Sippinonsearoc is the sport's fastest 2-year-old pacer in history.

Two-year-old pacing crop is tracking to be the fastest ever

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

by Brett Sturman

Only in time will it be determined how this year's crop of 2-year-old pacers ranks historically against some of the other best crops, but one thing more near and certain is that on paper, this group is on pace to go down as the fastest in history.

Still in August – essentially just the second month of actual racing for the 2-year-olds – three horses have already won in under a time of 1:50. “The Big Three” include American Son, Louprint and, suddenly, the all-time fastest 2-year-old ever, Sippinonsearoc, who won in 1:48.2 two races ago. For comparison, there were only three 2-year-olds all season long just a few years ago, in 2020, that went in under 1:50.

The numbers for making the case as this year's group is set to become the fastest ever go well beyond the number of 2-year-olds that have paced in under 1:50. Last year in 2023 there were seven different 2-year-olds that went that fast, in 2022 there were a record 10 freshmen that went in under 1:50, and before all is said and done this year's group may surpass that too.

But looking at the bigger picture, last year according to the USTA's Top Performers statistics there were nine horses with a time of 1:51.2 that rounded out their top 50 list (tied 41st through 50th). A time of 1:51.2 was also the cutoff two years ago, and prior to that in 2021 and 2020, the top 50 cutoffs were both times of 1:51.4. With the 50th fastest 2-year-old this year already having posted a time of 1:52.0, how low can the group go?

As has been the trend with speed that only seems to somehow keep accelerating, what are some of the factors contributing to this year's fast group? Is it a function of the breed or favorable racing conditions? I think it's a factor of both.

To start, many of the fastest 2-year-old times this year have been taken at The Red Mile. And maybe it's just me, but with the evolution of the Kentucky Sire Stakes program and the increased quality due to how KYSS eligibility is determined, there seems to be an inordinate number of stakes raced compared to what's been raced traditionally. With what seems like about 70 races a day since the middle of July that includes Kentucky Fair Stakes, Kentucky Championship legs, Kentucky Sire Stakes legs, Golden Rod, Commonwealth and Wildcat legs and maybe others I'm missing – just the sheer number of these races in 82-degree weather on The Red Mile strip is naturally going to produce fast times.

But to pin the fast times on just The Red Mile would be selling the rest of the crop way short. Taking that track out of the equation for a moment, there have already been seven separate winners this year that have won in under 1:51 on a five-eighths-mile track. Do you know how many there were that did that in all of last year? Just one! That's a truly remarkable testament to how successful this year's group has been on the five-eighths-mile track's, almost exclusively to the performances being seen in Pennsylvania and their stakes program. That state is seeing the results of a potential new super-sire or two, as well as established sires having ever-continuing success.

Last year, Lyon's Legend was that lone pacer that went in under 1:51 on a five-eighths track with a record time of 1:50.2. That mark was eclipsed a couple weeks ago by TH Colby who won in 1:50.1 at The Meadows, and then was equaled this past weekend by the filly Rose who won at that same track in 1:50.2. A sidenote to that race was that Rose became the first filly this year to beat fellow 2-year-old filly sensation, Papi Grad. I realize that keeping a horse's unbeaten streak intact is the absolute least of a trainer's concerns, but it was still anti-climactic seeing Papi Grad essentially concede defeat at the start to Rose by getting away seventh and last in that PASS competition. It would have been a good battle between those two fillies had she tried, though I'm sure that race will be just the first of many those two will see together.

As somewhat of a paradox, it feels like the faster the times go, they also seem to hold less relevance as it pertains to handicapping and automatically assuming that a record time makes the best horse.

The fast times seen thus far may just be a preview of what's to come in the late summer and fall campaign of the 2-year-old season. At this rate, the group may not only be the fastest which all seems assured, but maybe one of the best freshmen crops ever.

As one example, Sippinonsearoc set the all-time speed mark for 2-year-olds on Aug. 13 when he won in 1:48.2. When he raced next out on Aug. 25 this past Sunday, he wasn't even favored. That distinction went to fellow Burke stablemate Louprint, who proved the betting public right and delivered as the odds-on favorite in a time of 1:49.1. Burke had been quoted after Louprint's prior win in PA as him being maybe the best colt he's seen in a long time and that may have contributed to the outpouring of wagering support for the horse.

Another similar example is the horse TH Colby, also a Burke trainee. He won two races ago at The Meadows in a time of 1:50.1, fastest of any horse this year on a track less than a mile size. But next out at Harrah's Philadelphia, this past weekend, he could only finish fourth in a field of six and, like the other instance from above, he wasn't favored either.

For as fast as many of these horses have already been, so many of the best 2-year-old races remain. The formal Grand Circuit meet at The Red Mile doesn't even kick off for another couple of weeks, all the sire stake championships from everywhere remain, the Metro eliminations and final at Woodbine Mohawk Park are still a few weeks away too. Not to mention The Meadowlands about to start again, with that track also hosting the Breeders Crown this year along with their traditional 2-year-old pacing stakes with the Governor's Cup and Three Diamonds.

The fast times seen thus far may just be a preview of what's to come in the late summer and fall campaign of the 2-year-old season. At this rate, the group may not only be the fastest which all seems assured, but maybe one of the best freshmen crops ever.

Never Ending headlines the $2.1M TAB Eureka.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Driver Gary Hall, Jr. hopes the future is Never Ending

The exciting young pacer headlines the $2.1M TAB Eureka.

by Adam Hamilton

Champion driver Gary Hall, Jr. believes exciting young pacer Never Ending could be the Leap To Fame of this year's $2.1 million TAB Eureka.

Although Leap To Fame didn't win the world's richest race, it spring-boarded him to arguably the most dominant 12 months a pacer has had Down Under.

Since his second to Encipher in the inaugural TAB Eureka, Leap To Fame has raced 21 times for 18 wins, a second, a third and a desperately unlucky fourth. His wins have included four of the sport's marquee races: the Inter Dominion final, Miracle Mile, Hunter Cup and Blacks A Fake.

Just as Leap To Fame was the headline horse last year, Never Ending carries that tag into this year's TAB Eureka on Sept. 7.

"I'm not saying he'll be another Leap To Fame – he might be the best we've ever seen – but I do think this race could be a launching pad for some great things from Never Ending," Hall, Jr. said. "I think this horse has the potential to be one of the greats, especially with his turn of foot and he's developing a degree of toughness as he goes along, too."

“To think, he’s got the attributes to take it all the way.”

But Hall, Jr. also moved to quell expectations to some extent ahead of the TAB Eureka.

“This race isn’t the be all and end all of his career, but it looks like a good opportunity to show the exciting direction he’s headed in,” he said. “He’s always been a bit of a slow burn, despite his amazing sheer talent, and I still think the best could be six or even 12 months down the track for him.

“But I think I’ve driven and seen enough good ones to say he’s taking all the right steps towards being elite.”

Hall, Jr., 42, has driven almost 4,000 winners, including 65 at Group 1 level, and his drives have banked over $51 million.

Much of it has been in his own backyard in Western Australia, which is so remote from the rest of Australia’s major harness racing.

It was a pacer called Im Themightyquinn who really burst Hall, Jr. out of that bubble and stamped him as a genuine Australasian superstar.

Im Themightyquinn, a compact son of Washington VC, raced 11 seasons with 58 wins, 34 placings and banked almost $4.6 million – putting him a close second to Blacks A Fake as the richest all-time pacer Down Under.

Amongst his plethora of major wins, it was Im Themightyquinn’s three consecutive Inter Dominion victories – in three different cities and across two countries – which cemented his greatness.

He is firmly in the top half dozen pacers – many would say even higher – that we’ve seen Down Under.

And it was at Menangle – where the TAB Eureka was raced – where Hall, Jr. teamed with Im Themightyquinn, or ‘Quinny’ to his legion of fans, for his career-defining win in the 2013 Inter Dominion final.

“If you’re asking the most satisfying win I’ve had, the one that really meant the most, it’s that Menangle win with Quinny,” Hall, Jr. said. “I never thought anything would top winning the Inter Dominion at home in Perth the year before... on that small track, in front of the huge crowd, with all my mates and family there.

“But Menangle did and it’s because of what it meant to Quinny and, I guess, the pressure I felt under, too.

“I drove myself mad before that final. The track [1400m] was so different to Gloucester Park [a half mile track]. I had no idea what I was going to do, or how I was going to drive him. It felt like my first drive in a race.

“In the end, I just had to trust myself and the horse and drive the race as it played out.”

Im Themightyquinn, one of the fastest pacers we've seen Down Under, stormed home from a seemingly hopeless position to win going away.

It propelled him from a great horse to an immortal. It's THE race that put him up with the greatest of all-time.

“It silenced the doubters too and there still were some,” Hall, Jr. said. “I remember it was just me with the horse down in the stalls and this lady walked up. You could tell she wanted to talk to me.

“She was quite emotional when she leaned over the fence and said ‘I just want to apologize. I was one of those who doubted him. I'm sorry I did. I needed to tell you that.’

“It made me quite emotional. I nearly cried with her. It also drove home just how important a win it was and it's always stayed with me. Quinny obviously stands on a pedestal with me. I've driven some other really good ones, but it's Quinny and the rest.

“If I'm right, Never Ending has the potential to give me that sort of feeling again. I'm not sure I'll ever have another Quinny, I hope I do, but once really close would do me, too.”

Hall, Jr. has driven Never Ending in 19 of his 22 starts, missing only his first three this campaign due to a controversial six-week suspension.

“It's been frustrating at times, but it's also been great to see him come back so well,” he said. “Justin [Prentice] has driven him so well, too. He's taken all the right steps, the ones we wanted him too.

“His free-for-all [races] have been really good and it’s always hard to take that step after being so dominant in their age group racing and trying to maintain that level of dominance. They get put outside their comfort zone for the first time. They get driven differently and don’t get things handed to them.

“I think he’s handled it really well and he should continue to get better being driven differently and with different racing patterns. It’s been pretty good to watch, to be honest.”

Hall, Jr.’s excitement grew further when he was reunited with Never Ending in his final lead-up race for a slashing at Menangle Saturday night (Aug. 24).

“He felt as good as Justin said he has been,” he said. “To come from last, get some interference on the final bend and make up the ground he did was a fantastic effort.

Hall, Jr. is renowned for his laconic nature so it’s no surprise driving in the world’s richest race won’t faze him.

“I won’t actually think about it much,” he said. “Once you get out there, it’s just another race with another job to do. I just hope I’ll get my eye back-in in time for the race so I can do the horse justice.

“He looks like he’s going to have a really good shot at this race.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Was Francesco Zet's world record one of the best performances ever?

The mile rate was 1:51.3 on a five-eighths mile track over 2,140 meters, but how the trotter did it was just as impressive.

by Thomas Hedlund

Stall Zet owned and bred Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) put on a show in Saturday's (Aug. 24) $200,000 Sundsvall open trot. The Daniel Redén trainee might very well have put on one of the best performances ever by a trotter on a five-eighths-mile track over 1.3 miles.

Replay here.

The race promised to be a duel between Borups Victory, who came from an impressive win in the Hugo Åbergs Memorial, and Francesco Zet. And it turned out to be more than a duel. When Francesco Zet defeated leader Borups Victory after a trip three wide and, eventually, from first over position, some kind of harness racing magic unfolded in front of many thousands of fans surrounding the track.

Francesco Zet's crown fell off his head during Elitloppet when Borups Victory was runner up and Francesco Zet finished fourth in the final. After May, the two top trotters had avoided each other and it was clear that Redén was aiming for the big $1,050,000 Åby World Grand Prix on Aug. 10. After late racing room, Francesco Zet showed really great form as he finished strongly behind superior winner Horsy Dream. Daniel Wåjersten chose to decline Borups Victory's invitation from Åby, due to too many starts after the Hugo Åbergs Memorial and that left us with a most special meeting in Sundsvall.

Borups Victory was the first choice and his followers were surely happy with the fact that Daniel Wåjersten's 6-year-old started from post 2 behind the gate, while the antagonist had post 5.

It's been a couple of days since the race went off and the fact the Sundsvall open trot ended with a world record performance by Francesco Zet makes his effort one of the best ever, but also because of the way he did it. It's well known that racing outside when the pace is high is a tough task.

But Francesco Zet must be considered one of the best trotters ever bred in Europe, after what he proved by Saturday's show, even if some might say that it's too early to mention the 6-year-old Father Patrick son as a superstar that belongs with the very top of all horses ever.

Redén blamed himself for the failure in Elitloppet. He was too confident about his horse, he said, and the main goal for the season was the Åby World Grand Prix in August, not Elitloppet.

And if we look back at the career of Francesco Zet, it includes wins in the $800,000 Kriteriet, $400,000 Breeders Crown (two times), $800,000 Derby, $200,000 Jubileumspokalen, in other words, he swept clean pretty much all the stakes races for 3- and 4-year-olds in Sweden and he entered Elitloppet this year with 18 consecutive wins from August 2021.

The 1:51.3 over 2,140 meters was the world record mile rate for Francesco Zet and that record will probably be hard to beat for a while.

Borups Victory held well on the lead, but he had to capitulate against stablemate Mellby Jinx in the hunt for the runner-up spot.

Speaking of world records, Redén has experienced a world record performance in the Sundsvall open trot before. In 2015 his Delicious (Cantab Hall) flew to a 1:52.3 win, which was the best time ever by a mare over 2,140 meters on a five-eighths-mile track at that time.

DJUSE TOOK THE CHANCE

Swedish top driver Magnus A Djuse was, according to himself, surprisingly entrusted behind Jeppe Juel trained Icebreaker (Chocolatier) in the $195,000 Danish Derby for 4-year-olds at Charlottenlund on Sunday (Aug. 25) afternoon, and Djuse made no mistakes in the bike. After an early front position in the 3,000-meter long race, Icebreaker was just outstanding over his opponents in the Danish 4-year-old crop.

When Djuse asked for some more power in the last turn, Icebreaker left the chasers six lengths behind in a mile rate of 1:58.4 over 1.9 miles.

Replay here.

Runner up Isseymiyake Secret finished strongly three wide, but was never close to challenging the winner. Julien Sensei was third.

The 4-year-old mares battled in the $105,000 Derby for mares at Charlottenlund on Saturday (Aug. 24) and Michael Lönborg trained Juno (Great Challenger) proved best after a front trip. Lönborg overtook the lead after a quarter of a mile and once in front, Juno had the race in her hands in a mile rate of 1:57.3 over 1.3 miles.

UPSET WINNER AT VINCENNES

Vincennes' Saturday (Aug. 24) race card included the $165,000 Yearling Cup-Arqana Trot for 3-year-old trotters and the victory landed in the hands of Sebastien Ernault, who steered upset Largo de Castelle (Golden Bridge). A position in third on the inside eventually became a first over trip and Largo de Castelle showed new qualities as he disarmed leading favorite Luciano Menuet in mid-stretch and won in a mile rate of 1:58.3 over 1.6 miles. Replay here.

Same day, late at night, Cagnes-sur-Mer played host to the $195,000 Grand Prix du Departement des Alpes-Maritimes over the mile and Franck Nivard sat behind the winner, 10-year-old mare Emeraude de Bais (Repeat Love), who was served a nice trip behind leader Joyner Sport. In the last turn, Nivard opted to attack Joyner Sport and Emeraude de Bais held her pace well in the long home stretch in Cagnes-sur-Mer. Benjamin Goetz's trainee won in 1:52.3 (replay here), Go On Boy finished second and Eric The Eel third.

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

First Turn experience ripe with reality

by James Platz

As a writer that covers harness racing regularly, I have always taken note of the appreciation connections have for a good horse. I suppose it's easy to be happy when an owner or trainer finishes a race in the winner's circle. But it's more than that. If you have been in the business for any extended period of time, you understand the difficulty in not only having a good horse, but then having racing luck on your side.

When I joined the First Turn Stable at Harrah's Hoosier Park, in the back of my mind I questioned whether the experience would be authentic. What would it be like from week to week? After this experience is complete, could I relate in a deeper way to what owners face daily? While my commitment to join was only $250, would I feel as committed as those who have invested so much more? Could I appreciate the difficulty in finding or developing a good horse?

Since my last entry in early July, the rollercoaster ride has continued. The ride has been less about exhilaration and more regular allotments of cold hard racing reality. As a quick recap, our horse, sophomore pacer Fast Feet, turned in consistent efforts in the month of June, including a win. However, he got off on the wrong foot in July. Specifically, he lost a shoe early in his July 3 start and finished last.

The night Fast Feet lost the shoe was the first time he had missed a check for First Turn Stable. Racing in the non-winners of one to be claimed for $16,000 ($24,000 with allowances) class at Hoosier Park, the son of Freaky Feet Pete continued to struggle. Two weeks later he was back in again, this time finishing in a dead-heat for fourth. He closed out the month with back-to-back sixth-place efforts. With no racing luck to be found, this is where the reality of the situation required a change.

“ We felt collectively that following Fast Feet's victory last month, the step up in the class ladder 'Feet' has faced has been a bit too steep for him to comfortably take on at this time. ”

Just before noon on Aug. 2, less than two days removed from the last start, an email was sent to all First Turn Stable members. Titled "First Turn update on Fast Feet," the message laid out the plans going forward with Fast Feet, or rather, the plan to proceed without him. As Jacob Rheinheimer, Hoosier Park's race marketing manager, explained, the decision was made in collaboration with trainer Patrizio Ancora and Rick Moore, the track's vice president and general manager of racing, to sell the sophomore and look for another horse to buy.

"We felt collectively that following Fast Feet's victory last month, the step up in the class ladder 'Feet' has faced has been a bit too steep for him to comfortably take on at this time," Rheinheimer outlined in the email.

And there you have it. It was obvious that Fast Feet was struggling to move forward in the class. Unfortunately, Hoosier Park does not offer conditions where he might fit in better and prove more competitive. That's reality. Had this not been a Hoosier Park-backed stable, perhaps Fast Feet could have been shipped to a trainer in another state to compete in a place more suitable to his ability. We didn't have that option.

So, we cut our losses. Fast Feet was listed on the auction site onGait.com. When the auction closed at 11 a.m. on Saturday

“Fast Feet was listed on the auction site onGait.com. When the auction closed at 11 a.m. on Saturday (Aug. 10), the 3-year-old pacer brought $11,600. It was a disappointing conclusion to Fast Feet's time in the First Turn Stable. It would have been a great story to see him climb the ladder at Hoosier Park. Unfortunately, he wasn't cut out for the current condition sheet structure.”

(Aug. 10), the 3-year-old pacer brought $11,600. It was a disappointing conclusion to Fast Feet's time in the First Turn Stable. It would have been a great story to see him climb the ladder at Hoosier Park. Unfortunately, he wasn't cut out for the current condition sheet structure.

Closing one chapter, the focus shifted to finding another horse for the stable and beginning anew. Just over three weeks after Fast Feet made his final start for the stable, First Turn claimed 7-year-old Sweet Truth on Saturday night (Aug. 24) for a $12,500 tag. The son of Sweet Lou—Rose Ruthless finished second in that contest for trainer Ronnie Roberts, a half-length behind winner Dirty Image in a time of 1:52. In the email announcing the purchase, Ancora and his wife, Rebecca Uppal-Ancora, expressed their enthusiasm for Sweet Truth's addition to the barn.

"We're very excited about this claim," they said. "We thought he raced great tonight, he's very consistent and we're looking forward to the opportunity to train Sweet Truth!"

The older pacer is a 14-time winner. He has fared well at Hoosier Park in the past, taking his 1:51 career best over the Anderson oval in 2023. Sweet Truth has earned in excess of $185,000 over the course of 145 career starts. This season he has already banked $19,146, hitting the board in six of 17 attempts and earning checks in seven of his last eight trips behind the starting gate. By the time Sweet Truth makes his debut for First Turn Stable three months will have passed since participants last visited the winner's circle. We're hoping Sweet Truth is the horse that will get us back there for another photo and celebration. I can't speak for the group, but I know how much I'll cherish the next opportunity. And I'll have a greater appreciation for the blessings of a good horse.

Aldrich, Boni, Ryder to Hall of Fame; Davis-Wilson, Little to Communicators Hall

by United States Harness Writers Association

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), in conjunction with the Harness Racing Hall of Fame, is pleased to announce the election of racing executive Tom Aldrich, bloodstock expert Bob Boni, and trainer Chris Ryder to the greatest honor in the industry, membership to the Hall of Fame.

USHWA has also elected racing official/administrator Judy Davis-Wilson and writer/editor Debbie Little to the pinnacles of their professions, membership in the Communicators Hall of Fame.

Tom Aldrich is best-known in harness racing as a dynamic manager at Cleveland's Northfield Park, where he joined forces with owner Carl Milstein and other key personnel to bring about a renaissance at the northeast Ohio half-miler. High-level races were created, attracting high-level horses; competitive race cards appealed to players and made Northfield one of the most attractive wagering opportunities in harness racing; and Aldrich was a constant, visible presence throughout the racetrack, from the clubhouse to the backstretch, walkie-talkie in hand, seeing that the needs of all facets of the Northfield operation were operating at peak efficiency. Aldrich retired from active management in 2013, but still fills in as an associate judge; long before he had even considered retirement, he had been named to the Ohio Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 1999.

Aldrich was prepared for this management opportunity, starting by going to Lebanon Raceway with his father Clyde, and, after graduating from Ohio State and the University of Cincinnati's College of Law, becoming general manager of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association. He gained invaluable insight working as executive assistant to double Hall of Famer Stan Bergstein at Harness Tracks of America. From there he became general manager of Rosecroft Raceway just outside Washington, DC, where he met his late wife Lynn Fortna, a winner of over 200 races as a driver as part of her family horse background, later an executive, and always an excellent counterpoint and sounding board for Tom.

Bob Boni's parents took him to Yonkers as a youth, and upon his graduation from high school embarked on a harness racing career that has taken him through increasingly responsible stints with Pine Hollow Stud, International Standardbred, the Wall Street Stable with principal Lou Guida, Dreamaire Stud, and his present operation of his Northwest Bloodstock Company, which combines bloodstock agency, sales consultancy, and breeding expertise. Along the way, Boni pioneered the usage of video as a marketing tool for selling top racehorses, dating back to 1978 and the Liberty Bell Sale.

Among the many great horses with whom Boni has been associated are Horse of the Year Nihilator (who would be syndicated for a record price after his outstanding career), world champion Always B Miki, Pershing Square, and Caressable; he has been a part of six Breeders Crown championships. For Dreamaire, Bob assembled a broodmare band that contained 20 mares with 1:55 records, at a time when no one else owned two such mares.

Boni's impact has been greatly felt in the upper echelons of harness racing's premier guiding associations. Boni is a trustee of the Harness Racing Museum, has written several timely and pertinent articles on major issues of the day, and is chairman of USHWA's Breeder, Sire, and Broodmare Awards committee. In his capacity of vice-president for the SBOA of New Jersey, Boni played a primary role in securing appropriation funding that helped revitalize racing and breeding in the Garden State.

Trainer Chris Ryder.

A member of a New Zealand horse racing family, Chris Ryder first came to North America because his wife Nicola is a CPA and was transferred to her firm's office in Manhattan. Chris worked as a beautician professionally before going with the horses before his family came to America, and his early success "over here" in harness racing came with Messenger winner Go For Grins and Governor's Cup winner Sealed N Delivered.

His reputation continued to grow through the years with horses such as Cathedra Dot Com, Put On A Show, I Luv The Nitelife, Bettor's Wish (a double Dan Patch award winner) and Party Girl Hill, whose success led owner Tom Hill to give Ryder the talented female Niki Hill to train. Last year Gem Quality brought Ryder his sixth Breeders Crown victory (he has had seven Dan Patch divisional award winners). This year Twin B Joe Fresh is literally the No. 1 horse in the stable – after outstanding success at 2 and 3, the 4-year-old mare is atop the Top Ten poll as this is written.

Ryder has trained the winners of over $53 million before the season started; in 2022 his stable earned more than $3.7 million for his best year, and averaged over $10,000 a start. This year he is in the North American Top 25 in earnings with the third-smallest number of starters in the group (Pelling and Melander have had fewer). His son Patrick is coming into his own as a driver, having at this writing already exceeded his personal seasonal highs for driving victories and money won.

Aldrich, Boni, and Ryder will be joined in entrance to the Hall of Fame by Mal Burroughs, who was enshrined in the Hall through the special Veterans designation in July.

Judy Davis-Wilson (her given first name is "Zoe") was born into one of the biggest and most successful harness racing families in the state of Delaware, but she switched her focus to the frontside by age 15 at the late Georgetown Raceway. Her work

Her home state of Delaware, one of the first to supplement purses with revenue from racino slots, was a natural place for Davis-Wilson to go when the Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund was reinvigorated early in the 2000s; she still can handle most any phase of the complex workings of a breeders and stakes program, and is frequently called upon to do so.

She has been a director of USHWA for 22 years, and is one of the very few people who have held five different officer positions; the usual chain of command, including president, is four, but she also served as the Association's treasurer for four years. In addition to being USHWA's Member of the Year in 2013, Davis-Wilson received a President's Award from the USTA in 2006. One job for which she does not get enough credit is the thankless task of ticket sales and seating for the Dan Patch Banquet.

Debbie Little, like all of the Hall electees, earned her way up the harness racing ladder, working at New York City area tracks, at a trade organization, and as a writer. During this early period in the sport, she met her future husband, Dave; the two were married in the winner's circle at Yonkers, and now the pair become the first wife and husband team in the Communicators Hall.

Her "big break" came when she was hired as a handicapper and writer covering harness racing at the New York Post, where she worked for going on 27 years, also covering "the runners"

The second event will, of course, be their formal introductions to their Halls at Goshen on the first Sunday of July 2025. More information on these events will be available on USHWA's website (www.usharnesswriters.com) in the upcoming months.

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) is the leading group of communicators about the standardbred horse. USHWA conducts the official annual balloting for the sport's most prestigious honors: induction into the Hall of Fame and Communicators Hall of Fame, along with the selection of the Horse of the Year, Trotter and Pacer of the Year, and the leading divisional horses of each season.

Each year USHWA holds the Dan Patch Awards Banquet, honoring the best and brightest performers in North American harness racing. This banquet is the Association's principal source of funding, and with generous financial support from the harness racing and breeding industry, USHWA is able to host the banquet at a world-class facility in a world-class manner.

Empire Breeders Classic and NYSS pacers shine at Tioga

by John Horne for Tioga Downs

Tioga Downs played host to four Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) races for 3-year-old pacers (two filly divisions and two colt and gelding divisions) on Sunday (Aug. 25) at Tioga Downs.

A Few Choice Words (Jim Marohn, Jr.) won a thriller in the $108,000 first division for fillies.

A Few Choice Words ($4.30) took the early lead. She's Epic (Matt Kakaley) went by just before hitting the quarter first in :27. A Few Choice Words reclaimed the lead with a lap to go and was first to the half in :55.1 and to three-quarters in 1:23.3.

As they went around the final turn Peace Talks (Jason Bartlett) took over the lead. As they headed down the stretch A Few Choice Words battled back on the inside as second-place finisher Camerican (Jordan Stratton) came flying three-wide. A Few Choice Words won the three-way photo in 1:52. Peace Talks had to settle for third.

A Few Choice Words is a filly by Courtly Choice. She is owned by Clancy Farms and trained by Blake MacIntosh. It was her seventh win this season and she now has 11 career victories.

Tarrific (Bartlett) breezed to an easy win in the $108,000 second division for fillies.

Hunting Hula (Mark MacDonald) was first to the quarter in :26.3. She used a :29.3 second quarter to be first to the half in :56.1. Tarrific ($2.30) made her move heading down the backstretch and took control at three-quarters in 1:23.3.

As they reached the stretch Tarrific found another gear and won easily in 1:51. Leanne's Choice (Marcus Miller) was second best. Ponymamedwildfire (James MacDonald) finished third.

Tarrific is a filly by Huntsville. Chris Rider trains for owners Margeret Dey and Let It Ride Stables. It was her fifth win this season after being winless as a freshman.

Howlenth hills (Kakaley) captured the $104,500 first division for colts and geldings.

Spring Blake (Greg Merton) took the early lead but Escape To America went by just before hitting the quarter first in :27. Howlenth hills then got the lead with a lap to go. He was first to the half in :55. Seen Her (Brett Beckwith) was first to make

As they entered the stretch Spring Blake slipped through on the inside and Escape To America went to the attack on the outside. Howlenthedhills dug in and won in 1:50.3. Escape To America was second. Spring Blake finished third.

Howlenthedhills is a gelding by American Ideal. He is owned Symmetry Stables and trained by Travis Alexander. It was his 11th win of the season and his career.

Legendary Hanover (J. MacDonald) crushed the field to take the $105,750 second division for colts and geldings.

Huntingforchrome (Kakaley) went straight to the lead and led to the quarter in :27.1. Legendary Hanover ($2.10) then took command with a circuit to go. He was first to the half in :58.1 and cruised to three-quarters in 1:21.4.

As they made the turn for home, Legendary Hanover just took off and blew the field away setting a track record for 3-year-old pacing colts of 1:48.1. Boston Rocks (Jason Bartlett) finished second, while Huntingforchrome settled for third.

Legendary Hanover is a colt by Huntsville that is trained by Anthony Beaton for owners Erik Good, West Win Stables, and Mark Dumain. It was his sixth win of 2024. He now has 12 career victories.

Tioga Downs also played host to a pair of divisions of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

Thirsty Thursday (Matt Kakaley) won the $51,500 (non-betting first division) in 1:51.2. Thirsty Thursday is a colt by Huntsville—Tequila Monday. He is trained by Travis Alexander for owners Flying A Racing Stable and Chuck Pompey. It was his fourth win in five lifetime starts.

Holt Hanover (M. MacDonald) took the $51,500 second division in 1:50.4. Holt Hanover ($9.20) is a colt by Huntsville—Heart Major. He is owned by Joe Sbrocco, Gewertz Latore, and trainer Ray Schnittker. It was his first career win.

Live racing returns to Tioga Downs on Saturday (Aug. 31) at 6:15 p.m. There is no racing on Friday (Aug. 30) or on Sunday (Sept. 1).

SISTER MARY MAUDE CRUSHES RECORD IN NYSS AT BATAVIA

Sophomore trotters of both sexes were on hand to compete for their share of $233,300 in purses in the New York Sire Stakes at Batavia Downs on Saturday (Aug. 24) night and a new track standard was established in the first set.

In the $115,600 division for fillies and mares, Sister Mary Maude (Crazy Wow—Perfect Mass) took a new lifetime mark and shattered the track record for 3-year-old trotting fillies after tripping out to victory.

Senorita Palema (Tyler Buter) shot to the front while Sister Mary Maude (Joe Bongiorno) settled in the garden spot for the duration. Senorita Palema led the single file, short field of six through fractions of :28, :57.1 and 1:26.1 before heading into the final turn. It was there that Bongiorno tipped Sister Mary Maude from the pocket and drew alongside Senorita Palema at the head of the stretch. From there, they battled all the way to the line where Sister Mary Maude lunged to the lead by a quarter-of-a-length and stopped the clock in 1:54.2.

The time of 1:54.2 supplants the old standard of 1:55.1 set by Love A Good Story in 2020 which was also set in New York Sire Stake competition.

Sister Mary Maude ($3.90) pushed her seasonal earnings to $275,190 on the strength of her fourth win of the year for owners Burke Racing, Bill Switala, James Martin and Weaver Brusceci. Ron Burke trains the David Hanson-bred filly.

Later in the $117,700 colt and gelding division, Keep Asking (Chapter Seven—Sensibility) pulled victory from the jaws of defeat as he rallied from sixth to take the win.

Fly By (Jason Bartlett) had a brief lead before Super Duper Cooper (Jim Morrill, Jr.) came three-wide to take control at the quarter in :28.1. With the field in line, Super Duper Cooper backed down the half to a tepid :59, forcing an outer-flow to form led by Mister Melby (Jordan Stratton) who was followed by Crazy Brother Jim (Joe Chindano, Jr.).

Positions remained unchanged as they made their way to three-quarters and at this point, Keep Asking (Tyler Buter), who was still sitting sixth, pulled off the pylons and went three-deep and was flying around the last turn. At the top of the stretch, Keep Asking was fourth as the favorite Fly By made a break from second, leaving Super Duper Cooper the one to catch. Keep Asking continued to gain on Super Duper Cooper, who was starting to give way. Morrill and Buter were both urging their mounts but in the shadow of the wire, Keep Asking got up and won by a quarter-of-a-length in 1:57.1.

It was the second NYSS win this year for Keep Asking ($16.20) who is owned by Bill Donovan, Joe Sbrocco, Jim Winske and George Ducharme, who also trains the filly. Donovan, Sbrocco and Winske also bred the winner.

Live racing resumes tonight (Aug. 28) at Batavia Downs at 6 p.m. and there will be a $3,558 carryover in the Pick-5 in the first race and that pool will be guaranteed at $10,000 through the USTA Strategic Wagering Program.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

On Monday (Aug. 26) Luna Lovegood rebounded from a costly break in the second $80,000 leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series (KYSS) for 2-year-old filly trotters to pull a mild upset at 14-1 in the third leg of the KYSS in a lifetime mark of 1:51.4.

Steered by Dexter Dunn, Luna Lovegood, a daughter of Gimpanzee–Southwind Venus commenced her mile from post position 6 in the field of 10. The filly settled in second leaving the gate behind Torrissi (Yannick Gingras) who led the way through the first split in :27.3. Yo Tillie (Verlin Yoder) assumed command prior to the half-mile marker and passed that pole in :54.4. Luna Lovegood protected that pocket spot as Yo Tillie continued in 1:23.4. Torrissi was shuffled back to third.

When it came time to round the last bend in the drive for the wire, Dunn provided Luna Lovegood with her cue. The filly strode by the leader, who tired in the lane and trotted home in :27.3. Torrissi was second and Divine Thing (David Miller) was third.

Trained by Marcus Melander, Luna Lovegood was bred by Blue Chip Farms and Stefan Melander. She was purchased from last year's Standardbred Horse Sale for $100,000 under the name Witness Blue Chip by Holly Lane Stud East LTD.

The filly is a half-sibling to Miss I LA (Walner, $284,988), who won an $86,000 division of the International Stallion Stake in 2023 and was fourth in the $525,000 Hambletonian Oaks final.

Luna Lovegood improved her record to 3 2-0-0 and her bankroll stands at $80,000.

She paid a healthy $30.06 to her supporters.

heavy favorite took over at the three-quarter pole and held off longshot Country Dagger (Andrew McCarthy). Prince Of Honor (Todd McCarthy) was third.

Bestfriend Volo is a son of Walner—Bank Of Newport. The gelding is owned by his trainer, Christina Takter, 3 Brothers Stables and Deja Blu. He was bred by Kentuckiana Farms and Jorgen Jahre.

His lifetime slate is 24 14-4-1 and he has earned $310,120. Bestfriend Volo provided his backers with $2.66 for the win.

FLASHY FILLIES TAKE COMMONWEALTH SERIES LEGS

Voguish, Kadena and Deja Blu all captured their respective $30,000 third round divisions of the Commonwealth Series for freshman filly trotters. The young ladies also share the distinction of some of the best pedigrees in the sport.

Voguish (Gingras) is by Gimpanzee and out of Jolene Jolene, a world champion daughter of Muscle Hill who earned $231,673 on the racetrack. As a broodmare she has foaled Crucial (Father Patrick, $528,598) and Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Venerable (Walner, $1.18 million).

Voguish was bred by Maumee River Stables, Black Creek Farm, Martin Schmucker and Steve Stewart.

She was purchased by William Pollock, Bruce Areman and her trainer, Andrew Harris, for $535,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The filly is now 4 2-0-0 and has earned $44,000. Her final time of 1:53.2 is a new lifetime mark.

Kadena (Dunn) won the second division of the Commonwealth Series also in a lifetime best of 1:53.1 for her second victory in three starts. Trained by M. Melander, the filly is by Gimpanzee and out of world champion and Dan Patch Award winner Mission Brief. Mission Brief is a full sibling to top stallion Tactical Landing who has sired the last two Hambletonian winners, Tactical Approach and Karl.

Kadena was bred by Mission Brief Stable and was purchased for $800,000, in fact she was the sales topper and equaled the highest price ever paid for a yearling trotting filly, at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The filly is owned by S R F Stable and Jeffrey Synder.

Kadena paid $6.08 to win.

Deja Blu (Gingras) collected her second consecutive triumph and the second in four starts. The daughter of Muscle Hill and world champion Atlanta lowered her lifetime mark to 1:53.

Bred by Crawford Farms Racing, Bradley Grant and Howard Taylor, Deja Blu is owned by Crawford Farms Racing and

It is not the Fourth of July but there were definitely some fireworks at The Red Mile on Sunday (Aug. 25). Freshman male pacer Louprint lit the match by soundly defeating the fastest 2-year-old in history in the $80,000 third leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series. Karl followed up that impressive score with one of his own by establishing a new lifetime mark of 1:50.2 in his division of the same series.

Oddly enough, Louprint (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) was favored over world champion Sippinonsearoc in this event. The folks that placed their money on him, however, got it right as the son of Sweet Lou—Rockin Racer placed his stablemate in the rearview mirror in a lifetime best 1:49.1. American Son (Dunn) was second and Fallout (Marvin Luna) was third.

Dunn sent American Son straight to the lead at the beginning of the mile with Louprint sitting pretty in the pocket. Dunn allowed his charge to click off fractions of :28, :54 and 1:23. Sippinonsearoc (Gingras) was never really in contention as he was fifth in the early stages and could not place himself in the mix in the field of seven.

When Wrenn, Jr. asked Louprint to pick up the bit in the stretch it was all systems go. The Ron Burke trainee collected his fourth victory in five starts with a :26 final quarter panel.

Competing as a homebred for his conditioner's stable, Weaver Brusceci and Phillip Collura, Louprint has banked $119,864 in his brief career. The only blemish on his record was a neck loss to stablemate and world champion Sippinonsearoc in the first leg of this series.

Louprint is the first foal out of his dam who is a full sibling to Undertaker (Rockin Image, $419,269), Noah Z Tam ($226,182), Sun Chip ($125,043) and Oh So Smooth ($105,469). Rockin Racer earned $157,964 on her own. Her half-brother Tellmeaboutit (Tellitlikeitis, $953,025) is an Indiana champion. The colt paid $3.78 to win.

Karl (Gingras) made it look easy again as he sailed home in a new mark of 1:50.2 over Secret Agent Man (Andy Miller) and Hung Over (Dunn) in the third $80,000 Championship Series leg for sophomore male trotters.

There was not a lot of guesswork in how this event would unfold. Hung Over took the lead at the beginning of the mile with Karl in third but that was short-lived. The Hambletonian winner and Breeders Crown champion assumed command after a quarter in :27.1.

The son of Tactical Landing—Avalicious glided around the Lexington oval with splits of :55.3 and 1:23.3. His last quarter-mile was in a geared down :26.4.

Karl is trained by Nancy Takter and was bred by Crawford Farms, who is co-owner along with his conditioner. The colt is also owned by Christina Takter, Black Horse Racing and Bender Sweden.

Karl sports a resume of 19 17-1-1 and has banked more than $1.8 million.

Karl, one of the favorites for Horse of the Year honors, supplied his supporters with $2.10 to win.

Pennsylvania SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sire stakes spur multiple winners at Philly

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

Two-year-old pacing males provided spirited racing at Harrah's Philadelphia on Sunday afternoon as they battled for points and a high place in the standings in the last preliminary round of their Pennsylvania Sire Stakes and Stallion Series before their rich early September championships.

A total of $187,712 was on the line and divided up for the three divisions of Pennsylvania Sire Stakes action. The only successful non-favorite and non-double PASS winner recorded the fastest time: the Papi Rob Hanover—Dagnabit Hanover gelding Dreamboat Hanover, who after close Sire Stakes finishes put it all together to take a new mark of 1:50.3. Driver Todd Schadel sent his colt up between horses early to the lead and never looked back, putting up splits of :27, :56, and 1:23.1, then keeping favored Papi's Rocket safe by 2¼ lengths. Todd's son Cody trains the "family affair" horse, who is owned by his father and mother Christine in partnership with Timothy Hayes and Dr. Megan Moschgat.

The other two Sires winners were colts who are sons of Sweet Lou. Go Go Grasshopper (dam Faster Faster) also took the engine route for driver/trainer Joe Bongiorno, with fractions of :27.2, :56, and 1:22.4 preceding a final clocking of 1:50.4, which equaled his lifetime best. Inflation Proof was 2½ lengths in second behind the winner, who is owned by Let It Ride Stables Inc., Odds On Racing, and JB Racing.

The other son of Sweet Lou winning in the upper category was Railroad Station (dam Rodeo Rosie), whose 1:51.2 winning time was actually the slowest victory of his three-win career, as he had won an All-Stars at Pocono and a PASS at The Meadows in 1:51.1. Railroad Station sat in the 2-hole a long way under a hard hold by driver David Miller as Wedlock Blue Chip set fractions of :26.4, :55.4, and 1:24, then was finally given his head by Miller nearing the far turn. The colt worked past the pacesetter by 1¾ lengths for trainer Ron Burke and the partnership of Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brusceci LLC, Hatfield Stables, and J&T Silva- Purnel & Libby.

In contrast to the Sire Stakes races, the five $20,000 divisions of Stallion Series racing saw the fastest time posted by the only winning favorite: I'm The One, who headed a 1-2-3 finish for sire Papi Rob Hanover with a win in 1:51.1, a tick faster than his StS success at The Meadows in his last start. Tim Tetrick, the track's leading driver for the meet and for the day (four wins Sunday) sulkysat behind the winning gelding (dam Lifetime Trust) for trainer Brett Pelling, giving Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing a second stakes win (there's more coming), this one in partnership with Enviro Stables LTD.

Papi Rob Hanover had a second Stallion Series win and a third on the stakes day when the gelding Makes Sense grinded to a lifetime best of 1:52 in only his third start for trainer Robert Cleary and – there they are again – Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing, this time in partnership with trainer Cleary and Carl Howard.

Makes Sense was one of three Stallion Series wins for driver Todd McCarthy, two of them for the successful teaming of Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing – Makes Sense and Twisted Destiny, a Bettor's Wish–Tug River Princess ridgling, who took a new mark of 1:51.4 in his second consecutive StS victory for trainer Chris Ryder. That's four stakes on the day for Let It Ride and Odds On.

McCarthy also guided to victory a colt by Sweet Lou, which gave that sire three stakes wins on the day. This winner was Mad River (dam Reckless Fool), who in his first Stallion Series start laid off a hot pace then closed to take a new mark of 1:52.1 for his second-straight success. Joe Holloway is the trainer for Val D'Or Farms.

The final StS winner was the Captaintreacherous–Hidden Land colt Jackson Cooper, who picked a good time to break his maiden, pacing in 1:53.4 for driver Austin Siegelman, trainer Matthew Medeiros, and Jesmeral Stable.

The standardbred division of the Pennsylvania Horse Racing Commission is the official body responsible for determining point standings and thus eligibility for the championships; final point totals and eligibility should be checked with them, but give them a few hours on Monday – the Sire Stakes appears to have a tie for the final spots, and the Stallion Series eligibles look to have a four-way tie in points for the last two spots according to unofficial calculations. The freshman Sire Stakes finals are Thursday (Sept. 5) at The Meadows; all eight Stallion Series championships will be raced on Sunday (Sept. 8) at Harrah's Philly.

The monopoly some entities seemed to have at Philly on Sunday (Let It Ride / Odds On, Papi Rob Hanover / Sweet Lou) also extended to the drivers' colony: Tetrick had four, Todd McCarthy three, Siegelman and Bongiorno two along with Tony Morgan. After the fifth race on the 15-race card, no driver but these five entered Victory Lane. The trainers' ledger was more equitable, with only Chuck Crissman, Jr. doubling on the day.

Racing resumes at Philly on "Trottin' Thursday" (Aug. 29) with a 12:25 first post. Free Philly programs are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Rookie trotters repeat in Indiana Sire Stakes

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Two-year-old trotting colts took to the track at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Saturday (Aug. 24) with a pair of $66,500 Indiana Sire Stakes divisions, with round four mirroring the results from leg three. Eugene The Genius continued his winning ways with a career best effort to take the first division, while Sure Did went first-up once again for his second-straight stakes score in the second division.

Sent off as the 4-5 bettor's choice with regular pilot Mike Oosting aboard, Eugene The Genius left from post 5 in the field of eight. Oosting got away in good order with Eugene The Genius, landing the favorite in the pocket while Starlitfrankstein (driven by Trace Tetrick) secured the front through a first quarter of :28.2. Starlitfrankstein had things his way to the half in :58.1 before Tetrick let out on the lead on the final turn, trotting 2½-lengths clear of Eugene The Genius at three-quarters in 1:26.4.

Eugene The Genius tipped off the cones turning for home, reaching the leader's wheel as the two raced well clear of the rest with an eighth-of-a-mile to go. Trotting home smartly in :27.1, Eugene The Genius surged by Starlitfrankstein late in the lane to cross the wire 2¼-lengths clear in 1:54.2. Starlitfrankstein finished second, Kody Kickstand (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) finished third.

Trained by Missy Essig, Eugene The Genius has been nearly perfect to begin his career, winning five of his first six outings. Bred by Black Creek Farm and Hickory Hollow Stables, the gelded son of Helpisontheway—Muscle Baby Doll has banked $122,375.

Sure Did followed suit and delivered as the 1-2 favorite in the second division, teaming up with driver Marvin Luna to take down the scratched down field of seven. Leaving from post 4, Sure Did landed in the third spot early while High Speed Swan (Mike Oosting) cut the opening quarter in :28.3. Oosting tapped the brakes to the half in :59.1 before Luna wheeled Sure Did first-over and into second on the final turn, 2½-lengths back of High Speed Swan at three-quarters in 1:28.4.

Sure Did quickly closed the gap at the top of the stretch, motoring alongside of High Speed Swan to grab a short lead midway through the lane. Speeding home in :27.2, Sure Did powered away by two lengths on the line to stop the clock in 1:56.3. High Speed Swan held for the place spot over a rallying Mehelphingyou (Jordan Ross).

A winner in four of nine on the year, Sure Did is trained by Walter Haynes, Jr. for owners Matthew Miller and John McGill. Sporting earnings of $94,768, the gelded son of You Know You Do—Challax Hanover was bred by John Bontrager.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

New victors score in Ohio Sires Stakes action

by Ashley Dailey / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

The fourth leg of the Ohio Sires Stakes for sophomore colt pacers was anyone's to take on Saturday night (Aug. 24) at MGM Northfield Park. Both $65,000 divisions went down to the final strides. Outer Banks and Paris's Dragon scored OSS victories for the first time this year.

Outer Banks and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. took the first division in 1:52. The gelded son of Downbytheseaside left alertly from the rail and easily took control of the field. At 1-9, Outer Banks set fractions of :27.3 and :56.4 before being overtaken. Heading to the 1:24.1 three-quarters pole, Hundred Dollar Man (Montrell Teague) popped the pocket and easily cleared the front. Refusing to give up, Outer Banks battled back through the passing lane and won by a head.

Hundred Dollar Man held on for second with Racing Rebel (Austin Hanners) third.

Ron Burke conditions Outer Banks. He has hit the board in nine of 13 seasonal starts, bankrolling $99,503 for Burke Racing Stable, R A S Racing, J&T Silva – Purnel & Libby, and Weaver Brussemi.

Paris's Dragon won the second division in 1:51.4. Teague gave the Fear The Dragon gelding the perfect pocket trip. Paris's Dragon sat behind the 6-5 favorite Rose Run Zane (Hanners) as they carved out fractions of :27.1 and :56.4. Rose Run Zane then made an uncharacteristic break on the backside. From first-up Clever Cody (Aaron Merriman) took the lead at the 1:24 three-quarter-mile marker. Paris's Dragon answered the call as Teague urged him from the pocket at the top of the stretch. Paris's Dragon dug in to win by a neck.

Clever Cody finished second, while Rose Run Zane was third.

Paris's Dragon has won half of his 14 seasonal starts. Christi Noble trains for owner/breeder Dennis Owens and Norman Rae Racing. He has amassed $263,767 in lifetime earnings.

Ohio Sires Stakes action continues Friday (Aug. 30) at Eldorado Scioto Downs with championships for older pacers and trotters. First race post time is 5:45 p.m.

MIDNIGHT NOLAN, 56-1, IMPRESSIVE IN BUCKEYE STALLION SERIES

Longshot Midnight Nolan pulled off an impressive rally on Sunday (Aug. 25) at MGM Northfield Park. At 56-1, Midnight Nolan stormed home to take one of two $20,000 divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old filly trotters.

Leaving from an outside post position, Midnight Nolan got away seventh. Driver Luke Ebersole raced from the back of the pack as the opening quarter came in :27.4. Ebersole urged the daughter of Uncle Peter to follow cover third-over while passing the half in :58. Midnight Nolan was still sitting sixth passing the 1:26.3 three-quarter-mile marker and faced a wall of traffic at the top of the stretch. Midnight Nolan stormed down the center of the track to win by a head in 1:57.4.

Champa Bay Hall (Austin Hanners) marched home for second with Tammie Sue (Elliott Deaton) hanging on for third.

The victory marks the first of the season for Midnight Nolan who has now surpassed $60,000 in lifetime earnings. Dan Walski conditions the filly for Walski Stables.

Uncle Petes Dream (Deaton) took the first division in 1:57.1. After getting away third, the Uncle Peter filly let the dust settle before taking control of the field past the :28.3 opening quarter. Once on top, she held off challengers to set remaining fractions in :58.1 and 1:27.4. As the 8-5 favorite Uncle Petes Dream tripped the wire with more than a length to spare.

Lady Almas (Hanners) was second while Alittlepixiedust (Kurt Sugg) finished third.

Despite a slow start to her freshmen year, Uncle Petes Dream has now hit the board in 12 of 15 tries this season. With six victories the filly has bankrolled $55,711 for owner Matt Rowe. Debroah Swartz conditions Uncle Petes Dream.

Buckeye Stallion Series action continues with sophomore colt pacers on Friday (Aug. 30) at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Yall Keep Dreaming, Brooksforreal repeat in Maryland Sire Stakes

by Ocean Downs racing publicity

After scoring first-round wins last week, Yall Keep Dreaming and Brooksforreal prevailed again as the odds-on favorites in their respective $10,000 Maryland Sire Stakes preliminaries for 2-year-old colts and geldings on Sunday (Aug. 25) at Ocean Downs.

Sent off the 1-9 choice in the lone trotting division, Yall Keep Dreaming and driver Johnathan Ahle accepted a pocket trip behind Magoo Will Do through splits of :30.3, 1:02 and 1:33.1 before emerging off the far turn and striding clear to win by 2¾ lengths in 2:03. Swervingmervin was third.

Yall Keep Dreaming, a Yall Beneath Me—Upside Blue Chip colt who competes as a homebred for owner/trainer Richard Hans, is now a perfect three-for-three in his career. He paid $2.20 to win.

Brooksforreal ($3.00), a Rusty's For Real—Brooks Range gelding driven by Corey Braden for trainer John Wagner and owner Kelsey Wagner, likewise rode the pocket to victory in the first division for male pacers, drafting behind Rusty's Lancelot before lifting to win by a nose in 1:58.1. Whosabrat finished third.

John and Kelsey Wagner completed a sweep of the pacing splits in the second division when More Medhurst ($4.40) was elevated to a 1:59 victory after Classic Cougar, with whom he dueled in the stretch, broke stride and was lapped on at the finish. Trae Porter drove the More The Better N—Doc's Ravenna gelding to his maiden-breaking score.

Porter led all drivers with four wins on the 12-race card; Ahle and Braden both recorded doubles.

Live racing returns to Ocean Downs today (Aug. 28); first post is 7:05 p.m.

French pair join $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot field

The $1,000,000 MGM Yonkers International Trot would not be a true international trotting event without at least one French-bred in the mix and Monday (Aug. 26) the track's management team was proud to announce two additions from the country. Ideal San Leandro and Eclat De Gloire will join the growing list for the 1¼-mile event on Sept. 7 at Yonkers Raceway.

Ideal San Leandro will arrive in New York for very familiar connections as the 6-year-old is owned and trained by Richard Westerink, who has sent Etonnant, Dreammoko and Timoko to the MGM Yonkers International Trot over the last decade. The 45-year-old's best finish came in 2015 when Timoko finished second.

"I love New York, that's for sure," said Westerink on returning for his third straight MGM Yonkers International Trot experience.

Although Ideal San Leandro lacks the résumé of Westerink's previous entrants, the son of Timoko comes to town sharp, with a pair of wins and a second in his last three starts while racing at distances of 1.4 to 1.7 miles in France. Most recently he was second behind the favorite after showing good gate speed and leading the entire mile.

"He's in super form but he was also good in the winter," said Westerink, who admits he isn't bringing the same level of horse as in the past. "There were drivers who didn't trust the horse. I told them the horse was good and they just sat on the inside. I told them to stay on the lead and they wouldn't do it. He's really been in good form for almost six months. He's tough and I trust in him but there are faster horses in the race. But when horses are in good shape there is always a chance."

In addition to his toughness, Westerink reported that Ideal San Leandro is a smaller horse that has experience on 900-meter tracks (just over a half-mile) with right turns.

"I think he'll be much better with the turns on the left like at Yonkers," said Westerink, who has secured the services of top Swedish driver Bjorn Goop for the race. "He's an easy horse that will love the track."

Eclat De Gloire comes to New York with a much different profile than his French compatriot. While the 10-year-old has earnings of over 1 million Euros for trainer Loris Garcia and owner Ecurie du Vieux Chene, he's had trouble finding the winner's circle of late, with his last victory coming in November 2023 in an elimination for the Group I-race Paleo di Comuni.

What Eclat De Gloire lacks in 2024 achievements, he makes up for in experience, as the son of Tiego D'Etang has competed throughout Europe and is the most experienced international half-mile-track competitor in the field.

The pair of French horses join Jiggy Jog, Hail Mary and Castor The Star (Sweden), Vernissage Grif (Italy), and Get A Wish (Denmark) as starters in the Sept. 7 event. The previously announced Capital Mail had to drop out of the race. The final three horses for the $1,000,000 race will be announced in the coming days and the draw is scheduled for early next week.

The MGM Yonkers International Trot will be the centerpiece of a spectacular afternoon card (12:15 p.m. EDT post time) that also features a pair of $250,000 invitationals for older horses and the $1.8 million finals of the New York Sire Stakes.

Income Approach nabs O'Brien Gold Sunday in Summerside

Win streaks are made to be broken but Income Approach's lives to fight another day after Joe O'Brien Stakes action on a special all-stakes day on Sunday afternoon (Aug. 25) at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

The Sunday program featured the Joe O'Brien Memorial Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts and Lady Slipper Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies with $171,075 in total purses on the line.

Income Approach pushed his win streak to four-straight in his $22,200 O'Brien Gold division for rookie colts with Marc Campbell in the seat for owner/trainer Rachael MacDonald of Trenton, NS. Heavy favorite Malevolent (driven by Paul Langille) made a break in stride on the lead in the dash and finished fourth bringing his undefeated career to end at three-straight wins. Rosetown Eclipse (Corey MacPherson) grabbed second ahead of Windemere Joel (David Dowling).

The other $22,200 O'Brien Gold division saw One Wicked Man (Kenny Arsenault) win in 1:57 for owner James Perrot of Stratford over Prince Malicious (Jason Hughes) and Sergeant Crowley (Myles Heffernan, Sr.).

The $11,100 Joe O'Brien Grassroots divisions were won by Flamin Fredy (Campbell) in 1:59.2 for trainer George Rennison, Abiding Art in 1:59 as part of a double for trainer/driver Arsenault and Bettim Alive (Ken Murphy) in 1:58.4 for trainer Joe Baxter.

Saulsbrook Inferno (Dowling) won her $20,750 Lady Slipper Gold division for 2-year-old pacing fillies while defeating race favorite Woodmere Flojo (Adam Merner), who had her win streak snapped at three-straight, in a 1:59.3 trip. Earl Watts trains Saulsbrook Inferno, who now has her own three-race win streak, for owners Windemere Farms, Hollis Newson, Sterling Buchanan and Jack Quinn. Third went to Lorne Valley Liv (Heffernan).

Tobins Dream nabbed all the glory in the other $20,750 Lady Slipper Gold division at 10-1 odds for the team of driver Campbell, trainer Kevin MacLean and owner Reg MacPherson of Stratford. Jafetica (Heffernan) was second best with Talldarklatte (Brodie MacPhee) completing the $553.10 triactor ticket.

The $10,375 Lady Slipper Grassroots divisions saw victories by Red Dirt Rock It in 1:58.3 for trainer/driver Mike McGuigan, Elm Grove Talia in 2:00.1 for trainer/driver David Dowling, Howmac Maleficent (Hughes) in 2:00.2 from the Baxter barn, Southwind Ricochet (Gilles Barrieau) in 1:59.3 for trainer Ron Matheson and Badgirl Bridgette (Hughes) in a 26-1 shocker by open lengths in 1:59.2 for veteran trainer Bill Lanigan.

OHHA awards 17 scholarships to outstanding students

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association is awarding 17 scholarships, totaling $15,000, to college students for the 2024-25 academic year.

The OHHA Scholarship is available to graduating high school seniors and students enrolled in a degree or certificate program. Graduate students are eligible if they are enrolled in a harness racing-specific graduate or professional-level program. The scholarships are based on academic merit and must be used towards the cost and expenses related to coursework and a degree being pursued at a college or university. In addition, the applicant or a family member must be an OHHA member.

This year's recipients are Madison Angus, Sydney Ater, Jesse Barnard, Savannah Barnard, Garrett Bateson, Andrew Collins, Hannah Dingleline, Bryce Gulbransen, Samantha Mayhugh, Victoria Moore, Dani Nesselroad, Avery O'Sullivan, Anastacia Rogan, Aubrey Schwartz, Sara Steck, Kyra Suleski, and Lexi Twaddle.

Madison Angus, Sagamore Hills, OH, is a graduate of Nordonia High School and is attending Hiram College. The daughter of Ryan and Megan Angus, Madison is majoring in Sports Medicine/Physical Therapy.

Sydney Ater of Williamsport, OH, is the daughter of Brad and Maegan Ater. Sydney is a graduate of Adena Local Schools and is attending Glenville State University in the fall, where she is majoring in Business Administration.

Jesse and Savannah Barnard, of Canonsburg, PA, are graduates of Canon McMillan High School. The son and daughter of Robert Barnard and Tina Marie are attending Penn State Beaver.

Garrett Bateson of Rudolph, OH, is a graduate of Bowling Green High School and is attending Ohio University. The son of Steve and Terri Bateson is studying Business.

Andrew Collins of Washington, PA, is the son of Dean Collins and Glenda Collins. He is a graduate of Trinity Area High School and will be studying Marketing and Management at Grove City College.

Hannah Dingleline of Mechanicsburg, OH, is a graduate of Mechanicsburg High School and is attending Wright State University as a Biology major. She is the daughter of Randy and Amy Dingleline.

Bryce Gulbransen of Lebanon, OH, graduated from Dallas High School and will be attending Sinclair Community College with a major in sonography and plans to further his education at the University of Cincinnati.

Samantha Mayhugh is a graduate of Logan Elm High School in Circleville, OH. She will attend The Ohio State University majoring in Agricultural Business and Economics with a minor in Equine Studies.

Victoria Moore, the daughter of Ellen and Jeremy Moore, is from Washington Court House, OH. A graduate of Miami Trace High School, Victoria continues her studies at Wilmington College majoring in social work.

Dani Nesselroad of Stockport, OH, is the daughter of Eric and Dawn Nesselroad. Dani graduated from Morgan High School and is continuing her studies at Marietta College, where she majors in Strategic Communications.

Avery O'Sullivan of Washington, PA, is a graduate of Trinity High School and intends to study at Westminster College where he will pre-med as a Biology major.

Anastacia Rogan, the daughter of Robert and Stacy Rogan, is from Bellefontaine, OH. A graduate of Calvary Christian High School, Anastacia is attending Ohio Northern University where she is majoring in Accounting.

Aubrey Schwartz of Washington Court House, OH, is a graduate of Miami Trace High School and is currently in her senior year at Wilmington College. The daughter of Bret and Robin Schwartz, Aubrey is double majoring in Agriculture and Education.

Sara Steck of Delaware, OH, is a graduate of Rutherford B. Hayes High School. She is pursuing a degree in Animal Science Industry at the University of Findlay.

Kyra Suleski is a graduate of Lenape High School in Medford, NJ. The daughter of Ted and Sherri Suleski, Kyra is attending the University of Tampa with a major in International Studies.

Lexi Twaddle of Canonsburg, PA, graduated from Canon-McMillan High School. She continues her studies at Walsh University where she pursues a major in Biology Pre-Professional with minors in Psychology and Business.
