Breaking down Hambletonian Day 2019

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Trainer Marcus Melander may not have won the Hambletonian, but he won the most money on the day — $839,947.50 in purses on the day. He won the Jim Doherty, both Hambletonian elims, was second, third and fifth in the Hambletonian final, fourth in the Hambletonian Oaks, fifth in the Cashman, fourth in a Hambletonian elim, and 2-3-4 in the Peter Haughton.

However, it was 13 years since the last time a trainer won both Hambletonian eliminations, but not the final. Trond Smedshammer did it with Here Comes Herbie in 2006 and Mr Pine Chip, but Glidemaster won the final and neither winner in the elimination got any money in the final.

Marcus Melander won his first Hambletonian elim back in 2017 with Enterprise who was third in the final.

This year, Melander's slate reads:

Greenshoe 1-2

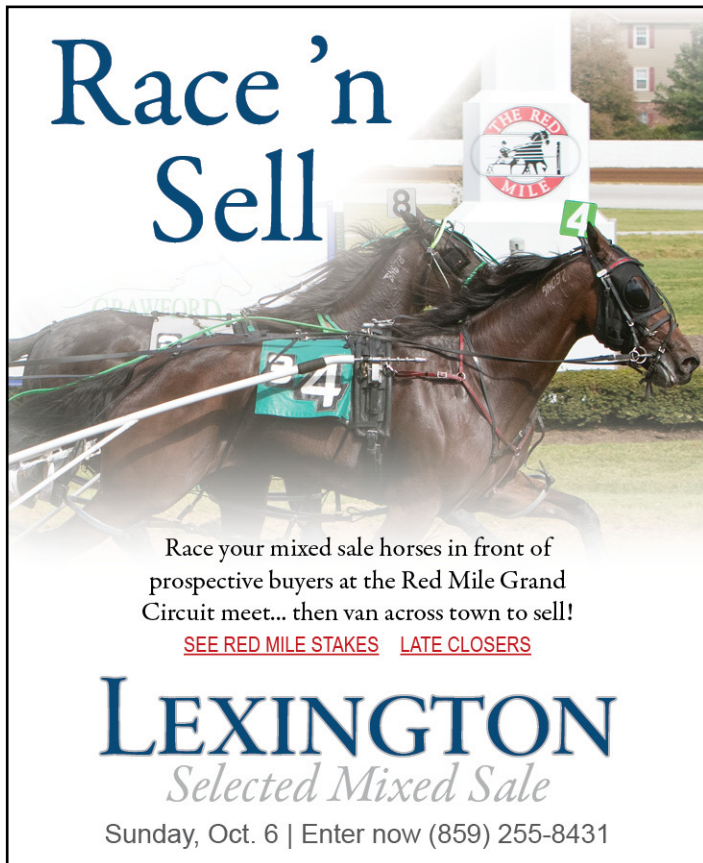

Gimpanzee 4-3

Green Manalishi 1-5

The only U.S-born trainer to make the Hambletonian final was Tony Alagna with Pilot Discretion, who failed to get a check.

The only U.S-born trainer to make the Hambletonian Oaks was Ron Burke, who was eighth with Sonnet Grace.

Zeron U.S-born trainers were in the 2019 Elitlopp, but of the 88 trotters on the Hambletonian Day card (counting the 10 in the Hambletonian final as separate – 78 trotters and 88 starters), 40 were trained by a conditioner born in Sweden.

Oh, Canada

The following all participated on the day that a Canadian driver and trainer won both the Hambletonian Oaks and the Hambletonian – Rene and Simon Allard in the Oaks and Luc Blais and Bob McClure in the Hambletonian. Jim Campbell was the Peter Haughton and Cashman winner. Fellow Canadians Yannick Gingras won the Vincennes, Casie Coleman was third with reigning HOY McWicked in the Sam

McKee Memorial, Scott Zeron won the Cane Pace. Daniel Dube, John Bax and Benoit Baillargeon were also in action.

Peter Haughton jinx continues

In 2018, Don't Let'em and Green Manalishis S were 1-2 in the Peter Haughton. In the Hambletonian final, Don't Let'em made a break and finished last and Green Manalishi S was fifth.

Only two horses have won both the Peter Haughton and the Hambletonian in 38 years: Donato Hanover 2006-2007 and Muscle Hill 2008-2009.

The last time a Peter Haughton runner-up won the Hambletonian the following year was Mack Lobell in 1987.

Muscle Hill's day – again!

Progeny of Muscle Hill has now won the Hambletonian or the Oaks six times in his first six crops. Muscle Hill-with four winners on Saturday and a 1-2-3 finish in the Jim Doherty, was the only trotting sire to win more than once. Captaintreacherous doubled up on the pacing side. Make it four straight Oaks wins for Muscle Hill. When Dovescry followed Manchego who followed Ariana G who followed All The Time.

Odds are... odds on

There were nine odds-on winners among the 11 winning favorites for the day.

Quartet to remember

The last four Horses of the Year all went down to defeat on Hambletonian Day:

In 2015, Wiggle It Jiggleit was fourth in the Cane Pace.

In 2016, Always B Miki was fourth in the U.S. Pacing Championship.

In 2017, Hannelore Hanover was fourth in the Steele Memorial.

In 2018, McWicked was second in the Sam McKee Memorial.

By a neck

The closest margin of the 16 contests was also the most popular one – a neck. Four winners won by that margin: Green Manalishi S in Hambletonian elim, Tall Drink Hanover in the Shady Daisy, Forbidden Trade in the Hambletonian final and Captain Crunch in the Cane Pace.

Kadabra

Six years ago, Kadabra's daughter Bee A Magician won the Oaks, ran the table on the year (17-for-17) and was voted HOY. That was also the last time a horse has won on Hambletonian Day and was named HOY. This year, Forbidden Trade is a son of Kadabra, who himself was not Hambletonian eligible back in 2002 en route to the division title.

Did you know??

That Forbidden Trade has more wins (12) than Greenshoe has starts (11)?

Record day

Ten of the 24 Meadowlands track records were set on a Hambletonian Day card.

First time for everything

Sixteen years after his Hambletonian debut, Brian Sears finished second for the very first time.

Manchego a modern day Moni Maker?

Manchego has now won on Hambletonian Day at 2, 3 and 4-with a pair of 1:50 wins in the Oaks then the Steele Memorial. Moni Maker was an incredible 5-for-5 on Hambletonian Day, winning twice in 1996 in the Oaks, then again in the Nat Ray (Cashman) in 1997, 1998 and 2000. She missed in 1999 due to heart trouble. Her 2000 Nat Ray win was her last Meadowlands start and her lifetime mark of 1:52.1.

Youth served?

When Bob McClure, 28, won the Hambletonian, it was the fifth time a driver under 30 to accomplished this. Scott Zeron won at 27 and 29, Tommy Haughton at 25 and Harry Harvey at 29 way back in 1953.

Twenty-seven-year-old trainer Marcus Melander was 2-3-5 in the Hambletonian.

Hambletonian debuters

Bob McClure 2019 Forbidden Trade WINNER

Scott Zeron 2016 (first final) Marion Marauder WINNER!

Roger Hammer 2005 Vivid Photo WINNER!

Stefan Melander 2001 Scarlet Knight WINNER!

Eric Ledford 2002 Chip Chip Hooray WINNER!

Trevor Ritchie 2000 Yankee Paco WINNER! (NOTE: He's the only one on this list to also debut and win his first Meadowlands Pace in 1987 with Frugal Gourmet).

What elim?

For the third straight year, the Hambletonian winner did not win his/her elimination.

2017 Perfect Spirit was third in his elim.

2018 Atlanta was second in his elim.

2019 Forbidden Trade was third in his elim.

Couple of longshots

Twice a better than 50-1 shot hit the board during Saturday's Hambletonian Day card at the Meadowlands:

In the second race, 53-1 shot Mach N Cheese won for driver Simon Allard.

In the 15th race, 94-1 shot Semi Tough was third with Matt Kakaley.

Father-son duos dominate Battles on Industry Day

The father-son teams of Carl and Jody Jamieson and Gregg and Doug McNair won the Battle of Waterloo and Battle of the Belles, respectively, Monday at Grand River Raceway.

by Kelly Spencer / True Nature Communications

Grand River Raceway marked its 29th annual Industry Day celebration on Monday (Aug. 5). The afternoon featured 11 races totaling $540,850 in purses, including the track's feature dashes, the Battle Of Waterloo and Battle Of The Belles, both of which were broadcast live (and are still available for viewing) on HRU's Facebook page thanks to the Central Ontario Standardbred Association (COSA).

It was a homecoming of sorts for two families who have previously dominated these jewel races in the Elora, ON track's marquee event.

teamed up to win with Sports Obsession, their 7-1 starter from post five.

Jamieson maneuvered traffic trouble past the halfway marker when Bettorbuckleup and Beach Blanket Book hooked wheels and were taken out of contention.

Soon after, the winning pair cleared to the lead and remained on top to clinch the win. The 1:54 score was the Sportswriter son's second career win in five starts. Betting favourite Wind Blown with J Harris was second for trainer Teesha Symes. Aneto with Bob McClure rounded out the top three.

Carl Jamieson co-owns Sports Obsession with George Harrison.

"I told everyone that the horse had a good shot. We just needed a little luck," Carl said.

Carl Jamieson trained and drove the first-ever Battle Of Waterloo winner Distinctiv Skeeter in 1998. He also piloted and trained CT Rocket in 2000 and went on to win three more editions with son Jody in the bike in 2002, 2004 and

"Dad and I did it again," Jody Jamieson said, beaming. "I think it was a special omen today, us teaming up again in the Battle of Waterloo after those victories in the past."

11th annual Battle Of The Belles

A field of talented 2-year-old pacing fillies contested the 11th edition of the $157,500 Battle Of The Belles.

Doug McNair and Karma Seelster capitalized on early action to capture the win at 27-1 in 1:54.4, which matches the stake record set by Play The Bell in 2017. Karma Seelster scored her maiden win in her elimination division last week but drew the outside starting post (#8) in the final.

She took to the top as heavy-favorite Alicorn (post four) and Louis Philippe Roy made a break at the first quarter. Alicorn matched the divisional track record in her elimination win last week in 1:54.2. She also holds an OSS speed record earned earlier this year.

After her miscue, Roy quickly regrouped Alicorn and she came on strong to finish second for trainer Chantal Mitchell. Temagami Seelster and J Harris were third.

This was the second Battle Of The Belles title for the father-son duo of driver Doug McNair and trainer Gregg McNair, both of Guelph, ON. The pair won the 2013 edition with Lady Shadow. They also paired up to win the Battle Of Waterloo in 2008, 2013 and 2015.

"I haven't been in the winner's circle for a while for one of these races," said Doug McNair. "I remember when I was 18 standing here. Time flies. It feels pretty good to be here today. And nice to get one for Keith (Waples)."

Hall Of Fame horseman Keith Waples co-owns the Sportswriter filly with his wife Eileen and their daughter Karen Hauver. Karma Seelster was a $127,000 yearling purchase in 2018 at the London Select Sale.

"We had a little trouble with her gait this winter (in Florida) but she has really come along since we've been back in Ontario," said Gregg McNair. "It's great to win at Grand River Raceway. It's our home track and we're here quite a bit in the spring training these horses down and I really like it here," he said.

Undercard

The Industry Day undercard included five divisions of Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) for 3-year-old colt pacers.

Division leader Sugartown sweetened his hold on the year-end Grassroots title. The Sportswriter son held off Fast N First (James MacDonald) to win his third sophomore OSS race (and sixth season win) by a neck in 1:53.1 with Louis Philippe Roy for trainer Richard Moreau.

That 1:53.1 clocking was the quickest of OSS action on Industry Day and matched the first division of the day when Travis Cullen steered Dreamfair Moxy to his sixth career win for owner John Lamers and trainer Jodie Cullen.

The final division featured HP Napoleon in his fourth consecutive win from nine starts this season. Mario Baillargeon drove the Big Jim gelding for brother Ben Baillargeon to a three-quarter-length finish in 1:54.3.

The quickest mile of the afternoon went to Ghost Dance in the Preferred pace (Race 9). Bob McClure piloted the Nick Gallucci student to a front-end win by 13 lengths in 1:51.1 for owner Millar Farms. It was the first win of the season for the four-year-old gelding. He has banked $166,000 in career earnings.

Record Handle

Monday's handle of $488,696 is a new Industry Day record, besting the previous record of $481,239 set in 2016.

Bettors Wish (with Dexter Dunn winning their North America Cup elimination) is the 5-2 morning line favorite for Saturday's Carl Milstein Memorial at Northfield Park.

Top sophomores set to clash in $400,000 Carl Milstein Memorial

by Ayers Ratliff / Northfield Park

Bettor's Wish has been named the 5-2 morning line favorite by Northfield's executive vice-president of racing and simulcasting, Dave Bianconi, in Saturday's $400,000 Carl Milstein Memorial. The top money-earner headlines an accomplished field of eight in Northfield Park's premier event. The Milstein is a 3-year-old open by invitation only. The featured event is slated as race 10 on a 16-race program and carries a 6 p.m. first-race post time, with the main event slated for approximately 9:30 p.m.

Bettor's Wish is the winner of this year's $300,000 Art Rooney Memorial at Yonkers. He has won five of eight races this year. His three losses have been runner-up finishes in the $1 million North America Cup, $682,650 Meadowlands Pace and the $285,362 Cane Pace. The Chris Ryder trainee has banked $624,544 in purses this year and drew post-3. Bettor's Wish is owned by the partnership of Chris Ryder, Bella Racing, Fair Island Form and Bettors Wish Partners. They will use Dexter Dunn, who hails from New Zealand and has been a driving force since coming to the United States.

Century Farroh drew post-2 and is the 7-2 second choice. He ventures south of the border for the first time in his career on the heels of a 4-race win streak. This top Ontario Sires Stakes performer has won eight of nine races this year, and has earned $241,959 for owner Ratchford Stable of Nova Scotia. Trainer Dr. Ian Moore listed Harness Racing Hall of Famer David Miller to drive.

Workin Ona Mystery drew post five and is the 4-1 third choice. He is fresh off a 1:51.1 (last quarter :25.3) qualifier at Hoosier Park. He has not missed the board this year and has three wins in six races, including third place finishes in the North America Cup and Meadowlands Pace. Brian Brown trains this colt at the historic Fairgrounds in Delaware, OH for owners Diamond Creek Racing, Stambaugh Leeman Stable (Wauseon, OH), Alan Keith (Johnstown, OH) and Wingfield Brothers LLC (Kenton, OH). Workin Ona Mystery has $248,489 in earnings this year and will be driven by racing superstar Tim Tetrick.

The 2019 $400,000 Carl Milstein Memorial field:

Post Horse Driver Trainer M/L

- 1 Captain Victorious Yannick Gingras Ron Burke 8-1
- 2 Century Farroh David Miller Dr. Ian Moore 7-2
- 3 Bettor's Wish Chris Ryder Dexter Dunn 5-2
- 4 Yankee Boots Dan Noble Steve Carter 15-1
- 5 Workin Ona Mystery Tim Tetrick Brian Brown 4-1
- 6 Rockie Got Framed Ricky Macomber Jr. Jamie Macomber 20-1
- 7 American Mercury Tyler Buter Chris Oakes 12-1
- 8 Southwind Ozzi Brian Sears Bill Mac Kenzie 9-2

The race is named in honor of Carl Milstein, who owned Northfield Park from 1984 until his death in 1999. The Milstein family operated Northfield Park until July, 2018 when MGM Growth Properties purchased the racetrack from Milstein Entertainment, LLC.

In 1972, the senior Milstein, a Cleveland builder and real estate developer, headed a group of several partners, including George Steinbrenner, which purchased Northfield Park. They leased the facility to other operators through the early 1980s. The track lost significant amounts of money during that period before Milstein took full ownership and control. In late 1984 he successfully applied to the Ohio State Racing Commission for the necessary licenses and, beginning in January 1985, conducted permanent race meetings at Northfield of between 212 and 238 days every year.

Milstein was the driving force behind a resurgence of the beleaguered track, which ascended to among harness racing's top tracks in attendance and handle. He was an innovator in promotions and advertising and successfully led the track into the era of simulcast racing.

Exciting undercard

This year's Milstein Memorial program carries total purses in excess of $750,000.

The 16-race program includes the $50,000 Myron Charna

Dave Landry

Workin Ona Mystery (Tim Tetrick, winning their North America Cup elimination) will start from post 5 in the Milstein.

President's Pace, a race for 4-year-old and up Ohio sired pacers (by invitation only), three $40,000 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt trotters, two $50,000 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old filly pacers, as well as two $15,000 Open events.

A $20,000 Pick 4 guaranteed pool started in race seven and consists of a $40,000 OSS, the Charna, the Open Pace and the Milstein. Another Pick 4 begins in race 11 and offers a $10,000 guaranteed pool.

In addition to superior racing action, Milstein Night will also offer guests a sumptuous spread in Lady Luck's clubhouse dining room. The dinner buffet, inspired by MGM Northfield Park Executive Chef Chris Poplin, is specially priced at $21.95. Limited clubhouse seating remains; call 330.467.4101 for reservations.

Guests who want to be down close to all the racing action can gather on the grandstand apron and enjoy live music and food trucks from 6 to 9 p.m. Register for the Charna/Milstein Handicapping Double Contest, play Plinko from 6:30 to 7:30PM and spin the Prize Wheel 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Admission and parking are always free at Northfield Park.

Hambletonian winners Bob McClure and Forbidden Trade are Canadian treasures

by Jackson Thompson

(written as an assignment for the Clyde Hirt Sports Media Workshop that introduces aspiring journalists to harness racing).

One year after the Kawhi Leonard trade set the Toronto Raptors on the path toward an NBA Championship, another "trade" gave the nation of Canada an additional huge triumph in 2019.

Forbidden Trade, a trotter owned by Quebec's Determination Stables, pulled off a shocking 15-1 upset in the $1 million Hambletonian at the Meadowlands on Saturday. Much like the Raptors slaying of the two-time defending champion Golden State Warriors, prohibitive Hambletonian favorite Greenshoe – a 1-5 public-choice – tasted defeat after a determined effort from Forbidden Trade, who made his 28-year-old driver Bob McClure a Hambletonian winner in his first attempt in the sport's biggest event.

McClure likened his victory to the Raptors' recent NBA victory.

"I absolutely love the Raptors," said McClure. "The entire nation was so proud and I think even a lot of Americans were cheering for (the Raptors), probably because we were the underdog and everybody loves an underdog."

Six weeks later, as a rank outsider, McClure himself got the opportunity to embrace and capitalize on the underdog role. He claims that "flying under the radar" at this year's trotting classic was an advantage that relieved him of pressure.

"The most pressure I had was on Twitter," said McClure. "For the last week or two, it's been hashtag 'go Canada go'. I felt like it was us against the U.S."

Prior to Saturday, McClure and Forbidden Trade's only other trip to the Meadowlands was a seventh-place finish in an elimination for last year's Valley Victory on Nov. 17, the same day Leonard sat out of a game against the Chicago Bulls to rest.

Rest also proved to be a stoppage in McClure's journey to the winner's circle, but under less than ideal circumstances. During a qualifier at Woodbine Mohawk Park in late April, a chain reaction accident was triggered when a competing horse stepped on the wheel of another, spilling multiple drivers out of their sulks and onto the track.

One of those drivers was McClure, who sustained a broken pelvis. The accident put McClure out of racing for an extended period of time in which he was restrained to almost no movement throughout the day.

"I've never experienced anything like (that), and in our industry there's a lot of it," said McClure. "I made sure I didn't move. I was going to the hyperbolic chamber four times a week. I was going to physiotherapy four times a week and just laying down and resting as much as I could. I tried not to watch the races, because it just made me depressed."

McClure spent six weeks on the sidelines, and it was time that McClure was able to fully devote to family. McClure's toddler son became the beneficiary of a month and a half of his injured father being rooted firmly at home for maximum bonding time.

Dave Landry

"From the time he was born, I've been able to spend seven days a week with him, so I'm really lucky that way," said McClure. "The only difference was, (after I got hurt) I was able to spend nights with him and I was able to watch him go to sleep every night. It was nice family time, but my wife was gonna kill me if I stayed home any longer."

The injury that gave McClure that time with his 3-year-old son proved to only be a temporary roadblock in his Hambletonian journey. He returned to the track one day after the Raptors went up 3-2 over the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA's Eastern Conference Finals.

The team of McClure and Forbidden Trade found themselves on an unstoppable run in the wake of his return, winning four races in a row going into the Hambletonian, where they pulled off the big surprise to join Kawhi Leonard and the Raptors as national heroes.

"Unfortunately, he's gone now," said McClure, alluding to Leonard's offseason, free agent signing with the Los Angeles Clippers. "But he brought the city and the country a title, so he owes us nothing."

Somebeachsometime turns heads in Whenuwishuponastar

Somebeachsometime stormed by rivals in the stretch to win Tuesday's second leg of the Whenuwishuponastar Series at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The 2-year-old daughter of Somebeachsomewhere paced home in :26.3, part of a :53.3 back-half, to come from sixth for the stunning victory in the second leg of the three-week event.

Driven by Jody Jamieson, Somebeachsometime got away last in the field of seventh and remained in that position at the midway point. Even-money choice Caviart Jane moved to the top from third in the second-quarter and led the field by the half in :56.

Caviart Jane paced a solid :28.1 third-quarter to lead the field into the stretch. Meanwhile, Jamieson moved to the outside approaching three-quarters to sit just over seven-lengths from the top.

The stretch drive saw Caviart Jane hold a clear lead at the eighth-pole, but the far outside saw a pair of fillies charging. Lady Lou, who was second-over and five-lengths off at three-quarters, was making up ground late, but Somebeachsometime was storming up just a bit quicker.

Caviart Jane surrendered the lead late and watched Somebeachsometime prevail by a head over Lady Lou in 1:52.1. Libspeak finished fourth.

Trained by Dave Menary, Somebeachsometime was a $65,000 Harrisburg Yearling Sale purchase and is the first foal out of Well Said mare Talk Time. She finished fourth in her debut last week, pacing home in :26 and now has a victory and $8,700 earned for owners Menary Racing Inc, Michael Guerriero, Kenneth Ewen and Bruce Norris.

A $2 win ticket on Somebeachsometime returned $4.80.

Round one winners Alexa Skye and Reflect With Me did not compete in the second leg. The $50,000 series final will take place next Tuesday (Aug. 13).

America Rebel, Freedom Warrior win NYSS events

Yonkers Raceway on Tuesday night (Aug. 6) played host to the $153,200 New York Sire Stakes Jim Crawford Pace for 2-year-old colts and geldings.

A $75,900 non-bettor and a wagering-carded $77,300 division comprised the event.

The before-the-program bandwagon was led by American Rebel (Tyler Buter).

Making the first lead from post position No. 2, American Rebel then deferred to Groovy Joe (Matt Kakaley). The latter needed just about the entire :28.1 opening quarter-mile to get there.

However, American Rebel was none too thrilled about the pocket, so he extricated himself right at the :57.2 intermission. American Rebel had few issues from there (1:25.4, life-best 1:54), getting minimal grief from a first-up Cigars and Port (Ray Schnittker) before widening in the lane.

The final margin over Groovy Joe was two lengths, with Cigars and Port hanging around for third.

For American Rebel, a son of American Ideal co-owned by (trainer) Rob Harmon and Robert Robinson, it was his third win in seven seasonal/career starts.

"He was really great today," Buter said. "I knew if I had him in front, they wouldn't catch us."

The evening's wagering sire stakes event saw a scattered gathering between those that either broke or pulled up.

Meanwhile, Freedom Warrior (Dan Dube, $14.40) found his way out of the maiden ranks by pacing a mile... and a few extra steps.

From post No. 6, he was away fourth, ahead of some early misbehavers. He was then wide down the backside the first time around another non-conformist.

Freedom Warrior had a loose target to chase in the presence of Splash Brother (Brent Holland), with that one going right along though intervals of :27.4, :56.1 and 1:24.4.

The pursuer steadily closed ranks, getting past his rival late to win by three-quarters of a length in 1:54.2. It was about a dozen lengths back a tiring 11-10 choice Save Me a Dance (Jason Bartlett), while 45-1 outsider R Maddy Blue Chip (Kakaley) was fourth

For fourth choice Freedom Warrior, an American Ideal gelding owned by Forrest Bartlett and trained by Kevin Lare, it was that first win in five '19/life starts. The exacta paid $55.50, the triple returned $146 and there was no superfecta wagering (coupled entry in the race).

"He's a very fast horse," Dube said. "You have to be careful with him."

New York Sire Stakes continue downstate Aug. 22 with the Pat Quaglietta Trot for 2-year-old fillies (purse TBA).

Tall Dark Stranger cruises in Dream Maker

Tall Dark Stranger stormed into Mohawk Park to deliver an impressive 1:51.1 victory in Monday's second leg of the Dream Maker Series.

An overflow field of 11 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings clashed in the second-leg of the three-week event. Round one winners Allywag Hanover and Captain Midnight sat out this week.

Trainer Nancy Johansson rolled into town with a pair of freshmen, including $330,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase Tall Dark Stranger. The Bettors Delight colt won his season debut in 1:51.3 at The Meadowlands on July 26 and did not disappoint in his follow-up race.

Tall Dark Stranger and driver Yannick Gingras took their time in the early going after leaving from the middle of the gate and were a parked out fourth at the opening-quarter. The Johansson trainee powered ahead in the second-quarter and cleared to the top just before hitting the half in :55.3.

After reaching three-quarters in 1:24.2, Tall Dark Stranger sprinted home impressively in :26.4 to win easily by three lengths.

Hes Watching colt One For Julius raced well to finish second after surrendering the lead to the winner in the second quarter. Captaintreacherous colt Captain Kirk rallied from sixth at three-quarters to finish third by pacing a :26.2 final-quarter.

Tall Dark Stranger is the second foal out of O'Brien Award winner Precocious Beauty and is owned by Crawford Farms Racing, Marvin Katz, Caviart Farms and Howard Taylor. He is now two-for-two and has earned $14,000.

A $2 win ticket on Tall Dark Stranger returned $2.50.

The $50,000 Dream Maker Series final will take place next Monday evening (Aug. 12).

Hambletonian Future wager provides great value

The Hambletonian Future wager proved to be an extreme value play for those following and cashing in on the race winner Forbidden Trade. The son of Kadabra captured the $1 million event at The Meadowlands in dramatic style returning $33.80 to win for those placing wagers close to post time.

In the four separate Future wagers heading into the first jewel in Trotting's Triple Crown sharp players saw profits rise from the opening wager until the last. Forbidden Trade returned $22 in the first pool that closed with just $1,810 wagered in total.

Price shoppers struck gold in the second pool when Forbidden Trade's backers were rewarded with a $103.60 payout, more than triple his post time odds.

Forbidden Trade was still an overlay in the third Future wager with a $40.20 payout. The Hambletonian Future wager got significantly more traction as the race got closer to post time with $13,304 wagered in the fourth pool. Sharp players who backed the Ontario-sired colt trained by Luc Blais and driven most ably by Bob McClure took in $57.80 for a $2 wager nearly double the post time payoff.

Evan's Legacy fundraiser Saturday at Mohawk Park

Woodbine Mohawk Park is proud to play host to the fourth annual "Drive with us for Evan's Legacy" fundraiser this Saturday evening (Aug. 10).

Evan Leversage became well known in October of 2015 after his hometown of St. George, ON presented the 7-year-old with an early-Christmas parade. Evan had been battling an inoperable brain tumor for five years and had wished to see another Christmas.

Unfortunately, Evan did not make it to Christmas and passed away in December of 2015.

Evan's mother, Nicole Wellwood, and family launched Evan's Legacy, a foundation to raise money for research into childhood cancers and brain tumors.

The funds raised by Evan's Legacy, are being directed to research into pediatric brain cancer. This project is in its early stages as Dr. Michael Taylor and his team at SickKids in Toronto continue their ground-breaking childhood brain cancer research originally funded through a 2014 grant with Brain Tumour Foundation of Canada.

Woodbine Mohawk Park will again host the Evan's Legacy team on Saturday evening for a fundraiser. Events and activities include:

- Raffle draw and prize giveaways
- Firetruck tours
- Dunking for apples
- Meet and greet with Guelph Storm captain Cam Hillis
- Meet and greet with boxer Fitz Vanderpool
- Start car rides
- COSA sulky rides

Saturday evening's card of racing will feature a race named in memory of Evan and a special winner's circle presentation. Post time is 7:10 p.m.

More information on "Drive with us for Evan's Legacy" will be made available on the various @WoodbineSB social media platforms.

Legendary NJ horseman's farm to be auctioned

The Colts Neck, NJ, horse farm founded by the late Hall of Famer Anthony T. Abbatiello, a leader in the growth of harness racing that propelled New Jersey to prominence in the sport for four decades, is to be sold at auction on site on Sept. 5.

Sale of the 64.3-acre property, reduced from its original 450 acres many years ago by a state takeover of land for a major state highway (Route 18), includes a house, two barns with horse or livestock stalls, a half-mile horse training track, an accessory building with three large garage-type bays, four ponds for fishing or irrigation.

The farm, a significant real estate part of shaping New Jersey harness racing history, is in close proximity to Freehold Raceway and convenient to Monmouth Park and The Meadowlands racetracks.

The prominent Max Spann real estate firm will conduct the auction at 11 a.m. on Sept. 5, with on-site property previews scheduled for Aug. 13 and 24 from 12 to 2 p.m.

Auction details available here.

Abbatiello, who died in October 2017, established the standardbred-training farm 65 years ago after his heroic service in the Korean War that earned him three Purple Hearts, two Bronze Stars and a nomination for the Silver Star, among numerous battle citations and honors.

Named Five Point Farm for the road on which it is located, Abbatiello brought his two younger brothers Carmine, who also is a Harness Racing Hall of Famer, and Matt with him to create one of the eventual focal points of New Jersey harness racing. Carmine, one of harness racing's premier drivers, was inducted in 1985. When Anthony was inducted nine years later, they became the first brother combination to be so honored.

Abbatiello, born and raised in Staten Island, NY, bought and founded the farm shortly after he returned from the war and worked briefly for the late Hall of Famer Stanley Dancer, whose Egyptian Acres farm was located nearby.

Abbatiello co-founded with Dancer the Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association of New Jersey, served as the group's president for nearly 30 years and was influential in the establishment of The Meadowlands and bringing the world famous Hambletonian race to that racetrack.
