Caviart Camden equals 1:48.3 world record

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Tony Alagna trainee Caviart Camden, who has had a run of bad luck with an interference break in round one and then a sick scratch from round two, came firing in the third $40,000 round of the Kentucky Championship Series to topple current star Pebble Beach with a world-record-equalling 1:48.3 mile on Tuesday (Aug. 24) at the Red Mile.

Pebble Beach, coming into the race having won in the first two preliminaries, swept to the top from third following a :28.2 first quarter and sizzled the teletimer to a :54.3 half and 1:21.2 three-quarters. All the while, Caviart Camden sat in fourth until driver Yannick Gingras steadily pulled the Huntsville colt from the pylons swinging for the homestretch.

Though Pebble Beach kept the speed hot in the straightaway, Caviart Camden kicked for the finish with a :26.1 final quarter to nab victory at the beam by a neck to equal the overall fastest mile ever by a 2-year-old, set first by filly Warrawee Ubeaut in Lexington in 2018 and matched the following year by stablemate and gelding Elver Hanover.

Caviart Camden's 1:48.3 performance broke the world record for a 2-year-old pacing colt of 1:49 set by Sweet Lou at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 2011 and equaled by Downbytheseaside at The Red Mile in 2016.

Wolfrax rallied in the stretch to take third, 1-1/4 lengths behind the winner, while holding off a late bid from River Ness to the finish.

A homebred for Caviart Farms, Caviart Camden won his third race from five starts, earning $43,200. He paid $19.60 to win.

single file to a :56.4 half and into the final turn until Dont Fence Me In ranged out of the pocket to take a shot at the pacesetter. Boudoir Hanover tracked her stablemate's move circling into the stretch and came charging quickest of all, sliding three-quarter lengths ahead of Dont Fence Me In with a :25.1 sprint to the finish. Sloopy gave chase from third, five lengths behind, while Captains Princess raced in the rear and took fourth.

Owned by Riverview Racing LLC, Alagna Racing LLC, Caviart Farms and D Plouffe and S Head, Boudoir Hanover broke her maiden in her fifth start while pushing her bankroll to $35,600. The Captaintreacherous filly paid $10.00 to win.

Queen Of Success ($2.10) led the winners of the two $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for 2-year-old pacing fillies with a 1:51.3 effort for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Alagna. Kentukylady ($13.60) registered slightly behind when winning the other division, taking a nose decision in a time of 1:51.4 in rein to Andy Miller for trainer Jack Gray Jr.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

How $10 per morning turned into a career for Carlin Savage

The young horsewoman started working as a groom for her grandfather, Ron Savage, and now trains a 10-horse stable with her boyfriend Ed Gannon Jr.

by Chris Lomon

It was a harness racing offer a young Carlin Savage couldn't refuse.

A couple of years before she reached the teenage ranks, the young girl from Salisbury, MD, gladly accepted a job working mornings for her grandfather at a standardbred barn.

Working with horses, plus a good wage, made the decision to accept the gig rather easy.

"My grandfather, Ron Savage, was in racing forever," she said. "He had horses throughout the '70s and '80s. He eventually got out of it, but one of his older owners sent him horse, basically to give him something to do. The horse was a little mare. My grandfather hired me to work for him for $10 a morning, six days a week. I guess that's basically where it started. I really enjoyed that whole experience."

She might not have known it then, but she had already caught the standardbred racing bug.

"I've been around horses my whole life. I've been riding since I was seven and I rode throughout college. The harness side of it, I was probably 11 when I worked alongside my grandfather. When you make $10 a morning, that's big money when you're a kid. And when you are around the horses, you really develop a connection with each one."

Just like Savage did on those $10 mornings.

Although the horse, Imsuchagrrrrlygrl, didn't have much of a racing career, the daughter of Real Desire proved to be a life changer for a young girl who was becoming more and more enamored with the standardbred world.

"She raced at the Pocomoke Fair (Maryland) and finished second. For a young kid, that's an amazing thing to see."

For someone wondering what they would do for a living, it was an eye-opening moment, to say the least.

Soon, the answer became crystal clear.

"My grandfather made the decision to buy two yearlings," said Savage. "My dad [Ed Savage] fell in love with racing too and I came on board, just a little bit, helping as a groom. Girlfriend Bash, the first horse I owned – I actually still own her – was a high school graduation gift from my grandfather. When that happened, I was kind of hooked."

"I was still grooming and paddocking for my dad throughout college. I went to the racetrack when I could. When I got out of school, I went to work with my dad full-time. That's when I got my trainer's license. I stayed with my dad for two or three years, and was traveling to Delaware a lot more with the horses. Once he got out of racing, I decided to stay involved."

These days, Savage is working alongside her boyfriend, trainer Ed Gannon Jr.

Her role encompasses a little bit of everything.

"We've been together as a couple and in racing for four years this winter. He's the head trainer, so I guess I would be considered the second trainer. We have 10 horses. I own two of them, he owns two of them and the rest are other owners."

Their relationship, working and otherwise, is strong.

The key to that happiness, noted Savage, is enjoying their time together outside of racing and also getting the most of their time spent apart.

"It's nice because you get to see each other a lot. If you were dating someone outside of the industry, it could be tough because you'd never see one another because of what we do and the lifestyle we live. But it also works because on any given day, one of us could be on the road going to place like Chester, while the other one stays put. It gives each of us a few hours of having our own time, a chance to relax and unwind by yourself. We make it work."

Horse talk, at least on the home front, is kept to a minimum.

"We try to leave work at the barn. When we're away from the races, it's home life. We try not to talk about the horses too much. We try not to let it control our life – that's the best way to put it. You can't let it control your life because if you do, it will in a heartbeat."

Their competitive ways do come out on occasion. A prime example of that came not too long ago.

"We're big movie people, so we'll go to the movies when we can. We don't get a lot of time off, but we do try to get away on vacation for a week each year. Friends of ours have a pool and a boat, so we love doing that. During the summer, there's a place down the road that has ice cream, and there's a mini-golf course. And yes, we are 100 per cent competitive with another in anything we do outside of racing."

Fortunately, it's a trait that continues to serve Savage and Gannon well, both individually, and collectively, when it comes to their horses.

As for those horses, Savage is grateful to be around them every day, much like she was when she had that $10-a-morning gig.

"I do take pride in what I do. I take pride in caring for all of my horses and making sure they are treated well and with respect, and in how they look and feel. That's very important to me. If they don't look good or feel good, I take that very personally. The horses mean the world to me."

That group would include Girlfriend Bash.

"She raced until she was nine and she made over $100,000. I'm so grateful for her. She was like a guinea pig for me. She taught me so much. She taught me how to train, how to jog, and how to do so many things. She had a colt last year and he'll be broke this year. That will be another great adventure."

One of many she's already had and certainly one of many more to come.

"I'm happy with how everything has turned out. I'm very grateful for all of it."

Third OSS Gold win for Bulldog Hanover produces a puzzle for Darling

by Sandra Snyder / OSS publicity

Bulldog Hanover scored his third Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series win at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday (Aug. 21), beating five rivals to the wire in a personal best 1:49.

Sent off the favourites in the lone $154,800 3-year-old pacing colt Gold division, driver Jody Jamieson eased Bulldog Hanover away from Post 2 and settled in fourth as Century Heineken led the field to a :26.4 opening quarter. Second Bruiser made a move to the front heading by the :53.4 half and soon after Jamieson had Bulldog Hanover on the move. Second Bruiser reached the three-quarters in 1:21.2 with Bulldog Hanover and Desperate Man looming in the outer lane. The stretch battle came down to Bulldog Hanover and Desperate Man, with the fan favourite prevailing by one-half length in 1:49. Desperate Man settled for second and pocket-sitter Century Heineken was two lengths back in third. (replay here: Bulldog Hanover) spinning his wheels again on the track, kind of like he was up at Georgian,” said trainer Jack Darling. “So I am a little bit puzzled right now, what’s causing that. We might have to do a little bit of shoeing adjustments, but he raced big, first-over.

“He’s just one of those horses, he obviously wasn’t, for some reason, getting over the track like he should, but he still pulled it off. He’s just that kind of horse.”

Darling shares ownership of Bulldog Hanover with Brad Grant of Milton, ON.

Last year’s Super Final champion, Bulldog Hanover has been bested twice in six starts this season. The first came in his June 12 sophomore debut at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the second in the July 25 Gold Series Leg at Georgian Downs. The colt seemed to struggle around the turns on the Georgian Downs five-eighths mile before sprinting home in :27.3 to finish third behind Desperate Man and Lawless Shadow.

“(Jamieson) said he wasn’t bad, but there was a little something. He just wasn’t quite keeping up the way he normally was. He’s good and sound and everything, so I’ll just make a few adjustments and hopefully get it ironed out,” said Darling. “Everything is just a guess right now, but he was sharp as a tack warming up, he was sharper than he ever was tonight warming up. There’s always something in this business.”

Provided Darling can sort things out, Bulldog Hanover is slated to make his next start in the Somebeachsomewhere stake at Woodbine Mohawk Park this Saturday (Aug. 28). After that, the son of Shadow Play and BJs Squall is eligible to the Pepsi North America Cup, with eliminations on Sept. 4 and the final Sept. 11, and the Simcoe Stakes on Sept. 18. The 3-year-old pacing colts return to Gold Series action on Sept. 25 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Many of Bulldog Hanover’s peers will be joining him in open stake action over the coming weeks, including Lawless Shadow, who skipped Saturday’s Gold event to head south and win the $300,000 Max C. Hempt Memorial at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono. Another son of Shadow Play, Lawless Shadow controlled the tempo in the Saturday afternoon contest and dug in down the stretch to record a 1:48.2 victory over a field of American-bred colts. Driver Mark MacDonald was reunited with The Meadowlands Pace winner for trainer Dr. Ian Moore of Cambridge, ON and his co-owners R G McGroup Ltd. of Bathurst, NB, Serge Savard of St. Bruno, QC and Frank Cannon of Sanford, FL.

Wiest Stables LLC share ownership with Ed Kimmel.

Global Pandemic was the only stakes favorite to win on Sunday when Yannick Gingras put the Ron Burke trainee on the lead, got a rest to the half, then came home in :57.2 - :28.2 to defeat major danger Kosher Mahoney by two lengths in 1:57.2. Global Pandemic, who had two wins and two seconds in the prelims, is a Cantab Hall colt out of Nicole's Promise, who has five $100G winners from her first seven foals.

The freshmen Sire Stakes championships are Friday, Sept. 3 at

The Meadows; the top dozen point-winners (unofficial standings) are in order: Global Pandemic; Kosher Mahoney; (tie) Parola Hanover and S I P; Keg Stand; Troycen; Nice Guy Eddie; Khal Drogo; (tie) Fiftyfour K and Whiskey Hanover; Donzel Hanover; and Double Deceiver.

On the Stallion Series side, the Donato Hanover–Hollybrook Lane gelding Oh Boy was let go at 5-1 despite having two wins and a second in his prelims to date, probably because he drew the outside post nine. However, the tough gate berth didn't deter him at all: after being hard-used in a :27.4 opener, Oh Boy still powered home a 2¼ length winner in a new mark of 1:57.1. David Miller drove the consistent youngster for trainer Jason Shaw and owner Tammy Carter.

Dribbling Bi broke his maiden in 1:59 in the other StS cut, as the altered son of Cantab Hall–Dream Child was a pocket rocket with a 1¼ length victory for trainer/driver Jeff Gregory and Jesmeral Stable.

All eight Stallion Series championships will be raced at Harrah's Philly on Sunday, Sept. 5; their top dozen (unofficial) point-winners are in order: Oh Boy; Patrick Hanover; Bar Coins; Amour Deaner; Ginger Tree Brad; Bigly; Big Ben Hanover; A One A; Khal Drogo (making these lists in both categories); Moneymatters Devie; (tie) Dribbling Bi and Southwind Caine.

Fashion Frenzie channels his energy into a Gold win

Fashion Frenzie returned to the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) winner's circle at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Monday (Aug. 23), capturing the lone $155,600 3-year-old trotting colt Gold Series division.

Starting from Post 3 in a field of six rivals, driver Louis-Philippe Roy and Fashion Frenzie found themselves three-wide heading into the first turn as Day At The Gym rocketed away from Post 4 and Logan Park also left from Post 2. After Logan Park cleared to the lead Roy opted to press on and Fashion Frenzie clocked the :28 opening quarter and :56.1 half. Publicity Seeker looked Fashion Frenzie in the eye heading by the 1:25.1 three-quarters, but the fan favorite battled all the way down the stretch to earn his second Gold Series win of the season in a personal best 1:53.1. (replay here: Fashion Frenzie)

Lexus Kody closed well for second, edging out pocket-sitter Logan Park, who settled for third. The top three finishers are all by sire Archangel.

"I was a little bit nervous when I saw him three-wide in the first turn, but then he controlled that," said trainer Richard Moreau. "And then the horse (Publicity Seeker) come first-over and I thought, 'Here we go; I'm done. No, I'm still there,' and I held my breath."

Last year's Super Final winner, Fashion Frenzie was also a winner in the sophomore Gold Series season opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 1. He then made an early break and finished fifth in the July 11 leg at Rideau Carleton Raceway and was a hard-closing second in the Aug. 9 leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"He is hyper and game. It is stressful to manage his energy, especially at Mohawk," said Moreau. "He's quiet at the farm, not too bad, he's used to the routine, but once you get to Mohawk... he's maturing, let's put it this way."

"He's not impressive size-wise, but he has a beautiful gait. There's a good reason to get up in the morning and look after this one."

Moreau trains Fashion Frenzie for Ecurie Francis Richard Inc., Pierre Guillemette and Sylvain Richard of Becancour and Mario Bourgea of Stanbridge East, QC. Moreau said Francis Richard, who selected the gelding from the 2019 London Selected Yearling Sale for $7,000 and taught him his early lessons, deserves much of the credit for Fashion Frenzie's success, which has seen him earn just shy of $395,000 to date.

With his growing maturity, Fashion Frenzie's connections are hoping there is more success to come in the trotter's future.

"I think he's the best, he's also getting nicer to drive start after start," said Roy. "I'm excited for the end of the season with him."

In addition to the last Gold Series Leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Oct. 4 and the Oct. 16 Super Final, Fashion Frenzie is eligible to the Goodtimes Trot, with eliminations on Sept. 4 and the final Sept. 11, and the Sept. 18 Canadian Trotting Classic, which will be limited to the 10 horses with the highest lifetime earnings at the time of entry.

Complete results from Monday's races are available here and replays can be viewed on Woodbine Mohawk Park's YouTube channel.

Team Hensley tops in Gold Series action in Ottawa

Ashleigh and Ed Hensley swept the 3-year-old pacing filly Gold Series divisions at Rideau Carleton Raceway on Sunday (Aug. 22) as Jody got her first win at the Ontario Sires Stakes program's top level and Scarlett Hanover earned her third.

First onto the Rideau Carleton oval for Team Hensley was Jody, who lined up at Post 1 in the opening $99,000 Gold division. Leaving well, driver Ed Hensley opted to yield the early lead to Dabarndawgswatchin, who led the field of five to a :26.2 quarter. Hensley soon had Jody on the move however, and the Betterthancheddar daughter was comfortably in command at the :55 half. Jody continued to set the pace through the 1:23 three-quarters and then dug in down the stretch to keep a head in front of Voelz Delight at the 1:52 finish. Fan favorite Western Wish rounded out the top three.

"It was nice because she was up near the front tonight. The last few starts she's been back quite a ways, so she had to make up a lot of ground," said trainer Ashleigh Hensley. "Tonight she was good, and it just worked out."

The win was the filly's fourth of the season and her first in Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) action. In the first three Gold Series Legs, Jody logged a pair of seconds and one fifth, and she currently boasts a point total of 105 and sole ownership of third spot in the division standings.

"She's a really nice looking filly, she's a nice size, she's just a little bit temperamental," said the trainer. "We've only had her for just over a month, so we kind of had to learn her quirks and stuff, because she is kind of a funny mare. We finally got a win with her so that was good."

The Dundas, ON residents were back in the winner's circle six races later with Scarlett Hanover. Starting from Post 5 in the second $99,800 Gold division, Ed Hensley employed a near identical strategy with the fan favorite, sitting third as Best Keepsake rolled out to a :26.4 opening quarter and then taking command. Scarlett Hanover paced by the half in :54.4 and the three-quarters in 1:23.1 before cruising home a one and one-quarter length winner in 1:51.4. Pocket-sitting Game Of Shadows finished second and Best Head West closed well for third.

"Tonight it seemed like she was feeling back to herself, the way she was last year," said Ashleigh Hensley. "She had been racing good so far all season, but she wasn't real sharp and tonight she seemed like she was back to herself, so that was good."

"She's just so professional, everything about her," the trainer added. "Can't say too much bad about her, she just makes us look good."

The win was Scarlett Hanover's third in Gold Series action this season. The Bettors Delight daughter is the reigning division champion, winning one Gold Leg and the Super Final at two, and currently sits atop the standings with 175 points. She will have one more opportunity to pad her lead when the fillies wrap up their regular season at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Sept. 24.

Burke Racing Stable LLC of Fredericktown, PA, Frank Baldachino of Harvey Cedars, NJ, J & T Silva - Purnel & Libby of Delray Beach, FL and Weaver Brusceemi LLC of Canonsburg, PA own both Jody and Scarlett Hanover.

Twin B Sunkissed posted the quickest win of the five $21,450 Grassroots divisions, touring the Rideau Carleton oval in 1:52.3. Starting from Post 6, driver Sylvain Filion settled Twin B Sunkissed in fourth as fan favorite Sweet Pink reeled off fractions of :26.4, 55.4 and 1:24.4. Heading for the three-quarter marker, Filion tipped Twin B Sunkissed out behind Docs Delight and was soon accelerating past the leaders and on to a three length win. Pocket-sitter Andra Day was second and Sweet Pink finished third.

"She raced pretty good last week, but tonight she was even better," said Filion, who guided the Sunshine Beach daughter to a 1:51.3 victory at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 12. "I think she's coming back to herself. She just had a slow start to the year."

Trainer Francis Dumouchel of Embro, ON, Ecurie CSL of Sorel-Tracy and 9174 7998 Quebec Inc. of St-Janvier-Mirabel, QC share ownership of Twin B Sunkissed, who was a Gold Series winner at two and started her sophomore campaign at that level.

Shes Got It All scored her second Grassroots win of the campaign with a 1:53.1 personal best in the second division, reeling in pacesetter Amini in the stretch. Shes A Sassy Beach rounded out the top three and favorite Ourlittlemiracle finished fourth.

"She's a nice, big, strong filly. She's great gaited and has nice gate speed," said driver Doug McNair of Guelph, ON, who crafted the win for trainer Rick Zeron of Oakville, ON and owner Hutt Racing Stable of Malvern, PA. "Things worked out for her and she got the job done."

Last year's Grassroots champion Cyclone Sister got back into the OSS winner's circle on Sunday with a 1:53 effort in the third $21,450 division. The Shadow Play daughter and driver Marc St. Louis controlled the tempo from start to finish, sailing under the wire three and three-quarter lengths ahead of Village Jade. Shiatzu Seelster completed the top three.

"She had a rough start to her year. She was having muscle soreness issues, so we haven't been able to get as many starts in her as we had planned, but she really turned a corner in her last start," said trainer Nick Gallucci of Stouffville, ON, referring to the filly's 1:52.2 victory at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 13. "Tonight she looked comfortable and was very well-rated by Marc (St. Louis)."

Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON bred and owns Cyclone Sister, who won two Grassroots Legs and the Final last season, but prior to Sunday's win she had failed to hit the top three in two Grassroots and one Gold Series outing this year.

Got Sexy Scars won the last Grassroots division with a 1:53.2 personal best off a front-end effort crafted by Sylvain Filion. Favorite Alumni Seelster was one and one-quarter lengths back in second and Beach Moment was two more back in third.

"That was my first time sitting behind her," said Filion. "She was a little aggressive, but held on. That was a tough, gutsy effort."

Richard Moreau trains the Sportswriter daughter for owner/breeder Bruno Lepage of Beauharnois, QC. Sunday's outing was the filly's first in OSS action and her first win of the 2021 campaign.

Moreau and Filion also teamed up to win the sole $7,100 Ontario Racing Prospect Series division with favorite Windsun Gaga. The Hes Watching filly romped to a 14 length win over Shes A Beaut Clark and Jenna Watch. Tess Waxman of Ridgeville, Christine Marion of Cambridge and Jordan Miller of Brampton, ON share ownership of Windsun Gaga.

Burke trainees sweep ISS action at Harrah's Hoosier Park

The week would conclude at Harrah's Hoosier Park with a Ron Burke sweep in Indiana Sire Stakes (ISS) action on Sunday (Aug. 22). Two divisions for the fifth round of ISS for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers would highlight the 14-race card.

The first division would go as the evening's 10th race on the card, with Ron Burke trainee Roll Em picking up the victory from off the pace in a lifetime best 1:49:1 for driver Brandon Bates.

Leaving from post position 5, the gelded son of Time To Roll would land in mid pack for Bates as race favorite, Rockin On Venus (Mike Oosting) would set the tempo through an opening quarter of :27. Up the backstretch, Trace Tetrack launched a quick quarter move from third to take the lead at the half in :55. As Virgo led the field into the far turn, Roll Em and Bates would flush the cover of Saddle Up to be a second over fifth at three-quarters in 1:22.1, still with seven lengths to make up on the leaders in the stretch.

As Virgo and Rockin On Venus began to duel at the top of the lane, Roll Em would launch off cover, utilizing a :25.3 explosion to get up in deep stretch, chasing down Virgo and opening up by a length and a quarter at the line to pick up the victory in 1:49.1. Virgo would stay on for second, Rockin On Venus would round out the trifecta.

Trained by Ron Burke, Roll Em has now picked up three straight victories after going back to back at The Meadows entering Sunday. The June purchase by Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi & Frank Baldachino has now five victories on the season, and boasts lifetime earnings of $75,260 following his score in the $51,500 first division.

Following his stablemate's lead in the second division, Rogers Image would pick up his fourth straight victory in the $52,000 second division, scoring from well off the pace with driver John De Long for the Burke Brigade. Leaving from outside post 9, Rogers Image would land near the rear of the field off the gate in what would prove to be a busy mile on the front. After a hot :26.1 opening quarter, Skyway Victor and Trace Tetrack pocket pulled the pocket to gain control of the race up the backstretch, before Peter Wrenn gave Joelsy Hanover his marching orders, taking over at the half in :53.4. The field of 11 would begin to bunch on the turn as Joelsy Hanover led through three quarters in 1:23 with Skyway Victor waiting for the passing lane and Rogers Image yet to make any noise from the backfield, sitting third over sixth. That would quickly change in the stretch as De long would unleash Rogers Image, quickly gobbling up ground on the leaders, using a :26.3 final quarter to get the jump on Skyway Victor and a hard charging Betterrock along the rail to score the victory in 1:50.2.

Owned by the Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby, Ras Racing & Weaver Brussemi, Rogers Image picked up his fifth victory on the season thus far. The gelded son of Rockin Image out of the Jate Lobell mare Remi's Rocket, pushed his bankroll to $127,303 for his career with the victory.

Live racing will continue at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino tonight (Aug. 25) with a 14-race card. The 14-race card will feature 2-year-old trotters in Indiana Sire Stakes action, with two divisions set to go for the trotting fillies and three for the freshman colts. With a daily post time of 6:30 pm, live racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park will be conducted through December 4. Batavia Downs announces across the board purse increases

The management of Batavia Downs and the Western New York Harness Horsemen's Association has announced that starting Wednesday (Sept. 1) purses for all races held at the track will be increased by 10 per cent. The increase is due to the recent success in business the VLT's have seen on the gaming floor and also from an increase in the live racing handle at the track.

"We are pleased that our recent success on the gaming floor and through increased live racing handle, we will be helping the horsemen and women that race here. As a public benefit corporation, we strive to support the communities and people around us and by helping the local horse racing industry with these larger purses, the economy surrounding the sport also benefits," said Henry Wojtaszek, president and CEO of Western Regional OTB and Batavia Downs Gaming and Hotel.

Reflective of the new structure, the bottom purse at the Downs will be raised from $3,800 to $4,200 and the top purse will jump from $11,200 to $12,300.

"These purse increases are great news for our racing participants after the bad year the industry as a whole experienced in 2020 due to the pandemic. Everyone has been trying to get back on track financially and this increase will go a long way in helping all local horse people do that," said Todd Haight, general manager/director of live racing at Batavia Downs.

Freshmen fillies wrap up Ohio Sires Stakes

The Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) presented five divisions for 2-year-old fillies on Sunday night, Aug. 22 at Northfield Park, wrapping up the four-leg series with events for trotters and pacers. A trio of $40,000 events were held for the trotting distaffs, while two $50,000 were contested for the pacing females.

Trotting Fillies

Gabbys C Note took the first trotting division by open lengths for driver Aaron Merriman and trainer Chris Beaver, stopping the clock in 1:56.3. The daughter of Triumphant Caviar had no problem notching her fourth win of the season in five tries, upping her career earnings to $77,650 for owners Chris Beaver, Joanna Beaver and Steve Zeeland. Mermaid By The Sea, at 16-1, was third for Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.

Sea Silk, the 1-9 favorite, showed why she's at the top of her division by remaining undefeated in scoring her sixth consecutive triumph for trainer Ron Burke and driver Chris Page. This son of Downbytheseaside had captured legs one and two in 1:52.4 and 1:51.3 but chose to sit out the third leg for owners Country Club Acres, Diamond Creek and Wingfield Brothers. Conditioned by Brian Brown, Gulf Shores was the 1-9 favorite, beating 15-1 Rose Run Explosion (Chris Page) with 23-1 Vintage Cowboy (Dan Noble) third. This was Access' only foray into OHSS competition, and the homebred upped his career earnings to $31,600 with the win.

Aaron Merriman gave The Mighty Hill a perfect steer to capture the second division by a whisker in 1:56.1 over stablemate and favorite (2-5) Gabby's Bit Coin (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.). Selfie Queen rebounds with style in Kentucky Championship

After breaking stride while in tight quarters in the last preliminary, driver Dexter Dunn pointed Selfie Queen to the front and charged around the track to win in the $40,000 third round of the Kentucky Championship Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Monday (Aug. 23) at The Red Mile.

Dunn left the gate with little hurry while Disclosure dashed to the front and took the field by the quarter in :27.1 before yielding command to More Than Ever into the backstretch. As action on top calmed, Dunn tipped Selfie Queen off the pegs from fourth and brushed to the lead approaching a :54.4 half. He then slowed the tempo to three-quarters in 1:23.3 and accelerated off the corner to open five lengths on stablemate American Beauty as she rallied into second. Selfie Queen sprinted home in :27.4 to stop the clock in 1:51.2, finishing 7-1/4 lengths better than American Beauty while Spendthemoneyhoney gave chase another two lengths behind in third.

Owned by Robert Leblanc, David Anderson and John Fielding, Selfie Queen won her third race from six starts, earning $56,250. Nancy Takter trains the daughter of Muscle Hill who paid $3.00 to win.

Double Deceiver darted through the stretch with a :26.2 final quarter to collar his rivals in the lone $40,000 division of the Kentucky Championship Series for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings.

Keg Stand, the 7-5 favorite, cleared control passing a :27.3 first quarter while Double Deceiver was shuffled to third and stayed at the pegs moving up the backstretch. Rebuff tipped first over from fifth into a :56.1 half and made steady gains on Keg Stand rolling to three-quarters in 1:25.3. That pair dueled for the lead at the top of the stretch while a gap opened for Double Deceiver to fan from off the pylons to the center of the course. With open racetrack ahead, the Cantab Hall colt cruised past his competition to win by 1-3/4 lengths in 1:52.4 while Rebuff took second and Keg stand faded to third.

Trained by Carter Pinske for the Pinske Stables and Makenna Pinske, Double Deceiver won his third race from five starts, banking $75,290. David Miller drove the gelding who paid $7.40 to win.

Date Night ($2.10) led the winners of the three $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for 2-year-old trotting fillies with an open-length score in 1:53.3 for trainer Julie Miller and driver Andy Miller. Pauline Hanover ($6.60) popped pocket to take the first division by a head in 1:54.4 for trainer Carter Pinske and driver Dexter Dunn, while Moni Heist ($2.40) later pulled a similar move to take the final split by two lengths in 1:55.4 in rein to Yannick Gingras for trainer Domenico Cecere.

Golden Wall As ($3.20) topped the three $20,000 divisions of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings with a gate-to-wire score in 1:53.4 for trainer Anette Lorentzon and driver Dexter Dunn. Easy Rider ($4.20) rolled off cover in the first division to win for driver Andy Miller and trainer Julie Miller in 1:54.3, and Branded By Lindy ($2.10) took the other division going away in 1:54 for driver Scott Zeron and trainer Domenico Cecere.

Reenactment and Gotthegreenlight grab NYSS wins at Tioga

Tioga Downs played host to two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old filly pacers on Sunday (Aug. 22).

Reenactment (Scott Zeron) won a wild finish in the $53,100 first division.

Patsville (Mark MacDonald) led to the first quarter in :26.4. A Girl That Twirls (Dan Dube) took control with a lap to go. She was first to the half in :56.1. Joyride Hanover (Dexter Dunn) made her move first-over down the backstretch and battled for the lead as A Girl That Twirls led to three-quarters in 1:24.

As they made the turn for home Joyride Hanover wrestled the lead away. American Ticket (Yannick Gingras) came three-wide as Reenactment ($35.40) came flying four-wide causing a three-way photo. When the dust settled it was Reenactment winning in a lifetime best of 1:52.3. American Ticket finished second as Joyride Hanover had to settle for third.

Reenactment is a filly by Huntsville—Living History. She is trained by Linda Toscano for owners Let It Ride Stables, Maurice Chodash, and Barry Cohen. It was her second career victory.

Gotthegreenlight (Dexter Dunn) popped the pocket to get the win in the $53,100 second division.

Gotthegreenlight ($6.90) jumped right to the front and led to the first quarter in :28. Just Divine (Yannick Gingras) went on by and took the lead with a circuit to go. She was first to the half in :56.4. Hamptons Babe (Jason Bartlett) came first-up to challenge as they headed to the final turn. Just Divine led to three-quarters in 1:25.4.

Just Devine shook off Hamptons Babe as they reached the stretch. Gotthegreenlight got an opening in deep stretch and popped the pocket to get up just in time to win in 1:53.0. Just Devine had to settle for second. Throw The Dice (Scott Zeron) was third best.

Gotthegreenlight is a filly by American Ideal-Bet On Luck. R. Nifty Norman is the trainer for owners Patricia Stable and Kovach Stables. She now has five wins in six career starts.

Tioga Downs returns to live racing on Saturday (Aug. 28) starting at 6:15 p.m.

Komodo Beach blazes in Kentucky Championship third round

Despite a short field in the non-betting affair before Sunday's (Aug. 22) pari-mutuel card at The Red Mile, Komodo Beach fired a 1:48.4 mile in the $40,000 second preliminary of the Kentucky Championship Series for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

Driver Todd McCarthy positioned the Somebeachsomewhere gelding in second as first-round winner Goldie's Legacy carved fractions of :26.4, :55.1 and 1:23.1. McCarthy made his move at the bottom of the final turn, angling Komodo Beach wide for the drive and besting Goldie's Legacy in the sprint to the finish with a :25.2 final quarter to win by a head. Toronto gave chase to the pair in third, another seven lengths behind.

Owned by David Mc Duffee, John Fodera, Steven Wienick and Trevor Ritchie, Komodo Beach won his fourth race from 12 starts this season and his seventh from 20 overall, earning $101,825. Brett Pelling trains the winner.

McCarthy came back at the start of the betting program to register an 11-1 upset in the $40,000 second round of the Kentucky Championship Series for 3-year-old pacing fillies, winning with Linda Toscano trainee High Minded in 1:50.

Classicist cleared command from post 6 while Tava pushed from the pylon post to race second to a :28.2 first quarter with High Minded positioned third. Odds-on favorite So Irresistible advanced wide from fourth and grabbed control as the tempo quickened to a :55 half. Slowing the pace to the final turn, McCarthy motored High Minded out of fourth to challenge So Irresistible for the lead to three-quarters in 1:23 and seized the lead in the straightaway. The daughter of Captaintreacherous cruised to the line 1-1/2 lengths better than So Irresistible, with Dream Chaser finishing third.

Returning $24.20 to win, High Minded won her third race from 10 starts this season and her fifth from 22 overall, earning $148,037. She competes for owners Camelot Stable Inc., Fred Wallace, The Bay's Stable LLC and Steve Stewart.

Caviart Lotus ($3.40) and Mikimoto ($18.40) snagged the pair of $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings in a time of 1:49.4. Caviart Lotus had Andrew McCarthy in the bike for trainer Noel Daley while Christian Lind piloted Mikimoto for trainer Domenico Cecere.

The lone $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth division for 3-year-old pacing fillies went to Notorious Pink ($2.20), who romped by 6-1/4 lengths to win in 1:49.1 in rein to Todd McCarthy for trainer Tony Alagna.

Point totals for both the Kentucky Championship and Kentucky Commonwealth Series are available at the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission website.

Dan Patch Awards returns to Rosen Shingle Creek in 2022

It's time to start booking rooms for the 2022 Dan Patch Awards banquet, conducted by the U.S. Harness Writers Association (USHWA), which returns to Rosen Shingle Creek in Orlando, FL on Sunday, Feb. 20. Room reservations are now available by using the USHWA link to the hotel's reservations page as described below.

This will mark the fourth year the Dan Patch Awards banquet has been held at Rosen Shingle Creek. Rosen Shingle Creek played host to the Dan Patch Awards weekend for the first time in 2018 and the stunning 230-acre property proved such a popular venue that USHWA returned in 2019 and 2020, but the 2021 event was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic and was instead held virtually.

"We couldn't be more excited to be returning to Rosen Shingle Creek Resort for the 2022 Night of Champions and Dan Patch Awards," said USHWA president Kimberly Rinker. "The facilities at Shingle Creek are first-class, and they provide USHWA with the perfect venue to hold our national meetings and to honor all of the well-deserving horses and humans in the sport of harness racing."

The Dan Patch Awards banquet annually honors the best and brightest performers, both human and equine, of the previous season. The award winners are selected by USHWA, with all winners announced in advance except for Pacer of the Year, Trotter of the Year, and Horse of the Year, which will be revealed the night of the banquet. USHWA will hold its annual directors meeting on Saturday, Feb. 19, and its general membership meeting the morning of the banquet.

Located just off Universal Boulevard, within 10 minutes of the Orlando International Airport and minutes from the many area attractions, the 1,500-room Rosen Shingle Creek is a five-star property that is ranked a top-20 U.S. meeting hotel by Cvent.

The property includes four swimming pools, two lighted tennis courts, a spa that includes nine treatment rooms, a state-of-the-art fitness center, and an 18-hole, Arnold Palmer redesigned golf course. There are also 15 restaurants/lounges, including the upscale steakhouse A Land Remembered, the fine-dining bistro Cala Bella, Cafe Osceola, Tobias Burgers and Brews, Banrai Sushi, Mi Casa Tequila and Taquiera, and a 24-hour deli.

Dinner ticket prices and menu will be announced later, with a reduced price for children 12 and under. All attendees will receive a 10-per cent discount at all of the above-mentioned restaurants, a 10 per cent discount at the Spa at Shingle Creek, and a green fees discount at the Shingle Creek Golf Club.

All standard rooms under the USHWA block are $199 nightly (plus applicable taxes). For room reservations, please click on the USHWA website www.usharnesswriters.com for the Rosen Shingle Creek link, within the story starting on the front page. Attendees can also contact the Rosen Shingle Creek reservations department directly at 866-996-6338 or 407-996-6338 and asking for the Dan Patch Awards/USHWA rate.

To inquire about several sponsorship opportunities for the weekend, including live video streaming, the Red Carpet reception and live feed hosted by Heather Vitale and Heather Wilder, please contact USHWA President Rinker at trottrink@aol.com.

Standardbred Transition Alliance named official aftercare partner of USTA

During a board meeting of the Standardbred Transition Alliance on Thursday (Aug. 12), an agreement was reached with the U.S. Trotting Association for the STA to become the official aftercare partner of the USTA.

"Through our resources at the U.S. Trotting Association, we can provide the Standardbred Transition Alliance with valuable tools to help them in promoting their mission as well as assisting them with their fundraising efforts," said USTA executive vice-president and CEO Mike Tanner in making the announcement. "The USTA can utilize our staff and communications vehicles to create greater awareness for the STA and amplify their message."

"Our entire board of directors appreciates the endorsement of the U.S. Trotting Association and the validation it provides for the Standardbred Transition Alliance within the harness racing industry and with all those who care so passionately about the aftercare of our standardbreds," said STA president David Reid. "We're grateful for the expanded reach they have to assist us in delivering our message and the support of our fundraising efforts through the voluntary donation options they are providing to their members."

"Since the creation of the STA, the board has always believed that it would require a broad-based effort from within the industry to support it and this is a big step in the right direction.”

Promotional support by the USTA will include both advertising and editorial. Creation and placement of digital advertising will be available on www.ustrotting.com and www.HarnessRacingFanZone.com and its social media platforms as well as print advertising in Hoof Beats magazine and other industry trade publications. Promotional videos also will be created for websites, social media, television broadcasts and racetrack simulcasts.

The USTA will create editorial content that highlights some of the success stories on the STA accredited organizations and the horses that they provide aftercare for with placements in Hoof Beats, on the websites and social media.

There is also additional planning for the establishment of initiatives that will be “sponsored by the Standardbred Transition Alliance.”

The USTA Board of Directors, in March 2018, directed Tanner, with assistance from a steering committee comprised of directors Don Marean, Jacqueline Ingrassia and Fred Nichols, to form the group.

While the USTA will provide promotional support and have an ex officio spot on the board, the STA operates independently of the USTA.

According to their mission statement, “the Standardbred Transition Alliance (STA) is a non-profit organization with federal 501(c)(3) status whose mission is to accredit, inspect and award grants to approved organizations that acquire, rehabilitate, train and re-home Standardbreds.

For more information on the STA, visit their website by clicking here.

Broodmare registration for Quebec-bred stakes

Owners, breeders and trainers are reminded that broodmares in foal must be registered with the Quebec Jockey Club in order for the foals to be eligible to the Quebec-bred races.

There are special requirements listed below pertaining to what must be done in order for foals to be registered as “Quebec-Bred” for the sire stakes races.

The registration form must be submitted before Oct. 31, 2021. The registration fee is $20. There is also a late registration fee of $150 from Nov. 1 thru Dec. 31, 2021.

For more information and registration form, click here.

Registration rules:

For the offspring to be considered Quebec-bred, the broodmare must remain at least 200 days in Quebec between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31 of the year of breeding. The broodmare must be registered in the mare residency program within the pre-approved guidelines set by the CJC, which is before Oct. 31 of the year of breeding and the foal must be born in the province of Quebec.

If the registration of the mare is done after the allotted time, the CJC will require an explanation of the owner in writing, accompanied by at least one supporting document (eg: transfer papers, canceled check for the sale of the mare, customs paper, etc.) and late registration fees will apply.

At all times, the CJC reserves the right to refuse any mare in the program if the proof supporting documents are doubtful, incomplete or nonexistent.

In the case where the broodmare is sold / leased before completing her residency, but remains in Quebec to meet the terms of the agreement, the foal will then be considered as Quebec-bred and will have the right to participate in the *Quebec circuit.

Please be advised that documentation will be required. For example: proof of transfer or lease agreement of the mare, new location of the broodmare if applicable, etc.

Registration with Standardbred Canada must be completed through the appropriate form no later than Oct. 31 of the year of mating. The registration fees are $20.

An entry is considered “late registration” if completed between Nov. 1 and Dec. 31 of the year of mating. The late registration fees are $150.

An entry is considered “second late registration” if completed between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31 of the year following the year of mating. The second late registration fees are $500.

To avoid registration deadlocks with breeders, QJC offers a “third late registration,” to be completed no later than December 31 of the yearling year of offspring. The third late registration fees are $1,500.

The sums collected under this registration should not be construed as “added purses” or amounts used to improve in whatever form or fashion the programs of the Quebec Jockey Club; no refunds will be made.

Any check returned by the bank marked as “insufficient funds” will be considered as a non-performed payment with the inherent consequences.

As a matter of courtesy, Standardbred Canada and the Quebec Jockey Club will do everything in their power to inform their customers. Regardless of notice, it remains the responsibility of the breeder to ensure that payments are deposited in Standardbred Canada by the date and time provided for this purpose.

During file processing, the preferred information source is Standardbred Canada, whether for the spelling of the name, identification and address of the owner, etc. Decisions are made based on the information contained in the register of Standardbred Canada, which users must keep updated. Therefore, the Quebec Jockey Club considers the information contained in the Standardbred Canada register to be true and official.
