Cuatro De Julio has dream team in his corner

Marie Ortolan Bar, and her Hambletonian contender Cuatro De Julio.

For trainer Marie Ortolan Bar, teamwork makes the dream work when it comes to Hambletonian contender Cuatro De Julio.

"Old experience and young experience can make a magic thing," said Ortolan Bar.

In addition to Ortolan Bar, Team Cuatro includes the incomparable Jean Pierre Dubois, Louis Baudron and, of course, Lucas Wallin.

Julio's driver for 2021, but because of COVID-19 restrictions, was unable to return to the U.S. from France as expected.

Lucas Wallin was asked to join the team because Ortolan Bar saw so many positive qualities in him.

"The best for us is a guy that trains and drives, because when you train them, you know them," said Ortolan Bar. "He has a good soul and he's smart and passionate and he knows what he's talking about. Lucas has a lot of talent and my prediction is we will see him win a Hambletonian in the next couple of years [with one of his own]."

Wallin moved to the U.S. from Sweden seven years ago, and after working for Ake Svanstedt for three years, has been on his own for the last four.

like him, so I'm very thankful."

There was a brief question mark as to who would drive Cuatro De Julio in the Hambletonian final, since Baudron is expected to arrive in the States on Thursday. But after a conversation between Baudron and Wallin on Monday morning, Wallin will keep the drive.

"Louis will try to come, but he decided that Lucas knows the horse now and it is better to let Lucas drive," said Ortolan Bar.

Wallin has previously trained three Oaks starters, but this is his first time in the Hambletonian.

"I'm super happy," said Wallin. "Of course, we could be a little bit happier after the draw, but it is what it is. We have a good enough horse so we're going into the race very confident."

Even though post 10 is not the best starting point for the Hambletonian, Team Cuatro is happy with how well their son of Hambletonian champion Trixton raced in his elimination, finishing second wearing brand-new shoes.

Wallin had suggested they try Swedish Mushroom Shoes and Ortolan Bar and Dubois thought it was a good idea.

"When I tried the horse with these shoes, he was not the same," said Ortolan Bar. "I don't recognize my horse. He took the lines and he wanted to go."

Dubois reminded Ortolan Bar that Cuatro's mother, Clarabelle, a daughter of Ready Cash, wore the same shoes and if they did not use them she would not trot.

"Mushroom shoes are very good for the coffin joints but they are not good for the ankle," said Ortolan Bar. "You can fix one problem but develop another one, so we have to remove the shoes after the Hambletonian."

From the time Cuatro De Julio was a few months old, Ortolan Bar knew he was different and special. When he was only nine months old, she told her friends that Cuatro would be her Hambletonian horse.

One of the people who remembers her saying it is Hall of Famer Mike Lachance. Dubois and Lachance are good friends, so Lachance has known Ortolan Bar for quite a while now.

"She told me when he was a baby," said Lachance. "She used to call me every month or two telling me how good he was doing. I used to tell her keep saying it [about the Hambletonian] but not to too many people, and she would laugh. It's just unbelievable. I'm so happy for her. I'll be cheering for her the whole time because I know how much it means for her."

Ortolan Bar believes that Cuatro De Julio is a gift from God and that he came into her life to show her that faith is important. She runs Dubois' breeding farm in Kentucky, but without Cuatro she would not have a current driver's or trainer's license.

For over a decade, Ortolan Bar has dealt with more than her fair share of health issues, including a rare congenital heart defect known as Ebstein's anomaly, as well as blood clots, cancer and two near-death and out-of-body experiences.

To see her work with Cuatro De Julio, you could not tell the toll that her life-long maladies have taken on her, but that is why she surrounds herself with people who can help her when she needs it.

Francois Jamier, Al and Lee Eferstein and Judy Magie have also played a part in getting Cuatro De Julio to this moment. Ake and Sarah Svanstedt have also been very accommodating at Legend Farm.

"I don't train this horse alone," said Ortolan Bar. "I have a lot of people around me. I'm just the one that can find the people that can be smart enough to make it work. That can make it possible. All things are possible with faith."

From the Kentucky fairs to the Hambletonian is already quite a story. On Saturday, we will find out how this chapter ends.

Svanstedt duo favored in $1 million Hambletonian

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Elimination winners Captain Corey and Delayed Hanover will start Saturday's (Aug. 7) $1 million Hambletonian Stakes final for 3-year-old trotters from posts four and one, respectively, at the Meadowlands Racetrack.

Captain Corey was made the 3-1 morning-line favorite. Delayed Hanover is the 7-2 second choice.

The elimination winners were guaranteed posts within positions one through five. The remaining eight horses in the field received their post in an open draw following the draw for the elimination winners.

The Hambletonian and $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks for 3-year-old female trotters will air live from 5:30-6:30 p.m. (EDT) on CBS Sports Network. First-race post time on Hambletonian Day's stakes-filled card is noon.

Ake Svanstedt trains both Captain Corey and Delayed Hanover, as well as Hambletonian finalist Ambassador Hanover, who will start from post nine. Svanstedt won the 2017 Hambletonian with Perfect Spirit.

Captain Corey won his July 31 elimination by 1-1/2 lengths over Really Fast in 1:51.2. Svanstedt drove the colt, a son of Googoo Gaagaa—Luv U All bred by Carter Duer. He has won two of four races this year and seven of 11 in his career, with earnings of $415,333. He is owned by S R F Stable, Knutsson Trotting Inc., Midnight Sun Partners Inc., and Ake Svanstedt Inc.

Dave Landry

Ake Svanstedt.

"He was good," Svanstedt said. "We had a little problem with him this spring, but I think he was still growing a lot. I think that was his problem. He didn't have the same gait. He has a long stride, but he didn't have that. (Last Saturday) it was the old Corey again. Now, he has his long stride again. I think he can be even more sharp this week."

Delayed Hanover won his elimination by two lengths over Cuatro De Julio in 1:51.1. The son of Southwind Frank—Don't Wait Up has won three of five races this year and four of 12 lifetime, earning $259,318. He is owned by Mellby Gard Inc. and Ake Svanstedt Inc. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms.

In his start prior to the Hambletonian eliminations, Delayed Hanover finished second in a division of the Stanley Dancer Memorial. He was timed in 1:50.3.

"He was good (in the Dancer), and he was maybe even better in his elimination," Svanstedt said. "He is a very nice racehorse. He is good gaited and has a very good head. He is very serious when he gets behind the gate."

Really Fast is one of three Hambletonian finalists for trainer Nancy Takter. He will start from post seven and is 5-1 on the morning line. Really Fast, a son of Muscle Hill—Stubborn Belle, was unraced at age 2 and has won four of eight starts this year. He is owned by Brixton Medical Inc., Hatfield Stables, Marvin Katz, and Al Libfeld, who bred the colt.

The most recent unraced 2-year-old to win the Hambletonian was Tagliabue in 1995.

“(Really Fast) didn’t race at 2, so you’re trying to teach how to be a racehorse while you’re competing at the absolute highest level,” Takter said. “That’s not your ideal situation. He’s obviously a very nice horse, just to be able to make up all the ground that he’s made up from not racing last year. He seems to put it together when it counts. Maybe his pedigree shines through and he knows it’s a big deal that day.”

Dexter Dunn drove Delayed Hanover and Really Fast in their eliminations. Driver changes will be finalized by 11 a.m. today (Aug. 4).

“Obviously, it’s a tough decision for Dexter,” Takter said. “He doesn’t have much history with either one of the horses. The seven hole is a good spot, you know you’re going to get involved in the flow. I like my chances. I think I have a really good horse going in, and he’s getting better and better. So, it’s going to be up to Dex to make the right choice.”

Takter said Yannick Gingras would drive Really Fast if Dunn picked Delayed Hanover.

Her remaining finalists are Locatelli (post five, 15-1) and Spy Booth (post three, 15-1).

Venerate, the 2020 Dan Patch Award winner for best 2-year-old male trotter, will start the Hambletonian from post eight for trainer Julie Miller and is 8-1. Sonofamistery, the field’s fastest trotter with a mark of 1:50.2, will leave from post six for trainer Marcus Melander and is 4-1.

Following is the field for the $1 million Hambletonian final, with listed drivers and trainers.

Bella Bellini in 'Nifty' spot for Hambletonian Oaks

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

Trainer Nifty Norman didn't think he'd be in a spot like this.

His Bella Bellini is the 3-1 morning-line favorite leaving from post position five for Saturday's (Aug. 7) $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks for 3-year-old trotting fillies at The Meadowlands. In fact, Norman's pleasantly surprised Bella Bellini amounted to much of anything.

As a 2-year-old, the daughter of Bar Hopping—Bella Dolce had zero victories from seven starts. Hardly the type of beginning that would see a trainee blossom into the one of the horses to beat in the biggest race on the sophomore trotting filly calendar.

"Last year," said Norman, "she could never get comfortable on the turns. She never matured. But she showed some speed, and being a homebred, [owner] David [McDuffee] decided to keep her and give her a shot. Thank God he did.

"What could we have been hoping for after last year? It's the biggest turnaround I've seen with a horse I've had."

Bella Bellini started her 2021 season with a 15¼-length domination of her foes in a division of the Weiss at Pocono Downs to earn her first-ever trip to the winner's circle. And she's been outstanding in all nine starts since.

Entering Saturday's Oaks (post time, 5:42 p.m.), despite having been beaten in each of her last two outings, Bella Bellini was installed as the early favorite nonetheless, given her season's record of six wins and four seconds from 10 starts, which includes a lifetime-best 1:52.1 score at The Big M on July 3 in an open for 3-year-old fillies.

On July 16, 'Bella' was a fast-closing second to Yonkers Trot winner Johan Palema at The Big M in an overnight, while a week ago in her Oaks Elimination, she went parked for a little more than the final half-mile to come up just a half-length short of a super-game Lady Chaos.

"[Two starts back] was more of just a prep for last week when she was second to Johan Palema," said Norman. "We wanted to be conservative with her. Last week, I don't think Dexter [Dunn] gave her as good a drive as he's given her. I think had he made a quarter move [to the lead] or waited before out-speeding [Lady Chaos] in the stretch [the outcome might have been different]. Anyway, it just doesn't matter."

Since elim winners Lady Chaos and Awesome Trix got to draw for post positions one through five, Norman was a tad nervous at the prospect that his filly could have drawn a bad starting berth.

Ken Weingartner / USTA

Bella Bellini.

But the post-positions Gods were good to the 60-year-old Norman, who's won just under 300 races and earned just over $10 million over the last three years.

"I think [post five] is a really good spot," said Norman. "I don't think my filly was at her best last week. I think she'll be a lot better this week. I think it could be a real good race for us."

A LITTLE MORE: The $1 million Hambletonian, as well as the Hambletonian Oaks, will air live from 5:30-6:30 p.m. on CBS Sports Network. Post time for the first of 16 races on The Big M card is noon.

Toscano looks to complete Hambletonian-Oaks double

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Linda Toscano won the 2012 Hambletonian with Market Share and on Saturday (Aug. 7) will try to add the Hambletonian Oaks to her list of accomplishments. If she accomplishes the feat, it would be meaningful to Toscano on several levels.

The $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks is the filly-restricted companion race to Saturday's $1 million Hambletonian for 3-year-old trotters at The Meadowlands. Toscano had one of this past Saturday's two Oaks elimination winners, Lady Chaos.

"First of all, this is home," Toscano said about racing in the Oaks. "Second of all, when you're in that chosen group that has won the Hambletonian, it almost doesn't feel right if you don't try to at least get one in the Oaks.

"I started my career as a filly trainer, so this is one (race) I've always wanted. I love my fillies. I've always loved my fillies. I started out as a filly trainer because I couldn't afford the colts. Now, to be able to train one and hope maybe to get lucky is special."

Toscano has had one Hambletonian Oaks finalist in her career. Dream Child finished seventh in 2016.

Lady Chaos was the Breeders Crown champion at age 2 and has won eight of 19 career races for owners Richard Gutnick, Tom Pontone, Joseph Lozito Jr., and Enviro Stables. Prior to winning her Oaks elimination by a head over Bella Bellini, Lady Chaos had three second-place finishes and one third-place finish in her previous four starts.

"She has been the picture of consistency," Toscano said about the filly, a daughter of Cantab Hall—Strong Legacy who has earned $690,395 in her career. "She's shown up every week and given us a great effort every week.

"But we've been more bridesmaid than bride. That's very frustrating for a trainer. It's great that they're making money, but as a trainer you want the 'W' not the second. That's what we do it for."

Toscano made a bridle change for the Oaks elimination.

"She was on the lead and getting caught a couple times, and that was bothering me," Toscano said. "And then she would chase them home and always go the fastest last quarter, but we were kind of losing a little bit in the last turn. I had to figure out a way not to lose that length we had to make up again in the stretch. I've been fiddling with her bridle and ultimately decided to go with the blind (bridle) and it worked.

"She is an absolute pleasure to train," Toscano added. "Everyone should have one like her. She's beautifully gaited, she's got a nice temperament in the barn, she's just been a lovely filly right from day one."

Toscano is not the only Hambletonian-winning trainer with an Oaks finalist. Ake Svanstedt, who won the 2017 Hambletonian with Perfect Spirit, will send out Flawless Country in Saturday's Oaks while George Ducharme, who won the Hambletonian in 2013 with Royalty For Life, has Contested Hanover.

Dean Gillette

Nine trainers have won both the Hambletonian and Hambletonian Oaks in their careers.

Ducharme is starting his first Oaks finalist. Contested Hanover finished fourth in her elimination, only three-quarters of a length behind Lady Chaos.

"She's coming along good at the right time," Ducharme said. "I was happy with the way she raced in her elimination. She doesn't have a quick step, so not shaking loose until late sort of hurt her a little, but I was happy with how she was still going forward at the end. I think she should be much better this week."

It was 20 year ago today... that Scarlet Knight and Stefan Melander put Swedes on the moon

by Thomas Hedlund

It's highly unlikely that Swedish Hall Of Famer Stefan Melander is walking around today humming the introduction of The Beatles song "Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band," while he's doing what he likes the most at his farm outside of Enköping, Sweden. It's unlikely because Melander most likely doesn't even know that The Beatles created a song with that opening line, but exactly 20 years ago to this very day something very special happened in Melander's harness racing life.

If there was a World Harness Racing Hall Of Fame, Melander would surely take one of the first seats in that club because he breathes harness racing. Almost nothing else exists in his world and on Aug. 4, 2001, his deep-hearted devotion for the sport paid off as he entered the winner's circle at The Meadowlands after the Hambletonian final.

The love story of Stefan Melander and Scarlet Knight (Pine Chip—Ruby Crown) began in November 1999, in Harrisburg, PA when Melander got the last bid and paid $17,000 for the

Stefan Melander

Melander raised his arm in victory and posed for the photographers while winning the 2001 Hambletonian with Scarlet Knight.

Pine Chip son at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling sale. Melander had at that point recently started his and his partner Catarina Lundström's climb up the ladder in the industry in Sweden and Europe. The year before, in 1998, Melander trained and drove his first big classical stakes winner, Lucky Po (Quick Pay) in the biggest race for 3-year-olds in Sweden, the Kriteriet.

American harness racing had attracted Melander long before that. His connections with Håkan Wallner, Berndt Lindstedt and Sören Nordin had Melander making several trips overseas long before the Harrisburg sale in 1999. The big difference that year was that Melander spent his time as trainer, not a harness racing photographer, which was the case before he became a professional trainer in 1996.

A love affair with American trotters stirred something deep inside his head – a dream about finding the perfect horse that could conquer the world.

Scarlet Knight arrived in his new home country of Sweden after New Year's Eve in 1999. The colt was officially 2 when he took his first training steps at Melander's farm in Enköping in January of 2000. Seven months later, in August, 2000, Scarlet Knight qualified at Solvalla and made his career debut one month later.

In November, one year after he was purchased in Pennsylvania, Scarlet Knight claimed his first win and the impressive victory closed the book on his 2-year-old season.

A cold winter in Sweden followed and Scarlet Knight developed a lot during the period of tough training. Rumors started to be spread in Sweden that Melander had something special in his mind ahead of the spring season and in April, Scarlet Knight was ready for 3-year-old debut. Four wins in row at Solvalla, all in moderate mile rates over 1.3 miles didn't, at that point, indicate that racing fans in Sweden had seen a future Hambletonian winner at Solvalla, but Melander's belief in his horse increased with every victory.

Three weeks before the Hambletonian eliminations, Scarlet Knight claimed his biggest trophy so far as he won $150,000 Ulf Thoresen Memorial at Jarlsberg racetrack in Norway.

Decisions were made quickly after the race in Norway. Melander, who staked some of his American-bred horses purchased in Harrisburg, had to make up the perfect plan to trying to fulfill his big dream about a journey back to America with his trotter.

On July 28, 2001, Scarlet Knight stepped onto the oval at the Meadowlands as first choice in one of three eliminations for Hambletonian that year. The trip over the ocean had gone smoothly and Scarlet Knight was ready to battle some of the best 3-year-olds in the world. As it turned out, the Pine Chip son, bred in America and trained in Sweden proved to be competitive enough even with a moderate record mark of 1:58.2. Scarlet Knight looked like a king in New Jersey and his elimination told the fans that The Swede was serious business. The well-known horse photographer drove like any other pro at the Meadowlands. Scarlet Knight won in 1:54.1 and became the favorite for the Aug. 4 final.

And it was 20 years ago today... when Stefan Melander became "Sweden's man on the moon". After a first over trip with Banker Hall in the lead, Melander drove perfectly and Scarlet Knight left cover racing Pegasus Spur in last 1/16 of the race and claimed the win in 1:53.4.

Few believed that it would be possible, but Stefan Melander and Scarlet Knight did it. It was a tremendous feat and as years go by, it seems even more unlikely that it really happened that day in August, 2001.

Scarlet Knight joined his owner, trainer and driver Stefan Melander in the club of Nordic Hall Of Fame in 2019 (Melander was inducted 2014) and the 23-year-old colt is still living the good life on a farm not far from Melander's home in Sweden.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Trainer Alexandra Goldin missed her first win photo, but none since

by Chris Lomon

There will always be something, or more specifically, someone, missing from Alexandra Goldin's first win photo.

She had always hoped it would be a picture-perfect moment, the one where she would be seen beaming beside her winning standardbred, perhaps alongside some family and friends.

But that's not how the milestone victory came into focus. Not by a longshot.

Although the photo was a crystal-clear image, Goldin was a bit of a blur during and after the race.

As the field charged towards the wire at Freehold on the night of Feb. 26, 2016, the young trainer was putting in some serious footwork of her own, making a mad dash to catch a glimpse of Shasham, the horse she co-owned with her brother.

While Shasham, a grey pacing daughter of Threefold, succeeded on making it to the winner's circle, Goldin, who was working for top-tier trainer Chris Ryder at the time, wasn't quite so fortunate, missing out on the race and post-race festivities.

"We had one to qualify, and Chris told me it was at Freehold. It was my first time driving the truck and trailer, so I was already nervous. I was driving very slowly because I remember so many people going around me consistently. We did very well in our qualifier, and I rushed back to my car. The one spot people always get stuck at, that was the moment she crossed the wire. It was a close win. She has an underbite, like a parrot mouth, so we all joked that she won by a parrot mouth. But I didn't see the race. I was running as fast I could and I ended up just missing it. So, I wasn't even in my first win picture. But I'll always have a great story to share for my first win."

Thankfully, the native of Westfield, NJ hasn't missed out on any other notable moments in her career, and she certainly hasn't been absent from any win photos since then.

Vicki Wright

Holding the reins of a small stable – she currently has three horses under her tutelage – Goldin has found success despite having launched her career only five years ago.

The third generation horsewoman won nine races and recorded 22 top-three finishes from 83 starts in her 2015 rookie campaign.

In 2018, she notched a cherished victory when So Take That, a son of Camluck, sprung a 16-1 upset at The Meadowlands, giving Goldin her first win at the iconic racetrack.

"He also gave me my first driving win (she's been driving for nearly seven years) and we held the track record at Frederick Fair. I would say he was the main horse who launched my career. People started noticing me with So Take That because he was a claimer, he had some issues and I did right by him. He really came back and raced very well."

Fast forward to this year, and Goldin is on track to set career-best numbers in wins and purse earnings.

Highlights from 2021 include Cheyenne Ryan Lee, a 5-year-old son of Roll With Joe, who rolled to victory at Monticello on July 13. One night later, she sent out Drazzmatazz, an 8-year-old trotting son of RC Royalty, to his 25th career triumph, a 1.56 effort at Yonkers.

Goldin, who is hoping for more of those nights, prefers to look down the road rather than right in front of her when it comes to her personal goals.

"I think any trainer would say they want to win the Hambo or the Breeders Crown. I'd be lying if I said I didn't want to win one of those. Short term, I don't think you can really have a short-term goal in this sport. It's a lot of dedication and time, and success doesn't happen overnight. You have to really be dedicated and passionate about it. If I had to look at things in the short term, I would like to have more horses. I would like to have five. That way you could work with them individually and have time for each one, for whatever they need. I think five would be the ideal number."

When Goldin isn't at the racetrack, she can be found playing sports or hanging out with her two dogs, Buddy, a seven-month-old bull terrier, and PJ, a bull terrier / pit bull mix, who she rescued eight years ago.

On this day, Goldin is, of all things, painting her mother's bathroom.

Although it doesn't top her list of off-track pursuits, simply having time for personal time is something she cherishes.

"I enjoy hanging out with my friends, but even getting that opportunity is few and far between. There are a lot of sacrifices in this sport, but that comes with the territory."

Goldin has been somewhat of a road warrior of late, driving to various venues for weddings that had been delayed due to the pandemic.

And unlike that night five years go at Freehold, she's managed to be seen in photos, plenty of them, in fact.

"This year was the first year I can really remember making time to do things because COVID really put a damper on so much. Everybody that had their wedding planned before the pandemic and even now, they all seemed to happen at once, one right after the other. I'm thankful that I did go. I know people were really surprised to see me because I'm usually racing or can't find the time to get away. People will often ask me, 'Do you ever stop?' I tell them that there's no 'turn off button.'"

But that suits the young trainer just fine.

Working with the horses has and always be a genuine source of happiness for Goldin.

She's hopeful other up-and-coming trainers forge that same connection and that they are open to plotting out their own path to success.

"The business has changed immensely and it's hard to emulate the great trainers of the past. Try not to compare yourself to others but improve upon yourself."

As she works to build her resume and reputation, she'll also continue to draw upon some helpful words Ryder once shared with her.

"Chris always told me to never be afraid to try things, no matter what it is. We had a trotter that was really giving us a hard time. He asked me to get some hobbles and I thought it would be trotting hobbles. He said, 'No, no, no... go get the pacing hobbles.' I was a little confused at first. I put them on, criss-crossed them, and went out and did a mile. Next thing I know the horse is qualified and went on to win five straight races. So, after that, I really embraced that idea of trying something new or different, thinking outside the box. You never want to miss out on something because you weren't willing to try."

It's something Goldin is no doubt familiar with.

Favorites prevail in Industry Day battles

Betterhavemymoney won the Battle of Waterloo and Love That Smile took the Battle of the Belles at Grand River.

by Tony Elliott for Grand River Raceway

It was a picture perfect afternoon on Monday (Aug. 1) for the 31st annual Industry Day at Grand River Raceway. The 11-race card offered over $720,000 in purses and the dashes for the cash certainly did not disappoint the fantastic crowd on hand.

24th Annual Battle Of Waterloo

A stellar field of nine Ontario-sired 2-year-old colts and geldings lined up behind the gate to battle for the winner's share of over $250,000.

Betterhavemymoney lived up to his heavy favourite status by capturing the Battle Of Waterloo, just missing the track record by a fifth of a second in the process. Driver James MacDonald put the 2-year-old Betterthancheddar – Whosluckierthanme colt into play early, but faced a determined Erinwood Yves on the lead. The pair dropped the gloves to a :26.2 opening quarter before driver Jody Jamieson relinquished the lead to Betterhavemymoney. MacDonald grabbed a much-needed middle-half breather through fractions of :54.4 and 1:24, as he readied for a slugfest to wire with pocket sitter Erinwood Yves. Erinwood Yves popped the pocket and challenged the undefeated leader, but was unable to catch Betterhavemymoney in a time of 1:52.4. Century Inspector took third while Stews Watching finished fourth.

"There's no layups in this business. I knew I had the heavy favourite, but I thought if Jody [Jamieson and Erinwood Yves] got off the gate well he would be more than content to follow me, but he was going to make sure he made me pay the price," MacDonald said after the race. "Kudos to Gabby [Sasso] – she's got a good barn of horses and that horse raced terrific. I think the world of my horse, and he got stretched hard and I had to push him, and he was right there at the wire.

"I mean it's huge – any time you get a crack at some of these signature events, you've got to take advantage of them," MacDonald also said. "Nick [Gallucci] did a great job. He had the horse ready, and the horse just did it all. I'm really happy for everyone involved, and I'm happy to see a good crowd here today at Grand River. It's really awesome."

Betterhavemymoney is now 4-for-4 lifetime and has surpassed $235,000 in earnings for trainer Nick Gallucci and owners/breeder Millar Farms.

13th Annual Battle Of The Belles

Ontario-sired 2-year-old fillies showcased their talent in the 2021 edition of the Battle Of The Belles.

Love That Smile (Louis-Philippe Roy) winning the Battle of the Belles.

Big Bettor Hanover took the early lead from post position 2 with Warrawee Xpat and Cheryl's Shadow also leaving for position into the backstretch. After early action settled, Louis-Philippe Roy rightlined Love That Smile into a :27.3 first quarter and took over command near 3/8s of a mile. Roy marched Love That Smile to a :57.3 half. The outside flow lost ground on the pacesetter as Roy accelerated Love That Smile up the backstretch, reaching three quarters in 1:26. Love That Smile said catch me if you can around the final turn and kept rolling through the lane to win over a late-charging Big Bettor Hanover, with Warrawee Xpat finishing third and Cheryl's Shadow taking fourth.

"I don't think she has the gate speed yet," Roy said after the race on his decision to take back with Love That Smile. "Maybe she'll develop that asset, so just making the front off the gate wasn't an option. So then the other option was to make sure I wasn't going to get in trouble. I didn't really ask her. I just let her float; do her thing. I was just making sure nobody was going to come surprise her, but definitely she was feeling good. All the credit to Bourassa's team there."

"It's really exciting – I've raced here for a few years," Roy also said on winning the co-featured event on Industry Day. "I've seen either Jody [Jamieson] or Doug [McNair] winning these races often. I started racing on a half-mile like a lot of guys... it's a different type of racing and it's exciting to be successful at it."

The 2 year old Sportswriter—Smileallthewayhome filly has now won 3 of 5 starts lifetime and has banked just under $100,000.

A great crowd was on hand for the 31st annual Industry Day and fans were happy to be back on track for the raceway's signature day.

Total handle for this year's 11-race Industry Day card was $371,125, with over $38,000 wagered on track.

Voelz Delight equals track record on Industry Day

by Sandra Snyder / OSS publicity

Front end control was the name of the game at Grand River Raceway on Monday (Aug. 2) as the winners of both $101,400 3-year-old pacing filly Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series divisions and all five $21,000 Grassroots divisions controlled the tempo on their way to victory.

Taking top billing on the 31st annual Industry Day program was Voelz Delight who captured the first Gold Series division in a track-record-equalling 1:52.4, matching the record set by Neon Moon during the 2018 edition of the Elora, ON oval's signature event.

Starting from Post 3, driver Sylvain Filion fired the Bettors Delight daughter to the front and led the field of eight through fractions of :26.4; :54.1 and 1:22.4. Jody Jamieson and Warrawee Xpat mounted a late charge, but Voelz Delight sailed home a one length winner in the 1:52.4 clocking. Favorite Dabarndawgswatchin settled for third.

"Last week she had a bad week, the last Gold (July 23). Some kind of a virus was going through the barn and she wasn't 100 per cent, and she still raced real good, but I knew she would come back good today," said trainer Ben Baillargeon of the filly's third-place effort on July 23. "She warmed up good and I told Sylvain, 'If she gets to the front, you're the boss.' She had nothing to prove really to nobody. She's a true Gold horse, she proved herself last year and she proved herself this year again, some people, looks like they had doubts in her today, but now we just proved them wrong."

Baillargeon trains Voelz Delight for owner/breeder Richard Berthiaume of Pointe-Aux-Trembles, QC. The win was the filly's second in Gold Series action this season and her third lifetime. In seven sophomore starts the filly boasts a record of five wins and two thirds for earnings of $146,328.

Scarlett Hanover padded her lead atop the division standings with a 1:53 win in the second $101,400 Gold Series division. In rein to Ed Hensley, Scarlett Hanover rolled through fractions of :26.3, :55.2 and 1:23.3 and then held off favorite Western Wish in the stretch to record the one length victory. Best Head West completed the top three.

"She's got really good gate speed, so she uses that to her advantage, and today it seemed like the front end was holding up so it worked out good," said trainer Ashleigh Hensley of the 2020 Battle Of The Belles champion who is undefeated in four starts at Grand River Raceway. "It was nice to see a lot of people out there, and it was good day for it."

Hensley, of Dundas, ON, trains the Bettors Delight daughter for Burke Racing Stable LLC of Fredericktown, PA, Frank Baldachino of Harvey Cedars, NJ, J&T Silva-Purnell & Libby of Delray Beach, FL and Weaver Brusceemi LLC of Canonsburg, PA. Through five starts this season the 2020 division champion has two wins, both in Gold Series action, and one second for earnings of $127,390.

Three of the Grassroots winners, Beach Moment, Sweet Pink and Alumni Seelster, halted the Grand River Raceway tele-timer at 1:53.3.

Beach Moment kicked off the Industry Day program in the first race, laying down fractions of :27.1, :55.4 and 1:24.2 and then out-duelling La Petite Grise for a one-half length 1:53.3 win. Twin B Sunkissed finished third. Favorite JM Sportsfan finished sixth.

"She's a nice filly, great on the half-miles," said driver Bob McClure. "She raced good her last start (July 22), just got screwed up at the gate."

Blake MacIntosh of St. George, ON trains the Control The Moment filly for Hutt Racing Stable of Malvern, PA and Mortgage Boys Stable of Fayetteville, NY.

In the fourth division, Sweet Pink took command heading by the quarter-mile pole and pocket-sitting favorite Sports Duchess was never able to threaten as the Bettors Delight daughter sailed home to a two and one-quarter length win in 1:53.3. Sports Duchess settled for second and Share The Moment closed well for third.

James MacDonald engineered the win for trainer Nick Gallucci and owner/breeder Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON.

Alumni Seelster scored her 1:53.3 victory in the last $21,800 Grassroots division, holding off favorite Amini by three-quarters of a length in the stretch after carving out fractions of :26.3, :55 and 1:24.2. Ourlittlemiracle rounded out the top three.

"She raced great," said driver Doug McNair. "I was over the quarter and the half a lot faster than I needed to be, but she fought tough in the lane."

Dr. Ian Moore of Cambridge trains State Treasurer daughter Alumni Seelster for Paul MacDonald of Burlington, ON and Sally MacDonald of Souris, PEI.

McNair also captured the third Grassroots division with Docs Delight, who sailed along unchallenged to a 1:54.1 victory over Sports Check and favorite Jackieofalltrades.

"She got off the gate well and did everything right," said McNair. "She deserved to win last week (July 22) so it was nice to get it today."

Blair Burgess of Campbellville, ON trains Docs Delight for owner/breeder Dr. Andrew Roberts of Lexington, KY. The Betterthancheddar daughter finished second to Sweet Pink in the July 22 Grassroots Leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Favorite Shes Got It All captured the other Grassroots division with a 1:54.1 personal best for driver Trevor Henry of Arthur, trainer Rick Zeron of Oakville, ON and owner Hutt Racing Stable of Malvern, PA. The daughter of Bettors Delight and Regally Ready bested Saulsbrook Olympia and Spittin Chicklets for her first win of 2021.

"She's a nice filly. She's like her mother, who I trained. She goes out and does her job the best that she can do and that's all you can really ask from any racehorse," said Zeron. "Trevor gave her a perfect drive today. I'm glad to see her win for the owners."

The 3-year-old pacing fillies will make their next Gold and Grassroots Series starts on Aug. 22 at Rideau Carleton Raceway. The 2-year-old pacing fillies head to Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 13 for Grassroots and Aug. 17 for Gold Series action and the 2-year-old pacing colts compete at the Campbellville oval on Aug. 14 and 16 in Gold and Grassroots action.

Ontario Sires Stakes excitement returns to Grand River Raceway on Wednesday, Aug. 25 with the third Gold Series Leg for the three-year-old trotting fillies.

Amazing Dream another Down Under sensation for Banks and Hanover

by Adam Hamilton

The stunning recent dominance of champion mare Amazing Dream at the inaugural Queensland Constellations Carnival revived memories of how it all started Down Under for Florida-based owners Gordon Banks and Marc Hanover.

It was way back in 2000 when Banks and Hanover were “marketing” their star stallion Presidential Ball when, during some drinks at a casino in New Zealand, they spotted a filly called Tupelo Rose. She was beaten into third as favorite in the New South Wales Oaks, but something about her captivated the two leviathan owners.

“We watched the race with John Curtin and I said to him straight after the race I wanted to buy her,” Banks said. “He told us she was the queen of pacing down here and they wouldn’t sell her, but I said to ask anyway. They came back with a price, which surprised everyone, and we bought her.”

Tupelo Rose went on an immediate rampage, winning the Victoria, Queensland and Australian Oaks.

“We’d bought horses from Down Under before, but only to race here (in the US). She was the first one we’d raced down there, the start of it all. I loved her, she was really special. She eventually came here and did a wonderful job, including finishing third in the Breeders Crown,” Banks said.

Amazing Dream, the champion filly of her season, is by far the highest profile Down Under pacer Banks and Hanover have bought since Tupelo Rose, but she wasn’t the immediate “smash hit” Tupelo Rose was.

“We felt more pressure with her because, unlike most of our horses we took in some partners with her, and when she was beaten a few times at the start (she only won two of her first seven starts for the new owners), it wasn’t ideal, but she turned it around in Queensland,” Banks said.

Amazing Dream raced three times in Queensland – all at Group 1 level – for wins in the two marquee races of the Carnival (the Blacks A Fake and The Rising Sun) and a third in the mares’ feature, The Golden Girl.

Much of the credit goes to new trainer Nathan Purdon, the son of Hall of Fame New Zealand trainer Mark Purdon, who formerly trained Amazing Dream with his partner, Natalie Rasmussen. “While it’s a privilege to get a mare like her to train, it comes with plenty of pressure given what she’d done back in New Zealand. It was as much relief as excitement when she did what she did in Queensland,” Purdon said.

Banks added: “The only regret is that we couldn’t be there to see it, not just us, but our fellow owners, who are really big in the industry over here, but haven’t been to Australia. They’d have come down with us if we’d been able to.”

Those fellow owners in Amazing Dream are Richard Gutnick, Thomas Pontone and Joseph Lozito Jr.

“When you know what they’ve done in the sport and see how excited they were after this mare won the Blacks A Fake... that’s something else,” Banks said. “We rang them at 6 a.m. the morning after the race and told them she’d won. They were like excited children. They’ve watched the replay about 10 times.”

“They’ll want to see her race up here, but the timing is the hard part. Ideally, she’ll hold the great form she’s in and she can stay in Australia right through until the Miracle Mile (early March). That would give her time to come over here, settle in and still be ready for the big mares’ races in July, August and September.

That would mean tackling the boys again in major races like the Victoria Cup in October, Inter Dominion series in November/December and Miracle Mile.

But Amazing Dream is one of those rare diamonds, the mare who thrives on racing the boys. She’s already beaten them in four major races: the Northern Derby (in Auckland), Auckland Cup, The Rising Sun and Blacks A Fake.

The daughter of Bettors Delight is the fifth-highest Australasian-based mare on stake money won at $A1,252,410. Another daughter of Bettors Delight, Adore Me, heads the list at $A1,667,029. Of course, the mighty Shartin is the richest Down Under-bred mare at $A2,697,164, but the vast majority of that was earned in North America.

Amazing Dream and recent Queensland Derby winner American Dealer are two of “about 20 horses” Banks and Hanover race Down Under. They also race a similar number in North America.

“That’s enough, just ask Marc because he does the books,” said Banks, laughing. “I’m the one who has the fun and goes out and buys the horse. We got a bit psychotic about 15 years back when we had 99 horses, but we’ve had some therapy since then.”

While Amazing Dream and American Dealer spell briefly in Sydney before chasing further riches in Victoria from September, Banks and Hanover sit in hope they may soon be able to jump on a plane and head Down Under to watch their new stars in the flesh.

“It’s been weird for us. Since we first went down with Presidential Ball, we’ve been back every year. When we had the stallions there, we’d go two or three times a year. We really miss it,” Banks said.

Face Time Bourbon dominates in Belgium

by Thomas Hedlund

Sébastien Guarato-trained Face Time Bourbon (Ready Cash) went to Mons, Belgium on Sunday afternoon and as planned, the dominant 6-year-old played with his opponents.

The $140,000 Grand Prix de Wallonie was on the schedule and Face Time Bourbon started from post 1 behind the gate. The number was the same, but a sloppy track made it dangerous to use the car, so the field lined up and the start went off as if there was a car in front of them.

Eric Raffin just focused on letting Face Time Bourbon get away safely the first 200 meters but successively they worked their way towards the front position, which was in Face Time Bourbon's hands one lap into the race. The rest just looked as usual. Face Time Bourbon has few challengers in the sport right now, at least in Europe and the son of Ready Cash left his opponents with 10 lengths over the home stretch. Face Time Bourbon landed on a mile rate of 1:57.3 over 1.4 miles, on a slow track and he has now crossed the €3,000,000 mark in earnings (approximately $3,562,400)

Ce Bello Romain finished second ahead of Rebella Matters.

Open letter: Steve Stewart / Linda Toscano group provides update

by Steve Stewart and Linda Toscano

It's been four months now since we posted our open letter here at HRU in regards to the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) (stories here, here and here). We have now held four online meetings to try to better understand how the new law will affect harness racing. We've met twice, virtually, with Travis Tygart, the head of the USADA, the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency that will help enforce the law. We've also heard from members of the thoroughbred industry to get their sense of what they think the testing landscape will look like once the law takes effect next year.

The new federal authority is just being formed and so far the rules and regulations have not been written, much less adopted. There is a great deal that we have learned.

1. Harness racing and thoroughbred racing will each pay for their own drug testing.
2. It is more likely the cost will go down, not up, as federal regulators use smart drug testing techniques.
3. There will be ways in which we can lobby regulators for medication rules specific to harness racing and differ from those governing thoroughbreds.
4. The new system will almost certainly be more effective than the current one.

The zoom calls have been very educational. The following trainers have participated in the calls and had excellent questions: Ron Burke, Tony Alagna, Nancy Takter, Brian Brown and Paul Kelley, among others.

We are going to continue to hold these online calls, which are open to all members of or industry, and we hope more of you will participate by logging on or by submitting questions to help us all learn more.

If you'd rather email your questions, send them to huntertonfarm@cs.com and we will get them answered at the next session. We are also arranging in-person meetings about HISA in August at the Hambletonian, in September at the Jug, and in October in Lexington. If you want to participate in those meetings, please let us know.

Winbak Farm is sad to announce the passing of CR Renegade, 2, Q1:58.4; 3, 1:53.4 ($903,785).

He died due to complications from colic on July 31 at the age of 25. He had been standing at Winbak Farm of Maryland.

"Between his performance as a racehorse, including an exciting Breeders Crown final win, and his strong pedigree, Joe Thomson thought that CR Renegade would make a great addition to our stallion roster when he retired from racing," said Garrett Bell, Winbak Farm general manager.

CR Renegade won nine races competing against the best 3-year-old colt trotters in North America. At 3, CR Renegade won the Beacon Course Stakes elimination and final, $588,000 Breeders Crown, Currier & Ives Stakes elimination and final, Yonkers Trot elimination and $273,891 final, and $112,000 Zweig Memorial division. He also won a $430,000 3-Year-Old Open at The Meadowlands. He was second in a Colonial Stakes division, Hambletonian elimination and Pennsylvania Sire Stakes leg. He was third in a World Trotting Derby heat.

CR Renegade was a full brother to Horse of the Year, CR Kay Suzie, 2, 1:55.1; 3, 1:52.4; 1:52.3 ($1,611,131).

"CR Renegade had stood at Winbak Farm since 2001," said Bell. "He had been a Winbak Farm's stallion lineup representative in Ontario, Indiana and Maryland."

As a sire, CR Renegade has sired 66 race winners. He had sired four who had won $200,000+ including 49x winner, Commander Richards, 1:55.3f ($293,305), 21x winner, Mintoies, 3, 2:00.1f; 1:55.2s ($281,648), B Cor Rennegade, 2, 1:57.1s; 3, 1:55.4s ($229,283), and The Original, 1:55.2s ($204,231).

CR Renegade was also a winning broodmare sire. Performers from CR Renegade-sired dams include Majestic Mistress, 3, 1:56.2s; 1:53f ($338,554), Majestic Marvel, 3, 1:56.3s; 3, 1:53f '21 ($265,096), Winbak Charles M, 3, Q1:57.3f; 1:54.2f ($235,067) and Renegade Magic, 3, 1:55.4s; 1:53.2s ($217,552).

Winbak Farm would like to thank the breeders, trainers, owners and other supporters who helped CR Renegade be a successful sire.

"We want to say thank you to everyone who has supported CR Renegade during his breeding career," said Bell. "We would also like to say thank you to the Allen family for connecting us with this stallion."

If breeders have questions, they should call 410.885.3059 or email stallions@winbakfarm.com. The Winbak Farm stallion lineup can be found at www.winbakfarm.com.

No Plan Intended rewrites Dresden Raceway's record book

With three $20,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots and two $7,000 Prospect Series divisions slated for the Monday, Aug. 2 program, Dresden Raceway fans knew the 3-year-old pacing colt track record would be in jeopardy and they did not have to wait long to see it fall.

With Post 4 in a field of five, driver Marc St. Louis wasted no time putting heavy favorite No Plan Intended on the front in the first $20,750 Grassroots division. The Up The Credit son rolled through a :27.3 quarter, a :56.1 half and a 1:24.4 three-quarters, widening his lead at every station, before powering under the wire 16 and three-quarter lengths ahead of his peers in a track record 1:53.4. Dr Joe and Imabeachboy finished second and third.

The mile took two-fifths of a second off the previous 1:54.1 3-year-old pacing colt and all-age record set by Must Be Matt and Caviarandsoftmusic in Grassroots action in 2005.

"He's never raced on a half before, that's the first time. He's never even trained on a half really, but I thought he'd get around all right. He seems to be pretty good gaited," said trainer Carl Jamieson. "Either take him back or go to the front, it didn't matter what you did with him, I thought he could win both ways."

Jamieson bred and owns No Plan Intended in partnership with Brian Paquet of Quebec, QC. A two-time winner in the Grassroots program at 2, No Plan Intended now has two sophomore wins in the provincial program and sits second in the three-year-old pacing colt standings with 105 points.

"He's a nice little horse," said Jamieson, who trained the gelding's sire Up The Credit to earnings of $1.3 million. "He's the best Up The Credit I've had, the best and the fastest. And we raised him to boot."

No Plan Intended sits behind Proline in the point standings and that colt also picked up his second Grassroots win of the season at Dresden Raceway on Monday.

With the advantageous Post 1, driver Anthony Haughan also opted for a front-end tour of the half-mile oval with the fan favorite and Proline cruised home to a one and one-half length victory in 1:55.1. Flash Cube finished second and Mr Charisma was third.

"He was really straightforward, I really liked him. He was a little lazy on the front, and when the horses came to him he went," said driver Anthony Haughan, who was making his first appearance in the colt's race bike. "He'd been racing at Mohawk, I'm not sure if he's raced on a half, probably not this year anyway, and he got around there really good. He just relaxed on the front and when the horses came he went. I never felt like I was threatened."

Haughan engineered the win for trainer Luc Blais of Campbellville, ON and owner Determination of Montreal, QC. With two wins and one second in Grassroots action the Sportswriter colt boasts a point total of 125 with two stops remaining on the sophomore pacing colt Grassroots circuit.

Harpers Hat Trick earned his first Grassroots victory in the other $21,100 division, also getting a front-end steer from driver Travis Henry. Comfortably in front through a :28.2 quarter, :59.2 half and 1:28 three-quarters, Harpers Hat Trick dug in down the stretch to keep a head in front of a hard-charging Last Bet and stop the teletimer at 1:56.1. Premier Nacho was well behind the leaders in third.

"I thought he had the most half-mile experience out of the whole race, so I didn't have to be careful with him," said Henry of the fan favorite. "He was in with nice horses, but I think the half-mile experience helped him the most in there."

Although Harpers Hat Trick made his first appearance in the Grassroots winner's circle on Monday, the Sportswriter son is no stranger to victory. He now has seven wins to his credit through 11 starts, with all seven wins coming on half-mile tracks.

Kristopher Haskell of Clinton trains Harpers Hat Trick and shares ownership of the colt with Grant Shelton of Goderich, ON.

Dresden Raceway regular Marc St. Louis piloted the winners of both Prospect Series divisions, employing front-end tactics with Big Teddy and a late-closing strategy with Pretty Boy Duke.

In the first $7,200 split Big Teddy rolled through quick fractions of :28, :57.2 and 1:26.1 before cruising home to a one and one-quarter length win in 1:56.4. Pocket-sitting Favaro Seelster was second and Dragon Teen was promoted to third when West Coast Kid was ruled to have caused him interference in the early going.

Tyler Nostadt of Maidstone, ON trains Big Teddy for Blueshoe Investments of Baltic, OH. Monday's win was the Big Jim son's second of the sophomore campaign.

Starting from the trailing Post 8, Pretty Boy Duke sat mid-pack through the second $7,300 Prospect Series division before sprinting down the stretch to a one-half length victory in 1:58.4. P L Oliver finished second and Kodiak Seelster was third.

St. Louis engineered the fan favorite's fourth straight victory for trainer Lacey McCabe of Rockwood and owner-breeder Glenview Livestock Ltd. of Wallenstein, ON.

The 3-year-old pacing colts will make their fourth Grassroots start at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 21, while the Prospect Series competitors head to Leamington Raceway on Aug. 15.

Complete results from Monday's program are available here.

Just Divine is just that in NYSS at Yonkers

The New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) circuit made its first of five stops this month at Yonkers Raceway on Tuesday (Aug. 3), as 2-year-old pacing fillies clashed in a trio of $47,966 divisions.

The fastest split was the first one, as Just Divine (Yannick Gingras) delivered in 1:53.2, just missing the track record by a fifth of a second. Just Divine raced in third through opening-half fractions of :28.3 and :57.3 set by Joyride Hanover (Todd McCarthy), and began a first-over advance towards the pace-setter before the 1:25.4 three-quarters. On the final turn Just Divine got an advantage on the outside, and then in the stretch she pulled away powerfully on her way to winning by 5 1/4 lengths in 1:53.2. Joyride Hanover was second, and Reenactment (Scott Zeron) came in third.

Ron Burke trains Just Divine, a filly from the first crop of Huntsville, for owners WJ. Donovan, Craig Henderson, Joe Sbrocco, and Purnel & Libby LLC. Just Divine, bred by Steve Jones and bought for $160,000 at the 2020 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, has two wins from three chances, and she has now pocketed $46,083. Just Divine is the first foal out of the Rock N Roll Heaven mare Divine Caroline (1:49.2, $876,840) and returned $3.10 to win as the 1-2 favorite. The exacta was worth $4.90, and the trifecta kicked back $9.70.

In the next flight, Throw The Dice (Zeron) shot to the point from post two and hit the quarter in :28.1 and the half in :58, but Hamptons Babe (Andrew McCarthy), who tipped first-over from fourth racing to the half-mile marker, was able to clear Throw The Dice and take over the top spot just beyond the 1:26.1 three-quarters. After Hamptons Babe took command, that left 1-5 favorite Gotthegreenlight (Dexter Dunn) first-over. Despite losing her cover, Gotthegreenlight pressed forward into second on the final bend, then forged her way by Hamptons Babe through the stretch drive to score by three-parts of a length in 1:55. Wickedly Innocent (Jordan Stratton) advanced from sixth to third in the last quarter.

Gotthegreenlight, bred by Dr. Stephen Dey and acquired for $40,000 at last year's Standardbred Horse Sale, is a daughter of American Ideal trained by Richard "Nifty" Norman for owners Patricia Stable and Kovach Stables LLC. Gotthegreenlight, who is the fifth foal out of the Bettor's Delight mare Bet On Luck (1:52.3, $531,617), is a perfect four-for-four in her career, and she has now earned $63,983. She returned $2.70 to win and was atop a $6.50 exacta and an $87.00 trifecta.

Race favorite Lee Loo (Joe Bongiorno) brushed around A Girl That

Twirls (Dan Dube) after the :29.1 first quarter in the last sire stakes showdown. Lee Loo would then put the half on the board in :58.4, but she went wide on the third turn, and again on the final bend after hitting three-quarters in 1:27.1. Dube brought A Girl That Twirls to the outside on the far turn, and despite being forced a couple of paths wide by the lugging-out leader, A Girl That Twirls surged into the lead in the stretch and then drew off to prevail by 2 1/4 lengths in 1:56. Yes Indeed (Marcus Miller) closed well for second, and Lee Loo had to settle for third.

A daughter of American Ideal, A Girl That Twirls is trained by James Lackey for owner D Racing Stable Inc. Crawford Farms bred the $32,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase, the first foal out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Heels On The Beach (1:52, $207,902). A Girl That Twirls has a record of 2-0-1 from three trips behind the gate, has stashed away $46,987, and paid $16.00 to win as a 7-1 offering. The exacta returned $164.50, and the trifecta was worth $598.00.

By virtue of A Girl That Twirls's upset victory, the Pick 6 was also not hit, leading to a $3,833.88 carryover starting in tonight's (August 4) third race. One race after the Pick 6 went unsolved, Andres Hanover pulled a 9-1 upset and also knocked all the live tickets out of the Pick 5, resulting in a $4,458.21 carryover and a $15,000 guaranteed pool in that wager on tonight's card.

The guarantee in the Pick 5 is being offered as part of the United States Trotting Association's Strategic Wagering Program. Free past performances for the Pick 5, courtesy of TrackMaster, will be available here. The Pick 5, which begins in race five, has a takeout rate of 20 per cent.

Co-owner/trainer Mark Harder was victorious in two of the three $15,000 New York Excelsior "A" Series splits for the group, winning with American Ideal—Testing Center filly Flip The Script, driven by Scott Zeron for Harder and partners Dean Lockhart and Jeff Ruch, in 1:55.4 and with American Jazz (American Ideal—Southwind Jazmin) in 1:58.4. Todd McCarthy steered her for Harder and co-owner Rick Phillips. The remaining Excelsior "A" tilt went to Patsville (Huntsville—Major Master Piece) on the front-end in 1:57.4 for driver Mark MacDonald, trainer John Butenschoen, and owners William De Long and William P. De Long.

There were also two non-wagering New York Excelsior "B" Series races contested. Artemida (American Ideal—Inittowinafortune) led all the way to win the first one of those events in 1:58.3 for driver Jason Bartlett, trainer Michael Russo, and owner/breeder Michael Pagonas, and Pembroke Ideal Bj (American Ideal—B J's Skye) got up from the pocket to win the other section in 1:58.2 for Bartlett, trainer Mark Ford, and owner William Varney.

New York Sire Stakes action continues at Yonkers Raceway next Tuesday (Aug. 10), with the 3-year-old filly trotters taking to the oval.

Heart of Chewbacca and Charlie May win Ohio Sires Stakes

Heart of Chewbacca, the 1-2 Ron Burke-trained favorite, stormed to a 1:50.4 clocking in the first division of Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) action for 3-year-old pacing colts on Saturday (July 31) at Northfield Park, tying the national season's record for his gait and gender. The son of Bring On The Beach nailed down his second triumph in OHSS competition, having captured Leg 1 in 1:51.2 for owners Dennis Owens and Norman Rae Racing.

Heart Of Chewbacca bested 17-1 rival Cyclone Union Jack (Ryan Stahl) with 5-2 Hardt At Work (Mike Micallef) nailing down third-place honors. The winner was bred by Spring Haven Farm and now has ten wins and four seconds in 16 career starts, with $313,848 earned lifetime. Heart Of Chewbacca is the second foal out of his dam, the Four Starzzz Shark mare JT's Chewbacca p, 3, 1:53.1f ($32,220).

Charlie May also tied the national season's record for a 3-year-old pacing gelding on a half-mile track with his 1:50.4 clocking in the second OHSS division. Driven by Brett Miller for trainer Steve Carter and owner/breeder Don Tiger, the brown son by McArdle notched his tenth career victory, upping his earnings to $548,127 lifetime. Charlie May had captured OHSS Leg 2 in a swift 1:49.3 at Scioto Downs after finishing fourth in Leg 1 in early May at Miami Valley. Odds On Shaggy, the 9-1 choice, who was making his first start in an OHSS contest, was second for Kurt Sugg, with 25-1 KB Mac third for Hunter Myers.

Charlie May is the seventh and highest-earning foal out of his Western Hanover dam, the unraced Stipple Hanover, and is a half-brother to the 2-year-old pacing colt and OHSS contender Shane Falco (by Racing Hill) p, 2, 1:56.1h ($21,710), who is also owned and was bred by Tiger.

Felt Tip Marker was sharp in Innisfil Tuesday

Georgian Downs played host to the second Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots Leg for the 3-year-old trotting fillies on Tuesday, Aug. 3 and Felt Tip Marker delivered the quickest mile of the four $21,800 divisions.

Taking early command of the third division from Post 6, Felt Tip Marker and driver Anthony Haughan laid down fractions of :29.4, 1:00.3 and 1:29.2, and then powered down the stretch to a 1:58.2 victory. Her Grace K finished second and First One was third, with both fillies finishing well back of the leader. Fan favorite Mischevious Rose made a break in the final turn and finished fourth.

"She was in the first Gold (July 6), she kind of got parked the mile there but came up with a good effort. Then she came up with a little sickness so she missed a couple weeks. Two weeks ago (July 20) she had a win on the front and was just a little green on the front, but tonight she was really good and really strong," said trainer Meg Crone. "We skipped the (second) Gold just because it was on the half. She's a very big filly, so we just didn't want to take her to the half, but now hopefully she'll stay in with the Golds."

The Cambridge, ON resident trains Felt Tip Marker for Melvin Hartman of Ottawa, ON and trainer Richard "Nifty" Norman's Enzed Racing Stable Inc. of Allentown, NJ. The partners offered up $15,000 for the filly at last fall's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and Norman prepped the Kadabra daughter in New Jersey before sending her to Crone in mid-June for the OSS campaign. Felt Tip Marker finished fourth in the Gold Series season opener and was a 2:00 winner in overnight action on July 20, both at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Allisonann Hanover kicked off the evening's action in the first race with a 1:59.4 effort that saw her sit mid-pack as Complete Life posted a :29.4 quarter and Gala Halo rang up a 1:00.3 half. Heading for the 1:30.4 three-quarters driver Bob McClure sent Allisonann Hanover after favorite Gala Halo and the challenger sprinted down the stretch to a one length victory. Gala Halo settled for second, holding off a quick-closing Complete Life.

"She's a big filly. I think she'll be that much better next year. She's good gaited and honest and doesn't mind her work," said trainer Mark Etsell. "That was a good mile tonight and she did it right, come home in :29, so we were good with that."

Etsell trains the Archangel daughter for Etsell Newton of Rockwood, Chaun Tan of Cambridge, Graham Hopkins of Chesley and Peter Porter of Port Dover, ON. Like Felt Tip Marker, Allisonann Hanover started her Ontario Sires Stakes career at the Gold Series level, finishing seventh, but unlike her fellow winner, she will likely appear in the third Grassroots Leg at Hanover Raceway on Aug. 14.

"She's good gaited and handy, so that's the plan, but a lot can happen between now and then," said Etsell, who selected the $85,000 yearling out of the Black Book Yearling Sale. "She's pretty good around a half."

Driver Chris Christoforou swept the other two Grassroots divisions, guiding Cersei De Vie and Socks N Crocs to victory.

In the second division, fan favorite Cersei De Vie circled her peers at the half and never looked back, cruising home a two and one-half length winner in 2:01.1. Trade Secret finished second and Muscle Envy was third.

"Chris did a good job with her," said trainer Pam Forgie. "She's kind of funny, because she's really quiet for the most part and then when you turn her to the gate she's all business, she wants to go. Paul MacDonell schooled her and qualified her and did her first couple starts with her and he basically said, 'Don't leave with her because she wants to go and we just want to keep her quiet off the gate', and that's what he (Christoforou) did."

The win was the first lifetime for Cersei De Vie, who debuted in the July 13 Grassroots season opener where she finished sixth, and then delivered a runner-up effort in a July 27 overnight at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Goderich resident Forgie shares ownership of the Resolve filly with Dr. Steve Taylor of Kitchener, ON.

In the last $21,800 Grassroots division Socks N Crocs controlled the tempo from Post 2, leading the field through fractions of :29.4, 1:01.3 and 1:32 before sprinting down the stretch to a three-quarter length victory in 2:00.4. Muscle Up The Gold finished second and pocket-sitter Opas Faith was third. Favorite Smashing Success made a mid-race break and finished last.

"She raced good at this track last time," said Christoforou of the runner-up result Socks N Crocs posted at Georgian Downs on July 25. "Tonight she got to the front early, controlled the race and sprinted home in :28.4. She's a very nice filly that loves to race."

Christoforou has now steered the Resolve daughter to one win and one fifth in Grassroots action for trainer Gregg McNair of Guelph and his co-owners M & S Racing Stable Inc. of Rockwood, Dean Lockhart of Collingwood and Paul Kidd of Guelph, ON. Socks N Crocs was a $30,000 purchase at the Black Book Yearling Sale.

Complete results from Tuesday's event are available here and replays can be viewed on the Georgian Downs website.

Near sweep of Kentucky Championship opener for Dunn, Takter

Driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Nancy Takter teamed to take three of the four $40,000 divisions of the Kentucky Championship Series on Sunday (Aug. 1) at The Red Mile. Dunn totaled six victories on the 14-race card.

Dunn and Takter started the afternoon with a win by Selfie Queen, who conquered her competition in the opening division of the Kentucky Championship Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies with an open-length victory in 1:53 under wraps.

Dunn wasted no time to get Selfie Queen to the point, clearing control past a :28.1 first quarter following a first-turn skirmish for position. The Nancy Takter trainee cruised to a :57 half and gained separation on the final turn as pocket-sitter Those Blues started to falter. Selfie Queen clicked three-quarters in 1:26.1 and maintained a wide lead through the stretch in a :26.4 sprint to the finish while More Than Ever emerged from the backfield to take second, beaten 6-1/4 lengths. She's A Scorcher scooted up the pylons for third while Medley finished fourth.

Owned by Robert LeBlanc, David Anderson and John Fielding, Selfie Queen has won two races from four starts and earned $36,250. The Muscle Hill filly, off as the 1-5 choice, paid $2.40 to win.

Dunn completed a sweep of the filly divisions later in the card when steering another Nancy Takter pupil, American Beauty, to a 1:54.2 victory.

Away second to a :28.4 first quarter, Dunn circled the 6-5 favorite to the top into the backstretch, pocketing early leader Spendthemoneyhoney. She strolled to the half in :58.1 and faced minimal pressure to three-quarters in 1:27.2 all while Penelope J, sitting third, crept off the pegs at the bottom of the turn and readied for a stretch-drive blitz. However, American Beauty responded and turned away Penelope J through the stretch to pass the beam two lengths better than Spendthemoneyhoney taking second. Penelope J levelled off to finish third while Moni Heist grabbed fourth.

A homebred Walner filly for Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld out of 2016 Hambletonian Oaks winner All The Time, American Beauty collected her second victory from five starts, banking $38,602. She paid $4.40 to win.

Takter and Dunn teamed to take the second of the two colt and gelding splits for the Kentucky Championship Series with Keg Stand, a wire-to-wire winner in 1:53.3.

Keg Stand cruised to the top from post 5 and posted a :28.2 first quarter with 3-5 favorite Majestic J sitting second and Iwon't Backdown As in third. He continued unpressured to a :57 half and three-quarters in 1:26.1 before striding through the straightaway to a two-length win over Majestic J. Iwon't Backdown As finished third with Torrone taking fourth.

Winning his third race from five starts, Keg Stand has earned $86,276 for owners Black Horse Racing, Christina Takter and John Fielding.

Double Deceiver darted off the pegs to the top of the stretch to take the opening colt and gelding division of the Kentucky Championship Series in 1:55.2.

Gigondas grabbed the lead while Paymaq pushed through from the pylons to protect the pocket coming to a :28.4 first quarter. Driver David Miller placed Double Deceiver into third moving to the backstretch while Bully Boy Hill tracked him from fourth. The field stayed single file to a :59 half and through most of the far turn until TNT Blue Chip began to move wide, prompting several to flush off the pegs.

Bully Boy Hill floated off the cones coming to three-quarters, forcing Miller to angle Double Deceiver as Paymaq began to pull pocket. Past three-quarters in 1:28.4, Double Deceiver fanned three wide and reeled in the tiring tempo setter to then win going away by 2-1/4 lengths. Bully Boy Hill chased the winner home to grab second, with Gigondas finishing third and Paymaq taking fourth.

A gelding by Cantab Hall, Double Deceiver won his second race from three starts and has banked $45,290 for owners Pinske Stables and Makenna Lynn Pinske. Carter Pinske conditions the $6.20 winner.

Aggiornamento ($3.20) topped the winners of the three $20,000 divisions for the Kentucky Commonwealth 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot with a 1:54.3 win. Tim Tetrick sat behind the Fred Grant trainee for owner Russell Williams. Dunn drove the winners of the other Commonwealth colt and gelding splits with wins by Golden Wall As ($5.80), who he drove to a 1:54.4 win for trainer Anette Lorentzon and owner ACL Stuteri Ab; and Golden Glider ($5.60), who won in 1:55.4 for owners Pinske Stables and Enzed Racing Stable Inc. and trainer Carter Pinske.

Date Night ($4.20) led the winners of the three $20,000 divisions for the Kentucky Commonwealth 2-Year-Old Filly Trot with a 1:55 effort. Andy Miller piloted the Marvin Katz and Sam Goldband homebred for trainer Julie Miller. The other filly divisions were taken by Grandeur ($5.00), a 1:57.2 winner for owner Carter Duer and trainer-driver Pat Lachance, and Blue Bayou Deo ($39.60), a 1:56.1 victor for owner Thestable Blue Bayou Deo, trainer Jason McGinnis and driver Anthony MacDonald.

Pebble Beach powers in Kentucky Championship kickoff

Sent off as the 3-5 favorite, Pebble Beach asserted himself on the point and coasted clear of his competition to post a 1:50.1 victory in the first of two $40,000 divisions for the Kentucky Championship 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace on Monday (Aug. 2) at The Red Mile.

Wolfrax gunned for the lead from post 6 while Pebble Beach secured the pocket moving to the first turn, but driver Todd McCarthy soon angled the Downbytheseaside colt off the pegs to a :28.2 first quarter. He circled the Noel Daley trainee to the lead entering the backstretch as River Ness ranged first over to then grab the lead before a :55.4 half.

River Ness tried to grab a breather into the far turn, with the slowing tempo jamming the field across the track. Pebble Beach circumvented the leader and retook control to three-quarters in 1:24.1 with Wolfrax giving chase second. He cruised through the stretch to win by 3-1/4 lengths over Wolfrax with River Ness finishing third, but being placed seventh for the far-turn confusion scattering the field. Terminator assumed third and Caviart Camden took over fourth.

Owned by Patricia Stable, Joe Sbrocco, Country Club Acres Inc. and LA Express & JAF Racing, Pebble Beach is unbeaten from two starts and has banked $34,800. He paid $3.20 to win.

Todd McCarthy later took the other Championship division for colts and geldings when teaming with trainer Tony Alagna behind I Did It Myway, a gate-to-wire winner in 1:50.3.

Off the 1-9 choice, McCarthy motored the Captaintreacherous colt to the lead from the pylon post and clicked the first quarter in :28.3. He strode up the backstretch under minimal pressure to a :57 half and continued uncontested while accelerating to three-quarters in 1:24.3. Once straightening for the finish, I Did It Myway hit another gear and coasted to the beam 2-1/4 lengths better than Western Era, who rallied with a :25.3 final quarter to take second. Vicious finished third while Silverstone faltered from the pocket for fourth.

Undefeated from four starts, I Did It Myway has now earned $89,944 for owners Country Club Acres Inc., Joe Sbrocco, Don Latore and Alagna And Fodera Racing. He paid $2.20 to win.

The Monday card opened with the lone $40,000 dash for the Kentucky Championship Series 2-Year-Old Filly Pace, which went to Sloopy off a pocket-pouncing effort in a 1:50.3 mile.

Driver Yannick Gingras sent Sloopy for the front from post 6 while Dont Fence Me In slid into the pocket from the pylon post moving to a :27.1 first quarter. Into the backstretch, Dont Fence Me In vacated pocket to take over command and lead the field by a :56.1 half before upping the tempo to three-quarters in 1:23.4. Sloopy started to mount out of the pocket at the top of the stretch and took her shot at Dont Fence Me In, eventually downing the 3-5 choice into the final eighth to win by 1-3/4 lengths going away. Boudoir Hanover gave chase from third with Captains Princess closing for fourth.

A filly by Downbytheseaside, Sloopy won her second race from four starts, earning $38,800 for breeder W. J. Donovan, who co-owns the Ron Burke trainee with Joe Sbrocco. She paid $6.80 to win.

Six Feet Apart ($3.40), a Sweet Lou colt trained by Brian Brown, posted the quickest mile of the three $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings. He rallied off a quick clip of :26.2, :53.4 and 1:22.4 set by Vintage Cowboy to win in 1:51 for owners Michael Robinson, Robert Mondillo, David Meola and Rich Lombardo Racing LLC. The other divisions went to Boston ($4.40), a 1:51.4 winner off a pocket trip for trainer Brett Pelling and owner Diamond Creek Racing; and Danger Zone ($4.20), a front-stepping winner in 1:52 for trainer Tony Alagna and owners Alagna Racing LLC and Ronald Ruggles.

Queen Of Success ($6.20) paced the quickest mile of the two $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth splits for 2-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:52.1 victory off a pocket ride. Andrew McCarthy steered the daughter of Captaintreacherous to victory for owners Alagna Racing LLC, Caviart Farms and Robert Leblanc. Captiva ($10.80) rode the cones to a 1:53 victory in the other division for the team of Andrew McCarthy and Tony Alagna, but this daughter of Captaintreacherous competes for owner-breeder Brittany Farms LLC.

MSOA Charity Night raises more than $5,000 for STA

Thanks to the generosity of so many, The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA) "Charity Night" raised $5,169 for the Standardbred Transition Alliance, which will help STA in its vital goal of working with organizations throughout the sport that prepare retiring racehorses for new careers and homes.

The MSOA staged the event during Adios Week, inviting participants to purchase tickets for a pair of auctions. The most unusual raffle prize came from Weaver Brussemi LLC and the Ron Burke stable, who donated one per cent of the earnings of their horses — Southwind Gendry and Lou's Pearlman — in the final of the Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids. Southwind Gendry's fourth place finish was worth $30,000, meaning the lucky ticket-holder, Kathleen Quinn Hodel — won $300 for her $5 ducat.

The MSOA wishes to extend special thanks to Weaver Brussemi,

Burke and all other contributors of cash, auction prizes and in-kind services, including: Nick Catalano, Keith Pippi, Kahrig Racing Stable, Lori & Ray Romanetti; The Hyatt & Parlay Lounge, Washington Chamber of Commerce, and John & Nicole Sullivan.

Gold Cup Week details released

Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park has released details on the 2021 Gold Cup and Saucer week of racing, which will take place from Thursday, Aug. 12 to Saturday, Aug. 21.

Race programs are scheduled for Thursday Aug. 12 at 7 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 14 at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m., Monday Aug. 16 through Friday, Aug. 20 with post times at 7 p.m.

Saturday, Aug. 21 will feature another double-header at 1 and 7 p.m. concluding with the 62nd edition of the Guardian Gold Cup and Saucer. Red Shores restaurants are sold out for the week. The outdoor tarmac will have capacity limits with more information to be announced soon as Red Shores continues to work with public health officials.

"We've been planning for another big event," said Lee Drake, manager of racing and broadcast with Red Shores. "We had to make an adjustment with the race schedule but we have a great week planned along with promotions, special stories and guests."

The horses will be announced at the press conference Tuesday Aug. 10. Each horse entered in the Trials will receive a Gold Cup Welcome Package from the PEI Harness Racing Industry Association which includes golf passes, gas card, Confederation Bridge pass and gift certificates to Island restaurants, merchandise and more.

"We are also pleased to announce that the successful Birthplace of Confederation Mares Series will return for 2021, again sponsored by the City of Charlottetown," said Drake. "This year Mayor Brown and Council have named the event in memory of Dianne and Shelley Gass, in recognition of their devotion to the harness racing industry."

The Birthplace of Confederation Series is for Pacing Mares aged three (3) and older, and will feature Eliminations for $3,500 on Saturday, Aug. 14, with the $8,000 final and $4,000 consolation to be held on Gold Cup night, Saturday, Aug. 21. There are no nomination or starting fees, but nominations must be made to the Red Shores Race Office by 3 p.m.

Trotters aged three (3) and older are invited to compete in the Colonel Dan Trot Series, which will feature Eliminations for $3,000 on Saturday, Aug. 14, with the $6,000 final and $3,000 consolation to be held on Gold Cup night, Saturday, Aug. 21. The event is named in honor of the late Col. Dan MacKinnon, a leading figure in the history of PEI harness racing. There are no nomination or starting fees, but nominations must be made to the Red Shores Race Office by 3 p.m. Monday, Aug. 9.

For information on Gold Cup week, Post Times and Race Day broadcast go to redshores.ca.
