USTA squares off with Jockey Club over Horseracing Integrity Act

by Andrew Cohen

Congressional support seems to be increasing for the Horseracing Integrity Act (HIA), the pending federal legislation that would dramatically alter the legal and political landscape of horse racing in the United States. It is possible the measure will get a vote on the floor of the House and Senate either before or, more likely, after the November election. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, after all, represents the state of Kentucky.

As a potential decision-day approaches on Capitol Hill, and as racing integrity issues continue to haunt the industry, we thought it prudent to give the harness racing community an opportunity to flesh out some of the details of the pending legislation and to get answers to some of the basic questions that have been floating around about the measure for years.

We asked United States Trotting Association (USTA) president Russell Williams, who also is the CEO/president of Hanover Shoe Farms, and Jim Gagliano, the president of The Jockey Club, to engage in a virtual debate with one another over the legislation. Williams ardently opposes the HIA. Gagliano supports it and thinks the harness horse community should, too.

The ground rules were this. In Round 1, we submitted questions to Gagliano, who answered them. Then Williams responded to Gagliano and Gagliano replied to Williams. The order was reversed in Round 2. Here's Round 1. Round 2 will be published here in Friday's HRU and our hope is to publish some of your responses in the Sunday edition

Cohen: Why is the ban on Lasix necessary?

Gagliano: “To be clear, the bill does not ban the use of Lasix outright. It bans the administration of medications on the day of a race. Horses race almost everywhere else on the planet, across all breeds, without the administration of a medication – Lasix – on race day. Why should 95 per cent of horses need to be prophylactically administered a therapeutic medication, almost entirely without a diagnosis, for a condition that affects approximately just 5 per cent? The use of race-day medication indicates to fans that our horses are not healthy enough to race on their own merits, something the rest of the racing world – including standardbreds – has proved they can do.”

Cohen: How would the authority set up by the new law address medication concerns specific to standardbreds?

Gagliano: “The short answer is that the bill contemplates the creation of different rules for the different breeds racing in the U.S. By way of background, the Horseracing Integrity Act would empower a private, not-for-profit organization to create and enforce medication and anti-doping rules for U.S. horse racing. While the rules would be subject to limited approval by the FTC for Constitutional law reasons, the rules themselves will be created by the authority. Importantly, its board will be composed of persons with demonstrated expertise in many facets of horse racing (with diversity of representatives from the three major breeds) and also anti-doping experts from USADA (the same folks who handle anti-doping for our Olympic athletes).

So, to make it clear, and contrary to publicized assertions by some that the HIA would create “a one-size-fits-all approach” for all breeds, the bill expressly calls on the new authority to take into account the unique character of racing of the different breeds. So long as a differing medication rule does not compromise the welfare of the horse or the integrity of competition the authority would be acting consistently with the HIA by having different rules for different breeds.

Russell Williams' response to Gagliano: “The state racing commissions apply immense learning and experience to protecting the welfare of the horse, and they permit race-day Lasix. The draft bill completely ignores that. Its only reference to the Association of Racing Commissioners International Model Rules, which permit race-day Lasix, equates them to the World Anti-Doping Code, which does not permit it. Why would international rules pop up in a bill in the United States Congress? The bill itself spells out the reason: because “uniform” national anti-doping and control standards “will improve the marketplace for international sales of United States horses.

“Improving the marketplace for elite thoroughbred horses is actually the main purpose of the bill. I quote from a panel given at the 2019 Jockey Club Round Table:

JOHN MESSARA: [T]he one thing that we have that’s different to here is the one thing that you’re arguing about today... so I’m not going to push that too hard.

JOHN MESSARA: [H]aving a national drug policy... akin to the other developed industries and jurisdictions in the world... would unleash a monster here, an economic monster...

As it stands today, it’s difficult for us to judge whether we should be buying a mare, was she treated with Lasix, did she, you know, was she on bute at some stage, what went on, you know? So rather than get bitten by it, we stay clear. The same is applying to us as far as stallions are concerned.

“Economic motives are not inherently bad, considering that horse racing provides hundreds of thousands of jobs and billions of dollars in economic impact. Doubtless the supporters of the bill care about the welfare of the horse, but unleashing ‘a monster of economic rewards’ without improving the welfare of the horse is an unacceptable reason for federal legislation.

“The bill does nothing to improve the lot of racing horses. We can dispense with the 5 per cent assertion, which selectively uses epistaxis, representing blood gushing from the nose. The Jockey Club’s own landmark, peer-reviewed 2009 study showed that 80 per cent of the 167 horses in the study suffered from EIPH (Exercise-Induced Pulmonary Hemorrhage), which Lasix alleviated in subsequent races. Veterinarians estimate that 95 per cent of racehorses bleed at some point in their lives.

“Lasix is the only therapeutic medication known to alleviate EIPH. It does not enhance performance. It does not mask other substances. If we look at the rest of the world, Lasix is used liberally on every other day but race day. Why would we deny this safe and effective – but short-acting – therapeutic to a horse on the day of its greatest pulmonary stress? Far from supporting the welfare of the horse, denying Lasix on race day is inhumane.

“We, as an industry, must rein in our economic motives instead of unleashing them, and look instead to science, veterinary knowledge, and to our love for the horse.”

Gagliano’s responses to Williams.

On state racing commissions: “The USTA clearly defers to state racing commissions’ position on Lasix, based upon their ‘immense learning and experience.’ Unfortunately, not all racing commissions are so learned. Take, for example, the New York Gaming Commission that does not have a single member with any racing experience.

“Further, it seems that the USTA is only content to rely upon the ‘immense learning and experience’ of the state commissions when it agrees with the rules that are in place. A prime example is when the USTA sought to relax the states’ thresholds and withdrawal times for clenbuterol and horseracing in the United States will promote interstate commerce, encourage fair competition and a level playing field, assure full and fair disclosure of information to purchasers of breeding stock and to the wagering public, will improve the marketplace for domestic and international sales of United States horses, will provide a platform for consistency with all major international horseracing standards, address growing domestic concerns over disparities with international rules, and provide for the safety and welfare of horses and jockeys.

"Further, I see nothing wrong with improving the international marketplace for the sale of U.S. horses, but it is not the main purpose of the bill. If it is an ancillary benefit, I'd be pleased."

On the 2019 Jockey Club Round Table quote:

Gagliano: "First off, Mr. Williams makes the totally unsupportable statement that the HIA will not improve the welfare of the horse. If he thinks that it is good for the horse to leave anti-doping and medication control in the hands of state regulators who often have no industry experience or, when they do, suffer from conflicts of interest, he is clearly mistaken. Horses will be far better off when the rules are handled by non-conflicted experts in those fields – not by some bureaucrats who were appointed by a friendly state governor.

"Second, John Messara is an Australian breeder and owner and he was speaking from that perspective – and the quote was selectively edited. Here is the full text of what he said on that point: 'Okay, I'm going to say one thing only and that is a bit like what happened to us when we got those legislative changes on tax, I think that having a national drug policy – no drug policy, actually – akin to the other developed industries and jurisdictions in the world, Australia, Europe, etcetera, would unleash a monster here, an economic monster that I – everyone's talked about why people don't want it, well, I think one of the benefits is going to be that the likes of myself will start to look at America again as somewhere to shop for horses. As it stands today, it's difficult for us to judge whether we should be buying a mare, was she treated with Lasix, did she, you know, was she on bute at some stage, what went on, you know? So rather than get bitten by it, we stay clear.'

On Williams’ assertion that “the bill does nothing to improve the lot of racing horses.”

Gagliano: “Lasix enhances performance: Effect of furosemide on performance of Thoroughbreds racing in the United States and Canada, Gross, et al., JAVMA, Vol. 215, No. 5, 1999, 670-675.

“With the exception of the most severe EIPH (endoscopy score of 4), long-term athletic performance in racing is not affected by EIPH. Stated differently, and I quote from the authors, ‘On the basis of results of the current study, we conclude that there is no association between EIPH grades 0, 1, 2 and 3 and long-term racing performance of thoroughbred racehorses.’”: Prospective study of the association between exercise-induced pulmonary hemorrhage and long-term performance in Thoroughbred racehorses. Sullivan, et al., Equine Veterinary Journal, DOI: 10.1111/evj.12263, 2014, 1-8.

“Stated alternatively, for all horses but those with the most severe form of EIPH, which is believed to be approximately 5 per cent of the population, Lasix is an unnecessary prophylactic treatment administered to nearly 95 per cent of racehorses for the purposes of enhancing performance, principally through weight loss and, to a lesser extent, by reducing the effect of fatigue on muscle performance (see effect of Lasix on blood pH and analytical compensation necessary when testing for TCO2 to account for Lasix).

“Lasix makes horses run faster, especially the 95 per cent of horses that do not need it.

“Hundreds of thousands of horses race internationally, collectively making millions of starts every year. The statement that ‘denying Lasix on race day is inhumane’ is an affront to every international owner and trainer – and to every owner and trainer in the U.S. who chooses to run their horses without the use of Lasix. The fact of the matter is that horses all over the world, including the U.S., race safely and successfully without race-day Lasix.”

Eliminations drawn for 37th Pepsi North America Cup

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The field for the 37th Pepsi North America Cup will be determined by two $50,000 eliminations this Saturday night (Aug. 22) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A total of 15 3-year-old pacers were entered in Canada's most prestigious harness race, forcing two eliminations with the top-five finishers in each advancing to the $1 million final on Saturday, Aug. 29.

The first $50,000 elimination can be classified as a 'must-see' race with the highly accomplished Tall Dark Stranger leading the field of eight. The stacked split also includes Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) stars Tattoo Artist and Beaumont Hanover, Milstein Memorial winner Odds On Osiris and last year's standout Capt Midnight.

Tall Dark Stranger offers trainer Nancy Takter a strong chance at a second consecutive Pepsi North America Cup title after she won last year's edition with Captain Crunch. The son of Bettors Delight—Precocious Beauty is coming in off a career-best 1:47.1 victory in the Cane Pace.

Yannick Gingras will take his usual spot behind Tall Dark Stranger in Saturday's Cup elimination.

Tall Dark Stranger will look to become the first horse to ever win the Metro Pace and Breeders Crown at age 2 and then win the Pepsi North America Cup the following year.

Metro Pace champions have come back to win the Pepsi North America Cup five-times (Presidential Ball 1992-93, Rocknroll Hanover 2004-05, Somebeachsomewhere 2007-08, Sportswriter 2009-10, Captaintreacherous 2012-13). Breeders Crown champions at 2 have won the Pepsi North America Cup three times (Bettors Delight 2000-01, Well Said 2008-09, Captain Crunch 2018-19).

Jack Darling's Beaumont Hanover and Dr. Ian Moore's Tattoo Artist will finally meet after dominating the OSS this season. Both sophomores carry length win streaks into the Cup eliminations and both were victorious in OSS Gold action on Sunday night at Rideau.

Tattoo Artist has won five in a row and holds a mark of 1:48.2, while Beaumont Hanover has won four straight and has stopped the clock in 1:49.1.

Odds On Osiris made a name for himself last Saturday by winning the $250,000 Milstein Memorial at Northfield Park. The Melanie Wrenn trainee had never raced outside Indiana until that start and found the winner's circle with her husband Peter Wrenn steering. He enters the Cup two-for-four this season and nine for 14 overall.

Trainer Tony Alagna sends out Capt Midnight and Captain Barbossa in the opening split as part of three horses he's entered in this year's Cup eliminations.

Capt Midnight won five of six starts at Mohawk Park as a rookie, including the Dream Maker, Nassagaweya and Champlain. He was most recently second to Tall Dark Stranger in the Cane Pace. Captain Barbossa is winless in seven starts this season, but has raced in the finals of the Meadowlands Pace and Adios.

The first elimination also includes the gritty Beach Blanket Book, who has won three of eight and finished top-two six times this season for Blake MacIntosh, and local starter Warrawee Vital, who is making just his second start in the last six and a half months and is trained by Rob Fellows.

The first elimination is carded as Race 6 with a post time of 9:05 p.m.

The starters in the second elimination will have their eyes open wide in search of a top result after missing many of the top contenders competing in the first split.

Allywag Hanover is four for six and the top earner in the field at $157,920 banked this season. The Brett Pelling trainee was third in the Meadowlands Pace final last month and enters the Cup elimination off a 1:49.1 victory in a Pennsylvania Sires Stakes division last Tuesday.

Pelling is a three-time Cup winning trainer, having captured the race with Rocknroll Hanover (2005), The Panderosa (1999) and Davids Pass (1995). This will be Pelling's first crack at the Cup since returning to North America a couple years back following 11 years in his home country of Australia.

Captain Kirk is the third member of the Alagna barn competing in Saturday's eliminations and is the only horse to hold a win over Tall Dark Stranger this season. The Alagna trainee won the Geers Stakes on Aug. 1 in a career best 1:48.3 and last time out was third in the Cane Pace.

A quartet of Woodbine's most prominent trainers will send out starters in the second elimination.

Carmen Auciello and Rod Boyd will be in search of their first Cup appearance. Auciello sends out Moneyman Hill, while Boyd sends out Aneto.

The second elimination field is completed by Velocity Rukkus, who races for trainer Mark Evers and has competed at Mohawk Park in each of the last two seasons.

The second Pepsi North America Cup elimination is carded as Race 8 with an approximate post time of 9:55 p.m.

The winners of Saturday's eliminations will earn their connections the opportunity to select their post position for the final.

Party Girl Hill draws high praise from breeder/owner Tom Hill

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Party Girl Hill has given owner Tom Hill reason to celebrate. Unraced at age 2 because of a stress fracture, the 3-year-old female pacer is 6-for-6 in 2020 as she prepares for a Fan Hanover elimination on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Chris Ryder trainee has won all but one start by at least 1-1/4 lengths, including an 11-3/4 length romp in her debut June 12 at The Meadowlands. She won her most recent race, a sire stakes division at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, by 4-1/2 lengths in 1:49. It was her third consecutive sub-1:50 win on a five-eighths-mile track and the fastest mile on a five-eighths oval by a 3-year-old filly pacer in four years, only two-fifths of a second off the world record.

"I don't know how fast she can go," Hill said. "I don't know where the bottom is. She's a freak."

Hill bred Party Girl Hill, a daughter of Captaintreacherous out of Look Cheap. Party Girl Hill trained well as a 2-year-old but was injured just prior to qualifying.

"There was no surgery, we just had to give her the time to heal," Hill said. "She was training like an absolute monster. If we didn't have to quit with her, there's no doubt she would have been a top-class 2-year-old."

Hill, who lives in England and will turn 70 next month, is no stranger to good horses. He owned two-time O'Brien Award winning trotter Caprice Hill, Breeders Crown champion Racing Hill, millionaire Western Silk, and North America Cup and Breeders Crown runner-up Art Colony.

But Party Girl Hill is something different.

"She's the best horse I've ever been fortunate enough to own," Hill said. "She's just in a different sphere. We knew last year she was a tremendously fast horse, and a good horse. If I said I knew she would be as good as she is, I'd be telling you lies, but she had blistering speed and she was intelligent. Whatever you want to do, she will do it."

Chris Gooden

Fan Hanover contender Party Girl Hill (Dexter Dunn, winning the Adioo Volo at The Meadows) is undefeated through six 2020 races.

"Chris says she's easy on herself, nothing bothers her. She travels good, she sleeps good, she eats good, and after a race you wouldn't think she had one. She can race from the front, she can do it from behind, she can get parked out; it doesn't matter. She's the full package. That's what makes a champion, when you get all those things coming together."

Party Girl Hill faces seven rivals Saturday in the second of two Fan Hanover eliminations. Doug McNair is listed to drive the filly, who will start from post two. The top-five finishers from each elim will advance to the final. Party Girl Hill had been entered previously to race Thursday in a Pennsylvania Sire Stakes division at Harrah's Philadelphia, but will be scratched.

"I'm just hoping she carries on and stays healthy," Hill said. "When she's on her game, I don't think there is a 3-year-old filly that can go with her. If she stays healthy, I think she can be a big contender for Horse of the Year. She's just a special horse. She's a gift from God."

Owner/breeder Tom Hill said Party Girl Hill is a freak of nature.

Prewitt adds director of racing for Caesars Entertainment to his many hats

The company believes Gabe Prewitt's proven ability to drive handle and strong connection with bettors will pay off for its racing operations: Pompano Park, Harrah's Hoosier Park, Scioto Downs and Harrah's Philadelphia.

by Chris Lomon

What's another hat when every one you wear is a perfect fit?

Gabe Prewitt laughs at the question. But his answer speaks volumes about the person who just landed the role of director of racing for Caesar's Entertainment-Racing.

"What's that saying? I guess I'm a jack-of-all trades and master of none. It's what I like. It's what I love, in fact. It's always rewarding to go to work and do what you enjoy. I like to be involved in all aspects of racing," Prewitt said.

And Prewitt most certainly is.

Race announcer at Pompano Park and the Red Mile – he'll continue on with both gigs this year – the horse owner, horse breeder and horseplayer will add to his impressive repertoire by managing post times, gambling menus and social media channels at Caesar's Entertainment's harness tracks, and also be in-person at the northern U.S. racetracks when Pompano isn't conducting live racing.

Prewitt, a University of Kentucky graduate, is champing at the bit to get going with Caesar's, who owns and operates standardbred racing at Pompano Park, Hoosier Park, Scioto Downs and Harrah's Philadelphia.

"Basically, I was just excited because in my discussions with Joe Morrison [vice president of racing for Caesar's Entertainment-Racing] and the team at Caesar's, we're looking to create a new brand, essentially.

Gabe Prewitt has been named the director of racing for Caesar's Entertainment.

In July, Eldorado Resorts Inc. completed its $17 billion (U.S.) acquisition of Caesars Entertainment Corp. to create a new powerhouse in the casino industry.

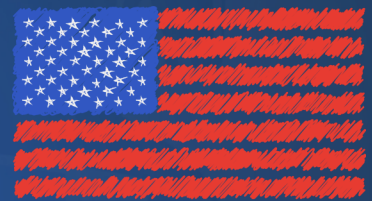

"With that merger that went through with Eldorado, Caesar's is really wanting to grow the racing brand, make an investment in racing, and make it the best they can. That's exciting to hear. They're motivated and they're excited. We've had a lot of discussions. I think it's going to be a great future," Prewitt said.

While there's no such thing as a sure thing in horse racing, it's pretty much odds-on that wherever Prewitt goes, good things follow.

When it comes to raising handle and raising interest in wagering through an array of attractive betting options, he has the Midas touch.

Case in point(s), significant increases in handle this year at Scioto Downs and at Pompano Park.

After live racing got back on track in May, Scioto Downs recorded six straight million-plus nights in handle, including some of the highest single-card wagering numbers in the 62-year history of the track.

“We have introduced many, many new players to Scioto, just given the numbers in the past,” Prewitt told HRU’s Brett Sturman (full story here). “Regardless of how they got here, they’re in our pools and we’ve tried to create a wagering menu that appeals to everyone. There are no jackpot bets and we’ve had super high five carryovers, superfecta carryovers, we nearly had pick-4 and pick-5 carryovers and we’ve had a lot of huge four- and five-figure payouts on those wagers. We’ve grown probably more than any track by looking at the numbers by doing five, six, or even seven times more than what we’d normally do. So, we’re certainly getting our product in front of people who aren’t familiar with.”

In January, there was a track record set at Pompano Park, one that had nothing to do with a pacer or trotter’s final time.

The south Florida racetrack landed a record for its Pick-6 pool when handle for the non-jackpot wager topped $112,000.

“When it comes to betting menu, social media, and other components, I think having a good product, first and foremost, in terms of field size, along with low takeout, is crucial. I don’t have a specific philosophy. What I enjoy more than anything is playing with wagering. I was fortunate that a few years ago they turned me loose in that department at Pompano. We tried some things that worked and believe me we tried many things that didn’t work. We try to learn from mistakes, stick with what works and go from there.

“Every track is unique in what its strength may be. If you have a large volume of races, that’s nice because you can have a lot of creativity with the betting menu, like with what we’ve done at Scioto, where we had a record season. At Pompano, we scale back. We’re going to hopefully have more horses than we’ve ever had this year. That’s going to be mission number one for me. Every track is different, everywhere is unique, and I think you’ve got to just play to the strengths that you have. But the main thing is you’ve got to put out a good product for your horseplayers.”

This is where perhaps Prewitt’s greatest strength lies.

A horseplayer himself, his willingness to engage other bettors in dialogue has been a major contributor to his expertise in the world of wagering.

“You have to listen to them. Most everything that I’ve ever enacted anywhere is through discussions with horseplayers. They are living this day in and day out, and I’m one of them. I try to listen and do what we can on that front. You always try to improve and we remember how we keep score, through the handle.”

Caesar’s is thrilled to have Prewitt as part of its team.

“He has a great depth of knowledge about working with the mutuels for setting post times,” said Morris. “He knows handicapping. He’s been instrumental in managing post times and the wagering menu that’s resulted in our record handles at Scioto Downs this year. He’s a bright young guy and he’s already established a substantial audience for our racing product with his ‘Send It In’ social media campaign on Twitter.”

Prewitt is up for the new challenge.

“I think we have a lot of opportunity across the properties to really climb. I’ve been fortunate to be able to do a lot of things in the business. I’ve been the executive director of the Kentucky Harness Horsemen’s Association, so I know that side of it, I own a few racehorses, breed a small number of racehorses, play the races – all of those adventures, you see things from a lot of different sides of the business. I hope people know that I’m always going to try to do what’s fair, and to see things from a well-rounded perspective and not just one side of the fence.”

It’s why many in the sport say ‘hats off’ to the man who wears so many.

With its casino still closed, Yonkers and SOA agree to cease racing on Sept. 12

Yonkers will end its 2020 season with the New York Sire Stakes Night of Champions, but a number of stakes, including the Yonkers Trot and Messenger Stakes, have been cancelled for the year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

by Debbie Little

When Yonkers Raceway returned to action on Monday, June 22 after being sidelined for 15 weeks by the coronavirus pandemic, it seemed like everything was back on track at the historic Hilltop oval.

But with their casino still dark, the wheels came off on Monday, Aug. 18, when a joint press release from Empire City Casino by MGM Resorts and the Standardbred Owners Association of New York (SOA) announced an agreement to extend racing only through Saturday, Sept. 12, which is New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) Night of Champions.

"The casino has been closed since March, so that's a long time of no money coming in for purses," said Yonkers Raceway director of racing Alex Dadoyan. "And it's not just the casino. Even though we have been open with racing, we have not been able to have people on property to wager either for the live racing or for simulcasting. The Saratoga [thoroughbred] meet is running upstate and that's always the top simulcast signal for any track where you can generate some money on simulcasting and we've not been open the whole time."

The release explains that racing would have ceased in August if not for this agreement where MGM Resorts will continue to pay operating expenses and the SOA will contribute $1.2 million to purses.

"Maybe people outside of the paddock at Yonkers weren't aware, but I've been telling everybody when the purses run out, racing will stop here. Period. End of sentence," said SOA president Joe Faraldo.

"And then we decided to do this little bridge thing with the $1.2 million, which I was hoping we wouldn't have to do. Maybe Christ could turn water into wine, but the SOA can't turn pennies into millions of dollars. It just isn't going to happen."

The $1.2 million is coming from the SOA treasury and is not purse money. It is money that would otherwise be used for administration, welfare and retirement benefits for their membership, but the SOA did not believe that this amount would affect the form of benefits or services that they provide.

"I'll do what I can do," said Faraldo. "And that $1.2 million, that's not something to sneeze about."

The SOA of New York is stepping up to do this because we're concerned about the Night of Champions. The vast majority of the funding [for Night of Champions] comes from revenue generated at Yonkers Raceway from racing as a minor component and from the VLTs as a major component. So we didn't want to see all that effort go down the drain."

Since returning to racing in June, the SOA has tried to be strategic and creative when it came to doling out their purse monies. They even picked up some sire stakes races originally scheduled for Monticello, because racing four nights with one NYSS night means only three nights would come from their purse account.

"In this economic time it is beneficial," said Faraldo.

USTA Integrity Tip Line: 833-878-2847 (USTATIP) / reportit@ustrotting.com

"Because in normal times sometimes those (NYSS) races do not generate betting interest like your regular overnights, but in these times it's absolutely essential that we have that. And actually I think the best night we had was all sire stakes which I couldn't figure out at all. It hasn't repeated but it did happen once this year. I'm glad we had enough reserves to get us through as long as we did. I wish we had more or that I had more alternatives, but I don't."

Even though Night of Champions is secure on the calendar, other stakes were not so fortunate.

The Yonkers Trot, the Messenger Stakes and their companion races – the New York, New York Mile (formerly the Hudson Filly Trot) and the MGM Park Place (formerly the Lady Maud) – are casualties of COVID-19.

"There was no more money, and if you read the release, the SOA made some maneuvers to fund for another month or so and they chose not to have those stakes and use that money for overnights instead," said Dadoyan.

Dadoyan informed the Hambletonian Society when the decision was made to cancel the stakes with the hope that another track would step up to host the historic Triple Crown races.

"I did make some calls to various jurisdictions and a couple of tracks and nobody has any excess dollars to put into those races," said Hambletonian Society president John Campbell. "The first priority for the SOA is to get their overnight horsemen and overnight horses raced and then the stakes would be another priority."

It's a balancing act putting on stakes for all these jurisdictions. I think every jurisdiction and every horsemen's association realizes the importance of stakes to the industry, to the owners, the trainers and the breeding industry."

According to Hambletonian Society stakes manager David Janes, a total of 47 colt trotters and 40 filly trotters made their 3-year-old payments on Feb. 15 for the Yonkers Trot and New York, New York Mile and as per the conditions, the monies will be prorated among the owners of the horses eligible at the time of cancellation.

The same conditions apply to the 44 colt pacers and 39 filly pacers for the Messenger and Park Place.

"Obviously everyone can't wait to get back to some sense of normal and we're all hoping for a return to that," said Dadoyan. "Having Empire City Casino open and having Yonkers Raceway resume and get back to some bit of normal. There hasn't been a lot of normal in this area for the last six months or so, so everyone, in all aspects of life, is looking forward to a return to what was normal."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Justin Irvine never once wrestled with the decision to become a driver

by Chris Lomon

Justin Irvine never grappled with his decision – not even for a moment – to become a standardbred driver.

In many ways, the teenager from Aurora, OH, the one with some serious wrestling skills, was destined for a life in the race bike.

Irvine's father, Don Irvine Jr., has recorded over 7,400 driving wins and is immortalized on Northfield Park's Wall of Fame in Ohio. The 18-year-old's uncle, William Irvine, has 3,000-plus driving wins to his name. His grandfather raced for over 45 years.

Some big horseshoes to fill, but for an up-and-coming driver, it was never about being duty-bound to join the standardbred ranks.

Instead, it was all about discovering a passion and chasing a dream.

"My family has been very successful in racing, but for me, it's something that I always wanted to do," said Irvine, whose brother and cousins are also looking to carry on the family racing tradition. "I wanted to be a driver and a trainer."

Irvine's actions proved to be just as telling as his words.

On June 5, 2016, at the age of 15, he announced his horse racing arrival in style.

During the Harness Horse Youth Foundation's (HHYF) 40th Anniversary celebration – in his first charted race – he won the Open Pace Matinee at Goshen Historic Track.

The HHYF camp alumnus teamed with Cruzing Hill, owned by George and Rose Bonomo of Illinois, to win by 25 lengths over a sloppy track in 2:01.2.

Irvine hasn't missed a beat since then.

This year, he's set a slew of career-best marks across the board, making a name for himself mostly on the Ohio fair circuit.

Raymond Lance

Third generation horseman Justin Irvine.

Irvine's also competed at The Red Mile and Northfield Park, racking up some nice wins along the way.

Most importantly, he's sharpening his skills in his quest to become a full-time catch driver.

Less than 250 drives into his career, Irvine has already learned what admittedly seems like innumerable lessons – some of them good, others tough – for what's needed to be successful in the sport.

Case in point: an unexpected fourth-place finish with trotter Blazintothefront on Aug. 14 at Jefferson.

"Todd [trainer, Luther] had two horses in the race and the other horse won it," said Irvine. "Todd thought it would be the other way around, and so did I. Blazintothefront, he's a big horse and there's a lot of tight turns at these fair racetracks. But that's horse racing, really. So far, there's been a lot of ups and downs, especially since I'm young and I'm not driving a lot of horses."

One of the biggest hurdles Irvine has contended with is overanalyzing his drives both before and after a race.

Admittedly, he's at his best when he's done his homework, but allows himself to make a change of plans once the gate opens.

"I have to learn to let [results] go after it's happened because there's nothing I can do afterwards. But it's tough being 18-years-old because you want to do well with every horse. When you're young, you want to make a name for yourself. But I think I'm getting better at it because I'm driving more horses now, especially at the fairs. Today [Aug. 14], for example, I was in the first seven races. So, I didn't have much time to think about happened the race before or what was going to happen in the next one. I just went out and raced. That's what I've been teaching myself."

Irvine's increasing comfort level in calling an audible has meant a more comfortable driver holding the reins.

"I read the program every night before or the morning of the races and I don't want to get into a habit of over-analyzing too much. It doesn't always happen as it looks like it does on paper. I'm learning to go with what unfolds on the racetrack. Anything can happen going into the first turn, behind the gate – you just have to be willing to adapt. And I know I'm doing that. Every race you're out there, you're learning something. I think that's what differentiates really good drivers from okay drivers. I want to be a great driver when I get older and the ability to change your plan at the drop of a hat is an important skill to learn."

Having horses like Blazintothefront helping educate him along the way has been a big benefit to Irvine.

A 3-year-old trotting son of Full Count, the gelding went 7-2-4 from 19 starts in 2019. This year, the Black Magic Racing bay is 5-4-0 from 15 starts.

Nvrpoptdaplugs, a 3-year-old pacing son of Big Bad John, is another favorite of Irvine's. He teamed with the bay gelding to win consecutive races in early August, including a 7 <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>-length triumph at Wapakoneta, a half-mile oval located about 56 miles north of Dayton, OH.

Conley Lane, a 3-year-old trotting son of Coraggisio, also earns high marks from Irvine.

All three are Ohio-breds trained by Todd Luther.

"Blazintothefront, he's just phenomenal," said Irvine. "I can drive him however I want. He's big and powerful. Nvrpoptdaplugs, he's a really nice horse... crazy fast. He's great at these fairs. He's still trying to figure out when to use his speed and when not to. When you ask him to turn it on, he turns it on. I don't think there's a horse that has a gear like him in the entire fair circuit. Conley Lane, he had a little trouble at the beginning of the fair season, when it came to steering. Now, we have him straightened out and he's coming into his own. Todd's done a great job with all three of them."

The same can also be said of Irvine, who continues to garner attention for his talent in the sulky.

Although wrestling and racing seemingly have little, if any, in common, the young horseman sees several similarities between the two.

"I wrestled for three years in high school and I think that helped me a lot as a driver. One, it helped to control my nerves. When I was 16 and 17, I would be nervous before driving a horse. The more I wrestled I wasn't full of nerves when I went out on the mat. I went out there and did what I could. That's really helped me in my approach on the racetrack. I was recently in a Stallion Series that was going for a $17,500 purse – the biggest purse I've driven for so far – and I was a little nervous before, but once I got out there, I wasn't at all.

"I think wrestling has also helped me to think and react quickly. Anything can happen when you're out on the mat against one person, so you have to go with what your opponent gives you. That's the same for horse racing, except you have more opponents. You have to go with what everyone else gives you and based on that, you come up with the best way to win that race."

Open-length win or off-the board finish, Irvine, who enjoys golfing or boating with friends in his free time, wouldn't want to be doing anything else.

It's one thing he'll never overthink.

"It might sound weird, but the adrenaline rush I get from being in such tight corners... it's just hard to put it into words. I love that feel of being in the middle of the action, and knowing this is what racing is all about. I never thought it would be just like that, knowing you're just inches away from someone who has the same goal as you do. That's why you need to be at your best every time the gate opens."

As they made the turn for home Plunge Blue Chip popped out of the pocket and made her move. Manchego tried to fend her off but Plunge Blue Chip powered her way to the front. Felicityshagwell S (Andy Miller) came flying late but Plunge Blue Chip had the jump and held on to win in a seasonal best of 1:51.3. Felicityshagwell S was second best. Manchego had to settle for third.

Plunge Blue Chip is a 5-year-old mare by Muscle Mass. Owned by Blue Chip Bloodstock Inc., Tomas Anderson, and trainer Ake Svanstedt. It was her second win of 2020. She now has 21 career victories.

Shartin N (Tim Tetrick) cruised to an easy win in the $129,000 Artiscap open mare pace.

Stonebridge Soul (Corey Callahan) got the first call out of the gate but Shartin N ($2.10) quickly went by to hit the first quarter first in :26.4. She used a :28.2 second quarter to be first to the half in :55.1. She zipped along down the backstretch with a :26.1 third quarter hitting three-quarters in 1:21.2.

As they reached the stretch, second-place finisher Stonebridge Soul was the only one with a chance but Shartin N was just too strong and won easily in 1:48.4. That was just one-fifth off the track record. Tall Drink Hanover (David Miller) came up to finish third.

Shartin N is a 7-year-old mare by Tintin In America. She is trained by Jim King Jr. for owners Richard Poillucci, Jo Ann Looney-King, and Tim Tetrick LLC. It was win number five in six starts this season. She now has 46 career wins.

Hen Party (Andrew McCarthy) and Pettycoat Business (Scott Zeron) each won eliminations for the Empire Breeders Classic (EBC).

In the first elimination, Hen Party ($4.50) took the lead in the stretch and held off the late charge of So Rude (Brian Sears) to win in a lifetime best of 1:50. Dragon Roll (Dexter Dunn) finished third. They all qualified for next week's EBC Final along with Gallaria Gal (Matt Kakaley) and JK Finendandy (Tim Tetrick).

Lexington Selected Yearling Sales Co. announced Tuesday that its annual selected yearling sale, originally scheduled to begin on Tuesday, Oct. 6, will now start on Monday, Oct. 5 and run through Friday, Oct. 9.

The yearling sale will be followed by the company's mixed sale, scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 10.

All sale sessions get underway at 7 p.m. at Fasig-Tipton's Newtown paddocks in Lexington, KY.

According to the company's sale managers Randy Manges and David Reid, yearlings are expected to begin arriving on the grounds beginning Friday, Oct. 2 and will be shown through the weekend prior to the sale.

The two Lexington Selected sales will be preceded by Fasig-Tipton's own Thoroughbred "Selected Yearlings Showcase" sale in early September.

"Having the Thoroughbred sale there ahead of us gives us a chance to see best practices... how the setup is handled and how everything flows, from inspections at the consignment areas to the pavilion," Reid said.

"We're looking forward to playing host to consignors and buyers, and with the quality on offer, expect the sales to go very well."

American Courage wins NYSS at Yonkers, remains perfect

American Courage remained undefeated in his young career scoring in 1:54.2 in New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) action Tuesday night (Aug. 18) at Yonkers Raceway.

American Courage is now a perfect seven-for-seven with four consecutive wins in NYSS action for 2-year-old pacing colts, taking the $70,300 second race division. Driver Matt Kakaley moved to the lead approaching the first quarter and held sway to a half-length victory over I'll Drink To That with Sexy Blue Chip four and one-quarter lengths further back in third.

The son of American Ideal—Nota Fool Bluechip now has three wins at Yonkers Raceway, having taken the MGM Springfield Stakes elimination and final last month. The $225,000 New York Sire Stakes final will be at Yonkers on Saturday, Sept. 12 as part of the $1.8 million New York Night of Champions with eight division finals.

There was a non-betting $69,000 NYSS division before the card and Sauvignon Blue Chip led at every point to a 1:54.4 victory. Tyler Buter guided the son of Art Major—Some Girls Do to his first lifetime win for trainer and co-owner David Dziengiel.

Live racing resumes at Yonkers Thursday with a 7:12 p.m. first post. Racing is currently being conducted four nights a week: Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Zweig features Hambletonian and Oaks winner facing off at Vernon

The 2020 version of the Dr. Harry M. Zweig Memorial, a Grand Circuit stake for 3-year-old trotting fillies and colts, has drawn a single division of each (races 10 & 11) to be raced on Friday (Aug. 21) at Vernon Downs.

In what is clearly a case of quality making up for what the 2020 Zweig does not possess in quantity the cream of this year's sophomore square-gaited crop are among the entrants.

The $160,140 filly division features the extremely rare match-up of the Hambletonian winning Ramona Hill versus Oaks winner Sorella.

Both were nothing short of spectacular in their respective victories with Ramona Hill (PP 1 Andy McCarthy driving for trainer Tony Alagna) equalling her sire Muscle Hill's stakes record of 1:50.1 in her tour de force over male rivals.

Sorella (PP 3), to be driven for the first time on Friday by Dexter Dunn for trainer Nancy Takter, was a handy 1:51 winner in the ladies only division of the stake.

Just for good measure, the Queen of the New York Sires Stakes program and place finisher to Sorella in the Oaks, Hypnotic AM, is in the field as well. Fortune Starlet and Tricky Sister round out the quintet of trotting debutantes.

Ramona Hill races for the partnership of Brad Grant, local owners Crawford Farms Racing, Robert Leblanc and John Fodera and Steve Wienick as In The Gym Partners. Crawford Farms is also a partner in Sorella, sharing ownership with her breeder Elmer Fannin and his son Brent.

The $330,000 Zweig open main event counts the Hambletonian place and show finishers, a pair of colts by Ready Cash, among the nine entrants.

Trainer Nancy Takter sends out the talented Ready For Moni (PP 4 Matt Kakaley), who was a good Hambletonian second, while Back Of The Neck (PP 1 Scott Zeron), one of four entered by trainer Ake Svanstedt, was a solid third.

John Fielding, Lindy Farms of Connecticut, Herb Liverman and Bud Hatfield own Ready For Moni while Howard & Judith Taylor share ownership on Back Of The Neck with Stefan Balazsi's Order By Stable.

Also on the card is a potential preview of the 2021 Zweig in the form of a pair of $51,300 New York Sires Stake for 2-year-old colt trotters and the usual accompaniment of Excelsior divisions.

Owners interested in details regarding attending the races may reach Racing Operations Manager Brett Risi at BRisi@tiogadowns.com.

Post time is 3 p.m. Friday at Vernon Downs and the entries may be viewed here.

Northfield Park track record broken twice in Ohio Sires Stakes

Four-Star Flash set a new Northfield Park track record for 2-year-old pacing colts of 1:51.4 en route to a victory in the fourth round of Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) on a breezy Monday night (Aug. 17) at Northfield Park. The bay colt smashed the previous record set by Lather Up of 1:52.2 in the first of two $50,000 contests.

Just a few races later, 3-5 Heart Of Chewbacca broke that record by two ticks, scoring in 1:51.2 for Danny Noble. The black son of Bring On The Beach—Jt's Chewbacca is trained by Ronnie Burke for Dennis Owens and Norman Rae Racing. It was the colt's second straight OHSS victory, as he had won leg three on Aug. 8 in 1:51.1 at Scioto Downs. Bred by Spring Haven Farm, this speedy youngster now has $89,375 in his career bank account. Charlie May (8-5) was second for Brett Miller with 9-2 Hardt At Work notching show honors for trainer-driver Mike Micallef.

Four-Star Flash, a son of Western Vintage—Keladi Blue Chip left the gate as the 4-5 favorite and was given a perfect steer by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., for trainer Brian Brown and owners Hutchison Harness, D. Wozniak, D. Van Dusen and Acadia Farms. This was the youngster's first pari-mutuel victory in five tries and pushed his bankroll to $42,500. He was bred by Marion Beachy. Caviart Sargent (Ryan Stahl) was second at 4-1 with Dontholdanythinbak (Brett Miller) third at 6-1.

Summer Touch captured the first of two $50,000 Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies with Chris Page at the lines. Trained by Ronnie Burke for Burke Racing, Knox Services, Slaughter Racing and Weaver Brussemi, the freshmen daughter by Well Said—Real Touch covered the mile in 1:52.2 as the 1-9 favorite. It was her fourth victory in five starts this season and pushed her career earnings to $105,000. Rainy Day Chic (Brett Miller) was second at 12-1 with Leave Her Wild (Mike Wilder) third at 30-1. Summer Touch had also won OHSS leg two in 1:54.2 and leg three in 1:51.4.

She Knows It All responded to an excellent drive by Ryan Stahl as the 9-2 choice to capture the second OHSS event for freshman side-winding distaffers. Jim Arledge, Jr., trains the bay daughter of Racing Hill—Cat Cora for Laura & Paul Baker, Z Tam Stables and Bill Sanders. It was She Knows It All's first career triumph in six starts and upper her coffers to $47,116. She was bred by Gbw Breeding Farm. Notwhatshesaid (Kurt Sugg) got up for second at 7-1 odds, while 4-5 favorite Pinknperfect (Chris Page) was third.

Amigo Volo upset in Pennsylvania Sire Stakes

Despite a relatively pressure-free journey and soft fractions, 2019 Breeders Crown champion Amigo Volo was narrowly upset at 1-5 odds in the first $94,967 division of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Sunday (Aug. 16) at Harrah's Philadelphia — with Maesteraemon ($8.60) and El Ideal

($4.00) sharing the honors in a 1:53.3 dead heat.

After riding the pocket behind Amigo Volo (George Napolitano Jr.) through splits of :28, :56.2 and 1:25.1, El Ideal and Trond Smedshammer wedged out to attack with just over an eighth of a mile to go – enabling Maesteraemon and Tony Morgan to find a clear path to the open stretch. Amigo Volo was fully extended off the home turn, and ultimately gave way to the tandem of El Ideal in the two-path and the surging Maesteraemon up the stretch with 40 yards to go.

The shared victory was Maesteraemon's first of the season and fifth of his career. Marcus Melander trains the son of Andover Hall—Angel Pie for the SRF Stable. El Ideal, a son of Muscle Hill—Courtney Hall who ended his rookie season with a decisive score in the Valley Victory, earned his second win as a 3-year-old and the sixth of his career for EMP-Invest Oy of Finland and trainer Åke Svanstedt.

Smedshammer won the second PASS division as well, doing so in decisive fashion with his trainee Hillexotic ($5.80). The son of Muscle Hill—Exotic Destination worked clear of Beyond Kronos (Napolitano) through a :28.3 quarter before evading an outside challenge from Gangster Hanover (Svanstedt) by 7-1/4 widening lengths in 1:53.4. Gangster Hanover dueled down pocket rival Beyond Kronos for runner-up honors.

Hillexotic, who did not race at 2, earned his second win in five starts for Wanda Polisseni's Purple Haze Stables.

Overserved ($4.80) took top honors across four $20,000 Stallion Series divisions with a 1:55.1 mile in line to Victor Kirby. Bargain Bob ($4.80, Simon Allard, 1:57.3), Meantto be De Vie ($29.00, George Brennan, 1:58) and Scirocco Patrick ($80.00, Daniel Dubé, 1:56.3) won their splits as well.

Sister Sledge rebounds from Hambletonian horrors, sets PASS record

Rebounding nicely from her Hambletonian horror show, Sister Sledge overpowered her field and trotted to a record 1:52 – on a “good” surface – in Saturday's (Aug. 15) $186,382 Pennsylvania Sires Stake (PASS) at The Meadows. Crucial rallied furiously through the lane to capture the other division in the event for 3-year-old fillies known as the Stenographer, giving trainer Ron Burke a stake sweep.

Sister Sledge was the divisional Dan Patch Award runner-up last year, but she stepped up to face the boys in the Hambletonian. While she made the final, her journey there was forgettable, as she broke stride and finished 8th, beaten 56 lengths.

“That was a weird race,” said Burke. “She got parked out and tilted around. But I didn't think I had much to worry about today – and she was back on Lasix.”

Indeed, the daughter of Father Patrick—Behindcloseddoors dispelled any doubts early when she zipped to the front from post 7 for Dave Palone and won as she pleased, defeating the pocket-sitting Dip Me Hanover by 2-1/2 lengths, with Queen Of The Hill third. Her time erased the previous stake record of 1:52.4 established last year by Millies Possession.

Sister Sledge, who is scheduled to race next in another PASS leg, now has banked $682,653 for Burke Racing Stable, Jason Melillo, J&T Silva-Purnel&Libby and Weaver Brussemi.

When Crucial trailed the leader, Next Level Stuff, by 3 lengths at the top of the stretch, even winning driver David Miller figured he was racing for a place check.

“The leader kind of opened up on me, and I thought we could be second,” Miller said. “But she kept on coming and put her nose in front. I like horses like that.”

Fifty Cent Piece earned show in the 1:53.1 mile. Burke Racing Stable, William Donovan, J&T Silva-Purnel&Libby and Weaver Brussemi campaign the daughter of Father Patrick-Jolene Jolene, who lifted her lifetime bankroll to $271,577.

In Saturday's sub-feature, the Pennsylvania Stallion Series for sophomore trotting fillies, Dune Hill stretched her winning streak to five – including three stallion series victories – with a stake-fastest triumph in 1:55.4. Witchey Woman and Alittlebitofsugar took the other splits.

Dune Hill endured a demanding three-wide journey to the point, but she hung tough in the lane for Matt Kakaley, downing Hannah by a neck. Miss Kendra D was third.

Winning trainer Burke said he thinks the daughter of Muscle Hill—Quite Possible is well spotted in the stallion series.

“I have other top fillies who are maybe a little better than she is,” Burke said. “She's found a spot where she's happy and not making mistakes. We're thrilled with her.”

Dune Hill has banked $121,886 for owner/breeder Joseph DiScala, Jr. All eight $40,000 Stallion Series championships take place Monday, Sept. 7, at The Meadows.

Burke collected five wins on Saturday's 15-race card while Tony Hall and Palone each fashioned a triple.

Fillies live up to expectations with Grassroots wins

Ontario's 2-year-old trotting filly division continues to be a wide open affair as three first-time winners triumphed in Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots action on Monday (Aug. 17) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The freshman fillies opened the program in the first race and Mag N Lady rolled out to a :28.3 opening quarter, followed closely by HP Mama B from Post 1, who did not stay tucked in the pocket for long. At the three-eighths marker driver Sylvain Filion sent HP Mama B to the front and the filly cruised to a :59.4 half and a 1:28.4 three-quarters before drawing away from the field in the stretch to a 1:57.1 victory. Mag N Lady was five lengths back in second with three more lengths back to Ban Ban Deo in third.

"It was just a matter of time before she goes straight. She used to come out of the last turn and kind of throw herself into the middle of the racetrack," said trainer Ben Baillargeon, who also bred and raised the daughter of Royalty For Life and Winters Jewel. "She showed speed a few times, like a last quarter in :27.4, and even in Grand River (July 29) she run, but we knew exactly why she run, and I kind of worked on it the last couple weeks and it paid off tonight, 1:57.1, last quarter :28.2. And she did it pretty easy, but she always had the speed, all winter she showed speed."

Guylaine Picard of Guelph, ON and Celine Paquin of Ayers Cliff, QC share ownership of HP Mama B, who finished ninth in the Grassroots season opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 13 and second in the July 29 leg at Grand River Raceway.

Rain fell in sheets before the second $23,500 Grassroots division, changing the racetrack's rating from 'fast' to 'sloppy', but that did not seem to hamper Stonebridge Strong, who powered down the stretch to a five and one-half length score in 2:00.4. Starting from the trailing Post 10, Stonebridge Strong was able to follow Kadillac Girl up the outer lane before powering off the final turn to her first victory. All R Wishes also closed well for second and pocket-sitter Snowfalla was third.

"I've liked her every time I've drove her. I know she was 10 to 1 and everything tonight, but it really wasn't a surprise to me that she raced like that," said driver Ryan Holliday, noting that the filly missed the July 29 leg due to sickness. "We qualified her six days ago (Aug. 11) and he said she was good and fit for this one and I kind of did expect her to race good."

Holliday steers Stonebridge Strong for trainer Paul Megens

and owners Saltwater Stables of Moffat, ON. The Muscle Mass daughter's only other start came in the July 13 season opener, where she finished sixth, but still managed to impress Holliday.

"I know Paul and everybody was kind of disappointed with her first start, but I kind of chalked it up just to being not that fit, because she was quite a while in between her first start and her qualifier (June 19) and it's just not the same training them as racing," said Holliday. "So I expected her to be better tonight and she was, so that's good."

By the last Grassroots division the surface had dried up enough to improve the racetrack's rating to 'good' and Edgewater powered away from Post 8 to a :29 quarter. Starting from Post 7, driver Stephen Byron had eased Lifeintheslammer away from the gate and was 12 lengths back in eighth. As Edgewater rang up a 1:00.1 half and 1:30.2 three-quarters Lifeintheslammer was steadily making her way up the outer lane, and rolling out wide off the final turn she kicked into gear and collared the leaders on her way to a one and one-half length victory in 2:00.3. All Muscle N Sass closed hard to claim second and pocket-sitter Warrawee Welcome finished five lengths back in third.

"We're pleased, relieved," said trainer John Bax. "She's still mad at the world and we just have to get her mad at the other horses in the race. She was, we can get her loaded now, but she was one of those ones where she missed the first couple training sessions because we couldn't get her on the trailer."

The fractious daughter of Royalty For Life and Tequila Slammer made her debut in the July 12 Gold Series opener at Georgian Downs, where she finished fifth, but a ninth place result in the July 31 Gold leg convinced Bax and his co-owners Bax Stable of Campbellville, Glengate Farms of Erin, Brad Grant of Milton and Gaelic Stable of Sharon, ON that the filly might be better suited to the Grassroots program.

"She doesn't know anything about racing yet and she wasn't learning anything in the Gold, she really wasn't in the race," said Bax. "I trained her mother and her mother was a pretty nice filly and she's got a brother that was pretty good down in the States so, yeah we're pretty high on her. It's just one of those deals where I think the head has to come along, and I think once she matures enough and maybe grows up physically she won't be so mad and she'll learn to race."

Lifeintheslammer, Stonebridge Strong and HP Mama B will have an opportunity to continue their positive progress in the fourth Grassroots Leg, on Aug. 29 at Hanover Raceway.

Video replays:

Lovedbythemasses sharp in hometown Grassroots win

Reigning champion Lovedbythemasses returned to the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots Series at Kawartha Downs on Saturday (Aug. 15) and trotted right back into the OSS winner's circle.

Starting from Post 3 in the fourth $23,150 Grassroots division for 3-year-old trotting colts, Mike Saftic settled the fan favorite in fourth as Remember Titans took the field of nine to a :28.2 opening quarter. As Remember Titans trotted by the :57.4 half, Saftic tipped Lovedbythemasses into the outer lane and began a measured advance on the leader. At the 1:25.4 three-quarters the reigning Grassroots champion was one length behind the pacesetter, but when Saftic asked for another gear Lovedbythemasses drew away effortlessly to a 1:55.1 victory. Awesomedabra, owned and trained by Gary Lance of Port Perry, ON, closed for second and Remember Titans settled for third.

"That was a tough division, they ended up going a pretty good mile, but he was good and strong, and that's what we were hoping for," said Saftic. "He got sick and he missed a couple of events, so he's just kind of getting himself back on track right now, but that was a good mile he trotted today and he trotted a good mile at Mohawk on Monday (Aug. 10). I think maybe if we get down to that 1:51, 1:52 mark we could make some money with the big boys.

"I'm not 100 per cent sure, but I think he's eligible for the Goodtimes (Aug. 28), so that would probably be next on his ballot. So that will be a good stop and then I guess he'll play it from there."

Saftic engineered the win for trainer Ed Peconi of Peterborough, Nicholas Peconi of Lakefield, ON and breeder Wade Peconi of Stanchel, PEI. The win was the Muscle Mass gelding's second of the season and his first in OSS action. The trotter finished seventh in the season opening Gold leg, on June 28 at Georgian Downs, but missed the second leg due to sickness. At two Lovedbythemasses was undefeated in five Grassroots starts, including the season ending championship.

Later in the program, the 2-year-old trotting fillies competed in a $7,200 Prospect Series division and Doug Hie piloted Lovedbythemasses' Angus Hall half-sister Incredible Two to a 2:00.4 victory. Somewhat Sacy and Got The Touch were second and third.

"He was a real pet and she's a pistol. They're night and day," said owner/breeder Wade Peconi. "But it looks like she'll be all right if the boys can get her to settle down a little bit."

Drive Mario Baillargeon piloted two colts to Grassroots wins, capturing the first and last divisions with Freedom

Express and Ongoing Royalty.

Baillargeon and Freedom Express got away fifth from Post 7 and were soon advancing up the outer lane behind You Go. When You Go ran out of gas at the five-eighths marker, Freedom Express circled out three-wide and continued to advance on the pacesetter favorite Archies Star. Second turning for home, Freedom Express dug in down the stretch to secure a one-length victory in 1:57.1. Archies Star settled for second and Aussie Lover was third.

"I didn't like the post today, but he got fast fractions and he raced real good really," said Baillargeon, who was making his first appearance in the gelding's race bike. "He hasn't got too many starts so he's just getting better, that's what I think. And a 1:57.1 mile, that's a pretty good mile over here."

Baillargeon drove Freedom Express to the win for owner/trainer Charalambos Christoforou of Campbellville. It was the Wheeling N Dealin son's second Grassroots win and puts him in fifth spot in the division point standings.

Five races later, Baillargeon opted to send Ongoing Royalty to the front from Post 3 and the duo rang up fractions of :28.2, :58 and 1:26.2 on their way to a 1:56.2 personal best. Favorite Crossfit Mouse finished one-half length back in second and True Brew was third.

"It was a good mile, a real good mile," said Baillargeon. "He's just a green horse too, he didn't race last year, and he's just that type of horse that he's just starting to get better right now. I think he'll be a real nice four-year-old too."

Ben Baillargeon trains and Andre Desrochers of St-Hughes and Sylvio Ravary of Les Cedres, QC share ownership of Ongoing Royalty. Saturday's win was the Royalty For Life son's second in Grassroots action and, along with a third-place finish, puts him in a three-way tie for second in the division standings.

The other two divisions saw Field Gunner and Mikey Mass earn their first Grassroots victories, both starting from the outside Post 8.

Field Gunner advanced up the outer lane for driver Scott Young and then opened up a three length margin on his peers, trotting under the wire in a 1:56.4 personal best. Pacesetter Chocolate Pie was second and Dart Guy completed the top three.

"He raced very well today," said Young, who engineered the win for trainer Luc Blais and owner Determination of Montreal, QC. "The eight-hole isn't the easiest of starting points out here, so I was very happy with his performance."

Mikey Mass and driver Jason Ryan were able to follow the cover of No Time To Play up the outer lane before stepping out in the stretch and sprinting home to a three-quarter length victory in 1:57.2. No Time To Play was second and favorite Ripped And Ready was third.

"He's a very fast horse, he just tends to be a little bit erratic, so we've been very careful with how we drive him and everything worked out really well today," said trainer Nick

Gallucci. "He seems like every time he goes to the track he quiets down a little bit, so hopefully moving forward he gets to be a little bit more professional, but I was very happy with how he was behaving in the paddock there today and in the race Jason said he drove perfect, so very happy with him."

Gallucci shares ownership of the Muscle Mass gelding with Vince Gallucci of Brantford, Frank Cirillo of Kleinburg and Bruno Didiomede of Hamilton, ON.

The next opportunity for the 3-year-old trotting colts to pad their Grassroots point totals comes Sept. 10 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Beaumont Hanover equals track record in Gold win

Thirty-eight of the finest 3-year-old pacing colts in Canada descended on Rideau Carleton Raceway on Sunday (Aug. 16) to compete in two $104,800 Gold Series divisions, three $22,000 Grassroots splits and a single $7,100 Prospect Series division and, in spite of a drenching, the colts put on an impressive show.

Sunday's Gold divisions served as a final North America

Cup tune-up for top ranked Tattoo Artist and Beaumont Hanover and both colts looked ready to take on the continent's best in the Aug. 22 eliminations.

In the first Gold split, Tattoo Artist and driver Bob McClure cruised through fractions of :27.2, :55 and 1:23.1 on their way to a 1:50.4 victory, two lengths ahead of Beach Blanket Book. Bettorbuckleup was three more lengths back in third. One race later, Beaumont Hanover and driver Jody Jamieson laid down a :27.4 quarter, :55.2 half and 1:23.2 three-quarters on their way to a 1:50.2 clocking, matching the Rideau Carleton Raceway track record for sophomore pacing colts and geldings. Aneto finished two and three-quarter lengths back in second and Tattoo Artist's stablemate Denali Seelster was four more lengths back in third.

"It's making for quite a story. I don't know how those two draw apart from each other all the time," said Dr. Ian Moore, who trains Tattoo Artist. "But anyway, they are two nice colts. Those are wicked miles both of those two went tonight."

Yet to face each other in Gold Series competition, Tattoo Artist and Beaumont Hanover are both three-for-three in the provincial program this season. While Beaumont Hanover was the quicker over Rideau Carleton Raceway's five-eighths mile, which was rated one second slower than normal due to the rain, Tattoo Artist has the edge on the Woodbine Mohawk Park seven-eighths, winning the July 4 Gold Series opener in 1:48.2.

Moore conditions Tattoo Artist for Frank Cannon of Sanford, FL and Let It Ride Stables of Boca Raton, FL. In addition to his trio of Gold Series victories, the Hes Watching son also has a pair of wins in overnight action on his resume this season and has not been bested since his June 6 sophomore debut. At two, Tattoo Artist won a Grassroots division, two Gold legs and the season ending Super Final in an eight race campaign.

Jack Darling owns and trains Beaumont Hanover, who missed out on his freshman Ontario Sires Stakes season due to an injury. Since making his debut last fall, the son of Sportswriter has posted nine wins in 12 starts. Like Tattoo Artist, he has a pair of overnight wins to his credit this season and has not been collared since late June. Unlike Tattoo Artist, he had never ventured away from Woodbine Mohawk Park and that fact caused Darling a few moments of concern on Sunday.

"I was a little nervous because he was pretty worked up tonight, just being in a different environment and all the new surroundings. He was a handful to get calmed down and get him warmed up, but it didn't seem to hurt him in the race," said Darling. "He's just kind of a superior animal."

Both colts will have a few days rest before beginning preparations for the North America Cup eliminations at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 22.

In addition to Tattoo Artist's victory, Dr. Moore also captured the $7,100 Prospect Series division with Usurper and the first $22,100 Grassroots division with The Wild Card.

Usurper and driver Trevor Henry controlled the tempo for most of the mile and were comfortable winners in 1:55.2. P H Impulse finished two lengths behind the fan favorite and Journalistic completed the top three. Next Generation Stable of Stratford, PEI owns the Sportswriter son, who had been winless in eight starts this season.

In rein to Doug McNair, fan favorite The Wild Card also controlled the tempo and held off Sunshine List in the stretch to record a one-half length win in 1:54.1. Truffle Dog finished three lengths behind the leaders in third.

Moore shares ownership of The Wild Card with R G McGroup Ltd. of Bathurst, NB and Serge Savard of St-Bruno, QC and said the partners are thoroughly enjoying the Bettors Delight son's sophomore success. Sunday's win was The Wild Card's third in the Grassroots program and gives him sole ownership of top spot in the division standings.

"He's been a great little horse this year. It's been a very enjoyable experience with him this summer so far," said Moore. "I won't be putting him up in the Gold that's for sure, but he's a very nice Grassroots horse to have around, no doubt about that."

"Very pleased with all four of them, actually, it will make the drive home a little bit nicer."

Drivers Jody Jamieson and Trevor Henry also notched two stakes wins on Sunday's program.

Jamieson piloted fan favorite Sports Obsession to a win in the second $22,450 Grassroots division for his wife, trainer Stephanie Jamieson, father, co-owner Carl Jamieson of Puslinch, ON, and George Harrison of Wanes Walton, England. The Sportswriter son powered along on the front end to a 1:54.1 victory, hitting the wire one length ahead of Beach Demon and Delightful Terror.

Henry settled Sundown Kid in the pocket behind favorite Twin B Frenchtoast and then tipped the Sunshine Beach son out coming off the final turn in the last $22,450 Grassroots split. Sundown Kid powered home to a 1:52.1 victory, one and one-half lengths ahead of Twin B Frenchtoast. Rhett Seelster finished third.

Henry engineered the win, the gelding's first in Grassroots action, for trainer Bob McIntosh of Windsor and his co-owners Dave Boyle of Bowmanville, ON and C S X Stables of Liberty Center, OH.

The 3-year-old pacing colts make their next Grassroots start on Sept. 7 and their next Gold Series appearance on Sept. 18, both at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The fourth Prospect Series division goes postward Sept. 6 at Leamington Raceway.

Freshmen fillies shine in NYSS at Vernon Downs

Vernon Downs played host to three divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday (Aug. 15).

Destined To Dance (Tyler Buter) outdueled Dream Chapter (Mark MacDonald) to win the $33,600 first division.

Me Three (Brian Sears) got the first call but the lead was short lived when Dream Chapter took over and led to the first quarter in :26.4. Dream Chapter continued to lead to the half in :57.1. That's when Destined To Dance ($3.10) made her move first-over from fourth. She took the lead but could not clear going around the final turn. Destined to Dance led to three-quarters in 1:25.4.

The battle began as they reached the stretch. Destined to Dance and Dream Chapter were shoulder-to-shoulder battling back and forth neither one were giving an inch. Destined to Dance used one last surge to win in a lifetime best of 1:54.4. Dream Chapter had to settle for second. Me Three finished third.

Destined To Dance is a filly by Chapter Seven—Go Go Dancer. John Butenschoen trains for owners Crawford Farms Racing, Heritage Standardbreds, and Rich Preziotti. She has won four straight NYSS races.

Aela Jamieson (Andy Miller) rallied late to take the $34,200 second division.

Tranquility K (Larry Stalbaum) stormed to the front and led to the first quarter in :28. Insured AM S (Brian Sears) took control right after the quarter. She used a :29.3 second quarter to lead to the half in :57.3. The first to make a move was Avant Garde (Ake Svanstedt) as they headed for the final turn. Insured AM S held on to a short lead as they hit three-quarters in 1:27.3.

Aela Jamieson ($5.40) was second-over fourth as they made the turn for home. She came three-wide down the stretch and blew right on by to win in a lifetime best of 1:56.2. Insured AM S held on for second. Tranquility K was third best.

Aela Jamieson is a filly by Chapter Seven—Blk Thai Optional. Julie Miller trains for owners Andy Miller Stable, Dumain Haven Farm, and Little E LLC. It was her first career win in three lifetime starts.

Iteration (Brian Sears) captured the $33,600 third division.

Iteration ($3.00) darted right out to the front with main rival Splash Blue Chip (Ake Stanstedt) following in the pocket. Iteration led to the first quarter in :27.1. She slowed things down using a :31.0 second quarter to hit the half in :58.1. She continued to control the race hitting three-quarters in 1:28.

As they reached the stretch, Splash Blue Chip popped out of the pocket and gave everything she had but had to settle for second as Iteration won in a lifetime best of 1:55.2. Moni For Lindy (Mark MacDonald) was third best.

Iteration is a filly by Chapter Seven—Steamy Windows. She is a full sister to two-time NYSS champion Gimpanzee. She is owned by Courant Inc. and trained by Marcus Melander. It was her second win in three lifetime starts.

Vernon Downs returns to live racing on Friday (Aug. 21) featuring the Zweig Memorial starting at 3 p.m.

Third straight Grassroots win for Profound Paragon

Trotters were the stars at Georgian Downs on Sunday, Aug. 16 as the Innisfil, ON oval played host to six $23,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots divisions for the 3-year-old trotting fillies and the $75,000 Earl Rowe Invitational Trot for older horses.

Profound Paragon delivered the quickest mile of the Grassroots divisions, powering around the Georgian Downs oval to a four and three-quarter length win in a personal best 1:56. Fan favorite Moana finished second and early pacesetter Eternal Jewel finished third.

“With Moana in there we were definitely concerned with the seven-hole,” said trainer Julie Walker of the filly’s Post 7 starting position. “There’s always good horses, so you kind of always have to just hope you don’t get any road trouble and it works out, so it did, it worked out.”

The win was the third in Grassroots action and the sixth straight for Profound Paragon, who sits atop the division standings with a perfect 150 points. Jean Bernard “Bert” Renaud drives the daughter of Muscle Mass for Carlisle, ON resident Walker and her co-owner Steven Titus of Manalapan, NJ.

Off Sunday’s impressive performance, Profound Paragon may have earned a promotion to the Gold Series for the September event.

“The next Gold is on a half. The Gold is tough competition, everyone knows that, but maybe being on a half we might give it a shot. We’ll have to discuss,” said Walker with a laugh. “We’ve kind of stayed away from Mohawk, because we’ve stayed away from the speed train to let her learn speed on her own and not push her. I think tonight was the first night that the speed kept coming.”

Trainer Susanne Kerwood captured two $23,150 Grassroots divisions with fan favorites Brinys A Flight and Susies Lady.

In the fourth division, Brinys A Flirt and driver Robert Shepherd took command before the half and made it look easy from there, cruising along to a one and one-quarter length win in 1:58.3. Oh Lina finished second and Golden Gavel was third.

The win was the Holiday Road filly’s first in 12 lifetime starts. She started her sophomore OSS campaign at the Gold Series level, finishing sixth in the July 2 event at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and then delivered a runner-up result in the second Grassroots leg at Rideau Carleton on July 26.

“She’s not easy, I’m telling you, she’s a tough cookie. Rene

(Dion), he's worked with her pretty much all winter and just tried to get her to settle down, so every time she behaves it's like, 'Phew,'" said Kerwood. "She is getting better and better and better, she's learning how to go faster and she's learning how to behave, so it's all good. I mean she's out of a great mare, so if she just is a quarter as good as her we'll be all right."

Brins A Flirt is owned by breeder Terry Devos and Clarence Devos of Langton and Peter Porter of Port Dover, ON. The filly is out of the Devos' great race mare Snazzy Millie, who earned $1.1 million in her nine-year career.

One race later, Susies Lady started from Post 7 and spent most of the mile leading the charge up the outer lane. The Muscle Mass daughter had a head in front of pacesetter Highland Foxytrottr at the top of the stretch and managed to fend off Pier Ho Kado in the stretch to secure a neck victory in 1:57.4.

Scott Coulter engineered the win for Acton, ON resident Kerwood and her co-owner M And L Of Delaware LLC of Wilmington, DE. The win was the filly's first in OSS action this season. Susies Lady battled the Gold fillies in the first two legs, finishing fifth in the track, OSS and Canadian record mile by P L Notsonice at Rideau Carleton Raceway on July 26.

"She's a nice filly, that's for sure, and she's got a great name," said Kerwood with a chuckle. "In Rideau she had a super tough trip. And I raced her in Georgian here last week and she come up super flat and I drew blood on her and sure enough she had a high white (count). I said to the owner, 'I can't get her good in four days, it's impossible, but I may be able to get her good for Sunday and that's a Grassroots so why don't we just try her in there and we'll go from there.' I took another blood on her yesterday and she was good to go. I think the next Gold is in Flamboro, so we may try her there again. I'll talk to the owners and we'll go from there, but she was very good tonight."

The 3-year-old trotting fillies make their fourth Grassroots start at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Sept. 1 and their fourth Gold Series start at Flamboro Downs on Sept. 27.

The other three Grassroots divisions went to Rockadero, Protostar and Letstaketoesky.

Muscle Mass daughter Rockadero toured the Innisfil oval in 1:58.1 for driver Jonathan Drury, trainer Carmen Auciello and owner Bedrock Stables of Stouffville, ON. Favorite No Angel Here was second and Ride To Justice finished third.

Protostar delivered a 1:59.2 effort for driver Ryan Desroche, trainer Dustin Jones and owner/breeder Andrea Lea Racing Stables Inc. of Lakefield Gore, QC. She Must Be Magic and Chelseas Magic finished second and third behind the fan favorite, making it a Kadabra-sired sweep.

Letstaketoesky and driver Anthony Haughan stopped the teletimer at 1:59.2, besting favorite Alexa Blue Chip and Peppas Angel. Trainer David Holliday and Ben Holliday of Mount Forest, ON bred and own the Wheeling N Dealin daughter.

In the $75,000 Earl Rowe Invitational Trot, reigning champion P L Jill defended her title with a front-end effort from Post 9. The Kadabra mare held off a charging Free Willy Hanover in the stretch, keeping a head in front for the 1:53.2 victory. Majestic Son gelding Perfetto completed the top three.

Stakes double for Filion and Lachance at H3R

Both Yves Filion and Jonathan Lachance scored harness racing driving doubles in the opening round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old pacing colts and fillies at the Hippodrome 3R Sunday.

There were four divisions of the opening round of the series that feature three legs of preliminary competition with the top eight-point earners returning for their respective $55,000 final on Sunday, Sept. 27 at H3R.

Hall of Famer Yves Filion started off the show winning the third race first division for the fillies with 11-1 long shot Celia Bayama.

The 1-09 favorite, CL Sportsextreme (Guy Gagnon) took the lead away from Paltine Alpha (Carol Voyer) after a :28.1 opening quarter mile. After the half mile in :58.2, CL Sportsextreme looked very comfortable on the lead, passing the three-quarters in 1:28.1.

Filion, who sat in the back of the pack with Celia Bayama finally got into the hunt on the final turn, sweeping three-wide from sixth place. Then, as they reached the top of the stretch, CL Sportsextreme made a costly break and was pulled into the infield as the field came down the stretch.

Filion and Celia Bayama had the most momentum and came on in the stretch to win by three-quarters of a length in 1:59.1. Ibiza Panic (Francis Picard) was second with Nikita Sena (Steeven Genois) third.

It was the maiden victory for Celia Bayama after three lifetime starts. The daughter of Bettor's Delight, a homebred from the Bayama Farms of Saint-Andre-D'Argenteuil, is trained by Filion and paid $25.00 to win.

The sixth race second division for the fillies saw D Gs Magicmoment and driver Jonathan Lachance sit the pocket trip, then move to the lead over SOS Faline (Stephane Brosseau) and led the rest of the one-mile pace, winning by a half-length over SOS Faline with SG Alexia (Sylvain Grenier) third.

It was also the maiden victory after four lifetime starts for D Gs Magicmoment. Sired by Control The Moment, D Gs Magicmoment is trained by Guylaine Fortin for breeder/owner Daniel Surprenant of Saint-Valentin and paid just $2.10 to win.

The fastest of the colt division went to Cadillac Bayama with trainer/driver Yves Filion in the seventh race.

It was the race favorite YS Do It Right and driver Stephane Brosseau who took the lead away from Gordro Outofthisway (Pierre Luc Roy) after a :28.4 opening quarter and :59 half mile with Filion and Cadillac Bayama sitting in third place waiting to make their move.

That move came at the three-quarters in 1:29.3 as Filion came first-over against Brosseau and Cadillac Bayama was up to the task but took an intense stretch drive battle before Cadillac Bayama got up at the wire by a neck over YS Do It Right in 1:58.1. Godro Outofthisway was third.

It was the second straight win after three lifetime starts for Cadillac Bayama. He is sired by Sunshine Beach and bred and owned by Bayama Farms, paying $5.10 to win.

The fourth race first division for the colts saw race favorite D Gs Runforhim and driver Jonathan Lachance lead from start to finish in a slow 2:03.4. Yves Filion made a late bid with Colonel Bayama and was second by one length with Moobeam Godro (Pascal Berube) third.

A colt by Sportswriter, D Gs Runforhim posted his maiden victory after three lifetime starts for trainer Guylaine Fortin, who co-owns and bred the colt with Daniel Surprenant. He paid $3.80 to win.

Track Notes: In addition to Filion and Lachance scoring driving doubles, so did Stephane Gendron, who is now tied with Pascal Berube at 23 wins each in the driver standings. Both Filion and Fortin had training double along with the leading trainer this meet, Maxime Velaye. Next weekend will be the last three-day weekend of live harness racing at H3R. Friday (4 p.m.) will feature the opening round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotters, Saturday (1 p.m.) is the final day of racing for the Quebec Regional Fair Circuit and Sunday (1 p.m.) is the second leg of the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-old pacers.
