnick was with us. I wish I could say that I’ve been as successful for Mitchel as he has been an aid to the success of the stable. Unfortunately, that has not been the case. Of all the owners in the stable, I have probably had the least success with Mitchel’s horses. But he has kept on keeping on with us. For that I shall be eternally grateful.

“Other owners started coming aboard. They included Evan Katz and Frank Canzone. In recent years the Morrison Stable has joined us. They’ve allowed me to go from being a stable that mostly specialized in racehorses to include some young ones which we race mostly in Sires Stakes, but the hope is that if they are good enough or if we have enough money, to join their ranks we might eventually have some Grand Circuit youngsters in the stable.”

Do you consider it somewhat of an irony that when you first went on your own from Jimmy, your stable was entirely composed of Grand Circuit types; then it transitioned to almost all raceway horses? Now you've added sires stakes horses and hope to get back to Grand Circuit horses.

"Not really. In this life of ours, I find that you need to go wherever life takes you. When I wasn't doing well enough with my Grand Circuit stable, I realized that I still had to make a living. Yonkers was offering excellent money for overnight racehorses. So, I concentrated my energies on getting enough of them to become competitive there. It was a plan that has worked out well. Thankfully we now have enough horses where we are not only able to compete successfully at Yonkers, but also at The Meadowlands, Chester and Pocono. It is the horses and their quality that ultimately determine where you are going to race."

You now have a stable of 100 head. How is it made up?

"The so-called meat and potatoes of the operation are the racehorses. They are what has enabled us to reach where we now are and they keep us going in both good times and times not as good. There are about 60 of them. The remaining 40 or so are 2- and 3-year-olds. We have about 25 2-year-olds, that is probably a few too many for a mixed stable of this size.

"Two-year-olds obviously need more time and attention. If I were to continue with a stable of this size, I ideally might want to decrease the number to between 15 and 20. However if destiny decides that more quality yearlings come my way, I might decrease the number of racehorses and concentrate more on the younger horses. Ultimately the horses and my owners will make my decisions for me."

Speaking with regard to 2-year-olds are there any particular sires that you look for?

"I generally look in the direction that my owners and their pocketbooks determine is best for them and their means. Today, I am mostly what one might call a bargain seeker.

"For pacers I have had success with yearlings by Huntsville and Heston Blue Chip. Not necessarily because they are the best, but mostly because they usually fall into the price range of what my owners can afford or are willing to spend. If they decided that they wanted to buy Sweet Lous, Captaintreacherous' and Bettors Delights, I would be more than willing to expand my horizons.

"With trotters I am more of a Muscle Hill fan than one of Walner, fully realizing that the champions might be found in the Chapter Sevens and Tactical Landings. I like the Muscle Hills, especially the fillies, because I find them to be classy.

Sometimes you need time to shine

by Bob Heyden

You don't have to be 1-2-3 in the Hambletonian to go on to greatness, or at least some amount of fame. Here's a list of some who weren't near the winner's circle on Hambletonian Day but more than made up for it later.

1982: The second year of the Hambletonian in New Jersey, Arndon made a break as the 6-5 choice and wound up eighth for Del Miller, Mystic Park also jumped it off as the prohibitive 1-5 choice for Frank O'Mara and struggled home ninth and Diamond Exchange was 62-1 and also broke stride and finished last. What was interesting about those three you ask? Arndon would sire two-time Trotter of the Year Pine Chip (1993-94), Mystic Park gave us – from his very first crop – Mack Lobell, and Diamond Exchange, 11 months later at 4, became the first 1:55 trotter in Meadowlands history for Chuck Sylvester and Robert Williams.

1984: Future standout Sandy Bowl finished fifth and 10th in his two tries and Baltic Speed, en route to divisional honors, was fourth and third, not good enough for the three-horse raceoff. He then sired both Peace Corps and Valley Victory from his first crop.

1987: Will forever be remembered as the year of Mack Lobell and Napoletano, but quietly a young man named Jimmy Takter debuted and finished sixth with Sir Taurus.

1992: The year you had to win once, and Alf Palema heard that. Where did the Yonkers Trot dead-heaters finish in the 1992 Hambletonian? McCluckey was seventh and Magic Lobell ninth.

1994: Gum Ball, a future international star barely gets noticed quietly finishing third then 10th in the final.

1996: The official coming-out party for the sheer greatness that was Continentalvictory. Lost in there was Kramer Boy was third in his elimination heat before getting fourth money in the final. The following year he was Sweden's Horse of the Year.

2000: A colt named Dream Vacation was eighth and last not advancing, but he made up for that and a lot more, first setting a 4YO Meadowlands track record of 1:52 from post 10 no less and then was a solid second to Varenne in the 2001 Breeders Crown.

2003: Mr Muscleman failed to get out of the elim finishing sixth, but he dominated the rest of the year and was an easy choice for divisional honors.

2007: Arch Madness made $4.2 million lifetime, but none of that came in the Hambletonian elims where he was seventh at 5-2. But just 3 months later in November, he ended HOY Donato Hanover's 19-race winning streak with an elim and final score in the Breeders Crown.

2008: A superstar to be had not yet sent out the notices. His name? Lucky Jim, who broke at three quarters and finished sixth at 9-1. The following year he'd be HOY runner-up to Muscle Hill with his only blemish coming via interference in a 17-for-18 season for the ages.

2008: A superstar to be had not yet sent out the notices. His name? Lucky Jim, who broke at three quarters and finished sixth at 9-1. The following year he'd be HOY runner-up to Muscle Hill with his only blemish coming via interference in a 17-for-18 season for the ages.

2009: Was all about Muscle Hill who posted the fastest Hambletonian in 1:50.1. But, did you know the sire of the all-time fastest trotter – Homicide Hunter (1:48.4) – was also in there? Mr Cantab finished fifth in his elim not advancing.

2014 and 2015: Resolve (fifth in the final) and the following year, Cruzado Dela Noche (ninth in an elim after an early miscue) each went on to win the Yonkers International Trot.

HAMBLETONIAN TIDBITS

- Ulf Thoresen is well-known on these shores for his expert handling of Nuclear Kosmos to victory in the 1986 Hambletonian. Easily overlooked is his Roosevelt International score, the same year, with Habib to make Norway doubly proud.
- Thirty minutes before declaring for the 1989 Hambletonian elims it was decided that Valley Victory would not start due to a viral infection and he never raced again. That decision completely changed the face of the 64th Hambletonian. Not only was the Yonkers Trot record-setting winner not going to compete but Bill O'Donnell was waiting for the decision too, being totally committed to the speedy son of Baltic Speed. O'Donnell had driven Park Avenue Joe the week before – a strong second – in the Beacon Course (now the Stanley Dancer) but that drive had already gone to Ron Waples with the natural assumption made by all that O'Donnell would drive the defending 2YO divisional king. Waples had never driven Park Avenue Joe prior. O'Donnell wound up third, then fifth with Egyptian Gentleman.
- Four of the first five Meadowlands Hambletonian winners were homebreds, but Prakas (1985) – following Shiaway St Pat (1981), Duenna (1983) and Historic Freight (1984) – was a $47,000 buy back yearling. Hans Enggren expected $60G and wound up with the Hambletonian record setter this gratifying year coming after he was scratched from the 1981 proceedings with Count Eden and the 1984 edition with Socrates Lobell.
- Finally, from the don't count your chickens dept, T C I, Karl and Highland Kismet were all back of the top pair in divisions of the Dancer. Just remember that Peace Corps entered 1989 off a 17-race winning streak and in 1965 Noble Victory was 27-for-28 lifetime.

THIS WEEK'S FINES AND SUSPENSIONS

HRU is providing links to publicly-available fines and suspension lists for convenience.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.

Also, please note, for context, the first link is to the Association of Racing Commissioners International's classification system of drug penalties to give readers a sense of the difference between a Class 1 and a Class 4 positive.

Leap To Fame building case for “greatest Down Under pacer of all time” title

by Adam Hamilton

Could Leap To Fame be the greatest Down Under pacer ever? That's what many were asking after his latest and best big race win in Saturday night's (July 27) $400,000 Group 1 Blacks A Fake (2680m) at Albion Park.

It was more a demolition job and display of utter dominance than just a win.

Despite doing all the work and looking vulnerable with 400m to go, Leap To Fame switched into another gear and zoomed away to beat his arch-rival and half-brother Swayzee by 7.2m.

As he did, Leap To Fame smashed another track record.

His incredible 1:52.8 mile rate for the long 2,680m trip took 0.6sec off the record. Replay here.

“He's got to be up with the best we've seen now,” owner Kevin Seymour said. “I told you a year ago he had that sort of potential and look what he's done since.”

Over the past year, Leap To Fame has won an Inter Dominion, Hunter Cup, Miracle Mile and now Blacks A Fake – Queensland's biggest race.

And still to come this year, he has the Group 1 Victoria Cup (Oct. 12), Group 1 New Zealand Cup (Nov. 12) and a defense of his Inter Dominion title in Sydney in December.

All races look at his mercy.

Leap To Fame's win was his 41st from just 52 starts and his 11th at Group 1 level.

He's now banked $3,194,685.

Leap To Fame (Grant Dixon) winning the Blacks A Fake on Saturday at Albion Park in a 1:52.8 mile rate track record.

“He's still getting better, too,” Seymour said. “I'm not just saying that, look at him. He's never gone better than tonight and he keeps stepping up each time in these big races.”

“As I've said before, Kay and I have been in the game more than 50 years waiting for a horse like this. He's a dream come true.”

Last night was a win of redemption too, after Leap To Fame copped a flat tire and his wheel seized in the home straight when upstaged by Swayzee in last year's Blacks A Fake.

But Leap To Fame has dominantly won all three clashes since. Swayzee's driver Cam Hart put it best.

“ I have been [in awe of Leap To Fame] for a while, to be honest. But tonight, he went to even another level. He was there to be beaten after all that work he did, but he just switched into another gear.”

~ Grant Dixon

“My horse went unbelievable tonight, so it’s incredible to think he could be beaten at all, let alone so easily,” he said. “I was so proud of Swayzee, but Leap To Fame was something else.”

Trainer/driver Grant Dixon admitted he was in awe of the 5-year-old son of Bettors Delight.

“I have been for a while, to be honest,” Dixon said. “But tonight, he went to even another level. He was there to be beaten after all that work he did, but he just switched into another gear.”

It’s quite fitting that last night’s race was named after Blacks A Fake, who is also a Queenslander and the modern-day pacing benchmark Down Under.

Blacks A Fake won 72 of his 105 starts and an Australasian record $4,575,438.

If Leap To Fame holds his form, he’s on target to break Blacks A Fake prize money record early next year.

AARDIE B MIKI CROWNED IN QUEENSLAND OAKS

Canadian owner Mike Tanev snared one of his biggest Down Under wins when the brilliant filly Aardie B Miki blasted home to win last night’s $150,000 Group 1 Queensland Oaks.

Aardie B Miki, having just her 14th start, exploded when clear of pocket back on the pegs to overtake leader and hot favorite Millwood Bliss.

“That’s a huge thrill,” Tanev said. “I wasn’t sure she would get clear with the leader [racing] slot fractions. Once she could tip, she exploded like a volcano. She’s got an incredible burst of speed.

“I’m so privileged to have a horse that has the ability to race with these great horses and she’s from a terrific family. Lots of credit to Chantal [Turpin, trainer] and Pete McMullen [driver] for the job they’ve done with her since she got across from NZ a couple of months ago.”

MAJOR HOT TAKES QUEENSLAND DERBY FOR THE KIWIS

There was just one New Zealand raider racing on Blacks A Fake night, but it was enough to take home a Group 1 trophy.

It was an all-NZ win too with the Art Major gelding Major Hot trained by David and Stacey White, owned by a string of NZ’s biggest players and driven by former Kiwi horseman and now Queensland-based Adam Sanderson.

It was Sanderson’s drive which made the difference, cutting corners and weaving through gaps to appear late and rundown a very brave favorite Bay Of Biscay, who sat outside the leader throughout.

Major Hot won by a neck with another 24m away to third-placed Minos. Replay here.

It was an emotional win for the Whites, who didn’t train the horse when they arrived in Brisbane a month ago with their top young trotter Bet N Win.

They were gutted when an untimely hoof abscess ruined Bet N Win’s Group 1 hopes and forced him out of some major races.

But around the same time, the owner of Major Hot asked if they would take over training him with trainer Nathan Purdon to return home to his big team in NZ.

“They put a lot of trust in us, they took a risk, and to reward them with a win like this is amazing,” Stacey White said. “To go from the disappointment of Bet N Win to this is... well, just unbelievable.”

‘Delco’ fillies continue winning tradition for breeder DeLong

by James Platz

Homebred Delco Irene picked up a second straight win at Running Aces on Thursday evening (July 25). Competing in a $17,000 Class A event for Minnesota-sired sophomores, the Justin Anfinson-trained pacer received every call on the way to a 1:53.2 performance. Her younger sister, Delco Kathleen, is no stranger to the Running Aces winner’s circle. The freshman claimed victory July 16, also in a Class A leg. Both fillies were bred by owner Jesse “Jay” DeLong.

To appreciate the success of Delco Irene and Delco Kathleen, one must follow the pedigrees of these fillies back to Steady Wacken. DeLong owned the son of Armbro Mackintosh—Expresso Gypsy in partnership during the gelding’s freshman and sophomore campaigns, as well as part of his 4-year-old season.

“He was probably one of the fastest racehorses I had been around to that point,” DeLong said. “So, I went to the sale and bought his sister. This mare was by Wuzzup, which, I don’t think he had four foals a year. He wasn’t a very popular sire.”

Gypsies Good Girl wasn’t the six-figure earner that her older brother turned out to be, but she did pick up four wins and hit the board in 19 of 46 starts. After closing the chapter on her racing career, DeLong kept her as a broodmare.

"She was a big, stout mare," he said. "She never made a lot of money, but she showed me she could pace, and she came from a really nice Illinois family."

The decision to keep Gypsies Good Girl has yielded a bounty of quality pacers through the years. Her first foal, Dontgetinmyway mare Shes Lovin It, blossomed into a 19-time winner with just shy of $172,000 on her card. Half-sister Delco Voracious was a two-time Minnesota champion that later died producing her only foal, gelding Fight Like Mike, who is still racing and has $162,000 on his card. The 'Delco' name is synonymous with the DeLong family. The Wisconsin natives have used the moniker for decades, but Jay reserves it for special situations.

"It goes all the way back to my dad," he said. "I don't use it on every horse, but some that mean quite a bit. Just certain horses that we breed that mean a lot."

After his wife, Mary, successfully battled colon cancer, Jay named Gypsies Good Girl's fourth foal Good News Delco. The next, a Jereme's Jet filly, was named Delco Dusty after Dr. Dustin "Dusty" Deming of the UW Carbone Cancer Center. Deming spearheaded Mary's cancer treatment.

To date, Delco Dusty is the richest of Gypsies Good Girl's offspring. With seven wins to her credit, the pacer raked in $195,436 over 27 starts. As a freshman, she established a Plainridge Park track and Massachusetts Sires Stakes record.

"I foaled her in Massachusetts and made all the residency requirements so that she was eligible," Jay said. "She ended up winning the 2-year-old division, won the final and everything, and broke the track record in 1:53. I raced her back at 3 and won the 3-year-old division and brought her home."

Gypsies Good Girl continues to foal winners, with a freshman that has already reached the winner's circle twice in 2024. Jay has tried to keep each of the mares she has produced, as he noted the quality progeny the family continually produces.

"She's had a couple of sons that have gone out east that paced in 1:53, 1:52," he said. "I've been trying to keep all the mares because they foal phenomenal size and they race great as 2-year-olds and 3-year-olds. These fillies tower over everybody and they are really nice fillies, so that's why I have kept her over the years. It's been a good family."

Like her mother, Delco Dusty has gained a similar reputation with a trio of Minnesota-bred winners from her first three babies. Her first foal, Art's Chip mare Wavzeka, was a dominant force at 2 and 3. Trained by Justin Anfinson, the pacer won six of 13 freshman starts at Running Aces and at the Minnesota fairs. She was named divisional champion in the state and County Fair Pacer of the Year for 2022. Winning seven times in 2023, including a perfect five-for-five on the fair circuit, Wavzeka repeated as County Fair Pacer of the Year. Now racing as a 4-year-old, she has earned over $110,000 in her career.

Once a winner in five freshman attempts, Delco Irene has returned this season as a formidable filly at Running Aces. Named after one of Mary's aunts, the daughter of Bettor's Delight stallion Wind Me Up has finished on the board in seven of nine seasonal starts primarily driven by Brady Jenson.

“She’s racing great right now,” Jay said. “She’s really coming on now.”

Three of her four wins have come in Minnesota sired Class A action. Delco Irene took her 1:52.2 mark in a victory on July 11, and now has just over $45,000 in career earnings. Anfinson trains DeLong’s horses when they are ready to race in the Gopher State, and the partnership has worked well.

“I’ve always had a few through the years, but didn’t have anybody up there,” Jay said. “Mainly the last few years it’s been Justin. He has done a phenomenal job for me. I do all the scanning, the breaking, and training down. I get them right to the point where I take them up and qualify them. Justin and I decide on each horse, and I either take them home for a little while and keep working with them or he takes them from there and keeps racing them.”

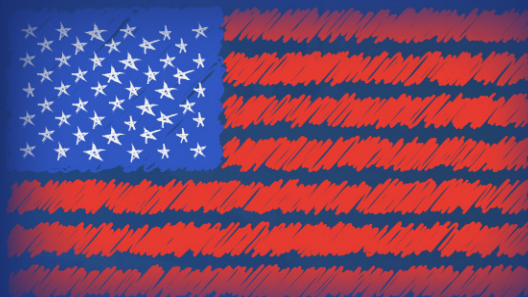

Delco Dusty’s latest racing filly, Delco Kathleen, is off to a strong start. Making seven starts, she has three wins and has missed the board only once. Also named for one of Mary’s aunts, the Easy Again freshman has earned nearly $25,000 while racing against the boys three times. Her 1:57.3 seasonal best was established in a late-June victory at Running Aces with Todd Warren in the bike.

“There aren’t a lot of horses up there right now as far as Minnesota-breds,” Jay said. “Unfortunately, my fillies have to race against each other. There aren’t divisions yet. If we do go to divisions, they write a Class A and a Class B and the colts get thrown in with the fillies. It’s very hard. Most years the colts are better. There’s a colt up there right now [Cash Money Twenty] that Kathleen can’t beat. Until you get the numbers up, that’s the way it’s got to be.”

SET FOR PARTY IN MALMÖ

Jägersro racetrack in Malmö, Sweden is getting ready for the big $320,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial event on Tuesday (July 30) night and besides the main race, two division finals of the $100,000 Breeders Course will be held.

Face Time Bourbon dominates the finals with six offspring out of the 20 contenders, five of those battle in the 3-year-old colts and geldings division.

The main course, the Hugo Åbergs Memorial, looks to be a spectacular show when the draw was made. The big winner in the draw is Daniel Wäjersten's Borups Victory. The Mats Sundin-owned 6-year-old will start from post 2 over the mile and even if there are several quick-opening trotters behind the gate, Borups Victory has a great chance of reaching the front position. Title defender Hail Mary will start from post 3 and the big loser in the draw is A Fair Day, who got post 8.

Bazire's Jushua Tree posts great comeback

by Thomas Hedlund

Jean-Michel Bazire-trained Jushua Tree (Bold Eagle) was one of the most interesting horses before this year's edition of the Prix d'Amérique in Paris. But, as it turned out, Bazire opted to save Jushua Tree from the hardest racing at that time of year. So, prior to Saturday's (July 27) $162,500 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Enghien, the 5-year-old colt had not raced since Feb. 11.

The Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere included some well-merited trotters and Jushua Tree's lack of recent racing made him an outsider from the bettors' part, but that didn't stop him from winning.

Bazire found a spot far back in the field and Jushua Tree got cover three wide on the backstretch while first over trotter, and favorite, Ampia Mede Sm started to put serious pressure on leader Harlem de Bucy. Ampia Mede Sm got advantage of the race as the field turned for home and Jushua Tree attacked on the far outside for his trainer Bazire. The long homestretch

Daddy's Eyes is a continuing reminder to the Ratchford family of Dave's long legacy.

From Century Farroh to the future

Celebrating the legacy of lifelong horseman Dave Ratchford.

by Melissa Keith

Century Farroh (p, 4, 1:49s; $1,350,398) gained fame as the $17,000 London Selected Sale yearling who went on to become a three-time O'Brien Award winner, as 3-Year-Old Male Pacer of the Year in 2019, plus Older Male Pacer of the Year and Somebeachsomewhere Horse of the Year in 2020. With that fame, the Mach Three—Beachy Girl stallion brought the spotlight to his owner Dave Ratchford, a lifelong horseman from North Sydney, NS.

Ratchford died on June 11. He had campaigned horses from Cape Breton to Pompano and destinations in between over a seven-decade career that officially began when he was just 16. His obituary credited him with developing, owning, and racing over 375 horses.

Rachael MacDonald is an owner/trainer/caretaker who is based at Truro Raceway in Bible Hill, NS. She shared a connection with the late trainer/driver, whose legacy now carries on through the next generations of Ratchfords.

"[Truro Raceway trainer] Danny Romo and I have horses for the Ratchfords," said MacDonald. "Dave usually had a yearling or two on the go. Dave's daughter, Karen Cox, was texting me and said they were looking for a horse she and her daughter Shann could learn to race with, under Dave's tutelage."

Susan Romo, wife of Danny Romo, is a daughter of the late Doug Ratchford, another longtime horseman who last raced at Truro Raceway before his death in 1994.

MacDonald owns Alberta-bred pacer Daddys Eyes (p, 6, 1:53.3e; $86,125), whom she had raced at Truro Raceway, and Red Shores Charlottetown in recent years.

"He was okay, but it's tough, as you know," she told HRU. "He's a 9-year-old free-legged stallion. Nice old horse."

Karen's efforts to locate a hobby horse for her father, Dave, to teach her daughter, Shann, about the sport led her to MacDonald's stallion.

"Dave had been sick for a few years, so I think the idea was that it would get him back in the barn," said MacDonald. "I tried to find them a horse without much luck, and then it occurred to me that my horse [Daddys Eyes] would probably get along better in Cape Breton, so I simply sent him down to them and the deal was that they would just send him back when they were done."

The importance of passing down Dave's expertise was not lost on MacDonald.

"Dave Ratchford of course has had tremendous success racing, including Century Farroh who made $1.5 million for Dave and is now standing at Seelster Farms, and a bunch of others," she said.

"So Daddys Eyes, or 'Riggs' as he is called, went down to North Sydney, and Dave's granddaughter started jogging and training him. Dave would give her instructions, and then stand on the fence watching her."

On May 4, 2024, Daddys Eyes debuted at Northside Downs in North Sydney, NS for trainer Dave and driver Ryan Campbell, finishing second by a nose in his qualifier.

"And opening day at Northside [May 11], he went out and won his first start," said MacDonald. "In the first six starts with him, I think they won three, and they were delighted. It was awesome."

Dave shared training duties with Shann as she learned from him, but the 80-year-old horseman's health was in steady decline.

"On June 8th, Riggs won, and Dave was out in the winner's circle with him," said MacDonald. "But the next day Dave's health took a turn. That Tuesday, draw day, he was in the hospital in Sydney, and they told him they were going to leave Riggs out of the draw because [Dave] was sick. I guess he told them they certainly would not be doing that, so they left [Daddys Eyes] in to go. Dave passed away that [June 11] night."

The date of his passing overlaps with a memorable milestone in his lengthy Northside Downs/Cape Breton Sports Hall of Fame career. Dave trained and drove standardbreds well before the dates that the digital record-keeping currently displays, which only begin with statistics from 1992.

On Saturday (June 9, 2018), Dave drove a 2-year-old colt he owned and trained to an inconspicuous 2:04.3 qualifying win at Northside Downs. On June 16, 2018, he drove the same colt to victory in a 2:01.4 qualifier at the same North Sydney, NS half-mile where he built his own career.

On June 30, 2018, Dave's friend Dr. Ian Moore first qualified the colt at Woodbine Mohawk Park, with driver Trevor Henry taking the lines for the Ontario-based trainer. Century Farroh won the baby race in 1:58, launching a racing career that would carry him through five Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg victories at age 3, four of them at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Century Farroh also prevailed in his Somebeachsomewhere Stake division, the 2019 North America Cup consolation, his Simcoe Stake division, all at Mohawk, and the Jenna's Beach Boy, at Hoosier Park. He was supplemented to the Breeders Crown 3-Year-Old Colt Pace at Mohawk, but ended up sixth behind winner Dancin Lou in their Oct. 19, 2019 elimination.

At age 4, Century Farroh captured the Dan Patch Invitational as well as his 2020 Breeders Crown divisional final at Hoosier Park. The stallion concluded his racing days at Mohawk in October 2021. His last win was in the July 24, 2021 Woodbine Mohawk Park preferred handicap for driver Sylvain Fillion, who had been in the sulky for his biggest wins at age 3.

Being remembered for developing Century Farroh is only part of Dave's legacy.

After his physical departure from the racing scene on June 11, his presence continued, and strengthened.

"That Saturday [June 15, 2024], the whole family – they are a huge family – went to Dave's funeral in the morning, and then to the track in the afternoon to race Riggs, and he finished second," said MacDonald. "Since then, the girls [Dave's daughter Karen and granddaughter Shann] have been racing Riggs without Dave."

Daddys Eyes has lived up to his name, carrying on as if Dave was still watching and advising from trackside at Northside Downs. MacDonald said the recent success of Daddys Eyes has brought about a local racing revival.

"It has been four starts, and I think [Daddys Eyes] was second once and won the other three, the last two being the top class, and the last one [July 13] he won a memorial race and got a cooler," said MacDonald. "His win photos have more people in them than there are in the grandstand. He is the only horse in [Karen and Shann's] barn. When they race him, there are 50 people in the barn, and 20 of them are fussing over Riggs."

Rather than being somber about events, the wins by Dave's last trainee have turned into celebrations, added the Trenton, NS horsewoman.

“ [Daddys Eyes aka Riggs] win photos have more people in them than there are in the grandstand. He is the only horse in [Karen and Shann’s] barn. When they race him, there are 50 people in the barn, and 20 of them are fussing over Riggs. ”

~ Rachael MacDonald

"[Daddys Eyes] is the most loved and well looked-after horse on the planet," she told HRU. "It's a big party every week, with food and drinks and the whole family there, including many friends and neighbors of Dave's who spent years and years sitting in the barn door drinking coffee and watching colts train."

MacDonald herself is now assisting where Dave left off.

"Because none of them have a trainer's license yet, I am training [Daddys Eyes] again until Karen and Shann can write their tests, but they will take over from there and the Ratchford legacy will live on," she said.

The generational story that elevated Dave and his colt to the pinnacles of success at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the Breeders Crown is building again, on the same sacred ground where Century Farroh took his early lessons.

"The whole family are very emotional about Riggs; I think he is really pulling them through this difficult time," said MacDonald. "There seems to be something a little extra special about the horse, and the whole situation. I keep telling them that Dave must have spoken to Riggs before he passed away, and asked him to look after everyone. And we jokingly call him 'Riggs Ratchford.' At one point Karen said to me, through tears, that even his name, Daddys Eyes, has meaning."

Century Farroh's first crop of 15 foals was born last year. It would not be surprising to see one, or more, competing at Northside Downs or Woodbine Mohawk Park in the future for Dave's daughter and granddaughter, who learned with the guidance of Daddys Eyes.

The optimistic pessimist

by Trey Nosrac

DESCRIPTION:

This scene takes place in a horse stable early on a Sunday morning, with long beams of dusty sunlight streaming through the gaps of the weathered wooden slats. The snorting of horses and occasional clop of hooves add to a peaceful ambiance. Bales of hay and straw are stacked neatly across the aisle from the stalls, and bags of harness racing tack hang neatly.

CHARACTERS:

Two men stand outside a stall gate and peer inside at one of the horses. They speak in low voices. A bay horse moves to the stall gate, and the tall man with a ponytail, wearing jeans and a sweatshirt, strokes its mane. The first voice we hear is the older man, overweight, bald, and tentative, near the horse.

ROLAND

So, this is your latest wannabe wonder horse, Lady Somersby?

TREY

She hasn't raced yet but shows great promise (Trey scratches behind the horse's ear). She's my latest equine dream.

ROLAND

What do you see when you look at your beloved sport of harness horse racing in 10 years?

TREY

(Deep sigh) I see packed grandstands, happy people, beautiful horses, low takeouts.

ROLAND

Really?

TREY

Sure. Of course, I might be dead and hopefully in the vicinity of heaven.

ROLAND

Cmon, get real. What's the future for your trotting and pacing friends?

TREY

(Another sigh)

Cloudy with a chance of sudden storms followed by panic, poverty, and chaos. Our main problem will be a lack of revenue, a problem that has torpedoed about a hundred excellent sports like backward speed walking and velodrome bicycle racing.

ROLAND

That's depressing.

TREY

You tell me where the money comes from when casinos jettison horse racing, and today, everybody can wager on everything with two taps of a finger.

ROLAND

I'm usually a pessimist, and you're the eternal optimist.

TREY

I swing both ways. To quote George Will, the nice part of being a pessimist is that you are constantly either being proved right or pleasantly surprised. My friend, if you have any brilliant ideas to surprise me about the fate of harness horse racing, fire away.

ROLAND

(Scratches his head)

(Pulls out his phone)

(Pushes buttons and reads)

This year, in the United States, almost 5,000 individuals from 250 clubs are playing polo. The United States Trotting Association has around 18,000 members.

TREY

So, we have more people than polo. What's your point?

ROLAND

My point is that polo exists without significant wagering. Polo is an equine passion that has economics but is more social.

TREY

A bunch of Uber rich with strings of horses, chilled martinis, and crumpets. That's a long way from harness racing.

ROLAND

Let me play optimist and try to find a few opportunities in the looming dark clouds drifting over your sport.

TREY

Play away.

ROLAND

As an outsider who does not gamble, two aspects of your sport intrigue me.

TREY

Roll on Roland.

ROLAND

Your sport has a history, while my interest is not racing, great horses, famous drivers, or trainers. I find the history of the vehicles that horses PULLED during the birth of our nation interesting. I was roaming the internet last night and got lost in the various stagecoaches, phaetons, buggies, barouches, carts, wagons, and carriages.

TREY

What are you suggesting – a museum? We have a museum in New York. I've been there, very cool.

ROLAND

No. Although a horse-drawn vehicle museum is not a bad idea. Thousands of people enjoy restoring and reconstructing old cars. They could do the same for horse-driven vehicles; I could see myself doing that.

TREY

That's nice to know, but that isn't a savior for harness racing; it's more of an off-the-wall possible hobby.

ROLAND

True, but here is another idea. Your sport offers more participation than other equine endeavors. While I would never ride on a horse, I would happily drive a horse down a country lane. That is another concept that feels enticing to me.

TREY

So, you might own a carriage or two and keep a horse or two to pull it. Huh, I never thought of that, but now that you mention it, if outfits set up places to keep the horses and vehicles and pleasing trails, lanes, and paths to travel, I might take the five or 10 grand I toss away gambling every year and join you in this hustle and bustle high tech world.

ROLAND

(Sweeps his arm across the stable)
I find this place, the calmness, the horses, the smells, and the sounds enjoyable. I could see myself coming out here every week if I owned a horse and had someplace to ride around.

TREY

(nods)
A respite.

ROLAND

Facilities in remote sections of the state for people to escape modern everyday life could offer business opportunities and jobs for harness horse people should the wheels fall off your gambling sport.

TREY

(They turn and walk towards the open barn door)
Your ideas are long shots but much better than no shots, and they would create some small non-gambling havens from the potential storms. Thanks for thinking about us. And I like the idea of restoring or reconstructing a horse-drawn vehicle. You piqued my interest and planted a seed.

ROLAND

That's what optimists do.

Captain Albano, the 1-2 favorite, controlled the fractions for Todd McCarthy but needed every bit of his speed and moxie to hold off Wish You Well and David Miller in the Lightning Lane to win Saturday's (July 27) $350,000 final of the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

Noel Daley trains the son of Captain Treacherous—Angelou, who now boasts a career bankroll of $752,915, for Patricia Stable, L.A. Express Stable, Sjoblom Racing and Michael Dolan.

a 1:21.2 three-quarters, thwarting a number of challenges and abortive moves along the way. But when the dust settled as the field turned for home, the outcome came down to the two elimination winners with Captain Albano trying to hold firm and Wish You Well pouring through a suddenly available Lightning Lane. Captain Albano prevailed by a neck in 1:49.2, matching his career best. Timeisonmyside, who reached the final as a 47-1 long shot in his elim, ducked from the gate but nicely weaved his way through traffic to earn show. Noblesville was fourth.

McCarthy indicated he didn't think his horse was in danger of coming up short.

"I'll be honest with you," he said. "He was a little tired, it was a real big mile. But when I heard David coming late, I asked him to go on, and he went that little bit more."

For his part, Miller said the result might have been different had he found the Lightning Lane sooner.

"I would like to have sat in the 2-hole, but I'm happy to be second," Miller said. "He raced great. He raced great both weeks here."

It was the first Adios title for both McCarthy and Daley.

ADIOS NOTES: The Ron Burke stable, which has entered as many as 29 horses on Adios Days past, settled for 17 Saturday. "We're slacking off," the stable's Kein Weimer said with a laugh. But the quality was there, as Burke collected a three-bagger...

When he came up a neck short, Miller missed a chance to move into sole possession of second place on the Adios championship list. He's currently in a six-way tie for second with three titles. All-time leader John Campbell has eight, a mark that may never be matched.

My Girl EJ (Dexter Dunn) winning the Adioo Volo in 1:48.4 on Saturday at The Meadows.

My Girl EJ sets 1:48.4 track record while winning Adioo Volo

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

My Girl EJ moved powerfully first over from fifth, and she kept right on moving until she scored in 1:48.4 – the fastest distaff mile ever at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows – in Saturday’s $104,225 Quinton Patterson Adioo Volo for sophomore filly pacers.

The time knocked a tick from the track’s all-age distaff pacing record as well as the stake mark established by Allstar Rating in 2014.

My Girl EJ, a homebred daughter of Sweet Lou–Lucy’s Pearl set sail after the leader, Geocentric. My Girl EJ cleared easily and went on to defeat Canigetaloulpoup by 2¾ lengths, with Asweetbeachhere third.

“She’s pretty quick, and she’s pretty tough, too,” said winning driver Dexter Dunn. “Once the fractions set up for her, I didn’t know I would win like that, but I knew I’d be in the fight.”

My Girl EJ now has finished in the money in all but one of her 20 career outings. Ron Burke trains her and owns with Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci LLC and Elizabeth Novak.

Allegiant, Elista Hanover and R Melina victorious in Hambletonian Oaks elims

by Ray Cotolo for Meadowlands media relations

The $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks now has its 10 finalists following three $50,000 eliminations on Saturday night (July 27) at The Meadowlands, from which Allegiant, Elista Hanover and R Melina clinched gold and post protection.

Vernon Beachy pupil Allegiant uncorked a slight surprise winning the first Hambletonian Oaks elimination as the third choice with an authoritative 1:51.4 mile.

Scott Zeron hustled the daughter of Tactical Landing out of post 6 and to the top, where her peers left her to her own devices. Movement launched after Allegiant clocked a pedantic :56.4 half, but the footsteps followed with fury and futility. Allegiant scooted away from the field to post a four-length victory over 3-5 favorite French Champagne, who marched first over to grab second. Paulina Hanover rallied from last to snag the last berth, finishing third.

“We had luck a couple years ago with one and we wanted to try a New Jersey-bred again and we ended up with this one, which has been a blessing,” Beachy said. “She’s been a really nice filly from day one. We were unlucky [in previous starts], but were prepping her for some of the bigger stuff. That’s what we’re shooting for.”

Winning her eighth race from 17 starts, Allegiant – out of the Yankee Glide mare Too Good For You – upped her bankroll to $427,997 for owner Ryan Smith of Dennison, OH. She returned $11.60 to win.

Elista Hanover will now risk a 10-race win streak in the Hambletonian Oaks final after she swept away her rivals to a 1:51.3 win in the second elimination.

In her class test, Elista Hanover left the gate with David Miller and abandoned a pocket trip to grab command to a :57 dawdle to the half. The 3-5 favorite then faced a far-turn blitz from Buy A Round, who rushed up the rim out of fifth and even put a head in front of Elista Hanover by three-quarters in 1:25. Elista Hanover remained resilient through the challenge and held her ground into the stretch. She rebuffed a flattening Buy A Round and edged away to win by 1½ lengths at the beam. Drawn Impression fanned off a pocket ride to the center of the track to take second while Warrawee Michelle slid up the pylons to grab third. Buy A Round, the richest of the fourth-place finishers from the three eliminations, earned the last spot into the final.

“It feels like I’m living a dream right now,” trainer Annie Stoebe said after winning the elimination. “She’s just amazing. I’m comfortable with how she is coming into this big race.”

Allegiant (Scott Zeron) won the first of three Hambletonian Oaks eliminations on Saturday at The Meadowlands in 1:51.4.

Lisa Photo
Elista Hanover (David Miller) took the second Oaks elim in 1:51.3.

R Melina (Todd McCarthy) took the third Oaks elim in 1:51.4.

Elista Hanover entered Saturday's eliminations with nine wins in a row, including a 1:53.1 romp in a Tompkins-Geers division on July 20 at The Meadowlands. The daughter of International Moni—Evermore has now won 11 times from 20 starts and amassed $216,358 for owners R. Lynn & Philomena Curry and Annie Stoebe. She paid $3.20 to win.

R Melina stayed flat and overcame the outermost post of the eight in the field to win the third Hambletonian Oaks elimination in 1:51.4.

Todd McCarthy floated R Melina forward through a tepid :28 first quarter and strolled at a methodical, but consistent speed all while few challengers loomed. By three-quarters in 1:24.1, R Melina had yet to see any other horse and finished the mile without seeing another, crossing the line first, one length better than pocket-chaser Miss I La in second. Date Night Hanover, the 4-5 favorite, got rolling just past the half but only managed to finish third in her closing surge.

"This is as good as we've seen her be," winning trainer John Butenschoen said. "She tries. It doesn't matter where we're at, what happened, what she does... she's tried every start we've ever put her in. Hopefully we come away with a decent journey next week and see what happens."

A daughter of Chapter Seven from the Explosive Matter mare Goodtogo Hanover, R Melina notched her 12th win from 20 starts and has now earned $606,889 for owners M&L Of Delaware LLC and Alabama Harness Associates LLC. She paid $5.80 to win.

By winning their eliminations, Allegiant, Elista Hanover and R Melina have earned the privilege to draw from posts 1 through 5 for the Hambletonian Oaks final, which serves as the companion feature to the $1-million Hambletonian next Saturday (Aug. 3) at The Meadowlands.

Karl and T C I post easy scores in Hambletonian eliminations

by Frank Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Karl and T C I won the first and second $100,000 Hambletonian elimination splits, respectively, and did so with relative ease on Saturday (July 27) at The Meadowlands.

Karl's personal-best time of 1:50.3 for the mile was a strong rebound from his only loss of the season in the Stanley Dancer Memorial two weeks ago.

Yannick Gingras, in the bike again, rested Karl in third while Situationship flew from post 10 to take the early lead over Security Protected in a fiery first quarter of :26.3. By the :55.2 half, Karl took to the outside and cruised by Situationship after three-quarters in 1:23.3. Gingras nursed Karl through the lane and crossed the line under wraps and 1¼ lengths in front. A late-charging Bella's Musclehill angled from second over to finish second with Sig Sauer finishing third.

"He bounced back [from a loss] and was the best he ever looked and ever left from the gate," Karl's trainer Nancy Takter said. "I don't mind the pressure, but I don't like to lose. He's versatile and has a strong kick. He's going to be peaking at the right time for next week's race."

Takter is trying for her second-straight Hambletonian win. She won the 2023 edition with Tactical Approach.

Christina & Nancy Takter, Black Horse Racing and Crawford Farms Racing owns Karl, now a 14-time winner and an earner of $1,274,816 lifetime. Karl (Tactical Landing—Avalicious, by RC Royalty) was bred by Crawford Farms. He was a huge favorite in the first-elim field of 10. He paid $2.80 to win.

Also making the final from the first elimination were Highland Kismet, the crowd's second choice in the betting. He finished fourth. Security Protected was fifth.

Lisa Photo

Karl (Yannick Gingras) breezed to a 1:50.3 victory in the first of two Hambletonian eliminations on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

Lisa Photo

T C I (David Miller) won the other Hambletonian elimination in 1:50.4.

A wire-to-wire victory and a lifetime mark appeared business as usual for the rebounding T C I and driver David Miller. The son of Cantab Hall–Nicole’s Promise posted a 1:50.4 win in the second Hambletonian elimination.

T C I motored from post 1 for the lead with a :27.3 first panel while Private Access and Amazing Catch followed into a :56.1 half. Secret Agent Man went first over to the final turn but only moved evenly through three-quarters in 1:24. Not even a strong challenge near the wire by Private Access, the only remaining rival in contention, could faze the Ron Burke trainee. T C I finished a neck better than Private Access with longshot Amazing Catch another six lengths behind in third. Also making the final were Secret Agent Man, finishing fourth, and Mars Hill, finishing fifth.

David Miller confirmed T C I overcame some stomach problems and trainer Burke added some shoe changes to help in the win. “I was planning on getting him out [in front] early,” Miller said, “and we went as easy as I could.”

T C I is now the winner of 14 races from 18 starts and $1,418,507 as he readies to meet Karl in the Hambletonian final. He competes for owners Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables & Knox Services and Weaver Brusceci. Bred by Concord Stud, T C I paid $4.80 to win.

The winterbook dream of Karl versus T C I, and eight other trotting glamour boys, happens at The Meadowlands next Saturday (Aug. 3) in the $1 million Hambletonian final. Karl and T C I, having won their eliminations, will draw from posts 1 through 5 for the final.

Pink Chou Chou gets NYSS win at Vernon

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Pink Chou Chou (Todd McCarthy) captured the $108,200 leg of the New York Sire Stakes for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Friday (July 26) at Vernon Downs.

Pink Chou Chou ($3.90) went to the lead and was first to the quarter in :29. As they reached the backstretch Royal Mission (Scott Zeron) took over the lead and led to the half in :58.3. She continued to control things and was first to three-quarters in 1:27.2.

As they reached the stretch Pink Chou Chou popped out of the 2-hole and challenged for the lead. Pink Chou Chou wore down the second-place finisher Royal Mission to get her first career victory in 1:56. My Debt Collector (Mark MacDonald) finished third.

Pink Chou Chou is a filly by Chapter Seven—Secret Magic. She is owned by Crawford Farms and trained by Nancy Takter. It was her first career win.

John MacDonald drove five winners on the card. He was first with Don't Trip, Snap Call, Crazy Crown, The Hunt Is On, and Pompano Beach.

SUPER CHAPTER, GANGSTA TALK TAKE NYSS DIVISIONS AT YONKERS

Super Chapter and Gangsta Talk came out on top in a pair of New York Sire Stakes races for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters that occurred on Thursday night (July 25) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

The first $73,100 split was held as a non-wagering event before the pari-mutuel program, and Super Chapter, driven by Dexter Dunn, led through fractions of :29.2, :59.3 and 1:28.3 on his way to a three-length victory over pocket-sitter Happy Jack B (Ake Svanstedt) in a 1:57.1 mile. Poblano (Yannick Gingras) finished third.

A Chapter Seven colt, Super Chapter is trained by Marcus Melander for owners Jeff Snyder and Arthur Pronti. Super Chapter, who was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, has two wins and a second in three starts and has banked $86,630.

In the other $74,500 flight Moonshot S (Scott Zeron) led the way early, but Gingras swung Civilian Drone, the 4-5 favorite, to the outside before the :28.3 quarter and took charge on the second turn. Civilian Drone continued to show the way to the 59 second half and the 1:28.3 three-quarters, but Gangsta Talk (Svanstedt) was out and moving first-over from third at that latter station.

Civilian Drone managed to keep the top spot around the final bend and into the lane, but Gangsta Talk continued to make headway to the outside and forged his way by Civilian Drone late in the mile to prevail by a half-length in 1:58.1. Civilian Drone had to settle for second and Moonshot S wound up third.

Svanstedt also trains and co-owns Gangsta Talk, another colt by Chapter Seven, with partners Stable Why Not, Little E LLC. and Jorgen Sparredal Inc. Gangsta Talk, bred by Ab Svensk Reklamfinans, has a summary of 2-1-0 from three appearances, has earned $89,275 and paid $7.80 to win as the 5-2 second choice. He was atop a $16 exacta and a $47.20 trifecta.

There were also two $20,000 New York Excelsior "A" Series divisions for the rookie colt and gelding trotters on the card. They were won by:

- BJM's Lil Man (by Devious Man and bred by Donald La Page, paid $2.30 to win) in 2:00 for driver Tyler Buter, trainer John Berger and owner Joseph Meaney.

- Low Inside (by Devious Man and bred by Cherry Hill Farm, paid $2.40 to win) in 2:00.3 for trainer/driver Dan Daley and owners Ann-Mari Daley, Todd Van Alstyne and Margaret Waterbury.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday/Tuesday and Thursday through Saturday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Sophomore fillies steal the show at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sire Stakes returned to Harrah's Hoosier Park on Friday (July 26), with the fifth leg for both the 3-year-old trotting and pacing fillies. A lone $95,500 division for the trotting fillies was won by the streaking Hail Broadway, while Lets Go Endofaera and Lyin' Eyes delivered as favorites in the two $48,500 pacing divisions.

Hail Broadway was sent off as the 8-5 favorite in the field of nine trotting fillies, leaving from post 2 in search of her third consecutive victory of the season. Driver Jordan Ross was aggressive off of the gate with Hail Broadway, engaging in an early speed duel with Black Gold (driven by James Yoder) as the two tangled to the quarter in a blistering :26.2. Black Gold won the early battle, taking command of the spread-out field on the backstretch with Yoder keeping the pedal down to the half in :54.3. Hail Broadway began to reel the leader in on the final turn, moving within two lengths at the three-quarter pole in 1:23.4.

Turning for home, Hail Broadway tipped from the pocket and quickly took charge from the leg weary Black Gold. Trotting home in :28.1, Ross and Hail Broadway cruised to a 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ -length victory in a lifetime best 1:52.2. Danger (Kevin Lambright) rallied for second, with Skyway Paige (LeWayne Miller) finishing third.

Trained by Luis Quevedo, Hail Broadway is now a winner in four of eight in her 2024 campaign. The homebred daughter of Swan For All—Pray With Me has banked $145,845 lifetime for owner John Barnard.

Dean Gillette

Hail Broadway (Jordan Ross) won Friday's lone Indiana Sire Stakes test for sophomore trotting fillies at Harrah's Hoosier Park in a lifetime best 1:52.2.

Dean Gillette

Lets Go Endofaera (John De Long) set a 1:49.3 career best in the first of two Indiana Sire Stakes divisions for sophomore pacing fillies on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

The Team De Long homebred Lets Go Endofaera didn't disappoint as she took the first ISS split for 3-year-old pacing fillies as the 1-5 favorite. Regular pilot John De Long landed the favorite in second in the field of six early while All JK (Trace Tetrick) steamrolled from the outside to a :26.1 first quarter. The field remained in straight alignment behind All JK to the half in :54.3 before she led to three-quarters in 1:23.

De Long pulled the right line at the top of the stretch, quickly moving Lets Go Endofaera alongside All JK. All JK proved stubborn before Lets Go Endofaera surged home to power away late in the lane by 2¼ lengths to stop the timer in a career best 1:49.3. All JK held for place, with Flirtin Fanera (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) rallying for third.

A winner in four of five in her 3-year-old campaign, Lets Go Endofaera is trained by Tabby De Long. The victory vaulted the career bankroll for the daughter of JK Endofaera—Lets Go Higher beyond $400,000, having now made $412,790 for owners John, Willaim C and Jesse De Long. The win was one of four on the night for John De Long who led all drivers on the 13-race card.

Lyn' Eyes immediately followed suit with a score as the even-money favorite in the second split for pacing fillies. Driver Joey Putnam got Lyn' Eyes away third in the field of six while Defining Moment (Devon Tharps) cut the opening quarter in :26.2. Jada Caroline (Marvin Luna) popped the pocket and took command up the backstretch to take the field to the half in :55.4. Entering the final turn, Putnam gave Lyn' Eyes her cue, marching first-over from third to pull within three-lengths of Jada Caroline at three-quarters in 1:24.1.

Lyn' Eyes kicked it in gear at the top of the stretch, surging to look the leader in the eyes midway down the lane. From there, Lyn' Eyes thundered home in :26.2 to scoot away by 1¼ lengths on the line in 1:51.1. Teelatini (Pete Wrenn) split rivals in the lane to finish second, with Jada Caroline finishing third.

The Joe Putnam trained daughter of Odds On Equuleus—Miswave Hanover is now a winner of half of her six starts this season, having yet to finish worse than second on the year. Bred by Silver Linden Farms, Lyn' Eyes has now banked $247,515 for owners J P Racing, Joey Putnam and Crazy Parrot Farm.

Freshman filly pacers in Buckeye Stallion Stakes at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

The Friday racecard at Eldorado Scioto Downs played host to seven $20,000 Buckeye Stallion Series events, four for 2-year-old pacing fillies and three for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Downbytheseaside fillies driven by Chris Page took two of the three 3-year-old events, with Genetic Edge winning in 1:52.2 and Gone Coastal in 1:52.1.

Gone Coastal virtually went gate-to-wire to take her division by 3¼ lengths for trainer Scott Betts. Out of the Shark Gesture mare Take Heed, Gone Coastal is owned by Timothy Betts and has six wins in 10 lifetime starts. The filly did not race as a 2-year-old and now has $45,731 in lifetime earnings.

Genetic Edge had a very similar trip, leading nearly gate-to-wire, to win her division by a length and three-quarters. Trained by Tyler Rush for Diamond Dreek Racing and breeder Darby Creek Standardbreds, Genetic Edge is out of the Rocknroll Hanover mare Live Wire. She now has four wins in 11 lifetime starts and $66,050 in earnings.

Brad Conrad

Hilltop Sonar (Chris Page) won the fastest of the three Ohio Sire Stakes divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts on Thursday at Scioto Downs in 1:55.1.

Laurel Court, by Nob Hill High out of the Western Ideal mare Odds On Hemera, took the third division in 1:53.1 for Jeremy Smith and trainer Brian Georges. The filly went straight to the front but yielded to sit in the pocket and come up the passing lane to win by a neck. It was the fourth seasonal victory for Laurel Court who is owned by Scott Hagemeyer, Mel Hagemeyer and breeders Robert Mondillo and Michael Robinson. She now has $40,438 in lifetime earnings.

Trainer Steve Carter took two of the 2-year-old pacing filly divisions of the BSS when Maddie's Delite won in 1:55.2, while Racin Like A Star won in 1:54.4.

Racin Like A Star (Jeremy Smith) is now two-for-two in the BSS after she won gate-to-wire by a length and a half. Bred by Johnson Hill, Jr. and Brent Tartar, the Racing Hill filly out of the Jenna's Beach Boy mare Joe's Miss Daisy, was a $45,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase. She is owned by Jeff Fought Racing, Adam Friedland and Hunter Holton.

Maddie's Delight (Dan Noble) sat in the pocket for nearly three-quarters of the mile before sprinting by the pace setter to win by 2¾ lengths. The Lather Up filly is out of the Western Hanover mare Moonlite Delite and is owned by SCP Stable. She now has five wins in six starts and $42,707 in earnings.

Maa Honey (Luke Hanners), by Well Said out of the Your Nemesis mare Mary Celeste, went gate-to-wire to take her division by a length and a quarter in 1:54. Bred by Henry Burkholder, Maa Honey was a $12,000 Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale purchase. Tyler Bates trains the filly for Sean McGhee and Suzanne Bates who now has six wins in seven starts and $28,224 in earnings.

Gorgeous Package (Brett Miller) took her division in 1:55 after sitting in the pocket and coming up the passing lane to win by a half-length. The daughter of Lather Up out of the Western Terror mare Special Package was bred by Odds On Nourrir and is owned by Thestable Gorgeouspackage. Gorgeous Package, trained by Jason McGinnis, now has $19,300 earned in four starts and two wins.

In a tight finish, nine horses within three lengths, Tarapasta reigned supreme in the $27,000 fillies and mares open.

At the start, Ainthesamewithoutu (Luke Hanners) made the early lead by the :26.1 quarter and as the field came out of the first turn, the field was five in and five out. Towards the :54.2 half Alexa Skye (Dan Noble) pulled even with the leader with eventual race winner Tarapasta fourth over. After the 1:22.4 third quarter the field started fanning wide, with race favorite Rollin Rosie (Aaron Merriman) tipping three-wide, Racing For Three (Trevor Smith) going four wide and Tarapasta, who was sitting seventh at the three-quarters, five-wide coming down the stretch. Coming home in :27.2 Tarapasta and Austin Hanners won by a half-length in 1:51.1. Alexa Skye was second and Rolling Rosie third.

Tarapasta, by Downbytheseaside, is a 4-year-old owned by Greg Luther Racing and trained by Todd Luther. This was the mare's second win in 10 starts this season, and she now has $293,105 in lifetime earnings.

OHIO SIRE STAKES FOR FRESHMAN TROTTER COLTS

On Thursday (July 25) at Eldorado Scioto Downs, two What The Hill colts, with Chris Page up for trainer Ron Burke, won $50,000 splits of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old colt trotters.

Rose Run Alex won his race by a quarter-length in 1:56.3 after getting away sixth from post 5. Silverton (Hunter Myers) took the early lead from the outside post 8 by the :27.4 quarter. After a couple of early miscues from the competition, Scruppys Love (Aaron Merriman) pulled from third and made the lead going under the wire for the first time. Rose Run Alex was sitting fourth by the :57 half and pulled second over after the 1:26.3 third-quarter, then three-wide around the last turn. Scruppys Love was second with Power Hill (Austin Hanners) getting third. Out of the Kadabra mare Dabrina, Rose Run Alex was an Ohio Select Yearling Sale purchase for $60,000 from Rose Run Farm. Owned by Burke Racing, Hatfield Stables, Weaver Bruscelli and Knox Services, Rose Run Alex now has a second and a win in his two OHSS starts.

The other Burke winner was Hilltop Sonar in 1:55.1. Battle Hill (Chris Lems) battled Hilltop Sonar through the :28.1 quarter with Battle Hill making it to the front mid-way down the stretch for the first time. Heading into the second turn Hilltop Sonar was back out and moving, making the lead by the :57 half. Going strong through the 1:26 third-quarter, Hilltop Sonar was an easy winner by five lengths. Battle Hill was second with Whats Shakin (Ronnie Gillespie) third. Hilltop Sonar was just a $6,000 purchase from the Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale from Galliers Racing and is out of the Cantab Hall mare Mariah De Vie. Burke Racing, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services and R A S Racing own the gelding.

LT Loverboy took the first OHSS division in 1:56.1 with Brett Miller at the lines. After getting away third heading towards the opening quarter of :28.2 while Caviar Creek (Merriman) led the way. Mid-way through the second turn, LT Loverboy pulled by the :58.3 half and by the 1:27.1 third-quarter was up to the leader's wheel. Coming down the stretch, LT Loverboy won by a length and a quarter. What A Buckey (Dan Noble) came up the passing lane to be second but was running at the finish, so he was placed fourth. Caviar Creek was third placed second with Rose Run Arch (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) fourth placed third. LT Loverboy is by Long Tom out of the Cantab Hall mare Fortheloveoflindy. The Midland Acres bred gelding was purchased out of the Ohio Select Yearling Sale for $60,000 and is owned by William Hartt and trainer Matthew Burkholder.

Long Tom's Thursday success continued as he, and Enterprise, had two sons take divisions of the $20,000 Buckeye Stallion Series for freshman colt trotters.

Tommy Count won the first division of BSS action in 1:58 by six lengths in his first lifetime start with trainer Ronnie Gillespie at the lines. Leaving the gate, Tommy Count was caught wide leaving from post 5 but made the front by the :28.2 opening quarter. The duo continued to lead at the :57.3 half while Burnindownthehouse (Lems) was second over, three-wide at the 1:27.2 third quarter but ducked down to the rail and came up the passing lane to take second with The Good King (Tyler Smith) continuing to go wide to get up for third. Tommy Count was a $30,000 Ohio Select Yearling Sale purchase from breeder Wayne Weaver. The colt by Long Tom out of the Full Count mare Make It Count is owned by Anthony Miller.

Another Long Tom son, Oaxaca Harry, led gate-to-wire to take the second division by a quarter length in 1:58.2. Fired up, Oaxaca Harry and Tyler Smith left from post 5 and set fractions of :27.3, :56.4 and 1:27.1 while Tom Cruiser (Lems) sat in the pocket. Tom Cruiser came up the passing lane with Lovelle (Ryan Stahl) following suit to get up for third. Oaxaca Harry is out of the Dejarbro mare Purple Sona and was a $15,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase from Steiner Stock Farm. Jeff Smith trains Oaxaca Harry for Bet The House LLC.

Last Call Romeo (Trevor Smith) was three-wide early in the mile from post 5 heading to the lead by the :30 opening quarter. Going to the 1:01.1 half, Vekna (Kayne Kauffman) pulled from fifth and swiftly made it up to second as the field straightened out down the backside. Trotting by the 1:31 third-quarter, Vekna made the top to win by a length and a half. Stone Noble Lane (Jeff Nisonger) got up for second while Last Call Romeo held on for third. Vekna, owned by Natalie Kauffman is by Enterprise out of the Muscle Hill mare Rare Book and was an $11,000 Blooded Horse Sale purchase from Spring Haven Farm.

The last BSS division was won by another Enterprise, this one driven by Brett Miller who briefly took Naabaahii back to seventh from post 2 but was out and moving well before the :29.3 opening quarter. Well in hand by the :59 half, the duo led the field towards the 1:28.4 third quarter as Flying Tom (Wrenn, Jr.) made a mild first over bid. Coming down the stretch, Naabaahii was able to hold on to win by a head over a fast-closing Oso Fast (Lems) and Mister Squeeze (Page) who came up the passing lane. Naabaahii was bred by James Crawford IV and owner Ann-Mari Daley, who currently owns in partnership with Jared Daley. The gelding out of the RC Royalty mare Zanna Royal is now two-for-two since coming to Ohio from New York, winning at the fair in Mt. Vernon on July 20.

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. ## Reckless Abandon wins again in NJSS at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

The method may not be one that her nervous backers appreciate, but Reckless Abandon recorded her second straight victory with ease, despite racing in last for much of the mile Friday night (July 26) at The Meadowlands when six $25,000 leg three New Jersey Sire Stakes dashes for 2-year-olds of each sex and gait were conducted during the card.

In the lone filly pace, Reckless Abandon raced in sixth for a second-straight week for the first half-mile as Beach Babe led at the quarter in :27.1 and Worklifebalance the half in :55.3. At the five-eighths, TH Summer Lovin popped out of the 5-hole and swiftly went after the leaders while providing a live tow for 1-9 favorite Reckless Abandon, who tipped off her cover inside the eighth pole and sprinted away to an easy 2¼-length victory in a lifetime-best 1:52. TH Summer Lovin held second with Worklifebalance third.

“She’s a pretty talented filly,” said winning driver Todd McCarthy. “[Trainer] Brett [Pelling] has done a great job with her. She got a good second over trip.”

Pellin said, “I’m super happy she’s had cover from outside posts, it helps with the anxiety of racing a 2-year-old filly four weeks in a row. The ear plugs were not pulled and she was in hand. I would be confident if Todd decides to get involved early in the [Aug. 2 NJSS] final. She will be fine.”

A daughter of Cattlewash–Reclamation, Reckless Abandon returned $2.10 to her faithful as the 1-9 favorite.

THE FAB FIVE: The other five victorious NJSS horses were:

- Colt and Gelding Trot (Div. 1) – Onajetplane (a colt by Walner–Noble Lover), driver Andy McCarthy, trainer Noel Daley, winning time 1:55.1, paid $101.40 to win as the 49-1 sixth choice in the wagering.
- Filly Trot (Div. 1) – Champagne Problems (Tactical Landing–Miss Caviar), Dexter Dunn, Nancy Takter, 1:55.1, $8.60 as the 3-1 third choice.
- Colt and Gelding Pace (lone division) – Manolete (a colt by Cattlewash–Glancewithme), Todd McCarthy, Bruce Saunders, lifetime-best 1:51.4, $2.80 as the 2-5 favorite.
- Colt and Gelding Trot (Div. 2) – Yannick G Kemp (a colt by Walner–Southwind Adele), Dave Miller, Nifty Norman, 1:55.2, $13.40 as the 5-1 third choice.
- Filly Trot (Div. 2) – Conversano (Muscle Hill–Celebrity Ruth), Todd McCarthy, Juan Cano, 1:55, $24.40 as the 11-1 fourth choice.

A LITTLE MORE: Onajetplane, a 49-1 longshot, created some big payoffs by taking the third race. The 20-cent Survivor Pick-7, which is offered on races 2 through 8, returned $4,260.18 for those with six winners on their tickets, while the 20-cent Pick-5, available on the first through the fifth, came back $1,646.76... Todd McCarthy and Dunn tied atop the driver-colony leaderboard as each took three jaunts down victory lane. James Slendorn and Eric Davis had driving doubles... Both of Slendorn’s wins came with Kelvin Harrison trainees, making Harrison the top conditioner of the night... All-source handle totaled $2,545,895 on the 14-race card.

Tetrick wins four on DE State Fair Program at Harrington

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Harrington Raceway's richest program of the season was contested Thursday at the Delaware State Fair with more than $650,000 in total purses.

All of the races on the 13-race program were for Delaware owned and/or bred horses.

The Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund $110,000 final events for 3-year-olds comprised much of the purse allocation, in addition to long-time events for older horses like the $50,000 Governor's Cup.

Driver Tim Tetrick had four wins on the card, including two for trainer Jim King, Jr. in DSBF finals with filly pacer Curtsyforpurrseco ($3.40) in 1:56.1, owned by Jo Ann Looney-King and male trotter Brett MacDonald's Workslikeacharm ($7.60) in 1:59.3. Curtsyforpurrseco (Roddy's Bags Again) overcame post 8 in her 11th career win, while Workslikeacharm (EL Platinum) was second placed first after Royal Beep Beep was disqualified after failing to lose ground while on a break and leaving the course.

The DSBF male pacing final saw Captain Pete ($3.80, Allan Davis) win in wire-to-wire fashion from post 8 in 1:55 for owners Mulligan and Calcutta Stables and Denise Davis. The Roddy's Bags Again gelding notched his eighth career win in 12 starts for trainer Jason Johnson.

In the trotting filly final, Gary Rhodes' Lovie's Place ($3.40, Art Stafford, Jr.) was a lifetime best-1:57.3 winner for her sixth career win for her trainer/driver. The EL Platinum filly is unbeaten in four starts this year.

In the $50,000 Governor's Cup, Andrew Glassmeyer's Sweet Angel Boy ($4.80, Tony Morgan) emerged from the pocket a 1:51.1 winner for his owner/trainer. The 6-year-old Sweet Lou gelding surpassed $100,000 in seasonal earnings.

On the undercard, Steve Messick's Misty Coast ($4.80, Stafford Jr.) was a 1:53.2 winner in the $35,000 Legislator's Cup and Tlb Racing's Remarkable De Vie ($4.80, Pat Berry) was victorious in 1:57.3 in the $35,000 Charles Murphy, Jr. Memorial Trot.

The live racing meet will return to Harrington on Aug. 12.

Track record-holder Wapiti Blue Chip adds stake mark in Meadows Grand Circuit event

On the eve of the $350,000 final of the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids, Hollywood Casino at The Meadows staged a pair of Arden Downs Grand Circuit stakes for freshman trotters. As expected, Wapiti Blue Chip was the big star of the show. Already the track record-holder for 2-year-old gelding trotters, he added a stake mark to his ever-expanding resume.

Here are the stake highlights:

$60,000 Robert J. Key Colt and Gelding Trot

Hammered down to 1-5, Wapiti Blue Chip was away second before Dave Palone moved him at the quarter. The long-striding International Moni—Make It Blue Chip gelding effortlessly widened his lead thereafter and triumphed in 1:55.2, 8½ lengths better than I'll Have A Double, with Owls Nest third.

It wasn't as fast as his 1:54.2 track record, but the time knocked a tick from the stake mark established by Dancing in the Dark in 2020. Mahlon Martin, who previously indicated the colt will race primarily in Pennsylvania this year, trains him for Ashley Burslem, Steven Mullen and Gregory Garton.

"I just wanted to babysit him around there so he could do it as easy as he could," Palone said. "Now I know how he broke the track record. He was well within himself."

Just how facile was the victory?

"I'm pretty sure you could've done that," Palone teased the local flak.

Bombay Tom found himself in a more competitive split, but the Bar Hopping—Miss Wilia gelding was up to it, using two moves to notch a 4¾-length victory in 1:57.2 for Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. Livin It Up and Manhattan Moni rounded out the ticket.

"He's shown constant improvement," said Norm Parker, who conditions Bombay Tom for Bart Brice, Todd Brice, Charles Receski and Ed Receski. "With his attitude now, he always seems like he wants to go forward. When you ask him, he goes on."

Parker also paused to remember the contributions of the late owner/breeder Bob Key, for whom the stake is named. Key sent many horses from his large stable to Parker, who hasn't forgotten it.

"Bob was always good to me," said Parker as he hoisted his winner's plaque. "That's what makes this so special."

Arrowhead Hanover took the third division for Anthony MacDonald, trainer Tim Twaddle and owner The Stable Arrowhead Hanover.

$40,000 Edward M. Ryan Filly Trot

On paper, Blueberry appeared to lay over the field, based on her two in-the-money finishes in Pennsylvania Sire Stake splits. The actual race provided no surprises, as the daughter of Father Patrick—Perfect Image jogged in a career-best 1:57. Bring on the confetti was ¾ lengths back in second, with Dianne Hanover third.

"It didn't look like she was in tough, so I didn't want to use her," said Brian Zandt, who piloted Blueberry for trainer Doug Snyder and owner Geraldine Poerio. "She can save those hard races for later in the year. That was pretty easy on her. She was really hot starting out, but she's been behaving so well."

A two-race maiden entering the Ed Ryan, Payback Moni nevertheless attracted 3-5 play. She justified that support by pulling the pocket near the three-quarters for Brady Brown and going on to edge the game Country Victory by a nose in 1:57.2. Can It Be Magic earned show.

"I was out the whole first turn," Brown said. "I was being a little careful with her because she ran last week. I was confident in her when I pulled the pocket, but the filly on the front end fought on harder than I thought she would."

Steve Schoeffel trains the daughter of International Moni—Blurred for Kathy Schoeffel, Dan Goehle and Jim Reuther.

Breakfast With The Babies draws to a close

The curtain came down on the 2024 edition of Breakfast With The Babies, so graciously sponsored each season by Jules Siegel under his Fashion Farms nom de course, on a sunny Friday morning (July 26) at The Meadowlands. With little wind and temperatures in the mid 70's, the card got underway at 10 o'clock.

The opener was a short field of three trotting fillies and as the gate pulled away no one left, so they lined up in post-position order with Jimmy Takter driving first timer Fateful through even fractions of :59.3 and 1:29.2 into the stretch, where the race began.

Dexter Dunn slid Global Heritage from the pocket, she ranged up alongside Fateful and that rival went off-stride, permitting Global Heritage the opportunity to get the 1:58 record while in hand. Miss Belmar (Andy McCarthy / Noel Daley) followed the winner in to be second.

Global Heritage is a Lindy Farms homebred by their sire International Moni, trained by Domenico Cecere.

Frank Leahy (Dunn) demonstrated his will to win this morning, leading all the way and trotting home powerfully to win in 1:57.4 / :28.1. Seven Layer (A. McCarthy / Daley) followed the winner throughout and was second in an impressive debut. Ron Burke trains the winner for Ben Mondello and FAC Racing, who paid $24,000 for the Southwind Frank colt at Harrisburg last Fall. Dr. William Solomon is the breeder.

Race 3 saw a really nice pair of pacing fillies square off through the stretch with My Sweet Lily continuing to impress with her third good trip, this time emerging from the pocket to seize the lead early stretch then dig in to hold charging rival Asphalt (Tim Tetrick / Brett Pelling) at bay through the 28 second end to a 1:54.4 mile. Dunn drove the winner, a Sweet Lou filly, for trainer Nancy Takter and owners Marvin Katz and Caviart Farms. Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci and Marc Reynolds bred My Sweet Lily, who sold at Harrisburg for $130,000.

Knockout Round flashed talent in an open length win for driver Anibal Borjas. The Sweet Lou colt had early position behind the leader past the :58.1 half, zipped past that one before the five eighths and began to move away from the field. In the end it was a geared down :27.3 end to the mile in 1:54.4 under no urging from the driver. Beach Club Monty (Todd McCarthy / Pelling) had good late energy to be second.

The winner, trained by Tony Alagna for Micki Rae Stables and Tim Twaddle, was a $95,000 (HBG) yearling. Farhi Standardbreds is the breeder.

Pelling and Tetrick paired up to win the fifth race with Sugar Man, a homebred son of Papi Rob Hanover owned by Seth Rosenfeld's Birnam Wood Farms. Tetrick sat chilly behind pacesetter Rucker Park who was encouraged along on the lead by A. McCarthy through the 1:29.2 three quarters, then tipped around that rival and steamed home in :27.4 to close out the 1:57.2 win by as many as he pleased.

In a few qualifiers of note, Bond (Svanstedt) looked terrific in her return, having last been seen in qualifier two months ago, storming home alone in a :26.1 end to a 1:53.3 mile.

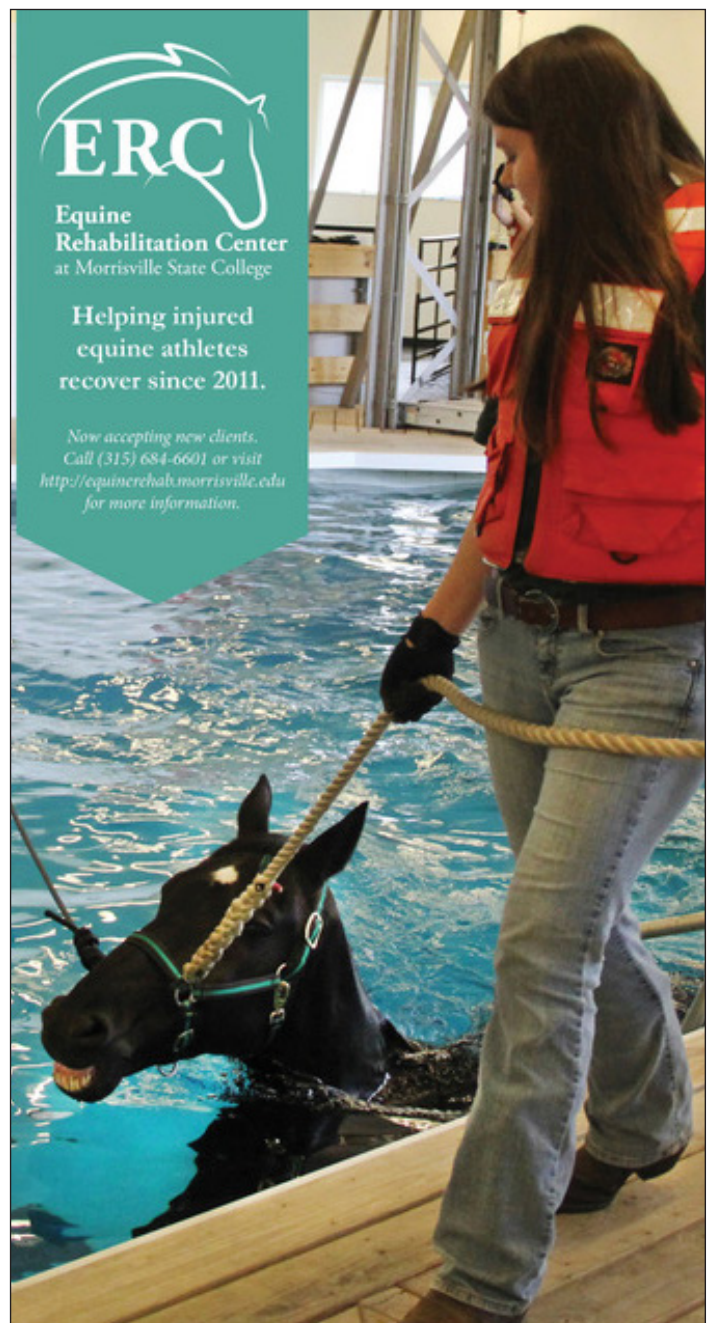

On the pacing side, a few top horses were getting some work in anticipation of next week's Hambletonian Day stakes extravaganza.

Ruthless Hanover (Andy Miller) stalked Seven Colors throughout then went by that rival late, tacking a :25.4 last quarter on to a mile in 1:50.4. Oakwood Ardan IR was right with the top pair, finishing in hand.

In a bit of poetry, the current leader in the Breeders Crown Top 10 poll, Twin B Joe Fresh took a 1:51.2 spin around the oval for her regular companion Dunn.

Thus ends another season of eating donuts while enjoying the future stars of the sport embarking upon their careers.

Nick Salvi / The Meadowlands
