Evaluating Twin B Joe Fresh as the sport's number one

She is clearly dominant in her older pacing mares division, but does that make her better than Hambletonian-winner Karl?

by Brett Sturman

Claus Andersen
Twin B Joe Fresh (Dexter Dunn)
is #1 in North America.

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Another week and the Twin B Joe Fresh machine continues to roll on. With a 1:48.2-timed win last Saturday (Aug. 17) in the $100,000 Cleopatra Invitational at Scioto Downs, Twin B Joe Fresh extended her winning streak to seven and doesn't show the slightest indication of letting up. Stream rolling the field first-over at Scioto just as she did in her 1:48 win in the Lady Liberty at The Meadowlands prior – as well as a 1:47.3 win in the Dorothy Haughton before that one – Twin B Joe Fresh increased her vote share even further when this week's edition of the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll was issued.

Admittedly, I don't take the weekly Top 10 poll as the be-all end-all for official rank of talent, but it does serve as a barometer as to where the most current industry pulse is. Plus, it does have some influence on the year-end Dan Patch awards, so it's worth exploring from time to time.

No issue whatsoever with Twin B Joe Fresh leading the way in the latest series of polls, as either she or Karl are more than fitting in that top spot. It shows, though, just how much of an impact Twin B Joe Fresh has made, to be placed over the once-beaten Hambletonian champion in Karl and the Meadowlands

Pace and Cane Pace champion in Legendary Hanover. There's no doubt that thus far, Twin B Joe Fresh has been the "wow" horse.

Is it more of a subjective feel than a standardized review of resumes that drives where horses reside on the poll from week to week? Usually the 3-year-old divisions take up a lot of the poll real estate this time of year and seven out of the 10 horses on this week's list are, indeed, sophomores. So, I think that speaks even more to how spectacularly Twin B Joe Fresh has been received, to have a 4-year-old pacing mare at the top of the list. It is a big "if" for any horse, but if she were able to win out the rest of the year (and could even do so potentially without winning out) and become Horse of the Year, she would become just the second older female pacer ever (Shartin N) to win the award.

If we're basing the top spot on which horse is most dominant in their division, then it's absolutely Twin B Joe Fresh. Though, it is, perhaps, a slightly weaker division than it's been in recent years with some stars from last year not coming back exactly to their A-1 best this year. That's combined with Twin B Joe Fresh becoming even more of a monster. She's towered over her competition all year and is unbeaten in stakes competition. Visually she has been amazing.

But is she the fastest pacer, period? Could she beat Legendary Hanover, for example? For that matter, could she even beat Ruthless Hanover who went the mile of the decade this past Saturday at Pocono?

Obviously, the top spot in the poll isn't a speed contest, I understand that. But it's interesting to ponder the placings between Twin B Joe Fresh and Legendary Hanover, who despite winning the Pace and the Cane and doing so in back-to-back 1:46-and-change miles, something only accomplished by a small number of horses. How Legendary Hanover only had one first-place vote to Twin B Joe Fresh's 22 prior to Legendary Hanover's loss to Captain Albano in Saturday's Hempt was curious. This week, Legendary Hanover fell to number five behind stablemate Nijinsky.

Don't be mad about me using this column for another thoroughbred comparison or hypothetical matchup that will likely never happen, but it's timely that the thoroughbreds have a similar dynamic where their top-rated horse is also a filly. In their case, it's a 3-year-old filly named Thorpedo Anna. The difference is, there, the best rated horse is going to be decided on the track when Thorpedo Anna takes on top colts in the $1.25 million Travers Stakes at Saratoga.

I'm venturing to guess that the connections of Thorpedo Anna elected to race her in the Travers not to secure a spot in a poll, but rather for the pure sport of giving her the opportunity to see how great she can be. I'd love if the same opportunity presented itself to Twin B Joe Fresh at some point.

When it comes to sizing up Karl at the top of the poll it's always going to be a matter of subjectivity because there's no way to realistically compare a trotter and a pacer that can never race together. You could even argue that because of that, trotters and pacers should have separate polls and then the suspense would come at the year-end Horse of the Year honor.

For whatever the reason, and I've tried finding answers to this in the past, female trotters are able to beat male trotters at the highest level and with regularity but the same has never translated on the pacing side. At the same time though, it's rarely even attempted. I thought Shartin N may have had the confidence to give it a go against boy's after pacing a 1:46.4 mile in her championship season but that never happened. But if anyone could do it, Twin B Joe Fresh seems that at the very least she'd account well for herself. It's also important to remember she was 3 when she defeated older pacing mares in last year's FanDuel.

When it comes to sizing up Karl at the top of the poll it's always going to be a matter of subjectivity because there's no way to realistically compare a trotter and a pacer that can never race together. You could even argue that because of that, trotters and pacers should have separate polls and then the suspense would come at the year-end Horse of the Year honor.

Turning back to the pacers, what I guess I'm clamoring for is to find out on the track who is best. If there is a way to leave as little to subjective chance as possible and in the process create a race that would truly be unique, that's the route that should be made to try to happen.

Driver Jordan Stratton talks Covered Bridge, a second consecutive Gold Cup and Saucer triumph and one special fan.

by Melissa Keith

Driving to Yonkers Raceway on Monday afternoon (Aug. 19), Jordan Stratton recalled his weekend like it was almost a dream. On Saturday night (Aug. 17), he had teamed up with Covered Bridge at Red Shores Charlottetown, becoming the first horse and driver to win back-to-back Gold Cup and Saucer finals since Sand Olls Dexter and Mark MacDonald in 2003-2004.

“Maybe the downside of the game is, you can be on top of the world one day but the show goes on,” Stratton told HRU. “You’ve gotta go back to work.”

The Montgomery, NY horseman almost didn't get a chance to defend the 2023 Gold Cup and Saucer title he shared with Covered Bridge (p, 4, 1:48.3m; $1,344,523).

"Originally he was going to skip it, because it is a lot to ship all the way up there, and like I said in the [post-race] interview, the horse maybe wasn't quite as sharp as he was last year," said Stratton, who has driven Covered Bridge in all but three starts this year.

Owner Mark Ford and trainer Jeff Gillis ultimately decided that Covered Bridge would return to Prince Edward Island for this year's Old Home Week.

"You can't take anything away from [Covered Bridge]," said Stratton. "He had a tremendous year last year, traveling all over. But he was kind of off in the [2024] Borgata [Series], and at the end of the day, they had a couple of days before they had to enter, and they kind of felt like they owed it to the people of Charlottetown to bring him back."

Covered Bridge finished second to Fortify in his 2024 Gold Cup Trial for catch driver Jody Jamieson.

"Jody did a great job," said Stratton. "He didn't do anything wrong. Covered Bridge will win on the front, but his ultimate best game is that trip that he got in the final, just chasing down horses, and he raced right to the wire."

The New York-based horseman came to Charlottetown to drive Covered Bridge in the Gold Cup and Saucer final, giving the 8-year-old gelding a winning trip informed by years of racing together at Yonkers.

"Fortify is a great horse, but they've raced at Yonkers for a couple of years together now, and Covered Bridge is just maybe a step above Fortify," said Stratton. "Save America did a ton of work to come first over and clear, so I had a feeling he would be getting tired. My horse felt so good when I moved him that I felt pretty confident."

The 37-year-old reinsman added that Covered Bridge responded well to fresh grass, saltwater walks, and downtime in PEI.

"I think it's really good for a horse to maybe just wind down for a little bit. They're such tough animals and they have a full schedule, and when they race in the elimination and then have an easy week, they come into the final fresh," he said.

The brief working vacation was worth it for horse and driver.

"He's been a really good horse his whole life," Stratton said. "I believe Howie Okusko broke him and raced him in the [New York] Sires Stakes... Later] Ron Burke had a great career with him, and he ended up with Jeff Gillis. He bought him online, and he's just blossomed with him."

The $100,000 Gold Cup and Saucer is an event that Stratton said he fantasized about winning.

"For years, I've always made it a point to watch the race," he said. "I just couldn't believe it when [the cameras] pan over the crowd and it's elbow-to-elbow. And then when the lights go out and they do the post parade and introduce each horse, I wouldn’t even be in the race and I’d be getting goosebumps.”

When Gillis asked Stratton about driving Covered Bridge in the 2023 edition, the driver didn’t hesitate. “I absolutely jumped at the opportunity, and I was very, very glad I did,” he said.

Stratton added that there was no element of showboating when he took Covered Bridge along the Red Shores Charlottetown fence after either Gold Cup and Saucer victory.

“Not at all,” he said. “The reason I did it the first year is, we had crossed the wire and I was having some trouble pulling him up, so I took him to the outside fence. All of a sudden, [Covered Bridge] completely dropped the lines and his ears perked forward, like he almost couldn’t believe it himself. So I started walking him, and he was perfect. He would stop, his ears were still forward, he wasn’t kicking, so I just went with it. Someone reached out to pet him, and he was hamming it up more than I was.”

In a moment of inspiration, Stratton gave away his driving helmet to a young fan after this year’s return to the Gold Cup and Saucer winner’s circle.

“Something was telling me that was the right thing to do,” he said.

“I didn’t want to give my helmet away, but I saw that kid and something overcame me,” Stratton said. “It was immediate – he had to have the helmet. I heard the backstory afterwards, and I was very glad I had given him my helmet. I hope it can bring a bright spot in his life.”

The young fan, Brayden White, has a developmental disability and was making one last trip to the races with his respite worker of the past 12 years, Kim MacKenzie, before moving into new residence, MacIntyre House.

“This happened to be the last weekend he could come to the track,” said Stratton, clearly moved by the encounter. He happily gave White the keepsake of a lifetime.

“It’s amazing how the stars align. I found out that last year in school, all he could talk about was me winning the Gold Cup. I found this all out afterward. I’m not really religious, but something told me that this was the right thing to do. I’m glad I trusted the gut instinct.”

By Monday, the weekend seemed like a dream.

“Yonkers has been very good to me,” said the winning reinsman, enroute to the New York track where he sits atop the current drivers’ standings.

Asked about the relative lack of on-track audience at Yonkers, even on major race dates, Stratton replied that tracks with a backstretch fare better than those without when cultivating atmosphere around big races.

“[Red Shores Charlottetown] has a history, and management and horsemen work together for that day, and everyone collaborates to get that Old Home Week feeling,” he said.

“It’s kind of lost down here, where it’s always about the grind and ‘where are we racing next?’ You always hear stories about how people used to go have cookouts afterwards and there was a little more camaraderie. Now, I hate to say it, but it’s pretty cutthroat, down here at least.”

Stratton added that a successful event like the Gold Cup and Saucer is never just about celebrating one person, even when that person is a history-making driver.

“I appreciate all the accolades people have given me, but at the end of the day, I’m just a part of Old Home Week just as much as anyone else,” Stratton said. “Before I got there, there was a whole week of festivities and races and celebrations. I’m glad that I was the cherry on top, but it’s a long way from all my doing.”

While forever associated with another older pacer from Yonkers, winning Gold Cup and Saucer 65 with Covered Bridge has brought Stratton another career highlight.

“I don’t think anybody will come close to Bit Of A Legend N [p, 9, 1:49.4h; $2,569,621], just because he was really the first great horse that I got to be primary driver on. But Covered Bridge, those memories I have up there, it’s going to be very tough to top,” he said.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Rothengatter sweeps German Derbies with mares

by Thomas Hedlund

Michel F Rothengatter experienced a splendid weekend in Berlin Aug. 17-18 as his horses claimed the $107,000 Derby for mares and the $250,000 Derby.

Saturday's win behind Walner daughter Speedrise Lady S in The Derby for mares was not unexpected. Rothengatter's 4-year-old won in a mile rate of 1:56.4 over 1.2 miles.

Sunday would end up even better as Rothengatter's mare Nortolanda (Bird Parker) proved strongest against male opponents. Nortolanda did the job outside of leading favorite Brothers In Arms and early on the stretch, Nortolanda had disarmed the leader. She then held on and flew to a safe win in a mile rate of 1:54.4 over 1.2 miles that equaled the stakes record.

Mares winning the German Derby is not common, and Rothengatter ended a 13-year losing streak by steering Nortolanda to victory.

CHAMPIONS MEET IN SUNDSVALL

Daniel Wäjersten's Borups Victory (Googoo Gaagaa) and Daniel Redén's Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) are two of the best trotters in Sweden. The stars will meet in Saturday's (Aug. 24) $200,000 Sundsvall Open Trot at Bergsåker racetrack.

Elitloppet runner up Borups Victory had the better luck in the draw and the Mats Sundin-owned 6-year-old will start from post 2 behind the gate. Wäjersten has, incidentally, three horses in the race and top mare Great Skills, who is one of them, makes an interesting entry. Mellby Jinx is Wäjersten's third horse in the race.

On the same day, but later at night, Cagnes-sur-Mer outside of Nice plays host to the $195,000 Grand Prix du Departement des Alpes-Maritime mile race where horses Ampia Mede Sm, Go On Boy and Emeraude de Bais have been entered. The race has been dominated by Alessandro Gocciadoro in prior years. His Vernissage Grif was expected to race at the French Riviera track, but the horse's connections have accepted an invitation from Yonkers for the $1 million Yonkers International.

If there is ever a moment when Brielle Roman needs to find strength, she never has to look beyond the eye-catching artwork that adorns her arm, and everything it stands for.

The ink is, in fact, a myriad of things – part inspiration, part comfort, part hope.

Roman, whose equine roles include horse trainer, horse rescuer, horse advocate, and horse rider, is also making a name for herself in another arena.

“When I’m not doing anything with the horses, whether it’s the racehorses, the riding horses or the adoption program, Trot-Trot Standardbreds that I run, I am a boxer.”

The diminutive Roman discovered she packed quite a punch when she took up the hobby.

“I went through a terrible breakup, and I needed an outlet. So, that is why I started. Apparently, it turns out that I have a natural talent for it. It’s very enjoyable and it’s an excellent workout.

“When I’m training horses, I need to be strong, so it helps in that way. Also, there is a lot more thinking that goes into boxing than you might initially believe, with things like footwork, hand speed, and other aspects. It’s a good mental workout, too.”

In the hours she isn’t working on bobs and weaves, body work, and right hooks, Roman is in the barn, tending to her pacers and trotters.

That she finds herself in the shedrow is a story in itself.

“I wanted to do this my whole life. But it’s hard to come from a non-horse racing background into an industry where so many people have a family association to it.”

Roman does have a long association with horses, but not the sport of harness racing.

“I have always loved horses. I took riding lessons with my sisters at a backyard stable.”

While her siblings soon lost interest, Roman’s was growing exponentially, it seemed.

“I grew up riding hunters and jumpers and off-track thoroughbreds,” she said. “I liked racing too, and I would go to Freehold to watch the races.”

Eventually, she would become part of the very world she had only seen through the lens of a fan.

Eight years ago, she bought a standardbred foal she named Witch Hazel, who would go on to enjoy success in the show horse ring.

That experience included finding work as a groom for trainers Gary Candell and Chris Ryder.

In 2022, Roman joined the training ranks herself. She had nine starts in her rookie season, with her best finish a second, courtesy of the well-traveled bay gelding Legato.

The next year, she earned her first win, the milestone coming with Legato on Jan. 20, 2023, and ended the campaign with six trips to the winner’s circle from 55 starts.

Roman has already established career-best marks across the board in 2024.

One of those horses is Oh Lina, a 7-year-old trotting daughter of Amigo Hall.

The bay mare, who has raced throughout North America, came to Roman mid-way through 2023.

“She is incredible. She came down to us from Canada, where she had been for a while. That is the horse who I feel changed my career.”

Their first win together came at Freehold that September. Just over six weeks later, Oh Lina stepped into the spotlight at The Meadowlands.

Saddled with post 11, the veteran campaigner was in tough.

“The first time I took her to The Meadowlands, which was also my first time there, I thought to myself, ‘I don’t know if I belong here.’ I wondered if I had made a mistake trying this with her.

“She was 17-1 and in a trailing position. The weather was horrible, and the track was an absolute mud fest.”

Roman, typically loath to give drivers too much direction, gave Jonathan Ahle, in the race bike that evening, a very detailed blueprint for the finicky Oh Lina.

“She is an interesting horse to drive – she is very nice, doesn’t pull like most trotters, and is very well-gaited – because she tries to fake you out. She has no gate speed whatsoever. I have tried everything with her and that is just the way she is.

“What she does have is this great late kick. You just have to wait to get her rolling. Whenever someone drives her, I always have to explain, ‘Trust the process with this horse. You will feel like you have nothing for half the race and then you will start to feel a change. When that moment comes, you just have to let her go.’”

And so, having heeded the words Roman offered, Ahle did exactly what was shared with him.

“I can recall the moment in that race where Jonathan let her go just after the half, and she went by everybody like they were standing still. She got to the front and zipped away to win by six lengths and set a new lifetime mark in 1:55.

“When I got to the winner’s circle, Jonathan looked at me, smiled and said, ‘Wow, you gave great instructions.’ But that was incredible. It was something I dreamed about, to win at The Meadowlands, and we did. I couldn’t believe that happened to me.”

Not everything has gone according to plan.

When she lost a mare she bought to a freak accident – the horse tripped coming off the track and shattered a pastern – Roman considered throwing in the towel.

But that is when serendipity, in the form of The Boxer, intervened.

“When that happened to my mare, it was very discouraging. I thought maybe I should just give up, but a lady reached out to me and said she had a trotter who had been sitting in a field for five years and needs a job, something for him to do.”

Roman looked at his lines and saw nothing that stood out.

Still, there was something, not easily definable, that compelled her to take The Boxer under her tutelage.

“He had raced in the fairs in Kentucky. He couldn’t go faster than two minutes, he was making breaks – they couldn’t keep him flat. But for some reason, I thought I should give him a try. At the very least, the one horse we had needed a friend, and he could maybe help with that.”

Expectations for a return to racing were minimal at best.

The Boxer, however, had a different game plan in store.

Slowly, but surely, the horse who had grazed and sauntered around a farm for the past five years, started to show signs he might want to compete again.

“I decided to train him down. My expectation was that I would jog him for two months, make him a riding horse, and then adopt him out to someone. I didn’t want to get attached to him, but he was so sweet. The more we trained him, the more he kept going. By that point, I was so emotionally invested in him.

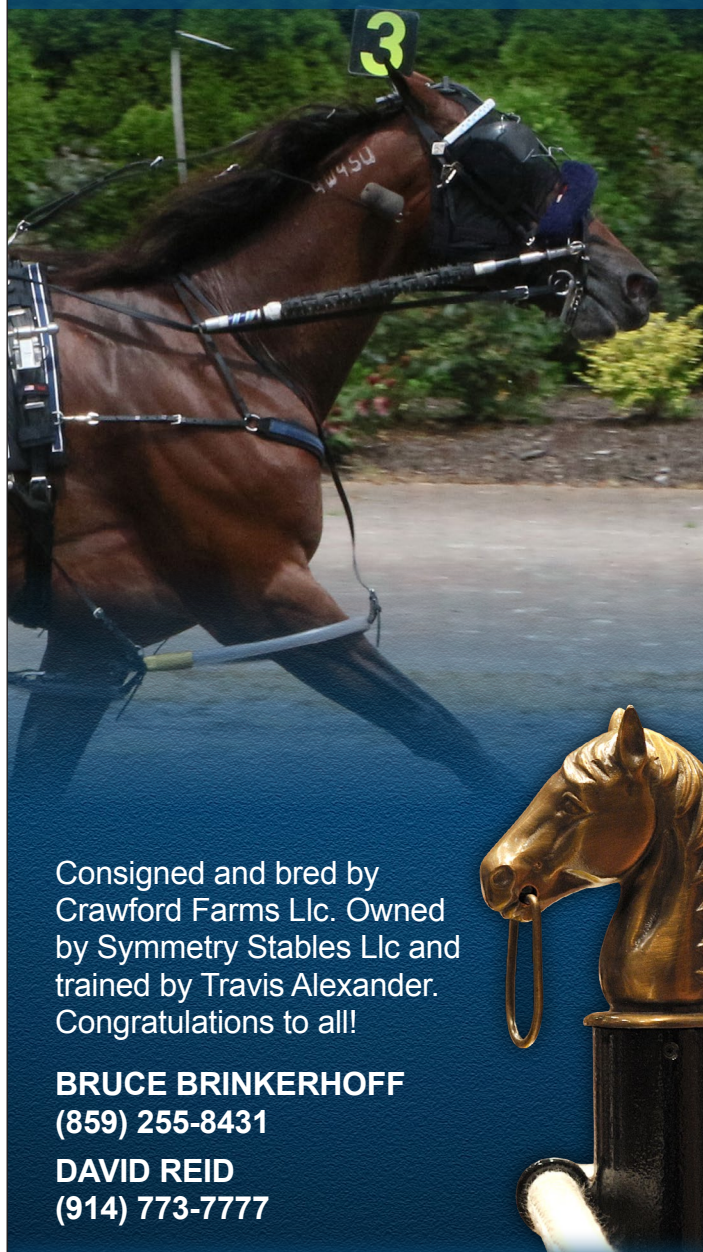

“I wanted him to qualify. We made it. He qualified and trotted in 1:57, which was the fastest he had gone in his life. I had tears, a lot of them, on that day.”

“ I went through a terrible breakup, and I needed an outlet. So, that is why I started [boxing]. Apparently, it turns out that I have a natural talent for it. It’s very enjoyable and it’s an excellent workout. When I’m training horses, I need to be strong, so it helps in that way. Also, there is a lot more thinking that goes into boxing than you might initially believe, with things like footwork, hand speed, and other aspects. It’s a good mental workout, too.”

~ Brielle Roman

Roman had more tears on the night of Oct. 13, 2023, at Freehold.

“He had some issues, and he would make breaks here and there – it was hard to find somewhere for him to be competitive. He was also green. Freehold opened back up and one day, I got Jim Marohn, Jr. to drive him.”

It was a perfect match.

“They went to the front, and they won,” said Roman. “I think it will end up being one of the biggest highlights in my horse racing career. I won’t ever forget it. Everything he had been through and everything I had been through – it just all came together.

“How many horses come back after five years and win?”

Now retired for good, The Boxer is never far from Roman’s side.

The 10-year-old son of Yankee Glide, whose final race came in February, now has a new calling.

“He’s my riding horse now. In my free time, I like to compete in shows with standardbreds. The Boxer and I have won a lot of championships together.”

Roman is a passionate advocate for standardbreds competing in the show ring.

Her hope is to dispel the notion that the breed can’t succeed against their equine contemporaries.

“They have a stigma attached to them in the riding horse world and I want to see that change. They are truly wonderful, versatile, intelligent animals. When people don’t see them do well right away, people think they can’t do it.”

Roman will be there to remind them otherwise.

I have been retraining as riding horses for about eight years. I compete with my horses in open breed competitions. I have a stallion, Luck N Roll K, who is one of my retired racehorses. He has been the best pacer I have had so far. I bought him as a $7,500 claimer and he made around $50,000 for me.

“Now, he does very well in riding competitions. He reached Gold status last year – based on the points he earned – at events put on by the USHJA, which governs the Hunter/Jumper shows across the U.S. I believe he is the only standardbred to have ever achieved that.”

Outside of the arena, Roman, through her non-profit, Trot-Trot Standardbreds, is helping rehome and rehabilitate standardbreds whose racing careers have reached the finish line.

To date, Trot-Trot has found new homes for around 50 horses.

“Some we need to rehab, and we will do whatever is necessary for that. We train them, break them to ride, and then find a suitable home for them.

“I’m a busy person,” she added with a big laugh.

Busy, but also content.

Roman doesn’t need to be reminded there will be challenges to come in her life and career.

Yet she has never felt more prepared to face whatever form those hurdles take, to always answer the bell, thanks in part to the horse with a most fitting name.

“I had wondered why the people who owned him had named him that. I was told they named him after the song [the 1970 hit by Simon and Garfunkel].”

Whenever she listens to it, the final verse always resonates.

*In the clearing stands a boxer
And a fighter by his trade
And he carries the reminders
Of every glove that laid him down
Or cut him till he cried out
In his anger and his shame
“I am leaving, I am leaving”
But the fighter still remains*

“It reminds me of all the times life knocked me down and the hurt I carry with me from all those tough moments. But despite all that and the times I wanted to give up, I’m still here fighting... just like my horse, The Boxer.”

Howlenth hills and Huntingforchrome get NYSS wins at Tioga

by John Horne for Tioga Downs

Driver Matt Kakaley and trainer Travis Alexander swept both divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings at Tioga Downs on Sunday (Aug. 18).

Howlenth hills (Kakaley) was a gate-to-wire winner in the $57,000 first division.

Howlenth hills ($2.10) was first to the quarter in :26.2. He used a :29 second quarter to be first to the half in :55.2. Vandiemmen Bluechip (Braxten Boyd) made a move first-over going down the backstretch and challenged for the lead. Howlenth hills led to three-quarters in 1:24.

As they made the turn for home Howlenth hills shook off second place finisher Vandiemmen Bluechip and cruised home in 1:51.2. Bruce's VO N Coke (Jason Bartlett) finished third.

Howlenth hills is a gelding by American Ideal. He is owned by Symmetry Stables and trained by Alexander. He was winless as a freshman but has won 10 of his 11 starts as a sophomore.

Huntingforchrome (Kakaley) cruised to victory in the $58,100 second division.

Huntingforchrome ($3) went straight to the front and led to the quarter in :26.4. Spring Blake (Mark MacDonald) came first-up and was side by side with Huntingforchrome as they went around the clubhouse turn. Huntingforchrome was first to the half in :55.3. He stayed in control and led to three-quarters in 1:25.

Second place finisher Boston Rocks (Jason Bartlett) popped out of the 2-hole and came all out after the leader. Huntingforchrome was too strong and won easily in 1:52.1. Seen Here (Marcus Miller) finished third.

UNBEATEN FAST CHOICE GRABS NYSS WIN AT VERNON

Fast Choice (Doug McNair) captures the $110,100 leg of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Saturday (Aug. 17).

Silent Weapon (Tyler Buter) charged out of the gate and was first to the quarter in :26.4. Thirsty Thursday (Matt Kakaley) took over control heading around the first turn. As they headed down the backstretch Fast Choice ($6.90) spurted by and led to the half in :54. He remained on top getting to three-quarters first in 1:23.2.

As they reached the stretch it was down to the two unbeaten pacers. Second-place finisher Thirsty Thursday came all out after Fast Choice, but Fast Choice dug in as Thirsty Thursday kept coming. Fast Choice won in a lifetime best of 1:50.3. Holt Hanover (Ray Schnittker) finished third.

Fast Choice is a 2-year-old gelding by Courtly Choice—Fashion Guru. He is trained by Jared Bako for owners Ashley Bako and Randy Zane. He is now four-for-four.

Jimmy Whittemore drove three winners and was trainer for two of them. John MacDonald had a driving-training double.

Awol Hanover (Steve Reisenweaver) won the Angus MacDonald Memorial Trot. The 10-year-old gelding by Donato Hanover is owned by Reisenweaver and trained by Jeff Byron.

Vernon Downs returns to live racing on Friday (Aug. 23) starting at 4 p.m.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Princess Jackie wins third sire stake at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

Two-year-old trotting fillies met in their fourth and final preliminary leg of Pennsylvania Sire Stakes and Stallion Series on Monday afternoon (Aug. 19) at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania, looking to secure themselves a spot in their upcoming rich championship events as the track surface slowly improved throughout the day.

Daughters of Greenshoe won both of the $79,569 Sire Stakes divisions. Princess Jackie (dam Frisky Magic) became the only three-time Sire Stakes winner (one at every track) when she took a new mark of 1:55 over a track then rated “good.” Jim Marohn, Jr. moved the filly to the top after a :28.4 opener, established a clear lead at the :57 half, dealt with the first-over Ms Prada before and after the 1:25.4 three-quarters, then withstood the pocket-sitter Seal The Deal AS by a half-length. Princess Jackie, now four-for-five in her brief career, has earned $128,661 just in the Sire Stakes for trainer/owner D. R. Ackerman.

The track had been rerated to “fast” by the time Divine Thing (dam A Thing Goin On) was victorious in 1:54.4, just a tick beyond her time in winning a Sire Stake at The Meadows in her last outing. David Miller guided Divine Thing to the pocket amidst some early confusion and was content to wait while Country Victory laid down splits of :27.4, :57.3, and 1:26.3. Divine Thing then came her own last quarter in :27.4 to win by a half-length over the pacesetter for trainer Steve Carter and the partnership of Jay Mossbarger, Brent Hopper, and Kyle Gray, for whom the filly has won $105,823 in the PASS and also has a victory in the Kentucky program.

After four $20,000 divisions of Stallion Series events on Monday, another daughter of Greenshoe, Saints Preserve Us (dam Firm To Stay) remained undefeated in three lifetime starts, all of them Stallion Series races (and one at each state pari-mutuel oval) with a 1:56.2 lifetime mark after the track had been upgraded to “good.” Matt Kakaley guided Saints Preserve Us for trainer Jim Campbell and Runthetable Stables.

Saints Preserve Us was in fact the only filly among the Stallion Series winners to have won before Monday, in the StS or at all in their young careers. The biggest surprise among the maiden breakers was the Southwind Frank–Andovermizbrenda filly Bizzy Brenda, who took her cut at a $124.40 mutuel, second-highest of the year at Pocono. Trained by Karen Garland, Bizzy Brenda was driven by Steve Smith to a maiden mark of 1:57.3 (good track), and Smith is also co-owner Joseph Di Leo.

The track was still rated “sloppy” for the first two Stallion Series contests. Southwind Frank picked up another StS credit when Serena’s Girl (dam Muscle Work) got her first win in 1:57.1 for trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt and Little E LLC. Can It Be Magic, a daughter of Cantab Hall–Blonde Magic, also earned her first victory in the other Stallion Series cut, also posting a time of 1:57.1 for driver Mike Wilder, trainer Dan Altmeyer, and the ownership of Ruth Altmeyer, June and Thomas Durand, and Heather Wilder.

FATHER TJ IN 1:54.1, PHILLY TRACK RECORD

The Father Patrick–Dip Me Hanover colt Father TJ set a track record of 1:54.1 in winning one of two divisions of the last preliminary round of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 2-year-old trotting males Sunday (Aug. 18) at Harrah’s Philadelphia, reducing the former mark of One In A Lifetime by a tick.

The betting favorite worked his way to the lead past Meshuggah after a :28.2 quarter, then went on to light up the timer with splits of :57.3 and 1:26 under Tyler Buter’s direction. Meshuggah didn’t gain late on the winner, who triumphed by 3¼ lengths while also setting a new lifetime mark and joining Fashion Green, absent Sunday, as the only two-time Sire Stakes winners in his group. Father TJ is trained by Jeff Cullipher and owned by him and Pollack Racing LLC.

There were two ways to win a stake at Philly on Sunday – set a track record, or be a son of Bar Hopping. The latter was the route taken by Portobarosso AS NL (dam Measuredperfection), but he wasn’t far away from also using the other path as he lowered his mark to 1:54.3. After fractions of :28.4 and :58.1, the Dutch-bred had to come on the grind first-over through and past a 1:26.2 three-quarters, but went past favored tempo-setter Elan

Hanover by 1½ lengths for driver Corey Callahan, trainer Julie Miller, and Atlantic Trot Inc.

With only one third in the Sire Stakes prior to this race, Portobarosso AS NL needed a win to possibly reach his championship; an unofficial tally after the races saw him in the eighth and final spot, but all official point standings totals are administered by the standardbred division of the Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission.

Bar Hoppings swept the four $20,000 Stallion Series races, with the quickest the gelding Gimlet Hanover (dam Ginger Tree Bren), a winner of his second straight Stallion Series contest while taking a mark of 1:56 win for driver Jim Marohn, Jr. and trainer/owner D. R. Ackerman. Another winner was the gray colt Messenger Hanover (dam Musetta Hanover), who seems to like the recent addition of trotting hoppers as he took a maiden mark of 1:57.2 for driver David Miller, trainer Ron Burke, and Burke Racing Stable LLC, Beasty LLC, Jim Simpson, and J&T Silva- Purnel & Libby.

The other two StS cuts were conducted over “sloppy” going, and both were won by geldings driven by Tyler Buter, who had four Philly successes. The only two horses who had won more than one Stallion Series race prior to this card drew in together, and Hey Porter (dam Chelseas A Winner) took his third straight win in this stake in 1:57.2, beating three-time StS winner Scudo Hanover, for trainer Tony Alagna and owner Steve Stewart. Buter came back in the next race with Pantofolaio (dam Mad Elf), lowering his mark to 1:57.4 for trainer Mark Harder, co-owner with Dean Lockhart, Wayne Carleton, and Jeffery Ruch.

Racing resumes at Philly on Thursday at 12:25; free Philly programs are or will be available at www.ppha.org.

Unreasonable scores, Miki And Minnie breaks through at The Red Mile

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

On Monday (Aug. 19) Unreasonable captured the sole $80,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes third round division for 2-year-old filly pacers at The Red Mile in a lifetime best 1:50.4.

Trainer Erv Miller was warranted in spotting the daughter of Huntsville—Roaring To Go in deeper waters after a third-place finish in a $30,000 second leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series on Aug. 11.

With Scott Zeron holding the lines, Unreasonable commenced her journey from post position 8 in the field of eight and maintained that spot while Treacheryinthedark (Dexter Dunn) controlled the first split of :27. Sweet Ballad, however, had her mind set on how she was going to compete. As she and driver Yannick Gingras, cut the half in :55 and three-quarters in 1:23.2.

Unreasonable closed from seventh with a :25.4 final panel to best Sweet Ballad and favored Duration (Todd McCarthy).

Owned by her conditioner and David Miller, Unreasonable was bred by Steve Stewart and Frank Chick.

The filly's dam collected $431,999 on the racetrack. Unreasonable is her third foal and most prolific. She sold for $55,000 at last year's Standardbred Horse Sale.

Roaring To Go is a half-sibling to Queen Of The Pride (McArdle, $787,211).

Unreasonable paid $8.48 to win and improved her record to 4 2-0-1 with a bankroll of $46,600.

Miki And Minnie (Peter Wrenn) broke her maiden in the lone $30,000 third leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for freshman filly pacers. Accede (Gingras) was second and favorite Three Times Bettor (Andrew McCarthy) was third.

Chris Ryder conditions the daughter of Always B Miki—That's The Ticket who competes as a homebred for Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo and Lawrence Minowitz.

She paid $6.76 to win and her resume now stands at 4 2-0-1 with a bankroll of $46,600.

The filly is the third foal out of the dam who earned $268,521 during her career and is a half-sister to Bigtown Hero (American Ideal, $486,142).

DIRECTION FINDS THE WAY HOME, CHAT ROOM UPSETS

On Sunday (Aug. 18) Direction made a statement with her triumph in the $80,000 second leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series (KYSS) for 3-year-old filly pacers while Chat Room posted an upset in the division for freshman male pacers at The Red Mile.

Although many were anxiously awaiting the return of Kentucky champion and Dan Patch Award winner Geocentric, Direction (Todd McCarthy) was steered to the finish line in first place. The daughter of Always B Miki—Blood Red finished a strong second to Its A Love Thing, who is on a four-race winning streak, on Aug. 6 over the same oval.

Without the Fan Hanover final and Jerry Silverman Memorial winner in this field, Direction seized the lead after the wings of the gate folded to trip the timer in :28.1 for the first quarter mile. Bath Bomb (Yannick Gingras) assumed command prior to a half in :55.2 as Direction sat in the pocket with Fearless Bettor following in third position.

When it was time for the final drive to the wire, Direction put away Bath Bomb but had to stave off the late surge of Fearless Bettor.

The Brett Pelling trainee held off Fearless Bettor by a nose in a new lifetime mark of 1:50.1 with a last quarter in :27. Neridas Wish (Andrew McCarthy) rounded out the trifecta as the longest shot on the board at 31-1. Favored Geocentric (Tim Tetrick) was fourth.

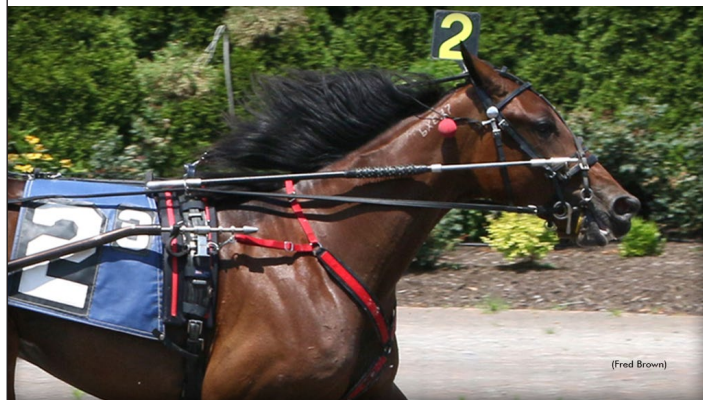

Bred by Diamond Creek Farm, Direction competes for that facility's racing operation. The filly improved her overall record to 13 9-1-2 and has now earned $156,796 in two years of racing.

She is 7 5-1-0 in 2024.

Direction is the first foal out of her dam who is half-sibling to Blood Brother (Somebeachsomewhere, $980,795), Blood Line (Somebeachsomewhere, $569,006) and Blood Feud

The filly paid $5.60 to win as the second selection in the wagering.

Chat Room (Gingras) snapped heavily favored Super Chapter's (Dexter Dunn) three-race winning streak to collect his third win from six pari-mutuel miles in the $80,000 third leg of the KYSS for 2-year-old male pacers. The final time of 1:56 was also a new personal best. Go Dog Go (Todd McCarthy) was second and Super Chapter was third.

Trained by John Butenschoen, Chat Room is a gelded son of Chapter Seven—Fatima Blush.

Longshot Landing On Time (Scott Zeron) led the field of 12 through fractions of :28.3, :58 and 1:27.4 as Chat Room paced in second. As Landing On Time tired in the drive to the wire, Chat Room simply continued his strong effort and was rewarded by visiting the winner's circle.

Favorite Super Chapter left from post position 8 and did not have the smoothest of trips. Chat Room and Go Dog Go were assigned post positions 2 and 4, respectively.

Bred by Marvin Katz, Sam Goldband and Al Libfeld, Chat Room is the third foal out of his unraced dam and was a $47,000 purchase at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by James Crawford IV, Charles Rowe, David Miller and Lawrence Means.

Chat Room's granddam is a full sister to world champion and Ohio stallion Dejarmbro (Credit Winner, $1.13 million).

The gelding has amassed $90,280 in earnings.

Chat Room provided his supporters with $26.84 as the third choice in the wagering.

DAVENPORT STRIDES TO VICTORY IN THE COMMONWEALTH SERIES

Davenport, a half-sister to 2023 Horse of the Year Confederate, established a new lifetime best of 1:49.3 in the $30,000 second round leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 3-year-old pacing fillies. Capytreach (A. McCarthy) was second and Real Deal Lindy was third.

Davenport is by Captain Crunch and trained by Pelling. The filly is owned by Diamond Creek Racing and was bred by Diamond Creek Farm.

She paid $7.56 to win. Her record is 12 6-3-1 and she has banked $66,985.

Yannick G Kemp (Peter Wrenn) took the first of two $30,000 second round legs of the Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old male pacers in 1:54 with Castel Lindy (Dunn) scoring in the second division for that age and sex in 1:57.4.

Indiana SIRE STAKES REPORT

Let's Go Endofaera romps in Indiana Sire Stakes

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Extending her win-streak to three on the season, Let's Go Endofaera delivered as the 3-5 favorite to win the lone division of the $94,500 sixth leg of Indiana Sire Stakes for sophomore pacing fillies on Saturday (Aug. 17) at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Leaving from post 2, driver John De Long settled Let's Go Endofaera in the pocket position early while All JK (driven by Trace Tetrack) took command of the field of seven through a :26.3 opening quarter. The fillies followed in single file behind All JK as she led to the halfway point in :54.4. On the final turn, De Long squeezed out of the pocket in tight quarters in front of Lyin' Eyes (Joey Putnam) to apply pressure to All JK at three-quarters in 1:23.1.

Let's Go Endofaera made quick work of All JK at the top of the stretch, powering away by two-lengths with an eighth of a mile to go. Pacing home in :26.2, Let's Go Endofaera crossed the wire 3¼ lengths clear a geared down winner in 1:49.4. Lyin' Eyes finished second, All JK held for the third spot.

Trained by Tabby De Long, Let's Go Endofaera has only tasted defeat once in six seasonal outings. Jesse De Long bred and co-owns the daughter of JK Endofaera—Let's Go Higher with John and William DeLong. With the win, Let's Go Endofaera boasts career earnings of $460,040 following her 10th lifetime victory.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Seaside Diva undefeated in Ohio Sires Stakes

by Ashley Dailey / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

The fourth leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes kicked off on Sunday night (Aug. 18) at MGM Northfield Park. Seaside Diva remains perfect in the stakes, capturing one of two $65,000 divisions for sophomore filly pacers.

Seaside Diva won the second and fastest division in 1:52. Driven by Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., the daughter of Downbytheseaside grabbed control of the field and never looked back. Seaside Diva held off all challengers to set fractions in :27, :55.4, and 1:24. As the 1-9 betting favorite, Seaside Diva pulled away in the final turn to win by six lengths. It was her ninth victory in 11 starts. Ron Burke conditions the filly for owner-breeders Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services, and Let It Ride Stables. She has amassed $545,305 in lifetime earnings.

No Foolin April (Brett Miller) was second while Katies Up (Hunter Myers) finished third.

Naked On A Hill and Jeff Nisonger won the first division in 1:54. Naked On A Hill found herself third along the rail as the leader, 1-9 favorite Wasted On You made a miscue at the :27.4 opening quarter. The daughter of Nob Hill High was gapped back six lengths from the lead as they passed the half in :57.2. Shifting into gear at the 1:24.4 third-quarter pole, Nisonger followed cover before pulling three-wide in the final turn. Naked On A Hill dug in through her final strides to trip the wire first. The pacer is trained by Mark Winters. She has hit the board in nine of 12 seasonal starts, bankrolling $82,541 for owner Dennis Shaner.

I'm A Beach Lady (Aaron Merriman) held on for second with Zuma Beach (Wrenn) third.

Ohio Sires Stakes action continues today (Aug. 21) at MGM Northfield Park with sophomore filly trotters. First race post time is 6 p.m.

FRESHMAN FILLIES FEATURED AT SCIOTO

There was a lot of movement in each of the two $65,000 divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes for 2-year-old filly trotters on Saturday evening (Aug. 17) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Dream Something (Tyler Smith) took the first division in 1:55.4 and Rose Run Allison (Dan Noble) took the second division in 1:57.

In the first division, Brink Street (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) was the first to make the front going to the :28.1 opening quarter. Dave Palone pulled Freedom Hill first up and made the lead before going under the wire for the first time. Aunt Laura (Brett Miller) was then first up heading to the :57 half and made the lead halfway down the backside. Dublins Dragonfly (Noble) applied pressure going to the 1:25.2 third quarter and around the last turn Brink Street came back to be three-wide with Dream Something four-wide. Dream Something and Aunt Laura battled it out down the stretch with Dream Something winning by a neck; Mega Money (Trevor Smith) got up for third.

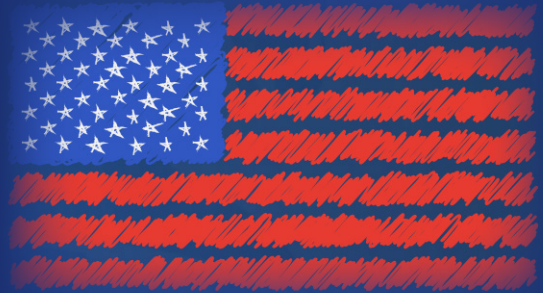

The mile was a new lifetime mark for Dream Something, trained by Miles Wollam who co-owns with Julie Ann and Dale Sweet. The filly, by Uncle Peter out of the Glidemaster mare Travelin Dream, who was a $30,000 Ohio Select Sale purchase, now has three wins in five lifetime starts and $79,633.

In the second division, Up (Chris Lems) took the early lead before the :29.2 quarter. Rose Run Allison pulled first up mid-way through the turn and made the lead, but stablemate Mocha Hill (Wrenn, Jr.) was quick to take over before the :59.1 half. Move Over Boys (Matthew Brown) made a quick bid to challenge from fifth but couldn't make the top by the 1:28 third quarter. Rose Run Allison came out of the pocket and won by a length and a half over Mocha Hill. Aunt Lilly (Ty. Smith), who came three-wide around the last turn, was third.

Ron Burke trains Rose Run Allison for Burke Racing, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services and Beastly LLC. The filly by Long Tom out of the Broadway Hall mare Rose Run Timeless was a $105,000 Ohio Select Sale purchase and has now made $115,667 in five lifetime starts with three wins.

Maryland SIRE STAKES REPORT

Yall Keep Dreaming strikes again in Maryland Sire Stakes

by Ocean Downs racing publicity

Richard Hans' homebred 2-year-old trotting colt Yall Keep Dreaming was never in doubt in Sunday's (Aug. 18) $10,000 Maryland Sire Stakes preliminary at Ocean Downs, coasting to a 2:04.3 decision over a pair of John Wagner trainees for his second victory in as many starts in his young career.

With Johnathan Ahle at the lines, Yall Keep Dreaming strode to a clear lead from the pole, seating Swervingmervin in the pocket through a :30.2 first quarter. The pair remained uncontested from there, rating middle splits of 1:02.2 and 1:34 before using a :30.3 last quarter to evade runner-up Magoo Will Do, who inherited the second spot from a breaking Swervingmervin, by 3½ lengths.

Hans also trains the Yall Beneath Me—Upside Blue Chip colt, who has banked $28,300 in his career after also winning a Maryland Standardbred Race Fund event in his Aug. 4 debut.

John Wagner trainee Brooksforreal ($2.40) took top honors among 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings, drawing 6¼ lengths clear of stablemate More Medhurst for a 1:58.1 score in their $10,000 Maryland Sire Stakes split. Thomas K finished third. Corey Braden drove the Rusty's For Real—Brooks Range gelding for owner Kelsey Wagner.

Rusty's Lancelot ($2.20) and driver Eric Davis captured the other split with a 4¾-length, 1:59.2 win over Classic Cougar and Whosabrat. Jerry Nock trains the Rusty's For Real—Majorconstellation gelding for owner/breeder Andrew Scheller.

Ahle and William Carter enjoyed driving triples on the night; Trae Porter and Jonathan Roberts both fashioned doubles.

Racing returns to Ocean Downs today (Aug. 21) with a 12-race card featuring a trio of $10,000 Maryland Sire Stakes preliminary events for 2-year-old fillies and a $9,500 Preferred Handicap Trot. First post is 7:05 p.m.

William Wellwood, Peaceful Way eliminations complete

Short prices landed in the pair of $30,000 eliminations for the William Wellwood Memorial on Saturday night (Aug. 17) at Woodbine Mohawk Park while both $30,000 eliminations for the Peaceful Way went by way of an upset.

Odds-on choice Tactical Dynasty muscled to a 1:53.4 victory in the first William Wellwood Memorial elimination.

"When I asked him in the middle of the last turn and no one was coming, he kicked into gear," winning driver Yannick Gingras said after the race.

Gingras sent Tactical Dynasty out of post 7 to race third by a :29 first quarter, but soon lifted the Tactical Landing colt off the pegs and brushed to the lead. He cleared command before a :57.3 half and skedaddled from the competition, clicking past three-quarters in 1:25.4 and strolling under the beam a wrapped-up winner by five lengths. Extended Session broke stride chasing from the pocket and finished a lapped-on second, which disqualified him to fifth to still make the final. Lookatmegoamigo, Maryland and Warrior, respectively, all moved up a finishing spot to be second, third and fourth.

"Once he's in that gear, he's pretty solid," Gingras said. "He handled all the breakers and all that stuff. I really always liked him. He's got that nice gait to him, he's fast. I think we've got a nice colt on our hands."

Ron Burke trains Tactical Dynasty for his Burke Racing Stable LLC, Phillip Collura, Larry Karr, J. and T. Silva and Purnel and Libby. He won his second race from five starts, has now banked $83,973 and paid $3.50 to win.

Emoticon Legacy stayed unbeaten in just her second start on the track when collaring 1-5 favorite Nordic Catcher S in the final strides of a 1:56 mile in winning the second Wellwood elimination.

Driver James MacDonald floated Emoticon Legacy forward to race third as 13-1 shot Manforce attempted to steal the race. Clocking opening fractions of :28.3 and :59.1, Manforce soon bore pressure when Nordic Catcher S flushed out of his pocket ride to sit first up. Nordic Catcher S accelerated for the lead after three-quarters in 1:28.2 but stalled once downing Manforce in the lane. MacDonald meanwhile found room spinning off the turn to follow the outside move of Nordic Catcher S and then angled his charge off the helmet in the lane to inch closer and closer to the lead. In the final yards, Emoticon Legacy successfully reeled in Nordic Catcher S to win by a head. Manforce held third while Getastarfromthesky and Southwind Caspian earned the remaining slots to the final.

"He looks like a special colt, like he's developing into everything Emoticon [Hanover] throws into them," MacDonald said of Emoticon Legacy, a Walner filly out of champion mare Emoticon Hanover. "She's a super broodmare, she was a super racehorse and this horse looks like he's turning into a nice horse as well."

Luc Blais trains Emoticon Legacy for owner/breeder Determination. She's banked $25,000 from her two victories and paid $8.70 to win.

Royal Mission scored a mild upset at odds of 8-1 with a pocket pounce to victory in the first Peaceful Way elimination.

"We got cheap fractions," winning driver Trevor Henry said after the race. "I didn't know if we would outsprint them, but she did. She showed she can leave, so I thought I'd leave with her and let Jody go. That's the way it worked out."

Launching from post 7, Royal Mission secured a trail ride behind 8-5 second choice Monalishi, who cut a tepid clip of :29.1, :58.2 and 1:27.1 before buckling down for the stretch sprint. In spite of the soft fractions, Monalishi failed to stave the late flurry from Royal Mission, who won edging away by 1½ lengths in a 1:54.3 mile. R Charm, odds-on favorite Lasting Dream and Highlandstarburst earned the remaining berths to the final.

Marcus Melander trains Royal Mission, a daughter of Chapter Seven and a full sister to Canadian Trotting Classic champions Ahundreddollarbill and Slay. Jeff Snyder owns the filly who has now won two times from five starts and banked $199,966. She paid $19.10 to win.

Steady handling by Jody Jamieson on a bumpy stretch burst by R Dutchess straightened her to nail the winning blow at 13-1 over 3-5 favorite Champagne Problems in the second Peaceful Way elimination.

"[I] was pushing her too hard, and she was trying to give me everything she got," Jamieson said after the race. "She overcame me there and kept trotting hard after that."

R Dutchess began her pursuit moving to a :57.4 half, where Champagne Problems circled from the pocket to take the lead into the final turn. Champagne Problems strode strongly by three-quarters in 1:25.3, though R Dutchess persisted in her rally and loomed to within a head of the lead spinning for home. The pair sparred down the lane – Champagne Problems steadfast to the pylons and R Dutchess resilient to smoothen bobbled strides into the final eighth. R Dutchess then clawed forward to grab a neck victory in a 1:53.1 mile over Champagne Problems with Margareta Hanover another six lengths behind in third. Medley Seelster and Entertain Me rounded out the top five.

"She's just a little dumb, green and [has] too much ability for her own good at the moment," trainer John Butenschoen said. "She'll try to over-trot herself. She's still a work in progress, but she's progressing the right way."

A daughter of Father Patrick out of 2018 Peaceful Way champion The Ice Dutchess, R Dutchess won her second race from four starts and has now earned $26,016. She's leased by M&L of Delaware LLC and paid $29.70 to win.

Each elimination winner from Saturday's stakes action earned draw protection between posts 2 and 6 for their respective finals, which Woodbine Mohawk Park will contest next Saturday (Aug. 24).

Twin B Joe Fresh, Seafire come up big at Scioto Downs

The Saturday evening (Aug. 17) card at Eldorado Scioto Downs started off hot with a 1:49 opening race but even a power surge delay followed by a rain delay couldn't dampen the racing events to come later in the card. Twin B Joe Fresh took the $100,000 Cleopatra Invitational for older mares, setting a new track record for female pacers of 1:48.2 and Seafire, a 4-year-old Ohio-sired horse, won the $100,000 #SendItIn Invitational pace for older pacers in 1:48.

In the Cleopatra, Man Dontforget Me (Tyler Smith) took the early lead with Grace Hill (Austin Hanners) settling in the pocket. Strong Poison (Dan Noble) made an early move heading to the :26 opening quarter and made the lead just before they went under the line for the first time. Twin B Joe Fresh and Brett Miller, who floated away fourth from the rail, pulled at the :53.4 half, and by the 1:21 third-quarter was head-to-head with Strong Poison. Man Dontforget Me pulled from third to try and track down the leader but couldn't quite get there, as Twin B Joe Fresh won by a length and a half; Zanatta (Eric Goodell) was third.

"I felt like a kid from the day before Christmas," said winning driver Miller, when asked how he felt getting the call to drive Twin B Joe Fresh. "Dex [Dunn] told me all about her... she come first up and he said that she could just grind out there and take care of business and she did. I never even popped her ear plugs, she felt like she could have went much more."

Twin B Joe Fresh, a 4-year-old mare by Roll With Joe out of the Captaintreachorous mare Fresh Breeze, was bred by Brittany Farms. The Chris Ryder trainee now has $1,860,165 earned lifetime and has seven wins in eight seasonal starts. Twin B Joe Fresh is owned by Chris Ryder, Dexter Dunn, Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak.

In the #SendItIn, Carbine (Hanners) rolled to the :25.2 opening quarter from the rail with Artatac A (Noble) getting the pocket trip. At the :53.3 half Artatac A, pulled and brought along Seafire (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) second over. Sprinting by the 1:20.2 third-quarter, Artatac A had made the lead which left Seafire with open track to sprint to the lead and win by 2¾ lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:48. Buzzsaw Russ (Dave Palone) followed the Seafire cover but just could not overcome the margin to be second. Artatac A held on for third.

"I just wanted to use my post position to get away well and I was able to do so," said Wrenn, Jr. "When Danny popped the pocket at the half, I was happy to be second over and luckily for me Danny's horse cleared... at the three-quarter pole and my horse responded well."

"I was a little nervous, Buzzsaw Russ is a really nice horse and he sat behind me and I thought he had a lot of pace, and he did. Luckily Brian's done a good job with Seafire and he raced really well."

Seafire, by Downbytheseaside out of the Towner's Big Guy mare Wildfire Princess, was bred by Enos Weaver. Owned by Country Club Aces, Joelyn Ridder, Mark Kantrowitz and Scott Davis, Seafire now has $225,210 in lifetime earnings with seven victories this season in 11 starts.

There were also three $30,000 open events held on the under card at Scioto. Alexa Skye (Noble) took the filly and mare open pace in her 100th lifetime start in 1:50.2. The 7-year-old mare by Somebeachsomewhere is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. for owners by Let It Ride and Odds On Racing. Her 31st lifetime win pushed her earnings to $581,419. Flemsteen (Smith) overcame an early miscue to take the open trot in 1:53. The 6-year-old gelded son by Explosive Matter is co-owned by trainer Chris Beaver, Bill Manes and RBH Ventures and now has 25 wins in 104 lifetime starts and $582,275 in earnings. Noble and Morgan, Jr. teamed up again to take the open pace with Chase H Hanover in 1:49.4. The 6-year-old gelded son of Somebeachsomewhere is owned by Odds On Racing and Carl Howard. Chase H Hanover has 28 wins in 91 lifetime starts and $1,027,676 in lifetime earnings.

The 90-day 2024 Eldorado Scioto Downs race meet runs through Saturday (Sept. 14). Races are held Tuesday-Saturday with a first post of 5:45 p.m. each day, except for Friday (Sept. 13) which will have a 6:15 p.m. post to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale. More information about racing at Scioto can be found on the Eldorado Scioto Downs website.

Vernissage Grif joins $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot field

The field for the $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot continues to take shape and on Monday (Aug. 19) Yonkers Raceway officially announced the addition of Vernissage Grif as a second Italian representative.

Vernissage Grif is a very accomplished son of Varenne with 43 wins from 133 career starts and earnings over 1.5 million Euros. The 10-year-old has competed in many of Europe's most prestigious races in recent years versus the best trotters of his era.

Most recently on Aug. 15, Vernissage Grif easily won an elimination of the Gran Premio Citta di Montecatini but was disqualified due to interference in the first turn and did not get an opportunity to compete in the final. Prior to that in early May, the Alessandro Gocciadoro trainee won an elimination for the Gran Premio Lotteria at Agnano in Naples only to make a break in the final, which was won by fellow MGM Yonkers International Trot participant Capital Mail.

Gocciadoro finished third in the 2023 MGM Yonkers International Trot driving Bengurion Jet and also won as a trainer with stablemate Vivid Wise As, who will be unable to defend his title due to health concerns. The Italian driver will be in the bike behind Vernissage Grif for owner Gennaro Riccio.

Vernissage Grif joins Jiggy Jog, Hail Mary and Castor The Star (Sweden), Capital Mail (Italy), and Get A Wish (Denmark) as starters in the Sept. 7 event. Additional horses for the 1¼-mile race will be announced in the coming days.

The $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot will be the centerpiece of a spectacular afternoon card (12:15 p.m. EDT post time) that also features a pair of $250,000 invitationals for older horses and the $1.8 million finals of the New York Sire Stakes.

Redwood Hanover upsets in $200,000 Prix d'Ete

With one of the gutsiest performances of his career, 14-1 Redwood Hanover (Stay Hungry) and driver Jonathan Drury wore down Huntinthelastdolar (Doug McNair) in the stretch to capture the $200,000 Prix d'Ete for 4-year-old pacers Sunday (Aug. 18) at the Hippodrome 3R (H3R) in Trois-Rivieres, QC.

It was the 33rd edition of the Prix d'Ete, which was last held four years ago at H3R.

The 10th race feature got underway with El Rey (Louis-Philippe Roy) firing out to the early lead with race favorite It's My Show (James MacDonald) flying on the outside and taking the lead after an eye-opening first quarter mile in :26.1.

It's My Show led the field to the half mile in :55.3 with Huntinthelastdolar coming first-over and Redwood Hanover second-over. As they raced down the backstretch, It's My Show began to fade as Huntinthelastdolar took command and Redwood Hanover and Drury continued first-over as they passed the three-quarters in 1:24.2.

Those two then hooked up racing neck and neck around the final turn and down the stretch until Redwood Hanover wore down Huntinthelastdolar and won by 1¼ lengths in 1:52.2. Huntinthelastdolar was second with No Control (Jody Jamieson) third.

It was the fastest mile of the year at H3R and the second win on the season for Redwood Hanover.

The stallion is trained by Anthony Beaton, who co-owns him with Mac Nichol-Mckinlay & Fielding and David Mercer. He paid $30.90 to win.

"He really raced good in his last start at Mohawk," said Drury. "And I know he has a big kick. I just need them to rough it up a bit, which they did and things worked out in our favor.

"When they started to clear in the backstretch," Drury said. "I still had a ton of horse. So, I figured we could give him [Huntinthelastdolar] a good run to the finish. My horse was covered up enough to be able to get the job done. I felt good coming off the last turn."

Track Notes: Roy led all drivers with four winners on the day and Denis St Pierre had a driving double. The total handle for the afternoon was $321,019, just $2,400 under the record handle day set in 2023. Live racing resumes at H3R Friday (Aug. 23) at 4 pm. Featured will be the third and final preliminary round of the Future Stars Series for 2-year-old trotting colts and fillies. ## Online catalog now available for London Classic Yearling Sale

The catalog for the third edition of the London Classic Yearling Sale (LCYS) has now been posted online at www.londonclassic.ca. A total of 257 yearlings are scheduled to go through the sale ring on Tuesday (Oct. 15) and Wednesday (Oct. 16) at the Western Fair District Agriplex in London.

This year's offering is the deepest to date and includes offspring of exciting first-crop stallions such as the sport's fastest performer Bulldog Hanover, Breeders Crown champion Century Farroh and Hambletonian winner Captain Corey. New stallions, Cattlewash and Green Manalishi, will be the most well represented with plenty of selection from other Canadian stalwarts such as All Bets Off, Archangel, Bettors Delight, Dancin Lou, Big Jim, Muscle Mass, Sportswriter, Shadow Play and Sunshine Beach to name a few.

The catalogs will be mailed out in early September and an online version will also be available on the EquineLine app. Videos will be posted on both the sale website and EquineLine closer to sale time as they are received.

Those attending the sale in person are reminded that partner hotels offer a special LCYS rate during the sale. Visitors are also invited out for dinner and live racing following day 1 of the sale as the Top Of The Fair will feature a buffet-style menu with a special discount for those attending the sale. For more information or to order catalogs, visit www.londonclassic.ca.
