U.S.-based horses are well positioned in this year's Yonkers International Trot

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Only once since the modern return of the Yonkers International Trot has a horse representing the United States captured the event when Resolve won in 2016, but this year the domestic horses look more imposing than the international invaders.

I'll add a caveat for the preceding statement that for purposes of this column, Jiggy Jog, who will race for Sweden, her place of foaling, is considered part of my group of U.S.-based contenders.

The complexion of a strong European contingency to a lesser one began to change a few weeks ago. That's when last year's exciting winner Vivid Wise As from Italy, a now 10-year-old with close to $4 million in career earnings by this point, announced his withdrawal from the International in August. Two weeks after Vivid Wise As made an uncharacteristic break in the $320,000 Hugo Aberg's Memorial in Sweden on July 30, it was reported that the horse was sick and would be unable to compete in the International to defend his championship.

Vivid Wise As was to be replaced by Italian trotter Capital Mail, who raced in this year's Elitloppet. But he withdrew from the International less than one week after accepting an invite following a positive blood test as reported by Swedish trotting media, Travronden.

I hate to sound like an American columnist ignorant to European racing, but from my view the most formidable international contender – maybe, truly, the only one – is Hail Mary, an 8-year-old son of Googoo Gaagaa. Hail Mary will come to the U.S. with a distinguished career as a multiple Group 1 winner with earnings over $1.6 million lifetime.

If Hail Mary had raced in the International last year I'd have liked his chances even more. This time last year he was coming off an impressive first-over win in the Group 1 Hugo Aberg's Memorial at Jagersro, and that was a race that produced next-out Yonkers International winner, Vivid Wise As. Also, in that same race came another Yonkers International Trot starter from last year, Hierro Boko. But things haven't been quite as fortunate this year.

Jiggy Jog S
(Dexter Dunn)
 is one of several U.S.-based contenders in Saturday's Yonkers
International Trot.

Hail Mary gave it a pressured try on the front end in this year's Prix d'Amerique at Vincennes in January and backed away once in the stretch from his efforts. Most recently in this year's Hugo Aberg's, Hail Mary tried to attack early from the 2-hole and ended up getting into a speed duel while parked for at least a quarter-of-a-mile which did him in. As a side note, which could spice things up in the older trotting ranks for the rest of the year, Hail Mary will remain stateside and be trained by Ake Svanstedt following the Yonkers International.

The lone European contender returning to Yonkers from last year's edition is Denmark's Get A Wish. I remember him from that time and probably still view him the same this time as one of the outsiders. He's shown his high-level potential at times but I feel he would need a career performance with some racing luck to land the top spot.

He did race earlier this year in the ABY World Grand Prix in a race won by Horsy Dream who also won this year's Elitloppet and he may get some play for entering the Yonkers International off a runner-up finish in the Group 1 Hugo Aberg's Memorial. The only thing worth noting is that he had the perfect trip right in behind the duel between Hail Mary and Click Bait but couldn't reach the leader as part of a blanket of horses for the minors.

After those two horses, are two representing France, Eclat De Gloire and Ideal San Leandro. Each accomplished in their own rights, but they don't quite hold up to last year and 2022's entrant from France, Etonnant (though both his trips to Yonkers turned out to be ill-fated ones). The same can be said for Italy's Vernissage Grif, who doesn't seem to rate as high as last year's Italian entrants Vivid Wise As or even Bengurion Jet. Castor The Star will complement Hail Mary (and Jiggy Jog) from Sweden and last month won the Aby Sprint Grand Prix.

Ironically, the likely horse to beat is Periculum. He's a horse that was bred in the U.S. and was a stakes winner here at 2 and 3 before racing as a 4-year-old in Sweden last year. He's now returned back to North America for the 2024 racing season and, when picking up Scott Zeron as a new driver, has put up back-to-back career speed performances, the most recent of which was a 1:50.4 authoritative score in Saturday's Maple Leaf Trot.

Jiggy Jog has been the top performing older trotter throughout this year and the mare will get another shot in the Yonkers

“ In any case, the Yonkers International Trot will be compelling as usual due to the international flair, the emergence of Periculum and his anticipated battle with Jiggy Jog. And, of course, if one of the European horses do happen to win then I’ll have to eat my words. ”

~ Brett Sturman

International Trot. Last year Dexter Dunn worked out an amazing 2-hole trip from post 9 behind Vivid Wise As and did well to finish second despite gapping slightly and not materializing into a serious late threat to the winner.

It’s Academic rounds out the U.S. entries and comes off a tiring try in his Maple Leaf Trot elimination two weeks ago; a case could be made he was sharper when entering this race last year when he finished fourth after making a big three-wide move from the back of the pack. Logan Park will be Canada’s chance for Yonkers International Trot glory and he exits a third-place finish in the Maple Leaf Trot. I’d rate him on par or maybe higher than Fashion Frenzie who represented Canada last year.

The European horses have been strong in recent years at Yonkers so it’s hard to say if the horses sent this time around indicates an off-year or the start of a trend. Along that theme, horses represented seven different countries in last year’s Yonkers International Trot and now come from just five unique countries. However, this year’s Prix d’Amerique didn’t feature any horses from outside of Europe for that matter, so maybe attracting horses across continents is reflective of a larger dynamic.

In any case, the Yonkers International Trot will be compelling as usual due to the international flair, the emergence of Periculum and his anticipated battle with Jiggy Jog. And, of course, if one of the European horses do happen to win then I’ll have to eat my words.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Kerryn Manning looks to strike gold in $2.1M TAB Eureka

The world's winningest female driver aims to add the world's richest race to her resume.

by Adam Hamilton

It just seems right that Kerryn Manning will chase some more history in the world's richest harness race, the $2.1-million TAB Eureka at Menangle on Saturday night (Sept. 7).

Manning has blazed the greatest trail of any female, not just Down Under, but throughout the harness racing world.

The 48-year-old's career haul of almost 4,300 driving wins is by far the most by any female in the world.

And the quality has been there, too. Forty-one of those wins have been at the highest Group 1 level, including two of Down Under's most iconic races. Her drives have banked over $32 million.

Manning became the first female to drive a NZ Cup winner when she teamed with Arden Rooney at Christchurch's Addington track in November 2015.

Earlier that year, she became one of only three females to drive the winner of Australia's equivalent, the Hunter Cup, also aboard Arden Rooney. Kate Gath and Natalie Rasmussen are the others.

Wind the clock right back to 1997 and Manning's win on former great trotter Knight Pistol in the Harley Davidson Trot in Norway made her just the second female to drive a Group 1 winner in Europe.

In between, Manning had five years of complete and utter dominance in Australia when she won the national drivers' premiership each season from 2001 to 2005. Her 371 wins in season 2002-03 was an Australasian record at the time.

In more recent times, Manning has scaled back her driving to focus more time on training with husband Grant Campbell. Naturally, it's been a success story, too, with 1,070 winners, including seven at the Group 1 level.

She didn't just drive Arden Rooney, but trained him as well.

So, it has come somewhat out of the blue that Manning will be part of the shiny new TAB Eureka, which will be contested for just the second time on Saturday.

Years ago, the now champion trainer Emma Stewart worked for Manning's father, Peter, on the family's property at Great Western property in central Victoria.

Stewart has gone on to enjoy dominance in the training ranks like Australia has never seen before.

@stumccormick

“I drove the first horse Emma trained, Katies Secret, in a lot of her early races, so we’ve gone the full circle,” Kerryn said.

Stewart not only won last year’s inaugural TAB Eureka with 4-year-old mare Encipher, but will also set an early record with the most starters by any trainer in the race with three of the 10 pacers on Saturday.

As well as Kerryn’s drive High Above, Stewart will have star mare Major Delight and exciting 3-year-old Bay Of Biscay chasing the $1 million first prize.

When Stewart was looking for a driver to help harness the raw but exciting talent of High Above, she looked straight to Kerryn.

It’s been a fairytale so far with Kerryn’s four drives on the son of Captaintreacherous netting four wins, including his past two which have forced his way into the TAB Eureka.

Slot holders Aaron Bain Racing & Summit Bloodstock, who teamed with Stewart and Encipher to win with their slot last year, snapped-up High Above after he won narrowly but impressively at Melton last Friday night (Aug. 24).

Although Stewart has won the TAB Eureka as a female trainer, Kerryn is one of two trying to become the first female driver to win it.

The other is quite a contrast. She is 26-year-old Ashleigh Delosa, who has just ticked past 100 career wins and is yet to salute at the Group 1 level. She will also drive for Stewart, landing the drive on Major Delight after winning on the mare in their past four starts together.

Kerryn admits she had to think – or more so “negotiate” – before taking up the offer to drive High Above this week.

“It’s such a massive opportunity and I would be crazy not to go and be part of [the TAB Eureka]. I’m also stoked to be able to keep the drive on [High Above], he’s such a talent.”

~ Kerry Manning

“It’s not ideal,” she said. “Eureka night clashes with the big Vic-bred finals night at Melton where our stable will have some [starters]. After a bit of thought and lots of help from Grant [Campbell], who will kindly hold the fort [at home] for me, I’m going to Menangle.

“It’s such a massive opportunity and I would be crazy not to go and be part of it. I’m also stoked to be able to keep the drive on [High Above], he’s such a talent.”

High Above will be the least experienced horse to contest the TAB Eureka with the race coming in just his ninth start.

The strong female flavor to the TAB Eureka underlines the international benchmark standard Australia sets in this space.

Even bigger than two of the eight drivers being female, HALF the field is trained by females.

Along with Stewart’s three, Victoria’s Jess Tubbs trains Fighter Command and Queensland’s Shannon Price has Sure Thing Captain flying her stable flag.

On the equine front, two females, Major Delight and Eye Keep Smiling, will try to continue the girl-power of the race after the only mare in last year’s race, Encipher, upstaged the boys to win the inaugural event.

Just for good measure, three of the key players in the other major race on TAB Eureka night – the Group 1 Len Smith Mile – have strong female connections.

Former Miracle Mile winner Catch A Wave will be driven by Kate Gath, multiple Group 1 winner Better Eclipse is trained by Jess Tubbs and Shannon Price’s influence on the night extends to training Speak The Truth in the Len Smith as well.

You can also weave in the fact Australia’s best pacing mare of the moment, Aardies Express, will take on the boys in the Len Smith Mile and many good judges say she’s going well enough to beat them.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Easy victory in Sweden for Fame And Glory

by Thomas Hedlund

As the heavy favorite in Sunday's (Sept. 1) $800,000 Derby in Sweden, Timo Nurmos' Fame And Glory (Tactical Landing) fulfilled all expectations and captured the second $800,000 win of his career.

Björn Goop sat in the bike and did everything right behind the talented Fame And Glory, who easily overtook the lead after some 500 meters as early leader, the German trained Trogir, wanted a cover trip. And better cover than Fame And Glory is hard to get and to be honest, the Derby never got the pulse that races at this level often have. Fame And Glory is a dominant trotter, hard to beat and his opponents never really tried to challenge him during the race's first mile. And when a mile is raced in the Derby, one kilometer remains and until then, nothing much happened. With a lap to go, second choice Epic Kronos landed outside of the big favorite and a duel between them could be imagined for a while on the last backstretch, just before the last turn. But as they turned for home, the advantage of Fame And Glory was solid and Goop celebrated when the victory was secured. Epic Kronos was a brave runner up and third, without racing room, was Global Etalon.

Replay here.

It was a mile rate of 1:56.1 for the winner Fame And Glory, who became the Swedish 2020 crop-king when he won the $800,000 Kriteriet last year and nothing points at the fact that he will be relocated from his throne.

A Norwegian trainer and driver celebrated after the $400,000 Derbystoet for 4-year-old mares. Daim Brodda (Readly Express-Dancing Inthehall) became the bettors' first choice in the prestigious event and driver Eirik Høitomt was determined reaching the front position at an early stage. The Thor Borg trained mare possesses several qualities required to become a top trotter, not least of which are her quick legs and ability to keep the high pace all the way to the wire.

With Daim Brodda in front, the race was basically over and she sprinted to an easy win in a mile rate of 1:55.3 over 1.3 miles.

Mattias Djuse trained horses finished second and third behind Daim Brodda. First over trotter Dial Square held strongly as runner up ahead of stablemate Knickers Sisu.

MELKKO'S BIG DAY IN HELSINKI

Finnish born trainer Katja Melkko experienced some great moments when the $280,000 Derby in Finland was held at Vermo racetrack on Saturday (Aug. 31) afternoon. Her 4-year-old mare Lightning Stride (Twister Bi) came to the lead with a mile to go in the 2,620-meter race and thereafter an impressive performance started. Lightning Stride just flew on the lead and the opponents were desperately chasing her several lengths behind on the backstretch.

Driver Santtu Raitala could relax when he steered Lightning Stride into the homestretch and Melkko's trotter won in a stakes record, mile rate of 1:56.4 over 1.6 miles.

Replay here.

Melkko could also enjoy a bronze medal for Relevant Stride, who made an early break and repaired that mishap strongly to finish third. Sands Hybrid was runner-up in a mile rate of 1:57.3.

BAZIRE'S STARS DOMINATED AT VINCENNES

Jean-Michel Bazire had a great day at the track on Saturday (Aug. 31) afternoon when Vincennes arranged a strong card for 3-, 4- and 5-year-old trotters.

Liza Josselyn (Ready Cash) started her career showing good capacity in 2023 and as a 3-year-old she seems to have developed in the right direction. The well-bred filly (out of Prix d'Amérique winner Belina Josselyn) has had all eyes on her since her debut in September last year and when the French-bred horses are getting ready for the upcoming stakes races, she has found a level that puts her in the pole position.

In Saturday's $145,000 Prix Annick-Dreux, Liza Josselyn was pushed to the lead after a half mile and Bazire could control the race however he wanted. Liza Josselyn won comfortably in a mile rate of 2:00 over 1.6 miles and the future fall looks to be great for her.

Bazire continued by winning with his 5-year-old champion Jushua Tree (Bold Eagle), who jogged to victory from the lead in a mile rate of 1:56.1 over 1.6 miles in the $135,000 Prix Jockey. Jushua Tree will most certainly be Bazire's big hope in next year's Prix d'Amérique; the Bold Eagle son was allowed to race the big Grand Prix already in January this year, but Bazire chose to save his horse for the future. And the future looks bright for him.

In the $135,000 Prix Gaston-Brunet for 4-year-old colts, Gabriele Gelormini sat behind upset Kataki de Wallis (Charly du Noyer) and after a perfect cover trip behind leader Koctel du Dain, Kataki de Wallis finished best and won in a mile rate of 1:56.4 over 1.6 miles. Alain Chavette trains the winner.

Loulou de Mye (Cliff du Pommereux), trained by Romain Christian Larue, entered the $135,000 Prix J. De Vauloge after some really positive performances during the summer, but the horse had never won any races bigger than the $68,000 Prix Leopold Verroken before. Two wins in total in his career prior to Saturday's start when the third came. Loulou de Mye followed as the fourth horse before Matthieu Abrivard opted for a position first over with a half mile to go and Loulou de Mye fought well when challengers attacked in the stretch. Loulou de Mye won in a mile rate of 1:57.2 over 1.6 miles.

Favorite Kana de Beylev (Express Jet) proved best after a third over trip in the $135,000 Prix G. De Wazieres for 4-year-old mares and William Bigeon's horse won in a mile rate of 1:58.1 over 1.6 miles. Benjamin Rochard was in the bike behind Kana de Beylev.

FRANK GIO BEST IN TURIN

Driver Matthieu Abrivard left France for Italy on Sunday (Sept. 1) night and was successful behind Sébastien Guarato's Frank Gio (Face Time Bourbon) in the $168,000 Gran Premio Carlo Marangoni in Turin.

Italian bred Frank Gio has battled strongly among tough French horses at Vincennes and he proved best when his friends from Italy tried to beat him in a mile rate of 1:57.1 over 1.3 miles.

Face Time Bourbon filly Funny Gio won the filly division of the $75,000 Gran Premio Carlo Marangoni. Her trainer Alessandro Gocciadoro sat in the bike and Funny Gio won in 1:56.1.

New York SIRE STAKES REPORT

Sire stakes in action at Saratoga

by Mike Sardella for Saratoga Casino Hotel

There were two divisions of the New York Sire Stakes contested on Saturday evening (Aug. 31) at Saratoga Casino Hotel.

The 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters took center stage at the Spa and Sir Pinocchio (Met's Hall) was the star of the show. The Ed Hart-trained sophomore is in the midst of a sensational season and came into Saturday's try with six wins and four seconds in 11 starts in 2024.

Jason Bartlett is the regular driver for Sir Pinocchio who drew post 5 in his five-horse division on Saturday. The gelding surged out to the early lead and cruised unopposed for the majority of the mile in his $82,500 division and had plenty left in the stretch to draw away for a victory of close to four lengths. Sir Pinocchio stopped the timer in 1:55.1 over a track labeled sloppy.

With the earnings from his seventh seasonal score, Sir Pinocchio, who paid $4.50 to win as his race's second-choice in the wagering, moved his 2024 earnings over the $400,000 mark. The sophomore is owned by Carolyn Atherton of Scarsdale, NY.

The other division of the NYSS for 3-year-olds went the way of Mister Mellby (Chapter Seven) who sprung the upset with driver Tyler Buter piloting for trainer Aka Svanstedt. Mister Mellby utilized his early speed to secure an easy lead into the first turn and maintained that lead throughout before clocking a 1:56.1 victory pulling off the upset at odds of 9-1 in the five-horse Sire Stakes event. For Mister Mellby, it was the second win in eight tries in 2024. The 3-year-old colt is owned by Mellby Gard Inc of Delray Beach, FL.

Live racing resumes on Saturday evening (Sept. 7) with a first post time of 5 p.m. There will be a Pick-5 carryover of $1,242 beginning in the evening's first race.

Woman Of Passion ends Date Night Hanover's win streak at The Red Mile

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

Woman Of Passion (Todd McCarthy) terminated Date Night Hanover's (Dexter Dunn) three race-winning streak in Lexington on Monday (Sept. 2) by subduing that rival in 1:50.1 in the $80,000 fourth leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series for 3-year-old pacing fillies at The Red Mile. Spy Coast (Gingras) was third at odds of 28-1.

Leaving from post position 4 in the field of seven, the daughter of Walner—Womans Will entered the pocket spot immediately after the wings of the gate folded. Allegiant (Scott Zeron) went to the front and clicked off fractions of :28.1, :55.3 and 1:23.1. Date Night Hanover resided in fourth place for the first three splits of the mile.

As the fillies turned for home, Woman Of Passion strode past a tiring Allegiant to take control. Date Night Hanover came with her pace, but Woman Of Passion had plenty to give. The filly hit the wire with a :26.3 final panel, while Date Night Hanover's :26.2 final quarter mile just came up a bit short.

Conditioned by Carter Pinske, Woman Of Passion was bred by Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld. She is owned by Libfeld and is the fourth foal out of the prolific Womans Will, who amassed $602,991 on the racetrack.

Woman Of Passion only had a maiden victory in nine starts as a 2-year-old but has stepped it up in her second season of competition. Her 2024 record is 10 7-1-1 and she has earned $183,998.

The filly paid $25.32 to win at the windows.

BETTER IS NICE RETURNS TO THE WINNER'S CIRCLE IN CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Kentucky champion Better Is Nice (Andrew McCarthy) withstood the late charge of favored Women Layer (T. McCarthy) to take the $80,000 fourth leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series for sophomore male pacers. Nuclear (Dunn) rounded out the trifecta.

In a contest that saw multiple lead changes and horses vying for the top spot, Better Is Nice commenced pacing from post position 4 and remained in that position after the starter car left the field of nine to their own devices.

Longshot Steely Knife (Gingras) shot to the lead and paced in :27 for the mile's first fraction. Women Layer was in the garden spot for the first quarter and until the half-mile pole, but Dancin Champion, who won the last leg of this series, and David Miller had their own plans.

That duo carved out the second fraction of :54 prior to Better Is Nice pulling then rolling to the lead. Women Layer was shuffled into fourth as Better Is Nice paced a :27.1 third quarter mile and a :27.2 final panel to stop the clock in 1:48.3.

The time was new lifetime best for the son of Bettors Delight—Thatsoveryverynice.

Better Is Nice upped his bankroll to $724,183 and had his picture taken after a fourth and second in the last two legs of this series.

Trained by Tony Alagna, who also co-bred and owns the colt, Better Is Nice has a slate of 23 10-4-4.

Better Is Nice is also owned by Pryde Stables and Birnam Wood Farms. Marvin Katz is co-breeder and the son of the talented Thatsoveryverynice exchanged hands for $30,000 at 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Better Is Nice paid $18.44 to win as the fourth choice.

DRAWING RIGHTS DRAWS OFF IN COMMONWEALTH SERIES

First leg victor Drawing Rights (Dunn) equaled her lifetime mark of 1:52.3 in the $30,000 fourth leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old trotting fillies. The daughter of International Moni—Charity Hall was the fourth choice in a field of nine. Favored House Of Music (A. McCarthy) was second and Stubborn Chee (Miller) was third.

Drawing Rights, who captured the first leg of this series, is now 11 4-2-1 and has earned $60,048 in purse money.

Murray Ferguson bred and owns the filly who is a half-sibling to Eternal Lee (Southwind Frank, $568,472).

Drawing Rights paid $15.22 to win.

Andy Miller guided five winners on the 17-race card.

GO DOG GO, MIKI AND MINNIE DERAILED FAVORITES AT THE RED MILE

On Sunday (Sept. 1) Go Dog Go and Miki And Minnie downed the favorites in their respective divisions to collect triumphs in the $80,000 fourth legs of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series for freshman male trotters and 2-year-old pacing fillies.

Go Dog Go (Todd McCarthy) was content to sit in third eyeballing pocket-sitting favorite Chat Room (Yannick Gingras) for three-quarters of the mile while longshot General Kronos (Tim Tetrick) set the fractions of :28.4, :56.3 and 1:25.3.

As the field of seven strode into the stretch, Go Dog Go decided it was time to determine what was in the tank and did not disappoint. The son of Greenshoe-Primary Target trotted to the wire in :27 which was more than enough to outlast Chat Room, who was third and a hard-closing Blank (Dexter Dunn). He stopped the clock a lifetime best 1:53.

Trained by Carter Pinske, Go Dog Go broke his maiden on July 28 in the $30,000 first leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series. The colt broke stride moving up in class in the second $80,000 leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series on Aug. 5 and did not finish in the money in that event as the public's second selection behind favored Super Chapter.

The colt did come home front of that rival in the second leg of the series but was second to Chat Room.

Owned by Wiesman Farms and Al Libfeld, Go Dog Go's resume is 4-2-1-0 and he has banked $75,000.

Go Dog Go was bred by Wiesman Farms and was a $110,000 yearling purchase at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The colt is the second foal from out of an unraced dam and his granddam is Hall of Fame member Southwind Serena. The mare produced Exemplar (Andover Hall, $431,627) world champion and Dan Patch Award winner Mission Brief (Muscle Hill, $1.59 million), Earn Your Wings (Credit Winner, $314,530) and the top stallion Tactical Landing (Muscle Hill, $812,300) who has sired the last two Hambletonian victors in Tactical Landing and Karl.

Go Do Go paid $5.34 to his supporters.

Miki And Minnie (Dunn) denied undefeated favorites Looksgoodinloulou (Gingras) and Ascendance (Scott Zeron) their bids for victory in the leg for freshman pacing fillies. Sweet Ballad (David Miller) was second and Champagne Room (Andrew McCarthy) was third.

The final time of 1:50.3 was a new mark for the daughter of Always B Miki-That's The Ticket.

Leaving from post position eight in the field of 10, Miki And Minnie paced in third position for the first quarter mile with Duration establishing the first split in :27.1. The filly's pilot decided it was time to go and she assumed command with a :56 half-mile and a 1:23.4 three-quarter mile split.

Heavy favorite Looksgoodinloulou came home in :26.2. Miki And Minnie, as well as Sweet Ballad, closed out their own miles with final panels in :26.3.

Trained by Chris Ryder, Miki And Minnie competes as a homebred for Craig Henderson, Robert Mondillo and Lawrence Minowitz.

The filly is the third foal out of her dam who earned $268,521 during her racing career.

Miki And Minnie is a half-sibling to Dance Ticket (A Rocknroll Dance, $116,238) and Great Seats (Sweet Lou, $101,617).

Her career slate stands at 6-2-4-0 and she has earned $80,000 in purse money.

Miki And Minnie provided $17.18 for her second victory.

THREE TIMES BETTOR, YANNICK G KEMP COLLECT COMMONWEALTH SERIES TRIUMPHS

Three Times Bettor (Andrew McCarthy) took the $30,000 fourth leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old filly pacers in a lifetime best 1:51.4. Accede (Gingras) was second and Ronstadt (T. McCarthy) came home third.

Trained by Brett Pelling, the daughter of Bettor's Delight-Three Times A Lady now possesses a record of 6-2-1-2.

She was bred by Steve Stewart, Conquest Acres Lp and Michael Robinson.

Three Times Bettor was sold for $155,000 to Thadeus Wier at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The filly's dam, Dolphins Can Talk, is a half-sister to Flipper J (Art Major, $586,182), Talk Back (Tell All, $163,052), Bushwacker (Rocknroll Hanover, $743,806) and Baby Your The Best (Captaintreacherous, $477,497).

Dolphins Can Talk is a daughter of Hall of Fame member and world champion Stienam's Place.

Three Times Bettor hails from one of the best female families in the sport. She paid $3.96 to win as the favorite.

Yannick G Kemp (Peter Wrenn) closed out the 17-race card with a 1:53.4 win in the $30,000 fourth leg of the Commonwealth Series for 2-year-old male trotters. Memento Mori (Zeron) and Bank On Me (T. McCarthy) rounded out the trifecta.

Trained by R. Richard Norman aka Nifty Norman, the son of Walner-Southwind Adele hit the line with the swiftest time of his young career and collected his second consecutive victory.

Yannick G Kemp has a record of 6-3-1-0 and was bred by Kemppi Stables and Suojalampi Stable. He went through the ring at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale for $180,000 to Melvin Hartman, Rojan Stables and Little E LLC.

The colt paid $6.94 to win as the public's top selection.

Labor Day Ohio Sires Stakes action at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Ohio Sires Stakes action headlined the special Labor Day card at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Monday (Sept. 2).

In the lone $100,000 division for 2-year-old filly trotters, Mocha Hill (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) was a nose winner over stablemate Rose Run Allison (Chris Page) in 1:56.1.

Up (Chris Lems) took the early lead but Aunt Laura (Brett Miller) took over mid-way through the opening turn and crossed over as they reached the :29 opening quarter. As the field straightened out down the stretch for the first time, Rose Run Allison quickly came up from fifth to take over by the :57.3 half. This left stablemate Brink Street (Eric Goodell) first up with Mocha Hill second over. When pocket sitter Aunt Laura went offstride, Brink Street settled in the pocket leaving Mocha Hill first over. Still comfortably on the lead at the 1:27.1 third quarter, Rose Run Allison and Mocha Hill battled down to the wire with Mocha Hill coming out on top.

Mocha Hill, by What The Hill out of the Cantab Hall mare Socha Hanover, was a $47,000 Ohio Selected yearling sale purchase from breeder Franklin Equine. Trained by Ron Burke for owners Burke Racing, Hatfield Stables, Weaver Brusceci and Knox Services, the filly now has five wins in six starts and $148,917 in earnings.

Battle Hill was a convincing gate-to-wire winner in the first $65,000 division of the 2-year-old colt trot in 1:56.1. Pressured early from Whats Shakin (Ronnie Gillespie) at the :28.4 opening quarter, driver Chris Lems kept the lead through the :57.2 half and 1:26.3 third-quarter. LT Loverboy (Miller) came from the back of the pack to get up for second, with Whats Shakin third.

Battle Hill, by Marseille out of the Kadabra mare Battle Mage, was a $65,000 Ohio Select Sale purchase from breeder Galliers Racing. Owned by William Hartt and trained by Matthew Burkholder, Battle Hill now has three wins in six starts and $84,200 in earnings.

The other division for 2-year-old colt trotters was won by Hilltop Sonar and Page in 1:57.3. Leading gate-to-wire from post 9, Hilltop Sonar led through fractions of :29, :58 and 1:28 before kicking home in :29.3 to win by a length over Scrapypys Love (Aaron Merriman); Oso Fast (Lems) was third.

THE WORD IS OUT DOMINANT IN OHIO SIRES STAKES ACTION

News is spreading fast about the dominant performance from The Word Is Out in Ohio Sires Stakes action for 2-year-old filly pacers on Sunday night (Sept. 1) at MGM Northfield Park. The Word Is Out defeated the perfect Odds On Hialeah with lengths to spare in the sole $100,000 division.

Directly out of the gate, driver Chris Page urged The Word Is Out to challenge for the front and the daughter of Well Said found herself parked the entirety of the :28 opening quarter. But the brisk quarter only energized The Word Is Out. Once in control of the field, she set remaining fractions in :57.1 and 1:26. Despite heavy pressure from challengers, The Word Is Out dug deep, winning by two lengths in 1:53.4.

Odds On Hialeah (Brett Miller) finished second while Skywalker Sea (Justin Irvine) was third.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Chantilly, Fifth And Five fastest in OSS Gold action

by Standardbred Canada

Five was the magical number in the fourth Gold leg of the Ontario Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacers on Saturday (Aug. 31) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Rookie pacing filly Chantilly ($2.20) stayed perfect in five career starts, winning her $140,000 Gold assignment in career best fashion.

Sent off as the 1-9 choice, Chantilly settled into fourth from post 8 behind Wickedpace (Jody Jamieson), Macapelo Seelster (Tyler Borth) and Millie May Hanover (Todd McCarthy). Wickedpace tripped the opening timer in :27, then yielded to Millie May Hanover. Her lead was short-lived as driver James MacDonald followed that move and brushed Chantilly to the lead by the :56 half.

Pick Me Up Hanover (Dexter Dunn) came to call with a first-over attempt, but Chantilly wasn't answering that call. In fact, it was a message of do not disturb. After a 1:23.3 third quarter, Chantilly gave the Ron Pierce wave to her rivals and opened up a quick four by the head of the lane. The official win margin was 5½ lengths, and the win time was 1:50.3. Wickedpace and Millie May Hanover rounded out the top three.

Now five-for-five with $257,500 in earnings, Chantilly (Big Jim—Shiraz Seelster) is a Millar Farms homebred trained by Nick Gallucci.

"She's just so gifted, and Nick's done a great job," MacDonald said after the win. "Like you said, she was a little warm her first couple starts, and now she's kind of matured into just a little race car. Lord knows, sky's the limit. She's a gifted animal with a ton of potential, and I just hope she sees it through, because she's a lot of fun."

Jody Jamieson found Fifth And Five ($8.90) a seam just in the nick of time as the rookie male pacer notched his first Gold victory in the $140,000 fourth leg.

Jamieson pocketed up early in the Gold tilt behind Century Lucifer (Borth) while even-money choice Boxer Seelster (Trevor Henry) forged forward from post 9 to cleat to the lead after a :26.4 opening quarter.

Fifth And Five and Boxer Seelster then took turns on the lead down the backside. Jamieson moved Fifth And Five from third, and he touched down on top through a :55.2 half. Henry hustled Boxer Seelster back out of the pocket and fronted the field through a 1:23.2 third station. The backfield started to threaten, but Boxer Seelster maintained his advantage heading for the wire. His main threat was Fifth And Five, locked in behind him. Jamieson kept Fifth And Five angled to the inside, and Boxer Seelster drifted just enough for Jamieson to squeeze through power past for the 1:52 tally. Boxer Seelster was a length back in second. Century Lucifer finished third but was placed sixth due to interference in the stretch. That placing bumped Sterling Choice (Dunn) from fourth to third.

"I think the race in Grand River [the Battle of Waterloo final] took a little bit out of him," said Jamieson. "He should have been an easy winner, I thought, in the last Gold, and I got picked up down the stretch. But it just worked out where I was sitting that I could try to make a shot at the lead there, and then when Trevor came back to cover me up, it was even better for me, because my horse will track a helmet."

"And we were talking off air, he's been unlucky. He arguably could have won every Gold this year. He was caught in [for] the first two, and then got picked up his last start... He just loved this trip tonight. It took a little wiggling, and Trevor's horse was running out, luckily, and I had enough room, and he shot through there like a gunshot. He was back to himself tonight."

Trainer Carl Jamieson trains and co-owns Fifth And Five (Bettors Delight—Filou Fly Fast) along with 1140545 Ontario Ltd. of Guelph and Trevor Edwards of Kirkton, ON. The brown colt, now a two-time winner with $147,110 in earnings, was bred by Darryl Kaplan of Toronto, Roy Sproxtton and Harbhajan Singh Dhillon of Brampton, ON.

Ron Burke notches career training win 15,000 at The Meadows

Already harness racing's all-time leading trainer – by wins and purses – Ron Burke earned yet another laurel Saturday (Aug. 31) when he collected career training win 15,000 at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. The milestone victory came when Night Watchman captured race 7, a $10,000-$12,500 claiming handicap.

Burke began training as an assistant to his father, Mickey Burke, who passed away this year. He's been in uncharted territory for so long that with each victory, he breaks his own record. Yet he indicated Saturday's win is special to him.

"It takes me back to those days with my father," he said. "We started out with $10,000 claimers. In fact, a $10,000 claimer would have been our best horse by far."

From those modest beginnings, Burke has built an empire unprecedented in the sport. Burke estimates that he has more than 300 horses, including over 200 currently in training. He has strings of horses at six tracks. To manage that sprawling stable, he employs a staff of 100. His horses have earned nearly $335 million. And all that was the product of a master plan.

"We started it by moving to The Meadowlands," he said. "Then we decided that we would race at every place that had slots. The last piece was Mark."

He's referring, of course, to Mark Weaver of Weaver Bruscelli LLC, which is partnered with Burke Racing in many of those 300+ head. But Weaver is more than just a business partner. He scouts potential purchases, tapping his extensive network of personal relationships. It was Weaver's legwork for example, that facilitated Burke's import of Irish-bred horses, a pioneering foray.

"By doing all that, he frees me up for training, which is what I like," Burke said. "He's been more innovative than anybody in working on-line channels. He should be in the Hall of Fame."

(For his part, Weaver jokingly refers to the 6-foot-5 Burke as "harness racing's Bill Laimbeer.")

Of those 15,000 wins, Burke indicated Foiled Again's victory in the 2013 Breeders Crown at the age of 9 is among the most memorable for him.

"When the crowd stood and cheered for him, I knew he wasn't our horse anymore," he said. "He was everybody's horse."

Burke said he expects to maintain his hectic pace as long as he keeps enjoying it. That satisfaction grew even deeper recently when Burke's son Brad, a University of Florida graduate, joined the operation.

"Now I know what my father meant when he told us how happy he was to have his sons in the business with him," Ron said.

"I used to do this for the money, but now, I do it for the enjoyment. I enjoy this sport more than ever. I appreciate the horses more than ever."

Tetrick joins the 14,000-win club

On a gorgeous Monday (Sept. 2) Tim Tetrick had plenty to smile about as he became the seventh driver in the history of harness racing to steer 14,000 winners when Reload captured the $10,000 fourth leg of the Kentucky Wildcat Series for 3-year-old filly trotters in 1:54.4.

The 42-year-old has been a bright light in this sport since he picked up the reins as a youngster in his native state of Illinois. All Tetrick ever wanted was to be a successful driver and he was supplied with the building blocks for that dream through his father Tom.

Tom, however, could not create what his son would become. That was up to Tim. The Hall of Famer has proven he was up to the task and has established astounding numbers to reach the pinnacles he sought during his youth. He collected his first victory at 16 in 1998 with Travel Legacy N at the Paris County Fair in the Prairie State.

Tetrick's purse earnings of $274.4 million are only in arrears of the legends John Campbell and David Miller. He joins another elite club with Dave Palone, Tony Morgan, Aaron Merriman, Herve Filion, Cat Manzi and Miller as the only pilots to guide that number of horses to the winner's circle.

Tetrick, referred to as the "Bionic Man" due to hip replacement surgery in 2008, broke the number of victories in one season in 2007 with 1,189 that was set by Walter Case, Jr. in 1998 with 1,078.

Market Share and Tetrick captured the 2012 Hambletonian. The reinsman has also collected four Meadowlands Pace trophies, two North America Cup finals and been at the controls behind Horse of the Year Chapter Seven. Other champions Tetrick has guided to glory include Horse of the Year Shartin N, Captaintreachorous, JK She'salady and Geocentric.

The filly Reload is by Greenshoe and out of First Class Filly.

Reload was bred by Al Libfeld and is trained by her co-owner, Tony Dinges. The filly now sports a resume of 9 2-0-2 and is also owned by Dein Spriggs. Her final time of 1:54.4 was a new lifetime mark.

Reload paid $4.40 to win as the favorite.

George Brennan collects 12,000th career driving victory

George Brennan added his name to an exclusive list of drivers to have 12,000 lifetime victories after he won the fifth race on Monday night (Sept. 2) at MGM Yonkers Raceway with Night Hawk.

Brennan needed two tallies coming into the card to hit the milestone and got them in back-to-back fashion, prevailing in the fourth with 10-year-old Bettor's Delight gelding Ozone Blue Chip in 1:51.4 and then in the next with Night Hawk, a 5-year-old gelded son of Betting Line, in 1:52.2.

The 57-year-old Brennan is just the ninth driver based in North America to enter the 12,000-career win club, joining Dave Palone, Tony Morgan, Aaron Merriman, Herve Fillion, Cat Manzi, David Miller, Tim Tetrick (who won his 14,000th earlier today at The Red Mile) and George Napolitano, Jr. Brennan's horses have earned over $208.2 million, putting him seventh all-time on that list.

This year at Yonkers, Brennan is second in the standings in both number of wins and for earnings, trailing only leader Jason Bartlett.

Along with the all-stakes card on Saturday (Sept. 7), Yonkers Raceway will be offering bettors a huge opportunity. A special mandatory payout $1 Pick-5 wager will be offered starting in race 5 with the MGM Yonkers International Trot. The bet includes $50,000 in carryover money funded by the Standardbred Owners Association of New York. In conjunction with the USTA's Strategic Wagering Program, the pool will be guaranteed at $150,000 and free past performances will be available here courtesy of TrackMaster.

Those attending the races live are invited to enjoy a buffet-style meal in the Empire Terrace dining room at $80 per person. No reservations are required.

MGM Yonkers Raceway will race through Thursday this week, then will be dark on Friday prior to Saturday's stakes-laden program. Post time is at 7 p.m. (EDT) other than on Saturday, as that card will get going at noon.

'Legendary' and Nijinsky to meet in Simcoe Saturday

This season's top two sophomore pacing colts are set to clash in Saturday's (Sept. 7) $167,000 Simcoe Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Pepsi North America Cup winner Nijinsky and Meadowlands Pace winner Legendary Hanover lead a field of 11 for the Simcoe, one of six stakes on Saturday's 12-race card. Both star colts are trained by Anthony Beaton and will meet for the first time since the Meadowlands Pace on July 13.

The score between the stablemates this season is 1-1, with each having taken one of the sport's classic events for 3-year-old pacers.

Nijinsky sports a near-perfect record of eight wins from nine starts this season. The son of Bettors Delight has victories in the NA Cup, Somebeachsomewhere Stakes, OSS Gold Mid-Season Challenge and Meadowlands Pace elimination all to his name.

Louis-Philippe Roy will reunite with Nijinsky, starting from post 8 for owners West Wins Stable, John Fielding and Mark Dumain.

Legendary Hanover is the sport's fastest horse this season, having taken a mark of 1:46.2 in the Cane Pace on Aug. 3. The son of Huntsville was fourth in the NA Cup before winning four of his next five starts, including the Meadowlands Pace and Empire Breeders Classic.

With his speedy wins in the Meadowlands Pace and Cane, Legendary Hanover is the only 3-year-old pacer to have multiple wins in sub-1:47.

James MacDonald teams with 'Legendary' from post 6 for owners Eric Good, West Wins Stable and Mark Dumain.

The $167,000 Simcoe 3-Year-Old Open goes as race 7 (9:32 p.m. ET).

Similar to the colts, the season's leading 3-year-old pacing filly Its A Love Thing will also be in Simcoe Stakes action on Saturday.

The Dave Menary trained Its A Love Thing will go for her eighth win in 10 starts this season, taking on seven rivals for a purse of $152,000. The daughter of Bettors Delight has been cleaning up in both the Grand Circuit and sires stakes, earning over $633,000 in 2024 for owners Eric Good, Thomas Biederman, Josh Green and Rich Lombardo Racing.

Its A Love Thing's accomplishments this season includes victories in the Fan Hanover, Jerry Silverman Memorial, SBOA, multiple OSS Gold events and the Kentucky Sires Stakes.

James MacDonald partners with Its A Love Thing from post 6.

The Simcoe 3-Year-Old Filly Pace is carded as race 9 (10:16 p.m. ET).

The Grand Circuit action on Saturday also features a pair of divisions for both the Champlain 2-Year-Old Open Pace and Champlain 2-Year-Old Filly Pace.

Each division will go for north of $80,000 and they are carded as races 2, 3, 6 and 8.

Post time for the 12-race card is 7:10 p.m.

Goshen Yearling Sale is next week

The 2024 Goshen Yearling Sale will be held at noon on Monday (Sept. 9) at the Mark Ford Training Center in Middletown, NY, and the site is currently undergoing the final touches to help make sure this year's buying and selling experience is the best it can be. The facility is expecting a sizable crowd with the number of excellent New York-bred prospects for sale that day.

Catalogs are still available at most tracks and training centers in the northeast and can be downloaded right from the GYS website (goshenyearlingsale.com).

Live video of the entire sale and online bidding will be available through Cattle In Motion. Their website (cattleinmotion.com) is your one-stop shop for everything pertaining to the GYS but you will need to register in advance of the sale for all the available benefits.

This includes creating an account, completing the lifetime verification (which gives you access to all future online auctions) and then signing up for the Goshen Yearling Sale. The whole process takes about five minutes and when you are done, it will show "you are eligible to bid on this auction" at the bottom of the page.

You can also download their mobile app for your phone at the Apple App Store or the Google Play Store.

Should you need any assistance or have any questions concerning this sale registration, please call 888-554-8437 or email info@cattleinmotion.com.

This feed will be available through your Cattle In Motion account and include live and pre-recorded video of all the horses in the sale.

Once you are registered you can also sign up for sale updates that can be received via text or email or both. These will be sent out in real time as they become available right through the end of the sale.

The sales facility is located at 90 Slaughter Road, Middletown, NY, which is within a ninety-minute drive of many major race tracks and training centers in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, making it a very convenient location.

Britflix videos now streaming

Yearling videos for Brittany Farms' Lexington Selected consignment are now available on the farm's video portal and may be viewed by clicking here. This will be the final season of the streaming yearling videos that have come to be known as "Britflix," as the farm will close at the end of the year.

Brittany manager Art Zubrod said this final yearling offering "is certainly among our best-ever consignments in terms of pedigree, conformation and athleticism."

All yearlings are dual-eligible, to their sire's own sire stakes program and to the Kentucky Sire Stakes, which has quickly risen to become one of the industry's most lucrative and popular events.

Leading the way is the first crop of pacers by Brittany's own Perfect Sting p,2,1:49.2; 3,1:48.1 ($1,808,147), the first horse in harness racing history to win the Breeders Crown as both a 2- and 3-year-old and be voted the Dan Patch champion both years.

The striking stallion is bred to be a sire of speed, as he is a son of world champions Always B Miki (1:46) and Shebestingin (1:47).

Zubrod noted that trotters, including those by Chapter Seven and his son Walner, are not to be missed. "They're the types of horses you'll find competing on the first Saturday in August at The Meadowlands," Zubrod said.

Brittany's consignment includes seven first foals, including a Bold Eagle filly from a Walner daughter of Oaks winner Lifetime Pursuit; a Perfect Sting colt from a sister to millionaire Blue Diamond Eyes; and a Walner colt from 2 and 3YO stakes winner Sister's Promise.

Siblings and close relatives to a bevy of stakes standouts – like Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old champion Special Way, Secret Agent Man and Odds On Platinum – are also in the mix.

Malignity grabs Graduate Series Gold

With a brush and a crush, Malignity won the P.E.I. Colt Stakes Graduate Series Gold final, presented by Kays Wholesale, Saturday evening (Aug. 31) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

Paul Langille trains and drives the son of Malicious as he came first-over and captured the $13,000 Gold final in 1:53.3 for Nova Scotia owners Debbie Francis, Roseanne Langille and Chantell Langille. Fern Hill General (driven by Brodie MacPhee) was second while pacesetter Island Beach Boy (Adam Merner) garnered third.

The $10,000 P.E.I. Colt Stakes Grassroots final provided driver Damian MacLellan the biggest win of his young career when Howmac Maximus went all the way in 1:54.3 for trainer Tammy Collings and owner Brett MacDonald of Freelon, ON. Outrageous Show (Brady Sweet) was second best ahead of Brookdale Johnny (Langille).

Trainer Jennifer Doyle tripled on the night winning with Sharky (1:56.2) in race 7 and Luckiestmanalive (1:54.2) in race 14, both in line to MacLellan with the driving triple, along with First Glance (1:54) for driver David Dowling in race 12.

Ashley Gamester doubled up from her barn with Silken Sweet (1:58) in race 4 and Century Invictus (1:57.1) in race 6, with Jason Hughes in the driver's seat for the pair.
