Alagna's Hill takes him to the mountaintop

How the perfect plan, the perfect connections and an uber-talented trotting filly led trainer Tony Alagna to his first Hambletonian victory.

by Dave Briggs

Even for a meticulous man who rarely lets emotions get in the way of hard work and a well-thought-out plan, the enormity of the moment was too much to fight off.

"[Ramona Hill] looks like a ballerina that can kick your butt. She's very tall, she's very lean, she's very feminine, but she can just go all day with that body."

– Tony Alagna

Watching from the paddock office as Ramona Hill vanquished the boys – and one other girl – in the 95th Hambletonian Saturday (Aug. 8) at the Meadowlands (replay here), trainer Tony Alagna couldn't sustain his normally affable-yet-business-like demeanor.

“Luckily, it was just Noel Daley and I in the room. I left the room in tears because it's something that can't be taken away from you, as far as in history,” Alagna said Monday as he drove to Kentucky, already on the hunt for the next Ramona Hill just two days removed from, arguably, his greatest career victory.

Never stop working, even when your dreams come true.

“The only other time that I got that emotional over a race was when My MVP won the [2012] Kentucky Futurity because you think about the people that had sat in that chair previously. It's a very emotional thing to think about.

“When you win the Hambletonian or the Futurity... those races mean something because of the history behind them and the people that won them before you and when you get mentioned someday in that line of great trainers that have won those races, it really does mean something.”

Alagna, 48, grew up in the heartland of Illinois, about three hours north of DuQuoin where the Hambletonian was held until 1980. He never saw the Hambletonian at DuQuoin – he was only 9 when it left the state for New Jersey in 1981 – but he remembers travelling to DuQuoin as a young man to watch the World Trotting Derby and to Springfield, IL to watch the races when the legends of the Grand Circuit came to town.

“I can remember when I was 12 or 13 years old going to the Illinois State Fair and Ron Gurfein would ship in with a string and Glen Garnsey and all these people that I only read about,” Alagna said. “I would just marvel when they'd come to town. Now, I can sit on The Deck in Florida and talk to Ron Trainer Tony Alagna said Ramona Hill's Hambletonian triumph was the result of a careful plan coming together at the right time.

Gurfein. Those are things you don't think about that you take for granted later on in life, until you give yourself a little reality check to remember that these are the people that you only dreamed about or were nervous to say 'hi' to when you were a kid. It means a lot.”

All of this emotion and perspective and history is great, of course, but even Alagna will tell you it doesn't trump a fantastic plan and a horse with a variety of gifts from the Racing Gods.

A BALLERINA THAT CAN KICK YOUR BUTT

Ask the trainer to describe Ramona Hill and you get an interesting response.

“She looks like a ballerina that can kick your butt. She's very tall, she's very lean, she's very feminine, but she can just go all day with that body. She really can,” Alagna said.

His first impression of her as a yearling was that she was “very immature, but you could tell that she was going to grow up and develop into her body.”

Ramona Hill (Andrew McCarthy) became the 15th filly to win the Hambletonian in the event's 95-year history. She also tied her sire Muscle Hill's stakes record of 1:50.1.

Alagna crafted a plan to give her extra time to develop as a 2-year-old, but that didn't stop him from appreciating her natural talent early in her lessons.

After just her second start – a dominant wire-to-wire score in 1:54.4 in a $10,000 Kindergarten at the Meadowlands on July 12, 2019 – Alagna told her driver, Andrew McCarthy, that she had the talent to contest the Hambletonian, if everything went right.

A little more than two months later, when she won the $30,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management Consolation at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Sept. 20 in 1:54.2, Alagna told fellow trainer Roger Welch that Ramona Hill was not only capable of being in the Hambletonian, but winning it.

In order to increase the likelihood of that happening, Alagna raced her conservatively at 2, opting to skip the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes and end the year with just seven starts – six of those wins, including a convincing Breeders Crown victory at Woodbine Mohawk Park that helped her lock up the Dan Patch Award as the best 2-year-old trotting filly in the United States.

That she is a Muscle Hill and Alagna conditioned her mother, Lock Down Lindy, helped the trainer a lot in terms of both purchasing and then figuring her out.

“She was very immature [as a yearling],” he said. “You could tell that she was going to grow up and develop into her body. She's just an absolutely beautiful, beautiful filly now. You really can't fault her, as far as her looks, and I could see what she was going to look like in a year and luckily all the owners felt the same thing as I did, that she was going to fill into the body that she had and she did.”

Bred by Crawford Farms, Ramona Hill was sold for $70,000 out of Preferred Equine’s consignment on opening night of the 2018 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale – hip #42.

Al and Michelle Crawford certainly knew they had something special and were somewhat disappointed she “only” brought $70,000.

Alagna initially bought Ramona Hill with owner Brad Grant in mind. The Ontario-based owner jumped in immediately.

“The good thing about Brad is that he lets me navigate a little bit when other people want to get in... I bought her with him in mind thinking that others would come in. I talked to Al and Michelle and I knew they were willing to come back in, whatever we were wanting them to take, so that worked out great and they came back in. Lindy so it only made sense for them to come back in as well. So, it all worked out.”

Having things work out is a major theme of Ramona Hill’s story.

As a 3-year-old, she returned to the races with back trouble Alagna believes was caused by moving from his winter training location in Florida – where the track is more of a sand base – to the limestone of his northern training facility.

“She got a little sore in her feet when she came out of Florida... On the limestone, which kind of rolls out underneath of her a bit more, she got very sore in her back and it really changed her gait there for a while.”

To the rescue came equine chiropractor Dr. Jim Mitchell from Dr. John R. Steele & Associates in New Jersey – the very same Dr. John Steele whose name graces a memorial race on Hambletonian Day for older trotting mares. Talk about things falling into place.

“Dr. Mitchell was working on her twice a week leading up to the Hambo final... He did some manipulation and got her pelvis and everything back in line. He did a heck of a job.

“When he came to check her after the elimination, he said, ‘Her back’s in great shape and we don’t need to do anything.’ When we trained her on Wednesday, just to be sure I had him come back and check her again on Thursday. He said, ‘She’s ready. Everything is great, her back’s in great shape. There’s nothing we need to do, she’s ready to go.’”

The next day, Ramona Hill confirmed she was ready for a special performance on Hambletonian Day.

“The best feeling I had all week was the day before the race, on Friday morning, she was in our second jog set and we go out there to jog her and my second trainer, Edgar Alvarez – he’s been with me and he’s been with this filly since the beginning – he’s out there jogging her and I’m looking ahead and I’m watching her start up and how she

“When it started raining on Friday morning, [Ramona Hill] was striking her foot at the raindrops. That’s just how good she felt going into the race. I didn’t tell anyone else, but to myself I said, ‘They are going to have a heck of a time beating her tomorrow, as good as she feels.’ I mean, I’ve never seen her do that. bursts against the track and it just started to rain,” Alagna said. “As it was starting to rain, all of a sudden I see her jumping up and down in the air and it took me a minute to try and figure out what she was doing... When it started raining on Friday morning, she was striking her foot at the raindrops. That’s just how good she felt going into the race.

“I didn’t tell anyone else, but to myself I said, ‘They are going to have a heck of a time beating her tomorrow, as good as she feels.’ I mean, I’ve never seen her do that. She was just that full of focus and energy going into the race.”

Given what it took for her to not only make the Hambletonian final in the first place, it seems Ramona Hill was not about to be denied.

Her victory from Post 7 in her Hambletonian elimination on Aug. 1 (replay here) will long rank as one of the great performances in harness racing history.

She rallied from being trapped at the back of an eight-horse field, was forced three wide around the final turn and flew home to best Back Of The Neck by a half-length in 1:51.2. Her last quarter was timed in :25.4.

“I thought Captaintreacherous’ most memorable race was when he won the Hempt out of the nine-hole in the slop and I think I put her elimination race up there with what he did there that day. I think it was just an incredible performance,” Alagna said, adding his phone blew up with messages.

“The texts that I received were from people who have been watching racing for a long time... nobody could believe that she won from where she did,” Alagna said. “I have all the faith in the world in her and I know Andy does as well, and she still blew us away with what she did. People compared it to some of the greatest races they had ever seen and I couldn’t downplay it, because I couldn’t believe what I saw with my own eyes.”

Alagna said he wasn’t overly concerned that effort might take something out of Ramona Hill for the $1 million final a week later.

“A couple of people made the comment that she might bounce off of the effort in her elimination, but I said, ‘If she was going to bounce, she would’ve bounced in the elimination based on how hard she raced in the Del Miller [on July 18, winning in 1:50.3]! She made two moves and did it the way she did it in her second start back, I thought that would have been her bounce going into the elimination, more so than going into the final.”

Besides, Ramona Hill had Andrew McCarthy in the bike on Hambletonian Day and clearly this was his day.

GO BLUE! GO GREEN!

McCarthy won four of the afternoon’s first six races, including the Shady Daisy with Reflect With Me and the Jim Doherty Memorial with Darlene Hanover, before turning Ramona Hill to the gate.

“He was just in his groove and when you’re in that groove, you can make a lot of good things happen,” Alagna said. “Before the race walking onto the track, I told him ‘Today’s your day, take advantage of it’ and he did. He was having a great day, everything was going the way it should have. Even when he won with Darlene Hanover, I mean, he got parked but he didn’t panic. He just sat there and rode it out. He knew he had a great filly and she did the rest.”

Two men who share a love for blue and green – and horses that can rip a hole in the wind – suddenly found themselves astride the trotting world, both with their first Hambletonian victories.

Afterward, Alagna said he simply told McCarthy, “We did it, my man...’ We thought this filly could do it and we made the right decision and got this job done.”

There’s few things better than when a plan comes together, especially when your owners are on side with your plan for their filly to take on the boys.

“Normally, that’s the hard part, but when you’ve got two partners involved in her that had done it with a filly already, that sure makes things a lot easier.”

Just two years prior, Grant and the Crawfords – along with other partners – won the Hambletonian with Atlanta, the first filly in 22 years to win trotting’s most coveted prize.

“You have people that are willing to take that chance nowadays,” Alagna said, “and it just takes one guy to do it to have that seed planted and, once that happens, then the sky is the limit, especially with the trotting gait. It’s such a more natural gait and if you have a naturally-gaited filly that’s strong enough to do it, she can with her male counterparts.”

That she equalled the 1:50.1 stakes record set by her spectacular sire, Muscle Hill, proves Ramona Hill was more than worthy.

In the winner’s circle, COVID-19 masks in place all around, you could tell Alagna and McCarthy were beaming beneath their face coverings.

Dave Landry

Alagna said a lot of planning and attention to detail from a number of team members led to Ramona Hill’s triumph.

Nothing, not even a pandemic, could take away what just happened on the track.

“It’s not going to take away from what that filly did, what she accomplished. There’s never going to be an asterisk that’s going to say ‘COVID-19’ in the history books,” Alagna said.

Not for her performance, no, but certainly COVID-19 will forever be part of the narrative for Hambletonian 95, which saw social distancing and face masks everywhere and the Meadowlands limited to just 25 per cent of its capacity.

Alagna even missed out on one of the greatest traditions in harness racing – holding up the Hambletonian trophy.

“I actually didn’t pick the Hambletonian trophy up myself because we were so careful. The Meadowlands did such a great job and the Hambletonian Society, we were so careful with the social distancing and we didn’t want anything to go wrong on such a day that everybody is watching,” Alagna said. “I held the silver platter that we had her drink out of, but I never went over to the table to pick the trophy up. That’s okay, I’ll do that another time.

“The trophies are great, but I was just so proud of my filly and my crew for what they did and for Andy for getting the race done... I was just so proud of everything that happened.

“It’s something I always dreamed of, but it’s not something that you take for granted that it’s going to happen. You dream of it and that’s why you continue to go forward, but when your dream become reality, how can you top that?”

Emotions may have overwhelmed him in the immediate aftermath of victory, but by the time Alagna reached the winner’s circle, his principle thought was how magnificent it feels when the pieces all fall neatly in place and a plan comes together.

Later, when the man with a plan finally had his first quiet moment to process the Hambletonian victory, he said it was that – not history or the wildest dreams of a little boy from Illinois coming true or the fact that they can never take his filly’s name off the sport’s greatest trophy – that was still his prevailing thought.

“Just the fact that we did it, the plan that we put in place all came together and worked out,” Alagna said acknowledging how incredibly difficult it is for plans to come together in horse racing. “Honestly, it was just relief that it worked out.”

McCarthy reflects on Hambletonian triumph

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

The moments following Ramona Hill's win in the Hambletonian Stakes were unlike any Andy McCarthy ever experienced as a driver.

Andrew McCarthy in the Hambletonian winner's circle with son Finn, Ramona Hill and caretaker Victor Rosales.

"The feeling I got when I crossed the wire, I've never had that before, that amount of joy and emotion," McCarthy said. "I don't want to compare it to my kids being born, because that's a completely different thing, but it was definitely emotional. Heading back to the winner's circle, I've never felt anything like it in my life on the racetrack. Embracing the moment, just the feeling of joy, it's unbelievable."

"Confidence has such a main role in how you drive," McCarthy said.

McCarthy and Ramona Hill captured the 95th edition of the Hambletonian (full coverage here) this past Saturday at The Meadowlands. The duo won the $1 million event by one length over Ready For Moni in a stakes-record-equaling 1:50.1 for trainer Tony Alagna and owners Brad Grant, Crawford Farms Racing, Robert LeBlanc, and In The Gym Partners.

Ramona Hill, a daughter of Muscle Hill out of Lock Down Lindy bred by Crawford Farms, became the 15th filly to win harness racing's top race for 3-year-old trotters.

The Hambletonian was McCarthy's fifth win of the day on the stakes-filled Big M card. He won four of the afternoon's first six races, including the Shady Daisy with Reflect With Me and the Jim Doherty Memorial with Darlene Hanover, and the fast start was beneficial.

"It's good to get some good vibes going for the day," McCarthy said. "Confidence has such a main role in how you drive, I think. When the ball's rolling and things are going good, you feel like you can do nothing wrong. For me, anyway, confidence is definitely a major player in how I do."

McCarthy's biggest challenge was finding a way to enjoy the wins without getting too pumped up along the way.

"You want to celebrate, and you want to feel that emotion, but you also don't want to carry that over to the next drive," he said. "You want to stay focused and you've still got work to do. I like to be confident but calm at the same time. I don't want to be carrying too much emotion with me, just really stay focused on the job at hand. There are a million things that can go wrong in a race and you have to be super focused and aware of these things."

A native of Australia, the 34-year-old McCarthy has raced regularly in North America since 2007. He has seen his purse earnings increase annually since the start of 2013, reaching a career-best $7.67 million last year, when he ranked ninth among drivers in North America.

In 2019, McCarthy became the eighth driver in history to win at least four Breeders Crown finals in a year. He became the first to accomplish the feat without driving a favorite.

Last year, he also made his first appearance in a Hambletonian final, finishing seventh with Pilot Discretion. This year with Ramona Hill, he was fourth after a quarter mile, moved to the front on the backstretch, and cruised to victory. Her time equaled the stakes mark set by her sire Muscle Hill in 2009.

Dave Landry

McCarthy won four Breeders Crowns last fall, but may have topped that with five wins on Hambletonian Day, including the $1 million main event.

"In my mind, I had the best horse in the race," McCarthy said. "I just wanted to be safe through the first turn. Once I got through the first turn, I thought I could win the race however it went down."

McCarthy followed the Hambletonian while growing up in Australia but became more focused on the race after arriving in the U.S. to compete. He is the 28th different driver to win the Hambletonian in the 40 years it has called The Meadowlands home.

"When I was a teenager, I started following the American racing more," McCarthy said. "Back then, it was kind of pre-social media days, so it was kind of hard to keep up with it. I always liked American racing and I loved the Hambo. As far as thinking I could win it one day, that was a different story.

"Once I got over here and went to the Hambo every year and watched it, it's become the race. It's the race you want to win, for sure. I'm just very lucky and privileged to be able to do that."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Sarena Evans' first training start couldn't have been scripted any better

by Chris Lomon

As she watched the battle-tested bay mare heading full-steam into the final turn, Sarena Evans put her hands to her face and began to cry.

Whether Virtual Princess won or not the night of March 3, 2017, the fourth race at Northville Downs (MI) represented a milestone for the pacer's trainer.

As she helped ready the Michigan-bred miss for the race, Evans, sending out her first starter, was a mixture of nerves and excitement.

Admittedly, her emotions leaned more towards the former.

"I was really nervous," recalled Evans. "How can you not be? But you also have to focus on making sure everything is right before you send them on their way."

Saddled with post eight in the nine-horse field, the odds on the tote board, 3-1, suggested Virtual Princess had a good shot at taking all the spoils.

Evans' expectations, as the field lined up behind the gate, were modest, to say the least. She would have been satisfied with a fifth-place finish.

After getting away ninth, 10-plus lengths off the lead, Virtual Princess improved to fifth at the half-mile call, now less than three lengths behind the pacesetter.

By the time field reached the three-quarter mile mark, the mare was fourth and rolling.

It was around that moment when Evans began sobbing.

"I was just hoping for a check. I really just wanted her to do well, to have a nice race. I also just wanted to have the first training race under my belt. When she came around that turn and had enough go in her to win... I was in tears before they even hit the stretch. I knew when she came off the last turn that she was the winner."

The win was even more special considering Virtual Princess is the favorite of Evans' daughter, Taylor Novak (also the horse's groom), and the driver that night was Kody Massey, Evans' cousin.

Minutes before sending Santas Special out for his final race, trainer Sarena Evans said she was "bawling and telling him how much I loved him and thanking him for being such an amazing horse for me."

Evans couldn't have scripted it any better.

"I couldn't believe that in my first training start we ended up with the eight-hole. But it all worked out. She raced huge that night. It was so exciting for all of us. We were all crying, but it was definitely tears of joy. I have a big picture of that win in my office."

Evans, who launched her training career three years ago, comes by her love of standardbreds naturally.

Growing up in Michigan, her father, Gary Massey, had a huge breeding farm with standardbred horses. As a harness trainer, he won 208 races, including a career-best 89 wins in 2007, adding 507 more victories in the race bike.

Injuries on the racetrack and a battle with lung cancer resulted in retirement from his racing roles, but Massey remains an ardent follower and fan of the sport.

He also remains an invaluable source of knowledge and advice for Evans.

"My dad has always done everything first class and top notch since I was a little girl. He's the one who got me into this business. He was racing when I was born, and was a leading driver in Michigan. My parents had a breeding farm when we were growing up, with 80-plus horses, and my mom [Jackie Massey] kept us all going and took great care of us.

"I've learned everything I know about this sport from my dad. To this day, I lean on my dad. I'll call him and say, 'Dad, what should I do with this horse?' He's my lifeline in this business. He lives just five miles away from me, so that's great having him live so close by. I really think he lives through David [driver, Lake, who is Evans' boyfriend] and I. To be able to talk about our horses with him – it's something that puts a smile on all our faces."

Evans, who points to owner-breeder Greg Gardner as one of her biggest supporters, has her fair share of success stories to speak of.

"Santas Special – who I just retired – is my all-time favorite. He won his last race in 2018, but I raced him up until December 31 last year. He's in my barn still as my riding horse. He'll never leave us. When David and I got together, he brought the horse with him. It was David's horse, and then I took over. He is just an amazing horse. He has one eye, and this wonderful personality."

Two years ago, in late November, Santas Special lived up to his name and delivered his connections an early Christmas gift at Northfield Park.

Leaving the gate from post 10 with Lake in the sulky, the bay pacer, who sold for $20,000 at the 2006 Harrisburg Sale, crossed the wire a one-length winner, returning $97.80 for a $2 win wager.

"It was totally unexpected," said Evans. "It was so cold and I almost scratched him. We were thinking, 'he probably won't get a check tonight.' And then he goes out and wins."

Acting Captain, a bay son of Somebeachsomewhere, is another Evans favorite.

The 10-year-old bay has 31 wins from 220 lifetime starts.

"I gave my other daughter [Carlee Evans] Acting Captain because she loves him so much. He came with David, too. We had sold Acting Captain a couple years ago, and then we found him living with an Amish family. We bought him back off the Amish wagon and he paid for himself after just three starts. We still have him. He's definitely Carlee's favorite."

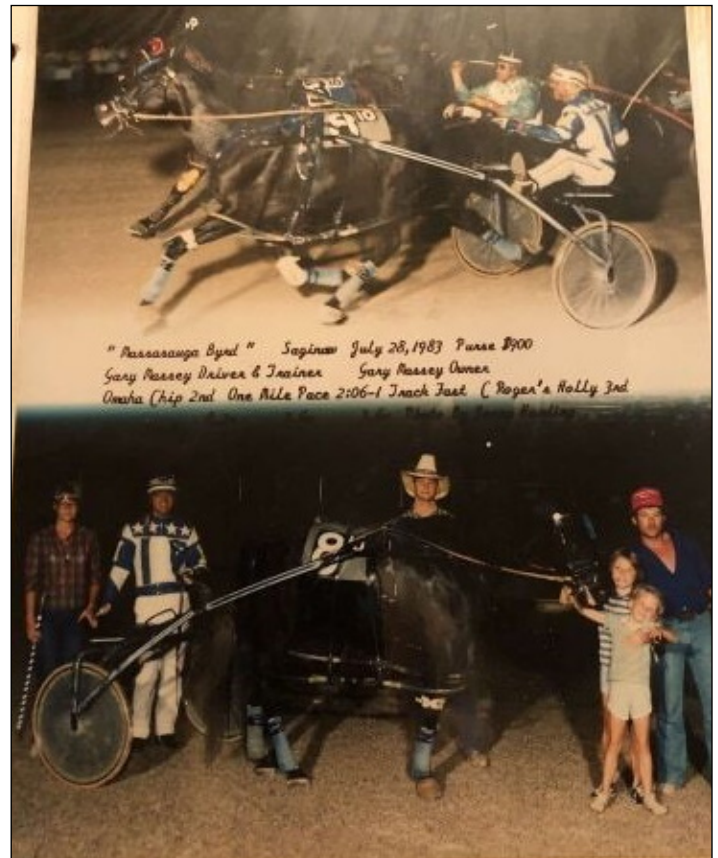

Evans' daughters play a major role in her training operation.

Taylor, who'll soon turn 20, and Carlee, 16, are a daily presence in the barn.

"My two girls are a huge help," said Evans, who currently trains eight horses. "When David and I recently went to Cleveland to race and then stay over to qualify, both of my girls were in the barn taking over for mom. They did all the jogging, and all of the work that needs to be done. I'm very lucky to have them helping me. It's incredible, really. They're in the barn seven days a week. They never miss a day. They live and breathe these horses."

No need to ask where they get from.

"I love these horses," said Evans, whose sister, Staci Malady, is also involved in harness racing. "I really do. It's a tough job, and a demanding life, but I truly enjoy it."

Courtesy Sarena Evans

A treasured memory from when Evans was a little girl trying to hold the horse with her sister. Her dad is driving and her mom is next to him.

One of the most challenging obstacles she's faced came in the early stages of her training career.

"The biggest thing that comes to mind was putting two stables [hers and Lake's] together. David and I have different ways we go about training. It's him and I in the barn every day together, along with my two girls. To come together, do everything the same way and not butt heads – it's been five years in the making – I think we're finally there. I'm not a driver, but I have my expectations when they go on to the track and how the race should go. David has his own thoughts on that, so we sometimes differ in that way. We actually get along great when it comes to the horses, and I couldn't do it without him."

She voices the same compliment for Lake, and her daughters.

"Any of what I do, it feels like a genuine team effort. When you win a race, it's great to be able to share that feeling."

Even if on one occasion, a win resulted in a few tears shed.

"I can tell you those were definitely happy ones," said Evans.

Standardbred Horse Sale Company's annual auction, normally held at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex, has been moved to the Maryland State Fair Grounds for 2020.

Standardbred Horse Sales Co.'s 2020 auction to be held at Maryland State Fairgrounds

Standardbred Horse Sales Company announced Monday (Aug. 10) that its 2020 annual sale will be held at the Maryland State Fairgrounds, 2200 York Road, Lutherville – Timonium, MD. Yearling sale dates are Tuesday, Nov. 3 to Thursday, Nov. 5. Mixed sale dates are Friday, Nov. 6 and Saturday, Nov. 7, 2020.

The Maryland State Fairgrounds is the well-known yearly destination for Fasig-Tipton Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred auctions, and offers a first-class sales facility as well as conveniently located hotels and attractive restaurants, great shopping nearby at Towson Town Center, and good access to Baltimore-Washington International Airport (BWI). Details about the venue and area can be found at the Maryland State Fair website. Additional information about the sale will soon be forthcoming on our website.

“Standardbred is delighted to announce our new partnership with Maryland State Fairgrounds for our 2020 annual auction,” said Paul Spears, president of Standardbred Horse Sales Company. “Sale dates will respect the travel needs of customers who will attend Breeders Crown races in Indiana. The live auction sale will be conducted with COVID-19 precautions to protect the health of our consignors and customers. For the convenience of customers who prefer to remain at home, online bidding and extensive telephone bidding opportunities will be offered. Standardbred will work hard to make the 2020 sale accessible and safe for our customers and consignors.”

President/CEO of Hanover Shoe Farms Russell Williams remarked, “I am very happy that the sale will be held at such an equine-friendly site with a long history of successful auctions. Standardbred Horse Sales has positioned its consignors advantageously on the threshold of 2021, when our industry will prove its courage and achieve better results than ever.”

Dean B Hanover holds on in Dream Maker final

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Dean B Hanover found the line first in a wild finish to Monday evening's (Aug. 10) $88,500 Dream Maker Series at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A field of nine 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings clashed in the finale of the annual summer event. The Dream Maker has been the launching pad for many top pacing colts over the years.

Casie Coleman-Herlihy sent out a quartet of starters in Monday final, with $340,000 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling purchase Dean B Hanover prevailing as the public's choice in 1:52.4.

Driver Jonathan Drury floated off the wings of the gate from post-eight and decided to glide on to the lead, clearing at about three-eighths from stablemate Captainofrocknroll and driver Bob McClure. 'Dean B' got sensible middle-half fractions, leading through markers of :56 and 1:24.3.

In the stretch, 'Dean B' was confronted by Captainofrocknroll and despite allowing the rival to get close, turned him aside with less than eighth remaining.

The backfield came to life in the final-quarter, as Island Beach Boy and Perfectboy Hanover charged home after sitting third and fourth-over, respectively, to cause the wild finish. Meanwhile, Ucanttouche and driver Paul MacDonell came off the rail from mid-pack at the top of the stretch and also unleashed a wicked final-quarter, coming right between rivals to force the wild finish along with the back-field closers.

The finish saw 'Dean B' hang on by a head over Ucanttouche, while Island Beach Boy and Perfectboy Hanover were beat only a neck to round out the Superfecta.

Dean B Hanover (Jonathan Drury) winning the $88,500 Dream Maker final Monday at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:52.4.

"I knew it was pretty close, I thought I maybe had them by a nose, but I wasn't 100 per cent sure," said Drury following the victory. "He felt good getting out of there, but I was hoping I could maybe duck him somewhere in the middle and come with cover, but it wasn't looking like there was many spots and when I saw Casie's other horse (Captainofrocknroll) driving on to the front I figured I could keep coming and get there fairly easy."

Drury noted that Dean B Hanover has twice now waited on challengers before digging in.

"He did that in a qualifier where he felt like he was going to let one go by him and then he just stuck his nose out and kept on digging to the wire and then the same thing again tonight. I thought Bob (McClure) had a real good shot at going by me at the head of the lane, but he fought right to the wire."

Notorious Pink gives Alagna three-peat in Whenuwishuponastar; McClure hits $25 million

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Notorious Pink completed the sweep of the Whenuwishuponastar Series on Tuesday evening (Aug. 11) to give trainer Tony Alagna his third consecutive title in the event.

A field of nine 2-year-old pacing fillies squared off in the $80,500 final of the Whenuwishuponastar and dominance is a perfect word to describe the last three weeks and years of the event.

Notorious Pink was sent off as the 1-5 favorite after a pair of wire-to-wire wins in the preliminary leg. Driver

Bob McClure, who celebrated a milestone Tuesday, changed tactics this week, getting away fifth while a group of rivals flashed early speed in search of a spot at the front.

Adashious Hanover made the front at an opening-quarter of :26.4, allowed Extrilla Hanover to clear and then removed to lead up to the half in :55.1.

Notorious Pink got her cue to go from McClure and confidently advanced first-up to within a head of the lead at three-quarters in 1:24. The Alagna trainee claimed the lead at the head of the lane and made no mistakes by kicking home in :27.2 for a career-best 1:51.2 victory.

Postscript rallied from third-over to finish third by 3 ½ lengths, while Spellcheck Hanover and Lady Midnight completed the Superfecta.

“Tonight was definitely her best (race), but the first week I called on her to win and she showed me gears that nobody expected or I didn’t anyways and the next week I won by as little as I could and put her to sleep,”

New Image Media

Notorious Pink (Bob McClure) won the $80,500 Whenuwishuponastar final Tuesday at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:51.2.

With the victory, driver Bob McClure surpassed $25 million in career earnings.

said McClure of Notorious Pink's series sweep. "This week when she had a target... she was digging in that last turn and I was coming as slow as I could and she wanted to get around them.

"She just paced right through the wire like it was not even work, so she's pretty impressive."

A daughter of Captaintreacherous—She's A Hot Mess, Notorious Pink is now undefeated in four starts and has earned $65,450. She is a $35,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale graduate and is owned by Alagna And Grant, Big Als Stables, Riverview Racing and Fodera And Head Stable.

Notorious Pink's win gives trainer Alagna his third straight Whenuwishuponastar Series victory. All three series titles have come with daughters of the legendary Captaintreacherous, whom Alagna campaigned.

Next up for Notorious Pink is a trip to Lexington for the Kentucky Sires Stakes. She is eligible to the Shes A Great Lady, which takes place on September 26 at Mohawk Park.

Tuesday evening's card also saw driver Bob McClure surpass $25 million in career earnings. The 2019 Dan Patch Rising Star Award winner took the evening's second race with 3-year-old pacing filly Preeminence to reach the milestone.

It's a real nice feather in your cap," said McClure of the milestone. "It's a testament to a lot of people that got me here too, so I'm grateful."

McClure reaches $25 million during his 12th season of driving and has surpassed the $5 million mark in each of the last two seasons, including a career high $5.9 million in 2019.

Live racing resumes Thursday evening at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Post time is 7 p.m.

Catch The Fire favored in $250,000 Carl Milstein Memorial

Catch The Fire has been named the 2-1 morning in Saturday's (Aug. 15) $250,000 Carl Milstein Memorial at MGM Northfield Park. The top money-earner in the field headlines an accomplished group of eight 3-year-old pacers in Northfield Park's premier event.

The Milstein, a by invitation only event, is slated as race 10 on a 16-race program that carries a 6 p.m. first-race post time. The feature race is slated for approximately 9:35 p.m.

Catch The Fire enters the Milstein fresh off an Aug. 1 victory in the $375,000 Adios at The Meadows, located near Pittsburgh, PA, in 1:49.3. That time was equaled the week prior with a victory in the Adios elimination. He has five races this year and has paced sub-1:50 in each. The John Ackley trainee has banked $468,413 in purses throughout his young career and drew the rail in Saturday's main event. Catch The Fire is Buckeye owned by C T Stables LLC of Washington Court House, and is trained by Ohioan John Ackley. They will use Catch The Fire's regular pilot Mike Wilder to drive.

Odds On Osiris, the 2019 Indiana Sires Stake Champion, drew post two and is the 7-2 second choice. He just missed in his most recent race, getting nipped at the wire in 1:48.4 in an Indiana SS event. This top Hoosier performer has won eight of 13 lifetime starts and has earned $375,395 for owner Odds On Racing of Boca Raton, FL. Peter Wrenn will drive for his wife, trainer Melanie Wrenn.

2019 Ohio Sires Stakes champion Elver Hanover drew post three and is the 4-1 third choice. Undefeated through nine starts as a freshman, Elver Hanover now has won 10 of 13 career efforts, with earnings of $422,700. Harness racing's all-time leading trainer Ron Burke conditions this gelding for owners Burke Racing Stable, B. Jablonsky, J. Melillo and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby. Chris Page will drive.

Ohio Sires Stakes standouts Stanford Court, 6-1 (Ronnie Wrenn Jr. / Brian Brown) and Ocean Rock, 8-1 (Dan Noble / Christi Noble), Iowa Fair Phenom Slippin The Clutch, 15-1 (Aaron Merriman / Curtis Carey), stakes veteran Manticore , 12-1 (Jordan Stratton / Bruce Saunders), and Adios runner-up Chief Mate, 10-1 (Scott Zeron / Tony Alagna) are also slated starters in the impressive field.

6-Manticore-Jordan Stratton-Bruce Saunders-12-1

7-Chief Mate-Scott Zeron-Tony Alagna-10-1

8-Ocean Rock-Dan Noble-Christi Noble-8-1

The race is named in honor of Carl Milstein, who owned Northfield Park from 1984 until his death in 1999. Brock Milstein and the Milstein family operated Northfield Park until July 2018 when MGM Growth Properties purchased the racetrack from Milstein Entertainment, LLC.

Exciting undercard

This year's Milstein Memorial program carries total purses approaching $600,000. The 16-race program includes the $50,000 Myron Charna President's Pace, a race for 4-year-old and up Ohio sired pacers (by invitation only), two $50,000 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old colt trotters, two $50,000 divisions of Ohio Sires Stakes for 3-year-old filly pacers, as well as a $14,500 Open event.

A $20,000 Early Pick-4 guaranteed pool starts in race seven and consists of both the Charna and the Milstein and a late Pick-4 begins in race 11 offering a $10,000 guaranteed pool.

Sandbetweenmytoes, Allyway Hanover shine in PASS

Allyway Hanover, a star of the "glamour division," the 3-year-old pacing colts, was victorious in his section of the third preliminary leg of his group's Pennsylvania Sire Stakes on Tuesday afternoon (Aug. 11) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono (each carrying a purse of approximately $64,000), but his star was eclipsed on the day by Sandbetweenmytoes.

Sandbetweenmytoes, a Somebeachsomewhere gelding trained by Jim Campbell for Fashion Farms LLC, had by no means been keeping a low profile with a win and a second in his two previous Sires legs, but his method of winning today for driver Dexter Dunn was eye-catching. Coming first-over against pacesetter The Greek Freak, the only previous double winner in the sophomore colt grouping, Sandbetweenmytoes paced his own last half in :53 flat despite no cover, drawing off to a five length victory while lowering his record to 1:49 and raising his lifetime earnings to $112,878.

The Captaintreacherous colt Allywag Hanover joined Sandbetweenmytoes and The Greek Freak as a double Sire Stakes winner with a 1:49.1 clocking. Showing gate speed not seen in the 2020 major races, Allywag Hanover controlled the tempo for driver Tim Tetrick and stepped home in :53.4 – and needed to, as two-mover No Lou Zing was coming at him late, but the victor held him off by a length while making his seasonal scorecard 6-4-1-1 and his lifetime earnings $189,903 for trainer Brett Pelling and the Allywag Stable.

In the other PASS cut, Cattlewash, a Somebeachsomewhere colt who earned over \$300,000 at 2, produced his best mile of the current campaign while lowering his mark to 1:50.1. David Miller sent the Ron Burke trainee to the front, and they withstood a late charge from Barrage Hanover by $\frac{3}{4}$ of a length for owner WJ Donovan.

There were also five $20,000 cuts of the complementary Stallion Series action. The Western Ideal colt Seriously Hanover became the division's only three-time winner, with driver Scott Zeron getting a :26 zoom move out of him down the back to take the lead entering the far turn and going on to a 1:51.1 win for trainer Ron Coyne Jr. and owners Michael Cimaglio, Stephen Demeter, and Stephen Giagni.

Driver Andrew McCarthy triumphed twice in the Stallion Series, including with the fastest winner, JK Lucky Charms. The altered son of Sweet Lou lowered his mark to 1:50.4 in his first taste of 2020 stakes competition for trainer Brett Pelling and the ownership of 3 Brothers Stables and Pelling Racing LLC.

The Hambletonian-winning driver also tallied with the Somebeachsomewhere gelding Revolt, who paced home uncovered in :54.2 to complete a 1:51.4 victory, his fourth win in his last five starts and his second StS triumph. Nik Drennan conditions the sophomore for the partnership of Joseph Davino, Brad Shackman, and Drennan Stable LLC.

Another altered son of Somebeachsomewhere, Sunuma Beach, who like Revolt has won four out his last five including two Stallion Series contests, was victorious and produced a new mark of 1:51.2. Sunuma Beach came out of the pocket to catch Full Send, who was 29-1 despite being the fastest winner on the PA fair circuit this year (1:57.4), for trainer Linda Toscano and owner Arnie Chusid.

Also successful in the Stallion Series was Ruthless Hanover, the third Somebeachsomewhere gelding to win in this grouping. George Napolitano Jr. got a :54 last half first-over out of the sophomore from the Cancelliere Connection (Tom trains, John owns) and saw him lower his lifetime mark to 1:51 in a four-race career that now sports three consecutive victories.

Miller and Zeron score in NYSS action at Yonkers

Yonkers Raceway played host to two divisions of New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) races for 3-year-old trotting fillies Tuesday evening and the rail was the place to start from in both divisions.

In the first division, a $73,100 four horse race held before the wagering card, Love A Good Story relinquished the lead early from post position one to No Mas Drama, but then brushed by that rival and drew away to a length and a half score in 1:55.2.

Love A Good Story is a daughter of Chapter Seven and remains a perfect four-for-four in NYSS action for Andy and Julie Miller and the ownership group of Pinske Stables, Kentuckiana Racing Stable and Daniel Plouffe.

Chapter Seven continues to lead the way for trotting sires in this year's NYSS, with 83 wins in 184 starters and surpassed earnings of more than $1 million in the series.

In the second division, race two on the card, Without A Warning was bet down to 2-5 favoritism from post one and was an easy two and three-quarter length winner in 1:55.1. Scott Zeron drove the daughter of RC Royalty to victory for trainer George Ducharme and owner Raymond WJ Campbell Jr.

The $1.8 million New York Sire Stakes Night of Champions will be Saturday, Sept. 12 at Yonkers Raceway.

Yonkers continues a four-day racing schedule, Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays with a first post of 7:12 p.m.

Freehold to open on Aug. 28

Freehold Raceway will open as scheduled on Friday, Aug. 28. Qualifiers will be held the week before. More information to follow.

McCarthy sweeps PASS with Flawless Country, Anoka Hanover

Andrew McCarthy, who captured Saturday's Hambletonian with the fantastic filly Ramona Hill, continued his roll Monday (Aug. 10) at The Meadows when he swept both $102,516 Pennsylvania Sires Stake events for freshman filly trotters with Flawless Country and Anoka Hanover.

Flawless Country had a straightforward path to the winner's circle in the event known as the Delmonica Hanover, zipping to the point from post 4 and easily turning back the first-over You Ato Dream to down her by a length in a career-best 1:55. Gimme Shelter finished third.

"Her connections told me she drives like a car, and she did," McCarthy said. "I think she'll go a long way. She has very good manners and high speed. I had to tell her what to do a little bit, but she responded and got the job done."

Ake Svanstedt trains Flawless County, a daughter of Southwind Frank—Aleah Hanover who has finished first or second in all four career starts, for Ake Svanstedt Inc., Wolfgang A Stable and Borje Nasstrom.

Anoka Hanover's journey was more circuitous — at least for the opening panel, when Pub Crawl looped her and left her parked out.

"I really like this one," McCarthy said. "She still has a lot to learn, but she's very powerful and has a great gait and a willing attitude. I was hoping I could sink into a spot and maybe come first over with her, but it didn't work out that way. But she's a very strong filly."

The daughter of Donato Hanover—Aunt Mel finally crossed over at the three-eighths and had little trouble from there, scoring in 1:55. Pub Crawl was second, 3-1/2 lengths back, while DD's Diamond earned show.

Noel Daley conditions Anoka Hanover, who notched her first stakes victory, and owns with L.A. Express Stable and Caviart Farms.

In Monday's sub-feature, the Pennsylvania Stallion Series, Love Muffin, Kayla's Playmate and Alpine each took a $20,000 split.

Love Muffin had the early lead but, thanks to a slight shuffle, needed to move wide down the backside for Jim Pantaleano to reclaim the front. She drew off late to triumph in 1:55.4, a life mark, 5-3/4 lengths better than Trend, with a rallying Mother Lin third.

"I put her in a couple overnights to change some equipment on her," winning trainer David Wiest said. "One race, it didn't work so good, so we put her back to what she was. We'll just have to deal with her. She comes from a hot family, but she's one of the better ones out of the family."

Edward Kimmel and Donald Wiest campaign the daughter of Andover Hall—Pine Yankee, who won her second PA stallions split.

Kayla's Playmate broke stride in her two most recent outings, causing trainer Julie Miller to rethink her rigging. The results showed Monday, as the daughter of Father Patrick—Lima Playtime romped to a 3-1/2-length maiden score in 1:57.4. Midpoint and R Speed Of Light rounded out the ticket.

"We changed her shoes a little bit, and she seemed to behave today," said winning driver Andy Miller. "I hope she's on the improve. She's a pretty nice filly; it's just a matter of getting her hung up right"

Freshmen colts trot to win in Ohio Sires Stakes at Northfield

Fire Cross notched his first career victory in a big way by taking the first of two $50,000 Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) for 2-year-old trotting colts on Monday night (Aug. 10) at Northfield Park.

The son of Triumphant Caviar scored his victory in a modest 1:58.1 with Chris Lems driving for trainer Ryan Miller and owners Miller Racing Stable, Horseplace Racing Stable, M. Hayes and Darmofal Racing Enterprises. The brown gelding left the gate at odds of 15-1, with 5-2Replica Hanover(Tyler Smith) holding on for second and 25-1Tango With Me(Aaron Merriman) picking up third place money.

Bred by Steve Stewart, Fire Croos was third in OHSS leg one and second in leg two and pushed his career earnings to $43,480 with this maiden victory. The doggedly-determined trotter is the fifth foal out of the Muscles Yankee mare Classical Mary 3, 1:55.2 ($207,811) and is a full-brother to Frasier Ridge 4, 1:52.1f ($522,479) and has half-siblings in Guy Fox (by Glidemaster) 4, 1:55.2f ($143,656) and Willoughby (by Dejarmbro) 4,Q1:58.3f ($25,749).

Panzano took the second OHSS contest for driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., in 1:58.3, also making his first career win a stakes victory. The son of Coraggioso is trained by Chris Beaver for the Spaaartners of Ballston Spa, NY. The bay gelding was the 11-1 choice, with 5-2 Street Gossip (Brett Miller) getting up for second and 16-1 Triple M Storm (Ryan Stahl) grabbing show honors.

Panzano now has $42,520 in career earnings from four starts, one win, a second and a third. He finished second in OHSS leg one and fifth in leg two. Bred by Christopher Coyle, he is the first foal out of the SJ's Caviar mare Grace N Charlie 8, 1:55.4f ($225,830).

Grace Hill, Marsala Hanover top PASS action at Pocono

The third preliminary leg of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) and Stallion Series for 2-year-old pacing fillies, held Monday afternoon (Aug. 10) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, had a little bit of something for everybody.

It had a PASS winning streak continued, if by only the barest of margins, as the Always B Miki–Western Silk filly Grace Hill remained undefeated in three PASS starts with a nose victory over Continualou, herself a previous sires winner, in a career best 1:51 in one $105,067 Sires contest. Grace Hill followed the cover of first-time starter Making Waves to nearing the 1:22.2 three-quarters, went up to challenge the new leader, finally edged by her, only to find Continualou – the horse who had been passed late backstretch – clawing back up the Pocono Pike, then moved more photogenic.

Dexter Dunn drove the winner, whose lifetime record consists of the three PASS wins and a neck defeat in the Home Grown stake, good for $124,522 for trainer Nifty Norman and owner Tom Hill.

The afternoon also had an unlucky side, as Caviart Audrey – the filly who had photoed Grace Hill in the Home Grown – crossed the wire first by a length in 1:52.3 in her Sires division, but was disqualified for bearing out late on the far turn and bothering challenger Thebeachiscalling. Placed first was the Captaintreacherous–Marinade Hanover baby Marsala Hanover, who had been right behind Caviart Audrey when the incident occurred, went up the inside to go on equal terms with her rival, then get moved up when her resurgent foe was placed back.

Scott Zeron handled sulky duties for the winner, who had a second and a third (both behind Grace Hill) before winning a PA All-Stars division in 1:52, for trainer Linda Toscano and the partnership of Enviro Stables LTD, South Mountain Stables, Little E LLC, and Westminster Road LLC.

If you like close finishes, besides the Grace Hill win you certainly had plenty of them in six $20,000 Stallion Series divisions, with the only StS victress winning by more than a length being the Somebeachsomewhere–Panera Hanover filly Odds On Whitney. She moved to the lead early for driver Dexter Dunn and was 2¾ lengths clear at the end of her 1:53 maiden victory, which also was the quickest StS contest. The Tony Alagna-trained filly, making only her second lifetime start, won for Odds On Racing.

Dunn won the one Sire Stakes division, Scott Zeron won the other – and Zeron went Dunn one better by winning two Stallion Series sections. Trainer Linda Toscano and Zeron again combined successfully with the Captaintreacherous–Dolphins Can Talk filly Three Times A Lady, who nosed out Quick Six in 1:53.4 for her initial career triumph for Richard and Joanne Young (continuing the I Luv The Nitelife naming tradition).

Zeron also paraded back the Betting Line–Darena Hanover filly Darby Hanover, who lowered her mark to 1:53.2 in notching her second Stallion Series score by a neck over Fighting Evil. Julie Miller trains the winner for Andy Miller Stable Inc. and Mr. Carroll Huffman.

Podium Girl was looking to become the only filly in her group to have three Stallion Series victories and tried to control her own destiny by setting the pace, but the Sweet Lou–Rock Her World filly Atomic Fireball exploded home in :55.4 – :27.3 from the pocket to edge the leader by a head while breaking her maiden in 1:53.1. Perennial Pocono leader George Napolitano Jr., in a somewhat-atypical off-the-pace driving triumph, sulky sat for trainer Nifty Norman and the partnership of Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Bottom Line Racing LLC.

At 10-1, the Sweet Lou–Double Major filly Doubleoffthewall would be the highest-priced of all the stakes winners (there was a notable price in an overnight race – see below) when she recorded her second straight triumph while lowering her mark to 1:54. Matt Kakaley drove the Tom Fanning-conditioned miss to a head win over come-from-the-clouds Captainandtelly for David Van Wart, Falcon Racing LLC, and Joel Benson.

The Brett Bittle / Yankeeland Partners LLP continued their recent hot streak with the first-time winner Skky, home in 1:54.1 after posting two seconds in her first two StS starts.

Tyler Buter, handling the Somebeachsomewhere – Just Add Vodka filly, had the luxury of a full length of space when hitting the wire, a rare commodity during the contentious afternoon of stakes racing.

FINISHING LINES – Summer Rock came from last at the three-quarters to first at the wire in the day's second race, paying $342.40 for a $2 win ticket – the biggest price in the five years that detailed records on “bombers” have been kept here... One of the “big bombers” of the “glamour” 3-year-old pacing colt division, Allywag Hanover, heads the action in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes / Stallion Series competition tomorrow afternoon at Pocono.

Joggingtothebank lowers Northfield's track record

Joggingtothebank rolled home to become the fastest 5-and-up gelded trotter in the history of MGM Northfield Park on Saturday (Aug. 8) in the evening's third race.

Joggingtothebank (Break The Bank K–Jogging Home) fired off the gate from post four to lead his competition through quarter times of :27.1, :56.4, 1:24.1 and 1:52.4, winning by 4-1/2 lengths.

The previous 1:53 record was held by Outburst and Dan Charlino, set in 2018.

Joggingtothebank now has three straight victories for trainer Marty Wollam, who owns the trotter with partners Julie Sweet and Dale Sweet. Kurt Sugg was aboard for the winning drive. The victory brings Joggingtothebank's career win tally to 15, and Saturday's victory increased his lifetime earnings to $178,000. Joggingtothebank returned $10.40 to win.

American Courage, Groovy Joe among best in NYSS at Batavia

Batavia Downs played host to the New York Sire Stake (NYSS) 2 and 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Sunday afternoon (Aug. 9) and the perfect weather brought out some exceptional performances.

Outstanding 2-year-old colt American Courage (American Ideal–Nola Fool Bluechip) remained undefeated when he won his $50,400 NYSS division. After starting a bit off the gate, American Courage tucked in fifth momentarily before driver Matt Kakaley pulled and advanced him to third at the quarter behind the leading Carrythetorchman (Marcus Miller). But just past the three-eighths, Kakaley had him out and rolling again and this time right to the front.

American Courage cleared and took the lead by the five-eighths pole and really dug in from there. Kakaley sat chilly as American Courage opened up four lengths at the three-quarters, six lengths by the top of the stretch and then jogged home by 10 open lengths, wrapped up in 1:54.2.

“The gate got going a little fast and got away from us. I just wanted to get away clean and get around the track,” said Kakaley. “This is a serious colt.”

American Courage ($2.10) remains perfect, now winning six of six lifetime starts for owner Fiddler's Creek Stable who also bred the winner. Travis Alexander is the trainer.

The other $50,400 2-year-old division went to Town Gossip (American Ideal–Fibbertigibbet) who led at every station from post one. Jim Morrill Jr. backed down the half to a pedestrian :59 before stepping on the gas and letting Town Gossip accelerate away from the field. After hitting the three-quarters in 1:28.1, Town Gossip turned for home and opened up a 5-1/4 length lead at the wire for a 1:57.1 win.

It was the second NYSS win of the year for Town Gossip ($3.00) who is owned by Robert Weinstein. Jennifer Bongiorno trains the $25,000 Lexington Selected acquisition who was bred by Winbak Farm.

The sophomore set saw its best performance come in the second $55,000 split when the 3-year-old colt Groovy Joe (Roll With Joe–Chotat Milk) went coast to coast in the fastest mile of the day.

Matt Kakaley rushed Groovy Joe off the gate and out-muscled Save Me A Dance (Jason Bartlett) for the lead at the quarter in :27. The race proceeded in single file to the half and past the five eighths before anyone decided to pull on the leader.

Splash Brother (Tyler Buter) tipped from last midway up the backstretch and tried to push the issue but came up short in the last turn. Groovy Joe was clear in the lane by two lengths with only the pocket sitting Save Me A Dance with a chance at him. He did close strong down the lane, but Groovy Joe hung on to win by 1/2 length in 1:52.

It was the second NYSS win this year for Groovy Joe ($4.30) who is owned by Hutt Racing Stable, Blake Macintosh, Ozzie Mackay and Hoofbid Racing. Blake Macintosh also trains the winner who was a $17,000 Goshen Yearling sale purchase that was bred by Winbak Farm.

The first $54,000 3-year-old division was won by Major Betts (Art Major–Southwind Johanne) for driver Dexter Dunn who made his first ever driving appearance at Batavia Downs.

Major Betts took the lead and cut fractions of :27, :56.4 and 1:25.4 before his first challenge of the race came from Blank Stare (Corey Callahan) who pulled within a length of him at that third station. Major Betts successfully rebuffed that attack and headed down the lane on top by a length. But as he drifted just off the pylons, the pocket sitting Ideal Perception (Jason Bartlett) shot up the cones to take his best shot. Major Betts still had pace and stood his ground to win by a head in 1:53.3.

It was the third straight NYSS victory for Major Betts ($2.10) and owners Joseph Jannuzzelli, Mark Harder and Deena Frost. Mark Harder also trains the colt who was bred by Southwind Farms and sold at the Lexington Selected sale for $70,000.

There were seven $15,000 divisions of Excelsior A and four $6,600 divisions of Excelsior B races Sunday as well and those results can be found at this link.

Matt Kakaley, Jason Bartlett and Drew Monti all had hat tricks on the all-stake card with Tyler Buter and Jim Morrill Jr. each scoring two wins as well.

Party Girl Hill posts giant PASS victory at Pocono

The progression of Party Girl Hill from “precocious newcomer” to “potential monster” took another significant step during the Sunday twilight card at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, when the 3-year-old Captaintreacherous pacing filly won her $93,542 division of the third prelim of her division’s Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) in 1:49, 2/5 of a second off the world record in only the sixth start of her undefeated career.

Party Girl Hill settled in third as a :26.1 quarter was argued, then moved to the outside for driver Dexter Dunn and quickly brushed to command, hitting the half in :54.4, then shrugging off the two-wide tier going to a 1:22.2 three-quarters. With next to no coaxing for Dunn in the lane, the powerful filly came home in :26.3, winding up 4 ½ lengths to the good of JK First Lady and leaving little doubt that Kiss Me Onthebeach’s 1:48.3 standard, set here, could have been within her grasp if extended at all.

Unraced at two and now a winner of $190,381 in the 59 days of her purse career, Party Girl Hill will be a major force in whatever competition she enters for trainer Chris Ryder and owner Tom Hill. One of her upcoming races is her PA Sire Stakes Championship at Harrah’s Philly on Sunday, Sept. 7, and she already has an invitation to that dance being the only filly to win in all three PASS prelims so far.

In the other Sire Stakes cut, Rocknificent went out in :26.4 for driver Scott Zeron to make the lead, surrendered the front to last year’s divisional champion Lyons Sentinel, then came her own last panel of :26.3 to get past the pacesetter by a neck in 1:50.4. Completing the PASS siring double for Captaintreacherous, Rocknificent now has two wins and a third in the Sire Stakes this season, and she now has $423,429 in career earnings for trainer Linda Toscano and the partnership of Enviro Stables LTD, South Mountain Stables, and Little E LLC.

Party Girl Hill’s connections of Dexter Dunn and Chris Ryder of course combined on Hambletonian Day by winning the Sam McKee with Bettor’s Wish, and one recurrent theme in the six $20,000 divisions of this group’s Stallion Series action was the reunion of drivers and trainers who also won Saturday – and for them with females to boot. Andrew McCarthy and Tony Alagna, the day after their magnificent victory with Ramona Hill in the big event, scored with the Somebeachsomewhere filly Caviart Heather in a new mark of 1:51.3 for Caviart Farms; McCarthy teamed with trainer Brett Bittle to take the Doherty Final with Darlene Hanover, and then 27 hours later they saw the Captaintreacherous miss Going Gone Hanover pull the pocket and come home in :54.2 - :26.3 for a 1:52.1 success, her second Stallion Series win for Yankeeland Partners LLP.

A third such Jersey-Pennsy connection was behind the Captaintreacherous filly Lyons Monatize, who reported home first in a new mark of 1:52 for Threelyonsracing and the combo of driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Jim King Jr., who won with the remarkable Shartin N in the Lady Liberty the day before.

Another “theme” in the Stallion Series was trainer Chris Beaver getting a new addition to the barn from the Emerald Highlands Farm, seeing the horse drop down from the Sire Stakes, and going on to victory. The fastest StS winner was the Sweet Lou filly Sweet Filly and driver Matt Kakaley in 1:50.1, preventing second-place The Bethinator from becoming a three-time StS winner; the other Beaver winner was the Somebeachsomewhere filly Candy On The Beach, who reported home first in a career best of 1:51.2 for Scott Zeron.

Zeron and Dexter Dunn won both a Sire Stakes section and a Stallion Series cut, and sire Somebeachsomewhere had his third StS credit, when the Brett Pelling-trained filly Alexa Skye notched her second Stallion Series win, tallying in 1:54 for Dunn and the partnership of Blue Chip Bloodstock Inc. and John Lengacher.

HHYF Activity Box 4 complete

The fourth activity box created by the Harness Horse Youth Foundation is now complete. Orders may be placed here <https://hhyf.org/activity-boxes/>. Deadline for orders of individual boxes or this series of four boxes is Sept. 15.

“Each box has been filled with unique content and our ‘agribusiness’ themed one is special because it allows for some free-thinking activities; there are two contests – one for writing and one for art as well as the opportunity to design your own barn on paper. There is also a bag full of yarn to represent actual lengths of the digestive systems of horses and humans and our 2020 edition of HARNES HEROES trading cards and our Careers In Harness Racing booklet too,” said HHYF executive director Ellen Taylor.

“Our team of creators has made our ‘covid lemonade’ extremely well. This summer could have been a complete disappointment but instead we made some great progress in figuring out new ways to present our educational mission about harness racing,” Taylor said. “Now we have set our sights on how to best use these alternative learning activities so more young people can benefit. In trying to find our new normal, we may have discovered an even better platform for those who may not be able to attend our summer hands-on programs.”

For further information about HHYF or the boxes, please visit www.hhyf.org or call 317.908.0029.
