Just when she thought she was out, they pulled her back in

Sophie Norton was looking to try other equine pursuits away from standardbreds when SUNY Morrisville equine program teacher Kerin Warner showed her she was meant for harness racing.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

by Chris Lomon

Sophie Norton was looking for a way out. That was until, much to her surprise, she found her way back in.

It wasn't that she had anything against the idea of working in the standardbred industry. Instead, the then teenager originally from Delaware was focused on pursuing a long-time passion in a different equine arena.

"So, it's kind of a funny story," said Norton. "I kept trying to get out of it. I started with the HHYF (Harness Horse Youth Foundation) and did that for a couple of years. I came from riding horses, and I wanted to keep riding. When I started showing a bit more, I had to make the decision to leave the youth foundation camp and focus on the show horses more often. And that was it until I went to college."

Soon enough, plenty of things would change for Norton after she her acceptance into the State University of New York (SUNY) at Morrisville, a public college with two locations (the other is in Norwich) in the Empire State.

Her original post-secondary gameplan altered course before her first day of classes.

"I went to Morrisville for Equine Science," she said. "I was going to do the rehab and thoroughbred programs, but they got rid of the thoroughbred program. I decided not to do the rehab one, which meant I had to find something to do. The first time I ever went there, it was for a tour, and I was looking to speak with someone about the thoroughbred program. Kerin Warner, who teaches the standardbred side, came out and said, 'You can talk to me instead.' I told him I wasn't really interested in harness racing, and I didn't think it was for me. He looked at me and said, 'Okay. I'll be seeing you in class anyway.' I didn't think anything of it at the time."

Fast forward to one year later, and Norton, now seated in Warner's class, quickly recalled that conversation.

She also remembered another thing the two had discussed when they first met.

"Kerin said he heard that I was in the youth foundation and to please come and jog a horse in the summer. He had my number, and he would call to remind me. One day, I said, 'Okay... I'll come to the races.' So, I went, and I never left."

For the past three years, Norton has plied her trade in the standardbred world, a jack-of-all-trades horsewoman who has indeed found her happy place.

Working in the Vernon Downs' barn of Michelle Warner, wife of Kerin Warner, Norton's daily duties include a little bit of everything.

"Kerin still teaches at the college, so I'm with Michelle, doing whatever I can to help. I'm Kerin's second trainer, so Michelle and I work hard to keep things running smoothly when he's teaching at the school. We have about 25 horses right now. I'll clean stalls, rub on horses, paddock. I also drive, just qualifying drives for now. A few more starts and then I'll start my pari-mutuel driving."

Having that variety in her role, where each day is different than the next, resonates with Norton.

"It's nice not to have redundancy in what you do. It's not where you come in, clean five stalls, rub on five horses and then go home. You don't truly know what every day will turn out to be."

One certainty is her relationship with a particular horse.

Norton developed a close-knit connection with Bet Big On Blue, a 6-year-old son of Muscle Hill—Honorable Daughter, right from the start of her harness racing career.

She was handed the reins of the bay trotter immediately but wasn't told why.

"I've taken care of him for three years. He left us for a month, came back and now he's racing again. We rehabbed him twice, and he's stayed sound for us. The story with him was the first night I came to the races, Kerin handed me the horse and said to take him for Lasix. I took him, and I didn't know at the time that the horse had a reputation for being hard to handle. Kerin said he didn't expect me to come back with him, but we did. I was none the wiser. I was just happy that I had made a new friend. He walked beside me the whole time with his head on my shoulder. I came back with him and told Kerin he was fine. He said, 'Well, he acts bad for me, so he's your horse now.' And he's been mine ever since."

The horse with a dozen wins over 77 career races is one of many reasons why Norton is happy to be where she is these days.

Goals and aspirations within the sport are never far from her thoughts.

One day, she hopes to run a modest stable of her own, campaigning a small group of pacers and trotters that will see her in the driver's seat.

"My long-term goal is to be a full-fledged trainer on my own, and I'll probably drive my own. I'm not looking to be a catch driver. I'm working towards that with Kerin and Michelle. I don't think I have any specific short-term goals. I'm learning all that I can now."

That education extends beyond the barn and the racetrack.

When she's not plying her trades, Norton is in the classroom, albeit virtually, studying creative writing, with a concentration in fiction, at SNHU.

"I'm a full-time student, online. I do about five hours of course work each day after I get home from Vernon. Five hours after that, I go to bed and start my day all over again."

All of it happy trails, she offered.

For the person who had once wanted out, Norton is thrilled to be back in, and back in to stay.

She very much looks the part of a serious horseperson.

"My driving colors are royal blue and grey, with Colombian blue trim and yoke stripes on the top. It's more or less the same design as Kerin's, except that his are red and white, and mine are blue and grey. I really like the way it looks."

The same can also be said of a sport and a career that at one point she never envisioned.

"It's funny how things worked out, but it did. And I'm really happy about that."

"The first time I ever went there, it was for a tour, and I was looking to speak with someone about the thoroughbred program. Kerin Warner, who teaches the standardbred side, came out and said, 'You can talk to me instead.' I told him I wasn't really interested in harness racing, and I didn't think it was for me. He looked and me said, 'Okay. I'll be seeing you in class anyway.' I didn't think anything of it at the time."

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Get A Wish brought tears to Westergaard's eyes

by Thomas Hedlund

Trainer and driver Bo Westergaard experienced a great moment at the track of Charlottenlund when his 4-year-old Get A Wish (Wishing Stone) was outstanding in the $162,000 Danish Derby on Sunday (Aug. 28) afternoon.

Westergaard trained Get A Wish's sire Wishing Stone during a period and in 2012, they won the Copenhagen Cup together with driver Jeppe Juel. It was Juel who sat behind the favorite in the Derby this year. He drove Garfield and was optimistic about the chances before the race, but when Westergaard hit the lead with Get A Wish, Garfield had to do the heavy job on the outside over the majestic distance of 3,000 meters.

Get A Wish got full gas in the end of the last turn and Garfield couldn't challenge the flying leader, who was outstanding in mile rate 1:59.3.

"I felt that I managed to peak the form on my horse and I knew that he loves to run in the lead, so it all turned out perfectly for us," said an emotional Westergaard after the race.

"All the staff works so hard every day and we really had this objective as one of the big goals this year. It feels extra good when things go your way. I'm relieved and very happy right now. This is very big. I've won some big races before, but this is the biggest so far."

Garfield held strongly as runner up ahead of Gasolin, who had a perfect second over trip for Steen Juul.

The $95,000 Derby for mares was on Charlottenlund's Saturday (Aug. 27) race card and on a sloppy track, Flemming Jensen had Golden C N (Wishing Stone) in perfect condition. Golden C N left fourth over with a kilometer to go and at the back stretch, just before the last turn, Flemming Jensen could take control of the race as Golden C N flew away from her opponents and the six lengths win was impressive in mile rate 2:02.3 over 1.3 miles.

MONI VIKING FROM THE LEAD

The $188,000 Sundsvall Open Trot over 1.3 miles was held at Bergsåker racetrack in Sundsvall, Sweden on Saturday (Aug. 27) afternoon and quite unexpectedly, Björn Goo- trained Moni Viking (Maharajah) kept the lead from an inside post behind the gate.

There were some speculations regarding Don Fanucci Zet's chances to reach the lead from post 6 as Moni Viking was not the horse that fans mentioned as the leader of the race, but that became reality when Goop held front position quite easily with his chestnut colored Maharajah son.

With Moni Viking in the lead and Don Fanucci Zet on the outside, the race was locked and when two of the toughest horses (Best Ofdream Trio and Brother Bill) disappeared and went off stride in the start. That left victory to be decided by the two front runners. But the tough battle never occurred as Moni Viking proved to be in as good shape as when he claimed Åby Stora Pris over 3,140 meters two weeks before Sundsvall Open Trot.

Goop claimed his fourth group 1-victory in two weeks (Moni Viking, San Moteur in Jubileumspokalen and Following in E3 final) and 9-year-old Moni Viking came home in a mile rate of 1:54.3.

Stoleteshow finished strongly from second over and bested Don Fanucci Zet in the hunt for silver.

VIVID WISE AS DID IT

Four consecutive wins in the $180,000 Grand Prix du Departement des Alpes-Maritimes in French Cagnes-sur-Mer became a fact when Alessandro Gocciadoro's Yankee Glide son Vivid Wise As grabbed the trophy in Saturday (Aug. 27) night's edition of the race.

Matthieu Abrivard drove Vivid Wise As and he had to settle for an outside trip with toughest opponent Etonnant in the lead.

The two top trotters fought a really tough battle over Cagnes-sur-Mer's long home stretch and Vivid Wise As got the advantage with some 100 meters to go, but leader Etonnant didn't give up and the Elitloppet winner, driven by Anthony Barrier, tried to close the one length advantage during the race's last meters. But Vivid Wise As held on and claimed his fourth consecutive win at the French Riviera's biggest race for the summer.

The two front horses marked a 1:51.1 mile while Bleff Dipa sprinted to bronze medal in 1:52.

ANOTHER BIG WIN FOR DUVALDESTIN

Thierry Duvaldestin's horses are doing great in big races in France at the moment. His 4-year-old Idao de Tillard belongs in the top of the crop and in Saturday's (Aug. 27) $150,000 Yearling Cup - Arqana Trot at Vincennes, his 3-year-old Jack Tonic (Charly du Noyer) claimed the title for driver Théo Duvaldestin.

Jack Tonic was served a nice cover trip by Duvaldestin and when a half mile remained in the 1.6 miles long race, position first over was captured. And Théo Duvaldestin could control the race from that position and he disposed his horse's power perfectly as tough opponent Jazzy Perrine got some problems with her trip further back in the field.

Jack Tonic won safely ahead of Jazzy Perrine and did it in mile rate 2:00.1.

MARTENS WITH UPSET WINNER

Belgian top driver Christophe Martens, who mostly operates in France, claimed a big title in The Netherlands as Victoria Park in Wolvega played host to the $110,000 TCT Derby on Sunday (Aug. 28) afternoon.

Martens drove 3-year-old Gericault (Muscle Hill) and after a quick last 5/8ths of a mile from last position in the field, the duo hit the wire first. The upset was a fact for the German bred trotter, who claimed his, by far, biggest title in his career. Mile rate was 1:57.1 over 1.3 miles.

The 3-year-old fillies battled in $44,000 TCT Filly Derby and another German bred trotter proved best during the day in Wolvega. Muscle Mass filly Marvellous Steel was served a first and second over trip by Dion Tesselaar and Marvellous Steel was strong in the finish and came home in 1:59 over 1.3 miles.

ALTERNATIVE ACTIONS

with FRANK COTOLO

Cinema standardbred: a plot to promote the sport of harness racing - Part 4

by Frank CotoLO

Alternative Actions (AA) continues its series developed to offer the solution that has the best chance to change the nature of the film industry's ambivalence towards harness racing and perhaps inspire someone to pioneer a project that could be the most successful promotional tool standardbred racing ever utilized.

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

Part 3 is here.

The standardbred-screenplay predicament can be solved. First, a short primer to explain and accept the initial problem.

In parts 1 through 3 of this series I did not mention the most recent and somewhat successful Hollywood films having to do with horse racing for a reason. "Phar Lap" (1983), "Seabiscuit" (2003) and "Secretariat" (2010) idolized three extraordinary thoroughbreds of the 20th century, vis a vis, their titles. Yet, none of them were truly biographies of the equine heroes; that would have been better served in documentary style. All three are based upon real horses, people and events — to a degree. Non-fiction — mostly. For now, forget about the process of adaptation. We will use that gimmick later; let's look at the guts of the movies' three stories.

Moreso than in any Hollywood film so much as flirting with horse racing, the screenplays of those three motion pictures appealed to audiences, whether the audiences were horse racing fans or not, because of their human characters.

"Well-defined characters," wrote Lajos Egri, author of The Art of Dramatic Writing, "will drive the plot themselves; the foundation of character is the essential germination of a well-crafted story."

David Williamson's screenplay follows the rise and fall of Phar Lap's trainer, Tommy Woodcock, a run-of-the-mill, fading, veteran dreaming of greatness. He gets Phar Lap by chance and it turns out the horse is phenomenal.

Based on the success of Phar Lap, Woodcock becomes rich and famous. But when he greatly expands his stable it is obvious his skills have nothing to do with Phar Lap's extraordinary talent. Tommy pushes Phar Lap hard so as to support his training career while powerful business figures feel Phar Lap's success is toxic to their greedy interests.

In the end of the story (which happens to be the opening scene), the steed mysteriously drops dead from poisoning. Tommy is ruined but satisfies the character's journey, which stresses the story's premise: "hubris leads to ruin."

Dramatic truth results when the main character changes (greatly or subtly), confirms the premise and delivers "the ever-present role of change in all forms of life, forcing people to evolve in the face of one overwhelming obstacle after another."

"Seabiscuit" is the name of the underdog steed but the movie is a story driven by three human characters. His owner (Charles Howard), his trainer (Tom Smith) and his jockey (Red Pollard) team up to prove the premise "courage leads to hope."

More than Seabiscuit's racing history, which the three men work heart and soul to inspire, the story succeeds because they defy the spirit-crushing weight of the Great Depression and become stronger against all odds, so to speak. The audience identified with characters personified by their horse.

Roger Ebert wrote, "If an underdog like Seabiscuit could win against larger and more famous horses with distinguished pedigrees, then maybe there was a chance for anyone."

The premise of "Secretariat" was similar, except Secretariat is unlike Seabiscuit; Secretariat is born of royal blood; he's a superior steed. It's the characters in this story that must rise to a level that changes them for the better.

"The owner (Penny Chenery) and trainer (Lucien Laurin) are characters who are vivid, human and complex" (Ebert again). The story also promotes courage in the face of strong opposition from tradition. Chenery is a woman with a mission, facing hard-boiled habits of horsemen who dismiss her as a serious player in the business. Laurin is on the brink of retirement and anonymity. The natural brilliance of their thoroughbred allows them to find special talents in themselves that are deserving of Secretariat's god-like persona.

WRITE FROM WRONG

There is a good reason Hollywood's harness-racing snub has lasted through the history of movies and it is nothing personal. The standardbred-screenplay predicament, as the history we covered explains, reveals there has never been a screenplay written bound to dramatic truth driven by "characters who are vivid, human and complex."

Every attempt I have read at a screenplay involving a major standardbred or the sport in general has been about a horse and the sport. That is the problem.

A writer I knew in the '70s wrote a script with a Baseball theme. When rejected, he blamed it on producers disliking baseball. Years later, the success of "Field of Dreams" angered him. I said his script failed because it is about baseball; "Field of Dreams" is not.

In part 5 I'll hand you the keys to the library of writing tools that always work in scripts and the encyclopedia of premises at a screen writer's disposal.

Reset and refreshed thanks to the power of family and horses

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

The burden of the COVID-19 pandemic on health care workers is difficult to understand for those not directly affected. For Nicole Bourgeois-Stocker, it was her everyday reality. So, after two years on the front lines, she returned to her first love, working with standardbreds.

At mid-morning on a beautiful Tuesday in August, Bourgeois-Stocker is wearing casual athletic wear and a smile on her face in Rick Zeron's barn at Classy Lane Training Centre, in Puslinch, ON.

The resident of Guelph, ON is working as a caretaker, a job she reprised in March of 2022 after 10 years in health care.

Bourgeois-Stocker and Hawaii at Classy Lane Training Centre in Puslinch, ON.

“Obviously over the last couple of years, things in health care have changed drastically,” said Bourgeois-Stocker. “For my own mental health, I wanted to go back to something that was very familiar, and also because of my love of the animal.”

It’s 10:30 a.m., and her day began four and a half hours earlier. Her work includes turning out horses, mucking stalls, preparing horses to jog or train, accompanying horses to the racetrack, and putting horses away when their work is done.

“My favorite part of my job is getting to be hands on with the horses,” said Bourgeois-Stocker. “But I love everything from cleaning the stall, to taking care of the horses, and seeing the results on the racetrack from week to week.”

Bourgeois-Stocker’s co-worker in the Zeron stable is also going about his tasks this morning with a smile on his face.

He’s wearing a grey baseball cap, a long sleeve t-shirt, and making jokes. It’s Rheal Bourgeois, a lifelong horseman, Bourgeois-Stocker’s father, and the person who encouraged her to return to the horse racing industry.

“My dad said to me, ‘I am working for Rick, and I love my job,’” said Bourgeois-Stocker. “He said, ‘It would be awesome to work together again, because we do get along so great.’ And you don’t get those opportunities too often to work with your family like that, so I took it.”

Rheal has nearly 600 training wins, over 800 driving wins, and 4,000-plus starts in each role. He gave Bourgeois-Stocker her first job in racing, after she began her equine career swimming horses for therapy at Argyle Farms.

“My dad is an amazing father, and an amazing horseman as far as I am concerned,” said Bourgeois-Stocker. “So, it’s nice, because we get along so well. A lot of people don’t like working with family, but I consider it a pleasure.”

The other pleasure Bourgeois-Stocker is enjoying since her return to the horse racing business is the connection with her horses.

Picking a favorite is tough, but she has a special relationship with Hawaii, a 4-year-old trotting daughter of Justice Hall, and runner up in the 2021 OSS Super Final. Hawaii is currently standing calmly on cross-ties in the barn.

“Hawaii has my heart,” said Bourgeois-Stocker. “She’s just a special mare because she has to trust you. I had to earn her trust and respect. She was nasty at first, and wanted to kick you, but once she got your trust, she has been an absolute pleasure to be around.”

As Bourgeois-Stocker leads Hawaii out to the grass for a photo, it’s not just Hawaii who looks content, but her caretaker as well.

“It’s a privilege to be able to work with animals,” said Bourgeois-Stocker. “Some people take it for granted. I have taken it for granted. But, coming back, it reminded me how special the horse is and how therapeutic it is. I am so glad to be back.”

Trio of MacDonald, Gallucci and Millar double up at Rideau

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

Driver James MacDonald, trainer Nick Gallucci, and owner George Millar won both $101,300 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold divisions for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Sunday (Aug. 28) at Rideau Carleton Raceway in polar opposite fashions. The first with a longshot from off the pace, and the second a favorite from out front.

In race six Velvet Stinger paid $37.00 for her first career Gold win.

The Bettors Delight daughter left from post three and due to traffic MacDonald sat well back of brisk opening panels of :26.1 and :54.3. She was still in sixth at the 3/4 pole before MacDonald found racing room and the filly took advantage.

"Velvet is a little champion," said MacDonald. "She was buried the whole way, got shuffled, and when she got daylight, she just launched."

Just before the wire she passed I Love Ongait and won by a head, setting a new lifetime mark of 1:52. It was the sixth win this season for the George Millar homebred, but first against top tier competition.

"I was just thrilled to see Velvet Stinger win," said Millar. "She's had a lot of unfortunate races, and mishaps, and should have finished better than she did. It's just nice to see that after getting shuffled to the back of the field, she could come on and win the race. She's such a tough little filly."

Velvet Stinger is the fifth sophomore filly to win a Gold this season and joins her stablemates Silver Label and Prohibition Legal as contenders in the crowded division with just one leg left before Super Final night.

Silver Label added to her OSS trophy case in race 9, winning her second Gold this season as the bettors' top choice at 1-5.

Leaving from post two MacDonald navigated her into the pocket early, popped the first time through the stretch, and the Bettors Delight filly was the class of the field, leading unchallenged the rest of the way and winning in an identical time to the first division.

"She's just a powerhouse," said MacDonald. "The trip worked out great. Got to control the race and get soft fractions, and she was well within herself. It was a terrific night all around."

Silver Label has now earned over $250,000 this season, backing up a freshman campaign where she was nominated for an O'Brien Award, and made $341,726.

"Silver Label, what can you say about her," said Millar. "She's been good all year and is racing in her best form right now. She's just a really nice filly, and a good filly to be around."

Millar and Gallucci weren't content with taking the top spot in each division, Raptors Won with Johnathan Drury driving charged home in :26.1 to finish in second place.

"Nick's done a great job with all these fillies, and he's just such a good trainer," said Millar. "It was just a great night; we haven't had one of these nights in a while."

Final PA-sired prelims solidify this weekend's finals

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

The two winners of the $73,635 divisions of the Pennsylvania Sire Stake for 2-year-old trotting fillies both signaled their readiness for this coming Sunday's Championship at Harrah's Philadelphia by taking new lifetime marks in this Sunday afternoon's (Aug. 28) successes.

Faster by a tick was the Cantab Hall—No I'm Not miss Cando Volo, who sat in the pocket behind Angelpedia and her factions of :27.2, :56.3, and 1:25.3, then came on to catch that filly by half a length in 1:55.2 on a day where being on or near the lead was greatly helpful to a horse's chances of success. Corey Callahan, who would also win two Stallion Series divisions, drove Cando Volo for trainer Vernon Beachy and owner Ryan Smith, and the winner was the only non-favorite in the seven stakes races of the day to win – in fact, she was the longest shot on the board, paying $32.00.

In the other division, the Donato Hanover—Motivational miss Portulaca captured the top spot among her preliminaries' point-winners with her third win in five career starts (4-2-1-1 in the PASS), this one in 1:55.3. Montrell Teague kept the Kathleen La Montagne-trained filly, which she co-owns with Donald La Montagne, in the two-hole almost all the way through fractions of :28.3, :57.2, and 1:26.3, popping out near the last-named station, going to the lead, then held off a late bid by Tipsy Moni by 1¼ lengths.

Aside from their all being favorites, there were several other inter-weavings in the connections of the five $20,000 Stallion Series winners; since we have mentioned Callahan already, we'll start with his: The faster of his two Stallion winners was the Bar Hopping—Snowflake Hanover filly Totally Relentless, maximizing her talent to take a 1:57.1 maiden mark for trainer Linda Toscano and the ownership of Richard Gutnick, Thomas Pontone and R-And-I Farms LLC.

"Captain Corey" (yes, the 2021 Hambletonian winner was named after him) also scored with the International Moni—Miss Athens distaff Foolish Moni, her third win but first in the U.S., in 1:57.2 for trainer Jessica Fallon and owners Tim Klemencic and Blake MacIntosh. This training/owning team also clicked with the Father Patrick—Gin And Lindy filly Lindys Irishcream, fastest Stallion Series winner in 1:57 under the guidance of Simon Allard, giving her StS wins in her last two trips behind the gate.

Father Patrick completed a siring double with Jameson N Lime (dam On The Rocks), who now has six wins in her brief career (two in the Stallion Series) after a 1:57.2 triumph for owners Virginia and Kathy Schoeffel, Big L Stable, and Mary Owlett, trainer Steve Schoeffel, and driver Brady Brown. Brown also had a Stallion Series double, and his other win came with the leading prelim point-winner (4-2-1-1), the Fordham Road–Fast Reaction filly Fortune Forecast, who took a new mark of 1:57.4 for trainer Rick Beinhauer, also co-owner with Regina Beinhauer.

Chris Gooden

Sunday's results, from the final prelims of the year, assure that no one from any of the eight divisions will have a chance to "sweep" their respective competitions – take all four preliminaries and then the Championship -- but a first-place Championship check will likely be more than adequate compensation. Philly will have four of those Sire Stakes Championships for 2-year-olds, plus whatever consolation races that fill, next Sunday, September 4 during a card offering over $1 million in purses.

Mad Max Hanover, Night Hawk wrap up PASS finals berths

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows
Standardbred Owners Association

Mad Max Hanover and Night Hawk each needed big points in Saturday's (Aug. 27) $69,000 Pennsylvania Sires Stake divisions at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows to secure spots in the championship. They got exactly that, as each captured a division in the event, known as the Tarport Effrat, for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers.

The Meadows will play host to all four $260,000 finals for 3-year-olds on Saturday (Sept. 3).

Mad Max Hanover is a long-winded, long-striding Always B Miki–Mayhem Seelster gelding whose lack of gate quickness sometimes gets him in bad spots. Thus, Tim Tetrick was all over him early to get him to the point.

"Off the car, he's not the quickest. It takes him a little while to get there," said Jake Leamon, who trains Mad Max Hanover for Marvin Rounick. "Tim said he was more tired than the horse was getting him out of there."

He was unassailable once on the lead, scoring in a sharp 1:49. Layton Hanover and Captain Cowboy dead-heated for second, 2-1/4 lengths back. Mad Max Hanover now has banked $451,257.

Night Hawk waited for the field to settle a bit before rushing to the lead for David Miller. He held off the first-over Fourever Boy by a neck in 1:50.3, with Greatest Ending third.

Trainer Brian Brown recently upped the dosage of ulcer medication for the son of Betting Line—Night Music, and Miller said he noticed a difference.

"He acted like he was feeling much better," Miller said. "I didn't want to get away third, so I thought I'd better do something. So I moved him."

Leeman Lombardo Stable, Joe Sbrocco, In The Gym Partners and Acadia Farms campaign Night Hawk, who lifted his lifetime earnings north of $300,000.

STALLION SERIES

On Friday, Tetrick swept both splits of a PASS for freshman colt and gelding trotters. He brought his broom with him again Saturday, taking both divisions of the sub-feature with Jo Pa's Warrior and Hecandancencruise.

Tetrick passed up an early tuck with Jo Pa's Warrior to pursue the lead. That proved a winning decision, as the son of Sweet Lou—Benearthebeach rolled home in 1:50, matching the stake record established by He's Rockin in 2019. Code Cracker was second, beaten 1-1/4 lengths, while Atlas Hanover completed the ticket.

"I raced him out of a hole at Pocono, and he had to be first up. I didn't want that again," Tetrick said. "I wanted to be up close. I didn't want to have to be out in the turns."

Emposimato Stables owns Jo Pa's Warrior.

Freshmen fillies top PEO Sale

Led by a pair of stakes quality 2-year-old fillies with promising futures, Preferred Equine Online's Aug. 29 Mixed Sale — comprised entirely of racehorses — totaled $907,500 in gross revenue.

There was only one RNA in the entire 30-horse catalog, meaning 29 of the 30 horses offered were sold, creating a solid average of $31,293.

Topping the charts with identical bids of $90,000 were Stick With Me and Racin Hungry.

Stick With Me, second in the PA All-Stars, is a freshman daughter of Father Patrick from Non Stick, a half-sister to 2022 Hambletonian favorite and $623,000 earner Rebuff. She was consigned by PEO as agent for trainer Jeff Gregory and partners and bought by Euro Stall SE.

Racin Hungry p,2,1:53.3-'22 ($42,124) is a Pennsylvania Sire Stakes winner who is eligible to compete in the $250,000 final on Sept. 4. She was offered as agent for trainer Scott McEneny and purchased by Glenn Goller.

Other leading sellers included New York's open mare pacer So Amazing p,3,1:52.3f ($221,544), who was purchased by Warner Racing for $66,000; and Nice Guy Eddie 3,1:58.2f-'22, second in the $100,000 Beal Consolation at Pocono last out, who sold to Jonathan Klee, Justin Bolasci and Hurricane Racing for $62,000.

\(See complete sale results\)

Sale manager David Reid said he was again pleased not only with the lively participation and results, but by the fact that only one horse failed to sell.

"Sellers once again provided quality horses on our state-of-the-art, online marketplace," he said. "The bidding transparency it provides is a big plus... it gives buyers a lot of confidence going in, knowing they can walk away with the horse they want at a price that's a win-win."

Preferred Equine Online's next mixed sale is scheduled a week after the Labor Day holiday, on Monday, Sept. 12. Entries are now being accepted at preferredequineonline.com. Reid said this next sale already includes not only racehorses, but broodmares and yearlings as well.

New Jersey Classic draw information

The Meadowlands will host the inaugural New Jersey Classic Series for Jersey-sired 3 year old trotting fillies and colts with eliminations scheduled for Friday, Sept. 2.

Only four colts were entered in the "A" division of the colt and gelding stake and eight fillies in the "A" division for the fairer sex, effectively eliminating the need for elimination races. All those entered will instead go directly into the finals on Friday, Sept. 9.

The "B" level fared slightly better with 13 declared for the colt and gelding races and a dozen for the filly race. The conditions require that byes be offered (and were accepted by) the top 2022 money winners entered. There will be a single elimination race for each of those stakes to get the number down to the required ten starters in the Sept. 9 finals.

The 2 year old New Jersey Classic Series begins next week with A & B division eliminations for both the pacing and trotting fillies on Thursday, Sept. 8 and the pacing and trotting colts on Friday, Sept. 9. All 2-year-old finals will be raced on Friday, Sept. 16.

Keep an eye on the upcoming condition sheets for details.

The box for this weekend at The Meadowlands is painfully short without the number of expected elimination races and remains open to entries for the overnights should you desire to race.

Kevin Cummings wins six of 12 at Batavia Downs

Batavia Downs leading driver Kevin Cummings continued his torrid pace on Sunday (Aug. 28) after his Grand Slam performance at the track on Saturday night. Cummings drove six more winners of the 12 races held, giving him a total of 11 wins in the last 22 races in which he drove.

Cummings biggest win of the day came with Jumpinthejailhouse, who won the co-featured $14,000 open II trot in fairly easy fashion.

Jumpinthejailhouse went right to the front and reached the quarter in :28.4 as All About Thechase (Mike Caprio) and Batting Stats (Keith Kash Jr.) followed closely behind. With positions unchanged from that point, Jumpinthejailhouse then went :59.2 to the half and 1:28.3 to three-quarters and extended his lead to 2-½ length coming off the last turn. The race was over at the point as Cummings had Jumpinthejailhouse wrapped up by 2-¼ lengths in 1:57.4, which tied his season's best clocking.

Jumpinthejailhouse ($4.20) is owned by Mike Torcello and was trainer Sammy Smith's second win of the afternoon.

Cummings completed his six pack with wins behind Faithful Desire (1:55.2, $2.90), Anurka (1:57, $6.10), Bacardi (1:57, $3.90), Parkhill Horton (1:58, $6.30) and Way To Go Fabio (1:55.3, $6.30).

So far this meet, Cummings has 45 wins in only 156 starts and sits ahead of Jim Morrill Jr. (39) in the top spot for dash supremacy.

Consignors' comments for upcoming Sept. 12 Goshen Yearling Sale

The 2022 Goshen Yearling Sale will be held at noon on Monday (Sept. 12) and the 94 yearlings offered this year are currently being examined by many interested parties in person, on video and through the catalog. However no one has observed these horses closer than the respective managers of each farm. Here are some opinions they have offered about who stands out to them from their consignments.

STEVE JONES - CAMEO HILLS FARMS

The 2022 Cameo Hills Farm Goshen sale consignment features another very solid group from proven families.

(Hip #62) Fire Breathing is an Always B Miki colt from Little Miss Dragon (3, 1:50.2 $769,790) who is the dam of Delightful Dragon (4, 1:50 $819,871) and Yonkers open mare star Dragon Roll (1:51.3 $579,559).

(Hip #74) Irish Exit is a Huntsville filly from One Last Kiss, who is the dam of five in 1:55 and three $200,000 winners.

(Hip #82) Medalist Moment is a So Surreal colt from Please Me Please (1:51.2 $756,238) who is the dam of seven in 1:55 and four $400,000 winners.

(Hip #502) Hippie Shake is an E L Titan half-sister to NYSS star Chapheart, a winner of $144,427 in that series in 2022.

There are three Tactical Landings, one (Hip #71 Ruthian) from Murderers Row, who is a $146,000 winning daughter of the great Housethatruthbuilt, who earned over $1.1 million, and another (Hip #23 Omakase) from the $275,000 winner Bramalea Hanover.

Our agent consignment is just as strong.

There are two by the red-hot first crop sire International Moni, one out of Armbr Blusher (Hip #16 Niccolo) who was the dam of Keystone Activator (1:53, $370,138) and Margie (1:55.2 $267,502).

Two by Crazy Wow, one (Hip #94, Karolina Solveig) from the outstanding producer La Tapatia who is the dam of Tober ($879,000), Gaelic and Garlic, ($418,000) and BJ Anthony ($333,000).

(Hip #95) Mr. Money Hungry is a Stay Hungry colt from $375,000 winner Michelle's Idea.

(Hip #1) Scootermagrooter is a Huntsville colt from Take My Pulse, the dam of Keystone Tenacious (1:50.1, $390,000).

We are selling a total of eight by Huntsville, who is the leading money winning sire for 2- and 3-year-olds standing in New York State.

Last year's Cameo Hills Farm 2021 consignment has already produced the NYSS winners Hunting Season (Huntsville—That's How We Roll) 1:55h, $104,190 in 2022, Defiant Lady (Devious Man—Marina Grace) $47,601 in 2022 and Rec Time (Huntsville—Ms Malicious) 1:55.1h, $35,550 in 2022.

Previous Cameo Hills Farm Goshen sale graduates include NYSS champions Hickfromfrenchlick (1:48.4, $698,377), JD (1:50.2, $291,907), The Fun Marshall (1:51.1, $270,381) and Cigars And Port (1:50.4, $348,193) and Empire Breeders Classic winner Splash Brother (1:48.2, $621,366).

DAVID HANSON - LEATHERSTOCKING EQUINE

We have a nice bunch of yearlings for the Goshen Sale again this year. The Crazy Wow and Mets Hall 2-year-olds are doing very well racing this season in New York and we have a number of Crazy Wows in our consignment including (Hip #54) Nancy's Opinion, the Crazy Wow—Kasha full sister to NYSS winner Mari. This will also be the last crop of Conway Hall's as he retired in 2020. If you've always wanted a Conway Hall, this sale season will be your last opportunity to get one and we are offering four in this sale.

JACK BURKE - WINBAK FARM

Winbak Farm is sending another winning lineup to the Goshen Yearling Sale this year. The roster is highlighted by four first crop yearlings from Meadowlands Pace Winner, Courtly Choice. We also have three yearlings from the second crop of Met's Hall. From his first crop (now 2), 70 per cent have already hit the track and includes NYSS Winners, Metro Matty (1:58.3, $42,845) and Met Your Request (1:58, $34,839). For any further information on the yearlings in our consignment, contact James Ladwig, yearling manager or Noelle Duspiva, New York Farm Manager. The yearlings are now stabled at Winbak Farm of New York for easy viewing and their videos are posted at www.winbakfarm.com.

JEAN BROWN - BLUE CHIP FARM

Blue Chip Farms is representing a large consignment at the Goshen Yearling Sale on Sept. 12 and will showcase a group of great individuals that have solid pedigrees to match. Pacers include two Huntsville colts (Hip #20) Cantfindmywayhome from Blind Faith and (Hip #68) Vampire Blue Chip from Queen Of Darkness who both have stakes winning 2-year-old half-brothers campaigning this year. In addition, (Hip #53) Villain Blue Chip is a colt from the first crop of Courtly Choice out of a Western Terror sister (Jenny's Terror) to million-dollar winner Versado. This colt is New York as well as Massachusetts eligible.

On the trotting front, Blue Chip's Goshen consignment boasts yearlings by a wide range of sires such as Crazy Wow, Devious Man, E L Titan, and Conway Hall. Also included is the Met's Hall filly, (Hip #88) Salt Hill Dale (from Salt Hill Brigade) who is a half-sister to two $200,000-plus stakes winners.

For more information about Blue Chip's 2022 yearling consignments log onto our website at www.bluechipfarms.com. The Goshen Yearlings are available for inspection now. Contact Nahuel Agosti (845-800-7589) to make an appointment to review this exciting group of yearlings.

GEORGE MILLER - PINE HILL STABLE

Our consignment includes (Hip # 26) Crazy Crown (Crazy Wow-Con Air Crown) who is a big, handsome colt that trots "100" all day long and (Hip # 32) My Boy Elroy (In The Arsenal-Docdor Valentina) who is an outstanding individual whose second dam is Eternal Camnation, the greatest pacing mare ever!

Videos for almost every horse in the sale are linked to the online roster that can be viewed at goshenyearlingsale.com and then click the "Sale Roster" icon.

The 2022 Goshen Yearling Sale will be at the Mark Ford Training Center that is located at 90 Slaughter Road, Middletown, NY. Catalogs are still available at most tracks and training centers in the northeast and can be downloaded right from the GYS website (goshenyearlingsale.com).

Live video of the entire sale and online bidding is available through Cattle In Motion. Their website (cattleinmotion.com) is your one-stop shop for everything pertaining to the GYS but you are not registered from a previous sale, you will need to register in advance of this one to get all the available benefits.

You can register by scrolling down to their homepage and clicking on the Goshen Yearling Sale link and then follow the process to bid online. That includes creating an account, completing the lifetime verification (which gives you access to all future online auctions) and then signing up for the Goshen Yearling Sale. The whole process takes about five minutes and when you are done, it will show "you are eligible to bid on this auction" at the bottom of the page.

You can also download their mobile app for your phone at the Apple App Store or the Google Play Store.

Should you need any assistance or have any questions concerning this sale registration, please call 888.554.8437 or email info@cattleinmotion.com.

Cattle In Motion will also be providing the live video feed for the auction. This will start at approximately 11:15 a.m. (45 minutes before the sale at noon) and run for the duration. This feed will be available through your Cattle In Motion account and include live and pre-recorded video of all the horses in the sale.

Once you are registered you can also sign up for sale updates that can be received via text or email or both. These will be sent out in real time as they become available right through the end of the sale.

For any other inquiries please contact Mark Ford directly at 973-568-3253 (cell) or by email at fordstable@frontiernet.net.
