Full Marks as fractional owners win Gold Cup and Saucer

Sintra and Anthony MacDonald triumph in Charlottetown.

Prince Edward Island

Hot fractions are always part of the Gold Cup and Saucer, Atlantic Canada's most prestigious race. In the 63rd edition, contested Saturday night (Aug. 20) at Red Shores Charlottetown Driving Park, winner Sintra (Mach Three–Dancin Barefoot) equalled the track record of 1:50.1h, closing in a field's-fastest :27.3 last quarter for the going-away victory. His driver, Anthony MacDonald, is also co-founder of TheStable.ca, which set out to popularize a fractional ownership model for standardbred racehorses in 2015. The win brought MacDonald his first driving victory in the covered Gold Cup final, with a horse acquired for the purpose: Sintra is owned by TheStable.ca Sintra Group, which celebrated the fractionally-owned pacer's third 2022 win Saturday night.

Sintra (p, 4, 1:47.2m; $1,275,464) earned his place in the final by capturing his Gold Cup Trial (elimination) on Aug. 13 for Anthony's brother, O'Brien Driver of the Year James MacDonald. The 1:50.3h effort suggested that a chance to break Ys Lotus' track record (1:50.1, set in the 57th Gold Cup final) was possible in the 2022 final, which welcomed back fans and bettors en masse for the first time following two years of COVID-19 restrictions. With title sponsor Atlantic Lotto elevating the purse to $100,000 (CDN) this year, plus a "Break the Track Record" incentive of $5,000 offered by sponsor Warren Ellis and family of Summerside Chrysler Dodge, a fast, competitive race was ensured.

Gail MacDonald

It was a popular, first-time Gold Cup and Saucer victory for MacDonald, a Charlottetown native.

Sintra wasn't a sure thing, however. He had drawn trailing post #9 and was sent off as 9-5 second choice at post time, with Trial #3 winner Patrikthepiranha A (Wally Hennessey/Melissa Beckwith) the 6-5 favorite. But Sintra's trip worked out perfectly, as an early speed duel between Ideal Perception (Austin Sorrie/Anthony Beaton) and Patrikthepiranha A took a toll on both. MacDonald said good luck and good advice helped him put 9-year-old veteran Sintra (2017 O'Brien Older Pacing Horse of the Year) in position to do what he does best.

"I think the racing gods actually looked favorably on me, because I'm usually the one mixing it up," he told reporters in the winner's circle, post-race. "It's just as well that I wasn't on the gate. The first thing that both [brother drivers] Mark and James [MacDonald] said to me was, 'Follow the #3 out and don't worry. Let them fight it out.'" As predicted, they did. And Sintra did the rest, earning his driver's respect and a victorious fist pump going down the stretch by a widening five-and-a-half open lengths.

"This guy [Sintra], as soon as he smells any sort of weakness, he just switches gears," said an appreciative MacDonald. "I truly believe this horse probably enjoyed that race as much as I did. He's been through a lot. He's an older horse. But in the post parade, you can tell, he's not getting wound up, he's soaking it all in. And he truly loves the spotlight almost as much as I do."

TheStable.ca's Anthony and Amy MacDonald say the victory was a big one for fractional ownership.

MacDonald praised trainers Jamie "Smitty" Smith and Harry Poulton for their work getting Sintra ready for his quickest-ever win on a half-mile track, and paid special tribute to TheStable.ca's Sintra group, several members of which traveled to Red Shores CDP from outside the province. Winning the coveted trophy with a fractionally-owned pacer was particular highlight for the self-effacing TheStable.ca co-founder.

"When you have so many people who are committed to buying and acquiring and racing good horses—really, horses of any kind, but good horses especially—it's only a matter of time, and I hope that a lot of people in this industry understand exactly what it took to win the Gold Cup and Saucer, especially from a mediocre driver's standpoint."

Top trotters impressed at Vincennes

by Thomas Hedlund

Enghien recently closed its summer meeting and neighbor track Vincennes opened up for some great races on Saturday (Aug. 20) and it was the 3-, 4- and 5-years-old that were in focus.

In the $120,000 Prix Phaeton, Thierry Duvaldestin's 4-year-old Idao de Tillard (Severino) was outstanding after being served a perfect second over trip by Clement Duvaldestin. Idao de Tillard won in a mile rate of 1:53.1 over 1.3 miles, which was a new stakes record.

In the $120,000 Prix Paul Leguerney for 4-year-old mares, Eric Raffin drove Inoublable (Prodigious) and from a spot in sixth over, the mare finished strongly to safe win in mile rate 1:55.2 over 1.3 miles.

The 3-year-old colts battled in the $120,000 Prix Abel Bassigny over 1.3 miles and charismatic trotter Just A Gigolo (Boccador de Simm) hit the lead with a kilometer remaining. Franck Nivard drove Philippe Allaire's trotter and from the lead he could control the field all the way home. The mile rate was 1:56.2.

Fabrice Souloy-trained Jamaica Turbo (Charly du Noyer) impressed after a tough trip in the $120,000 Prix Reine du Corta for 3-year-old fillies. Franck Nivard drove the filly and after a three wide attack towards position first over, Jamaica Turbo battled against leader Janka Somolli over the stretch. Just some meters ahead of the wire, she put her nose first and Jamaica Turbo noted a mile rate of 1:57.1 over 1.3 miles.

Allaire could see his 5-year-old Hohneck (Royal Dream) hit the lead at an early stage in the $120,000 Prix Louis Jariel and in front the 5-year-old top trotter was outstanding. Without pressure, Hohneck sprinted to a safe win in a mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles and the road against another participation in Prix d'Amérique (fifth in this year's race) is ahead of him.

BIG SUCCESS FOR TIETZ IN GERMANY

Thorsten Tietz, operating in Berlin, Germany, experienced a great day at work on Sunday (Aug. 21) afternoon, when he drove 4-year-old Days Of Thunder (S.J.'s Caviar) to victory in the prestigious $325,000 German Derby, defeating big favorite Usain Lobell after a trip in the lead.

Tietz sent Days Of Thunder to the lead just as the field was about to turn into the last lap and when first choice Usain Lobell connected on the outside, after a first quarter three wide, Tietz had no plans in letting the lead away to the favorite.

Days Of Thunder seemed eager to trot in the last turn on Berlin's track (right way track) and Usain Lobell never got seriously close to the leader at the stretch.

The 4-year-old S.J.'s Caviar son won safely in a mile rate of 1:55.4 over 1.2 miles. Usain Lobell was runner up ahead of Grand Ready Cash.

S.J.'s Caviar had a successful weekend in Berlin. His daughter Riet Hazelaar, driven by Robin Bakker, was favorite in the $128,000 German Derby for mares on Saturday (Aug. 20) afternoon and the duo came to the lead quite easily whereon the victory became safe after a battle with outside trotter Sunset Boulevard at the stretch.

Riet Hazelaar came home in 1:58.4 over 1.2 miles.

7 AND 6 FOR MELANDER AND RIORDAN

Stefan Melander and Jerry Riordan became the happy winners when the $196,000 E3 finals were held in Örebro, Sweden on Saturday (Aug. 20) afternoon and their training stables reached the seventh and sixth wins in the series for 3-year-olds, respectively.

Stefan Melander has, together with his partner Catarina Lundström, six wins to look back at in E3 finals, the first came in 2001 when Gigant Neo claimed the title over 1.3 miles and on Saturday afternoon, his home bred trotter Following (Nuncio) sprinted to tight win for driver Björn Goop.

Title defender from the earlier E3 final this season, Roger Walmann-trained Bedazzled Sox, had to do the heavy job outside of leader and favorite Corazon Combo and Walmann's horse was not far from hitting the wire as winner. But from behind, Björn Goop got Following running and the Stefan Melander trained, owned and bred trotter tightened the gap increasingly as the wire approached and after a photo, the victory was Following's.

The Nuncio son equaled the stakes record as he won in 1:54, ahead of Bedazzled Sox and Corazon Combo.

Riordan has been successful when it comes to E3 finals and in 2019 he claimed both divisions for colts and geldings as his star trotter Aetos Kronos proved to be the best. In Saturday's final, his strongest weapon was Italian bred Dea Grif (Varenne), who had won an elimination in great style two weeks ahead of the final.

Driver Santtu Raitala served the Varenne filly a perfect second over trip and when the duo attacked 350 meters from the wire, the rest of the field was without chance challenging for the victory. Dea Grif flew to a safe win in 1:55.2 and Riordan put another group 1 win to his resume.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Frank Affrunti and the incentive he needed to pursue his dream

by Chris Lomon

Frank Affrunti views every obstacle as an opportunity.

There have been times, enough of them throughout his standardbred career, where the 33-year-old horseman from Illinois has had to face setbacks, big, small, and anywhere in between.

And each time he's had to navigate those moments, Affrunti has dealt with them in a manner perhaps many others wouldn't have.

Just like the time, early in his driving career, when he received some honest advice from a highly respected trainer.

"When I first started working with George Ducharme, he said, 'You aren't going to drive my horses.' I took that and it put a little chip on my shoulder. I said, 'Well, okay. I'm going to work as hard as I can so that will happen.' He didn't say that with any disrespect, and I respect him so much. What it told me is that I had a lot of work to do, and I was willing to do it. My focus was to keep moving forward and make something of myself. I had patience, I learned a lot from George, earned his trust and respect, and it's been unbelievable."

It was 2013 when Affrunti, a third-generation horseperson, got his wheels in motion, driving in 16 races with a third as his best finish. That same year, he posted his first training win, finishing the campaign with eight starts to his name. After two seasons, 2014-15, of driving in over 100 races, along with some more victories on the training side, Affrunti's appearances in the sulky dwindled.

Working as second trainer to Ducharme, he focused his energies on that role until last year when his driving life took off.

In 2021, Affrunti posted 26 wins and 60 top-three finishes from 149 starts, along with a career-best $174,067 in purse earnings. This year, he's sped past most of those numbers, and is closing in on setting a personal benchmark in earnings.

How he got to this point, that of a regular and in-demand reinsman, is the result of a few factors, topped by one key approach.

"When I first started working with George Ducharme, he said, 'You aren't going to drive my horses.' I took that and it put a little chip on my shoulder. I said, 'Well, okay. I'm going to work as hard as I can so that will happen.' He didn't say that with any disrespect, and I respect him so much. What it told me is that I had a lot of work to do, and I was willing to do it. My focus was to keep moving forward and make something of myself. I had patience, I learned a lot from George, earned his trust and respect, and it's been unbelievable."

Courtesy Frank Affrunti
Frank Affrunti.

"Patience. When I moved out of Chicago in 2017, I went to work for Marcus Johansson and Nancy Johansson (now, Takter). I worked for them for a short time and when I came back to Vernon, I started to work for Dan Daley, and worked for him over the summer, and I've been with George Ducharme since then. My first drive, in a qualifier, I ended up winning it. And I thought, 'Wow, this is kind of fun.' The last couple of years, I've really honed my craft a lot more. I've tried to learn and apply myself as much as I could, to be able to make something of myself."

And he certainly has. Others have taken notice of his talents.

"This year, it's been even better. But I haven't changed my approach. It's about working hard, paying attention to the little details, which make all the difference."

It was something Affrunti learned long before his first pari-mutuel drive and first win.

Watching and learning from his father, Ron Marsh, played a pivotal role in his development. So, too, did seeing his mother, Angie Affrunti, work tirelessly to become a highly successful trainer.

"It's what I've always known and what my family has always been part of. So, I grew up around it. My dad is a Hall of Fame driver, and my mom is an accomplished trainer. The earliest memories I have is going around the Chicago circuit and watching my dad drive. There is a nice state fair in Springfield, so it was great to always go there and see the 2-year-olds, and which of them were going to be good ones.

"I don't know if I ever got the bug because I was in it from such an early age. I was always around the barn and that's where I've always been the happiest. I'd rather skip school and come in to be around the horses. No matter how bad a day you're having, you come by and be with the horses, it's very therapeutic. They're always listening and never talk back. You can't complain about that. It's an amazing lifestyle. But you have to be very dedicated."

Affrunti is just that.

Making mental notes about each horse he works with has been a longtime philosophy.

"My mom had a real nice horse a few years back called Firstclassallthway. I learned a lot from him, seeing the result of a horse being on a good program, working on the needs that he had and ailments. He ended up being an Invitational pacer for my mother in Chicago. He was a really nice horse to be around and learn from. I also had a chance to sit behind Kissin In The Sand, which was amazing. She was really cool. I learned a lot from her too. I've also been lucky to sit behind some of George's nice horses too. My favorite one here in the barn would be Chatelroll. He was horse of the year in 2021 at Vernon. I won a lot of opens with him. It's like he's shot out of a cannon. When you tell him to go, he goes."

And, in a certain way, so does Affrunti.

That conversation, the one he had early on in his standardbred life, it ended up being a just the type of motivation an aspiring horseman needed.

"I remember it clearly when George said I might want to focus on training and not driving. It's a humbling experience when someone says that. But I thought to myself, 'Why can't I?' And it pushed me. It's blossomed from there. I drive for him now and we have great conversations about the horses, what approach we should have, things like that. He gives me full reign with his horses at Vernon. When it comes to the Sires Stakes, it's the bigger name drivers who get the call, and I'm fine with that. I'll get there one day."

The avid golfer also might get to one of racing's most celebrated events too.

"I guess the ultimate goal, which is probably everyone's, is to win The Hambletonian. I don't need to win it driving, but I'd love to have a horse in it one day, and to say I've done that. It's a tough race to win, but it's attainable."

A big hurdle, no doubt, but one Affrunti will gladly jump at.

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Curtis Salonick

Bond (Sarah Svanstedt) won her Pennsylvania Sires Stakes test for freshman trotting fillies on Sunday at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono in a lifetime best 1:54.2.

Bond wins duel with Fashion Annie on Sunday at Pocono

by PHHA / Pocono

They turned for home in a $74,435 division of a Pennsylvania Sire Stake for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Sunday (Aug. 21) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, and the two favorites were battling – the one with the driver with 14 lifetime wins in North America on the lead, the one with the driver with 12,982 wins coming on.

And it was the pacesetter, the Southwind Frank–Boccone Dolce freshman trotting filly Bond, driven by Sarah Svanstedt, who held off Fashion Annie, driven by Tim Tetrick, storming home in :27.4 to take a new lifetime mark of 1:54.2.

The two had met in a Kindergarten race the night before the Hambletonian, and it was Fashion Annie, challenging from the pocket, who was able to catch Bond by a nose, possibly explaining her 3-5 favoritism to Bond's 7-5. But on Sunday, Bond was able to get to the lead after a :27.1 quarter and crucially had Fashion Annie have to tuck in third, which made that filly have to come that much further to reach Bond while Svanstedt was able to back off the middle fractions to :56.4 and 1:26.3. Fashion Annie has early and late speed, but so does Bond, and in the sprint home Sunday Bond was able to edge off late to win by a length.

Trained by Åke Svanstedt and owned by Åke Svanstedt Inc., Little E LLC, and L Berg Inc., Bond now has three wins and two seconds in five career starts, and she is the only filly in either of the PA-sired groupings to have two victories through three prelims (the final one is next Sunday at Philly). As for Sarah Svanstedt, she ran her driving record at Pocono to 7-for-9 on the season.

Don't feel bad for Tim Tetrick, though. Fast approaching the 13,000 career win milestone (the seventh North American to that milestone), Tetrick won the other Sires division with a daughter of Father Patrick, who had four stakes siring wins, and a Stallion Series division to give Southwind Frank two stakes-successful daughters on the card.

In the other PASS cut, worth $74,035, Tetrick drove Vanessa J (dam Evelyn) to her second stakes victory in but four career outings, adding to her win in a PA All-Stars race here by lowering her mark to 1:56.1. Vanessa J sat in the pocket while Gina's On Fire, stepping up off a StS win, set fractions of :27.3, :57.3, and 1:26.3, then went to the Pocono Pike, trotted to the lead, then held off the onrush of 31-1 shot Flares Ziva by a half-length. Vanessa J is owned and trained by Lucas Wallin, a fellow who has had some success pairing with Tetrick.

In the Stallion Series action, which went for $20,000 in each of five divisions, Tetrick won with the Southwind Frank–Cruella De Ville filly Lie In Wait, who broke her maiden with a 1:57.2 victory for Runthetable Stables and trainer Jim Campbell – another trainer with whom Tetrick has some history of teaming well. (By the way, the spelling in 101 Dalmatians was Cruella De Vil.)

Two of the Father Patrick Stallion Series winners also were taking maiden marks. They were Lindys Irishcream (dam Gin And Lindy), who closed hard off cover for a 1:56.3 victory, fastest in the Stallion races, for driver Mark MacDonald, trainer Jessica Fallon, and owners Tim Klemancic and Blake MacIntosh; and the 1:57 winner Heaven Hanover (dam Hillarmbro), driven by the meet's leading driver Matt Kakaley, owned by S R F Stable, Rick Wahlstreet, Heights Stable, and AMG Stable Inc., and trained by Marcus Melander, who had a great weekend at Pocono with the big victories of Joviality S and Temporal Hanover a day earlier.

The other daughter of Father Patrick to win in the Stallion races, Jameson N Lime (dam Lindy On The Rocks) generated enough stretch kick to reduce her mark to 1:56.4 while winning the fifth race of her young career for driver Brady Brown, trainer Steve Schoeffel, and owners Virginia and Kathy Schoeffel, Big L Stable, and Mary Owlett. The other StS winner was the Donato Hanover–Sweetsixteenkarets miss Sweet On Her, who cut a slow half then sprinted home to win in 1:58.3 for trainer/driver Wilbur Yoder and owner Bob Troyer.

Although a winner of an Arden Downs division, Sweet On Her still paid $48.00 to win. That wasn't the biggest-priced winner of the night, though – that honor belonged to What The Luck, who swept home off a contested pace to win in 1:52 while returning $50.40.

That horse's winning driver? Some guy named Tim Tetrick.

A week from Monday, Labor Day, Sept. 5, the track will play host to $320,000 Pennsylvania Stallion Series Championship action for all eight divisions. Program pages for all Pocono races are or will be available at www.phha.org/downsmppps.html.

Pleaseletmeknow, Seven Hundred, and River Ness nab NYSS wins at Tioga

by John Horne for Vernon Downs

Tioga Downs played host to three divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings on Sunday (Aug. 21).

Pleaseletmeknow (Matt Kakaley) cruised to an easy win in the $39,233 first division.

Twin B Deluxe (Jason Bartlett) led to the first quarter in :27.1. Pleaseletmeknow ($4.20) took over with a circuit to go. All About The Hunt (Jordan Stratton) came first-up to challenge as Pleaseletmeknow led to the half in :55.2. The two pacers continued to battle all the way down the back stretch. Pleaseletmeknow led to three-quarters in 1:22.2.

As they made the turn for home All About The Hunt went on a break and Pleaseletmeknow just jogged home in a lifetime best of 1:50.3. JD (Mark MacDonald) was second best. Huntanover (Tyler Buter) finished third.

Pleaseletmeknow is a gelding by American Ideal. He is owned by Fiddler's Creek Stables and trained by Travis Alexander. It was his seventh win this season. He now has 10 career victories.

Seven Hundred (Jordan Stratton) won the $38,533 second division.

Kingsville (Jason Bartlett) darted out to the front and led to the quarter in :27.2. He slowed things down using a :29.3 second quarter to be first to the half in :57.0. Syracuse Express (Mike Merton) was first to challenge as they headed for the final turn. Kingsville led to three-quarters in 1:24.1.

As they made the turn for home Seven Hundred ($8.20) came all out after Kingsville and wore him down in deep stretch to get the win in a lifetime best of 1:51.4. Kingsville had to settle for second. Top Genius (Marcus Miller) finished third.

Seven Hundred is a colt by Huntsville. He is owned by Rick Berks and trained by Jake Leamon. It was his fourth win of 2022. He now has six career victories.

River Ness (Jordan Stratton) was a gate-to-wire winner in the $39,233 third division.

Fred Brown

Pleaseletmeknow (Matt Kakaley) cruised to an easy win in the $39,233 first division of the New York Sires Stakes for sophomore pacing colts on Sunday at Tioga Downs.

River Ness ($3.20) was first to the quarter in :27.3. He used a :29 second quarter and led to the half in :56.3. He cruised to three-quarters in 1:24.4.

As they reached the stretch second place finisher The Claw (Aaron Byron) made a late bid but could only watch as River Ness won in 1:53.1. Roll With The Flow (Jim Taggart Jr) was third.

River Ness is a gelding by Huntsville. Rob Burke trains for owners Burke Racing Stable & Weaver Brusceci, J&T Silva-Purnell&Libby, and Frank Baldachino. It was his third win this season and his fourth career victory.

Hurrikane Hunter ties track mark in NYSS win

by Kimberly Winston

Monday afternoon (Aug. 22) was the curtain call for the York Sire Stakes at Monticello Raceway in 2022 and the best was saved for last as Hurrikane Hunter came from off the pace to score in a record equalling mile of 1:54.2. He tied the record Forrest Blu set last season for 2-year-old pacing geldings.

The first leg of Sire Stakes was a five-horse contest worth $52,500 following the late scratch of American Fling. Johnny Slack was first away from the gate and had the lead until just before the opening stanza, when Huntinthelastdolar popped out of the two hole for the lead in :29.1. Brian Sears, aboard Duval Street, had a ton of horse and tipped to the outside just past the half in :59.1 and was on the outside grinding away as he hit the next panel in 1:28.2. Heading into the paddock and final turn, Duval Street had a slim lead on the pacesetter, but Huntinthelastdolar threw down a last quarter of :27 for enough separation for the win over a determined Duval Street in 1:55.2, just a tick off his lifetime best. It was the second NYSS win for the son of Huntsville, who is owned by Steve L. Heimbecker and trainer Gregg McNair. He was driven to the win by Doug McNair.

The second heat was drawn with five starters, but the late scratch of the early morning line favorite It's A Me Mario trimmed it to four. Bandito Joe never made it to the gate for Jordan Stratton. Mark Macdonald was first away from the gate aboard Kid From The Bronx and set fractions of :27.4, :57, 1:26.1. Hurrikane Hunter was sitting third when he pulled to the outside and was aside Kid From The Bronx in the paddock turn. Once they straightened out and headed for home, he was able to clear and extend his lead to two lengths in the stretch for the record-tying win in 1:54.2. Kid From The Bronx finished second, followed by Southwind Tito.

It was the first pari-mutuel win for Hurrikane Hunter, who is trained by John McDermott.

Sons of Huntsville swept the card, winning all NYSS events.

Brower captures the inaugural Meadowlands Battle of the Masterminds

It was a hard fought battle, but in the end, track odds maker and TV host Dave Brower took the inaugural Meadowlands Battle of the Masterminds, which ran from June 3 to August 5.

Brower finished the 22-day battle with an $11,565 bankroll raising $1,000 for his selected charity CBH Care.

Marketing coordinator and TV talent, Jessica Otten grabbed second place with $9,035 earning $500 for New Vocations.

Dave Little, Meadowlands TV host came in third place with $8,441.60 raising $250 for the Standardbred Retirement Foundation.

The newest member of the broadcast team, Edison Hatter, came in fifth place with $5,034.10. He raised $250 for his charity the Purple Haze Standardbred Adoption Program.

The Battle also gave 23 lucky patrons (due to a tie on July 1) a chance to win a $10,000 grand prize via a reverse drawing. Heather Jones of Lodi, NJ was the grand prize-winner selected on Hambletonian Day.

"I am speechless," Jones stated after hearing her name called. "This is amazing, you never think you can win a big prize and then this happens."

The Meadowlands thanks everyone for following the Battle of the Masterminds on social media and on the nightly broadcast. The Battle will return in 2023 for the Championship Meet.

Peter Grandich and company teams up with Freehold Raceway with several sports celebrities as special guests

Peter Grandich and Company is pleased to announce that the firm will be sponsoring five special races this fall at Freehold Raceway. In addition to the special races and celebrity guests, the events will also include the raising of funds and awareness for several worthy organizations.

"Having first visited in the late 70s as a racing fan, and then as a racehorse owner, Freehold Raceway has provided me and so many others with what has been known for decades as the Afternoon Delight," said Peter Grandich, managing member of Peter Grandich & Company. "The ability to help others while enjoying the sport of harness racing is a true blessing for my wife and me."

The first event that Peter Grandich and Company will be sponsoring is the Halfway To St. Patrick's Day Race on Saturday, Sept. 17. The special guest celebrity will be New York Jets legend and Pro Football Hall of Fame finalist, Joe Klecko, and two charities will be recognized at the event. The Blessing Bag Brigade is committed to aiding the homeless and educating the public about homelessness, while HABcore provides homeless families, veterans and special needs individuals with housing, meals and nurturing support.

The next scheduled event will be the 2nd Annual Italian Heritage Drivers Race on Saturday, Oct. 8. Special guests who will be in attendance include New York Rangers fan favorite, Nick Fotiu, and NJ 101.5 radio host, Bill Spadea. The charitable beneficiary will be UNICO National, which is the largest Italian-American service organization in the United States.

Next on the calendar is the 1st Annual Veteran's Day Pace on Friday, Nov. 11. The special celebrity guest will be Ken Daneyko, who is a three-time Stanley Cup winner with the New Jersey Devils. Fundraising efforts will benefit Operation Beachhead and Vetwork, two organizations that support our veterans.

Following up that event will be the 3rd Annual Turkey Trot Race on Friday, Nov. 25, which is the day after Thanksgiving. Together with Freehold Raceway, monetary and food donations will be collected that day to benefit Freehold Area Open Door, an interfaith agency that has been providing emergency food, funding, mentoring and scholarships to those in need from the Freehold area since 1987. Special guests include two-time Stanley Cup champion and New Jersey Devils alumnus, Grant Marshall, along with 14-year NHL Veteran, Adam Burt, who is now the Chaplain for the New York Jets.

The final event of this fall series will take place on Saturday, Dec. 10, as Peter Grandich and Company sponsors a Toys for Tots Race where Freehold Raceway will be collecting monetary and toy donations for children in need. Since its inception, Marine Toys For Tots, has distributed more than 627 million toys, books and games to over 281 million children. The special guest celebrity for this afternoon event will be New York Giants Super Bowl hero, David Tyree.

"Freehold Raceway has had a longstanding association with both Freehold Area Open Door and Toys for Tots," said Howard Bruno, general manager of Freehold Raceway. "We look forward to supporting them again along with all the organizations receiving funds from these events. We are grateful to Peter Grandich for his sponsorship and coordination which will benefit many worthwhile causes."

Meadowlands horseplay car giveaway benefits fans and charities

Anthony Paterno of Wallington, NJ walked away with a 2022 Toyota Corolla LE as the grand prizewinner of Meadowlands Racetrack's Horseplay promotion.

From Friday, May 6 through Friday, Aug. 5, Horseplay participants attempted to throw their numbered horse into the window of a moving car. A winner, randomly chosen from all the horses that make it into the car, received a $100 betting voucher. Each night's winner was entered into a grand prize drawing to win the brand new 2022 Toyota Corolla LE on, Friday, August 5th.

Paterno, a loyal Meadowlands customer, comes out to the track every weekend with his sons.

"I can't believe it," Paterno said after his name was drawn. "My wife's air conditioning just broke in her car so the kids will be excited to get a car with working air again."

For every horse that made it into the Horseplay car, Meadowlands Racetrack donated $5 to the designated monthly charity and $5 to Purple Haze Standardbred Adoption Program. For the 2022 season, a total of $6,860 was donated to four charities.

The May donation recipient was the ACT Now Foundation who received $700. This not-for profit organization, works tirelessly to raise awareness, advocate and educate New Jersey about Alzheimer's disease, prevention, and early detection. Bluemont Sanctuary received $950 as the June charity recipient. The sanctuary's mission is to rescue, rehab and foster equines, minis and donkeys. The July/August charity recipient, Allaire Community Farm, earned $1,780. The farm has a mission of rescuing animals to rescue people of all ages. Their focus population is special needs individuals, teens with mental health issues and local families battling cancer in our community. The Purple Haze Standard Adoption Program received $3,430 over the three-month promotion.

Since 2015, Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment has donated nearly $50,000 to local charities through Horseplay.
