Call of a lifetime

In the furthest thing from blah, blah, blah, Woodbine Mohawk Park announcer Ken Middleton, Jr. called his own homebred trainee Bob Loblaw to victory in the Nassagaweya in honor of his late friend and the pacer's partner Bill Galvin.

If you listen closely to the replay (watch here), save for a few extra deep breaths, Woodbine Mohawk Park's veteran track announcer Ken Middleton, Jr. — ever the pro — did a remarkable job of keeping his emotions in check and just getting through the race. It wasn't until his homebred trainee Bob Loblaw was standing in the winner's circle after officially becoming a Grand Circuit winner that Middleton's voice cracked.

"Nice representation in the winner's circle here tonight. One guy that's not here — and I dearly wish he was — is my late partner Bill Galvin," Middleton said, his voice shaking. "This is a homebred that Bill and I would have owned together. We took on some new partners this year and what a thrill it's been. Bill's here in spirit, though. We all know that."

Galvin, the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame inductee with the indomitable spirit and boundless energy, died in September of 2020 at the age of 89. Galvin bred Bob Loblaw with Middleton. The gelding is now owned by Middleton, Dave Walls, Jim Grant and Starting Centre Stables.

A few days after Bob Loblaw (Sunshine Beach—Lady Marina) nosed out Battle of Waterloo champion Betterhavemymoney in the $140,300 Nassagaweya on Aug. 28 at Mohawk, Middleton said announcing that he was the trainer, co-breeder and co-owner of the 2-year-old gelded pacer was the easy part.

"It's getting through the race without having a nervous breakdown or having a heart attack that was really hard," he said.

Two weeks earlier in an Ontario Sires Stakes Gold event at Mohawk, Middleton said he was particularly nervous calling Bob Loblaw's race.

"He had been a little bit sick during the week. You don't know how healthy they are until you actually race them, so I was a little concerned," Middleton said. "Just before the race, my heart started beating like it's never beaten before. It was literally beating out of my chest before the race even started, like, just when they called them to the gate. I told myself that I had to take a couple of deep breaths here. I was very worried that maybe he wasn't at his best health-wise, but it turned out that he raced well (finishing third) and he came out of it well and he was healthy enough, but it was just me being super cautious.

"It's not even the money or the stature of the race... if it was a $7,000 claimer, and I called it, I would probably feel the same type of build-up in my body. I'm concerned about the well-being of the horse while it's in the race."

After the Nassagaweya victory, Bob Loblaw's driver, Sylvain Filion, was quick to praise the job Middleton has done training the young horse.

"At first, he was kind of a spooky 2-year-old that had to learn how to race, but I have to give credit to our man up there," Filion said, tilting his head toward the Mohawk announcer's booth. "He did a great job with him and he's come a long way."

Asked by Chad Rozema what emotions Middleton might be experiencing in the aftermath of victory, Filion smiled.

"I'm pretty sure he's pretty emotional right now. When you raise them and it's a homebred, it's always extra special," the driver said.

At the same moment, Middleton's phone was blowing up with congratulations.

"I spent the rest of that night and half of the next day just responding to congratulatory messages," Middleton said in awe. "That made me feel really good and that's the great thing about racing is how far it reaches. It's that ripple effect. It's not just people that I know in the industry, it could be people that I went to high school with or just racing fans I've never even met."

LIFE-LONG HARNESS RACING JOURNEY

How Middleton came to this moment is part of a life-long journey in harness racing highlighted by over 35 years of calling races — first at dearly-departed Elmira Raceway beginning in 1986 followed by stops at Orangeville Raceway and Flamboro Downs and other tracks in a fill-in capacity before succeeding Frank Salive at the Woodbine Entertainment Group in 2006.

"I was always first and foremost a fan of racing. I loved betting on races when I was younger. I've gotten away from that now, but I like new challenges. I hung around the backstretch because I was cutting grass or cleaning up the ship-in barns for my dad, but I was always curious about the horses themselves. So, I wandered into the barn and I got involved on a small scale there with some cheap horses," Middleton said.

Later, wanting a new challenge, Middleton decided to buy a yearling or two, which evolved to breeding a few of his own.

"I have a good job in the industry and for years and years and years all I did was take from the industry and it's kind of a way of giving back,” he said. “I put some chips back on the table and I put money back into the industry because I know it’s struggling in some ways. Horse population is down and the number of mares being bred each year is down.”

Middleton said he had a lot of help. Tammy and Rob McNiven of Twinbrook Farms and Darlene and Derek Hayes of Hillsborough Farms, were key advisers on the breeding front. Conditioners Casie Coleman-Herlihy and Blake MacIntosh were instrumental in giving Middleton training advice.

“When I started getting yearlings it was a whole different challenge. I was starting out with a product that was just raw. It wasn’t a claimer that had raced 200 times,” Middleton said. “I had people that I could lean on and ask questions. I was fortunate in that sense. The rest was just taking your time, be patient and keep them healthy and sound. It’s the same principle that applies to every day with every single horse, but babies especially.

“I had a lot of help this winter with (Bob Loblaw) and my other colt from a good friend of mine, Rob MacKenzie... He’s a veteran trainer and he’s another guy that I picked his brain quite often. He’s had great success in the industry and he never said ‘no’ when I asked him for help. He’s a guy that I leaned on quite a bit to get this colt here and of all the people who have helped me along the way, he stands out.”

The Nassagaweya victory was the second lifetime win for Bob Loblaw, who broke his maiden winning a $18,509 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots event on July 9 at Mohawk. The gelding sports a record of 2-0-3 in eight career starts, earnings of $85,755 and a mark of 1:52.4. In his follow-up race after the Nassagaweya, Bob Loblaw was sixth in an OSS Gold event at Mohawk.

Middleton said due to stakes races being bunched in September thanks to schedule adjustments brought on by COVID-19 lockdowns earlier in the season, Bob Loblaw has a particularly busy month. The pacer might test the Champlain this weekend and then, possibly, the eliminations for the Metro Pace.

"After that, I'll be able to cut him loose and give him time off," Middleton said. "I'm just hopeful that he can handle the rigours of that schedule for the next four or five weeks. I'm trying to be easy on him. He doesn't need a lot of tough training now because he's racing every single week for the next little bit. I'm fortunate to live two minutes down the road from the training centre that I'm at, so I can turn them out in the morning and then after they are done their lunch I can turn them out all afternoon and just let them be a horse, because I think that's important, too."

Through it all, Middleton said he would dearly love it if Galvin could have been here to see Bob Loblaw's success.

"Bill would just be over the moon," Middleton said. "He would come out religiously to my farm just to check in on him. He would take pictures. He was proud as a peacock about it and he told everybody about it. It was just like it was one of his children. He gave daily reports to his friends about his horse, which made me really proud because he was so supportive and he was such a good friend. He was so respected in the industry, but he was also respected just as a human being. I don't know if I've ever met a person as kind and as sincere and genuinely ambitious as Bill for his age. It was non-stop and it was contagious and would kind of spill over into you. It breathes life into you because here's a guy that's at an advanced age, but he just never stopped. I don't know, he kind of energized everybody around him because of that."

Middleton did learn a lot from the master publicist before Galvin died. So much so that he's trying to convince legendary thoroughbred race announcers Dan Loiselle and Tom Durkin to take a share of a horse with him, partly for the fun and partly to help promote the sport.

"It would just be a great story for the media to use," Middleton said. "I'd even say to them, 'Go ahead and pick a funny name, you guys pick the name.'"

It was Middleton, after all, that named Bob Loblaw not after the Scott Baio character on Arrested Development, but more as a race caller's joke.

"As an announcer I appreciate funny names that give you a chuckle and as a name he kind of hit a home run. It's a commonly-used term and a friend of mine, Jimmy McClure, used to say it all the time 'blah, blah, blah..' and I thought, 'That's funny, I'm going to name a horse that someday.'"

Little did Ken Middleton, Jr. know that one day he would call that horse's name to victory in a Grand Circuit race at Canada's biggest racetrack.

"Bob Loblaw reaches for racetrack late on the outside third... Betterhavemymoney scrambles to the front with MacDonald. Bob Loblaw lets him have it on the outside. Still there is Betterhavemymoney... Bob Loblaw with a late rush... Betterhavemymoney and Bob Loblaw together at the line!"

EUROPEAN REPORT

Calgary Games, the new star of Swedish trotting

by Thomas Hedlund

Nothing much happened in the race when the $930,000 Swedish Derby for 4-year-olds was held at Jägersro racetrack on Sunday afternoon (Sept. 5), but the impressions after the show was that harness racing fans might have seen the best trotter ever bred in Sweden winning the big race.

Timo Nurmos trains and owns Calgary Games (Readly Express) and he found the horse as a foal in the paddock at Menhammar Stuteri.

"When I saw Calgary Games as a foal, he was a copy of his father Readly Express. To train a horse like Calgary Games, with all his abilities, is a dream and I get happy every time I take him out for a training session. I've never driven a Ferrari, but I imagine the feeling is similar to sit behind Calgary Games," said Nurmos shortly after the Derby.

Nurmos just watched his horse give a world class performance over 1.6 miles, in a first over trip where the mile rate landed on a new world record for 4-year-olds on a 5/8 mile track over the actual distance: 1:55.2.

And the most remarkable thing about the Calgary Games' triumph is the road the horse has made to reach the biggest race in Sweden. The victory in Sunday's race was Calgary Games' seventh start in his entire career, an achievement hard to comprehend. It usually takes a lot of experience and merits to even reach a Derby final, but it's clear that Calgary Games is something special.

Calgary Games more or less pulverized his opponents in the Derby, it was a breathtaking show he put on at Jägersro paired with 68-year-old Jorma Kontio. The horse finished the last half mile in :54.3 from the outside.

Leader Önas Prince held strongly as runner up while San Moteur claimed the bronze medal.

"Calgary Games has never been tired after a race, not even today," said Nurmos, who claimed his fourth victory in the Swedish Derby.

The winner's father, Readly Express (trained by Nurmos), won both the Kriteriet and the Derby in Sweden and continued to

More Readly Express in Derbystoet

The $465,000 Derbystoet for 4-year-old mares contained the best horses in the Swedish crop at Jägersro on Sunday afternoon and just like the final of Stochampionatet earlier this summer, Readly Express daughter Honey Mearas proved best after a tough first over trip.

Honey Mearas, driven by Örjan Kihlström, finished second to Global Brilliance in the eliminations whereupon she had to face post 7 over 1.3 miles in the final and many of the horses on her inside impressed in their eliminations, respectively.

Kihlström used Honey Mearas strength this time and he was confident in putting his horse in position outside of leader Global Brilliance, just like in the qualification for Derbystoet. The difference this time was the pace. Örjan Kihlström didn't want to let the leader save speed for the home stretch and Honey Mearas was the stronger horse when the last stretch remained.

Trainer Daniel Redén claimed his second win in a row in the race (Diana Zet won in 2020) and Honey Mearas noted a stakes record mile rate of 1:55 over 1.3 miles.

"Honey Mearas reminds of Diana Zet in such a way that she finds a high level every time it's a final ahead of her. She needs to get the elimination race to reach highest possible form and she has many great abilities to use in her body. When I saw that Örjan (Kihlström) looked over his shoulder in the last turn I understood that he had power in the lines and Honey Mearas impresses me a lot", said trainer Daniel Redén after the race.

Global Brilliance finished second ahead of strong finisher Sayonara.

Hagoort dominates in Germany

The $255,000 German Derby for 3-year olds in Berlin on Sunday afternoon (Sept. 5) saw a heavy favorite in Paul Hagoort-trained Usain Lobell, but turned out that it should be a stablemate who claimed the Derby this year.

Usain Lobell was interfered with shortly after the start and he couldn't keep his gait at that time.

Stablemate Lorens Flevo (S.J.'s Caviar) also made a short break in the start, but he eventually found a second over trip for driver Micha Bouwer and from that position Lorens Flevo fought to close win in mile rate 1:57.3 over 1.2 miles.

The winner was quite unmerited before the German Derby and he came to the race with only six prior starts in his career. Trainer

Paul Hagoort is a specialist when it comes to this race and he claimed his seventh win the last ten years.

On the Saturday's (Sept. 4) race card, the $108,500 Derby for mares was held and the fans saw an outstanding wire-to-wire performance from Lumumba (Charly du Noyer) and Michel F. Rothengatter. The duo left the opponents over the home stretch and won in mile rate 1:57.3 over 1.2 miles.

Allaire's Italian is hard to beat

Philippe Allaire-trained 3-year-old Callmethebreeze (Trixtion) showed early talent when he started his career last season and this year he has continued to claim big wins in Italy.

In the $182,500 Gran Premio Carlo Marangoni in Turin on Sunday (Sept. 5), the son of Trixtion opened solidly for the lead and only Capital Mail could challenge over the stretch after a pocket trip. But Callmethebreeze held on in the lead and driver Andrea Guzzinati noted that he had a 1/2 length advantage when the wire was crossed. Callmethebreeze came home in a strong mile rate of 1:56.1 over 1.3 miles.

Challenges simply galvanize the resolve of Delaware horsewoman Nicky Ratledge

by Chris Lomon

A quiet resolve, an unspoken determination, and finding belief in herself, has given Nicky Ratledge the racing career she had long hoped for.

There have been trying times, more than a few, where it would have been understandable if the horsewoman from Camden, DE, had shifted gears and changed careers.

But nothing she's faced over the years, on or off the racetrack, has ever prompted Ratledge to contemplate her life in standardbred racing.

In fact, any challenge, be it big or small, galvanizes the 34-year-old's seemingly unbreakable bond with horses and horse racing.

A local doctor discovered that the moment he met Ratledge.

"I've had a broken ankle for the past three months and I've still been working every single day. The doctor told me that normally, they're telling people they should take time off work, and they'll say, 'Great... can I have a note?' But that's not me."

It hasn't been for as long as she can remember, certainly not since she began her career in horse racing 16 years ago.

How it all began, back in the mid-2000s, is a story in itself.

"I was working three jobs and my mom was going through breast cancer. I was also going to college at the time. So, it was a struggle for my mom. It was also tough, in a different way, for me. One of the jobs I had was giving riding lessons at one of the farms I had always ridden at. One of the kids, their father was an owner for (trainer) Tim and (assistant trainer) Patty Crissman. He told me that he had a perfect job for me. I was struggling handling everything, so he told me to come to talk to Tim. I let them know that I wanted to stay in college, but wanted to work as well. They were very understanding. One day they asked if I wanted to go to the paddock and see if I liked it. I went and I just fell in love. Tim told me that I got the job as groom for their horses. I knew being in racing was something I wanted to do. It was going to be horse racing for me."

If she had even the slightest of doubts, a horse by the name of Quick And Deadly put any thoughts of trepidation quickly to rest.

"He was the first horse I groomed for the Crissmans and he won Horse of the Meet at Harrington. It was my first year grooming, and I thought that was pretty amazing."

There would be some twists and turns to come in her horse racing life, but no matter which barn or what collegiate classes she was taking, Ratledge's love for the sport and its stars was unshakable.

"I've been with Tim and Patty, on and off, for 16 years. There was a point in time when I went back to school and worked part-time in racing. I worked for Michael Cole and Daryl Bier if they needed somebody to fill in. Before I went back to school, I owned a horse – my first one – with Tim and Patty. Her name is Whispering Rain. I also claimed a horse, Keystone Sable, who I bought just before I went back to college. I kept her and had Mike Cole as the trainer. I also worked for Art Stafford and Jay Gannon.

"So, those times, when I was in college, were about staying connected to the racing and having a part-time job. I wanted to say that I went back to college and got my degree. Needless to say, I went back to the horses because that's where my heart was and that's where I felt the happiest and the smartest. I came back and worked for Tim and Patty, and owned multiple horses with them. I took another year off and worked for Kyle Moore, and owned a horse with him and his wife, who I helped get her owner's license."

Ratledge also added a new role to her own expanding repertoire, specifically, that of breeder.

She bred Keystone Stable to Total Truth, a son of Jennas Beach Boy, who won 18 of 63 starts and over $2.1 million in career earnings.

The foal ended up with a catchy name and a doting owner.

"I named her Truthaboutnickster," said Ratledge. "My nickname is 'Nickster,' so I thought it would be good for this horse. She was born in May 2015 and the moment I saw her, she just inspired me to want to take her and race her. It was very special for me. I had broken babies with other trainers, but to do it on your own was very inspiring. It also made me want to get my trainer's license. I had never pushed myself to do it because I didn't feel I had the confidence to be a trainer. In my mind, I was a groom."

It wouldn't be an easy road to the races for Truthaboutnickster. Every step forward was offset by a series of setbacks.

"She was sick when she was baby and she pushed through and when she was a 2-year-old, we broke her and got her up to probably 2:30, and she seemed off. Tim felt she was off and was battling soreness, so we gave her some rest. When she was a 3-year-old, we brought her back to the racetrack. I was working for Kyle Moore at the time and he told me to go get my trainer's license. I felt other people were doing that job and I put her down in his name before her first race. She ended up breaking her back pastern bone, and I put five screws in her. I wanted to take care of her no matter what. I was able to get her back to good health and to the races."

In 38 career starts, Truthaboutnickster has won two races and posted 12 top-three finishes.

Ratledge's history with the horse led to a new role, one she had often thought about it.

"I had gone back to work for Tim and Patty, and she told me that if I was going to work for them again, I needed to get my trainer's license. So, that's how I got my license, which happened in November 2018."

She's no doubt glad she did.

Four months later, Ratledge recorded a milestone victory.

"I had Truthaboutnickster and Stompin Tom Creek as my own to train. Paul and Laurie Davis helped me out with getting MY Rosebud, which was my first trotter. He was my first winner, which was March 4, 2019. I was pretty proud and it was great to be able to win at Dover. In the summer of 2019, Truthaboutnickster won at Ocean Downs. Getting my baby to the races after everything she had been through, I felt, 'I can do this. This is my calling.' I'm so happy that I did get my trainer's license. I took the time to be a groom, a breeder – I learned as much as I could about the business before I decided to get my trainer's license."

There have been other highlights for Ratledge, including a 4-year-old bay son of Sunshine Beach she co-owns with the Crissmans.

This March, the gelding, bred by Brad Grant, finished second at Delaware, a mile that prompted an immediate smile for Ratledge.

"He became the fastest racehorse I've ever owned. He went in 1:50.3 He hasn't won in that time, but I just felt amazing. I thought, 'I actually trained a horse that went in 1:50!'"

She's hoping to experience more of those moments.

Increasing the number of horses to her stable is in the works.

"I hope to train five one day. I don't know if I'll ever have a bigger stable than that, but I feel very lucky. I not only have Tim and Patty as owners, but I had someone come and ask me to be their trainer. I accomplished that this year. Mr. Tom Wescott. He and his wife asked me to claim a horse and train it for them. His name is Paprike Blue Chip. He won back-to-back races this May at Harrington."

Win or lose, Ratledge knows she can count on the Crissmans for unwavering support.

It's one of many reasons she looks forward to heading to the barn each morning.

"Tim and Patty have been my biggest backers and I'm so glad to have that connection with them. Whenever I feel like I can't do something, they are there to encourage me. I go out there and do it. I wake up every day, and I'm enjoying every single minute of this ride. I'll never complain. I have a big list of things to be grateful for."

That list would include a cherish moment with Keystone Sable.

The daughter of Western Hanover, who won 18 races along with 19 seconds and 15 thirds from 129 starts, showed she hasn't lost a step, albeit in a much different arena.

"She was the second horse I ever owned and I kept her. I have accomplished a lot with her. The most recent was taking her to the National Standardbred Horse Show this past year. It was my third year with her. She loves the speed events and we won the Sam McKee barrel race in 19.1 seconds. It was amazing to take an 18-year-old mare and win something named for someone who was such an inspiring and wonderful person in standardbred racing. This mare, we have built this bond. She's my horse and I am her person."

It is, in many ways, the ideal story to sum up Ratledge's association with horse racing, a tale of a longstanding connection that has only grown stronger over time.

The horsewoman from Delaware is excited to see what the future holds.

"I love what I do. A lot has changed for me since I first started in this business. I'm very lucky and I can't wait to see what lies ahead."

Ohio Super Night delivers two world records, four track records and stories aplenty

by Jay Wolf

Sunday evening's (Sept. 5) Ohio Super Night featuring the Ohio Sire Stakes (OHSS) finals for a combined $2.4 million in purses gave the fans at MGM Northfield Park a little bit of everything – two world records, four track records, stories of redemption, perfection, a large upset and a bargain priced champion.

The 3-year-old trotting filly, Herculisa kicked the night off by re-writing history with her world record performance in 1:52.3. The My MVP daughter used her inside rail position to grab the early lead from Swizzle Hanover (Mike Wilder) and never looked back and cruised to a 3 ½ length victory over Katie's Lucky Day (Trevor Smith). Swizzle Hanover held on for third.

Herculisa is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr., driven by Brett Miller and owned by Steve Finkelstein's Jesmeral Stable of Scarsdale, NY.

"She's a tremendous filly. Virgil had her right tonight, she was awesome," said Miller.

"I'm thrilled for Steve. He's a great guy and passionate about the sport," said Morgan.

Herculisa has now earned $356,862 lifetime and revenged her only poor performance, the 2019 OHSS final when the filly broke stride and finished seventh.

"I thought she was the best last year. She was in the two-hole and got crowded around the last turn," said Morgan. "It's been a long year. I was thrilled to see she had the rail (tonight) to vindicate herself tonight."

Next up was the freshman colt pace and the anticipated battle between the undefeated Gulf Shores and the $150,000 Next Generation champion, Sling Shock.

Sling Shock (Dan Noble) outstepped his rival for the early lead, allowing a patient Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. to sit in the pocket with the eventual winner.

When driver David Miller came first-up to challenge with Seaside Way, Wrenn moved Gulf Shores off the rail and sprinted past Sling Shock to score a four-length win in 1:52.1. Terminator (Chris Page) rallied for second and Sling Shock held on for third.

The son of Downbytheseaside, a $100,000 yearling purchase, is owned by the Country Club Acres, Diamond Creek Racing and the Wingfield Brothers.

"We were going a pretty good clip there, :26.2. I knew Danny had a nice colt there," said Wrenn. "All year long I thought he was the best colt and I think tonight he showed it.

"I qualified him twice at Delaware (County Fairgrounds) and I told Brian that he was special.

While Wrenn was gushing over Gulf Shores, trainer Brian Brown wasn't so sure early in the freshman's career.

"I described him a 'brown paper bag' in Florida," said Brown. "He was just ordinary. He doesn't do anything (special). He just goes out there and races. He made a big move down the backstretch and we went around a very nice horse and did it pretty handily."

Gulf Shores is now a perfect five-for-five on the year and has earned $251,500 on the young season.

Another world record fell in the 2-year-old filly pace when the unbeaten Sea Silk (Chris Page) overcame post #8 to lead a 1-2-3 Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brussemi sweep in 1:51.2.

Sea Silk took the lead from stablemate Cape Cod Hanover (David Miller) before the quarter mile station and coasted to a three-length win over Cape Cod Hanover and Dragon Lady (Yannick Gingras).

"She's been flawless this year. Everything we've asked her to do, she's done," said Mickey Burke, Jr. "It was great to finish 1-2-3, you can never complain about that. We have been fortunate. These girls have been great all season."

Sea Silk, a $47,000 Downbytheseaside yearling, is now a perfect seven-for-seven and earned $340,000 for Burke Racing, Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services and the Hatfield Stables.

Winning Ticket pushed his perfect 2021 to 10 straight wins with his 1:54.2 score over Lockbox (Chris Page) and stablemate Perron (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.).

The Triumphant Caviar gelding is co-owned by Beaver, Steve Zeelandar, Tim Homan and James Burnett.

Gabby's C Note scored a three-length win over Be My Baby Now (Chris Page) in 1:56.2. She is co-owned by the trainer, breeder Johanna Beaver and Zeelandar.

The Mighty Hill held off Rose Run Xtra by a scant nose to lower his existing track record to 1:55.4.

The What The Hill gelding is campaigned by Beaver, Donald Robinson and the VIP Internet Stable.

The three-year-old colt pace provided the night's biggest surprise when Borntobeshameless (Dan Noble) sprung the 34-1 upset over Charlie May (Brett Miller).

MGM Northfield Park officials limited the wagering to "win only," but that didn't stop the punters from placing $50,000 of the $59,000 wagered to win on Charlie May.

Heart Of Chewbacca (Chris Page) was gunned off the gate's wings from post #8. Odds On Shaggy (Mitchell Cushing) was second early, forcing Charlie May into third.

Miller tipped the heavy favorite off the pylons for the first over trip and stuck a head in front at the three-quarter mile pole.

Noble kept Borntobeshameless back in the field for most of the mile and rallied past the tired Charlie May by a neck in a lifetime best 1:51.3.

Borntobeshameless is trained by Christi Noble and owned by James Morris, Dennis Owens and the Noble's Norman Rae Racing.

Smothastenesewisky (Brett Miller), a $3,000 yearling purchase, took the $150,000 winner's check home with her track record 1:50.2 mile in the 3-year-old filly pace.

The Nob Hill High filly, who won for the 15th time in 22 career starts, is owned by trainer Brian Haynes.

Most of the Ohio Super Night participants will now turn their attention to the Ohio Breeders Championships at the Delaware County Fairgrounds on Sept. 19-23.

Draw complete for 38th Pepsi North America Cup

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The post-position draw for the 38th Pepsi North America Cup was conducted Monday evening (Sept. 6) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The field of 10 3-year-old pacers learned their starting spots for this Saturday's $1 million race. Bulldog Hanover and Perfect Sting earned the opportunity to select their post after their elimination victories on Saturday.

Bulldog Hanover's connections had first choice and selected post-four, while Perfect Sting connections followed by selecting post-three.

Trained by Jack Darling, Bulldog Hanover has won six of eight starts this season and 10 of 14 during his career. The son of Shadow Play will be looking to give trainer Darling his second 'Cup' title (Gothic Dream, 1997) and driver Jody Jamieson his third (Tell All, 2007 – Up The Credit, 2011).

Perfect Sting, last year's undefeated Dan Patch Award winner, has won four of nine this season, while never finishing outside the top-three. The son of Always B Miki is 14 for 19 lifetime and will attempt to give his trainer Joe Holloway his second 'Cup' crown (Safely Kept, 1992) and driver David Miller his third (Betting Line, 2016 – Fear The Dragon, 2017).

The remaining eight horses were placed in an open draw for the eight other starting spots.

The results of the post-position draw are listed below:

- 1 - Jimmy Connor B - Doug McNair/Gregg McNair
- 2 - Bettor Sun - Doug McNair/Gregg McNair

- 3 - Perfect Sting - David Miller/Joe Holloway
- 4 - Bulldog Hanover - Jody Jamieson/Jack Darling
- 5 - Whichwaytothebeach - Sylvain Filion/Brett Pelling
- 6 - Desperate Man - Trevor Henry/Kathy Cecchin
- 7 - Simon Says Hanover - Scott Zeron/Tony Alagna
- 8 - Abuckabett Hanover - Andrew McCarthy/Tony Alagna
- 9 - Rockyroad Hanover - Dexter Dunn/Tony Alagna
- 10 - Southwind Gendry - Yannick Gingras/Ron Burke

Final driver changes and morning-line odds will be set by 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday.

The $1 million Pepsi North America Cup will go as Race 11 on Saturday evening. Post time is approximately 10:42 p.m. ET.

First race post time for the $3 million-plus card is 6:30 p.m.

Admission is $10 at the door or admission can be pre-purchased all week during live racing hours. Admission is free for those under the age of 18.

The Pepsi North America Cup will be broadcast on TSN4 from 10-11 p.m. Saturday.

New York

Fields drawn for Friday's New York Night of Champions at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway

The best 2- and 3-year-old trotters and pacers in the Empire State will converge on Yonkers Raceway on Friday night (Sept. 10) for New York Night of Champions. The 10-race program features eight $200,000 New York Sire Stakes finals in races two through nine.

Two-year-old trotting fillies kick off the action in race two, with their final sponsored by the Agriculture & NYS Horse Breeding Development Fund. Joviality S (Brian Sears listed for trainer Marcus Melander) was undefeated in the sire stakes program this year but will have to overcome post position eight to take home the crown. Bomb Hugger (post six, Anthony MacDonald/Melissa Beckwith) started three-for-three in the sire stakes but will need to rebound after making a break at Yonkers on Aug. 19.

The undefeated Chapter Seven colt Justice (Ake Svanstedt trains/drives) landed post four in race three's 2-year-old colt and gelding trot final, sponsored by Winbak Farm. Justice will renew acquaintances with Cool Papa Bell (post five, Jason Bartlett/Jim Campbell) after just a head separated those two at Saratoga on August 23.

Next up are the 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers, and their final is sponsored by the Agriculture & NYS Horse Breeding Development Fund. Pleaseletmeknow (post two, Matt Kakaley/Travis Alexander) won the MGM Springfield Stakes at Yonkers earlier this year, but he faces a strong group that includes Stretch The Line (post three, Jordan Stratton/Erv Miller), Forrest Blu (post six, Tyler Buter/John Butenschoen), and Pickup Man Hanover (post seven, Billy Dobson/Monica Krist).

A talented group of rookie pacing fillies will then take to the track in their final, which is again sponsored by the Agriculture & NYS Horse Breeding Development Fund. Joyride Hanover (post two, Tim Tetrack/Eddie Dennis), Gotthegreenlight (post three, Dexter Dunn/Nifty Norman), and Just Divine (post four, Yannick Gingras/Ron Burke) haven't missed the board in their respective careers so far, and all drew well for this event.

The focus then shifts to the sophomores, with the trotting fillies first up in their final, sponsored by Allera Farms. Iteration won the New York Sire Stakes final for this group last year, and she is back to defend her title from post six for Brian Sears and Marcus Melander. Moni For Lindy (post one, Yannick Gingras/Domenico Cecere), a five-time winner this year, and Splash Blue Chip (post three, Ake Svanstedt trains/drives) both drew inside Iteration.

Test Of Faith (post five, David Miller/Brett Pelling) is the main attraction in race seven's 3-year-old filly pace final, sponsored by Cameo Hills Farm. A sire stakes champion a year ago, the daughter of Art Major has come back this year to win twice in the program. She also took the Empire Breeders Classic and the Park MGM Pace here at Yonkers.

Ahundreddollarbill (post six, Andrew McCarthy/Tony Alagna), a 3-year-old gelding by Chapter Seven, has broken track records throughout New York State this year, including at Yonkers in both his MGM Yonkers Trot elim and in a later sire stakes appearance, and he's the headliner in race eight's final, sponsored by Crawford Farms. Ambassador Hanover (post four, Ake Svanstedt trains/drives), who was second in the MGM Yonkers Trot and third in the Hambletonian, will look to knock him off.

New York Night of Champions concludes with the final for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers, sponsored by Blue Chip Farms. The defending champion for this group is King James Express, and that Art Major gelding has post five for Jason Bartlett and Mark Harder. Town Gossip (post four, Joe Bongiorno/Jenn Bongiorno) comes into the final having won four of his last six starts.

First race post time on Friday night at Yonkers is 7:15 p.m.

Undefeated Hammering Hank leads PA Stallion Series culmination

Hammering Hank ($3.40) circled stalled cover on the final turn of his $40,000 Pennsylvania Stallion Series final – one of eight on the Sunday (Sept. 5) card at Harrah's Philadelphia – and kept his career undefeated record intact with a 1:52 score.

The 2-year-old son of Captaintreacherous and History Repeats was forced three-wide up the backstretch around a stalled Good Deal, and he accelerated off the home turn to reel in Hecandancencruise by three-quarters of a length. Layton Hanover, who set fractions of :27.1, :56.3 and 1:23.3, faded to third after being collared at the sixteenth pole.

"This horse has a very nice turn of speed," driver Dexter Dunn said of the Brett Pelling trainee. "I had to go three-wide the entire final turn, and that's hard to do here, but this horse just kept on going."

Hammering Hank, who has won all four of his starts to date, has banked $45,850 for the 3 Brothers Stables, Pelling Racing LLC and the Rojan Stables.

Pelling was the trainer to win multiple Stallion Series finals, completing the stakes double with South Beach Star ($3.00) in the 3-year-old colt and gelding pace. After sitting in fourth off a :54.4 half, Todd McCarthy angled South Beach Star first-over to take aim at pacesetter Emblaze Hanover up the backstretch, and they pushed clear willingly past three-quarters in 1:22.1 before evading Crunch Hanover by 2-1/2 lengths in 1:51.1. Coalition Hanover finished third.

"I did have to go first-over, but I wasn't worried," said McCarthy. "He's a big, good-going horse, finishes strongly, so things were working out okay."

Now a nine-time winner with $115,316 in earnings, South Beach Star, a son of Somebeachsomewhere and Higher And Higher, campaigns for All Star Racing Inc.

In addition to Hammering Hank, only one other horse entered the Stallion Series finals with an undefeated record on the line: rookie trotting filly Born On Third Base. The five-time winner was upended in the final yards of her event, finishing third after giving way to I'll Have A Lindy, who charged to the lead up the open stretch and out-sprinted runner-up Design Fashion in a stakes record 1:55.1.

"She had a lot of trot the whole mile," said Scott Zeron, who drove the Greathorse homebred for trainer Domenico Cecere. "When Dexter's filly (Born On Third Base) got away past the half, my filly wasn't very easy to steer. I got a little closer, and she was a little better on the far turn. But she has a lot of trot."

The five-time winner, by Cantab Hall out of Martini Lindy, has banked $53,500 in her career.

Tim Tetrick recorded a stakes hat trick, piloting Jim King Jr. trainee Lyons Serenity ($2.40) to a 1:52.1 score in the rookie filly pace, Tony Alagna trainee Odds On Whitney ($4.80) to a 1:50.2 win in the 3-year-old filly pace, and Evening Stroll ($7.40) to a 1:54.4 victory in the 3-year-old filly trot for trainer Jim Campbell.

Oh Boy ($3.80, Corey Callahan, 1:55.4) and Sunny Crockett ($6.20, 1:53.4, Tyler Miller) rounded out the octet of Stallion Series champions.

Live racing returns to Harrah's Philadelphia today (Sept. 8); first post is 12:25 p.m. Eastern.

'BRITFLIX' yearling videos now available

Last year, Brittany Farms helped give rise to a new concept of filming yearling videos – namely, "virtual inspections" – and that continues this year with the farm's just released 2021 yearling videos (click to view).

It's the "new fall season" of the movies the farm calls "Britflix," and features all 25 of the Brittany yearlings that will be sold at the Lexington Selected Sale, Oct. 5-9.

"Last fall, with the pandemic in full force, we really wanted buyers who couldn't get to the farm or the sale to still have the opportunity for what's as close as you can get to a hands-on yearling inspection," said farm manager Art Zubrod.

"Those buyers, both domestic and foreign, were thrilled with what we offered; what we didn't anticipate so much was that even buyers who later came to the farm, or attended the sale in person, would be so appreciative of a much-improved early inspection tool."

The videos show not only walking and action, but zoom-in front, back and side views, along with closeups of every conformation point on each horse.

Brittany is coming off a year in which it was voted the "2020 Breeder of the Year;" a title that was also bestowed on the farm in 2019.

"We think this year's crop of yearlings is every bit the equal to, or better than, the crops that helped us win back-to-back Breeder of the Year awards," Zubrod said. "I think a look at the pedigrees and the individuals themselves back up that belief."

Cuatro De Julio comes back a winner in Kentucky Championship

A speedster as a freshman with a mark of 1:51.3 taken at The Red Mile last year, the Trixton colt Cuatro De Julio returned to the site of his speediest victory following a break last week with a lifetime-best 1:51 win in the $40,000 Kentucky Championship fourth preliminary for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Tuesday (Sept. 7).

The Marie Ortolan Bar-trained son of Trixton sat fourth as Really Fast carved opening splits of :28 and :56 with Kildare King in the pocket. Venerate raced third through the first half and gradually pulled first over around the final turn, giving Cuatro De Julio cover to follow. Really Fast passed three-quarters in 1:24.2 and promptly tired in the stretch when pressed by Venerate. Driver Lucas Wallin then angled his charge off Venerate's cover and took a shot at the late leader through the stretch, nailing a nose in front at the beam while chased home by Kildare King in third another four lengths behind.

Owned by D Farm LLC, Cuatro De Julio won his second race from eight starts this season and his 11th from 22 overall, earning $258,753. He paid $8.60 to win.

Beltassima took the $40,000 Kentucky Championship for 3-year-old trotting fillies going gate to wire in a 1:52.3 effort.

Driver Andrew McCarthy secured the lead with the Trixton filly to a :29 first quarter with stablemate Piper Hanover sitting second and Awesome Trix in third. She continued uncontested on the point past a :57 half and to three-quarters in 1:25.1, with Adirondack flushing first over to the final turn but stalling. Beltassima bolted into the stretch and opened ground on her competition as 1-2 favorite Empressive Hill attempted to scoot into the mix from last, but broke stride in tight quarters at the pylons. Awesome Trix grabbed second, beaten three lengths, with Piper Hanover settling for third and Empressive Hill regaining stride to take fourth.

Owned by Crawford Farms Racing, Beltassima won her fifth race from 10 starts this season and her seventh from 17 overall, earning $260,447. She paid $18.80 to win.

Jula Muscle Pack ($4.00) strolled in the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth division for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, winning by 7-1/2 lengths in 1:53.1. Andrew McCarthy piloted the winner for trainer Per Engblom.

Altar ($2.40) took the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth split for sophomore trotting fillies in similar style, cruising to a five-length victory in 1:50.4. Dexter Dunn drove the Nancy Takter trainee.

Point totals for both the Kentucky Championship and Kentucky Commonwealth Series are available at the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission website.

Racing resumes at The Red Mile on Sunday (Sept. 12) with the fourth preliminary of the Kentucky Championship Series and the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for pacing sophomores. Sunday's card is the final featuring preliminary action, with the Kentucky Championship Finals slated for Sunday, Sept. 19 and the Kentucky Commonwealth Finals for Monday, Sept. 20. First-race post time each race day at The Red Mile is 1 p.m. (EDT).

Back-to-back at Historic Track

One trainer, one horse and one spectacular event came up big for a second consecutive season at Goshen Historic Track (GHT)

On Sunday (Sept. 5), the New York County Fair Finals (NYCFF) returned to Orange County, NY, for only the second time in its history, but that's not where the repeating ended. Trainer Claude Huckabone III won his second straight NYCFF title with his student Brave Element by scoring in the 3-year-old colt and gelding pace after winning the 2020 event for 2-year-old male pacers.

County fair races for 2021 were contested at 21 different tracks throughout New York State prior to the finals. To qualify for the finals at "The Cradle of the Trotter", the 22nd track of the season, all competitors needed to have at least five starts.

The eight NYCFF races each sported a purse of $10,000, for 2- and 3-year-olds of both gaits and sex.

Huckabone III had a commanding lead in the standings coming into the finals, and although David Dewhurst won three times on the card, it wasn't enough.

Huckabone raced a total of 12 horses on the day and found the winner's circle with Brave Element (Bolt The Duer—Necessary Element), owned by Go Where The Money Is Stable and driven by Jordan Stratton, in a lifetime mark of 1:57.2.

"He's like my son," said Huckabone III of Stratton. "He worked for me when he came here from Ohio. He's family and he's a great role model for my son."

Harness racing is a family business for Huckabone III, 47, whose dad Claude Huckabone Jr., 68, previously won the NYCFF training title in 2019. His son Dylan Huckabone-Miller, 20, finished second to Kyle Cummings this year in the driver standings in his first season racing full-time at the fairs.

"Kyle Cummings beat my son [for the driving title] and it was nip and tuck [to the end]," said Huckabone III. "Kyle did a great job today. He did a fantastic job. He drove some good horses and he put them in position when he needed to. I couldn't be happier for the guy. Leon [Bailey] and I did the same thing last year and he beat me out."

Cummings went into the finals with a slim lead in earnings over Huckabone-Miller, but by virtue of his two NYCFF victories, Cummings locked up the title.

Cummings made his first ever drive at GHT a winning one as he guided Blazin Chally (Conway Hall—Great Quantity) to a lifetime best 2:04 in the first race of the day. The 2-year-old filly trotter is trained by Douglas Ackley, who co-owns with his wife Tyra.

"I was really happy to win with Blazin Chally," said Cummings. "Great people. A family horse. It was awesome to win for them and they were ecstatic to be there."

His second victory was with Twin B Kini (Art Major—Twin B Bikini) in 1:58.2. The 3-year-old filly pacer is trained by Judith Blaun, who co-owns with John Sixt.

"It was awesome to win for Judy," said Cummings. "I've helped Judy with that filly since she was a 2-year-old. I helped her to train her down and it was nice to get that win. She's just a really good filly."

One big difference from last year was the return of fans in the stands. Due to COVID-19 restrictions in 2020, attendance for the NYCFF was limited to owners with advanced reservations who had to remain in designated areas.

This year the fans made up for that time away by braving a day with intermittent showers to cheer on their favorites.

"I couldn't believe the amount of noise when I was in the post parade [for the first race]," said Cummings. "And when I came back to the winner's circle after Blazin Chally won, they were just roaring. It's a great atmosphere."

Trainer David Dewhurst, who finished second to Huckabone for the training title, had a total of three wins on the card.

The aforementioned Bailey won with Dewhurst trainee Me Three (Chapter Seven—Lindy's Fireworks) in 2:00.4. The 3-year-old filly trotter is owned by Chris Lawton, Dale Lawton and Dewhurst.

Dewhurst also co-owns 2-year-old colt and gelding trot champ Makadushin N Cheez (Conway Hall—Tawesome More), who won in 2:03.4 for Joseph D'Agostino, Molly D'Agostino and Philip Kadushin, as well as 3-year-old colt and gelding trot winner Just For Luck (Lucky Chucky—Arenal), who scored in 2:01 and is co-owned by Dewhurst and Philip Hale. Both champs were driven to victory by Jim Devaux.

Instant Expert (Huntsville—Pedigree Snob), driven by Greg Merton, won the 2-year-old colt and gelding pace for co-owner/trainer Jim Graham and partners Paul Tandlmayer, Lee Winters and Edward Peron in 1:58.4, and in the process, lowered his previous lifetime best by seven-and-one-fifth seconds.

The 2-year-old filly pace was won by Center Attraction (American Ideal—Art Center) in a lifetime-best 1:59.2. She is owned by Robert Anderson and Pamela Schieber, trained by Anderson and was driven by Denny Bucci.

Amidst the eight NYCFF races was a two-horse Racing Under Saddle event that was won by Armbr Hall, who was ridden by Cathy Gearwar. Railroad Lane and rider Michelle Miller were second.

Following the fourth race, track announcer Dave Little recognized Major Lindsay Jacobson, who was in the grandstand with her family.

Major Jacobson is a graduate of Goshen High School and is a C-17 pilot with the 105th Air Lift Wing out of Stewart Air National Guard Base in Newburgh.

She recently returned home from Afghanistan, where she was part of Operation Allies Refuge, helping in the evacuation effort.

She received a standing ovation from the crowd at Historic Track.

For anyone who couldn't make it to Goshen or would just like to see the races again, the Agriculture & New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund sponsored a livestream of the races hosted by Kelly Young and Mark Shero, which can be viewed for a year through a link at www.nysirestakes.com.

Stonebridge Helios moves to head of class with third Gold win

Ontario's top 2-year-old pacing colts opened an action-packed night of stakes racing at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday, Sept. 4, competing in two $100,000-plus Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series divisions on a card worth more than $1.9 million.

Fans sent two-time Gold Series winner Stonebridge Helios off as their top choice in the first $101,400 division and the strapping son of Sunshine Beach did not disappoint. Driver Bob McClure eased the colt away from Post 4 and settled in fourth as Bob Loblaw led the field to a :27 opening quarter, then sent Stonebridge Helios to the lead on the way to the :54.4 half. Macho Phil mounted a challenge heading by the 1:24.2 three-quarters, but Stonebridge Helios pulled away to a one length victory in 1:52.2. Bootlegger Charlie and Coligny Hanover, also by Sunshine Beach, closed well for second and third. (replay here: Stonebridge Helios)

"He really raced well. Bob (McClure) had to go to plan B off the gate there and he was used pretty hard 'til the half, and then Jody (Jamieson) came hard, and he looked like he won comfortably enough. I'm sure if you asked the horse he'd think he was tired, but it looked good from where I was standing," said trainer John Pentland of London, who shares ownership of the colt with John Fleischman of Ottawa and breeder Angie Stiller of Arva, ON. "I was impressed that off a three week lay-off he could come back and race that well."

After debuting in the OSS program with a second-place result in the Grassroots season opener, Stonebridge Helios has been undefeated in Gold Series action, winning at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 16 and Aug. 14. Through five career starts, the colt boasts a record of three wins and two seconds for earnings of $162,125 and he sits atop the Gold Series standings with a perfect 150 points.

Provided he remains happy and healthy, Stonebridge Helios will make his next start in the Sept. 11 Champlain Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park, finish off the Gold Series regular season at Flamboro Downs on Oct. 3 and then return to Woodbine Mohawk Park for the Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final on Oct. 16.

"There's not a lot left on his plate, but that race (Champlain) and the Super Final are the two I am looking forward to," said Pentland, noting that his staff have been critical to the colt's success. "Everybody in my stable is treating this horse like he's royalty and it's kind of fun. It's just a fun year having a horse like this. We've been down this road before, luckily, and it's always a thrill. Keep throwing it at me, because I tell you it ain't ever going to get old, it's a thrill."

In the second $100,600 Gold Series division, Magical Arthur stormed away from Post 6 and hit the quarter in :27.4. On the way to the :56 half, driver Sylvain Filion yielded to fan favorites Betterhavemymoney and James MacDonald and Magical Arthur shadowed that colt briefly before stepping to the outside heading by the 1:25 three-quarters. A big finishing kick propelled Magical Arthur past the favorite and on to a one and three-quarter length victory in 1:52. Camealongway closed to be second, leaving Betterhavemymoney to settle for third. (replay here: Magical Arthur)

"He's actually getting real good at the right time of year, I guess is what most people would say, right," said trainer Anthony Beaton of Waterdown, ON. "It didn't look like he was going to get there, but then all of a sudden it was like he shook the gears again. He hit the right gear at the right time anyway, and he mowed down Nick's (Gallucci, Betterhavemymoney) horse there, which is a very nice horse too."

The win was Magical Arthur's third straight over the Woodbine Mohawk Park oval. The Artspeak son earned his first win in the Aug. 16 Grassroots Leg and then captured his Nassagaweya division on Aug. 28. The Nassagaweya was the only open stake event on the gelding's calendar, so he will enjoy a bit of downtime before the Oct. 3 Gold Leg at Flamboro Downs.

"He's probably earned the right to a few days off and maybe get a little freshening up. He still seems to be pretty fresh anyway, but it never hurts to freshen up a little, right, and get ready for Flamboro," said Beaton, who trains Magical Arthur for owner/breeder David Lumsden of Ancaster, ON.

"I've been super impressed with him, I've been impressed with him all along, but I've been just super impressed the last three starts with him. I'm just hoping things keep going forward, and he keeps getting better and we can have a real good year by the end of it."

Complete results for Saturday's stakes laden card are available here and replays can be viewed on Woodbine Mohawk Park's YouTube channel.

Goldie's Legacy holds, Selfie Queen reigns in Kentucky Championship prelims

The pacing sophomores joined the trotting freshmen in Kentucky Championship action on Sunday (Sept. 5), with Goldie's Legacy narrowly taking the $40,000 third preliminary for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings and Selfie Queen fighting to take the $40,000 fourth preliminary for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

Goldie's Legacy opened the card with a coast-to-coast score in 1:53.4 while withstanding a late charge from odds-on choice Komodo Beach. Driver Yannick Gingras protected position with the Jeff Cullipher trainee from the pylon post and set a clip of :29, :57.3 and 1:26.4 unopposed on the lead. Komodo Beach came rolling from third off the final turn and blitzed the pacesetter nearing the finish, though the line came in time for Goldie's Legacy as he won by a neck with the pair another three lengths clear of Mad Man Hill in third.

Co-owned by Cullipher with Pollack Racing LLC, Goldie's Legacy won his fifth race from 17 starts this season and his seventh from 27 overall, earning $126,985. The Always A Virgin gelding paid $4.40 to win.

Alongside the colt and gelding pace, So Irresistible later on the card struck a head decision in the $40,000 third preliminary for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Sent the 4-5 choice, driver Andrew McCarthy landed So Irresistible in fourth as Classicist led the field to the first quarter in :31.1. Dream Chaser circled to the lead into the backstretch before then yielding command to High Minded, who took the field by the half in 1:00.2. All the while So Irresistible remained in fourth until McCarthy mounted his charge off three-quarters in 1:28.4 for a stretch sprint. The daughter of Always B Miki fired to the finish in :26.1 to edge a head in front in a 1:55.3 mile over High Minded. Dream Chaser finished third.

Owned by Charles Nash and Julie Nash, So Irresistible won her sixth race from 19 starts this season and her seventh from 22 overall, earning $122,565. Noel Daley trains the $3.60 winner.

Selfie Queen strolled on the point in the freshmen trotting filly division and kept late challenger Adore Me at bay to win in a 1:57.4 mile.

Leaving from post 2, Selfie Queen cleared command to a :29.1 first quarter and faced no pressure to a :59.2. She continued to coast into the final turn as Adore Me motored first over from fourth towards and soon engaging the leader to three-quarters in 1:29.4. Selfie Queen remained resolute to the inside through the stretch, surviving a diminishing margin over Adore Me to hit the beam a head in front as More Than Ever rallied for third another two lengths behind.

Trained by Nancy Takter for owners Robert Leblanc, David Anderson and John Fielding, Selfie Queen won her fourth race from seven starts, earning $76,250. The Muscle Hill filly paid $2.20 to win.

Classic Hill pulled a minor upset in the $40,000 division for freshmen trotting colts and geldings by leading every step to stop the clock in 1:58.4.

With favorites Double Deceiver and Rebuff breaking stride before the start, Classic Hill was left to an easy lead with Looks Like Moni settling into second and Majestic J into third to a :30.2 first quarter. Gigondas tried to challenge first over up the backstretch, but broke stride before a :59.4 half. Looks Like Moni crept out of the pocket around the final turn, but Classic Hill continued on the lead by three-quarters in 1:29.4 and held firm to the finish to win by 1-1/2 lengths. Majestic J gave chase from third.

A colt by Muscle Hill, Classic Hill broke his maiden in his sixth start, banking $114,595 for owner John Schmucker. Mattias Melander drove the $16.00 winner for trainer Marcus Melander.

Caviart Lotus ($3.40) led the winners of the pair of $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings with a 1:54.2 win in rein to Andrew McCarthy for trainer Noel Daley. Native's Filou ($15.00) took the other division in 1:55.1 with Brian Sears in the bike for trainer Anette Lorentzon.

The lone $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth division for 3-year-old pacing fillies went the way of Wicked Ways ($16.00), who popped pocket to win in 1:55.3 with Randy D. Crisler in the sulky for trainer Ron Burke.

Bold And Beautiful ($78.60) upset in the quicker of two $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions with a 1:59.3 mile with Christian Lind driving for trainer Jonas Czernyson. Heavy favorite Date Night ($2.60) took the other division going gate to wire in 2:01 for driver Andy Miller and trainer Julie Miller.

Branded By Lindy ($2.40) bested the pair of $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth divisions for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings with an off-the-pace score in 1:58.1 for driver Yannick Gingras and trainer Domenico Cecere. Access ($3.00) ground first over to take the other division in 2:00 for driver Andrew McCarthy and trainer Bob Stewart.

Point totals for both the Kentucky Championship and Kentucky Commonwealth Series are available at the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission website.

Records fall on Clinton Raceway's 2021 season finale

Clinton Raceway wrapped up its 2021 season with a record-setting afternoon of racing on Sunday (Sept. 5).

Two-year-old pacing colt Sports Fan lowered the track record in the fourth of five $21,450 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots divisions and fans wagered an all-time high $132,279 on the card, which featured the 41st annual Charity Driver's Challenge, won by Trevor Henry. Henry captured three of the eight challenge races and finished with 200 points, well ahead of Bob McClure and Clinton Raceway's leading driver Natasha Day, who had 114 and 110 points respectively.

"It was a great day. There were lots of people in the stands, and it was nice to see that," said Arthur, ON resident Henry, who also won the challenge in 2007, 2013 and 2015.

James MacDonald piloted Sports Fan to the 1:56.3 record-setting mile, helping to ease the sting of his last-place result in the driver's challenge, which raised just over $10,000 for Branch 140 of the Royal Canadian Legion.

"A couple times I got to really hear the roar from the fans down the lane, because I was so far back. They were kind of done cheering when I got there," said MacDonald, with a wry chuckle.

"It was a great day; I would have liked to have done better, but at the same time I am happy for Trevor (Henry) and happy to see everything go so well."

Starting from Post 1, Sports Fan got away third as fan favorite Icey Shadow led the field to a :27.4 quarter. Heading for the :57.2 half MacDonald tipped Sports Fan into the outer lane, but was able to duck into the pocket before the 1:26.1 three-quarters. Sliding out late in the stretch, Sports Fan matched strides with Icey Shadow through the wire and was revealed the winner when the photograph was printed. Juju Hanover finished two and three-quarter lengths behind the duelling leaders in third.

The 1:56.3 mile took two-fifths of a second off the former track record of 1:57 first set by Thinkofagameplan in 2014, matched by Century Grizzly in 2019, and equalled earlier this summer by Icey Shadow in an Aug. 15 Prospect Series division.

"He's a homebred that my wife owns. He's been a nice little colt and is learning every start," said trainer Blake MacIntosh of the Sportswriter son owned by his wife Leanne Murphy of St. George and Stuart McIntosh of Essex, ON. "He could be a little excitable at times, but he's starting to get it."

MacDonald, who is currently Canada's leading driver, also won the third Grassroots division with Sports Advisor. Sent off as the fan's top choice from Post 2, MacDonald tucked Sports Advisor in third behind Highborn through a :29 quarter and :59.3 half. Heading for the 1:29.3 three-quarters, MacDonald sent the Sportswriter son after the leader and the gelding battled to the lead on the final turn and then cruised home a three and three-quarter length winner in 1:58.2 Highborn settled for second and TJ Spitfire was third.

"He raced really good as well. He's another big horse and they said he made a break warming up so I had to be a little careful with him," said MacDonald. "I had to come first up, but as soon as he got out there he was terrific. Up the backside he felt like he could have cleared Doug (McNair, Highborn), but we slugged it out in the turn and when I called on him at the top of the stretch he just opened up."

The Guelph resident engineered Sports Advisor's first lifetime win for trainer Rick Zeron and his co-owner John Donato, both of Oakville, ON.

Century Iglesias scored his first Ontario Sires Stakes win in the last $21,450 Grassroots division. Guelph resident Jody Jamieson piloted the Shadow Play gelding to the 1:57.3 score, impressing owner/trainer Jack Darling of Cambridge, ON.

"Training down he was very unimpressive. I really didn't think he would amount to too much," said Darling. "He didn't really show me anything special, but when we got closer to racing I put him in the race bike and boom he was much better, and then I put him behind the gate and he's kind of surprised me every time. He's just a really nice colt, very honest."

A native of Exeter, ON, Darling also enjoyed the rest of Clinton Raceway's season finale, both watching the races and visiting with old friends.

"They had a heck of a crowd here today, it was nice to see," said Darling. "I like walking up to the stands, I just run into all kinds of people, old friends, people I haven't seen for years."

The other two Grassroots divisions were captured by Stews Watching and Chikaboom.

Tyler Moore guided Hes Watching son Stews Watching to a

1:58.2 score in the first Grassroots split for his father, trainer Dr. Ian Moore of Cambridge, ON, and owners Ratchford Stable NS of North Sydney, NS. Outclassed and Stone Carver finished more than three lengths behind the favorite. With his third Grassroots win, Stews Watching currently sits atop the two-year-old pacing colt standings with 150 points.

Fan favorite Chikaboom reeled in Ron for a 1:57.4 victory in the second division, with Messiah rounding out the top three. Bob McClure of Rockwood drove the Betterthancheddar son to his first Grassroots win for trainer Julie Walker of Carlisle, ON and owner/breeder Harold Duguay of Pabos, QC. Chikaboom has won four of his five career starts, his only loss coming in his Grassroots debut at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Aug. 16.

The 2-year-old pacing colts will wrap up their regular season at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Sept. 16. The top 20 point earners will then advance to the Sept. 30 Semi-Finals and the top five finishers from each Semi-Final will compete in the Grassroots Championships on Oct. 9.

Better Rock, Virgo capture ISS divisions at Hoosier Park

The Hoosier state's top 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings rounded out a week's worth of stakes action at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Sunday (Sept. 5) as two $52,000 divisions were featured on the evening's 13-race card. It was the sixth round of their eight-round series as they all looked to gain valuable points for the season-culminating $250,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Finals slated for Oct. 15 at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Better Rock and driver Sam Widger turned in a valiant stretch rally to capture the opening division in 1:50.4. Leaving from post four, Better Rock was unhurried from the gate and settled along the rail in seventh while Brookview Bullet and Ricky Macomber Jr. dictated fractions on the front. Widger moved Better Rock to the outer flow and the pair were perfectly placed second-over turning for home. Using a :27.1 final quarter, Better Rock was able to track down the leaders and hold off a late charge from T's Raider II and Trace Tetrack to get the win by three parts of a length. Big Gulp and Jay Cross rallied well to round out the trifecta. Better Rock returned $11.80 for the win.

Trained by Ernie Gaskin, the gelded son of Rockin Image—Bettor Business recorded his first win of the season from 15 season starts and established a new lifetime best. Better Rock has now amassed $87,100 for owners Desyllas Racing and William Beck. Better Rock was bred by Gary Graber.

In the second division, Virgo and Trace Tetrack used a near gate to wire effort to get the win by a nose in 1:50.3. Leaving from post two, Tetrack let Virgo settle off the gate before giving him the green light just before the half. Virgo ranged up to take command and led the field to the three-quarters with Rockin On Venus and Michael Oosting getting the pocket trip.

As the field turned for home, it was a cavalry charge to the wire. Finding a :27.1 closing quarter, Virgo battled gamely in the lane and was able to hold off a late sure from Ultimarooca and Sam Widger to get the win by a nose. Saddle Up and John DeLong also staged a big rally late in the lane to round out the trifecta. As the second betting choice, Virgo returned $8.60 at the betting windows.

Trained by Dylan Davis, Virgo notched his third win from nine starts this season. The gelded son of Always A Virgin—Star of the Show has now amassed $218,152 for his ownership group of H A Taylor, J A Billings, and D P Davis. Virgo now sports a lifetime record of 18-6-6-2 and was bred by Dustin Miller.

Live racing will continue at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino tonight (Sept. 8) with a 14-race card. The evening's 14-race card will feature a $40,000 Guaranteed Hoosier High-5 after the sequence went unsolved on Sunday and produced a carryover of $11,293.70. Late bloomers score Grassroots wins at Woodbine Mohawk Park

A move from the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series to the Grassroots paid dividends for a trio of 2-year-old trotting colts at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Monday (Sept. 6).

After a pair of fifth-place finishes at the Gold Series level, Fight Song made his Grassroots debut in the first $22,500 division on Monday. Driver Trevor Henry had the Kadabra son in high gear from the start and Fight Song powered away from Post 9 to a :28.4 opening quarter. Usurp Hanover enjoyed a brief moment on the lead heading down the backstretch, but Henry opted not to sit behind that lightly-rated colt and had Fight Song back out front before the :58.3 half. The gelding cruised through a 1:28.2 three-quarters and then held off a charging Sea Can in the stretch to record his first lifetime victory in 1:58.2. Favorite Marvin Hagler finished third. (replay here: Fight Song)

"He's just kind of a late bloomer. He has the ability, and we expect he's going to be a nice horse, he was just a few weeks behind the other ones," said trainer Meg Crone of Cambridge, ON, noting that the gelding did not qualify in New Jersey until July 10. "He's one I expect will get a little better each time he races."

Richard "Nifty" Norman taught Fight Song his early lessons and gave him one start at The Meadowlands on July 16 before sending him north to Crone for the Ontario Sires Stakes campaign. John Fielding of Toronto and David Anderson of Aurora, ON own the youngster, who was a $72,000 purchase out of the 2020 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Archery Seelster made his debut at the Grassroots level, winning his division of the July 31 leg at Hiawatha Horse Park, then moved up to the Gold for the Aug. 19 event at Woodbine Mohawk Park where he finished fifth. The Wheeling N Dealin son then tried his hand against open company in the Champlain Stakes and finished seventh, prompting Monday's return to the Grassroots level.

Starting from Post 6, driver Louis-Philippe Roy eased Archery Seelster away from the gate and did not find a spot on the rail. The favorite was hung out in fifth when Evil Guy reached the :29 quarter and off the tepid pace Roy opted to drive on. Second by the :59 half, Archery Seelster was in command by the 1:28.1 three-quarters and then dug in down the stretch to fend off Mask Of Zoro by a head in a personal best 1:57.4. Evil Guy rounded out the top three. (replay here: Archery Seelster)

"He's kind of a colt that is still learning," said trainer Marcel Barrieau. "So I figured go with the Grassroots and build his confidence up and teach him to race, because he doesn't know how to do that yet. He just goes and stops, and starts and goes, he's not mature as far as racing is concerned, but he's got lots of go so it's something to work with. They can't be all Cadillac's I guess, it's something you've got to teach him."

Barrieau shares ownership of Archery Seelster with Gestion Mastel Inc. of Longueuil, QC. An $85,150 purchase at last fall's London Virtual Yearling Sale, Archery Seelster currently sits atop the two-year-old trotting colt Grassroots standings with 100 points.

Like Archery Seelster, Lexus Ranger started his campaign at the Grassroots level, finishing fourth in both the July 15 season opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the July 31 event at Hiawatha Horse Park. The Archangel son then tested his mettle against Gold Series foes on Aug. 19 and finished third. The gelding got his first lifetime win in an Aug. 26 overnight event at Woodbine Mohawk Park, but trainer/driver Paul MacDonell opted for a return to the Grassroots level.

Starting from Post 6, fan favorites MacDonell and Lexus Ranger landed in fourth as Renegade Gypsy led the field to a :29.1 quarter, and then tipped into the outer lane just before the 1:00.2 half. After matching strides with Renegade Gypsy through the 1:29.4 three-quarters, Lexus Ranger shifted into a bigger gear in the stretch and pulled away to a one and three-quarter length win in a personal best 1:57.4. HP Maestro finished second and Armstead Cole closed for third. (replay here: Lexus Ranger)

"He took care of business tonight," said MacDonell. "I think he's raced good every time. He was out-positioned a few times and the race in Sarnia (July 31) he really didn't like the track, but other than that he's raced good pretty much every time we've raced him. He's come along real nice for me."

Guelph resident MacDonell trains Lexus Ranger for owner/breeder Norm Dunstan of Caledon Village, ON. The gelding's mother Lexus Helios was both a Grassroots and Gold Series winner in her $230,981 career and his three-year-old full-brother Lexus Kody has a Gold Series win to his credit this summer.

The two-year-old trotting colts will wrap up their Grassroots regular season at Grand River Raceway on Sept. 13. The top 20 point earners will then compete in Semi-Final action on Sept. 30, with the top five finishers earning a berth in the Oct. 9 Grassroots Championship at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Complete results from Monday's races are available here and replays can be found on Woodbine Mohawk Park's YouTube channel.

Ontario Sires Stakes action is back at the Campbellville oval next Monday, Sept. 13 with the fourth Grassroots Leg for the 2-year-old trotting fillies.
