Peaceful Way: The mare, the stake, the legend

Catching up overseas with the owner of the Hall of Fame trotting mare as the stakes race in her honor is set for Saturday.

On Feb. 27, 2001, a future world champion was foaled in a very Canadian setting. Peaceful Way (4, 1:51.4m; $2,746,240) was “born outside on a pile of snow, unattended,” said breeder Angie Stiller of Arva, ON, in a 2013 interview. “Otherwise she had a great start. Mom was a great mom.”

In August of 2003, the petite daughter of Angus Hall—Royal Bait debuted at the track now known as Woodbine Mohawk Park. In back-to-back qualifiers which would come to define her career, she was headstrong and off-stride on Aug. 8, fast and perfect Aug. 19. Fittingly, Woodbine Mohawk Park’s 2022 Peaceful Way Stakes eliminations are Aug. 20, the final on Aug. 27. The race is the first Canadian Grand Circuit stop of the season for 2-year-old filly trotters. Originally named the Oakville Stakes, it was held at Woodbine Racetrack from 1994-98, relocating to Mohawk in 1999 and renamed in 2008.

Peaceful Way.

Peaceful Way's maiden victory came in a Sept. 9, 2003 Oakville division for trainer David Tingley and driver Chris Christoforou. It started an eight-race, all-stakes win streak that only ended in her Breeders Crown elimination at The Meadowlands, when the high-speed filly self-destructed. Her Canadian resume still guaranteed Peaceful Way the divisional O'Brien Award.

She came into her own at The Meadowlands in July 2004, a going-away winner for catch driver John Campbell in her Del Miller Memorial elim and final. After prevailing by a head in her Hambletonian Oaks elimination, Peaceful Way jumped it off in the big race, ending up eighth-placed-10th as the beaten favorite. She found redemption at Rideau Carleton Raceway in the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold afterwards, followed by five more Ontario stakes wins and a Breeders Crown elim victory at Woodbine Racetrack. A break in the Breeders Crown final cost her the race, but not a second consecutive O'Brien Award. She had gone undefeated in her Ontario Sires Stakes career.

At age 4, Peaceful Way was teamed up with Trevor Ritchie. On May 24, 2005, the mare won a Mohawk qualifier by over 18 open lengths, a harbinger of the campaign ahead. Together, Ritchie and Peaceful Way won all but one start, the Maple Leaf Trot, in which she broke stride. They captured the Armbro Flight elim and final; Classic Series Distaff elim and final at The Meadowlands; Breeders Crown Open Mare Trot at Mohawk; Allerage Farms Open Mare Trot at The Red Mile; and the American National Open Trot at Balmoral Park, her first win in mixed company. She was voted 2005 Dan Patch and O'Brien Older Trotting Mare of the Year.

Her 2006 comeback did not go exactly as hoped, with a sixth-place finish in her first start of the year, a June 19 Mohawk preferred. But she and Ritchie rebounded with repeat victories in the Armbro Flight elim and final, followed by the Perretti Farms' Matchmaker distaff free-for-all at The Meadowlands. She avenged her 2005 Maple Leaf Trot defeat in the 2006 edition, opening up by over three lengths in a 1:53.3s home-track tour de force. Peaceful Way would repeat as Dan Patch and O'Brien Older Trotting Mare of the Year.

What was left for the world champion to accomplish? She went winless, aside from qualifiers, in an abbreviated 2007 campaign. A broodmare career beckoned. Her firstborn, Noble Peace Prize (3, 1:57.3f; $75,411), was an embryo transfer filly by Kadabra. As Stiller noted in 2013, ET was used because "it was late in the season and we didn't want her to have late foals, given her size."

Coincidentally, the dam of Noble Peace Prize would be exported to the home country of the Nobel Peace Prize a few years later.

Svein Seljord of Slattum, Norway is Peaceful Way's current owner.

"In August 2013, I received The Black Book from the Standardbred Horse Sales Company... Hip 1361 was Peaceful Way," he told HRU. "Even in Norway, she was a famous horse. I had seen her videos from racing, and have friends that traveled around in the USA, Canada, just to see her running. My daughter Ingvild, her friend Tina Dale Brauti, and I decided to go to Harrisburg and try to buy her."

"When in Harrisburg we looked over Peaceful Way. My daughter is a veterinarian, and found her perfect-looking and in good shape. On November 8th, 2013 we bought her for $110,000 [US]. We also bought her weanling Forever Peace for $30,000 [US] and took them to Norway, where we live on a farm 20 minutes outside Oslo."

Peaceful Way's first Norwegian-born offspring was foaled March 14, 2014, under circumstances reminiscent of her own birth. Seljord's farm is located at the 60th parallel north. "The winter of 2014, there was much snow and ice, and Peaceful Way was running around with her foal," he recalled. Credit Winner colt Royal Winner (1:58.1f; $589,261 NOK) would survive and thrive, but Seljord opted to move the pair. "We decided that we could not keep such horses in Norway because of the climate, and as soon as the foal was big enough, we put them on our horse truck and drove them down to Stud Laser... a breeding farm in Fyn, Denmark, 56 degrees north, close to the German border. Here, the horses have perfect facilities and green grass 12 months a year, and the stud is close enough so we can visit her often."

As on the racetrack, the Canadian and US Hall of Fame mare likes to maintain distance between herself and the rest of the field. "She does not accept all mares, therefore the manager of Laser, Bo Seisbøll, arranges special mares to go with her," said Seljord. "Peaceful Way is a very special horse. We were told that she was angry and hard to handle, that she had to go alone with her foals... That was not true. First week maybe, but as soon as we got to know her, she behaved perfect."

This year marks a turning point in the life of the 20-year-old broodmare. Her 2022 foal, an unnamed filly by Maharajah, will be her last.

"She will now retire from breeding, although she is still looking good and in good condition," said her owner. "Peaceful Way deserves that and will hopefully live many years. She has served us very well and given us 10 horses, all of them perfect-standing, good-looking and fast-running. All her offspring are strongly marked by her... They all have high speed, big hearts and lungs, and love to compete."

Peaceful Way's 11 offspring of racing age have won a combined 74 races. Two had careers prematurely ended by accidents.

Before injury, her 2013 Muscle Hill colt Forever Peace (1:54.2; 256,544 NOK) set a Norwegian record for the 2,100-meter distance in his third start at age three. Now standing at Denmark's Stud Laser, Forever Peace is his dam's only stallion son. "We all have great expectations," said Seljord.

Success continues with two full sisters to Forever Peace.

"One week ago [Aug. 6], Nancy Lou [1:58.1; 359,000 NOK] won the first of the three biggest races for mares and earned $30,000 [US]. Thankful [1:50.4f; 2,604,894 NOK] was 2020 Norwegian champion and still has the Norwegian record for mares at 2,100 meters... the normal distance in Norway." Peaceful Way's 2016 Credit Winner filly Lady Ann (1:55.2; 1,811,677 NOK) won the country's top race for mares in 2019, earning $70,000 (US).

In 2020, Peaceful Way was designated a Norwegian "Elite Mare" for her outstanding production record. "Her legacy in harness racing is extremely strong," Seljord told HRU. "I still can't understand why the owners sold her, back in 2013. But thank you very much!"

The legacy continues this Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Emotional victory for Goop

by Thomas Hedlund

Björn Goop drove his Maharajah son Moni Viking to an upset win in the $295,000 Åby Stora Pris over 3,140 meters at Åby on Saturday (Aug. 13) afternoon and the Norwegian-bred trotter impressed a lot when he disarmed first choice leader Hail Mary in the home stretch.

The distance of 3,140 meters is an unusual distance for the elite trotters and the Åby Stora Pris is kind of mystique race, where the strong horses get their chances to claim a big title with a high purse.

Hail Mary was quick from the start and Örjan Kihlström set the autopilot on 1:57.2 (mile rate) pace throughout the race. And nothing much happened until the last back stretch when Gabriele Gelormini stepped on the pedal with his drive Kennedy. The increase in speed was tangible and it became tough for horses in the back of the field to connect with the front runners. Still, when it was time for home stretch, a fourth over trotting Moni Viking proved to be the fastest horses in the field.

Hail Mary was defenseless when Goop's trotter sprinted to safe win in a mile rate of 1:56.3 and open stretch finisher Oracle Tile took the bronze medal behind the two front horses.

Goop was very emotional in the winner's circle after the race. His father Olle, who died earlier this year, had his birthday on this special day and it was like someone directed this day in Goop's favor.

Moni Viking claimed his second title in the Åby Stora Pris. The 9-year-old chestnut won at Åby in 2020 and the Saturday win meant he surpassed 10,000,000 Swedish crowns (approximately $975,000) in lifetime earnings.

A world record performance was set in the 4-years-old race, the $42,500 Ragnar Thorngrens Minne over 1.3 miles just 30 minutes before the start of the Åby Stora Pris. Italian-bred mare Calypso di Poggio (Ready Cash), driven by Jörgen Sjunnesson, was served a perfect pocket trip and when leader Akilles Face lost his gait in the last turn, Calypso di Poggio was hard to beat for the rest of the gang. Erik Bondo, operating as trainer in Italy, trains the new world record holder. Calypso di Poggio came home in a mile rate of 1:54.1.

BACK TO BACK FOR BEDAZZLED SOX IN E3?

Roger Walmann-trained Bedazzled Sox (Brillantissime) took a safe wire-to-wire win when the $388,000 E3 over 1.3 miles was held in the beginning of July and this Saturday (Aug. 20) the 3-year-old has a great chance of repeating when the distance is a mile in Örebro.

Bedazzled Sox solved his elimination race without problem from a bad post and in Saturday's final he starts from post 3, which suits him well since he has proved to have the useful ability to leave quickly behind the gate.

Pekka Korpi's Corazon combo and Svante Båth-trained Drake Kronos won their eliminations, respectively and 10 trotters chase the $196,000 E3 title for colts and geldings.

In the $196,000 E3 for fillies, the story seems to be very open, even if the five elimination winners were all good. Timo Nurmos trained Beat It (Broadway Hall) was the fastest winner (1:54.2) and from post 4 she can be tough to beat.

Ohio-sired Bythemissal scores powerful victory in $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial

by Michael Carter / MGM Northfield Park

Historically, the $300,000 Carl Milstein Memorial, MGM Northfield Park's signature event, has featured some of harness racing's greatest 3-year-olds; the 2022 edition, held Saturday night (Aug. 13), was no different.

Sired by 2017 Carl Milstein Memorial champion, Downbytheseaside, Adios champion Bythemissal stamped himself as the one of the top sophomore pacing colts in North America with a dominant stakes, track-record tying, and world-record tying 1:48.4 victory.

There were several leavers off the gait, but Night Hawk (David Miller) was able to clear rivals through the opening turn forcing JK Victory (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) into the pocket. Parked through the initial turn, Bythemissal (Chris Page) forged forward with his gelding, stung to the first quarter in a contested :26.2.

Once making the lead, Page would never look back, getting to the half in :54.1. Ponda Warrior (Jimmy Whitttemore), who had yet to see a pylon, attempted to challenge leader but could never get around pocket sitting Night Hawk through the clubhouse turn for the final time.

Heading to three-quarters, Page stepped on the gas opening up by two-lengths on his closest rival Night Hawk, arriving at three-quarters in 1:21.4. Page would only be a passenger, never really asking Bythemissal through the stretch to win by a confident 5-3/4 lengths in 1:48.4 over JK Victory and Soaring Now (Joey Putnam).

Page said he was never concerned about his gelding's ability to get over a half-mile track.

"He got around the half well and felt good to me," said Page. "He's very good, and was having fun out there."

The sport's leading trainer Ron Burke echoed his driver's comments.

"He's a very special horse; Ohio-sired horses are going to do very well going forward."

The victory pushed Bythemissal to $435,250 in career earnings with seven wins in eight career starts. He is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Rich Lombardo, and Weaver Brussemi.

Burke said his next start would be in the Max Hempt at the Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono on Saturday (Aug. 20).

MGM Northfield Park also played host to a pair of $100,000 undercard features in the Tom Aldrich President's Trot and Myron Charna President's Pace.

In the Tom Aldrich President's Trot, MVP Luke (Billy Davis Jr.) powered to the lead but made a miscue around the turn allowing Smoking Jet (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) to come through and take the lead. Once making the lead, Wrenn tapped the breaks to the opening quarter in :27.4.

While Wrenn had no challengers, he couldn't get much of a breather with a :28-second panel. The outer flow developed in the form of It's Academic (David Miller), Refined (Matt Kakaley), and Herculis (Brett Miller), but Wrenn let the son of Triumphant Caviar out a notch and led by three lengths with three-eighths of a mile to trot.

Wrenn guided Smoking Jet past three-quarters in 1:23.2 and had to deal with the daunting presence of the Spirit of Massachusetts runner-up, It's Academic. Around the final turn, it appeared that Miller would get to the leader, but Smoking Jet was able to kick clear and win by 1-1/4 lengths over It's Academic and Herculis in a track record of 1:52.1. It was also a world record for older geldings on a half-mile track.

Smoking Jet is trained by Ron Burke and owned by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, and Chris Page. With the victory, Smoking Jet has surpassed $200,000 in career earnings.

"He gets over the track at Northfield very well, and likes to be on the lead," said Wrenn.

2021 Carl Milstein Memorial winner Charlie May (McArdle—Stipple Hanover) also made his presence felt on Saturday with a powerful 1:49.3 effort.

Local One Last Laugh (Hunter Myers) was able to outkick rivals through the mid-point of the opening turn, but Heart Of Chewbacca (Dan Noble) wanted the lead and was able to clear before a :26.2 first quarter. Charlie May (Brett Miller) wasted no time taking his shot at the leaders, making a first-over bid with five eighths to go.

While Noble was able to tap the breaks and get a breather at the half of :55, he had the 2021 Milstein champion on his back heading into the clubhouse turn for the final time. Charlie May appeared to lose a little bit of ground around the turn, but moving into the backstretch, he found another gear matching strides with Heart Of Chewbacca at three-quarters in 1:21.4.

Charlie May was able to draw off through the stretch to win by 1-3/4 lengths in 1:49.3. One Last Laugh went around Heart Of Chewbacca in the last turn to finish second, and long shot Odds On Shaggy (Kakaley) closed in the passing lane to finish third.

"He got a good trip last week, and I felt confident coming into the race," said Brett Miller. "When he's sharp, he's dead game."

Owner Don Tiger echoed his driver, "He's like a prize fighter; he keeps on digging, looking for other competitors."

Steve Carter trains Charlie May and now has $1,371,485 in career earnings. Tiger said his next stop would be the #Sendin Invitational at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Top stars in Pocono's $2.2 million Sun Stakes Saturday

by PHHA / Pocono

The lure of $2,242,500 in purses has attracted many of harness racing's stars to The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono on Saturday afternoon (Aug. 20) for its biggest card of the year, Sun Stakes Saturday. The 14-race program, starting at 1:30 p.m., is bringing to the mountain oval five of the Top Ten horses in the most recent polling, including the leading trotter, Bella Bellini, and Hambletonian winner Cool Papa Bell.

The major format of the day is as follows: each of the four divisions of 3-year-olds, separated by sex and gait, are seeded by their money earnings in 2022, with a maximum of eight horses per field. The two races for males, the Earl Beal Memorial Trot and the Max C. Hempt Memorial Pace, will race for $300,000, $200,000, and $100,000 in three races for each respective group as sorted by seasonal money winnings. The James Lynch Memorial Pace, which has $250,000-$125,000-$75,000 sections, is for fillies, as is the Delmonica Hanover Trot, which drew enough entrants to fill only two divisions, going for $250,000-$125,000.

There will also be $100,000 Invitationals for the top older horses on both gaits: the Always B Miki Pace and the Sebastian K S Trot, named after the co-fastest pacer and fastest trotter ever at Pocono.

Here is a brief look at the top horses in the major contests on the Sun Stakes Saturday card, per event:

EARL BEAL MEMORIAL TROT

($300,000 division race 12, $200,000 division race eight, $100,000 division race three)

It's been an unusual year among the Hambletonian-caliber trotters, as a filly, Joviality S (entered in the Delmonica Hanover), has generally been regarded as the leader of this age and gait. It became even a bit more unusual after the Hambletonian itself on Aug. 6 when Cool Papa Bell, who had exhibited steady but not championship form at both 2 and 3, came from far back to win the classic and return $106.00 to his scattered backers. He drew the rail for the Beal Memorial, with Todd McCarthy scheduled to retain his Hambletonian perch behind the Chapter Seven gelding for trainer Jim Campbell, who had himself quite a day as he also won the Hambletonian Oaks with Fashion Schooner.

A horse who has impressed many people with his consistency is the Walner colt Temporal Hanover, starting from post six for driver Brian Sears and trainer Marcus Melander. Temporal Hanover was second by a head in his Hambletonian elimination and third, only three-quarters of a length behind after hard usage, in the Hambletonian, and his versatility may make his post less of a consideration than it might be for many horses.

MAX HEMPT MEMORIAL

($300,000 division race 11, $200,000 division race seven, $100,000 division race four)

Certainly the "hot horse" in this group is the Downbytheseaside gelding Bythemissal, who begins from post three for driver Chris Page and trainer Ron Burke. Bythemissal came to the Adios at the end of July undefeated in six career starts but largely unknown out of his immediate area in the Midwest, then was second in his elimination, soundly defeated favored Beach Glass in the Adios final, and has since impressively added the Milstein at Northfield Park to his credits.

Beach Glass has a very steady record of five wins and three seconds in eight seasonal starts, winning the Meadowlands Pace and Cane Pace while dancing in all the biggest dances. The son of Somebeachsomewhere will be looking to avenge his Adios defeat while starting from the rail for trainer Brent MacGrath and driver Yannick Gingras.

JAMES LYNCH MEMORIAL PACE

($250,000 division race 10, $125,000 division race six, $75,000 division race two):

Treacherous Dragon started the season with six straight victories, including winning at Pocono and taking the important Fan Hanover stake in Canada for trainer Nancy Takter, who took over her care at the end of June, and driver Tim Tetrick. And from post six and with three straight board finishes, the daughter of Captaintreacherous is a major consideration in this event.

However, the filly who has usurped her as the poster girl for this division is starting just to her right – the Huntsville filly Max Contract, who comes to the Lynch off a four-race win streak. Included in that string for driver Andy Miller and trainer/wife Julie were stakes victories at The Meadowlands in the Mistletoe Shalee, Geers, and Shady Daisy – the switch to post seven over the smaller Pocono oval is the biggest question mark for the fast-closing filly now, although she did show gate jet in her last start.

DELMONICA HANOVER TROT

($250,000 division race nine, $125,000 division race five):

As if she needed it, Joviality S, a daughter of Chapter Seven, has drawn the rail for trainer Marcus Melander and driver Brian Sears. The filly won her first six seasonal starts, including the Yonkers Trot against “the boys,” and she did very well in the Hambletonian against mostly male opposition, missing by a neck while third in her elim and then second by three-quarters of a length in the Final. The highest-ranked of all 3-year-olds at number five in the Top Ten, Joviality S is also the only millionaire in the four big sophomore stakes, having already earned $1,491,818.

Her fellow Swedish-bred, Jiggy Jog S (you can tell by the “S”), won a Hambletonian elimination, and then missed only 1½ lengths while fourth in the Hambletonian final. With four wins and two seconds (and that close fourth) in seven starts this year, this daughter of Walner, starting from post three for trainer Åke Svanstedt and driver Dexter Dunn, certainly rates as the major danger to Joviality S on paper.

(Some of last year’s top 2-year-olds who have not quite regained top form at 3 to date are in the consolation races, among them champion colt trotter King Of The North, along with these 2021 $200G+ winners: pacing filly Lyons Sentinel, trotting filly Misswalner Fashion, and pacing colt Early Action.)

ALWAYS B MIKI PACE

Obviously in the 3-year-old races you cannot have a defending champion returning, but the defending champion from last year’s inaugural Always B Miki Pace is here – the Captaintreacherous gelding Allywag Hanover, starting from post four for trainer Brett Pelling and driver Todd McCarthy. Last year Allywag Hanover won in a world-record-equaling 1:47.2, and became one of the very few horses anywhere, anytime to pace three sub-27 quarters in one race. Allywag Hanover has won his last two starts at Harrah’s Philly, and he shows two seconds to this year’s #1 horse, Bulldog Hanover, who is taking this week off to prepare for important races in his native Canada.

The season’s record at Pocono is 1:47.4, set by three horses, two of whom are in the Always B Miki: Ruthless Hanover (post eight, trainer Tom Cancelliere, driver George Napolitano Jr.) and American Courage (post five, trainer Travis Alexander, driver Matt Kakaley). American Courage rates an extra note because the start after he won here in 1:47.4, he again paced in 1:47.4 – finishing 11th, 10 lengths behind Bulldog Hanover’s all-time 1:45.4 record mile.

SEBASTIAN K S TROT

Last year’s inaugural winner of this event was the great mare Atlanta, and a female may wind up as the favorite in this open event – the Bar Hopping distaff Bella Bellini, the highest-rated trotter this year at #2, behind only “the Bulldog.” Bella Bellini wasn’t entered in the inaugural Delmonica Hanover last year, but she did win a Pennsylvania Sire Stakes Championship here a couple of weeks afterwards, and in the last 12 months she has won the Hambletonian Oaks and Breeders Crown at 3 and at 4, the Hambletonian Maturity and the Steele Memorial in her last start, where she lowered her mark to 1:49.4. She has a difficult starting spot in post seven for trainer Nifty Norman and driver Dexter Dunn.

Along the inside is another millionaire mare, When Dovescry (trainer Brett Pelling, driver David Miller), who has plenty of Pocono experience and who has been 1-2 39 times in 55 career starts; along the outside is Lovedbythemasses (trainer Jeff Cullipher, driver Tim Tetrick), who posted the fastest trotting mile of the year in eastern Pennsylvania when he won Philly’s Maxie Lee Trot in 1:51 in May.

The final scratches and driver changes should be available (by the time you read this) on the U.S. Trotting Association website. Program pages will be available at some point this week at at www.pha.org/downsmppps.html.

SIRES STAKES

REPORT

Sire Father Patrick dominant in PASS action at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

At a track where he set world records for 2-year-old and 3-year-old trotting colts that still stand nine and eight years later, it seems appropriate that sons of Father Patrick would win four stakes events on a card where driver Tim Tetrick guided both $75,061 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes 2-year-old trotting colt winners, both sons of by Father Patrick.

In the second Sire Stakes section on Sunday at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, "Team Hambletonian Oaks" (Fashion Schooner) of Tetrick and trainer Jim Campbell reunited behind Once In A Lifetime as the colt out of Sherry's Lady took a new mark of 1:55.4. Crantini, the favorite after opening his career with three wins including two Sire Stakes, moved to the lead past a :28.4 quarter and put up mid-splits of :58.1 and 1:27.2. Once In A Lifetime had begun a raw move in the middle of the backstretch, really turned up the heat on the far turn, and then was able to win by 1¼ lengths over Crantini, who had not raced in 24 days. The Sad Frog Stable should be much happier after the win of Once In A Lifetime, who in prior PASS races had made a break and was second behind Crantini, beaten only three parts of a length.

The other Sires division also went in 1:55.4 and also yielded a new mark (the four Stallion Series cuts would also produce four lifetime records). Southwind Distilld (dam Dolce Delight), who like Once In A Lifetime had a break and a second to Crantini in previous Sires action, was in control of his mile by setting fractions of :28.3, :58.4, and 1:27.2, then powering off to a 4¼ length triumph over Spitfire Overseas. Per Engblom conditions the talented baby for owner Mark Dumain.

Father Patrick, Tetrick, and Engblom would also combine in one of the four $20,000 Stallion Series sections, with the colt Alonso (dam Prettiestgalaround) adding a second win in the Stallion Series prelims in 1:58 for the ownership of Engblom Stables LLC, Wiesman Farms LLC, and R A W Equine Inc. The fourth Father Patrick winner was the gelding Lookintogetlucky (dam

Curtis Salonic

Once In A Lifetime (Tim Tetrick) won the second of two PASS divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts on Sunday at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono with a new mark of 1:55.4.

Curtis Salonic

The other PASS test was won by Southwind Distilld (Tetrick), also in 1:55.4.

Lookin Sharp), who broke his maiden in 1:58.3 for driver Corey Callahan, trainer John Butenschoen, and owners Andray Farm and James Crawford IV.

The other two Stallion Series events were won "TheStable" horses driven by Anthony MacDonald and trained by Tim Twaddle; they tied at 1:57 for the fastest Stallion Series winner.

The Bar Hopping – Twin B Alibi gelding Tailgate Buzz now is the only freshman trotting male to have three wins in the state stakes series with his victory for Thestable Tailgate Buzz. His barnmate Austral Hanover is undefeated in two Stallion Series starts, trying the Sire Stakes “in between” those wins; he’s an International Moni – Aspidistra Hanover gelding owned by Thestable Austral Hanover.

Hello Yes Hi springs 12-1 upset in PASS on Saturday at The Meadows

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows
Standardbred Owners Association

Dismissed at 12-1, Hello Yes Hi used the Lightning Lane to outkick the 4-5 favorite, previously undefeated My Little Captain, and spring the upset in Saturday’s $82,078 Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows for 2-year-old pacing fillies. Proud Mary captured the other division in the event, known as the Meadow Cheer, for freshman filly pacers.

Hello Yes Hi battled four-wide for the early lead before yielding to the pocket when My Little Captain quarter-poled to the point. In the stretch, however, Hello Yes Hi was the fresher filly, knifing inside for Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. and downing the favorite by 3/4 lengths in a career-best 1:52.4. Square Deal finished third.

Ron Burke trains the homebred daughter of Captaintreacherous – Camille for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC, M1 Stable and Jack Piatt II.

It appeared that Proud Mary would have her work cut out for her when Hallelujah Hanover got the front half in a leisurely :58. But winning driver Dave Palone, heeding the words of trainer Chris Ryder, said he was more worried about Proud Mary’s demeanor than the pedestrian fractions.

“I was concerned about getting her to relax,” Palone said. “Chris said she got a little anxious the last couple, so I wanted to keep her a little quieter. She sat in there perfectly, and when the plugs came out, she ran down a good filly.”

Proud Mary was both mannerly and swift, shooting the Lightning Lane to defeat Hallelujah Hanover by a length in 1:52.4, fastest mile of her career. My Hungry Girl completed the ticket.

Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Bottom Line Racing LLC campaign Proud Mary, a daughter of Sweet Lou – Tug River Princess.

STALLION SERIES

Butterfingers may have been surprised when she looked to her right and saw that her first-over challenger was none other than her stablemate, Duchess Hill. But the daughter of Sweet Lou – Drop The Ball was up to the task, beating Duchess Hill by 1-1/4 lengths in 1:53.3 for her second stallion series victory. Little Lady J earned show.

“She kind of let go of me going into the last turn,” said winning driver Palone. “I welcomed the competition. When her stablemate got to me, she picked me back up like she was supposed to. She’s really a nice filly, but she was a little bit lost on the lead.”

Butterfingers provided another stake win for Ryder, Let It Ride Stables and Bottom Line Racing.

Nevertellmetheodds and Hungry For Kisses took the other splits. Palone’s torrid streak continued; his three wins on the 12-race card lifted his total to 25 over the past six programs. Wrenn and Burke teamed for three victories while Hunter Myers and trainer Paul Corey also enjoyed triples.

Longshot and Rose Run Xtra score Ohio Sires Stakes victories Saturday at Northfield Park

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

The two winners of the two Ohio Sires Stakes $55,000 divisions for the 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters on Saturday at MGM Northfield Park took different routes to the winner's circle, but both set lifetime marks in doing so. Longshot rallied down the stretch to capture the first division, while Rose Run Xtra went gate-to-wire to win the second division.

In the first division, Chris Page took Up Blueberry Hill to the lead covering the first three-quarters in fractions of :27.4, :56.3, and 1:25.1.

Longshot with Chris Lems sat in the pocket through the first half-mile but yielded the second spot to Gabby's Bit Coin and Aaron Merriman as the leaders hit three-quarters.

Around the final turn, Lems swung the 5-2 Longshot wide and rallied the son of Long Tom down the stretch catching Up Blueberry Hill to win by a length in a new lifetime mark of 1:54.

Up Blueberry Hill was second with Motto finishing third.

Longshot is trained by Scott Cox and owned by Wayne Mast Jr. and Callam Racing. Longshot has won five out of ten this year, including two legs of the Ohio Sires Stakes and has earned $90,750 this year. The win pushed Longshot's lifetime earnings to $100,556.

After finishing second in the first division, Chris Page did not take any chances as he rushed Rose Run Xtra to the lead and made it look easy going gate-to-wire in a new lifetime mark of 1:53.4.

Bamboo finished second, while Caviar Gold finished third.

The son of Cash Hall cut the mile with fractions of :28, :56.3, and 1:53.4 on the way to his third win of the year. Rose Run Xtra had finished second in the first two legs of the Ohio Sires Stakes.

Trained by Ron Burke, Rose Run Xtra has earned $113,289 this year, with lifetime earnings of $317,194 for the ownership group of the Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services, and Jason Melillo.

PEO mixed sale grosses $499,250

After a two-week hiatus, Preferred Equine Online's Mixed Sale was back in full force on Monday (Aug. 15), with this installment's "all racehorse" auction tallying close to a half-million dollars in total sales — $499,250, to be exact.

Leading the way was the lightly-raced and ever-improving sophomore gelding Katies Bet p,3,1:50.2-'22 ($23,714). He was sold by Preferred Equine Online as agent for Karen Carroll and purchased by Len Sadowsky for $74,000.

The sophomore came to auction after a visually impressive 1:50.2 score at Woodbine Mohawk Park in his last start on Aug. 5.

For only the second time in PEO's brief history, a sale entry raced just minutes prior to being offered for sale. Bomb Hugger 3,1:56.4f-'22 ($182,714) raced Monday afternoon in a $57,000 division of the New York Sire Stakes 3-Year-Old Filly Trot at Monticello Raceway, where she finished second after cutting the mile.

However, she failed to meet her reserve after a last bid of $80,000 and is currently listed on the sale page on a "make offer" basis.

Other sale highlights included the well-bred Captaintreacherous filly Captain Violet J, who was sold for Ken Jacobs to Josh Green as agent for Spring Station Bloodstock for $50,000.

Complete sale results are available on the Aug. 15 sale page at www.preferredequineonline.com.

Twenty-two of the 26 horses offered changed hands, with the four not meeting their reserves still available on a "make offer" basis on the sale page, some with an asking price.

Preferred Equine Online manager David Reid said he was pleased with both the participation and the results. "There was spirited bidding throughout with successful buyers from the U.S., Canada and Europe," he said.

"With demand for racehorses like it's been, sellers are getting solid prices, and in return, buyers are getting some very good racehorses. We're seeing new customers with every sale, and sign-ups to bid have been increasing week to week as well."

Reid said he is most proud of the number of return customers — both sellers and buyers — and with the platform becoming a "go-to" for online sales to a growing number of prominent racehorse owners and major breeders.

"Buyers have taken notice of the continued success of our online sale grads," Reid said. "To date our grads have taken more than 100 wins for their new owners since their purchase."

Reid said he again plans to wait two weeks for the next PEO Mixed Sale, which will be held Monday, Aug. 29.

Entries for that sale are now being accepted at preferredequineonline.com.
