Down Under dominance on Hambletonian Day

THE FINAL HAMBLETONIAN DAY WRAP-UP.

by Bob Heyden

Down Under drivers earned 19 checks on Hambletonian Day – six wins, three seconds and a third.

Todd McCarthy won the Hambletonian with Cool Papa Bell and the Lady Liberty with Kobes Gigi.

Dexter Dunn won the Steele Memorial with Bella Bellini, the Sam McKee Memorial with Catch The Fire and the John Cashman Memorial With Alrajah One.

Andy McCarthy won the Jim Doherty Memorial with Instagram Model

Todd McCarthy's two stakes wins were each with horses that paid $100.

IF ONLY FILLY JOVIALITY S HAD HUNG ON

Had Joviality hung on to win the Hambletonian, this stat would have been fabulous instead of just interesting:

In 1968, Joviality's driver Brian Sears was born.

The same year, Stanley Dancer won his first Hambletonian at age 41 with a generational horse named Nevele Pride. He would go on to be the Horse of the Year and later sire Hambletonian winner Bonefish.

In 2009, s Sears won his first Hambletonian, also at age 41, with a generational horse named Muscle Hill. He was the HOY and later sired three Hambletonian winners.

In 1972, Dancer was 45 when won his second Hambletonian with the favorite, Super Bowl.

In 2013, Sears was 45 when he won his second Hambletonian with the favorite Royalty For Life.

In 1975, Dancer was 48 when he won his third Hambletonian with Bonefish.

In 2015, Sears was 47 when he won his third Hambletonian with Pinkman.

In 1983, Dancer was 56 when he won his fourth and final Hambletonian as a driver with the filly Duenna.

In 2022, Sears is 54 when he attempted to win his fourth and most recent Hambletonian with a filly – Joviality.

DÉJÀ VU ALL OVER AGAIN

For trainer Marcus Melander that is.

In 2019, with Greenshoe and Gimpanzee and Green Manalishi, he became the first trainer in Hambletonian history to get three checks in one Hambletonian without winning it. They finished second, third and fifth, respectively.

In 2022, with Joviality, Temporal Hanover and Periculum, Melander did it again. He was second, third and fifth, but this time not with the favorites. Melander's Hambletonian horses were 5-2, 10-1 and 102-1.

LAST YEAR? WHO CARES?

Two straight Hambletonian Oaks winners now have been winless as 2-year-olds:

In 2021, Bella Bellini was 0-for-7.

In 2022, Fashion Schooner was 0-for-3.

CONGRATS TO FORSBERG-MOSNER

HAMBLETONIAN OAKS

Our heartfelt appreciation to our host track partner The Meadowlands and their dedicated staff as well as the large "stable" of free-lancers and Hambletonian staff who make the day happen.

MARATHONERS

Hats off to Jim Campbell and Ernie Gaskin. They both were training in 1981 at the first Hambletonian Day in New Jersey. Gaskin, working then for the Haughton stable, had Charter Party, who was third and then third again in the Hambletonian and Cheek To Cheek, who was second and fifth in the Hambletonian Oaks. Jim Campbell, then just 19, had a pair in – Jefs Eclipse was ninth in the 6th race and then Campbell got money with Mostest Yankee in the 10th race, finishing third. Campbell has now become the only Hambletonian Day participant in his teens, 20s, 30s, 40s 50s and now he is 60. Gaskin was in New Jersey as a member of the Hambletonian Society.

CATCH THE FIRE – AGAIN

Catch The Fire defended his McKee title and now will likely go to Hoosier Park for the Dan Patch?

He was a $15,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale grad. Multiply that by 100 and you get $1.5 million. Add $274 and that is Catch The Fire's new total – $1,500,274 after his 1:46.4 lifetime best easy score in the McKee.

HOMEBREDS PROMINENT

Hambletonian Day winners Bella Bellini, Misswalner Fashion, Fashion Schooner, Billy Clyde, Kobes Gigi and Beach Glass are all homebreds.

Jimmy Freight: The Comeback, Part 2

After sustaining a mild injury, Jimmy Freight is getting closer to a return to the races.

by Melissa Keith

The Joe Gerrity Jr. Memorial at Saratoga Raceway was supposed to be a highlight of Jimmy Freight's 2022 campaign. But the star pacer was notably absent from the July 23 event, following a minor accident and a major turning point in his career.

Owner Adriano Sorella of Guelph, ON said that after new partners joined him in a partnership on Jimmy Freight, the stallion injured himself. The horse had recently relocated to the stable of US-based trainer Brett Pelling.

"He basically cut himself on the trailer," said Sorella. "When he shipped, they probably thought he was just going down the road for 10 minutes, so what's the likelihood of him doing something to himself on the trailer? Well, sure enough, he went for a 10-minute ride, and they opened the trailer and there he was [bleeding]."

Veterinarian Dr. Patty Hogan notified him that the leg injury was superficial.

"Patty had messaged me and said, 'We checked him out, we x-rayed him and everything, and everything looks fine.' He didn't get down to the bone or anything, but he needed 10 sutures."

Sorella noted it wasn't the first time that the most famous Iowa-bred standardbred had gotten agitated in transit.

Earlier this year, "He was going to Winbak [Farm] one day and he had back boots on, but he didn't have front, and he struck himself and needed four or five sutures. That was in the middle of March. He was already entered and he raced four days later in the [Woodbine Mohawk Park] preferred. That's actually when he went on his win streak."

Seven-year-old Jimmy Freight was in the midst of a stellar season prior to the recent mishap. He won his first Mohawk preferred handicap this year on Feb. 12, and began his aforementioned top-class win streak on March 25. The fifth straight victory, in the May 14 free-for-all, was a standout for his owner.

"I don't think anybody thought he was going to win. Going to the three-quarters, he was like 10 or 12 lengths behind, but I knew what the game plan was. We knew there was going to be a lot of speed up front, those two horses [Tattoo Artist and American History] were prepping for the Camluck, and [Jimmy Freight's driver] Louis [Philippe Roy] said, 'I'm just going to sit and wait, and I'll come the back half in like :52.'" It took a :25.1 closing quarter to overtake Tattoo Artist and Funatthebeach N, strides before the wire.

"Everything that's in Canada, he's been able to win," said Sorella. "There's some very good horses out there throughout the older [pacing] category, but he's just done everything we asked for him to do here. He's won the Camluck Classic; he's won the Mohawk Gold Cup."

Rallying back against a persistent Linedrive Hanover in the latter, Jimmy Freight took a new lifetime best of 1:48. Then Sorella's phone started buzzing.

"I was talking to [Eric Cherry] and I was talking to Mark Weaver as well. There were two separate deals that I could have possibly done with them," he told HRU. "When I talked with Eric Cherry, he said, 'Well, let's see what happens in the Gold Cup.' And then when I was going to the winner's circle, he was sending me text messages: 'Are we getting this done tonight?' So I already knew."

The stallion's ownership group now consists of Cherry's Let It Ride Stable of Boca Raton, FL; Robert Cooper Stables LLC; Jesmeral Stable; and Howard Taylor. A condition of the partnership was non-disclosure of the deal's financial side, although Sorella could confirm that each of the five owners was an equal partner, with Cherry and Sorella making the decisions about Jimmy Freight's next moves, including the move to stateside trainer Brett Pelling.

Then came the accident. Jimmy Freight's foreleg injury resulted from antics familiar to his original Canadian trainer Richard Moreau and caretaker Richard "Pic" Beaulieu, but not yet familiar to all his new connections, explained Sorella.

"He's not a mean horse at all. Like if you go next to him, he'll put his head on your shoulder. It's just when he gets on that trailer, he knows it's one of two things: He's going to race or he's going to breed."

In early August, Jimmy Freight began training with Pelling, with Aug. 27 eliminations for the Canadian Pacing Derby as the immediate objective.

"I guess if he comes up [to Canada] earlier for a qualifier or a qualifier and a preferred, Brett might not be here, so he might go back into Richard's barn for that," said Sorella. "I'm guessing he will probably ship back up here to qualify or go into the open, because Meadowlands is shut down now, after the Hambo."

He added that Roy will remain the pacer's regular driver.

"I went to lunch with Louis before I even sold the horse, because Louis knew that there were rumors of the horse being sold... I gave him the brief of what's going on... I don't like taking horses away from people, but it just made sense to do this, because he's seven, he can possibly have a different breeding career in the US. There's a lot of different things that can happen for him that weren't happening for him here, aside from the racing part of it. So that was part of the deal. When I spoke to Louis about it, he basically said to me, 'I know there's a possibility I can lose this drive, but you'd be crazy if you didn't do this.'"

Jimmy Freight's comeback comes at a moment when the older male pacing division is stacked with talent. Fortunately, his return to training is well underway, with Pelling recently telling the owners that the stallion doesn't even breathe hard after training.

"When you jog him, all he does is fool around on the racetrack," Sorella noted affectionately. "He's playful out there. But when you put his hobbles on, put his equipment on, he's like a different horse... He'll keep going. There's been a lot of unfortunate situations where he had to keep going."

It's a storybook saga that keeps unfolding.

"I'm confident in him as a racehorse and I'm confident in him as a breeding [stallion]," Sorella said.

Racing and breeding concurrently are not a problem, in Sorella's estimation.

"The only reason why you wouldn't do it is because it's more convenient for a stud farm to just have them all sitting there... But why do we always continue to do things the way it was yesterday? We complain about how we need to be more advanced and more into the future, but instead, we still do things the old way, because that's the way we've done it before. But why? Why can't you keep these all-stars on the racetrack and race them and still breed them? Is it a money thing, because you're worried that they're going to lose and devalue themselves as a stallion? I don't think that's the case."

Putting Jimmy Freight's career, so far, into perspective, Sorella drew a comparison: "[Consider] the fact that he was off 27 months – no vet work, no training, no jogging, no nothing. Imagine an Olympic 100 meter sprinter like Usain Bolt being off for over two years, coming back, and in four months, to be dominant again... He was meant to be racing in Iowa for 900 bucks. His breeders have never sold a horse, but they've bred to Ontario's Sportswriter many times and never sold to anybody in Ontario. They've always kept them and raced locally for fun."

With the Breeders Crown as a longer range goal this season, Sorella is happy it's at his, and Jimmy's, home track, Woodbine Mohawk Park. (Eliminations are on Sorella's birthday, Oct. 22.)

"I know there's a lot of talk about Bulldog Hanover, and rightly so. He's been unbeatable this year. But in Canada, it's been all Jimmy."

James Herbertson on the unusual wake-up call that made him a better driver

by Adam Hamilton

A good old-fashioned spray from a fellow driver was the turning point in young Aussie driving sensation James Herbertson's career.

Such sprays are rare in today's "PC" world and Herbertson was rocked at the time when leading driver Nathan Jack gave him a real "gob-full" at a Bendigo meeting about three years ago.

In the now 22-year-old Herbertson's mind he was already a success. He had been driving for three years and established himself as one of most exciting and successful junior drivers in Australia.

"I guess you'd say I was doing it all on ability back then, but that spray from Nathan really woke me. It came out of nowhere and from a guy I really looked up to. He's one of the best and smartest tactical drivers in the land.

"I still don't really know what set Nathan off that night, but I guess he saw me cruising a bit, not doing those extra things to make the most of myself.

"It worked. It really stung me. It sort of got me out of childish ways. Instead of just turning up and driving, I started to use my brain a bit more.

"I'd been lucky to have a great upbringing. Dad (Ashleigh) has been a trainer for over 30 years and Mum (Jody) was a steward in Queensland before we moved down Victoria when I was six months old.

"They had done so much for me and been so supportive, but weren't the sort of people to put a rocket up me... that's where the night with Nathan hit home."

So, what did Herbertson, now a clear leader in the very strong Victorian statewide driver's premiership over the likes of Chris Alford, Greg Sugars, Kate Gath, Kerryn Manning and others, do to change things?

"Homework. I made sure I knew my opposition, the horses and the drivers. Understanding their strengths and weaknesses has been such a help," he said.

"People ask if that means I go out there with a plan now and the answer is no, but because I know who I'm against, I can read a race better while it's unfolding."

Herbertson grew-up in a harness family, but it took a while for him to catch the bug.

"I always loved the farm, but was more into the machinery and stuff rather than the horses," he said.

"It wasn't until Matty Craven (Victorian driver) started driving dad's horses when I got interested. Matthew is a charismatic person, I wanted to be him so that's when I got keen. I was probably 10 or 11

"I started pestering dad to drive in the pony trots all over the place. I did that for 18 months or two years until I was about 14."

Victoria's rules say you can't drive in official races until you are 16, but a quirk saw Herbertson start when he "was about a month shy" of being 16.

And his first drive was a winner aboard Tearitup for his father at Terang in 2016.

"I thought, 'How easy is this?' But it was all downhill from there. I struggled for a while after that," Herbertson said.

Not long after that "spray" from Jack, Herbertson snared his first Group 1 win when Savannah Jay Jay upstaged a strong field of trotters in the 2019 Australian Trotting Grand Prix.

"That's the most special win so far, my first Group 1 and on a horse I really clicked with," he said.

"The Cranbourne Cup (last December) is another special one. It was only a Group 1, but Supreme Dominator beat Group 1 horses that night (Amazing Dream and Copy That were in the race) and lots of people were watching because it was such a big race.

"It's also my biggest win on a pacer. Most of my major wins have come on trotters and Greg (Sugars, leading driver and a mentor to Herbertson), jokingly tells me Group 1 trotting wins are only half Group 1's."

Herbertson credits Matty Craven, his brother Glen and cousin Jason Lee as his biggest earlier influences.

"I wouldn't be driving if it wasn't for them," he said. "Then, once I got started, how could you go past (the late) Gavin Lang as someone to look up to and want to be."

"In more recent times, Greg Sugars has taken me under his wing. It's pretty cool, he treats me like a son. He mightn't see it that way, but it means the world to me."

While so many emerging young drivers rely on the support of leading stables to reach the top, Herbertson has never had that luxury.

"And I'm sort of glad in some ways," he said. "Sure, it makes it harder, but it makes it more rewarding, too. I've got a lot of little trainers behind me and big wins mean a lot more for them. You almost feel part of the family if you can share a big win with them."

And that's just what Herbertson is hoping to do in the closing months of 2022.

"I've had a fantastic year so, I think it's gone unnoticed a bit to be honest," he said. "I won the (Group 1) NSW Trotters' Derby in Sydney, my first big win away from home and my first win, full stop at Menangle."

"But, yes, the next six months do shape as being very exciting."

Herbertson has already booked a spot in the Victorian Inter Dominion series with the much-improved Ross Graham-trained trotter Nephew Of Sonoko.

And the best pacer he drives, Supreme Dominator, is shaping as a serious player in the Group 1 Victoria Cup (October 8) and Inter Dominion pacing series after that.

"He went from a country-class horse to running in our biggest races in the space of eight or nine races last campaign," Herbertson said. "He had a long spell after that and feels like he's come back and improved that little bit more again."

Supreme Dominator won narrowly but impressive win in the Our Maestro free-for-all at Melton last Saturday night.

Meanwhile, Herbertson will continue the grind that goes with being Victoria's leading freelance driver.

"I drive about 2,500 kilometres (1,550 miles) per week. Most weeks I'm driving in races seven days a week. It averages out that I would get a day off every three weeks or so," he said.

"I used to get a bit dozy driving, but I found a way through that. These days you'll hear me singing along to music."

Herbertson's schedule also means he no longer has time to help out on the family farm, which has almost 5,000 head of sheep, at Lexton, almost two hours outside of Melbourne in Victoria.

"It's a big property with plenty to do, but dad takes care of most of that these days," he said.

Set for big battle at Åby

by Thomas Hedlund

Åby racetrack in Sweden plays host to the $295,000 Åby Stora Pris over 3,140 meters this Saturday (Aug. 13). A strong, 12-horse field that will battle for the big trophy.

Saturday's race card is great with finals in all V75 divisions and purses are high in almost every race on the card. The Åby Stora Pris is obviously the highlight of the day and a very interesting field will battle over the long distance.

Elitloppet runner up Hail Mary (Googoo Gaagaa) is one of the favorites in the race and the 6-year-old drew post 1 behind the gate.

WIRE TO WIRE FOR CAPITAL MAIL

Italian Derby runner up Capital Mail (Nad al Sheba) hit the lead when the $102,000 Gran Premio Criterium 4 anni was on the schedule at Ippodromo Garigliano on Thursday (Aug. 4) night. And from the lead, Capital Mail was hard to beat, even if challenger Cointreau tightened the gap over the stretch and the two horses came home in a mile rate of 1:57 over 1.3 miles. Inside leader Capital Mail held his nose and head first at the wire and the 4-year-old claimed another big trophy in his career.

The 4-year-old mares met in the $67,000 Gran Premio Campionato Femminile and Alessandro Gocciadoro's Clarissa (Exploit Caf) proved best after a first over trip. Clarissa won the $90,000 Gran Premio Orsi Mangelli Filly last year and belongs in the top of the crop among Italian-bred 4-year-old mares. The mile rate was 1:58 over 1.3 miles.

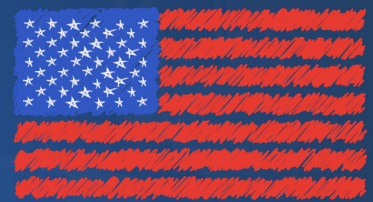

An inside position as third and a quick finish was the winning recipe for Doni Maker (Yankee Glide) in the $67,000 Gran Premio Campionato for 3-year-old fillies. The mile rate for the Yankee Glide daughter was 1:59 over 1.3 miles.

STOLETHESHOW BEST IN NORWAY

Frøde Hamre's Stoletideshow (Dream Vacation) followed up his runner-up performance in the Hugo Åbergs Memorial with a tight win in the $47,500 Norwegian Championship at Biri racetrack on Saturday (Aug. 6) afternoon.

Hamre took it safe with his 7-year-old trotter and the duo was seen in sixth over as toughest opponent Cicero T.G. controlled the race outside the leader. Stoletshow attacked three wide with a half mile to go and when he connected outside of Cicero T.G. at the stretch, the fight began and Stoletshow proved to be the best in mile rate 1:57.4 over 1.6 miles.

Miss Pepper (Quite Easy) left third over on the backstretch when the $47,500 Norwegian Championship for mares was held during the same day at Biri and Miss Pepper's strong finish was enough to claim the title in a mile rate of 1:58 over 1.3 miles.

Two divisions of $56,000 Prinsessan Märtha Luise Pokalopp for 3-year-olds were held at Biri and it became a successful day for trainer Anders Wolden Lundström, who claimed the title for both fillies and colts.

Nancy Lou (Muscle Hill—Peaceful Way) was a 95-1 upset in the fillies' division and Wolden Lundström's trotter disarmed leader L.A.'s Venus shortly ahead of the wire. Nancy Lou was seen in fourth position on the inside and racing room appeared during the race's last half mile, when leader L.A.'s Venus tried to fly away from her opponents.

Nancy Lou won in 1:58.1 over 1.3 miles and her mother Peaceful Way (Angus Hall—Royal Bait) is a Canadian and American Hall of Famer, after her career which included 33 wins in 52 starts and a lifetime earnings of $3,245,055.

In the colts' division, I.D.Forecast (Village Mystic) fought bravely after a first over trip and claimed the trophy in a mile rate of 1:59.2 for driver Kristian Malmin.

ALLAIRE DOMINATED AT ENGHEN

Philippe Allaire-trained horses dominated the race card at Enghien, Paris on Saturday (Aug. 6) afternoon.

The $92,000 Prix de Geneve for 4-year-old trotters resulted in a big success for Allaire since his Izoard Vedaquais (Bird Parker) hit the lead with stablemates Callmethebreeze and Italiano Vero following behind. Izoard Vedaquais cruised to a safe win in 1:57.3 over 1.7 miles and the two stablemates claimed the places behind the winner. It was a great success for Allaire and his dominance wasn't over. In the $92,000 Prix de Berlin for 3-year-olds, Just A Gigolo (Boccador de Simm) hit the lead at an early stage of the race and driver Franck Nivard opted to let quick attacker Deus Zack take control of the race after a while. Nivard had great trust in his horse and Just A Gigolo had to do the heavy work outside the leader during the race's remaining kilometer. Just A Gigolo was more or less outstanding over the stretch. Stablemate Joyner Sport finished strongly as second and Allaire noted that he claimed the top two places even in this race.

The mile rate for Just A Gigolo was 1:59 over 1.7 miles.

Team McNair doubles up in glamour boys' Gold leg at Georgian Downs

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

The glamour boys were at Georgian Downs tonight for a pair of Ontario Sires Stakes Gold divisions, and the father-son duo of Gregg and Doug McNair was victorious in each.

Sport Secret started the night off earning his first stakes victory in the $102,200 division in race 1.

Doug settled the Sportswriter colt off a brisk early pace set by the dueling trio of St Lads Sterling Southside Eddy, and Magical Arthur who led the field through a first quarter of :26 as they battled for position.

"They mixed her up big time on the front end, and he benefitted from that," said Gregg.

Southside Eddy, the betting favorite, emerged to take the lead at the half in :54, but was overtaken by St Lads Sterling as he powered to a 3/4 time of 1:22.

As the field entered the stretch Sport Secret found racing room and closed from third with a final panel of :28.1 to win by a length over a late charging Century Inspector, and Ron.

Making his third OSS start, the third time was the charm for Sport Secret getting a quality trip.

"We've only raced him in two stakes races, and last Gold he got parked the whole way," said Gregg. "Then the start before that he was first over, and it was tough for him, but he raced good tonight."

The win was Sport Secret's sixth of 2022, pushing him over $175,000 in earnings for Gregg and his ownership partners Frank Brundle (East Garafraxa, ON), Jeffrey Skinner (Hammonds Plains, N.S.), and Ross Holmes (London, ON).

Century Inspector made a valiant effort to finish second, after going off at 53-1. Bob McClure was in the race bike for trainer John Pentland. Eric Rosene from Bolton, ON owns the Hes Watching colt who now has over $180,000 in career earnings.

Ron flew down the lane to finish third in a photo. It was the James Dean trainee's second straight top-three finish at the Gold level. Philippe Hudon was driving as the colt passed the $200,000 mark for owners James and Wilma Mackenzie.

In race three, the second $101,300 OSS Gold division, Stonebridge Helios picked up his third consecutive win since transferring to the McNair barn.

The Sunshine Beach colt was impressive from start to finish. Sent off at 1-9 from post four, he settled off the :26.4 first quarter and made a powerful first up move as the field passed the grandstand for the first time, going from fourth to the front, and leading the rest of the way to win by two lengths.

His final time of 1:49.4 is only three-tenths of a second off his career mark of 1:49.1 set his last time out.

"He seems to be getting stronger every start," said Gregg. "He went a nice mile last week at Mohawk, and tonight was a big trip, doing quite a bit of the work, and leading them through the half in :54. It was a good mile for him."

He now has $491,000 in earnings for owners John Fleischman (Ottawa, ON) and Angie Stiller (London, ON).

"I'd be lying if I said I didn't like him. He's a nice horse and he has a lot of go," said Gregg. "He's a nice horse to be around, and he was nice when we got him, and he is still a nice horse."

Shawn Steacy trainee Macho Phil was second. Bob McClure was in the race bike as the colt was second for most of the mile and was unable to catch Stonebridge Helios tonight. Hudson Standardbred Stb Inc. (Hudson, Que.) owns the son of Shanghai Phil.

Cold Creek Queso finished third. Austin Sorrie piloted the Murray Brethour trainee to his best OSS finish of 2022. The result moved him over $100,000 in career earnings for owner Cold Creek Standardbred (Grafton, Ont.).

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Fast freshman pacing colts in Pocono PASS spotlight

by PHHA / Pocono

Sire Stay Hungry swept the two third preliminary round divisions of the $162,620 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts on Sunday (Aug. 7) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, and both divisions were clocked in 1:51.3 over sloppy going.

The colt Lyons Surfing capped a big stakes night for driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Jim King Jr. when he was up for a nose victory in one division. Lyons Surfing tucked fifth from post seven in a field of eight as favored Bugaboo Lou made the early lead by the :27 quarter, yielded to previous PASS winner Ken Hanover then reclaimed the lead before a :56 half. Lyons Surfing had to come first-over, but in pacing a :54.3 individual last half he had gotten close to the lead by the 1:23.4 three-quarters and then just kept coming gamely, working to defeat the Pocono Pike-shooting Ken Hanover by the tightest of margins; Bugaboo Lou had an excuse in finishing third, three-quarters of a length back, in that he returned with broken equipment.

The win was the second straight for Lyons Surfing, after a victory in a division of the Arden Downs on Adios Day. The freshman, whose dam is Surfside Sexy, is owned by Threelyonsracing.

The other division matched Ervin Hanover, the only double winner in the first two PASS legs, against two other previous Sires winners and a double Stallion Series winner, and it was won by the gelding Annapolis Hanover (dam All Night Long), who won his fourth straight race, a streak that now includes two pari-mutuel Sire Stakes legs. Annapolis Hanover was three-wide through a hot :26.4 quarter, with Ervin Hanover inside and Fulton between horses, and then followed Fulton on to the lead under David Miller's guidance before a half in :55.3. The swift early action took some steam out of his two early foes, but Annapolis Hanover stayed on and withstood the first-over bid of Stay Grounded through and past the 1:23.4 three-quarters and prevailed by 1¼ lengths.

Curtis Salonick

Lyons Surfing (Tim Tetrick) won his PASS test for rookie pacing colts on Sunday at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono in 1:51.3.

Annapolis Hanover now has six wins in eight starts, and equaled his mark. He is owned and trained by Mitchell York, a retired PA State Trooper, who in the afternoon won a stakes race at the nearby Honesdale (PA) Fair – but this victory was approximately 29 times more lucrative.

Tetrack would win three of the five $20,000 companion Stallion Series races, including guiding another Stay Hungry gelding, Dempsey Hanover (dam Deer Valley Miss), to a 1:55.2 victory to make him the only three-time winner in the Pennsylvania Stakes program winner on either pari-mutuel side. Dempsey Hanover got a soft :58.2 half on the lead, but he still had to fight hard to ward off the rail-shooting Major Decision by a neck for trainer Todd Luther and Black Magic Racing LLC.

Two other Stallion Series divisions fell to Team Tetrack/King with sons of Captaintreacherous: the gelding Secret Captain (dam Dark Secret), who took his second straight StS race in a lifetime best 1:53.2 for owner Jo Ann Looney-King; and another for the ownership of Threelyonsracing, the colt Lyons Spirit (dam Southwind Serenity), who also became a double Stallion Series winner with a 1:55.1 mile, pacing two :27.2 back quarters uncovered in impressive style.

A third StS winning son of Captaintreacherous paced the fastest time of the five sections, as the gelding Quixote (dam Love Canal) paced his own third quarter in :27.2 to charge from fourth to first, then tacked on a :27.4 kicker to lower his mark to 1:52.4 for driver David Miller and trainer Nifty Norman, the latter co-owner with Let It Ride Cooper Stables, Bottom Line Racing LLC, and Howard Taylor. Quixote has now won Stallion Series races in his only two career starts.

The other StS section was taken by the longest-priced winner of the entire night, 6-1 shot Just Bet It All, a Betting Line – Just Fine gelding, who was yet another first-over winner, taking a maiden mark of 1:54 for driver Mark MacDonald, trainer Linda Toscano, and the ownership of West Wins Stable, Calhoun Racing LTD, Pit Bull Stable LLC, and Mac Nichol.

Ruth Honig and Woolco win New York Sire Stakes at Monticello

by Kimberly Winston

Tyler Buter had the hot hand and then some Monday (Aug. 8) at Monticello. He drove four New York Sire Stakes winners on the card for the 2-year-old trotting fillies. Ruth Honig and Woolco both won their respective divisions. In the first heat of NYSS racing, for a purse of \$52,500, Buter went down the road to score in a wire-to-wire in 1:58.3 - \$5.50 aboard Ruth Honig. Starting from Post Position 6, the \$90,000 daughter of Chapter Seven made the front just past the opening panel, where she was briefly parked out in :28.4. Approaching the half, Midwind Success and the favorite, Bourbon On Ice (John Stark Jr.), took to the outside, passing that marker in :59.2 with Ruth Honig still showing the way. Jordan Stratton, driving Midwind Success, had almost collared Ruth Honig as they passed the $\frac{3}{4}$ stanza in 1:29.1, but Ruth Honig didn't give an inch and kept her at bay and went on to win by two lengths in 1:58.3 - \$5.50. It was a new lifetime mark and second win of the season for the Lucas Wallin-trainee for owners Shermay Stable of Chester, N.Y. Midwind Success finished second, followed by Seven Bridges Road.

Race 9 was the second heat of NYSS, worth \$53,500. Mari (PP5) made her way to the top just past the opening panel in :29.1. Approaching the half (:59.1), Buter pulled past Woolco and retook the lead. Wally Hennessey, driving Destinys Darling, was making a big move down the backside but broke stride as Woolco took them to the $\frac{3}{4}$ pole in 1:29.2. Jean's Action (Jordan Stratton) took her best shot at the leader, going into the paddock turn but was rebuffed. The pocket sitting Mari (Jack Killeen) enjoyed a pocket strip to finish second with Defiant Lady taking the show spot. Woolco is a son of Chapter Seven and is owned and trained by Robert Krivelin (Hero Stables) of Goshen, NY.
