Trotter saved from drowning in Northfield pond on Milstein Night

Thanks to the quick action of trainers Virgil Morgan, Todd Luther and others, a disastrous start to Saturday's Milstein Memorial Night at MGM Northfield Park was narrowly averted when 2-year-old trotter Creatine Star spooked before the first race and went into the infield pond, nearly drowning.

by Jay Wolf

On a night when MGM Northfield Park patrons enjoyed several great on-track performances, including three new world records, it was the selfless actions of a couple of horsemen and track employees that saved the night and the life of a promising 2-year-old trotter.

Less than 24 hours after winning the $300,000 Dan Patch at Harrah's Hoosier Park with Catch The Fire, trainer Todd Luther (left) jumped into the infield pond at MGM Northfield Park to help save 2-year-old trotter Creatine Star from drowning.

On Blueberry Hill, driven by Chris Page, was headed in the wrong direction and needed the assistance of the outrider to turn, causing a delay in the start.

Driver Brett Miller tried to turn Creatine Star, who was already behind the gate, around due to the restart. The son of Creatine became spooked, reared up and dumped Miller to the track. Creatine Star then went on a gallop for almost a quarter of a mile before the gelding ran full speed into the MGM Northfield Park infield pond.

"Everything happened so fast, but yet it was in slow motion," said Virgil Morgan, trainer of Creatine Star.

Mark Hall / USTA

Creatine Star is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr., who also jumped into the pond to help save the trotter.

The gelding was quickly in over his head and was in need of assistance. A member of the MGM Northfield Park track crew, the outrider, Morgan and fellow trainer Todd Luther ran to the water's edge and all entered the murky water from various points around the pond to aid the trotter.

"When I first jumped in, you could see him underwater, trying to get up," said Luther. "When I got there, he started to turn towards the bank. A member of the track crew held his head above the water. I started stripping off the equipment – the bike, the harness, the crupper – to get the weight off. I'm not sure how deep it was, but I am sure we weren't touching bottom."

Luther – who less than 24 hours earlier won the $300,000 Dan Patch at Harrah's Hoosier Park with his pupil Catch The Fire – is a former member of his high school swim team.

"You don't think about it at the time, you just react. I didn't know whose horse it was at the time. I had a horse in the third (race), so I was in the paddock. I saw the loose horse and when I saw him go in, I ran over. It was just instinct. I just couldn't stand there and watch a horse go through that. I am sure others would have done the same thing."

With the assistance, Creatine Star was able to get to shore and eventually walked back to the paddock under his own power.

Last weekend's events were eerily reminiscent of an incident on March 25, 2019 at Miami Valley Gaming and Raceway. The only difference was the final outcome. Gelded pacer He's A Perfect 10 drowned despite efforts to save him.

"After Miami Valley, the Ohio State Racing Commission, the OHHA (Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association) and the tracks should have worked together to develop a protocol to prevent such an occurrence from happening again," said Morgan.

"We recently removed the vegetation around the pond and dredged it. This work was in preparation for improvements to the drainage and to make the track safer," said Dave Bianconi, director of racing operations for MGM Northfield Park. "When construction is complete, we will have a barrier erected as a deterrent."

Creatine Star, who is owned by Carl Howard, Joyce McClelland and Larry Wills, has earned more than $55,000 in just four career starts – thanks mostly to a second-place finish in the $150,000 Next Generation event on July 2.

Morgan reported that Creatine Star is "doing well, and has been jogging and eating well."

Creatine Star is expected to make his next start Saturday (Aug. 21) in the final leg of the Ohio Sire Stake at Eldorado Scioto Downs. He'll need a victory to get into contention for the $300,000 OHSS Final on Sept. 5 back at MGM Northfield Park.

While Morgan looks towards the future, he also is taking a grateful look back.

"I cannot thank those guys enough," Morgan said.

"It might have been a nightmare, but we ended up with the best result. We just need to make sure this never happens again."

Vernissage Grif again

by Thomas Hedlund

Alessandro Gocciadoro-trained Vernissage Grif (Varenne) has had a great summer on European race tracks so far and in Sunday's (Aug. 15) $155,000 Gran Premio Citta di Montecatini, raced on the half-mile track in beautiful region of Tuscany, the 8-year-old was outstanding over two heats.

Vernissage Grif won his elimination in track record 1:53 and proved to be hard to handle even in the final, where Zacon Gio controlled the field with Gocciadoro's trotter on the outside. Gocciadoro had no plans in letting the leader hold the pace down, so when the field turned for home, Vernissage Grif had disarmed Zacon Gio and sprinted to safe win in 1:53.2.

Billie de Montfort beat Zacon Gio in the battle for the silver medal.

Vernissage Grif collected two impressive wins in Jämtlands Stora

Pris and Årjängs Stora Sprinterlopp earlier this summer and Gocciadoro's trotter is definitely one of the most interesting older trotters in Europe at this moment.

Set for E3

Gävle racetrack is the host track of the second edition of E3 finals in Sweden on Saturday (Aug. 21) afternoon. This time, the distance is 1,640 meters and the purse is $225,000 in both divisions.

Only two eliminations were held for colts and geldings and it's clear that the interest for the race is bigger than when the first edition, over 2,140 meters in mid-June, is held. The winner from that division among the colts and geldings, Felix Orlando, tries to defend the title after finishing fourth in his elimination.

Kate Gath on an incredible run

by Adam Hamilton

Long before Dexter Dunn moved to the U.S. and started conquering the world, he launched his driving career working alongside Kate Gath in Australia.

It was during his stint working for Gath and her husband, Andy, back on September 20, 2006 when Dunn drove his first winner – the appropriately-named The Ultimate One at Geelong.

“I had close to a year working for Kate and Andy (Gath). It’s really where it all started for me as far as racing is concerned,” Dunn said. “I was 16 when I started with them, got my licence the day I turned 17 and had my first drive for them that day... and then the first winner a few months later.”

Little did people know the greatness growing at that little property in Long Forest, about an hour outside of Melbourne.

While Dunn’s deeds need no introduction, Kate Gath’s doing remarkable things herself Down Under.

Last year, she won her first Victorian metropolitan driving title, beating Australia’s most successful ever driver, Chris Alford, in the process. She also became just the second female to win the title, following the trailblazing Kerryn Manning.

Gath, who turned 38 in June, has driven 34 Group 1 winners – the most by any female in Australia.

Remarkably, Gath has raised the bar again this season. With four-and-a-half months still to go, she holds an almost unbeatable lead in the metro title again. She’s 26 in front of nearest rival, former Tasmanian young gun Jack Laugher.

And she grabbed Down Under headlines again last Saturday night when she drove a career-best (at a metropolitan class meeting) five winners on the 10-race card at Ballarat.

“I’ve driven five before, but not at a full metro card like the other night,” Gath said. I tend to want to fly under the radar a bit, but I’m really grateful for everything I’ve been able to do in the last couple of years. You are only as good as the horses you drive, it really helps. I’ve been pretty lucky.”

Dunn remains close with the Gaths and isn’t the least bit

Talented driver Kate Gath also has a passion for running. She runs 10 kms or more most days and wants to run the Melbourne Marathon in November.

surprised with Kate's stunning success.

"Horses just run for Kate, they always have. I remember seeing it as soon as I started working for her and Andy," he said. "Kate won the Hunter Cup, which is one of the biggest races in Australia, just before I started working for them. It was her first really big win.

"Her and Andy make such a great team. He's such a terrific tutor and form student. He taught me so much about analysing races, knowing your opposition or doing your form, as they call it back home.

"Even when I came across (from NZ) to Australia for the big races long after I'd left working for them, I'd always ring Andy and he'd go through the race with me before it.

"It's really great to see the success they are having."

Andy Gath trained four of Kate's five winners at Ballarat last Saturday night, which extended his lead to five wins (33 to 28) over the almost unstoppable training force of Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin on the Victorian metropolitan premiership. Kate is in the unique position of driving for both of Victoria's leading stables. Stewart and Tonkin's support over the past 12-18 months has certainly helped boost her numbers and the quality of wins.

Gath's need for speed isn't just contained to harness racing. She admits to being "a bit obsessed" with running. She runs 10 kilometres or more most days of the week.

Her burning ambition is to run the Melbourne Marathon in November.

"The running is important to me. I think it keeps me sane," Gath giggled.

Just a few months back she drove three hours from home to a country race meeting, competed in the first two races and used her two-gap between drives later in the day to go for a six-kilometre run at an impressive 4:30 pace.

"As any driver will tell you, you don't have a lot of spare time between the travel and the races. So you have to make the most of it," she said.

Harness racing a blessing for Archie Buford

The sport's leading UDRS driver with 300 or fewer starts said the good and bad both on and off the racetrack would make for a compelling book he hopes to write.

by Chris Lomon

Of all the things that harness racing is to Archie Buford, "a blessing" is no doubt atop his list.

The man from Jackson, MS, has a story to tell, one that he is eager to share with the world, but not quite yet.

A book about his life, on and off the racetrack – good times and bad – might soon be in the works.

"I really do have a story to tell. I don't want to share the details of it now. But I do have something in the making. I'm hoping to get a book out so that I can tell that story."

The latest chapter in his standardbred life is most compelling.

After six years away from the racetrack, Buford returned to the driver's seat in 2021, back to a place where he has always felt the happiest and most content.

That peace of mind has translated into big numbers in the race bike, eye-catching stats that Buford, who is presently in Illinois competing, has compiled racing on fair circuits across the U.S. this year. He's also picking up a few drives here and there at Hawthorne.

Add it all up and Buford is the currently leading UDRS driver in North America with 300 or fewer starts.

Those gaudy stats have created confidence, not conceit, for a man who was first introduced to horse racing before he reached his teenage years.

A racetrack, certainly no farther than an opening half-mile from his home, caught his attention a little over 20 years ago.

He had no familial ties to the sport, but the more time he spent watching horses storm down the lane, the more Buford wondered what it would be like to be in the middle of the action.

"I love harness racing. I didn't grow up in it, but when I was around 12, there was a track built that was so close to my house in Terry, Mississippi. It was a blessing to have it there. It's called Cooper Downs. Actually, I started racing horses under the saddle. That's how it really all started with the horses. My friends and I would go out and race on the dirt roads."

A few twists and turns later, the 5-foot-6, 155-pounder saw his standardbred dream realized when he drove and trained his first pacers and trotters in 2007.

"Eventually, I found my way into harness racing. I got a couple of horses and it took off from there for me."

He is grateful for the support of many, including another Mississippi horseman.

"I think the secret of my success is Mr. Roshun Trigg," said Buford, of the horse owner and trainer who has fared extremely well on the fair circuit for a number of years. "When I started I went to Hawthorne and had to get a few qualifying drives in order to get my pari-mutuel license. I got it done, and throughout it all, he was very supportive and really helped me a lot. I'm very thankful for the faith he has in me."

Buford, whose brothers own quarter horses, also has unwavering faith in himself.

The driving colors he sports are a perfect look for the man with the big smile and colorful personality.

He had one particular must-have in mind when it came to the design.

"I have always been the type of guy who likes to be different. I was thinking to myself, 'I always liked green and orange.' So, I put that combination together and that's what I was going to go with. I like the way it turned out. I think it really reflects my personality."

Life, Buford will gladly tell you, is very good for him these days. And not just on the racetrack.

When he's not sitting behind a 900-pound standardbred, he's sitting at the wheel of an 18-wheeler, his own truck, hauling logs throughout the southeastern U.S.

The long hours and sometime lonely roads never bring the 34-year-old down.

"I have my own company and I haul those big logs for a living. It's not an easy job, but I'm not complaining. When you are driving, you have a lot of time to think, and I think about harness racing a lot."

What could hauling logs and harness racing ever share in common?

More than you might think, according to Buford.

"There are definitely similarities between the two. It all starts with hard work. It takes hard work and dedication to do both things. And nothing comes easy in either business. You have to put in the time to be successful."

The family man – he has a son, 13-year-old Arzavion – has remained grounded in spite of his winning ways in the sulky.

Buford, as he always has, never likes to look too far down the road.

"I'm the type of person that just likes to go with the flow. I try not to put the buggy before the horse. I take it as it comes. I set goals, but I don't make plans. When I do that, it always works out well in the end."

It's one of many things he'll no doubt share in the book he's determined to see become a reality.

For now, he'll channel his energies into racing. Soon enough, though, he'll find time for that book.

As for its title, consider it a work in progress.

"It's the conversation I just had with my aunt. She told me the title of the book is so important. I haven't put that much thought into what that would be. When the racing season is over in Illinois and I go back home, I'm going to put some thought into it and focus on it. I really want to share my story with people."

A story about how harness racing has been the ultimate game changer for the man from Mississippi.

"I look at it as a blessing. Not so long ago, I was dreaming about harness racing. Now, I'm living it. The dream has become a reality. Life isn't good, life is great."

The late Charlie Keller III at his family's Yankeeland Farms in 2007.

Charlie Keller III dead at 82

by USTA communications department

Charles Ernest Keller III, 82, of Frederick, MD, and New Smyrna Beach, FL, died peacefully on Aug. 13, 2021.

He was born on Aug. 4, 1939, in Frederick to Charles E. Keller Jr. and Martha Williamson Keller. Along with two younger siblings, Donald and Jeanie, he spent his childhood with their many neighborhood friends playing baseball, basketball and other sports in the parks, YMCA and Little League diamonds around town.

He attended Frederick High School and graduated in 1957. He was especially proud to be part of the winning state championship basketball team that year under Coach Homer Brooks.

Mr. Keller attended the University of Maryland and played on both the freshman baseball and basketball teams. In 1959, he left College Park and, along with his brother Donald, signed with the New York Yankees. It was also in 1959 that he married his high school sweetheart, Connie Jean Butler of Buckeystown. They have been lovingly together ever since.

Mr. Keller played three years in the Yankees farm system for teams in Texas, North Dakota, Virginia and New York, earning many accolades and awards. In 1961, while playing for the Binghamton (N.Y.) Triplets, he led the Eastern League with a .349 batting average. He was also first in slugging percentage, on base percentage, total bases, doubles and triples as well as second in RBIs and third in home runs. His performance propelled him to the 1961 Eastern League All-Star team, a "Maryland Future Star" award from the Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association and second place in voting for The Sporting News' Minor League Player of the Year. Later, in 2007, he was inducted into the Binghamton Triplets' Hall of Fame.

After his stellar season with the Triplets, in 1962 he was called up to the "Bigs," reporting to spring training with the Yankees in St. Petersburg, FL, where he hoped to follow in his father's footsteps. Unfortunately, persistent back injuries forced him to retire just before the regular season began. Locally, in 1989, he was inducted into the Alvin G. Quinn Sports Hall of Fame.

After his baseball career, Mr. Keller attended Baltimore College of Commerce and earned his accounting degree. As a Certified Public Accountant, through diligence and innovation in accounting practice management, he ascended to Managing Partner in several firms practicing within the MD-VA-DC region. Throughout the years he was equally proud of the lifelong friendships he developed as well as the fine reputation he garnered in his industry.

He performed as an office holder, committee member, or Board Member in many professional clubs and organizations, such as the Maryland Association of CPA's (MACPA), The American Group of CPA Firms (TAG) and the governing body of the accounting profession, the American Institute of CPA's (AICPA). He was delighted to be included in the inaugural class of inductees into the AICPA's Accounting Hall of Fame.

Mr. Keller also served on many local boards including the YMCA, Homewood Retirement Centers, Hood College, Frederick Memorial Hospital, the Frederick Rotary Club and Christ Reformed Church in Middletown. He was gratified to be instrumental in the development and fruition of the Frederick Campus of the Homewood Retirement Community.

In 1998, Mr. Keller retired from the accounting profession and became more active in the family business, known as Yankeeland

Farms. The farm was established by his father in 1955 after his major league baseball career ended and – along with Donald – grew the farm into a nationally recognized horse breeding operation that was routinely positioned among the sport's leading breeders.

Mr. Keller greatly enjoyed these years and was an integral part of the farm's continued success. He also became active in several prestigious horsemen's organizations and rose to hold prominent offices in all of them. Even though the farm closed its doors in 2007, for a variety of reasons, he always remained active with the horses and industry organizations. He served five terms as a District 11 director for the U.S. Trotting Association (USTA) from 1999-2014 and was active on the finance committee. He became a director of the Hambletonian Society in 2000, later serving on the executive committee of the society and was the executive chairman from 2013 to 2015.

By utilizing a practicality learned during his tenure in the accounting field he was able to help initiate practices to invigorate the sport and put it on solid footing for the future. His accomplishments and good character were acknowledged by the industry by his induction into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2016.

"We have a financial calculation at the USTA that we call the Charlie Keller line," said USTA president Russell Williams. "Back when he was a director, Charlie taught us that a membership association running on members' money must maintain specific reserves against expenses. Thanks to Charlie we are a stronger organization for our members. Charlie did a lot of good that people don't know about, and this is just one example."

After his retirement from the accounting profession, Charlie and Connie moved to New Smyrna Beach, FL. Many trainers bring their horses south to winter in Florida and escape the harsh winter weather. Mr. Keller would often visit the nearby training centers to watch the progress and catch up with his many horsemen friends. Charlie and Connie also enjoyed golf, the beach and many special friends during their golden years in Florida.

Mr. Keller is survived by his wife of 62 years, Connie; son, Charles E. IV (Chaz), daughter-in-law, Emy Jo and daughter, Gabrielle. His grandchildren are Charles E. V (Chase) and wife, Lauren, and Maxann (fiancé Joseph Lockard). His great-grandchildren are Charles E. VI (Chance) and Grant Alexander. He is also survived by his brother, Donald, and his sister, Jeanie Reeder, as well as their very special families.

Contributions in his memory can be made to the Harness Racing Museum and Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY, to the Frederick County, MD YMCA, or to the Hospice of Frederick County. His family would like to express their gratitude to the hospital and hospice workers who were so supportive while he was in their care.

Following a private burial, the family will welcome friends and family to a Celebration of Charlie's Life at Dutch's Daughter Restaurant at 581 Himes Ave., Frederick, on Thursday (Aug. 19) from 1-4 p.m.

Indiana

Indiana crowns its fair circuit champions with Governor's Cup finals

by James Platz

Indiana's fair circuit champions were determined on Sunday (Aug. 15) in Governor's Cup championships held at the Indiana State Fairgrounds in Indianapolis. The group of eight finals were originally slated for Thursday evening, but weather forced fair and Indiana Horse Racing Commission officials to push the events to an 11 a.m. start Sunday morning. This year's editions offered $25,000 purses for each contest, an increase from the traditional $20,000 up for grabs annually.

Several horses turned in impressive performances, led by Rockin Bambi closing out her fair season undefeated. Driven by trainer Terry Skinner, the Rockin Image—Intelligence lass captured the Governor's Cup championship for freshman filly pacers with a 1:55 effort over a fast track, winning by four lengths. Owner Ar'tarius Fleming conditioned the freshman this winter, but had difficulties keeping her flat and enlisted the help of Skinner.

"He was training her himself and she was making breaks. He brought her to the track where I trained. He asked me to drive her one day for him and see what she was doing. I drove and she stayed flat. He asked if I would consider racing her for him. We came to an agreement," said Skinner. "We knew she was a good filly, but we didn't know she would be this good. It was a surprise and a good feeling at the same time."

Bred by Broekhuis Stables LLC and Ernie Hochstetler, Rockin Bambi made her fair debut at Converse, IN in early June, winning by 13 lengths. She went on to triumph in six other events across the state before Sunday's victory. The winning time equaled the championship mark for freshman pacing fillies, set by Tropical

Dean Gillette

Driver Jordan Ross picked up his second win on the program when he steered Swan Fine Lady (above) to a 1:58.1 win in the $25,000 Governor's Cup final for 3-year-old filly trotters, two and one-half lengths in front at the wire. Ross also drove Northern Network to victory in the $25,000 final for sophomore pacing colts.

Dean Gillette

Luv Lorelei (Matt Rheinheimer) won the $25,000 championship for freshman trotting fillies in a time of 2:02.4 at the Indiana State Fairgrounds in Indianapolis.

Tracey and Trace Tetrack in 2019. It is the first Governor's Cup championship for each of the connections.

"Being undefeated anywhere is a hard thing to do now because there is so much competition. Horses are a whole lot faster," Skinner said of the unblemished fair slate. "To go to different tracks and win every time is really hard to do. I don't expect any horse to do that. It doesn't work like that."

Eight different sires were represented over the course of the octet of championship races. LuckyChris, a colt from the first crop of Luck Be Withyou, collected the Governor's Cup championship for 2-year-old male pacers in a time of 1:55.2. Trained by Curis Rice for D and R Racing Stable, the freshman earned six wins in seven fair stops leading into Sunday. Tetrack sat behind the Cletus Christner-bred winner to add his second Governor's Cup championship in three years in this category. Rice picked up his third win as a trainer (he also owned the previous two champions), while D and R Racing added their second.

Driver Jordan Ross and Northern Network equaled a long-held championship record en route to winning the $25,000 final for sophomore pacing colts. Ross steered the Net Ten Eom—Lets Go B B gelding to a perfect two-hole trip that yielded a three-length victory. The Robert Taylor trainee stopped the timer in 1:52.3, matching the mark set by Cog Hill in the 2003 championship. Bred by Martin Schmucker and owned by Larry Poindexter, Northern Network won twice on the fair circuit this season to rank seventh in points.

Two days after nearly upsetting the $325,000 Dan Patch Stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park with his charge, Tellmeaboutit, trainer Alvin Miller locked up a Governor's Cup championship with Northern Rocks in record time. Piloting the Guccio—Matriarch gelding for breeder/owner Martin Schmucker, the duo wired the field and finished four and one-half lengths in front, tripping the timer in 1:56.3. The winning time knocked nearly a full second off the previous mark of 1:57.2, set by Canwetabemnow and Mike Peterson in 2018, and equaled by Jesse Popper and Alex Udell in 2019. The victory is the fifth for Miller in fair championship events as a conditioner.

Dean Gillette

Rockin Bambi (Terry Skinner) closed out her fair season undefeated with a 1:55 victory in the Governor's Cup for freshman filly pacers.

Hand Dover Dan was a quarter-length winner over Classy Tom in the $25,000 Governor's Cup championship for freshman trotting colts. Bred by Dave Mast, the gelding circled the mile in 2:01.1. From the first crop of Dover Dan, the freshman is owned by Julie Rideout and Gracie Rosson. He was a three-time winner on the fair circuit heading into the final for Rideout, who last year captured the same division with Jessies Outlawed.

Muscle Massive filly Luv Lorelei secured victory in the $25,000 championship for freshman trotting fillies Sunday in a time of 2:02.4. Guided by trainer Matt Rheinheimer, the 2-year-old finished three lengths in front to pick up her third fair circuit win for the partnership of Alton Miller, Burt Paddock and Kyle Hupfer. The filly was bred by Larry Troyer.

Joey Putnam fanned three-wide in the last turn with Payroll Protection and drew away from the field to claim the Governor's Cup championship for sophomore filly pacers in a time of 1:55. Bred by Diamond H Racing Stable, the Time To Roll—Sneaky Yankee 3-year-old was the final entry in the field based on points. Trained and owned by Brett Wilfong in partnership with Joseph Baron, Payroll Protection earned her first fair win of the season after recording two runner-up efforts.

Jordan Ross picked up his second win on the program when he steered Swan Fine Lady to a 1:58.1 win in the $25,000 final for 3-year-old filly trotters, two and one-half lengths in front at the wire. The Swan For All—Ladyhattan sophomore collected 11 wins in 12 starts prior to Sunday, finishing with 587 points, over 200 more than her closest fair rival. Owned by Rocking Meadows Stable, Swan Fine Lady is trained by Mervin Schmucker. The filly was bred by Kristin Wagler.

Pennsylvania

Stars to shine on Pocono's Sun Stakes Saturday

by PHHA / Pocono

The top trotters and pacers in North America will be coming to The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono this Saturday afternoon (Aug. 21), seeking to boost their bankrolls and place in the pecking order as they compete on the $2,038,000 Sun Stakes Saturday card.

There are 11 stakes or invitational races on the 14-race card, which begins at 12:30 p.m.; the other three contests will be for fast-class pacers who have demonstrated the ability to go in 1:50. The four 3-year-old races were seeded by money won in 2021; there is a consolation in each of these races for the next-highest money-winners declaring in, and in the case of the Hempt there are two consolations based on the number of entries.

Here is a brief look at the two Invitationals and then the four stakes races for 3-year-olds:

$75,000 SEBASTIAN K S INVITATIONAL TROT (Race 8)

Manchego decided to bypass this event, but her archival over the past few years, Atlanta, will be here. The daughter of Chapter Seven, a winner of exactly half of her 56 lifetime starts and $2,857,999 in her storied career, comes into this race off a tough two-move victory in 1:50.4 victory in the Dr. John Steele trot on Hambletonian Day at The Meadowlands. In the field of nine, she landed post five, the most productive post at Pocono. Yannick Gingras is scheduled to drive for trainer Ron Burke and the ownership of Crawford Farms Racing, Brad Grant, and Howard Taylor.

The race will certainly not be a walkover for Atlanta, though, with the likes of the tough mare When Doves Cry and two millionaires who always seem to be in the picture, Ready For Moni and Lindy The Great.

$75,000 ALWAYS B MIKI INVITATIONAL PACE (Race 14)

The Somebeachsomewhere gelding Nicholas Beach, who this season has blossomed into a top free-for-aller after a couple of seasons climbing the class ladder on the eastern Pennsylvania scene, deserves top mention here as he begins from post two in a nine-horse field for the brother-sister team of driver Joe and trainer Jenn Bongiorno and the ownership of John Lengacher, Michael Cote Gagnon, and Jennifer Bongiorno Stable LLC. Nicholas Beach has six wins and three seconds (by two necks and a half-length) this year, and since opening his campaign with a 1:51.1 win here in March, his five wins have averaged 1:48.1 (not counting his record 1:47.4 qualifying victory).

One of his chief competitors will be starting just to his inside: Backstreet Shadow, a millionaire coming off a third, beaten only a half-length in the Dan Patch at Hoosier after having to go first-over. Southwind Ozzi, the 2019 Little Brown Jug winner, has won four of his last six, but post seven may be difficult to surmount.

DELMONICA HANOVER 3YO FILLY TROT ($250,000 championship (Race 10); $125,000 consolation (Race 4))

A new event on the stakes calendar at Pocono, the inaugural Delmonica Hanover looks to be a fairly wide-open event. The Southwind Frank filly Flawless Country, last year's 2020 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion, has yet to visit the winners circle in 2021, but she has been in the thick of things in most of her starts, and looks to visit the winners circle as she starts from post four in a nine-horse gathering for trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt and the ownership of Wolfgang A Stable, Borje Nasstrom, and Åke Svanstedt Inc.

The rail should aid the cause of 2021 double Pennsylvania Sire Stakes winner You Ato Dream; just to her right is Pub Crawl, who succeeded in the PA Sire Stakes two starts ago.

JAMES LYNCH MEMORIAL 3YO FILLY PACE ($250,000 championship (Race 9), $125,000 consolation (Race 5))

Test Of Faith is concentrating on New York, but the rest of the top fillies of this division are all here. Most intriguing is the Panther Hanover filly Hot Mess Express, owned by basketball star Sam Bowie and undefeated in seven starts this year, including a victory over 2020 divisional champion Fire Start Hanover – but in a real “acid test” for her, she'll have to overcome the outside post nine for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Tony Alagna.

Fire Start Hanover, a model of consistency this year as she was in her championship season last year, will make her presence felt, as will her stablemate Grace Hill, also a recent conqueror of Fire Start Hanover, and 2020 PA Sire Stakes champ Blue Diamond Eyes, coming off three wins in 1:50 or faster.

MAX C. HEMPT MEMORIAL 3YO COLT PACE ($300,000 championship (Race
11), $200,000 consolation I (Race 7),
$100,000 consolation II (Race 2)

The number of entries for the Hempt is reflective of the fact that it has been a topsy-turvy season in the sport's "glamour division," with no one horse able to claim being King Of The Hill for more than a couple of weeks at a time. Maybe the Hempt will help bring some clarification – but as strong and deep as this field is, the picture may be just as muddy after the contest.

Lawless Shadow (the Meadowlands Pace winner), Southwind Gendry (2020 PA Sires champ and always in the thick of it in 2021), Perfect Sting (2020 national champion and on the board in all seven seasonal starts), Hellabalou (semi-surprise sweeper of the Adios elimination and final), and Rockyroad Hanover (the Cane Pace winner who has not had the best of racing luck) all could have laid claim to #1 position at different points of the campaign so far. We'll see if anyone can make a definitive statement in the Hempt.

EARL BEAL JR. MEMORIAL 3YO COLT
TROT ($300,000 championship (Race 12), $200,000 consolation (Race 6))

One horse who certainly did make a definitive statement in his last race is Captain Corey, a son of Googoo Gaagaa (who won this race in 2012). Last year's Pennsylvania champion, Captain Corey had been building up his form in the early season, and on the perfect stage to put it all together – the $1 million final of The Hambletonian – Captain Corey was an emphatic 1:51 winner. Svanstedt said that Captain Corey, owned by S R F Stable, Knutsson Trotting, Midnight Sun Partners, and Åke Svanstedt Inc. was coming into top form, backed up his claim, and will try to add another win to the record of the leading money-winning trotter of 2021.

Spy Booth, though still a maiden, was second in the Hambletonian and may be a late bloomer; Captain Corey's stablemate Johan Palema was the Yonkers Trot winner, has over $300,000 on his card this year, and would be no surprise if he made his presence felt.

Program pages for this outstanding card will be available at <https://www.phha.org/downsmsppps.html>.

A magnificent equine, an unequaled promotional symbol – Part 2

by Frank Coto

Part 1 is here.

Alternative Actions (AA) is confident about one thing: harness racing's best promotional image is the standardbred. In part two of our treatise, AA offers a fresh theme with specific media ideas to attract new fans and bettors to harness raceways – by concentrating on the outstanding qualities of a "harness horse."

Standardbred facts, along with visual proof of their prowess, present an animal that is nothing less than astounding. They are a big deal. People unacquainted with harness racing do not know how big a deal. In fact, some people acquainted with harness racing do not know, either.

Educating prospective followers of the mighty standardbred should never approach the academic. It must come from the gut, where we all deserve to know the animal is as strong as it is graceful and resilient; a different breed endowed with talents no other horse inherits through blood.

Without directly comparing a standardbred to a thoroughbred, inferences of superiority can be conveyed merely by stating the facts about the standardbred, facts that are rarely, if ever, pronounced. The image will always lean on the truth; like the standardbred is bigger, more muscular and can manage rough conditions, speed and tactic without galloping. No thoroughbred could ever be taught those qualities.

And none of what is truly compelling about this breed will be kept from the public ever again. Nor will praise for the breed, be it boastful, because at the root of harness racing is a beast up to 16 hands tall and a thousand pounds that proves the engine is the source of it all, not the driver or the sulky or which way the wind blows.

"In harness racing, it's the standardbreds that harness the power."

That's a great last line for a video promo, is it not? A good video director will be able to create short, explosive visions of standardbreds in full regalia pacing and trotting in a race, keeping the viewer's eyes close to the animal where its muscles coordinate thrusting moves and that syncopate its speed. And as the viewer watches like a horsefly clinging for its life, there is nothing but sounds; the bass-drum-like pounding of the standardbred's hoof beats and the horse's heavy, consistent breathing – the engine guiding the driver (who's never seen in frame).

It would be a priceless campaign to produce a dozen or so short, loud and colorful spots like the one I just described and place them on YouTube channels, the ones that have nothing to do with harness racing (you've seen the random YouTube commercials that are shown without prompting, the ones that promise your video will start in 10 seconds).

If the dozen or so different brief spots rotated from channel to channel repetition makes the point. Each would be shot from a different angle, each using a different horse; sometimes the view would be from the gait, a trotter's or pacer's stride hitting the track, sometimes on a dry surface and in other times hitting the sloppy surface or hitting the dirt as the rain pelts in harmony with the gait or even as the snow is falling, attempting to blind man and beast.

"Look and listen to the mighty moves of the perfect animal."

There's another great line to use in the final seconds of a spot.

These spots (as many as a budget will allow) would be the beginning of a campaign that shouts attention to the horse and these snippets will have viewers' senses captured in the few moments they screen, always ending with a statement, always leaving the viewer with an unforgettable lasting image – and a strong statement.

So what? It's an introduction that at the very least makes the viewer say, "What the hell was that?" and such curiosity builds with every spot one sees until it is time to expand the information about this horse and its unmitigated force that portrays something more than horse racing and certainly volumes about the breed too many people do not know.

And it is all true, told in promotional videos and with social media platforms and any other way they can be viewed. Once the standardbred is introduced (and re-introduced because the spots do not stop as the full campaign continues), it can be appreciated as the ultimate racing animal. So, during the first phases of such a campaign, nothing about betting or handicapping is mentioned. Yet, the virtues of the racing standardbred that are once and for all displayed as magnificent will be convincingly more than just harness horses.

"Oh," says someone seeing some spots who heard of harness racing but was not aware of anything about horse involved, "I thought that was a thing for old people."

"Hey, I went to the harness races a few times," says someone who knew harness racing exists but is unaware of the particular specialties of the animal, "but I thought it was the guys in the carts did all the work."

In part 3, AA will explain the rest of the campaign with stunning footage of the standardbreds in action, in which the strength and consistency of the standardbred makes wagering on it more exciting and dependable.

Driver Bob McClure two-for-two in Gold Series action

Driver Bob McClure swept the 2-year-old pacing colt Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series divisions at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (Aug. 14), steering Stonebridge Helios and Kolby Two Step to impressive victories.

In the first $99,800 division McClure and Stonebridge Helios wound up at the back of the six-horse field from Post 6 and watched from there as fan favorite Erinwood Yves controlled the pace through fractions of :27.2, :56.4 and 1:24.4. Coming off the final turn McClure turned Stonebridge Helios loose in an open lane and the Sunshine Beach horse powered down the stretch in :26.1 to get a head in front of Erinwood Yves at the 1:52 finish. Camealongway was another head back in third. (replay here: Stonebridge Helios)

"That's definitely the worst drive I've given this week, luckily there was a lot of horsepower in front of me or he probably wouldn't have been top three with the position I had him in," said McClure. "And there was a headwind here tonight too. They're not supposed to make up ground with a headwind, not like that."

John Pentland trains Stonebridge Helios and owns the colt in partnership with breeder Angie Stiller of Arva and John Fleischman of Ottawa, ON. The London, ON resident was deeply impressed with the colt, who was also a winner in the July 16 Gold Leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"That was big time, that was a big time thrill," said Pentland. "He didn't look to me like he'd hit the board, I had just kind of resolved myself, maybe he'll get up for fourth. That's a good horse."

"I said the other day, he's one of the three best horses I think I've ever sat behind. The other two would be Chancey Lady and Chatham Light." Pacing mare Chancey Lady was a winner of $2 million who took a record of 1:48.4 in 2010, and pacing horse Chatham Light earned $849,845 in his career, taking a record of 1:53.3 in 1990. "I don't know if he's going to end up anywhere in that kind of company, I have no idea, he's got to do a lot more, but he's just such a nice horse, so good gaited, drives so good, do anything you want with him. He's a real class act that horse."

McClure was back in the winner's circle four races later with the bettor's second choice Kolby Two Step. Starting from Post 3, Kolby Two Step left smartly and settled in behind Century Inspector before the :27.2 quarter. McClure soon sent Kolby Two Step to the lead and was pursued by Bob Loblaw, who hit the half in :55.3. McClure then tipped Kolby Two Step out behind Betterhavemymoney, but the fan favorite did not have his usual pop and McClure was soon looking for a wider lane. In the stretch Kolby Two Step kicked home to a one and one-half length win in a personal best 1:51.2. Century Inspector closed for second and Bob Loblaw stayed game for third. (replay here: Kolby Two Step)

"It's a tricky situation sometimes, those small fields," said McClure. "Usually there's a cheap middle half and it's tough to make up ground, but that was obviously not the case in Kolby Two Step's race. That was a very exciting race for a five horse field. I wish it had of been a little more boring."

"I left out, I had to re-move, I had to grab up, and when I went to ask him a third time I was in disbelief that he had some more to give me."

McClure drives Kolby Two Step for trainer Timothy Gillespie of Grafton and his co-owner Jason Churchill of Colborne, ON. The win was the Betterthancheddar son's third of the season. He was also victorious in his July 1 debut and in the July 9 Grassroots Leg, both at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and finished second to Betterhavemymoney in the July 16 Gold Leg.

"The first time I baby raced him (June 25) they indicated that they were hoping to put him in the Grassroots the next Friday, but when they pulled him out of the stall he was just a monster of a horse, and then as soon as you got on the track you could feel that there was some power there. After his qualifier I told them, 'You might want to set your standards a little higher here, I think he's a legitimate Gold colt,'" said McClure. "And then he jogged in his first lifetime start, then he blew them away in his second, in a Grassroots, and I thought he raced awesome in his first Gold. He had to do a lot of work, and he had to triple move and he just got beat by a better horse that night, by Betterhavemymoney."

The fourth Gold Series Leg goes postward Sept. 4 at Woodbine Mohawk Park and both Stonebridge Helios and Kolby Two Step are eligible for the Champlain Stakes one week later, however that is the only open stake event either colt has on his calendar. Following the Champlain they will return to Gold Series action on Oct. 3 at Flamboro Downs before wrapping up their season in the Oct. 16 Super Final.

Complete results from Saturday's program are available here and repays can be viewed on Woodbine Mohawk Park's YouTube channel.

I Did It Myway, Market Based impress in Pocono stakes

I Did It Myway ran his career record to five-for-five – at five different racetracks – and notched his third straight Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) victory as the 2-year-old pacing colts came to The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono during a Sunday twilight card for their third preliminary round of action.

A Captaintreacherous–Flyme To The Moon colt, I Did It Myway had won previously at The Meadowlands, The Meadows, Harrah's Philly, and The Red Mile, but this test proved his toughest as he won by a nose in 1:52.1. Todd McCarthy got the winner to the lead, around Wearinmysixshooter, past a :27.1 opening split, then put up fractions of :56, and 1:24.1. On the far turn he looked like he had gone clear, but he bore a bit wide (a phenomenon often manifested by first-time starters at Pocono, especially two-year-olds, possibly because that's where the paddock is located), but I Did It Myway regathered himself and held off the tough two-holer, with railshooting Treacherous Tom only a head away from taking it all.

I Did It Myway now has earnings of $128,658 for trainer Tony Alagna and the ownership of Country Club Acres Inc., Joe Sbrocco, Don Latore, and Alagna And Fodera Racing.

While I Did It Myway has shown himself capable to handle any oval so far, the royally-bred Sweet Lou – Economy Terror colt Market Based has been victorious at only one track – Pocono (he suffered interference at The Meadows and then went off-stride at Philly in his other two Sire Stakes starts). But all systems were “go” on this occasion, as Dexter Dunn let early traffic settle in a :27.4 first quarter, got to the half without incident in :56.4, then saw his charge throw a :28 third panel and then a :27 kicker to win by 2¼ lengths over JM's Final Treasure in a lifetime best of 1:51.4. Nancy Takter is in charge of the fast baby for Chuck Pompey, Ed Gold, and H&M Taylor Stable.

There were also three divisions of Stallion Series action, with the Captaintreacherous–Odds On Lassomyhrt colt Captain Cowboy remaining undefeated in three starts, all in StS competition, after blitzing home from third in :54.4 to post a 1:53.4 triumph, 1¼ lengths ahead of 76-1 shot Twist Knot, for driver Yannick Gingras, trainer Åke Svanstedt, and the partnership of Åke Svanstedt Inc. and Little E Inc.

Another son of Captaintreacherous, Hammering Hank (dam History Repeats), is undefeated in three career outings, two in Stallion Series races, after taking a new mark of 1:52.2, also coming his own last half in :54.4, to run down a tough pacesetter in Layton Hanover by a neck. The gelding was driven by Dexter Dunn for trainer Brett Pelling and the partnership of 3 Brothers Stables, Pelling Racing LLC, and Rojan Stables.

In the other Stallion Series split, the Always B Miki–One For The Beach gelding My Miki Beach came down from Canada and promptly broke his maiden in 1:53.3 by a length over P J Lou. Yannick Gingras was the driver for trainer Amanda Fine, who shares ownership in the winner with Highland Thoroughbred Farm.

Think Of Galaxies and Test Of Faith get NYSS wins at Vernon

Think Of Galaxies (Mark MacDonald) and Test Of Faith (David Miller) each got New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) wins, as Vernon Downs played host to two divisions for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (Aug. 14).

Think Of Galaxies was the upset winner ($21.40) in the $55,000 first division.

The big favorite Heart Of Mine (Scott Zeron) went straight to the front followed by Think Of Galaxies and hit the first quarter in :27.4. Heart Of Mine used a :30.2 second quarter to hit the half first in :58.1. Think Of Galaxies pops the pocket as they headed for three-quarters. Heart Of Mine hit three-quarters first in 1:27.4 but suffered broken equipment and went on a break.

As they made the turn for home Think Of Galaxies took control but Delightful Z Tam (Pat LaChance) came flying late. Think Of Galaxies had the jump and hung on to win in 1:54.2. Delightful Z Tam was second. DC Batgirl (Matt Kakley) finished third.

Think Of Galaxies is a filly by So Surreal. Owned by Jonathan Klee Racing and Peter Kleinhans while trained by John McDermott. It was her third win of the season and sixth career victory.

Test Of Faith ($2.10) dazzled in the $56,000 second division.

Purameri (Leon Bailey) took the early lead but Test Of Faith went on by and led to the first quarter in :28.2. Test Of Faith controlled things and led to the half in :57.1. Party Queen was the first to make a move going first-up around the turn. Test Of Faith was strong to three-quarters in 1:25.1.

As they reached the stretch Test Of Faith found another and made it a race for second as she cruised home to win in 1:51.3. Purameri was second as So Diva (Mark MacDonald) came up to finish third.

Test Of Faith is a filly by Art Major. She is trained by Brett Pelling for owners Melvin Segal, Kentuckiana Racing Stable, and Eddie Gran. It was her sixth win in 2021. She has now won 14 of 16 career starts.

Somewhere Fancy wins Trial 3

Somewhere Fancy proved beyond a doubt that he loves Prince Edward Island as the veteran pacer led at every call in Trial 3 of The Guardian Gold Cup and Saucer Monday night (Aug. 16) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Marc Campbell pushed his way to the lead with Somewhere Fancy in the $12,500 trial and cruised through splits of :27.4, :56.1 and 1:26 before unleashing a wild :26.4 closing panel to win in 1:50.4. Smooth Lou (driven by Jason Hughes) sat the pocket to finish second while Legion Seelster (Richard Simard) was third to earn a spot in the final. They will join Ideal Perception, Rock Lights, Racemup, Time To Dance, Evenwood Sonofagun and Day Delight in Saturday night's prestigious final that will cap off Gold Cup Week 2021. It was win number 57 of Somewhere Fancy's career for owner John Mehlenbacher of Oakville, ON with Chris MacKay handling the training duties.

Dustylanegoliath won his $16,200 Atlantic Sires Stakes A-division for 3-year-old pacing colts on the card in 1:53.3 for trainer/driver Gilles Barrieau and owner Daniel Ross of Belfast for the Steelhead Hanover colt's third straight win.

Bruce Ranger surpasses $40 million in career earnings

When Bruce Ranger won the sixth race at Plainridge Park with Beach Watch on Monday (Aug. 16), he surpassed the career milestone of $40 million in driving earnings. The win came in typical Ranger fashion with a gate to wire victory by open lengths, tying the horse's lifetime mark.

A native of Portland, ME, the 61-year-old Ranger started his driving career in 1979 at the Skowhegan Fair where he scored his first victory. From there his career took him to other tracks in Maine, Massachusetts and Florida, where he was a perennial star and all-time dash leader at Pompano Park.

In 2015 Ranger decided to call it a career and became a starting judge in his home state. But after being out of the sulky for three years, Ranger felt physically refreshed from the time off and got the itch to go from riding in the starting gate, to getting back behind it. He returned to action at Scarborough Downs during the Maine Sire Stake finals in the fall of 2018.

Since climbing back into the bike, Ranger has been a regular at Plainridge Park and has taken his spot near or at the top of the leaderboard for the last three years. At the current Plainridge meet Ranger is the leading dash driver with 117 wins and $995,771 in earnings. Over the three years he's raced there since his comeback Ranger has had 1,148 starts with 231 wins, 170 seconds and 143 thirds with $2,058,389 in earnings and a Universal Driver Rating of .332.

Ranger's overall career numbers are also outstanding. He surpassed 9,500 wins earlier this year and now has 9,580 to date. That puts him 21st on the North American all-time driving wins list and 17th among active reinsmen. He also has 7,523 seconds and 6.088 thirds with a total current bank of $40,002,908.

Ranger has won in excess of $1 million in a single season 17 times including 13 straight from 1998 to 2010, and just missed doing it in four other years. His best single season came in 2004 when he won 569 races and $2.4 million in purses. And despite all the starts, Ranger has always been a very high percentage driver and has a career UDR of .337.

Beside the many driving crowns Ranger has won over the years, he has also been honored with placement in the United States Harness Writers Association's New England and Florida Chapter's Hall of Fame.

Freshman trotting fillies in PASS action at Pocono

The royally-bred (Father Patrick–Shake It Cerry) 2-year-old trotting filly Mon Cheval live up to her pedigree by winning the faster division of the third preliminary in her Pennsylvania Sire Stakes group with a 1:54.4 victory on Monday at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono.

Mon Cheval won a Pennsylvania All-Stars division here in 1:54.3 first purse start, then had a bit of difficulty coping with post 10 and then post nine in her Doherty Memorial events. Making her first PASS start and her first start since the Doherty, the filly was ready to go for trainer Nancy Takter and driver Dexter Dunn, moving to the lead past a :27.3 opener, leading past mid-splits of :57.1 and 1:25.3, and then trotting home unchallenged, portending a bright future for her and the ownership of Solveig's Racing Partners.

The other division went to the Åke Svanstedt trainee at the end of the starting gate — but while before the race most thought that would be the rail horse, Baptism, first and second in her previous PASS engagements, it turned out to be the filly at the outside end of the gate, the Southwind Frank–Ebbside Hall distaff Ebbies Lady, who won while breaking her maiden in 1:55.2. Svanstedt handled the driving assignment on this one as he is part-owner along with Young Guns, and he put the filly on the lead through fractions of :28.1, :58.3, and 1:26.3, then withstood her stablemate by 1½ lengths.

There were four divisions of this group's Stallion Series competition, with Dexter Dunn guiding the fastest winner in this competition as well, Born On Third Base, a Donato Hanover filly out of the talented House that Ruth built. Born On Third Base is undefeated in four career starts, two of them StS contests, and here took a mark of 1:55.4 for trainer Chuck Sylvester and owner Steve Jones.

Donato Hanover picked up another credit when Design Fashion won her third straight, two in the Stallion Series, with a new mark of 1:56.4 for driver Matt Kakaley, trainer Jim Campbell, and Fashion Farms LLC. Father Patrick sired a winner at both levels of competition, as Shestheluckyone (dam Panana Republic) broke her maiden by open lengths in 1:58 for driver Simon Allard, trainer Mark Akins, and A 1 Racing. The other Stallion Series section also saw a maiden triumph, as the Andover Hall–Gillovny Hanover filly Newell Place won in 1:57 for driver Yannick Gingras, trainer John Calabrese, and Calabrese Farms LLC.

McClure nets another OSS double in freshman pacing colt action

For a second night, 2-year-old pacing colts were the feature performers at Woodbine Mohawk Park, competing in five $22,000-plus Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots divisions on the Monday evening (Aug. 16) program, and driver Bob McClure added two more wins to his OSS tally with Contact Zone and Dynamites Peak.

Contact Zone captured the second $22,500 division, taking command heading past the half and then cruising home five lengths ahead of My Blueberry Buck in a personal best 1:53. Stone Carver was two more lengths back in third. (replay here: Contact Zone)

"He's a very nice colt. I've been high on him and I'm sure he's a Gold colt, but he's been green and needed more experience and confidence," said trainer Casie Coleman Herlihy on the decision to return to the Grassroots program for the third leg after tackling the Gold colts on July 16. "He will most likely try some of the open events he's paid into and the Gold next. He's getting smarter and stronger each week."

Contact Zone finished a quick-closing second in the July 9 Grassroots opener before stepping up to the Gold level and logging an eighth-place result in his July 16 division, both at Woodbine Mohawk Park. He then finished second in a July 30 overnight at the Campbellville oval before scoring his first lifetime win on Aug. 6.

John Fielding of Toronto and David Anderson of Aurora, ON share ownership of the son of Bettors Delight and Impact Zone, who was a $175,000 purchase out of last fall's Standardbred Horse Sales Company's 2020 yearling sale.

McClure picked up his second win in the last $22,850 division, teaming up with Dynomites Peak for a thrilling finish. Eighth at the three-quarter pole, Dynomites Peak rocketed home in :26.2 to snatch a win away from Century Iglesias in a personal best 1:52.3. Sports Adviser rounded out the top three and favorite Chikaboom was fourth. (replay here: Dynomites Peak)

"He had a very impressive closing kick. It was the same impressive closing kick he showed the last time I drove him, in his first Grassroots (July 9)," said McClure. "I don't know how many moves, or how big of a move he's got, but for one move he is extremely fast. He's got that high, high turn of speed. I'm surprised he only came home in :26.2, I really thought he was touching :25."

Robbie Robinson of Metcalfe trains Dynomites Peak for owners Jacqueline Dinelle and Paul Smyth of Metcalfe and Earl Casselman of Winchester, ON, who offered up $7,000 for the Artspeak son at last fall's Ontario Select Yearling Sale. With a perfect 100 points in two Grassroots starts, the gelding currently sits in a three-way tie for top spot in the two-year-old pacing colt division standings.

Macho Phil got things under way in the first $22,500 division with a confident steer from James MacDonald that saw him on the front end before the halfway marker and cruising home a one and one-quarter length winner in 1:52.3. Century Invictus and Shotgun Jerry followed the fan favorite under the wire in second and third. (replay here: Macho Phil)

"I was real happy with his effort tonight. It was nice to see him forwardly placed early in the mile so he didn't have so much ground to make up late," said trainer Shawn Steacy. "He's a very green, professional colt, that's just starting to learn how to race."

Monday's outing was Macho Phil's first in OSS action. The son of Shanghai Phil, owned by Katherine Steacy of Lansdowne, ON and breeder Hudson Standardbred Stable Inc. of Hudson, QC, had made two starts in overnight action at Woodbine Mohawk Park, finishing sixth on Aug. 3 and fourth on Aug. 10.

The third $22,850 division saw Magical Arthur benefit from a move down to the Grassroots from the Gold Series. In rein to Sylvain Filion, the Artspeak son was on top before the half and paced home unchallenged in 1:55. Bootlegger Charlie and Hes Stalking You finished second and third, and fan favorite St Lads Sterling settled for fourth. (replay here: Magical Arthur)

"He's a very nice colt. He's been a top colt for me all along. We thought after qualifying he might make a Gold colt for us, and we probably should have gone to the Grassroots earlier," said trainer Anthony Beaton. "He was actually super tonight."

Magical Arthur made his racing debut in the July 16 Gold Leg and finished seventh. He then tried his hand over Grand River Raceway's half-mile oval in the July 26 Battle Of Waterloo eliminations and made a break before finishing seventh. He rebounded from those efforts with a runner-up finish in overnight action at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 3 and Beaton and owner/breeder David Lumsden of Ancaster, ON are hoping he continues to go forward off Monday's win.

In the other $22,850 division, Cold Creek Queso and driver Austin Sorrie turned a pocket trip behind fan favorite Twin B Jammer into a one-half length victory in 1:54. Twin B Jammer settled for second and Sports Fan was another length back in third. (replay here: Cold Creek Queso)

Monday's outing was Cold Creek Queso's second lifetime start. The Betterthancheddar son, with Sorrie in the race bike, finished a fast-closing second in his racing debut at Georgian Downs on Aug. 7. Murray Brethour of Sunderland trains the homebred gelding for Cold Creek Standardbred of Grafton, ON.

The freshman pacing colts will make their fourth Grassroots stop at Clinton Raceway on Sept. 5.

Complete results from Monday's program are available here and replays can be viewed on the Woodbine Mohawk Park YouTube channel.

Really Fast rips to victory in Kentucky Championship preliminary

After making a break and finishing ninth in the $1 million Hambletonian, Nancy Takter trainee Really Fast promptly rebounded with a forceful 1:52.3 performance to take the $40,000 second-round division of the Kentucky Championship Series for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Tuesday (Aug. 17) at The Red Mile.

Driver Dexter Dunn dashed the Muscle Hill colt to the top from post 5 as Venerate and Rattle My Cage made breaks at the start. Kildare King protected position from the pylons to sit the pocket moving to a :27.4 first quarter and gave chase as Really Fast sped to the half in :55.2 before opening daylight.

Kildare King began to falter into the final turn, leaving Really Fast five-lengths clear past three-quarters in 1:23.3. With then 10 lengths detached from the field, Really Fast coasted to the finish as 1-2 favorite Dancinginthedark M made late gains to take second, beaten 4-3/4 lengths. Tangled Love finished third with Venerate regaining stride early and rallying for fourth.

Owned by Brixton Medical Inc., Hatfield Stablers, Marvin Katz and breeder Al Libfeld, Really Fast won his fifth race from 10 starts, earning $188,375. He paid $8.80 to win.

Trainer/driver Jordan Derue bested a classy field in the $40,000 Kentucky Championship split for 3-year-old trotting fillies with Empressive Hill, who recovered from a parked mile in round one to deliver as the 9-5 choice in a 1:52.4 mile.

With Beltassima scratched sick, speed came from Lady Chaos, Argyle and Adirondack as they aligned in that respective order to a :28.4 first quarter. Adirondack soon angled from third into the backstretch and brushed to the lead with Lady Chaos yielding for the pocket moving to a :56.2 half.

Derue made his move with Empressive Hill into the final turn, catching cover from Piper Hanover as she attempted to make first-over gains into the slowed third quarter. Adirondack tripped the beam in 1:25.2 but faltered through the stretch while Derue fed his Muscle Hill filly racetrack. Empressive Hill quickly spurred by her competition to post a 4-1/2-length victory over Lady Chaos, with Piper Hanover settling for third and Argyle finishing fourth.

Co-owned by Derue with Bruce Soulsby, Alan Weisenberg and Gil Short, Empressive Hill won her fourth race from five starts this season and her sixth from 12 overall, earning $77,175. She paid $5.60 to win.

Altar ($2.20) blew away her competition in the second of two $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for 3-year-old trotting fillies, winning by 10-3/4 lengths in 1:51.4 for trainer Nancy Takter and driver Dexter Dunn, who registered a total of five wins on the afternoon – three of which came for Takter. Easy Pass ($4.00) romped in the other division, winning by 8-1/4 lengths in 1:54.4 in rein to David Miller for trainer Richard “Nifty” Norman.

Dunn also piloted the fastest winner of the two $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings when passing the beam with Platinum As ($6.00), for trainer Anette Lorentzon, in a time of 1:55. Flemsteen ($4.60) popped pocket to narrowly take the other division for driver Aaron Merriman and trainer Chris Beaver in a 1:56.1 mile.

Sandwiched in the stakes action, Lexington-based James Luttrell recorded his first training victory when his 4-year-old Uncle Peter gelding Unclepete Forcash ($15.60) won a $5,100 overnight race in 1:56.2. Dexter Dunn supplied the winning drive – a neck decision over 8-5 favorite Pete’s Sake – in Luttrell’s third start as a trainer.

Point totals for both the Kentucky Championship and Kentucky Commonwealth Series are available at the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission website (https://khrc.ky.gov/new_docs.aspx?cat=80).

Racing resumes at The Red Mile on Sunday (Aug. 22) with the second round of the Kentucky Championship Series for pacing sophomores. First-race post time is 1 p.m. (EDT).

Pebble Beach powers in Kentucky Championship second round

First-round winner Pebble Beach returned to The Red Mile to post a 1:51.4 victory in taking the $40,000 Kentucky Championship second preliminary for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Monday (Aug. 16).

Driver Todd McCarthy wasted little time with the 1-5 choice and hustled Pebble Beach to the point heading to a :28.2 first quarter. He continued uncontested through a :56.2 half and through three-quarters in 1:24.4 to then sail through the stretch in a :27 sprint to the finish. River Ness pulled first over from fourth into the final turn and gave pursuit to take second, beaten 3-1/2 lengths. Western Era rode the pylons for third with Vicious rallying for fourth.

A colt by Downbytheseaside, Pebble Beach has won three races from four starts, earning $54,800. Noel Daley trains the $2.60 winner for owners Patricia Stable, Joe Sbrocco, Country Club Acres Inc. and LA Express & JAF Racing.

Dont Fence Me In dove through a late opening at the pylons to snag the $40,000 second-round division of the Kentucky Championship Series for 2-year-old pacing fillies, winning in a time of 1:52.4.

Grabbing the lead to the first turn, Dont Fence Me In yielded control past a :27.4 first quarter to Captains Princess, who rolled up the backside unchallenged to a :55.1 half. The pacesetter then slowed the tempo to the far turn, prompting Jazzed to push uncovered for the lead. Captains Princess took the field by three-quarters in 1:23.4 but folded quickly off the turn, leaving Jazzed with a two-length lead. Jazzed maintained control through the stretch until Dont Fence Me In found late room and slid past the late leader to win by a length at the beam. Boudoir Hanover came from second over to finish third while Captains Princess faded to fourth, another 12 lengths behind the top three.

Co-owned by trainer Tony Alagna through Alagna Racing LLC along with Riverview Racing LLC, Steven Head and Jerry Glantz, Dont Fence Me In won her second race from four starts, earning $44,375. Scott Zeron piloted the daughter of Captaintreacherous who paid $4.80 to win.

Six Feet Apart ($3.60) topped the pair of winners in the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings, ripping off cover to a 1:52.4 win in rein to David Miller for trainer Brian Brown, who swept the pair of colt and gelding splits. His pupil Caughtinalandslide ($26.40) took the other division with a similar closing move to post a 1:53.3 mile with Todd McCarthy in the bike.

Queen Of Success ($2.20) led the winners of the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:53.1 win going away for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Tony Alagna. Acrimony ($15.00) seized command midway through the mile in the other division and held firm to the finish of a 1:53.4 mile with Scott Zeron in the sulky for trainer Todd Luther.

Venerable victorious in five, takes Kentucky Championship second round

Jim Doherty Memorial winner Venerable rung her unbeaten streak to five when venturing uncovered to a 1:54.1 victory in the $40,000 Kentucky Championship Series second preliminary for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Sunday (Aug. 15) at The Red Mile.

Off the 3-5 favorite, Venerable landed in fifth as the overflow field of 12 stacked into the first turn. Penelope J powered to the lead from post 10 and took the field past the quarter in :28.1 with opening-round winner Selfie Queen sitting the pocket. Towards the back of the pack entering the backside, second-tier starter Pink Gypsy angled off the pylons and prompted the hands of American Beauty and then Venerable to tip overland in the march to a :57 half.

Venerable led the two-wide tier into the final turn making steady gains on, and soon clearing the lead from, Penelope J. The Richard "Nifty" Norman trainee tripped three-quarters in 1:26 as Selfie Queen raced anxiously and soon lost stride from third inside, and sailed through the stretch chased by a wall of pursuers. More Than Ever emerged from the charge to snag second in the 1:54.1 mile with Pink Gypsy to the center of the track taking third and Spendthemoneyhoney sliding up the pegs for fourth.

A daughter of Walner, Venerable's unbeaten streak has pushed her bankroll to $300,255 for owners David Mc Duffee, Melvin Hartman, Paul Bordogna and Steven Arnold. David Miller piloted the $3.40 winner.

Ron Burke pupil S I P popped pocket and coasted to a 1:53.4 win in the lone $40,000 second-round division of the Kentucky Championship Series for freshmen trotting colts and geldings.

Fast As The Wind fired for the front from post 9 while S I P, leaving from post 8, followed suit to settle into the pocket approaching a :28.3 first quarter. Driver Yannick Gingras stayed put with the Bar Hopping colt while Fast As The Wind raced uncontested to a :57 half.

The leader soon after faced first-over pressure from Bully Boy Hill heading to three-quarters in 1:26.1 but turned that challenger away coming to headstretch. However, the tempo setter could not withstand the fresh legs of S I P as that pocket sitter soared through the stretch to a two-length victory while chased home by first-round winner Double Deceiver. Fast As The Wind faded to third with Rebuff rallying for fourth.

Owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Hatfield Stables, Brixton Medical Inc. and Weaver Brussemi LLC, S I P scored his third win from seven starts, banking $132,432. He paid $9.00 to win.

Branded By Lindy ($5.80) led the winners of the three $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions with a 1:54 mile in rein to Scott Zeron for trainer Domenico Cecere, who sent three winners on the card. Access ($9.60) scored in the opening division in a time of 1:55.3 for trainer Bob Stewart and driver Andrew McCarthy, while Bright Side Up ($14.40) rolled to a 1:55.3 victory in the other division for trainer Marcus Melander and driver Mattias Melander.

Date Night ($2.80) dominated her $20,000 division of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies with a 1:54.3 victory by driver Andy Miller for trainer Julie Miller. The other divisions went to Moni Heist ($5.40), driven by Yannick Gingras to a 1:56 win for trainer Domenico Cecere; and Medley, piloted by Andrew McCarthy to a 1:56.1 mile for trainer Brett Pelling.

Harness the Hope Days schedule for Ontario tracks

Founded by the Dustin Family, Harness the Hope is approaching its 16th year of raising funds, awareness and supporting programs that help those affected by cancer. Proceeds benefit the Breast Cancer Society of Canada and the Pink Pearl Foundation, a lesser-known charitable organization making a big impact by offering social and emotional support to young women in southern Ontario over the course of their cancer journey. In addition, all proceeds from the sale of their merchandise in 2021 enable them to provide care packages for patients receiving active cancer treatments.

Harness the Hope is making three additional stops at these upcoming tracks in Ontario.

"Each racetrack is graciously hosting us and participating in helping us to raise our fundraising goals this year. It truly is a community effort within the harness racing community and there is never a shortage of generosity and sense of community. We are grateful that all those in our industry support our efforts year after year," said Kristy Dustin, co-founder and breast cancer survivor.

Each Harness the Hope Day will feature a "Best Dressed in the Backstretch Contest" for racing participants to take part in. Fantastic prizes will be awarded to each winning "Best Dressed Horse" and "Best Dressed Groom" who display as much "PINK" attire as possible.

Founders and volunteers will be present at each event with a fully stocked table of SWAG available. Patrons attending each event will also be entered to win prizes if they wear "PINK" as a show of support!
