Karl draws post 1, made 6-5 morning-line Hambletonian favorite

The 99th edition of the race will carry a purse of $1.05 million and will go to post on Saturday afternoon at The Meadowlands.

by Ken Weingartner
/ USTA media relations manager

Elimination winner Karl drew post 1 for Saturday's (Aug. 3) $1.05 million Hambletonian Stakes final at The Meadowlands and was made the 6-5 morning-line favorite in the 99th edition of the sport's premier event for 3-year-old trotters.

Elista Hanover (David Miller, shown winning her Hambletonian Oaks elimination) is the 9-5 favorite in the Hambletonian Oaks.

T C I, who won the second of last week's two Hambletonian eliminations, drew post 4 and was made the 5-2 second choice. The event's draw and press conference were held Tuesday (July 30) at Hogan Equine. The two elimination winners drew for posts 1 through 5 followed by the remaining finalists in an open draw.

The Hambletonian will be only the third meeting between Karl and T C I, and the first since Karl's victory in the Breeders Crown in late October at Harrah's Hoosier Park. T C I, who finished second in the Breeders Crown, defeated Karl in a division of the International Stallion Stakes three weeks earlier at Lexington's Red Mile.

Karl's nose loss to T C I was his lone defeat in 10 starts last year. He earned $1.04 million and received the Dan Patch Award for best 2-year-old male trotter. T C I won 10 of 12 races and earned $1.23 million to become the richest 2-year-old male trotter in history. He received the O'Brien Award for best freshman male trotter to race in Canada, where his triumphs included the Mohawk Million.

This year, Karl has won five of six races and earned $232,839 for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Nancy Takter. He finished third in a division of the Stanley Dancer Memorial on July 13 at The Meadowlands but rebounded to win his Hambletonian elimination by 1¼ lengths over Bella's Musclehill in a career-best 1:50.3.

"I think everybody was a little hard on him," Takter said after the elimination, referring to the reaction to Karl's loss two weeks earlier. "He had a really tough trip and he'd raced one time in six weeks, so he definitely needed that race. Obviously, we didn't want to lose, but it happens. They're horses, they're not machines.

"I think he's going to be peaking at the right time. He only had one start in six weeks [prior to the Dancer], which was a little bit by design because we can't over-race horses and it's a long season. You kind of want to peak them for certain races, and this is definitely the race that we number one wanted to peak for. You're building like a mountain, and you just want to build a good foundation and hopefully we get to the top next week."

Takter, who won the Hambletonian last year with Tactical Approach, is bidding to become the first trainer to win the race in back-to-back years since her father, Jimmy, in 2014 with Trixton and 2015 with Pinkman. The only other trainer to pull off consecutive victories since the Hambletonian moved to The Meadowlands in 1981 was Per Eriksson in 1991-92.

"I think that would be pretty cool," Nancy said about the possibility of winning again and duplicating the accomplishment of her father, who is a Hall of Famer in the U.S., Canada and Sweden. "I've always tried to fill his shoes, which hasn't always been easy, so if we can get it done, that would be great."

Karl, a son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious bred by Crawford Farms, is owned by Christina and Nancy Takter, Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing, and Bender Sweden.

T C I won his elimination by a neck over Private Access in a career-best 1:50.4. The victory snapped a two-race skid after the colt had won his first three races of the season. For the year, he has earned $179,637 for driver David Miller and trainer Ron Burke.

"It's going to be a great matchup and a great race as always," Miller said after T C I's victory, referring to the highly anticipated meeting with Karl. "I'm very excited too."

Burke, Miller, and Gingras are each seeking a first Hambletonian trophy.

Sig Sauer, who won a Dancer division on July 13 and finished third in the Hambletonian elimination won by Karl, is the 4-1 third choice on the morning line. The son of Muscle Hill—Sigilwig will leave from post 8 with Andy McCarthy driving for trainer Noel Daley.

McCarthy won the Hambletonian in 2020 with the filly Ramona Hill. Daley won the Hambletonian in 2011 with Broad Bahn.

The Hambletonian will be race 12 with a post time of 4:45 p.m. (EDT). The companion $525,000 Hambletonian Oaks is race 14 and will go at 6:06 p.m. Racing will begin at noon. For free program pages, visit The Meadowlands website here.

ECSTATIC ‘ELISTA’ FAVORED IN HAMBLETONIAN OAKS

Trainer Annie Stoebe is no doubt thrilled to have the one to beat in Saturday’s (Aug. 3) Hambletonian Oaks for 3-year-old trotting fillies at The Meadowlands.

Apparently, so is her horse, Elista Hanover, who drew post position 1 at Tuesday afternoon’s Hambletonian press conference at Hogan Equine in Cream Ridge, NJ, and was installed as the 9-5 morning-line favorite in the $525,000 event, which will be seen by a national television audience on FOX Sports 2 (FS2) at 6:06 p.m.

“I wish [my post] was a little more toward the middle,” said Stoebe. “But I think she’ll be okay there. [Driver] David [Miller] will figure it out. The beautiful thing is, all I have to do is have her ready. The rest is on David.

“There is nothing that phases her, as long as you give her a cookie, she doesn’t care. She never ceases to amaze me and is possibly the happiest horse I have ever trained.”

Stoebe has gone through many a treat this year, as the daughter of International Moni – Evermore has strung together 10-consecutive victories during 2024 after opening the season with a fast-closing, third-place finish in an overnight at The Meadowlands.

Her double-digit destruction of her foes has included a three-race sweep of the Bobby Weiss Series at Pocono Downs, before four more scores in Pennsylvania in All-Stars and Sire Stakes action. Her last three wins came at The Big M in the Reynolds and Tompkins-Geers before last week’s powerhouse performance in the second of three Oaks eliminations, in which she set a new lifetime-mark of 1:51.3 after shrugging off a stiff challenge around the far turn from Buy A Round, a standout on the New Jersey Sire Stakes circuit.

“[Buy A Round] is such a fantastic animal, so, of course, I got a little bit nervous,” said Stoebe. “In that race, she was the one to beat. We managed beating her.”

As the 3-5 favorite, Elista Hanover was put on the lead by Miller at the half and reported home a 1½-length winner over Drawn Impression as Buy A Round weakened and finished fourth, which was still good enough to earn a berth in the Oaks final as the highest money-earning fourth-place finisher from the three elims.

“David, when he retook, I was like, ‘Oh,’” said Stoebe. “Then when [the half] showed up as :57, David knew what was happening. He knows what to do.”

Her trainer may have thought Buy A Round was the one to beat last week, but you’d have trouble convincing the bettors. Elista Hanover has been sent to the gate as the favorite in all 11 of her starts this year.

That’s something else that sets Elista Hanover apart from her foes in the Oaks, as she will be making her 12th start of the year, more than any of the other horses in the field.

But Stoebe doesn’t seem too concerned.

“I’m okay with it,” said Stoebe. “We’ll see how it is at the end of the year, but I’m comfortable with how she is coming into this big race. David says she just keeps getting stronger. We’re just living a dream right now. She’s just amazing.”

When making the trip to the track, Stoebe is always aware of what she needs to bring in addition to all of the equipment her horse needs.

“Cookies get packed in her harness bag when I pack everything else,” said Stoebe. “They are as important as her bridle.”

I seldom root for one person or horse over another, but I was unabashedly cheering for Moment Is Here – or more precisely, his trainer, Bob McIntosh – to win last year’s Little Brown Jug. I was always taught to root for the home team and McIntosh’s operation isn’t that far from where I grew up in LaSalle, ON.

His passion for the Jug – for everything harness racing, really – was legion. But his indelible mark on the sport went far, far beyond that. Long one of the most legendary of the big stable operators, McIntosh’s work ethic and success were rarely matched.

I suspect a lot of people at last year’s Jug were pulling for McIntosh, who died on Sunday never having won that race, which is a shame and a rare blank spot on a Hall of Fame resume chock full of black type. Trying to marshal the Racing Gods in his favor – especially after Moment Is Here won his heat – went beyond the fact that on Jug Day McIntosh was laid up in a hospital in Ohio after a fall. My support wasn’t about pity, it was about character.

McIntosh was the kind of decent and deeply-talented guy even some of his fiercest competitors didn’t mind losing to; a man that did things with integrity and hard work, not shortcuts – and what speaks better of a person than that?

His passion for the Jug – for everything harness racing, really – was legion. But his indelible mark on the sport went far, far beyond that. Long one of the most legendary of the big stable operators, McIntosh’s work ethic and success were rarely matched.

I once spent an entire day at his stable in the mid-1990s and it was amazing to see such a well-tuned machine humming along with incredible efficiency.

McIntosh was inducted into the U.S. Harness Racing Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, in 2003 and the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in 2010.

Only three other trainers in history have earned more purse money than McIntosh, who piled up more than $92 million in his career and is the all-time leading trainer in Canadian history. He won more than 4,600 races (by Standardbred Canada’s accounting), was named Canada’s Trainer of the Year seven times, the U.S. Trainer of the Year twice, Canada’s Horseperson of the Year twice and campaigned three horses voted Horse of the Year – Artsplace and Staying Together in 1992 and 1993, respectively, in the U.S. and Whenuwishuponastar in 1996 in Canada.

McIntosh is perhaps best known for his prowess in the Breeders Crown series. His 16 Breeders Crown wins as a trainer is third most in series history.

He also excelled as an owner – almost always owning a piece of the horses he trained, which is notable. But he was particularly successful as a breeder. He long ago transitioned from buying pricey yearlings to simply breeding his own. The owner of one of the greatest broodmare bands in Canadian history outside of Armstrong Bros., McIntosh had more success with homebreds than perhaps any trainer in the sport's history. He also was the man that trained Camluck, who went on to become one of the greatest sires in Canadian history and put Seelster Farms in Lucan, ON on the map.

While McIntosh never won the Hambletonian, a Meadowlands Pace nor a Jug, he did win the Jugette three times and the Canadian Pacing Derby four times, including three years in a row between 1991 and 1993 with Odds Against, Artsplace and Staying Together. His 2012 Pepsi North America Cup victory with Thinking Out Loud was one of the most popular victories in recent memory. I can still hear the roar when he raised that trophy.

But I'll remember McIntosh as much for his willingness to be quoted – and his insightfulness while being quoted – even though I often suspected he was reticent owing to a desire to avoid the spotlight. Still, he cooperated to promote the sport he loved.

His many passions went beyond horse racing.

We shared a love of the Detroit Tigers and for the far-too-maligned Windsor / Detroit area. Even after racing in Windsor and Michigan ended and moving closer to Woodbine Mohawk Park clearly would have made McIntosh's life easier, he remained in the community. I admired him for that. If you're from that part of the country, you understand.

Apart from, maybe, LaSalle-born tight end Luke Willson winning the 2014 Super Bowl with the Seattle Seahawks, McIntosh is perhaps the biggest sports star from the town.

McIntosh and I also shared a love of dogs and photography and, in McIntosh's case, he was a talented amateur when it came to the latter.

But of all his passions: for horses and photos and Tigers and dogs, none trumped McIntosh's love of family – his two sons, his brother Doug, their cousin Al and their sister Mary Ann.

When Bob's beloved wife, Patty, died in 2021, McIntosh not only lost the love of his life, but also the person most responsible for his success in the business as the stable's second in command.

I worried at the time that it probably wouldn't be long before Bob followed and now, sadly, he has at age 71.

But not before leaving a legacy that will be virtually impossible for others to match.

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

The longest day

Observations from the stakes racing that was between the Adios at The Meadows and Hambletonian/Oaks eliminations at The Meadowlands.

by Brett Sturman

I'm not embarrassed to admit that I missed the second of last Saturday's (July 27) two Hambletonian elimination's live and didn't see it until the next morning. With that race going off at 11:10 p.m. local time and me having fallen asleep sometime after the preceding race, T C I's win at The Meadowlands came close to 12 hours following the 11:45 a.m. start time of the Adios card at The Meadows. Timing of The Meadows races had impact on The Meadowlands card. But, the unnecessarily long race cards bordered on insanity.

Beginning with The Meadows, the first race advertised post time was 11:45 a.m. and the last of the 16 races went off at 5:52 p.m., which comes out to an average of 23 minutes in between each race. The Meadowlands allowed for long delays between races early in its card as to provide more time for drivers incoming from The Meadows to arrive. They averaged almost 25 minutes between 14 races from the start of their advertised post time of 6:20 p.m. to an ending time of 12:06 a.m. the next morning. It would have been even longer had things not been relatively sped up for the last three races.

The $350,000 Adios didn't go off until close to 5:30 a.m. the 15th race on the card. For drivers such as Dexter Dunn, David Miller, Todd McCarthy and Tim Tetrick, who had Adios drives as well as Hambletonian, Hambletonian Oaks and other stakes engagements at The Meadowlands, it left little room for error in travel logistics. Dunn, in fact, did miss a winnable Tompkins-Geers drive from race 4 that night before he and the others arrived in time for race 5. But, if there were better coordination between the tracks, could the races have been better scheduled?

For example, what if instead of race 15 the Adios was carded even an hour earlier around race 12 or 13? What would have been lost in that process? I know it's customary for the very big races to be run towards the end of a race card, but I don't see a downside if it were run a little earlier. The Meadowlands has experimented with this having run the Hambletonian right in the middle of its card a couple of years ago and I recall it being well received as far as placement and impact to handle on the overall card.

The reality is that harness racing does have a very busy stakes schedule and coordination between all the races at all the tracks isn't feasible, but some flexibility between tracks should be doable for when highly impactful races fall on the same day.

And more generally, when did six-hour race cards across parts of the industry become the norm? It doesn't matter as much if most of the audience is remote as is the case for most race days throughout the year and I can personally get errands and other things done over the course of an hour and only miss a race or two, but what are you supposed to do to kill 25 minutes onsite in between 16 races?

If the card length is being extended in the name of handle, is there any evidence that handle would be different if races were 16 minutes apart instead of 24 minutes? The bottom line is at a time when major league baseball games have never been shorter, harness race cards have never been longer.

A few other observations: In between many of the supporting stakes races on the Adios card was random lower-level claiming and conditioned races. There must have been a reason I don't know of, but why couldn't they have swapped those regular overnight races with all the 2-year-old Arden Downs stakes that were run the day before on Friday, and then Saturday could have been a near all-stakes super type of card?

Maybe an overreaction here, but in the theme of tracks not ceding the spotlight to others or maybe not even being aware, Saratoga Harness went to their second race post on Saturday at the exact time the Adios was going off. If you are a harness racing bettor and those two races go off simultaneously, who is betting the Saratoga race? As common sense, it just seems like bad business.

Onto the actual horses, the Adios delivered with a pretty exciting race considering that the field quality wasn't as highly regarded as it's been in some recent years. Credit to Captain Albano who parked out Clever Cody, set fast fractions and was a deserving winner to just hang in there in 1:49.2. I'm anxious though to see what type of horse runner-up Wish You Well turns into in the latter part of the summer. I raved about his elimination win in last week's column and he proved that race was absolutely no fluke when he was absolutely raging once again after being free too late. Is he really now suddenly this good? We'll find out.

At The Meadowlands, a lot of credit is to be given to Elista Hanover as she made it 10 in a row with her Hambletonian Oaks elimination win; it's truly impressive how much better she got between ages 2 and 3. That was a well-earned win fending off the first-over push from Buy A Round and then fighting back and extending away late against Drawn Impression. It'll be interesting to see how the betting public assesses her odds against fellow elimination winners Allegiant and R Melina, as well as a host of others who could contend.

In the Hambletonian, it's back to where it started with Karl and T C I both rebounding off prior race losses to win their eliminations, but my sense is that others in the field may never be closer to those top two than they are now. The well-regarded Private Access who was runner-up to Highland Kismet in the Goodtimes in June, almost capitalized on a pocket-trip and was slowly inching towards T C I in his elimination to just miss while being way clear of anyone else. In the deeper elimination, Karl brushed to the lead with a winning move by three-quarters and kept a nearly two-length lead to the wire but there were a host of others not too far behind. Sig Sauer raced evenly but well and Highland Kismet bounced back too and caught the eye with his :26.1 final quarter close. Even Bella's Musclehill came back with a very strong showing following a break and proved he belongs. Anything in the final can happen.

Lyin' Eyes filling the void in the Putnam Stable

by James Platz

Indiana-sired pacing mare Rockin Nola retired last season as one of the most decorated standardbreds in the state. While trainer and co-owner Joe Putnam acknowledged it is difficult to replace a horse of her caliber, he has another filly in the barn that is gamely filling the void. Sophomore Lyin' Eyes recently picked up a 1:51.1 victory in Indiana Sires Stakes action at Harrah's Hoosier Park, her third win in six seasonal starts.

"You can never replace one like Rockin Nola," Putnam said. "She went to Kentucky to become a mama. This filly is doing her darndest to fill her shoes, and we're happy about that."

Putnam is known for developing young talent into stakes winners that go on to excel as older horses. He conditioned ABC Mercedes to multiple Indiana Sires Stakes finals wins and more than $1 million in earnings, the first Indiana-sired trotter to reach the milestone. Before her retirement last season, Rockin

“You can never replace one like Rockin Nola. She went to Kentucky to become a mama. This filly [Lyn’ Eyes] is doing her darndest to fill her shoes, and we’re happy about that.”

~ Joe Putnam

Nola had captured finals in the Hoosier State at ages 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6. She finished her career just shy of the seven-figure mark with $988,147. With both horses, the veteran trainer was careful to not over-race them in any given season.

His approach with Lyn’ Eyes is no different. He maintains a big picture view, managing the filly’s starts with a plan in mind. As a freshman, she made eight attempts, hitting the board seven times with three wins. Putnam skipped the first three legs of sires stakes, taking a different path to the Super Final in October.

“That was kind of by design,” he said. “It seems like they go awful fast from the beginning. As time goes on it’s more so that way. She raced in an overnight and I think we were in a mini-series. By the time that was done, they were on leg 4. We decided let’s give her a shot in there. There were obviously a couple of really good fillies last year. We got lucky and got enough points. We won leg 6 and she raced really good in the final as well.”

Driven by Putnam’s son, Joey, the Odds On Equuleus—Miswave Hanover filly entered the Super Final last season on a two-race winning streak. Sent off as the second choice in the $250,000 contest, the duo finished second to Lets Go Endofaera over a sloppy racetrack. Lyn’ Eyes finished the season with $132,890 on her card.

“We had high hopes for her this year when we put her away last fall,” Joe said. “So far, it’s been good. She’s come back good. There are four or five nice fillies in that class and luckily, she’s one of them.”

Bred by Silver Linden Farms, Lyn’ Eyes is the second foal out of Miswave Hanover, a Somebeachsomewhere mare that captured an International Stallion Stake division as a freshman. The partnership of J P Racing LLC (Joe Putnam and Mike Johnson), Joey Putnam and Crazy Parrot Farm, LLC (Robert Baurys) picked the filly out of the Hoosier Classic sale for $21,000.

“ We had high hopes for [Lyn’ Eyes] this year when we put her away last fall. So far, it’s been good. She’s come back good. There are four or five nice fillies in that class and luckily, she’s one of them. ”

~ Joe Putnam

“We look at a lot of horses,” Joe said. “We look for something that’s not a small horse, but not necessarily a big, big horse. Looking for nice horses that grow into themselves. Seems like you need that in today’s world. I’ve had a few small horses do really well, but in the long run, especially with the speeds they go nowadays, you need a good-gaited horse that has some size and strength. That’s kind of what we look for. The first foal had talent. I think her sire is a very underrated horse. He’s had some nice horses from a limited number of foals. She kind of checked all the boxes.”

She checked all the boxes at the yearling sale, and this season she continues to check the boxes as a formidable sophomore slugging it out with other top 3-year-olds in the Indiana Sires Stakes program. Through five rounds, Lyn’ Eyes has managed to grab a pair of leg wins and three runner-up finishes, her latest victory coming July 26 at Hoosier Park. Lets Go Endofaera has collected four victories and leads the points, with Jada Caroline and Teelatini each scoring division wins. The filly has finished first or second in 11 of 14 career starts, and with her most recent sires stakes triumph, is on the verge of reaching $250,000 in earnings.

“She hasn’t raced a ton,” Joe said. “I think the other night was her 14th lifetime start. We knew the sires stakes weren’t going to start until Memorial Day weekend, so we kind of drug our feet on her and didn’t get her qualified until early May. That was by design. She’s eligible to everything here in Indiana throughout the year. A majority of those races outside of sires stakes legs are at the end of the year.

“The biggest challenge is how do we get her in top shape early and then hopefully manage her for the whole season. These races are spread out every few weeks. She’s an easy keeper and she’s real lazy jogging. She doesn’t do anything hard on herself. It’s just managing her, getting her through, keeping her happy and trying to survive to the end.”

Surviving until October’s Super Final and the open stakes that await after takes a team effort, and that includes the decisions Joey makes on the racetrack. Joe entrusted his son with driving Rockin Nola during a majority of her starts, and he likes how the younger reinsman has handled Lyn’ Eyes.

“He’s done a great job, as he has basically from day one,” Joe said. “He knows the goal is the big picture. The way they all race now it’s very aggressive racing. She’s had a couple starts where she’s been on the front. We try to balance that out. You can’t be on the front every week. He’s done a really good job of taking care of her and giving her trips and handled her very well.”

Lyn’ Eyes may never reach the standard set by Rockin Nola. That’s a lot to ask of any horse. But she continues to fill the void quite nicely while giving the partnership another filly with the ability to contend for Indiana divisional honors.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Emma Lewis is proud to show her love of standardbreds

by Chris Lomon

When it comes to her love of standardbreds, Emma Lewis is unabashedly proud to show it.

For most of her 23 years, the woman from Moosup, CT, had, at most, a minimal knowledge of pacers and trotters.

That, however, all changed when Lewis, who has an extensive background in show horses, recently met Molly D'Agostino, the woman behind MMXX Standardbreds, an organization, founded in 2020, dedicated to creating a market for the equine athletes in the show ring.

"A friend introduced me to Molly and told me that she was looking for some standardbreds to be shown," Lewis said. "I had never ridden one, but I was very interested in doing it."

Home to several standardbreds, either permanently or seasonally taking part in events under saddle, MMXX helps racing connections with the retraining of their horses for sale in a second career.

All transactions are done off-track, with MMXX acting as the liaison between racehorse connections and potential pleasure homes.

Lewis quickly discovered something she hadn't anticipated.

"The standardbreds are easy to fall in love with," she said. "I didn't expect them to be as quiet, mentally, and as nice as they are. They are very easy to work with and get along with. They don't have a mean bone in their body."

What they do possess, however, is adaptability.

"Some racehorses are known for being high strung, but the standardbreds aren't that way," Lewis said. "When I first started riding them, we taught them what they needed to know to become horses that can take on higher-quality quarter horses and thoroughbreds."

Just like they do at the National Standardbred Show.

“ I came from the world where there were no standardbreds competing in the show ring. I was in the Hunter and Jumper side of things, so I never saw the standardbreds shown or interacted with them. It is nice to see that people care about them and realize there is a whole other world for these beautiful horses. ”

~ Emma Lewis

Held in late summer in New Jersey for almost 30 years, the show is presented jointly by the Standardbred Pleasure Horse Organization of New Jersey (SPHO-NJ), the Standardbred Breeders & Owners Association of New Jersey (SBOA-NJ) and the United States Trotting Association (USTA).

Standardbreds from throughout the United States come to compete in over 40 classes that are open only to the breed.

“The standardbreds come along very fast and pick up things quickly and easily,” Lewis said. “We have brought them into the show ring, and they do amazing. After the first couple of classes, they are winning. They hold their own.”

Lewis holds her head high in those moments.

Working with horses who come to MMXX Standardbreds has become a bona fide labor of love.

“Molly is amazing to work with,” Lewis said. “She is nice, easy to get along with, and very supportive. She wants to do the best for the breed and that’s what made me want to continue riding them.

“I am so grateful that she introduced me to standardbreds.”

Not surprisingly, Lewis has developed close bonds with several horses in her time with MMXX.

Two, in particular, come to mind, although she expects that number to rise significantly in the coming weeks and months.

“Seamus is coming along,” she said. “He had a hard start to life, but he is coming along well and it’s great to see. Other people are able to ride him and you can see how he is flourishing.

“We also have a pacer, Go Daddy Go [a 12-year-old chestnut son of Ponder, who made 94 starts and earned $632,413]. Every time someone walks over, he is ecstatic. He loves attention. He gets me every time. I love seeing him each day.”

From what she has seen and heard during her show ring experiences with standardbreds, Lewis expects more people will start to recognize the talents and temperament the breed possesses beyond the racetrack.

“I have a lot of people coming up and asking where we got the horses, or how they can adopt one, or if we can take one and help rehome them,” she said.

The MMXX adoption program, launched in the fall of 2023, has helped place over 100 horses to date.

Lewis wants to see that number continue to grow.

“Short term, I would like to help find as many homes as I can for them,” Lewis said. “Long term, I would like to work to make standardbreds high-quality show horses.

“I believe they can be, and they have shown they have the talent to do it.”

This chapter of her horse life has been eye-opening, to say the least.

“I came from the world where there were no standardbreds competing in the show ring,” Lewis said. “I was in the Hunter and Jumper side of things, so I never saw the standardbreds shown or interacted with them. It is nice to see that people care about them and realize there is a whole other world for these beautiful horses.

“The work they do under saddle from what they do on the racetrack is so different. They have to learn to use their bodies in a totally different way and learn to do things in a completely new way from what they are used to. But they are very willing to learn.”

Perhaps the highest praise Lewis bestows upon the breed is in how she regards them in relation to their contemporaries.

“These horses are a lot different from what I have known, but that is a big compliment to them,” she said.

As it is to Lewis, who, when she isn’t performing in the show ring, is helping D’Agostino around the barns, dutifully working to ensure standardbreds find a new calling, whether in the arena, grassy field, or on a peaceful trail.

It is a world she had at one time never envisioned but is grateful to have discovered.

“I go look at horses with Molly, whether it is for showing or people that need help so that they can enjoy their standardbreds,” Lewis said. “Once you are around these beautiful animals, you can’t help but develop a great respect and admiration for them.

“There is something so special about them, their spirit, kindness, and beauty. They truly are one-of-a-kind animals.”

Something that Emma Lewis has happily found out.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Hugo Åbergs Memorial was a terrific race

by Thomas Hedlund

Tuesday's (July 30) $320,000 Hugo Åbergs Memorial at Jägersro racetrack in Malmö had all the ingredients needed to become a great race for the older elite trotters in Europe and the race met those high expectations.

Vivid Wise As went off-stride, surprisingly, when the car left the strong 10-horse field and that changed some of the drivers' tactics. Click Bait, sold to European owners in Alessandro Gocciadoro's stable the day before the race, opened quickly and grabbed the lead from Hail Mary in the first turn. Hail Mary attacked leader Click Bait in a furious speed attack after the first quarter, but Click Bait's driver Per Lennartsson was determined to let his horse try the front position in his last race for owner and trainer Stefan Melander.

The pace was high throughout the race and on the backstretch, favorites Don Fanucci Zet and Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) sat in third and fourth over, respectively.

Don Fanucci Zet had to leave three wide before the last turn and Borups Victory got his perfect cover trip. But, to be honest, the attacking horses far outside had several lengths to make up on leader Click Bait, and pocket-trip trotter Get A Wish, who found room between horses 100 meters before the wire.

Click Bait was heroic in front, but he was marked by the high pace and Don Fanucci Zet couldn't defend himself when Daniel Wäjersten attacked fourth wide with Borups Victory and the Mats Sundin owned 6-year-old had the best speed as the wire approached.

In a tight finish where Click Bait and Get A Wish battled, Borups Victory proved to be fastest and the success for Wäjersten's horse was total.

Borups Victory, runner up in Elitloppet in May and winner in the Kymi GP in June, has definitely developed to become one of the best trotters in Europe as he won the Hugo Åbergs Memorial in 1:51.

Johan Untersteiner's Get A Wish was second and Click Bait third in this very worth seeing edition of the Hugo Åbergs Memorial.

In Tuesday's (July 30) $100,000 Breeders Course final for 3-year-old fillies at Jägersro, Mattias Djuse-trained Olivia Bros (Muscle Mass) impressed for driver Björn Goop. Olivia Bros left position in second over on the backstretch and connected on leader Kilimanjaro Face's outside just before the last turn.

Leader Kilimanjaro Face held strongly and fought well when Olivia Bros was asked for more power at the top of the stretch. A tight finish ended with a win for Olivia Bros and Djuse's trotter came home in 1:53.4, which must be considered an impressive time for a 3-year-old in Sweden, and in Europe.

Face Time Bourbon had his chances to be the winning sire in the two Breeders Course finals and in the $100,000 race for colts and geldings, high quality bred Far Wise As (Face Time Bourbon) showed great capacity. Jerry Riordan trains this half-brother to Vivid Wise As and according to driver Untersteiner, Riordan had high hopes for this horse early into the training season last year. "He's a hell of a horse," Riordan said to Untersteiner who is also the regular driver behind the talented 3-year-old.

In Tuesday's final Far Wise As could control the race from the lead and when the favorites went off-stride, the road to victory became very safe. Far Wise As sprinted home in a very pleasant style and won in 1:56.1.

ALWAYS EK BEST IN TARANTO

Alessandro Gocciadoro's Always Ek (Filipp Roc) overtook the lead 300 meters into Sunday's (July 28) $165,000 Gran Premio Due Mari in Taranto, Italy and by then, the race was basically over.

Always Ek outshone his opponents as he won in 1:53.4.

Gocciadoro also collected the trophy in the $42,500 Gran Premio Citta' di Taranto. His weapon was 4-year-old Wishing Stone son Eolo Jet, who won in 1:54.3.

BAZIRE HITS 4,000 WINS

French dominant Jean-Michel Bazire reached a great milestone on Saturday (July 27) at Enghien, when he steered his Jushua Tree to victory in the Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Enghien. The win meant that Bazire reached 4,000 victories as a trainer. Among his many big wins are three triumphs in the Prix d'Amérique (Kesaco Phedo, Belina Josselyn and Hooker Berry).

Gingras gets career win 9,000

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Hall of Fame driver Yannick Gingras picked up career win 9,000 on Monday (July 29) when he captured the ninth race at Lexington's Red Mile with 3-year-old pacer Steely Knife. The colt, trained by Ron Burke, won by 1¾ lengths in 1:52.3.

Gingras, a two-time recipient of the Driver of the Year Award from the U.S. Harness Writers Association, was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2022.

Last year, he led all drivers in North America in purses, with $15.1 million. It was the fifth time Gingras topped the money standings in his career. He has been no worse than third in purses each of the past 12 years and ranks fourth among all drivers in history in the category, with nearly $237 million.

A third-generation horseman from Quebec, Gingras arrived in the U.S. in 2001 and established himself as a top driver at Yonkers Raceway. In 2003, Gingras received the Rising Star Award from the U.S. Harness Writers Association and in 2004 he moved his base to The Meadowlands. He has won eight Big M driving titles, including in 2022 and 2023.

His lifetime victories include a record six in the Hambletonian Oaks and 26 in Breeders Crown finals, good for sixth place among all drivers in the history of the event.

Luna Lovegood, Yo Tillie step to victory at The Red Mile

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

On Monday (July 29), Luna Lovegood (Dexter Dunn) provided sire Gimpanzee with another winner and Marcus Melander with another stakes score in the Bluegrass in the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series (KYSSC) division for freshman pacing fillies at The Red Mile.

Luna Lovegood, who is out of Southwind Venus and a half-sibling to Hambletonian Oaks finalist Miss I La, shrugged off a bid from Barclay (Ake Svanstedt) to break her maiden in 1:55.4. The filly established fractions of :29, :57.3, and 1:27.2 as the leader right from the beginning of the race. Divine Thing (David Miller) was third.

The winner paid a generous $25.80 to those who wagered upon her.

Luna Lovegood is owned by Holly Lane Stud East LTD. She was bred by Blue Chip Farms and Stefan Melander. She was sold for $100,000 under the name Witness Blue Chip at last year's Standardbred Horse Sale.

Yo Tillie (Verlin Yoder) improved her record to a perfect five-for-five in the second KYSSC division for 2-year-old filly trotters. The daughter of Tactical Landing—Consolidator went right to the front and established fractions of :28.1, :56.1, and 1:25.1 en route to defeating Aperfect Annie (Todd McCarthy). Stacking Green (Yannick Gingras) nabbed the show spot.

Owned and trained by her driver, Yo Tillie captured the $100,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes final on July 14 at Oak Grove. She has now amassed $134,000 in purse money tripped the timer in a career best 1:53.4.

The filly was bred by GBW Breeding Farms Inc. and Black Creek Farm.

Yo Tillie paid $6.46 to win for her efforts.

KADENA HIGHLIGHTS KENTUCKY COMMONWEALTH SERIES VICTORS

On Monday, Kadena, another daughter of Gimpanzee, debuted a winner in one of six legs of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series over two days.

What is special about this young lady? Her dam is world champion, Mission Brief, and the filly sold at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $800,000 equaling the highest price tag ever for a yearling trotting filly.

With Dunn again holding the lines for M. Melander, Kadena was content to allow Gymboree (Anthony MacDonald) take command. The filly sat in fourth while that rival established fractions of :28.3, :59.4 and 1:30 turning for home. That is when Kadena and her driver decided it was time to make a statement and surged home through the lane to win in her very first attempt. Ms Prada (Gingras) was second and Dreams Come Easy (Svanstedt) was third.

Owned by Jeffrey Snyder and S R F Stable, was bred by Mission Brief Stable.

The filly who has high expectations paid $7.32 to win.

The other winners of this series for freshman colt and gelding trotters were Big Shoes (Gingras) who paid $8.54, Go Dog Go (T. McCarthy) with a win price of $20.10 and Chat Room (T. McCarthy) who offered $6.42 for a $2 wager.

The Commonwealth winners for the 2-year-old trotting fillies were Best Friends Girl (David Miller) ($6.30) and Get It All (Scott Zeron) ($16.52).

BLANK LEADS THE WAY IN KENTUCKY SIRE STAKES CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES LEGS

On Sunday (July 28), Blank (Dunn) reigned supreme in the first 2024 edition of the KYSSC for conditioner M. Melander. The 2-year-old son of world champion and three-time Breeders Crown winner, Gimpanzee and the Muscle Hill mare, Cover Girl, tussled with Landing On Time (Zeron) in the stretch to stop the clock in 1:59 at odds of more than 15-1. Jeffrey J (T. McCarthy) was right behind to take third in the $80,000 contest.

Blank is owned by S R F Stable and Holly Lane Stud East LTD. The colt is now perfect in his young career with one win from one start. He was bred by Diamond Creek Farm and paid a healthy $33.64 at the windows.

Seaside Diva stays perfect in Ohio Sires Stakes

by Frank Fraas / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Seaside Diva went gate-to-wire, winning the only $100,000 division of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old filly pacers at MGM Northfield Park on Saturday (July 28). Seaside Diva is now three-for-three in the Sire Stake legs.

Out of the gate, Seaside Diva and Chris Page refused to relinquish the lead. The daughter of Downbytheseaside cleared the front and never looked back. With no challengers, Seaside Diva set fractions in :27.1, :56.2, and 1:24 before stopping the clock in 1:52.4. The victory marks the seventh win in eight seasonal starts for the Ron Burke trainee. Owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services, and Let It Ride Stable, Seaside Diva has earned $469,805 lifetime.

Wasted On You (Brett Miller) was second with Katies Up (Hunter Myers) finishing third.

Ohio Sires Stakes action continues Thursday (Aug. 8) at Eldorado Scioto Downs with freshmen filly trotters.

Adios Day Grand Circuit round-up

In addition to the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids and the Quinton Patterson Adioo Volo, Saturday's (July 27) blockbuster card at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows featured four Arden Downs Grand Circuit stakes. Here are highlights of those events.

$36,873 JAMES MANDERINO TROT – 3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROT

Parked every step, Splendid somehow found more for Chris Lems and collected his eighth straight win. The son of Father Patrick—Long Island Tea triumphed in 1:54, a head better than the rallying Father Mike, with Blockchain third.

"He got a little rough behind the gate, which is why he couldn't make it to the lead or get into a hole" said Todd Rooney, who trains Splendid for Rooney Racing and Trotting For Bourbon. "But I was pretty shocked when he just kept right on going."

Rooney said that because Splendid is dually eligible in Pennsylvania and Kentucky, several options are available for his next start.

$30,098 DWANE PARKER TROT – 3-YEAR-OLD FILLIES

Diamante Hanover controlled the fractions, then had to dig in to hold off the late charge of Mon Amie Martine. But the daughter of Cantab Hall—Dew To Win was up to the task, downing Mon Amie Martine by a neck in 1:55. Vickis Moni completed the ticket.

"She was trying to wear herself out a little on the front," said winning driver Matt Kakaley. "She sometimes just wants to go too fast, too early. But she dug in game. She always tries hard."

Emily Bost trains Diamante Hanover, who soared over $100,000 in lifetime earnings, for Bruce Potter.

$43,816 ROY DAVIS – 2-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING PACE

In the first of two divisions, Papi's Rocket was sent off as the heaviest of favorites, and he repaid the confidence of his backers by taking a new mark of 1:53.2.

First and second in overnight events before closing for third after a shuffle in a PA Sire Stake last week, Papi's Rocket got away fourth in the seven-horse field, but driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. had the son of Papi Rob Hanover—Real Touch (the dam of world champion Summer Touch) on the move as second choice Wild Bill Wyatt was in front of the field past the quarter in :27.3, taking over command and getting a breather to a :57 half. No one mounted an outside threat before or after the 1:25.4 three-quarters; the only real test came up the inside from pocket-sitter Wild Bill Wyatt, but Papi's Rocket held that rival safe by 1¼ lengths.

"I thought the horse was much the best," Wrenn said, "so I just wanted to make that quarter-pole move and make sure he didn't make a mistake. He's definitely a sires stakes colt. He's getting better and better every week."

Ron Burke, who had his usual fine Adios Day (three wins and five seconds, including sweeps of the Adioo Volo and Mary Lib Miller for an unofficial $152,939 earnings reckoning), trains the winner for Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci LLC, Knox Services Inc. and Slaughter Racing Stable LLC.

The second Roy Davis division also went to a stick-out in the Bettor's Wish—Heavenly Bride colt Wedlock Blue Chip in 1:52.4. Lou's Albano (no relation to Adios winner Captain Albano) led at the :27.4 opener, but driver Troy Beyer wanted to control his own fate and moved the youngster to the lead, putting up middle fractions of :56.2 and 1:25.1 before marching home in :27.3 to leave Lou's Albano three lengths in arrears at the finish.

Wedlock Blue Chip, who had sandwiched overnight victories around a miscue in his brief career, now moves to three-for-four for trainer Roland "Polie" Mallar and the ownership of Richard Cortese and Don Hawk.

$36,117 MARY LIB MILLER – 2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

In 2023 driver Dexter Dunn won the Adioo Volo 3-year-old filly pace with Always B Naughty in 1:50, and he also won a division of the Mary Lib Miller companion stake for 2-year-olds with My Girl EJ in an outstanding 1:51.1. This year Dunn won the Adioo Volo with My Girl EJ in a track record 1:48.4, so that seems to leave the Dunn-driven Blessed Hanover, winner of the $36,117 single division of this year's Mary Lib Miller/Arden Downs in 1:51.4, with history on her side, right?

Dunn did well to get away third with the Burke-trained daughter of Always B Miki—Bettor B Lucky after she was a little steppy as the gate sprang; not so fortunate was her stablemate, the favored Always Ana Hanover, who lost stride before the first turn, although recovering to land seventh early. Daily Double Deo went to the front and set fractions of :27.1, :55.3, and 1:23.1; Always Ana Hanover could find no cover and had to make her challenge from the back without benefit of drafting along.

Always Ana Hanover had reached the pacesetter by the far turn but had no cover tight on her, which gave Dunn the opportunity he needed as he slipped Blessed Hanover, owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci LLC and William Donovan, to the two-path, then wider in the stretch. Blessed Hanover paced home with a 1¾-length advantage over her talented but unfortunate stablemate, with Daily Double Deo another length back in third.

“Training down, she was way at the back of the group,” Burke said of Blessed Hanover. “By the time we were qualifying, we thought, she’s all right. Her time today was legit. She’s showed us enough to keep her staked to everything.”

Battle of Waterloo and Battle of the Belles fields set for 35th Industry Day

Rookie pacers duked it in record time over the Elora oval in the eliminations for the Battle of Waterloo, presented by Winbak Farm, and the Battle of the Belles at Grand River Raceway on Monday (July 29).

Fifth And Five established a new track pacing record for rookies in the second $15,000 Battle of Waterloo elimination when he stopped the clock in a sparkling 1:51.4 for driver Jody Jamieson and father Carl who trains and shares ownership with 1140545 Ontario Ltd. and Trevor Edwards. The son of Bettors Delight—Filou Fly Fast made a quarter pole move to the lead after a :27.1 first quarter and then laid down middle splits of :55.2 and 1:23.4 before kicking home to win easily over Allstar Maniac with Blue Bar finishing third and Tito N Cheddar rounding out the top four.

The father-son combination of Carl and Jody have teamed up to win the Battle of Waterloo four times together. Individually, Carl has won the race six times in its 34 editions.

It was heavily favored Stonebridge Wizard using similar tactics to capture the second Waterloo elimination for driver Doug McNair in 1:52.4. The son of Dancin Lou—Odds On Magic turned back a couple of stern challenges in the back half before kicking clear of rivals late for his third victory in four tries on the season. It was Out Of Ice flying late to pick up the place spot with Set Shot and Sterling Choice rounding out the top four. Stonebridge Wizard is trained by Jared Bako for owner David Kryway and will give Doug McNair a chance at his sixth Battle title next week.

It was the Bob McClure show in the Battle of the Belles eliminations as the veteran reinsman swept both splits with a pair of longshots. In the opening $10,000 contest, he guided 9-1 shot Manhattan Mayhem to a sparkling off-the-pace win, circling the field in the final quarter to score in 1:53 over Famous Fast Words, Millie May Hanover and Ithadtobeyou. It was a career-best clocking and second straight victory for the daughter of Bettors Delight—Manhattan Dragon who is trained by Shawn Steacy for owners Nancy Malik, Tony Basile and Andrew Atlas.

McClure used a slightly different approach in the second elimination, sending Perfectly Chic first over at the half and the daughter of Betterthancheddar—Fit N Bad wore down pacesetter Wicked N Single for a hard-earned 1:53.2 tally. Wicked N Single held second with Wickedpace and Oneformybaby rounding out the top four. It was the first career win for Perfectly Chic who is co-owned by her trainer John Pentland along with Steve Mihalic. She had finished second in three previous starts, the most recent pair coming in OSS Gold Series action.

New this year, Industry Day celebrations will include, "The Button Up Preferred" for top older pacers, a race dedicated to the memory of one of our top Industry Day performers. Button Up won the Battle of Waterloo in 2005 then went on to win the preferred race for older pacers in 2007, 2010 and 2012.

The wagering menu that day will consist of two Pick-5's. The early Pick-5 will begin in race 1, with a guaranteed pool of $10,000. The Super-Charged late Pick-5 will have a guaranteed pool of $10,000. There will also two Pick-4's available, the early Pick-4 will have a guaranteed pool of $5,000 and the late Pick-4 will offer a guaranteed pool of $7,500. The Battle of Waterloo will offer a super hi-5 wager with a guaranteed pool of $7,500. All wagers listed above will offer a low 15 per cent takeout.

Industry Day, now entering its 35th year, brings together harness racing fans, families, and the community to enjoy entertainment both on the track and on the apron. The NEIGHbourhood Kids Area will offer face painting, glitter tattoos, inflatable axe-throwing, and more. Food trucks will be on-site for all guests at the East Gate. Come on out and enjoy a fun, action-packed day.

Post-time is set for 12:30 p.m.

VIP tickets for indoor seating in the Captain's Quarters are on-sale now. Check out the Industry Day details here: <https://grandriverraceway.com/events/industry-day/>
