MOHAWK STAKES Saturday

Periculum wins the Maple Leaf Trot in 1:50.4

Canadian Pacing Derby won by It's My Show in 1:48.1

Highland Kismet and Drawn Impression win Simcoe divisions

Our stakes coverage begins on pg. 30

It is difficult for this observer to accept the fact that Tim Twaddle is now 62 years old. When I think of him, I recollect a kid, a teenager who is earning his spurs driving some of the outstanding horses for John Burns - horses like Shipp's Schnoops, Shipp's Fella, Towners Image and Hardie Hanover. Where has the time gone? Twaddle is now in likely the last phase of what might be called, at least geographically, a three-staged career in harness racing.

It began when he was only 9 years old as a part-time employee of the Bill Carroll stable at the now defunct Garden City Racetrack in St Catharines, ON then part of the Ontario Jockey Club (OJC); now WEG comprising Woodbine Racetrack and Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The second phase took place in California racing at Los Alamitos and Cal Expo with a short stopover at The Meadows in Western Pennsylvania. The third segment brought him back to The Meadows where he is still ensconced, racing a stable of around 20 head.

Harness Racing Update

Let's begin with phase one.

"I was 9 years old, I lived in St Catherines, ON. Garden City Raceway was near my home. My older sister Cindy was a 'messenger bettor' in the clubhouse there and was close with trainer/driver Bill Carroll and I began working there, cleaning up, feeding and doing all sorts of little things around the horses on weekends. As time went on, I learned to groom and become involved with the horses themselves. I was going to Niagara College. After I graduated, I had reached the decision that I wanted to become a full-time harness driver. In order to get there, I had to go through an apprenticeship of sorts. At the time you had to be 16 to get a groom's license, 18 to become a trainer and 20 to drive. My best buddy, Dave [Frankie] Boughton was working for John Burns and I followed him there and latched on with John as a groom. It was he that gave me my first chance to become a driver."

Let's speak a bit about 'Burnsie.'

"Well, you go by the moniker 'The Curmudgeon,' I think it might have been much more applicable to Burnsie. He would work everyone around him as though they were slaves, but he would work himself just as hard. He was extremely demanding of everybody – grooms, vets, drivers, trainers. It didn't seem to matter how hard you worked and what you did, it seemed that he was never satisfied.

"Steve Condren had been with him before I arrived on the scene. When Steve went out on his own, Frankie took over and when he moved on, it created an opportunity for me. Harold Shipp was one of, maybe the major owner in the stable. There was a much-publicized breakup between Mr. Shipp and Burnsie. Mr. Shipp asked me to take over the training of the horses as well as allowing me to keep on driving them. It was a great opportunity for me. In retrospect I think it was time for me to spread my wings anyway and try to fly on my own. Burnsie didn't hold it against me for taking the horses and I still continued to drive the remaining horses that he had."

Phase two – racing in California.

"In January of 1995, I underwent heart surgery. I was 'hors de combat' for some time and the drives just seemed to dry up. I thought maybe a change in scenery was what I needed. I called Roger Huston at The Meadows and asked him about the driving opportunities there. He told me to come on down. I drove there in 1995. Ron Goldman who worked for Los Alamitos came around looking for horses and horsemen to race at the upcoming meet at Los Al and the continuing California Circuit

Timeisonmyside is one of the horses I train for Anthony MacDonald’s [TheStable.ca]. at Cal Expo in Sacramento. I picked up and left for what we felt would be greener pastures.

“At first, they really were. Of all the places I’ve raced there was none that equaled Los Alamitos. It was a beautiful racetrack filled with great stables and great horsemen. Ross Croghan, Jimmy Perez, Rick Plano and Erv Miller each had large contingents there. The racing was great. The crowds were good. After racing, it wasn’t unusual to get dressed up and go to the dining room for dinner. Los Alamitos is where I met my future wife, Sophia. Then came the terrible impasse between the horsemen and management which resulted in there being no more harness racing in Southern California. I’m not exactly sure what took place, but here’s my understanding. I was racing in Sacramento at the time. It seems that there was a strong disagreement regarding the money that needed to be paid regarding off-track wagering. The horsemen’s group brought suit against Los Alamitos and ultimately won. But apparently, this so rankled the folks at Los Al that they decided to close the track to harness racing. It was a case where the horsemen won the battle, but ended up losing the war. That left us with only one place to race in California - Sacramento. I found it to be a decent place to race in the warmer months, but not near as nice as Los Alamitos. But it was far from nice in winter. It was cold and windy. The track was often muddy and hard on the horses. It just wasn’t the most pleasant place at which to race. By then we had our two daughters Meadow and Lexi who were both born in Sacramento; my son, Parker is a PA bred. We could see the handwriting on the wall. A change was in order. We felt the choice of where to go was between returning to Ontario and The Meadows. If we went to Ontario, I ran the risk of losing my Green Card status, something for which I had worked hard and spent a considerable amount of money to get. So, it was back to The Meadows we went.

Phase three – then and now racing at The Meadows.

“We came back in 2006. I had 15 horses in my care. Sadly, the majority of them were not good enough to be competitive here. I had a real good trotter named Bolivar who I thought would do pretty well. Wouldn’t you know he went lame. Things were looking pretty grim. Along to my rescue came Freddie Grant, one of the real good guys. He sent me a filly named Breagh, who was going to be sold. I was to race her until she went to the sale. Shortly after I was contacted by Seth Rosenfeld who told me he owned part of the filly. He also sold a yearling filly named Macharoundtheclock at auction and then bought her from the Harrisburg sale at the end of her 3-year-old campaign and sent her to me to race at The Meadows. She has proven to be extraordinarily good for both Seth and myself. Seth has been a great friend and owner for me ever since. Macharoundtheclock has proven to be a terrific broodmare for both of us. For me, because at the 2020 Standardbred Horse Sales Company Sale, that year held at Timonium, I was fortunate enough to buy the best horse I've ever been associated with Fourever Boy. She is also the dam of the best horse in my stable now, the 3-year-old Timeisonmyside.

"Each of those two horses has a side story associated with it."

Let's speak of Fourever Boy first.

"For some time, I was good friends with and trained hoses for David Cohen and his Micki Rae Stable. I was partners with him on all of the horses. One of those horses was Fourever Boy who has earned over a million dollars for us. We are now unfortunately in the midst of a bitter divorce. Only one of the horses is with me now. As with many of these situations, it is probable that the only ones who will come out looking good will be the lawyers."

Now on to Timeisonmyside.

"Timeisonmyside is the 3-year-old out of Macharoundtheclock. I also have her 2-year-old filly Time Of The Season which I have in training for Seth. Timeisonmyside is one of the horses I train for Anthony MacDonald's "The Stable." It's an arrangement that has been quite fortuitous for me and I would hope for Anthony and his numerous clients as well. I usually have somewhere in the area of 20 horses in training for him.

"It's kind of interesting how the relationship came about. Both Anthony and I were in Delaware Ohio at the Blooded Horse Sales there. Anthony was looking to buy equipment for his then fledging operation. I was there to sell some of my equipment. Rather than run it through the ring, I proposed to Anthony that he just buy it directly from me. Thus began our relationship. I mentioned to him that if he ever had horses that he wanted to race at The Meadows that I was available. That began a relationship that has grown to usually number in the area of around 20 head. We speak constantly. I tell him what races are available. He wants his horses in where they can win. If no such races are available, he will ship those horses out and bring some in who better fit the conditions available. He is the same when choosing drivers when he isn't available to drive. I'll tell him which drivers might be available. He will go with the one where he thinks he is most likely to get a winning drive. Anthony is the bettor's best friend. When you are on one of his horse's, winning is always your primary goal. It's interesting that Anthony and the man that I consider him to be most like, race at my track. That person of course is Ronnie Burke. They are both amazing. They are both in charge of huge stables. They both know every horse in their operation - what equipment they wear, what classes they fit. They enter them in races, they watch every race, just about everything about every horse that is under their control."

Happy 35th Birthday Dexter Dunn

by Bob Heyden

Dexter Dunn turns 35 today (Sept. 1). The 10-time New Zealand and four-time Dan Patch Driver of the Year has earned the respect and admiration of many throughout the business. Here's a look at what some industry insiders had to say about him.

Yannick Gingras: "In my opinion his success opened the door for Down Under drivers to come here and be on the Grand Circuit. There have been others before him, but not quite to that level. In the end, that might be his greatest accomplishment, even though he's a great driver."

“One of the nicest guys you’ll meet; always friendly to everyone he meets. He congratulates you when you beat him. That’s something 99 per cent of the people couldn’t do. Driving wise, he’s one of the toughest guys to get by down the stretch. He keeps a horse going for a long time and horses just like him.”

~ Brett Beckwith

Mike Keeling: “Generational talent. Horses seem very content when he’s in the bike and yet he can make quick speed with a horse very quietly. I don’t know him well, but he presents well, and speaks thoughtfully and always compliments the animal.”

Jerry Glantz: “I think Dexter is one of the most naturally gifted drivers since [Ron] Pierce. His ability to make speed while also being able to calm a horse is exceptional. He’s in the top few for sure.”

George Napolitano, Jr.: “A very unique individual... always very energized; always smiling and joking around. It’s obvious how great he is and it shows. He always congratulates me and everyone else that wins a race. A true champion in the sport in the new generation.”

Brad Trebotica: “Watch a winning trip around any oval with any horse with Dexter in the sulky and the reasons he is a superstar are on full display. First, the horsemen witness his professionalism, as he checks all the equipment when he grabs the lines; they trust him. Fans can appreciate his immense talent with patience and his seeming ability to get a horse to top speed with just his hands. It looks effortless. Everyone can see his gratitude for the animals when he pats the winners on the butt when he gets off the bike. And anyone who pays attention to his post-race interviews can hear that he is all class. Dex, thanks for doing it the right way, with professionalism, trust, work ethic, talent, gratitude and class.”

Carter Duer: “Very good horseman who can normally get along with any type of horse from any type of trip. On top of being a great driver, he’s a great guy to have a beer with.”

Louis-Philippe Roy: “I love Dexter. He’s living proof that you can be humble and treat everybody well and be one of the greatest drivers in the world. Happy Birthday DD!”

Kim Hankins: “Only know him to say hello. His ability to make speed and keep horses alive throughout the mile is incredible. He looks to have a great future.”

Jacqueline Ingrassia: “Dexter is a gentleman both on and off the track. One of the best drivers ever in my opinion.”

James MacDonald: “Dex is one of the kindest, happiest people I have ever met. Always cheering on his peers even though he knows the chances of beating him are slim. I’ve heard it

Steve Katz: "His near immediate acceptance in North America after transplanting himself, and extraordinary success here, can only be attributed to one thing; talent."

“He simply has lightning in his hands.”

~ Travis Alexander

Bob McClure: "The best driver I've ever driven against. Such a great person. He's got a funny way of beating you down and you're always still happy for him."

Lauren and Shane Tritton: "Anyone who has had Dexter drive their horses will tell you this, and we are lucky enough to have had him drive for us in three countries. He may be one of the best drivers in the world, but the way he respects horses and trainers on a day-to-day basis is truly his greatest quality. He has been like that since Day One. We are all very proud of what he has achieved."

Joe Lee: "Dexter is aces all around. He reminds me of Derek Jeter in that he's great at what he does but he's also a professional at all times where you couldn't tell if he's won his last 10 races or gone 0 for his last 20."

Scott DiDomenico: "What can you say about Dex? Along with being a tremendous driver, more importantly, the class and professionalism he shows day in and day out is second to none. He truly is a great driver and a better person."

Travis Alexander: "He simply has lightning in his hands."

Jimmy Marohn, Jr.: "Great drivers can adapt to different styles of racing and that's exactly what Dexter did when he arrived here. He can drive every type of horse in any situation and get the most out of them. Plus, he's a class act."

John Calabrese: "Dexter Dunn is an amazing driver who has the natural ability to get horses to finish. If you didn't know Dexter was one of, if not the world's best driver, he'd never come across like that. A friendly, down to earth, great guy."

Peter Blood: "In my opinion the best driver to appear on the scene in many a year. He seems to make very good decisions and act accordingly to the way a race unfolds and take what the situation offers him. His hands are extremely live, much like Herve [Filion's were]."

Dave Palone: "I've been blessed to witness 40 years of elite drivers. The game has changed so much since I started. These guys today are incredible, and have so much talent, but I've never seen anyone as smooth as Dex. Never in a panic and always seems to have them in the right spot. Not sure I've ever seen him involved when a race blows up... the nicest guy you would ever want to compete against."

Monalishi making early strides to follow path of Peaceful Way

by Melissa Keith

Last Saturday night (Aug. 24), Monalishi and driver James MacDonald overcame an outside post to capture the 2024 Peaceful Way final in unexpected style. Overlooked at odds of 11-1, the filly dropped back to eighth before the first turn, only getting underway from third-over once even-money favorite Champagne Problems cleared to the lead for Dexter Dunn past the half.

Gapping cover to three-quarters, Monalishi looked unlikely to win, until she wasn't. The filly circled breaker R Liza on the final turn, then maneuvered four-wide down the stretch for MacDonald, finding her best stride in the shadow of the wire.

The 1:52.2 victory shaved two seconds off Monalishi's previous mark, more than sufficient to make her North America's second-fastest 2-year-old trotter so far this season, as well as Green Manalishi S' top early achiever by speed and earnings.

Undefeated in two Ontario Sires Stakes Gold legs and the Mid-Season final, all at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Monalishi (2, 1:52.2; $273,125) is from the first crop of Green Manalishi S, out of the mare Pretty Phylly G. The former $28,000 Lexington yearling is owned by Tim Klemencic of Trenton, ON, and trainer Blake Macintosh of St. George, ON.

"I didn't know anything about her before the race," said James MacDonald, catch driver for Monalishi's latest and biggest win. "I talked to Jody [Jamieson], and Jody was more than forthcoming with information about her.

"[Jamieson] has done a terrific job with her, and I know it killed him to jump off. All he ranted about all week was how much he loved her, but sometimes you've gotta make tough calls, and I'm just happy to pick up the drive."

Jamieson had committed to show finisher R Dutchess (2, 1:53.1s; $50,119) in the Peaceful Way final. That former $300,000 Lexington yearling is owned by Armitage Farm LLC of Midway, KY; leased by M and L of Delaware LLC, Wilmington, DE; and trained by John Butenschoen. R Dutchess is by Father Patrick, and out of 2018 Peaceful Way champion The Ice Dutchess (3, 1:51.1m; $774,029), voted 2018 O'Brien 2-Year-Old Trotting Filly of the Year.

Monalishi and James MacDonald winning the Peaceful Way.

While not establishing a new track record – that belongs to Special Way, who set the 1:52 standard for all WMP 2-year-old trotters when she won the 2022 Breeders Crown final – Monalishi’s accomplishments nonetheless make her the frontrunner in the 2-year-old distaff trotting division.

Co-owner and trainer Blake McIntosh said that Monalishi’s defeat in her Aug. 17 Peaceful Way elimination was the result of trip, rather than a superior rival or anything his filly did wrong.

“I just wasn’t happy that she got beat [by Royal Mission, who finished sixth in the final],” McIntosh said, after Monalishi’s win in the $390,000 final. “I thought she was the best in there. We put her on front [in the elim], and she’s just not as good on the front... She’s better chasing horses... It just didn’t work out last week.”

Asked about whether Monalishi had outperformed her modest price as a yearling, McIntosh said, “You always hope that, but you just never know. I can tell you that in the wintertime, I thought we had two better than her, and she’s just turned out to be a great horse.”

August has been a memorable month for McIntosh, who went over the $20-million mark in career earnings as a trainer on Aug. 12 when 4-year-old gelding Mamba (p, 3, 1:49.3m; $258,194) and driver Jordan Stratton won a conditioned pace at Yonkers. McIntosh reached the Canadian-dollar milestone in that race; his U.S. dollar earnings were $17,755,35 at publication deadline.

“I thought at the end of last year we could have a shot this year, if things went right,” McIntosh told HRU on Friday (Aug. 30). His career began at Windsor Raceway, where he recorded his first victory with Prelude Semalu (p, 4, 1:54.1s; $114,395), driven by Mark MacDonald, on Dec. 10, 2000. McIntosh trainees have 80 wins this year from a combined 476 seasonal starts to date, good for $1,486,162 (U.S.) in purse earnings. It is McIntosh’s best year since 2019.

The trainer estimated his current training roster to be “probably around 50-55” horses at the moment, with changes coming soon.

“ Yeah, we are talking to some of the people that have [Mohawk Million] spots. We will try to make a deal to get one.”

~ Blake McIntosh

“That number will reduce over the next couple weeks, then balloon again with the babies,” he told HRU.

His stable star is undoubtedly Monalishi.

Part of the filly’s appeal is how his yearling sale homework has paid off this season.

“She was a nice size,” he said. “The family was essentially 0-for-3, but I had my notes on the other three [foals of Pretty Phylly G], and they all had flaws, so we took a chance.”

Monalishi is her dam’s first filly.

Pretty Phylly G (4, 1:58.4m; $11,050) is a full sister to 2013 Hambletonian winner and Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Male Trotter of the Year Royalty For Life (3, Q1:51.3m; $1,620,166). She came up barren after a 2022 mating with What The Hill, and produced a live but unregistered King Of The North foal in 2023. Owner Shmuel Farhi of London, ON, bred the mare back to Green Manalishi S this year.

McIntosh said Monalishi was a handful from the start.

“Umm, she’s a spicy filly,” he said. “The groom, Mike Rivet, has his work cut out for him. She can be tough to catch in the stall, and has some attitude on the track. She is a lot better with company training.”

Hopes are high for the remainder of Monalishi’s freshman season, although McIntosh confirmed that the OSS Gold division leader will skip the next OSS Gold leg, slated for Sept. 6 at Grand River Raceway.

“She has the Champlain [Filly Stake, Sept. 13 at Mohawk], and hopefully the Mohawk Million [Sept. 21],” McIntosh said. “We’re working on securing a spot. Gold [leg 5, Sept. 30 at Mohawk], then the Super Final [Oct. 12 at Mohawk]. Done for the year after that.”

McIntosh called the Mohawk Million “expensive, but the reward is there.” He and co-owner Klemencic were working on purchasing a slot for Monalishi.

“Yeah, we are talking to some of the people that have spots,” McIntosh told HRU. “We will try to make a deal to get one.”

After completing her 2-year-old season, Monalishi will move stateside for the winter.

“We will probably move her to Kentucky ‘till January, then she will come back to the Canadian barn to train back,” McIntosh said. “We haven’t had any offers for her. It would be pretty hard to price and sell her.”

The relevance of winning the Peaceful Way Stake is not lost on McIntosh, who said he ranked Peaceful Way (4, 1:51.4m; $2,746,240) “right up there with Manhego and Atlanta” among the best trotting mares he’s ever seen.

The 2003 O’Brien 2-Year-Old Trotting Filly of the Year went on to a remarkable career recognized by induction to both the U.S. (2021) and Canadian (2008) Halls of Fame. Formally retired at Mohawk on Maple Leaf Trot night 2007, the Oakville Stake was subsequently renamed in her honor.

Peaceful Way is now enjoying her retirement from broodmare life in Norway, with proud owner Svein Seljord. With every generation of trotting fillies who compete in her namesake stake, there are hopes that a win will foreshadow such greatness.

The unbearable lightness of being a harness driver, Part 1

by Frank Colto

It does not take long once you are betting on standardbreds to become aware of the strong human element involved in their races. With such recognition novices reach an assumption that every harness horse in action is subordinate to the person holding the lines. Along with that misperception comes a cranky assumption that because the harness racing driver is able to manipulate the horse with great command then something corrupt is always in play. At least it was this way where I grew up learning about the sport.

The so-called wiser/veteran horseplayers said the standardbred pony's pilot, riding in a "cart" makes the horse perform one way or another with little to no effort.

"It's true a thousand times more for drivers than for jockeys," I was told. And we believed it because our teachers said jockeys riding thoroughbreds were rarely, if ever dissed, for untoward behavior.

My Uncle Mike was well versed on the anti-driver talking points. "The real racing is with the runners," he said.

"What about the night racing?" I said.

"That's the harness guys. It's fixed. Like wrestling."

It was not so strange for young people to accept such statements in the late '50s considering the spray of criminal indictments lower-middle-class men handed to institutions. This was not a healthy atmosphere to trust critical thinking. Facts were treated like any tens of guys mowed down by John Wick in a given action scene.

Damage was done. Perception overruled reality. The wagering public was lousy with cruel and unfair judgments of harness drivers' performances. Bettors took it personal. After all, someone must be accountable for the broken strides and stressful duels and first-over moves and the other gazillion possible reasons one tears up a ticket.

And yet they laid down their dollars and bet and bet and bet some more. One guy at Roosevelt once told me how smart he felt when he cashed because he "figured out which horse's turn to win it was."

Another bettor said he bet the drivers not the horses. Consider a popular driver on the New York City circuit whom I will call Dan Delaney. A bettor said Delaney was, "one of the best drivers in harness racing because when he needed to come in second, he came in second.”

And losers continued to scream, “What a bum drive,” or “What kind of idiot pulls at the half,” or “If he’d a whipped harder I’d a cashed.”

And those were the polite examples of scorn from people who never dared get in a sulky with two-thousand pounds of equine flesh between their legs while their horse keeps a specific gait for a mile among tons of strapping steeds in the hands of other drivers.

It is a trope: a harness driver has rule over every move a horse makes in a race; their guilt for losing was so widespread it inspired pop-culture images earning a peculiar place in the house of movie parody.

A single scene here from National Lampoon’s 1983’s hit movie, “Easy Money,” was responsible for entrenching the satirical mimicry of harness racing drivers’ crooked reputations. This scene – though hilarious in its familiarity to east coast harness bettors – has done the single most damage to the sport than any actual harness racing scandal. In fact, it is only funny due to its perceived truth.

The driver’s corruption in the scene’s race is obviously burlesque. But Joe Pesci’s character’s reaction to it was the dream of crabby harness betting losers. Punish the driver with knuckle sandwiches. He is the guilty party. The previous scene showed the Pesci and Rodney Dangerfield characters battling crowd traffic at the betting windows. That scene shows the stressful betting atmosphere at the nighttime tracks.

As a fresh harness fan and bettor, I was critical of the cheap advice from the old hands. Like when one of them told me never to bet a horse driven by Russell Rash. I found profits doing the opposite because the tip was popular and I was able to cash Rash win tickets always in the double digits.

Also misleading were other handicapping tips.

“Never bet the 8 horse.”

“Bet every race and if you’re lucky you’ll break even.”

Every lesson was tinged with anger for drivers. No one ever mentioned the importance of equine talent. That is what made me pay attention to horse performances more than their drivers. I thought however true driver shenanigans affected a horse’s performance I would focus upon the horse’s ability. I found deep respect for whatever path it took to become a professional athlete and that made me confident to suppose all harness drivers were equal.

What happened? Successful bets followed when I began to profit from any driver bias.

Red flags flying

by Trey Nosrac

“Fate leads the willing and drags along the reluctant” – Seneca.

Mystical randomness and inexplicable connections happen. If you don't squeeze into the crowded bus, you never meet the love of your life. A stranger you meet at table #12 at your cousin's wedding leads to a career. You turn left instead of right. Big things, or little things, are all part of the tapestry of life.

The random wheel also turns in our sport. Last week, in this column, I shared the tale of a broodmare and a foal that came into this world only because the racetracks were closed during the pandemic. This accidental broodmare had a second daughter with an equally strange story. Many quirky events, including you, played a part.

The birth of filly number two caused visitors to her stall to say, “Yikes, or whoa, or yowzah.” She was a striking red color accented by white on her feet. The odd color led me to dig into the pedigree, but I found no history of red horses in the family. When I asked the owner of the breeding farm and some friends about the marketability of red horses, most looked at the ground and muttered something to the effect, “Not great, once in a while, or it only takes one bidder.”

Other troubling red flags flew. The mother of the red filly never raced. The filly had a slightly offset knee, and her only sister was not yet of racing age. And to complete our trifecta of strikes against her, the first crop of the sire of this red filly did not knock the socks off anyone and was proving to be a bit of a liability in the marketplace. Ergo, for the first time, understandably, the select yearling sale rejected our applicant.

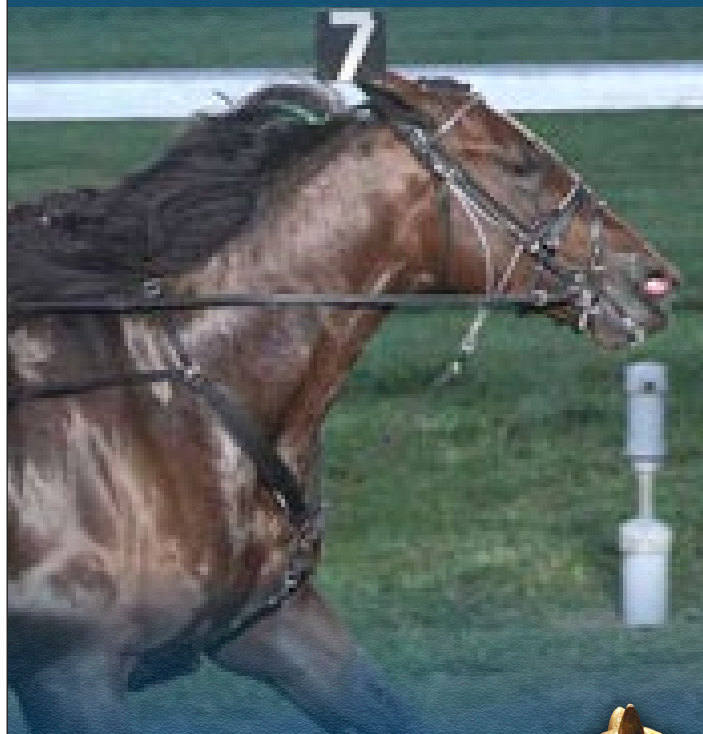

Our first choice is always to sell the yearling. We had run about a dozen yearlings through the auction ring. One benefit of being a minuscule operation is that we can bring them home if they do not meet our expected value. This time, not getting into the sale made buying her back a moot point. After dithering, we decided not to put this red horse in any sale.

Instead, we concocted a different concept for marketing this yearling racehorse. We would have the filly broken to harness and get a few hundred miles under her hooves, shoot a little footage of her in action, skip the sales, and place her on onGait to sell at an online auction long after the traditional sales season.

Our thinking, OK, my thinking, was that late shoppers in the yearling market would find a yearling with a good chunk of training under her belt, have an opportunity to examine her, ask questions, maybe even visit, and perhaps even sit behind her. At the auction, the bids would flow. I was proud of my plan, and we followed it to the letter.

The red horse was broken to harness, jogged regularly, and returned to the breeding farm. We listed a photo, a pedigree, and a paragraph with pluses and minus. We placed what to our mind was a very low starting bid of $10,000, half of our investment to date, and sat back to watch the bidding action.

There was no bidding action, not one single bid.

To recap - this ready-to-go, albeit red, filly was available to any human being in North America or any other nation; one single bid from the sharpest horseman in the land to a stumbling drunk cruising onGait, to a young girl who loves red horses.

Anyone, including you, could have pushed the “bid” button, and the red filly was no longer under our ownership.

I was baffled and slightly miffed. My revolutionary marketing plan was a complete failure. I am still not quite sure why the marketplace did not find favor with the package we presented. I felt buyers would at least kick the tires on the “out of the traditional sales season yearling filly.”

But nada, zip, nil, zero. As the “NO SALE” sign on the onGait site winked, mocking us, we decided to try this horse as a racehorse. Some may say we got stuck with the red trotter. Not us. We viewed this universal rejection as a simple twist of fate. Off to a trainer, she went. Seven months later, the red filly, now nicknamed Reba, placed twice in the Sires Stakes and is a lot of fun.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Adios winner Captain Albano scores handily in Meadows PASS

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

Delvin Miller Adios Pace for the Orchids champion Captain Albano returned to the scene of the triumph Friday (Aug. 30) and had little trouble scoring in one of three Pennsylvania Sires Stake races at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Timeisonmyside and Solid Character took the other divisions in the stake, known as the Tarport Effrat, for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers.

Following his Adios victory, Captain Albano won the $300,000 final of the Max Hempt Memorial at Pocono, so he was entering the Tarport Effrat sharp as could be. After idling outside early for Dave Palone, the son of Captaintreacherous—Angelou powered to the point and drew off late. He defeated Sweet Beach Life by 2¼ lengths in 1:49.4 over a sloppy surface, with Lou's World third.

"I just wanted to let everything settle early," Palone said. "When the plugs came out, his butt dropped about six inches, and he took off. He's a fun horse, and it's nice to still get the opportunity to spin that kind."

Captain Albano now has banked $955,023 for trainer Noel Daley and owners Patricia Stable, L A Express Stable, Sjoblom Racing and Michael Dolan.

Stakes honors went to Timeisonmyside, who led every step for Anthony MacDonald and scored in a career-best 1:49.3. A Class Yankee, an 80-1 bomb who couldn't find racing room until the issue was decided, was an unlucky second, beaten a neck, while Lou Vuitton completed the ticket.

"I wanted to go enough that I didn't let one of the horses that shouldn't beat him, beat him," MacDonald said. "He's been racing pretty good, and he's been creeping closer to the top group of horses."

Tim Twaddle conditions the son of Captain Crunch—Macharoundtheclock, who lifted his lifetime earnings to $225,995, for TheStable Timeisonmyside Group.

$40,000 PA STALLION SERIES 3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING PACE

Early speed also was effective in Friday's sub-feature, as Dream Bird and Dublin Dasher each won a division on the front end.

Parked the opening quarter in :27.2, Dream Bird faced a stern late challenge from 3-5 favorite Goliath Hanover. But winning drive Hunter Myers said he was confident the son of Sweet Lou—Osprey Blue Chip would prevail.

"I don't think he was tired," Myers said. "He was a little lazy, so I had to get after him a little bit. But I wanted to be aggressive. That's where I was at."

Dream Bird races for trainer Ron Burke and owners Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, David Wills and J&T Silva-Purnell & Libby.

PAULINA HANOVER EQUALS STAKES RECORD 1:52 IN MEADOWS PASS

Paulina Hanover hadn't been on top at any call in her last six starts, yet she led every step — and matched the stake record 1:52 — in Thursday's (Aug. 29) Pennsylvania Sires Stake at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Sambuca Hanover captured the other division in the event, known as the Stenographer, for sophomore filly trotters.

Elista Hanover, who had won 10 of 13 races this year and was seeking a sweep of the four PASS preliminary legs, shaped up as the filly to beat. Tim Tetrick aboard Paulina Hanover said he sneaked a peak at Elista Hanover and her driver, David Miller, to help him plan his own strategy.

"I had a couple audibles in my head," Tetrick said. "She's been racing so good, and we had an outside draw with the slanted gate. When I saw that Dave was kind of taking his filly off the gate, I thought it was time to try the front. She's been raging at the wire every week — not reaching, but raging so good that I thought it was time to try."

Once on the point. Paulina Hanover faced no serious challenges. Elista Hanover rallied first over from fourth but fell two lengths short while Draw The Line finished third. The time equaled the Stenographer mark established by Sister Sledge in 2020. Sambuca Hanover sat a chilly third, primed for the Lightning Lane. When she found it, she poured through with minimal urging from Miller, triumphing in 1:54.4. Early leader Upallnight Hanover was second, beaten a head, with Youhadmeathalo third.

“She felt strong, and she was trotting through the lane,” Miller said of the daughter of Bar Hopping—Snow Angel Hanover. “I did get her plugs out and chased her a little bit down by the wire. I felt like she would get there. The addition of Lasix for her last start really helped her.”

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Hopeyaliketheshow leads six-win night for Tetrick at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Leading driver Trace Tetrick was on top of his game Friday (Aug. 30) night at Harrah's Hoosier Park, winning six of 13 on the card headlined by a win in Indiana Sire Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts with Hopeyaliketheshow. There was fun for all ages on the card as The Family Man closed from the clouds to take the second stakes division for rookies, while the classy 8-year-old Little Rocket Man romped in the open pace.

Hopeyaliketheshow was sent away as the 2-1 bettor's choice in the first of two $67,500 Sire Stakes splits with a red-hot Tetrick in the bike. Tetrick settled the favorite sixth early in the field of eight while Big Bad Moses (Ricky Macomber, Jr.) cut the quarter in :27.4. Odds On Anubis (Pete Wrenn) was unable to find a seat on the first turn and forged to the front on the backstretch to the half in :57.1 while Hopeyaliketheshow took up the charge first-over and wheeled into third. Hopeyaliketheshow continued his brush to assume command entering the final turn, pacing away by 2½ lengths at three-quarters in 1:25.

Turning for home, Hopeyaliketheshow continued to motor away from the chasers, opening up by four midway through the lane, while the remainder of the field battled for minor spoils. Geared down late with a :27.1 final quarter, Hopeyaliketheshow crossed the wire 2¼ lengths clear in 1:52.1. Big Bad Moses got up for second, Odds On Anubis held for third.

Ron Burke trains the son of JK Endofanera out of the Well Said mare, Don't Forget. Hopeyaliketheshow has won three of seven to begin his career for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, Beasty and Knox Services. Bred by Randy, Tyler and Zane Wilt, the $100,000 yearling purchase at last fall's Hoosier Classic now sports earnings of $113,718.

The Family Man teamed up with driver Mike Oosting and deployed late closing tactics to spring a mild 6-1 upset in the second division. Leaving from post 2, The Family Man got away sixth as Freaky Feet Beast (Jordan Ross) sailed to the front to reach the quarter first in :27.1. John De Long popped the pocket with 3-2 favorite Avanti to take over at the half in :56. Somemore Soaring (Tetrick) glided first-over on the far turn to take on Avanti at three-quarters in 1:24.1, nearly seven lengths in front of The Family Man who tipped off the cones from seventh.

Avanti had rebuffed the challenge of Somemore Soaring at the top of the stretch, reasserting himself at the top while The Family Man was still yet to find his best stride from sixth at the eighth pole. The engine fired at the edge of the toteboard for The Family Man who rocketed home in :26.1 to not only get up for the win, but open up on the line by 1¼ lengths in 1:51.4. Avanti stayed on for second, Deal The Odds (Joey Putnam) rallied for third.

The Erv Miller trainee has won back-to-back and two of four on the season having bankrolled $45,014. The gelded son of Always A Virgin—Tia Maria Hanover is owned by the Ervin Miller Stable and Never 2 Late Stable. The Family Man was bred by Lyndar Stables.

Immediately following the stakes action and a lengthy rain delay, millionaire Little Rocket Man steamrolled to a front-end score in the $21,000 open pace. Scratched down to a field of five, driver De Long quickly crossed over to the lead from the outside through a quarter of :26.4. The 4-5 favorite went unchallenged to the half in :54.4 before Coach Stefanos (Tetrick) threatened from first-over in third at three-quarters in 1:23.1. The highly anticipated battle would never shape as Little Rocket Man splashed home in :26 to throttle to a two-length 1:49.1 victory. Pocket-sitter Watching Out Coin N (Macomber, Jr.) finished second, Coach Stefanos was third.

Ken Rucker trains the gelded son of Rockin Image—GT Miss Royal for owners Russ Beeman and Jack Freeman. A winner in nine of 12 this season, Little Rocket Man is a 63-time winner in his 110-start career with earnings of $1,337,299.

In the very next race, Little Rocket Man's half-brother JK Victory (sired by JK Endofanera) paced to a 1:52.3 score with driver Tetrick and trainer Ron Burke. It was career win number 15 for the 5-year-old gelding who sports earnings of $456,509.

Driver John De Long settled Lets Go Endofaera in the third spot out of the gate while Lyin' Eyes (driven by Joey Putnam) protected her rail starting position to lead the field of seven to the quarter in :26.2. Lyin' Eyes maintained control to the half in :55.3 before De Long sent Lets Go Endofaera on her way first-over to challenge the leader. Under light De Long urging, Lets Go Endofaera paced clear of Lyin' Eyes to assume command on the far turn, guiding the fillies to three-quarters in 1:23.1.

Turning for home, Lyin' Eyes looked live as she quickly ripped back out of the pocket at the top of the stretch before Lets Go Endofaera countered and quickened. Steamrolling home in :26.3, Lets Go Endofaera opened up by 2¼ lengths on the line to secure the victory in 1:49.4. Lyin' Eyes held for place while Jada Caroline (Marvin Luna) rallied up the rail for show.

With her only starts on the year thus far coming in the first seven legs of Indiana Sire Stakes, Lets Go Endofaera has won six of seven in her 3-year-old campaign. ## Older Sires Stakes finals at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Four divisions of the $85,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Veterans Championships were held at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Friday (Aug. 30).

The older trot, a pre-card non-wagering event with five entries, was won by The Mighty Hill in gate-to-wire fashion in 1:52.4. Driven by co-owner Trevor Smith, The Mighty Hill led through fractions of :29, :56 and 1:24.2 and held off Caviar Gold (Aaron Merriman) who was second and Gabbys Bit Coin (Austin Hanners) who finished third.

The Mighty Hill is a 5-year-old gelding by What The Hill out of the Tagliabue mare Maxine The Mighty. This was his 15th lifetime victory in 51 starts. Owned by Bet The House and Trevor Smith, the Jeff Smith trainee now has $496,445 in lifetime earnings.

The older mare division went to My Red Sea (Eric Goodell) who also led gate-to-wire to win in 1:50. The 4-year-old mare set fractions of :26.2, :55 and 1:22.3 to set a new lifetime mark over High Flyin' Filly (Chris Page) and Penpaperpaige (Tyler Smith).

Jason Irwin trains the Downbytheseaside mare out of the Jereme's Jet mare My Hare Lady for Jennifer Bongiorno Stable and Robert Weinstein. My Red Sea now has 14 wins in 51 lifetime starts and $290,411 in earnings.

Refined took the older mare trot in 1:51.4 with Dan Noble up. Getting the pocket trip behind Martysmagicmoment (Brett Miller) through opening fractions of :27.1 and :55.3, Noble pulled Refined mid-way down the backside and made the lead by the 1:23.3 third quarter. Forceful Power (Hugh Beatty) was at her wheel coming down the stretch but Refined was a length and a half better at the finish; Rose Run Yolanda (Hanners) got up for third.

Refined is by Uncle Peter out of the Malabar Man mare Reinvent. Owned by Joyce McClelland and Larry Wills, the 8-year-old mare is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr. Refined now has six wins on the year in 16 starts and $1.16-million earned lifetime.

The older pace had a lot of movement going towards the :26.3 opening quarter with Don'ttouchmytruck (Chris Presley) getting off the car first, Act Fast (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) taking the lead mid-way around the first turn and Seafire (Page) not content to sit fourth, pulling and marching to the front as the field straightened out down the stretch for the first time. By the :54.2 half, the field had settled single file, but Burnout (Hanners) pulled first up towing Charlie May (Noble) right behind him. Flipping three-wide at the 1:22.3 third quarter, Charlie May had the momentum and sprinted down the stretch to win by a half-length over Seafire; Don'ttouchmytruck powered up for third.

Charlie May, a Don Tiger homebred trained by Steve Carter, is by McArdle out of the Western Hanover mare Stipple Hanover. Friday's victory was the first win of the year for the 6-year-old gelding who had made $102,286 in 10 seasonal starts in 2024. Lifetime, Charlie May has now earned $2,196,921 in 74 lifetime starts.

Friday's card also had three divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old colt pacers. Trainer Christi Noble took two of the divisions with both colts winning in 1:51.2

JD's Zack Attack (Ty. Smith) won the first division by a nose over Seaside Delight (Kayne Kauffman); Twenty Five (Page) was third. The colt by Yankee Cruiser is owned by Eleven Star Stables, Caleb Miller, Frank Baldachino and Henry Graber, Jr. JD's Zack Attack now has five wins in 15 seasonal starts and $42,490 in lifetime earnings.

Nine One Oh Six (Noble) took the second division by a half-length over Theheavyweightway (Tr. Smith) and Heerz Popeye (Cameron McCown). Owned by Tim Homan, Norman Rae Racing and Jim Burnett, the Lather Up colt now has seven wins in 15 seasonal starts and $69,286 in lifetime earnings.

The last division, which was also the fastest, was won by Seasideescape (Miller) in 1:50.3. Cheyenne Tuff (Page) was second with Legendary Noble (Noble) finishing third. Trained by Steve Carter, Seasideescape is owned by Country Club Acres, Joe Sbrocco & JAF Racing, Don Latore and AWS Stables. The Downbytheseaside gelding now has three wins in 14 seasonal starts and $99,305 in lifetime earnings.

There will be a special Labor Day card on Monday (Sept. 2), with the next live racing day not until Thursday (Sept. 5). The Saturday (Sept. 7) card features the $250,000 Jim Ewart Memorial Pace and the Charlie Hill Memorial Trot.

Post time for all remaining cards, except for Friday (Sept. 13), is 5:45 p.m. First post for the Friday the 13th card will be 6:45 p.m., to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale.

Highland Kismet strolls to Simcoe stakes record; Drawn Impression romps

by Ray Cotolo for Woodbine communications

Hambletonian runner-up Highland Kismet glided over the Woodbine Mohawk Park oval as the prohibitive 1-9 choice on Saturday night (Aug. 31) to lower the stakes record in the $164,000 Simcoe Stakes under wraps.

Again, driver Bob McClure gapped the gate a tad with Highland Kismet, but as positions started to settle through the first eighth, he hit the motor on the Mark Etsell trainee. Highland Kismet swiftly grabbed the lead from his stablemate Willowtime after a :27.3 first quarter and strode without a sweat to the backside.

"I don't worry about him," McClure said after the race. "He's push button now leaving out of there. You just want to keep them out of trouble. And that's all I did. I just let the leaver settle and I left mine outside, coasted to the front, and he took care of the rest."

Highland Kismet saw nary a rival once on the lead. He clicked past the half in :55.4 and 1:24.2 before spurting away on his own volition to a 3/4-length win over 98-1 shot Mastercraft.

Drawn Impression (Louis-Philippe Roy) won the Simcoe Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:52.4.

Paquet, the 7-1 second choice, closed for third and Bryant Bros S, who pulled first over midway around the final turn, settled for fourth.

The 1:51.3 mile by Highland Kismet bests the previous stakes mark of 1:51.4 set back in 2010 by Jimmy Takter pupil Little Brown Fox. Saturday's win for Highland Kismet also marked the first start that the Father Patrick gelding raced without trotting hoppers.

"We've trained him quite fast without them, and we felt that maybe we could develop more speed without them, but I was a little nervous," trainer Mark Etsell said. "We thought about it, but we thought we'd wait till after the Hambo for sure, and then make that decision and go from there. That's why we qualified him, and Bob was very confident with him, so we said we'll go with it tonight and see what happens."

Replay here.

McClure said, "I think me and Mark both agreed that the race that he struggled in [was the Stanley Dancer Memorial]... Mark had trained him a fast mile without [trotting hoppers]. I think he kind of learned to reach more. And I think that night, the hoppers were kind of jamming him up. I think that was most of the problem that night. And then with how loose Mark had them, he let them all the way out there, he was practically tripping on them. I didn't think they're really doing much.

"I think they did a lot more for Mark than they did for [Kismet]; it made him feel better. But I don't blame him. All the way training down, this horse never wanted to stay flat. So, I see a different horse. I've seen one that hasn't done anything wrong."

Making just the 10th start of his career, Highland Kismet collected his sixth win and added to a bankroll now worth $583,085 for owner/breeder Highland Thoroughbred Frm.

"It's a lot of fun," McClure also said. "And I think, like Mark said, it's only his 10th lifetime start, he's still improving quite a bit. It's exciting to see what he's going to do, come October in Lexington and those places. I wouldn't trade him for anybody. Not just because it's with Mark and Mary, but he's an extremely special horse, and he's a lot of fun to drive, and I'm lucky to be sitting behind him."

Highland Kismet, who Etsell indicated is bound for the Canadian Trotting Classic and then the Bluegrass Stakes at The Red Mile, paid $2.20 to win.

Drawn Impression imposed further supremacy over her peers with another decisive victory in the $156,000 Simcoe Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Outfooted early by R Liza out of post 10, driver Louis-Philippe Roy floated Drawn Impression forward from post 9 and sat an unhurried fifth while parked on the rim through a :26.4 first quarter. R Liza cleared the lead to the backstretch and promptly reeled in her speed for a breather, leaving Roy in the perfect spot to push and take over command just past a :56.1 half.

"I wasn't too worried, because I was kind of letting her trot," said Roy after the race. "I've just been easy on her. Like you go a quarter in :28 with her, it's like if you're going :30 with another random horse. I mean, she just has a long stride. So, the first half, even if it looks a little bit like she had much work to do, she didn't really work herself."

Roy sat chilly as Drawn Impression cruised on the point around the final turn. She clicked past three-quarters in 1:25 and sprinted for the finish under a hand drive, registering a 3½-length win as the 1-5 favorite over a fast-closing Willys Home Run, who rallied from third over to take second. Second-over Cold Snaps tipped off cover to finish third and Tactical Strike sat a ground-saving trip for fourth.

Replay here.

"The first few times I raced her on the front, like I remember qualifying her – and even the one time in Vernon – I feel like maybe she wasn't used to it," Roy said. "When you got those horses who race on the front for the first time, they're on and off, and they spend a lot of energy. But even last start and tonight, she's just like a perfect individual to drive, like an old horse. So, the way she is right now, against the competition, I feel like I can let her do what she wants. I wouldn't want to say that she's 100 per cent safe tonight, and then see her make a break in the next few starts. I don't want to jinx myself"

A daughter of Muscle Hill out of champion mare Emoticon Hanover, Drawn Impression has now won twice from six starts this season and six times from 12 starts in her career, good for $507,844. The homebred for Serge Godin's Determination returned $2.50 to win.

Voukefalas took aim at the leader ahead of the half and struck front ahead of a lively :53.4 half, with El Rey in second, It's My Show, under a patient drive from Zeron, along the rail in third, and Abuckabett Hanover in fourth and on the move.

Voukefalas was clinging to a precarious lead after the three-quarter mile mark in 1:21, as Abuckabett Hanover amped up the pressure to his outside. El Rey was still in the hunt and Oakwood Ardan Jr looked to enter the fray.

Zeron, meanwhile, was searching for a seam midway down the lane.

After finding daylight, It's My Show powered through along the inside and bested a game Abuckabett Hanover by a nose for all the spoils. Oakwood Ardan Jr was third and El Rey finished fourth.

The final time was 1:48.1.

Winning a big race together at Woodbine Mohawk Park is nothing new for Zeron, trainer Linda Toscano, and the son of Sweet Lou—Put On A Show, who teamed to take last year's Pepsi North America Cup by a head.

"I was sitting where I wanted to, I just needed to have a little luck to get loose," said Zeron, who earned his first Canadian Pacing Derby crown. "And you know, anybody in the grandstand could drive this horse. He's so handy. And when he zipped through, he got excited. So, it was a great start and an amazing finish from him."

Toscano wasn't certain It's My Show got to the wire first.

"I really thought that he was coming hard," she said. "It would have been an awful tough beat because he was really pacing hard to the wire. But I didn't think we got there."

She was happy to be wrong.

"He does love this track," she said. "He likes everything about it up here. He's relaxed. He just sits about his business, and he likes a long stretch."

With the win, his first since a victory at Oak Grove on May 6, It's My Show, bred and owned by Richard and Joanne Young, is now 11-8-3 from 35 starts, to go along with over $1.7 million in career earnings.

Zeron lauded the bay for his grit and gumption.

"Sometimes, he just tells me, 'Hey, ease up a little bit and give me a little caretaking trip,'" Zeron said. "And when you do something like that, he gives me a result like that."

A $2 win ticket on It's My Show returned $16.30.

Never in danger, Periculum is perfection in Maple Leaf Trot

by Chris Lomon / Woodbine communications

Periculum, with Scott Zeron in the race bike, powered home with authority to win the $600,000 Maple Leaf Trot, Saturday night (Aug. 31) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

One race after guiding It's My Show to Canadian Pacing Derby glory, Zeron changed gaits and delivered another sterling steer to take all the spoils.

Logan Park blasted off the wings and drove to the front, followed by the trio of Fashion Frenzie, Osceola, and M Ms Dream into the first turn.

Logan Park was on top by 1½ lengths through an opening panel in :26.3, but M-M's Dream, unable to find a seat, drove

“ I really didn't want to get in a speed duel up front [with Periculum]. Not being on the pylons wasn't the end of the world. It was more about trying to get some nice flow, and obviously it was a hot tempo up front, so I was happy where it was in the last turn. ”

Hitting three-quarters in 1:22.4, Logan Park looked to dash away from his foes, as Hillexotic and Periculum, trained by Marcus Melander, arrived on the scene.

A game Logan Park dug in along the rail, but 5-year-old Periculum was in full flight and full of trot, going on to secure a 2¼-length score over Oh Well, also trained by Melander. Logan Park was third and Hillexotic took fourth.

Periculum (Scott Zeron) won the Maple Leaf Trot in 1:50.4 on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

As it was for all those associated with Periculum.

Owned by Brixton Medical Inc. and Holly Lane Stud East Ltd., the bay breezed into the Maple Leaf Trot final off a similarly strong score in his elimination last week, with Zeron in the sulky for the first time, when they won by 4¾ lengths in 1:51.2.

On this night, Periculum was once again at the top of his game.

“He had no cover there for a while, and it helped that it was :54 to the half, and good tempo up there, but he looked like he did it easy,” said Melander, who won the 2018 Maple Leaf Trot with Crazy Wow. “He feels like he’s in a really good form, actually. He had a really good week, and I wasn’t surprised that he raced good.”

Bred by Order By Stable AB out of Boras, Sweden, the well-travelled trotter, who competed in the Scandinavian country last year, was a $340,000 purchase at the 2020 Lexington Select Yearling Sale.

With the Maple Leaf victory, the biggest of his career to date, the son of Muscle Hill–Amour Heiress is now 11-4-6 from 43 starts, to go along with over $860,000 in lifetime earnings.

He paid $3.30 for the victory.

Sig Sauer, Warrawee Michelle score in Classic elims at Big M

A pair of stars shined bright Friday night (Aug. 30) at The Meadowlands as the New Jersey Classic had nine eliminations for 2- and 3-year-olds of each sex and gait.

The eight event finals take place Friday (Sept. 6), with estimated purses totaling $1.7 million.

Sig Sauer, the Noel Daley trainee who took down Karl on July 13 in the Stanley Dancer, followed up his win in the Beal 13 days ago at Pocono Downs with a strong performance in his Classic elim for 3-year-old male trotters.

Driver Andy McCarthy had the son of Muscle Hill—Sigilwig in the 4-hole past the quarter before using a swift brush to grab the front at the half in :57. From there, Sig Sauer powered clear at three-quarters by 2¾ lengths on the way to a safe 2¼-length score in 1:52. Bella's Muscleshill was second with Mr Bluebird third.

"Yeah, he's great," Daley said. "He's really come along. He's doing everything very professionally.

"He's not a front-end horse; he'd rather chase someone down. But, you know, I'm glad that he's shown that he can do it his last two starts. That's not his preferred mode, so I'm real happy with him."

Now seven-for-11 lifetime, Sig Sauer has a bankroll just short of $600,000. He returned $2.10 to his backers as the 1-20 favorite.

In what was the most impressive rally of the night, Hambletonian Oaks champ Warrawee Michelle upped her win streak to three in an NJC elim for 3-year-old fillies on the trot, storming home to score in 1:53 for trainer/driver Ake Svanstedt.

Kept well off the action in the early stages, 'Michelle' found herself seventh at three-quarters with seven lengths to make up as 95-1 chance Tandem Hanover hit that station in 1:24.1. Svanstedt tipped the daughter of Walner—Sound Check wide off the far turn for the stretch drive and got up after a furious rally just in the nick of time to best Tandem Hanover by a head. Miss I La was right there with the top two at the wire, finishing third.

Warrawee Michelle, who paid $2.20 to win as the 1-9 public choice, upped her lifetime stats to seven wins from 15 starts, good for earnings of just under $900,000. She will undoubtedly be a short price in next week's $275,000 (est.) NJC final.

A LITTLE MORE: In what was another eye-popping performance, Chapambro spotted her foes seven lengths after a tardy start in the other elim for 3-year-old filly trotters, then Yannick Gingras worked his partner back into it with a second-over trip before prevailing by a head over 6-5 favorite Buy A Round as the 4-1 third choice for trainer Ron Burke. The daughter of Chapter Seven—Armbro Déjà Vu stopped the clock in 1:54.4... Gingras and Scott Zeron led the driver colony with three victories apiece on the program while Svanstedt, Burke and Linda Toscano all trained a pair to victory lane... All-source handle on the 14-race card totaled $2,692,999.

Bond retires

The ultra talented trotting mare Bond is ending her racing career and is being sold to Eric Good's Spring Station Farm in Kentucky where she will begin her new career as a broodmare. Bond, a Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Trotting Filly of the Year has banked over $1.4 million through her 15 wins in 22 races. As a 2-year-old Bond triumphed in the Goldsmith Maid and Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final and her 3-year-old wins include the Delmonica Hanover, Elegant Image and Breeders Crown, where she set her lifetime mark of 1:51.2. "As a 3-year-old she was the best mare in her crop and I am convinced that she could have beaten the colts that year," said Åke Svanstedt who co-owns Bond together with Little E LLC and L Berg Inc. "We are incredibly proud of what she has achieved on the racetracks and want to wish her a successful broodmare career in Kentucky. Her caretaker Stine Holm played a big part in Bond's success, for which we are very grateful and we also want to thank Robert Lindström who managed to put this deal together."

Sippinonsearoc seeks redemption, Looksgoodinloulou looks to remain undefeated at The Red Mile

From Sunday (Sept. 1) through Tuesday (Sept. 3) The Red Mile offers $807,000 in purse money from stakes action and six $80,000 fourth round legs of Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series events for freshman and sophomores of both gaits and sexes.

Sunday evening's first sire stakes contest is for 2-year-old male pacers. Chat Room (Yannick Gingras) is the 6-5 morning line favorite. Trained by John Butenschoen, the gelded son of Chapter Seven—Fatima Blush sports a record of 6 3-2-0 and has banked $90,280.

Chat Room has captured three of his last four starts and enters of a lifetime best triumph in 1:56 in the third leg of this series. He and his pilot will leave from post position 5 in the field of seven.

The gelding was bred by Marvin Katz, Sam Goldband and Al Libfeld. He was purchased for $47,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by James Crawford IV, Charles Rowe, David Miller and Lawrence Means.

Sunday's other $80,000 sire stakes division is the fourth leg for freshman filly pacers. Two undefeated young ladies place their unblemished records on the line in Looksgoodinloulou and Ascendance.

Looksgoodinloulou (Gingras) drew post position 10 in the field of 10 for trainer Ron Burke. The daughter of Sweet Lou and world champion Looksgoodinaromper has displayed considerable talent in each of two pari-mutuel miles. The filly set her lifetime best of 1:50.2 in the third leg of this series and has earned $80,000 in her brief career.

Looksgoodinloulou competes as a homebred for her conditioner's racing stable and Weaver Brussemi. She is 2-1 on the morning line.

Ascendance (Scott Zeron) makes her Bluegrass debut after capturing two Kindergarten Series legs in June and July. The daughter of Captaintreacherous—Higher And Higher is a half-sister to Highalator (Somebeachsomewhere, $675,764) and South Beach Star (Somebeachsomewhere, $467,465).

The filly's dam is a world champion who competed against the likes of dual Dan Patch Award winner See You At Peelers.

Ascendance was bred by Steve Stewart, Conquest Stables Lp and David Schmucker, Jr. She was purchased for $260,000 by Jablonsky Held Stable, Joe Sbrocco, Bill Elliott and In The Gym Partners for $260,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Trained by Linda Toscano, Ascendance will begin pacing from post position 7 and is 7-2 on the morning line.

Monday's (Sept. 2) first sire stakes race for 3-year-old pacing fillies shines the spotlight on Date Night Hanover (Dexter Dunn). The daughter of Chapter Seven—Don't Wait Up seeks her third consecutive victory and third in this series since a break in stride in the $525,000 Hambletonian Oaks.

Date Night Hanover set her lifetime mark of 1:51.2 in the second leg and equaled it in the third leg of this series. The Kentucky champion will leave from post position 5 in the field of eight.

She is trained by Marcus Melander and is 2-1 on the morning line.

Date Night Hanover has amassed $511,109 in purse money and her resume stands at 22 7-0-5. She was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and was the sales topper ($600,000) at the 2022 Standardbred Horse Sale. The filly is owned by Jeffrey Snyder and ONDA Racing Stable.

The second sire stakes division on Monday afternoon is the fourth leg for sophomore male pacers. Women Layer (Todd McCarthy) steps up in class after winning the first three $30,000 legs of the Commonwealth Series. The only occasion the son of Sweet Lou—Loreenas Ruffian tasted defeat in 10 trips to the gate this season was a fourth-place finish in the Kentucky Sire Stakes conducted at Oak Grove Racing, Gaming and Hotel behind Kentucky champion Better Is Nice (Andrew McCarthy), who is also in this field of nine.

Women Layer will begin pacing from post position 6 and is 7-2 on the morning line.

The gelding was winless in four starts as a 2-year-old and has collected $123,904 in purse money.

Women Layer was bred by Carl Howard. He is the second foal out of his dam, who earned $135,382 on the racetrack, and went through the 2022 Lexington Selected Sales ring for $72,000.

The gelding is owned by Howard Taylor, Order By Stable AB and Judith Taylor.

Tuesday's first sire stakes event features the rubber match between Sippinonsearoc, the fastest freshman in the history of the sport, and the only horse to defeat him, Louprint. Gingras will be at the controls for Sippinonsearoc, while Louprint will have the services of Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. Both 2-year-old male pacers hail from the Burke barn.

Louprint, a son of Sweet Lou—Rockin Racer, drew the rail in the compact field of six and established his lifetime mark of 1:49.1 in the third leg of this series.

The colt's resume is 5 4-1-0 with his sole defeat at the hooves of Sippinonsearoc in the second leg of sire stakes action by a neck.

Louprint competes as a homebred for Burke Racing Stables, Weaver Brussemi and Phillip Collura. He has banked $119,864.

The colt's dam earned $157,964 and the daughter of standout Indiana stallion Rockin Image. Louprint is Rockin Racer's first foal and she is a full sibling to Undertaker (Rockin Image, $419,269), Noah Z Tam ($226,182), Sun Chip ($125,043) and Oh So Smooth ($105,469). Her half-brother Tellmeaboutit (Tellitlikeitis, $953,025) is an Indiana champion.

Sippinonsearoc seeks redemption from his fourth-place finish in the third leg after his scintillating 1:48.2 world-record mile in the second leg of this series. The son of Downbytheseaside—Queen Anne M will leave from post position 3.

The colt's record is now 5 4-0-0 and he has earned $116,400.

Sippinonsearoc is the second foal out of his dam, who earned $374,337 and was an Ohio champion. He was bred by Trent Stohler and Alesha Binkley and purchased for $77,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The colt is owned by Ron Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, R A S Racing and Knox Services.

When Luna Lovegood (Dunn) stays flat, excellent things happen. The daughter of Gimpanzee—Southwind Venus set her lifetime mark of 1:51.4 in the third leg of this series and will seek to make it two consecutive victories for the first time in her career on Tuesday (Sept. 3) in the sire stakes division for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Dunn and his charge will leave from post position 5 in the field of nine and as of this article morning line odds had not been established, but the filly will likely be the favorite or close to it in this race.

Trained by Marcus Melander, Luna Lovegood was bred by Blue Chip Farms and Stefan Melander. She was purchased from last year's Standardbred Horse Sale for $100,000 under the name Witness Blue Chip by Holly Lane Stud East LTD.

The filly is a half-sibling to Miss I LA (Walner, $284,988), who won an $86,000 division of the International Stallion Stake in 2023 and was fourth in the $525,000 Hambletonian Oaks final.

After a costly miscue in the second leg of this series, Luna Lovegood improved her record to 3 2-0-0 and her bankroll stands at $80,000. She won the first leg of this series in her first career start.

First post on Sunday at The Red Mile is 5:05 p.m. On Monday and Tuesday, the first race begins at 1 p.m.

Some exciting changes ahead of Raceway's upcoming fall meet

The Raceway at Western Fair District is just over a month away from the return of live racing and some significant changes will greet horse people and guests when the season kicks off on Tuesday (Oct. 1).

The biggest project during the off season was a complete resurfacing of the track itself. Through support of the Ontario Racing annual capital funding program, the project began immediately after the conclusion of the spring race meet and is set to wrap up and be ready to go well in advance of opening night. A new state-of-the-art infield video board is also being built and is targeted to be ready early into the fall meet.

On-track guests will be welcomed back to the traditional first-floor location which had been repurposed as London's primary COVID vaccination center during the pandemic. This space, which includes the popular Homestretch Bar, has undergone some cosmetic changes during the summer and will allow on-track patrons convenient access to the outdoor grandstand and patio area.

"Our team is really looking forward to the fall season," said director of equine programming, Greg Blanchard. "A large portion of our site has been under construction and transition which is exciting but has also caused some disruption to our customers. We appreciate their patience and are working to provide an improved guest experience this season while making these long-term enhancements to the facility."

Racing is scheduled each Monday, Tuesday and Friday evening at 5:50 p.m. - except Boxing Day (Dec. 26) at 12:50 p.m. and New Year's Eve (Dec. 31) at 7:10 p.m.

There will be several special event nights during the fall season including the OSS Prospect Series finals (Oct. 11), the 19th edition of Harness The Hope (Oct. 18), National Caretaker Appreciation Day (Nov. 1) and the Drivers Holiday Challenge (Dec. 10).

The Top of the Fair dining room will be open every Friday night for 'buffet style' dining featuring a fantastic fall menu. In addition, Trifecta Tuesdays, a value-filled promotion held on the third Tuesday of each month (except Tuesday, Dec. 10), includes dinner, gaming and wagering vouchers and a special seniors' rate. The Top of the Fair will also be open on Tuesday (Oct. 15) with a special offer that evening for guests of the London Classic Yearling Sale (LCYS).

London Classic Yearling Sale to bolster spring series

Speaking of the LCYS, The Raceway's longtime City of London Series will get a re-brand and purse boost this spring. The event will be renamed the London Classic Sales Series and will be supported by a portion of proceeds from the annual yearling sale which is now owned and operated by the Western Fair Association. The conditions for the series will remain the same with the finals in each of the divisional categories guaranteed at $40,000. The quartet of finals will continue to take place on the track's signature night of racing, Camluck Classic night - which is slated for the last Friday in May.

"Since taking over the sale, we have wanted to come up with a way to help support the local racing community," said Blanchard. "This move will help bolster what has been a longstanding and important event for us at The Raceway and our local horse people. I think they appreciate these races as an opportunity to develop their young horses while racing for some good purse money. This new series also provides added incentive for buyers who support our annual sale."

Oceanview Rumours lowers her Red Shores track record

For a second-straight week, Oceanview Rumours continued her track record setting trends in Lady Slipper Stakes action Thursday evening (Aug. 29) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Under the command of driver Adam Merner, the Melissa Rennie trained Green Manalishi S 2-year-old came first-over and kept driving in her $12,450 Lady Slipper trotting filly division to record a new track record of 2:00.1 for rookie trotting fillies. Oceanview Nikki (driven by Mike McGuigan) nabbed second ahead of Supreme Rockette (Brodie MacPhee). The winning filly erased her own 2:00.4 track record set on Aug. 22 for owners Bill and Scott Roloson and Joey Aylward.

In other Lady Slipper action for 2-year-old trotting colts, Bless Me Father was the first-part of a five-win night for driver Marc Campbell as the Father Patrick colt recovered from an early miscue to win in 2:02.4 in his $12,450 division from the Landon Campbell barn for owner Donna Van Meer of Mount Herbert. Marcus Down Ridge (Clare MacDonald) was second best with Little Arrow (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) third.

Dusty Lane Gus (Marc Campbell) won the other $12,450 2-year-old trot colt split in 2:02.2 over West River Jet (Ken MacDonald) and In Harmony (Corey MacPherson). Lenny Myers trains for owner Alexis Gass of Cornwall.

Gettin Lit won his $17,200 Lady Slipper Trot division for 3-year-old colts in 1:59.4 for trainer/driver McGuigan and owner Jamie Whalen of Avondale. Rocket Blast (MacPherson) provided the middle part of the triactor ticket with Camco Laraido (Ken Murphy) completing the combination.

Dusty Lane Wee (Marc Campbell) doubled up trainer Myers in her $17,200 Lady Slipper 3-year-old trotting filly event with an open-length victory in 2:01.1 for owners Garry MacDonald of Ontario and Ronnie Gass of Cornwall. Oceanview Daisy (Heffernan) did the early roadwork to settle for second with Dusty Lane Mable (MacPherson) garnering third place.

Rosetown Mary hit the wire first in the $5,500 second leg of the P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Gold division, presented by JD Marine and Diving Inc., for 4, 5 and 6-year-old Maritime Foaled female pacers. Trainer/driver MacPherson celebrated the 1:54.4 victory with owners Rosetown Stable of Stratford and Taylor MacPherson of Cornwall. Tobins Brownie (David Dowling) was second best with Rock N Roll Cays (Hughes) in third.

The pair of $4,300 Grassroots divisions of the P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series for pacing mares saw wins by Glenview Rhonda (MacPherson) in 1:56 from the Adam Johnson barn and Redland Misspretty (Dowling) in 1:57.1 for trainer Kyle Williams.
