Harness racing was Corey Callahan's escape from the 9-to-5 grind

by Murray Brown

TALES FROM THE CURMUDEON

with MURRAY BROWN

Although Corey Callahan was figuratively born into harness racing, it wasn't until he reached adulthood that he realized that his future rested with the sport. He is the son of long time Eastern Shore trainer Nick Callahan. Growing up, Corey was always around horses but he was far more interested in other sports, mostly hockey and soccer. It was hockey which brought him to Lexington, KY, and the University of Kentucky. But even that immersion in what some might consider to be the world capital of horsedom did not lead to his becoming a full-time horseman, more specifically a full-time driver of harness horses. In fact, it played almost no part in it.

Corey Callahan
in action.

“My parents did not particularly want me to get into harness racing,” Corey said. “My dad wanted me to get a good education then to make my way in the world as I saw fit.

“I was a pretty good athlete. I was all state in soccer and was a fairly decent hockey player. I decided against soccer because it often results in so many lower body injuries. I was originally planning to go to Villanova which had a division two hockey program. However, due to the intricacies of NCAA sports, its hockey program was cancelled. Kentucky had been my second choice, so that is where I went.

“I spent four great years there and graduated with a degree in Business Administration. From there I entered the business world where I worked for recruiting firms specializing in business and finance. I worked at that for a couple of years, but soon tired of what I perceived as the nine-to-five drag and the boredom associated with it. I called my dad and asked him for a job. I had never previously been much involved with the horses. I soon found that I enjoyed being around and working with them.”

At that point, you were in the midst of becoming a full-time horseperson?

“I suppose so. Dad bought a couple of cheap horses that we would own together with which I could learn the trade and with which

“ My cousin is Frank Milby. He told me that he was going to give me my first professional win as a driver. He had this cheap mare who was competitive pacing around 2:00. He put me down to drive her at Rosecroft and she won by eight lengths in 1.57. In her next start, she was claimed. Frank was not all that happy with me. ”

~ Corey Callahan

I could 'practice.' This was in 2005. I joined an amateur driving club where I would race my horses. I was fairly good I guess, but of course, that's all relative, because the others in the club might not have been. I won my first two races and they asked me to leave because they said I was too good. I continued working for my dad and I wanted to get my professional driver's license.

“My cousin is Frank Milby. He told me that he was going to give me my first professional win as a driver. He had this cheap mare who was competitive pacing around 2:00. He put me down to drive her at Rosecroft and she won by eight lengths in 1.57. In her next start, she was claimed. Frank was not all that happy with me.

“Then dad began putting me down to drive the horses in his stable. I continued doing reasonably well. In 2006, dad had me drive Cool Flying Fool for him at Rosecroft. He was the star of his stable. He won in 1.50.4 which at the time was the track record. I continued to do better. I started to get all sorts of catch drives, even drives in stakes races. I won eliminations of a lot of them and the finals in some.

“I loved it!! Every day was a good day!!”

“ Without a doubt Googoo Gaagaa is my all-time favorite [horse]. What a great privilege it was to have been his driver. He was everything that you might look for in a racehorse. He had a great gait and was a powerful presence on the racetrack. He now appears to be on his way to becoming one of the world’s great trotting sires.”

~ Corey Callahan

You began to branch out from being a small-track regional driver at Rosecroft to other tracks in the Northeast.

“Yes. The drives kept increasing to Dover, the Pennsylvania Tracks at Pocono Downs and Chester and to our Valhalla of racetracks, The Meadowlands.”

Do you have any favorite tracks at which you enjoy racing?

“I would answer that by saying not necessarily specific tracks, but more generally larger tracks. I’m not that crazy about racing on half-mile tracks, but having said that, just last night I was fortunate enough to win five races at Harrington, a half-mile track. I suppose the best answer is that I go where the horses I get to drive take me. I love racing at The Meadowlands and The Red Mile of course. They, together with Mohawk, represent the ultimate in North American racing. Not only are the tracks configured so that it is easier on the horses, but also, I believe that the person wagering his hard-earned money generally gets a better bang for his buck. On a half-mile track if you get away worse than fourth, you rarely have much of a chance of winning the race. Whereas on a large track you can often win from anywhere.”

You used to be a regular presence at The Meadowlands, being there for its Friday and Saturday night cards. Now you are not there near as often. Any reason why?

“There are several reasons. One of the chief ones is it’s so time consuming, driving up and down the New Jersey Turnpike on a weekend. It’s not unusual for it to take as long as almost three hours in each direction. That’s not to say that if I had enough drives on good horses to do so that I wouldn’t. The fact is that the quality of the overnight racing there has diminished. They usually have at least two and as many as four amateur races on a Friday night. This takes away from any opportunities that the professionals have to make a living. The most important factor is that I have four young children ranging in age from 5 to 13. I don’t want to be one of those fathers who one day says, ‘I wish I hadn’t missed the best years of my children’s growing up because I was too busy working.’”

Let's speak of those children. Are any of them inclined towards the horses?

“There are four of them, two girls and two boys. The girls – Ceira, 13, and Blakely, 7 – love the horses and are quite involved with them. They both ride and are what I would consider to be quite ‘horsey.’ The boys – Jackson, 11, and Weston, 5 – like the horses, but are much more involved in other sports. I would come close to describing my wife Joanna as almost being a horse whisperer. She has an amazing relationship with them. We live on a small farm that at one time was owned by the Mazik family, who owned the great Silk Stockings. We have a few broodmares on it through which we raise some yearlings.”

You've driven a lot of very good horses. Are there any favorites?

“Without a doubt Googoo Gaagaa is my all-time favorite. What a great privilege it was to have been his driver. He was everything that you might look for in a racehorse. He had a great gait and was a powerful presence on the racetrack. He now appears to be on his way to becoming one of the world's great trotting sires. “I believe if Hollywood had any interest in harness racing, they would have the greatest imaginable story ever if they followed his career, both on the racetrack and at stud. His breeder and owner for a good part of his career, Richard Hans, is one of the greatest horsemen I have ever been around, but he is a man with very few people skills. Can you think of all the story lines that could be pursued?

1. The little guy [Richard Hans] against the entrenched majority.
2. The seemingly impossible: a horse that is bred to pace not only becoming a trotter, but also becoming a champion trotter.
3. His owner/breeder once again going against the tide by standing him at stud.
4. From very little opportunity at stud in North America having him sire a champion trotter here in the Hambletonian winner Captain Corey.
5. After turning down several opportunities to sell him overseas, his owner finally succumbs to the offers and watches him become one of the world's great trotting sires.

“If you didn't know it to have actually happened, you probably wouldn't believe that it did.”

Never Ending was the first horse confirmed for the TAB Eureka. Rob Watson used his Soho Standardbreds slot to lock in the emerging star back in February.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Drama aplenty in the leadup to the $2.1 million TAB Eureka slot race

by Adam Hamilton

What a dramatic race to the wire we have to decide the field for the world's richest harness race, the $2.1 million (AUD) TAB Eureka, let alone the race itself.

When the TAB Eureka was launched almost two years ago, it came with an aim to drive conversation and publicity around the race itself and the sport "24/7 and 365 days a year."

That's an ambitious stretch, but there is no disputing it drives more discussion and debate than any other race Down Under.

It was way back on Feb. 13 – almost seven months before the TAB Eureka was scheduled for Sept. 7 – when the first slot holder confirmed its entrant when Rob Watson used his Soho Standardbreds slot to lock-in emerging star Never Ending.

It was an all-Western Australian affair with Never Ending trained and owned in WA and Watson based there, too.

Watson's choice has proven inspired with Never Ending's continued development seeing him grab outright favouritism for the TAB Eureka despite never having raced outside of his home state.

Prentice has moved to mitigate that by bringing Never Ending across from Perth to Sydney more than three weeks before the race.

"He's settled in well. He'll have had two looks [workouts] at Menangle before a lead-up race [on Aug. 24], so we're leaving no stone unturned," he said.

In contrast, the prize "catch" for slot holders was widely considered to be Jason Grimson's Chariots Of Fire winner Frankie Ferocious. He was a clear favorite for a long time.

His connections fielded many calls from prospective slot owners, but eventually settled on a deal with wagering operator and Eureka naming rights sponsor, TAB.

As can happen, it quickly turned to custard.

Frankie Ferocious failed in three Queensland starts through July and subsequently was ruled out of the TAB Eureka when vets found he needed throat surgery for a breathing issue.

Now, just days out from the race, TAB is still in the market for a replacement.

In an unexpected and innovative twist, TAB revealed on Friday it would use a lead-up race a week before the TAB Eureka – the Racenet Discovery Stakes – to choose its slot entry.

It adds another layer of intrigue and will be welcomed by an array of owners and trainers as a "last chance" opportunity to push their case for a slot.

It should also be a terrific contest given the depth of talent sure to be jostling for that last ticket in.

TAB is one of two, possibly three, slot owners who have had to move to a "Plan B" from their original slot runner.

Wayne Loader moved early to secure Australia's emerging talent, Extreme Sea, for his "Western Jewel" slot. It looked an inspired choice as he strung together some stunning feature wins by huge margins and in sparkling times.

Just when Extreme Sea was vying for favouritism, injury struck and he was relegated to the sidelines and ruled out of the TAB Eureka.

Loader has since iced a new deal with one of Australia's top race mares, Eye Keep Smiling.

Now the spotlight is firmly on multiple Group 1 winner The Lost Storm, who ran seventh in the race last year as a 3-year-old and was locked-in by Aaron Bain Racing and Summit Bloodstock in the hope he would be bigger and stronger this time.

But The Lost Storm is struggling. Big time.

Flops at his two most recent Melton races will surely have Bain and Summit on the hunt for a replacement.

Bain and Summit are ingrained with the powerhouse Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin, who train The Lost Storm. If and/or when they swap runners, it will be to a stablemate.

One of the most logical options for their "Plan B" is gone with star mare Major Delight – a winner of 21 of her 26 starts – being locked into the Team Zav slot of Danny and Jo Zavitsanos last week.

She became the second confirmed mare in the field.

Both have strong connections to Encipher, the mare who caused an upset to win last year's inaugural TAB Eureka.

Encipher was trained by Stewart and Tonkin, who have Major Delight, and driven by Luke McCarthy, who trains and drives Eye Keep Smiling.

Stewart and Tonkin will have multiple runners again this year after having Encipher and The Lost Storm last year.

Although Major Delight is the only absolute definite now, they have the likes of emerging 3-year-old Bay Of Biscay and underrated Perfect Class looming ominously.

Should The Lost Storm drop out, one or both of Bay Of Biscay and Perfect Class would very likely get berths.

To be clear, only two slots still officially remain, those of TAB as outlined, along with leviathan Queensland owners Kevin and Kay Seymour, who had their own megastar Leap To Fame run second in their slot last year.

The 5-year-old Leap To Fame is too old to compete again with the TAB Eureka restricted to only 3- and 4-year-old Australian-bred pacers.

Other confirmed slot entrants are: Captains Knock (Cordina Racing), Don Hugo (slot holder: John Singleton); Free Thinker (Racing Queensland), Fighter Command (Tasracing).

Fighter Command is the only confirmed 3-year-old runner, but Bay Of Biscay, who boasts seconds in the NSW and Queensland Derbys at Group 1 level, will likely get a berth, too.

Last year's two 3-year-old starters didn't have any influence, finishing seventh (The Lost Storm) and ninth (Captain Hammerhead) respectively.

It sparked debate over whether it was too big an ask on a 3-year-old. Should the race be changed to 4- and 5-year-olds?

It was addressed, at least in part by organisers, by shortening the distance from 2400m to 2300m. The key to that is the 2300m starting point gives inside posts a much better advantage and, under the preferential post draw conditions, the 3-year-olds will draw posts 1 and 2.

Fighter Command's co-trainer and driver Greg Sugars also made a worthy point.

"Last year's TAB Eureka was super strong. The 4-year-old crop was amazing," he said. "It looks a lot more open and even this year, so we're happy to have a crack with a 3-year-old, especially with the barrier advantage and for that sort of money."

Should the 3-year-olds be humbled again, the calls will really grow to change it to a 4- and 5-year-old race.

If talkability is a key KPI, then the TAB Eureka is certainly delivering.

Now we just need a race night crowd and contest befitting of the build-up and prize money on offer at Menangle on Sept. 7.

LAURENCE

What! Mister trotting harness guy misses the big day.

TREY

Yeah, it's weird, but what difference does that race make to me? I rarely watch the Kentucky Derby or the World Series if my team is not playing. Some fans are into champion racehorses, but truthfully, I seldom know the names of the top horses in the country.

LAURENCE

Always the contrarian.

TREY

(Holds up his phone)

The race tomorrow, MY race, that's a different story. My fixation on that race has no boundaries. I even watched replayed races where our competitors raced. I go to sleep thinking about how MY race will play out.

LAURENCE

Because you got skin in the game?

TREY

Exactly.

LAURENCE

Interesting.

TREY

Why does anyone pay attention if you don't have any emotional attachment, a wager, a player you have connections with, or cheering for your home team?

LAURENCE

Don't you think a big race on television would bring some fans?

TREY

Not really. It is one day of an odd sport. It could be sumo wrestling, pole vaulting, or Olympic wall climbing. You may watch for a few minutes out of curiosity, but why come back or seek the game out?

LAURENCE

But gambling on horses is motivation.

TREY

It doesn't carry the weight it once did. Every sport has gambling. I was talking to a guy last night who is working with an outfit that allows gambling on professional fishing.

LAURENCE

For real?

TREY

One hundred per cent.

LAURENCE

So, how are you harness folks going to grow your sport? How can you grab attention?

TREY

(Holds up his phone again)

My thinking is to lean into the skin in the game. Fractional ownership of a racehorse, or a series of racehorses, could be massive for the people who do not know we exist. Suddenly, you care if it's YOUR horse, money, or a friend's horse. If you have reasons, you care plenty, and your attention is focused.

LAURENCE

And this is much more possible in your sport.

TREY

More than for most sports. This phone makes staying involved possible. We have this guy named MacDonald who does this fractional ownership thing, and I would bet money he has brought more interest to the sport than anyone else over the last few years. A dozen versions of him are worth more than just televising a race that doesn't mean much to anyone.

LAURENCE

Are you one of his ownership groups?

TREY

No. My group may be a bit fractious but not technically fractional. More and more ownership groups are in fashion, and not only is it less expensive, but it's also more fun.

LAURENCE

And social.

Yes. I can see small groups of owners, especially younger owners, chatting all day long about THEIR horses. They could meet in real time for races, with plenty of possibilities and a doable niche.

LAURENCE

Now, there's the old Trey, talking crazy, optimistic, and confident for no apparent reason.

TREY

No joke, I've looked into the science of human motivation. The bottom line is that the skin-in-the-game concept is legitimate and significantly ramps interest and engagement in any venture, adventure, or project.

LAURENCE

It's not for everybody.

TREY

No, of course not. You will always have lone rangers who want to make all the decisions and take all the risks. Good for them, and bless their hearts.

LAURENCE

You're looking for a wider reach.

TREY

Tell me why we can't recruit fractional owners from Dubai, Denver, or the Dominican Republic.

LAURENCE

Calm down.

TREY

Reasons to play, my friend. Find those reasons to add to wagering, and we could grow our rather esoteric sport of trotting and pacing horses.

(Pause)

Now, grab that steering wheel. A car driving itself makes me nervous.

Jerry Riordan posts seventh E3 victory, this time with Far Wise As

by Thomas Hedlund

Trainer Jerry Riordan knows how to win the 3-year-old E3 races and when Gävle played host to the $200,000 event on Saturday (Aug. 17) afternoon, Riordan captured his seventh trophy.

Far Wise As (Face Time Bourbon), a half-brother to well merited Vivid Wise As, was Riordan's hope this time and driver Johan Untersteiner did everything right on his path to a great victory.

Far Wise As was pushed to the lead after 500 meters, when early front runner Like Magic Sisu opened the first quarter in :27.1. Untersteiner was sitting behind the race favorite and Like Magic Sisu's driver Mika Forss understood that he couldn't defend himself due to the high pace. With a lap to go, Far Wise As was in front and in that position he proved hard to beat, even if Daniel Wäjersten's duo August Zonett (second) and Lando Mearas (third) gave it a serious try in the stretch. Far Wise As won in 1:55.4.

Jerry Riordan's first E3 win came in 2014, when Sheava Vik claimed the fillies' final. Betting Ganster (2018), Aetos Kronos (two times in 2019), Globalizer (2020) and Dea Grif (2022) and Far Wise As (2024) are all of Riordan's E3 champs.

ANOTHER E3 WIN FOR WALMANN

The E3 races in Gävle were dominated by experienced trainers. In the $200,000 E3 for fillies, Roger Walmann's S.G. Empress (Readly Express) was just outstanding in a wire-to-wire win in 1:55. Örjan Kihlström surprised by sending S.G. Empress to the front position and the filly's opponents had big respect for the leader. That allowed Kihlström to control the pace.

S.G. Empress sprinted to the win. She is now 7-for-8 since her debut in April, which means that she very well could be the Swedish-bred crop's queen.

Olivia Bros was second ahead of Oriana Boko.

Walmann, just like Riordan, has a great touch with 3-year-olds and Saturday's win was his ninth in E3 finals.

HIGH CLASS ON A SLOPPY PARIS TRACK

Saturday's (Aug. 17) race card at Vincennes in Paris included some high class races for 3-, 4- and 5-year-olds. The day began with victory for 4-year-old Ready Cash daughter Keen Winner, who profited off a ground-saving inside trip in $135,000 Prix Paul Leguernes and won in a mile rate of 1:57 over 1.3 miles on a very sloppy Paris track.

Anthony Barrier sat in the bike and he continued by winning the $135,000 Prix Reine du Corta for 3-year-old fillies behind Sebastien Guarato-trained Lotta Bourbon (Prodigious), who finished quickly from far outside in the stretch. Leading favorite Liza Josselyn gave up completely mid-stretch, likely marked by the even more sloppy track after heavy rain. The mile rate was 1:57.1 over 1.3 miles.

Barrier was the driver of the day at Vincennes. He also claimed the following race, the $135,000 Prix Phaeton for 4-year-old colts. Just like the race prior, Guarato was the trainer of Barrier's winner. Kristal Josselyn (Bold Eagle) was served a perfect second-over trip, covered by favorite Koctel du Dain. Kristal Josselyn was the strongest in the stretch when Barrier asked for more. The mile rate was 1:55.4 over 1.3 miles.

Yoann Lebourgeois sent Justin Bold (Bold Eagle) to the front right after the start of the $135,000 Prix Louis Jariel for 5-year-olds and Lebourgeois chose to defend that position all the way to the wire. It was the right decision as Justin Bold easily held all opponents. Big favorite Jushua Tree tried to challenge the leader at the top of the stretch, but he lost his gait and made a break soon thereafter. Justin Bold won in a mile rate of 1:54.3.

Lombok Jiel (Enino du Pommereux) finished quickly from third-over when the 3-year-old colts battled in the $135,000 Prix Abel Bassigny. It ended with safe win in a mile rate of 1:56.3 over 2,175 meters. Pierre Yves Verva was in the bike.

GOCCIADORO A WINNER IN MONTECATINI

Alessandro Gocciadoro celebrated a big victory when Thursday's (Aug. 16) $135,000 Gran Premio Citta di Montecatini was held at the half-mile track in Montecatini.

Gocciadoro himself sat behind big favorite Vernissage Grif in the second elimination and the duo was disqualified for interference in one of the turns. Upsetter Caronte Trebi (Nad al Sheba) won that elimination. In an earlier race on the card, Gocciadoro's Dolce Viky (Adrian Chip) was outstanding from the lead while paired with Roberto Vecchione.

Dolce Viky proved best in the final later that night. Vecchione hit the lead after 300 meters and controlled the race in a safe 1:56.1 win.

SPLENDID BEDAZZLED SOX AT SOLVALLA

Walmann-trained Bedazzled Sox (Brillantissime) was named as the best 3-year-old trotter in Sweden two years ago, an award he got after a brilliant season where his only failure happened when the most was at stake – in the $800,000 Kriteriet.

Now, as a 5-year-old, Bedazzled Sox has joined some of the country's very best trotters

In Wednesday's (Aug.13) Margareta Wallenius-Kleberg Pokal, Walmann's horse looked just splendid in the hands of driver Claes Sjöström. Sjöström got the opportunity to become first driver to Bedazzled Sox when the prior pilot, Torbjörn Jansson, chose to retire last year.

The wire-to-wire victory at Solvalla on Wednesday night happened to be Sjöström's biggest triumph so far in his career. Sjöström has few enemies in the sport and the win pleased not only Bedazzled Sox's connections, but pretty much the entire harness racing business in Sweden.

The race became a high-level event where Bedazzled Sox held the lead from post 1 behind the gate and Sjöström never really got the opportunity to keep the pace down because outside trotter Hustle Rain was a bit on fire, racing without cover. The big threat, favorite Double Deceiver, was settled in second-over and when he got order to attack at the top of the stretch, Bedazzled Sox had a three lengths advantage. Just before that point, Sjöström had to use every skill he possesses as a driver as his horse lost his gait on two occasions.

Replay here.

Double Deceiver approached the leader quickly mid-stretch and it turned out to be pretty close in the end. But, Bedazzled Sox held on by a neck and won in a strong mile rate of 1:52.4 over 2,140 meters.

Double Deceiver gets high grades as runner up and pocket-runner Coquaholy finished third.

The $200,000 European Championship for mares became a one horse story when Gocciadoro's Clarissa (Exploit Caf) played with her opponents. Betting Pacer opened fast and hit the lead, which also meant the heavy favorite, Great Skills, got stuck as third on the inside without any chances to improve her position at all. Great Skills was a non-factor by that point and when Gocciadoro parked Clarissa outside of Betting Pace with a lap to go, the Italian-bred 6-year-old controlled the race completely. Clarissa flew away from the other mares in the stretch and was superior on this night as she won in a mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles. Jennifer Sisu grabbed the silver medal after a furious finish from fifth over and Norwegian contender Bunny finished third.

VIVID WISE AS OUT - CAPITAL MAIL IN

Gocciadoro's Vivid Wise As will not make the journey over the Atlantic Ocean to participate in the Yonkers International in September. The connections, in consultation with their veterinarian, decided to stay at home in Italy. The trotter's future is unclear at this point. Italy will instead send Lotteria winner Capital Mail to New York next month.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Hunting Hula, Tarrific victorious in New York Sire Stakes at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

Hunting Hula and Tarrific gave sire Huntsville victories in both New York Sire Stakes divisions for sophomore pacing fillies that took place on Thursday night (Aug. 15) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

In the first $82,500 split, Hunting Hula (driven by Mark MacDonald) went to the front from post 4 and cut fractions of :27.4, :57.2 and 1:25.2. She's Epic (Tyler Buter) made a first-over move out of third past the half and got into second coming to three-quarters, but she stalled and then dropped back on the last turn, which allowed pocket-sitter and favorite A Few Choice Words (Jim Marohn, Jr.) to come to the outside in the stretch. A Few Choice Words had pace after tipping out, but not enough as Hunting Hula held her off to prevail by a half-length in 1:52.4. Peace Talks (Jason Bartlett) was up for third after a second-over trip.

Bruce Lauer trains Hunting Hula, who was bred by Pat Lachance and Z Tam Stables LLC., for owner It's All Good Racing LLC. Hunting Hula won for the fourth time in her career, has now earned $179,472 and paid $18.00 to win as an 8-1 offering. She keyed a $43.40 exacta and a $126 trifecta.

The other $84,000 flight saw Tarrific (Bartlett) make Camerican (Jordan Stratton) work most of a :27.4 quarter before releasing her to sit in the pocket. Camerican would go on to the half in :57.1, but Bartlett and Tarrific attacked two-wide on the third turn and Tarrific landed on the engine before the 1:24.4 three-quarters was reached. From there it was all Tarrific as she pulled away from the rest of the field on her way to a four-length tally in 1:52.2. Avyanna (Buter) finished second and Stepabovetherest (Scott Zeron) collected third.

Tarrific, bred by Dr. Stephen Dey III, is owned by Margaret Dey and Let It Ride Stables Inc. This was her fourth win in her 15th lifetime start, she has now pocketed

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Louprint endures tough trip, wins under wraps in Meadows PASS

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

Louprint encountered the sort of trip that would discourage many freshmen, yet when he charged through the lane to a 3¼-length victory, he was under wraps. That's how impressively he won in Friday's (Aug. 16) Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Go Go Grasshopper and Th Colby captured the other divisions of the stake known as the Tyler B, for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers.

Louprint was hammered down to 1-5, but he was forced to drop briefly into fifth thanks to a contentious first quarter. The son of Sweet Lou—Rockin Racer pulled second over down the backside only to have his cover stall. Finally, Louprint charged three wide near the three-quarters and scored easily, even as winning driver Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. held him with a firm grip. He triumphed in a career-best 1:51.2 while Currys Flurry and Fasting completed the ticket.

"With everyone leaving I decided to trip him out," Wrenn said. "He paced home pretty strong. I didn't think I had to use him too much, to be honest. He did that really easy. I think he's one of the best colts in the country. He can do some things that other horses can't."

Eligible in Pennsylvania and Kentucky, Louprint is a homebred for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC and Phillip Collura. Winning trainer Ron Burke said there never was a thought of sending him through the auction ring.

"We keep all our homebreds," Burke said. "We're breeding them with the idea of racing them. I think he's our best colt — maybe in a long time."

Go Go Grasshopper's race unfolded oddly, with three successive quarter-pole moves. Go Go Grasshopper made the second of those moves, and when the dust settled, the son of Sweet Lou—Faster Faster found himself in the most enviable position — in the pocket behind Railroad Station. Go Go Grasshopper kicked by in the Lightning Lane and downed Railroad Station by a length in 1:50.4, a new lifetime mark. Prince Hal Hanover was third.

PAPI GRAD STILL UNBEATEN AFTER WINNING PHILLY SPRINT

The 2-year-old pacing filly Papi Grad remained undefeated after five career starts in capturing one of two $89,112 divisions of the third prelim of the Pennsylvania Sire Stake for her group on Thursday afternoon (Aug. 15) at Harrah's Philadelphia. Ironically, the winning time of 1:52.3 was the slowest of her victories, but she needed to dig down for a :26.1 last quarter to defeat a game Westwinds.

Brett Miller, top pilot at Philly this Thursday with three wins, reached the top early around Westwinds with the daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Betterthangraduate, and the pacesetter received no challenges through pedestrian fractions of :28, :57.4, and 1:26.2, until Westwinds vacated the 2-hole nearing the far turn. The price of pacing went up sharply as the two top babies battled each other, and Papi Grad (who had won her three previous Pennsylvania stakes starts by an aggregate 27 lengths) had enough to have a half-length margin at the end of the sprint home against Westwinds, who lost for the first time after three stakes victories including a PASS triumph.

Papi Grad, who had won the Hoosier at Indianapolis in addition to her three state-sired victories, is trained by Steve Carter for Brent Hopper, Jay Mossbarger, TKO Racing Stable LLC, and SCPStable&FriedlandRacing.

The other Sires section went to the Always B Miki – Bettor B Lucky filly Blessed Hanover, who swung wide off cover after fractions of :26.2, :55.1, and 1:23.1 to win by 2¼ lengths over Rodeo Drive Deo, who followed the inside drive throughout, in a new mark of 1:51.3. Both the first and second-place horses are trained by Ron Burke; Blessed Hanover, now four-for-five lifetime, was guided by Dexter Dunn for Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci LLC and W Donovan.

The quickest clocking for freshman fillies, 1:51.2, was posted in one of the five $20,000 Stallion Series events by Giggingonthebeach (dam Always Gigging), who gave Papi Rob Hanover an StS credit in addition to his PASS winner. Giggingonthebeach has now posted two successive sub-1:52 miles in the Stallion Series as she lowered her mark to 1:51.2 for driver George Napolitano, Jr., trainer Juan Cano, and Hot Lead Farm, defeating the only previous double StS winner, Pilar Hanover.

One of these four things doesn't belong with the others – see if you can tell which one: a fast pacing female, Tim Tetrick, Jim King, Jr., and a $65.40 win mutuel. Actually, they were all in this story in an StS division, as the Captaintreacherous – Make Mine Mocha miss Lyons Benz broke her maiden in 1:52 for Threelyonsracing. Tetrick, the winningest driver at Philly, is also tied for the lead in producing “bombers” (horses paying $50+ to win).

A second winner for sire Captaintreacherous was Simply Perfect (dam Stacia Hanover), who became a two-time Stallion Series winner while taking a new mark, 1:52.3, for driver Andrew McCarthy, trainer Tony Alagna, and the ownership of Pryde Stables Inc., Steven and Michele Head, and Caviart Farms. The “A&A Connection” (Andrew & Alagna) opened the stakes day with a win with the Stay Hungry – Odds On Palm Beach baby Odds On Aces Full, who took a maiden mark of 1:53.2 for Odds On Racing.

Brett Miller added a Stallion Series division to his Sire Stakes win as he drove the Betting Line – She's A Fan filly Stevie Hanover to a second straight success, here lowering her lifetime quickest clocking to 1:53.3 for trainer Jamie Sullivan and owner Frank Chick.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

The Word Is Out, Odds On Hialeah win OHSS at Scioto

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Two-year-old filly pacers held court at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Friday (Aug. 16) in Ohio Sires Stakes action with both winners, The Word Is Out and Odds On Hialeah, taking their $65,000 division in 1:53.

Prolific Fire (Austin Hanners) took the early lead in the first division towards the :27.1 opening quarter. The Word Is Out (Dan Noble) got away third and was first up just before the :57.3 half. Mid-way down the backside Noble edged The Word Is Out in front but Prolific Fire fought back going to the 1:24.1 third quarter. The Word Is Out would not go away, kept the pressure going to the stretch and won by three-quarters-of-a-length over a fast-closing Odds On Chesapeake (Kayne Kauffman); Prolific Fire held on for third.

The Word Is Out, who won The Next Generation, is trained by Ron Burke for Burke Racing, Knox Services, Beasty and R A S Racing. The Well Said filly is now four-for-five with $179,750 in earnings. She was a $24,000 Ohio Selected Yearling Sale purchase bred by Shaffer & Sons.

Odds On Hialeah took the second division to stay a perfect four-for-four with Brett Miller up for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. The Lather Up filly got away third towards the :26.2 opening quarter. The outer flow developed quickly with Rose Run Ashlee (Noble) coming first up to take over from Queen Of Fear (Kurt Sugg) before the :55.3 half. Coming down the backside towards the 1:23.2 three-quarters, Odds On Hialeah was second over and then went three-wide around the last turn. She won by a half-length over another Kauffman driven fast closer, Seaside Wishes; Rose Run Ashlee was third.

Odds On Hialeah is owned by Odds On Racing and now has $103,500 in lifetime earnings.

Posting a :28.1 last quarter, Vekna won by a neck over Vandy Lane. Full Moon Howl (Ronnie Gillespie) rallied for third.

Vekna, by Enterprise, was a $11,000 Blooded Horse Sale purchase as a yearling and is owned by Kauffman's wife Natalie. The gelding is now four-for-five, with $31,122 earned.

Gillespie also took a division as a trainer/driver, winning the first division in 1:58 with Sweet Harmony. The duo left from post 8 and led at every call, tripping the beam in :28.2, :57.4 and 1:27.2. Sweet Harmony won by 3½ lengths over Burnindownthehouse (Kauffman); race favorite Tom Cruiser (Lems) was third.

Sweet Harmony, by Uncle Peter, was a $27,000 Ohio Select Sale purchase. Anthony Miller owns the gelding who has five wins in eight starts and $27,383 in earnings.

Austin Hanners and Mister Squeeze took a division for trainer Steve Carter in 1:58.4. Long Rocky Road (Alex Hawk) was parked from post 6 towards the :28.2 opening quarter and led the field through the :59.4 half and 1:29 three-quarters. Hanners pulled Mister Squeeze first over as the field went under the line for the first time and steadily made-up ground to battle the leader through the last turn and down the stretch, with neither wanting to give way. In the end, Mister Squeeze won by a half-length over Long Rocky Road; Stone Noble Lane (Jeff Nisonger) got up for third.

Part Time Stable owns the Muscle Up The Goal gelding who broke his maiden with the win. Mister Squeeze now has $15,650 earned in six seasonal starts.

Oaxaca Harry was the other winner on the evening, taking his division in 1:59 with Tyler Smith at the lines. Grooved Pavement (Aaron Merriman) had the early lead at the :29.2 quarter. Going towards the :59.4 half, Smith pulled Oaxaca Harry first over and continued on the grind as the field passed by the 1:28.4 three-quarters. Oaxaca Harry won by 2¼ lengths over a closing Nothing But Kat (Justin Irvine); after making a break at the start, Quintuplet (Dan Noble) was third.

Oaxaca Harry, by Long Tom, was a $15,000 Ohio Select Sale purchase and is owned by Bet The House. The gelding now has $22,640 earned in four starts, two of which are wins in the Buckeye Stallion Series.

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. ## SIRE STAKES REPORT

The one where Chandler Bing upsets at 62-1 in Indiana Sire Stakes

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Two-year-old pacing colts were the stars of the show on Friday's (Aug. 16) 13-race card at Harrah's Hoosier Park with two divisions of their third leg of Indiana Sire Stakes featured. If you backed Chandler Bing at the betting windows at 62-1, he was there for you. Meanwhile, the aptly named Hopeyaliketheshow followed suit with a mild 7-2 upset of his own in the second division.

With Jay Cross doing the driving, Chandler Bing left from post 2 in the field of eight in the $67,500 first division. Cross settled Chandler Bing in the third spot while Freaky Feet Beast (Jordan Ross) took command of a leisurely pace, reaching the quarter first in :29.2. Even-money favorite Deal The Odds (Joey Putnam) moved from the pocket to take over for Freaky Feet Beast at the half in :57.3. The pace began to pick up on the final turn, with Cross tipping Chandler Bing from third to lead the charge first-over, 3½ lengths behind Deal The Odds at three-quarters in 1:26.

The sprint for home began in the lane with Chandler Bing reaching the wheel of Deal The Odds while Freaky Feet Beast looked to make his move up the passing lane. Rocketing home in :25.4, Chandler Bing took the lead before scooting away by 2¼ lengths on the line in a career best 1:52.2. Deal The Odds held gamely for the place position, with Freaky Feet Beast finishing third.

A winner now in two of six on the season, Alvin Miller trains and co-owns Chandler Bing along with Twila Harts. The gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—Northern Beauty was bred by Glen Yoder and sports earnings of $45,290.

Chandler Bing paid $126.80 for the upset victory.

Hopeyaliketheshow teamed up with driver Trace Tetrick and utilized similar first-over tactics to score in the $67,000 second division which immediately followed. Hopeyaliketheshow got away fourth from post 6 while the previously unbeaten Big Al Derosa (Jordan Ross) led the field of seven to the quarter in :27.2. The 1-2 favorite went unchallenged to the half in :56.2 before Tetrick right-lined Hopeyaliketheshow to begin his first-over trek on the final turn. Hopeyaliketheshow went right at Big Al Derosa, as the two rookies paced as a team to three-quarters in 1:25.3.

Turning for home, the two pacers continued to exchange blows in the lane before Hopeyaliketheshow grabbed a short lead in mid-stretch. Pacing home in :27, Hopeyaliketheshow edged clear late to reach the wire a length in front in a career best 1:52.2. Big Bad Moses (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) rallied late to finish second, with Starlit Millertime (Joey Putnam) rallying up the passing lane to finish third.

Trained by Ron Burke, Hopeyaliketheshow is a two-time winner in six career outings for owners Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brussemi, Beasty and Knox Services. Bred by Randy, Tyler and Zane Wilt, the gelded son of JK Endofanera—Don't Forget boasts a bankroll of $79,968.

ROOKIE TROTTING COLTS SHINE IN THE SLOP

Two-year-old trotting colts took center stage at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Thursday (Aug. 15) with two divisions for their third leg of Indiana Sire Stakes highlighting the 13-race card. Despite rain throughout much of the early portion of the card creating a sloppy track, Sure Did and Eugene The Genius made the most of the mud to win their respective sire stakes divisions.

Sure Did was hammered late at the betting windows, sent off as the 3-5 favorite from post 3 with driver Marvin Luna in the bike in the $67,000 first division. Luna settled Sure Did in fourth early while Siesta Sandman (driven by Pete Wrenn) crossed over from post 9 to reach the quarter first in :27.3. Unable to find a spot on the pylons in the first turn, Tarzan (Mike Oosting) forged to the front on the backstretch, leading the field to the halfway point in :57.3. Luna tipped Sure Did from third to begin his first-over grind, moving into third on the final turn but spotting Tarzan three-lengths at three-quarters in 1:27.4.

At the top of the stretch, Sure Did continued to advance, matching strides with Tarzan as the two battled noses apart with an eighth-of-a-mile to go. After battling Tarzan the length of the stretch, Sure Did edged clear in the final strides to snag the victory a half-length in front in a career best of 1:56.2. Ponda Rocky (Trace Tetrick) lunged late to nose out his Erv Miller stablemate, Tarzan, for the place spot.

Walter Haynes, Jr. trains Sure Did, who has now won three of eight in his rookie campaign. Owned by Matthew Miller and John McGill, Sure Did sports career earnings of $61,518. John Bontrager, Jr. bred the gelded son of You Know You Do—Chillax Hanover who was a $19,000 yearling purchase at last fall's Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale.

Eugene The Genius rebounded from the first defeat of his career in leg two with a victory in the $66,500 second division. Sent off at 5-2 from post 2 and regular pilot Mike Oosting in the bike, Eugene The Genius got away in the pocket position as 1-5 favorite Starlitfrankenstein (Trace Tetrick) took command to the quarter in :28.4. The field showed their respect to the two favorites on top, remaining in straight alignment with Starlitfrankenstein reaching the half unchallenged in :58.2. Starlitfrankenstein put two lengths of separation between himself and Eugene The Genius who pursued from second at three-quarters in 1:27.2.

Eugene The Genius popped the pocket at the top of the lane, however he appeared to be rebuffed by Starlitfrankenstein who trotted away by 4½ lengths midway through the lane. Despite Tetrick's best efforts to gather the youngster, Starlitfrankenstein threw in a few steps late in the lane before jumping it off while seemingly home free, leaving Eugene The Genius to inherit the lead at the edge of the toteboard with High Speed Swan (John De Long) posing a threat to his inside. Eugene The Genius was able to hold the challenger at bay and cross the wire a length clear in 1:55.4 over High Speed Swan. Volo Cancellato (Jordan Ross) rallied for the show spot.

The 1:55.4 clocking was a lifetime best for the Missy Essig trainee who is now a winner in four of five outings. Owned by Russ Beeman and Charles Weaver, Eugene The Genius boasts career earnings of $89,125. The gelded son of Helpisontheway—Muscle Baby Doll was bred by Black Creek Farm and Hickory Hollow Stable and was a $75,000 yearling purchase at the 2023 Hoosier Classic.

The sire stakes winning drivers led the way on the card in wins, with Luna driving four winners and Oosting driving three.

Minnesota SIRE STAKES REPORT

El Parrandero Q, Deja Vu Babyboo score an A at Running Aces

by Darin Gagne for Running Aces

Driver Jacob Cutting delivered a sharp steer and worked out a perfect trip aboard El Parrandero Q in the $17,000 Minnesota-sired sophomore male 'A' pace on Thursday night (Aug. 15) at Running Aces Casino Hotel and Racetrack.

Leaving sharply from post 3, El Parrandero Q was first to strike the front before 1-5 favorite Fast Larry (Mooney Svendsen) took over the top and registered the fractions of :27, :55.4 and 1:23.1 while Cutting sat patiently behind the leader and Celebrity Status (Nick Roland) raced from third.

As they arrived near the top of the homestretch, Cutting tipped El Parrandero Q out as they straightened for the drive.

El Parrandero Q responded immediately and charged outside of Fast Larry who tried to dig in but could not hold off the late challenge.

El Parrandero Q (Wind Me Up) got home a three-quarters-of-a-length winner over Fast Larry in a career best 1:52.1 mile while Celebrity Status was well back in third.

It was the fourth win in eight starts this season for El Parrandero Q ($23.60) for owners Triple Q Stables and trainer Edwin Quevedo.

Deja Vu Babyboo (Karthian Kid) pulled a mild upset in the $17,000 sophomore filly 'A' pace, charging home from third at the top of the lane to surge past Apple Juice and Delco Irene for a 1½-length tally in 1:54.

Roland was the winning pilot on Deja Vu Babyboo ($11.20) for owners Van Otterloo Stables and trainer Lems.

Bapa's Double Knot (Vlos, $3.20) delivered his first career win in 1:56 to capture the $8,500 sophomore 'B' pace over Howl At The Moon (Aaron Lehman) and Sassy Top (Svendsen).

Elson Miller was the winning owner/trainer and driver.

Brady Jenson led the Thursday night program with four driving wins and three training wins, while Roland posted a driving triple and Cutting and trainer Lems also had doubles.

Live racing returns to Running Aces today (Aug. 18) for a big 12-race program that will feature the $35,000 Steve Wiseman Memorial Trot final with a special "Whatever It Takes" themed night that will benefit the Colon Cancer Coalition. As per tradition, there is also a Wiseman Night hat giveaway.

Tonight is also Pepsi Family Night with specials and kid's activities as well as trout fishing, food trucks, Sole Survivor handicapping contest and losing ticket drawings.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Three straight for Woodmere Flojo in Sires Stakes

by Nicholas Oakes for Red Shores

The wins keep on rolling for Woodmere Flojo as she wired her third straight Atlantic Sires Stakes division on Thursday evening (Aug. 15) during Old Home Week at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Racing in a $15,540 Atlantic Sires Stakes A-division for 2-year-old pacing fillies, Woodmere Flojo protected the rail all the way to a 1:57.4 score for driver Adam Merner, trainer Jamie Smith and owner Gowiththeflo Racing of Charlottetown. Muchtooyoungforyou (driven by David Dowling) nabbed second ahead of Tobins Dream (Marc Campbell).

Saulsbrook Inferno controlled her destiny in the second $15,540 A-division stopping the clock in 2:00.1 as part of a Earl Watts training double over Jafetica (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) and Ruthless Diva (Merner). Dowling drove the winning daughter of Flameproof Hanover for owners Windemere Farms, Hollis Newson, Sterling Buchanan and Jack Quinn.

The $6,000 B-divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies went to Windemere Classie (Campbell) for trainer Watts, Fern Hill Jubilee (Ken Murphy) from the Joe Baxter barn in 2:01.4, Lady Llamrei (Merner) in 1:59 for trainer Melissa Rennie and Elm Grove Talia in 2:00.4 for trainer/driver Dowling.

Tradition was ultra-impressive winning the Jeff May Memorial in a 1:53.3 front end score in line to a tripled up Merner for trainer Gordie Hennessey.

Brookdale Johnny went all the way in the Joe and Wal Hennessey Memorial with a 1:54.2 trip for driver Paul Langille and trainer Phil Sizer.

Captain Albano storms home to upset in Hempt

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Curtis Salonick
Captain Albano

McCarthy) nosed out Legendary Hanover in the
Max Hempt
Memorial on Saturday at Mohegan
Pennsylvania's
Pocono Downs.

Captain Albano moved to the outside from the pocket coming off the final turn and got to favorite Legendary Hanover just before the wire to win Saturday's (Aug. 17) $300,000 Max C. Hempt Memorial for 3-year-old pacers by a nose in 1:48.3 at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs. Gem Quality finished third.

Driver Todd McCarthy and Captain Albano got to the front in a :27.1 opening quarter as Legendary Hanover, who got off the gate in fourth from post 7, pressed forward in a bid for the lead. Legendary Hanover, the 1-5 favorite, finally cleared Captain Albano heading to the second turn and reached the half in :55.1 and three-quarters in 1:22.1.

Captain Albano, sent off at odds of 10-1, came home with a :26.1 last panel to notch his third victory in a row, following wins in his Adios elimination on July 20 and the Adios final on July 27.

"Everything sort of really went to plan in the first quarter for me and I was sort of content to follow (Legendary Hanover)," McCarthy said. "When he came, I just wanted to keep the speed on a little bit and make him step around, but I didn't want to do too much, as well.

"Coming off the (last) turn my horse felt really good. I probably went a little bit earlier than normal, but it's not quite as long a stretch here as some of the bigger tracks that he's used to, so I wanted to get him out and going."

Captain Albano, the 2023 Dan Patch Award winner for 2-year-old male pacers, has won five of nine races this season and 12 of 18 in his career, good for earnings of $929,195. The Noel Daley trainee has finished worse than third only once.

"Earlier on in the year, things just weren't going our way," McCarthy said. "I sort of wanted to drive him a little more forward after that.

"He showed his heart, and his determination and Noel has had the horse spot on all year. He's just been an absolute pleasure to drive."

Captain Albano is owned by Patricia Stable, L.A. Express Stable, Sjoblom Racing, and Michael Dolan. The son of Captaintreacheraus-Angelou was bred by Frederick Hertrich III.

CAPTAIN LUKE WINS CONSOLATION

Captain Luke, the winner of the Governor's Cup in 2023, decided to govern the pace in the $200,000 Hempt Consolation I and made his lead stand in 1:50.1, although McCrunch kept coming on from first-over and narrowed the margin to a neck at the wire. Solid Character was third. Captain Luke is a $560,524-winning son of Captaintreacheraus-Bodacious Hanover trained by Tony Alagna for Robert LeBlanc, Pryde Stables, Brad Grant, and Steven Head.

Driver Dexter Dunn won his third of the four Consolation II events (he was third in the other) by working out a second-over trip with the Always B Miki-Night Music gelding Its Saturday Night, going wide to the stretch lead, and then stopping the timer in a lifetime best 1:51.3 for trainer Nifty Norman and owner Dune Road Stables in the $100,000 Hempt event. Its Saturday Night was the 8-5 second choice; the 3-2 favorite Number Cruncher went a big mile himself, making a break amidst leavers early, recovering and moving fourth-over, and then closing powerfully to miss by only three parts of a length. Captain Fear Not was third.

Odds On Platinum grinds to Lynch win

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Odds On Platinum and driver Todd McCarthy came with a sustained first-over march from the backstretch and caught pacesetter Rocket Deo in the final step to win Saturday's (Aug. 17) $250,000 James M. Lynch Memorial for 3-year-old female pacers by a nose in a stakes-record-equaling 1:49 at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs. Pocket-sitter Caviart Belle was third.

Odds On Platinum got away fourth as several fillies left the gate quickly, with Rocket Deo, driven by Andy McCarthy, eventually settling on top just after a :26.1 opening quarter. From there, Rocket Deo set fractions of :54.2 and 1:21.4 before battling Caviart Belle to her inside and Odds On Platinum to the outside, with Odds On Platinum securing the narrow triumph.

"That's not typically the way she races; she usually breaks the gate very quickly, and today I guess there were others that were doing the same thing," winning trainer Dr. Ian Moore said about Odds On Platinum. "It all worked out. She's very tough and we're really proud of her.

"I thought it might be a little difficult with that bunch, first up, but she just keeps on going. She won't quit. We're looking forward to her next one now, but we'll savor this one for tonight."

Todd McCarthy has won three of the last four editions of the Lynch. He set the stakes record with Grace Hill in 2021 before equaling it with Odds On Platinum on Saturday.

"I thought (I won) but I guess it was a little closer than I thought it was," McCarthy said. "She showed a lot of guts there. That's a big run to come first over like that after stepping out of there for an eighth. She really was determined to dig in there. I was really happy with her."

Odds On Platinum has won five of 11 races this year and seven of 22 lifetime, earning $579,413. She is owned by Let It Ride Stables and Odds On Racing. The daughter of Bettor's Delight—American Jewel was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms. American Jewel won the Lynch in 2012.

"She's matured quite a bit this year," Moore said about Odds On Platinum. "She used to be very aggressive, even to jog at home. Now you can jog her with two fingers, no problem. She can race from the front, from the back, wherever. We really love her."

DANDY'S MERCY TAKES LYNCH CONSOLATION

The front end produced no winners in the first five races of Sun Stakes Saturday, but driver Scott Zeron changed that situation with the Captain Crunch—Pardon filly Dandy's Mercy, who showed no mercy in the $125,000 Lynch Consolation. The winner made two speed moves in controlling the throttle on the way to going to a new mark of 1:49.3, with second-place Asweetbeachhere no closer than 3¼ lengths off at the wire. Miraculous Deo was third. John Butenschoen trains the winner of half her 16 lifetime starts for Hart Walker, Dandy Farms Racing, FT Racing Stable, and Douglas Overhiser.

The Stay Hungry—Yoselin Seelster filly Staying With Emily stayed in third most of the $75,000 James Lynch Memorial Consolation II, then was moved first-over by driver Dexter Dunn late in the backstretch. The Ron Burke trainee quickly engaged favored pacesetter Sarasota Hanover, then wore that one down in the stretch to win by 1½ lengths in a lifetime-best 1:50. Chiapanecas was third. Staying With Emily is owned by Brad Grant.

Warrawee Michelle impressive in $250,000 Delmonica Hanover Trot

by PHHA / Pocono

Curtis Salonic
Warrawee Michelle (James MacDonald) won the Delmonica Hanover Trot in 1:51.3 on Saturday at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs.

Ake Svanstedt won his third race of the day, and James MacDonald picked up a great catch drive and did the most with it, as the Walner—Sound Check filly Warrawee Michelle was an impressive wire-to-wire winner in the $250,000 Delmonica Hanover Trot in a track and stakes-record-equaling 1:51.3 on Saturday (Aug. 17) at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs.

The 1:51.3 clocking was also the time of 2022 Delmonica Hanover winner Joviality S, while Check Me Out and Designed To Be also have a share of the Pocono divisional record.

"Ake told me that I should leave with her, and I did," MacDonald said, and Warrawee Michelle buzzed away from the outside post eight to have command well before the :27.2 quarter, then got to the half in :56.2. The outer tier consisted of French Champagne and then the two favorites, Buy A Round and Elista Hanover, but it was the first-over who had the most trot after the 1:23.2 three-quarters, giving a challenge to the winner that she answered by  $2\frac{1}{4}$  lengths.

"I felt pretty confident around the last turn," MacDonald said. "Since I had the lead, I hadn't stretched my filly too much, and the favorites weren't that close-up."

MacDonald had every right to be confident in the Breeders Crown and Hambletonian Oaks winner, as she raised her lifetime earnings to $872,875 for Ake Svanstedt Inc., Santandrea Inc., and Young Guns.

Warrawee Michelle was bred by Warrawee Farm in Ontario.

SAMBUCA HANOVER TAKES CONSOLATION

Driver David Miller let the Bar Hopping—Snow Angel Hanover filly Sambuca Hanover gradually make the lead in front of the stands, and the sophomore never relinquished control the rest of the way in the $125,000 Delmonica Hanover Consolation en route to a 1:52.4 lifetime mark for trainer Nifty Norman and owners David McDuffee, Paul Bordogna, and Melvin Hartman. The connections of the winner of $390,639 were not sorry to see the wire come as chalk Paulina Hanover was second-over but behind bad cover, had to duck inside and then await inside clearance, and missed by a head. Nymeria was third.

The Walner—Spring Gala filly Soiree Hanover, a winner of \$607,955 at age 2 against stakes opposition but winless in three starts at 3, came with a giant move around the far turn to go to the lead and drew off to a lifetime best of 1:52.2 in the \$75,000 Delmonica Hanover Consolation II,  $3\frac{3}{4}$  lengths to the good of Cheval Rapide. Slip Sliding Away was third. Tim Tetrick drove the winner, who powered her last half in :55, for trainer Lucas Wallin and owner Snogarps Gard Inc.

Sig Sauer captures Earl Beal Memorial

by PHHA / Pocono

Sig Sauer, lightly-raced but with tons of ability, “saved the dignity” of the favorites in the major 3-year-old races on Mohegan Pennsylvania’s Pocono Downs’ Sun Stakes Saturday (Aug. 17), winning the $300,000 Earl Beal Memorial in 1:51.3.

Early attrition due to breaks, including T C I, helped the victorious Muscle Hill – Sigilwig colt go up to the pocket early behind Situationship, then come again before the :27.4 quarter to take over the racetrack. After a half clocking of :56.4, Sig Sauer put in successive quarters of :27.2, and he needed all of that late to hold off the inside charger Situationship by a neck.

The victory gave trainer Noel Daley wins in the two major colt races, after Captain Albano, and gave the McCarthy brothers victories in the top events for males, as Andrew McCarthy piloted Sig Sauer after brother Todd directed Captain Albano.

Afterwards Daley noted, “We might have had a chance in the Hambletonian, but the trip wasn’t quite the right one that day. Today the colt showed he was versatile, handy with his speed, and he does love to race. Although, sometimes he’s a bit of a handful around the barn.”

Sig Sauer has raced only 10 times in his career, winning six of those starts, and now has pushed his bankroll to $584,312 for Patricia Stable, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Allister Stables, and Caviart Farms.

He was bred by Southwind Farms.

TONY ADAMS S WINS CONSOLATION

Dexter Dunn wound up winning four of the eight consolation races on Sun Stakes Saturday (with the purses in those four “consolation” races totaling $475,000) after succeeding with the Muscle Hill – Dreamgirl Hornline colt Tony Adams S in the $200,000 Beal Consolation I. The winner, an Ake Svanstedt stable member owned by Stall Arsenal AB, went a lifetime-best-equaling 1:51.4 to win by 3½ lengths over Wild Ticket. Victor Laszlo was third. Tony Adams S was the third leader in the second quarter, but no one else would be on top during :55 - :27 back fractions, especially after favored Private Access broke in the pocket on the far turn.

Life On The Bluf retook the lead from fast starter Greenspan past the quarter in the $100,000 Beal Consolation II, then had to continue at a quick clip in a fight with favored Smart Schooner, parked every step. The Greenshoe – Firm To Stay gelding Greenspan enjoyed the perfect seat just behind this duel, found room in the stretch and was handled confidently by Dunn in wearing down the leader more easily than the half-length margin may suggest. Trainer Jim Campbell’s sophomore took three seconds off his lifetime mark with the 1:52.2 victory for owner Runthetable Stables. It Wasnt Me finished third.

Jiggy Jog S, Ruthless Hanover win Pocono invites

by PHHA / Pocono and Ken Weingartner
/ USTA media relations manager

Jiggy Jog S extended her win streak to eight races by capturing the $100,000 Sebastian K Invitational Trot and Ruthless Hanover got back in the victory column by winning the card-closing $100,000 Always B Miki Invitational Pace on Sun Stakes Saturday (Aug. 17) at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs.

The Sebastian K Invitational is named after the horse who went a 1:49 mile over Pocono's five-eighths-mile track – a clocking not beaten on an "f" oval in the 10 years since. And this year's race was taken by another pupil of trainer Ake Svanstedt, the great mare Jiggy Jog S, who overcame several problem situations to win by a head over Lexus Kody in 1:52.1.

Hillextotic was yielding to Black Magic mid-first turn when making a break; this led to Lexus Kody, who was parked, to go on to the lead in :26.4. Jiggy Jog S tucked in third, then had to be alert to avoid the breaking Black Magic in front of the stands and moved up to the pocket. Lexus Kody got a breather to the :56.2 half, then picked the tempo up a bit to a 1:24.4 three-quarters clocking as Periculum made a good first-over move, with Jiggy Jog S awaiting clearance from the two-hole.

Jiggy Jog S, the 1-9 favorite, came home in :27.1 as she gradually went on to victory, with Lexus Kody missing just a head and Periculum only three-quarters of a length back.

Dexter Dunn, winning his fourth straight race on the card, noted that "the mare handled herself professionally" amidst the early confusion.

"She's responded to everything well," he said. "We wound up in the pocket, a good trip, and it took a stride or two for her to find her top gear, but she showed her ability and went by."

Jiggy Jog S is now undefeated in four seasonal starts for earnings of $309,188. Lifetime, the daughter of Walner—Hot Mess Hanover has won 22 times in 39 outings, accumulating a bankroll of $2.47 million. She is owned by Ake Svanstedt Inc., Steve Stewart, John Lengacher, and Hickory Hollow Stables. She was bred by Vestmarka AB.

In the Always B Miki Invitational, three horses – Hellabalou, Coaches Corner, and Ruthless Hanover – engaged in a three-wide battle for the lead that endured for more than three-eighths of a mile before Ruthless Hanover and driver George Napolitano Jr. landed on top in a :53.2 half.

From there, Ruthless Hanover remained on top, reaching three-quarters in 1:20.2 and the finish in 1:48. He won by two lengths over Voukefalas, with Coaches Corner finishing third.

Ruthless Hanover is trained by Tom Cancelliere and owned by John Cancelliere. The 7-year-old son of Somebeachsomewhere—Rockaroundthetrack has won three of six races this season and 25 of 60 lifetime, banking $719,744. He was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms.

Wagering on the Sun Stakes Saturday card exceeded $1 million, at $1,007,875.

Double Covered

Covered Bridge and Jordan Stratton repeat in the Gold Cup and Saucer with a decisive 1:50.4 victory.

by Melissa Keith

Red Shores Charlottetown turned perfect racing conditions into a golden night at the races on Saturday (Aug. 17).

Post time for the 65th annual Gold Cup and Saucer, presented by Atlantic Lottery, was moved to 11:30 pm (Atlantic), a half-hour earlier than the usual midnight send-off.

The $100,000 final featured a field of nine pacers. The 3-5 favorite Covered Bridge was reunited with Jordan Stratton, who had piloted him to victory in last year's Gold Cup and Saucer. The only three horses to win two consecutive finals were Andys Son (1965, 1966) for driver James Moore; Firebolt (1969, 1970) for Art Porter; and Sand Olls Dexter (2003, 2004) for Mark MacDonald.

In Saturday night's main event, Larry Karr took early command for driver Austin Sorrie, out-leaving #5 Binge On Yankee (driver Marc Campbell) and #8 Save America, who crossed over from the outside post, making for a three-wide battle into the first turn. Larry Karr led to the :26.3 opening quarter, followed by pocket-sitting Binge

On Yankee and earning a "Boom! Just like that!" from race caller Vance Cameron.

Save America advanced first-over approaching the :54 half, followed by second-over #3 Fortify (Dan Dube), and clearing leader Larry Karr on the backstretch, nearing three-quarters. Adam Merner's horse briefly opened up by nearly two lengths, but first-over Fortify and third-over Covered Bridge were quickly gaining on him at three-quarters, reached in 1:22.1.

When Covered Bridge tipped three-wide around Fortify, there was little question he would repeat, this time in 1:50.4h. He opened up down the stretch, as Gilles Barrieau sent #6 Twin B Tuffenuff wide from near-last late for place, drawing ahead of show finisher Save America.

Covered Bridge (p, 4, 1:48.3m; $1,308,023) is an 8-year-old gelding by American Ideal, out of Stonebridge Kisses, owned by Mark Ford of Campbell Ford, NY and bred by Winbak Farm of Chesapeake City, MD. It was his eighth 2024 victory, in his 20th start of the year.

After the victory, Stratton and Covered Bridge greeted fans along the rail on the way to the winner's circle.

"The horse is an incredible animal, greeting the fans as he was exactly one year ago," said Cameron, as Stratton took the gelding along the Charlottetown fence for selfies and pats on his way back to the winner's circle.

After the win, an emotional Jordan Stratton told interviewer Ken Warkentin that he had his doubts about going back-to-back.

"You know, I was little hesitant because he wasn't maybe 100 per cent going into this race, but the connections, Jeff [Gillis] and [wife] Sarah have done a great job with him, and he's happy to be home, and I'm happy to be here with him again."

TRIALS AND MORE TRIALS

There were three Gold Cup Trials during Old Home Week 2024 to determine the field for the final.

The first two Trials were raced over a sloppy surface on Aug. 10. Both were won by catch driver James MacDonald: Save America, a 1:52.1h winner trained by Jamie Smith for owner TheStable Save America of Guelph, ON in race 15, and Fortify, who got his 1:52.2h win for conditioner Chris MacKay and owners Daniel Gaudreault of Mont-Joli, QC and Ecuries Maguire Inc. of Sainte-Marie, QC in race 16.

Fortify's victory was over place finisher Covered Bridge, a beaten 1-2 favorite in his Trial for catch driver Jody Jamieson.

The third Trial, over a fast track on Monday (Aug. 12), went to Heaven On High N in a 1:52.3h mile for driver Brett MacDonald, trainer Jamie Smith, and owner Shark Racing Stable of Bainbridge, NY.

Post positions were determined at the Tuesday (August 13) draw. Elimination winners landed posts #2 (Heaven On High N), #3 (Fortify), and #8 (Save America).

Saturday (Aug. 17) was a tough day for Charlottetown native Anthony MacDonald, who was listed to drive Save America in the Gold Cup and Saucer final.

"Disappointed... that's the word," he posted on Twitter/X late Saturday afternoon. "Waited for six hours patiently for a flight that never happened. Good luck to our stable horses, driven by Jason Hughes and now Adam Merner. Tomorrow a new day..."

Anthony had realized a lifelong dream in the 2022 Gold Cup and Saucer final, driving Sintra to a going-away 1:50.1h victory, which matched the track record. His flight to PEI this year was delayed by weather conditions in Ontario, so Merner took his place in the sulky.

Announcing the post parade, Cameron declared that Merner "just got the catch driving call of a lifetime."

Handle for the card was $497,651.

Yannick Gingras wins 10 races, equals Philly record

It was the Yannick Gingras Show at Harrah's Philadelphia on Friday afternoon (Aug. 16), as the Hall of Fame horseman drove 10 winners, equaling the Harrah's one-day record set by George Napolitano, Jr. on Nov. 11, 2009 and again on Sept. 17, 2015.

Gingras also won the first seven contests on the card, missing the known record for consecutive wins on one card by one. Before the Trotting and Pacing Guide was streamlined and put online, it carried three drivers who had won eight consecutive races on a program: Stephane Bouchard (whose wins came in the first eight races at Yonkers one night), Brad Kramer at the Gladwin County (MI) Fair, and Jim Morrill, Jr. at Tioga Downs (we'd appreciate hearing from anyone with additional facts). Gingras's bid for this list was with Ronaldo N, who had not won since June 7, and Gingras raced the horse on the lead with pressure, being caught only in the shadow of the wire by 10-1 shot Rough Odds by a neck.

Gingras was second in the ninth race as well, as his stretch leader Mr Dunnigans was caught by the favored Straight Up Cool by a half-length. After being away from the Philly winner's circle for 57 minutes, Gingras found his way back to its comfortable confines after driving the Always B Miki mare Always B Naughty to a 1:49.1 victory in the day's $15,000 distaff featured pace. Always B Naughty regained control past a :26.3 quarter, put up mid-splits of :54.4 and 1:22.3, then blitzed home in :26.3 for the easy victory for trainer Nancy Takter, who co-owns the winner of $550,521 with Let It Ride Stables Inc., Odds On Racing, and RBH Ventures Inc.

Dave Landry

After no drive in the five-horse 11th race, Gingras won the 12th with Twin B Fighter and the 13th with Real Lucky N, putting him in double figures. Gingras sent Play The Field to the top as he attempted to break the local record, but Just A Rocket Man lived up to his name by putting in a :27 third quarter to sweep past the leader and power on to victory, with Play The Field settling for second. Gingras wound up his day with the 10 victories – those horses winning by an aggregate 30¾ lengths.

Gingras has won his share of Harrah's major stakes over the years (his name appears on the track records page three times), and he is one of only three drivers to have won the local UDRS title on more than one occasion – the other two are named Napolitano and Tetrick. (If you're a numbers person, Yannick's UDRS for the day was .897.)

In the co-featured $13,500 pace, the Captaintreacherous sophomore filly Donegal Spirit had command, a few strides away from the gate and she never relinquished control while taking a new mark of 1:51.1. After putting up fractions of :27, :56.1, and 1:23.4, Donegal Spirit didn't appear to draw a labored breath yet, still shot home in :27.2 for driver Gingras and trainer Andrew Harris, whose A Harris Racing LLC co-owns the sharp filly with William Pollock and Bruce Areman.

Today's 12:40 p.m. card at Philly features Pennsylvania-sired 2-year-old trotting colts in their last preliminaries before their rich championship events in the Sire Stakes and Stallion Series, to be held in early September. Free Philly programs are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Jiggy Jog and Castor The Star join MGM Yonkers International Trot field

A pair of Swedish breds – Jiggy Jog and Castor The Star – have received the fourth and fifth invitations for the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot. The 1¼-mile event is slated for Sept. 7 over the historic oval at Yonkers Raceway.

Jiggy Jog, of course, needs no introduction to those in North America as she is the reigning Dan Patch Older Trotting Mare of the Year in the United States and is currently undefeated in three 2024 starts. Her recent 1:49.2 victory at The Meadowlands in the John Cashman Memorial versus male competition was the fourth-fastest mile ever by a mare trotter.

Bred in Sweden but exported to the U.S. to race, Jiggy Jog has accumulated 21 wins in 38 career starts while earning north of $2.4 million. In 2023 she finished second behind Vivid Wise As in the MGM Yonkers International Trot and went on to win the Breeders Crown a month later.

Earlier this year Jiggy Jog was sold, but she remains under the care of trainer Ake Svanstedt, who co-owns with Steve Stewart, John Lengacher and Hickory Hollow Stables. The 5-year-old daughter of Walner last competed on Saturday (Aug. 17) in the $100,000 Sebastian K invitational at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania with regular driver Dexter Dunn in the bike.

Unlike her fellow Swedish flag carrier, Castor The Star has been racing in his homeland and is riding a two-race winning streak. Most recently on Aug. 10, the 6-year-old son of Maharajah captured the Åby Sprint Grand Prix at the distance of 1,640 meters (just over one mile).

Trained by Jörgen Westholm for owner Team Westholm AB, Castor The Star has three victories in nine tries this year and a strong 14 wins from 46 starts for his career.

Jiggy Jog and Castor The Star join Capital Mail (Italy), Get A Wish (Denmark) and Hail Mary (Sweden) as starters in the MGM Yonkers International Trot. Further starters will be announced in the coming days.

The $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot will be the centerpiece of a spectacular afternoon card (12:15 p.m. EDT post time) on Sept. 7 that also features a pair of $250,000 invitationals for older horses and the $1.8 million finals of the New York Sire Stakes.

Bob Loblaw opens up in MacGregor consolation

With a confident steer from driver Dale Spence, Bob Loblaw was much the best in the $30,000 James (Roach) MacGregor Gold Cup and Saucer consolation Friday (Aug. 16) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The MacGregor consolation saw Bob Loblaw (driven by Spence) leave alertly off the rail and release Bounty Hunter (Kenny Arsenault) to the lead at the :27.1 opening quarter. Spence wasted no time retaking the lead before the second turn and struck the half in :54.2 then the three-quarters in 1:23 with Blue Hunt (Jason Hughes) on the first-over attack. Bob Loblaw never relinquished an inch in the final quarter as he won by two-lengths over Blue Hunt in 1:51.2 while PL Ozzy (David Dowling) closed hard to finish third. Ken Middleton co-owns and trains the winning son of Sunshine Beach for co-owners David Walls, James Grant and Starting Centre Stables of Ontario.

The 14-dash program also featured the Lady Slipper stakes for 3-year-old fillies.

Chip Of Evil (Corey MacPherson) won the fastest $18,500 Gold division in 1:54.4 for trainer Eddy Doucette and owner Inarush Stable of Kensington. Galway Girl (Marc Campbell) was second ahead of Woodmere Delta (Gilles Barrieau).

Starship Beauty scored a 15-1 upset in her $18,500 Gold division winning in 1:55.4 for the team of driver Dowling, trainer Kyle Williams and owner Dads Without Abs of Fredericton, PEI. Rollwithitdarling (Campbell) was a head back in second while Fern Hill Indigo (Brodie MacPhee) cut the fractions and settled for third.

Miss Dutton also had a career best performance, stopping the clock in 1:55 in her $18,500 Gold division for driver Marc Campbell and trainer Kuri White for Shoulda Been Onabeach Stb of Charlottetown. Miss Wicked (MacPherson) grabbed second while Downtown Tonight (Adam Merner) was third.

The $9,250 Grassroots Lady Slipper divisions for sophomore fillies were won by U No Peach (Arsenault) in 1:56.2 for trainer Vaughan Doyle, Czarspieceofheaven (Hughes) in 1:56.4 from the Todd Weatherbee barn, First Filly Chip (MacPherson) in 1:57.2 as part of a White training double and Windemere Saddy (Campbell) in 1:56.1 for trainer Brent Campbell.

Marc Campbell had four wins on the program while Hughes scored a driving triple.

Denmark standout Get A Wish back for 2024 MGM Yonkers International Trot

Get A Wish made the long journey to compete in the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot in 2023 only to fall victim to a bad trip. His connections are hoping for better luck after receiving the third invitation to the Sept. 7 event.

Representing Denmark, Get A Wish raced in the outer flow for the entire 1¼-mile race last year and was badly backed into in the final three-eighths of the contest, costing him at least four lengths by the time the field hit the final turn. The 6-year-old then made a break, but his fate was already sealed. Get A Wish comes into the MGM Yonkers International Trot this year off a fifth-place finish behind European star Horsy Dream in the prestigious ABY World Grand Prix raced at just under two miles for a purse of approximately $961,000 USD. His prior start saw him finish second in the Grade I Hugo Aberg's Memorial behind Borups Victory.

Now trained by Johan Untersteiner for Stall My Little Pony, Get A Wish will join Capital Mail and Hail Mary in the MGM Yonkers International Trot. Additional starters will be announced in the coming days.

The MGM Yonkers International Trot will be the centerpiece of a spectacular afternoon card (12:15 p.m.

EDT post time) on Sept. 7 that also features a pair of $250,000 invitationals for older horses and the $1.8 million finals of the New York Sire Stakes.

Jacob Cutting notches 500th career win Thursday at Running Aces

Driver Jacob Cutting, 23, registered his 500th career victory on Thursday night (Aug. 15) at Running Aces Casino Hotel and Racetrack delivering as the 1-5 favorite with JK My Girl in race 5.

Cutting and JK My Girl asserted themselves early in the $6,100 conditioned pace, going to the front from post 5 before orchestrating the give-and-go maneuver with the public's second choice Racin For Royalty (Williams Hernandez) just past the :28.1 quarter-mile station.

They were back on top to record the moderate :57.4 halfway point fraction and controlled the affair from there while Racin For Royalty tracked in the pocket and Lucky Lil Lady (Jeff Hunt) traveled in third.

In the lane Racin For Royalty tipped out and came after the leader but JK My Girl ($2.60) dug in gamely to fend off the late attack and post her fourth win of the season by a half-length in 1:54 over a very game Racin For Royalty while Lucky Lil Lady held for third money.

The winner is a 5-year-old daughter of JK Endofanera and is owned by Erika Huffman and is trained by Bob Lems.

Live racing returns to Running Aces today (Aug. 18) for a big 12-race program that will feature the $35,000 Steve Wiseman Memorial Trot final with a special "Whatever It Takes" themed night that will benefit the Colon Cancer Coalition. As per tradition, there is also a Wiseman Night hat giveaway.

Tonight is also Pepsi Family Night with specials and kid's activities as well as trout fishing, food trucks, Sole Survivor handicapping contest and losing ticket drawings.

Post Time for tonight's card is 6 p.m. (CDT).

Field set for Closing Day Charity Challenge at Clinton Raceway

Sunday (Sept. 1), race fans will say farewell to another season of racing at the Huron County Oval with the annual drivers challenge. This year will once again feature the top six dash-winning drivers in Canada plus the top two from Clinton.

James MacDonald, Travis Henry, Garret Rooney, Tyler Borth, Travis Cullen and Samuel Fillion will join J. Harris and Todd Ratchford as your eight drivers on the day's 10-race card. All drivers will be donating their fees from the day to three local Royal Canadian Legion Branches. Clinton, Seaforth and Exeter will be on hand raising funds for each respective branch.

In addition to the 50/50 and silent auction happening trackside, the day will also feature the final Chicken BBQ under the current grandstand. With a new facility slated to open for racing in 2025 this dinner will close out a 47-year history of race day dinners. Tickets for the Pineridge 1/2 Chicken Dinner are $25 (with $10 from each ticket being donated to the branches) and can be reserved by contacting Jessica Carnochan at Clinton Raceway (jessicacarnochan@gmail.com).

Ontario Sires Stakes 2-year-old filly pacers will be featured on track, and Clinton Raceway will honor all caretakers as part of Standardbred Canada's Caretaker Appreciation Day.

Arrive early to take part in the Driver's Challenge Challenge for the chance to win up to $500 and stick around following the day's card to take in the RCMP Musical Ride, hosted by REACH and the Bayfield Agricultural Society.

Kyra Suleski wins 2024 HHI Jerome L. Hauck Scholarship

Kyra Suleski is the 2024 recipient of Harness Horsemen International's annual $4,000 Jerome L. Hauck Scholarship.

Suleski, 18, is a daughter of standardbred owners Ted and Sherri Suleski. While Kyra resides in Mt. Laurel, NJ, her father races horses in various spots along the East Coast. Kyra has maintained a 3.76 GPA throughout her high school years, having been named to the Lenape High School honor roll every year from 2020 through 2023.

Despite being diagnosed with Junior Myoclonic Epilepsy in 2019, Kyra excelled in varsity swimming, and served as an aquatic instructor, a USA Swimming Certified Swim Coach, and later became the manager of her High School Swim Team.

"I strived through the challenges in my life and did not let these obstacles stop me from achieving amazing honors in high school," said Kyra, who has applied to the University of Tampa, Southern Florida College, and Montclair State University where she plans on pursuing her BA, MA, and eventually, her PhD in international studies.

"International studies is a degree which would open me up to the entire world," she said. "I am fascinated by other countries, history, cultures, art, politics, and economics. I would like to ultimately get my PhD and represent my country abroad, negotiate international agreements, and promote peace and cooperation, economic growth, reduce poverty, and foster sustainable development."

HHI also presented a special $2,000 scholarship to Lexi Twaddle, 20, daughter of trainer Tim and Sophia Twaddle. Lexi resides in Canonsburg, PA, where she is a sophomore at Walsh University studying biology. Lexi is active in student government, and is a member of the women's soccer team, class senate, intramural volleyball, and of Sigma Zeta, the science and math honor society at Walsh. She maintains a 3.6 GPA and was on the Dean's List for the 2023-24 university year.

"Helping others is my calling," Lexi said. "Fueled by a lifelong interest in the medical field. My motivation stems from witnessing my father's struggles with heart issues, propelling me to make a difference in similar situations. My upbringing in harness racing instilled in me invaluable lessons in work ethic and family bonds. I remain committed to contributing to our family's passion while shouldering responsibilities to ease my parent's burdens."

HHI is proud to award the 2024 Jerome L. Hauck and special scholarship to these bright and deserving young women.
