Bulldog Hanover impressive in NA Cup prep

The Jack Darling trainee won his Somebeachsomewhere division in a career best 1:48.2 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The other division was won by Whichwaytothebeach.

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Ontario

The Somebeachsomewhere on Saturday night (Aug. 28) at Woodbine Mohawk Park offered one final prep for a group of Pepsi North America Cup eligible horses.

A group of 13 three-year-old pacers were split into a pair of Somebeachsomewhere divisions.

Bulldog Hanover stamped himself as the favourite heading into the 'Cup' eliminations with an impressive 1:48.2 victory in the $85,250 second division. Jody Jamieson guided the Jack Darling trainee to the career-best score.

"We were looking for a big effort like this going into the NA Cup next week," said Darling. "Last week he was good, but not as good as he had been and Jody said he was just kind of spinning his wheels a bit, so we just made some minor alterations to his shoeing and it seemed to help."

The early stages of the contest saw Bettor Sun and Bulldog Hanover land second and third behind Bettim Again. Both horses were given their cue to drive around the early leader in the first turn, with Bulldog Hanover securing the lead shortly after completing three-eighths of the mile. 'Bulldog' rolled by the half in :55.1 and then smoked the third-quarter in :27 before kicking home in :26.1 under no urging for the victory of three lengths. (replay here)

Bettor Sun edged stablemate Jimmy Connor B for second.

“For him it’ll be just the same as he’s had. We just have to keep him happy and sound and just train lightly midweek. Nothing fancy, it’s all up to him now.”

Bulldog Hanover, bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and purchased by Darling for $28,000 at the 2019 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale in Harrisburg, PA, paid $2.40 to win.

Whichwaytothebeach showed plenty of fight to score the victory in the $86,250 first division. The Brett Pelling trainee came first-up from third on the final turn for driver Sylvain Filion and kept fighting in the lane to secure the lead and stop the clock in a career-best 1:49.2. Desperate Man was in full flight late to finishing second by half a length. (replay here)

“I was told that he likes to chase horses,” said Filion. “I was happy to get in the three-hole and stay there as long as I could and then I had to move him first-up and I just grinded myself to the front and he kept going. He raced really huge.”

Stonebridge Rex cut the mile, posting fractions of :26.3, :55.2 and 1:23.1 before surrendering the lead in the lane and finishing fourth. Pirate Hanover finished third.

Fittingly, Whichwaytothebeach is a son of Somebeachsomewhere and has now won seven of 10 starts this season and 11 of 18 career starts. The Pelling trainee increases his career earnings to $332,783 for owners Alan Johnston and John Craig.

A $2 win ticket on Whichwaytothebeach returned $4.10.

Bred by Steiner Stock Farm of Ohio, Whichwaytothebeach was purchased for $45,000 at the 2019 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Fade Out, Prohibition Legal take Eternal Camnation splits

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Rookie pacing fillies made their Woodbine Mohawk Park Grand Circuit debut Saturday (Aug. 28) in a pair of Eternal Camnation divisions.

Fade Out blasted home in :26.2 to take the first $113,650 division for driver Doug McNair and trainer Gregg McNair. American Ticket got things her own way on the front, posting panels of :27.4, :56.1 and 1:24.3, but could scoot away in the stretch. Fade Out, who was second-over turning for home, found her best stride in the final-eighth of a mile to win in 1:51.3.

Big Bettor Hanover grabbed second, while American Ticket settled for third. (replay here)

Fade Out came into Saturday's Grand Circuit contest off a runner-up finish in an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold event.

"She was off a couple weeks going into her start last week... I was hoping she'd race good again tonight and she did, so hopefully going forward she'll keep getting better," said Doug McNair.

A daughter of Sportswriter, Fade Out is now two for five with $122,666 earned for owners Gregg McNair, Dean Lockhart and McKinlay & Fielding. She paid $6.20 to win.

Nick Gallucci trainee Prohibition Legal kept her perfect record alive with a 1:52.3 score in the $113,650 second Eternal Camnation division.

The Millar Farms homebred swept to the lead early from third for driver James MacDonald and put the race to bed from there.

Prohibition Legal posted panels of :56 and 1:24.3 before a :28 final-quarter for the easy-looking victory.

Smuggle Tina finished second, while Treacherous Kiss was third. (replay here)

"She was heavy favourite, so I just wanted to keep her out of trouble," said MacDonald. "She showed that devastating kick last time and she can do it any way. She's lazy on the front, but good on the front. If someone had of come to her she'll really take off. She did what she had to do and she'll never do an ounce more."

Prohibition Legal has now earned $192,691 for Millar Farms. The daughter of Big Jim is staked up to all of Mohawk Park's upcoming Grand Circuit events.

A $2 win ticket on Prohibition Legal returned $2.30.

PA, established a new lifetime mark of 1:52.3 in the victory and paid $21.60 to win. Spy Booth is now 1-3-2 in 12 lifetime starts and increased his career earnings to $435,582.

Ambassador Hanover (Ake Svanstedt) charged right to the front as the big favorite Dancinginthedark M went on a break at the start of the race. Ambassador Hanover went to the quarter first in :27. Balenciaga (Scott Zeron) made a first over-move and challenged down the backstretch. Ambassador Hanover had a short lead to the half in :56.3. Balenciaga battled Ambassador Hanover all the way around the final turn. Balenciaga took control and led to three-quarters in 1:24.1.

As they made the turn for home Spy Booth ($21.60) came flying down the stretch and took over the lead and braced for a late move by Take All Comers (David Miller). Spy Booth held on to win his first career race in 1:52.3. Take All Comers was second but placed fifth for interference in the stretch. Balenciaga was awarded second with Zenith Stride (Andrew McCarthy) getting third money.

Spy Booth is trained by Nancy Takter for Canadian owners John Fielding, David Anderson, Robert LeBlanc, and Marvin Katz.

Darlene Hanover wins the $140,000 Zweig Memorial Filly Trot.

Contested Hanover (Tim Tetrick), Splash Blue Chip (Ake Svanstedt), and Iteration (Brian Sears) all left for the lead and were three across the track as they headed for the first turn. Iteration wrestled the lead away and led to the first quarter in :27.1. Iteration used a :30.3 second quarter to hit the half in :57.4. Darlene Hanover made her move first-over going around the far turn. Iteration still led to three-quarters in 1:26.4.

As they reached the stretch, Darlene Hanover blew right on by and breezed home to win easily in 1:53.4. Aunt Irene (Dexter Dunn) came closing late to finish second. Contested Hanover was third.

Darlene Hanover is a filly by Chapter Seven. She is owned by Yankeeland partners and trained by Brett Bittle. It was her third win of the season and seventh career victory.

Big longshot Bare My Soul won the $51,300 first division of the New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Gertrude (Andy Miller) jumped to the lead and controlled all the early fractions (:27.1, :57.3, 1:27.1) as Bare My Soul ($67.50) followed in the pocket.

As they reached the stretched Bare My Soul slipped through the inside as Valentina Blu (Andrew McCarthy) came three-wide with late trot. Bare My Soul dug in and won in 1:54.4. Valentina Blu had to settle for second. Gertrude held for third.

Bare My Soul is a filly by Chapter Seven—Celebrity Angel. She is trained by Linda Toscano for owners Richard Gutnick, Tom Pontone, Joe Lozito Jr., and Enviro Stables. It was her first career victory.

Joviality S (Brian Sears) charged late to win the $50,400 second division. Cash Infusion (Mark MacDonald) went to the lead and hit the first quarter first in :27.3. She led to the half in :57.4 and to

Twin B Sunkissed digs in for Simcoe score

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Francis Dumouchel-trained Twin B Sunkissed showed plenty of fight to win Saturday's (Aug. 28) $169,550 Simcoe Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Driver Yannick Gingras moved Twin B Sunkissed from third to first in the second-quarter and never surrendered the lead to win by three-quarters of a length over Voelz Delight in a career-best 1:51.1. Good Night Moon was third, while Paulas Bet Hanover was fourth. (replay here)

"Voelz (Delight) is a really nice filly, but it was never in doubt," said Gingras. "I popped the plugs half way down the stretch, but I was really confident.

"(Francis Dumouchel) told me she had problems early in the season tying up and allergies, but he thought he had it figured out now and that Sylvain (Filion) really hadn't asked her for too much her last two starts and she won in hand."

Twin B Sunkissed has now won three races in a row to improve her 2021 record to three wins and $113,956 earned. The daughter of Sunshine Beach sports career numbers of four wins and

Bob Loblaw, Magical Arthur give Filion Nassagaweya sweep

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Rookie pacing colts and geldings clashed in a pair Nassagaweya Stakes divisions on Saturday (Aug. 28) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Bob Loblaw cashed in with a thrilling victory in the $140,300 second division, nailing Betterhavemymoney at the line to win by the narrowest of margins in 1:52.4. The victory was a special moment for track announcer Ken Middleton Jr., as the long-time voice of Woodbine standardbred racing bred, co-owns and trains the gelded son of Sunshine Beach.

"I wasn't quite sure, it was real close at the wire," said Filion of the photo finish.

Sylvain Filion worked out a two-hole trip for Bob Loblaw behind Atlas Hanover, who cut out fractions of :26.4, :57 and 1:26.2. Race favorite Betterhavemymoney came first-up and powered to the lead with an eighth of a mile remaining. Meanwhile, Filion angled out with Bob Loblaw to give him a clear shot and the Middleton trainee reached up for a photo finish, prevailing by a small nose for the thrilling score.

Atlas Hanover finished third, while Rockaway Bay was fourth. (replay here)

Bob Loblaw is now two for seven with $107,927 earned for owners Middleton Jr., Dave Walls, James Grant and Starting Centre Stables. Middleton bred Bob Loblaw along with the late Bill Galvin, a member of the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. The Ontario-sired rookie is eligible to all of Mohawk Park's upcoming Grand Circuit races, including the Metro Pace.

Filion, who has driven Bob Loblaw in all his races and qualifiers, has seen great growth in the youngster all summer.

"He was kind of a spooky 2-year-old that needed to learn how to race, but I have to give credit to our man up there (Ken Middleton). He's done a great job with him and he's come a long way."

A $2 win ticket on Bob Loblaw returned $15.70.

The $139,300 first Nassagaweya division saw Magical Arthur sweep from third to first on the far turn and power home to win for Filion and trainer Anthony Beaton in 1:52. The gelded son of Artspeak was coming in off a maiden breaking victory in an Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots event.

"I think it gave him a lot of confidence moving forward," said Beaton of Magical Arthur's last start. "We always thought he was a relatively nice colt training down, but obviously we didn't quite have him tip top shape to go in the Gold.

"I was hoping Sylvain would pull him because I thought he had some ability to go with this bunch of horses...obviously he showed us he can go with them."

Century Inspector went to his usual spot on the lead, cutting out fractions of :26.1 and :55.2 before being overtaken by Magical Arthur and ultimately finishing third. Aviator rallied to grab second. (replay here)

Magical Arthur is a homebred for David Lumsden and now has two wins in five starts and $84,825 earned. A $2 win ticket returned $23.40.

Favorites dominate in Champlain Trots

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The Champlain Stakes for 2-year-old trotters kicked off "Grand Circuit Month" at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Thursday evening (Aug. 26).

A total of five divisions were contested, three for colts and geldings and two for fillies, over a 'Good' track.

Delilah Hanover came from last at the half to win the first $85,975 division for trotting fillies in 1:56.4. Bob McClure was in the sulky for trainer Richard 'Nifty' Norman.

"I told Bob she wants to have horses in front of her, but I didn't really mean all of them," said Norman. "But when (Bob McClure) got her into the outer flow, she seemed to pick it up and she always gets home good... it worked out good... she looked good in the straight. She finishes up good so that's what you need."

Resolving and driver Trevor Henry did the road work, cutting out fractions of :28.3, :58 and 1:27.1. After getting seventh and last, McClure had Delilah Hanover positioned third-over turning for home and the daughter of Muscle Hill stormed by her rivals with a :28.4 final-quarter to win convincingly by 3 ½ lengths.

Eternal Lee finished second, while Missy Trix was third (replay here)

Company, Delilah Hanover is the second foal out of Danielle Hanover, a sister to the legendary Donato Hanover, and is a sibling of star 3-year-old filly Darlene Hanover.

Delilah Hanover is now two for six with $117,998 earned for owners David McDuffee, Mel Hartman, Paul Bordogna and Mary Kinsley Arnold.

A $2 win ticket on the 'Nifty' Norman trainee returned $3.40.

Undefeated Adare Castle posted a coast-to-coast victory in the second $85,975 division for fillies. The Mark Etsell trainee went off at odds of 1-9 with James MacDonald at the controls.

"That's a long way for a 2-year-old to go on the front by themselves," said MacDonald. "She's kind of lazy... I was starting to wonder if she was maybe just no good tonight because she wouldn't pick the line up and as soon as I called on her at the top of the stretch she was just nitrous.

"She's a nice filly and that's a nice start for her and she's heading into the big ones the right way."

Adare Castle posted fractions of :28.3, :58.4 and 1:28.2 before stepping home in :28 to win in 1:56.2 by 2 ½ lengths. Samosa finished second ahead of Lady Montague in third. (replay here)

A daughter of Muscle Mass, Adare Castle is now four for four to begin her career. All four victories have come in stakes contest, as her previous three starts before Thursday were in Ontario Sires Stakes Gold events.

A $10,000 yearling purchase at last November's Standardbred Horse Sale, Adare Castle has now banked $195,087 for owners Etsell, Robert Newton, Graham Hopkins and Peter Porter. She paid $2.30 to win.

The Champlain Open Trot saw the duo of Doug McNair and Marcus Melander take two of the three divisions.

Letsdoit S went to the front and never looked back to win the $62,307 first Champlain division for colts and geldings in 1:56.

Doug McNair had the driving assignment for trainer Marcus Melander.

“(Marcus Melander) said this one the trips hadn’t been working out great for him,” said McNair. “Just jogging around in the post parade he feels like a nice horse. He trots nice and he’s real professional, he makes your job a lot easier. When I got him in the race he had his ears up the whole way and knew exactly what to do.”

A son of Nuncio, Letsdoit S left from post six and made the front at the opening-quarter in :28.3. The race was never in doubt from that point, as Letsdoit S posted panels of :58.1 and 1:27.4 before kicking away from rivals with a :28.1 final-quarter to win by three lengths.

Mr Fritter finished second, while World At War Deo was third. (replay here)

A homebred for Stall TZ Inc, Letsdoit S improved his record to two wins in four starts and $49,087 earned with Thursday’s triumph. The Melander trainee paid $2.90 to win.

McNair and Melander went back to the winner’s circle in the evening’s $62,307 final division with Temporal Hanover.

An action-packed contest, Delgado and driver Scott Young shot out to the early-lead before Global Daytrader S worked around a :29 opening-quarter. Race favorite Duly Resolved landed third and driver Paul MacDonell sent him to the top in the second-quarter. The lead was short-lived for Duly Resolved, as McNair followed immediately with Temporal Hanover, moving to the lead at a :57.3 half.

Halfway around the final turn, Delgado marched first-up to challenge Temporal Hanover at three-quarters in 1:28.1, pinning in Duly Resolved. All eyes were on Duly Resolved in the stretch drive, as the previously undefeated rookie was in desperate need of room, but that room never developed until too late, as Temporal Hanover held on to win by a neck in 1:57. Delgado finished third. (replay here)

“When he cleared at the half, he made a big move and just in the stretch there I don’t know if he was empty or green,” said McNair of Temporal Hanover keeping Duly Resolved locked in. “He didn’t trot away from them, I wasn’t backing into them that’s for sure.

“(Marcus) said he’s a nice-gaited horse and you can kind of race him from anywhere.”

A $55,000 yearling purchase at the Standardbred Horse Sale, Temporal Hanover is now three for six with $114,087 earned for owners Amg Stable Inc, Kenneth Kjellgren, Rick Wahlstedt and Heights Stable. The Melander trainee was the runner-up in July’s New Jersey Sires Stakes final.

A $2 win ticket on Temporal Hanover returned $5.50.

Twin B Archie powered up in the stretch after a second-over trip to win the $63,306 second division in a strong 1:54.3. James MacDonald guided the Scott McEneny trainee to the victory.

After getting away fifth, Twin B Archie was able to secure the cover of first-over attacker Pretender going into the final turn. Pretender would overtake the lead at the top of the stretch from Drinks At Home, but interfered with that rival coming off the turn.

Twin B Archie and Pretender squared off down the lane, with the McEneny student prevailing by three-quarters of a length. Despite a strong effort, Pretender was disqualified and placed from second to seventh for interference. Devereux Seelster and Mercutio were vaulted up into the top-three. (replay here)

A gelded son of Archangel, Twin B Archie now has two wins and has never missed the top-two in five starts. The $52,000 Standardbred Horse Sale yearling purchase will look to ride the momentum from Thursday through the remainder of Woodbine Mohawk Park’s Grand Circuit schedule.

“I feel really good and hopefully we’re going into next really good for the William Wellwood,” said McEneny, who pointed out that Twin B Archie didn’t show Grand Circuit talent in the early stages of training. “He’s always been very lazy, he was tough to get trained down until I started getting him behind the gate and then he just got better and better. He’s got his quirks, you have to watch him because if he gets scared of something he’ll take off.”

Twin B Archie has now earned $95,064 for owners McEneny, Domenic Chiaravalle, Floyd Marshall and Martwest Racing Stable. He paid $5 to win.

Hoosier track record another page in the incredible history of Tendin To Business

by James Platz

The offspring of Tendin To Business have greatly benefitted Brett Boyd and his family over the years, and Friday night (Aug. 27), the bloodline tracing back to the Lon Todd Hanover mare once again delivered, this time in a way that could have bigger implications this fall. Fulfullnmydestiny, a fourth generation Tellitlikeitis freshman bred by Boyd, turned in a spectacular mile at Harrah's Hoosier Park in one of three Indiana Sires Stakes divisions on the program. Steered by trainer James Yoder, the gelding circled the oval in 1:50, winning by seven lengths while producing the fastest mile ever recorded by a freshman at the Anderson oval.

"He's just been a special horse right from the beginning. It was just something to see him coming home last night. I was in awe," Boyd said Saturday, still processing the win. "I got pretty emotional because of the victory. He's a freak, but what a nice horse, too. We're just extremely blessed."

To appreciate the significance of the win, one has to dig into the freshman's pedigree. Boyd's parents, Roger & Karen, purchased Otaro Hanover mare Shiaway Elise in late 1987 and bred her the next season. A winner of just over $90,000 on the racetrack, Shiaway Elise went on to produce five foals, two of them mares. The second mare — fourth of the five foals — was Tendin To Business. As a racehorse, Tendin To Business reached the winner's circle once as a 2-year-old, taking a mark of 2:05.1 on the half. As it turned out, her greatest contribution came as a broodmare.

Over more than a decade, Tendin To Business turned out incredible talent. Of her 10 foals, nine were winners, with all but one collecting double-digit victories. Corporate Rraider, a gelded son of Keystone Raider, is the most accomplished of the bunch, with $842,764 on his card and a mark of 1:51. Bestinthebusiness, a 2008 foal, is the last active foal, currently racing at Tioga Downs and trained by Boyd's son, Braxten. Dividend Dar, a Keystone Raider mare that collected 43 wins during her career while banking a little over $250,000, continued the lineage for the family. Her first of three foals was Driven By Destiny.

"Dividend Dar was a track record holder at Hazel Park and a very good upper class horse, so it's definitely part of the pedigree, the success," said Boyd. "Actually, it's kind of comical because she (Driven By Destiny) was not one of the best. She had her times where she didn't want to race a lot. I actually sent her to Minnesota as a three year old with Gene Miller because she needed some softer company. We sold her at the end of her three year old year."

The story may have ended there but fate intervened. Dividend Dar was lost after sustaining a broken leg. The mare had only produced one filly from her trio of foals, and Boyd's wife, Brandy, made a suggestion to her husband.

"She said to me, 'Maybe we need to get Destiny back because that's the last of your dad's breeding line,'" he said.

The family reacquired Driven By Destiny and bred her in 2016 to Indiana stallion Time To Roll. The subsequent foal, named Rolls Royce, didn't make it to the races. The colt sustained an injury as a yearling that kept him from the track. After unsuccessfully breeding to Time To Roll in 2017, Boyd selected Tellitlikeitis for the 2018 breeding season.

"I study the breeding quite a bit and the hypothetical mating with Tellitlikeitis lined up really well. Driven By Destiny was a quieter mare. We've had success with Tellitlikeitis previously," Boyd noted. "We thought it would be good to breed a little bit quieter mare to Tellitlikeitis because they can be kind of spicy. The mare was quiet and not real aggressive and thought she would match up well."

Boyd breaks and prepares his babies before sending them on. Prior to shipping Fulfullnmydestiny to Yoder in Bell, FL, the Michigan-based horseman had a sense that the young pacer was different.

"He was just an impeccable specimen, right from the beginning. He's just a gorgeous individual. You could just tell from the beginning. He just had the look. He had the conformation, he was intelligent," he explained. "We were excited about him, and when we broke him last fall he just took to everything so easily."

Boyd and his wife traveled to Florida Valentine's Day weekend to visit James and his wife, Cheyenne. He trained the gelding while there, and the freshman made quite an impression on the owner and breeder. So much so that he staked Fulfullnmydestiny to the Elevation at Hoosier Park as well as the Breeders Crown.

"I've trained horses for a long time, and when I trained him that weekend I was just goosebumps," said Boyd. "Even the picture last night, his feet are a foot off the ground. It was the same thing when I trained him down in Florida. He has an incredible gait."

In five starts this season, Fulfullnmydestiny has registered two wins and a pair of runner-up finishes. In the opening round of Indiana Sires Stakes, held July 11, the gelding finished half a length behind Soaring Now in 1:51 at odds of 31-1.

"They were getting ready to go behind the starting gate and we were the longest shot on the board. I said to my wife, 'This is a really, really, really nice colt and we're the longest shot on the board,'" he noted. "I thought in the back of my mind maybe we'll shut this colt down and bring him back late in the year. It's a grueling campaign."

After the race that night, Yoder called the owner. His message: let's pick our spots with this horse. Since that race, Fulfullnmydestiny has recorded back-to-back Indiana Sires Stakes victories. In the second leg, Yoder guided the gelding to a 1:51.1 triumph in the $69,500 division, turning in a :26.1 last quarter to win by more than two lengths. Friday night, the trainer eased him out from post position two to settle in fourth early in the $47,500 event. Brushing up the backside, Fulfullnmydestiny took control before the half (:55.3) and sprinted away from the field by more than six lengths in the turn (1:23) before reaching the wire in the record mile.

The time eclipsed Hoosier Park's 1:50.3 standard for freshman geldings, set by Odds On Osiris in 2019. It was also faster than the 1:50.2 mark for colts established in last year's Breeders Crown by Perfect Sting and Summa Cum Laude. According to USTA statistics, only Caviart Camden has turned in a faster freshman mile this season.

"His last win I remember sitting there and looking at the program and thinking, 'Oh my goodness, we actually bred a colt that paced in 51.1.' I was frozen, in awe that we had a colt that went that fast," said Boyd. "Last night, it's so scary, but he did that totally within himself. We're very, very blessed and very thankful."

Boyd and Yoder are charting a path for Fulfullnmydestiny where a trip to the Breeders Crown could become a reality. Last year the team had their first taste of the Crown, held at Hoosier Park, with Katkin American. Unfortunately, a broken cannon bone sustained while warming up resulted in the then five year old being a late scratch from the $500,000 Open Trot.

"We have never really staked to that kind of level, but James has proven that he's just one hell of a trainer. He's proven he can get them to the Breeders Crown. Unfortunately, last year was just so heartbreaking. We finally got a horse to the Breeders Crown and then have to scratch 45, 50 minutes before the race. But at least we got there," Boyd said.

"We got a little taste of the Breeders Crown, and then when I trained the colt in February and talking with James, I know it's a longshot, but we've got to take a shot. To be honest, it's kind of been on our radar. I know that's a mouthful for two guys from Michigan and Indiana. I guess we'll stick our toe in the water with the Elevation. I'm sure there will be some top colts in there, and we'll see where the rest of the season goes."

Fulfullnmydestiny is providing Boyd's family and Yoder a chance to dream big. Roger Boyd passed away 18 years ago, but the legacy of his homebred lives on. The latest success adds to what Tendin To Business first started.

"My dad, many years ago, he got a good pedigree line. Tendin to Business kind of started everything," he added. "She had many good horses for our family. We've been blessed for almost 20 years now."

Very Kronos wins first race of the year, at last

by Thomas Hedlund

Svante Båth's 7-year-old Very Kronos (Ready Cash) claimed his first win for the year as he took a safe victory in Saturday's (Aug. 28) $230,000 Sundsvall Open Trot at Bergsåker racetrack in Sweden.

Erik Adielsson is Very Kronos' constant companion and one can say the duo have been involved in some bad luck situations in the races prior to Sundsvall Open Trot.

Very Kronos has a history of being quite unpredictable in his behavior in races and especially in his younger years. He often went off stride whereupon he lacked trophies in the very big races ahead of the Open Trot in Sundsvall.

Very Kronos was named as one of the favorites ahead of Elitloppet this year, but a bad trip in the elimination stopped him from advancing for the final at Solvalla that day.

In Sundsvall, Adielsson hit the lead early into the race and when first choice Who's Who found a fourth over spot, the victory was near for Båth's horse. And over the stretch it all seemed pretty calm for Very Kronos, even if pocket runner Esprit Sisu got closer in the end and as Who's Who finished, as most often, very well three wide.

ALN

Very Kronos (3) and Erik Adielsson held on from the lead to win the Sundsvall Open Trot.

Very Kronos held on and won in mile rate 1:54.4 over 1.3 miles. Esprit Sisu noted the same mile rate and Who's Who came home in 1:55.

Very Kronos replay.

Vivid Wise As splendid in the Riviera

Alessandro Gocciadoro-trained Vivid Wise As (Yankee Glide) made a perfect performance as he claimed the $176,000 Grand Prix Alpes-Maritimes in Cagnes-sur-Mer in southern France on Saturday (Aug. 28) night.

Mathieu Abrivard was entrusted behind Gocciadoro's star trotter and from post two Abrivard took a safe departure and attacked for the lead in the first turn. Leader Drole de Jet, paired with trainer Pierre Vercruysse, got a perfect pocket trip behind the heavy favorite when Abrivard hit the lead and when Vivid Wise As runs in the front position, he is hard to beat.

Mathieu Abrivard played his cards well and just let Vivid Wise As roll in a satisfying pace over the home stretch and the son of Yankee Glide was more or less outstanding in a 1:51.4 mile.

Drole de Jet followed as runner up ahead of Elsa de Belfonds.

Vivid Wise As made his second appearance at the track since his runner up performance in Elitloppet in May. Prior to Saturday's race he finished second to Go On Boy in $115,000 Prix de Washington at Enghien on July 31.

Abrivard was the name in Vincennes' $176,000 Yearling Cup for 3-year-olds at Vincennes on Saturday (Aug. 28) afternoon, but in Paris it was Mathieu's cousin Alexandre who was victorious. Alexandre's father Laurent Claude Abrivard trains I Still Loving You (Prince Gede) and the duo hit the lead after three quarters of a mile, via a three wide attack. In front, I Still Loving You was cruising to safe win in strong mile rate 1:59.2 over 1.6 miles on Vincennes' big track.

Flower Dust in Denmark

The $105,000 Danish Derby for 4-year-old mares was on the schedule at Charlottenlund racetrack in Copenhagen on Saturday (Aug. 28) afternoon and the winner Flower Dust impressed a lot.

Flower Dust (Love You), driven by Bent Svendsen, attacked three wide with some three quarters of a mile to go in the 1.3 miles long race and with a kilometer left, the duo landed in position first over. Leader Fascination had to suffer some mean pressure from the outside horse and driver Bent Svendsen had no thoughts of putting his horse in a cover position during the last lap at Charlottenlund. Instead, Flower Dust sprinted to a four lengths victory in mile rate 1:56.3 over 2,000 meters while leader Fascination held strongly as second ahead of Finest Avee.

Charlottenlund offers its big Derby day today (Aug. 29) and when the $181,000 Danish Derby for 4-year-olds will be run, undefeated (11 of 11) Festival Of Speed will carry the weight as heavy favorite for trainer and driver Steen Juul.

A conversation with farm man and collector Richard Stone

by Murray Brown

It's a long way from Wantagh, Long Island to a hard-to-find 10-acre homestead in Sadieville, KY. In the many years from that time until today, Richard Stone and his wife Linda have experienced numerous great memories and life experiences.

Richard is one of the last living links from the management of the great Castleton Farms. That's not to say that Castleton is no longer in business. Today it's a thoroughbred farm under entirely different ownership and management.

I recently had the privilege of speaking with Richard about the great road traveled from his days in Wantagh until now.

Even back on Long Island, the two abiding interests in Richard Stone's life were horses and collectables and memorabilia related to horses.

Among his earliest memories are visits to riding stables on Long Island's south shore and visits to the thoroughbred tracks Aqueduct and Belmont Park. Roosevelt Raceway was to come awhile later.

One of his earliest memories was seeing one of his heroes, the great Kelso, at Aqueduct.

His dad was an engineer who commuted daily to his office in New York City. He was transferred to Albany to administer the building of the Great South Mall project surrounding New York's capitol building. While there, Richard went to Cobleskill University (the alma mater of Billy Haughton and his son Peter) where he secured a degree in animal sciences. It was there that he met his wife Linda who was working as a groom at Saratoga Raceway. Richard also worked there in the summers that he was in the great northeast.

He then transferred to the University of Kentucky where he lasted only one semester because he was surrounded by horses, horse stables and racetracks and he considered them to be a better use for his time.

Shortly thereafter, in 1969, he was drafted and dispatched to Vietnam at the height of the war.

In Vietnam he was at first a truck driver and then became a truck dispatcher.

"I hated the army more than I hated Vietnam," he says.

"I served a total of 19 months in the army, 14 of them in Vietnam." Upon his exit from the army on the west coast, he flew to Pompano to see Linda who was then working at the Glen Garnsey Stable.

"It was as always a top notch stable. Glen was the head man assisted by Dick Baker. Steve Waller and Russell White were also among the notables working there. I spoke with Glen about getting a job. He assured me that there would be a job waiting for me after I visited with my folks. I worked for Glen for five years. The first really good horse I had in my care was the top notch 2-year-old Alert Bret."

Among his fondest memories was winning the Fox Stake with him.

"Alert Bret was a wonderful colt, but I knew in my heart that he wasn't as good as his chief competitor, Nero. There was a great hullabaloo about his win in the Fox, since Nero was scratched from it because, he was drugged before the race. There were those who believed that Nero's trainer might have been the druggist.

"It's not for me to say," says Richard, "but that was the prevalent feeling on the backstretch. After the incident, the stable hired a night watchman who was to assure that Nero was guarded 24 hours a day. I remember Glen saying that was great, but who was going to watch the trainer."

Nero was the better horse. He went on to become a top 3-year-old and older horse, while Alert Bret never came back to his 2-year-old glory year.

Garnsey had a conversation with Dick Baker. "I just can't beat him," he said. "If I go to the top he comes from behind to beat me. If I come from behind, I can't catch him."

Dick said, "You've got to look him in the eye."

That as it turned out was the only way that Alert Bret was able to accomplish the feat on the rare time that he was able to best Nero. He did that in world record time of 1.55.4 at The Red Mile. That might not sound like much today, but back then, it was amazing.

"Linda and I got married during that period. Linda was tired of grooming and switched to being the book keeper for the stable. We bought a small motor home which we took on the road. Those were wonderful days, especially on the far western swing. The Van Lenneps were frequent visitors at Pompano. They were very friendly and knew each of the grooms by name. Grooms sometimes slept on the shed row and were thrilled with the privilege of being able to do so.

"I received a job offer from Jerry Snyder who was Dan Hollibaugh's Holly Lane Farm in the Bluegrass. As with every job I have ever held, I learned a great deal. I was in the presence of several very good horsemen and horses including Sonsam who was foaled there.

"When Holly Lane, specifically Dan Hollibaugh, encountered financial problems, Jerry Snyder introduced me to George Alexander with a chance to become the farm manager at his Chestnut Farm. I was hired by Mr Alexander. As with everywhere that I have worked, I met great people and learned a lot. Among the great people was Gerald Huntoon one of the best horsemen I have ever been around.

"I was responsible for most of the areas at the farm including leading the yearlings to pony. George Alexander was a hands on boss. One thing about George, he loved speed. He wanted his yearlings to trot as fast as they were able to all the time. We worked them really hard. I disagreed with his philosophy. I thought that they needed rest periodically and that their speed had to be rationed. The best leading horse that I was ever around was Super Juan. He could trot faster than any lead pony we had could run. I remember telling Gerald that this is our Hambletonian winner. He didn't quite do that, but did manage to win a heat of the race for Howard Beissingar.

"I have often thought to myself that if the horses from Chestnut turned out well and there were several who did, they could handle anything.

"I became unhappy with life in remote Illinois. More specifically I missed the Bluegrass. I began sniffing for a new job. I approached Carter Duer, who was managing Castleton Farm at the time, looking for a job. Carter said to look him up, if I ever left Illinois. He would likely have something available at Castleton.

"We all know that there are no secrets in the horse business. Mr. Alexander got wind of my quest and we had a sit down. He went from him trying to get me to stay at Chestnut Farm to where he couldn't wait to get me out.

"We returned to the Bluegrass. I looked up Carter Duer. 'I know that I told you that I'd have something for you at Castleton, but something has changed. I'm leaving Castleton and I'm going to work for Tom Crouch at Kentuckiana Farms.' I was jobless.

"I received an offer from the thoroughbred giant Calumet Farms. I thought about it, but I wasn't looking to change breeds. John Cashman had been appointed to succeed Carter at Castleton. I got a call from Dr. Steve Conboy the farm veterinarian at Castleton. He said that John Cashman was interested in speaking to me about coming to work at Castleton. Was I interested? Yes I was. Within a few hours I got a call from John. As was typical of Cashman, he said let's meet tomorrow. 'What time?' I said. 6.30 a.m., he responded.

"I was hired in February of 1980 initially to look after Castleton Farms Three. It was where the outside owned and transient horses at Castleton were kept. At the time, Russell White was in charge of the Castleton yearlings. Whitey and John did not see eye to eye. Russell White was succeeded by Doug Miller. Dougie decided that he really didn't like farm life and went back to training horses.

John asked me, if I'd come to the main farm to be in charge of the farm's yearlings. Would I ever. I stayed 20 years as the yearling manager.

"Then Mr. Van Lennep passed away. I knew from then, that it was only a matter of time before the dissolution of one of the greatest farms in the history of our sport.

"John Cashman knew the horse business from every aspect of it as well and probably better than anybody ever in it. He was placed in charge of dispersing the entire Castleton empire which include, breeding farms in five states, several racetracks here and abroad, Tattersalls, the Horseman & Fair World magazine and numerous other entities. I knew that the main farm would be the last to go.

"After the dispersal of all the horses, John asked me if I would stay through the sale of all the equipment, a large fleet of carriages and sleighs, memorabilia, trophies and everything else on the Farm. I was appointed as the curator of the literature, trophies, artwork, carriages and just about everything else that dealt with the history and tradition of this great farm.

"Very few realize how great a job Cashman did. After Mr. Van Lennep passed, the trustees of his estate cut off pretty much all cash infusions to the farm.

"I've heard so much criticism about him trading cheap broodmares for yearling credits. I'm sure those kind of mares were not the quality that John wanted, but he was up against a wall and had to make things work, which indeed he did."

Who is your favorite horse ever?

"I suppose that would be Niatross. He was a great horse, both on and off the racetrack. He did it all. I've often wondered how good he might have become as a stallion if he had never left Castleton after those first amazing two years."

You are as well-known and maybe better known for your huge collection of anything that pertains to the horse, including but not necessarily restricted to, art, literature, horse shoes – anything that you would care to name. How did this all evolve?

"It began from the first time I became aware of their existence. As a child I'd clip out things from newspapers. Back then there were seven New York City newspapers in addition to two on Long Island. Each day my father would bring two polar opposite newspapers, the New York Times and the New York Daily News home from work.

"I've always loved visiting used bookstores wherever my travels brought me. If my budget could handle what was available, and I wanted it, I would buy. As my income improved, so did my buying power. I have also been blessed to have several benefactors, Gerald Huntoon gave me a complete set of Wallace Registers, as well as USTA yearbooks and Sires and Dams and assorted literature. Mike Akoury who was the trackman at The Red Mile was a noted collector and was kind enough to bestow much of his collection to me.

"A lot of it came to fruition due to happenstance – being in the right place at the right time. Tom White used to have a small auction where he would sell books and art in conjunction with the Tattersalls Winter sale. Bob Jewell was a noted collector. Mr. Jewell had passed and Tom asked me to come with him to scour the collection. There were a limited number of pieces that Tom was interested in. There were numerous 'jewels' that did not interest him. I asked Mrs. Jewell how much it would take to buy the rest of the collection. 'If you can get it all out of here by tonight, I'll give to you free,' she said. I did and it all remains a valuable part of the collection."

What happens to all this great stuff after you are gone?

"I've made arrangements for my library to go to Keeneland's horse library. It's an incredible place that has just about everything related to the horse. It's only weakness might be perceived in its paucity of harness horse literature. Hopefully my library will fill that hole. Beyond that, the Harness Horse Museum in Goshen can have all that they could use."

How do you occupy your time in your golden years?

"Those golden years are not near as golden as they are made out to be. But all in all, it has been a more than satisfactory life. I was introduced to this great harness racing site Harness Racing History. I'm a frequent contributor to it. I'm a big reader. I'm in the midst of reading the new Somebeachsomewhere book. After I'm finished, the next book on my list is the one about Kelso. We live in a fairly secluded place far from where many people might consider to be civilized."

Author's Note: As of now I am planning to get to Lexington this fall. If I make it there, I am looking forward to visiting Richard and being able to see his remarkable collection.

On shaker cans, Greyhound, Sep Palin and Francis Dodge

by Alan Leavitt

One important element that wasn't mentioned in the piece about yearling videos (full story here) is the shaker can. A shaker can is simply a tin can, say either Coke or Pepsi, with some pebbles inside. Or, if you prefer to go high tech, metal filings. Just so it's sufficiently noisy when you shake it that the yearling responds by putting on a burst of speed.

This kid was introduced to the shaker can more than 60 years ago by one of the greatest horsemen who ever lived, Marvin Childs. At the time, Childs was in semi-retirement, but every fall he was in charge of prepping the Hanover Shoe yearlings at the Hanover fairgrounds.

In those days, Hanover led all their yearlings to pony, and I spent every fall morning at the fairgrounds, absorbing every word of wisdom out of Childs' mouth. Then, one afternoon, Childs drove out to my parents' farm, where I was leading to pony our little consignment of Ebby Hanovers and Solicitors.

After watching for a few minutes, Childs said, "See if this won't wake them up a little," and handed me a Red Man tobacco can with some pebbles inside. I gave it a shake, and the yearling on the strip suddenly switched to high gear, still on the trot. That was my introduction to the shaker can, and I like to think it's one of my major contributions to the sport of harness racing.

For some reason, Childs took me under his wing, as it were, and I learned so much from him, as well as so much about our sport and its early days.

Childs had started out as a trainer, which also meant driver in those early days. He obviously was pretty good at it, because in 1927 he catch-drove Josola's Worthy to win the second Hambletonian. The purse was $54,964, and she won it in straight heats, the fastest going in 2:03 <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>.

In those days, you had to win two heats to win the race, and Childs explained how that worked if you had the best horse.

"You'd win the first heat," he said, "And then you'd fix the next two heats so you could win a bet. And then you'd win the fourth heat so you could collect the trophy."

This was de rigueur in those days, and the racing itself was frequently more like a demolition derby than a sporting contest. This was well before the invention of the plastic wheel dish, one of the most important improvements in the history of our sport, and one of the things that made it possible for harness racing to become a pari-mutuel success.

This kid still has vivid memories of so many racing accidents when a horse would put a foot through the spokes of someone else's racing bike. I also remember Frank Ervin declaring that he was not going to make a circus horse out of Bret Hanover by putting colored wheel disks on Bret's racing bike.

Which also brings back the memory of a cartoon in the long since departed Harness Horse magazine. In it, a young woman journalist is interviewing a grizzled old driver in shabby colors and a soft hat.

In the balloon above the girl's head, she's saying: "Well, old timer, I guess you've seen a lot of changes in your day."

And the old guy is responding: "Yep. And I was against every one of them."

But back to Marvin Childs and his place in our history. By 1932, Childs had retired from driving, and he was managing Henry Knight's Almahurst Farm, outside Lexington, KY. Knight was a car dealer from Chicago, and a great promoter. He bred both standardbreds and thoroughbreds and he was a market breeder. The standardbred yearlings were sold at the sale in Indianapolis, and the thoroughbreds sold at Saratoga.

At the time, the Indianapolis sale was the big one, which changed abruptly in 1942 when Hanover started selling, first at the York fairgrounds, and then at the Farm Show Building in Harrisburg.

Regarding Henry Knight and Marvin Childs, they had an unwritten agreement whereby Childs got a certain percentage of the total amount the yearlings sold for. Childs' time as Henry Knight's farm manager came to an abrupt end after Almahurst had a great sale at Saratoga one year.

The minute the last yearling was hammered down, Mr. Knight told Childs that their usual deal was off.

"That's too much money for me to give away," he told Childs. So much for honoring his word, a concept apparently totally foreign to Henry Knight when money was involved.

Childs quit on the spot, and he was quickly grabbed up by Lawrence Sheppard to manage the Shoe Farms. But all that came later, long after a mare of Henry Knight's named Elizabeth foaled a grey colt by Guy Abbey in 1932.

From the get-go, the colt was a rogue, striking and savaging with his teeth whenever a human hand was laid on him. Knowing that he would be useless as a racing prospect in his present, vicious state, Marvin Childs did what any good horseman would do. As soon as the colt was weaned, Marvin castrated him. If he'd been left entire, he'd have just been a bad actor no one ever heard of. His name was Greyhound.

Greyhound brought $900 as a yearling gelding at the Indianapolis sale. The buyer was E. J. Baker, a hotel owner from Illinois, and a standardbred aficionado. He raced a string of horses, and his private trainer was Sep Palin. And you don't need me or anyone else to recount all the races Greyhound won, and all the world records he set. For this kid, along with a number of other informed observers, Greyhound was the greatest racing standardbred who ever lived.

Which brings us to the Indianapolis Yearling Sale of the 1940. By then Sep Palin had been fired as E. J. Baker's trainer for letting Francis Dodge ride Greyhound in his record-breaking mile under saddle. Baker had told Sep: "I don't want that girl ever sitting on my horse's back."

'That girl' was the automotive heiress Francis Dodge, whose mother had been married to two of the ten richest men in America, both Detroit automobile magnates. Francis was, at the time, totally caught up in the show horse world. She was a top rider, and she herself rode one of her horses to the reserve world championship in the five-gaited stake at the Kentucky State Fair.

She finally reached her goal of owning the world champion when she hired Earl Teater, and he made Wing Commander for her. A few years later, Francis bought a run-down farm in Lexington, and transformed it into Castleton Farm.

But back to 1940 and Indianapolis. Baker had fired Sep Palin immediately after Francis made her great ride on Greyhound, and Francis hired Sep as her trainer the same night.

The star of the sale was another grey yearling, a colt, and a full brother to Greyhound named Grey Fox.

After a bidding frenzy, Grey Fox was knocked down to Sep Palin for $32,000, highest auction price for a standardbred of all time. After the crowd finally quieted down, Palin stood up with a piece of paper in his hand.

"I want to read you this telegram that I got this morning," Palin said.

"Sep, buy Grey Fox. Francis."

There really were giants in those days.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Jazmin Arnold – outrider and trainer

by Victoria Howard

Jazmin Arnold is a versatile and a proverbial bootstrapper and is part of the 'younger blood' that the sport desperately needs to flourish.

Born in 1994 in Melrose, IL, not far from Maywood Park, Arnold grew up in Newton, IL.

"I'm 27 years-old, but some days I feel like I'm 72," she said, laughing.

"I have always been involved with the horses as long as I can remember. My parents are Rebecca Arnold and Larry Finn. My grandparents on both sides were involved in the sport (Mike and Jill Arnold, and Fred and Sharon Finn) and paved the way for me to follow; and especially my Aunt (Sis Arnold) who was the outrider at Balmoral and Maywood Park for many years and the outrider at Hoosier Park in Indiana from 2018-2020.

"I think she is the main reason I chose to become an outrider."

Outriding is just one of the many things Jazmin does for the sport. She also trains, grooms and drives.

"I outride at any Ohio track when they call. The fairs are hit and miss and I jump at the chance at driving there.

"I mostly drive at the fairs in the summer. I guess you can say I'm a fair weather driver, for I'm not a fan of the cold weather.

"One year I filled in as outrider at The Meadows when their regular Missy Rothfuss was unable to.

"My favorite job, though, would have to be working in the barn grooming horses. I love to work one-on-one with them."

Arnold's first job working with standardbreds came when she was on summer break from school.

"I got a job with Roger and Amy Welch, but I'm currently working for Adam Short in Ohio.

"Adam and I are a team on and off the track. I guess you can Jazmin Arnold in action.

say I'm an equine sanitation specialist, or a second trainer – depending on what kind of day it is.”

Recently, the young woman has been seen a lot in the winner's circle for she seems to be on a roll and is a force to reckon with – especially at the Ohio fairs.

Her special sidekick is a 13 year-old gelding named ROLL EM UP, who is owned by Caleb Hagerman, the son of Herman and Morgan Hagerman of Millersburg, OH.

“I love Roll Em Up, but believe me, he can be a handful. He is quite a horse who has earned $484,000, winning 55 of his 315 starts.

“Although he can be hard to handful at times, Roll Em Up has taught me more than anyone else has.

“Just recently I have gotten my feet wet in the claiming game.

“September 17, 2019, was most definitely a major highlight for me as I won the Spring Haven Ladies Driving Series Championship at Delaware, OH, during Jug week with MR. COOLIE.

“We teamed up that year and both of us worked our tails off competing in almost every ladies pace to end up being highest point leader. That day we won in 1:54.3, making it the fastest race I ever won driving.

“My entire family was in the winner's circle and you couldn't knock that smile from my face for weeks. That was the toughest, but most rewarding fair season yet.

“And the trotter BUDDY HALLY is special, too, for I drove him in the Great Lakes Amateur race where he got me my first pari-mutuel win at Northfield Park.

“Buddy was owned by Herman and Morgan Hagerman, as were the horses CELEBRITY PEGASUS and NO NO LINDY.

“Until Herman put me up on BUDDY HOLLY in 2019, I had never sat behind a trotter in a race.

“That year I would drive three hours to Northfield Park every Saturday to drive one of his trotters – it was worth every minute.”

On July 19 of this year, Arnold won the Ladies Pace at Hilliard fair with Roll Em Up and repeated on Aug. 4, when she was victorious at the Greene County Fair in Xenia, OH, winning the Ladies Pace with Roll Em Up.

As far as Jazmin's all-time favorite horse, she said it would be KNOCKOUT QUEEN, who happened to be her very first 'high dollar' purchase in the business.

“KNOCKOUT QUEEN made her way to winning the filly and mare open at Dayton Raceway in Ohio. That was always my goal and that day was beyond the best day in the business for me.

“Aside from her winning a featured race on a Friday night, she had so much sass. Being a typical filly, it was 'her way or no way.' She was so unique and I took care of her and in return she took care of me.”

I asked Jazmin if she gets intimidated racing against the boys.

“I personally feel that the women drivers, especially in Ohio, are treated equal to the men. When driving at the pari-mutuel tracks, the guys treat the women drivers as one of them.

“The men surely don't baby anyone on the track; in fact I feel the guys are tough on the gals, because they are trying to make us better.”

As far as having any 'role models', Arnold said her parents fit that bill for they work very hard for the things they have in life and have instilled that ethic in her.

“They showed me that hard work pays off in the end, and I hope to make them proud of me and who I have become.

“I love the sport and hope it turns around, but I think we need to get the younger generation involved and allow them to be more hands on.”

Around the horn

by Bob Heyden

Can Charlie May do what What The Hill did in 2017? Can he go from being disqualified in the biggest dance on his card yet still win the division title? It's certainly not out of the question.

Lawless Shadow nose his way around

Lawless Shadow is certainly taking advantage of the nose photos this summer. He finished a nose in front of favored Perfect Sting in the Meadowlands Pace for second, then was elevated to first via the DQ of Charlie May. Then he held off "Sting" on Sun Stakes Day by a nose again. Remember, too, that tight photos were commonplace for "Sting" in 2020 with his first and last start both being dead heats.

75th anniversary of the introduction of the starting gate

The starting gate debuted in 1946 at Roosevelt Raceway. No longer would there be scenarios like there was in 1930 when a Hambletonian heat took 50 minutes to get going. The car carrying a gate with a wingspan of 70 feet was now a reality. From the Dec. 11, 1946 Hoof Beats, Steve Phillips, its founder, wrote, "Thanks To All Horsemen For Helping Me Advance My Theory Of The Phillips Starting Gate."

Rambling Willie

It's been a quarter century plus one since we lost the great gelding Rambling Willie. (August, 1995) "The Horse That God Loved". Twice the all-time earnings leader both before and after Niatross assumed the honor, the gelding rose from obscurity to become a household name in the sport, racing from 1972 to 1983. $2.01 million later he retired to Kentucky Horse Park.

Darlene Hanover winning for Charlie Keller

The filly Darlene Hanover storming across the wire on Sun Stakes Day at Pocono immediately invoked thoughts of Charlie Keller who had passed earlier that week. Yankeeland was part of the ownership – and Charlie was Yankeeland Farms. Inherited from his father, who passed a half century ago, Charlie carried the banner well. A calming presence, Charlie was welcome anywhere. But you had to pull it out of Charlie if you ever wanted him to talk about himself – with one exception. On Hall Of Fame night in 2013 when he and Gene Michael met in the lobby in Goshen. They hadn't seen each other since the early 1960s playing minor league baseball and had some catching up to do. Charlie will be sorely missed.

Is Moni Maker's mirror image Manchego?

Manchego is leading the pack at the 2/3rds mark of 2021 for Horse of the Year honors. Let's see if she can hold on. She's 6, the same age Moni Maker was the last time she was named HOY in 1999 – her second straight such honor. Through 63 races in their careers Manchego is 39-for-63 while Moni Maker was 40-for-63. Moni Maker won five races on Hambletonian Day an all-time best. Manchego just won her fourth race on Hambletonian Day.

Homebreds

Bella Bellini, the only homebred filly in the 2021 Hambletonian Oaks, won it.

The fourth homebred in the last eight, seventh in the last 17 editions and 16th in the 51 overall editions of the Hambletonian Oaks.

Starting and ending points often different

Ten standardbreds have won at least two HOY titles – four of the 10 did not start off with the barn they won with.

Good Time 1949; 1952 did, Scott Frost did; Bret Hanover 1964-1966 did; Nevele Pride did 1967-1969; Niatross did 1979-1980 and Mack Lobell did 1987-1988.

But, Cam Fella started with Doug Arthur and wound up with Pat Crowe 1982-1983 HOY.

Moni Maker started with Bill Andrews and winding up under the care of Jimmy Taktar 1998-1999 HOY.

Adios Butler started with George Phalen for his first four career starts then onto the Eddie Cobb/Paige West barn 1960-1961 HOY.

Albatross started with Harry Harvey before winding up with Stanley Dancer for a pair of HOY campaigns in 1971-1972.

Perfecta party, regrets only

by Trey Nosrac

Growth for our sport is difficult but necessary. Would you accept this invitation?

August 21, 2021, 4:57 PM

From: Trey Trey@zoominternet.net

To: Glen Filmore GFcasting@aol.com, Ted Boskovic, tmbv@msm.com, Randy Miller, Shootsnscores@gmail.com, CC: Wayne Louis, Fred Malinowski, Eddie Phillips

Perfecta Party

TIME

7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 24, 2021

PLACE

Chateau Trey

ATTENDEES

You, me, and five other reprobates of your acquaintance

BRING

Your iPad.

10 $5 bills

PROVIDED

Large flatscreen television

Beer, soda, hotdogs, and snacks

Race program pages

A perfecta pot (empty fishbowl)

Rules

A Perfecta Party will be like a Pampered Chef party for guys. The differences are that nobody will sell you a salad spinner or discuss granite counters versus butcherblock. I will be your host and master of ceremonies. I will host for free. However, if this catches on, there will be a hosting fee to cover refreshments and potential damage to furniture and equipment in the future.

Please note: This is a non-smoking facility, and you must have received your vaccine.

Three of you are handicappers of harness races. Two are not. At first glance, this may appear to give the "handicappers" an advantage; however, the three alleged handicappers are so bad at choosing horses in a race that they would not have an advantage over a monkey with a magic marker.

The contest that is the focus of the evening is straightforward. We will watch harness horse races on my flat screen. Every 10 minutes, I will select a race with approximately five minutes to post.

You will select a perfecta in the upcoming race (first and second place finishers).

You will write your name on a file card and list your perfecta selection. Like this: Eddie P, 6 – 2 (first place #6, second place #2)

You place $5 in the fishbowl and hand me your file card.

When everyone has completed the process, I will scotch tape the file cards below the screen.

We watch the race.

Should anyone win (pick the perfecta) they take the contents of the fishbowl. If nobody wins, we repeat the process and add to the fishbowl.

For those of you who are casual racing fans, selecting a perfecta appears easy. You may ask, "How difficult can it be to pick the first two horses of a race in order?"

The answer is: quite difficult for many of us.

I have not successfully wagered a cold perfecta since the first Obama Inauguration.

*See below for an answer for two sequential numbers from a group of ten.

But I digress.

After nine races, if no player has won, the drama will build to a fever pitch (and if my math is correct, the total in the fishbowl will be $270 from the nine $30 deposits). For the tenth race, the rules change slightly. There is no additional deposit in the 10th and final race, and you will select ONLY A SINGLE WINNER.

The winner takes it all (or splits it with anyone who has the same winning selection).

Should nobody select a winner in the 10th race, there will be an 11th race for the pot of money.

NOTES

Your iPad can pull up each race page, so you will have a few minutes to research (handicap) your selections.

You can, of course, simultaneously wager as much as you wish on the races using your iPad if our little in-home game does not satisfy your gambling itch or occupy your mind.

Bring 10 $5 bills. No credit cards, coins, checks, bitcoins or IOUs are permitted. The legality of this party, and several of you, is somewhat suspect, and we do not want to leave a paper trail. There will be an evaluation sheet at the end of the evening because I might franchise.

RSVP Regrets Only via text or email by noon Thursday, so I know how much beer to order and how many breakable objects to place in a safe area.

* Probabilities of selecting a cold perfecta disregarding handicapping. Two racehorses are chosen randomly from a group of 10. What probability was horse #2 (Jumping Jimmy) if selected first, and Horse #6 (Gorgeous George) is selected second?

According to the Internet, the probability of Jimmy being selected first is 1-10.

The probability of George being selected second is 1-9, because there is one less racehorse to choose.

The probability of both events is the product of the two independent events.

$1-10 \cdot 1-9 = 1-90$

86-year-old Dandeo makes history at Freehold

History was made at Freehold Raceway on opening day (Aug. 27), as 86-year-old Tony Dandeo became the oldest driver to win a race in New Jersey.

Dandeo was named to drive Stick That Lip Out in the 10th race, for owner August Santore and trainer John Wyatt. Dandeo immediately sent his drive to the front and opened up a long lead against the other, more inexperienced horses. As they turned for home, favored Never Not Dancing and Devious Delight both closed ground, but no one was able to catch Stick That Lip Out, who crossed the line two lengths in front. The final time was 1:59.2.

The win was the 234th in Dandeo's career, which has spanned several decades. His most recent win came on April 15, 2016, when he guided Mickey Blu to victory.

Dandeo turned 86 on Aug. 21. The previous record was held by George McCandless, who drove Kehms Scooter to victory at Freehold on Oct. 20, 1994 at age 83.

Fulfullnmydestiny smashes track record, upsets prevail in ISS action at Hoosier Park

Three divisions of the third leg of Indiana Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings were held at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Friday (Aug. 27). The pacing colts highlighted a 14-race card on an evening that started hot and humid before a thunderstorm halted the action for nearly an hour and left a sloppy racetrack for the second half of the evening's card.

Fulfullnmydestiny and James Yoder would take full advantage of the dry conditions on the first half of the night, smashing the track record for 2-year-old pacing geldings in the $47,500 first division in the fifth race of the evening. Leaving from post two, Fulfullnmydestiny and Yoder floated off the wings of the gate, settling mid-pack in fourth as Odds On Blockchain and Peter Wrenn led the field through a snappy :26.4 opening panel. As the pace slowed a bit on the backstretch, Yoder launched Fulfullnmydestiny with a quick backside brush to the front end, taking the field through the halfway point in :55.3. On the far turn, the gelded son of Tellitlikeitis began to separate from the field, opening up by six at the three-quarter station in 1:23. In the stretch, Fulfullnmydestiny maintained his lead, using a :27 quarter to stride home to a convincing seven length 1:50 victory over Paw Patrol and Yourwishisgranted. The time serves as the new track record for 2-year-old pacing geldings at Harrah's Hoosier, the previous mark of 1:50.3 was set in 2019 by former Indiana Sire Stakes champion and Milstein winner Odds On Osiris.

"I felt pretty good about (Fulfullnmydestiny) coming in. He had been training great heading into tonight," driver and trainer James Yoder said. "He's versatile colt that you can do what you want with and there is just no bottom to him."

Fulfullnmydestiny is a Brett Boyd Racing homebred out of the Fox Valley Gallant mare Driven By Destiny. It was the second victory in five seasonal starts for the freshman and with the win, Fulfullmydestiny has now banked $73,940 on the season for his connections.

Following the severe weather delay after the evening's six race that left the track sloppy once racing restarted, Iwannabewithyou pulled off the 24-1 upset following a disqualification of second choice JK Victory. In the early stages of the mile, undefeated Soaring Now skirmished with JK Victory before clearing to a :27 first quarter. The field would remain in straight alignment up the backstretch, with Iwannabewithyou and John De Long trailing the field at one point by 15 lengths as the field went through the half in :55.1. On the turn, Iwannabewithyou narrowed the gap, still trailing the field but within a more manageable eight lengths as Soaring Now led the field into the stretch through three quarters in 1:23:3.

In the stretch, Peter Wrenn squeezed the Nancy Takter trained JK Victory through the passing lane to be first across the line. However, upon review, the judges deemed that JK Victory interfered with Topville Somrocket and Brandon Bates when making their move to the front and would be placed fourth. In the meantime, it was Iwannabewithyou and John De Long that swept the remainder of the field following a powerful :26.1 final quarter for the second-placed-first victory in 1:51:2. The gelded son of first crop sire, Luck Be With You, picked up his second victory in three career starts for trainer Dylan Davis and owner John Schmucker. Out of the Dragon Again mare, Bo Tox Hanover, Iwannabewithyou was bred Black Creek Farm and Hickory Hollow Stables of Indiana. The $8,000 Hoosier Classic Yearling purchase has now banked $31,000 on the season and returned $50.00 for his supporters at the betting windows.

Sire Luck Be With You picked up his second Sire Stakes victory on the evening, with Big Law pulling the mild upset in the $47,000 third and final division. Leaving aggressively from post 3, Sam Widger guided Big Law to the lead in the early stages, pacing the field though a :27.2 first quarter. Pressure came in the form of undefeated and heavily favored Ponda Warrior and Brandon Bates who cleared on the backstretch to a :55 half. Ponda Warrior held the lead at three-quarters in 1:23.2 under pressure from second choice the Longest Yard and Mike Oosting, with Widger continuing to wait patiently in the pocket awaiting racing room in the stretch.

Room would come in the stretch as Widger steered Big Law to the passing lane, capitalizing on a :28 final quarter to score the victory by a quarter of a length in 1:51.4 over a hard-charging Incredible Badger and John De Long. Dalby Hanover would round out the trifecta, finishing fourth placed third after contact with The Longest Yard in the stretch. Trained by Randy Hatton who co-owns the gelding along with the breeder of the rookie, Oldfield Farm Inc., Big Law is out of the Fox Valley Barzgar mare, Miss Lucy O. Big Law has picked up three victories now in six starts in 2021, earning $57,545 in doing so. Big Law paid $21.20 to win race 10.

True Blue Lindy makes splashy U.S. debut in PASS

True Blue Lindy made a splashy U.S. debut Friday (Aug. 27) at The Meadows when he controlled the fractions and dug in late to capture the Tyler B, a $159,745 Pennsylvania Sires Stake for freshman colt and gelding pacers.

It isn't clear if True Blue Lindy earned enough points to qualify for the championship — The Meadows will play host to all four $250,000 PASS finals for 2-year-olds on Friday, Sept. 3 — but winning trainer Jeff Cullipher indicated the Always B Miki—Think Pink gelding will be at The Meadows that date for the championship or the $50,000 consolation.

True Blue Lindy was a budding star in Canada, where he performed exclusively at Woodbine Mohawk Park. In five starts there, he captured the Dream Maker Series final, earned a mark of 1:51.2 and never was worse than second.

When he was purchased privately about 10 days ago by Cullipher and Tom Pollack of Pollack Racing LLC, the big outstanding question was: could he adjust to the five-eighths-mile tracks in Pennsylvania when he was accustomed to the seventh-eighths-mile Woodbine Mohawk oval?

He answered that question emphatically in the Tyler B as he and winning driver Tim Tetrick protected rail position and forged to the front. When Tetrick gave him a 29 second-quarter breather, that was all he needed to turn back the late Lightning Lane threat of Birthday and down him by a head in 1:51.3. JM'S Final Treasure finished third.

Cullipher said True Blue Lindy is every bit the horse he and Pollack thought they acquired.

"We got our picture taken," Cullipher said. "Timmy said as soon as the horse got where he good see the closers, he took back off again. He'll probably be better off a helmet."

Pollack was particularly pleased with the winner's staying power.

"His fractions were good, but he's a big horse and not a sprinter," Pollack said. "It was great to see him show heart late."

On paper, the first division of Friday's Pennsylvania Stallion Series looked like a walkover for Captain Cowboy, who had won all three previous stallion series split and had nary a stain on his lines. But when he broke stride early and needed to expend considerable energy to recover and retake the lead, it changed the thinking of Mike Wilder aboard Good Deal.

"That horse kind of stuck out in the race, but he really had to do a lot of extra work after the break," Wilder said. "I thought if I could ever beat him, I'd take my shot there. Good things have to happen to win races, but that being said, my colt raced really well."

Indeed, Good Deal blew by the exhausted Captain Cowboy in mid-stretch, then held off the rallying Code Cracker to prevail by 3/4 lengths in 1:53.2. PJ Lou completed the ticket. Ron Burke trains Good Deal, a Sweet Lou-Cut A Deal gelding, for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci LLC and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby.

Hecandancencruise took the other split for David Miller, trainer Mark Harder and owners Philip Steinberg and Dana Steinberg.

Sire JK Endofanera sweeps soggy ISS at Hoosier Park

Harrah's Hoosier Park played host to the third leg of Indiana Sire Stakes action for 2-year-old pacing fillies on a soggy Thursday evening (Aug. 26) in Anderson, IN. The night would include two rain delays due to a powerful thunderstorm hovering in the area, as well as interference resulting in disqualification in the second division of stakes action, but at the end of the night, it was two daughters of JK Endofanera left standing atop the two divisions of Sire Stakes action for the pacing fillies. .

The $68,000 first division for the pacing fillies would belong to JJ Endofanera and John De Long. Leaving alertly from post 4, JJ Endofanera would land the pocket seat behind Trace Tetrack and Hedda Hopper through a fast opening quarter in :26.3. Up the backstretch, the field of nine would remain in straight alignment as Tetrack would tap the brakes on the front end, taking the field to the halfway point in :56.0. The undefeated Alloutblitz and Sam Widger would be the first to move on the leader, storming up after the leader from fourth to take on Tetrack and Hedda Hopper as the pace picked up on the far turn through three-quarters in 1:23.4.

Hedda Hopper would shrug off the challenge from Alloutblitz who would retreat on the turn, however, De Long and JJ Endofanera loomed large ready to slingshot from the pocket. Utilizing a :27.1 final quarter, JJ Endofanera opened up on the field in the stretch, pacing away to victory by three at the line over Hedda Hopper in 1:51.3, Ms Quick Sand and Brandon Bates would get up for the third spot. It was the second career victory for JJ Endofanera, lowering her lifetime mark by four seconds in doing so. Trained by Brian Brown, JJ Endofanera is owned by Country Club Acres, Kirk Nichols, Milton Leeman and VIP Internet Stable. The daughter of JK Endofanera was bred by the 3 Brothers Stables of New York and is the first foal out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare, JK You're So Vain. The $35,000 Harrisburg purchase has now gone on to earn $52,220 in six starts on the season thus far.

The $68,500 second division would serve as the race 14 finale on the card. It would be Trick Of The Light and Mike Oosting who would cross the wire first. However, after an extensive inquiry, it would be JK's Rollin Baby who was crowned the winner. The focus of the disqualification came in the opening stages of the race, as Trick Of The Light and Oosting went for the lead, three deep on the outside of Dancin Image on the rail, and Marvelous Marshia in between horses. The judges deemed that Trick Of The Light pinched Marvelous Marshia entering the first turn, resulting in interference with Dancin Image along the rail who would then go off stride. With the disqualification of Trick Of The Light, it would be JK's Rollin Baby and Trace Tetrack who were posted the winner of the Thursday night finale. JK's Rollin Baby watched the action just behind the first turn fracas, settling along the rail throughout the mile before finding room in the stretch, pacing to a clear second behind Trick Of The Light before being posted the eventual winner. JK's Rolling Baby paced her mile in 1:52.1 to score her third win in as many career starts. JK My Girl and Tyler Smith would finish third placed second, with Lorraine Smoke and James Yoder rounding out the trifecta finishing fourth placed third.

JK's Rollin Baby is owned by the Engel Stable of IL LLC, Hen-Shaut Stable, Louis Willinger and George Golemes and trained by Erv Miller. Bred by Mahlon Lambright, the JK Endofanera filly is out of the Rocknroll Hanover mare, Rock N Roll Baby and was a $20,000 purchase from the Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale. Maintaining her perfect career through three starts, JK's Rollin Baby now boasts earnings of $50,500 on the season.

Empire Breeders Classic at Tioga today

Tioga Downs will present the Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) for 3-year-old pacing fillies and colts on today's (Aug. 29) matinee racing card. The EBC stakes are sponsored by a grant from the Agriculture & NYS Horse Breeding Development Fund, New York Stallion owners and Tioga Downs.

Test Of Faith (Dave Miller) headlines the $214,000 filly division, race eight on the program. The daughter of Art Major is right at the top of her seasonal class with wins in all of her New York engagements, tasting defeat only when she tried Grand Circuit types across the Hudson, losing by the slimmest of margins in a stout 1:49.

Test Of Faith will find no opponent she hasn't handled previously among the competition on Sunday as she looks to add another cool hundred thousand to her already bulging bankroll for owners Mel Segal, Kentuckiana Racing Stable and Eddie Gran. Brett Pelling is the trainer.

The colts will race in a pair of short divisions, each for $104,000.

Race five fields an evenly matched group of five. Perhaps Natameri (Matt Kakaley) is currently the sharpest of the five with wins in his last two against NYSS competition, the last in 1:50 at Vernon Downs, a personal best for the American Ideal colt. He's won four of his nine seasonal starts and fared well against Grand Circuit types in the Adios. Jessica Okusko trains Natameri for Wanda Polisseni's Purple Haze Stable.

American Courage is an easily identifiable favorite in division two, race seven on the card. The winner of the Messenger Stakes in early July against Grand Circuit company, American Courage has handled any state-bred competition thrown his way to this point and there's no reason to think that won't continue on Sunday. Travis Alexander trains the homebred son of American Ideal for Fiddler's Creek Stable, comprised of his wife Alaina and Mark and Leslie Wasserman. Matt Kakaley is the regular driver and might be in for a really big day.

Trotting sophomores return for round three of Kentucky Championship

The Red Mile will again play host to 3-year-old trotting males and fillies as they compete in their third $40,000 preliminary for the Kentucky Championship Series today (Aug. 29).

Fillies start today's action with a five-horse contest led by Beltassima, who put in a strong performance to win the first round of the Kentucky Championship on Aug. 8. However the Tony Alagna-trained daughter of Trixton scratched sick from the second round, where trainer-driver Jordan Derue romped with his Muscle Hill filly Empressive Hill. Beltassima starts from post 5 with Andrew McCarthy in the bike while Empressive Hill comes back for the third round and starts from the pylon post.

Really Fast will try for back-to-back victories when he starts from post 4 in the colts and geldings' division of the Kentucky Championship Series. Dexter Dunn sent the Nancy Takter pupil on a speed mission in his first start following a break in the Hambletonian final and won by open lengths in 1:52.3. He neighbors the left flank of Cuatro De Julio, a Lexington stalwart from last season who took a mark of 1:51.3 when winning a division of the International Stallion Series. Lucas Wallin will drive the Marie Ortolan Bar trainee as he makes his first start since his adventurous mile in the Hambletonian.

Today's card features 10 races total, including three $20,000 divisions of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series – two for the colts and geldings and one for the fillies. First-race post time is 1 p.m. (EDT).

Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Supplements for Pacing Derby and Maple Leaf Trot due Monday

Woodbine Entertainment would like to remind all owners and trainers that any supplements for this year's Canadian Pacing Derby and Maple Leaf Trot must be submitted by Monday morning (Aug. 30) at 10:30 a.m. (Eastern)

The fee to supplement a horse to either the Canadian Pacing Derby or Maple Leaf Trot is $40,000 (CAD).

Both event finals are limited to the 10 highest lifetime money earners at time of entry.

If a supplemental entry does not have enough earnings to qualify for the final, the supplement fee will be refunded to the owner.

All horses entered, except supplemental entries, that fall outside the top ten will be eligible for a consolation, provided there is sufficient number of wagering interests. If the consolation does not fill, all payments will be refunded to the owner of the horse at time of declaration.

Clein, Melara and Hicks to receive 2021 USHWA-Florida Scholarships

The Florida Chapter of the United States Harness Writers Association has announced three candidates who will receive awards this year from the 2021 Allen J. Finkelson Scholarship program.

The scholarship was established in memory of Hall of Famer Allen J. Finkelson, the former vice president of public relations at Pompano Park and long-time chairman of the board of the national USHWA organization.

"Michelle Melara, Sarah Clein and Da' Zhaun Hicks will each receive scholarship funds from our USHWA Chapter," said committee chair Thomas H. Hicks. "They are all outstanding students."

Preference for these scholarship awards were given to a student(s) majoring in journalism, communications or equine related studies. Applicants must be a resident of the state of Florida and currently accepted or enrolled in a fully accredited college or university in the United States. Criteria for selection include community service, academic achievement, and leadership.

The scholarship fund again received donations from Maggie LeClair and Jay Farrar of Winter Park and the Thomas H. Hicks family of Pompano Beach. Each scholarship winner will receive $500.

Sarah Clein of Wellington is a freshman at the University of Florida majoring in communication, journalism and advertising. She is a Wellington HS and Palm Beach State graduate (GPA 4.0) that has led Bricks Busting Boredom and Aaron's Ipad Lending Library activities. Sarah has also participated in UF's Summer Media Institute and is a Mr Brother and Sister's Keeper award winner.

Michelle Melara of Orlando is a University of Central Florida (UCF) junior (GPA 3.87) majoring in biology with a minor in zoology/pre-vet. Michelle is a Lincoln Park Academy graduate and has been a Dean's List, National Honor Society and Pegasus Silver Academic Scholarship recipient. She has interned at Back to Nature Refuge, has taught at True Crew Dance Co. and seeks to become a veterinarian.

Da' Zhaun Hicks of Altamonte Springs is a student at UCF (GPA 3.9) majoring in communications. This Haggerty HS and Seminole State grad (3.86 GPA, summa cum laude) has worked in the City of Orlando Youth Council as a speaker and entertainer.

For more information about the Florida Chapter of USHWA and the Allen J. Finkelson Scholarship, visit www.ushwa-florida.com or go to their Facebook page at Florida Chapter USHWA.

Owner that had horses with Allard responds to Big M's press release about the lawsuit

I am long-time standardbred owner. I disagree with Jeff Gural recent statement about this lawsuit (2021-08-27 edition, pg. 10). (The Meadowlands' press release) didn't publish everything about what this lawsuit is about... Jeff Gural is punishing us for absolutely nothing. I was forced to sell my share of horses I had with Julie Miller (Easy Rider, Pub Crawl and Sisters Choice) and Brett Pelling (When Dovescry and Springsteen) but these horses had no affiliation with (Rene) Allard who, by the way, was training babies in Florida legally with the approval of the courts and is innocent until proven guilty. But because my name was on the ownership of these horses with Pelling and Miller I had to sell my share for well below the market value of these horses and therefore after I paid into all the stake payments I will lose out on all the stake races at the Meadowlands, Tioga and Vernon Downs Racetrack.

Also, VIP Racing Stable had a horse in the Allard stable in Florida but they were allowed to race at the Meadowlands because they have a financial relationship with Gural which is very unfair and is discrimination which is part of this lawsuit.

Mr. Gural is clearly abusing his power as a racetrack and horse owner by him not letting us race in these prestige races so he can have a favorable outcome.

Kap Singh / Yorktown Heights, NY

Gural responds to Kap Singh RE: Allard case

Editor's note: We asked Jeff Gural to respond to Singh's letter. He replied as follows:

I met with Kap Singh prior to Allard being arrested and he assured me Allard was not using drugs and wanted me to allow his horses trained by Allard to race at my tracks. I listened and actually another trainer stopped by since we were in Trotters having dinner and he told Kap what a horrible person Allard allegedly was and how (Allard) allegedly abused his horses and used (performance enhancing) drugs. When Allard was arrested I thought that was the end of it. Few were surprised he was arrested. Then I was given info that Allard was training 20 horses in Florida and I was shocked. I asked (Meadowlands security chief) Brice (Cote) to see if we could identify the owners as I have always thought the best way to clean (the sport) up is to go after the owners who pretend that they had no idea their trainer was using drugs. I did not buy into the claim that (Allard) was just training them down and was not going to be involved when they raced. I told the owners that called me that they could reapply to race next year before the yearling sales and I most likely would agree if there were no undisclosed ownership interests.

VIP consists of multiple owners in various syndicates who most likely had no idea who Allard was so I did not want to punish all of these people. Unfortunately, rather than reapply to race in the future, they opted to sue, which is their right and I will vigorously defend my actions. Mr. Allard will have his day in court and we will see how that goes

Jeff Gural / New York, NY
