The Saa Experience

Harness racing can never have its own Saratoga, but with a true Grand Circuit at Mohawk, it could have something.

by Dean Towers

I, like many race fans and bettors, have been watching and wagering on Saratoga's annual summer meet.

It's truly a meet that has everything. The top trainers, riders and horses descend upon upstate New York in July and put on quite a show, right through early September. Even with a meet some call watered down – they increased race days years ago – it still delivers, with stakes racing most days, and big pools bettors salivate over.

The New York Racing Association does it up correctly, too, with races shown on Fox Sports, and a plethora of great information and promotion through their various social media feeds. You can't run into any bettor or race fan that hasn't listened to a podcast, read a workout report or trip note; one who is not ready for the early and late Pick 5's each and every day.

When we switch over in harness racing, there has never been a similar event for any period of time. One might say the fall Red Mile meet is the closest comparison we have to the Spa, and that's probably correct. It's a wonderful meet we all enjoy. But the signal lacks the same gravitas with bettors, and pool size is not on par with the sport's largest.

I've always thought there's an obvious choice for harness racing's biggest stage, like Saratoga is for the runners, and that's Woodbine Mohawk Park.

As we all know, once the Meadowlands ends, stakes racing returns to various venues, but Mohawk is August's (and early September's) most formidable, with races such as the Metro, Canadian Pacing Derby and Canadian Trotting Classic. But, in all honesty, does it feel special; does it have gravitas?

Despite these great sets of races, I don't think it ever has.

Much of the stakes racing is spread out, and a Thursday card in August feels like a Thursday card in April. The best drivers and trainers attend the venue for the big events, yes, but they jet in and out like Leonardo DiCaprio at Cannes.

I wonder if it's at all possible – and people like John Campbell who has dealt with this for years would certainly have much more insight than I – to compact this into a true Grand Circuit meet.

It'd create a meet where top trainers and drivers contest a stakes race almost every night; one where, Thursday through Sunday, the top horses, drivers and trainers are competing at one venue with all eyes on it. A meet where people are betting into $150,000 Pick 5 pools, mandatory payout super high fives, watching on TVG, all with the backing of Woodbine's powerful promotional and worldwide betting signal machine.

Such a meet would take planning (and schedule shuffling), but Woodbine has been more than game to try new things, witnessed with how they've turned a great jewel like the Queen's Plate into a huge success when compared to 20 years ago. The participants would surely enjoy it, because racing for big money pays the bills, and doing so at a world class venue like Mohawk doesn't hurt. Similarly, the wonderful Grand Circuit is what harness racing is, and has been for almost a century, and anything to give it a boost is good for the game.

Huge pools to bet into, great horses and top drivers and trainers to watch for three or four straight weeks, all at a beautiful harness racing setting outside one of the world's great cities?

No, it's not Saratoga and never will be, but for us harness fans it could be damn close.

It returns in 2022 to provide an exciting conclusion to a great week of sales! The company's last mixed sale posted a racehorse average of $57,308 and was led by race filly and broodmare prospect Creature Of Habit (above) at $350,000.

Paquet's passion is infectious

Quebec's Ghislain Paquet is taking a page from his Passion Courses social media presence in his role as a Mohawk handicapper.

by Melissa Keith

Woodbine Mohawk Park bettors know the name Ghislain Paquet. His selections appear on the track's simulcast show and social media. They may also know him personally. The personable 48-year-old from Quebec City attended this year's North America Cup at the Campbellville racetrack as a media member and was a guest race caller at Red Shores Charlottetown last Saturday (Aug. 20). In 2022, Paquet marked three decades of contributing to the media and wagering side of the game.

"I know and I am friends with many people in Ontario," he told HRU. "With the unexpected great success of my 'Passion Courses' site, this is where the idea of inviting me to become the first analyst-handicapper from Quebec at the biggest oval in Canada came from. I couldn't refuse this offer that I accepted six months ago."

"Passion Courses" is Paquet's French-language Facebook and YouTube channel, where he conducts interviews, tours the occasional farm, and talks racing.

"I decided to create Passion Courses in 2000 in order to shed more light on the harness racing industry and the horsepeople of Quebec, many of whom excel from all over America," he said. "I'm in love with this sport, this industry."

It was a family interest when Ghislain was growing up, but only among certain family members.

"My father Robert and his brothers went to the races in Quebec and Trois-Rivières. From the age of six, seven, I was attracted to this sport that I have not left 40 years later. I love competition. A real passion."

Handicapping was a natural evolution of Paquet's early interest.

"Dad was a great amateur gambler," he recalled. "It was the entertainment side that attracted him to going to the racetracks. I am the only racehorse enthusiast in the family. Neither my brother, nor my sister, nor mom were attracted like me. On the other hand, my sister loves to bet on the races on occasion."

Thirty years ago, Paquet began his race calling career, which has fluctuated with the fortunes of the game in his home province.

"With a diploma in communications in my pocket, I became an announcer at the Quebec racetrack in 1992," he said. "I was 17. I've been told by some that I [was] the youngest professional racetrack announcer in North America. I don't know, actually."

He was track announcer at Hippodrome de Québec from 1992 until its closure in 2009. There is a YouTube video of his final, trackside race call there, posted by Josiane Bergeron, which shows Paquet's expressions instead of the race itself.

Someone shouts "Bravo Ghislain!" as he puts the microphone away, his face shifting from vivid enthusiasm to visible disappointment.

"I was also the voice of Trois-Rivières [Hippodrome 3R] from 1998 to 2008, in addition to being the voice of the Regional Circuit [Circuit régional des courses de chevaux du Québec] since the early 2000s," he said, mentioning the popular matinee races that have outlived all but one pari-mutuel track in the province. "As long as I can remember, I have been announcing Regional Circuit [Fair Circuit] races – for more than 20 years. I love the friendly and family atmosphere there. It is a perfect school for young horses as well as young horse people. Let's never forget that one of the top drivers in the country, Louis-Philippe Roy, is a 100 per cent Regional Circuit student. It's funny

Paquet has also had guest race calls at Hippodrome de Montréal (2010), Georgian Downs (2012), and Red Shores and Charlottetown Driving Park (2009, 2022).

He diversified his career after local year-round racing declined.

"When the races stopped in Quebec, I became a hockey game host in a sports restaurant [La Cage aux Sports, Montreal Canadiens], in addition to doing video advertising for certain businesses and companies, as well as some advertising [voiceover] contracts," he said.

But le passion des courses always remained within Paquet and thousands of other Quebec racegoers. When the four provincial tracks closed in 2009, an instant ban on off-track wagering accompanied the shutdown.

Jamie Martin, then senior vice-president of racing for Woodbine Entertainment, was quoted as stating that half a million dollars was missing from weekly handle at Mohawk and Woodbine ever since Quebeckers became unable to bet.

"Quebecers have always been big fans of horse racing," said Paquet. "Blue Bonnets [later renamed Hippodrome de Montréal]

661 decided to create Passion Courses in 2000 in order to shed more light on the harness racing industry and the horsepeople of Quebec, many of whom excel from all over America," he said. "I'm in love with this sport, this industry."

was once one of the two biggest tracks in America. There are so many good Quebecers from all over Canada and the USA that it's natural for us to take an interest in them and follow them."

Until he joined the roster of Mohawk handicappers, Paquet was perhaps best known for announcing the extra-distance Le 5 Milles endurance race. "The popularity of this great Quebec classic was indescribable. I have described perhaps 20 of them," he told HRU. First established over a century ago, the 10-lap pace eventually moved from Quebec to the Circuit régional tracks.

Handicapping for Woodbine Mohawk Park is a perfect fit for the dedicated student of the game. He recalled the thrill of calling specific races, like Royal Becquet's 1:54.2h track record at Quebec, set on Aug. 30, 2009, and watching stars such as Always B Miki, Wiggle It Jiggle It, and Tall Dark Stranger. "I also have fun driving horses at the fairs, I love it a lot," he said. "I think it's very difficult to take that passion away from us. It's like a passion for life."

On North America Cup night at Mohawk, Paquet was working and also busy translating for some older horsemen who accompanied him from Quebec. Last Saturday at Red Shores Charlottetown, he cheered for Quebec-owned Major Hill in the Gold Cup and Saucer, accompanied by family and friends. Monday night, Paquet's "He's Back" selection in Mohawk's race 10 (Fabrizio N) returned $8 to win. Tuesday was a three-win night there, led by his "lone wolf" top selection Gandalf the Black ($9.30) in race 2. It's all part of his wide-ranging involvement with the sport, which has extended to the next generation.

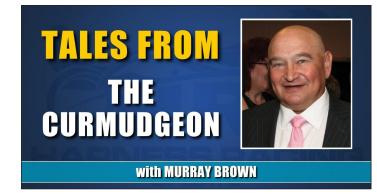

Ghislain's wife, Nancy, also worked in racing for over 30 years, and it appears that the younger Paquets are naturally drawn to handicapping.

"My 13-year-old son Cédrick is far too allergic at the moment to take an interest in my passion," said Ghislain. "Since he knows how to read a racing program, he seems to be interested in it a little more, with an allergy pill of course. My daughter Marika seems to be more interested in it, especially since she had bet on [an overlay] at 17-1 in Charlottetown."

A conversation with the marvelous Paul MacDonell

by Murray Brown

It took more than two years after he was elected to the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame until he received his ring commemorating the honor. However, it was certainly worth the wait and then some according to honoree Paul MacDonell, one of the extremely worthy class of 2022, who were inducted at the recent dinner welcoming that class.

"Without a doubt it was the greatest honor I've received in a lifetime spent in our great sport. I don't think the wait was any great negative, because I knew that I was elected and that twilight of my career, but I still believe that I'm able to compete with the best, among a group of excellent drivers on Canada's premier harness racing circuit. I'm undoubtedly not as good as I was when I was younger, but I still am competitive and I believe I can hold my own.

darned COVID would eventually allow the installation dinner to take place. The dinner itself was just fantastic, especially the part which allowed my dad to be my presenter. Not only was he there, so was my extended family and a good many great friends."

One might ask what is it that led to this great happening. If we were starting most recently, one would point to the numbers — 5,726 racing wins enroute to earnings of $112,701,811 by the horses he drove throughout a six-decade career.

"I'm now reaching the twilight of my career, but I still believe that I'm able to compete with the best, among a group of excellent drivers on Canada's premier harness racing circuit. I'm undoubtedly not as good as I was when I was younger, but I still am competitive and I believe I can hold my own. As is often said, Among the surest of sure things are that Father time and Mother Nature are and always will be undefeated. I realize that I have no control over either of them, especially Father Time. The best I can do is hold them at bay as long as I am able. It's been a great ride. I'm so glad that I've been able to hold on as long as I have. In terms of my driving, I still am able to compete, although I don't drive as much as I used to. I look upon that as not necessarily being a bad thing. I'm 59 years old, in good health. I may not be driving as much as in my younger days, but I'm still quite active. I now am training a relatively small stable of my own, plus I'm still getting some catch drives. I keep busy. That is something with which I've always thrived. I've always been one to get up early. I now have added going to the stable on a daily basis to what I regularly do. It's been a pretty good life. I've done what I've enjoyed doing all of my adult life. I have my health and a great family."

MacDonell said he's blessed to still be driving regularly – and competitively – at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

In my mind (Somebeachsomewhere) is clear out the greatest standardbred of all time. He did and was capable of doing maybe even more than any other horse ever. He was just a wonderful horse. Even though he left us much too early, I believe that he may have surpassed himself on the racetrack with his multiple achievements in the breeding shed.

~ Paul MacDonell

Q: How did it all start and progress?

"My dad was from the Maritimes. As you know, among the most favorite pastimes of the native 'Down Easters' are involvement with horses, more specifically with harness horses. So it was with my dad. He left the Maritimes to work at the General Motors plant in Oshawa. His love and affinity with horses came along with him. He always owned a horse or two which he would race at the "B" tracks in Ontario. For as long as I can remember I'd accompany him when he was racing or going to the stables to. He was a shift worker at the GM plant, so our times with the horses could vary depending on the shift that he was working. I was pretty young when I decided that working with horses was what I wanted to do. I'd groom and jog dad's horses. I don't remember exactly when I started jogging, but I'd guess I was somewhere around eight or nine years old. It wasn't too much later before I started to help dad out in training them. I first started racing at Kawartha Downs from 1981-1984. My first job was working for Doug Brown. I don't think it was planned that way, but I guess I was a catch driver from the very beginning. I started driving and picked up some drives as I made progress. I had a great teacher in Brownie. At the time I worked for him, he was probably the best driver in Canada. It was 1984 when I first came to the Ontario Jockey Club. I was driving at Greenwood and Mohawk on the then OJC Circuit. I did reasonably well and as time went on I gradually did better. I reached the point where I was doing well enough to become known as a full time catch driver. I suppose that with the exception of a couple of brief periods at The Meadowlands in 1985 and 1986 when the horsemen and the OJC were on strike that I've never really left."

Q: You went to The Meadowlands. Were you ever tempted to stay there?

"I thought of doing it several times, but I never really took that next step. I was happy and doing well enough racing in Ontario. There might have been a time or two when I seriously contemplated going to the States for good, but I really never acted upon them."

Q: When one hears the name Paul MacDonell, quite often the name Somebeachsomewhere enters one's mind. I would guess that with the exception of Brent MacGrath and his wife Rhonda you probably spent more time with the horse that many consider to be the greatest ever than anybody else. How did the association come about?

"As far as I am concerned the word 'consider' is not necessary when describing the Beach. In my mind he is clear out the greatest standardbred of all time. He did and was capable of doing maybe even more than any other horse ever. He was just a wonderful horse. Even though he left us much too early, I believe that he may have surpassed himself on the racetrack with his multiple achievements in the breeding shed. That book isn't near completely written yet. His numbers are beyond exceptional. Not only that, he is taking his achievements to another level. There is no doubt in my mind that he will go down in history as the greatest sire ever. Just look at his achievements with his sons and daughters on the racetrack. His daughters are already great broodmares and we've only scratched the surface. Wait until they get bred to horses like Bulldog Hanover. The pacing breed might reach an even more advanced level. Yet, with all that he has done, it is likely that with his sons in the stud he has reached a level never before seen by any other stallion ever. Just think – from a relatively short period of time he is responsible for Captaintreacherous, Downbytheseaside and Huntsville. Stay Hungry is already making waves with his now exciting bunch of 2 year-olds. All that with Papi Rob Hanover and Beach Glass still to be heard from. Trust me - they will be."

Harness Racing Update

Q: You've already left your mark — primarily as a driver. You've seen a lot of great drivers in your career. Which one was the best?

"If I were picking just one, it would be John Campbell. Just check all the records. He holds more of them than anybody else. He won all the races that there were to be won — many of them several times. All of us make errors on the track. John has made less than anybody else. It seems that he was always in the right place at the right time. If there was or is one who is any better, I've never seen him."

Q: How about trainers?

"If we were talking only on a percentage basis, that would likely be Brent MacGrath. I've been fortunate enough to have driven for some of the best ever. If I were picking just one, it would likely be Bill Wellwood. He was in my opinion as great a horsemen as ever lived. Not far behind him is his daughter Paula. One who doesn't get enough credit is John Bax. Now his son Matt is making all sorts of waves. Those two families, the Wellwoods and the Baxes don't train that many, but on a percentage basis, they've probably trained as many top trotters as anybody."

Q: We've talk mostly about your driving. You are now mostly a trainer. How do you enjoy that?

"I love it. I've got a small stable of seven in training right now. I expect to buy two or three yearlings, which will leave me with about '0 this winter. I expect that I will be buying mostly Ontario breds. Our sires stakes program is great. The stakes payments are reasonable and we don't need to ship all around creation to race them."

Q: In looking at Ontario breds are there any sires that you favor?

"With trotters my favorite is Muscle Mass. They are just such nice horses. They are generally pretty talented, plus they are smart, good gaited and show a lot of desire. They usually can be bought without breaking the bank. With pacers Bettors Delight stands alone, not only here in Ontario but also wherever pacers race throughout the world. Big Jim is a horse that I really like a lot. There aren't that many of them and they show up. Once again, they are usually affordable."

Q: You are now in the baby game and as you say, you aren't getting any younger. Have you ever thought about training your stable down south in order to escape the cold Canadian winters?

"Not at all. Of course it can and does get cold. But it doesn't stay too long. It's nothing compared to the way it used to be racing at Greenwood with the bitter cold wind hitting you off Lake Ontario. I can live with a few cool days if I have to. The plusses in staying up here outnumber the minuses. I'm just a few minutes' drive from the stables and close to Mohawk as well. My family is nearby. I get to see my daughters, my grandson and my family almost on a daily basis. Life is good."

Of millionaires and multi-millionaires

by Alan Leavitt

Having rashly predicted great sire success for Rebuff based on his beauty at full stride, it was past time to look at his extended pedigree.

That is said with full understanding that the only worthwhile clue to a stallion's future potential is his record on the racetrack at 2. But it's still fun, and a little bit enlightening, to see where a good horse came from.

Rebuff is sired by Muscle Hill, and out of Meucci Madness, by Yankee Glide. Curious about the word Meucci, it seems to derive from the surname of Antonio Meucci, an Italian-American guy who lived from 1808 to 1889 and is sometimes credited with inventing the telephone. Today, it mainly refers to a manufacturer of pool cues and golf clubs, which I suspect is where our mare Meucci Madness got her name.

Being a believer in the power of judicious inbreeding, it's of interest that Rebuff is inbred, 3 by 3, to Valley Victory. As a reminder, when the sum of the two generations in which the same horse's name appears is six or less, the horse so bred is technically "Inbred."

When the sum of the two generations the same horse's name appears is 7 or 8, the horse with that pedigree is defined as "Linebred."

When neither of these crosses appears in a horse's pedigree, that horse is, by definition, an "Outcross."

The great majority of today's American-bred standardbreds, both trotters and pacers, are outcrosses. One of the advantages this kind of pedigree offers, in the stallions, is good fertility. Thirty years or so ago the American trotter had become highly inbred, with the result a marked loss in stallion fertility. We don't see that problem today.

As a quick aside, if one is curious about the future fertility of a young racehorse, there is a good method of predicting it without doing a test breeding, which has been the usual way.

Most syndicate and purchase agreements are based on test breedings, which, for obvious reasons, are close to impossible to perform until the horse in question has been retired from racing.

The alternative method is to have an experienced repro vet take certain testicular measurements, and put them into a certain equation, and the result will be a 95 per cent accurate number of sperm cells that horse will produce in one ejaculate.

Naturally, there are other questions regarding the quality of the semen that can only be answered by an examination of the real thing, but that equation will answer the biggest question every stud manager has. And, at the risk of redundancy, it can be used anytime during a horse's racing days.

Back to Rebuff, a few words about Valley Victory, his grandsire on both the top line, or Tail Male, and the bottom line, or Tail Mare.

Even though he raced as recently as the 1989, the USTA no longer provides his race lines. He was a perfect seven-for-seven at 3, but contracted a virus and was not entered in the Hambletonian. That virus ended his career, but he went out with 10 straight victories stretching back to his 2-year-old season.

When he entered the stud, he exploded like a hydrogen bomb, and raised the performance level of the American trotter to new heights. He made an indelible impression on the trotting breed with sons such as Muscles Yankee, Victory Dream, Lindy Lane, Donerail, and Yankee Glide.

Valley Victory was highly inbred. He certainly wins this week's "I'm My Own Grandpa Award" in a walk. In case you don't know country music, I'm My Own Grandpa has probably the most complicated lyrics ever written in English which documents all the relationships that ultimately result in the song's title.

Rebuff is not only 3 by 3 to Valley Victory, he's also 4 by 4 to Speedy Crown. That great horse won the Hambletonian himself, sired 3 Hambletonian winners, and is the only standardbred trotting sire whose progeny earnings in one season exceeded not only those of his competitors, but also every North American based thoroughbred sire.

Once again, Rebuff's pedigree also shows the great influence of Charlie Keller, the New York Yankees star outfielder-turned-standardbred breeder. Rebuff's pedigree shows two crosses to Keller's foundation mare China L, which he bought for $1,600.

She was a great bred mare out of Jane Revere, one of the best producers in W.M. Reynold's vast standardbred holdings. Delvin Miller was Reynold's trainer, and he won practically every big race we had including the Hambletonian and the Little Brown Jug.

Every race in those days was raced in heats, and only the Hambletonian was raced, by the rules of the Hambletonian Society, on a mile track. The only other mile track that had a big race was The Red Mile, where the Kentucky Futurity was and still is today held. Although they don't even exist today, The Red Mile meeting in the early fall was the scene of hundreds and hundreds of time trials.

In those days, a record against the fence had value, and even if a filly couldn't beat 2:05, we breeders were happy to get 2:06 or 2:07 on a trotting filly destined for our broodmare band. The last notable time trial in our sport was on Aug. 16, 1993, when Cambest time-trialed at Springfield, IL in 1:46.1. He was trained by Fred Grant and driven by Bill O'Donnell. That was the fastest mile of all time for close to 20 years.

Regarding The Red Mile time trials being an anomaly. When Joe O'Brien trained and drove the powerful string of horses owned by Sol Camp, they won everything at one time or another, including the Hambletonian, at least three times, and the Little Brown Jug. But even when they had a top trotting stakes filly who cried out for a 2:00 record she hadn't got racing, O'Brien refused to go against the fence with her, or any of the other bluebloods in his string.

However, after Sol Camp passed away, and his holdings, including Almahurst Farm, were dispersed, O'Brien went out on his own as a public trainer. And he quickly became the most sought after time trial driver at The Red Mile meeting, where, among other things, he drove Steady Star to the fastest mile of all-time at the time, TT1:52.

So, as we said then and say now: Go figure.

And then there's the article I just read about a great Canadian trainer from the past. In an interview, one of the trainer's longest time patrons had this to say about the guy: "After 10 years with x, I was a millionaire," his owner said.

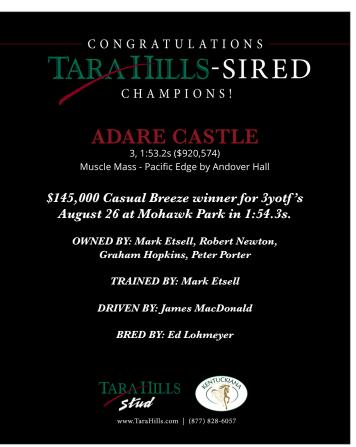

Then he added, "But before he started training for me, I was a multi-millionaire."

Aussie driving icon Chris Lewis not close to retirement

by Adam Hamilton

Don't mention the "R" word to champion driver Chris Lewis.

The icon of Aussie harness racing and the third winningest driver in the southern hemisphere is in the twilight of his 52-year career, but has no plans of retirement.

Lewis, 67, has just topped 5,850 career wins, which puts him behind only Victorian champion Chris Alford (7,734 wins) and the late, great Gavin Lang (6,303).

In his home state of Western Australia, Lewis is almost 1,400 clear of his nearest rival – 40-year-old champ Gary Hall Jr.

"I love the competition and I love winning. I still enjoy it all, the ups and downs," Lewis said.

"I'm always seeing talented younger drivers coming through, but I don't feel pressure. I'm still learning, by that I mean I still have to change the way I do things and get better. You can never rest on your laurels.

"The main difference now is the amount of homework you need to do. I think that's mainly due to the difference between the best horses and the next best getting so much closer these days. There's not much between them, so knowing your rivals – horses and drivers – can be the difference."

That talks to something Lewis is acutely aware of at his age – the importance of his ability to make snap decisions.

"I think our racing (at Gloucester Park) is the most competitive and tightest in Australia. And that means you have a milli-second to be on the ball, make a decision and get out of a situation," Lewis said.

"If I lose that split-second, almost instinctive decision-making, then I'd have to consider why I'm still driving. Hopefully I'll have retired before that.

"Our racing has an element of catch and kill' your own, there are no favors given and you have to be on the ball. It's because there is such an advantage to be up-front at Gloucester Park and it's only a half-mile track with no sprint (passing) lane."

While half-mile tracks are considered tiny these days, Lewis recalls driving at the now defunct Wayville track in his then home state of South Australia. It was only 513m in circumference. Think about that – not much bigger than a quarter-mile.

"It's crazy thinking back to that, just as, in time, it'll be crazy to think we used to race on half-mile tracks when you consider how much faster our horses are getting all the time," he said.

It was back in those South Australian days when Lewis, the son of a very successful trainer, put his name up in lights for the first time courtesy of a brilliant front-running drive on $100 outsider Carclew to win Down Under's biggest race, the Inter Dominion. He beat the then almost invincible champ, Pure Steel.

It was Lewis' first taste of the Inter Dominion and, at just 21 years of age, he became the youngest driver in Inter Dominion history to win the final. He's since driven in another 12 finals, won 14 qualifying heats and won another final on the defining horse of his career, the great Village Kid.

"Carclew winning was up with the greatest moments of my career for all the obvious reasons, especially given nobody expected it," he said. "It's something I'll never forget and never thought I'd top... but then along came Village Kid."

Village Kid is one of Down Under's absolute, all-time greats. He won three of his nine starts in New Zealand before being sold and moving to butcher-come-hobby trainer, Bill Horn, in WA.

The gelding raced and won until he was 13, finishing his remarkable career with 160 starts for 93 wins, 37 placings and earnings of $2,117,870. That would equate to close to $10 million in today's terms.

Lewis has another top horse in Lavra Joe that won his 24th race on Friday at Gloucester Park. Lewis has been in the 4-year-old's sulky for 21 victories.

Lewis drove Village Kid to 88 of his 90 Australian wins.

"Think about this... the last time he went to the track he set a world record for 13-year-old when he time-trialled in 1:55.1 and that was over 30 years ago," Lewis said.

"That me be the most special moment of all because of the ride the horse, myself, Bill Horn and the public had been on with Village Kid. It was a night they held as a fundraiser for sick kids and Village Kid was the star of the show, as usual.

"He's been the standout horse of my career, without doubt. More than being a champion, he just had the most remarkable willto-win, right through until the end. And, at his prime, he was probably the fastest beginner I've not only ever driven, but seen.

"And to share the whole amazing time with Bill (Horn) and his wife Norma, who was also such a big part of it, was extra special. We had a lot of faith and trust in each other over the decade he raced and to keep him going like they did was a huge credit to Bill and Norma."

After all that, it seems so secondary to ask Lewis who the other best he's driven are.

"Saab, Talladega, Hilarion Star and Jack Mac, who is a young horse I drove a couple of years back before he got injured. He was right up with the best and he's back in training, so hopefully we might see him back (at the races)," he said.

But there is another horse who is inspiring Lewis in the twilight of his stellar career.

The Ray Jones-trained 4-year-old Lavra Joe boasts 24 wins from his 40 starts and Lewis has been aboard for 21 of them. The most recent at Gloucester Park last Friday night (August 26).

"He's got the potential to be up with the best I've driven," he said. "It's early days, but on his times, he is right up there.

"I've driven some nice horses and he gives you the feel of a really good horse."

Lavra Joe was an outstanding juvenile, missed a year through injury, but is making up for lost time with an encouraging transition into free-for-all (open pace) racing.

And the timing is good with the biggest races in his home state – the $A300,000 Fremantle Cup and $A450,000 WA Pacing Cup – only months away.

"The way he's come back and if he keeps building, I'm sure he'll be very competitive against the best in those races," Lewis said.

Lewis has five WA Pacing Cups – three of them on Village Kid (1986, '88 and '89) – but his last win was back in 1999 on Saab.

Could Lavra Joe be the horse to do it for him again?

CHAMPION HARNESS TRAINER EMMA STEWART SCORES 100TH GROUP 1 WIN

Trainer Emma Stewart smashed through another massive milestone with her 100th Group 1 training success at Menangle on Saturday (Aug. 27).

Fittingly, the master trainer of young horses did with exciting 2-year-old First Responder in the $175,000 Nutrien colts and geldings final.

Club Menangle

Trainer Emma Stewart recorded her 100th Group 1 training win after Mark Pitt drove First Responder to victory in the $175,000 Nutrien colts and geldings final on Saturday at Club Menangle.

"It's a big thrill, but it sort of snuck up on us to be honest," Stewart said. "We've got some great owners and have been lucky enough to train some terrific horses along the way."

Stewart speaks in plural because although she trains in her name, it is very much a partnership between her and partner Clayton Tonkin.

As they have done so often, Stewart and Tonkin held all the aces going into last night's feature with the first three favourites. They finished first, third (Major Celebrity) and fourth (Petracca).

"We think all three are very serious young horses. We thought there was nothing between them going into the race and that's how it panned out, First Responder got the best run and won. He really sprinted quickly when the run came," Stewart said.

In a frightening warning for rival trainers, Stewart warned there could be an even better two-year-old back in their Ballarat stable.

"I think The Lost Storm is the best of the lot," she said. "He's only had one start and won easily. He'll be back for the Home Grown series in October and then the Breeders Crown and Vicbred."

Last night's milestone moment could be the start of a monstrous finish to the year for Stewart and Tonkin.

They are about to really flex their muscle with a plethora of stable stars ready to race again.

Their major Victoria Cup and Inter Dominion hopefuls Honolua Bay and Like a Wildfire will run next Saturday or the week after.

Then they've got mighty mares like Ladies In Red, Tough Tilly, Joanna and Treachery bubbling away in preparation for the huge Victorian Mares' Triple Crown, starting with the Group 3 Make Mine Cullen at Melton on October 8.

"Ladies In Red is ticking along well. We're being selective where and when we race here because of the number of big races ahead for her in the next few months," Stewart said.

But wait, there's more.

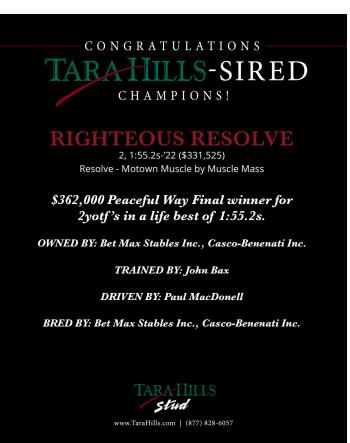

"We've also picked-up a 3-year-old we think can give the Victoria Derby a really big shake," Stewart said. "Captain Ravishing is his name. We think he's outstanding and we're so lucky to have him come to us. He's ready to go any day we can find the right race for him now."

Captain Ravishing has raced just five times for two wins and a second (in a heat of the NSW Derby). He hasn't raced since finishing 10th in that Derby final back on March 5.

Waiting for Captain Ravishing at Derby time will be Andy and Kate Gath's stunning young pacer Catch A Wave, who returned to winning form by a big space at Melton last night.

Racing in block blinker for the first time to help him concentrate, Catch A Wave settled well, looked a more complete racehorse and roared away to win by 16m without being extended.

Caretaker Mikaela Wallin

by Victoria Howard

When embarking in a new venture it's always beneficial to know somebody already in that field who can mentor and help you get started. Such was the case with this month's superstar, Mikaela Wallin.

Royalty bred in the world of harness racing, the name Melander is one of the more elite in trotting circles.

Mikaela's uncle, Stefan Melander, her father's brother, is a Swedish harness racing trainer and driver based at Aby-Farm in Enkoping, Sweden. Among the horses he has trained are top trotters Scarlet Knight, Iceland, Gigant Neo and Nuncio.

Mikaela's brother, Marcus Melander, worked for the great Jimmy Takter before going out on his own. It didn't take long before Melander dominated harness racing with horses Enterprise, Long Tom, Greenshoe, Gimpanzee and Green Manalishi, among others.

THE MERGING OF TWO GREAT HARNESS RACING FAMILIES

In April 2022, Mikaela added another horseman to her personal "Who's Who" list when she walked down the aisle with Swedishborn trainer Lucas Wallin.

Wallin has proven he is someone to be reckoned with. Only in the United States for seven years, the 29-year-old horseman has trained many good horses, one being Rebuff, he bought at the 2020 Lexington sale for $200,000.

That purchase proved to be well worth it for in 2021 the Muscle Hill colt won the Breeders Crown for 2-year-old male trotters, ending his freshman year with seven victories in 14 lifetime starts, and earnings of $573,670.

The passion Lucas had for horses started when he was 8 yearsold living in Sweden. Growing up, Lucas followed his uncle, trainer Joakim Wallin from track to track in Sweden.

Wallin knew immediately he wanted to be a trainer/driver, so when he was asked to come to the States in 2014 to work for top trainer Ake Svanstedt, he didn't think twice.

Making his U.S. debut in 2015, Wallin won 18 of 78 races and earned $192,826 in purses.

While working with Svanstedt, Lucas met his future wife, Mikaela Melander, Marcus Melander's younger sister.

After working with Svanstedt for two years, Lucas decided to go out on his own and at the age of 23 he built his own stable. Starting with one horse he bought at the Meadow Lands sale, it wasn't long before Lucas bought a few at the Lexington and Harrisburg sales; and has been an exciting, up-hill ride ever since.

In fact, this year Lucas fulfilled one of his lifelong dreams when Rebuff competed in the prestigious Hambletonian.

Also an avid horse lover, Mikaela not only trained horses in Sweden, but she drove them occasionally.

"Since I've been in the States I've been lucky to have taken care of Greenshoe, Fourth Dimension, Hypnotic AM and Joviality S," Mikaela said.

"As far as my favorite — Greenshoe was so special to me for we traveled a lot together and I learned so much from him.

"Greenshoe had the funniest personality. He enjoys everything and thinks everything is fun. No matter what it was, Greenshoe did it with pleasure.

"I was beyond ecstatic when Greenshoe went in 1:49.4 at The Red Mile in Kentucky."

Mikaela currently takes care of five horses for her brother, Marcus —one being Joviality S, who finished second in the $1 million Hambletonian on Aug. 6 at the Meadowlands.

Joviality S was one of two talented fillies that challenged the best trotting colts in the Hambletonian: Jiggy Jog S was the other.

"Joviality S gets angry a lot, just like me. She's really a laid back horse, but she has a temperament also. I think that's what makes her so good — she's a fighter," Mikaela said.

Living out their dream, Lucas and Mikaela train on the same farm as Marcus, while being "lovingly" competitive.

"My husband and I are on Stanley Dancer's old farm located in New Egypt, New Jersey.

"We race our horses all over the country and although it gets a bit tiring at times, I wouldn't change it for the world."

The Wallins are expecting their first child, a son, in November. Hopefully, the little Wallin will one day carry on his parent's legacy.

After the mistakes

A case for lists and revisitation.

by Trey Nosrac

"Without reflection, we go blindly on our way, creating more unintended consequences and failing to achieve anything useful."

Margaret Wheatly

Last year, you may have done something like this: you headed to the yearling sales with a list of possibilities, knowing that many would go over your fiscal cliff. In my case, I typed up a list of 20 yearlings heading into the sales ring. Not included on my list were the apparent sales toppers. I folded the paper and stuffed it into my sales catalog. I imagine many of you folded corners in your catalog or created tabs to links on your iPads.

Last fall, I did not come home with any yearlings on my list, but I kept my list. Now that we are deep into the summer of 2022, most 2-year-old horses have qualified. I pull out my list, always curious to learn which ones made it to the races and whether they raced well or marginally.

The point of this exercise is not to tear my hair out for passing on a good prospect or to sigh in relief that I did not buy one I liked – the point is to try to improve. (BTW, only five of my 20 appear to be decent choices, 15, not so much. Only one of the 20 on my list looks to be a stakes performer). I did this postgame analysis to better prepare for this year's yearling sales. Plus, it is fun.

You always remember how the yearling you bought turned out, but it is easy to lose track of the yearlings you had an interest in but did not purchase. You don't learn much by simply rushing into the next game. Failing to reflect on the water over the dam is human nature. Most of us want to get to the next fishing spot. But looking back at our paths not taken in the sales arena is simple, fun, and does not cost a dime. Revisiting the performance of yearlings we favored but did not purchase gives us a chance to test our pet theories and admit what we did wrong.

We all have biases. For example, maybe you could never vote for a political candidate who wears an oversized cowboy hat, or you would not eat a dinner of fried insects, but you may be wrong. Abe Lincoln wore a ridiculous hat, and the scientific investigation reveals that insect diets are healthy, economical, tasty, and sustainable. In reflection, we can, occasionally, overcome our prejudices.

Everyone has different methods and ideas about selecting yearlings — favorite stallions, female families, birth order, etc. Buyers can be scientific, lean into data, or have a feeling in their gut about a yearling. Some of us use theories that others consider dubious at best and may make experts shudder. Many of us find debating these differing valuation concepts an enjoyable part of the process.

As laughable as it may seem, searching for the yearling's family's sales results and minimizing the on-track earnings is one of my biases. In other words, regardless of recent racing results, maybe three or more flops in a row from a mare, I feel a horse in this family is about to pop, and at one time, intelligent people saw some value.

Another theory, foals born after mid-May are automatic outs for many bidders. They are in for me. There may be scientific data on the late foal issue that supports or refutes this theory, but I have yet to find it.

And bidding on a yearling with three or more white feet is usually a no-go for me. However, theories should not be iron clad. Last year, for one of the first times, a yearling that appealed to me had three white feet that climbed almost up to her knees, and this filly made my list of possibilities.

Yearlings from stallions with four or five crops on the ground and have fallen out of favor always get a good hard look from me. Who cares if they may not be the hottest ticket in town, a fading star can be a good value, and I will gladly ride the caboose to glory.

Keep your lists. Looking back on last season's list gives an opportunity, at no cost, to find if your theories are validated or nullified. Reflecting on roads not taken is fun, accessible, and instructive.

Here are some lessons learned from last year's list of horses I did not buy: My percentage of one stake horse out of 20 yearlings is not very good, and that filly with three white feet is racing nicely.

Picking yearlings is not a perfect science, but it is addictive and intriguing. Reflection is good.

My list for this year is under construction, and I will archive the list for next year.

Righteous Resolve wins Peaceful Way final

by Heather MacKay for Woodbine communications

Righteous Resolve's win in Saturday's (Aug. 27) $362,000 Peaceful Way final at Woodbine Mohawk Park gave driver Paul MacDonell and trainer John Bax their third victory in the race for rookie trotting fillies at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as a favorite, Righteous Resolve was content to sit in fourth early while her stablemate Quite Fast and Shesundertheradar battled for early control with the latter prevailing and heading the field past the opener in :27.3.

Warrawee Yes took control before the :57 half but MacDonell brought his talented rookie out from fourth and trotted up quickly to take over the lead before the 1:26.2 third panel and could not be overtaken down the stretch and won well in hand in 1:55.2.

Replay here.

Graceful Patty and Doug McNair took second, with Shesundertheradar third and the other elimination winner from last week, Warrawee Yes, fourth. Bax's other starter, Quite Fast, grabbed the final check with son Matt at the lines. The race's other heavy favorite, Heart On Fire, who Righteous Resolve bested in their elimination, was sixth.

It was the fifth win in six starts this year (the other start was a second) for the Resolve daughter owned by breeder Bet Max Stables of Michigan. The victory put Righteous Resolve's purse earnings over $330,000. The filly is the fourth foal of her dam, the top Ontario Sires Stakes performer Motown Muscle, who won $460,000 in her career.

Bax is quite familiar with the family. He raced his good mare Charmed Life against Motown Muscle during their 2- and 3-year-old seasons (where they also had to face the formidable Bee A Magician). Since retiring to the broodmare ranks, Motown Muscle has had four foals and Bax has trained three of those including last year's top 2-year-old trotting colt in Canada Duly Resolved.

Bax said Righteous Resolve is often compared to Duly Resolved.

"She's pretty masculine, she's a big, strong filly. I keep comparing her to her brother and she's bigger and more masculine than he is. I'm hoping down the road that bodes well for her racing. As far as the race went, Paul does what Paul does. Once he gets to know the horse, he's been around long enough to know what to do with them."

MacDonell described the trip as follows: "Leaving the gate I just wanted to get her away clean and let them settle. When I moved her she was strong and she was strong all the way, she's done that every start so far this year and I haven't reached bottom yet."

For MacDonell and Bax it was their third Peaceful Way title having also won with Riveting Rosie in 2013 and Stubborn Belle in 2014.

"We go back a long time. I've driven for John quite a few years now, he's been in my corner all the way," MacDonell said.

It's a big night for Bax who had two in the Peaceful Way and another three in the upcoming William Wellwood final. When asked what the week was like knowing he had five starters in the rich finals, the amiable trainer said, "It's just day to day, you just put one foot in front of the other. It's pretty exciting to have that many in the big races. A lot of years you're wishing you were there but you don't have the stock. To get five like we have this year it's pretty gratifying."

When asked what's next for Righteous Resolve he said, "Talk to the owners, maybe the Mohawk Million. I'd like to see them do it. You want to make sure she's healthy and you're wanting to make as much as you can with her without jeopardizing next year."

The Peaceful Way is named in honor of one of the most talented trotting mares every produced in Canada. Inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame shortly after the conclusion of her incredible racing career, Peaceful Way earned in excess of $3.2 million in purses and returned to the winners' circle 33 times in 52 tries.

Angie Stiller of Stonebridge Farms of Arva, ON bred the daughter of Angus Hall and co-owned her throughout her racing career with Joe Myers and trainer Dave Tingley. A winner of four O'Brien Awards throughout her career, Peaceful Way was inducted into the US Harness Racing Living Hall of Fame last year.

Woodbine Entertainment honored the incredible performer with a trackside retirement ceremony in 2007 and renamed the Oakville Stakes, which Peaceful Way won in 2003, to the Peaceful Way in her honor.

Nassagaweya and Eternal Camnation divisions contested at Mohawk

by Heather MacKay for Woodbine communications

The full menu of Grand Circuit stakes action on Saturday (Aug. 27) at Woodbine Mohawk Park included the Nassagaweya and Eternal Camnation Stakes.

A NASSAGAWEYA SWEEP

Rookie pacing colts owned by 3 Brothers Stables and Caviart Farms captured both of the Nassagaweya Stakes divisions for 2-yearold pacing colts in impressive fashion.

The $127,650 first division saw Captain Batboy and Tim Tetrick with the early lead and they sped by the opening quarter in :26.3. The heavy favorite Save America took over just past that point and hit the half in a sensible :56.1 for Yannick Gingras.

Save America picked up the pace through the next quarter and paced by the three-quarters in 1:24.3 and could not be caught down the stretch hitting the wire in 1:51.4. Captain Batboy stayed tight on the cones to take second while Ontario-sired Write Me A Rose was third for Sylvain Filion.

Replay here.

It was the second win in just three starts this year for Save America owned by 3 Brothers Stables and Caviart Farms. Tonight marked his first start since his impressive 1:49.4 victory in the Kindergarten Stake on August 4 at the Meadowlands but trainer Nancy Takter said she wasn't too concerned about the time between races.

"He had a little time off before the Kindergarten too so I had that in the back of my mind that he would be okay," Takter said. "I trained him about 10 days ago, a mile in :55 at the farm and he was very good. He had a lot of foundation and conditioning so I wasn't super concerned. Obviously race speed and training speed are different, but he did well tonight.

"He's a very honest colt, he always gives everything he has. He's a professional and I'm happy with him."

Takter said the colt will remain in Ontario for the next few weeks to compete in the Champlain and Metro.

Saturday's effort put Save America's purse earnings over $76,000 on the year. The son of Captaintreacherous was bred by Fred Hertrich and sold for $300,000 at last year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA. He is a half-brother to Stag Party, a winner of $962,000 in his career and a winner of a Nassagaweya division in 2018 by an impressive 10 lengths. His half-sister is $594,000 winner Hen Party.

In the $128,650 second division it was Ace Of Aces grabbing early control for James MacDonald. That pair were by the opener in :27.2 and just past that point pocket sitter and favourite Huntinthelastdolar took over. Before the :56.3 half was reached Tickertape Hanover flew up quickly for Dexter Dunn to grab the first position.

That quick colt flew by the three-quarters in 1:24 and pulled away from his rivals down the stretch to win in 1:51.2. Ace Of Aces was second followed by Stormalong and Huntinthelastdolar. Replay here.

Bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, Tickertape Hanover was a $160,000 purchase in Harrisburg by 3 Brothers and Caviart. The effort was an impressive maiden breaking performance for the son of Huntsville who was making his fifth official start for trainer Linda Toscano.

Scott Zeron drove Tickertape Hanover at the start of the year including three baby races but he has been on the sidelines since an accident in July and Dunn made sure to give a shout out to the popular driver prior to talking about the trip and the rookie pacer.

"Quick shout out to Scotty – (Tickertape's) a beautiful colt, if you look at him physically he's very strong. When you sit behind him he gives you that feeling of power," said Dunn who was obviously pleased with the trip. "I was pretty happy where I was, I took a shot and made a move. He's the type of colt that once I got him rolling in top gear he carried it a long way."

Toscano said Tickertape Hanover, "was a big growthy colt. It took a little longer to get him going but he did everything I asked him to do. Scotty laid a great foundation and I'm glad to break his maiden. I've been under no pressure whatsoever by the owners, they're thinking toward the end of the year and he's come into it perfectly. I'm going to take him home tomorrow and bring him back for the Metro."

BIG EFFORTS IN ETERNAL CAMNATION SPLITS

The Eternal Camnation Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies saw a pair of divisions contested.

Bankers Luck and driver Doug McNair Luck rallied from a thirdover position to win the $118,150 first division in 1:52.1.

Replay here.

The Tony Alagna trainee had been forwardly placed in her prior starts, but made things work with the off-the-pace trip for her third win in six starts.

Treacherous Penny moved to the lead in the second quarter and posted panels solid panels of :55.3 and 1:23.1 to bring the field into the stretch. The leader couldn't hang on and dropped back to finish third. Bankers Luck powered by all rivals for the score, while Windsun Tiara also finished up well to grab second, beat just a neck.

A daughter of Hes Watching, Bankers Luck has now earned $115,748 for owner/breeder Brittany Farms.

A $2 win ticket on Bankers Luck returned $6.80.

Sylvia Hanover edged a game Caviart Davia in a thrilling finish to the $117,150 second division.

Driven by Bob McClure, Sylvia Hanover got away fourth and would march first up on the final turn. Tony Alagna trainees Bellisima Hanover and Caviart Davia exchanged the lead around the half, which popped up in :55.2. Caviart Davia led down to three-quarters in 1:23.1.

In the stretch, Sylvia Hanover overtook the leader, but Caviart Davia gave her a fight. The fillies battled down to the wire with Sylvia Hanover winning by a head. Bellisima Hanover finished third.

Replay here.

A daughter of Always B Miki, Sylvia Hanover is now three for four and has earned $117,825 for owners Hudson Standrdbrd Stb Inc. The Shawn Steacy trainee was a $135,000 purchase at last year's Harrisburg Yearling Sale.

Sylvia Hanover and her connections will now be looking ahead at the remaining Grand Circuit events at Mohawk Park, including the rich Shes A Great Lady.

A $2 win ticket on Sylvia Hanover returned $3.10.

Jimmy Freight (Louis-Philippe Roy) won the first Canadian Pacing Derby elimination on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:49.1.

Ontario

Freight train, Bulldog keep rolling in Canadian Pacing Derby eliminations

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

The field is set for the 2022 Canadian Pacing Derby following a pair of $40,000 eliminations on Saturday night (Aug. 27) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Jimmy Freight and Bulldog Hanover captured their respective eliminations, rolling into next Saturday's rich final in top form. Each elimination featured a field of seven with the top-five finishers advancing.

With familiar face Louis-Philippe Roy in the race bike, Jimmy Freight, owned by Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Jimmy Freight Stable, was full of pace late, storming home down the lane to take the first Derby elimination in 1:49.1.

Replay here.

It was fleet-of-foot Warrawee Vital who called the shots early, blasting off the gate and assuming command going into the first turn as Lous Pearlman followed in second with Jimmy Freight tucked into third.

In front after a quarter in :27.4, Warrawee Vital was still unfettered on the lead through a half in :56.1 with Lous Pearlman and Jimmy Freight maintaining their second and third position, respectively.

Roy continued to keep a patient hand as the field approached the three-quarter mark, as Trevor Henry called on Warrawee Vital for his best as rivals closed in from all sides. Mid-way down the lane, Jimmy Freight hit his best stride, rocketing along the inside to hit front en route to a 1  $\frac{3}{4}$ -length score.

A game Warrawee Vital secured second, Poseidon Seelster finished third and Lous Pearlman was fourth. Rockyroad Hanover, who went off as the 3-5 choice, eked out the fifth spot to move on to the final.

"Jimmy Freight made it look so easy for me," said Roy, of the multiple stakes winner who posted his 33rd career victory. "It makes my job east. You can do whatever you want. You're almost never in a bad position, bad spot. You just respect the horse a little bit and he's going to give you all he has."

It's something co-owner Adriano Sorella has seen time and again from the 7-year-old son of Sportswriter—Allamerican Summer.

The bay pacer, who had been temporarily sidelined due to injury this season, was at the top of his game in a sparkling elimination effort under the lights at Mohawk.

Harness Racing Update

"He looked good tonight," said Sorella, of the veteran star who won the 2022 Mohawk Gold Cup Invitational in June. "We aimed for the Canadian Pacing Derby... and we're ready for it."

Bred by Alan Eden and Randell Eden, Jimmy Freight, back in the barn of trainer Richard Moreau, returned $9.40 for the win.

It wasn't the easiest trip for Bulldog Hanover, but the end result was exactly what was expected in the second Canadian Pacing Derby elimination.

Leaving from the outside post seven, Bulldog Hanover, with Dexter Dunn in the sulky, couldn't find a spot along the rail initially as My Pal Joe was in front at the quarter in :26.2, but This Is The Plan soon took over the lead and guided his six rivals through a half in :54.1.

Desperate Man, with Trevor Henry at the controls, popped to the outside ahead of the three-quarter pole, and last year's Pepsi North America Cup winner stormed to the front around the turn for home as Dunn unleashed Bulldog Hanover to the outside.

The 4-year-old bay, who paced the fastest mile in the history of harness racing winning the William R. Haughton Memorial in 1:45.4 on July 16, stormed to the front late and went on to notch another convincing triumph.

At the wire, Bulldog Hanover was a 2 ½-length winner in 1:48.0. Desperate Man was second, Tattoo Artist was third and Abuckabett Hanover fourth.

"I was happy to take a helmet," said Dunn. "He's been on the front for quite a few starts now. The speed was on, so we just took a back seat and got a good trip after that. He knows his job. He's such a cool horse to drive. The last eighth, was when he was just starting to warm up it felt like."

Trained by Jack Darling and co-owned with Brad Grant of Milton, ON, the son of Shadow Play—BJs Squall made it eight straight trips to the winner's circle while boosting his record to 23-3-1 from 31 career starts.

"I was just a little bit nervous," said Darling, of the early stages of the race. "It wasn't the plan. But I've actually been hoping that he could catch a trip like that and just race from behind one of these times. I like to say he's a phenomenal horse, he's got a great driver, an excellent caretaker, a lucky trainer and a couple lucky owners."

Does the record-holding star pacer have more to offer?

"I guess we're going to keep finding out," offered Dunn.

Bred by Hanover Shoe Farms, Bulldog Hanover paid $2.30 for the victory.

The draw for next Saturday's $650,000 final took place following the eliminations. Bulldog Hanover and Jimmy Freight had the right to select their posts following their elimination victories.

- 1 Rockyroad Hanover
- 2 Jimmy Freight
- 3 Abuckabett Hanover
- 4 Bulldog Hanover
- 5 Poseidon Hanover
- 6 Desperate Man
- 7 Lous Pearlman
- 8 Tattoo Artist
- 9 Workin Ona Mystery
- 10 Warrawee Vital

Winners Bet takes William Wellwood Memorial, next stop Mohawk Million

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The aptly named Winners Bet got up in the final strides to best stablemate International Man in the $665,000 William Wellwood Memorial and punched his ticket to the prestigious Mohawk Million.

If the Wellwood, for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings, is any indication of what's in store for the Million, fans will want to circle Sept. 24 on their calendars.

Speed was the name of the game early as Tuscan Prince, Dahlquist Hanover, and Oh Look Magic slugged it out through an opening panel posted in :27.4. Tuscan Prince and Oh Look Magic continued their front-end throwdown in :56.1, as Dexter Dunn, in rein to Winners Bet, watched the action from in fourth.

As the field approached three-quarters, Winners Bet and International Man continued to gather momentum, setting up a stretch showdown between the Domenico Cecere trainees.

Winners Bet, to the outside, was able to wear down a stubborn International Man, the latter a neck in front at the stretch call in 1:25, to record a three-quarter length win in a time of 1:54.1.

It was the third straight win for the brown colt, owned by Lindy Farm of Connecticut and Robert Rudolph, who launched his career with a third on June 30 followed by a second on July 22.

Now, the rookie trotter will have the chance to deliver his connections an even bigger prize in the Mohawk Million.

Winners Bet earns an automatic berth, for free, into the race in four weeks. The other nine starting spots were purchased for $100,000.

"It feels really good," said Dunn, who enjoyed a big night at Mohawk, including piloting Bulldog Hanover to a 1:48 score in the second Canadian Pacing Derby elimination. "Domenico is a good friend. I know how hard him and his team work to get his horses right for race day, so a result like that is a good feeling."

Especially with a youngster still learning the game.

"He's quite green still," said Dunn. "I was really happy with where we got away. We got a good trip after that and a great helmet to follow from Domenico's other horse."

Cecere was understandably pleased with the one-two finish.

"I can't describe [the feeling]. It's unbelievable. I don't know why, but I was very relaxed. They always show they are nice horses, and they have a lot of power. I was very confident. It's fantastic. It's unbelievable. You work hard and you get the result, it's way better. He's fantastic. We'll keep him healthy as we can and keep doing the best job we can, and he will take care of us. He's a nice colt and he's still learning."

Bred by S R F Stable, Winners Bet was a $200,000 purchase (Hip# 321) at the Lexington Select Sale in October 2021.

He paid $7.20 for tonight's victory.

The William Wellwood Memorial is in named in honour of one of the most respected and talented horsemen who starred on the WEG circuit and beyond. Inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in 2001, William Wellwood died two years later. His widow, Jean, was on hand Saturday for the post-race festivities. The former Campbellville Stakes became the William Wellwood Memorial in 2005.

Adare Castle victorious in Casual Breeze

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Adare Castle added to her tremendous sophomore season with a 1:54.3 victory in Friday's (Aug. 26) Casual Breeze Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A field of seven 3-year-old trotting fillies clashed in the $145,000 Grand Circuit event.

Friday's contest was supposed to serve as a matchup between local stars Warrawee Xenia and Adare Castle, but an early break by Warrawee Xenia changed that storyline.

Adare Castle was able to maneuver around her breaking rival heading into the first turn and would touch down on the lead shortly after a :27.2 opening-quarter. Driver James MacDonald got full control the front and enjoyed a middle-half :59.3 to take the field by three-quarters in 1:27.

The final quarter saw Adare Castle step home in :27.3 for the victory. Baby Longstocking, who enjoyed a two-hole trip, did her best to stay right at the leader, finishing second by three-quarters of a length. Mischevious Rose came first up from fourth on the far turn and crossed the line third.

While Adare Castle improved to six for seven on the season, MacDonald admitted that it's not as sweet without getting the chance to go toe-to-toe with Warrawee Xenia.

"You want to beat them at their best, you don't want to see anyone else make a break or have bad luck," said MacDonald. "It was unfortunate because I think a lot of people wanted to see them square off, but we're happy to end up in the winner's circle."

Trained by Mark Etsell, Adare Castle has now won 13 of 16 career starts and went over the $900,000 mark in earnings with Friday's victory.

"She's the epitome of consistency," said MacDonald. "She shows up every time she goes behind the gate and just gives you everything she's got. Lots of times she looks like she might be beat or tired and she just finds more. She's a real champion."

The daughter of Muscle Mass will now compete in next Saturday's Simcoe Stakes. Trainer Etsell confirmed a schedule of the Simcoe and Elegantimage before returning to the Ontario Sires Stakes for his star filly.

Atlanta (Sylvain Filion) won the $50,000 open trot on Friday in 1:52.3. The event was a preview of next Saturday's Maple Leaf Trot final.

Adare Castle is owned by Etsell, Robert Newton, Graham Hopkins and Peter Porter. She paid $4.80 to win.

Friday evening's card also saw a small preview of next Saturday's Maple Leaf Trot, as six of the entrants battled in a $50,000 Open Trot.

Atlanta, the 2020 Maple Leaf Trot champion, went coast-to-coast on the front for a 1:52.3 score. The Ron Burke trained superstar got to call the shots with driver Sylvain Filion, posting fractions of :27.2, :56.1 and 1:24.4 before a :27.4 kicker.

Its Academic followed Atlanta throughout and finished second by just over two lengths. Forbidden Trade was able to edge Perfetto for third. Logan Park and Locatelli both made breaks near the start to round out the field of six.

Atlanta now has four wins in nine starts this season to push her career total to 35 wins. The 7-year-old mare surpassed $200,000 in seasonal earnings and currently sits at $3.5 million for her remarkable career.

Crawford Farms Racing, Brad Grant and Howard Taylor share ownership of Atlanta. She paid $3.30 to win.

The draw for next Saturday's Maple Leaf Trot final will take place Saturday night. The full field (listed in alphabetical order) is available below:

Rip Wheeler reels off an upset in ISS at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Emily Gaskin / Harrah's Hoosier Park

The Hoosier state's top 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings were back in action at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Friday (Aug. 26) as the evening's 14-race card was highlighted by one $97,000 division of Indiana Sires Stakes. It was the fifth round of the eight-round series for the pacing colts as they all looked to gain valuable points for the season-culminating $250,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Finals slated for October 14 at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

It was Rip Wheeler and driver Brandon Bates who turned in a valiant stretch rally to pull the 7-1 upset and stop the timer in an impressive 1:48.4. Leaving from post seven in the talented field of nine, Rip Wheeler settled along the rail in fifth while a host of others left for position. Ponda Warrior and Jimmy Whittemore were the first to get a call through the opening panel in :26.3 but eventually yielded the lead to the post time favorite, JK Victory and Trace Tetrick.

Jk Victory led to the half in :55 and when the field reached the third station in 1:22.1, Bates had Rip Wheeler on the front and on a mission. Using a :26.3 closing kick, Rip Wheeler was able to keep his challengers at bay and get the win by three lengths. Ponda Warrior held on for second while Sure Thing Herman and Atlee Bender rounded out the trifecta. Rip Wheeler returned $16.20 for the victory.

Trained by Walter Haynes Jr., the gelded son of Rockin Image—Novascotia Hanover recorded his sixth win from 16 starts this season. Owned by Jeff Fought and David E. Fought, Rip Wheeler recorded a new lifetime best while pushing his lifetime earnings over the $100,000 mark with the victory. The victory was also one of three driving wins on the card for Bates.

PONDA ADVENTURE PUSHES UNBEATEN STREAK TO EIGHT

Ponda Adventure turned in another dominant performance at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Thursday (Aug. 25) as the 3-year-old trotting colt sensation continued his winning ways in the co-featured event of the evening, a $48,000 split of the Indiana Sires Stakes. With regular pilot Trace Tetrick in the bike, Ponda Adventure utilized his customary gate-to-wire tactics to score by three-parts of a length in 1:53.1 over Swan Flyer and Jay Cross. With the win, Ponda Adventure remains undefeated in eight starts this season and is now 16 for 18 lifetime.

Leaving from post two, Ponda Adventure stepped away from the gate to grab the early lead through an opening panel in :27.4. Ponda Adventure went uncontested through splits of :56.2 and 1:25.1 while the rest of the field remained in single file order. Using a :28 final quarter, Ponda Adventure was able to keep the pocket-sitting Swan Flyer at bay to get the victory.

With the win, Ponda Adventure has now amassed $453,912 in lifetime purse earnings for his ownership connections of Engel Stable, L A Willinger, and J D Graham. The gelded son of Swan For All—Wildflower was bred by Pond-A-Acres. Ponda Adventure's victory was one of two driving victories for Trace Tetrick.

In the first division of the stakes action, it was Swan Captain who pulled off a 7-1 upset to score in a new lifetime best of 1:52.1. With driver John DeLong in the bike, Swan Captain found late racing room in the lane to track down the pacesetting Dover In Motion and Ricky Macomber Jr. to get the win by three lengths.

Trained by Roger Welch, Swan Captain has now won four of 12 starts this season and pushed his lifetime bankroll to $169,925. Owned in partnership by W.C DeLong, W.P. DeLong, and G.C Wright, the son of Swan For All—Yoga recorded his fifth lifetime victory from 20 trips behind the gate.

Slay wins thriller in NYSS at Batavia Downs

by Tim Bojarski for Batavia Downs

The New York Sire Stakes for 3-year-old trotting colts, geldings and fillies were held at Batavia Downs on Friday evening (Aug. 26) with a total of $232,700 in purses available for the 17 state-bred participants. There were two divisions for fillies and a lone male division that had a purse of $119,800 and that was a heavyweight fight.

Slay (Chapter Seven—Swinging Royalty) got a perfect trip from driver Joe Bongiorno and ran down Molotov Cocktail in deep stretch to claim a narrow victory.

World At War Deo (Wally Hennessy) took over the lead from Chapheart (Trond Smedshammer) at the :28 quarter and got a short breather to the half before the action really picked up. Molotov Cocktail (Brian Sears) was the first to pull and Slay was happy to get his cover as they moved around turn three on the second circuit.

They headed up the backside in two rows with World At War Deo still in front with Molotov Cocktail right by his side as they motored to three-quarters. Around the last turn, Molotov Cocktail took the lead in the middle of the track and Slay tipped off his cover going three deep, and the pair hooked up from there. The two trotters were at full speed down the stretch, matching strides all the way. Molotov Cocktail and Slay were inseparable under strong urging from their drivers until just before the line where Slay got a neck in front and won in 1:55.4.

It was the second straight win and fourth of the year for Slay ($4.60) who now has $262,897 made in 2022 for Crawford Farms Racing and James A. Crawford. Tony Alagna trains the colt bred by Jonas Schlabach.

Then there were the girls.

The first field of four fillies vied for $55,900 and Cash Infusion (Chapter Seven—Swing Anna Cash) delivered as expected.

Tyler Buter took Cash Infusion off the gate while In A Tiny Way (Jordan Stratton) settled in the lead. But that last only an eighth of a mile before Buter rushed the front and took command. The group remained single-file until the five-eighths when La Vie En Blanc (Joe Bongiorno) pulled first up and leveled off in second outside of In A Tiny Way. Around the last turn Cash Infusion started to swell up and opened up 1-½ lengths by the top of the stretch. Down the lane Buter sat chilly as Cash Infusion coasted home on top by 2-¼ lengths in a new lifetime mark of 1:55.3.

It was the third win of the year for Cash Infusion ($4.40) who has now earned $132,723 this year for owners William Donovan, Purnell & Libby, Joe Sbrocco and the George Ducharme Stable. George Ducharme also trains the winner that was bred by Jonas Schlabach.

The second group of five lined up for $57,000 Valentina Blu (Chapter Seven—Corazon Blue Chip) was very strong in victory.

Seven On The Rocks (John Stark Jr.) went quickly for the lead but the spot was short-lived as Joe Bongiorno took over with Valentina Blu before the quarter that went :29.1. There were no changes in order until the backstretch when Je Suis Si Belle (Andy Miller) charged the leader with She's A Scorcher (Jordan Stratton) following close behind. The top four trotted in two rows around the last turn with only three lengths between them until they straightened out. In the stretch, Valentina Blu dug in under a drive and opened up by 1-½ lengths at the light and won in 1:56.1.

It was the second win in a row and third of the year for Valentina Blu and pushed her 2022 earnings to $122,125. Crawford Farms owns the Tony Alagna trained filly that was bred by Spring Haven Farm and Doug Millard. Due to multiple stable entries, Valentina Blu raced for purse only.

Stonebridge Helios and Kolby Two Step grab more OSS Gold legs

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Familiar faces were back in the winner's circle in Friday evening's (Aug. 26) Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Stonebridge Helios picked up his third Gold win of the year, while Kolby Two Step grabbed his second in Friday's fourth leg of the season.

Despite a rough beginning, Stonebridge Helios came up large with a powerful 1:49.4 score in his $100,400 Gold division.

Driven by Doug McNair, Stonebridge Helios had troubles at the gate and spotted his rivals a handful of lengths when the wings folded. St Lads Sterling rocketed out to the lead and posted strong fractions of :26.1, :54.2 and 1:22.3.

McNair gave 'Helios' his cue to roll at the half and the race-favourite turned in a big final-turn move to pace up beside the leader.

In the stretch, Stonebridge Helios muscled by St Lads Sterling to post a near two lengths victory for his third sub-1:50 win of the season.

"He's kind of a tricky horse leaving the gate," said McNair about the start of the race. "Some nights he's better than others and tonight when I scored him out, he was just like he was behind the gate."

Friday's victory gives Stonebridge Helios six wins in nine starts this season.

"They were just stretched right out and rolling right along and he felt like he was going a half in a minute. He's quite a horse. When I moved him he just come up right alongside (St Lads Sterling) like it was a great trip, but it really wasn't. He's a real special horse."

A son of Sunshine Beach, Stonebridge Helios is now four for five since joining the barn of trainer Gregg McNair. The latest Gold victory gives the sophomore 10 career wins and pushes his earnings over $542,000. John Fleischman and Angie Stiller share ownership.

Stonebridge Helios paid $2.20 to win.

The $101,300 first division saw Kolby Two Step take command in the second quarter and never look back for a 1:51.2 victory.

Betterhavemymoney shot out early to post a :26.4 opening-quarter, while Sport Secret sat parked around the turn pushing towards the lead. Kolby Two Step and driver MacDonald got away fourth after starting from the rail and quickly brushed to the lead in the second quarter. The new leader got things his own way, posting a half of :55.3 and three-quarters of 1:24.3.

The final quarter saw Kolby Two Step sprint home in :26.4 to seal the deal with Sport Secret pacing the same clip right behind to finish second by a length. Betterhavemymoney finished third, while Century Inspector was fourth after coming first-up on the final turn.

The Tim Gillespie trained Kolby Two Step is now a two-time winner on the season with both wins having come in OSS Gold events. The sophomore pacer did not start in the most recent leg, but now has wins in back-to-back Gold events at Mohawk Park.

"Tim's done a great job managing him. I thought maybe skipping Georgian wasn't the best, but I think the horse had a little issue and wasn't 100 per cent," said James MacDonald. "He got a nice tightener last week and tonight he was back like he was when he won the last Gold. (Tim's) done a great job and the horse keeps performing, fingers crossed he stays good."

Kolby Two Step now has two wins and $162,150 earned in eight starts this season. Friday's win boosts the gelded son of Betterthancheddar's career numbers to five wins and $276,287 for owners Gillespie and Jason Churchill.

Kolby Two Step paid $3.90 to win.

The fifth and final Gold leg of the OSS season will take place on Sept. 30 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Unevergonnagethis scores big in first OSS win

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

Eleven sophomore trotters competed for $199,900 in the fourth Ontario Sires Stakes Gold leg Thursday (Aug. 25) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and Unevergonnagethis came away with the upset win, establishing a new lifetime mark of 1:53.3 in the process.

Star Power Hanover showed early speed from post 9, with Scott Young sending him straight to the front and setting a blistering opening panel of :26.1.

Unevergonnagethis was one position to the inside of the early leader leaving the gate and sat two-wide in fourth entering the first turn.

Jody Jamieson made the decision to send his charge to the lead, and the Jeff Gillis trainee was game, moving to the front and settling into the pylons in time to lead the field at the half-mile in :56.1.

Harness Racing Update

"I was pretty concerned when :26.1 flashed up," said Gillis. "That's a lot more than he's ever been over the quarter before, but he answered the bell. I was proud of his effort."

Unevergonnagethis led the rest of the way. Armstead Cole tried a first up move, and race favourite Twin B Archie found racing room in the lane but finished two lengths back in second. It was the first OSS score and fourth victory this season for the Muscle Mass gelding who paid $24.90 for the win.

Gillis, a resident of Fergus, ON purchased Unevergonnagethis off OnGait in March.

After qualifying in June, Unevergonnagethis reeled off three straight wins in the conditioned ranks at Mohawk. Proving Gillis' instinct correct that while he was winless at 2, he showed potential from his four starts, and one in particular.

"He made a break, spotted about 20 lengths, and was charted in two minutes or something," said Gillis. "The ability was clear. Just a matter of time, and maturity, and we're fortunate to get him."

The winner's share of the purse was $99,950 moving Gillis' charge to $151,756 in career earnings. The biggest score of his life earned Unevergonnagethis at least one week off.

"There's a little gap to the last Gold, it's October 4th, so we'll probably try and freshen him a bit and have him on the top of his game for then," said Gillis.

Unevergonnagethis is the fourth different 3-year-old trotter to win at the Gold level this season, setting up an exciting finish as the Oct. 15 Super Final approaches.

Twin B Archie's second place result continues his strong campaign, improving his record to 5-3-0 from nine starts. Trained by Scott McEneny the Archangel son has earned over $370,000 this season for McEneny and co-owners Domenic Chiaravalle (Hamilton, ON), Floyd Marshall (Jarvis, ON), and Martwest Racing Stable (Mississauga, ON).

Safe Conduct, a Charalambos Christoforou homebred, was third with Chris Christoforou in the race bike. The Archangel son is trained by Camilla Christoforou and co-owned by Irvann Holdings Inc (Toronto, ON).

Designer Drink breaks maiden with 10-1 PASS upset at The Meadows

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

A four-race maiden entering the race, Designer Drink shot the Lightning Lane to spring the 10-1 upset in Friday's $75,000 Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Once In a Lifetime captured the other $75,000 division in the event for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters, known as the Florida Pro, giving Tim Tetrick a PASS sweep.

While Carter Michael Deo and Luke's Bar dueled for the lead down the backside, Designer Drink patiently waited at the cones. When he found clearance inside, the Bar Hopping-Designable gelding blew past Carter Michael Deo, defeating him by 1-1/4 lengths. Father Stosh rallied for show.

"He had a whole lot of bad luck, and I told Timmy, if you just give him a shot, he can go with those colts," said Symon Spicer, who trains Designer Drink for Keystone Stable. "He's been getting run into, getting run over, but I had all the faith in the world in him."

Once In A Lifetime earned his second straight PASS win by getting away fourth, moving with cover down the backside and brushing through the lane to triumph in 1:55.4, matching his career best. Spitfire Oversees finished second, beaten 1-1/4 lengths, with Southwind Distilld third.

"I never pulled his plugs last week and didn't pull them again today," Tetrick said. "That's a sharp little horse, and he likes his work. He's pretty solid. You don't have to hold your breath too much when you drive him."

Jim Campbell conditions the son of Father Patrick—Sherrys Lady for Sad Frog Farms.

STALLION SERIES

Tetrick and Spicer also teamed to score with Drake Hanover, who collected a maiden-breaking victory in 1:56.3. Tetrick had been racing the youngster fairly conservatively, but circumstances forced him to move at the three-eighths.

"They jammed up so fast I was about to run over the guy in front of me," Tetrick said. "So I was out. I did what I had to do. But we've been teaching him to finish. He's learning how to race."

The son of Andover Hall—Dancing For Money was up to the challenge, downing Biscoe Hanover by 1-1/2 lengths, with long shot Latavius third. William Masterson, Keystone Stable and Ross Spicer campaign Drake Hanover.

The other stallion series splits went to Open Bar and Spicy Hops — the latter at 51-1.

THIS WEEK'S FINES AND SUSPENSIONS

HRU is providing links to publicly-available fines and suspension lists for convenience.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.

Also, please note, for context, the first link is to the Association of Racing Commissioners International's classification system of drug penalties to give readers a sense of the difference between a Class 1 and a Class 4 positive.

American Dealer N breaks all-time track record in $75,000 Kane Memorial at Batavia Downs

American Dealer N scored a 2-½ length victory and set a new all-time track record of 1:50.2 in the 17th edition of the $75,000 Robert J. Kane Memorial Invitational Pace at Batavia Downs on Friday night (Aug. 26).

American Courage (Matt Kakaley) fired off the wings and took a quick lead while American Dealer N (Joe Bongiorno) also left and tucked into the garden spot. After getting to the quarter in :27.1 and the half in :55.3, Gia's Surreal (Brian Sears) was first to pull and try to approach the leader. But American Courage was not slowing down after the :27.3 third quarter and he and American Dealer N were starting to separate from the field. As they came off the turn and headed down the lane, American Dealer N ducked into the passing lane and accelerated like a jet by American Courage in deep stretch and won in 1:50.2 to set the new track standard.

It was the sixth win of the year for the Australian import American Dealer N ($26.80) who is owned by Enviro Stables and Ken Jacobs.

This was the second Kane win for Jacobs and Toscano who won the 2008 edition with Kenneth J who also set the all-time track record then of 1:52 with his effort that day.

It was also the third win of the night for Joe Bongiorno.

EBC Pacers at Tioga this afternoon

The Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) for 3-year-old NY Sired pacing colts and fillies will be featured on a 15 race matinee card today (Aug. 28) supported by the New York Sires Stakes (NYSS) for freshman trotting fillies.

Shakertown (Jason Bartlett) is the oddsmaker's choice in the $122,000 first of two colt & gelding divisions (race 7). The son of American Ideal has found his best form lately with a pair of Excelsior wins for owners Crawford Farms and Alan Johnson and trainer Tony Alagna.

The $120,700 second colt division (race 10) is led by last year's final winner JD (Mark MacDonald), a model of consistency this season for trainer Ray Schnittker, who shares ownership of the son of So Surreal with Melissa Beckwith and breeder George Zitone. He'll have to be on his toes Sunday, facing a stacked group of top NYSS contenders.

The fillies split into a pair of sevens, each for a purse of $111,500.

Max Contract (Andy Miller) has been beating the best the Grand Circuit has to offer lately for trainer Julie Miller, having run the table at The Meadowlands with scores in the Mistletoe Shalee and Shady Daisy during the Championship Meet. The Huntsville filly must be considered to one to beat in the first division (race 9) for owners the Andy Miller Stable, Steve Heimbecker and Jean Goehlen.

The current queen of the NY regional program, Gothegreenlight (Bartlett) was among those vanquished by Max Contract in the Shady Daisy, but will be defending her home turf on Sunday for trainer Nifty Norman and owners Patricia Stable and Kovach Stables.

Valar Dohaeris (MacDonald) has served well on the larger tracks, including her career best 1:51 effort over the Tioga oval in NYSS action just a few weeks back. She'll need a bit of wizardry from MacDonald beginning from the outermost post seven here, but he may well have her last to the lead, not a bad place to land. Ake Svanstedt trains this daughter of Huntsville for Tristan Sjoberg as Knutsson Trotting, Inc.

Many of the stars competing at Tioga on Sunday will return for the NYSS Day of Champions on Saturday, Sept. 10. Call (607) 699-7583 for details.
