Divine precedent

How a Mohawk-winning $2,000 yearling named Settn A Precedent stitched the Panos family back together and soothed their grief – all in the name of their late matriarch Shirley Panos.

How do you honor the memory of a loved one who has died? How do you pay tribute to the lessons they taught, the wisdom they imparted and the love they shared? On a journey that can be lonely and overwhelming, how do you support family members with their grief and help each other move forward?

Every person will respond differently to those questions, but for Jim Panos and his children Charlene, Matt and Jonathan, part of the answer was pacing filly Settn A Precedent. She came into their life almost two years after the death of family matriarch Shirley Panos and has caused them grief, cost them money, made them doubt and ultimately brought them more joy than they could have imagined when the idea was first raised two years ago.

Charlene suggested it, the idea of buying a yearling and getting back into the game they had left behind almost two decades ago. Jonathan had taken his mother's death hard and was battling an alcohol addiction. They felt working with a horse could offer him a new path forward and give the whole family a reason to stay connected. They all chipped in some money and Jim, Matt and Jonathan set off for the 2019 London Selected Yearling frustrated. We didn't have enough in our budget. I could start them all, and then you get one or two bids and I'm out of money. It's tough when you're sitting beside a guy that's got a budget of $100,000 and you've got $4,000," said Jonathan. "So I said, 'I'm going out for a smoke Dad, buy the first thing that comes in the ring that's under $4,000.' And I wasn't out there half a cigarette and he came out, 'I got a mare, I got a filly.'"

Jim made one bid on the brown daughter of Sunshine Beach and Magic From Brussels and no one raised his $2,000 opener, so Settn A Precedent belonged to the Panos family. It was the first, but certainly not the last, time they felt a higher power – call it God, karma, or a mother's love – might be looking out for them.

Matt and Jonathan broke Settn A Precedent, soon nicknamed 'Wendy', at Hanover Raceway and after a few months Jonathan relocated with the filly to the Tomiko Training Centre outside of Campbellville, ON. Training at the Ontario base of TheStable.ca gave Settn A Precedent dozens of horses to train alongside and Jonathan almost as many experienced trainers to learn from and lean on as he worked with the quirky, and often cranky, filly.

"It's a love hate relationship, I love her and I think she hates me," said Jonathan with a chuckle. "She's definitely a unique horse; she's one of a kind. I say, 'If Wendy wants, Wendy will, and if Wendy don't, Wendy won't.'"

The first major hurdle in the family horse project came in early 2020 when a fluoroscope examination revealed chips in two of Settn A Precedent's ankles. The cost to remove the chips was $3,200, a significant expense on a $2,000 yearling. Jonathan lobbied his father to do the surgery and although Jim had significant doubts about the filly's ability at that point he yielded to his son's instincts. However, the surgery and the ongoing expenses through the filly's recovery caused Charlene and Matt to reconsider their investment in the family horse.

"There was so many expenses on this horse at the start. Sometime during her 2-year-old year they bailed and I said maybe we should sell her, because she showed she had some speed but she wasn't doing it right," said Jim. "Johnny was the persistent one. He said, 'No, we're not selling her, we're not selling her.'"

Once Settn A Precedent had recovered from her surgery she resumed training and qualified at Woodbine Mohawk Park in September. The second hurdle arrived in the weeks before the filly's first lifetime start. Upheaval in Jonathan's life saw him move the filly three times in the 10 days before she lined up behind the starting gate at The Raceway at the Western Fair District on Oct. 16. She finished a distant last and looked like she was going to pull up on driver Natasha Day through much of the mile.

Jonathan pressed the brakes on Wendy's racing career, started work as a caretaker with trainer Kyle Bossence and asked his dad to revive the family horse project. Matt agreed to reinvest and when Jonathan started to feel like his full-time job was interfering with the filly's progress, he sent her back to Hanover and into Matt's care.

"There were times there when everybody was out on her and I was just by myself, the last man standing. And you're really struggling and then coming off an addiction, it's hard," said Jonathan. "I still struggle with addiction, but she's definitely helped me with that too, she's been a godsend all around my life."

As a tribute to his mother, Jonathan had acquired a full set of pink equipment for Settn A Precedent and when he sent her back to Hanover his only instruction to his brother on her rigging was that it had to be pink. Matt complied, making a few changes while keeping the pink harness, and when racing resumed in Ontario in mid-February Settn A Precedent was soon ready to roll. The filly scored her first win in her third lifetime start, circling The Raceway at the Western Fair District on March 19 in 2:00.3 for driver Austin Sorrie. Unfortunately, racing was shut down for a second time two weeks later so the filly would not get her shot at a second win until mid-June.

Although her initial forays around Woodbine Mohawk Park had been less than impressive — she qualified three times there at two, made a break once and could not crack 2:02 — Jonathan lobbied his dad and brother to take Settn A Precedent back to the Campbellville oval.

"I just wanted to race her in Hanover, and so did Matt actually, and Johnny said, 'No, no we want to try her down there,'" Jim recalled. "So I said, 'Okay, away we go.' I said, 'We've finished last before, wouldn't be the first time,' but she ended up third."

After the third-place result on June 15, Matt entered Settn A Precedent back into the fillies and mares maiden class on June 22. From Post 6, the filly went gate-to-wire in 1:53.2, finishing eight and one-quarter lengths in front of the field.

"I went out to have a smoke and it was real quiet out on the track and there seemed to be nobody around and there was a big full moon, it was just this weird eerie feeling, and then she ended up winning by 10 lengths, the announcer called," said Jonathan, who sported the pink tie he wore to his mother's funeral in the winner's circle and then retired it for good. "It was just a very weird feeling, like I can't explain what it was, but definitely something was there and I think helping Wendy along for me and my brother to get that first win down there."

The filly returned to Hanover on June 26 for a 10 length romp in a non-winners of two class, missed a week due to sickness and then headed back to Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 20 where she scored her third victory with a 1:53.3 effort.

Ten days later however, Wendy delivered an epic clunker, all but pulling up on driver Bob McClure at the quarter-pole. They had her thoroughly examined after the race, but the brothers suspected the problem was mental rather than physical.

"We did get her scoped, but basically it's just her, the funny way about her," said Matt. "She got put on the list for performance, but I kind of knew what was going on so I took her back to Georgian the next day and got her in to qualify and she won her qualifier by 36 lengths and Austin (Sorrie) said, 'She's fine, there's nothing wrong with her.'

Confident that all systems were go, Matt put the filly back into the same class on Aug. 6 and James MacDonald steered her to a two-and-a-half length win in a personal best 1:51.1.

The next day, the family had an opportunity to celebrate together. Long before she knew Settn A Precedent would pace faster than any horse they had ever owned, Charlene had organized the Shirley Panos Memorial Pace for Saturday, Aug. 7. The presentation was a tribute not just to a beloved wife and mother, but also to a gifted horsewoman.

"She was a very good horsewoman, kind of the rock in the stable and the family as well," said Matt. "Any lameness in any horse, she would find it, she knew what it was and what we'd have to work on. She loved all her horses. They seemed to respond to her."

While Settn A Precedent was purchased to stitch the Panos family closer together, she has also reconnected them to the harness racing community in their hometown. Jonathan hopes to complete his trainer's license this year and fill a few more stalls in the Hanover Raceway barn and Jim recently acquired 3-year-old Hes Watching filly Shes Gold from fellow Hanover resident John Kennedy.

"I wanted something for a hobby because the boys, they kind of don't let me touch the other one," said Jim with a chuckle. "And I thought, I like jogging a little bit too, so I said that will be good for me just to goof around with, that's all I'm doing with her."

Unlike Settn A Precedent, Shes Gold does not look destined to stray far from her hometown oval, so Jim figures she will fill the role he originally imagined for Wendy, giving the family a regular reason to get together on a Saturday afternoon to watch their horse compete.

Settn A Precedent is back in to go at Woodbine Mohawk Park tonight (Aug. 13), looking to add to her record of five wins, one third and earnings of $33,450 in nine lifetime starts. Conditioned classes are where she will remain. Through the roller coaster ride of their first 18 months of ownership the family could not see the wisdom of making sustaining payments so she is not eligible for any stakes, including the Ontario Sires Stakes program. That decision is also likely to discourage any interested suitors, but Jim is not complaining.

"I know the money thing, everybody looks at that, but it's more, for me, the family thing," he said. "All of us work together with her and I think mother would be pretty happy to see that."

Local favorite Little Rocket Man shooting for Dan Patch glory

The tiny-yet-mighty pacer would reach legendary status for owners Russ Beeman and Boomer Freeman if he were to pull off a victory tonight in Harrah's Hoosier Park's $325,000 final.

by James Platz

Tonight (Aug. 13), Harrah's Hoosier Park plays host to the $325,000 Dan Patch Stakes. A stellar field will assemble for the track's signature event, including local fan favorite Little

Indiana

Rocket Man. Owners Russ Beeman and Jack "Boomer" Freeman – both long-time Hoosier horsemen – are excited to see how their 5-year-old will stack up against the best free-for-all pacers in the country. He may be small, but he's developed a big following in the Hoosier State.

"It's exciting. Just the fact we bought him at the yearling sale and see how he's progressed to this point in time and be in something like this," said Freeman, an Anderson, IN resident. "There are people that have been in this business their whole life that don't get to this point and we happened to get lucky."

Beeman campaigned Little Rocket Man's dam, GT Miss Royal, during part of her career and admired her heart and grit. Before retiring to broodmare duties, the Pilgrims Punch mare accumulated 31 wins, including an Indiana Sires Stakes division, and banked $230,000. The racing veteran had hopes of buying GT Miss Royal's first colt, but upon inspection at the 2017 Hoosier Classic sale, the size of the Rockin Image colt concerned him.

"I went down there and he was a little bitty guy. I didn't even know he was a ridgling," said Beeman, who started out racing Trottingbred ponies in Indiana before moving to standardbreds. "I told Boomer, 'I think he's too small. I don't think he'll be big enough to race. He might race in the ponies.'"

Freeman was unfazed. He inspected the colt, and enlisted others to scrutinize the yearling as well.

"I really didn't pay attention to his size. I went with full intentions of buying him. He is the only reason I was there," said Freeman. "I looked at him and I couldn't find anything wrong. I had two or three other people look at him. I asked, 'Am I missing something?' Everyone said, 'No. He's perfect, but he's little.'"

Freeman would bid until he ended up with the horse, cataloged with the name Just Like Pete. He signed the ticket for $18,000, splitting ownership with Beeman, a business partner for three decades.

"Boomer said, 'I've got good news and bad news.' I said, 'What's the good news?' He said, 'The good news is we bought that colt. The bad news is I need your checkbook to pay for him,'" Beeman said. "I know I wouldn't have bought him if it wasn't for Boomer. That's how things happen in this business. You try to outthink yourself."

Little Rocket Man did not compete at Hoosier Park as a 2-year-old. Trained by Beeman's daughter, Missy Essig, the colt became aggressive and chased people around his stall. The decision was made to geld him, and at that time was discovered to be a ridgling, requiring surgery. Beeman opted to turn him out after the procedure, and that may have worked to the pacer's advantage.

"It wasn't because he was lame. He needed time to grow up," said Beeman, who lives just north of Hoosier Park in Alexandria. "I like racing 2-year-olds if they can handle it. But there are so many 2-year-olds that have to go so fast, you tear them up. You can tear a suspensory or tendon, or they just get sour. And there isn't just one of them, there are 10 of them."

Given the time to grow and develop, Little Rocket Man has racked up numerous wins over the last three seasons while becoming a local celebrity. Racing for the first time as a sophomore, he claimed victory in 11 of 17 starts, taking a 1:49 speed badge and earning $200,380. Moving up to the open ranks last year, the pacer managed to win half of his 12 starts and finished second twice.

Little Rocket Man was nominated to the Dan Patch Stakes in 2020, but lacked the earnings to make the field. Instead, he competed in the Gregg Haston Memorial, an event that honors Hoosier Park's first leading driver who died in an automobile accident in 1996. The gelding was in top form, circling the Anderson oval in 1:47.2 and winning by more than two lengths. Century Farroh, by comparison, won the Dan Patch that night with a 1:49 performance. The time established a new lifetime mark and gave Little Rocket Man a share of the Hoosier Park all-age track record. It was also special for Beeman, who has known the family for years, as well as Essig, who worked in Haston's stable before his tragic death.

"It's very special because Gregg was a close friend. Gregg's mom and dad raced ponies, and Gregg was just a little kid running around before he went on to race standardbreds," Beeman said. "That's probably the best thing that happened. Money sometimes ain't everything. I thought it was real special."

This season, Little Rocket Man has displayed great consistency. In 14 trips behind the gate in rein to John DeLong, he has collected nine wins while racing second three times. The 5-year-old has missed the board only once while raising his career earnings to just under $300,000. He enters the Dan Patch after finishing second his last time out. With each start, Little Rocket Man's devout following grows, a development Freeman never expected.

"The fans go crazy over him. It's just remarkable. I don't know how you would explain it. Just the thrill of being a part of it is something that's out of this world," Freeman said of the experience. "You can sit in the grandstand and hear people talk about him and they don't know who you are. I tell Russ all the time, 'People don't know who I am; people don't know who you are. Everybody knows who he is.'"

Essig's charge has drawn post six in the field of 10. Little Rocket Man is 20-1 in the morning line. Only Tellmeaboutit, another local entry, has longer odds. Freeman is confident in the small but speedy pacer.

"I've got to think he's going to win. What am I supposed to say? I hope we're not last," he said. "If we don't have confidence, who else is going to have confidence? It's just a thrill to be in with a group of horses like this."

The 69-year-old Beeman has competed at Hoosier Park since it opened in 1994. He has owned sires stakes champions in the past, but counts Little Rocket Man as the best of the bunch. He points to how the racehorse is swift, yet requires little maintenance. He feels with the right trip, Little Rocket Man could be in contention late in the mile this evening.

"There's not a bad horse in the field. Any horse can win it, and you've got to have a trip. I don't believe a horse can cut it," he noted. "If Rocket gets a trip, he gets a second over trip, he can pace with anything. That's my opinion. When he's on his A game, he can get home in 25 or 26 seconds. I think he's competitive. You start with a baby and you hope you've got one that can compete. We've been very fortunate that he can compete with the best of them, I think."

‘Fire’ hopes foes feel the heat in Dan Patch

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Catch The Fire is red hot as he prepares for tonight's (Aug. 13) $325,000 Dan Patch Stakes for older pacers at Harrah's Hoosier Park. The 4-year-old stallion has won four of his past five races, with his only setback coming from post 10 in a division of the William R. Haughton Memorial at The Meadowlands on July 17.

For the season, the Todd Luther trainee has won six of nine starts, finished off the board only the previously mentioned one time, and earned $180,863. In his most recent outing this past Saturday, Catch The Fire won a division of the Sam McKee Memorial by a neck over Nicholas Beach in 1:47.2 at The Meadowlands.

Catch The Fire will start the Dan Patch from post four with driver Scott Zeron and is the 3-1 morning-line favorite.

"I couldn't be happier with him," said Luther, who trains Catch The Fire for Black Magic Racing and CT Stables. "As long as he draws good, I think he can go with any of them in the country right now. He's possibly the sharpest. He's really sharp right now."

Catch The Fire was a Kentucky Sire Stakes champion at age 2 and last year won four times on the Grand Circuit. He captured his elimination and final of the Delvin Miller Adios, won his elimination of the Little Brown Jug (finishing third in the final) and won The Pegasus at Hoosier Park.

A son of Captaintreacherous out of Dream Outloud, he has won 14 of 38 career races and earned $879,064. He was trained at 2 and 3 by John Ackley. Luther took over the conditioning after his brother Greg (Black Magic Racing) bought an interest in Catch The Fire during the winter.

"John did a great job with him," Luther said. "I don't think he missed one big dance at 3. He was in every single one of them and showed up.

"He's a good horse. He's very well-mannered, easy to get along with, and does everything right. And he gives a hundred percent every time he hits the track. He loves his job. I've got 50 head and he probably likes his job more than anybody in the barn. He loves, loves, loves to race. There's not much more you can ask of a horse."

This past winter, Catch The Fire began his stud career at Sugar Valley Farm in Ohio. His book was originally limited to 65 mares because of the plan to continue racing, but later increased to 85. He competed in Ohio exclusively to start the season while performing his double duties.

"I thought maybe the breeding might get him a little more excited, and hard to handle, but you wouldn't even know," Luther said. "He's so professional in every way."

With last week's win, Catch The Fire established a new career mark. His time of 1:47.2 was just one-fifth of a second from tying for the season's fastest mile. The stallion raced with a blind bridle after wearing blinkers in his more recent previous races.

"He was wearing a blind bridle at the beginning of the season, but he was starting to get a little hot, so I put blinkers on him to try to calm him down a little bit," Luther said. "I think the last few starts, he got a little too relaxed. So, in the McKee, we put a blind bridle back on him to wake him back up a little bit. He was so good, we'll probably leave the blind bridle on him.

"He came out of the McKee really good. He's definitely feeling good about himself. He knows he's been racing really good."

Catch The Fire will see a familiar trio of Ron Burke-trained horses in the Dan Patch. This Is The Plan is the 7-2 second choice, followed by Backstreet Shadow at 4-1 and Cattlewash at 9-2. Backstreet Shadow starts from the second tier in post 10.

Racing begins at 6:30 p.m. (EDT) at Harrah's Hoosier Park. The Dan Patch is estimated to go to post at 10:59 p.m. as race 13 on the card. For complete entries, click here.

A look back at Hambletonian Day

by Debbie Little

Even before going through the doors at The Meadowlands on Saturday (Aug. 7), it was obvious it was Hambletonian Day because there was heavy traffic driving in.

When you finally made it to the building, you were met by an enthusiastic crowd, and if the Backyard was your entry point, it was rocking, thanks to the band Second Contact.

After a year off due to COVID-19, the county fair atmosphere of Hambletonian Day returned with carnival rides, games, bounce houses, an autograph session at the Fan Zone, the Hambletonian hat contest, members of Harness Racing History taking their winner's circle photo and All-Star bugler Mark O'Keeffe performing First Call.

"I enjoyed it and am grateful to do it," said O'Keeffe. "There were several inquiries into the All-Star Buglers and that was nice to hear."

O'Keeffe performed on Hambletonian Day for the first time in 2000 and has done so continuously, with a couple of exceptions, either as a part of his group the All-Star Buglers or as a solo performer. What many may not know is that the nightly version of First Call used by The Meadowlands is performed by O'Keeffe.

From his spot in the winner's circle, he observed that the crowd seemed a little smaller than in recent years, but was no less enthusiastic rooting for the horses.

Pandemic cases are trending up in New Jersey and that certainly played some part in lessening the attendance to 14,346, which crushed last year's COVID-restricted turnout of 1,020 nonetheless. It should be noted that even though they weren't there in person, people watched and wagered with a total handle of $6,487,839, up 13 per cent from last year.

"I thought it was a medium-type crowd in terms of number of guests," said Dave Brower, morning-line oddsmaker/handicapper/TV host at The Meadowlands. "I was very happy to see all the people that came by and just gave us a smile, thumbs up, wave, took some pictures."

One of Brower's responsibilities for Hambletonian Day is booking and organizing the guests that are interviewed between the races, which were varied and included Meadowlands' president/chief executive officer Jeff Gural, Hambletonian Society president/CEO John Campbell and senator Paul Sarlo from New Jersey.

"In the last three weeks, we had two of the most important New Jersey legislators interviewed on our programs and that's extremely important to the state and the industry," said Brower.

The other being New Jersey governor Phil Murphy, who was interviewed on Meadowlands Pace Night, July 17.

One facet largely missing from Hambletonian Day was the presence of international press and owners, both Canadian and European.

Some that were present were visible since Brower interviewed Bjorn Bernie Noren from Sweden while Canadians Curtis MacDonald and Cameron Chick operated the Hambletonian Day cable cam.

MacDonald's cable cam has been an exciting and dramatic feature of the Gold Cup & Saucer race at Charlottetown Driving Park on Prince Edward Island for several years and has been used at Woodbine Mohawk Park, among other Canadian tracks.

This was its debut at The Meadowlands, which presented some unexpected challenges. The line ran for 1,005 feet, eight feet longer than Mohawk, so it was at top speed between 32 and 36 miles an hour for a really long time.

"If you ask somebody what the Gold Cup & Saucer is they may or may not know," said MacDonald. "If you ask somebody what the Hambletonian is, everybody knows. I definitely had a lot of nerves about getting equipment here. The trolley for the cable cam I rented because I didn't want to bring my own, because I was worried it would get lost."

MacDonald's worries were founded since the equipment that he did ship overnight was tracked to Kentucky, but never made it north from the south.

Luckily, he had a plan 'B' and was able to rent everything the day before, so as far as the fans were concerned on Hambletonian Day, everything went off without a hitch.

The cable cam was flawlessly integrated into the production by Meadowlands' director of TV Oz Colon and assistant manager of TV Marjorie Roman – who directed the in-house show – and was used for several races, including The Hambletonian and Oaks.

"Our TV production staff always does an uber amazing job on this day," said Brower. "So many working parts. Cameras, wires, microphones and it's hard to get them to work all the time. Everybody is an expert at what they do. We like to think we put on the best production possible and it almost always succeeds."

Moirra Fanning, the chief operating officer and director of publicity for The Hambletonian Society, and her staff worked hand-in-hand with The Meadowlands to put on the best show possible, which included being broadcast live on several outlets.

The Hambletonian was part of a one-hour live show on the CBS Sports Network, directed by Peter Lasser and hosted by Greg Blanchard, with Emily Gaskin co-hosting. It was also live on Fox Sports 2 as part of "Saratoga Live" with commentary by Anthony Stabile and Jessica Otten.

Otten also provided some taped content for the CBSSN show.

Caton Bredar was onsite from TVG Network and the entire day's action, as always, was shown on Racetrack Television Network (RTN). In addition, The Big M's YouTube Channel and Facebook Live Page also showed the day's events.

Brower and Dave Little co-hosted the in-house "Racing from The Meadowlands" show with Gabe Prewitt handling winner's circle interviews. The voice of The Meadowlands, Ken Warkentin, celebrating his 30th year at the track, called his 22nd Hambletonian.

The two newest additions to The Meadowlands TV family, Andrew "Shades" Demsky and Edison Hatter, were both experiencing their first Hambletonian Day.

Demsky, 33, compiled Twitter-exclusive content for the track's Twitter feed, got some quotes in the paddock and gave out his best bet Bella Bellini in an interview by Brower.

"I thought it was great," said Demsky. "The food, the live music, the kid's rides. I loved seeing it. Rachel [Ryan] and Marianne [Rotella] and team put on a helluva show."

Hatter, 22, also spent time on both sides of the track and gave out an early and late pick-4 on air with Little.

"My first Hambletonian experience was amazing," said Hatter. "I know the cliché is that Hambletonian Day is the 'Greatest Day in Harness Racing', but it really and truly is. I'm so glad that my work took me all over the track Saturday, from the back paddock to the winner's circle to the front apron. I got to see horsemen fully focused getting horses ready for the big races, I got to witness jubilant winner's circle celebrations and I got to see the carnival, family like atmosphere on the apron and meet lots of fans throughout the day. I can't wait for Hambletonian 2022!"

If you missed any of the races or just want to watch them again, the entire 16-race card and all the interviews are posted on The Meadowlands YouTube channel.

Trainer Scott Cox looks for better luck with Chase H Hanover in Milstein Memorial

Saturday's $300,000 invitational honors Northfield Park's former owner.

by Jay Wolf

Trainer Scott Cox has been plying his trade at MGM Northfield Park "for a long time." On Saturday night (Aug. 14), Cox will send out the tough-luck longshot Chase H Hanover in Northfield Park's richest race, the $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial Invitational for 3-year-old colt pacers.

Chase H Hanover, who will be driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. from post #8, continued his streak of poor post position draws.

"I have been waiting for (his luck) to turn around," said Cox. "Someday it will turn around. Bad post positions and bad spots. Hopefully, it will change soon."

The gelded son of Captaintreacherous—Calgary Hanover is co-owned by Jason Ash of Delaware, OH and Cox, who has recorded more than 1,100 career training wins and $7.7 million in earnings, mostly at Northfield Park.

Chase H Hanover finished third in the $500,000 Messenger Stakes Final on July 2 and was placed fourth in the $700,000

Meadowlands Pace Final on July 17. His last start was an eighth-place finish in the $375,000 Adios Pace Final on July 31, beaten by just 3 1/4 lengths.

"Despite not getting a purse check, I thought his last start was one of his better races," said Cox. "He finished strong [last quarter in :26.]. He's done well. I don't think we have over-raced him. He has been coming out of those races well."

On the year, Chase H Hanover has recorded a 1-1-4 record in 10 starts and $157,288 in earnings.

Combined with his freshman season performance, he has been on the board in 15 of 20 career starts and has amassed over $383,000 in earnings.

Chase H Hanover, who trains at Sahbra Farms in Streetsboro, OH, will be making only his second purse start in the Buckeye State. Last year, he captured the $54,206 Standardbred at the Delaware County Fair on Jug Day in a world-record-equaling 1:51.1.

"We didn't overstate him a year ago. We kind of picked our spots. This year we staked him a little bit more," Cox said.

The morning line favorites in the Milstein are Charlie May (Brett Miller; Post #7) and Water Sports Teen (Joe Bongiorno; Post #2).

Charlie May (5-2 morning line) comes into the invitational off an Ohio Sire Stake and Ohio State Fair wins – in 1:50.4 and

1:51.4, respectively. The homebred McArdle gelding finished first in the Meadowlands Pace final, but was disqualified and placed ninth for interference. He is owned by Don Tiger and trained by Steve Carter.

Water Sports Teen (3-1 morning line) joined the Jennifer Bongiorno barn in late June after Joshua Jay Graber purchased the son of Somebeachsomewhere from Greg Luther's Black Magic Racing. Water Sports Teen won three straight for the new connections before a third-place finish in the Adios Pace Final.

"It will be an interesting race," said Cox. "Charlie May is a phenomenal horse."

The race honors Carl Milstein, who owned Northfield Park from 1984 until his passing in 1999. The Milstein family operated the track until July, 2018.

The Milstein undercard features a pair of $100,000 invitational events restricted to Ohio bred older horses and Ohio Sire Stake divisions for 3-year-old colt trotters, 2-year-old colt pacers and freshman colt trotters.

The Tom Aldrich President's Trot will feature a one of this year's top trotters nationally, It's Academic (Yannick Gingras - Post #8) and a pair of millionaires - Mission Accepted (Chris Page - Post #7) and I Know My Chip (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. - Post #5). The field of nine has combined for 208 career wins and earnings of $5.1 million.

The Myron Charna Invitational may be another showdown between Gold Digger King (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. - Post #8) and Sectionline Bigry (Tyler Smith - Post #9) despite the poor post positions.

Winning Ticket (Aaron Merriman) looks to stay perfect on the season in the first $50,000 division of the OHSS for sophomore colt trotters. The gelded son of Triumphant Caviar has earned $164,500 this year while winning all eight 2021 starts for co-owner/trainer Chris Beaver, Steve Zeeland, Tim Homan and Jim Burnett.

The post time for the 16-race card is 6:00 p.m.

Race #10 - MGM Northfield Park

U.S. sojourn leads James MacDonald to the Canadian mountaintop

by Dave Briggs

This story initially appeared here.

For James MacDonald the route to the top of Canada's driver mountain first involved a lengthy detour in the United States.

MacDonald, who leads Canada in both wins (123) and earnings ($2,362,881) through Aug. 11, said a five-week stint driving in the U.S. from May to early June, while racing was locked down in Ontario due to COVID-19 restrictions, was key in keeping both his mental and physical game sharp.

"I went to the States when we were locked down, and I just got on a bit of a roll down there... When I came back, I was in a good mind frame," said MacDonald who also tops the Woodbine Mohawk Park driving standings in both wins (108) and earnings ($2,055,475) through Aug. 10. "The more you drive, the better you feel. A lot of other people weren't driving ... I was kind of like a horse, I was tight and they were short. I was getting a lot of good horses to drive right off the bat (when I returned to Ontario) and then, the better you do, the better horses you get and it just kept snowballing even more. It kept snowballing into a great group of babies and I'm getting lots of good horses to drive. The confidence is high and hopefully I can keep riding it for a while."

In 149 pari-mutuel starts at The Meadowlands, The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, Harrah's Philadelphia and Yonkers Raceway, MacDonald posted a solid record of 17-17-19 in 149 starts.

"Woodbine Mohawk Park is probably one of the toughest driving colonies in the world, but if you go down and race against Hall of Famers – Brian Sears, Dave Miller, Tim Tetrick – and my brother Mark (MacDonald) day in and day out, and if you're having some luck, it puts you in a good mind frame," MacDonald said.

"I guess it could've went one way or the other. You could go down there and get beat up and then you come back with no confidence, but I had some luck and I had a great time down there with a great bunch of guys. Luckily, it's been able to translate into a lot of success when I came back up to Canada."

Dave Landry

James MacDonald (at Grand River Raceway on Aug. 2, the day he won the Battle of Waterloo with Betterhavemymoney) is driving extreme power with extreme confidence.

Leaving his young son, girlfriend and Ontario behind wasn't easy.

"It was really tough. I didn't want to go and I have my girlfriend here. It was hard on everyone, COVID. Especially in racing, there wasn't a whole lot you could do. It was a tough time on everyone. My little guy, I wasn't able to see him the last two weeks before I went down to the States because he had got COVID. It was six or seven weeks that I had to go without seeing my little guy. That was really tough," MacDonald said. "I'm happy I did it, obviously. It was good for my racing and staying confident and staying sharp in the bike, so that's a big part of my success this year. It was tough at the time, but I'm happy that I did it."

The time away also made MacDonald realize just how fortunate he is to race in Ontario.

"I know all the guys that went down there, we were happy to come home. We live a great lifestyle here in Canada. It's a great country and we're fortunate to have great racing at Mohawk," MacDonald said. "Even today, I went and trained in the morning and now I'm home and I'm going to go golf today – I've got the day off today. (The U.S.) guys, it's just run-and-gun all day, every day. Most days you've got to squeeze in time just to eat. It's a lot different lifestyle and you put a lot of miles and strain on your body just in your car and on your mental state."

"It gave me a really good appreciation for how good we have it here in Canada."

MacDonald said he's particularly pleased to be driving a lot of talented 2-year-olds this year, such as Battle of Waterloo winner Betterhavemymoney, Aviator, Prohibition Legal, Silver Label and Twin B Archie.

"It sets you up well for their 3-year-old years," he said. "I've just got to try and manage them the best I can and try to keep them as brave and happy and winning. The trainers are obviously doing a great job and that makes my job easier."

MacDonald also picked up a win Tuesday (Aug. 10) in the $76,500 Whenuwishuponastar final at Woodbine Mohawk Park for 2-year-old pacing fillies with Balance trained by U.S.-based leading trainer Nancy Takter.

"You never know which horses are coming (to race at Mohawk) and who is bringing them, but I got to meet pretty much all the trainers (in the U.S.) and had a good rapport with them," MacDonald said. "Hopefully, if some more people need drivers on their top stake horses. It would be a real honor to get some of those and just get a crack at the big ones, those are the ones that really count."

After all, MacDonald's confidence and success are both at all-time highs at the moment.

"People say I've been a lot more aggressive lately, but when you're driving those favorites in a lot of races and your confidence is high, then you want to put them in a spot to win and being aggressive is usually the best spot to race a favorite," he said. "I'm really hoping that it's snowballing into some of these Grand Circuit races (in September at Woodbine Mohawk Park) because, at this point, they look like the ones to beat in Canada. You never know what's coming up or what's around, but I couldn't be happier with the group I'm driving right now."

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Trond Andersen dead at 59

by Thomas Hedlund

One of Norway's best trainers, Trond Andersen, died due to cancer on Wednesday (Aug. 11) morning.

The Norwegian champion trainer from 2003-2011 produced many great trotters throughout the years and his best horse ever was probably Yarra Boko (1:52.1, $1,282,850) who claimed several big trophies in Europe and finished third behind Maharajah and Up And Quick in the 2014 Prix d'Amérique.

Andersen was known for his gentle treatment and behavior to other people and it was quite a shock when Andersen earlier this year announced that he was diagnosed with cancer.

His Hickothepooh claimed a ticket for this year's edition of Elitloppet by winning the Finlandia-ajo in Helsinki in early May and the 9-year-old trotter continued to give Andersen success by winning the Ulf Thoresen Grand International at Jarlsberg, Norway, in July.

Andersen's wife and two sons, along with the entire European harness racing, will miss a true gentleman and skillful professional.

Tough battle at Åby this Saturday

The $345,000 Åby Stora Pris over 3,140 meters (1.95 miles) is on the Saturday's (Aug. 14) race card at Åby, Sweden and 12 top trotters are aimed for the task.

A very interesting field of horses will gather behind the gate and among them, 4-year-old Bengurion Jet (Maharajah), trained and driven by Alessandro Gocciadoro, makes the show even more spectacular. Bengurion Jet charmed the fans by winning in 1:50.3 on the night of Hugo Åbergs Memorial at Jägersro in late July and Alessandro Gocciadoro immediately accepted the invitation for Åby Stora Pris he received minutes after the race.

French stars Carat Williams (Prodigious) and Ce Bello Romain (Jam Pridem) make the race more exotic among opponents Who's Who, Zarenne Fas, Very Kronos and Milligan's School.

Balance (James MacDonald wearing Diamond Creek's owner colors) winning the $76,500 final of the Whenuwishuponastar on Tuesday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Balance crushes in Whenuwishuponastar final

Balance out sprinted rivals to score a seven-length victory in Tuesday's (Aug. 10) Whenuwishuponastar Series final.

A field of seven 2-year-old pacing fillies squared off in the $76,500 final of the three-week Whenuwishuponastar Series.

Making her first appearance since the first leg, Balance delivered a strong maiden-breaking performance as the 1-2 favorite for driver James MacDonald and trainer Nancy Takter. The daughter of Bettors Delight was making just her second career start after finishing second in the opening-leg of the series.

The opening-quarter of the race saw a three-horse battle with Beyond The Sea and I Love On Gait side by side, while Balance was right behind and ready to brush around to the lead in the second-quarter. After a :27 opener, Balance charged to the top and led through a snappy half-mile clocking of :55.1.

Facing no pressure in the third-quarter, Balance and MacDonald got a :30 breather to set up a final-quarter sprint. The Takter trainee unleashed a strong burst to leave her rivals behind, pacing home in :28.1 to secure the 1:53.1 victory. Preliminary leg winners One Last Bet and I Love Ongait finished second and third, respectively.

"That's a big half (:55.1) for 2-year-olds this time of the year, it's only her second lifetime start," said MacDonald of the early fractions. "(I Love Ongait) was on my back and I knew if I was going to last I needed to sneak a breather in somewhere, but last turn I tapped the brakes and she swelled up, so she's just a really nice filly and a real pro."

MacDonald noted the change in demeanour for Balance on Tuesday night compared to her career debut.

"It was her first week here and she was looking at everything the whole mile, even in post-parade I could really get her on the bit or paying attention to what I wanted her to do, but that's why Nancy (Takter) is Nancy, she brought her today and she was just a pro. She knew exactly what she had to do and the horse was terrific."

Balance is the ninth foal out of West Of L A, the dam of million-dollar winners Somewhere In L A, L A Delight and $600,000-plus winner Sunny Dee. The Whenuwishuponastar victory gives Balance $43,250 earned for owners Diamond Creek Racing.

The Takter trained Balance is eligible to all of Woodbine Mohawk Park's upcoming Grand Circuit events.

A $2 win ticket on Balance returned $3.10.

Ahundreddollarbill trots fastest mile ever at Monticello Raceway

Usually when track records are broken, they are shaved by a mere one-fifth-of-a-second or so, but on Wednesday (Aug. 11), Ahundreddollarbill (PP5) trotted the fastest mile ever in the 63-year history of Monticello Raceway, smashing the existing record by one second and a fifth, and taking the lone division of the New York Sires Stakes (NYSS), worth $112,000, in 1:54.1. Aside from setting the all-age trotting record, he also reset the record for 3-year-old trotting geldings of 1:55.2, held by Gural Hanover.

As he left the gate 1-5, betting favorite Ahundreddollarbill was in no hurry to get to the front, arriving there past the ¼ in :28, followed by Dewey Arnold. Ahundreddollarbill continued to cut fractions of :57 to win by a length over the pocket-sitting Dewey Arnold in 1:54.1, trotting his final stanza in :28.3.

It was the third consecutive win for Ahundreddollarbill, all of them coming in NYSS competition. In his wake, he has now set four track records in the state at Saratoga, Yonkers, Vernon and now Monticello. It was his seventh win of the year out of eight starts for the talented son of Chapter Seven. Dewey Arnold (Jason Bartlett) finished second, followed by Credit Con (Scott Zeron).

The son of Chapter Seven is owned by Crawford Farms Racing and James Crawford of Erieville, NY. The win pushed his season earnings to over $367,000 and career earnings of $437,000. He is trained by Tony Alagna and was driven to victory by regular driver Andrew McCarthy. This season, Monticello Raceway played host to four NYSS events and set three new track records in the process.

Excelsior A winners were Barn Hall and Mark McDonald, scoring in 1:59.2 in a non-wagering event before the first race, and Chapolier (Trond Smedshammer) in 1:57.2 - $6.10. In the lone Excelsior B race, Spotlessreputation won in 1:58.2 - $2.10 with Jason Bartlett in the bike.

Bittersweetsymphony fastest in Buckeye Stallion Series at Eldorado Scioto Downs

Eldorado Scioto Downs played host to the third leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series (BSS) for 2-year-old filly pacers on Wednesday (Aug. 11). Five divisions went postward for $17,500 each with Bittersweetsymphony taking the first, and fastest, division in 1:53.2.

The Well Said—Just Too Spoiled filly sat third through an opening quarter of :28 and :56.4 half. Tyler Smith pulled her first up to challenge the leader Cruzinbytheseaside (Brett Miller) heading towards the three-quarters in 1:24.4. The duo steadily gained ground to win by a half-length. Crist Hershberger trains the filly who was a $14,000 Ohio Select Sale yearling purchase for CNC Stables and David Miller. Prancing Queen (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) finished second with Myells Real Terror (Shawn Barker II) getting up for third.

The second division went to She'sonebadmomma (Big Bad John—Elodie) in 1:54.1. Jeremy Smith moved the filly from third after the :27.2 first quarter. At the :57.1 half, She Means Business (Smith) challenged but couldn't get past the leader. She'sonebadmomma won by a length over Fear Abby (Josh Sutton); She Means Business was third. Jim Arledge, Jr. trains She'sonebadmomma for Winchester Baye Acres.

Aaron Merriman piloted Future Ex-wife to a nose victory over Glowing N The Dark (Barker). The time of the mile for the third division was 1:54.3. The Bill Rhoades trainee led gate to wire after leaving from post five through fractions of :27.4, :57.4 and 1:25.2. Sectionline Dragon (Smith) was third. Future Ex-wife (Fear The Dragon - Lady Mach) was a $8,500 Blooded Horse Sale purchase last fall and is now owned by Craig Stein. The filly is a perfect three-for-three in Buckeye Stallion Series action.

Avia Hanover and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. took the fourth split of BSS action in 1:55. Leaving from post four, the Downbytheseaside—Anderosa Hanover filly pulled at the :27.4 opening quarter to take the lead and stayed comfortably in control through the :57 half and 1:25.1 three-quarters. Scott Cox trains the filly for Jason Ash, Jim Winske and Stephen Michaels. Awaken The Dragon (Sutton) came from sixth at the three-quarters to finish second while Fear The Electra (Merriman) was third.

The last division was won by Love Me Hill (Racing Hill—Beyonce Blue Chip) and Miller in 1:55.2. Getting away third from the rail to the :28 opening quarter, the Virgil Morgan, Jr. trainee sat through :57.4 and 1:26.1 fractions. Miller then tipped her to the outside to power on by to win for owner/breeder Tom Hill. Harmony of Notes (Sutton) got up for second with Twenty (Chris Page) finishing third.

Stakes action continues at Eldorado Scioto Downs tonight (Aug. 13) with three divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes 2-year-old filly trot and two divisions of the OHSS 2-year-old filly pace. Racing is held each Tuesday-Saturday at Scioto with a first post of 6:15 p.m.

Four Wheelin's win sets trainer up for a good night's sleep

Reigning champion Four Wheelin returned to the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) winner's circle on Tuesday (Aug. 10) with a 1:54.4 personal best in the second of three $21,800 sophomore trotting colt Grassroots divisions at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Last fall's Grassroots champion got away fourth from Post 8 and watched fan favorite Sweet Soul David ring up fractions of :28.1 and :58. Heading for the 1:26.3 three-quarters, driver Louis-Philippe Roy tipped Four Wheelin out behind Harry and the pair advanced on the pacesetter. When the colts straightened up for the stretch drive, Four Wheelin kicked into gear and trotted home a one and one-half length winner in the 1:54.4 clocking. Sweet Soul David settled for second and pocket-sitter Royal Tyrone was third. (replay here: Four Wheelin).

"He raced some good. I hope he's back to himself," said trainer Marcel Barrieau. "Louis-Philippe is doing a great job with him. He knows him as much or better than I do, racing especially. He had a great trip tonight."

Four Wheelin was a five-time winner in Grassroots action last season for Cambridge, ON resident Barrieau and his co-owner Gestion Mastel Inc. of Longueuil, QC, but the trotter has been a tougher to manage this season.

"Last year he was such a nice colt, calm and everything, this year for some reason he was just kind of a bully. He was hard on himself more, so that's why I had to change the tactics quite a bit. Now it seems like he's come back," said Barrieau. "I really liked his race last week (July 31), and that's not his way of racing, off the front, but he went a decent mile in 1:55.1 and come back today with that, so it makes a fellow feel better. Sleep better at night."

Tuesday's win and a fourth-place result in the second Grassroots Leg give Four Wheelin a total of 58 points in the race for a Semi-Final berth and the gelding's connections will be hoping he can add to that total in the fourth leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 24.

Roy also captured the first $21,800 Grassroots division with Urntrouble Hanover, who swept from sixth to first in the final quarter. The Kadabra colt sat seventh through the bulk of the mile before sprinting down the stretch to collar the leaders by three and one-half lengths in a personal best 1:56.1. Pacesetter Diehard Seelster settled for second and Walkonthemoon was third. Favorite Dewey Deo made a break and finished last. (replay here: Urntrouble Hanover).

The Guelph resident piloted Urntrouble Hanover to his second lifetime win for trainer Clark Beelby of Campbellville, ON and Coyote Wynd Farms of Vancouver, BC. Tuesday's outing was the handsome roan gelding's first in the Ontario Sire Stakes program.

The final $21,800 Grassroots division went to Aworldly Goodtimes and driver Trevor Henry, who took full advantage of errors by several of their peers and sprinted down the stretch to an 11 and one-quarter length victory in 1:55.1. Rosies War Bonds finished second and Muscle Jack was third. Favorite Mystic made a break and finished sixth. (replay here: Aworldly Goodtimes).

"He's a nice colt, good gaited and he race very well tonight," said Henry, who was making his first appearance in the gelding's race bike. "I think he has more in him."

Henry engineered the win for trainer Ken Switzer and his partners in Dark Stables of Georgetown, ON. The win was the Royalty For Life son's second of the season and his first in Ontario Sires Stakes action. He opened his sophomore campaign with a sixth place result in the July 1 Gold Leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Complete results from Tuesday's program are available here and replays can be viewed on Woodbine Mohawk Park's YouTube channel.

Gingras sweeps Kentucky Champ opener for pacing sophomores

In a make-up session following Tuesday's (Aug. 10) card getting washed out, driver Yannick Gingras swept the two $40,000 divisions of the Kentucky Championship Series on Wednesday morning (Aug. 11) at The Red Mile, winning the colt and gelding pace with Goldie's Legacy and the filly pace with Blue Diamond Eyes.

Gingras asserted Goldie's Legacy to the top following a :27.3 quarter and kept the tempo hot passing a :54.2 half. Exploit tracked the Always A Virgin gelding from the pocket as the field marched into the final turn in post-position order. Komodo Beach came calling first over passing three-quarters in 1:22.2 but fought with everyone except Goldie's Legacy, who scooted clear from competition to post a 1:49.1 victory. Exploit finished a nose shy of Komodo Beach to take third while Toronto finished fourth.

Owned by Pollack Racing LLC and trainer Jeff Cullipher, Goldie's Legacy won his fourth race from 15 starts this season and his sixth from 25 overall, earning $96,985.

Blue Diamond Eyes made a similar move to command in the filly pace, commandeering her competition moving to the half and holding them at bay to win in 1:50. Classicist rode the pocket to finish second while High Minded, who led the field into the first turn, settled for third. Tava rallied for fourth.

Winning her third race from nine starts this season and her eighth from 22 overall, Blue Diamond Eyes has banked $761,664 for owners Thomas and Scott Dillon. Ron Burke trains the Captaintreacherous filly.

Four More Years grabbed the lead to the quarter, raced shuffled to third and found room to rally and win the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth division for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings. Dexter Dunn piloted the colt by Always B Miki for trainer Nancy Takter and owner Diamond Creek Racing to his maiden-breaking score.

Notorious Pink forged to the front passing the half and sped clear of her rivals to click a 1:49.1 mile in the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth split for 3-year-old pacing fillies. Todd McCarthy sat in the sulky behind the Captaintreacherous filly for trainer Tony Alagna, who co-owns the filly through Alagna & Grant Stable along with Big Als Stables, Riverview Racing and Fodera & Head Stable.

Racing resumes at The Red Mile on Sunday (Aug. 15) with the second preliminary of the Kentucky Championship Series for trotting freshmen. First-race post time is 1 p.m. (EDT).

Toes In The Water and Moved Bythe Sprit make it three in a row in BSS

The Buckeye Stallion Series (BSS) took center stage at the Champaign County Fairgrounds in Urbana, OH on Tuesday (Aug. 10) with 14 BSS races on the card.

Two-year-old filly trotter Toes In The Water made it three-for-three in the series as Ryan Stahl rallied the daughter of Long Tom down the stretch to win by a head for trainer Tye Loy. Toes In The Water is perfect in her four lifetime starts.

Moved Bythe Spirit also remained perfect in the Buckeye Stallion Series. The Timothy Lane trainee was parked two wide, five lengths back at the three quarter pole, when Jeremey Smith hustled the son of Western Vintage to the lead at the top of the stretch and won by a length. Moved Bythe Spirit has three wins and a pair of seconds in five starts this year.

The other 12 BSS races all had first time winners in the series.

Oftom (Long Tom), Purple Aura (Creatine), and Miss Cowboy Star (Long Tom) were winners in the filly trot.

The 2-year-old colt trot saw Stay Tuned (What The Hill), Wishing Max (Wishing Stone), Rose Run Xalted (Triumphant Caviar), and A Handsome Face (Dejambro) were winners for the first time in the Buckeye Stallion Series.

The Mad King (Fear The Dragon), Western Depth (Western Vintage), Gratified (Domethatagain), Xenia (Racing Hill), and Self Made (Fear The Dragon) collected their first wins in the 2-year-old colt pace.

Buckeye Stallion Series action continues Wednesday night, August 11, at Eldorado Scioto Downs for the Frank Fraas / OHHA

NYSS at Vernon on Saturday

Vernon Downs welcomes two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for sophomore pacing fillies on Saturday (Aug. 14).

Heart Of Mine (Scott Zeron) will be the huge favorite in the $55,000 first division of the NYSS. Linda Toscano trains the filly by Roll With Joe. She has won eight of her nine starts in 2021 including NYSS wins at Batavia, Yonkers, Buffalo, and Saratoga. She has earnings of nearly $177,000 this season and over $300,000 in her career.

Her chief rival appears to be the John McDermott trained Think Of Galaxies (Mark MacDonald). The filly by So Soreal has two wins this season and four career victories.

Test of Faith (David Miller) should be the one to beat in the $56,000 second division of the NYSS. The Brett Pelling filly by Art Major has had a brilliant career so far. She is five for six this season and 13 for 15 in her career. Her five wins this season include the $150,000 Park MGM Pace at Yonkers. She has won almost $180,000 this year. She has amassed over $679,000 in her career.

The second morning line choice is the Tom Fanning trained Summer Rae (Jason Bartlett). The filly by Roll With Joe has NYSS wins at Batavia and Buffalo. She has three total wins this season and five career victories.

The 12-race card starts at 6:10 p.m.

For more information go to www.vernondowns.com.

Keg Stand hopes to turn today's PASS field upside down

In tipling circles, a "keg stand" is a party stunt wherein a reveler performs a handstand atop a keg and sloshes down beer for as long as possible. The equine Keg Stand hasn't done that, exactly, but he's been turning fields upside down as he develops into a top freshman trotter.

He'll try it again today (Aug. 13) at The Meadows in a $156,720 Pennsylvania Sires Stake. Keg Stand leaves from post 5, race 10, with Dexter Dunn piloting for trainer Nancy Takter and owners Black Horse Racing, Christina Takter and John Fielding. The card also features a $40,000 PA Stallion Series event for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters. First post is 12:45 p.m.

When Takter went yearling shopping last year, she was looking specifically for offspring of Bar Hopping, who was trained by her father, Jimmy Takter. She liked many things about Keg Stand, who's out of the Angus Hall mare Palm Beach Bi, but the price — a moderate $30,000 — was the clincher. Takter says she changed the colt's name from Dali Bi because, by Bar Hopping, "He needed a drinking name."

"He was physically immature at sale, but he's grown into the most beautiful horse," Takter said. "He's still developing, but he has the attitude. He gives you his best effort every time — that speaks volumes."

His most recent start may have been his best yet. The colt, who is dually eligible in Pennsylvania and Kentucky, led every step in a sparkling 1:53.3 waltz in the Kentucky Championship Series. He's now won three of five outings and banked $86,276.

Keg Stand's principal competition may come from Global Pandemic (post 2, Yannick Gingras) and Kosher Mahoney (post 4, Andrew McCarthy), who have the look of top youngsters themselves. But when Keg Stand and Global Pandemic squared off in a July 14 PASS, Keg Stand quarter-poled past his rival and vanquished him by 1/2 length.

Takter indicates Keg Stand will continue to compete in Pennsylvania and Kentucky sires stakes, ideally earning a spot in each of the $250,000 championships. After that, he's paid into Grand Circuit action at the Red Mile, the Breeders Crown and the Valley Victory.

"I think he belongs in the upper group of his class," Takter said. "He's always happy. He's the happiest horse I have in my barn."

Guzzling beer while upside down will do that for you.

Allisonann Hanover looking for second Grassroots win Saturday

Ontario's talented 2-year-old trotting fillies are headed to Hanover Raceway on Saturday (Aug. 14) for the third Ontario Sires Stakes (OSSO Grassroots Leg of their campaign and trainer Mark Etsell is hoping Allisonann Hanover can pick up her second straight win in the last $21,450 division.

With Bob McClure in the race bike Allisonann Hanover was a 1:59.4 winner at Georgian Downs on Aug. 3, delivering an off-the-pace effort that impressed Etsell and his co-owners Graham Hopkins of Chesley, Chuan Tan of Cambridge and Peter Porter of Port Dover, ON.

"That was a good mile and she did it right, come home in 29 seconds, so we were good with that," said former Hanover, ON resident Etsell. "She's a big filly; I think she'll be that much better next year. She's good gaited and honest, and doesn't mind her work."

Allisonann Hanover started her Ontario Sires Stakes career at the Gold Series level and finished seventh in the July 6 season opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park. Her stablemate Adare Castle has been a star in the top class, winning both of her Gold Series starts, so Etsell opted to move Allisonann Hanover down to the Grassroots for the second leg. The Rockwood, ON resident schooled both fillies over the Grand River Raceway half-mile before the July 28 Gold Series event, and said Allisonann Hanover handled the smaller oval with ease.

"She's pretty good around a half. She skated around Grand River when we schooled them (July 21), but the other filly went by her so fast, that's why I didn't put her in the Gold," said Etsell. "She's a big, growthy filly that does everything right. She has speed, she just has to get stronger. She has all the parts there, she just has to fill in."

Etsell will steer the filly from Post 5 in the fourth Grassroots division on Saturday and said the daughter of Archangel should appreciate starting near the middle of the seven-filly field.

"Two-year-old trotters, you don't want to be inside too much, there's too much confusion for them sometimes," said Etsell. "You hit that first turn at least you can be wide if you have to be, you can square the turn up a little better, so I think it's a good spot to be, five. But it's two-year-old racing and anything can happen."

If all goes well for Allisonann Hanover on Saturday and the filly remains happy and healthy through the following week she is expected to return to Hanover for the Balanced Image eliminations on Aug. 21. Hanover Raceway's signature event for Ontario Sired two-year-old trotters, the $40,000 Balanced Image Final goes postward on Aug. 28.

"That's the plan," said Etsell, who offered up $85,000 for the filly at last fall's Black Book Yearling Sale. "A lot can happen between now and then, but it's on the radar because there won't be much for her before September."

Following Saturday's event the 2-year-old trotting fillies will not return to Grassroots action until Sept. 13 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. They finish up the regular season on Sept. 21 at Flamboro Downs and then the top 20 point earners will return to Woodbine Mohawk Park for their $20,000 Semi-Finals on Sept. 30, with the $50,000 Grassroots Championship slated for Oct. 9. Allisonann Hanover is currently tied for fourth in the point race.

Post time for Hanover Raceway's Saturday afternoon program is 1:30 p.m. and the 2-year-old trotting fillies will be spotlighted in Races 3, 5, 7, and 9. Fans can register to attend in person at <https://register.hanoverraceway.com/> or download a program and watch the live stream at <https://hanoverraceway.com/racing/live-stream-racing>.

Ohio Sires Stakes highlight racing in the Buckeye State

A plethora of Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) contests are set to be contested this weekend in the Buckeye State, at both Scioto Downs and Northfield Park.

Beginning today (Aug. 13), Scioto Downs will play host to three $40,000 divisions for 2-year-old filly trotters and two $50,000 divisions for 2-year-old filly pacers. Set to return in the trotting division is Stephanie Hill, who captured Legs 1 and 2 in 2:00.4 and 1:58, respectively. Also vying is Be My Baby Now, who took Leg 2 in 1:58.2 and Blaze Of Justice who captured her second leg division in 2:00.3, as well as Caviar Roxie Due, who won both of the first two legs in 1:58.4 and 1:59.2. Leg 1 winners Martysmagicmoment (1:58.3) and Gabby's C Note (1:58.1) also return for third round action.

In the freshman filly pacing ranks both Cape Cod Hanover (1:53.3, 1:53.1) and Sea Silk (1:53.3, 1:52.2) return to battle after each captured both of the first two legs of this series. Leg 1 winner Secret Side Piece (1:53.3) and Leg 2 winner Dragon Lady (1:54) will also vie, as will Leg 1 winner Cold Hearted Gypsy (1:53.1) and Leg 2 winner Hotshot Tempstress (1:51.2).

On Saturday (Aug. 14), Northfield Park offers up three $40,000 divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts; two $50,000 divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts; and two $50,000 divisions for 3-year-old trotting colts.

Leg 1 winners Chulo (1:58.3) and Go Long (1:58.1), along with Leg 2 winner Slim Jimmy (1:56.1) return to battle in the freshman trotting divisions. Sling Shock, who captured Legs 1 and 2 in 1:52 and 1:53.2 returns in the freshmen pacing ranks, along with Leg 2 winner Buckeye Seaside (1:52).

Among the 3-year-old trotting colts, the undefeated Winning Ticket returns to keep his crown intact. He's scored in 1:55.3; 1:54; and 1:53.1 in OSS competition thus far this season. Peter's Royalty, who captured Leg 3 in 1:56.2 also returns, as well as Panzano, who took Leg 2 in 1:55.3.
