TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Part of this scribe's intent is to cover as many facets of our great sport as possible. Each week, I ask myself, "Which part of the sport haven't I covered?" Sometimes I get lucky and come up with an answer. Until now, I have yet to cover a race caller. Who better to profile than the man who has likely called more races than anybody involved in all forms of horse racing. That person is harness racing's own Roger Huston. This coming week, he will announce his 182,000 race in Wales at Tir Prince Raceway, where for the eighth time he will be calling the Vincent Delaney Memorial.

Q: It's been a long road that you've traveled, tell us a little bit about your fantastic journey.

"Indeed it has been exactly that. I'm one of the lucky guys. I've never worked a day in my life. I've done what I love doing and I've been fortunate enough to make many lifelong friends throughout my many years in our sport. What follows would be a brief synopsis of my working life from 1960 through the present.

"My uncle Don Huston was the race caller at Lebanon Raceway from 1953 through 2013. In May of 1960, I accompanied him to the races at Wilmington, Ohio. He had to use the bathroom and asked me to call the parade to the post. I had done high school announcing of basketball and football games. Nevertheless, I was a neophyte when it came to horse racing.

"I accompanied Uncle Don to the races just about every time he went. Later that same year, Uncle Don excused himself again. Don had to be at Latonia Raceway to call the races and he asked me to sub for him at the Fair held in Wilmington, Ohio. The microphone was mine and I was drafted to call the races. I suppose I did a good enough job. During the course of that season I would occasionally get other fairs at which to announce.

"In 1967 I became the full-time announcer at The Red Mile in Lexington. I called the races concurrently between Lexington and The Red Mile from 1967 and Pompano until 1975.

"In 1974, Joe Hardy who owned The Meadows with Ed Ryan, was at Pompano to see one of his horses race. He went back to Pittsburgh where he mentioned me to Ed Ryan and the track's general manager John Townsend. I was invited to visit The Meadows. I flew to Pittsburgh in February of 1975. I thought things went pretty well, but strangely enough I didn't hear anything further from those folks. I saw Ed Ryan at The Red Mile that Fall. I mentioned to him that I hadn't heard from anybody there regarding my visit. Ed spoke to Joe Hardy who came to my home in Florida in early October of 1975. He said that he wasn't going to leave until I agreed to come to work at The Meadows. After much talking, we made a deal. I was going to become the track announcer at The Meadows.

On Halloween of 1975, I told Hector Van Lennep, the GM of Pompano that I was leaving. I was at The Meadows from 1976 through 2019.

"In early 2019, I received a call from Steve Bateson, the president of the Ohio Horseman's Association. Our mutual friend, Jerry Knappenberger, who worked with OHHA, had passed away. Steve asked me if I were coming to the celebration of Jerry's life. He asked me to put away an hour of time while there to speak with him. We met and Steve said that the association was creating a position to be called "The Brand Ambassador." Steve thought

"I would have to say that not only was it my favorite race call, but the Jug that Wiggle It Jiggleit beat Lost For Words was my all-time favorite. If I were to show someone who was new to the sport what harness racing was all about, I would go to that race."

that I would be the perfect man for the job. I thought it over. All the parts fit. It was very difficult leaving a place where I had family and numerous friends. I've now been with OHHA over two years and everything has worked out well.

"I still get to The Meadows often enough. I still follow the races and the people involved in them. I am back in my home state loving all the fair racing and I'm still calling some races at The Meadows and, all four Ohio pari-mutuel tracks as well as many of the Ohio Fairs. It has been a great life and I'm enjoying every part of it."

in 2020. Every true harness racing fan should mark this as a 'must do' on their racing calendar. The atmosphere, the horses, the fabulous Irish people and their love of life make the race and the entire racing weekend extra special."

Q: Speaking of extra special events you are known as the voice of the Little Brown jug.

"What else can I say about the Jug that hasn't been said before? It's the most special week of the year for me. I've been attending the Jug since 1958 and calling the race since 1968. I actually started calling the supporting card for the Jug in 1967. I've called the Jug since 1968 and haven't missed a race since."

Q: Let's talk about your race calls. Do you have a favorite?

"I would have to say that not only was it my favorite race call, but the Jug that Wiggle It

Q: Hearing you for decades I've been impressed by the immediate information you have at your disposal.

"I've always been consumed by statistics. I began counting the races that I've called and never really stopped. In addition, I gathered all the information on stakes races at The Meadows and most everything related to the drivers racing there — even those that only came to drive in stakes races. To give you an example of the progression of our breed, I used to keep track of all the 2:00 miles at the track. Of course, I only did that until that particular statistic became meaningless. I've kept sequential statistics on the number of race calls I've made and the events and places in which some of the notable ones were made. For example, race call 10,000 was at The Red Mile, 100,000 at The Meadows, 150,000 at The Meadows, 170,000 in Dublin Ireland. Race number 182,000 will be next week at Tir Prince in Wales on Vincent Delaney Memorial weekend."

Q: The Vincent Delaney Memorial has been a favorite of yours.

"This will be the eighth time I've been to it to call the race. I went for seven consecutive until COVID made travel prohibitive

Jiggleit beat Lost For Words was my all-time favorite. If I were to show someone who was new to the sport what harness racing was all about, I would go to that race. From the three eighths these two were toe to toe. At the top of the lane it appeared that Lost for Words was going to win, but WIJ was not going to accept losing. It was the ultimate in competition. There are a lot of people who think Falcon Seelster's race on Jug day was my ultimate call. It was well anticipated that Tom Harmer, Falcon Seelster's trainer/driver was going to try to get a new world record on him in that race. I spoke with Tom the night before the race and he timed each of the first three quarters for me. He was right on the money with each of the quarters. I asked Tom about that last quarter. He said, 'That will be up to Falcon Seelster.'

Q: Let's talk about your all-time favorite person in the sport, Delvin Glenn Miller.

"What can I say except that there never has been, nor will there ever be another person like Delvin. I remember him every single day of my life. His Hall of Fame ring was given to me by Mary Lib at the request of Delvin before he passed. It is always on my finger. It's a great remembrance of a great person. Just think of all that he did for the sport. He stood out as a trainer, driver, breeder, track builder and owner. Perhaps most importantly, he was a truly great person. The number of people he helped and gave chances to was enormous. He built The Meadows and almost single-handedly made The Adios into one of the true classic races of our sport. His pre-race Adios barn parties a few days prior to the race attracted some of his friends like Arnold Palmer, Stan Musial, Perry Como and Whitey Ford. I'd be remiss if I didn't mention his beloved wife Mary Lib. Nowhere is the expression ‘behind every great man is a great woman’ more true than with Mary Lib Miller. After she passed, I was advised by her attorney that she had requested that I deliver the eulogy at her funeral. That was one of the greatest compliments I have ever received.”

Q: Let’s speak about some of the folks that have the same profession as you, the race callers. Please give us a rundown of your five best.

“1. Charlie Hinkle – It’s a shame that just about everyone reading this may not have even heard of Charlie. He was the best in a field of numerous great ones. You had to have heard him call a race to realize how good he was. He did the Jug for many years as well as The Meadows and Vernon Down. He hails from Xenia, Ohio, the same home town as me. When he passed he asked his daughter to scatter his ashes in the Pacific Ocean. She then contacted me and asked that I spread the rest of his ashes at The Meadows and on the racetrack at the Greene County Fair in Xenia. She sent them to me. I will complete this wish today.

“2. Tom Durkin - He excelled both with we harness folks and especially with the runners. He called the thoroughbred Triple Crown races for many years.

“3. Chick Lang - “For many years the race caller at Pimlico. His race call for Secretariat in the Preakness was legendary.

“4. Sam McKee - The one closest to my heart. I knew him from the time he was 9 years old. He always wanted to be a race caller. I think I can take a tiny bit of credit for having tutored him a little. On the other hand, his race calling was totally different from mine. I suppose that good announcers are like good horses – they are born, not made.

“5. Larry Lederman - One of a kind. In addition to being able to call races accurately, he could make them really funny. I remember one race card at Freehold where he called every race in the voice and manner of a different announcer.”

Q: What in your career are you most proud?

“I think it’s that I’ve always put everything into all that I’ve done. I may not have been the best, but I believe that nobody tries harder. Another thing is that I’ve never had to look for a job. Every position that I’ve ever had came to me. I look upon that as a great compliment.”

RACEHORSE TRAINER AND EQUIMETRE USER SINCE 2021

I am a big believer in gathering as much information as possible to help you make the best decisions about your horses' training and management. My favorite feature is being able to track all of my horses' metrics, such as how much time they spend in the heart rate zones. Some horses, like people, get more out of an exercise than others, and the time they spend in each heart rate zone determines how long they need to recover. Equimetre does a very good job of laying out the data for you in easy, understandable terms.

The continuing education of a yearling shopper

by Trey Nosrac

The learning curve is steep for those who entered this sport without a harness racing background. Pedigree reading and evaluation of conformation are extremely daunting subjects. My first few partnerships occurred without understanding how to decipher those sales catalogs that my partner found so enthralling. To my early ears, all the talk about pedigrees, families, golden crosses and second dams could have been in Mongolian. My eyes glazed over and then rolled at this gibberish.

Home schooling myself using books, the Internet, and a dab of time spent jogging on weekends, was my education. Only after several years did the words on the sales pages and the puzzle of pedigrees come into focus. Somehow, unbelievably, opening a bulky yearling catalog and shopping for our annual horse became the most enjoyable part of the sport for me.

For months before the yearling sales, my pal and I become a tad maniacal, making more lists than Santa Claus receives and checking them twice, three, and four times. I turned into one of those people spouting pedigree gibberish. Searching for dreams on catalog pages and sales videos is a great time filled with hope, free from training and vet bills.

If Treys knows one thing, it is that he does not know much about the exotic world of yearling selection. It would be a treat and helpful to watch and listen to people who are experts. The pitch here is for education forums to learn and add to the fun of the annual yearling sales. All it would take is a pair of pedigree mavens and a streaming platform where they could run through a series of mock drafts of yearlings in the catalogs.

Other sports' draft prognostication shows are everywhere. The hosts enjoy predicting, and the viewers enjoy the show. We could use a few of these energetic platforms to go deeper into research before selecting a yearling from among the thousands going to market.

While I find it moderately interesting to listen in on the hundreds of panels previewing other professional sports mock drafts,

I would find it tremendously interesting to listen to experts talk about pre-yearling sales analysis. Not merely to hear what prospects in a catalog they prefer, but WHY they like the horse. What do these experts see beyond the apparent percentages and earnings, or think they see, that most of us miss?

Psychologically, there is a strong pull for these types of presentations. People love predicting things, having strong beliefs, and being proven correct. Even though the pool of yearling buyers is smallish and somewhat insular, this does not mean that we cannot incorporate some of the business techniques other sports use to motivate fans and customers during the non-action section of the season.

We all know people, you may be one of them, who immediately take each catalog, the Ohio Select, Harrisburg, Lexington, etc., and go through the pages meticulously, underlining, marking, circling, and making lists. True experts research information that is not in the catalog. Then after the yearling videos, they make adjustments. In the end, they arrive at a rating and price range.

Imagine if a couple of unbiased pedigree nerds separated a catalog into segments and analyzed the Pennsylvania yearling pacing fillies on a webinar or podcast. As a potential yearling shopper, I would be all over that. They would increase my knowledge, and they may inspire me to buy. I may or may not agree with them, but it would be fun.

The digital world has spawned passionate communities of people hoping to improve their knowledge in various niches. Deep research online is amazingly addictive, and yearling selection webinars could be attractive to us and possibly a few others in sporting fandom. Creating these new virtual communities to research and evaluate horses going to auction holds the hope of finding a few new participants. The “drafty” door may be more promising than asking young newbies to sit in the grandstands and fall in love with a glacially slow sport.

There is a similarity between a yearling sale and the world of professional sports drafts. Today, in our data-driven era, sports drafts are big business. Fans live vicariously through their home team. Even though they have no money at stake, they want to find the diamonds in the rough, debate selections, and sit on tenterhooks each draft day. With no skin in the game, they love the hunt. Imagine how interested these sports fans would find hunting for a yearling and securing their horse and franchise with their own money.

If a few expert pickers considered getting on their high horses to stream a series of yearling selection podcasts or webinars, I would be in the audience having fun and learning.

BRUSH AND CRUSH

by DEAN TOWERS

Hambletonian Day, as it happened

by Dean Towers

Each year my recap for the Hambletonian Day is quite easy, because I get up, get ready, and watch every minute. I love this day.

Please allow me to share a few of my thoughts on a wonderful day of harness racing.

Our day started with a bang – if you bet like I do – as the Pick 6 carryover landed in race one. In the lid-lifter, speed looked good with the very tough Billy Clyde going gate to wire, but maybe not quite as good as we're used to seeing under the daylight. Perhaps we'd see some closers, and some prices?

In the Dr. John Steele Memorial, Bella Bellini did what she didn't do last week – show up. She's an absolute monster and Dexter seems thrilled to be able to drive her. Magical.

The Peter Haughton was the next big tilt, and everyone told me that Oh Well was a lock. I thought I'd get the last laugh on them with Carter Michael Deo as my play. We were both wrong, as Kilmister won another big race for Chapter Seven, and did it as easy as a horse could.

I found the Continental victory the most exciting race of the day with horses coming from everywhere, culminating with the big move by Misswalner Fashion. Ed DeRosa, who was covering the event for Horse Racing Nation sent me a note, "the finishes here are way more exciting than most thoroughbred races." On this day, indeed!

I'm happy Jim Campbell got that very talented filly of his to fire finally, and we didn't know it at the time, but this was a harbinger of things to come.

In the Shady Daisy, Max Contract got the job done, just like she usually does. I thought it was a heads-up drive by Andy Miller. I didn't have him on point when I handicapped, but he knew where he needed to be. That's why he drives 'em and I bet 'em.

I was convinced Mad Max Hanover would eat Beach Glass for lunch in the Cane. I'm not often right. Beach Glass is not Somebeachsomewhere, but it really looks to me like the connections are having just as much fun.

The Lady Liberty presented us once again with the best the sport has to offer by way of excitement. Two back, Kobe's Gigi was locked for dear life with a ton of pace, and it happened again, but this time she got out. She's a nice mare, and they must've been thrilled the racing Gods gave them a lane this time.

Who did you like in the Sam McKee, Abuckabett Hanover or Rockyroad Hanover? Someone forgot to tell me Catch the Fire was ready to roll and roll he did. Black Magic Racing has put a ton of money into the sport and it's nice to win some big ones. Congratulations!

The first jewel of the day – The Oaks – was kind of disappointing when Warrawee Xenia broke and Venerable wasn't herself, but one of the fastest filly trotters I have seen the last couple of years was a deserved winner. I thought that was a very sharp drive by Mr. Tetrick.

The 13th was the Jim Doherty, and the scorching :55.1 half might've set something up for someone, and the beneficiary was Instagram Model, another daughter of Chapter Seven. This race, frankly, was the highlight of my day, and it's a big reason why I love the sport. In the post-race interview, Annie Stoebe was beaming, and you could tell how much it meant to her; you could feel the pride she had in her horse. Way to go Annie.

Alrajah One. I watch his races and I think he's in a bad spot. He's never in a bad spot.

Last up, at about 6:45 eastern, we raced one of the best, if not the best race in the world, the Hambletonian.

When Rebuff pulled out of the three hole after the glacial :28 first panel I said, "he doesn't look very good", but a few strides later he settled in, and I would've bet him at 1-9 at the half.

But harness racing is funny like that. Things can and do happen; horses fire and then they don't. It's what keeps us coming back; betting, buying yearlings, or entering a race where we may be 50-1. What a day for Jim Campbell and his crew. A hearty congratulations.

I sit on the couch and watch the Hambletonian. But I know how difficult it is to pull this day off. To the Hambletonian Society and everyone at the Big M – well done. Thank you for representing this sport so well. It was a fantastic day.

A race-by-race recap of Hambletonian Day

by Bob Heyden

A complete recap of anything worth noting from Saturday's Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands.

RACES 1 AND 2

Twenty-two years after harness racing's first all sub-1:50 daily double in 2000, we had another and, once again, it was a male and a female.

In 2000, Life Source for Joe Holloway and Howard Parker went in 1:48.4, followed by pacing mare True Art getting it done for Anne Marie Parolari and Bruce Birch in 1:49.3.

On Saturday, Billy Clyde scorched the oval in 1:47.3 for Ray Schnittker and Mark MacDonald followed by 4-1 Majorca N and Corey Callahan for Dylan Davis in sub-1:50 once again.

RACE 3 – STEELE MEMORIAL

Bella Bellini joined the sub-1:50 club with a career best 1:49.4 besting When Doves Cry and Atlanta in the Steele. There were total earnings of more than $6.5 million on the wire with those three. Sire Bar Hopping, the 2016 Hambletonian favorite (fourth) looks to double up later in the Oaks with Manon.

RACE 4 – MUSCLE HILL

Sire Chapter Seven got a busy day going winning with Justice in the Muscle Hill. He dominated from post one for Ake Svanstedt, who did not defend his 2021 Hambletonian title as a driver. That is now 34 straight years of no back-to-backer winning driver in the Hambletonian.

RACE 5 – PETER HAUGHTON MEMORIAL

Kilmister gave Chapter Seven an early double winning the Peter Haughton. Only a late break prevented the Marcus Melander team from going 1-2-3 here. Chapter Seven was fourth in the 2011 Hambletonian at 2-1 a non-threatening 4th. But, in 2012, he posted his career mark right here winning the Cashman in 1:50.1.

RACE 6 – CONTINENTALVICTORY

Misswalner Fashion, a Fashion Farms homebred, upset at 21-1 from post 10 for Tim Tetrack driving for Jim Campbell. Walner gets his first credit of the day. He was the busiest stallion on the card – trotter or pacer – with an amazing 16 in, this despite not having any older than 3. The last time that happened was 2014 with Muscle Hill.

RACE 7 – SHADY DAISY

With $92,300 on the line in the Shady Daisy, Andy and Julie Miller teamed with the talented Max Contract, who is now 6 for 7 lifetime with a break. The ladies were 1-2 as longshot Sweet Treasurer just missed for Nancy Takter. It has been now 30 years since Shady Daisy was second to eventual Horse of the Year Artsplace in 1:50 flat in the U S Pacing Championship.

RACE 8 – CANE PACE

The Cane Pace was the fifth straight week of racing for Beach Glass and he survived it just fine with four wins and a second (Adios). He will be the last son of Somebeachsomewhere to win the Cane, the 498th Triple Crown race in history. Geers winner Mad Max Hanover off his 1:47.4 romp was second best. Night Hawk isn't winning but is more than paying his way. He was third.

RACE 9 – LADY LIBERTY

For the second time in four seasons, a Nifty Norman trainee paid over $100 in this race, the Lady Liberty, and he defeated Test Of Faith on the wire in the process. Norman over Brett Pelling (The worked 17 years together (1988-2005). Kobes Gigi first time Todd McCarthy got it done in 1:48.3. She is owned and bred out of Indiana and made the bulk of her $217G in 2021 in the Indiana Sires Stakes. Amazing Dream N lit up the board for a ten cent super of well into four figures.

RACE 10 – SAM MCKEE MEMORIAL

In the sixth Hambletonian Day without Sam McKee, Catch The Fire – who bred 85 mares in 2021 and 140 this year (full book) – has won the McKee both times and he now heads to a Bulldog Hanover matchup in the Dan Patch on Aug. 12 (where Catch The Fire is also the defending champ). $522,879 was bet on this race and 1:46.4 was a stakes and new track record for older stallions. Dexter Dunn drove for trainer Todd Luther.

RACE 11 – VINCENNES

In the Vincennes, Hillexotic took out of the pocket head-stretch and never looked back in this $60,000 test. Ron Burke trains the son of Muscle Hill – one of 15 on the card for him. It is the first time in nine years Muscle Hill did not have the highest trotting stallion representation (Walner with 16). Burke completed the exacta and was second with Storm Is Raging while favored Amigo Volo fell a buck short-third.

RACE 12 – HAMBLETONIAN OAKS

Fashion Schooner paid the same 6-1 her dam Broadway Schooner did winning this race in 2009 ($14.60). Fashion Schooner is a homebred for Hall Of Famer Jules Siegel, much like Bella Bellini. There were nine homebreds in the Hambletonian and Oaks combined. Tim Tetrick has now won the Oaks for the third time. None of the winners never favored (11-1 on Danae in 2007; 3-1 on Bar Slide in 2010). Second went to Pink Coco Chanel for Joe Bongiorno and Tony Alagna a nose over Dan Daley's Yanaba.

RACE 15 – HAMBLETONIAN

Jim Campbell is the third trainer to win the Oaks and Hambletonian in the same year, following Jan Johnson in 1988 and Jimmy Takter in 2014 and 2015.

Especially poignant for Team Jim Campbell since Tagliabue passed away at age 30 this year on May 15, just 10 days after Hambletonian's 173rd birthdate – May 5, 1949.

Cool Papa Bell paid $106.00 to win. The last 10 Hambletonian combined $105.80.

Remember Jim Campbell also owns the Breeders Crown record of $409.00 to win from 2020.

Todd McCarthy gives the McCarthy brothers a clean sweep of the 2022 world wide million-dollar events – Miracle Mile (Luke McCarthy), North America Cup and Hambletonian (Todd McCarthy) and 2020 Hambletonian (Andy McCarthy).

How proud is Linda Toscano? Her Chapter Seven dominated on the day and went 1-2 in the Hambletonian with Joviality S second. Then, Chapter Seven's son Walner went 3-4 with Temporal Hanover and Jiggy Jog S.

Marcus Melander sent out three, got money with all three, but did not win. He has now done this twice. He did it in 2019, as well. No other trainer has gotten three checks in the Hambletonian without winning it – twice.

The three youngest drivers all got money.

Todd McCarthy, 29, was first.

Dexter Dunn, 32, was fourth with Jiggy Jog S.

Mattias Melander 26, was fifth with Periculum.

Yannick Gingras and David Miller still looking for that elusive first Hambletonian.

It's been 27 years between Hambletonians for Jim Campbell. Sixteen years had previously been the most for trainers between 1930 with Hanovers Bertha and 1946 with Chestertown for trainer Tom Berry.

Jim Campbell trained Run The Table for the Farbers in 1987 1988. Run The Table was a $1.1 million winner for that team and was an effective Ontario stallion after his career ended.

This was the first Hambletonian final in 39 years where two fillies appeared and both got money. In 1983, Duenna and Winkys Gill were 1-2 (1-3 in summary).

Scott Farber gives trainer Jim Campbell a massive hug in the Hambletonian winner's circle.

Playing It Cool

How a 52-1 longshot gave Jim Campbell and Scott Farber the day of their lives.

by Dave Briggs

This is a story of longevity and perseverance and the magic that sometimes can happen when one ignores the odds against.

If one believed the tote board, Cool Papa Bell had no business winning Saturday's (Aug. 6) $1 million Hambletonian at the Meadowlands. In fact, his stirring triumph at 52-1 odds stands as the biggest statistical upset in the grand old race's 97-year history.

For trainer Jim Campbell, it was the capper of the day of days, a single, improbable afternoon when the fates smiled upon him like never before.

He not only won the Hambletonian, he also won the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks with Fashion Schooner — from the 10-hole, no less — after also winning the $33,500 Continental victory with Misswalner Fashion, also from the 10-hole.

He is just the third trainer to win the Hambletonian and the Hambletonian Oaks in the same day, joining Jan Johnson (1988) and Jimmy Takter (2014 and 2015).

"I've never had a day like today. To win the Hambletonian and the Oaks in the same day, you can't top that in this business," Campbell said. "It's just unbelievable and something that I never thought I could do. I just feel very blessed that it happened to me today.

"I've gone out of here lots of days when things didn't go well and got in my truck and was mad because things didn't go well, but a day like today erases any bad day that I've ever had in horse racing."

That Campbell won the two big ones for owners he's had for 35 years and 28 years, respectively, made day even sweeter.

Campbell has trained for Cool Papa Bell's owners, the Farber family, since 1987 and Fashion Schooner's owner Jules Siegel since 1994.

Cool Papa Bell (6, Todd McCarthy) edged filly Joviality S (2, Brian Sears) by three-quarters of a length.

last word went to 52-1 outsider Cool Papa Bell, who emerged from mid-division to nab Joviality S in the final steps.

After Joviality S protected the lead into a :28 first quarter and subsequently yielded to 3-5 favorite Rebuff, who brushed from third with nine-sixteenths to go, Todd McCarthy methodically worked closer with Cool Papa Bell through the final turn. Meanwhile, Rebuff faced steady pressure from Temporal Hanover nearing the top of the stretch before facing an inside challenge from Joviality S — setting up for the much-awaited battle of the sexes. Joviality S succeeded in collaring Rebuff with a sixteenth to go, but Cool Papa Bell cascaded down the center of the track to complete the upset in 1:51.3. Joviality S was a valiant second; Temporal Hanover finished third.

Cool Papa Bell is now a seven-time winner with $760,999 in career earnings.

THIS ONE IS NEXT LEVEL STUFF

So, how did we end up here, with a 52-1 shot posing beside harness racing's holy grail?

In some ways, it goes back to another night Jim Campbell blew up the tote board.

On Halloween night at Harrah's Hoosier park in 2020, Campbell won two Breeders Crowns — the first with Next Level Stuff for Scott Farber's Runthetable Stables and the second the sophomore pacing colts' final with Sandbetweenmytoes at a whopping 203-1, by far a Breeders Crown record.

Put aside the Sandbetweenmytoes jaw-dropping upset, by a neck, of eventual Horse of the Year Tall Dark Stranger for a second. The more important horse here is Next Level Stuff, a Farber family homebred that helped return the clan to stakes prominence.

Owner Scott Farber raising the Hambletonian.

It came at a particularly opportune time. The victory had the karma to help Farber recoup some of his investment in the first six-figure yearling he's ever bought.

A little less than a month before Next Level Stuff won the Breeders Crown for an emotional Farber, he went to $100,000 on a Chapter Seven—Blk Thai Optional colt at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale bred by Belmar Racing and Breeding LLC of Belmar, NJ.

That colt, originally named Seven Year Itch, was renamed Cool Papa Bell. (Had he been named 27 Year Itch it would have been particularly poignant considering 27 years ago Campbell won his first Hambletonian with Tagliabue).

Farber said $100,000 was, without a doubt, his final bid on that colt when the hammer fell in his favor.

"You want to know what else? I spoke to the breeder earlier this week and guess what the reserve was on him? $100,000. So, once it went to $100,000 that was it.

On Saturday, Farber fell to his knees, his head in his hands and wept when McCarthy steered Cool Papa Bell to victory.

"I was thinking about my father," he said of the late Sandy Farber that started the family in horse ownership. "I was thinking about how many years that I've been coming to the track... how many years I've been with the Campbells. I'll say it again, 'They are the greatest name in harness racing.'

"I was just completely overwhelmed and I'm still buzzing from it. My head is still buzzing."

Scott's brother, Brian, was also overcome with emotion when Cool Papa Bell was in the stretch of the Hambletonian.

"My brother and I were screaming, 'Get him on the inside' and then he just pulled away a bit. You never know, a bad step or something happens, but as soon as we hit the wire... I went in the corner and cried. My brother was getting tackled and I was just crying," Brian said.

"I wish (Jim's father) Jack Campbell was here," Brian said. "The Campbells and us have been together for a long time and it's come to fruition. We won the Breeders Crown, but this is it."

For Scott, Cool Papa Bell's triumph was one for the smaller guys.

"There's a lot of big breeders and big owners that own a lot of horses and the odds are stacked against the little guy, but we got it done today," he said.

"I'm a lay-in-the-weeds guy, always have been. I've always been a guy that likes to be behind the scenes, quiet and not talked about. You just let your actions speak for yourself, very similar to how Barry Sanders and Jerry Rice acted when they got to the end zone. There was no team celebration, he just went over and handed the ball back – professional."

Campbell said he's thrilled the Farbers' long loyalty was rewarded.

"Scott has been a very loyal owner to me. We had some years where I produced nothing for him and he never lost faith in me as his trainer. He remembers me training horses for his dad and he just kept saying, 'You're my man and I'm going to keep sticking with you,'" Campbell said.

"It's easy to say when you're standing around here, winning a race like the Hambletonian and saying, 'Oh, he's a good guy.' He is a good guy because he stood by me when I could do nothing right for him and he never lost faith in me."

ANOTHER CAMPBELLTONIAN

As for another Campbell, Hambletonian Society president John Campbell, he was beaming handing the Hambletonian trophy to his younger brother and Farber.

"I'm so proud of him," John said of Jim. "I know what he puts into it each and every year and to have a day like this, as he said, it's a day that you don't even dream about."

Dave Briggs

The long loyalty between Scott Farber and trainer Jim Campbell has paid off in the ultimate triumph.

"He's always been so enthusiastic and he's such a hard worker. He always was, even as a kid he was never afraid of work and it certainly paid off for him today. It's just wonderful to see."

As for Cool Papa Bell shocking the world, John just smile.

"That's why we race them," John said. "(Jim's) been here before when he thought he had good chances and it didn't work out. But it is remarkable and I'm just so proud of him."

As for the odds board, Jim said he pays it no mind.

"I see it, but I never pay attention to it," he said. "By the same token, if I've got one that's 1-5 I always think that there are nine other horses that want to beat my horse. So me, personally, I never feel relaxed or confident going into a race, no matter who I have to a certain point, just because I know that in horse racing anything can happen and this is a perfect example that anything can happen in a horse race."

It was yet another example of why they don't hand out trophies based on pre-race prognostication.

And thank goodness for that.

Fashion Schooner (Tim Tetrick) overcame the 10-hole to win the Hambletonian Oaks in 1:51.2.

Fashion Schooner coasts to Hambletonian Oaks triumph

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Fashion Schooner followed in the footsteps of her mother as a Hambletonian Oaks winner, rushing to the lead from post 10 and never looking back to win Saturday's (Aug. 6) $500,000 event for 3-year-old female trotters by 2-1/4 lengths in 1:51.2 at the Meadowlands. Pink Coco Chanel finished second, just ahead of the fast-closing Yanaba.

Fashion Schooner's dam, Broadway Schooner, won the 2009 Hambletonian Oaks. Jim Campbell trained Broadway Schooner for Fashion Farms, and the duo returned to the winner's circle Saturday with the homebred Fashion Schooner.

"That's everything," Fashion Farms owner/breeder Jules Siegel said about watching Fashion Schooner duplicate her mom's accomplishment. "We still have the mother, and she is producing just what we want her to."

Tim Tetrick guided Fashion Schooner to victory for his third Oaks triumph, moving him into a tie with Glen Garnsey and Ron Pierce for the third most in history. Yannick Gingras holds the record with six, followed by Berndt Lindstedt with four.

After 7-5 favorite Warrawee Xenia went off stride at the start, Fashion Schooner used a :26.1 opening quarter to take the lead from Mon Cheval, and then took the field to the half in :55.1 and three-quarters in 1:23.1.

Afterward, the filly received a well-earned drink in the winner's circle from Tim Tetrick.

Adam Ström stalltz

Fashion Schooner won the Oaks just like her dam Broadway Schooner did in 2009.

"I know the first quarter was fast, but my mare was aggressive and she got out of there on the right foot and felt super," Tetrick said. "She didn't have any pressure, so the rest of the work was up to her.

"When it flashed up :55 (at the half), I was happy. From there on, I just kind of let her keep moving on and didn't let anybody get too close. And, you know what? We got the job done."

Sired by Walner, Fashion Schooner has won five of eight races this year. Her victories include the New Jersey Sire Stakes championship and a division of the Delvin Miller Memorial. For her career, she has won five of 11 starts and earned $468,462.

She was limited to three races as a 2-year-old because of sickness.

"You never know how good one is going to be, but she showed us enough last year where we thought that if everything worked right for her, she had the ability to do it," Campbell said heading into the final. "She has high speed, she's good-gaited, gets over the ground good, and she's got a good attitude. She likes to race."

Sent off at 6-1, Fashion Schooner paid $14.00 to win.

Bella Bellini brilliant in Steele

by Frank Coto / Meadowlands media relations

Bella Bellini and Dexter Dunn broke the Dr. John R. Steele Memorial stakes record with a 1:49.4 win in the $145,000 event for trotting mares at the Meadowlands on Saturday (Aug. 6).

The Bar Hopping—Bella Dolce mare watched her foes battle early as Atlanta took the lead and cut a :26 first quarter. When Dovescry took to the outside to challenge the 2018 Hambletonian winner in a short duel before getting the lead and reaching 1:22.1 while attempting to go the rest of the way in front.

Bella Bellini saved ground during the first three panels as Atlanta shifted to the outside sharply to take on When Dovescry down the stretch while Kenziesky Hanover, Weslynn Quest and Next Level Stuff were destined to fight for fourth.

Bella Bellini, who won four races in a row since late June before a third-place finish behind Atlanta in a Miss Versatility event on July 30, was full of trot and surged past Atlanta and When Dovescry, winning by two lengths in 1:49.4.

When Dovescry held second over Atlanta; Kenziesky Hanover won the three-mare tussle for fourth behind them.

Richard "Nifty" Norman trains Bella Bellini for owner/breeder David McDuffee.

Driver Dunn said he was confident throughout the mile and was smiling mid-race:

"Going down the back, I had a little bit of a smile on my face [because of the fast pace]," he said. "She was so sharp post parading today I knew she had her A-game on. And once those fractions set out for her, she's so fast at the end of her mile."

McDuffee said, "I never thought I'd have a trotter under 1:50. It's unbelievable. I mean, wow. She's doing a hell of a job for us."

Bella Bellini paid $4.20 to win.

It was the mare's 17th win in her three years of racing. She hoisted her lifetime earnings to $1,626,375.

Kilmister remains perfect with Haughton score by Mike Farrell / Meadowlands media relations

Kilmister extended his undefeated streak to four with a potent rally to win the $337,000 Peter Haughton Memorial, the first step on the unofficial "Road to the 2023 Hambletonian," on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 6) at the Meadowlands.

The Haughton, for 2-year-old trotters, provides an early clue – and establishes a long-range favorite – for next year's trotting classic, contested over this same track. While it is a long 12-month journey to next year's Hambletonian, a Haughton win is an early indication of class and talent.

Kilmister (Chapter Seven–Treviso) has displayed both in abundance. Starting from the rail, Kilmister and driver Brian Sears took a brief early lead before yielding to Carter Michael Deo, who in turn let Oh Well dictate the pace.

On a day when speed seemed golden, Sears let Kilmister bide his time in third before unleashing the colt in the lane. He surged to a four-length victory over stablemate Oh Well, giving Marcus Melander a one-two finish. Melander almost completed a clean sweep as his third entrant, Upstaged, finished third but was disqualified to fourth for a break in the lane.

"We could have been first, second and third," Melander said. "They raced very well, all the horses. Sadly, one of them made a break right before the finish line."

That was the only blemish on an otherwise sensational stable performance, topped by Kilmister, named for the late founder and lead singer of Motorhead.

Kilmister, bred by Moni Market Breeders, was a $170,000 purchase at Lexington last fall for Courant Inc.

"This one was quite expensive," said Courant Inc.'s Anders Ström. "I like this horse's attitude. He likes to chase them down. He never uses excess energy and I hope he has more energy to use in the future."

It is a future that might include a return to the Meadowlands one year from now.

Kilmister trotted the mile in 1:53.3, paying $7.00 to win as the 5-2 second choice and giving Sears his sixth win in the Haughton.

Carter Michael Deo was elevated from fourth to third with the disqualification of Upstaged.

Kilmister (Brian Sears) remained undefeated while winning the Peter Haughton Memorial in 1:53.3.

Max Contract emerges victorious in Shady Daisy

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Max Contract won for the fourth time in a row, capturing Saturday's (Aug. 6) $92,300 Shady Daisy, for 3-year-old female pacers, by a nose over Sweet Treasure in 1:49.3 at the Meadowlands. Treacherous Dragon finished third.

Sweet Treasure left quickly from post four and led around the first turn before a parked-out Max Contract and driver Andy Miller grabbed the front just as the duo hit the quarter-mile mark in :26.1.

Boudoir Hanover moved to the lead on the backstretch and took the field to the half in :53.2 and remained on top as she reached three-quarters in 1:21.3.

In the stretch, Max Contract was boxed in before finding room up the inside late and storming to the front to get to the wire just ahead of the also charging Sweet Treasure.

"I thought I was in a great spot, and then (Boudoir Hanover) kind of came up empty and I was searching for room," Miller said. "Unfortunately, she kind of got slowed down there turning for home, but when she got clearance, she took off again. She's pretty versatile, I think."

A $200,000 Lexington sale purchase, Max Contract is trained by Julie Miller for owners Andy Miller Stable, Steve Heimbecker and Jean Goehlen. The daughter of Huntsville—Big McDeal raced only once at age two, winning in 1:52.1, and is four-for-five this season. The filly, bred by Steve Jones, has earned $164,750 lifetime. Her victory in the Shady Daisy was her third consecutive on the Grand Circuit.

"I have to give a lot of credit to my owners, Jean and Steve; they believed in me when I told them I thought this filly could be special at three," Julie Miller said. "They let me prove it to them."

Max Contract, the 4-5 favorite, paid $3.60 to win.

Beach Glass glamorous in Cane score

by Ray Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

A swift backside brush landed 2-5 favorite Beach Glass on the point, from which he held his ground and posted a 1:49 victory to win the $275,000 Cane Pace at the Meadowlands on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 6).

Mad Max Hanover, the second choice at 3-2, pushed off the wings but landed third as Night Hawk powered past Fourever Boy to the lead after a :27.2 first quarter. As the speed settled, Mad Max Hanover flung out of third to take over the lead just before Beach Glass pushed along the rim to then snag the lead into a :54.3 half.

Beach Glass had his foes at his whim while Fourever Boy attacked first-over with Mad Max Hanover waiting for room by three-quarters in 1:22. He then spun for home with Fourever Boy retreating and Mad Max Hanover laying siege to the pacesetter into the final eighth. But Beach Glass stayed game to the pylons to keep Mad Max Hanover at bay by a half-length. Night Hawk slipped through a seam inside to finish third, and Early Action closed for fourth.

"I really didn't want to have him on the front, I was trying to get away fourth or fifth," said driver Yannick Gingras after the race. "But a :27.2 first quarter ... it was going to be a :55-and-change half probably, so I had to make a move and make things happen. He's all class, a great horse and the class did it today."

Conditioned by Brent MacGrath, Beach Glass collected his fifth win from eight starts this season and his eighth from 13 overall. The son of Somebeachsomewhere—Im With Her has now banked $783,020 for owner/breeder Schooner II Stable.

"I'm very happy, but he does need a week off," said MacGrath after Beach Glass scored his fourth win from five straight weeks. "I thought about going to the Milstein, but I'm not going to — he needs a week. I want to go to Pocono with him [for the Max Hempt]. Then, with a few weeks off, he'll go to the Simcoe and after that to Lexington."

Beach Glass paid $2.80 to win.

Kobe's Gigi shatters Lady Liberty field at 51-1

by Frank Coto / Meadowlands Media Relations

Kobe's Gigi nipped favorite Test Of Faith to upset at 51-1 in the $173,000 Lady Liberty, for pacing mares, in a bombshell finish at the Meadowlands on Saturday (Aug. 6).

Racing to the top early, Kobe's Gigi sat behind leader Racine Bell while Mikala stormed to the lead in a :26.1 first quarter. Kobe's Gigi paced third as Mikala coasted to mark a :54 half, which prompted Blue Diamond Eyes to launch a chase from fourth. Test Of Faith, the huge public choice, took advantage of a sizzling three-quarters in 1:21.3 by vaulting off second-over cover and taking command with confidence in mid-stretch.

Also taking advantage of the circumstances, however, was Kobe's Gigi, who took dead aim at Test Of Faith and broke the beam first in 1:48.3, defeating the 2021 Horse Of The Year by a head. Amazing Dream had enough left to pick up third.

Kobe's Gigi paid $105.00 to win.

Todd McCarthy steered the daughter of JK Endofanera—Twin Oaks Tess to victory for trainer Richard "Nifty" Norman.

"She was terrific," he said. "I was surprised the way the race unfolded; it wasn't really my initial plan, but she felt good on the gate and it looked like I was going to be able to step out pretty good. She finished real well; [her] lines showed good times and she showed it today."

"She was an absolute pleasure to drive. I was kind of worried the stretch would toll on her but it didn't bother her too much. I had to wrestle her out, and when she got out and clear, she went right on."

Bred by Harvey Fry in Indiana, Kobe's Gigi recorded her third win this season and the 10th win of her career for owners Leander Schwartz and Black & White Stable. She now has earned $360,339.

Catch The Fire (Dexter Dunn) won the Sam McKee Memorial for the second year in a row, this time in 1:46.4.

Catch The Fire catapults to record mile in McKee

by Jay Bergman / Meadowlands media relations

Catch The Fire and driver Dexter Dunn worked out a perfect pocket trip behind pacesetter Nicholas Beach and catapulted to the front in the homestretch to take down the $278,000 Sam McKee Memorial, for open pacers, at the Meadowlands on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 6).

The field of 11 went postward with many expecting Rockyroad Hanover and driver Todd McCarthy to continue their impressive form, but at the outset, the 4-year-old son of Captaintreacherous—Dream Outloud was forced to race wide as a host of leavers made traffic an issue on the opening bend. Nicholas Beach and Joe Bongiorno sped quickly from post two to gain control and seat third choice Catch The Fire (Dexter Dunn). Also leaving hard from the outside was Workin Ona Mystery, who settled in fourth while second-tier starter Whichwaytothebeach wedged between horses early to find a spot in third through the :26.1 opening quarter.

Not appearing happy with a pocket tow, Dunn pulled Catch The Fire briefly up the backstretch, forcing Bongiorno to keep a lively clip. Nicholas Beach was rolling at full power through a :53.1 opening half and kept pacing strongly during the third quarter as Workin Ona Mystery and David Miller began a first-over drive with favored Rockyroad Hanover poised behind their cover.

Dunn didn't wait to see what the closers had in mind as he popped the Todd Luther-trained Catch The Fire from the pocket at three-quarters in 1:20.1. The stallion exploded with pace, instantly separating himself from the closers and pacing home powerfully to win by 1-1/2 lengths in 1:46.4, equaling the stakes record Holborn Hanover set in 2006.

Rockyroad Hanover had the entire stretch to catch this fire, but was only second best with This Is The Plan and driver Yannick Gingras finding space between horses late and getting the third spot.

A 7-2 proposition, Catch The Fire returned $9.60 to win.

Owned by Black Magic Racing LLC and CT Stables LLC, Catch The Fire became a two-time McKee winner after taking a division of the event last year. He was driven by Scott Zeron in the 2021 score, but with Zeron sidelined, Dunn got the drive and the win.

"Dexter was showing off," Zeron said with a smile in the winner's circle. "I only won by a little bit. He won by a lot."

Bred by Dr. Fred Kruszelnicki and originally sold for $15,000 in Lexington, Catch The Fire bred a full book of mares this year at Sugar Valley Farm. Proprietor Joe McLead was all smiles as well in the winner's circle:

"He's a very professional horse. Breeding a full book, it took some time to get him into racing shape. He's coming around, and I'm looking forward to the rest of the season."

Instagram Model stuns in Doherty Memorial

by Ray Cotolo / Meadowlands media relations

Instagram Model floated off the pegs and powered to the lead to land the money shot in the $355,000 Jim Doherty Memorial, for 2-year-old trotting fillies, on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 6) at the Meadowlands.

Instagram Model settled in third while Royal Filly left for the top to a :27 first quarter. Una Madonna rode the pocket while the field raced mostly in file to a :55.1 half. Andy McCarthy made his move with Instagram Model heading to the far turn and marched forward to press Royal Filly to three-quarters in 1:24.3.

Royal Filly folded spinning for home, and Instagram Model powered to a widened lead entering the final eighth. Mambacita, the 4-5 favorite, motored from third-over down the center of the course to secure second by a diminishing one-length margin.

Una Madonna shook loose from the pocket to take third, and Graceful Patty rallied for fourth.

"It was perfect today," said McCarthy, who acquired the drive after Instagram Model's usual driver, Scott Zeron, was injured in a recent racing accident. "Post nine last week was just really hard; I didn't want to overuse her last week. But I was happy with the spot today and the way the fractions set up. We got to kind of hide her for a little bit and move her when we needed to. It was great."

"I take no credit," trainer Annie Stoebe said of the filly, a $350,000 Lexington purchase, after the race. "For the first time training her, I told Lynn [Curry], 'You know ... she's different.' She's been nothing but a professional from day one and she's all about doing her job."

Collecting her second win from three starts, Instagram Model has now banked $178,625 for owner R. Lynn Curry. Bred by Steve Jones and Ray Schnittker, the daughter of Chapter Seven—Check Out Trixie returned $10.40 to win.

Alrajah One IT (Dexter Dunn) won the John Cashman Memorial Trot in 1:50.3.

Alrajah One IT slingshots to Cashman victory

by Jay Bergman / Meadowlands media relations

Alrajah One IT continued his dominance over the best trotters in North America on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 6), capturing the $279,000 John Cashman Memorial Trot at the Meadowlands for his third straight victory since arriving in the U.S.

Dexter Dunn guided the 6-year-old from off the pace to a 1:50.3 win.

The action was quick at the outset with Dunn taking to the back but many others looking to be near the front. Lovedbythemasses and driver Tim Tetrick were keen at the outset, leaving from post six with purpose but being kept three-deep early in the turn as Ecurie D DK (Åke Svanstedt) also had interest. Rattle My Cage (Yannick Gingras) pushed hard from the pole position, but Lovedbythemasses reached the lead before the :27.2 quarter.

Tetrick secured a :55.3 opening half for his charge, awaiting company that only came late in the third quarter when Ecurie D DK moved to the outside on the final bend. Dunn had already begun a slow grind past the half and picked up cover as Lovedbythemasses held command through three-quarters in 1:23.3 Ecurie D DK dueled with the leader, but in early stretch, Dunn tipped Alrajah One IT wide for room. The son of Maharajah—Mariu took off instantly and drew off with supreme authority, winning by a widening two lengths. Ecurie D DK managed to hold on for second with Lovedbythemasses fading to third.

Bred in Italy by Luca Crosetti, Alrajah One IT has won three consecutive stakes races since coming stateside and joining the Åke Svanstedt stable. Sent off as the 1-2 favorite, Alrajah One IT returned $3.00 to win.

Owned by Scuderia My Horse Inc., of Delray Beach, Florida, Alrajah One IT pushed his career earnings above $1.5 million and equaled his lifetime mark.

“He’s got an incredible turn of foot,” said Dunn in the winner’s circle. “I just called on him, and within a few strides he was gone.”

Hambletonian Day handle skyrockets at Big M

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

The players were out in force on Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands, as the total handle was $7,656,054 on the 16-race program, eclipsing last year's action by more than $1 million. The total handle and the average per race of $478,503 were both by far 2022 bests.

The betting from foreign organizations – such as the PMU (Pari Mutuel Urbain of France) and ATG (the Swedish entity) – are unavailable for several days, but these figures are likely to push the grand total handle near or past the $9-million mark, a barrier broken only once in Hambletonian history, when wagering in 2005 (North American and foreign) totaled $9,015,019.

On Saturday, betting on 11 races bettered the $400,000 mark, while five races saw at least $500,000 pushed through the windows. Wagering on The Hambletonian fell just short of $1 million, as a total of $979,627 was put in play, by far the biggest total for any single race during 2022 at The Big M.

“Our handle being way up today is a combination of hard work and dedication,” said Big M chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemyer. “And, obviously, us hooking up with the New York Racing Association team by going on national television through Fox Sports 2 and Fox Sports 1 we think is starting to finally pay off because you are getting a totally different audience with the thoroughbred players switching over to harness.

“I am pleasantly surprised at how much our handle was up. What really shocked me is when I saw the Oaks handle pop up with a total pool of over $855,000. That about knocked me out of my seat. It just goes to show what [president and chief executive officer] Jeff [Gural] and I have said all along that we need to get in front of a national television audience.”

DYNAMIC DUO DOMINANT: Driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Ron Burke have teamed up to win numerous races throughout the years, so many, in fact, that the potent pair were both enshrined into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame last month in Goshen, NY.

Seemingly to prove that was a good decision, Gingras and Burke capped a big Meadowlands Championship Meeting Saturday by finishing well in front of the field in their respective dash-win categories.

Gingras' 108 victories were 28 more than his closest pursuer, Dexter Dunn. Dunn finished on top in the drivers' money-earnings race with $3,026,547. He was followed by Tim Tetrick ($2,587,768) and Gingras ($2,519,432).

Burke students won 68 times, well in front of Jeff Cullipher, whose pupils made 40 winner's circle visits. Burke also won the money title as his horses earned $1,676,709. Tony Alagna was next with $1,476,901.

A LITTLE MORE: A modest carryover led to huge action in the 20-cent Pick-6 that was offered on races one through six. The carryover of $12,120 led to $128,228 in “new money” being poured into the pool, for a grand total of $140,348... Dunn led the driver colony with three winners on the day... In addition to his Hambletonian-Oaks sweep, trainer Jim Campbell also took the Continental victory for 3-year-old trotting fillies with Misswalner Fashion to finish with a trainer-colony best three victories on the card... Live harness racing returns to The Meadowlands on Sept. 1.

Richard Stillings to LBJ Wall of Fame

Former driver/trainer Richard "Dick" Stillings has been selected as the 37th Little Brown Jug Wall of Fame honoree by the Delaware County Fair.

Stillings won the Little Brown Jug as a trainer in 1986 with Barberry Spur and came back the next year to capture the Jug as a reinsman with Jaguar Spur.

"Nothing could be bigger in my heart than the Little Brown Jug," said Stillings. "My family would attend every year. This is a great honor."

Stillings, a native of Mount Vernon, OH, drove or trained some of the best Grand Circuit horses in the 1980s – Jaguar Spur ($1,806,473), Barberry Spur ($1,634,017), Kentucky Spur ($1,341,340), Pegasus Spur ($1,296,683), Esquire Spur ($336,250) and Gunslinger Spur ($317,562).

Stillings began his career as a groom for Hall of Fame trainer Dick Buxton. After a three-year stint in the U. S. Army, he took jobs with Jimmy Cruise, Sr. and fellow Wall of Famer, Howard Beissinger.

In 1968, Stillings moved to The Meadows in western Pennsylvania and soon established himself as a top trainer-driver. Stillings and his brother Charles "Buddy" soon joined up with owner Roy Davis and formed a tremendous partnership, sending out a string of successful horses, all with the "Spur" surname to honor the Tottenham Hotspur soccer club.

Stillings, 78, retired from driving/training in 2020 with 5,920 driving victories and $44 million in purse earnings.

The Delaware honor completes the Hall of Fame Triple Crown for Stillings, who was elected into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2013 and the Ohio Hall of Fame in 2014.

Stillings will be presented the Wall of Fame jacket and plaque during the 2022 Little Brown Jug week (Sept. 18-22).

Robertsin upsets in Big M's Muscle Hill

It's not too often that you get 59-1 on a horse driven by the three-time defending Driver of the Year, but that's just what happened in the Friday night (Aug. 5) feature at The Meadowlands, when Dexter Dunn guided Robertsin to victory in the $50,000 Muscle Hill for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters.

After a five-horse scrum into the first turn, B A Superhero was parked on the lead, Molotov Cocktail was three-wide in second with Stride The Hill third at the rail as they hit the quarter in a contested :27.2.

Pretender, the 4-5 favorite, was now put in play in a big way by driver Andy McCarthy, taking the lead from B A Superhero as the half was reached in :55.1.

Robertsin was still not close to the action at this point, sitting sixth along the inside, but started to make up some ground on the leaders as horses began to vacate the rail.

Pretender, the high money-earner in the nine-horse field this year with just over $200,000 in his bank account, continued to roll on the lead past three-quarters in 1:23.4, as Robertsin got into striking position – while still fourth – along the pylons at the head of the lane.

In deep stretch, it appeared Pretender would prevail, but Robertsin was now closing ground quickly as Dunn steered his horse to the inside after going around some tired horses when they turned for home.

At the wire, it Robertsin getting up in a thrilling finish by a head, and by stopping the clock in 1:51.3, he lowered his previous lifetime best by three-and-one-fifth seconds. Molotov Cocktail was third.

For Robertsin, a gelded son of Muscle Hill–Sina, it was his fourth career win from 17 starts as he upped his bankroll to $161,785. The Nik Drennan trainee paid $121.60 to win.

A LITTLE MORE: Dunn led the driver colony with three winners on the night... There were no winning tickets sold in the 20-cent Pick-6, creating a carryover of $12,120.17 for the first Pick-6 that will be offered on Saturday's card in race one. Those with five correct Friday collected $1,453.32... All-source handle totaled $2,816,936.
