Unanimous scorn for “worst call in harness racing history”

DQ in Race 11 on Sunday at Red Mile draws universal outrage on social media that only worsened after the presiding judge was quoted as saying it was an “easy call.”

by Garnet Barnsdale

BUZZWORTHY

with GARNET BARNSDALE

Harness racing social media was buzzing on Sunday and beyond following a disqualification in Race 11 at the Red Mile — watch it here — that was unanimously hailed as a terrible call by Tweeters and Facebookers alike.

To set the scene, the $3,400 maiden trot race was won by 1-5 favorite Lindy's Stardust who made a remarkable recovery after breaking just before the 3/4 pole when seemingly on her way to an easy win for driver David Miller. It appeared to all observers — except the judges — that the 3-year-old daughter of Trixton out of the Explosive Matter mare Struck By Lindy was correctly reined in by Miller to lose ground continuously until she got back down trotting. Several observers noted she was slowed to almost a walk before getting back on stride, straightening out, then surging past the three fillies that inherited position on her to claim a 1 1/2-length victory.

Here's a sample of the outrage on social media:

Horseman Jay Hochstetler: "I've seen a lot of bad calls in harness racing but the DQ on David Miller in the 11th at Red Mile is by far the worst one in the history of horse racing."

HRU columnist Brett Sturman: "I just watched the replay myself. Not only did lose ground but slowed down to almost a complete stop."

DRF Harness editor Derick Giwner: "By the Judges definition of not losing ground, every horse that breaks at Red Mile must be DQ'ed for failure to lose ground... not sure you could lose more ground than that horse."

Tweeter Steve Wing: "Before Dave got the horse going again, he was behind the horses that were racing, two others were miles back but they were still breaking. The DQ was the wrong decision, period!"

Horseman John Kopas: "Might be the worst call I've ever seen."

Breeder/owner Art Zubrod: "Worst call in the history of sports."

Horsewoman Ellie Sarama: "That has got to be one of the worst calls I've ever seen... and they have a judges license?? They better go back to judges school. Wow."

DownTheStretch Newspaper editor Peter Gross: "That DQ was outrageous!"

Driver Yannick Gingras: "That's a horrible call no doubt in my opinion."

I'm sure by now, you understand the theme. The big question has to be how the judges came up with the decision to disqualify the filly who clearly lost ground until she was back down trotting. On Monday, Red Mile presiding judge Tim Schmitz told harnessracing.com that the disqualification was an “easy call.” “When she made the break, she didn’t lose ground quick enough,” Schmitz said. “We timed it and she stayed along side the other horse – B Lisa – for 8.3 seconds before she started to lose ground. She didn’t lose any ground to the trailing horses.”

This statement set off a new flurry of anger on social media.

Harness writer Ray Cotolo provided a clip of the part of the race where Lindy’s Stardust broke stride with a stopwatch embedded in the tweet that appeared to clearly show that ground loss started well before 8.3 seconds of her traveling alongside her rival had elapsed.

Blogger Dean Towers’ tweet included pictures of where Lindy’s Stardust was positioned when she broke and another that showed her in the middle of the track, about 8-10 lengths behind Lisa B when she was back down trotting and he added: “Here’s the horse when she broke just before the 3/4’s and here’s where she is when she gets back trotting. I am so amazed by this decision. Truly one for the ages.”

Horseman Nick Boyd wasn’t impressed with Schmitz’s reasoning. “Not shocking that guy is a judge,” Boyd tweeted. “That is the most certainly the worst answer he could have given.”

Zubrod similarly wasn’t buying it. “She lost at least 5 lengths in those 8 seconds, and then 10 more lengths,” he commented on his Facebook post.

Tweeter Mike Adams was blunter. “It was an easy decision. LOL That’s why it took 10 min to decide. That judge should be fired for gross incompetence. An awful decision and then trying to justify with more BS lies,” he posted.

It was also noted that this race was the heaviest-bet race of the meet so far with more than $85,000 put through the mutuels, which also attracted some commentary. “Sad to know it was the best bet race,” driver Tyler Sheen commented. “Many mad people I’m sure and (they have) a right to be.”

Bob Bresnahan opined that the judges’ decision would lead to lost business. “You can kiss those fans goodbye,” he posted.

Adding to the absurdity of the judges’ call is where she was placed. Lindy’s Stardust was placed 6th – thereby missing a check – behind a filly that was beaten 32 lengths and was in full retreat mode at the 3/4 pole where the break in stride occurred. So, was she supposed to keep losing ground after she got back on stride until she managed to trot slow enough to get behind this filly, then try to advance?

Here’s the thing about disqualifications and horse racing and this one in particular. In almost every case – see last year’s Breeders Crown DQ of Papi Rob Hanover, for example – the decision that is made by the judges is polarizing and you get some saying it was justified and often just as many arguing that it wasn’t. This disqualification produced 100 per cent solidarity of opinion in that every social media post and comment suggested that it was an egregiously bad decision.

So, can so many veteran horseman, journalists, bettors and fans be so wrong, and the one judge be correct that this was an “easy call”? Video evidence of the race would suggest only one guy got it wrong and it wasn’t a Tweeter.

Training horses is worth singing about for Megan Roberts

The third generation horsewoman from Brandywine put a career as an MRI Technologist on hold to follow the family passion.

Megan Roberts and Judge Bob.

Her vocal stylings may be in need of some fine-tuning, but Megan Roberts' training talents are top-of-the-chart material.

On this day, Roberts is on the way to Ocean Downs in Berlin, MD. She has four horses ready to test out the competition at the half-mile oval located about two and a half hours from her home in Brandywine.

Joined on the journey by one of her grooms, Angel Nelson, there's plenty of time for pre-race strategies and assorted horse talk.

Those, however, aren't the preferred topics of conversation between the pair.

Instead, life on the highways and roads to the racetrack typically include listening to plenty of upbeat music on the radio, with driver and passenger joyfully singing along.

"A lot of times it's me and Angel on the road, we are in the truck, and we are totally away from talking about the horses and the races when we're on our way to race," said Roberts. "It's just listening to music and talking about other things. But when we get to the races, it's all about the races."

Roberts doesn't dole out high marks when it comes to her singing.

"It's not good," she said with a laugh. "It's definitely something to listen to, but not necessarily in a good way."

Let's put it this way... it's a bad karaoke night. But you know what? We have a good time. It's still a lot of fun."

The same can also be said of a career that's now in its fifth year.

Born into the business, Roberts' grandfather, Sam Roberts, was a tobacco farmer who started racing horses as a hobby. Her father William "Bib" Roberts is an accomplished horseman, having enjoyed numerous successes as a standardbred driver, breeder and trainer.

From an early age, Megan shadowed her father at the barn, acquiring more knowledge and more fondness for horses, and horse racing with each passing year.

After graduating high school, she continued her post-secondary education and became an MRI Technologist.

When her father, now 70, became ill in 2015, Roberts jumped in and eventually took over his stable.

If there were any questions regarding her abilities as a trainer, she answered them in quick order.

Roberts first start as a trainer, on Nov. 17, 2015, resulted in a runner-up effort. Next time out, however, she decided to go one better.

"Going out for that first race, it's like your nerves are all in your throat," recalled Roberts. "You want to do well and you don't want to disappoint anyone. You're trying to prove yourself to everybody."

Any nervousness she felt in the minutes leading up to the race paled in comparison to how she reacted when the field was sent on its way at the Fort Washington, MD oval.

Although Roberts was pleased with the result in her milestone moment, the competitor in her was hoping for a trip to the winner's circle.

Thankfully, she didn't have to wait long for that experience.

All it took was her next start to accomplish the feat, thanks to Caviart Tyler, a son of Dragon Again, who recorded a two-length score at Rosecroft that very same evening.

"You never come down from that cloud nine feeling," she said. "You always relive that every time you go to the winner's circle, and I've been lucky to get there semi-often. The fact that I went out there and was second with the first horse and won with the next one, I felt like I had a pretty background to lean on. I got to learn from one of the best, my dad, for so many years. It helped knowing that it's [training abilities] where it all came from."

Early on in her horse racing role, Roberts juggled two careers, working as an MRI Tech at Southern Maryland Hospital and full-time training at her family's farm in Brandywine.

She made the decision, an easy one, admittedly, to focus all of her energies on horse racing.

"Dad wanted me to get an education first, to get a background in something else outside of horse racing. In this business, you never know what can happen. I went to radiology school and got my degree. I got my MRI license and certification, and did that for years. Up until about a year before I started training, all I did was MRI. And then my dad needed some part-time help. But when he got sick, I jumped back in, full steam ahead. There was a time I was being pulled in two different directions, so I had to figure out which path I would take. Horse racing, it was something I always wanted to do, and always felt I had to do because it was the only thing I loved to do every single day. Working with the horses, I wouldn't give it up for anything."

Roberts said she has no regrets with the choice she made. The numbers prove she made an excellent one.

In 2015, she posted six wins, along with three seconds and a third, from 19 starts in her rookie campaign. The following year she won 21 races.

Last season was her most successful, across the board. She sent out 51 winners, recorded $378,100 in purse earnings, accompanied by a lofty .343 UDRS.

years before I started training – it was a good feeling. Jonathan is the one who got me the picture and gave it to me for my birthday.”

Roberts, who currently owns six horses, five of her own, and one with fellow trainer Sofia Zingale, points to one horse in particular as her all-time favorite.

Judge Bob, a 5-year-old son of Great George Two (MD), is co-owned by Roberts and Graham Grace Stables. Her father co-bred the trotter who won at first asking on Aug. 20, 2017, at Ocean Downs.

The total purse for the race, $4,000, and a $2,000 payday felt like much more to an emotional Roberts.

“He is a horse that was in the first set of babies that I ever broke, from head-to-toe. He was born on the farm. I was the first person to touch him when he was born, and ever since that day, he has been, literally, my child. He’s 17 hands, and he’s a big, giant weirdo. I think the best day of my life, in this career, was the day he went on the track to win his very first elimination as a 2-year-old.”

Getting him to that point proved to be a monumental undertaking.

“It was a struggle. He stuck his leg through his gate and fractured his cannon bone three months before that day. We swam him, gave him stall rest, we couldn’t train him – it was a nightmare. He was crazy. He has so much athletic ability and so much energy, that it was hard to keep him from hurting himself during stall rest. Trying to get him ready for the eliminations... thank God we did.

“We’re out there during the race, and I’m screaming and yelling at the top of my lungs. Everyone is looking at me like, ‘It’s only $4,000. What are you doing?’ I didn’t care. I had tears running down my face. The moment he crossed the finish line, it’s the accomplishment of my life. He’s my greatest accomplishment. I felt as though, ‘Now I can go out there – I’ve crossed that hurdle – and I know I can be successful at this.’”

It’s certainly something worth singing about.

Or perhaps not.

“With my voice, I won’t be the next “American Idol” winner, that’s for sure. But I’ll be happy singing along whenever we’re on the road.”

Blackflash Bar flew to victory

by Thomas Hedlund

The $235,000 Gran Premio Tito Giovanardi for 3-year-olds was held in Modena, Italy on Tuesday afternoon (Aug. 25) and winner Blackflash Bar (Oropuro Bar) impressed after a second over trip.

Driver Santo Mollo waited to attack until home stretch and Blackflash Bar cruised to safe win in a mile rate of 1:59.4 over 1.3 miles.

Bristol Cr finished second ahead of Boltigneur Erre.

Blackflash Bar earlier delivered a world record performance on a half-mile track when she won in 1:59 over 1.3 miles in Italy.

Alessandro Gocciadoro trains the winner and runner up in the $59,000 Gran Premio Renzo Orlandi, which was held in Modena. Winner Vaprio (Adrian Chip), driven by Rene Legati, claimed the victory in 1:54 and runner up Zaniah Bi came home in 1:54.1.

Power back in great shape

Six eliminations for the $911,000 Svenskt Travderby for 4-year-olds were held at Jägersro racetrack on Tuesday night (Aug. 25) and trainer Robert Bergh had a great night in southern Sweden. Last year, Bergh won the $911,000 Svenskt Travkriterium for 3-year-olds last year with Googoo Gaagaa son Power and during the late part of the season, Hail Mary, another son of Googoo Gaagaa, showed same capacity in Bergh’s barn.

Bergh himself had to see this year’s races from the side of the track, since he was suspended three days, but substitute driver Per Lennartsson is one of the best in the business in Sweden and he sent Power to the front from post 1, which ended in a safe win, while Hail Mary did the heavy job outside of brave leader Guzz Mearas in his elimination.

Googoo Gaagaa is hot on the market in Sweden and it's pretty impressive that the American-bred stallion can count on four horses when The Derby is scheduled at Jägersro on Sunday, Sept. 6. Bythebook claimed his spot in the final after a great runner up performance behind Timo Nurmos' Bold Eagle son Champ Lane, while Galantis finished second to Power. Bold Eagle son Aetos Kronos, trained by Jerry Riordan, also impressed in his elimination win for Magnus Djuse.

Bergh's night in Malmö was splendid. His Västerbo Lexington (Muscle Mass) took a safe wire-to-wire win and Bergh can look forward to an exciting weekend in Malmö next week.

Svante Båth's Global Adventure did what Västerbo Lexington did, hit the lead and stayed there the whole way.

Harness racing results can be determined by small margins. Hail Mary won by a nose and drew post 1 in the final, while runner up Guzz Mearas has to start from post 12 in the final.

Redén dominated Derbystoet

In the eliminations for the $455,000 Derbystoet for mares, Daniel Redén dominated in big style. Alaska Kronos (Trixtion), Award Kronos (Father Patrick) and Milady Grace (Ready Cash) all won their eliminations from position first over, while Robert Bergh's Mellby Harissa (Maharajah) won from the lead. Classic Photo mare Orlando was the only upset winner among the mares and she won after a nice trip and quick finish for driver Ulf Ohlsson.

Redén's Hard Livin mare Diana Zet, who claimed victories in $500,000 Oaks last year and the $220,000 Drottningpokalen and $600,000 Stochampionatet this year, played with her opponents in the last elimination.

Stage set for massive Pepsi North America Cup card featuring $2.4 million in purses

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The 37th Pepsi North America Cup for a purse of $1 million headlines a stakes-filled card this Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Originally scheduled for June 20, this year's Pepsi North America Cup card is worth the wait as it'll feature nine stakes races and purses totalling $2.4 million. The $400,000 Fan Hanover, $290,000 Roses Are Red, $220,000 Armbro Flight, $234,058 Nassagaweya (two divisions) and $214,645 Eternal Camnation (three divisions) makes up the Cup undercard.

Tall Dark Stranger is the favorite heading into the Pepsi North America Cup. The Nancy Takter trainee is looking to become the first horse to ever win the Metro Pace and Breeders Crown at age two and then return to win the Cup at age three.

A son of 2001 Cup winner Bettors Delight, Tall Dark Stranger dug in for driver Yannick Gingras to prevail by a head over Capt Midnight in 1:48.4 during last Saturday's first elimination. The multiple award-winning colt is 13 for 15 lifetime with $1.4 million earned for owners Crawford Farms Racing, Marvin Katz, Caviart Farms and Howard Taylor.

Trainer Takter is one for one in the Cup, winning last year's edition with Captain Crunch. Gingras will be searching for his first Cup win in his ninth appearance.

Tony Alagna will send out three starters in hopes of capturing his second Pepsi North America Cup. All three of Alagna's starters are sired by his Cup-winning trainee Captaintreacherous, who took the title in 2013.

Captain Kirk powered home impressively in :25.4 to pick off Altywag Hanover and capture last Saturday's second Cup elimination in 1:49.3. The speedy 'Kirk' is two for six this season, three for 15 overall and has earned $194,280 for owners Brittany Farms, Marvin Katz, Brad Grant and Captain Kirk Racing.

The only loss on Tall Dark Stranger's record this season was in the Geers Stakes on Aug. 1, a race that Captain Kirk won in a career-best 1:48.3.

Jody Jamieson will get the call behind Captain Kirk after driver Bob McClure opted to go with the Dr. Ian Moore trained Ontario Sires Stakes star Tattoo Artist, who was fifth in his elimination. Jamieson is a two-time Cup winner (Tell All – 2007, Up The Credit – 2011) and will be making his 10th appearance in the race.

The Alagna barn will also send out Capt Midnight, runner up to Tall Dark Stranger, and Captain Barbossa, who posted a :25.3 final-quarter to finish fourth in that same race.

This year's Cup will have four Ontario-sired starters, as Tall Dark Stranger (Bettors Delight), Mayhem Hanover (Sportswriter), Denali Seelster (Sunshine Beach) and Tattoo Artist (Hes Watching) will wear the trillium.

Trainer Brett Pelling has more Cup wins than all of this year's Cup trainers combined and will look to add to his total with Allywag Hanover. The legendary conditioner has won the race three-times (Davids Pass – 1995, The Panderosa – 1999, Rocknroll Hanover – 2005).

Louis-Philippe Roy will make his second Cup start behind 'Allywag'.

A pair of drivers and a pair of trainers will be making their Cup debuts on Saturday.

Moneyman Hill offers the regular Woodbine duo of driver Jonathan Drury and trainer Carmen Auciello their first crack at the Cup. James MacDonald has picked up the drive on Captain Barbossa for his first Cup drive, while trainer Melanie Wrenn sends out her first Cup starter in Odds On Osiris.

The Pepsi North America Cup record is 1:47.2, established last year by Captain Crunch. Favorites have won 15 of 36 editions of the Cup, but only three of the last 11. Bettors Delight holds the record for largest margin of victory at 4 ½ lengths in 2001, while the Cup has been decided three-times by a nose (Quite A Sensation – 1986, Jate Lobell – 1987, Arizona Jack – 1996).

The 37th Pepsi North America Cup has been carded as Race 11 and has a post time of 10:43 p.m. Fans can watch live coverage of this year's $1-million on TSN4 from 10-11 p.m.

The full field for this year's Pepsi North America Cup is listed below. The number beside a driver's name indicates number of Cup starts. The number beside a trainer's number indicates number of Cup starters. A name in bold indicates Cup winner.

1. Mayhem Hanover – Doug McNair (3) – Gregg McNair (3)

STACKED CUP UNDERCARD

Many of the sport's top performers and some of the new stars will take to the track on Pepsi North America Cup night.

The Fan Hanover, Roses Are Red and Armbro Flight were all moved with the Cup from their original date on June 20. The Nassagaweya and Eternal Camnation were both originally scheduled for this Saturday and now have an even bigger platform to shine.

Party Girl Hill is looking to run her perfect record to eight for eight in the $400,000 Fan Hanover. The Tom Hill homebred did not race at 2, but has taken the racing scene by storm this season with several dazzling performances.

A daughter of Captaintreacherous, Party Girl Hill sprinted home in :26.1 to hold off Lady Lou for a 1:50 victory in last Saturday's elimination. Doug McNair sat behind the filly for the first-time and helped push her over $200,000 in earnings.

Trained by Chris Ryder, Party Girl Hill joined the barn of trainer Chantal Mitchell for her visit to Canada. Mitchell will also send out O'Brien Award winner Alicorn, who was second in her elimination last weekend.

Peaky Sneaky was the quickest of the elimination winners, stopping the clock in 1:49.1 last Saturday. The Nancy Takter trainee will again be steered by Yannick Gingras.

The Fan Hanover is carded as Race 8 (9:24 p.m.)

The $290,000 Roses Are Red for older pacing mares will see a field of eight battle. Kissin In The Sand was to be the ninth horse in the field, but has been scratched.

The group of mares will be hungry for a major stakes score, as the division leader and last year's winner Shartin N is absent from the event. Her trainer Jim King Jr. will still be represented by Soho Burning Love A, who has three wins and six top-two finishes in 10 starts this season.

Ron Burke trainee Warrawee Ubeaut has struggled through five starts this season, but the 4-year-old is returning to the site of her Breeders Crown victory last fall. Philly Hanover, Trillions Hanover, So Much More and Stonebridge Soul are the other four-year-olds in the field.

The Roses Are Red is carded as Race 10 (10:14 p.m.)

Trainer Ron Burke is going for his fifth consecutive victory in the Armbro Flight, as he sends out last year's winner Atlanta. The superstar trotting mare won last year's event in a Canadian record time of 1:50.2 to piggyback on her former stablemate Hannelore Hanover, who had won the event in each of the three years prior.

Atlanta is the star of the show in the eight-horse field. The $220,000 Armbro Flight is carded as Race 3 (7:44 p.m.).

The Eternal Camnation for 2-year-old pacing fillies will have three divisions (Races 1, 2, 12) on Saturday's card, while the Nassagaweya for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings will have two splits (Races 7, 9).

A $36,000 preferred handicap pace is also on tap and features a pair of Breeders Crown champions. American History will be going for back-to-back wins at Mohawk Park, while Dancin Lou returns to the site of his Crown triumph last year at three. The preferred handicap is race 5 (8:09 p.m.).

The wagering menu for Saturday's card has been enhanced to include a $100,000 Early Pick-5 (starts Race 1), an 'All-Stakes' Pick-5 (starts Race 7) and a Jackpot Hi-5 mandatory payout (Race 11). The carryover for the Jackpot Hi-5 is $381,378.37.

A special first-race post time of 6:30 p.m. has been set for the Pepsi North America Cup card.

Fans can catch live coverage of the 37th Pepsi North America Cup on TSN4 from 10-11 p.m. Horseplayers can watch and wager on the entire card through HPIbet and the new Dark Horse App offers rookie and veteran horseplayers a great option to get in the action.

Sister Sledge impressive PASS winner Tuesday

Sister Sledge, last year's Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) 2-year-old trotting filly champion, became the only horse in the classification to win two 2020 PASS prelims when she took one of two $92,392 divisions of the final preliminary for this group in 1:52.4 on Tuesday afternoon (Aug. 25) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono.

The Father Patrick filly let Next Level Stuff force SVF Blushingbride to take the two-hole going to a :27.2 quarter, then moved outside for driver Brian Sears and grabbed command in front of the stands. The pair hung up middle splits of :55.3 and 1:24.1, then coped with the late move of potential pocket rocket Next Level Stuff by a length. Ron Burke trains the winner of $728,849 for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, Jason Melillo, and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby.

With the victory, Sister Sledge became her division's final point-leader, and thus is now in a position to accomplish in her championship (Philly, Sept. 6) what only two other horses in the 27-year history of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes have achieved: be their group's top point-winner and championship winner at both 2 and 3. Unusually, both of these previous 2 were also trotting fillies: Coulatine in 2004-2005 and Frau Blucher in 2012-2013 (the latter winning her sophomore championship in a dead-heat with archrival Classic Martine).

The Muscle Hill filly Sweet Shirley Mae earned herself a spot in the championship, being given a skillful drive by driver Andy Miller to work her way from between horses to go from last to first in the lane and take a new mark of 1:54.2. Sweet Shirley Mae, who had been third in her only other Sires appearance this year, won by a neck over first-over Fifty Cent Piece, who in turn photoed second-over Queen Of The Hill, who in turn photoed pocketsitter Sans Default. The Dominico Cecere-trained miss, owned by Moni Market Breeders, picked a good opportunity for her first victory since Sept. 14 of last year at Lexington.

There were also three $20,000 divisions for this classification's Stallion Series horses. Ron Burke will also have the likely favorite for this championship as well, as his Muscle Hill pupil Dune Hill swept her preliminaries, winning her in 1:55.1 after racing three-wide a long way for driver Matt Kakaley, but nonetheless being handled confidently late. Dune Hill, owned by Joseph Di Scala Jr., will now look to join 2012 freshman trotting colt Smoother Ride and 2013 sophomore pacing colt Shock It To 'Em (still the fastest StS Championship winner ever in 1:50.1) as the only horses in this competition to sweep their prelims and then take the final.

The Muscle Massive filly Miss McKee is in a unique position: she was two-for-two in the Stallion Series, including winning Tuesday in 1:55.1 as the pacesetter for driver George Napolitano Jr., trainer Jack Baggitt Jr., and J L Sadowsky LLC. But she also made two Sire Stakes starts and earned 35 points, tying her for tenth – you can't declare for both, so does she take her spot in the Stallion Series final, or declare in the Sire Stakes, hope for good luck and slide into the rich championship, or if not hope that a consolation race fills?

The other Stallion Series winner, Sweet Tea, broke her maiden in 1:56 with a big stretch rally after an exhausting pace for driver Marcus Miller, trainer Steven Brabrook, and owner Stephen Klunowski, but with only a fifth in her sole other StS appearance, she also is "on the bubble" to get in the Championship only if others go elsewhere. At least she repaid her scattered backers with a $111.20 win mutuel on Tuesday.

Captain Corey, In Range sharp in freshmen PASS wins at Pocono

Both Captain Corey and In Range added a third Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) victory to their credits in the fourth and final preliminary leg of their 2-year-old division on the Sunday (Aug. 23) twilight card at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono, leaving fans with anticipation about the group's championship event, which will be held here on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 5.

Captain Corey, a son of Googoo Gaagaa–Luv U All, remained undefeated in three lifetime starts with a 7¼ length victory in 1:55. Trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt could control the pace with easy early fractions of :28.4 and :59.2, and then the big no-nonsense colt strode home in :55.3 – :27.3 and looking every bit of a national-level contender. The winner, who has earned $138,063 in just his three PASS starts, is co-owned by Åke Svanstedt Inc., SRF Stable, Knutsson Trotting Inc., and Midnight Sun Partners Inc..

The Bar Hopping–Ilia colt In Range used the same blueprint in taking his PASS cut: backing off the half to :58.3 after a :27.3 opener under Tim Tetrick's guidance, then sprinting to the wire in :56.3 - :28 while 1 3/4 lengths ahead of Fly Light. In Range won three of his four Sire Stakes starts (he got revenge on sole conqueror Fly Light tonight) and also has a Pennsylvania All-Stars win to his credit; he now has earned $178,653 for trainer Marcus Melander and the partnership of AMG Stable Inc., Kenneth Kjellgren, Tomas Hans Asell, and Rick Wahlstedt.

In four $20,000 final-round Stallion Series divisions, trainer/driver Svanstedt also had the fastest winner, the Bar Hopping–Woman Of Character colt Lepanto, who never looked back from the rail and withstood Sunny Crockett, who was trying for a “sweep” of his StS prelims, by a neck in a lifetime best of 1:55.1, avenging his loss in an earlier Stallion race. Lepanto's ownership is Esa Lahtinen, Jussi Hietalahti, and Arvo Ylitain.

Trainer Nancy Takter sent out a pair of winners in Stallion Series action: the Father Patrick–Oh Oh Hereshcomes colt Tremendously, who broke his maiden in 1:58.2 driven by Joe Bongiorno for owners Goran Falk and Christina Takter, and the Cantab Hall–Gala Dream colt Goodashim, who took his first win in 1:57.1 – 28.2 for Dexter Dunn and owning partners Christina Takter, Greathorse, Robert Rudolph, and David Reid.

Cantab Hall picked up a second StS sire credit with the gelding Halls Of Valor (dam Goddess Of War), who broke his maiden in 1:57.1 for driver Tyler Buter, trainer John Butenschoen, and owners Harmony Oaks Racing Stable Inc. and Buter Farm Inc.

MacDonald victorious in return to OSS action

Driver James MacDonald returned to the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) program on Monday (Aug. 24) at Woodbine Mohawk Park and found his way right back to the winner's circle with 3-year-old pacing filly Mary Kat.

The pair lined up at Post 5 in the second $23,150 Grassroots division and got away smartly behind fan favourite Mach My Kiss, who rang up early fractions of :26.4 and :55.3. Landry Seelster rolled up on the outside and pressed Mach My Kiss through the 1:23.3 three-quarters and continued to battle the pacesetter through the stretch, leaving room for MacDonald to swing Mary Kat into an open lane. Once she had a clear view of the finish line, Mary Kat kicked into gear and got a head in front of Mach My Kiss to secure the win in a 1:51.4 personal best. Landry Seelster finished one-half length back in second.

“It was pretty well perfect. I got to follow Doug (McNair with Mach My Kiss) the whole way and then Shep (Robert Shepherd with Landry Seelster) took enough bite out of Doug I was able to get by him down the lane and get her into the winner's circle,” said MacDonald, whose last appearance in an OSS win photo came July 31, one day before he broke his collarbone and suffered a concussion in a racing accident at Woodbine Mohawk Park. “She is a nice little filly. She's been good all year, she just goes out and does her job and she's easy on herself. She's a nice little filly to drive.”

Monday night was MacDonald's second night back in the race bike and the reinsman said, barring any setbacks, he should be back to his full schedule of Woodbine Mohawk Park and OSS races this week.

“Saturday I was just kind of seeing how I felt coming out of it because my arm, it felt great in the bike and stuff, but not doing anything for three weeks you lose those muscles pretty quick. But I felt great on Saturday and I feel great again today, so I think it should be good to go, barring any setbacks or anything,” said MacDonald. “I'm still going down to St. Catharine's quite a bit and seeing my doctor and working with him, so I'll be doing that for a few more weeks anyway and go from there.”

MacDonald piloted Mary Kat to the win for trainer Shawn Steacy of Brantford and owners David McDonald of Cornwall, A K Malik Stable of Ottawa, ON, and Diane Bertrand and Robert Gilhespy of Edmonton, AB. It was the Bettors Delight daughter's second Grassroots win of the season and puts her at the top of the division standings with 144 points.

Lyons Tilt Hanover matched Mary Kat's 1:51.4 clocking in the first division to earn her first-ever Grassroots win. In rein to J. Harris, the fan favourite sprinted by pacesetter Docs Harmony in the stretch and hit the wire two and three-quarter lengths the best. Docs Harmony settled for second and Mouth Watering was third.

“The Three Lyons guys, they called me up and asked if I would train a few for them and she happened to be one. I noticed that she was in the top 20 in points for Grassroots heading into tonight so I kind of wanted to get a start in her last week, and she raced tremendous last week and obviously tonight she was even that much better,” said trainer Anthony Beaton. “She's certainly looking like a nice little filly to have on board.”

Beaton conditions Lyons Tilt Hanover for Three Lyons racing of Brantford, ON. With one win and one second in her three Grassroots appearances, the Bettors Delight daughter now sits among the top 10 point earners with one regular season event remaining.

Coqui Coqui picked up her first Grassroots win of the season in the third $23,500 split. Starting from Post 1 driver Sylvain Filion watched from second as Kit led the field of 10 to a :26.3 opening quarter, but soon had Coqui Coqui moving to the front. Once in control the fan favourites sailed through a :55.1 half and 1:23.4 three-quarters on their way to a two and one-quarter length win in a personal best 1:52.3. Watchful Eye and Rose Run Victory finished second and third.

“There’s not many soft divisions, but this wasn’t one of the tougher ones tonight and she had a great post and Sylvain took advantage of it,” said trainer Rob Fellows of Rockwood, ON. “There’s a lot of nice fillies. If they get a trip they can all beat the other one type thing.”

Fellows trains the Sportswriter daughter for owner/breeder John Turigliatto of Toledo, OH. The win also bumped Coqui Coqui into the top 10 with her stablemate Mach My Kiss.

Odds On Vero Beach took the last Grassroots division with a pocket trip in behind Queso Relleno, who put up fractions of :26.4, :56.1 and 1:24.2 before being collared in the stretch by the fan favourite. Mia Culpa completed the top three.

Yannick Gingras piloted Bettors Delight daughter Odds On Vero Beach to her first-ever Grassroots win for trainer Tony Alagna and owner/breeder Odds On Racing of Boca Raton, FL.

The fillies will make their last regular season Grassroots start at Hanover Raceway on Sept. 5. The top 20 point earners will then return to Woodbine Mohawk Park on Oct. 2 for two $20,000 Semi-Finals, with the top five finishers from each earning a berth in the $75,000 Grassroots Championship on Oct. 10.

Complete results from Monday’s program are available at Woodbine Mohawk Park Results.

Ontario Sires Stakes action continues at the Milton oval on Tuesday, Aug. 25 with three Grassroots divisions for the two-year-old trotting colts. The colts are featured in Races 4, 6 and 8 on the program, which gets under way at 7 pm.

Somebodyslilly, Grace Rocks impress in ISS at Hoosier

Sophomore pacing fillies rounded out a week’s worth of Indiana Sires Stakes (ISS) action at Harrah’s Hoosier Park Racing & Casino with two $32,000 divisions highlighting the evening’s 14-race card on Saturday (Aug. 22). Divisional winners Somebodyslilly visited the winner’s circle for the fourth consecutive time this season while Grace Rocks found the winner’s circle for the first time this season.

Somebodyslilly moved first-over down the backside and paced strong to the wire to score in 1:50.2 in the opening division. Driven by Michael Oosting, Somebodyslilly used a :27 final quarter to track down the pacesetter Mystical Carrie and Trace Tetrack late in the lane to record her fourth consecutive victory and second straight Indiana Sires Stakes victory.

Trained, owned and bred by Eli Schwartz, the daughter of Time To Roll—Somebody’s Artist recorded her fourth win from five seasonal outs and sixth lifetime win from 16 starts. With the win, Somebodyslilly pushed her lifetime bankroll over the $100,000 mark and now sports a lifetime bankroll of $114,100.

In the second division, Joey Putnam guided Grace Rocks to a 10-1 upset victory. After a $163,000 two-year-old campaign, Grace Rocks was able to overcome a long, first-over grind to stop the timer in 1:50.3 and score the first win of her sophomore season. The 1:50.3 victory was also a new lifetime best.

Trained by Britney Dillon, Grace Rocks has now won seven of 15 lifetime starts. The daughter of Rockin Image—Cosmic Grace has amassed $183,560 in lifetime purse earnings for owner Howard Taylor.

Hillexotic wins third straight in PASS Monday at The Meadows

Hillexotic continued to make up for his lost freshman campaign, capturing his third straight race — all stakes — in Monday’s (Aug. 24) Pennsylvania Sires Stake (PASS) at The Meadows. Gangster Hanover took the other division of the event, known as the Hickory Smoke, for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters.

Winning driver Trond Smedshammer, who trains Hillexotic for Purple Haze Stables, indicated it wasn’t injury or illness that sidelined the son of Muscle Hill—Exotic Destination at 2.

“Immature is not the right word, but he was fragile. You couldn’t do much with him,” Smedshammer said. “He just wasn’t ready to be pushed at all. I had him staked to the Hambo, and I thought he could have been that kind of horse, but he caught some kind of bug and wasn’t quite himself. He’s eligible for the Breeders Crown, so we’ll see. He should have some upside.”

He looked anything but dainty in the Hickory Smoke, as he endured a parked-out opening panel and still drew off to triumph by 6-1/4 lengths in 1:53.3. Romanee Blue Chip and DD’s Redemption completed the ticket.

Although the final preliminary PASS leg is set for next Monday at The Meadows, Smedshammer said Hillexotic, who pushed his career bankroll to $131,299, might skip that and rest for the $260,000 championship Sept. 5 at Harrah's Philadelphia.

Gangster Hanover also is on the rebound, coming back from what winning trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt described as a lung infection this past winter that delayed his sophomore debut until July 18.

"He wasn't so sharp his last race, but today he was sharp again," Svanstedt said. "He's a very good horse when he's sound, so I hope he can stay sound now."

In the Hickory Smoke, the son of Father Patrick—Global Desire looked sound, indeed, reaching the point after a contested opening quarter and scoring in 1:54. El Ideal was second, 1-3/4 lengths back, with Chestnut Hill third. Gangster Hanover now boasts career earnings of $191,113 for Ake Svansted Inc., SRF Stable and Brittany Farms. The Hickory Smoke was something of a showcase for Svanstedt, who conditions five of the 11 sophomores in the field.

Shadrack Hanover, Kyrie Deo, Overserved and Saxon took divisions of Monday's subfeature, the Pennsylvania Stallion Series, with Matt Kakaley fashioning a stake double behind Shadrack Hanover and Saxon.

With only two career starts under his belt, Shadrack Hanover might have been expected to object when he was parked out for most of the first three-eighths. But Kakaley said the son of Muscle Hill—Shared Past handled the adversity beautifully.

"I drove him last week at Pocono, and he was really good," Kakaley said. "He has a good attitude for sure. He hasn't had many starts. I think he'll keep getting better."

Ron Burke trains Shadrack Hanover for Elite Trotting.

Chris Shaw and Kakaley each piloted three winners on the 15-race card. Elsewhere on Monday's program, one lucky bettor took down the Super Hi-5 — correctly picking the five top finishers in exact order — worth $25,892.32

Virginia harness meet set for Sept. 2-4

The inaugural "VHHA Matinee Meet" — which replaces the annual Shenandoah County Fair season this year — will be held Sept. 2-4 with a daily post time of 2 p.m.

The Fair itself, which normally is held over a four-day period in the week leading up to Labor Day weekend, was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Virginia Harness Horse Association (VHHA) will instead present a three-day campaign.

Entries will be accepted Monday Aug. 31 for the Wednesday (Sept. 2) card, Tuesday, Sept. 1 for the Thursday (Sept. 3) card and Wednesday, Sept. 2 for the Friday (Sept. 4) program. A condition sheet is online at vhha.net. Electronic entries are encouraged. Purses per race will range from $2,000 - $2,500.

The meet is USTA sanctioned and will feature maximum five-horse fields. There are no entry fees and no double heats.

The barn area opens Monday, Aug. 31. Horsemen will need to present a Coggins and health certificate at the stable gate for all horses that compete. Standard precautionary COVID-19-related measures will be in place and are available at both websites. All individuals will be asked several health questions at the stable gate and forehead temperatures will be taken. If anyone registers a 100.4 temperature or higher, the vehicle and all passengers will be turned away.

"I'm glad that the VHHA is able to sponsor these races and continue the long-standing tradition of harness races in Woodstock this time of year," said Debbie Warnick, VHHA executive director. "It's great that horsemen will have this opportunity to race their horses since all the tracks were closed so long this spring."

A five-week Shenandoah Downs meet will begin two weeks after the VHHA Matinee Meet and will be held from Sept. 18 – Oct. 17 with racing every Friday and Saturday at 2 PM. The barn area for the "Downs" session will open Monday, Sept. 14.

Bain vs. Barnsdale: Battle of Leamington Raceway handicappers heating up

Nicholas "Ace" Barnsdale narrowed the gap this week, but Leamington track announcer Nathan Bain continues to hold the lead after week three of the Leamington Raceway Handicapping Challenge.

Barnsdale, who provides analysis for Ontario Racing's online "Picks From The Pros", closed the gap by landing all 10 of his top choices in the first three finishers.

Bain now leads 215 to 212 after starting the day with a 10-point lead. Both handicappers selected three top-choice winners on the day's card on a day where drivers Marc St. Louis Jr., Tyler Borth, and Gene Piroski all recorded driving doubles.

The Handicapping Challenge is co-sponsored by the Canadian Chapter of the United States Harness Writers

Association (USHWA) and online standardbred marketplace HoofBid. It is contested every Sunday to the final day of the 2020 Leamington Raceway meet on Oct. 25, with $300 awarded to the winner and $200 to the runner-up.

Check out Nick's selections at "Picks from the Pros" at ontarioracing.com and Nathan's on the Leamington Raceway website.

USHWA donates to Goshen Historic Track

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) has made a generous donation to Goshen Historic Track.

"The USHWA executive board felt that being unable to conduct racing this summer put an unprecedented hardship on Goshen Historic Track, as they would not collect funds — from program, ticket and food sales — that typically help to maintain this historic property," said Kimberly Rinker, USHWA president. "USHWA strives to help those within the industry in times of need, and this is certainly one of those times."

Steve Jones, Goshen Historic Track President, concurred.

"We are committed to supporting our horsemen in their time of need, and we encourage everyone in the business to do the same," Jones said. "We strive to maintain the great history and tradition associated with Goshen Historic Track. We sincerely appreciate everyone who contributes to this worthy cause."

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, no spectators will be allowed at the Goshen Historic Track races — the County Fair Races & Landmark Stakes — scheduled for Sept. 6. However, they will be simulcast via the Goshen Historic Track website and Facebook page and on the New York Sires Stakes website.

For more information on how to donate to Goshen Historic Track, call 845-294-5333 or email:

info@goshenhistorictrack.com.

Jessica Hallett, Ronald Huff and Dean Blumenfeld win SOA scholarships

Sandra Kaufman, chairman of the SOA of New York John R. Brennan/MGM Yonkers Scholarship Committee, has announced that Jessica Hallett is the winner of the 2020-2021 Scholarship Award in the amount of $5,000. The second place award of $3,000 went to Ronald Huff and Dean Blumenfeld picked up the third place scholarship award of $2,000. Joe Faraldo, president of the SOA of NY commented that this year's award winners are the recipients of a scholarship named after a long-time good friend, horse trainer and SOA field rep John R. Brennan. We lost John to the COVID-19 virus and our hearts.

Jessica Hallett is currently enrolled at Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, FL. She is pursuing a double major in behavioral neuroscience and biology with a minor in forensic sciences. Jessica enjoys working in the barn with her parents' horses and is a member of the NSU Equestrian Team. Jessica's father John owns several horses racing in New York, Pennsylvania and Florida.

Ronald Huff is currently enrolled at Webber International University pursuing a degree in Criminal Justice Management. Ronald's father Jake trains horses in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Florida.

Dean Blumenfeld is currently enrolled at Arizona State University pursuing a PhD in Anthropology. Dean's father Paul trains horses in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

The annual SOA/Yonkers Raceway scholarships are awarded to SOA members, or members of their immediate families, or to covered individuals (backstretch personnel) or a member of their immediate families, for study beyond the high school level. The recipient is chosen on the basis of merit and financial need. The applicants were judged first by an independent third party to produce the top five candidates. Then the Committee selected the top three winners from the five finalists. Personal information from all the candidates was redacted when presented to the independent party and the Committee to assure a blind judging process.
