Super short Exacta payout at Northfield leads to questions

Did a "bell bettor" take advantage of the favorite and second choice not being on the gate just before the start?

by Garnet Barnsdale

Here we go again. Twitter was buzzing over a very short Exacta payout at Northfield Park on Monday night (Aug. 30) that most likely was cashed by "bell bettors" or "gate bettors" who took advantage of a big favorite and the second choice not being on the gate just before the start and got a sizeable bet down on the winning Exacta combination just before the off.

Anytime a 115-1 shot and a 32-1 shot combine for a meagre $325 Exacta payout in any race for any reason, that is going to ignite social media. That's what happened in Monday's 14th race. Horseman Jay Hochstetler tweeted a picture of the pay-offs with this message: This looks bad. Like needs a criminal investigation bad.

DRF Harness's Matt Rose explained in his tweet why there was no chicanery in play in the actual running of the race. "It was nothing more than a gate punch with the 5 breaking well before the start and the 9 (who shows breaks and shaky lines) stuck in 2nd tier. Bell bettor happened to get lucky, that's all. Yes, crappy payoff but there's really nothing to see here..."

data, noted with this tweet: that the wagers that knocked the payoff down in the race Monday night occurred very close to the start After a 9-minute (!) post drag, the 8-1 exacta will pay for race 14 on Monday @NfldPark went from 617-1 to 161-1 in the final click, which was just 11 seconds after the penultimate update. The will pay was 1,994-1 just five minutes earlier.

The way that this has been explained to me in the past suggests that certain bettors that are wagering at a specific simulcast wagering site give a specific Exacta box combination to the teller that excludes the top one or two betting choices, then the bet gets queued up and they yell go or stop depending on what is happening behind the gate just before the start. Their wagers get into the system just before the bell rings to note the end of wagering, thus the term "bell bettors". This is certainly not a new phenomenon. A similar incident that occurred at The Raceway at Western Fair was documented in this column in 2019 (full story here).

It should be noted that there is some truth to Rose's statement that the bell bettor "got lucky". The winning combos were punched when it was obvious that the second choice was on a break and the 1-5 favorite was second last leaving from the second tier. But the favorite quickly made a move for the front and broke stride just as he was about to make the lead. If he stays flat, we probably end up with a bit of an overlay on the winning Exacta with him in it, and the bell bettors lose.

But is there really "nothing to see here"?

finishing 2nd. The Exacta, which in any typical race would pay well over $1,000 – if not most of the pool – comes back $325 for every deuce. Isn't anyone concerned with the optics of the ridiculously low payout and the inevitable fallout on social media? (Which happens every time following one of these low payouts).

This tweeter Chris Whaley wasn't impressed with the payout and he showed his anger with this tweet: Riddle me this. Exacta 115-1 30-1 paying $325 at Northfield for $2. $2 exacta combo 99-1 4-1(2nd choice) was paying $1,398. Even the 99-1 1/5 was paying $240. 1/5 and 4-1 both make weird breaks. What in the fixed bullshit is going on @NorthfieldPark? Judging by the volume of tweets generated from a non-winners of three raced late on a Monday night, there is apparently plenty to see.

For me, this is one of the biggest issues when these "bell bettors" make this kind of a score and totally skew the payoffs. The optics lead to cries of "fixed race", which in this case I think is obviously without merit, but it's out there in the Twitterverse now. Ask yourself how many of Whaley's followers are likely educated on the whole "bell bettor" process which creates the abnormally low payoffs. DeRosa, who has been working in the business for decades and got his start at Northfield Park seemed unaware of the whole bell bettor phenomenon. Or perhaps he knows and just didn't see the race or the replay and he required more information. Considering all that, what are the chances Joe Betting Public knows?

Here is the other issue; Whaley and me and thousands of others are betting from home. So, while the bell bettors aren't technically doing anything wrong or breaking any rules or laws, they certainly have a big unfair advantage over the majority of the wagering public. At one wagering hub, they apparently pay for a faster video feed so there is little to no time lag on the video feed. So, they are watching the start in real time and I am not. My concern was shared by tweeter Horseshoes and Hand Grenades who posted: Assuming they don't have my tv which is 45 seconds behind "live" then, lol.

This is bang-on, because there is no way with the lag on my video feed that I am getting a wager in at anywhere close to 11 seconds to post.

I don't know what the answer is. But at some point, we need to ask ourselves is this something that we are going to continue to accept because "that's how it's always been," and have to continue to answer for ridiculously low payouts in these cases, or are we going try to do something to level the wagering playing field in this case somehow?

Horses essential for helping Darren Rybka Jr. grieve the loss of his father to COVID-19

by Chris Lomon

In the toughest of times, Darren Rybka Jr. knew he could count on the horses for comfort.

"When you walk in the barn in the morning and see you their faces looking at you, there's really no way you can ever be mad or feel sad," said the 27-year-old Rybka Jr. "They don't ever say a word, but they always find a way to lift you up."

Just like they have in the days, weeks and months following January 22, 2021, the day that Darren Rybka Sr., "Big D" as he has known to many, lost his fight to COVID-19 at the age of 54.

"He was a great father and a great person," said Darren Jr. "He was always there for us, always encouraging us in whatever we did."

After graduating from Ichabod Crane Central High School in 1984, where he was a four-sport athlete, Big D, a native of Hudson, NY immediately enlisted in the United States Army where he served until 1987, doing a tour of duty in Korea. Prior to his passing, the elder Rybka was Senior Project Manager with Creative Sports Concepts, a company that installs hardwood and synthetic athletic flooring, outdoor tracks, playgrounds and athletic equipment.

His meticulous ways served him well in every aspect of his life, including his time as a standardbred trainer and owner, where he plied his trade at racetracks across the U.S. northeast.

That love of horses and horse racing was handed down to his sons, Darren Jr. and Steven, who took to the sport with wide-eyed wonder at an early age.

As the years passed, the boys' passion for racing continued to grow. Through that shared bond, not only did they get to spend time with their father, they also got to talk shop, celebrate wins, and pat each other on the back after a tough loss.

Both Darren Jr. and Steven eventually followed in their father's footsteps, finding success in the very same roles their dad once held.

The siblings haven't only shared similar paths. These days, they share the same workspace.

And, unlike their younger days, the odd scrap and subsequent scrapes are a thing of the past.

When they do happen to each have a horse in the same race, the exchange of barbs and talk of bragging rights fills the shed row.

Yes, sibling rivalry still very much exists between the Rybka boys. These days, the only thing that gets bruised is an ego.

"We definitely get along a lot better than we did as kids. It's nice having Steven in the barn with me. He has five horses of his own. Whenever we do end up in the same race, there's a little smack talk going on the week before and the week after."

Rybka Jr. has always been able to talk the talk.

Working in the paddock during his high school days, he displayed a comfort and confidence around horses that others quickly picked up on.

Heidi Rohr and Jimmy Nickerson, who at the time were running their operation out of Middletown, NY, but racing at Saratoga and other racetracks, certainly took notice of the young kid.

When the pair made the full-time move to Saratoga, Rybka was asked to join them as their groom.

Fast forward to the present, nearly 10 years after accepting the groom gig, the former helping hand is thriving in his role as assistant trainer to Nickerson.

Two years ago, when Nickerson was seriously injured in a car crash, Rybka stepped up and led the operation in the veteran conditioner's absence.

In racing parlance, the stable didn't break stride.

It certainly wasn't luck that kept things running smoothly, but Rybka is anything but boastful about his contributions.

"Jimmy has been like another father to me throughout my life. When he got hurt, I had been working for him long enough that I felt I could step in and do it. When you are around someone for so long, you know how they work and how they go about doing things each day. The horses raced well when he was healing up and I hoped that helped in his recovery, that he didn't have to worry about anything."

Much of what he learned from his father and for Nickerson has helped Rybka Jr. in his own training life.

Career-wise, it has been a memorable 2021 for the now 27-year-old horseman.

He has two horses of his own, while retaining his second-in-command status with Nickerson.

"It's probably the best year I've had training my own. At the beginning of the year, I had a trotter named Stealing. I raced him seven or eight times, he won three, and he never missed the board, before he got claimed off me at Yonkers. He was a special horse for me because it was the last one my dad and I bought together before he passed away. Every week, that horse came to call and raced hard."

His current star is a pacer by the name of Real Kid.

The 8-year-old son of Real Desire has racked up plenty of miles over a career that began in June 2015.

"He won on August 14 at Saratoga. He's just like Stealing. Every time you put him behind the car, he tries as hard as he can. He never throws a bad race. Those two have really stood out for me this year."

Having already established several personal-best marks this year, the future, short and long term, appears to be promising for Rybka Jr.

Whenever he does look forward, he also looks back, specifically, to call upon the advice he's received from two particular people.

"I started paddocking for Jimmy when I was 14 and I learned a lot from him. I also learned a lot from dad too. I guess the one thing that has always stayed with me from my dad is to never give up on the horse. He always encouraged me about trying new things and not getting down. I found that out early on, that there are a lot of peaks and valleys in racing. You have to take the good with the bad."

Admittedly, that wasn't always easy.

"I'm getting a little better," Rybka Jr. said with a laugh. "I still get frustrated, but it's not as bad when I was younger. When they win, it makes you proud of the work that you've done to help get them there. When they don't do well, it pushes you to work to find a way to get them to succeed. When you get down, you just remind yourself there's always something to look forward to."

For the man whose plan is to, one day, have a stable of his own, it's the faces that peer out of the stalls at him every morning.

"Being around the horses, it makes you feel good. They are always there for you. If you're having a bad day, the moment you see those faces looking at you... they put a big smile on your face. I know I'll never take that for granted."

Globe-trotting Aussie Anton Golino has learned from some of the best en route to running Yabby Dams

The head trainer for one of Australia's biggest operations has studied under David Reid and Noel Daley in the U.S., Timo Nurmos in Sweden and Jean-Pierre Dubois in France.

by Adam Hamilton

About 17 years ago a starry-eyed young Australian was trackside at Delaware for the Little Brown Jug with just $60 and a return ticket to Australia to his name.

Stuart McCormick HRV

Dance Craze, a daughter of Muscle Hill out of former superstar Aussie race mare La Coocharacha, is the best trotter Anton Golino (above) and Pat Driscoll have shared so far.

After just a few months in America, Anton Golino's hopes of landing a good gig in the U.S. seemed all but over.

Enter David Reid of Preferred Equine, the first in a chain of people who have shaped Golino's life, not just his career.

"I'd already called mum and said I'd be heading home, but it all changed when (Aussie trainer) Peter Walsh introduced me to Dave, who asked if I wanted to go down Lexington and work for him at the sales... that was the fork in the road which changed everything for me," Golino said.

Defying the odds is something Golino has done repeatedly. The idea to try his luck in the U.S. came while the then 20-year-old horseman was in hospital having a rod removed from his leg, the result of a motorbike accident which left him with two crushed legs and more than a year in a wheelchair.

Now Golino, 40, is head trainer for one of Australia's biggest harness racing operations, Yabby Dams, which is home to about 200 standardbreds at a lavish 700-acre racing and breeding property backed by passionate trotting man, Pat Driscoll.

From Lexington, Golino went to the Harrisburg sales with Reid and was approached by the Aussie-born Noel Daley with an offer to work for him as a groom. Momentum was gathering.

"Dave was great, but I thought Harrisburg was the end of the road again until Noel spoke to me," Golino said. "I started with him as a groom and graduated to driving work after a couple of years. Noel had a fantastic team of horses, but just as good a team of people working for him. It's no surprise, who wouldn't want to work for him? He's an amazing person, like a father to everyone.

"Noel completely changed my life. I spent eight years with him and learned so much."

Golino then moved to Sweden where he worked near Solvalla for trainer Timo Nurmos for a year as he mapped-out how to return to Australia and start training in his own right.

"That was fantastic, too. The plan was to go back to Sydney because they were building the new Menangle track with training facilities and it sounded perfect for me, but that was delayed and I went from Sweden to France and met 'The Boss,'" Golino said.

"The Boss" is France's — and quite possibly the world's — "Mr. Trotting", Jean-Pierre Dubois.

Golino's step-father Peter Bednarczyk, a horse trainer himself, didn't want Golino following in his footsteps, but once it became inevitable, he insisted Golino learn how to be a good farrier.

"Wherever I went, I took my shoeing gear with me. So, I got the train from Sweden to France, a 35-hour trip, with all my gear. I remember getting woken up at 3 a.m. somewhere in Germany by some guards yelling 'papers, papers, where are your papers,'" he said.

"I only had six months with Mr. Dubois, but it was incredible. I had about 60 babies to break in. If I could do everything again, I'd have gone to Mr. Dubois earlier."

The pair clicked so well, Dubois promised he would race Golino's first horse with him when returned to Australia and set himself up.

"He kept his word, it was the first horse I bought, a colt called Twice As Much, by one of his stallions, Sam Bourbon. He won 11 races for us, but his importance was huge because he's the reason I met Pat (Driscoll)," Golino said.

Driscoll, his passion of trotting unknown to Golino at the time, was fascinated how a legend like Dubois was a part-owner of Twice As Much.

"I told him the story and a bit about my background. A few months later, Pat came across to the Prix d'Amerique with me and that was really the start of it all for us together. He's been incredible for me, another special person who has changed my life," he said.

"I just thought he was a trotting fan when I met him. Little did I know what he had in mind and how big everything would become."

"The first horse I had for Pat was a lovely mare called Arboe. She's still one of the best we've had, but she was a bit crazy. Things really grew about a year later when I moved from NSW to Victoria and, eventually, Pat got his amazing property (about 90 minutes outside of Melbourne) up and running."

Golino's connections and Driscoll's passion and funding has revolutionized trotting in Australia. The racing arm is Yabby Dams, but the breeding side, Haras des Trotteurs, has given Aussie breeders access to many of France's best stallions. This year's roster includes: Love You, Orlando Vici, Quaker Jet, Timoko, Bold Eagle, Brilliantissime and others.

Dance Craze, a daughter of Muscle Hill out of former superstar Aussie race mare La Coocaracha, is the best trotter Golino and Driscoll have shared so far. She raced 50 times for 24 wins, 13 seconds and banked $551,780 (AUD) before being retired a few months ago.

"Hopefully Im Ready Jet (a powerful daughter of Quaker Jet) can replace her, I've thought for a year or so she could, and she's come back really well with two good seconds and a win this campaign. She's still only 4, so we will pick and choose a few of the good races for her this campaign because I think she could be a bit special in another six to 12 months," Golino said.

"She could even end-up going over to the U.S. to finish her racing days, but it wouldn't be for another year or more. I'm certainly open to that."

Steen Juul, 71, wins Danish Derby

by Thomas Hedlund

Steen Juul, 71, sat behind the big favorite when the $181,000 Danish Derby for 4-year-olds at Charlottenlund racetrack on Sunday (Aug. 29) afternoon and his Festival Of Speed (Cantab Hall DE) was a confident friend in his hands.

Festival Of Speed came to the Derby with 11 consecutive wins since the debut and all pressure was on Juul's shoulders. This was predicted to be a one man show from Festival Of Speed's part and it pretty much became that way, too. Juul sent his 4-year-old to the lead 550 meters into the 3,000 meters long race and even if Festival Of Speed got a bit fired up in the lead, none of the opponents got really close to him and the only horse that followed strongly over the home stretch was stablemate Frodo Cash, who claimed the silver and strew more gold over Juul's already big day.

Festival Of Speed came home in mile rate 1:58.4 over 1.9 miles and Juul was very relieved after his 10th victory as trainer in the Derby.

"It's so nice. I was very focused and trusted my horse, but he got a little bit eager along the way. He's a fantastic horse", said Juul, who claimed his first win in the actual race already in 1983.

A great horse and a big sportsman won the Derby 2021 in Denmark.

Six out of 12 from Gocciadoro's barn

The $181,000 heat race Campionato Europeo over 1,660 meters is on the Cesena's race card on Saturday (Sept. 4) and dominant Italian trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro has six contenders in the 12-horse field.

Gocciadoro has dominated the Campionato Europeo the past three years. Arazi Boko won in 2018 and 2019 while Vernissage Grif claimed the trophy last year. Most indications are that Gocciadoro will win again this year and probably he has opted for the best shot himself as driver since he will sit behind Vernissage Grif.

Campionato Europeo is a heat race where the post positions are reversed in heat 2. If two different horses win, a race off between them will be a fact.

New start times for Lexington Selected sale

One of the most anticipated weeks of the year is now but a month away, and a positive change is in store for those who take part in what's come to be known as "The Lexington Experience."

Management of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale announced that while dates for the upcoming sale are the same as previously scheduled — Tuesday, Oct. 5 through Saturday, Oct. 9 — starting times for the auction will be different than in years past.

The Tuesday, Oct. 5 opening session, along with the Friday and Saturday sessions, will begin as usual at 7 p.m. But on both Wednesday, Oct. 6 and Thursday, Oct. 7, the sale is set to kick off with an earlier, afternoon start time of 3 p.m.

Complete information can be found in the sale catalog, now posted at lexingtonselected.com and on the Equineline sales catalog app.

Why the change? According to sale managers Randy Manges and David Reid, it's simply due to popular demand.

"Both Wednesday and Thursday are non-racing days at the Red Mile, so buyers have ample time to come out and inspect horses prior to those sessions," Manges said.

Reid added the earlier midweek start allows customers to make other plans for those evenings. "With the sale ending earlier on those days, customers can dine out with colleagues, take in the amenities Lexington offers, or simply relax and prepare for the next day," he said.

The week of high-stakes commerce — with the spacious, open-air Fasig-Tipton Newtown Paddocks providing the backdrop — starts with a gala pre-sale cocktail reception and hors d'oeuvres at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Another reception is planned for Wednesday at 2 p.m. that will accompany a benefit stallion season auction at the beginning of that afternoon's session. The seasons, to raise money for the Breeders Crown Charity Challenge, include 2022 breedings to eight stallions "that are, without question, the hottest market sires in the business," according to Reid.

With 876 head cataloged, action will be brisk during the week, as the sale — which graduated this year's Hambletonian winner Captain Corey and his Hambletonian Day stakes-winning cohorts Manchego, King Of The North and Venerate — features a bountiful selection of yearlings by every top proven and first-crop sire.

Last year, the final night of the sale set a final session record average, and Reid said the company is continuing to use that night to showcase yearlings for regional programs. "We have 23 Ohio-eligible Downbytheseasides in the book, and everyone knows those are going to be hot commodities."

Reynolds Stakes moving from Tioga to Meadowlands on Friday

The WN Reynolds stakes for 2 year olds that were scheduled to be raced at Tioga Downs on Friday, Sept. 3 are being moved to The Meadowlands and will be raced there on the same day, Friday, Sept. 3.

There is nothing to be done by those who have entered for the stakes. The box is closed, there are enough horses declared for each of the four divisions that they will go as scheduled. The only change is the venue.

The Meadowlands box is very, very short for this coming week-end. If you have something to bring along with a Reynolds horse for an overnight there are still spots available.

Call 'em in at (201) 842-5130.

USTA Executive Committee votes to maintain 2022 microchip deadline

On a conference call Friday (Aug. 27), the U.S. Trotting Association's Board of Directors' Executive Committee voted to maintain the deadline for all horses to be microchipped by Jan. 1, 2022.

"It is important for horsemen to know that all horses must be microchipped in order for them to be eligible to race in 2022," said USTA COO and Registrar TC Lane. "Our USTA I.D. technicians are continuing to observe stringent safety protocols and are available to assist any horseman who has horses that need to be microchipped.

"Horsemen should also be aware that some states such as California, Minnesota and New York have either existing or pending state laws that all horses must be microchipped to participate in racing or breeding in those states."

The original deadline, which was a year earlier, was previously extended to 2022 by a unanimous vote of the USTA Board on March 31, 2020, due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"With the challenges facing everyone in the harness racing industry as we all endure the real-life difficulties and the economic hardships presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, the USTA and the committee felt that it was far more important for our horsemen to utilize financial resources to care for themselves, their families, employees and horses. We're all in this together and the USTA will help in every way possible," said USTA President Russell Williams at the time of the March 2020 announcement.

Following is a contact list for USTA I.D. technicians available to microchip horses:

I'll Drink To That, Town Gossip, and Test Of Faith are EBC winners at Tioga

Tioga Downs played host to the Empire Breeders Classic (EBC) for both the 3-year pacing colts and geldings as well as the 3-year-old pacing fillies on Sunday (Aug. 29).

I'll Drink To That (David Miller) wore down Natameri (Matt Kakaley) to capture the $104,000 first division of the EBC for colts and geldings.

Mullinax (Yannick Gingras) went to the front but was passed by King James Express (Jason Bartlett) just before hitting the first quarter in :29. The lead didn't last long as Natameri took control with a lap to go. Natameri was first to the half in :54.2. As they went down the backstretch, I'll Drink To That ($5.90) came flying first-over and took a short lead and hit three-quarters first in 1:22.1.

As they reached the stretch the two pacers continued to battle. Natameri reclaimed the lead but I'll Drink To That kept coming and got by just before hitting the mile in a lifetime best of 1:50.2. Natameri had to settle for second. Mullinax finished third.

I'll Drink To That is a gelding by American Ideal. He is trained by Chris Ryder for owners Craig Henderson, Lawrence Minowitz, Robert Mondillo, and Oompa's Farm. It was his fourth win of the season. He now owns five career victories.

Town Gossip (Joe Bongiorno) won the $104,000 second division of the EBC for colts and geldings.

Town Gossip ($5.90) went to the front and hit the first quarter in :27.1. American Courage (Matt Kakaley) took over as they went by the stands for the first time and led to the half in :54.2. Southwind Petyr (Jason Bartlett) was first to make a move going first-over as they headed for the final turn. American Courage was first to three-quarters in 1:22.0.

As they made the turn for home Southwind Petyr kept coming as Town Gossip slipped through the inside while Major Bean (Jordan Stratton) made it four across the track. Town Gossip was strongest of all and won in a lifetime best of 1:49.4. Major Bean finished second as Southwind Petyr got third money.

Town Gossip is a gelding by American Ideal. He is owned by Robert Weinstein and trained by Jenn Bongiorno. It was his fifth win this season and seventh career victory.

Test Of Faith (David Miller) took the $214,000 EBC for fillies.

Heart OF Mine (Scott Zeron) popped out to the lead and led to the first quarter in :26.4. He used a :29.1 second quarter to hit the half in :56.0. As they headed to the far turn Test Of Faith

($2.10) popped out of the pocket and made her move. Heart Of Mine was still first to three-quarters in 1:23.3.

As they made the turn for home Test Of Faith glided right on by to take the lead. Think Of Galaxies (Mark MacDonald) made a late run but Test Of Faith had the jump and cruised to an easy win in 1:51.1. Think Of Galaxies was second best. Heart Of Mine finished third.

Test Of Faith is a filly by Art Major. She is trained by Brett Pelling for owners Melvin Segal, Kentuckiana Racing Stable, and Eddie Gran. She is seven for eight in 2021 and has 15 career victories in only 17 starts.

Tioga Downs returns to live racing on Friday (Sept. 3).

Empressive impresses, Venerate victorious in Kentucky Championship third preliminary Round three of the Kentucky Championship Series for trotting 3-year-olds went to post during the Sunday (Aug. 29) card at The Red Mile, with Empressive Hill besting the $40,000 division for fillies and Venerate taking the $40,000 split for colts and geldings.

Empressive Hill opened the card with a 1:51.4 effort to top her competition by 3-1/4 lengths. Trainer-driver Jordan Derue sent the daughter of Muscle Hill after the lead past a :28.2 first quarter and took over control from early leader Adirondack before a :56 half. The field stayed mostly single file until Empressive Hill clicked three-quarters in 1:24.3, where Beltassima angled off the pegs from third for the stretch drive. But Empressive Hill held authority through the lane and strolled to victory while chased home by Piper Hanover, who secured second from stablemate Beltassima.

Co-owned by Derue with Bruce Soulsby, Alan Weisenberg and Gilbert Short, Empressive Hill won her fifth race from six starts this season and her seventh from 13 overall, earning $97,175. She paid $2.80 to win.

Venerate maintained his stride through the mile and came charging with a fierce stretch bid to catch tempo-setter Really Fast at the beam in a 1:52.2 mile.

Really Fast, sent the odds-on choice, took the lead to a :28.1 first quarter while Kildare King settled into second and Venerate into third. Driver Andy Miller kept Venerate at the pegs past a :56.3 half and started his move with the Love You colt passing three-quarters in 1:25.3, where Cuatro De Julio and then Kildare King lost stride. The race became a sprint to the finish between Venerate and Really Fast through the straightaway, with Venerate kicking home in :26.2 to land a head in front over Really Fast. Tangled Love, who broke at the start, grabbed third another nine lengths behind the pair.

Owned by Pinske Stables and Andy Miller Stable Inc., Venerate won his second race from eight starts this season and his seventh from 18 overall, earning $840,809. Julie Miller trains the $10.80 winner.

The pair of $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series divisions for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings went to Jula Muscle Pack ($4.00) and Platinum As ($3.40), who both registered 1:53.3 clockings in their victories. Andrew McCarthy steered Jula Muscle Pack for trainer Per Engblom and Dexter Dunn drove Platinum As for trainer Anette Lorentzon.

Princessa ($56.20) surged from the pocket to upset 1-9 favorite Altar in the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth split for three-year-old trotting fillies. Andrew McCarthy sat in the bike behind the Bob Stewart trainee who stopped the clock in 1:51.1.

Point totals for both the Kentucky Championship and Kentucky Commonwealth Series are available at the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission website.

Royalty reigns in Buckeye Stallion Series at Eldorado Scioto Downs

A pair of kings, King Klueber and King's Cruiser, won for the second time this year in the Buckeye Stallion Series as the series returned to Eldorado Scioto Downs on Saturday (Aug. 28). Four divisions of 3-year-old colt pacers went head-to-head with each division won by going gate to wire.

King Klueber and Kayne Kauffman took the third division in 1:53. From post two the pair briefly sat in the pocket before taking the front mid-way through the first turn. The Bruce Sturgeon trainee cut fractions of :27.3, :56.1 and 1:23.4 to win by a nose over Rockinmyshoe (Brett Miller) and Barnard Hanover (Jeremy Smith). Karen Heaberlin and Sturgeon own the Allamerican Native gelding who has now hit the board in 12 of 16 lifetime starts after not racing as a 2-year-old. He was a winner in the second leg of the BSS on July 4 at MGM Northfield Park.

The fourth division was won by King's Cruiser with Tyler Smith for trainer Jeff Nisonger in 1:51.2. After cutting fractions of :27.3, :56.1 and 1:23.4, they won by 2 1/4 lengths over Feelin Western (Ronnie Wrenn Jr.) and Hardt At Work (Mike Micallef). King's Cruiser, a Yankee Cruiser gelding, is owned by Mark Ater and had won three in a row on the Ohio fair circuit; four starts back, he had finished second in BSS at Northfield. He was a winner in the first leg of the series.

Odds On Pick Six won the first division in 1:50.2. Ronnie Wrenn,

Jr. took the son of Racing Hill straight to the front from post two and led at every fraction of :27.1, :56.2 and 1:23.2 to win by 9 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths for trainer Melanie Wrenn and owner Odds On Racing. Knight on Ice (Dan Noble) was second and Brighter Days (Kauffman) finished third.

The second division was won by Sir Charles Of Sky (Charley Barley) in 1:51.1. Chris Page took his time with the Ron Burke trainee getting him to the front mid-way through the first turn to fractions of :27.1, :56 and 1:23. Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brussemi own the gelding who is now 1 for 1 after switching barns. Caviart Sargent (Wrenn) was second with JW's Chrome (Kauffman) finishing third.

The Buckeye Stallion Series will return to Eldorado Scioto Downs on Sept. 3 for the 2-year-old colt trot and Sept. 4 for the 3-year-old colt trot. First race post time is 6:15 PM.

The final leg for 3-year-old filly trotters will be raced Sunday, Sept. 19 at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

Sophomore PASS championships Saturday at Pocono

The $1,294,100 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) Championship card for 3-year-olds on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 4) at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono has the star power one would expect – the winner of the Hambletonian Oaks, the winner of the Yonkers Trot, the winner of the recent Lynch Championship at Pocono – and Captain Corey, Hambletonian winner, 2020 PA Stakes Championship winner, #2 in the current national polls, in a $50,000 PASS consolation event in the Daily Double.

Each division's Championship race goes for $253,000, and its corresponding consolation race goes for $50,000. Let's take a look at how each division shapes up:

COLT TROT (Championship race 10; Championship speed record 1:52.3, Amigo Volo, Phl, 2020; consolation race two)

So how did Captain Corey, who set a divisional Championship record of 1:53.3 in his 2YO event here last year, wind up in the Consolation? The simple answer is that he did not earn enough points to make the final: he only started in the Sire Stakes twice this year, winning here but making a break at Philly. He is the AE1 for his Championship, and could scratch in; if not, he gets the rail in the consolation to boot.

Among those with earned places in the Championship are three "teammates" from Captain Corey's barn, that of Åke Svanstedt, including Johan Palema (post six, driver Yannick Gingras), winner of the Yonkers Trot and second to "The Captain" in the Beal Championship here. The "quiet danger" here is Jujubee, leading pointwinner in the Sires prelims, and a 1:49.4 winner at The Meadowlands on Hambletonian Day. He'll start from post four, with Andrew McCarthy picking up the driving assignment.

FILLY TROT (Championship race 9; Championship speed record 1:51.3 [the fastest trotting Championship ever], Check Me Out, PcD, 2012; consolation race five)

Hambletonian Oaks winner Bella Bellini was bellissima in her 1:52.1 Meadowlands victory. She was given three weeks off, then was in an overnight at Pocono in her return, and some were concerned when she was only fifth. But the list of excuses is very long: the time away; the switch from the mile track (1:52.1) to the 5/8-mile track, where she still trotted in 1:52.3, perhaps even "faster"; facing older performers, all but one males; and the outermost draw. Unfortunately, that last "excuse" repeats Saturday and is worse, for driver Dexter Dunn will have to find a way to solve the outside post nine. In her favor is that she was the leading point-winner in her group's Sires prelims.

Yet another Svanstedt horse, Flawless Country, was the 2020 Championship winner in this section, showed good form to be second in the Delmonica Hanover Championship here, and she will start squarely in the center of the gate.

FILLY PACE (Championship race 11; Championship speed record 1:48.4, Party Girl Hill, Phl, 2020; consolation race seven)

Her fellow filly Bella Bellini drew the far outside, but the pacing miss Grace Hill draws the far inside as she goes for her fourth straight victory, her most recent triumph coming in the Lynch Championship. Always competitive but seeming to be bubbling just below the top level (earnings are $494,355), Grace Hill has currently achieved career form, and she will be reunited with Todd McCarthy, who won four races on the big Sun Stakes Saturday card here.

Certainly worth consideration are 2020 Sires champion Blue Diamond Eyes (post six, driver Yannick Gingras), who lost her own three-race win streak to an impossible trip in the Lynch, and Mikala (post eight, George Brennan), the leading prelim pointwinner and a winner in four of her last six starts.

COLT PACE (race 12; Championship speed record 1:48.2, the fastest clocking ever in a PaSS Championship, shared by Wakizashi Hanover, PcD, 2015, and Boogie Shuffle, Phl, 2017; consolation race 1)

Considering the COVID-forced rescheduling of the North America Cup preliminaries, and then these races falling on the same weekend of this Championship, Pennsylvania did quite well, with nine of the top 12 point-winners coming to Pocono for their shot at the big money.

As has been the general case in the uppermost level of this division all year, it is hard to be sure about anything among these competitive horses. One horse certainly peaking at the right time is Hellabalou, who won his elimination and then the final of the Adios on the other end of the state, then finished third in the Hempt Championship here on a day where it was difficult to overhaul speed, especially that with the talent of 1-2 finishers Lawless Hanover and Perfect Sting. Hellabalou was stuck behind the 8-ball in the post positional draw, which should provide a tactical challenge for driver Tim Tetrick.

One Eight Hundred, so good here earlier this year, has seen his luck decline, but at his best he must be respected from post six for driver Dexter Dunn.

Program pages for the big Saturday card will be available at <https://www.ppha.org/downsmsppps.html>.

First Sunday in September finds Trevor Henry in Clinton

Trevor Henry has lost count of the number of times he has travelled to Clinton Raceway on the first Sunday in September for the half-mile oval's annual Charity Driver's Challenge.

"I don't know how long I've been doing it. I was saying that the last time, I said, 'I've got to be the longest guy ever doing this,'" said Henry, who is once again on the roster of drivers for the 2021 event on Sunday, Sept. 5. "It's a lot of fun. It's a good day. I like going to Clinton, it's nice there."

Through his many years of participation, Henry has won the challenge three times, in 2007, 2013 and 2015. During that stretch of his career he was primarily plying his trade on Ontario's Signature and Grassroots harness racetracks. In late 2014, he started to focus on driving at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and the life-long horseman said that move may have hampered his chances of adding a fourth Clinton Charity Driver's Challenge title to his list of accomplishments.

"I used to drive mostly on the half-mile, you're kind of used to it, but when you get away from it you're not quite as used to it as you were," said Henry, who has driven the winners of more than 7,100 races to earnings just shy of $70 million. "And they (Clinton regulars) know all the horses. I see them race a bit, but not as much as they do."

Joining Henry at this year's challenge are defending champion Brett MacDonald, Clinton Raceway's leading driver Travis Henry, Ontario Women's Driving Championship winner Natasha Day, Canada's leading driver James MacDonald, reigning Ontario Sires Stakes Lampman Cup champion Bob McClure, six-time Charity Driver's Challenge winner Jody Jamieson and two-time winner Doug McNair.

Only Day, Travis Henry – who is Trevor Henry's nephew – and McClure are without a win in the annual event and the senior member of the group said it is an accomplishment every driver in Ontario is eager to add to their résumé.

"Those younger kids always want to win it," said Henry with a chuckle. "It's competitive."

The drivers will accumulate points based on where they finish in each race and the top point earner will be declared the 2021 champion. Drivers typically receive five per cent of their mount's purse earnings, but those fees will be donated to Branch 140 of the Royal Canadian Legion on Sept. 5, along with the proceeds from a silent auction and 50-50 draw.

"It's good that it's going to the Legion, because they would have lost a lot of money, it's tough for them with this pandemic," said Henry. "I know the one in Arthur, it kind of runs on a shoestring anyway, and when this hit, that would be tough on them."

Over the last 40 years the annual event has raised in excess of $332,000 for a variety of community organisations in the municipality of Central Huron.

"The whole day is a real tribute to the people that work in the horse racing industry. They've got lots of options, they don't have to race at Clinton, they could race anywhere else, but they come here on that holiday Sunday and it's certainly appreciated by the local community," said Clinton Raceway's general manager Ian Fleming. "It's a good way to cap off the season, on a high note."

In addition to the eight driver's challenge races, Clinton Raceway will also host the fourth Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots Leg for the two-year-old pacing colts.

Post time for the 41st annual Charity Driver's Challenge on Sunday, Sept. 5 is 1:30 p.m. and fans can find more information, including a free program and live stream, on the Clinton Raceway website <https://clintonraceway.com>.

Massachusetts Sire Stake gearing up for a record year

The Massachusetts Standardbred breeding program has grown exponentially in recent years thanks to the Commonwealth's Race Horse Development Fund (RHDF) that was started in 2011 in conjunction with the state's expanded gaming legislation. The program is designed to promote the breeding of Massachusetts Standardbreds to both upgrade the racing program and sustain industry jobs along with supporting agricultural businesses associated with breeding and racing.

Since the inception of the RHDF, interest in the breeding program has gone well beyond the state's borders as horsemen across North America have taken notice of the growing and lucrative stake program that has evolved. With this influx of business, Standardbreds foaled in Massachusetts have achieved new heights and their recent records and earnings numbers are the proof.

Of the 18 categories that make up race records kept in the state (2yo/3yo/4+yo -- fillies/mares, colts, geldings – trotters, pacers), Massachusetts-bred standardbreds have set new marks in 16 of them since the RHDF was started, with 13 of the 18 taken in just the last two years.

And these horses are earning more money for their connections, making it easier for them to reinvest in the industry. In the history of harness racing in the state, 80 of the top 100 money earning horses bred in Massachusetts were foaled after the RHDF began.

The resident mare program in Massachusetts requires broodmares to be registered in the state by Dec. 1 in the year prior to foaling and the foaling must be reported to the Department of Agriculture while the foal remains on a Massachusetts farm. This program offers the flexibility of breeding to any stallion in any other state, giving the owner the option of racing in two sire stake programs each year. This has become more prominent recently and as a result, the Massachusetts Sire Stake has become more competitive with stake tested horses coming to Massachusetts in late September ready to roll.

This year, the Massachusetts Sire Stake could be the most lucrative ever, but also holds the possibility of being the most productive on the track as many eligible horses are already competing at a high level in New York, New Jersey, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Maine.

Since 2017, every Massachusetts stake record has been broken at least once. Seven records were broken last year (Five new, two of them broken twice) including all four pacing categories.

As the MASS series prepares to kick off again on Sunday (Sept. 26), these are some of the horses that may rewrite the Massachusetts record books this year.

2-year-old filly trotters

Moni Heist (Walner—Nothing But Moni) started in the New Jersey Sire Stake (NJSS) this year and has recently won two straight starts in the Kentucky Commonwealth series, taking a new lifetime mark of 1:55.4.

(B-Moni Maker Stable O-Moni Maker Stable T-Domenico Cecere)

Raised By Lindy (Walner—Birthright) won a leg of the NJSS in a personal best 1:54.3 at the Meadowlands in June and just raced in the $326,850 Jim Doherty Memorial at the Meadowlands, finishing six lengths behind Venerable who won in 1:52.

(B-Lindy Farms of Connecticut O-Lindy Farms of Connecticut T-Domenico Cecere)

2-year-old colt trotters

Branded By Lindy (Chapter Seven—The Lindy Label) is currently on a two-race winning streak in the Kentucky Commonwealth series. But the trotter has also earned the designation of now being the fastest 2-year-old trotting colt ever bred in Massachusetts on the strength of his 1:54 win at the Red mile on August 15. He replicated that time one week later during his second win on August 23. (B-Lindy Farms of Connecticut

O-Lindy Farms of Connecticut T-Domenico Cecere)

2-year-old filly pacers

Dudes Sweet Bet (Dude's The Man—Sweet Bettor) has been racing in the NYSS and Excel A series and just took a lifetime mark of 1:54.1 in the Excel A at Tioga Downs on Aug. 22.

(B/O-Triple C Stables and Christopher Lems T-Jessica Okusko)

Pembroke Legacy (Baron Biltmore—Pembroke Oasis) is currently the top point-getter in her category in the Maine Sire Stakes, having won three out of her four lifetime starts with a best outing of 1:58.1 at Skowhegan.

(B/O-William Varney T-Valerie Grondin)

So Flo (So Surreal—Teddy Ballgirl) won a leg of the NYSS Excel A at Saratoga Raceway in 1:56.2 on August 10 and has improved weekly over her only four lifetime starts.

(B/O-Nancy Longobardi, Domenic Longobardi T-George Ducharme)

2-year-old colt pacers

Treacherous Tom (Captaintreacherous—Kate Is Well Said) has yet to win this year but has found his competition very tough so far. After finishing second in the Tompkins-Geers Stake at the Meadowlands in June, Treacherous Tom moved to the Pennsylvania Sire Stake where he has done very well with two thirds in four starts and has been race timed in 1:52.1.

Ugotaearynrstripes (Deuce Seelster—Armbro BMW) is the current freshman colt pacing leader in the MSS and has three wins in four lifetime starts.

(B/O-Edward Blash T-Stephen La Casse)

The sophomore class has all four 2-year-old MASS champions returning to defend their titles.

3-year-old filly trotters

Moni For Lindy (Credit Winner—Live Moni) was a $70,000 winner at two and has more than doubled that this year with $161,377 on her card. She is the current points leader in her division of the NYSS having won three out of four starts with one second. Her 1:53.4 win at Vernon Downs on June 4 was a lifetime mark but also made her the fastest 3-year-old trotting filly ever bred in Massachusetts. (B-Moni Maker Stable O-Greathorse T-Domenico Cecere)

Royal Envy (RC Royalty—Temper Of Will) was the 2-year-old MASS distaff trotting champion last year and she swept all three legs of the stake before winning the final. This year she has two wins -- one in Excel A stake action -- and has been on the board over 50% of the time. She took a new lifetime mark of 1:55.3 at Vernon Downs and should be a top contender in the MASS once again.

3-year-old colt trotters

Incommunicado (Chapter Seven—Gran Cavalla) was the 2-year-old male trotting champion in the MASS after finishing third in the $225,000 NYSS final and has kept rolling this year. He won the $115,583 Dexter Cup at Freehold in May and finished third in the $206,500 Empire Breeders Classic at Vernon Downs in June. Now with earnings of $331,390 lifetime, he ranks as the 12th richest Standardbred ever bred in Massachusetts.

(B-Moni Maker Stable O-Knuttson Trotting, Little E, Arthur Geiger and David Stolz T-Ake Svanstedt)

3-year-old filly pacers

Rightfully Mine (American Ideal—Leah) has not missed a check in the NYSS this year, winning one leg in June and currently sitting seventh in points in her NYSS division. She is seven out of eight in the money this year with a new lifetime mark of 1:52.2 taken at Plainridge Park.

(B-Monique Cohen O-Arthur Scussel, Monique Cohen T-Sheena Mcelhiney)

So Amazing (So Surreal—Teddy Ballgirl) is having a great year hitting the board nine out of 10 starts in 2021. She is currently the leading 3-year-old filly money earner in the NYSS Excel A series having won three legs and has also taken a new lifetime mark of 1:52.3 at Plainridge Park in June.

(B/O-Nancy Longobardi, Domenic Longobardi T-George Ducharme)

Seafood Sweetheart (American Ideal—Seafood Annie) is the leading point-getter in the NYSS Excel A series and has three victories in that stake this year. She too lowered her mark to 1:53.1 at Plainridge and will be formidable competition in the upcoming MASS.

(B/O-Seafood Delight Stable T-Sheena Mcelhiney)

Purameri (American Ideal—JK Pure Pearl) was the MASS 2-year-old champion and set a new stake record of 1:52.4 in the process. This year she has been racing in the NYSS with one win and just competed in the $214,000 Empire Breeders Classic at Tioga Downs on Sunday (Aug. 29) against Test Of Faith.

(B-3 Brothers Stable/Camelot Stable O-Purple Haze Stable T-Jessica Okusko)

Northern Storm (Mcardle—Betit To Getit) won back to back starts in Lexington last year at two before making consecutive breaks in her only two stake starts in Massachusetts. This year she won an overnight event at the Meadowlands in 1:49.4 in June to gain the distinction of being the fastest standardbred regardless of age, gait or gender ever bred in Massachusetts. With only 11 lifetime starts to date and the exhibition of speed shown earlier this year, this filly could be one to watch in September.

3-year-old colt pacers

Mullinax (American Ideal—Up Front Kellie Jo) was the 2-year-old MASS champion and set a new stake record of 1:53.4 in the process. He spent most of his summer this year in New York winning the Landmark Stake in Goshen and garnering checks in all four of his NYSS appearances. On Sunday (Aug. 29) he finished third in the $104,000 Empire Breeders Classic and was race timed in 1:51. He is the definite favorite to repeat in the division this year.

(B-Ed Mullinax O-William Varney T-Mark ford)

Call Me Maverick (Western Maverick—Briefly) has been the leading 3-year-old pacing colt in Maine stake competition for two years. He was a perfect eight for eight in 2020 and 2-year-old MSS champion. He is currently seven out of eight this year with one second due to broken equipment. His lifetime mark is 1:54 at Plainridge taken in stake action last year but he paced his best mile of 2021 in 1:55.3 over the half at Skowhegan. His consistency may be his ticket to MASS rewards next month.

(B/O-Upland Farm T-Gordon Corey)
