Credit due to both horse and driver in capturing Hambletonian glory

Yannick Gingras talks about what went into carving out the perfect trip with Karl.

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

For most of his season – and most of his career for that matter – it seemed that Karl winning this year’s Hambletonian was a foregone conclusion. Between his raw ability shown as an award-winning freshman and series of smashing wins throughout the New Jersey Sire Stakes to begin his 3-year-old campaign, I was thinking six weeks ago who would even bother showing up in the Hambletonian to take Karl on.

At the same time, driver Yannick Gingras had piloted Karl throughout his career expertly. Karl, while brilliant, has come with some quirks seen at times, and Gingras has been able to successfully work through those. With that said, it looked for the longest time that you could throw any driver onto Karl, and it wouldn’t matter. That changed in recent weeks and as the competition got closer, both Karl and Gingras proved their worth this past Saturday (Aug. 3).

Detractors of Gingras will say that he’s a one-dimensional driver, doing his best work when racing on the front end. Similarly, heading into the Hambletonian, Karl had been forwardly placed in all his starts this season. The only time he had been worse than fourth at the opening quarter mile of a race was when he floated away to be sixth in the Stanley Dancer – a race he finished third. Which I suppose made it all that more surprising

“That was the most pressure I’ve ever had going into a race, and by far. Father Patrick was a very similar horse in a way [to Karl], how dominant he was, but I was younger and dumber at that time. I kind of just thought that these horses will be coming every year and it’s not that I didn’t take it seriously or nothing like that at all – but it’s as you get older you realize these horses that are true champions don’t come around all that often.”

when that duo got away sixth when starting from the rail in the torrential rains at the onset of the million-dollar race.

“It kind of happened in the moment and when the gate opened, I made my decisions, but I was really open minded with strategy,” said winning driver, Gingras. “I actually did see the race going the way it started, for the most part. The one that maybe surprised me a little was when Andy Miller’s horse [Secret Agent Man] left out of the gate but the rest of them I kind of figured would be leaving. I would have put Timmy [Tetrick’s] horse [Security Protected] leaving too but he made a break before the gate opened. But I figured there would be lots of speed and maybe Plan A was to race him how I did, but I could have done it differently too if I wanted.”

As it turned out, that strategy was a stroke of brilliance and it led to Karl getting the trip of the race, an ideal second-over journey on the back of Highland Kismet. In a race that contained elements of racing luck with other horses twisting and turning through the stretch and Karl himself only surging late after the perfect trip, my opinion is that the result for Karl could have turned out differently if in the hands of another driver.

Gingras, perhaps slightly humble or maybe just expressing more confidence in his horse, didn’t quite see his own role in the victory quite the same.

“It’s more of a different group of horses he’s racing now than he was racing then,” said Gingras. “In the New Jersey Sire Stakes there was no Highland Kismet, no Sig Sauer, no T C I, so it’s just a different group of horses. Now maybe after the Dancer there was a little bit of a wake-up call that he’s not a machine, but we always knew that the competition was going to get tougher. If anything, maybe that was kind of an eye opener that I may have to play a little more of a factor than just letting him do his own thing, like being able to find a good trip for him. But you know, honestly, I think if the fractions in the Hambletonian were slower and I had to move him to the front, or if I had to move first-up, it wouldn’t have mattered to him, and I could have done that too.

“He wasn’t tired at the wire and it’s not like they were catching him, he was getting away from them; it just took a longer time to get him into gear. But if I had to dig into him a little bit to get him rolling earlier, he was always still the best horse. Obviously, we got a good trip, but I think he could have got the job done just the same without it.”

The Hambletonian had proven elusive to Gingras in the past, and I pondered with him if there was the thought that if he doesn’t win the Hambletonian this time around with Karl, if there was a sense that a win would never happen. And if that thought played a role in how he approached Saturday’s race.

“I don’t know about playing a role, but there was no doubt, that was the most pressure I’ve ever had going into a race, and by far,” said Gingras. “Father Patrick was a very similar horse in a way, how dominant he was, but I was younger and dumber at that time. I kind of just thought that these horses will be coming every year and it’s not that I didn’t take it seriously or anything like that at all – but it’s as you get older you realize these horses that are true champions don’t come around all that often.

“The Hambletonian is just a very hard race to win, and I don’t think other than Father Patrick that I’ve driven a bad one. Everyone is pointing to this race – we’ve been pointing to this race – since last year and everyone is all trying to have their horses in peak condition for this race.”

“As I’ve gone through the last number of years – even though last year I was the favorite with [Celebrity] Bambino, he certainly wasn’t a Karl, or a Father Patrick or even Southwind Frank. These horses are so few and far in between and Karl has been a horse everyone’s been talking about since last year as his race to lose. With everybody saying he’s already won the race and it’s his race to lose, that if he does lose and it’s because I’ve screwed up, then it’s my fault and I’ve lost the race. So, there is no doubt about the added pressure but like I said the other day, I’d rather have this kind of pressure with a 3-5 shot and a monkey on my back with everyone chasing me, rather than have pressure with a 99-1 shot and me chasing them.

“The Hambletonian is just a very hard race to win, and I don’t think other than Father Patrick that I’ve driven a bad one.

Everyone is pointing to this race – we’ve been pointing to this race – since last year and everyone is all trying to have their horses in peak condition for this race.”

As the skies opened and the rain poured down right before the horses came to the gate, Gingras confirmed that it didn’t change his race strategy nor change his emotions that watery background uniquely provided.

“Of course, I would have rather had raced it over a good track and had better visibility, but I wouldn’t change it for the world,” Gingras said.

Recapping Hambletonian Day #99

by Bob Heyden

With the 99th Hambletonian in the books, before we turn our sights to the 100th, lets look back at some stats from the big day.

RARE AIR

There's no doubt that Hambletonian Day was also Nancy Takter Day. She entered the day as one of eight prior Hambletonian-winning trainers on the card joining Trond Smedshammer, Linda Toscano, Ake Svanstedt, Luc Blais, Tony Alagna, Noel Daley and Jim Campbell. She won her second-straight Hambletonian and is the first do that since dad, Jimmy Takter, did it in 2014-15.

WINNING TACTICS

Southwind Farms' Tactical Landing is now the first stallion in 65 years to win the Hambletonian in his first two crops with Tactical Approach (2023) and now Karl. Stars Pride did it in 1958-59 with Emilys Pride and Diller Hanover, respectively. Tactical Landing and Walner (also a Southwind stallion), were the only two sires on the card to double up.

CROWNING ACHIEVEMENT

There are now 511 Triple Crown races in the books and Legendary Hanover owns the fastest victory, 1:46.2, after his incredible Cane Pace victory.

OH BROTHER

Two brothers – James and Mark MacDonald – had the two fastest, high and low prices of the day. Legendary Hanover, with James driving, paid $2.40 in the 1:46.2 and Mark upset at $138.60 with Rocknroll Runa A in 1:47.3.

LONE ROAN

Upallnight Hanover, the lone roan or grey among the 154 programmed horses on the card, won the opener, a division of the Continental victory.

I LOVE ROCK N ROLL

Rock N Roll Heaven was the only HOY sire on the entire card with a credit, the aforementioned Rockroll Runa A.

RARE BREEDERS

Crawford Farms are the first to breed two Hambletonian winners since Steve Stewart did it in 2014 with Trixton and 2019 with Forbidden Trade. Prior to Karl, the Crawfords bred Atlanta (2018). They also owned Ramona Hill who won the Hambletonian in 2020.

CHECK OUT

Marcus Melander's streak of seven-straight Hambletonian checks ended when Security Protected finished last. He's the only trainer to be in eight Hambletonians by age 32.

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER

Ake Svanstedt, 65, just won the $525,000 Hambletonian Oaks, making him the first driver past his 65th birthday ever to win a race worth more than half a million dollars.

IMPRESSIVE SIX PACK

Dexter Dunn showed off his six-pack on Hambletonian Day. He won with Upallnight Hanover ($8.20), Supernova Hanover ($34.20), Slip Sliding Away ($53.20), Jiggy Jog S ($3), Champagne Problems ($5.20), and Twin B Joe Fresh ($3.20).

HIGH TIME

Yannick Gingras has the highest career earnings ever for first-time Hambletonian winners and the first member of the $200 million club – that has seven members in it – to then break through.

TEN AGAIN

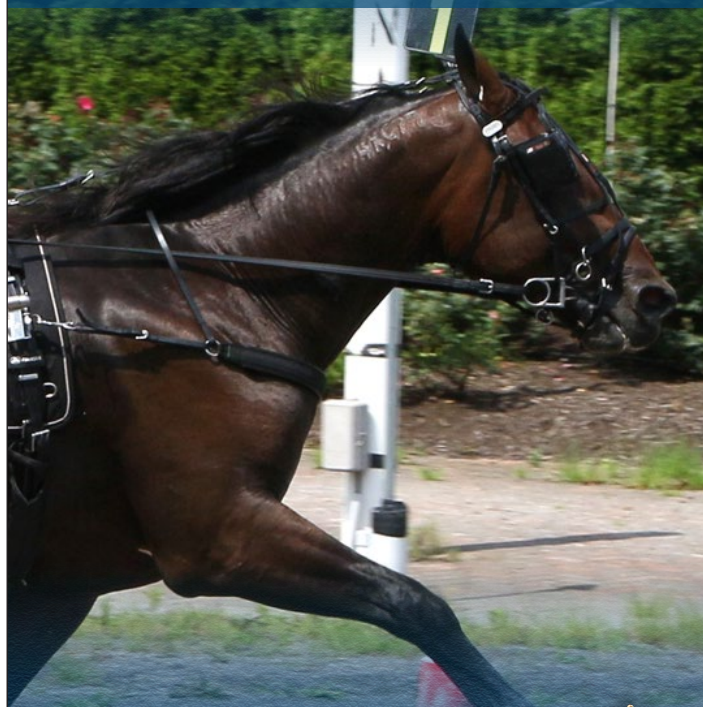

Dexter Dunn is the first Hambletonian driver to get three checks from post 10. He finished third this year with Amazing Catch and was fourth in both 2019 (Soul Strong) and 2020 (Amigo Volo).

AGED STAKE

The two oldest drivers on the card got it done in big stakes. The aforementioned Svanstedt winning the Oaks, and 59-year-old David Miller taking the Steele Memorial in back-to-back years with M-M's Dream. Miller, at $286 million plus, is the richest driver to ever participate on Hambletonian Day.

ON THE MARK

With nearly 300 drives available at The Meadowlands this past weekend, multiple Canadian Driver of the Year award winner Mark MacDonald had exactly two of them and he won both. He won a division of the Muscle Hill on Friday with fourth choice Victor Laszlo ($11.20) and the aforementioned Sam McKee with Rocknroll Runa A ($138.60), by far the biggest price on Hambletonian Day. Three years ago, MacDonald won the Peter Haughton on Hambletonian Day and don't forget he also set the 3YOPC track record in 2005 with American Ideal surging by HOY Rocknroll Hanover in 1:48.1 also on Hambletonian Day.

Note: I haven't missed either a Hambletonian Day in New Jersey or a Breeders Crown. None. The best drive I've ever witnessed on either of those days came when MacDonald stick-handled his way to the winner's circle in Canada in 2011 with Betterthancheddar after having been replaced on the colt and only got the drive because of the snowstorm/airplane fiasco that year. Talent like his should be rewarded.

Racing returns to DuQuoin and Springfield, this time with betting

by Neil Milbert

For the first time since February, pari-mutuel harness racing will briefly return to Illinois this month when the annual mini-meetings for Illinois-breds are held at the State Fairs in Springfield and DuQuoin.

There will be 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. programs at Springfield on Thursday (Aug. 8) and programs starting at 11 a.m. on Aug. 9, 10, 14 and 15. The DuQuoin races will be held from Aug. 26 through Aug. 28 starting at 4 p.m.

All of the races also will be simulcast for betting at Hawthorne Race Course, Illinois off-track betting sites, out-of-state network locations and Internet and phone betting outlets.

After the State Fairs end, there won't be any pari-mutuel betting in Illinois until Hawthorne begins an Oct. 19-Dec. 30 meeting.

However, the non-betting races at Springfield and DuQuoin that were held in June and July will resume in September and continue into early October. These races are funded by the Hawthorne purse account, whereas the Illinois Department of Agriculture is picking up the tab for the nine pari-mutuel programs at the two State Fairs.

"Next Monday and Tuesday are our [pari-mutuel] rain dates at Springfield, and maybe that Friday," said Tim Norman, the Department of Agriculture bureau chief who oversees racing at the state and county fairs.

"At DuQuoin we have the Thursday [Aug. 29 rain date]. If we have to, we could double the number of races to accommodate everything and move up the starting time."

Racing becomes iffy at both State Fairgrounds if there is heavy rain.

"Last year we could only do one of the five days at Springfield and we had to use Hawthorne to make up the races we lost," Norman said.

There will be 17 races during the first half of Thursday's double-header at Hawthorne, 12 for pacers and five for trotters. All are for 2- and 3-year-olds. There are 125 horses entered. Purses range from $2,500 to $7,500 and total $60,000. Field sizes range from four for a trotting race for 2-year-old fillies to 10 for a race for 3-year-old male trotters.

Heading the list of drivers are Marcus Miller, Casey Leonard, Kyle Wilfong and Kyle Husted.

“It’s much more exciting,” said Tony Somone, executive director of the Illinois Harness Horsemen’s Association, contrasting the pari-mutuel races at the State Fairgrounds with the non-betting races at the same locations. “The races are a draw for the State Fairs; we still get good crowds.

“When we talk about these things I think about what a resilient bunch our Illinois harness horsemen are. The circumstances aren’t good and our racing has fallen so far but they keep on going to work and they keep on plugging away.

“They go out there and buy babies and race babies. This is where you can get back part of your investment. And this is the beginning of the dream of so many owners to someday have that big horse.”

Illinois once was one of the leaders of North American racing. During its heyday it played host to the Hambletonian at DuQuoin and then its successor, the World Trotting Derby. Some of the best horses in the U.S. and Canada came for the American-National races at Sportsman’s Park and later Balmoral Park and major races at Maywood Park.

But now the stakes races all are for Illinois-breds and the million-dollar bonuses some offered seem like ancient mythology.

One of the major reason Illinois racing is in shambles is because of the decision by corporate owner Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI) to shut down the tradition-rich and palatial thoroughbred track Arlington International Racecourse at the end of its 2021 meeting. The decision obviously was made to wipe out gambling competition for the state’s most prosperous casino, the nearby Rivers Casino in Des Plaines, in which CDI in 2018 acquired a 62 per cent interest.

The Arlington property was sold to the Chicago Bears with the stipulation that there be neither horse racing nor casino gambling and to lower its real estate tax bill the National Football League team tore down what Architectural Digest called “the world’s most beautiful racetrack.”

Casino gambling at Illinois racetracks was legalized in 2019 but after lobbying for a racino for many years CDI decided it would be more profitable to abandon racing at Arlington and reject a racino, leaving dual-purpose Hawthorne as the only track in the Chicago metropolitan and one of only two in Illinois. The other is Fairmount Park, a thoroughbred track across the Mississippi River from St. Louis.

Starting in 2022 the standardbreds and thoroughbreds have had to time-share at Hawthorne. Last year’s Sept. 9-Dec. 31 meeting was extended into mid-February and then in March the thoroughbreds took over the track for a meeting that will run until mid-October.

The 2019 legislation legalizing casinos at racetracks was looked upon as a godsend by members of the Illinois Harness Horsemen’s Association and the Illinois Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association because a portion of the revenue was to be earmarked for purses, thereby significantly increasing the quality of racing.

Sadly, five years later Arlington is no longer in existence and Hawthorne’s proposed $400 million racino is in limbo.

Hawthorne’s grandstand and clubhouse were partially torn down in 2020 but reconstruction has been stalled by the track’s inability to obtain financing. In May, the Chicago Tribune reported that liens for demolition work totaling in excess of $5 million have been filed against either Hawthorne or its owners, Carey Heirs Properties LLC.

In response to the article Hawthorne president Tim Carey said in a statement that his track, “is in the advanced execution phase of a $400 million financing with an investor.”

But there have been no subsequent updates.

Hay List ran second to her in four of those Group 1 wins, but still managed 15 wins of his own from just 28 starts – three at Group 1 level – and banked over $2.5 million.

His regular jockey of the time Glyn Schofield summed it up best: “He was so superior to the rest of the horses around at the time, it was just a pity Black Caviar came around when she did.”

Although Catch A Wave has beaten Leap To Fame at home once – by a whisker in the Group 1 Victoria Cup last October – he’s been humbled in their other two clashes.

While Black Caviar is the undisputed “GOAT” of Australian sprinting, Leap To Fame is just entering that sort of discussion in Down Under pacing ranks. Forty-one wins from just 52 starts, a string of the biggest races and almost $3.2 million while he’s still a 5-year-old will do that for you.

But, like Hay List, away from Leap To Fame, Catch A Wave has built stardom of his own.

Despite being the same vintage as Leap To Fame, some superb placement by his decorated trainer Andy Gath has helped Catch A Wave to 22 wins from his 38 starts and almost $2 million in earnings.

This season alone, he’s won six races and almost $900,000, despite Leap To Fame being at the peak of his powers.

Leap To Fame has won 11 Group 1 races, but Catch A Wave has still managed six, the past two of those coming in his most recent races in the $1.25 million Nullarbor and $300,000 Fremantle Cup in Perth.

He didn’t have Leap To Fame to contend with over west.

Perhaps the greatest compliment for Catch A Wave comes from Leap To Fame’s trainer/driver Grant Dixon.

“I’m a huge fan,” Dixon said. “I’ve watched Catch A Wave closely since his 2-year-old days and he’s a fantastic talent. When it was clear we had something special with Leap To Fame, you look for the horses you’ll likely meet in the big races ahead and Catch A Wave has always been one of the main ones we respect.

“He’s got something Leap To Fame doesn’t have. That incredible high speed. We’ve always thought it would make him a danger any time we met him, if he could get the right sort of run.

“Andy [Gath] and I are mates, we chat and text a bit. We congratulate each other after the big wins. There’s a lot of respect for the horses and each other. We’ve often joked we’ll stay apart as often as we can, for both our sakes.”

Gath insists he says that more seriously.

“I think Grant’s joking a bit when he says that, but I’m serious,” Gath said. “We want to go as many big races as we can where we know Leap To Fame won’t be going. We’re blessed to have Catch A Wave. He’s the best pacer I’ve trained, but Leap To Fame is better. He’s a freak. He could be the best we’ve seen.

“I know we’ll have to race him, but I want to avoid it as much as possible. I’m not saying we couldn’t beat him, but we’d need everything to go right for us and probably a lot to go wrong for him.”

So, it’s no surprise Catch A Wave returns to racing on Saturday night (Aug. 10) at Melton while Leap To Fame is having a little break.

Gath, renowned for his meticulous planning, identified the $150,000 Len Smith Mile at Menangle on Sept. 7 as another Group 1 opportunity where Catch A Wave wouldn’t have Leap To Fame to contend with.

It’s also why he did something he never really planned and on short notice when he took Catch A Wave to the other side of Australia for those Nullarbor and Fremantle Cup wins in April.

“Going there wasn’t on the radar, but he had a setback and missed the Miracle Mile and we didn’t have much else we could target,” Gath said. “It might have been a blessing in disguise because Leap To Fame won the Miracle Mile so well and we got the two big wins in Perth.”

Catch A Wave thrived so well in Perth, he will head back in November for the $450,000 WA Pacing Cup.

“We know he loves it there and Leap To Fame isn’t going over, so as long as we can get suitable flights we will be going,” Gath said.

Gath has also ruled out the Sydney Inter Dominion series in December, which is a major target of Leap To Fame after winning the event in Brisbane last year.

But Catch A Wave and Leap To Fame will clash again, probably just once this year and a couple of times early next year.

Their next and fourth meeting will be in the $300,000 Group 1 Victoria Cup at Melton on Oct. 12.

It’s the race where Catch A Wave finished second to Act Now last year. Leap To Fame was a nose away in the third spot.

Beyond that, the $500,000 Hunter Cup in February and $1-million Miracle Mile in March are other logical mutual targets.

“I’d be very happy to keep the scoreline at 2-1,” Gath said with a laugh. “But we’ve got to have a go at some of these really big races, even if it means taking on Leap To Fame, especially in our backyard [in the Victoria and Hunter Cups].”

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Harness racing makes Kayla Pressel's life Just Better

by Chris Lomon

Where does Kayla Pressel stand when it comes to her horses? It all depends on the context of the question.

The love the young horsewoman from Maryland has for her standardbreds is unquestionable.

It can be found in the way she dotes on them and also in the excitement they bring out in her when they line up behind the starter car.

The night of June 23 at Ocean Downs was a perfect example of Pressel's unbridled enthusiasm for all things horses.

She didn't have great expectations for her beloved 14-year-old gelding Just Better when the starter called the field of seven for the evening's 12th race.

The veteran pacer, who has over 320 career starts to his name, went off at 15-1. His two previous races at the Maryland oval resulted in a seventh and an eighth, a combined 43-plus lengths behind the winners over those dashes.

"I tried to switch things up with him," Pressel said. "Instead of dropping him into a $5,000 claimer, I dropped into the $1,500 with a $5,000 tag."

Just Bettor, with Hugh O'Neill in the race bike, went out to a clear lead, eight lengths, to be exact, at the start.

He was still in front by a half-length at the half and maintained that lead at the stretch call.

As the finish line loomed, the 1-5 favorite came calling.

Watching from outside the paddock, Pressel wasn't sure who got there first.

"I was screaming," Pressel said. "[Fellow trainer] Alex Goldin was there with me, and I was so nervous that I started walking onto the track. Alex came up and said, 'Kayla! You've got to get off the track!'"

"It was so close. I was scared that we didn't get it. From where I was standing, I thought we finished second. I had to run over to the TVs in the paddock to see it for myself."

She would like what she saw.

Just Bettor was indeed just better than his rival, by a half-length.

"It was my first training win, so that was very exciting," she said. "I didn't expect it. He had been having a rough time at Ocean Downs, so I wasn't expecting much."

"Hugh put him on the front and backed them down to a minute at the half, which I wasn't expecting. Coming into the stretch, I saw the favorite coming and I thought we might not get there. But my horse kept on going and found a way to get to the line first."

It would be the very definition of a picture-perfect moment

"I had my friends in the winner's circle with me, which was an amazing moment," she said. "I love racing at Ocean Downs, so to get my first win there made it even more special."

Pressel was able to put the enormity of the accomplishment into perspective the next morning.

That she was able to achieve the milestone with Just Bettor was the proverbial icing on the cake.

"This guy doesn't owe me anything," Pressel said. "When I bought him, I didn't expect much from him. He was a $2,700 purchase and he's made $7,000 so far this year. He has done everything I have asked of him, and he is the perfect horse for me to get my first training win."

Now, Pressel has her sights set on more moments like the one on that late June evening at Ocean Downs.

Her stable has since expanded to two horses with the addition of Spodogg.

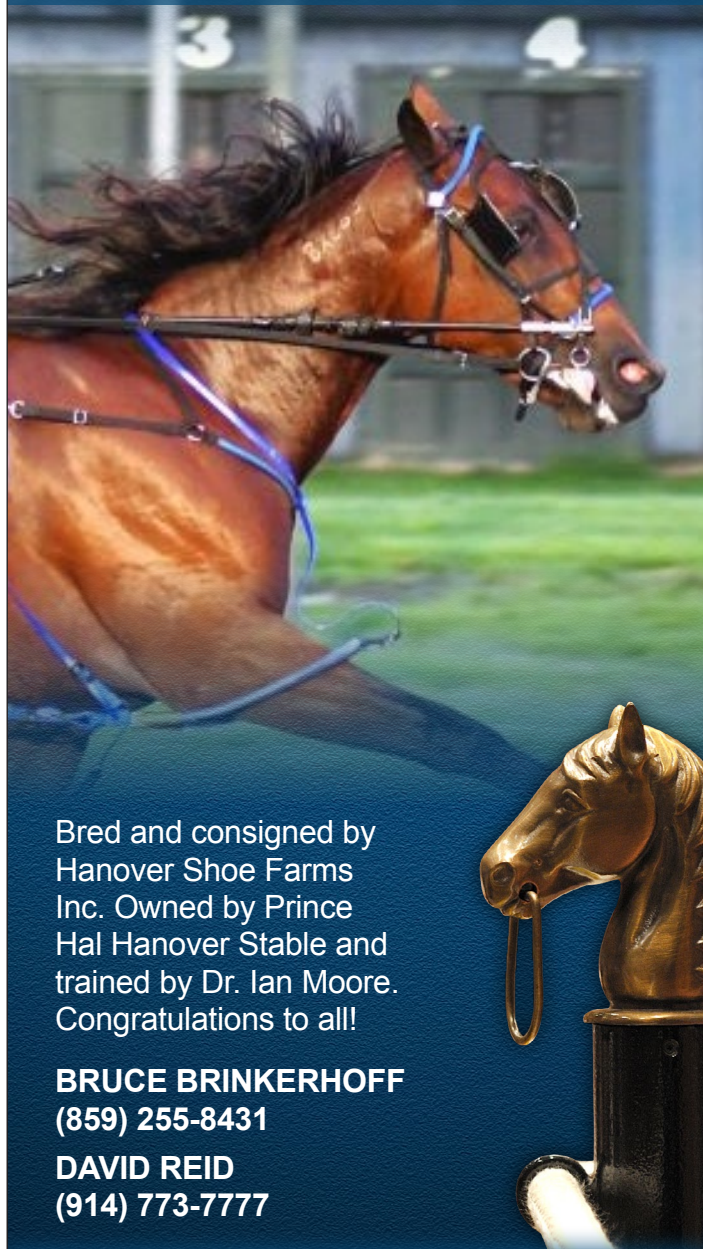

The goal is to see the stable grow but stay at a manageable number.

"I would like to add a couple more horses," she said. "I bought Spodogg from Indiana. He's very nice and I like him a lot. My long-term goal is to have a stable of my own. I love what I do, and I would love to do it with more horses.”

Pressel’s passion for horse racing and its equine stars began in her native Pennsylvania.

“A friend I lived by back home was in horse racing,” Pressel said. “She took me out to Rosecroft, where I met [trainer and driver] Brian Tomlinson. Brian asked me if I wanted a job, so I started working for him as a groom. I took care of his horses for about two years – we had a nice stable of around 15 horses – and he taught me how to put the harness on, how to jog, and so many other things.”

Fittingly, Tomlinson was in the sulky for Spodogg’s race at Ocean Downs on Aug. 1.

The duo finished second in the 11th race on the card.

“A full-circle moment for me,” said Pressel, who worked for a few trainers after she moved to Delaware. “The person who taught me about racing was driving my horse.

“It’s an entirely different world going from being a groom for somebody to being a trainer. When you work with them the whole week, train them, prepare them and they go out and compete – it is a very different feeling.”

And a rewarding one, despite the ups and downs that come with horse racing.

Pressel has learned to navigate the challenges with a winning outlook.

“It’s addicting when you start in racing and when you get your own, you want to keep adding and adding,” she said. “There are a lot of hard days and challenging ones, and you get down on yourself, but the good days outweigh the bad ones.

“I just enjoy being with my horses. Honestly, I never do anything outside of racing. It’s all about the horses for me.”

With half the year already in the books, Pressel is looking to add some more successful chapters to her racing resume by the end of the season.

The blueprint to achieve her goals is a simple plan, but one that speaks to a young trainer’s fondness for her career.

“I would like to win some more and work with my horses to make them the best they can be, but also make sure they are healthy and happy,” Pressel said. “That is all I can ask for.”

Perhaps she could use a friendly reminder along the way, the one telling her where to stand when one of her horses finds itself in a duel to the finish line.

Then again, she might already have a plan in place.

“Next time, I will stand by the TV to watch... just so I don’t find myself on the track again,” she said.

Stonebridge Wizard sets track record winning the Battle of Waterloo

The 1:51.2 victory came during 35th edition of Grand River's Industry Day

by Melissa Keith for Grand River Raceway

Grand River Raceway celebrated its 35th annual Industry Day on Monday (Aug. 5), welcoming fans and horseplayers to the reconfigured five-eighths-mile track in Elora, ON. The 11-race card was highlighted by finals for the $245,400 Winbak Farms Battle of Waterloo and the $175,200 Battle of the Belles companion race for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Doug McNair found redemption in the Winbak Farms Battle of Waterloo final, driving Stonebridge Wizard (p, 2, 1:51.1; $93,800) to a 1:51.2 track-record victory that was the gelding's fourth lifetime win. The 5-2 second choice left strongly, followed from the pocket by Sterling Choice and Tyler Borth. Challenger Fifth And Five, in line to Jody Jamieson, came calling past the :26 flat opening quarter, but couldn't make front. Stonebridge Wizard battled back to the :53.1 half, with 3-5 favorite Fifth And Five parked first-over. The pacers were four-wide approaching three-quarters, as Out Of Ice (Trevor Henry) and Allstar Maniac (James MacDonald) stacked up outside of Fifth And Five, while McNair's horse maintained a half-length advantage to that point, reached in 1:22.1. Stonebridge Wizard kept ahead of Sterling Choice in a close battle to the wire. Tito N Cheddar (Louis-Philippe Roy) closed for show.

Stonebridge Wizard, a gelded son of Dancin Lou—Odds On Magic, is owned by David Kryway of Amherstburg, ON and bred by Angie Stiller of London, ON. The former $32,000 London Classic yearling has four wins and a place finish in his first five career starts for trainer Jared Bako. His Battle of Waterloo title established a new track record for 2-year-old male pacers, plus surpassed his own Canadian seasonal record for 2-year-old pacing geldings to become fastest of all for his age and gait on a Canadian five-eighths-mile track this year.

It was McNair's sixth Battle of Waterloo victory. In the winners' circle, he explained his driving strategy, and coming back after being set back from the Battle of the Belles place finish.

"Obviously you have to turn the page when something like that happens, and I didn't know how I was going to go about it," he said. "When I made the front so easy [with Stonebridge Wizard], I mean, no-one did me no favors... As soon as I crossed over, I said, they're going to have to go a pretty good half to get around me. I was still thinking about letting Jody go [with Fifth And Five] ahead into the second turn, but I knew if I let him go, our race was over. We'd have no shot at winning."

McNair praised Stonebridge Wizard's effort.

"He was handy and he's a real nice colt," McNair said. "He's so professional."

Assistant trainer Scott Bako said the 2024 Battle of Waterloo champion was always a barn favorite.

"He's never really done a whole lot to disappoint us," Bako said. "He's just consistently kept getting stronger and stronger... He's a big, strong, rangy kind of a colt, and he is bigger than most of the colts who are in here as a 2-year-old. He's a colt that does kind of set up where when they go more fractions in here, it will suit him, because he does cover the ground so well."

The Battle of the Belles final saw Wicked N Single (p, 2, 1:53.2; $171,966) and driver James MacDonald find redemption after a place finish in their July 29 elimination. The winner survived an inquiry about a possible pylon violation on the last turn. The judges ruled that Wicked N Single went inside one pylon, and hit the next, but no violation. She stayed up for the biggest win of her career to date. Place finisher Manhattan Mayhem was ruled to have interfered with Wickedpace, so she was set back to third and Wickedpace moved up to second.

Famous Fast Words set the early pace for Travis Henry, but was overtaken by Wickedpace and Jody Jamieson before the :26.2 quarter. First-over Wicked N Single cleared Wickedpace soon after that point, leading to the half in :56 flat. Manhattan Mayhem and driver Doug McNair tipped fifth-over from fourth on the second turn, gradually gaining ground on the outside until they reached Wicked N Single's sulky wheel at three-quarters in 1:24.3. MacDonald's filly held off late moves by Wickedpace, Manhattan Mayhem, and hard-charging Oneformybaby (Trevor Henry) for the 1:53.2 victory.

Wicked N Single is a McWicked filly out of Better Single, owned by Lisa Lafort of Waterdown, ON and David Mercer of Westmount, NS. She is trained by Anthony Beaton, who also shares breeder credits with Mercer. The Battle of the Belles final is the July 6 OSS Gold winner's third victory, in her fifth career start.

"I was sweating pretty bad," said MacDonald, after the race. "You know, everyone in the winner's circle here is here celebrating and cheering, and then to have something like that happen... It put the damper on the situation for sure, but I'm glad they made the right call. I'm happy for the owners and the trainer and the horse herself. She earned it."

Beaton was emotional after the win, part of a strong comeback after a tough start to the year.

"That stuff's all behind me now," he said. "We're hoping to have a lot of success, continued success, as we go forward... She's our first homebred baby, and I've got to thank Winbak Farms for raising her like they did. They did a tremendous job, and hopefully they do the same job with the full sister that we're getting there this fall."

In race 6, the $20,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots leg 4 for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings, 1-9 favorite Century Komodo came through for driver Doug McNair and trainer Anthony Beaton. Century Komodo (p, 3, 1:51s; $55,540) grabbed command from Chalk Hanover and James MacDonald past the :26.4 quarter, leading the way through a :56.3 half and sparring with first-over McWicked Time, in line to Travis Cullen, along the backstretch. McWicked Time backed down when Century Komodo pulled ahead at three-quarters, reached in 1:23.1. McNair's gelding held off place finisher Chalk Hanover by a comfortable two open lengths at the wire in the 1:52.2 mile.

Favorite (4-5) McPleasant and James MacDonald sat the pocket to the :27.1 quarter. Lakers Bank shrugged off a challenge from Always a Thrill, driven by Sylvain Fillion, who got underway after the :56.1 half and chased him from first-over through three-quarters in 1:23.4. Filion's gelding held on gamely for place as the 19-1 winner prevailed by over two lengths at the finish. McPleasant was third.

Lakers Bank is an All Bets Off—Victorias Vett gelding bred by Lara Lake-Nontell of Elgin, ON. He is trained by Tim Myers and owned by Val Spar Stables of West Hill, ON. The Vicar pursued Tamworth Boy from first-over into the second turn, clearing past the :55 flat half and then facing a challenge from Sports Activator, driven by Brett MacDonald. Bridle-to-bridle past three-quarters in 1:22.4, 30-1 Sports Activator and The Vicar kept dueling down the stretch of the 1:51.1 mile, with the latter pulling ahead by less than a length to rewrite the new Grand River divisional record. The Vicar is now Canada's fastest 3-year-old male (colt or gelding) pacer on a five-eighths-mile track this season.

The Vicar is a free-legged gelding by Artspeak, out of St. Lads Billie Jean, bred by St. Lads Farm of Belleville, ON. SIRE STAKES REPORT

No repeats in PA-sired freshman pacing colt stakes

by PHHA / Pocono

On Sunday evening (Aug. 4) Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania hosted four divisions of the $190,902 second preliminary round of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing males, along with six $20,000 divisions of the companion Stallion Series, and none of the ten winners can claim two victories in their respective events.

Fastest of the PASS winners was the Bettor's Wish—Heavenly Bride colt Wedlock Blue Chip, making his first start in the series, but certainly no stranger to winning, as he is now four of five after taking a new mark of 1:51.3. Coming off an Arden Downs victory, Wedlock Blue Chip came first-over, pacing his third quarter in :27.1 to clear early on the far turn and then withstanding charging Papi's Rocket (who won the other Arden Downs division) by a length for driver Troy Beyer, trainer Polie Mallar, and owners Richard Cortese and Donald Hawk.

NBA star Nikola Jokic and Hall of Fame driver Tim Tetrick are very good friends, and Tetrick also gets along well with the Tall Dark Stranger—Ideal Newton colt Nikola J, with whom he set the pace then stepped home in :55.1 - :27 to win another Sires division in 1:52, equaling his mark. Scott DiDomenico conditions the winner of two of three for Oompa's Farm Inc. and Joseph Barbera.

David Miller joined fellow Hall of Famer Tetrick in triumphing in both sections of the freshman stakes, winning a PASS race with the Captain Crunch—Special Kay Deo colt TH Kay C Crunch (the "TH" refers to co-breeders Tara Hills Stud LTD and is not a truncation of "the"). TH Kay C Crunch was advancing on the grind when the favored leader made an equipment break, and the winner gained the advantage then held off Dreamboat Hanover (who suffered an "i") by a length while taking a maiden mark of 1:52.2 for trainer Nifty Norman and owners Carl and Jody Jamieson.

The other PASS split fell to the Captaintreacherous—Percy Bluechip colt Prince Hal Hanover, who used powerful stretch strides while coming home in :27 to catch TH Colby by a half-length in 1:53.2. The Tompkins Geers winner was handled by Bob McClure for trainer Dr. Ian Moore and the Prince Hal Hanover Stable.

The Stallion Series races became a showcase for sire Sweet Lou, whose offspring captured five of the six divisions, including two for trainer Ron Burke and driver David Miller. Those winners were Lou's Albano (dam Camille), who took a maiden mark of 1:53 for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC, M1 Stable LLC, and Jack Piatt III, and Da Lou Ron Ron (dam Sassa Hanover), home in 1:53.3 for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC, Lawrence Karr, and Frank Baldachino.

Fastest Stallion Series winner was Odds On No Limit (Sweet Lou—Odds On Clearwater), who broke his maiden in 1:52.2 for driver Matt Kakaley, trainer Travis Alexander, and the ownership of Odds On Racing and UFO2.

Tim Tetrick also added an StS win to his Sires victory with a son of Sweet Lou: Waffle Hanover (dam Vicinity), who broke his maiden in 1:53.3 for trainer Brett Pelling and Steve Wienick Racing LLC, Pryde Stables Inc., and Jfoderatritchiecanamerica. The Sweet Lou quintet was rounded out by Knockout Round (dam Can't Stop Me Now), who won his debut in 1:53.2 for driver Tyler Buter, trainer Tony Alagna, and Micki Rae Stables LLC and Tim Twaddle.

The only Stallion Series race to not feature a Sweet Lou-sired winner was the card's opener, taken by the Papi Rob Hanover—DB Blue Chip gelding Waterfront, who took a new mark of 1:53 for driver Braxten Boyd, trainer Hunter Oakes, and the partnership of Flying A Racing Stable, Alan Johnston, Donald Mac Rae, and H O Racing Inc.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

After all eyes were on The Meadowlands, and deservedly so, on Saturday (Aug. 3) The Red Mile returned to the scene with 31 races on Sunday (Aug. 4) and Monday (Aug. 5) highlighted by the triumphant return of Kentucky champion Bettor Is Nice and the Bluegrass debut of Super Chapter as each horse reigned supreme in the first legs of their respective $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series (KYSSCS) legs.

On Monday two $80,000 divisions of the KYSSCS were contested for freshman and sophomore male trotters. Super Chapter (Dexter Dunn) demonstrated he may be one to watch as the fifth foal out of world champion Lifetime Pursuit, improved his record to 4 3-1-0 as the public's choice.

Super Chapter trotted in third position for the first split of the contest after beginning his journey from post position 9 in a field of nine. Landing On Time (Scott Zeron) went to the front and clicked off a fraction of :28.2 for the first section of the mile. Dunn pulled the son of Chapter Seven prior to the half-mile marker and the colt responded with a :56.4 half-mile.

With Landing On Time unable to stay on stride, Chat Room (Yannick Gingras), who was also in close proximity, made his bid as the horses approached the wire, but was unable to surpass the winner.

Super Chapter paid $3.50 to win and stopped the clock in 1:53.

The day's other KYSSCS division for 3-year-old male trotters belonged to longshot Luke The Spook (Mattias Melander) as the son of Greenshoe hit the line in a new lifetime best of 1:54. His :26.2 final fraction was enough to withstand the opposition launched by Bright Star (Dunn). Ways N Means (David Miller) came back after leading early in the event to snare the show spot.

The above-mentioned Ways N Means snatched the lead from the beginning of the mile and left the field of eight in his wake through a :28.4 quarter-mile. Bright Star, however, had other ideas and overtook Ways N Means before the half-mile in a :57.3.

Luke The Spook commenced his journey from the rail and actually went off-stride prior to the start. Trailing in seventh, then eighth, the colt and his pilot advanced into third around the final turn.

The colt was resolute and was best by three-quarters of a length.

Luke The Spook provided Marcus Melander with a sweep of the male KYSSCS trotting events on Monday as he is also responsible for Super Chapter.

Paying a generous $68.64 at the windows, the son Greenshoe—Noblesse Blue Chip has now earned $111,203 in purse money and improved his career record to 14 5-3-1. He had one victory from five starts last year.

Luke The Spook competes for AM Bloodstock who also bred him.

On Sunday, steered by McCarthy, Bettor Is Nice collected his second victory of 2024 for conditioner Tony Alagna while lowering his lifetime mark to 1:49.3. The son of Bettor's Wish and the talented Thatsoveryverynice, left from post position 3 and was content to remain in that location while Courtship (Andy Miller) led the field of six sophomore male pacers through early splits of :27.4 and :54.2.

By the three-quarter mile marker, McCarthy and his charge decided to make their presence known and assumed command with a 1:21.4 panel. As they strode for home, Copperfield (Todd McCarthy) gave chase, but it was in vain as Bettor Is Nice outlasted his rival by three-quarters of a length.

Favored Nuclear (Dunn) came home with a rush but was third best.

Owned by his conditioner, Pryde Stables Inc. and Birnam Wood Farms, Bettor Is Nice has now earned $657,783 from 20 trips to the gate. The colt is 9 2-2-2 on the year.

He paid $8.34 to win.

In the second KYSSCS division on Sunday for freshman male pacers, Sippinonsearoc (Gingras) prevailed over Louprint (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) by a neck in 1:50.1. The son of Downbytheseaside—Queen Anne M is now a perfect three-for-three in his young career for trainer Ron Burke and established a new lifetime mark.

The Real Thing (Dunn) took control to top the field of eight through a first quarter-mile in :28. That was when Gingras placed his pupil on the lead and gave him ample rein to continue strongly to the wire. Sippinonsearoc led through splits of :55.4 and 1:24.1. Louprint, also trained by Burke, closed strongly to give his barnmate all he could handle and came up just short as the post time favorite. Blue Onyx (A. Miller) held third.

Owned by his trainer, Weaver Brusceci, R A S Racing and Knox Services Inc. Sippinonsearoc was a $77,000 purchase at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The colt is the second foal out of his dam, who banked $374,337 on the racetrack.

Sippinonsearoc paid $6.10 to his supporters.

by John Horne / Tioga Downs

Happy Jack B (Tyler Buter) wins the $106,300 leg of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings at Tioga Downs on Sunday (Aug. 4).

Happy Jack B ($2.40) went straight to the front and led to the quarter in :28.1. He used a :29.1 second quarter to be first to the half in :57.2. Gangsta Talk (Ake Svanstedt) made a first-over move going down the backstretch. Happy Jack B was first to three-quarters in 1:25.4.

As they made the turn for home Happy Jack B found another burst and won easily in 1:54.2. Variegated (Braxten Boyd) finished second but was racing for purse only. For the parimutuel betters Gangsta Talk finished second and Moonshot S (Marcus Miller) was third.

Happy Jack B is a colt by Chapter Seven—Exotic. He is owned by Nasstrom Holding Inc., Wolfgang A Stable Inc., Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing while trained by Ake Svanstedt. It is his first career victory in four lifetime starts.

North America's leading dash champion, Aaron Merriman, put up some big numbers on Sunday (Aug. 4) at MGM Northfield Park, with nine victories on the 15-race program.

Muskateer Hanover dazzles in Dan Patch FFA at Running Aces

The Sunday night (Aug. 4) program at Running Aces featured the $50,000 Dan Patch FFA pace final as well as Minnesota-sired sophomore trotters.

Muskateer Hanover was the talk of the track apron as well as the toteboard in this year's Dan Patch final after his all-time track record performance in his July 21 elimination heat and he was sent off as the 1-9 favorite from post 5 in the seven-horse affair.

Trainer/driver Brady Jenson wasted no time in putting the talented son of Sweet Lou into play, firing fastest from the gate to quickly take command of the field as they headed into the first turn and getting well settled on the lead through a fast-opening panel in :26.2.

Tuggin On My Heart (Jacob Cutting) was the second choice on the board at 6-1 and also left quickly from the gate from post 6 while He'zzz A Wise Sky (Dean Magee) got away swiftly as well to secure the pocket.

Jenson and Muskateer Hanover ripped off an opening half mile in an eye-opening :53.2 while Tuggin On My Heart continued to pursue the leader from first over and drew closer as they headed toward the far turn.

After posting a :28.2 breather in the third panel, Muskateer Hanover kicked back into high gear and started to pull away from his rivals with He'zzz A Wise Sky moving into second and the rest of the field battling for third.

Muskateer Hanover checked in a five-length winner in 1:49.2 while He'zzz A Wise Sky was a clear second and No Lou Zing (Mooney Svendsen) got up for third ahead of Tuggin On My Heart.

No Lou Zing was subsequently disqualified and placed sixth for causing interference to Mac's Marvel in the first turn. That moved Tuggin On My Heart up to third and Ynotthishos (Nick Roland) up to fourth.

Muskateer Hanover ($2.20) is owned by Mulligan Stables and Calcutta Stable. He now shows seven wins and earnings of $183,835 this season.

DP Freedoms Chrome (James Gould, $2.10) delivered as the 1-20 favorite to capture his seventh straight win in the $17,000 Minnesota-sired sophomore male 'A' trot in 1:58 with longshot Finale Jetta (Jenson) getting second and Wherever Rio Goes (Sean Smithpeters) finishing third.

The winner is owned by Aimes Racing and is trained by Elvin Zimmerman.

Al-Mar Puredelight (James Kennedy, $27.00) posted a career best mile in 1:58.4 to win the sophomore filly 'A' trot by 3-1/4 lengths over Spicymoneymaker (Dean Magee) and Banker's Grace (Rick Magee).

The winner is owned by Jay and Eric De Long and Terry Knothe and is trained by Justin Anfinson.

Piggly Wiggly (Roland, $4.20) delivered as the favorite in the $8,500 sophomore 'B' trot with a career best 1:59.4 win over SB Eye Candy and Chicora. It was the third career win for Piggly Wiggly for owner Set The Pace Racing and trainer Roland.

Driver Kennedy had a double while both Elson Miller and Roland had both driving and training doubles on the Sunday card.

Ocean claiming series canceled

Officials at Ocean Downs have announced the cancellation of the David Hill III Memorial Series, for claiming pacers, which had been scheduled to begin Aug. 15.

"With our racing days cut that week – thereby going to a three-day-a-week schedule – we need to ensure that Maryland-based horsepeople are properly represented in the entry box," said Peter Szymanski, director of racing at Ocean Downs. "We will honor our friend David Hill with a memorial race to be named later."

Beginning the week of Aug. 11, Ocean Downs will drop Tuesdays from its live schedule, hosting racing on Sunday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings through Sept. 5 with a nightly post time of 7:05 p.m.
