Sippinonsearoc

becomes sport's fastest 2-year-old pacer with 1:48.2 mile

Karl also won in his first start since winning the Hambletonian.

Sippinonsearoc (with caretaker Kim Hines) stands beside the teletimer on Tuesday at The Red Mile after setting the fastest 2-year-old mile in history.

Kentucky

Sippinonsearoc became the fastest 2-year-old pacer in history and Hambletonian champion Karl made a winning return to the races as The Red Mile played host to second-round action in the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series on Tuesday (Aug. 13).

Sippinonsearoc won the $80,000 second leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series for freshman male pacers in a world record 1:48.2 with Yannick Gingras in the sulky.

The previous record of 1:48.3 was shared by three horses, all also driven by Gingras at The Red Mile. Warrawee Ubeaut, a filly, established the mark in 2018. It was equaled by males Elver Hanover in 2019 and Caviart Camden in 2021.

Sippinonsearoc took the lead coming out of the first turn and set fractions of :27.1, :54.4, and 1:21.2 on his way to victory by three lengths over Fallout. Blue Onyx was third. Sippinonsearoc is undefeated in four races this season.

The Ron Burke-trained son of Downbytheseaside—Queen Ann M is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, R A S Racing, and Knox Services Inc. The colt was bred by Trent Stohler Stable and Alesha Binkley. He sold for $77,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Sippinonsearoc (Yannick Gingras) set the world record while winning the $80,000 second leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series for freshman male pacers.

Karl won the $80,000 KYSS Championship Series leg for 3-year-old male trotters by 1¾ lengths over Secret Agent Man in 1:51.1. Dame Good Time finished third.

It was Karl's first appearance since his victory in the $1 million Hambletonian on Aug. 3 at The Meadowlands.

Piloted by regular driver Gingras, Karl went to the front from fourth after Ways N Means took the field to the opening quarter in :27.2. From there, Karl reached the half in :55.4 and three-quarters in 1:24.4 on his way to his seventh win in eight races this season.

Karl is trained by Nancy Takter, who owns the colt with her mother, Christina, as well as Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing, and Bender Sweden. The son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious was bred by Crawford Farms.

For his career, Karl has won 16 of 18 races and earned $1.83 million.

Feeling Olympic towards harness racing

What if there was a truly international racing event that pitted the best standardbreds from different countries against each other every few years in a variety of gaits and ages for both genders?

by Brett Sturman

With the conclusion of this year's Summer Olympics, and the spirit that world competition in any sport brings out, I wondered what harness racing on a true international stage could look like. Short of resurrecting the now built-over Hollywood Park as a racing strip for the 2028 summer games in Los Angeles, could there be a viable way to form international harness racing competition on something less than the Olympic stage?

The closest multi-day event existing today that comes to mind is the World Driving Championship (WDC) held every two years, most recently in Germany, The Netherlands and Belgium in 2023. But the WDC is a competition to determine the best driver, not the best horses. Nothing against driver challenges either abroad or here in the U.S., but these challenges have the feel of an exhibition and whoever wins are often a function of the quality of horses that were driven.

What about a competition based on the actual horses?

The Yonkers International Trot, re-established in 2015 after a hiatus for 20 years, is successful in bringing together top trotters from around the world for a single race each year. Winners of the race in recent years have come out of the U.S., Norway, Italy and Sweden. I know there's an incredible amount of logistics needed just to make this single race happen, but technicalities aside, could the model be replicated to bring in horses across other gaits and divisions?

What's being described is essentially what the Breeders' Cup World Championships in thoroughbred racing achieves. Unlike harness racing's Breeders Crown where, if we're lucky, we will have a special European entry or two, max, the thoroughbred championships have a true international flair. It's always fascinating to see how the races play out when horses from worlds apart face each other.

I think something similar in harness racing would have tremendous appeal. This type of enthusiasm for competition that includes international entries can be seen each year in

The closest multi-day event existing today that comes to mind is the World Driving Championship (WDC) held every two years... But the WDC is a competition to determine the best driver, not the best horses. Nothing against driver challenges either abroad or here in the U.S., but these challenges have the feel of an exhibition and whoever wins are often a function of the quality of horses that were driven.

Sweden's Elitloppet. Also, in a more distant, one-off example, international competition in the March of Dimes Trot led to that race going down in harness history lore.

In a modern scenario, perhaps the best way to structure such a competition would be to mirror what golf does in the Ryder Cup. That event pits the U.S. against Europe, what harness racing could do is team up U.S. and Canada to take on the rest of the world. This way, countries with much smaller horse populations that still have a star such as the Irish-bred Oakwood Ardan IR, would still have representation.

Similarly, horses already racing in the U.S. would race and represent a team based on their origin of foal. Jiggy Jog S, for example, has been dominating in the mare trotting ranks for a couple of years now. She'd race as part of the world team having been foaled in Sweden. Imagine all of these Swedish-bred trotters trained by Svanstedt combined with the best France and Italy have to offer going against the best domestically that Takter and Burke and others campaign.

Again, understanding the logistical complexities, maybe it's something that comes together just every two years like the WDC, or even every four years such as the Olympics. And, more so than the WDC or even the Olympics, there could be lasting implications for whichever horses perform best in these races. As breeding becomes more globalized, the races could serve as true "sire making" events. There could be worldwide commercial appeal from a breeding standpoint for horses that prove better than not only their local rivals but also against their international counterparts.

To even qualify for these “Olympics” would be events in themselves. Already conducted stakes events throughout the span of a year could also serve to accumulate qualifying points towards the international competition. From a fan standpoint, seeing horses race to advance to even higher-quality racing has more appeal than seeing them race in some lesser enthusiastic stakes purely for large purses with little handle.

To even qualify for these “Olympics” would be events in themselves. Already conducted stakes events throughout the span of a year could also serve to accumulate qualifying points towards the international competition. From a fan standpoint, seeing horses race to advance to even higher-quality racing has more appeal than seeing them race in some lesser enthusiastic stakes purely for large purses with little handle.

It’s an interesting dynamic because while harness racing has far less appeal to the general population in the U.S., that is not the case at all abroad where there is mass appeal, and the races are well supported. At the same time, however, the breed here in North America has never been faster. Could the buzz created by co-mingling all the racing interests from around the world spill over and inject broader public interest to racing here?

Ultimately, the competition would seek to answer the question of which country has the best horses. Would European trotters prove superior when going head-to-head against American-bred ones? With similar breeding but different training methods, would North American pacers beat the best that Australia and New Zealand have to offer? Would there be differences in performance across 3-year-olds and older horses, between colts and fillies? It would be extremely compelling to find out.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

In good times and bad, Amanda Blackford finds stability in her horses

by Chris Lomon

Whenever the pacers and trotters step onto the track, each one is a mirror image of the resilient, hopeful, and hard-working horsewoman who proudly watches over them.

The result of the fifth race at Ocean Downs on July 3 might just be the perfect example of what an Amanda Blackford trainee is.

R Hot Toddy, a well-travelled bay trotter, has encountered his share of highs and lows, along with every in between, over his time on the racetrack.

Win streaks, losing streaks, open-length victories, tough losses – the son of Muscle Mass has experienced it all.

On that early July evening in Maryland, R Hot Toddy found a way to come out on top against his six rivals, finding the wire a neck in front of the 3-5 favorite.

“He persevered in a tough moment,” Blackford said.

Just like his trainer.

“We all go through tough moments in our lives or in our careers, but you always find a way to rise above those challenges and carry on,” she said.

Blackford would come to know that later in life.

Born in Port St. Lucie, FL, she had an early connection with horses, one that came through familial ties.

“My grandfather was big into the business, and he was the one who got me into it when I was a little girl,” she said. “He would do the fairs in upstate New York, and I would go and help him with the horses.”

In 2017, at the age of 15, Blackford attended the Harness Horse Youth Foundation Camp, sponsored by the Pennsylvania Harness Horsemen’s Association, at Pocono Downs.

A highlight came in the final of the day’s three racing exhibitions when she drove her horse to victory accompanied by professional driver Jim Marohn, Jr.

Blackford went on to work in a few barns in the eastern U.S. before making a career move outside of the industry.

“ Long term, if there was ever a time where I had my own big stable, I would love, more than anything, to break babies. I adore the older horses, but the idea of breaking babies and teaching them how to do it all is something I would love.”

~ Amanda Blackford

“I have been around horses my whole life and I worked for a few guys before I went to work at a hardware store,” Blackford said. “There were both good and bad experiences in racing, but I wanted to change things up a little bit, so I tried something else.”

In her spare time, Blackford was at the racetrack, specifically, Ocean Downs, where she could maintain her connection to the horses.

“I was doing catch-paddocking for a few people, and I ended up doing one for Gary Crescenze of Northern Creek Farms,” she said.

Little did Blackford know then that it would lead her back to the racing world.

She considered a job offer from Crescenze and his wife Tammy that night, but politely turned it down.

“He told me that if I was looking for a job, he was always looking for help,” Blackford said. “At that time, I told him probably not because I had just received a promotion.”

Two months later, Blackford, during one of her shifts at the hardware store, picked up the phone.

“One day, I just realized, ‘This is not me at all,’” she said. “I called Gary and said, ‘About that job...’ I knew I had to leave and go back to the horses.”

And so, she did, in the midst of personal turmoil and tragedy.

Just over a year ago, Blackford’s mother passed away after a long illness.

The two, who had lived in Florida, moved to Maryland where they moved in with Blackford’s grandfather, Robert Smith, his wife Valerie, and her aunt and uncle, Stephanie and Lou DuBrel.

Blackford, who had moved out of the home in 2023, was given the news that a fire had burned it down. Three dogs and seven cats died in the blaze, and the DuBrels lost all their possessions.

“It was a tough time, not only for me, but for so many others,” she said.

Through it all, the young horsewoman drew strength from familiar faces.

“The last couple years, my family and Gary and Tammy, who are like a second family to me, have supported me,” Blackford said. “My boyfriend, Austin, isn’t big into racing, but he has come to like it.”

In the times when she felt at a loss for words, it was the horses who spoke to her.

“Regardless of the day you have, at the end of it, the horses give you that consistency,” she said. “They will always be there for you. They don’t judge, they don’t get affected by any of the noise – they need you to take care of them. They are a foundation for me.”

Blackford, who sent out four starters in 2022, won three races, including her first as a trainer, the following year.

The milestone score came on Jan. 26 with the pacer John Mac.

In rein to Russell Foster, the chestnut gelding was the 4-1 third choice in the race with a $7,500 purse.

“John Mac wasn’t a killer by any means, but we were happy to have him in our barn,” said Blackford. “We only had that one win with him, but he picked up checks.

“He was what he was, but that night – he had the 7-hole – he just blasted out of there and raced the first quarter in :26 and a piece. I remember seeing that first quarter and saying, ‘Oh, man. This isn’t going to end well.’”

But it would.

“He held on that day at Rosecroft,” she said. “I was grinning from ear-to-ear going to the winner’s circle. I rode that high for a couple of days. I didn’t lose that feeling for a while.”

Blackford has enjoyed a fruitful 2024, a year in which she has already eclipsed numerous notable personal-best marks.

Just like the start of her first training win, the year didn’t begin in grand fashion.

“Earlier on, we had three or four horses in our barn when we thought we would have seven racing,” she said. “They were training well, jogging well and come race time, they were dropping like flies. We got scared there for a little bit. We thought we were headed for a pretty bad year.”

Blackford is happy to have been wrong in her assessment.

“Definitely,” she said. “Things have been great this season so far.”

Currently, she has five horses in her care, a group that includes trotter R Hot Toddy.

“R Hot Toddy has done so well,” she said, of the 5-year-old bay owned by Gary Crescenze and his wife Tammy. “He came down from Canada. He didn’t race at 2 and raced a little bit at 3. We got him last year at 4. He is a big, strong, good-looking trotter. It wasn’t one thing that helped him, he just learned how to trot. He grinds it out every week and tries. It’s nice to send him out there. You know he will give everything he has even if he doesn’t pick up a check.”

Exactly like the woman who unabashedly dotes on her horses, at the racetrack or at home.

When she is tending to her handful of standardbreds, she can be found astride one of her riding horses or spending time with her four dogs.

Wherever Blackford happens to find herself, she is reminded that her life and career, despite all its unknowns, are in a very good place.

Yes, bad days included.

“In the short-term for my training, it’s continuing to work with these horses,” she said. “We are ready to bring another one down from Canada. I have learned a lot about patience this year, which has helped me so much.

“Long term, if there was ever a time where I had my own big stable, I would love, more than anything, to break babies. I adore the older horses, but the idea of breaking babies and teaching them how to do it all is something I would love.”

And whether it happens to be her current stable or those to come down the line, each horse will, at some point, take on the character of their trainer.

“We just want to keep them healthy, happy and competitive,” said Blackford. “They work hard, so it is always nice when you give them some time off at some point to enjoy life.”

Those moments will surely come later in the year for Blackford.

And when they do, the resilient horsewoman can reflect on the not-so-easy path that led her back to the industry she has long admired.

“You can’t walk away from it,” she said. “But that isn’t a bad thing. Actually, it’s a wonderful thing.”

Affections for adventures in harness racing winterlands

by Frank Colto

A kaleidoscope of reasons only a panel of Freuds would dare attempt to analyze might approach an explanation as to why I developed a penchant for French Canadian harness racing. A kid raised in the concrete jungle of Brooklyn, NY, in the 1950s and '60s, was not a likely candidate for such a fondness. Yet, here I am smitten with nostalgia for it.

I have some theories; but first I bring to your attention how it embraced my attention.

Evenings for horseplayers belonged to harness racing after a swarm of Off-Track Betting shops opened in all five boroughs of New York City. Race programs from Yonkers or Roosevelt meets sold at newsstands like pizza slices. And there was more to read; also popular for past performances and expert picks was Sports Eye. I read both but more often I bought the official programs.

This was before I ever visited any racetrack. I was in high school and then college while working for a rock band; I had a girlfriend across town and lived with my parents. I spent countless hours in subway cars reading Henry Miller and Thomas Hardy and Mario Puzo and Blackhawk comic books. And in those harness programs I became especially attracted to harness driver names unfamiliar to a Brooklyn tongue from a neighborhood of Italian and Jewish surnames.

Like Herve Filion. A harness driver with a surname that sounded like a French swordsman. And there were other Filions; Henri and Yves, first names never heard in choose-up softball games at Gravesend Park. The programs were robust with such given names. Lucien (Fontaine). Norman (Dauplaise). Real (Cormier)? Really?

"They're Canadians," an OTB friend told me. "From the French side of the country. Kwahbeck [sic]."

Brooklyn winters during the 1960s and '70s expressed just one strong French-Canadian sports activity: Hockey. Teenaged male fans adapted the sport in an urban landscape. Instead of playing on an ice rink they played on city streets. They wore all the gear and watched the pro-hockey league's season. They admired hockey stars with names like Jacques Laperriere, Jean Beliveau, Bobby Rousseau and Bernie Geoffrion in magazines dedicated to the league.

I got into the mix with skates and gloves and knee guards and a protective cup. I needed the cup more than any other accessory because kids learned to lift pucks at speeds easily able to cripple. Street hockey was also popular because it allowed for violence. There is an old joke: "A few guys got into a fight so bad that it broke into a hockey game."

Winter was always associated with hockey's home country north of America. Many U.S. action shows took place in wintry Canada. In the late '50s and early '60s the War Babies generation grew up watching the hit series "Sargeant Preston Of The Yukon." It created tropes: Canadian Mounties driving husky-pulled sleds. It was filmed in America but took place in the cold and cruel Canadian landscape.

Other than TV shows and hockey I was reading literature by Canadian poet Robert Service; known as the Bard of the Yukon. I learned about him after seeing cartoon parodies of his roughshod Sam Magee poems.

Speaking of cartoons, I am a sucker for comedies set in winter conditions. The Hope-Crosby "Road To Utopia" played upon my tawdry drives for escapades in the frost-biting atmosphere of The Yukon. The variety of such material added to an already bloated version of masculinity owned by the era and embedded in melting-pot Brooklyn.

Brooklyn in summer – during school hiatus – was literally a melting pot. It boiled indoors and out. Movie theaters hanged signs that read: "COME IN - IT'S COOL INSIDE" and people paid the admission with no regard to what movies were playing. Lower-middle class neighborhood residents growled in oppressive heat. But winter? It made us feel alive. Robert Service said it best: It's the fingers that freeze / In the boreal breeze / It's the cold, cold, cold.

Screw summer! Bring on the bruising street hockey games and the tooth-cracking ice battles from Yvan Cournoyer and his Montreal Canadiens at Madison Square Garden. See your breath make shapes of your words as you scream for Lucian Fontaine's pacer going three-wide to beat Herve Filion's charge around the last steep turn at Roosevelt Raceway in bitter cold and sometimes while sheets of snow piled upon the limestone. Norman Dauplaise and Rejean Daignault and Jacques Dupuis and John Chapman also drove nightly.

Decades later I was in Los Angeles, where the winter temperatures paled by comparison to the northeast and northwest on either side of the border. But there were many chilly evenings at Hollywood Park (HP) where Canadian harness drivers thundered around the two-turn mile; some French Canadian and others from the brittle northwest. I saw John Campbell race first at HP before he went east. And I met my all-time favourite [sic] - Shelly Goudreau.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Early speed dominates in Buckeye Stallion Series

by Ashley Dailey / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

The fourth leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for sophomore colt trotters saw early speed dominate the fields on Sunday (Aug. 11) at MGM Northfield Park. Three divisions, each carrying a purse of $20,000, went behind the gate.

Beueastel won the first division in 1:55.2. Driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., the gelded son of What The Hill went three-wide to gain control of the field. Once on top, Beueastel coasted through fractions in :28.1, :57, and 1:26.1 before tripping the wire with lengths to spare. The Melanie Wrenn trainee has won half of his 10 seasonal starts and put $113,725 lifetime in the bank for Wrenn Racing.

His Glory (Aaron Merriman) was second and Prince Charmer (Anthony MacDonald) finished third.

Irresistible Son took the second division in true wire-to-wire fashion in 1:56.1. With no challengers, MacDonald eased the Triumphant Caviar gelding past quarters in :29, :59, and 1:27.2. The victory marked the second win of the series for Irresistible Son. The sophomore has hit the board eight of 10 starts this season, bankrolling $107,918 lifetime. Jason McGinnis conditions for Thestable Irresistible Son and Hutchison Harness.

Sir Maverick (Wrenn) finished second with Gabbys Rockytop (Merriman) third.

The final division was won by Gypsy Hill in 1:56.3. MacDonald waited just long enough for the dust to settle before urging Gypsy Hill off the rail. The gelded son of What The Hill was first-up as they passed the :28.2 opening quarter. Gypsy Hill pushed on and set remaining fractions in :57.4 and 1:27.1 before winning by three lengths. The sophomore has won five of 11 this season, including three BSS legs. Trained by McGinnis, the trotter has $116,427 in lifetime earnings for Thestable Gypsy Hill Grp and Hutchison Harness.

Commander Tom (Hunter Myers) was second while Sup (Tyler Angus) rounded out the trifecta.

The Buckeye Stallion Series resumes today (Aug. 14) at MGM Northfield Park when 2-year-old pacing fillies take the track. First race post is 6 p.m.

SIRES CATCH THE FIRE, BIT OF A LEGEND N HIGHLIGHT OHSS

On a night that featured some of Ohio's greatest stars in the Tom Aldrich President's Trot and Myron Charna President's Pace, Catch The Fire and Bit Of A Legend N shined in Ohio Sires Stakes action for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers on Saturday (Aug. 10) at MGM Northfield Park.

In the first of two $65,000 divisions, My First Fire (Austin Hanners) waited out a lengthy inquiry to win by a neck. The son of Catch The Fire, was parked to the opening quarter, working hard to get around Extra Suds (Brett Miller) for the lead, with the pair arriving at the quarter in :28.

Hanners was able to get a second quarter breather, getting to the half in :57.3. My First Fire tried to create some separation and at three-quarters in 1:25.4 was home free, but Extra Suds found a little more in the tank, but ran out of racetrack, with My First Fire winning in 1:54.1. Whatchagonnado (Aaron Merriman) was third.

It was the third win of the year for the Todd Luther trainee, who is owned by Greg Luther Racing LLC.

In the second $65,000 division, heavy favorite Rick Wink (David Miller) made short work of the field, making the lead and never looking back, winning by 2½ lengths in 1:51.4 over Twin B High Tide (Austin Hanners).

House Of Brix (Trevor Smith) rallied three-wide late to be third.

Owned by Burke Racing Stable, R A S Racing, Knox Services, J&T Silva Purnell and Libby, the 2-year-old out dam Mcgrin N Mcbare It made it five-for-five in his career.

Dublin Dasher crushes in Maryland stakes

by Ocean Downs racing publicity

Pocono invader Dublin Dasher scored his third win in five starts as a sophomore on Sunday night (Aug. 11), posting a 3½-length score over Maryland Sire Stakes champion Tony Babe in the lone $49,090 Maryland Standardbred Race Fund event for 3-year-old male pacers at Ocean Downs.

Tony Morgan sat off the pace with Dublin Dasher while Tony Babe (driven by Jonathan Roberts) and Better Dig Two (Jared Moyer) duelled through a :28 first quarter, but then the pair surged from fifth to take the lead just before a :57.1 half. Once in front, the Always B Miki – DB Blue Chip gelding was never in doubt, edging clear of Tony Babe through the stretch for a facile 1:55.4 score. Petes For Real (Trae Porter) rallied mildly to nab Better Dig Two for third.

Hunter Oaks trains Dublin Dasher, a six-time winner in 13 starts who paid $2.10 to win, for Alan Johnston and H O Racing Inc.

Geralds A Keeper ($4.60) took top billing in the Maryland Standardbred Race Fund events for 3-year-old male trotters, coasting to his sixth consecutive win in his $24,600 division and evading pocket rival Ronnie Ridge by 1¾ lengths in 1:57.4. Trae Porter drove the Lockkeeper – Brilliance Hanover gelding for trainer John Wagner and owner Kelsey Wagner. The other split saw Scott Woogen homebred K J Pro ($8.20) and driver Eric Davis sustain a fourth-to-first brush through the second lap and upend even-money pacesetter Daddy Wags by two lengths in 1:59.1. B. Michael Moffitt trains the Muscle Massive – Progressive Caviar gelding.

Morgan, Hugh O'Neill and Jason Thompson all recorded driving doubles on the 12-race card.

Live racing returns to Ocean Downs tonight (Aug. 14); first post is 7:05 p.m.

Fly By and Sir Pinocchio get NYSS wins at Tioga

by John Horne / Tioga Downs

Tioga Downs played host to a couple of $57,000 divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Sunday (Aug. 11).

Fly By (Jason Bartlett) cruised to easy win in the first division.

Mister Melby (Tyler Buter) was first to the quarter in :27.4. Fly By ($3.50) took over with a lap to go and led to the half in :56. Thinker Monkey (Mark MacDonald) was first to make a move first-up heading down the backstretch. Fly By was first to three-quarters in 1:24.4.

As they reached the stretch, Fly By had plenty in the tank to win easily in a lifetime best of 1:53.3. Mister Melby was second. Nottingham (Braxten Boyd) finished third.

Fly By is a colt by Chapter Seven and is trained by Tony Alagna for owners Marvin Katz, Al Libfeld, and Pryde Stables.

Sir Pinocchio (Bartlett) captured the second division.

Sir Pinocchio ($3.50) got the early lead but Wild Ticket (Jim Marohn, Jr.) took control just before hitting the quarter first in :27. Wild Ticket was first to the half in :55.4 as well as to three-quarters in 1:24.

As they entered the stretch Sir Pinocchio popped the pocket and blew right on by second-place finisher Wild Ticket to win in a lifetime best of 1:52.1. Keep Asking (Tyler Buter) finished third.

Sir Pinocchio is a gelding by Met's Hall and is owned by Carolyn Atherton and trained by Ed Hart. It was his sixth win of the season and he now owns eight career victories.

Jason Bartlett drove five winners on the afternoon. Besides sweeping the NYSS races he got wins with The Good Doctor, Portugal The Man and It Wasnt Me.

Live racing returns to Tioga Downs with a special matinee on Thursday (Aug. 15) at 12:15 p.m. There will be no racing on Friday (Aug. 16).

Buter-Cullipher-Pollack sweep Pocono Sire Stakes

by PHHA / Pocono

Driver Tyler Buter, trainer Jeff Cullipher, and co-owner (with Cullipher) Pollack Racing LLC combined to sweep the two $79,569 divisions of the third preliminary of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 2-year-old trotting colts, held Sunday evening (Aug. 11) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania.

In both cases the winners were breaking their maidens as well. The faster was the Bar Hopping—Expect A Lot colt Elan Hanover, second and third in the previous PASS legs and here making his breakthrough in 1:54.4. Elan Hanover benefited from boiling early contention for the lead while he sat fourth, then followed favored Meshuggah out nearing the three-quarters and circled wide in the lane to run down that one by a neck.

Team Buter / Cullipher / Pollack also prevailed in the other Sires cut with Father TJ, a Father Patrick—Dip Me Hanover colt who stopped the timer in 1:55.3. Father TJ brushed to the lead in front of the grandstand and got a breather to the midway point, then shifted to a faster gear to keep out the brushing favorite Portobarosso AS NL, finally turning back that one and then defeating Dive Bar Hanover by 1¼ lengths while stepping his last half in a notable :56.1 for baby trotters.

Fashion Green, who won in his starts in the first two PASS legs, was not entered Sunday, but he remains the only double winner in the Sire Stakes group.

The International Moni—Shared Past gelding Scudo Hanover is perfect in his three Stallion Series events as he took one of five $20,000 divisions of that grouping in 1:58.3 – ironically the slowest time in his grouping. Keystone Stable owns the winner, who tallied for the team of trainer Syl King, Jr. and driver Braxten Boyd – this is the horse with whom the 24-year-old Boyd got his 1,000th winner.

Sire Bar Hopping, who fathered a Sire Stakes winner, got two credits in the StS competition, including a win with Hey Porter (dam Chelseas A Winner) in 1:57.2, giving that one-two wins in the Stallion Series. Buter handled this colt (the only colt among the five StS winners) between his Sire Stakes wins, and got him home in a nifty :27.4 to win for trainer Tony Alagna and owner Steve Stewart. The other Bar Hopping winner was Gimlet Hanover (dam Ginger Tree Bren), who posted a race record of 1:57.2 for driver Jim Marohn, Jr. and trainer/owner D.R. Ackerman.

Fastest of the Stallion Series success stories was Lefties Righties (Greenshoe—Swizzle Sticks), who started his career with two overnight wins, then here dropped from the Sire Stakes level and promptly took a new mark of 1:57 for driver Victor Kirby and trainer Chuck Sylvester, the latter a co-owner with Charles Stansley, Lenavitt Investments LLC, and John Licausi. Also winning in the StS was Bell Hall (Cantab Hall—Eight Bells), who after twin seconds in the StS earlier broke his maiden in 1:58.1 for driver/trainer Wilbur Yoder and owner Joe Nesselroad.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

R Liza, Willys Home Run reign again in OSS Gold

by Standardbred Canada

Two $95,000 divisions of the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series were contested on Monday (Aug. 12) evening at Grand River Raceway as the fourth leg with victories captured by top fillies R Liza and Willys Home Run.

R Liza won half of her eight starts as a freshman, producing over $100,000 in earnings to make her a top contending filly; however, the Muscle Mass—Wishimaywishimight has more than doubled her performance level in her young sophomore campaign. On Monday, she won her fifth race in six starts this year, this time in the first OSS Gold split of the evening.

Jody Jamieson and R Liza left from post 5, took the lead, and never faced an obstacle besides the timer throughout the mile. She handled the clocking in :28, :57.2, and 1:26.1 before cruising to a comfortable two length win in 1:54.2. Valentine Bluechip (Doug McNair) finished second and P L Rainbow Dash (Bob McClure) completed the triactor.

M And L Of Delaware LLC and Alabama Harness Associate co-own the superstar filly trained by Susanne Kerwood. In here career to date, R Liza has produced a record of 9-2-0 in 14 starts with $415,107 banked. She went to the gate as the favorite and paid $3.70 to win.

Coming off a winning qualifier last week, Willys Home Run returned to winning form once again in the second split of the OSS Gold.

Regular pilot James MacDonald took the Archangel—Rite Outa The Park sophomore filly to the gate on the rail in the field of five. Kinnder Hotblood (Matthew Bax) and Shetrotsalot (Scott Young) dueled early for contention on the lead, but the battle was swift with Kinnder Hotblood taking charge. Shetrotsalot settled for a pocket ride and Willys Home Run eased into third. After the :28.3 quarter, Valuable Miss (Trevor Henry) was the first to pull a right line and she climbed her way to the top, meeting Kinnder Hotblood at the :58.2 half. At that same moment, Willys Home Run was on the move at her heels.

The three fillies were on the path for home and after the three-quarters in 1:26.3, they spread across the track in preparation for the stretch battle. Kinnder Hotblood had the upper hand, but Willys Home Run took home the gold at the wire in 1:55.1 by a half-length. Valuable Miss was third.

Trained by Kyle Fellows, Willys Home Run is owned by Dr. Sara Gatchell, Jake Higgs, breeder Reg Higgs, and Yolanda Fellows. The win was her second in six starts this year, yielding $161,200 this year of her $685,135 career earnings. In 16 lifetime starts, the filly has returned a record of 8-6-1. She paid $2.60 to win as the bettors' choice.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Nuclear, Aperfect Annie prevail in scintillating stretch drives at The Red Mile

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

On Monday (Aug. 12) each $80,000 second leg of Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series action at The Red Mile went right down to the wire and saw last week's victors settling for second place. Nuclear defeated Better Is Nice by a nose in the division for 3-year-old male pacers while Aperfect Annie overhauled the unbeaten Yo Tillie by a neck in the division for freshman filly trotters.

Despite his triumph last week and his status as a defending Kentucky champion, Better Is Nice (Andrew McCarthy) did not go off favored in this event as that distinction went to Nuclear (Dexter Dunn).

Neither horse did their best work early as Dancin Champion (David Miller) led the field of six through fractions of :27.1, :55.3 and 1:23.3. Nuclear was pacing along in third for most of the mile with Better Is Nice right on his heels in fourth.

When it came time to turn for home, both horses kicked into gear and Nuclear was second by a nose, with Better Is Nice third by a head.

The duo battled all the way down the stretch with Nuclear prevailing by the scantest of margins in 1:50.1. It was the son of Always B Miki's second win of the season from seven starts. Copperfield (Todd McCarthy) closed to be third.

Trained by Joe Holloway, Nuclear has now banked $161,725 and has a career slate of 17 4-2-3. The gelding was sold at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale under the name Jus Wanna B Miki to Val D' Or Farms.

Nuclear was bred by Roll The Dice Stable. He is a full sibling to Cantgetuoutamymind ($159,271).

He paid $3.80 at the windows.

Aperfect Annie (T. McCarthy) used a :27.4 final quarter mile to overtake the previously perfect Yo Tillie (Verlin Yoder) to break her maiden in 1:54. Spicy Nice (A. McCarthy) was third.

Leaving from post position 8 in the field of nine, Aperfect Annie assumed command through the first quarter-mile in :28.1. Then it was Yo Tillie's turn to take the lead. She established fractions of :57.1, and 1:26 with Aperfect Annie poised to pounce in second, then third and then back to second at the top of the lane.

A resolute Yo Tillie may have felt the effects of a slightly adventurous beginning and her last panel of :28 saw her come up just a bit short of maintaining her unblemished record.

Aperfect Annie is a daughter of Googoo Gaagaa—Asixpacfromperfect and is conditioned by Carter Pinske. Her resume is 4 1-3-0 after turning the tables on her foe from the results in the first leg of this series.

The filly has now earned $95,000 for Pinske Stables, Melvin Hartman and Andray Farm. She was bred by Robert S. Detweiler and sold for $77,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Aperfect Annie is a half-sibling to Aperfectyankee (Yankee Glide, $588,369), A Perfect Gem (Yankee Glide, $192,986), and A Perfect Helen (Father Patrick, $187,530).

The filly provided her supporters with a $11.58 payout.

DEJA BLU, ATLANTA'S FIRST FOAL, BREAKS MAIDEN

When you are the offspring of two Hambletonian winners and world champions, naturally there are high expectations. It took Deja Blu (Yannick Gingras) three attempts to collect her first win, but it appears a relocation from the East Coast to the Bluegrass was the change of scenery the filly required to collect her first victory in the second $30,000 leg of the Commonwealth Series for freshman filly trotters.

Longshot Mimosatomartini S led the field of eight through the first split in :28.4 with Deja Blu in third. After the first quarter of the contest, Tim Tetrick put favored Swoop on the lead. That filly set fractions of :57.3 and 1:26.2 while Deja Blu sat the pocket. As Swoop began to tire on the way home, Deja Blu rolled by and held off the late advance of Dreams Come Easy (Ake Svanstedt) to stop the clock in 1:54.1. Swoop held for third.

Deja Blu is sired by the incomparable Muscle Hill. The filly was bred by Crawford Farms Racing, Brad Grant and Howard Taylor. She is co-owned by her breeder and Thomas Pontone.

Deja Blu paid $6.56 to win for trainer Nancy Takter.

Favored Women Layer (T. McCarthy) won the second-round leg of the $30,000 Commonwealth Series for sophomore male pacers by a neck in 1:49.3.

Moni Multiplier (T. Tetrick) took the second division for 2-year-old trotting fillies in 1:55.4, while Knghstlkr Pistol (D. Miller) captured the third division for freshman filly trotters in 1:55.

LOOKSGOODINLOULOU, DATE NIGHT HANOVER STRIDE HOME AT THE RED MILE

On Sunday (Aug. 11) the promising Looksgoodinloulou and Kentucky champion Date Night Hanover captured their respective second round legs of the $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series (KYSS) events for freshman and sophomore filly pacers and trotters at The Red Mile.

Looksgoodinloulou (Yannick Gingras) sprung a pocket trip to score over Duration (Todd McCarthy) and Champagne Room (Andrew McCarthy) in 1:50.2 to equal her lifetime mark in her second career start.

Champagne Room led the field of six through splits of :27.1 and :56.1 but Looksgoodinloulou seized the lead at the three-quarter mile marker to establish command in 1:24.3. Duration, who was sitting in third throughout the mile, came after the leader with a torrid :25.4 final panel. Looksgoodinloulou, however, paced to the wire in :25.3. Champagne Room held for third.

Looksgoodinloulou remained undefeated in her second pari-mutuel mile. The daughter of world champions Sweet Lou and Looksgoodinaromper is trained by Ron Burke.

Owned and bred by Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brusceci, Looksgoodinloulou paid $2.22 at the windows as the heavy post time favorite.

Date Night Hanover (Dexter Dunn) made her return to the Bluegrass a victorious one after breaking stride in the $525,000 Hambletonian Oaks final to set a new lifetime mark of 1:51.2 in the (KYSS) division for 3-year-old filly pacers.

While favored Allegiant (Scott Zeron) controlled the front end of the field of nine through fractions of :28.2, :56.3 and 1:24.3, Date Night Hanover sat in fifth position. The daughter of Chapter Seven—Don't Wait Up did not make her move until the fillies turned for home. That is when the filly unleashed her closing kick and laid down a :26.1 final quarter-mile to beat Allegiant home. Spy Coast (Gingras) was the best of the rest.

Bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, Date Night Hanover, was purchased by Jeffrey Snyder and Onda Farms for $600,000 at the 2022 Standardbred Horse Sale. The filly is a half sibling to Delayed Hanover (Southwind Frank, $682,917).

Trained by Marcus Melander, Date Night Hanover, is now 21 6-0-5 and has banked $471,109. The filly won the $128,000 Zweig Memorial for 3-year-old females and was third in the $125,000 Delvin Miller Memorial prior to her miscue in the Hambletonian Oaks final.

Date Night Hanover paid $4.58 to win as the public's second choice.

PISCO SOUR COLLECTS SECOND STRAIGHT WIN IN COMMONWEALTH SERIES

Pisco Sour (Tim Tetrick) scored by a neck over Butter And Syrup (Peter Wrenn) in 1:53.1 to take the $30,000 second leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 3-year-old filly trotters. Stubborn Chee (Dunn) was third.

Trained by Ake Svanstedt, the daughter of Walner—Blessed won the first leg of the series and improved her slate to 5 3-0-1 on the season. Her career record stands at 14 4-0-5 and she has earned $97,370.

Pisco Sour is owned by Jorgen Sparredal Inc. and was bred by Steve Stewart, Black Creek Farm and Harri Koskela. She was a $110,000 yearling purchase at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Pisco Sour was the post time favorite and paid $5.34 to win.

Tetrick and Svanstedt also won the second leg of the Commonwealth Series for 3-year-old trotting fillies with Star Attraction. House Of Love (Julien Dubois) was second and Santa Croce (T. McCarthy) was third.

The daughter of Chapter Seven—Selena G. competes as a homebred for Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld. She stopped the clock in a new lifetime best of 1:52.2 in her first win of the season.

Star Attraction is now 11 2-3-2 from two seasons of competition and has earned $69,933 in purse money.

She paid $10.48 to win.

Favored Rose provided Gingras and Burke a Commonwealth Series score as the daughter of Sweet Lou—Rosemary Rose improved to 4 3-1-0 with a new mark of 1:50.3 in the second $30,000 leg for 2-year-old filly pacers. Miki And Minnie (A. McCarthy) was second and Unreasonable (Zeron) was third.

Rose was bred by Burke Racing Stable, Jason Melillo and Weaver Brussemi. She is owned by her conditioner, Weaver Brussemi, Jack Piatt III and Lawrence Karr.

The filly is the first foal out of a dam that amassed $620,209 in purse money.

Rose paid to win as the favorite.

Chakra (Anibal Borjas) defeated favored Three Times Bettor (A. McCarthy) by a neck in 1:51.4 to take the second leg of the Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old filly pacers. Hip Shot (Zeron) was third.

It was the daughter of Lather Up—Holy Trinity's first victory in just her third trip to the gate. She is now 3 1-1-0 after finishing second in the first leg of this series for trainer Tony Alagna.

Chakra is owned by her conditioner and Pryde Stables. She was bred by Crawford Farms and was a $25,000 yearling purchase at the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sale under the name Vivie Magdalena.

The filly paid $19.24 to break her maiden.

Sun Stakes Saturday brings the stars to Pocono

The financial lure of $2,300,000 in purses, plus in many cases divisional bragging rights, have attracted many of harness racing's stars to Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania this Saturday afternoon (Aug. 17) for its biggest card of the year, Sun Stakes Saturday. The 14-race program, starting at 2:30 p.m., is bringing to the mountain oval many of the best horses in North American harness racing, both this year and in recent campaigns.

The major format of the day is as follows: each of the four divisions of 3-year-olds, separated by sex and gait, are seeded by their money earnings in 2024, with a maximum of eight horses per field. The two stakes for males, the Earl Beal Memorial Trot and the Max C. Hempt Memorial Pace, will race for $300,000, $200,000, and $100,000 in three races for each respective group as sorted by seasonal money winnings. The James Lynch Memorial Pace and Delmonica Hanover Trot, the companion events for fillies, have $250,000, $125,000, and $75,000 sections, also separated by 2024's earnings.

There will also be $100,000 invitationals for the top older horses on both gaits: the Always B Miki Pace and the Sebastian K S Trot, named after the co-fastest pacer and fastest trotter ever at Pocono.

Here is a brief look at the top horses in the major contests on the Sun Stakes Saturday card, per event:

EARL BEAL MEMORIAL TROT ($300,000 division race 13; $200,000 division race 9, $100,000 division race 3)

T C I, the richest 2-year-old trotter ever ($1.2M+) and a major force in the division this year, will be looking to bounce back from a fifth in the Hambletonian final, in which he was involved in a fast pace in a rainstorm and tired. The Cantab Hall colt will start from post 4 for driver David Miller and trainer Ron Burke.

Amazing Catch (post 2, driver Dexter Dunn) was third in the Hambletonian final despite post 10, and he should like the move inside for the Åke Svanstedt barn, well-represented on Sun Stakes Saturday. Sig Sauer also gets a post move inside (from 8 to 3) off an unlucky fourth in the Hambletonian final for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Noel Daley.

MAX C. HEMPT MEMORIAL PACE ($300,000 division race 12; $200,000 division race 8, $100,000 division race 4)

Probably the "hottest" horse in all of harness racing right now is the Huntsville colt Legendary Hanover, who comes to Pocono off three-straight giant victories: a 1:48.4 Meadowlands Pace elimination in which he paced his last quarter in :24.4, followed up by the two fastest miles in North American harness racing this year: a 1:46.3 open-length victory in the Meadowlands Pace final, and a 1:46.2 speed show in the Cane Pace. Owned by Eric Good, West Wins Stable, and Mark Dumain, Legendary Hanover will be starting from post 7 for trainer Anthony Beaton and driver James MacDonald.

Mirage Hanover shows an incredible last split of :24.3 in winning on June 30, but he faces a tough road from the outside post 8 for driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Jake Leamon. The 2023 divisional champion Captain Albano (post 5, driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Noel Daley) and 2023 Breeders Crown final winner Gem Quality (post 3, driver Yannick Gingras, trainer Chris Ryder) will enjoy having an inside starting advantage over the top two.

JAMES LYNCH MEMORIAL PACE ($250,000 division race 10; $125,000 division race 6, $75,000 division race 2)

Rocket Deo and My Girl EJ have developed an intense rivalry near the top of this section, and Rocket Deo has an edge Saturday as she starts from post 2 for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Brett Pelling, and owners Morrison Racing Stables and John Fielding. The daughter of Captaintreacherous comes into the Lynch off three-straight wins, including a success over My Girl EJ in a Pennsylvania Sire Stake last week.

But it would be wrong to count out the Sweet Lou filly My Girl EJ, driven by Dexter Dunn and trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC, trainer Burke, and Elizabeth Novak. She always is in the thick of the fight no matter her trip – and her trip may be her biggest worry as she starts from post 7.

DELMONICA HANOVER TROT ($250,000 division race 11; $125,000 division race 7, $75,000 division race 1)

The International Moni filly Elista Hanover, driven by David Miller and trained by Annie Stoebe who also co-owns with R. Lynn and Philomena Curry, had moved to the top of this class with 10-straight victories, but then she picked a bad race to come up dull – the Hambletonian Oaks final. She'll be looking to rebound as she begins from post position number 2.

The Hambletonian Oaks final was won by Warrawee Michelle with one steady grinding move, but the trip facing her at Pocono from post 8 for driver/trainer Åke Svanstedt figures to be difficult. Second in the Oaks was Buy a Round, and she may have a much easier go of it beginning from the rail for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Noel Daley.

ALWAYS B MIKI PACE ($100,000; race 14)

No one has jumped up and claimed leadership of this division so far in 2024; the Always B Miki may be just the springboard a contender needs to stake his credentials.

Ruthless Hanover (post 5, driver George Napolitano, Jr. for trainer Tom and owner John Cancelliere) established the all-time record for a five-eighths-mile track when he won the Auger Memorial at Philly in 1:46.3, and he has wins in 1:47.1f and 1:47.2f to his credit already. The altered son of Somebeachsomewhere missed just a length after setting a fast pace in the McKee Memorial last time out, and here returns to his favorite size of oval.

Allywag Hanover (driver Todd McCarthy, trainer Brett Pelling) is the defending Always B Miki winner, but his task is made no easier by starting from post 7. Starting from the rail will help the chances of Ken Hanover (driver David Miller, trainer Polie Mallar), who won the Hempt consolation a year ago on Sun Stakes Saturday.

SEBASTIAN K S TROT ($100,000; race 5)

If the free-for-all pacing group hasn't produced a clear favorite for "top dog" yet, the free-for-all trotting ranks have: the Walner mare Jiggy Jog S, with her $2,425,467 in lifetime earnings and undefeated three-for-three campaign this year. Her races have been spread apart for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Åke Svanstedt, also co-owner with Steve Stewart, John Lengacher, and Hickory Hollow Stables, and with her coming back after a rousing 1:49.2 win in the Cashman only two weeks ago, her current sharpness may help her overcome even post 7.

The horse starting just inside her could be her greatest obstacle: Lexus Kody (driver Yannick Gingras, trainer Ron Burke), who on Hambletonian Day, while Jiggy Jog S was winning the Cashman, took the Vincennes Trot despite a tough journey in 1:49.4.

The Sun Stakes Saturday super card will also have four guaranteed pools in multi-race bets, in conjunction with the USTA's Strategic Wagering Initiative:

- Starting in race 1 – $10,000 guaranteed pool in the Early Pick-4 wager
- Starting in race 5 – $5000 guaranteed pool in the Pick-5 wager
- Starting in race 9 – $5000 guaranteed pool in the Late Pick-3 wager
- Starting in race 10 – $15,000 guaranteed pool in the Late Pick-4 wager.

Gold Cup and Saucer trials to Fortify, Save America, and Heaven On High N

Canada's leading driver, James MacDonald, made a clean sweep of the first two Trials of the Gold Cup and Saucer Saturday evening (Aug. 10) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Gold Cup and Saucer trial 1 had Save America (driven by James MacDonald) leave sharply off the gate to claim the lead from post 5 then release Binge On Yankee (Jody Jamieson) to the front at the :27.2 opening quarter over a sloppy track rated one-second off. Save America vacated the 2-hole at the :56.4 half-mile station to take the front once again, hitting three-quarters in 1:25.2 then pacing away for a 5¾-length score in 1:52.1. Jamie Smith trains the winning pacer for owner Thestable Save America of Guelph, ON.

Bing On Yankee held second with American History (Dale Spence) finishing third. Those three will advance to the Aug. 17 Gold Cup and Saucer final, presented by Atlantic Lottery, carrying a $100,000 purse to close out Old Home Week 2024.

The fourth through sixth finishers (Bee Two Bee, PL Ozzy and One Eight Hundred) will face off again on Aug. 16 in the $30,000 James (Roach) MacGregor Gold Cup and Saucer consolation. A second consolation race, the PEIHRIA Invitational for $15,000, will be held on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 17) containing seventh, eighth and ninth place finishers Bayfield Beach, Fern Hill General and Hes Sure Good from the first trial.

The $15,000 dash in Gold Cup and Saucer trial 2 had Fortify (MacDonald) ride the pocket to a 1:52.2 score for trainer Chris MacKay and owners Daniel Gaudreault and Ecuries Macguire Inc., of Quebec. Defending Gold Cup and Saucer champion Covered Bridge (Jody Jamieson) cut the fractions of :27.2, :56 and 1:24.3 to finish second while Twin B Tuffenuff (Gilles Barrieau) punched his ticket to the $100,000 final in third.

Bounty Hunter, Blue Hunt and Saulsbrook Ian will go to the MacGregor consolation and Ilikemebettor A and Roll Em will join the PEIHRIA Invitational.

After his Monday evening (Aug. 12) victory in Trial 3, Heaven On High N is headed to the $100,000 Gold Cup and Saucer final.

Trial 3 of the Gold Cup and Saucer saw Larry Karr (driven by Austin Sorrie) blast off the starting gate from post 8 to secure the lead past the opening eighth and control the fractions of :28 and :56.3 with Heaven On High N (Brett MacDonald) sitting second. Southwind Sambucca (Marc Campbell) was calling first-up on the outside at the half and continued to engage the pacesetter at the three-quarters of 1:25.2 but it was Heaven On High N who pounced in the stretch to overtake Larry Karr by a length in 1:52.3. Third went to Rocks Shining Star (Jason Hughes) who earned the final berth in the Aug. 17 $100,000 final. Jamie Smith trains the winning pacer for owners Shark Racing Stable of Bainbridge, NY.

The fourth through sixth place finishers in trial 3 (Bob Loblaw, High Voltage Deo and Smooth Lou) will face off again in the $30,000 James (Roach) MacGregor Gold Cup and Saucer consolation on Aug. 16. Seventh and eighth place finishers Southwind Sambucca and Island Beach Boy will join the field in the $15,000 P.E.I. Harness Racing Industry Association Pace on Aug. 17.

The Atlantic Sires Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies also populated the Saturday program.

Dusty Lane Dixie (Barrieau) won her $15,320 A-division assignment over Fern Hill Indigo (Brodie MacPhee) and Sensational Gal (James MacDonald) in 1:57.4.

The other $15,320 A-division had Chip Of Evil (MacPherson) the best in 1:56.3 over Downtown Tonight (Adam Merner) and Galway Girl (Marc Campbell).

The B-divisions were won by Shelleys Spirit (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) in 1:58.1, Last Chance (Campbell) in 1:57.3, Promise Me Later (Dowling) in 1:57.2 and Rollwithitdarling (Campbell) in 1:56.1.

In other Monday evening action, Tobins Chester was the boss in the lone $28,460 Atlantic Sires Stakes A-division for 3-year-old pacing colts. Jason Hughes drove the Ashley Gamester trainee for owner Donald MacRae of Vernon Bridge.

The $6,000 B-divisions for sophomore pacing colts were won by Heres To Art (Ken Murphy) in 1:55.3, Dusty Lane Zoro (Brodie MacPhee) in 1:55.4, Howmac General (David Dowling) in 1:56.4, and Little Leroy (Adam Merner) in 1:54.4.

Charlie May to defend title in Gene Riegler Memorial

Don Tiger is bringing Charlie May back to defend his title and track record in the Gene Riegler Memorial.

We will be passing out Charlie May t-shirts prior to the first post on Friday evening (Aug. 16) while supplies last. Tonight, Don Tiger with support from Brad Conrad of Conrad Photos will be passing out approximately 100-win photos from last year's Gene Riegler Memorial autographed by the one and only Charlie May! We will also be giving out the annual Gene Riegler Memorial glass that evening.

Don't forget to also attend the Saturday evening races for the opportunity to win a 14" laptop.

At today's noon session the Fort Greeneville Daughters of the American Revolution will be passing out America Flag lapel pins in celebration of the upcoming 250th anniversary of this country.

We hope to see everyone at all of the races!
