Rebuff favored in Hambletonian

The elimination winner drew the rail for Saturday's $1 million final. The other elimination winner, Jiggy Jog S, drew post five.

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Rebuff, who won one of last week's two Hambletonian Stakes eliminations and is unbeaten in three starts this season, drew post one for Saturday's $1 million final and was made the 9-5 morning-line favorite in the classic race for 3-year-old trotters at The Meadowlands.

Jiggy Jog S, who won the other elimination and is one of two fillies in the race, drew post five and was made the 4-1 third choice. Yonkers Trot champion Joviality S, the remaining female starter, got post two and was made the 7-2 second choice.

Elimination winners drew for posts one through five. The remaining horses followed in an open draw.

A filly has won two of the past four editions of the Hambletonian, with Atlanta capturing the trophy in 2018 and Ramona Hill in 2020. Fillies have triumphed 15 times in 96 years.

This is the second time in three years that two fillies advanced to the Hambletonian final. Ramona Hill and Sister Sledge faced the boys in 2020 (Sister Sledge finished eighth in the final).

The Hambletonian is the middle jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown, between the Yonkers Trot and Kentucky Futurity, which will be held Oct. 9 at Lexington's Red Mile.

Rebuff, who won last year's Breeders Crown for 2-year-old male trotters, has seven victories in 14 lifetime starts and $573,670 in purses. He brings a six-race win streak, dating back to last October, to the Hambletonian final and will have Tim Tetrick in the sulky. Tetrick won the 2012 Hambletonian with Market Share.

A son of Muscle Hill—Meucci Madness, Rebuff is trained by Lucas Wallin, who is making his first appearance in the Hambletonian as a trainer. Last year, he drove Cuatro De Julio in the race, finishing seventh.

Rebuff won his Hambletonian elimination by 1-1/4 lengths over Fast As The Wind in 1:52.2. The colt is owned by Kjell Magne Andersen, Pieter Delis, and Wallin.

"I couldn't be happier with him," Wallin said. "He came out of the race super good. We're looking forward to Saturday.

"It's going to be a nice and easy week for him. He jogged a couple of times here and he's going to train tomorrow. Then after that just relax and enjoy. This is the race we all want to win. I've been following it since I was 12 or 13 years old. It's a dream come true."

Jiggy Jog S, a daughter of Walner—Hot Mess Hanover, won her elimination by a head over Temporal Hanover in 1:52.2. Joviality S was third, beaten by a neck.

This year, Jiggy Jog S has four wins and two seconds in six races. Lifetime, she has won six of 17 starts, hit the board an additional eight times, and earned $460,556. The filly, owned by Jorgen Sparredal Inc., has won three consecutive starts.

Jiggy Jog S is trained by Ake Svanstedt, who won last year's Hambletonian with Captain Corey and in 2017 with Perfect Spirit. Dexter Dunn drove her in the elimination.

"The owner wanted to go in the Hambletonian," Svanstedt said. "He said he would never have a chance to have a horse in the Hambletonian anymore because he's in Sweden and he's just buying fillies in the sales. He has bought some fillies every year because he wants to have them as broodmares. He doesn't buy colts.

"So, he made the decision. And I'm happy for that now. Now we are in the Hambletonian again. It would be nice (to win again)."

Joviality S is attempting to become only the third filly to win two jewels of the Trotting Triple Crown, which began in 1955. The two to accomplish the feat were Continental victory in 1996 (Yonkers Trot and Hambletonian) and Emily's Pride in 1958 (Hambletonian and Kentucky Futurity).

Trained by Marcus Melander and driven by three-time Hambletonian-winner Brian Sears, Joviality S has won six of seven races this year and 15 of 19 lifetime. The homebred daughter of Chapter Seven-Pasithea Face S has earned $1.26 million for owner Courant Inc.

"I thought she raced great," Melander said about Joviality S in her elimination, which she started from post 10. "From the 10-hole, it was a tough first half, :55.2, and the track was a little deep. It was a fast first half, even if the third quarter was a little slower. She got outsprinted. They came home in :27 flat, and Jiggy Jog was just a little faster.

"Brian said he was super happy with her. If Brian is happy with her, then I'm happy with her."

Joviality S is one of three Hambletonian finalists for Melander. She is joined by Temporal Hanover and Periculum.

The Hambletonian will be race 15 on Saturday's card. Post time will be approximately 6:35 p.m. (Eastern) Warrawee Xenia (Bob McClure) winning her Hambletonian Oaks elimination.

Warrawee Xenia looks to keep rolling in Hambletonian Oaks

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Her resume pales when compared to most of her foes, but Warrawee Xenia's current winning streak stands at seven, and her connections hope she can extend it to eight Saturday afternoon (Aug. 6) at The Meadowlands, when the daughter of Walner—Endless Flirt leaves from post three as the 5-1 third choice on the morning line in the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

"I hope we can get away mid-pack," said trainer Mark Steacy. "As long as we can stay close to them, I think our horse can go real fast in the stretch."

Based on her performance in the second of two Oaks eliminations last week, that's a big understatement.

Fashion Schooner, the New Jersey Sire Stakes and Del Miller winner, was sailing along on the lead as the 1-5 favorite when the field hit the head of the stretch. Warrawee Xenia, a 7-1 shot who was bothered around the far turn, was sixth at this point, more than five lengths behind the leader. She then veered wide for the stretch drive and nailed Fashion Schooner by a head in a lifetime-best 1:52.2 after sprinting her final quarter in :26.4 in an effort that left on-lookers shocked.

Hambletonian Information and History

Hambletonian Website: hambletonian.com

Bob McClure, who won the 2019 Hambletonian with Forbidden Trade, wasn't all that moved.

"That actually wasn't this filly at her best," he said. "She struggled a little bit in the turns, and she usually does that when she's got a little bit of a muscle issue. Mark is pretty good at fixing her up and usually the next week she's dynamite. So, I think you'll see an even better version [Saturday]."

Warrawee Xenia's road to the Oaks has been anything but typical. After a 2-year-old campaign that saw her race five times and win only once, she began this season with a second-place finish at her home track of Woodbine Mohawk Park against non-winners of 2, before beating that kind of stock four times in a row. She then bumped up to non-winners of 3 and won two more before last Saturday.

"This horse, even last year, showed lots of talent," said Steacy. "She just ran into a few problems. Coming back this year, those problems seemed to be gone. The speed was there, and we raced this horse right. She started in non-winners of 2 and got really confident. She was trotting home in 27 seconds every week up there [at Mohawk] and doing it with the earplugs in every time.

"She didn't make any money last year, so it was tough to pay some of those early stakes payments. But, like I said, we thought we had a nice filly, and we are gearing up for the last half of the season."

If Warrawee Xenia is to complete this Hambletonian Oaks fairy tale with a victory, she'll have to earn it.

Venerable, who won the other elim in wire-to-wire fashion in 1:52.4, will depart from post five and is listed at 9-5 for trainer Nifty Norman and driver Dave Miller, while Fashion Schooner will start out at 4-1 from post 10 for Tim Tetrick and Jim Campbell.

But Steacy remains optimistic.

"[Winning the Oaks] would be a nice feather in our cap," he said. "We have a pretty talented filly. If she brings her 'A' game, we have a pretty good shot."

The Hambletonian Oaks has a post time of 4:48 p.m. and will be shown live on Fox Sports 2. The big Hambletonian Day card at The Meadowlands kicks off at noon with the first of 16 races.

A look at Walner's deep Hambletonian lineage

by Bob Heyden

Six of the 20 horses in either the Hambletonian or Hambletonian Oaks were sired by Walner and come from his first crop – three in each race. A look at the strong Hambletonian heritage of Walner and it is easy to see why.

In 1929, Volomite was second in the Hambletonian. He sired...

Worthy Boy, who was second in the 1943 Hambletonian. He sired...

Stars Pride who was second in the 1950 Hambletonian. He sired...

Super Bowl, the 1972 Hambletonian and Triple Crown winner. He sired...

Garland Lobell, who did not compete in the 1984 Hambletonian, but he sired...

Conway Hall, who was fourth in the 1998 Hambletonian. He sired...

Windsongs Legacy, the 2004 Hambletonian and Triple Crown winner. He sired...

Chapter Seven, who was fourth in the 2011 Hambletonian. He sired...

Walner, who did not compete in the 2017 Hambletonian.

In summation:

Volomite sired four Hambletonian winners and had 22 checks overall (#2 all time).

Worthy Boy sired one Hambletonian winner.

Stars Pride sired eight Hambletonian winners, the most all-time.

Super Bowl is next on that list with six Hambletonian winners. His 23 checks are the all-time most.

Garland Lobell sired Andover Hall, Angus Hall, Armbro Trick and Justice Hall. Andover is a two-time Hambletonian winning sire (2007 and 2017).

Conway Hall had one Hambletonian winner.

Windsongs Legacy had one Hambletonian winner and died prematurely at age 8.

Chapter Seven and his son Walner placed 18-of-36 in the elims combined and now have 9-of-20 in the Oaks and Hambletonian combined in 2022.

SIRES THAT WON THE HAMBLETONIAN VIA THEIR SONS

Speaking of Walner's quest to win the Hambletonian via one of his offspring, an incredible 11 of the last 29 editions of the race have been won by horses sired by horses that didn't even race in the Hambletonian.

And it never once happened when the race was held in DuQuoin, IL. All 24 winners were sired by a horse who did race in the Hambletonian.

Here's a list of the last 11 times the winning sire did not start in the Hambletonian:

2021 – Googoo Gaagaa (sire of winner Captain Corey)

2019 – Kadabra (Forbidden Trade)

2013 – R C Royalty (Royalty For Life)

2012 – Revenue S (Market Share)

2011 – Broadway Hall (Broad Bahn)

2005 – S Js Photo (Vivid Photo and Classic Photo 1-2)

2000 and 2003 – Balanced Image (Yankee Paco and Amigo Hall)

1994, 1996, 1998 – Valley Victory (Victory Dream, Continental Victory and Muscles Yankee)

WALNER IS IN GOOD COMPANY IN THE FIRST-CROP DEPARTMENT

First crop sires who have taken down the Hambletonian in the last 50 years:

Muscle Hill in 2014 won with Trixton. Muscle Hill won five straight Hambletonian Oaks from 2015-2019.

Andover Hall in 2007 with Donato Hanover. The sire also won the Oaks with Danae.

Victory Dream in 1999 with Self Possessed

Valley Victory in 1994 with Victory Dream.

Mystic Park in 1987 with Mack Lobell.

Green Speed in 1983 with Duenna,

Ayres in 1970 with Timothy T.

HAMBLETONIAN DRIVING DEBUTS

Dexter Dunn in 2019 was fourth with Soul Strong

Jason Bartlett in 2017 was eighth with Guardian Angels S

Joey Bongiorno in 2016 was seventh with Make Or Miss

Corey Callahan in 2012 was sixth with From Above

Yannick Gingras in 2020 was seventh with Hard Livin

Matt Kakaley in 2015 was seventh with Habitat
Mark MacDonald in 2016 was sixth with Reigning Moni
Andy McCarthy in 2017 was sixth with Sortie
Matias Melander in 2020 was 10th with Rome Pays Off
Andy Miller in 2007 was ninth with Xactly Hanover
Dave Miller in 1999 was ninth with Big Z Crown and eighth with Supershade
Ron Pierce in 1991 was ninth with Can't Be Jimmie
Ake Svanstedt in 2014 was 10th with Doncango
Jimmy Takter in 1989 was eighth with Classic Air
Tim Tetrick in 2007 was sixth with Pampered Princess Scott Zeron in 2015 was eighth with Billy Flynn
Brian Sears in 2003 was 10th with Muscle King

MCCLURE'S OAKS DEBUT

Bob McClure is making his Hambletonian Oaks debut this year with Warrawee Xenia. Can he become the eighth Hambletonian Oaks driver to win it in his debut? The others were:

Simon Allard in 2019 with When Dovescry
Andy Miller in 2008 with Creamy Mimi
Tim Tetrick in 2007 with Dana
Luc Ouellette in 1998 with Fern
Wally Hennessey in 1996 with Moni Maker
Mal Burroughs in 1994 with Gleam
Bruce Riegler in 1992 with Worldy Woman

HOMEbred ONSLAUGHT THIS YEAR

There are more homebreds in the Hambletonian and Oaks (8 of 20) than there are yearlings that cost $100,000 or more (7 of 20). The two most expensive yearlings in the elims ($440,000 and $400,000 for Delilah and Peyton Hanover, respectively) did not advance.

JIMMY TAKTER'S OAKS DRIVING LEGACY

If Jimmy Takter drives in the Oaks, he will become the first driver to participate in the Hambletonian Oaks in five different decades. His first was in 1989 with On A Cruise. He was 28 in 1989 and 61 now. Yet, Takter has never won the Oaks as a driver.

Vital signs

Trevor Henry on Warrawee Vital, the fastest Canadian-based winner of 2022.

by Melissa Keith

On July 23 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the speed show began in race 5 when Poseidon Seelster (p, 4, 1:47.4m; $327,090) and driver Tyler Moore wired conditioned pacers in 1:48.2s, the fastest Canadian mile of 2022 by an older pacing gelding. Then Kolby Two Step (p, 3, 1:49.2s; $177,764) and James MacDonald stepped to a 1:49.2s national season's best for 3-year-old pacers in race 6.

The open handicap pace was race 10, Trevor Henry's seventh drive of the card. The Arthur, ON reinsman had a relaxing afternoon at Hanover Raceway, greeting fans alongside 2021 North America Cup winner Desperate Man (p, 3, 1:49.3s; $838,606) on "Trevor Henry Day." Sitting behind Warrawee Vital (p, 3, 1:47.1m; $438,000) that night at Woodbine Mohawk Park, he was ready to shift into high gear.

"When he makes front, you just kind of let him do what he wants," Henry said. "I just let him roll along. It was a nice night and the track was fast. He went a big trip."

Was he anticipating 1:47.2, Canada's fastest mile of 2022?

"Yeah. I was trying. I said to [trainer] Rob [Fellows], if there wasn't so much wind in the stretch, he would've been close to the track record."

Gelding Dr J Hanover's 1:46.4s record, set at Mohawk on June 3, 2017, still stands as the fastest-ever Canadian mile.

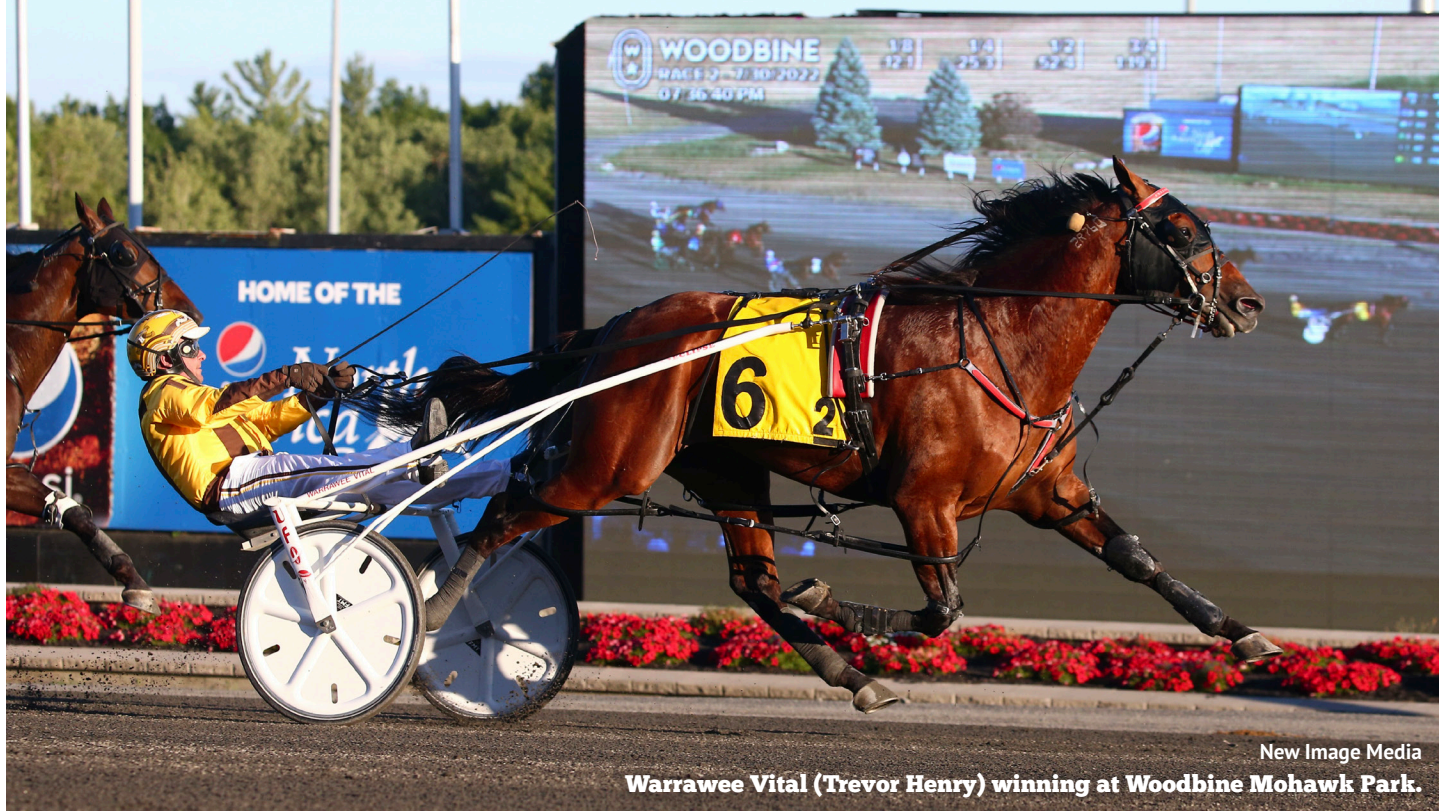

On July 30, "Vital" and Henry shaved another 1/5 of a second off their 2022 record, blasting to the top at the :52.4 half, hitting three-quarters in 1:19.1, and staying ahead of fast-closing Wheels On Fire down the stretch. The 1:47.1s victory equalled Always B Miki's all-time Canadian record for pacing stallions, set June 18, 2016, and his own personal best.

Warrawee Vital is owned by Blair Corbeil of Beaumont, AB; Yolanda Fellows of Rockwood, ON and M&S Racing Stable Inc of Rockwood, ON.

"I drove him a lot of times. He's just a nice big horse and he's from a great family," said Henry, pointing out dam Great Memories' record as a broodmare. The Apaches Fame-Save the Memories mare only raced once before being injured, but has produced four offspring with records of 1:49 or faster, led by world champions Warrawee Needy (p, 4, 1:46.4m; $1,258,027) and Warrawee Ubeaut (p, 2, 1:48.3m; $1,849,213).

Tonight (Aug. 3), Great Memories will be recognized by the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame as its lone standardbred equine inductee for 2021. Her breeder, Jim Bullock of Erin, ON, owns and operates Glengate Farms and will also be inducted for his work as an industry builder. The mare's 2021 yearling, Warrawee Youknow, is a full sister to Warrawee Ubeaut and brought $120,000 last year at Harrisburg. Her 2022 yearling is another full sister, named Warrawee Jeannie.

"It's bred into them," said Henry, remarking on the qualities of Great Memories' offspring. Warrawee Vital "comes from a high-speed family and he has the ability. He's a Captaintreacherous, which is a great horse, and he has a great gait. He's just a good horse."

New Image Media
Warrawee Vital (Trevor Henry) winning at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Warrawee Vital needs nothing special, equipment-wise or from his driver: “He just wears the normal... nothing flashy... He’s the type of horse, once he makes front, you just let him roll along. You don’t really take much hold of him or anything. You just let him do his thing. He’s got a great set of lungs, and he just goes so far. He doesn’t get tired, he just keeps going.”

The two have been teaming up since January 2020, when Warrawee Vital started the year with a three-race win streak at Mohawk.

“It was in a series [Snowshoe]. Louis [Philippe Roy] had to book off him for another horse, and I just happened to pick up the drive. He was starting racing, and some of those horses, it takes them a few starts to find their way. Once he found what he was supposed to do, he hasn’t stopped.” They finished second in the Snowshoe Series final. Two and a half years later, Henry summed up the partnership: “He’s a professional. He knows what to do.”

COVID restrictions prevented the Ontario-based driver from traveling south with Warrawee Vital in 2021.

“I was supposed to go drive him for the [Breeders Crown] elimination... Something happened with my [COVID] tests and I couldn’t fly out, so then James [MacDonald] drove him, and I drove him in the final” at The Meadowlands, in which they finished seventh.

Now that Bulldog Hanover’s 1:45.4m world record has become the new 1:49.1 (Niatross’ historic Lexington time trial mark, the first sub-1:50 mile), speed must be put into context. Henry praised Warrawee Vital’s consistency – and that of the track where the stallion went undefeated in July.

“I think [speed] means something for a horse like him that races week-in and week-out. I know these other horses, they go big trips now and again. Not taking anything away from any of them, but this horse races every week and, you know, I think Mohawk’s a more legit mile than The Meadowlands... For instance, I saw horses come up from The Meadowlands [on July 28], 2-year-olds that were going in :50, and they never went even close to that [at Mohawk]... Until I see those horses come up here and go that fast... then I’ll believe it.”

Henry said he can see Mohawk’s track and Canadian record falling in the near future.

“I think so, if everything’s right,” he said. “You’ve gotta have the right temperature... no wind and all that, and that’s tough at Mohawk, because there’s usually a wind. But if it’s a nice, still night, I’m sure somebody will do it. There’s usually a little breeze in the stretch, like even the other [1:47.2s] night. You wouldn’t think there is, but you can feel the wind in the stretch.”

He told HRU he had never driven a faster race than Warrawee Vital’s July 23 mile... until July 30. But it’s unsurprising to Henry.

Bred by Warrawee Farm of Rockwood, ON, the pacer “has got all the tools” for success. “He’d be 16’2” [hands high] or something like that. Tall horse. This horse I would say is a little leaner, taller than Bulldog [Hanover].”

Some might argue that without big names like Jimmy Freight, sidelined by injury, Woodbine Mohawk Park’s top class is not as tough lately. “It’s maybe not as tough, but they’re all still pretty nice horses,” said Henry. “They race week-in and week-out. They’re like warriors. They’re pretty tough horses.” And the current toughest of them all is now the fastest, Warrawee Vital. “I like the horse and Rob and Yolanda [Fellows], they’re great people. They deserve that horse.”

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Driver James Gould on the value of listening

by Chris Lomon

Listening is a big part of James Gould's life.

The first order of business when the 19-year-old horseman gets behind the wheel for the 3 ½ hour drive from Humboldt, IA, to Columbus, MN, is to cue up the Sirius XM radio.

"Really, the only thing I do on these trips is listen to music," said Gould. "I listen to just about everything, from country all the way to rap. I'm kind of all over the place when it comes to what I enjoy listening to."

In his fourth year driving standardbreds, Gould, who had one second from four starts in his abbreviated rookie campaign in 2019, is navigating his racing role armed with a blue-collar work ethic and deep passion for the horses and the sport itself.

"It's a blast. I love it. I started going to college and I didn't really like balancing the eight horses I had, so I dropped out. But I'm following my dream. This is what I've wanted to do ever since I was a little kid. My grandfather got into horses when he was 40, and then my mom fell in love with it. She started training since she was a teenager. I grew up around the barn and fell in love with the horses right away. I think I was about 10 or 11 when I really started jogging the horses, and I knew that's what I wanted to do."

His colors are an homage to his family racing bloodlines, with his own twist.

"My colors are mostly black, with blue stripes and I have a little white in there too. The blue is something my uncle and grandfather have, so that color has been with me forever. I wanted to switch things up a bit, so that's what I came up with."

So far, the look has served him well.

After six wins in 2020, and nine last year, Gould is getting more opportunities to drive in 2022.

And he's taking full advantage of it.

In between the Iowa fair scene and competing at Running Aces, Gould is on track to eclipse personal-best marks across the board.

Travel is not an issue. Neither is getting too anxious before the races.

"I try to stay focused and relaxed, and not get myself too worked up when I'm on my way to the racetrack. I try to keep myself as calm as possible before we head out to the racetrack. Once I'm out there, I just stay in the moment. I've been driving a lot more the past couple years, competing at the fairs in Iowa, so I've become very dialed-in when I drive. Of course, you are nervous when you first start out, but the more you drive and the more experience you get, you're better able to just live in the moment."

There have been obstacles to overcome along the way, mostly, in the early times of his driving life.

"When I was younger, the biggest challenge was just getting started and having the confidence to compete with the more veteran guys."

But there have also been highlights to speak of.

One of them comes in the form of Lil Char, a 3-year-old pacing daughter of In Over My Head—Major Philly. The bay was bred by Lesa Peters of Grinnell, IA.

The first time the two were paired together, on June 27, 2021, they made a trip to the winner's circle at What Cheer, the Iowa half-mile oval in the city of the same name.

Harness Racing Update on Twitter

@HARNESSUPDATE

"We won a memorial race at one of the fairs here. I co-own her with my mom and my brother Justin. She's one of the best horses I've ever driven. Last year, she was pretty strong, and this year, she has a win and four seconds from five starts."

Lil Char also has a big presence around the barn.

"She's a really nice horse and I've been able to get along really well with her. She's a loving horse. She has quite the personality. In the stall, if you don't give her attention, she'll throw her head and rattle around until you come over to see her."

And, in typical fashion, Gould always listens.

He regards that as one of his best qualities.

"I listen to the horse, the trainers and the owners. I will do whatever is best to get the top result."

Which also means putting in some serious miles around his home state and back and forth to Minnesota.

Those sometimes seven-hour round trips are well worth the mileage, offered Gould.

"Short term, I want to keep coming up to Running Aces and pick up as many drives as I can. I'm willing to drive any horse, just to get the experience. Down in Iowa, I love racing there. I'll probably keep driving in the fairs on the weekends, and hopefully drive in every race. This year, I've been asked to drive a lot more, but I'm still looking to get more drives. Last week,

I made it out twice, Tuesday and Thursday. I do my best to get out there. It's a nice, big track."

When he's not on the road or in the race bike, Gould relishes any chance to hang out with his friends, especially during the summers.

He's also an avid gamer, opting for hoops as his video game of choice.

"I'm still young, so I like to play X-box as much as I can. I like to play a lot of NBA 2023. I'm pretty good at that."

When he's not throwing down one-handed jams or dishing out highlight-worthy assists, Gould is constantly studying his real-life sport, eager to add more drives and more wins to his record.

The ultimate formula for his winning game plan will continue to be built upon his ability to listen to those who are key to his success.

It's an approach that should give him plenty to talk about.

"I just want to keep my ears open and have an open mind. I think it's really important to listen to people and to the horses. There is a lot you can learn from that. It's been a very important part of my development and I'm sure it always will be."

Sounds Good proves best in Battle of Waterloo; Big Big Plans powers in Battle of the Belles

by Ray Cotolo for Grand River Raceway

Team McNair added to their Grand River Raceway resume on Monday afternoon (Aug. 1) when their Bettors Delight gelding Sounds Good responded to all pressure to score a 1:55.1 victory in the $204,000 Battle of Waterloo final presented by Winbak Farm.

Off the 8-5 favorite, Sounds Good grabbed the lead while Santana Hanover parked to his outside passing a :27.2 first quarter. Santana Hanover stayed at the throat of the pacesetter while the tempo slowed by a :57.2 half and accelerated in tandem in the drive up the backside to three-quarters in 1:27.2. Sounds Good's stablemate The Moment Arose tipped three wide coming to the final turn, but heading for home the field separated into two.

Santana Hanover, a 49-1 shot, kept digging into Sounds Good straightening for home as the pair scooted clear of the competition. Yet once driver Doug McNair pulled the plugs on Sounds Good, the Gregg McNair trainee responded and edged away from Santana Hanover to hit the finish a length better. Bettor Bea Terror finished third and Moment Is Here checked in fourth.

"There was a bit of a panic mode around the first turn," driver Doug McNair said after the race. "I just didn't know where everybody was going to be situated. I wanted to do the give and go with Austin [Sorrie], but I noticed there was a horse on his back. Kudos to him for costriding and finishing second. In a race like that, its tough to sit along out there nice and patiently.

"It's good to team up with Doug," trainer and father Gregg McNair said after the race. "It's a great race to win; it's a hard race to win. That colt all winter, he didn't really like to cut the miles. So I was a little concerned over that, but he was like that last week and raced good."

For Doug and Gregg, this is their fifth victory in the Battle of Waterloo, which makes Doug the winningest driver in the race and brings Gregg one win closer to Carl Jamieson's record six victories in the Battle.

Sounds Good earned his second victory from four outings and added to his account now worth $121,656. Michael and Sam Sergi own the gelding who paid $5.20 to win.

Glenboro got a jump on the competition as Big Big Plans raced mired in traffic. But once daylight opened, Big Big Plans accelerated and spun for home to collar the 25-1 shot in the final strides of the $155,000 Battle of the Belles.

Big Big Plans (Trevor Henry) won the $155,000 Battle of the Belles in 1:56.4.

Driver Trevor Henry barreled Big Big Plans from post 5 to the pylons entering the first turn with Brynley Seelster securing the pocket. Shake It Twice, outsprinted from the pylon post to the first turn, landed third but quickly popped off the pegs and to the lead by a :27.2 first quarter.

Once on the lead, Shake It Twice slowed the tempo, which bunched the field passing a :56.3 half and prompted Blue Gamber to commit to a first-over push. Her stablemate Glenboro tracked that move but flipped three wide under a fierce drive to overpower Shake It Twice through three-quarters in 1:27.1. The pacesetter folded from the pressure off the final turn and Glenboro turned for home on the engine, though Big Big Plans came revving to her outside within a matter of strides and put away Glenboro coming to the finish of a 1:56.4 mile to win by a half length. Brynley Seelster finished third and Shake It Twice held fourth.

"They kind of had me pinned down in there," Henry said after the race, "and I had to wait until I had a little room. Once I got room, I was just hoping I had enough time to make it up. But she raced awesome. The only thing that saved me [was] I didn't use mine hard; I had to use her just a bit to leave. She is better off a helmet, but you just never know what's going to happen [on a half-mile track]. It all just worked out in the end."

Big Big Plans now has four wins in a row from five outings and has now accrued $186,620 for owners Robert McIntosh Stables Inc., Mardon Stables and Dave Boyle. Bob McIntosh trains the daughter of All Bets Off who returned $4.30 to win.

The Industry Day card, which featured 11 races, drew $440,785 in wagering handle, up from 2021's figure of $371,125.

Easy for Etonnant in Belgium

by Thomas Hedlund

Richard Westerink's Elitloppet winner Etonnant (Timoko) went to Belgium and the $153,000 Grand Prix de Wallonie on Sunday (July 31) afternoon and the trip north was successful.

Etonnant, driven by Anthony Barrier, hit the lead at an early stage of the 1.4 miles long race in Mons and behind the leader Vivid Wise As was looking for racing room as locked in. Vivid Wise As never got his chance to challenge Etonnant, who easily sprinted to safe win in mile rate 1:56.4.

Vivid Wise As followed as runner up and Cicero Noa was third.

Etonnant and his trainer Richard Westerink can look back at a very successful season, containing wins in Criterium de Vitesse, Elitloppet and Prix des Ducs de Normandie.

TOUGH PACE DIDN'T STOP HOHNECK

Five-year-old Hohneck (Royal Dream) continues to impress on French soil and in Saturday's (July 30) $123,000 Prix de Washington mile race at Enghien in Paris, the Philippe Allaire trained trotter cruised to another success for driver Francois Lagadeuc. Hohneck opened quickly for the lead, but Lagadeuc opted to let challenger Galius hit the lead during the first quarter. Hohneck attacked for the lead halfway into the race and in front, he was unstoppable in 1:52.

Hohneck possesses qualities that will push his earnings to higher levels than where he's at today and this was his second mile race win in a row in France.

Galius held to second place ahead of Italian bre Bleff Dipa.

ANOTHER BIG WIN FOR GOCCIADORO

Alessandro Gocciadoro is outstanding as a trainer in his home country Italy, at least when it comes to races with group-status. On Sunday (July 31) night in Taranto, Gocciadoro-trained Vaprio (Adrian Chip) was served a perfect second over trip by Rene Legati and the driver played it cool when attacks were made from behind at the back stretch. Legati waited with his attack until the last turn and at that point, the horses in front was running out of power, so Vaprio could easily disarm his opponents as Legati sent his drive three wide in the turn. Usain Töll finished strongly as runner up behind the winner Vaprio and mile rate over 1,600 meter was 1:56.

First timer and freshman star win Industry Day Gold action at Grand River Raceway

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

Sophomore pacing fillies made their way to Grand River Raceway on Monday (Aug. 1) for the Industry Day festivities, competing in Ontario Sires Stakes Gold action. The pair of $100,400 divisions produced a first time Gold winner, and a return to the winner's circle for a freshman superstar.

I Love Ongait started the OSS action off with a bang in race three. Leaving from post three, the Sunshine Beach filly was quicker than fellow fast leaver Big Bettor Hanover (Big Jim) and led the field to a blazing first panel of :26.4.

The Dr. Ian Moore trainee was out front the rest of the way. Her biggest challenge came from a first-up Goudawon, who made a move as the field rounded the far turn, but I Love Ongait held her off to win for the second time in three starts.

"She gets around a half really good," said Dr. Moore. "She's trained on a half for the last two years, and I thought we would give her a shot here, and if she drew good, she should do well. We drew well and were able to get to the front and control the race, just the way we drew it up. So, we were very pleased."

Her early speed was utilized by Louis-Philippe Roy who returned to the race bike for the first time since the SBOA Final where she was an impressive second.

"She doesn't like to spend time on the end," said Roy. "She's more of a catch me if you can. That's kind of why I thought she would suit a half mile. Everyone has to go around you in the last turn, and that's a short stretch."

I Love Ongait now has three career wins, and $230,700 in earnings for owners Let It Ride Stables Inc. (Boca Raton, FL), Bottom Line Racing LLC. (Boca Raton, FL), and Mac Nichol (Burlington, Ont.).

Bayama Farms homebred Delight Bayama closed in :28.4 to finish second in her Gold debut. Sylvain Filion piloted the Bettors Delight filly for trainer Jean Tournigy.

Goudawon fell to third after her attempt to overtake the leader, moving the Betterthancheddar filly's 2022 record to 5-0-4 from 12 starts. The Murray Brethour trainee went over $160,000 in career earnings for owners Brenda, Mark, and Anthony Lane.

Tiffany Chantel Photography

I Love Ongait (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning her OSS Gold test for sophomore pacing fillies on Monday at Grand River Raceway.

The second Gold division was two races later in the fifth, and Silver Label picked up her first OSS win of 2022, after winning three Golds, and a Grassroots division as a freshman.

Doug McNair was in the race bike with regular driver James MacDonald sidelined with an injury. McNair blasted the odds-on favorite to the front from post three, and set fractions of :28.1, :57.3, and 1:26.

Speaker Nancy made a bold first-up move all the way from fifth to right beside Silver Label as they rounded the final turn, but wasn't able to complete the upset win, and McNair urged the Nick Gallucci trainee to a final quarter of :27.3 for the win.

"On a half-mile track you want to get to the lead, and she's always had gate speed, so I was pretty confident she would be able to get to a good spot," said Gallucci. "The lead at Grand River seems to work out well, so I was happy that we made it there. Then after that she just kind of did her thing."

The Millar Farms homebred moved over the $500,000 mark with her ninth career victory, and third in 2022.

"It's been a bit of a long wait to get her back to the winner's circle," said Gallucci. "But we were hoping for a good effort today and she pulled through for us."

Speaker Nancy's runner-up was her best career result in the OSS, improving on a pair of Grassroots runner-ups as a freshman, and sixth and fourth place finishes at the Gold level this season.

Trevor Henry was in the race bike for trainer Shayne Barrington. The result pushed her over $133,000 in earnings for owners Jamie Copley (Kenmore, ON), and Ottawabob Racing Stable (Ottawa, ON).

Got The Gold finished third, with Jody Jamieson driving the Dr. Ian Moore trainee. After just one start at two, the Bettors Delight filly has a record of 4-4-2 this season, hitting the board in all ten starts as a sophomore.

Racing Rampage makes it two straight in the Ohio Sires Stakes

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

When the bright lights of the Ohio Sires Stakes are shining, Racing Rampage is at his best. The freshman colt pacer made it two-in-row in OHSS action Saturday night (July 30) at MGM Northfield Park, winning the second of two $55,000 divisions.

At the start, Jason Thompson took Burnout to the lead covering the first quarter in :26.3 and the half in :55.1.

Aaron Merriman sat third with the 4-5 favorite Raging Rampage before making his move just past the half-mile mark. Merriman pulled the Racing Hill gelding and charged up the back stretch pulling even with the leader entering the final turn.

As the two turned for home, Racing Rampage grabbed the lead and drew away to win by three-lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:51.2. Darren Dowler trains and co-owns Raging Rampage with Lawrence Bettler.

Racing Rampage has won two of three starts this year and has earned $56,440.

Burnout held on for second, while The Real Way finished third.

In the other division, Rockmelikeyameanit was an easy winner. Billy Davis Jr. raced the son of McArdle to the front and never looked back winning by two lengths in 1:52.3. Rockmelikeyameanit cut fractions of :27.3, :56.2, and 1:24 on the way to the victory for trainer Christi Noble.

Boardwalk Jack finished second with Dragon Attack third.

The win was Rockmelikeyameanit's first of the year in three starts and raised his earnings to $78,750. Rockmelikeyameanit is owned by Dennis Owens, Norman Rae Racing, and James Morris.

Ohio Sires Stakes action resumes Aug. 13 at MGM Northfield Park with the third leg for sophomore colt trotters.

Two-year-old trotting colts square off in ISS action at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Emily Gaskin / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Two-year-old trotting colts and geldings took center stage in front of a packed house at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Saturday (July 30) with two $67,000 Indiana Sires Stakes divisions on the evening's card. Saturday's live racing card wrapped up a busy week of stakes action and also marked the third annual Empire of Hope event at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

After scoring his maiden-breaking victory in his last start, Jailhouse Dance continued his winning ways, this time in the first Indiana Sires Stakes division. Driven by Michael Oosting, Jailhouse Dance was eased off the gate and settled along the rail in sixth. Ponda Jet and Homer Hochstetler set middle fractions of :28 and :57.4 while the rest of the field followed in line.

As the field reached the three-quarters in 1:27.1, Ponda Jet was still on top but the stage was set for an all-out calvary charge to the wire. Utilizing a :27.1 closing kick, Jailhouse Dance was widest and quickest of all and got up in the final strides of the mile to stop the timer in 1:55.1. The pocket-sitting Texsong Soprano finished second while Ponda Jet held on for third. Jailhouse Dance returned $8.00 to his backers at the betting windows.

Trained by Ken Rucker, the gelded son of Dover Dan—Jailhouse Diva scored his second win in four lifetime starts and established a new lifetime mark in the process. Jailhouse Dance is owned in partnership by Kenneth Rucker, Rock & Roll Stable Inc., Michael Shan.

In the second division, Bourbon Courage and Trace Tetrack made their game winning move down the backside and never looked back. Stopping the timer in 1:56.3, Bourbon Courage was a near three length winner over Talent Scout and Doug Rideout. The 1:56.3 victory marked the first career victory for the Erv Miller trainee.

Bourbon Courage is a half-brother to the 2021 Hambletonian winning Captain Corey. The son of You Know You Do—Luv U All now sports a lifetime bankroll of $38,890 and is owned by Bowie Racing, D&M Trading and Anthony Lombardi. Bourbon

Saturday's live racing card wrapped up a week's worth of stakes action in the Hoosier State. Saturday also marked a very successful Empire of Hope event with over $31,000 was raised. SIRES STAKES REPORT

Kierkegaard K and Wild Bill Kelso Score in NYSS at Monticello

by Kimberly Winston

Two-year-old trotting colts were center stage on Monday (Aug. 1) at Monticello Raceway, with over $140,000 in purses up for grabs. In the first heat of New York Sire Stakes action, racing for a purse of $53,500, Kierkegaard K led from start to finish to score in 1:58.3. Starting from Post Position 3, the Ake Svanstedt trainee was in complete control the entire mile. He had a four-length lead at the half, and it remained unchanged at the finish. Jax Spratt (Wally Hennessey) benefitted from a perfect trip to garner the place spot, followed by Unique Style (Mark McDonald). It was his first lifetime win for the son of Chapter Seven. He is owned by Knutsson Trotting Inc, of Delray Beach, Florida.

The second heat, worth $54,500, featured the unbeaten The Gruffalo, who was the betting favorite off his two-race NYSS win streak. After the gate left, it saw three horses break stride by the time they hit the first turn. Among them was The Gruffalo. Going into the first turn, Wally Hennessey had breakers to the front of him and to the inside, yet his mount kept his composure and stayed on gate and cut the mile. Taking advantage of the turmoil was Wild Bill Kelso, who rushed to get the lead first over at the 1/4 pole in :30.1, with Barney Goldstein sitting in the garden spot. Ake Svanstedt, driving Cecil Hanover, was the first to pull approaching the half. As the pack hit the 3/4 mile maker in 1:29.4, Cecil Hanover took a shot at the leader but was unable to make up any ground, with Wild Bill Kelso tripping the timer in 1:59.1. Barney Goldstein (Brett Crawford) mounted a strong challenge but came up a long neck short. Finishing third was Kilgore S (Brian Sears). The high stepping son of Crazy Wow is owned by the Runthetable Stable of Montvale, NJ and is trained by Jim Campbell. This win was his second of the season after his other win in NYSS company at Buffalo.

In Excelsior A class, racing for a purse of $15,000, Jim Devauz scored aboard the pocket-sitting City Of Hope (Mets Hall) in 1:59.1 for trainer David Dewhurst, overtaking Daleys Rep (Dan Daley) at the wire. A You Got It won in 2:01 for trainer Marcus Melander. The son on Chapter Seven is owned by Steve L. Heimbecker of Waterloo, ON.

In the lone Excelsior B race, Crazy Fool (Crazy Wow) won in 1:59.3 for owner-trainer-driver Claude Hukabone Jr. in a wire-to-wire performance. Sires Crazy Wow and Chapter Seven each had a pair of winners on the card.

Sire Stakes action returns to Monticello Raceway on Monday (Aug. 8) with 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Barrieau, Campbell advance to National Driving Championship

Parading a trio of winners on Saturday evening (July 30) in the Atlantic Regional Driving Championship, Gilles Barrieau landed on top at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park and will compete later in the year for his chance to represent Canada in the 2023 World Driving Championship in Italy.

Barrieau finished the night out with 64 points to win the eight-driver competition and advance to the National Driving Championship on Nov. 24 at Century Mile in Edmonton, AB. The Stratford driver won with The Time To Win (1:56.3) for trainer Ron Matheson, Ironside Seelster (1:56.4) from the Duane MacEachern barn and Elm Grove Mistress (1:54.4) in an eight-length romp for trainer Jennifer Doyle.

Marc Campbell made two trips to the winner's circle in the competition and was just one point back at 63 to also advance to the National Driving Championship. Campbell won with Good Eye Hawkeye (1:55) from the Kyle Wilkie stable and Best To Hurst (1:55.1) for Neil Bambrick. Campbell and Barrieau were also the two to advance from the Atlantic Regional in 2008 and head to the 2009 National Driving Championship at Fraser Downs in B.C.

Corey MacPherson won two races of the Atlantic Regional on Saturday with Sports Royalty (1:55.4) for Wendy MacRae and JJ Xavier (1:56.1) with Dave Kelly Sr., handling the training duties in the stead of the late Earl Smith who passed away earlier in the week. MacPherson was close back in third place with 62 points. In an incredibly fitting bit of fate, JJ Xavier's Saturday race was the final start for a horse out of the late Smith's former stable and went out a winner before the son of Tobago Cays goes into the care of trainer Barrieau.

Paul Langille won the opening dash of the competition and was fourth overall with 56 points, with Todd Trites fifth with 45 points, Mark Pezzarello sixth at 42 points, Jason Hughes seventh 31 points and Redmond Doucet Jr., eighth at 24 points.

Barrieau capped off the night winning the preferred pace finale with Gold Cup and Saucer hopeful Island Beach Boy in 1:53.2 from his own stable for owners Ian Smith and Arnold Hagen.

Campbell and his trainee Dreamfair Zenfire captured the Fillies and Mares preferred pace in 1:54.2 for owners Ryan and Everett MacLeod of Souris.

Akrotiri and Natasha Day won the Female Driving Harness The Hope Dash of the night in a new lifetime best of 1:57.1 for trainer Kenny Arsenault and owner David Kent of North Rustico.

Aaron Byron records 2,000th career win

Harness driver Aaron Byron notched his 2,000th career win charging late with Elm Grove Maddy (Stonebridge Terror) on Saturday (July 30) at Tioga Downs.

Cheers For Chips (Corey Braden) laid down all the early fractions (:27.2, :56.2, 1:25). As they made the turn for home Paloma Ruiz (Jacob Cutting) had a short lead but then Elm Grove Maddy came flying with second place finisher Hypnotic Racer (Wally Hennessey) in deep Stretch. Elm Grove Maddy ($15.80) gave one last lunge and gave Byron win number 2,000.

Moonshine Kisses equals Plainridge track record

Moonshine Kisses made his first 2022 Plainridge Park start a memorable one after scorching the oval in 1:49.3 to tie the track record for older pacing horses in the $20,000 open pace on Monday afternoon (Aug. 1).

Moonshine Kisses (Jay Randall) led the field to the quarter in :26.2 before yielding the front to Points North (Brett Beckwith) before the half. After passing that station in :54.2, Hespoisedtopounce A (Drew Monti) pulled first-over from third and pushed the pace even more to three-quarters in 1:21.4. Around the last turn Hespoisedtopounce A tired, leaving a clear lane for the pocket-sitting Moonshine Kisses to pull at the top of the stretch. Once out and rolling, Moonshine Kisses swelled up and barrelled to the wire on top by 4-¾ lengths in 1:49.3.

Besides tying Givenupdreaming's track record of 1:49.3 for aged pacing horses set in 2016, Moonshine Kisses also gave himself a new lifetime mark on the strength of his performance.

It was the 30th career win for Moonshine Kisses ($5.40) and it pushed his lifetime earnings to $309,169 for owner Kellogg Racing Stables. Jackie Greene trains the record setter.

Plainridge Park cancels racing Thursday

Due to the high temperatures predicted for Thursday afternoon (Aug. 4), Plainridge Park and the Harness Horseman's Association of New England have agreed to cancel Thursday's card prior to today's draw for that day. This allows the track to consolidate the Friday (Aug. 5) card with classes originally scheduled for Thursday and offer a full 12-race card on Friday.

The draw for Friday (Aug. 5) will be held on Tuesday (Aug. 2) with the box closing at 9 a.m.
