Francesco Zet wins Swedish Triple Crown

A dramatic Derby win on Sunday made the 4-year-old the first Triple Crown winner in 34 years.

by Thomas Hedlund

Adam Ström stalltz

Francesco Zet (Örjan Kihlström) won Sunday's $800,000 Derby final at Jägersro to claim the Swedish Triple Crown.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Francesco Zet (Father Patrick) was the undisputed king of the 4-year-old Swedish bred trotters ahead of the $800,000 Derby over 2,640 meters at Jägersro on Sunday (Sept. 4) afternoon.

The Daniel Redén-trained horse was on his way to claiming the "Swedish Triple Crown" after winning the $200,000 Kungapokalen and $240,000 Sprintermästaren.

The last time a Swedish trotter succeeded in winning all three stakes races was when Gaston Pride did it in 1988. Many have tried since, but failed along the way.

In last year's Derby at Jägersro, Önas Prince came to the race after victories in the Kungapokalen and the Sprintermästaren, but in the Derby, Calgary Games put an end to the Triple Crown dreams.

This year's Derby story was similar to the 2021 edition. Tim Nurmos presented an undefeated trotter, a little bit from out of nowhere, in the eliminations and Lulius Boko became the second choice in the final.

Francesco Zet's trainer, Daniel Redén, claimed his first Derby victory.

With a post position inside of Francesco Zet, the excitement level and expectations ahead of the Derby were high and as the car left the 12-horse field, Lulius Boko flew to the front while favorite Francesco Zet had to settle in third over.

Björn Goop is a smart driver and he noticed that Örjan Kihlström seemed satisfied with his position in third over, so Goop saved some power in front behind Lulius Boko, in order to step on the gas pedal at the back stretch, a half mile to go.

At that point, Francesco Zet attacked three wide and the 4-year-old Father Patrick son showed speed that is rarely seen in races. He flew up the back stretch and landed outside of leader Lulius Boko when the last turn approached and just as that happened, it seemed like the leader gave up.

A bad gait from Francesco Zet with a quarter of a mile to go made the fans at Jägersro lose their breath, but Kihlström saved the situation and Francesco Zet was too strong this day in Malmö. Without pulling the ear plugs, Kihlström enjoyed the home stretch as Francesco Zet became the first Swedish Triple Crown winner in 34 years.

Francesco Zet is very much connected to Jimmy Takter, who visited Jägersro Sunday. Father Patrick is one of Takter's biggest stars and Francesco Zet's mother Shaqline (purchased in USA by Redén in 2013) won four races for Takter before she was exported to Redén's barn in Sweden in 2015.

Francesco Zet is Shaqline's first offspring and her latest foal, born this year, is by Googoo Gaagaa. She is now in foal with Father Patrick again.

Trainer Daniel Redén had never won The Derby before. His Don Fanucci Zet was runner up behind Hail Mary in 2020 and this was a victory longed for in his career.

“Francesco Zet had a great chance making this dream come true, but all races must be raced and we saw some really great performances from other horses in the eliminations, so I had to gamble a bit with his shoes today and it seems like I gambled hard by removing the bell boots. This horse knows what he’s doing and I can honestly say that I’ve never trained a horse with his capacity or mentality before. It’s like I’m waiting for him to step out of a costume and there’s a human, or something like a human, inside of him. Lina Persson, who takes care of him every day, is the real star of this show. This victory is hers,” said an unusually calm Redén after the race.

Francesco Zet won in a mile rate of 1:55.4 over 1.6 miles and Lulus Boko finished second. Edibear followed as third after a pocket trip.

Francesco Zet has 11 consecutive wins, is 15 out of 17 in his career and has booked $1,388,000 on his bank account. Redén implied that this might have been Francesco Zet’s last start in his career. The breeders are eager to use the horse’s services as a stallion and Stall Zet will make a decision about the horse’s future very soon, but it’s very possible that Francesco Zet will show up at the tracks again when it’s time for Breeders Crown later this fall.

LARA BOKO FROM THE LEAD

Timo Nurmos had six shots when the $400,000 Derbystoet over 2,140 meters was held at Jägersro on Sunday (Sept. 4) afternoon and the bettors were right on target when they predicted who would win the race.

Lara Boko (Djali Boko) won the Oaks as a 3-year-old and had showed all the better condition during the season as a 4-year-old. After a runner up performance in Stochampionatet in July, she impressed in her Derbystoet elimination and became the first choice in Sunday's final.

Driver Mika Forss aimed for the lead and after 300 meters the duo hit the front as stablemate Seniorita Tokio let Lara Boko take control of the field.

With the favorite in front, nothing much happened and Lara Boko proved to be the best lady this day. A well-deserved win for the entourage around the horse and Mika Forss was very happy after the big win in mile rate 1:55.3 over 1.3 miles.

"Lara Boko acted much more calm today, compared to the prior race and after the pretty easy first 500 meters I thought that we ought to have a good chance winning the race. This is a really good horses and I had plenty of power to use in the end," said Forss.

Seniorita Tokio followed as runner up and the Nurmos stable took the two most noble medals in the race. Flemming Jensen trained Glorius Rain finished third.

Lara Boko's breeder Boko Stables and her trainer Nurmos finished second in the $800,000 Derby some hours later and this became a memorable racing day for Boko Stables' manager John Bootsman.

"It's these kind of races that tell if you have succeeded as a breeder and right now I'm very relieved," said Bootsman after the Lara Boko victory.

Lara Boko won the $560,000 Oaks last season and finished second to Glamorous Rain in the Breeders Crown final in November. She has won 10 out of 18 starts and her lifetime earnings reached $7,450,000 on Sunday afternoon.

DUSKTODAWN BOOGIE BEST IN FINNISH DERBY

The $240,000 Derby in Finland was held at Verno racetrack on Saturday (Sept. 3) afternoon and after a thrilling home stretch, the trophy landed in trainer Kenneth Danielsen's possession.

Danielsen drove his 4-year-old mare Dusktodawn Boogie (Lexus Font) and the duo left second over for position first over as leader Shackhills Twister tried to steal the race in front.

Dusktodawn Boogie came to Finland after a successful winter meeting in Paris, where Jean-Michel Bazire trained the mare and she was the favorite to win Saturday's Derby in Finland.

And her strength played an important role as she disarmed leader Shackhills Twister shortly ahead of the wire, but a third horse wanted to fight for the win. Nurmos trained Velvet Gold flew fourth wide over the stretch and a photo separated her from winner Dusktodawn Boogie.

The mile rate was 1:57.4 over 1.6 miles and Danielsen now aims high with his horse.

BARONCINI'S STAR IMPRESSED

Mauro Baroncini trains Italian 3-year-old dominant Dimitri Ferm (Nad al Sheba) and on Sunday (Sept. 4) afternoon, Andrea Farolfi drove Dimitri Ferm to outstanding victory in the $154,000 Gran Premio Carlo Marangoni in Milan, Italy.

Farolfi hit the lead with his horse and Dimitri Ferm just flew away from his opponents and won in a mile rate 1:56.4 over 1.3 miles.

Dimitri Ferm has collected big trophies earlier in his career. The $154,000 Gran Premio Nazionale and the $154,000 Gran Premio Tito Giovanardi have been claimed before and it seems like Baroncini trains the favorite in the Italian Deby later this fall.

Saturday's $154,000 Campionato Europeo in Cesena was determined after a race off between two horses from the same owner and trainer. Mattia Orlando trained Usain Töll (Googoo Gaagaa) won the first heat while Cokstile claimed heat two, whereupon a third heat had to determine a winner.

Cokstile did the heavy job outside of his stablemate and won after a strong effort in 1:54.2.

ALLAIRE WON AND LOST AT VINCENNES

Philippe Allaire was the trainer of the day ahead of Vincennes' Saturday (Sept. 3) race card and he had a nice afternoon in Paris, even if two of his top trotters were beaten.

Five-year-old Hohneck came to the lead as first choice in the $120,000 Prix Jockey, but he couldn't defend himself when outside trotter Hip Hop Haufor challenged on the outside. And far outside, Bazire trained Hooker Berry (Booster Winner) finished quickly and claimed the title in mile rate 1:57 over 1.6 miles.

Allaire had the favorite in the 3-year-old race the $120,000 Prix Jacques de Vauloge as crop dominant Just A Gigolo entered the track of Vincennes. Just A Gigolo seemed to have the race under complete control as the field turned for home, but big upset Juninho Dry (Carat Williams), trained by Sébastien Guarato, was really strong over the stretch and Just A Gigolo was bested shortly ahead of the wire. The mile rate was 1:59.2 over 1.6 miles for Juninho Dry.

Fabrice Souloy-trained Jamaica Turbo (Charly du Noyer) hit the lead in the $130,000 Criterium des Pouliches for 3-year-old fillies and well-merited Jazzy Perrine could never challenge seriously for the win, even if the finish was strong.

Jamaica Turbo, driven by Franck Nivard, came home in a mile rate of 1:59.1 over 1.6 miles.

Four-year-old mares battled in the $120,000 Prix Gaston de Wazieres and Eric Raffin drove Philippe Moulin trained Inoubliable (Prodigious), who sprinted to a safe win after a cover trip and the Prodigious mare continues to collect big trophies in her career. As a 3-year-old she claimed the titles in the $120,000 Prix Gelinotte, $120,000 Prix Roquepine, $120,000 Prix Ozo and $130,000 Criterium des Pouliches.

And then it was time for Allaire to enter the winner's circle. The 4-year-old colts had their show in the $120,000 Prix Gaston Brunet and when favorite Idao de Tillard went off stride at an early stage, Allaire trained duo Izoard Vedaquais and Italiano Vero (Ready Cash) battled for victory. Izoard Vedaquais had some advantage when the field entered the stretch, but behind him, stablemate Italiano Vero had plenty of power to use. Italiano Vero hit the wire first and this was the colt's first win since November last year. The mile rate over 1.6 miles was 1:57.2.

Records galore on Harrah's Philadelphia's 2-year-old Pennsylvania Sires Stakes Championship card

by PHHA / Harrah's Philadelphia

Harrah's Philadelphia played host to its richest racing card of the year on Sunday afternoon (Sept. 4), with $1.3 million on the line in four $252,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes Championships for 2-year-olds, their complementary $50,000 consolations, and a $40,000 Invitational among many other overnight events.

Three track records were set or equaled, including the all-age track record of 1:47.3, and a world record was set and another tied during a spectacular program.

Below is a summary of the Championships and consolations grouped by divisions; the summary of the Invitational is at the end.

Beach Cowgirl (Joe Bongiorno) set a 1:50 world record on a five-eighths mile track while winning the $252,000 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes Championship for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Sunday at Harrah's Philadelphia.

TWO-YEAR-OLD PACING FILLIES

Beach Cowgirl, in her fourth lifetime start, rewrote the world record for this division on a 5/8-mile track when she won her Championship in 1:50, with Joe Bongiorno "sitting chilly" behind her.

Bongiorno left strongly from the rail with the daughter of Captaintreacherous–Stonebridge Sundae, trained by his sister Jennifer, and the rest of the field took back behind her in near-lineup fashion, wanting no early fight with the powerful filly. Beach Cowgirl was able to set fractions of :26.3, :55.1, and 1:22.4 under a hold, then sprinted home in :27.1 to knock a tick off Allstar Rating's world record, set at Pocono in 2013. Also falling were the track (1:50.3, Economy Terror, 2011) and stake record (1:51, Blue Diamond Eyes, Pocono, 2020). Top prelim point-winner My Little Captain was 6¾ lengths back in second, just ahead of first-over Proud Mary.

Beach Cowgirl won her debut at The Meadows in 1:51, then paced in 1:50.2 at Pocono in her second start. A 49-day layoff due to sickness came next, but the super filly bounced back with a measured 1:51.4 win at Philly last week, which set her up for her amazing record mile on Sunday for owners Joseph Di Scala Jr., Zippett Racing Stable, Scarlett Stables LLC, and JAF Racing LLC while putting her earnings above $208,000 in just the quartet of trips behind the gate.

In the consolation, the Stay Hungry–Zellweger Bluechip filly Ginger Tree Coco overcame the difficult tuck-then-first-over journey, hitting a swifter gear on the turn and then drawing off by 1¼ lengths over Beltara while taking a new mark of 1:52.4. David Miller handled the Steve Cook trainee for Sam Beegle, Ginger Tree Ventures LLC, Knollview Stable, and Bob Reber Jr.

TWO-YEAR-OLD TROTTING FILLIES

The name is Bond – and she confirmed herself as a major trotting talent by coming home in :55.4 - :27.3 to take her Championship event in 1:54.3, and going easily.

Trainer/driver Åke Svanstedt headed right to the lead with the daughter of Southwind Frank–Boccone Dolce from post two, forcing tucks in the :28.1 first quarter. Like Beach Cowgirl a race after her, Bond had inspired such respect in recent weeks that no one bothered her on the lead, allowing Svanstedt to loaf to the half in :58.4. Second choice Fashion Annie, one of the early tuckers, came uncovered and pressed the leader through a three-quarters in 1:27 and around the turn.

Nearing head stretch Svanstedt asked his filly to shift into a higher gear, and what was an exciting contest turned into a runaway, with the high velocity last quarter leaving Fashion Annie (who has a mark of 1:53.4) four lengths behind. Now with four wins and two seconds in six starts, Bond is the type of filly who looks destined for better things, and soon, having already won over $218,000 for Åke Svanstedt Inc., Little E LLC, and L Berg Inc.

Jim Marohn Jr. made a rare Philly appearance and drove the winner for trainer/owner D.R. Ackerman.

TWO-YEAR-OLD TROTTING COLTS

The Father Patrick–Sherrys Lady colt Once In A Lifetime set a track record of 1:54.2 in winning his Championship, knocking two-fifths off the old mark set by Coach K Hanover last year, and giving driver Tim Tetrick his fourth Sire Stakes Championship of the weekend. The win raised his career total to 18, tying him with Yannick Gingras behind Dave Palone's 39 PASS Championship wins.

TWO-YEAR-OLD PACING COLTS

The only “upset” in the four Sire Stakes Championships came when the Heston Blue Chip–Bettor Be Steam colt Fulton powered to the lead in front of the stands and, at 2-1, went on to defeat favored Annapolis Hanover in 1:51.3.

Lousain Bolt had the speed of his “namesake” to reach the lead by the :26.2 quarter, but after that marker came moves from Bugaboo Lou, Fulton, and Annapolis Hanover in that order, with the first two successful in making the top before the :54.1 half but Annapolis Hanover not and left out to dry. Dexter Dunn kept Fulton rolling down the back under pressure from the chalk, hitting the three quarters in 1:21.4 and then drawing clear from mid-far turn. It was a mad scramble for second, with Annapolis Hanover, who looked like he’d be lucky to get a check late on the final bend, coming back with rare gameness to be next, though four lengths back.

Fulton, now a four-time winner with over $232,000 on his card, is trained by Linda Toscano for Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Bottom Line Racing LLC.

In the consolation, Lyons Stealth was the favorite after winning three Stallion Series divisions (and an Arden Downs division) but chose to come to Philly for the PASS consolation. He set the pace, but second choice Captain Mikey, after sitting in the two-hole behind him, pulled out with three-sixteenths to go and went on to victory by 1¼ lengths while equaling his mark of 1:53.4; longshot Can't Sway Me also got by the pacesetter late. Captain Mikey is a Captaintreacherous – Lorrie Please gelding driven by Dexter Dunn for trainer Jake Huff and owners Our Three Sons Stables LLC and Rosalie Huff.

#SENDITIN INVITATIONAL PACE

Maybe not “upstaging” the impressive 2-year-olds, but certainly worthy of extended notice, was Allywag Hanover's 1:47.3 equaling of Wiggle It Jiggle It's all-age Philly track record and the equaling of the 1:47.3 world record for older pacing geldings, notched by Bigtown Hero in 2014.

Continuing a big day for sire Captaintreacherous, Allywag Hanover, handled by Tim Tetrick, left strongly from the rail, and going to the first turn it appeared that a post lineup might be coming. However, Ruthless Hanover, in rein to Daniel Dube, literally grabbed onto the bit and zoomed up to challenge, with the pair reaching the quarter in an astounding :25 – no official fractions records are kept, but that's likely to be close to the fastest ever on a three-turn oval, as were mid-splits of :51.4 and 1:19.1. Allywag and Tetrick were waiting in the two-hole, and come the lane the pair took off under little urging, reaching the wire in the historic 1:47.3, 4¼ lengths to the good of the game Ruthless Hanover.

After two seconds to Bulldog Hanover sandwiched around a third behind Jimmy Freight to start his 5-year-old campaign, Allywag Hanover has now won four in a row for trainer Brett Pelling and the Allywag Stable. While Bulldog Hanover has looked like a horse for the ages for months, the 2021 Older Pacer of the Year, now with $1,334,780 earned lifetime, may be ready to re-enter the company of the very fastest pacers very soon.

Pennsylvania

by PHHA / Pocono

Rain awaited the top point-earners in the Pennsylvania Stallion Series preliminary rounds as they came to The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono on Monday afternoon (Sept. 5) to contest their eight $40,000 Championship events. The sloppy track all but ensured that there would be no stakes records taken over the normally speedy Pocono oval.

There were several other notable trends during the eight Championships. On the negative side, besides no records, there were no repeat winners from age 2 to 3, and no prelim point-leaders carrying on to a title. On the more positive side, there were five winning favorites (including all four males), five horses sustaining their lead from the half to the wire, six exciting stretch drives resulting in photo finishes (two noses, two heads, and two necks), and Pocono's leading driver, Matt Kakaley, winning three of the Championship races, all with fillies and all in photos (he tacked on a fourth win in an overnight by a neck).

All of the above coalesced in the one winner who threatened a stakes standard, the Googoo Gaagaa sophomore trotting filly What Should I Goo (named well for the conditions), who after setting the pace defeated pocket-sitter Chake by a head in 1:54.3, a new mark and just a fifth off her division's PaStS finals record, set at Pocono first by Choose Happy in 2013 and tied by Jezzy's Legacy in 2019. The 1-9 favorite won for Kakaley, trainer Jennifer Bongiorno (the day after her prize pupil Beach Cowgirl set a 1:50 world record in her Sires Championship at Philly), and owner Kenneth Jacobs.

The head separation at the finish for What Should I Goo was a positive luxury margin for Kakaley, whose other two Championship wins were by a nose. In the two-year-old filly pace, held right after What Should I Goo's race, the Stay Hungry – Armbró Cinnamon filly Nevertellmethodds, the 5-2 third choice, came from right behind favored front-stepper Little Lady J to edge her by the smallest of margins in 1:53.2, her fastest victory, for trainer Christopher Beaver, co-owner with Anastasia Meshkova.

Also cutting it very fine was the Father Patrick–Hillarmbro freshman trotter Heaven Hanover, who set all the pace and clung to a nose victory for Kakaley and owners S R F Stable, Rick Wahlstedt, Heights Stable, and AMG Stable Inc. Heaven Hanover was also one of the very few Marcus Melander-trained trotters who will return $14.60.

The other filly contest also was decided in a picture, with two sophomore stablemates in the battle to the wire: the Sweet Lou filly Heartbreak Hotel getting a perfect steer from Dave Palone to edge Hood Party, her Nifty Norman stablemate, by a neck in 1:51.2, her lifetime best, for Let It Ride Stables Inc., Bottom Line Racing LLC, and Mac Nichol. Heartbreak Hotel paid $6.80 as the second choice.

The males provided the other two photo-winners, both triumphing as expected. The Captaintreacherous – Love Canal freshman pacing gelding Quixote came first-up to defeat Secret Captain by a neck in 1:53.2 for driver Tyler Buter and trainer Nifty Norman (a second Championship win); the latter is co-owner with Let It Ride Cooper Stables, Bottom Line Racing LLC, and Howard Taylor.

Using the engine as the method to a 1:51.2 head victory over Code Cracker was Quixote's sophomore counterpart, the Sweet Lou colt Jo Pa's Warrior, trained by Jim Campbell for the Emposimato Stables. Driver Tim Tetrick teamed with Jo Pa's Warrior to earn his fifth PA stakes triumph of the weekend after winning four Sire Stakes Championships, and allowed him to stay atop the all-time Stallion Series drivers win list with 10 such successes.

The two male trotting Champions provided no stress at all to the photo finish operator or the wagering public. The freshman International Moni – Aspidistra Hanover gelding Austral Hanover went to the top in front of the stands and won by 2¾ lengths in 1:56.4, lowering his record by a fifth, for driver Anthony MacDonald, trainer Tim Twaddle, and The stable Austral Hanover, while the Explosive Matter sophomore gelding Mrmayor Hanover used similar tactics in his 1:54.2, 4¼ length triumph for driver Jim Pantaleano, trainer Rod Bolon, and owners Douglas Dunbar and Frederick Woolford.

Bottled Lightning Inc.

Another week, another improbable, electrifying, jaw-dropping mile for Bulldog Hanover, who practically runs an assembly line for capturing lightning in a jar.

by Dave Briggs

Not long after Saturday's celestial electrical show and its accompanying grumbling seemed to deftly divert around Woodbine Mohawk Park at the last second as if divinely directed, trainer Jack Darling stood near the teletimer displaying its own light show.

Darling, dressed in a black shirt like a harness racing Johnny Cash, paused for a second to reflect on the ring of fire his Bulldog Hanover left behind him while dispatching nine top older pacers to win the $650,000 Canadian Pacing Derby. The seemingly effortless 1:46.4 clocking orchestrated by Dexter Dunn tied the fastest mile in both track and Canadian harness racing history.

Where just seven weeks prior, the horse's 1:45.4 world record — the fastest mile by any standardbred in history — brought tears to the eyes of a man not prone to big shows of emotion, now Darling seemed to be processing the latest in a string of incredible feats of speed with a whole lot of admiration, a touch of slightly-raised-eyebrow surprise and ample amounts of expectation.

No one knows better than Darling that Bulldog Hanover is capable of making the improbable possible.

"I didn't there would be a track record tonight," Darling said. "The track just wasn't lightning fast. It was a nice night, but the track wasn't lightning fast, so I didn't think they would go that much."

It was the fifth time in Bulldog Hanover's last seven pari-mutuel starts that the son of Shadow Play—BJ's Squall has posted a mile of 1:47 or faster.

Just let that sink in for a second. Five times in eight hard weeks of battling heavyweights, Bulldog Hanover has produced epic miles — including a string of four straight jaw-droppers at The Meadowlands that will go down in history as the most prolific period by a pacer in many moons. And remember, these aren't glass-jawed palookas Bulldog is slugging senseless.

1:46.1

Darling said his brute of a horse is simply blessed with the greatest set of lungs the trainer has ever seen. That, and a rippling bod and better-than-average smarts and a wickedly nice personality.

"If a horse can have a perfect personality, that's him. For a stud, he's very calm. Around the barn, he's perfect. Take him out to jog him and you couldn't ask for a nicer horse to jog. He just goes about his business, ears up. Training? He trains perfect and does exactly what you want. If you speak to him, he's gone. The big trouble is that once he gets going, he wants to stay going and it's a little hard to get him pulled down," Darling said.

It all makes Bulldog Hanover seem more like machine than beast.

Yeah, I know, there will never be another Pacing Machine like Cam Fella. But there's something decidedly un-equine about Bulldog Hanover; how he rarely tires and makes it all look so shockingly, perfectly easy.

Even giving away 1,000 t-shirts with Bulldog Hanover's face on them — a kiss of death before the race was paced if there ever was one — couldn't hex this hometown hero.

Bulldog Hanover is on a roll so prolific Darling never even considered the perils of testing the Racing Gods.

"I never thought about the superstition," he said. Instead, he spent part of the week fielding requests to put aside a shirt of two.

"People called me and texted me from all different places in the States, wanting me to send them a few t-shirts," Darling said.

Claus Andersen

Bulldog Hanover and his caretaker Johnny Mallia.

"The fans really do get into a horse like this. When anybody comes up to me, strangers, their eyes light up. You can see it. They really feel that this is something special."

And yet, I sense people are becoming so used to Bulldog Hanover's otherworldly abilities, they're expecting the magic to last forever.

Instead, Darling figures the unanimous #1 standardbred in North America has about eight more weeks of racing before returning full-time to the stallion barn at Seelster Farms in Lucan, ON that he visited part-time this past breeding season.

In the meantime, the man that picked the horse out for a mere $28,000 from Hanover Shoe Farms' exquisite consignment at the 2019 Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA, is going to try to cement as many memories as possible in his 69th year.

Though Darling isn't even hinting at retirement, he knows he's much closer to the end of his career than the beginning. When that day comes, what a sweet gold watch Bulldog Hanover will provide him. With each incredible performance, the 4-year-old stallion's stock — and his stud fee — trend ever skyward.

Claus Andersen

As Bulldog Hanover's racing career begins to edge toward closure, Darling said he's soaking up every second.

But neither Jack Darling nor his partner on Bulldog Hanover, Brad Grant, have the time to really think about all that breeding stuff now. They're too busy enjoying their profound good fortune and one hell of a horse.

"This is the ride of a lifetime. I've been around a long time and this is kind of a nice way to go out. I know I'm not going to top this, so I'm just going to try to enjoy it," Darling said.

But before The Bulldog is done, his trainer is itching to find out just how fast the horse can go.

"The most important thing is winning, but I'm still excited about Lexington and catching a nice day down there," Darling said, stopping, just for a moment, to allow himself the deepest of red clay dreams and thoughts of bottling lightning one more time before it's over.

"The fans really do get into a horse like this. When anybody comes up to me, strangers, their eyes light up. You can see it. They really feel that this is something special."

~ Jack Darling

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Logan Loney's first win one for the memory books, not the scrapbook

by Chris Lomon

He was there in body, but in mind and spirit, Logan Loney was in a much different place.

Throughout his time in high school, the then teenager from Lapel, IN, was a multi-sport athlete, a competitor who thrived on competition and excelled in almost athletic endeavor he undertook.

But a moment came – he can't recall the precise day or time – when Loney realized he'd much rather be somewhere else, a familiar spot that in many ways felt just like home.

"I got started pretty much when I was born. My dad [Rocky Loney] has been in racing most of his life and I kind of grew up at the barn. But I started getting into sports more than I did the horses, throughout middle school and high school. About halfway through high school, I realized I'd rather be at the barn more than anything. I was cutting practices so that I could be at the barn, so that told me about where I was happiest. After high school, I started working with my dad. So, that's how I ended up where I'm at."

“I always joke with my dad that the next time I take ‘Glaw’ out to the track I’m going to pull into the winner’s circle and get my picture taken.”

~ Logan Loney

It was in 2019 when Loney launched his driving career, winning three races and posting 10 top-three finishes in 33 starts. One year later, he found the winner’s circle on five occasions. That number grew to eight in 2022.

This year, he’s already surpassed that total and is less than $400 away from setting a personal-best mark in purse earnings.

“I would say my highlights so far would be with a couple of horses. Ivanna Ivy would definitely be one of them.”

A 5-year-old pacing daughter of Jeremes Jet—Iva Miracle, the $7,500 purchase at the 2018 Hoosier Sale delivered Loney several memorable moments on the track two years ago.

The duo teamed to win five races in 2020.

“She was tough, but she was the one who really taught me so much when I started driving. At one time, my dad told me I wasn’t quite there, skill-wise, to drive her. One day, he wasn’t going to be at the races, so I got to drive her. I ended up fourth, I think, with her, and after that, he let me keep driving her. And I kept learning with her. We ended up winning a fair final at Indianapolis with her. That’s probably one of the highlights for me.”

Another high point came this year when Loney recorded his first pari-mutuel win.

It was a rather unique, not-so-traditional victory, one that caught the now 22-year-old horseman by surprise.

On June 30, at Hoosier Park, Loney was in rein to Glawbanera, a 2-year-old son of JK Endofanera—Believeincarrye, bred by Galen Yoder and owned by James Reed.

Sent off at 9-2, the pair held a length advantage at the stretch call but crossed the wire second in the 1:54.2 mile.

End of story? Not even close.

“The day of it, I was excited to get the drive because ‘Glaw’ is probably the best 2-year-old we have right now. My dad trusting me enough to take him out there and drive him is pretty cool. He can leave really fast, so I put him on the front and I was waiting for someone to come and cover him up. But I just kept rolling along and around the final turn, I asked him for his best, and we just missed. I was ecstatic with how he raced. I was really happy.”

Although he didn’t know at the time, Loney was about to be even happier.

“A week later, the program comes out and it shows that he was moved up to first. I didn’t know that until I read it. That’s one of those stories you can look back on and shake your head at. I always joke with my dad that the next time I take ‘Glaw’ out to the track I’m going to pull into the winner’s circle and get my picture taken.”

Having a family member as part of the sport for decades has been a huge boost for Loney’s confidence in the race bike.

Helpful words have been plentiful over the years.

“There’s so much that I’ve learned from my dad, everything, really. But I would say what he taught me about patience really stands out. He taught me that sometimes it’s better to just sit and see how it shakes out rather than trying to do too much when I was driving, maybe forcing things I shouldn’t be. I look back and it seems like I was always in a hurry, but he taught me that in certain moments, waiting and seeing how things happen can be the difference between winning and losing. Some of that was telling me and other times, it was taking me off until I did what he had asked me to do.”

Just over 200 drives into his career, Loney is grateful for the successes he’s experienced, but motivated to chase after more.

He also has a plan in place for down the road.

“I’m most proud that we broke 10 babies this year and seven of them have taken records so far. I think that’s the best we’ve done. Short-term goals, I would like to get more catch drives. That’s what I want to do, to get into that side. Long term, I want to have my own stable, and do some catch driving. I’d also like to win a Sires Stakes. I haven’t done that. We’ve had to two in a final before, but we haven’t won it. I’d like to get there one day.”

Goals and objectives aside, Loney, who has found his own field of dreams, is simply grateful to be where he is today.

He hopes the best is yet to come.

“I don’t have many interests outside of racing. It takes up most of the time. But I love it. I tell my friends – a lot of them aren’t in the business – that I don’t have the luxury of having weekends off. Certain days, it feels like it is a 24/7 job. But when you are doing something that you love, it really doesn’t matter.”

Horse racing is a family business for caretaker Natasha Steacy

by Austin Stanton / Ontario Racing

The horse racing industry creates more than 25,000 jobs in Ontario, and a common theme for thousands of people who work in racing is that it's a family business. Natasha Steacy is a perfect example.

Her grandfather, the late well-known horseperson Florian Rivest, got her into the business. Now she's married to leading Ontario Sires Stakes trainer, and 2020 Johnston Cup winner Shawn Steacy.

"I grew up in the horses and have loved it since day one," said Steacy. "My grandfather is the reason I'm involved. I have my broodmare and all the babies are named after him. One of the babies qualified today, with my uncle Mike Saftic driving, so it's one big family affair."

It's around 1 p.m. in the Steacy Racing Stable barn at First Line Training Centre in Milton, Ontario, and the Millgrove, ON, resident's morning illustrates how a caretaker's schedule changes day-to-day.

She was up early turning out horses, and then readied four babies to qualify at Woodbine Mohawk Park, including Flo Rider a 2-year-old Wheeling N Dealin trotter out of the mare Goinwiththelfo named after her grandfather.

On a race night, she would head back at the racetrack with her charges. Tomorrow, she'll prep horses to jog, or train rather than head to the track for schooling.

So, while every day her routine is slightly different, the goal is the same. Provide the best quality care for the horse, and they will return the effort in spades on the racetrack.

"We work with the horses every day," said Steacy. "So, when we get to meet them in the winner's circle after they have raced, after you have put all your hard work into them all week, the feeling is unreal."

Steacy has experienced that feeling countless times over the years as a lifelong member of the racing community. But she wants those outside of the industry to know how satisfying working as a caretaker is.

"This is a great business to be involved in," said Steacy. "It takes a lot of hard work, and a lot of dedication, but we need a lot more people to come into this business, with the same effect the rest of us have on it. That will make this business flourish."

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Ohio Sires Stakes veteran champions crowned

by Frank Fraas / OHHA

Despite a rainy night, Ohio's aged veterans shined on Saturday (Sept. 3) at Eldorado Scioto Downs. Smoking Jet, Slymar's Dragon, Refined and Charlie May were crowned champions in the $85,000 Veteran Championships.

In the first of the four $85,000 championships, Smoking Jet made it look it easy winning the title for aged horses and gelding trotters. Chris Page took the 5-year-old Triumphant Caviar gelding to the lead at the quarter pole and never looked back.

Smoking Jet, the even money favorite, covered the sloppy track in :27.1, :57.1, 1:25.3, tripping the wire in 1:54 winning by a length.

The win is the 14th of the year for Smoking Jet, who has now earned $301,532 in his career.

Smoking Jet is trained by Ron Burke and owned by the Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi and Page.

For Page, this Sires Stakes championship is unlike others he has won. "I own a small piece of this horse and winning as an owner is a different feeling."

Mission Accepted finished second with Shine All The Way third.

In the veteran championship for pacing mares, Slymar's Dragon and Dan Noble grabbed the lead going to the three-quarter pole and pulled away to win by two-lengths in 1:52.

Real Rockin Ravi was second while Spee Dee Shark was third.

The 5-year-old daughter of Dragon Again is trained by Andre Nared and owned by Lionel Watiker and Dr. Allie Stiegler who purchased the mare at the end of 2021.

The win is the biggest of Slymar's Dragon's career as well as the biggest in Nared's young training career, "I'm on cloud nine."

The win was the fifth of the year for Slymar's Dragon, who has now earned $198,676 in her career.

In the veteran championship for trotting mares, Refined rallied down the stretch to win by a head in 1:52.4.

Refined with Mitchell Cushing driving trailed the leader A Fancy Face by two-lengths around the final turn but kicked it into another gear and reeled in the winner at the wire.

Twentyfour K Magic finished third.

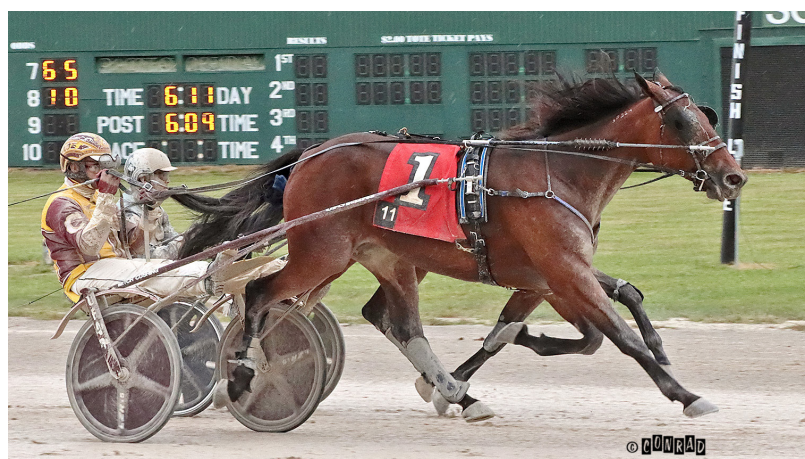

Refined is owned by Joyce McClelland and Larry Wills, and trained by Virgil Morgan Jr. The six-year-old mare won for the eighth time this year in 19 starts and pushed her career earnings to $583,140.

In the veteran championship for trotting mares, Refined (Mitchell Cushing) rallied down the stretch to win by a head in 1:52.4.

Morgan says the daughter of Uncle Peter is a gritty competitor.

"She was a grinder when she was younger, but now she has matured. She can win any way, on the front end or off the pace."

In the final championship of the night, Charlie May and Brett Miller went to the lead at the half-mile mark and held on down the stretch holding off Gold Digger King to win the Veteran Championship for horse and gelding pacers. Elver Hanover finished third.

Charlie May tripped the wire in 1:50.1 winning for the fifth time in 12 starts this year. The four-year-old son of McArdle has now earned $1,434,735 in his career.

Owner Don Tiger said he was a little concerned with the sloppy track. "Brett said Charlie was super and he had to let him roll. He just felt that good, even though the front was soft, and horses were tiring."

The Ohio Sires Stakes championship for 2- and 3-year Ohio breds is scheduled for Oct. 1 at Hollywood Gaming Dayton Raceway.

Stockade Seelster sets OSS freshman record in Gold Action at Woodbine Mohawk Park

by Austin Stanton / OSS publicity

Stockade Seelster's undefeated 2-year-old campaign continued in style on Saturday (Sept. 3) at Woodbine Mohawk Park, with the State Treasurer colt pacing the fastest mile in Ontario Sires Stakes history by a freshman.

Stockade Seelster left well from the outside post in the six-horse field, and Jody Jamieson piloted him to the front through an opening panel of :27.2.

He cut fractions of :55.4 and 1:23.1 before Jamieson pulled the plugs in the stretch to fend off a challenge from pocket sitter Ace of Aces. The Dr. Ian Moore trainee blasted home to cross the wire in 1:49.3.

"You see he's been great all along, and tonight Doc had him extra great," said Jamieson. "He was full of himself the whole way. Through the half a little faster than I wanted to go, and third quarter I let him pace a little bit, and he had more in the stretch so he's just an amazing animal."

Dr. Moore also trained State Treasurer, and Stockade Seelster's attitude through the early part of his career is reminiscent of his double millionaire father's.

"He's so much like his dad it's unreal," said Dr. Moore. "He's got very aggressive after a couple of starts just like his father did, and I actually jogged him yesterday with a pull strap on him that his father wore, just to try and settle him down a little bit."

Through six starts Stockade Seelster has earned $287,800, and he'll have the chance to add to that later this month in the $825,000 Metro Pace at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"There's always some late one that shows up, as it did last year with Monte Miki," said Dr. Moore. "But we'll await our chance, and hopefully he'll stay fresh and be ready to roll."

Sally Macdonald (Souris, PEI), and her nephew Paul Macdonald (Toronto, ON) own Stockade Seelster, who paid $2.10 for the win.

Ace of Aces finished second for the third straight outing. James MacDonald was driving the Bettors Delight colt for trainer Shawn Steacy. He is owned by Katherine Steacy (Lansdowne, ON), A K Malik Stable (Ottawa, ON), and Landmark 15 Racing Stable (Lansdowne, ON).

Trevor Henry piloted Moment Is Here through the final quarter in :26.3 to nab the final podium spot. The All Bets Off gelding is trained by Robert McIntosh. McIntosh owns with and Al McIntosh Holdings Inc (Leamington, ON), Frank D Baldachino (Harvey Cedars, NJ), and Mardon Stables (Loretto, ON).

Stockade Seelster (Jody Jamieson) paced the fastest mile in Ontario Sires Stakes history by a freshman, winning his Gold division on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park in 1:49.3.

Earlier in the evening Team McNair was victorious in the first OSS division in race 2. Whatchulookin At stepped up to the Gold level and won after a Grassroots score earlier this season.

The Hes Watching colt left well from post five and was settled into pocket position behind 4-5 favourite Write Me A Rose. Doug McNair popped out along the backstretch and appeared to be trying a first up move, before Sylvain Filion hit the gas pedal on Write Me A Rose and McNair slid his charge back along the pylons.

"Sylvain looked like he was just kind of grabbing up, and I thought maybe for a second he was waiting for me, and he obviously wasn't," said McNair. "The rest of the trip worked out. He was a good colt to follow."

McNair was content in the pocket as Write Me A Rose led the field through the half and three-quarters in :55.3 and 1:24.3. Whatchulookin At was able to find racing room as they were five wide in the lane and paced the final panel in :27.3 for the win.

"We weren't going a whole lot of speed around the last turn into the three-quarter pole," said McNair. "So, I was just praying for room, and we just barely got room. That's racing you just get lucky sometimes, it wasn't because of the drive."

His final time of 1:52.2 was the fastest Watchulookin At has stopped the timer in a win to date. It was his third win this season for co-owners Gregg McNair (Guelph, ON), Jim Newton, Saskatoon (SK) Bloomingwood Farms Ltd (Harriston, ON), and Paul L Kidd (Guelph, ON).

With the win the colt jumps into the top-10 of the Gold standings and will have a chance to secure his position in the $225,000 Super Final in the fifth and final Gold leg on October 5th, at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Shawn Steacy trainee Ahi Sunshine was second with Bob McClure driving. The Sunshine Beach colt has a record of 3-1-0 from 7 starts for owners Hudson Standrbrd Stb Inc (Hudson, QC), Allen J Sellen (St Catharines, ON), and Bridle Path Stables Ltd (Ossining, NY).

Santana Hanover continued his strong freshman campaign with his third place finish. Owned by Domenic Chiaravalle (Hamilton, ON), the Scott McEneny trainee now has five on the board finishes in six starts this season.

ROY WITH DRIVING DOUBLE IN OSS GOLD ACTION AT FLAMBORO DOWNS

Louis-Philippe Roy scored a driving double on Sunday (Sept. 4) as the province's top freshman trotters clashed in four $100,000-plus Ontario Sires Stakes Gold divisions at Flamboro Downs.

The nine-race card featured two divisions for colts and geldings, and two divisions for fillies. Roy swept the male half of the OSS quartet.

Race five opened the OSS action and Dws Point Man established a new lifetime mark of 1:57 to extend his winning streak to four races.

Under Roy's handling the My MVP gelding took advantage of inside position by going to the front from post two, cutting the first quarter in 28.3, and establishing a lead he wouldn't relinquish.

"He's a really handy little trotter that does everything right," said Roy. "I was expecting him to be really good here tonight. He already raced on a half-mile in Saratoga and was going around there good. I expected him to win or race good tonight, and he did just that."

The Richard Moreau trainee now has two Gold wins from two starts north of the 49th parallel, after earning a pair of conditioned wins at Saratoga earlier this season. He crossed the $100,000 barrier in earnings with the win tonight for owners Ecurie Csl, and 9174 7998 Quebec Inc (Sorel-Tracy, QC).

Dws Point Man paid $4.80 for the win.

Roy's second win of the night came with Doweddealinandwhy in the seventh race, after going off at 12-1, the longest odds in the field.

Drawing post five meant Roy was content to sit behind the early leaders, settling into fifth in the six-horse field through a half-mile trotted in :28.1 and :58.1.

When James MacDonald moved odds-on favourite Hasty Bid up on cover from fourth Roy went with him. Doweddealinandwhy moved three wide around the far turn, and powered down the lane, stopping the clock in 1:58.2 for the win.

"He felt really good," said Roy. "James was gaining ground, so I was waiting and waiting. There was not a point in the mile where he didn't feel good. In the last turn I kind of knew I was going to be a winner. When I tipped him, I didn't even ask him, just let him trot and he was good."

It was Roy's first time driving the Rob Fellows trainee who now has two wins and a runner-up in four Gold starts this season, good for $127,571 in total earnings. Yolanda Fellows (Rookwood, ON) and Irene Carey (Belgrave, ON) own the Wheelin N Dealin gelding.

In the female half of the OSS card, Mass Hysteria won her second straight Gold start in race six, and accomplished it in the same fashion as her first by leading gate to wire.

"She was always good on the front training down," said trainer Kyle Bossence. "I'm not one to tell the driver what to do, no matter what kind of race it is, I leave it up to them. So, I was hoping in the last Gold at Mohawk that Trevor would put her on the front, and he did, and on a half-mile it's even better to put her on the lead, and it worked out well."

The Muscle Mass filly moved over $100,000 in earnings for Bossence and co-owners Daniel Culp (Moorefield, ON) and William J Pendleton (Kenilworth, ON).

She crossed the wire in 1:58.4 and paid for $ 2.70 for the win.

Fillies closed out the OSS action in race eight, and Sweet Determination emerged victorious. Driver Doug McNair had his Looklikeeachpndale filly ready to go and she led from start to finish in a time of 1:58.

Ancaster, ON resident Patrick Laing trains and co-owns Sweet Determination with Dewitt Stables (Little Britain ON).

by Emily Gaskin / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana's top 3-year-old trotters and pacers were back in action at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino as the track played host to a special Labor Day card of live racing on Monday (Sept. 5). Six divisions of Indiana Sires Stakes were featured on the evening's 14-race card. Three-year-old trotting sensations Ponda Adventure and M-M's Dream both extended their win streaks to remain undefeated this season.

With an eight-race win streak on the line, Ponda Adventure looked every bit the part of a 1-5 favorite as he went gate to wire in the first $48,000 Indiana Sires Stakes division for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings. With regular pilot Trace Tetrick in the bike, Ponda Adventure went to the front and then simply coasted to the finish line to stop the timer in 1:53.

Trained by Erv Miller, Ponda Adventure notched his ninth win of the season from nine outs. Owned by Engel Stable, L.A. Willinger, and J.D. Graham, the gelded son of Swan For All—Wildflower pushed his seasonal earnings over the $200,000 mark with the victory. Ponda Adventure has now won 17 of 19 lifetime starts and $477,912 in lifetime purse earnings.

In the second division for the three-year-old trotting colts it was Dover In Motion and Ricky Macomber Jr. who returned to the winner's circle and delivered as the heavy favorite. Dover In Motion moved to the lead down the backside and never looked back en route to a 1:53.4 victory. Sent off as the heavy betting favorite, Dover In Motion was a five-length winner over Adamsville Road and Trace Tetrick.

Trained by Jamie Macomber, the son of Dover Dan—Keystone Sadie has now won 10 of 17 lifetime starts. It was the second win of the season for Dover In Motion.

Not to be outdone by male counterparts, M-M's Dream turned an impressive performance of her own to capture the $92,500 Indiana Sires Stakes for three-year-old trotting fillies in 1:53.1. Opting for a trip off the pace this week, M-M's Dream found a :27 final quarter to get up in the final strides and put a nose in front of the hard-charging Fleurie and Michael Oosting.

With the victory, the daughter of Swan For All—Trading Places has now won seven of seven starts this season and 13 of 15 lifetime starts. M-M's Dream is trained by Henry Graber Jr. and owned in partnership by Eleven Star Stables, Frank Baldachino and Hillside Stables.

Dean Gillette

Ponda Adventure (Trace Tetrick) remained unbeaten in 2022 with a 1:53 victory in his Indiana Sires Stakes test for 3-year-old trotting colts on Monday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

In the $97,000 three-year-old pacing colt division of the stakes action, it was Rip Wheeler and Brandon Bates who followed suit and extended a win streak of their own. Scoring his third straight victory, Rip Wheeler used a :25.1 closing quarter to track down Sure Thing Herman and Atlee Bender to get the win. Soaring Now and Joey Putnam also rallied well late but were forced to settle for second place honors.

Trained by Walter Haynes Jr., the gelded son of Rockin Image—Novascotia Hanover recorded his seventh win from 16 starts this season. Owned in partnership by Jeff Fought Racing and David Fought, Rip Wheeler has now seven of 18 lifetime starts while earning $186,749 lifetime.

The 3-year-old pacing fillies rounded out the stakes action on the card and it was Best Place To Be and Marvelous Marshia who found the winner's circle in their respective divisions. Best Place To Be left alertly from post nine and held off all challengers to win in 1:51. With driver Sam Widger in the sulky, Best Place To Be was a near two length winner over JJ Endofanera and Trace Tetrack.

Trained by Mike Roth, Best Place To Be has now won three of 10 seasonal starts. The daughter of Always A Virgin—Best Place is owned in partnership by William Rufenacht and Dm Stables LLC.

The biggest upset of the evening came when Marvelous Marshia and John DeLong captured the second division for 3-year-old pacing fillies. Using a very well-timed rally, Marvelous Marshia tracked down the heavily favored JK's Rollin Baby and Michael Oosting late in the lane to score in 1:50.2.

Trained by Roger Welch, the daughter of Always A Virgin—Honey's Luck recorded her fourth win of the season from 10 trips behind the gate. Owned in partnership by W. DeLong, W. DeLong, M. DeLong and M. Lewis-Veitia, Marvelous Marshia has now won seven of 20 lifetime starts.

Sons of Tellitlikeitis sweep Friday's ISS action

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Indiana Sires Stakes continued at Harrah's Hoosier Park with two $69,500 divisions for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings highlighting the 14-race Friday night (Sept. 2) card. It was round four of six for the freshman pacers as they compete to earn points for the Indiana Sire Stakes Super Finals as part of the Hoosier Champions card on Friday, Oct. 14.

The first division of Indiana Sire Stakes action served as the evening's sixth race on the card, where Hetolditlikeitwas would return to his winning ways. Leaving from post 10, Peter Wrenn and Hetolditlikeitwas got away mid-pack in sixth as Art It Is and Brandon Bates came out emerged from early speed duel through an opening quarter of :26. Art It Is would get a mild breather to the half in :54.4 before Trace Tetrack sent along heavily favored J B Gram first over to engage the leader. J B Gram would clear to the lead by two lengths on the turn and lead at three quarters in 1:23.2 as Peter Wrenn moved Hetolditlikeitwas to the outside third over with six lengths to make up on the leader.

In the stretch, Hetolditlikewas unleashed a ferocious :26.4 rally to nip J B Gram at the line by a half-length in 1:51.2 at odds of 5-1. David Allen Whoa and Joey Putnam staged a late rally from the backfield for third, with Art It Is holding for fourth to complete a Tellitlikeitis superfecta in the first division. Hetolditlikeitwas returned $12.20 for his backers at the mutuel windows.

Trained and co-owned by Alvin Miller along with Twila Harts, it was the third win in eight lifetime starts for the gelding, who now boasts a bankroll $86,795 following the victory. Bred by Indiana's leading breeder Victory Hill Farm, the 1:51.2 effort was a lifetime best for the gelded son of Tellitlikeitis out of the stakes winning mare, Fancy Desire.

Trainer Erv Miller would remain hot with one of his three training victories on the night coming with 2022 Fox Stake Champion, Coach Stefanos, turning in a lifetime best effort of his own in the 11th race second division. Leaving from post position six, driver Trace Tetrack put Coach Stefanos into play in the early stages, landing in the third position as Brandon Bates and Joker Rockwell opened the proceedings with a :27.2 opening quarter. Tetrack gave Coach Stefanos his cue up the backstretch, taking command through a half of :55.2 before leading to three-quarters in 1:23 two lengths up on his rivals.

In the lane, Coach Stefanos would fend off a surging Joker Rockwell with a gritty :27.2 final quarter to score the victory a half-length in front on the wire in 1:50.2. Why Not Now and LeWayne Miller rallied up the rail at odds of 68-1 to round out the trifecta. Scoring as the 5-2 second choice, Coach Stefanos returned $7.60 at the betting windows.

With the victory, Coach Stefanos pushed his bankroll into six figures, banking $128,835 for owners Kenneth Duffy, D & M Trading Li LLC and John Stefanos. Bred by Victory Hill Farms, it was the fifth win in seven career starts for the Tellitlikeitis gelding out of the Rocknroll Hanover mare, Watch N Be Watched.

by Kimberly French for Red Mile

On Monday (Sept. 5) the Red Mile canceled the remainder of its card due to inclement weather. The $80,000 fourth round leg of the Kentucky Championship series for sophomore male pacers, featuring Pebble Beach and I Did It Myway, and two $15,000 fourth round legs of the Golden Rod series for sophomore female and male pacers and trotters will be conducted tomorrow as non-wagering events at 11:30 a.m. Selfie Queen won the Championship division for 3-year-old filly trotters, while Taurasi and More Than Ever captured the two $30,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Commonwealth series for sophomore male and female pacers and trotters.

Selfie Queen and Dexter Dunn wrested the lead from Date Night (Andy Miller) prior to the half and stopped the clock in 1:51.2 Disclosure (Tony Hall) was third in this non-wagering event. Trained by Nancy Takter, the daughter of Muscle Hill—Lady Lakewood is a Kentucky Sire Stakes champion. She improves her record to 19 7-2-2 and boosted her bankroll to $337,150.

Bred by James Wilhite Jr., Selfie Queen won the second leg of this series on Aug. 14 in a lifetime best 1:51.1, but was fourth in the third leg on Aug. 23 to Eternal Lee.

The filly was a $170,000 2020 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase by Robert Leblanc, David Anderson and Ron Fielding.

Taurasi and Devon Tharps took the first $30,000 Commonwealth series division for 3-year-old male pacers in 1:50 for trainer Tony Alagna. Boston (Dunn) was second and Jabberwocky (David Miller) was third in the non-wagering event. The son of Racing Hill—Voluminous now sports a resume of 7 6-0-0 and

Amanda Stephens
Selfie Queen (Dexter Dunn)
won her $80,000 Kentucky
Championship on Monday at Red Mile in 1:51.2.

has earned $78,300 in purse money. The gelding is on a six-racing winning streak and has not lost since his career debut at Oak Grove Racing and Gaming on June 27. Taurasi did not race at 2.

The gelding competes as a homebred by M T Pockets Stables and Victoria Howard. He is the second foal out of his dam and is a half-sibling to Voluptuous (Sunshine Beach, $123,396).

More Than Ever and Dunn defeated Wallabee (Todd McCarthy) and Rock A Bye Lindy (A. Miller) in the $15,000 fourth round leg of the Kentucky Golden Rod series for 3-year-old trotting fillies in 1:54.1 that was on the pari-mutuel card. The daughter of Father Patrick—Anywhere With You collected her fourth consecutive win and swept all four legs of the Commonwealth series for her age, gait and sex.

Trained by Tony Alagna, More Than Ever is the fourth foal of racing age from her dam and the only one to break the $100,000 barrier. The filly has earned $146,171 and has a record of 17 5-4-4.

More Than Ever was bred by Brittany Farms and is owned by Brittany Farms and Riverview Racing.

She paid $3.76 to win.

BOURBON COURAGE UPENDS KILMISTER; STRONG POISON LETHAL AT RED MILE

On Sunday (Sept. 4) Bourbon Courage handed Kilmister, the undefeated Peter Haughton Memorial winner, his first loss and Strong Poison collected her third win in sire stakes action in the two $80,000 Kentucky Championship series fourth round legs for freshman male and female trotters and pacers. The 13-race card also included two $30,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Commonwealth series for 2-year-old female and male trotters and pacers and six $15,000 fourth round legs of the Kentucky Golden Rod series for freshman female and male trotters and pacers.

Amanda Stephens

Bourbon Courage (Trace Tetrick) won his $80,000 Kentucky Championship for 2-year-old trotting colts on Sunday at Red Mile in 1:53.1.

The division for 2-year-old male trotters was the last race on the card, but the adage of saving the best rang true here as Bourbon Courage (Trace Tetrick) overhauled leader Excalibur Bi (Andrew McCarthy) to score by a neck in 1:53.1 for Hall of Famer Erv Miller. The complexion of this contest changed before the field of nine left the starting gate as heavy favorite Kilmister (Brian Sears) went off stride. Todd McCarthy placed Point Of Perfect on the lead and they set the first fraction of 29 seconds. Excalibur Bi moved from third position to take the lead before the teletimer flashed :56.4 for the half-mile and led the field through three-quarters in 1:25. Dire Straits (Mathias Melander) had moved into second as Bourbon Courage advanced from seventh, then sixth to place himself in third.

Excalibur Bi proved to be a stubborn foe and it took the length of the stretch for Bourbon Courage to get his nose down on the wire in a new lifetime best. French Wine (Andy Miller) closed from sixth to finish third.

Kilmister, who won the first five starts of his career, was never a factor and came home last.

Bred by Carter Duer, Bourbon Courage (You Know You Do—Luv U All) is a half-sibling to last year's Hambletonian winner Captain Corey, (Googoo Gaagaa, $1.09 million). He commenced his career with a third-place finish in a $47,000 Indiana Sire Stakes leg at Harrah's Hoosier Park on July 16 and broke his maiden in the second leg of that series on July 30. The colt was fourth in the second leg of this series on Aug. 8 behind French Wine before returning to the Hoosier State to collect his second victory in a $68,000 third round leg of the Indiana Sire Stakes on Aug. 17.

Bourbon Courage rewrote the record books in Indiana when he was purchased for $225,000 by Bowie Racing, D & M Trading II, Anthony Lombardi and Erv Miller Racing Stable at the 2020 Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale. He was the most expensive yearling ever to go through the ring in that state and is from his sire's first crop.

Miller now only trains and no longer owns the colt.

Bourbon Courage now sports a record of 5-3-0-1 and has banked $119,290.

He paid $31.18 to win.

Strong Poison (Sears) outlasted Zanatta (A. Miller) to collect her second consecutive victory and third in the Championship series for freshman filly pacers by a nose in 1:51. Trained by Ron Burke, the daughter of Always B Miki—Fiyonce left from post position two and was second by a head to Zanatta as that rival led the field of five through the first quarter in 29 seconds. Strong Poison assumed command through a half-mile in :56 and continued on the lead through three-quarters in 1:23.4 when Zanatta in second.

It was a battle to the wire as the two fillies dueled down the stretch, but Strong Poison came out on top. Caviart Marcella (A. McCarthy) was along for third.

Bred by Steve Stewart, Charles Nash and Julie Nash, Strong Poison was purchased by Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva Stables, Knox Services and Beastly LLC for $50,000 at last year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The filly improved her record to 7 4-1-0 and she has now amassed $144,000 in purse money. She has performed admirably in this series as her only loss has been a second-place finish behind Twin B Joe Fresh in the second leg of this series in a 1:48.4 mile.

Strong Poison paid $2.34 to win as the heavy favorite.

The $30,000 Commonwealth division for 2-year-old filly pacers was won by Hungry For Love (Sears) and the split for freshman male trotters was won by Espresso (A. Miller)

The three $15,000 Golden Rod contests for freshman filly trotters were captured by Prideful (A. Miller), Late For Dinner (T. McCarthy) and Caris (A. McCarthy). The three events for 2-year-old male pacers were won by Mohatu As (Tony Hall), Prince Of Honor (T. McCarthy) and Country Dagger (Sears).

Sears had three wins in sire stakes events and T. McCarthy had three wins on the entire card.

Hoffman to receive Tom White Media Award

Hall of Fame Communicator Dean Hoffman has been named the Tom White Media Award winner for 2022 by the Little Brown Jug and the Delaware County Fair.

A native of Montgomery, OH, Hoffman worked at Walnut Hall Farm in Lexington, KY and groomed horses for a Grand Circuit stable while attending Ohio University, from where he obtained a journalism degree in 1971.

He worked in public relations and advertising agencies in varying capacities before being named executive editor of the United States Trotting Association's monthly magazine, Hoof Beats, in 1981. He held that position for almost 25 years, longer than any previous editor.

Hoffman wrote several books on harness racing, including: Yankeeland: The Farm the Kellers Built; Castleton Farm: A Tradition of Standardbred Excellence; Quest for Excellence: Hanover Shoe Farms: The First 75 Years; Harness Racing in New York State: A History of Trotter, Tracks and Horsemen and The Hambletonian: America's Trotting Classic.

Hoffman won the Harness Horsemen International's Media Award (1999), the Harness Tracks of America's Dan Patch Award (2003), the Harness Tracks of America's Stan Bergstein Messenger Award (2005), the Pinnacle Award (2006) and was named the American Horse Publication's Champion (2017).

In 2007, Hoffman received the sport's highest honor, induction into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame's Communicator's Corner.

Hoffman will be presented his award at a ceremony Tuesday evening in the Delaware Log Cabin.

The award honors the legacy of long-time Little Brown Jug and Hall of Fame publicist, Tom White, who passed away in 2019.

Shenandoah County Fair completes four-day harness meet with record purses and races held

A four-day harness racing meet at the 105th annual Shenandoah County Fair wrapped up Saturday (Sept. 3) with a record number of races conducted and record amount of purse monies distributed.

A total of 36 races were contested under sunny skies all four days. A total of $72,000 in purse monies were doled out as 172 horses participated.

Fastest trotting mile of the week was authored by Betsy Brown and Morgan Marston's Believe In Him, who crossed in 1:59.2 on Thursday (Sept. 1) with Brown in the sulky. The 8-year-old Conway Hall mare won for a second time Saturday, finishing in 1:59 4/5. Brown, a Woodstock resident who was recognized in 2020 by Virginia's Assembly for her contributions to the sport, recorded driving wins number 503 - 506 during the Fair.

Fastest pacing mile was triggered by Lawrence Cooper and Wilma Foley's Freak On A Leash, who crossed in 1:55.4 Saturday with Billy Carter aboard in the Charles Gouchenour Memorial Open Pace. The finishing time was just one-fifth of a second off the all-time Fair track record time of 1:55.3, authored by Roger Hammer's R N Nate who ironically competed in the race Saturday and finished second. Freak On A Leash also won Thursday in 1:56.3.

In Thursday's second race, the father-son driving duo of Billy Carter and William Carter squared off against each other professionally for the first time ever. William, who turned 18 recently and is competing on a "P" license, got the best of his mentor. He piloted his own 5-year-old pacer Benevolence to victory over Billy's 10-year-old Camluck pacer, Surge Seelster, who was second. William, who earned his first driving win at Ocean Downs August 28, came back to win with Benevolence again in Saturday's card.

Eighty-four-year-old driver David Swaney turned back the clock and reached the winner's circle three times in four days, scoring with Claudia W. Von Ostwalden's Long Ranger twice, and with James Shupe's Heza Scoundrel once. Those were Swaney's first wins of 2022. Since 1991, he has recorded 59 driving wins.

Leading driver during the non-betting meet was Tyler Shehan who reached the winners circle eight times overall and four times during Thursday's card alone. Chuck Perry was next with six wins.

Up in the announcer's booth, legendary race caller Roger Huston was behind the microphone calling action Wednesday through Friday to the delight of fans who filled the grandstand seats. Huston, who celebrates his 80th birthday Sept. 16, announced career races 182,004 thru 182,031 in Woodstock.

During the Fair meet, eight lucky fans were selected via prize drawings to have a chance to "Own a Horse for a Day" on Sept. 17, when the Shenandoah Downs pari-mutuel season conducts its opening weekend festivities. The winners will each select a different horse in a specific race that day at random, then get a chance to meet their horse and connections in the paddock, take pictures, enjoy complimentary lunch and best of all, keep the purse money their horse earns in a $4,000 race. One of the lucky eight will walk away with $2,000. The popular promotion, sponsored by the Virginia Harness Horse Association (VHHA), will be offered three more times during the Shenandoah Downs meet which runs through November 6. Details are at shenandoahdowns.com.

Kairewich sweeps HHYF Scholarships for 2022

Lilly Kairewich has been selected as the 2022 recipient of both the Curt Greene Memorial Scholarship and the Sweet Karen Scholarship. Lilly is the daughter of Matt and Haylee Kairewich from Chittenango, NY. She has begun her freshman year at SUNY Morrisville in and is pursuing an associate degree in nursing.

"The selection committee immediately recognized the aptitude of Lilly. While not from a racing family, Lilly will always love harness racing and appreciate what her HHYF experiences taught her which will help both in her collegiate efforts as well as in life," said HHYF executive director Ellen Taylor.

The Greene Memorial Scholarship is named in honor of the late Communicator's Corner Hall of Famer Curt Greene whose passion for harness racing ran deeply. The Sweet Karen Scholarship is named after the HHYF trottingbred whose patience allowed many young people hands-on harness racing experiences.

INAUGURAL HAROLD & MARCIA MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP SELECTIONS

Due to the generosity of the David Snyder and International Sound, the following students are the 2022 recipients of the Harold and Marcia Snyder Memorial Scholarships:

Kelly Weigle from East Berlin, PA will receive $7,500 to pursue her veterinary medicine degree from Lincoln Memorial University;

Landon Blumenfeld from Winter Park, FL will receive $3,500 to pursue his mathematics/statistics degree from Arizona State University;

Victoria Moore from Washington Court House, OH will receive $2,000 to pursue her degree in social work/occupational therapy from Wilmington College;

Jonas Scott from Warwick, MD will receive $2,000 to pursue his degree in computer science/engineering from Bucknell University.

"My family and I are very pleased with the selections of the recipients for the scholarship named in honor of my parents. It is our hope that the financial assistance will help these students continue their educational goals and, hopefully, stay connected to our wonderful horse racing industry," said David Snyder. "We are also excited to have HHYF administering this effort going forward which helps keep our memories of Stan Bergstein and his immeasurable HTA impact alive as well."

For more scholarship information, click this link hhyf.org/scholarships/ or call the HHYF office at 317-908-0029.
