Jiggy Jog S dominant in $1 million MGM Yonkers International Trot

After finishing second in last year's International, the mare, bred in Sweden, stepped to the top of the podium.

by Yonkers Raceway media

Mike Lizzi

Jiggy Jog S (Dexter Dunn) winning the MGM Yonkers International Trot on Saturday at Yonkers in 2:25 over one-and-a-quarter miles.

Jiggy Jog S improved from second in last year's MGM Yonkers International Trot to first in this year's $1 million edition held Saturday afternoon (Sept. 7) at Yonkers Raceway. She prevailed for driver Dexter Dunn and trainer Ake Svanstedt in 2:25 for the mile and a quarter distance.

The mare, a familiar face to the North American racing scene, was representing Sweden where she was bred.

Canadian representative Logan Park, driven by Doug McNair, got away well from post 5, but Dunn wanted the front with Jiggy Jog S and moved her out of second to take over the lead beyond the :29.3 opening quarter. Jiggy Jog S was well-rated and didn't face any outside pressure through a sensible tempo of :58.2 and 1:27.2, while Hail Mary (Orjan Kihlstrom), another Swedish representative, went first-up from fifth on the way to three-quarters, giving cover to the U.S. representative Periculum, driven by Scott Zeron.

Dexter Dunn,

and Steve and Cindy Stewart.

Hail Mary couldn't really make any progress on the rim towards the 1:55.4 mile marker, and that allowed Jiggy Jog S to get separation on the others as Periculum went three-wide early on the last turn. There was no catching Jiggy Jog S, though, as she kept clear and allowed Dunn to raise his whip in celebration through the stretch. Periculum, coming off a victory in the Maple Leaf Trot a week ago, was a good second, 3½ lengths behind Jiggy Jog S. France's Ideal San Leandro (Bjorn Goop) was third. Logan Park finished fourth, while It's Academic (David Miller) finished fifth for the U.S.

"[Jiggy Jog S is] an amazing mare," Dunn said. "It's always a pleasure to sit behind her. For her to win a race like that just adds to her great career."

"She's been in such great form. I talked to Ake and Sarah [Svanstedt] before the race, and they were confident that she could go on the front today against these ones, but it was always going to be up to seeing what happened early. There was a bit of speed from outside and a little bit from inside, but she left so well herself. Once the option was there to re-move and go to the front, we took that chance. We got pretty good fractions after that. I was sort of waiting for a bit more pressure in the middle of the race, but she was strong."

"She was a good and clear second last year, but she was only a 4-year-old mare then. It's always a big step up when they finish their 3-year-old year and in their 4-year-old year they've got to race the open horses. She's just gotten so much stronger and bigger and mentally tougher this year. You'll see she's been raced pretty lightly so far. Ake and Sarah have been taking their time and not racing her too much to make sure she's there at the end of the year for the Breeders Crown. It's a fun ride to be on. It's always fun to sit behind her, and we'll be looking forward to that for the rest of the year."

A 5-year-old daughter of Walner out of Hot Mess Hanover bred by Vestmarka AB, Jiggy Jog S is co-owned by Svanstedt in partnership with Steve Stewart, John Lengacher and Hickory Hollow Stables. She has a summary of 23-10-2 from 40 starts and has banked $2,970,391. She paid $3.70 to win as the favorite. She was atop a $16.00 exacta and a $316 trifecta.

"Those races are never easy," said Sarah. "She has kind of peaked the last couple of days. She was a little bit tired after the Cashman and the Pocono race, too, actually. It's tough when you have those kind of plans you have to follow and you can't really give a week or two more off — it's tricky. I was so satisfied with her in the last turn. She's tremendous."

"Maybe the Caesar's Classic or Lexington [are next]. We'll have to see how she gets out of this race to start with."

While Steve Stewart is known more on the breeding side of the sport through his Hunterton Farms, he said that he hopes Jiggy Jog S has plenty of more racing to do before she becomes a broodmare.

Ari Ferrari J (Jason Bartlett) was the winner of the $250,000 Bob Miccuna Invitational for older trotters.

"I told [my wife] Cindy that I hope three years from now people come to us and say, 'Will you please take that damn filly and breed her?'" Steve said. "I told all of our partners we have enough broodmares. We don't need another one at the moment, as long as she can compete at this level, and she appears to have a lot of fun with it.

"Ake and Sarah, I think, don't own a lot of broodmares, and so I think that their dream is to probably race her for many, many years, and that's our dream, to continue racing. What an opportunity and I think it's good for the sport."

ARI FERRARI J WINS BOB MIECUNA INVITATIONAL TROT

Earlier on the card, Ari Ferrari J was the winner of the $250,000 Bob Miccuna Invitational for older trotters after he covered the mile and a sixteenth distance in 2:00.4. With his share of the purse, Ari Ferrari J went past the $1-million mark in lifetime earnings.

After showing some speed from post 2, driver Jason Bartlett wheeled Ari Ferrari J to the outside in the early stages from third and made his way by early leader Cecil Hanover (driven by Ake Svanstedt) past the 29-second opening quarter. Ari Ferrari J never faced a serious threat from there, as he glided through panels of :27.4 and 1:26 on his way to the win by two lengths. Cecil Hanover checked in second over Take All Comers (Jordan Stratton) and favored M-M's Dream (David Miller), who advanced from eighth to fourth. Amigo Volo (Dexter Dunn) collected fifth.

"Being off the inside there, the gate kind of takes off on us and at times you can just give them their head a little bit and they'll try to switch gears and run," said Bartlett. "So, I was more worried about just getting him off on the right foot and then just taking the race how it came. Only a couple left, so I was actually in a really good spot going into the first turn.

"He won so easily last time out of the hole, and I was very excited when I saw he was in this race today. He had a start over the track and I kind of knew him at The Meadowlands and loved him there and loved him last week. We actually drew a good spot and he didn't disappoint."

Tony Alagna trains Ari Ferrari J, a 4-year-old son of Walner—Dream Child bred by M Biasuzzi Stable Inc., for owner Ken Jacobs. Ari Ferrari J is an 11-time victor from 39 starts. He has earned $1,014,931. He paid $16 to win as a 7-1 offering. The exacta was $156.50 and the trifecta was worth $2,841.

It was a thumbs-up kind of day for driver Dexter Dunn after winning the MGM Yonkers International Trot.

DESPERATE MAN WINS ARIA INVITATIONAL

Following the MGM Yonkers International Trot, and after a downpour caused a delay, the $250,000 Aria Invitational for older pacers was sent on its way, and 1-5 favorite Desperate Man delivered for driver Matt Kakaley and trainer Travis Alexander in 1:57.4 for the mile and a sixteenth distance.

Desperate Man got away fourth from post 1, but Kakaley put him in motion before the :26.3 quarter and got by MGM Borgata Pacing Series champion Hellabalou (Yannick Gingras) to take command past that station. From there, Desperate Man continued to show the way through a half-mile of :55.2 and three-quarters in 1:23 as he got separation from Hellabalou and a first-over Coaches Corner (Jason Bartlett), who vacated the pylons on the second turn, stalled out.

Around the final bend and to the wire Desperate Man remained well in front of the rest of the horses, and he hit the wire 4¼ lengths ahead of a game Coaches Corner. Dunkin' (Tim Tetrick) wound up two-wide throughout and followed the cover of Coaches Corner to get third, Hellabalou faded to fourth and Its A Me Mario (Lauren Tritton), who also never saw the pylons and wound up in the outer tier, was the fifth-place finisher.

"[Desperate Man is] a really good horse," Kakaley said. "He perseveres. When I got parked here [in the MGM Borgata Pacing Series final], he bounced back [in the Battle of Lake Erie] at Northfield. Two weeks ago at Batavia [when he was bothered by a breaker and still won], that was a disaster in the last turn and he bounced back. He's special for sure."

A 6-year-old Shadow Play—Dreamlands Latte gelding trained by Travis Alexander, Desperate Man was bred by Winbak Farm and is owned by Kathy Cecchin. Desperate Man made his 26th appearance in the winner's circle and has now earned $1,445,274. He paid $2.70 to win as the 1-5 favorite. He was atop a $13.60 exacta and a $78.50 trifecta.

"Think about it, every time he races for money something happens," Alexander said. "He just finally got a clean trip."

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Champions crowned in New York Sire Stakes finals at Yonkers

by Yonkers Raceway media

The best freshman and sophomore pacers and trotters sired by New York stallions were at MGM Yonkers Raceway on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 7) to contest eight $225,000 New York Sire Stakes finals.

R Melina kicked off the trotting finals with a 1:54.4 triumph in the event for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

Senorita Palema (Ake Svanstedt) blasted to the front from post 3 and led the way through fractions of :28, :57.3 and 1:26.1. Meanwhile, R Melina (Tyler Buter) tucked into fourth from post 7, came first-up passing the half and made it into second on the outside prior to three-quarters.

On the final turn, Buter was able to get into the pocket as Sister Mary Maude (Joe Bongiorno) gapped that position. After briefly “bravening up,” Buter brought R Melina back off the cones before they turned for home. Senorita Palema was game and dug in under Svanstedt’s urging through the stretch drive, but R Melina wouldn’t be denied and surged by her to prevail by a half-length. Sadbirdstillsing (Jason Bartlett) turned a second-over trip into a third-place finish. Sister Mary Maude and Hippie Shake (Mark MacDonald) completed the top five.

“She raced huge,” said Buter. “It was unfortunate to draw the 7-hole, but she overcame it. She’s very gritty. As long as you give her a little breather, she’s going to race good for you.”

Trainer John Butenschoen said that R Melina will be heading to Woodbine Mohawk Park to race in the Elegantimage Stakes, providing she comes out of Saturday’s contest in good shape.

A daughter of Chapter Seven—Goodtogo Hanover, R Melina was bred by Marsh Valley Standardbreds and is owned by M And L Of Delaware LLC. and Alabama Harness Associates LLC. R Melina has 14 wins, two seconds and two thirds in 23 appearances and has pocketed $827,014.

She returned $3.80 to win as the 4-5 favorite. She led a $14 exacta and a $56.50 trifecta.

MGM Yonkers Trot champion Sir Pinocchio (Bartlett) was a 1:54.2 victor in the final for sophomore male trotters. Sir Pinocchio drew post 8, but thanks to two scratches, moved into the 6-hole. He took advantage of the improved starting position by blasting out and clearing Super Duper Cooper (Yannick Gingras) with little dispute on the first turn.

Once he had command, Sir Pinocchio was on top at the :28.2 quarter, :57.3 half and 1:26.2 three-quarters, then pulled away from his competition for a four-length victory. Super Duper Cooper held second, with Nottingham (David Miller), Thinker Monkey (Scott Zeron) and Keep Asking (Buter) coming in third through fifth, respectively.

"I worked hard all year to follow these horses and so far it's worked out pretty well," said Bartlett. "I was just worried a little bit about the first turn and making sure he got through there. On the last turn he had a lot of trot, I was just hoping he didn't over-trot himself. He was really good today again. It seems like he's getting a little better right now as the season's kind of winding down. He's been great all year, don't get me wrong, but he seems really good the last two starts."

Sir Pinocchio, a gelding by Met's Hall out of Lady Cromwell, was sent out by trainer Ed Hart for owner/breeder Carolyn Atherton. This was his 10th lifetime victory. His career earnings are now $577,853. He returned $2.10 to win as the 1-9 choice. The exacta was worth $5.10 and the trifecta kicked back $41.60.

"He was really good today," said Hart. "He's just a good horse who takes care of himself. He comes back in a week; he's going to Canada for the Canadian Trotting Classic – elimination and the final – and then he's got the Simpson and the Matron at Dover."

Variiegated (Braxten Boyd) pulled off a 55-1 stunner in the 2-year-old male trot, rallying up the inside from the pocket to break his maiden in 1:56.3. The complexion of the contest changed on the first turn when 1-5 choice Super Chapter (Dexter Dunn) made a break, allowing Happy Jack B (Buter) to go to the front and carve out a tempo of :28.1, :57 and 1:26.1 while Variiegated sat in the 2-hole and Civilian Drone (Gingras) made progress on the rim after going first-up from fourth on the third turn.

Civilian Drone sustained his bid into the lane and wrestled the lead away from Happy Jack B, but Variiegated scooted through on the cones and got by Civilian Drone late for the victory by a half-length. Moonshot S (Zeron) was the third-place finisher at 85-1, followed by Karinchak (MacDonald) and Happy Jack B. Variiegated did go inside one pylon coming off the last turn, but after posting the inquiry sign, the judges determined that he did not gain an unfair advantage and the result stood.

"He's been racing well in New York," trainer Marcus Melander said. "He has three seconds. He got the trip he needed and he just got there."

Melander said Variiegated is likely heading to The Red Mile next.

"Obviously I thought my other horse, Super Chapter, was the one that was going to win that race because I think he was very much the best, but he made a break in the first turn," Melander said.

R Melina (Tyler Buter) winning the New York Sire Stakes final for 3-year-old trotting fillies in 1:54.4 on Saturday at Yonkers.

Bred by Order By Stable, Variegated is a Chapter Seven–White Cheetah colt owned by S R F Stable. He won for the first time in his seventh trip behind the gate. He has banked $206,570. He returned $113 to win. The exacta was $1,042 and the trifecta $18,981.

Royal Mission gave Melander both halves of the 2-year-old trots when she took the filly tilt in 1:58.2 for Zeron. After DW’s Lady Diva scratched and Morning Angel (Bjorn Goop) and Beautiful Sight (Buter) broke early, just My Debt Collector (Miller), Royal Mission and Calculus Risk (Jordan Stratton) were left in contention, and My Debt Collector chopped out panels of :29.1, 1:00.2 and 1:29.4 with Royal Mission second and Calculus Risk third.

Zeron guided Royal Mission to the outside on the last turn and appeared to have an advantage on My Debt Collector coming off the bend, but My Debt Collector was game and battled all the way to the wire. She just couldn’t rally back around Royal Mission, though, as she kept her head in front. Calculus Risk was third, followed by Beautiful Sight and Morning Angel.

“She raced well,” Melander said. “She’s done great all year to be honest. The final last time in the Peaceful Way, just forget it. She got a little excited there, too, and he might have choked her a little bit. She raced well in the elimination and she’s been racing well all year. This is the kind of trip she likes, too, chasing down other horses.

"She's staked to most stuff, so we'll see."

Starting from outside positions on the gate proved no problem for 3-year-old male pacer Howlenthedhills and 3-year-old female pacer Tarrific as they cruised to victories in their respective New York Sire Stakes championships.

Winning the NYSS finals for 2-year-old pacers were colt Courts On Fire and filly The Last Martini.

Howlenthedhills, who started from post 8 on the half-mile oval with Matt Kakaley in the sulky, bettered defending NYSS champ Boston Rocks by 1½ lengths in 1:53 to capture his crown. Vandiemmen Bluechip nosed out Taranaki for third.

Vandiemmen Bluechip (Boyd), and Boston Rocks (Bartlett), took turns on the lead before Howlenthedhills grabbed the top spot for good prior to reaching the opening quarter in :27.1. From there, Howlenthedhills got to the half in 56 seconds and three-quarters in 1:24.2 on his way to his sixth consecutive victory and 12th in 13 tries this season.

"[Getting to the front] was kind of my plan, but if they were going to mix it up, he's actually okay off a helmet, too," Kakaley said. "He doesn't need to be on the front. He's a good horse and he tries hard. It's been a good year."

Trained by Travis Alexander, Howlenthedhills is owned by Symmetry Stables. The son of American Ideal—Arielle Lynn was bred by Crawford Farms. Winless in eight races as a 2-year-old, the gelding has earned $539,209 lifetime.

Howlenthedhills paid $6.50 to win as the 2-1 second choice behind even-money favorite Boston Rocks. The exacta paid $13; the trifecta $65.

Tarrific won the championship for sophomore fillies by 2¾ lengths over A Few Choice Words in 1:53. Avyanna finished third.

A Few Choice Words and driver Jim Marohn, Jr. took the early lead from post 6, but Tarrific, who started from post 7, pushed forward with Bartlett in the sulky and got to the front prior to reaching the opening quarter in :27.4. She remained in control from there, hitting the half in :57.1 and three-quarters in 1:25.4.

"[Post] 7 is not the easiest, so I was quite happy to see her make the lead without too much of a problem," winning trainer Chris Ryder said.

Tarrific, a daughter of Huntsville—Road Bet bred by Stephen Dey III, counts Dan Patch Award-winner Niki Hill (also trained by Ryder), millionaire stallion Cattlewash, and Grand Circuit-winner Earthwindfire among her siblings. Tarrific was winless in seven starts last year but finished second on four occasions. This year, she has won six of 10 starts for owners Margaret Dey and Let It Ride Stables.

"She went a lot of fast miles [last year] but finished second a bunch of times and never was able to get the win," Ryder said about Tarrific, who has earned $377,109 in her career. “But the 2-year-old experience helped her a lot starting back this year. She’s reeling off wins this year in New York very well. We’re just very grateful.”

Tarrific, the 1-5 favorite, paid $2.40 to win. The exacta returned $11 and the trifecta $55.50.

In the final for the 2-year-old fillies, The Last Martini overtook 1-5 favorite Cowgirl Hanover in mid-stretch to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:54 in a battle between Jared Bako-trained stablemates. Send It Down Slim finished third.

Send It Down Slim and MacDonald blasted from post 7 to grab the lead heading to the first turn, but Doug McNair soon had Cowgirl Hanover in motion and was on top as they reached the opening quarter in 28 seconds.

Cowgirl Hanover hit the half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:25.3 but was under first-over pressure from The Last Martini and driver Bartlett, who were third for the first half of the race, as the field made its way to the final turn. The Last Martini got the job done from there, picking up her third win in six races this season.

The Last Martini had finished second to Cowgirl Hanover in her previous start on Aug. 23 at Vernon Downs. The two also met Aug. 14 at Batavia, where The Last Martini handed Cowgirl Hanover her only loss in seven starts heading into Saturday's NYSS final.

"They're an incredible pair of fillies to train," Bako said. "The Last Martini didn't get started as early as Cowgirl, that's why she doesn't have the same kind of record. But, at the end of the day, they both can't win every week.

"I thought Cowgirl was as good as anything off of that trip, and [The Last Martini] just really stepped up."

The Last Martini is owned by Glenview Livestock. The daughter of Huntsville—Martinique was bred by Crawford Farms. She has earned $246,294.

"She was really good in her last start, she just got locked in, so I knew we had a good shot," Bartlett said. "It got a little scary leaving; she almost made a break because she was touching her knees a little bit, but as she got settled in, she was good."

Sent off as the 2-1 second choice, The Last Martini paid $6.40 to win. The exacta was $8.30, and the trifecta returned $28.

Courts On Fire closed the MGM Yonkers International Trot Day card with a 14-1 upset in his NYSS final, defeating Holt Hanover, sent off at 22-1, by 3½ lengths in 1:53.3. Thirsty Thursday, the 4-5 co-favorite with Fast Choice, who made an early break, finished third.

Gingras hustled Courts On Fire to the lead from post 6 before yielding the top spot to Thirsty Thursday and driver Kakaley on their way to a :27.1 opening quarter. Courts On Fire remained in the pocket through a half in :56.1, then was put in motion to challenge Thirsty Thursday just prior to hitting three-quarters in 1:25.

Courts On Fire took the lead exiting the last turn and continued on to his second win of the season in seven starts. He has finished in the top three a total of six times.

Trainer Blake MacIntosh owns Courts On Fire with Hutt Racing Stable, Tim Klemencic, and Daniel Plouffe. The son of Courtly Choice—Ashlee's Spitfire was bred by Winbak Farm and has earned $198,188.

"He's been a nice colt all year," MacIntosh said. "He's a little bit of a lazy horse and Yannick woke him up a bit today and he got the job done.

"I knew that if he got a trip and Yannick was aggressive with him, he'd have a shot. I didn't know if he could get by Thirsty Thursday there, but he just dug in and kept going. Everything just worked out perfect for him. Yannick gave him a super drive."

Courts On Fire, who MacIntosh said was finished racing this year, paid $31.20 to win. The exacta returned $342, and the trifecta paid $683.

New Jersey Classic finals in the books

The eight $250,000 events at The Meadowlands on Friday night were won by: Buy A Round, R Charm, Captain Optimistic, Arbitrage Hanover, Rocket Deo, My Sweet Lily, Tony Adams S and Onajetplane.

by Meadowlands media relations

Hambletonian Oaks runner-up Buy A Round breezed over the top of her peers and R Charm burst off a helmet to win in the $250,000 New Jersey Classic finals for 3-year-old and 2-year-old trotting fillies, respectively, on Friday night (Sept. 6) at The Meadowlands.

Buy A Round ripped from third over without any urging from driver Andrew McCarthy to score a 1:51.4 win pulling away in the 3-Year-Old Filly Trot.

The Noel Daley trainee this time had speed to chase after just missing from a first-half crawl in the elimination. Once Chapambro planted herself onto the point past a :27.4 first quarter, all eyes waited on the move by 1-2 favorite Warrawee Michelle, who plotted her course of attack from fourth. Eventually the pursuers forced her hand, and she led the two-wide tier first up into a :56.4 half.

Warrawee Michelle blitzed Chapambro around the final turn and seized the lead trotting to three-quarters in 1:24.4, leaving second-over Soiree Hanover with open road into the straightaway. Despite the brazen far-turn rush, Warrawee Michelle levelled off in the stretch as did Soiree Hanover to her outside. But McCarthy came calling with Buy A Round without raising the whip or a muscle to swoop to the lead and pull clear to victory by a widening two lengths. Stablemate Miss I La pounced off a ground-saving trip to take second with Warrawee Michelle holding third from Soiree Hanover in fourth.

“The performance at Pocono was pretty dull [in the Delmonica Hanover],” McCarthy said. “That was first-time Lasix, so they decided to take her back off it and she’s been super sharp ever since. I figured if they moved along a little bit more, we should be okay tonight. She’s just so fast. Crazy fast. If you wait for the right time, she can usually pick them off.”

A daughter of Walner out of the Cantab Hall mare On Your Tab, Buy A Round won her third race from nine starts this season and her ninth race from 18 starts in her career, good for $680,558 in earnings. She races for owner/breeder Fred Hertrich III and paid $8 to win.

R Charm emerged from the pack in a stretch sprint to collar tempo-setter Kendra and pull a 19-1 upset in the NJC 2-Year-Old Filly Trot.

“Everything worked out perfectly [for R Charm],” trainer Linda Toscano said after the race. Driver Scott Zeron found the daughter of Propulsion a seat to a :27.2 first quarter in fifth, a prime nest to catch a second-over ride as Lady Landia began her uncovered pursuit out of fourth after Kendra to a :56.4 half.

Zeron steadily tipped R Charm from Lady Landia’s cover spinning off three-quarters in 1:26.1 and gathered steam while Kendra sputtered on the ropes. R Charm kept chugging and chugging, unfettered by the late-stretch break by Lady Landia, to overhaul Kendra in the last eighth and draw off to a two-length victory in a lifetime-best 1:53.3. Delaney Hanover, the 1-5 favorite, recovered from traffic trouble to snatch second from Kendra while Santa Caterina closed for fourth.

“I like this filly – I loved her every start,” Toscano said. “It was unfortunate, going for big money in Canada, that she made a break [in the Peaceful Way Stakes], but tonight I’m watching it unfold and I’m saying ‘This is exactly what I was hoping.

CAPTAIN OPTIMISTIC, ARBITRAGE HANOVER TAKE COLT PACES

Captain Optimistic and driver Yannick Gingras, along with Arbitrage Hanover and driver Todd McCarthy, won their $150,000 New Jersey Classic finals for 2- and 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers, respectively.

Captain Optimistic, the prohibitive favorite at 1-9, floated off the gate and followed Tom Horn through the first turn and into a :26.3 first quarter. Tom Horn moved to the lead and past Manolete onto the backstretch, leaving Captain Optimistic on the outside.

First over and gliding, Gingras volleyed Captain Optimistic past Tom Horn and guided the field to the half in :55.1.

"I didn't want to get to the lead," Gingras said after the race, "but he felt great and I didn't want to be stuck near the back."

Todd McCarthy urged Manolete to challenge for the top again, passing Tom Horn and attempting to duel with Captain Optimistic as he clocked the 1:24.1 three-quarters. Captain Optimistic "responded well," said Gingras after the race, as the pair easily dismissed the challenge with a :26 final panel to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:50.1, a personal best.

Manolete held second over a fast-closing Papis Pistol, who made up a lot of ground after being rough-gaited around the first turn and forced to retreat. McCusker finished fourth.

Nancy Takter trains Captain Optimistic, a 2-year-old by Captaintreacherous out of the Art Official mare Cinamony. It was the fourth win in three first-season starts and it raised the colt's earnings to $103,665.

"The equipment changes worked well," Gingras said. "He was good in his mouth. He steered good and straight."

Fair Winds Farm bred the colt owned by 3 Brothers Stables, Marvin Katz and Caviart Farms. The winner paid $2.20.

In the New Jersey Classic final for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers, favorites Arbitrage Hanover and Wish You Well dominated around the two turns and against the six other sophomores, but gelding Arbitrage Hanover got the best of his major foe to win by a length in 1:50.2.

Longshot Swimwiththecurrent managed the top spot going into the first turn, but was quickly confronted by Arbitrage Hanover and Wish You Well heading to a :27.4 first panel. Wish You Well landed on the lead on the backstretch with all happy to sit behind him, except Todd McCarthy. Undaunted by his foe, McCarthy took to the outside and reclaimed control past a :55.4 half.

Arbitrage Hanover remained on the muscle to three-quarters in 1:24.3 and continued with all four cylinders revving. McCarthy ghosted Wish You Well in the lane as Arbitrage Hanover won easily by a length in 1:50.2. Wish You Well

Trainer Brett Pelling said that Arbitrage Hanover "had some glitches at 2" but "we're super happy how he's come back [at 3]."

According to Pelling, Arbitrage Hanover won't be entered in this year's Breeders Crown, and did say, "We think he's nice enough to race at 4."

Arbitrage Hanover is a son of Bettor's Wish out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Ana Hanover. Pelling Racing LLC, Rojan Stables and Bridle Path Stables LTD own Arbitrage Hanover, who paid $5.60 to win and raised his bankroll to $289,250.

ROCKET DEO, MY SWEET LILY PREVAIL IN PACING FILLY FINALS

Sophomore Rocket Deo and freshman My Sweet Lily had no problems making their early foot take them to the wire and then to Victory Lane in the New Jersey Classic finals for pacing fillies.

Rocket Deo, a daughter of Captaintreacherous out of double millionaire Rocklamation, was sent off at 1-5 in the $150,000 New Jersey Classic final for 3-year-old pacing fillies, and she lived up to that billing with a 1:50.1 victory.

Andy McCarthy was content to race Rocket Deo behind the early cover of his brother Todd, guiding second choice Miraculous Deo, as that one cleared just past a :26.3 initial split. Rocket Deo then moved to the front, reaching the half in :55.3 and then three-quarters in 1:23.3 as Donegal Spirit gained uncovered on the far turn. The race boiled down to these three, with Miraculous Deo edging out of the pocket late and Donegal Spirit lasting bravely after the grinding trip, but they were no match for Rocket Deo, who triumphed by a length over Miraculous Deo, with Donegal Spirit another neck back in third.

Rocket Deo, whom Brett Pelling trains, now has eight seasonal victories and a lifetime bankroll of $340,951 for Morrison Racing Stables and John Fielding.

"She's a big, robust filly," McCarthy said after winning his second Classic of the night. "I wasn't really worried about my filly [holding onto the lead]. I gave her a few taps to remind her to go on; she always gives her best every week."

In the $150,000 New Jersey Classic final for 2-year-old pacing fillies, 4-5 favorite My Sweet Lily was driven like she was the best by Yannick Gingras, and she came home in :26.4 to set a lifetime mark of 1:51.2.

The daughter of Sweet Lou—Mimi's Lily cleared longshot Fashion Terror just before a :27.4 quarter with Worklifebalance and Reckless Abandon landing in third and fourth, respectively. Gingras backed off the half to :56.4, then turned up the speed to reach the three-quarters in 1:24.3 as Worklifebalance came first-over entering the far turn, with Reckless Abandon on her back. Into the stretch, My Sweet Lily opened a clear advantage with Fashion Terror not quite keeping tight in the pocket, Worklifebalance giving way after her two-move effort, and Reckless Abandon not able to produce enough late kick. Instead, the best late foot came from Rodeo Drive Deo, who flew home from fourth-over to get within 1¼ lengths of My Sweet Lily. Fashion Terror lasted for third in a photo over Daily Double Deo.

Nancy Takter, who trains My Sweet Lily for Marvin and Lynn Katz and Caviart Farms, said of My Sweet Lily, "She may have been a bit short in her debut [at Harrah's Philadelphia] because she missed some time, and I needed a race for her. But now she is showing the ability I thought she always had in her. We're considering the She's A Great Lady [at Woodbine Mohawk Park] for her."

TONY ADAMS S BESTS BREAKING SIG SAUER

Tony Adams S sustained a first-over push through the far turn, inherited the lead as 3-5 favorite Sig Sauer broke stride turning for home, and led trainer Åke Svanstedt's one-two punch in the New Jersey Classic final for 3-year-old male trotters.

Tony Adams S settled just off the speed in fourth as 16-1 shot Benny J controlled a :27.3 first quarter before yielding to Sig Sauer, whom Yannick Gingras activated from third to take charge on the backstretch. With three-eighths to go, Dexter Dunn gave the Muscle Hill—Dreamgirl Hornline colt his cue to advance uncovered, and he worked up to the flank of Sig Sauer at three-quarters in 1:23.4. Sig Sauer faltered off the corner for home as the pressure intensified, and Tony Adams S inherited a 2½-length lead at the eighth pole. He held sway through a :27.1 sprint home, keeping stablemate Mr Bluebird (driven by Åke Svanstedt) a half-length at bay in a lifetime best 1:51. Bella's Muscleshill (David Miller) rallied mildly to take third.

"He was marching up pretty good on the last turn; I was trying to get him to slow down a little bit, actually," Dunn said of Tony Adams S. "He felt tremendous tonight and raced a good mile."

Tony Adams S, who competes as a homebred for Stall Arsenal AB, has now won three of eight races this year and five of 15 lifetime. His $118,750 winner's share of the purse elevated his career earnings to $383,919.

Sent off the 6-5 second choice, Tony Adams S paid $4.60 to win.

ONAJETPLANE UPSETS IN ROOKIE TROT

The $250,000 New Jersey Classic final for 2-year-old male trotters shaped up as a battle royale between Hidalgo, Go Boom and Go Ahead Makemyday, but Onajetplane and driver Andy McCarthy stunned them all, sweeping three-wide around cover in mid-stretch to post a 12-1 upset.

McCarthy took his time early with the Walner–Noble Lover colt, sitting fifth through an eventful but moderate :57 first half. Just after Hidalgo took charge from Go Ahead Makemyday on approach to the far turn, Onajetplane latched onto third-over cover behind Go Boom and Mountcastle and was towed into contention at the 1:25.3 three-quarter stage. McCarthy switched the Noel Daley trainee off cover in upper stretch, and he responded with a powerful :26.4 stretch kick to upend Go Ahead Makemyday (David Miller) by 1¼ lengths in 1:53, shaving over two seconds off his previous career best. Hidalgo (Gingras) was a beaten third.

“We just had to take our time with him,” said Daley, who shares ownership of Onajetplane, now a two-time winner in six career starts with $139,500 in the bank, with Sjoblom Racing Inc., LA Express Stable and Joonas Jarvinen. “He’s always been very genuine; it’s just a matter of him getting squared away, and he seems to have done it now.”

Daley also indicated that a combination of a patient drive from McCarthy and racing Onajetplane barefoot likely contributed to his New Jersey Classic victory.

“You can’t get away with it all the time, but the track was good tonight,” Daley said of his decision to remove Onajetplane’s shoes. “He’s not the greatest to steer. Once [McCarthy] had him straightened out, he’s got a good turn of speed.”

Onajetplane paid $26.00 to win as the fifth choice.

A LITTLE MORE: Andy McCarthy led the driver colony by winning three times on the program, all New Jersey Classic finals... Big-name trainers took eight of the dashes on the program as Nancy Takter, Brett Pelling, Noel Daley and Ake Svanstedt all had two victories apiece... Big M TV’s Jessica Otten was on target in the Late 50-cent Pick-4, tabbing the $573.55 payout for a profit of $541.55... All-source handle on the 14-race program totaled $3,013,372, the 42nd time from 64 programs that betting bettered the $3-million mark this year.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Rose bests Papi Grad again, wins $252,000 PASS freshman title

by Evan Pattak for the Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

When Rose got the jump on Papi Grad and snapped her five-race career unbeaten streak in the final preliminary leg of the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes for freshman filly pacers, some observers predicted that Papi Grad would reverse the results in the PASS final. Indeed, when Papi Grad drew the rail and Rose post 6 for that final, it appeared that the script could indeed be flipped.

Well, that $252,000 championship took place Thursday (Sept. 5) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows, and Rose didn't put out a call for script doctors. She again beat Papi Grad to the punch and took the title.

The Meadows on Thursday hosted all four PASS championships for freshmen, each offering a $252,000 purse and a $50,000 consolation. Much of the attention was focused on the filly pacers, in part because Rose and Papi Grad are among the division's leaders, in part because of their growing rivalry.

Rose and Yannick Gingras got away on top, with Papi Grad seated behind her. Rose yielded that early lead to Westwinds, but Gingras wasn't happy with his position and reclaimed the point near the three-quarters.

"That's the move I wanted to make," Gingras said. "I thought my filly was a little better than Papi Grad, and I didn't want her to get the jump on me. The filly in front of me was in distress, so I just pulled the trigger then. Rose is just so handy. I made, like, six moves with her, and she was still trying at the wire."

The daughter of Sweet Lou—Rosemary Rose held firm and downed Papi Grad by 1¼ lengths in 1:51.2, with long shot Lily White Hanover third. Ron Burke trains Rose, who now has won five of six lifetime outings and $245,913, for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver BrusceMI LLC, Jack Piatt III and Larry Karr. Burke indicated Rose would next race in the final of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series at The Red Mile.

Time Of The Season and Beach Rules finished second and third, respectively.

$252,000 COLT & GELDING TROT – MESHUGGAH

In Yiddish, “Meshuggah” means crazy, and that’s what this youngster was – crazy like a fox. While others went wide to challenge Father TJ on the lead, Meshuggah saved ground, shot the Lightning Lane for Scott Zeron and triumphed in a stake-record 1:54.4, a neck better than the first-over Elan Hanover, while Father TJ saved show.

“This was the first time we used pull-out plugs; he’s been a little lazy,” said Matthias Melander, second trainer for his brother, winning conditioner Marcus Melander. “You could see he would cover that ground in the Lightning Lane eventually.”

Below the name, the word "BRED" is written in white, bold, capital letters. Further down, the name "MEDLEY SEELSTER" is displayed in white, bold, capital letters, followed by the age and price: "2, 1:55.3s-'24 ($141,010)". Below this, there are several lines of text in white: "Wheeling N Dealin - Daylon Melody by Pegasus Spur", "$95,000 OSS Gold Leg winner in track record time of 1:56.3f, Sept 6 at Grand River Raceway.", "Owned by: Glenn Dyke", "Trained by: Blake Macintosh", and "Driven by: Jody Jamieson". At the bottom, there is a logo for "Seelster Farms.com" featuring a silhouette of a horse and jockey, and the tagline "WHERE CHAMPIONS ARE MADE" in white, bold, capital letters.

In the consolation, Bombay Tom, a Bar Hopping—Miss Willa gelding, delivered a 10-1 upset in a career-best 1:55.3 for Ronnie Wrenn, Jr., trainer Norm Parker and owners Bart Brice, Todd Brice, Charles Receski and Ed Receski. Gimlet Hanover and Non Disclosure rounded out the ticket.

$252,000 COLT & GELDING PACE – PAPI’S ROCKET

As the field turned for home, Papi’s Rocket and Wrenn found themselves in scramble mode looking for a seam. Outside routes were congested, but would the Lightning Lane get there soon enough?

“We got the three-quarters in 1:21, so I knew everyone was tired,” Wrenn said. “I thought the Lightning Lane might work out, and it did.”

The son of Papi Rob Hanover—Real Touch prevailed in 1:51.1, fastest mile of his career, and gave Burke his second title on the day. Go Go Grasshopper, the even-money favorite, finished second, beaten a half-length, with Railroad Station third. Papi’s Rocket boosted his bankroll to $182,423 for Weaver Brusceci, Knox Services and Slaughter Racing Stable.

In the consolation, Joel And The Jets moved smartly first over to score for Bob McClure, trainer Dr. Ian Moore and owner Joel And The Jets Stable. It was the first-ever win at The Meadows for the Canada-based McClure. Wedlock Blue Chip and the rallying Bitcoin Hanover completed the ticket.

$252,000 FILLY TROT – SHES A SHOE IN

She’s A Shoe In extended one of the day’s major themes – long shots using the Lightning Lane to upset. She won at 16-1 for Mark MacDonald and trainer Ray Schnittker, who owns the daughter of Greenshoe—Casaubon with MA3 Racing Stable. Early leader Blueberry finished 1½ lengths behind the winner, who lifted her earnings to $177,117, while Divine Thing and Princess Jackie dead-heated for show.

“She has a ton of speed,” Schnittker said. “She’s a little green, but it looks like she’s settling down now. It wasn’t from lack of talent that we weren’t winning. She’s staked pretty good.”

Elaine T S won the consolation in 1:56.2 over Payback Moni and Hangover. Ake Svanstedt conditions the daughter of Southwind Frank—High Heels for Brochart Stable Inc., Ecurie Diocles, Ab and Ake Svanstedt Inc.

Luke McCarthy wins world's richest harness race for second straight year

The driver piloted his trainee Don Hugo to victory on Saturday in the $2.1 million TAB Eureka slot race at Menangle near Sydney.

by Adam Hamilton

That name McCarthy is everywhere.

With his younger brothers Todd and Andy carving out hugely successful careers in the U.S., it has been left to oldest brother, Luke, to fly the flag Down Under.

And boy he's done a great job.

Luke kept his perfect record intact in the world's richest harness race when he won the $2.1-million TAB Eureka for the second successive year at Menangle, outside of Sydney, Saturday night (Sept. 7).

A year earlier, he won the inaugural running of the race when he teamed with champion Victorian trainer Emma Stewart and her star mare Encipher.

But this time Luke did it all himself as trainer and driver of the emerging 4-year-old son of Art Major, Don Hugo.

"I said last year was one of the biggest thrills I've had in the game, but this is next level," he said. "To train and drive the winner is pretty awesome.

"It's such a special and important race. Look at the crowd here, feel the atmosphere... and to have this place in history [winning the first two editions] is pretty special."

Don Hugo (Luke McCarthy) was first to the wire in front of a packed house at Menangle.

Luke said he started to believe Don Hugo could win the TAB Eureka back in June when he was campaigning in Queensland.

“Each campaign, he’s just come back and gone to another level,” he said. “He stepped into some really good races up there [Queensland] and did so well.

“He really felt like he’d taken the next step. I said to everyone, the horse was in the zone.

“I kept hoping someone would take him in their slot and when I got the call I was absolutely thrilled.

“I knew all I needed to do was look after him in the six or seven weeks between Queensland and the Eureka and get him there in the same sort of form.

“That’s why I didn’t race him. It was better to give him a couple of trials where I could control what sort of [performance] he had.”

Despite his bullishness with Don Hugo, Luke admitted it was a “very tough call” between him and stablemate, 4-year-old mare Eye Keep Smiling, as to which pacer he drove. Eye Keep Smiling ultimately finished fifth.

“I really couldn’t split them and you saw how well the mare went tonight,” he said.

Luke went a long way towards winning the race when he pushed forward from a wide draw and took the lead from Queensland pacer Wisper A Secret.

“That wasn’t a plan, but I saw the opportunity,” he said. “Once he led and I got away with such a comfortable run, I knew they’d be flat out beating him.”

It was yet another golden moment for 41-year-old Luke, who has driven almost 3,000 winners, including 79 at Group 1 level.

The eye-catching performance of the race came from the only 3-year-old in it, Bay Of Biscay. He rocketed home when clear from a pocket to finish second, beaten just 2.2 meters.

Ironically, the two pacers Luke beat – Bay Of Biscay and High Above (third) – are both trained by Stewart, who he teamed with to win last year’s Eureka.

High Above, the least experienced horse in the race, was making just his 10th race start. He ran a booming third after making a mid-race move from the rear to sit outside the leader.

CATCH A WAVE WINS LEN SMITH MILE

On the same card, brilliant pacer Catch A Wave added to his terrific Menangle record when he comfortably won the $150,000 Group 1 Len Smith Mile.

It was a remarkable eighth Group 1 win for the striking son of Captaintreacheraus. It took his earnings well past $2 million.

Previously the 5-year-old had won the huge Group 1 Miracle Mile and Chariots Of Fire double at Menangle early last year.

Although, in between, Catch A Wave had returned to Menangle for one of the rare feature race flops of his career when he finished a tiring eighth after leading in last year’s inaugural TAB Eureka.

Trainer Andy Gath revealed he and wife, Kate, who co-trains and drives Catch A Wave, were divided on whether Catch A Wave was ready to win last night.

“Kate didn’t think he’d done enough in his two runs back, but I was adamant,” Gath said. “It’s just clear no matter what we do with him at home, he takes a couple of runs to get that race fitness back and get back to his best.

“I said after he was beaten at his first two runs that we had all seen this movie before and he would bounce back. It’s still great to see him do it.”

TALES FROM THE CURMUDEON

with MURRAY BROWN

The prosperous pairing of Tim Klemencic and Blake MacIntosh

by Murray Brown

It could be said that Tim Klemencic and Blake MacIntosh were born into harness racing. But the manner in which each entered the sport was different.

Klemencic is the youngest offspring of five born to Stan and Paula Klemencic. His parents had owned horses for many years and had established a breeding farm in Trenton, ON where they had a band of broodmares from which they raised yearlings for the marketplace.

"I was the only one of the five kids who expressed any significant interest in the horses," Tim said. "So, when I returned home from university I pretty much did it all. I took care of the mares. I inseminated them when they were in heat. I foaled them out. I helped raise the babies and did all the intermediate steps involved in selling a yearling until it came time for them to go to the sale. At that time, I'd turn them over to David Reid and Preferred Equine who handled them through the time when they were sold."

In recent years, probably due to the great success of the Kentucky program, we have raised them in Kentucky to take advantage, as some others have done of making our yearlings able to be dual eligible.

Whereas Tim was mostly involved with the breeding end of the business, MacIntosh became involved with buying yearlings, training them and hopefully developing good racehorses from his acquisitions. MacIntosh's dad Wayne was a part-time horse trainer. He had a regular job, but would usually have a horse or two that he would fiddle with after work. Blake became attracted to the horses. However, his parents wanted him to get a college education. So, off to school he went. It wasn't long after that that he decided that he had enough of school. He missed being around the horses. School was just too boring. Harness racing was not. It was exciting and he missed it.

In 2014, Blake bought a yearling that the Klemencics had consigned in the Harrisburg Yearling Sale. Tim introduced “Then if you want to, you can come in and buy a piece of her,” Blake said.

Tim said “Yes.” Thus began a great friendship and a 10-year business relationship between the two. No year has gone by when Tim and Blake were not partners in one or up to 10 horses that Blake had in training.

Blake, when you look at yearlings what do look for? What do you want to see? Also, what do you not want to see?

"I suppose I want what most good horsemen want. I want a well-bred, correct horse. I don't particularly want a big horse. My experience with them is that I've had trouble keeping them sound. If I'm looking at trotters, a big strike is one that toes in. Those are likely to hit their shins and often are foul-gaited. The number one strike for me is one that is back on their knees. That type rarely stays sound. The buying I do with Tim is almost all restricted to fillies, mostly trotting fillies. Our game plan is to race them at 2 and 3 and then sell them to a breeder. Breeders do not want to buy a filly that stands back on her knees or ones that have any significant faults. We look to buy fillies who are quite correct.

"Here's something that you will hear from very few horsemen. I may be the only one. I'm not interested in yearlings by Bettors Delight. I know that he is the all-time leading money-winning sire. I know that he has sired numerous champions, both colts and fillies. But his foals and me just don't seem to get along.

"I've trained a whole bunch of them. But of all the ones I've trained, I've had only one decent horse. It's probably not so much that I don't particularly like them. I'm guessing that maybe they don't like me and my training methods. From experience, for whatever reasons they and I just do not get along."

What is it about your training program that they might be adverse to?

“I’m pretty aggressive. Some might say that I might be too demanding of the babies that I have in my charge. They might very well be right. I’m not the most patient guy in the world. I want to know fairly soon what I have or what I think I have. Usually by about January I think that I have a reasonably good reading on my then 2-year-olds. At that time, I might be inclined to sell the ones that I think will not align with my program. That’s not to say that the ones that I sell cannot and will not do well under someone else’s stewardship.”

Tim, you and Blake go to the sales together. Do you have a game plan?

“We try to look at as many yearlings as we can. I think that Blake can handle a whole lot more than I am able to. After I’ve looked at 30 or more, I get a little buggy eyed. They start looking the same. Blake can just keep going. I love looking at yearling videos. When we are at the sale, I’ve usually seen the videos of the yearlings we are looking at. Blake almost never has. We both agree that two sets of eyes are better than just one. After we have looked at them, we compare our thoughts. There are times when one of us has picked up something that the other has not. I think we complement each other well.”

“ [Blake and I] hit it off from the start... Together we look at a lot of yearlings. We generally look at them at the same time, but we don’t comment much while we are looking. After we have seen the horses, we then compare our views. More often than not we come to the same or somewhat similar conclusions. ”

~ Blake MacIntosh

Blake, Tim said that you don’t care much about yearling videos?

“That is mostly so. I’ve never had a horse win a race in the paddock or in the field. I’ll generally look at a video after I’ve seen a yearling and almost never before. I do that mostly for reassurance on a horse in which I might be interested. I watch the video to look for things that I don’t want to see. Things like paddling, going close to a knee, anything that looks to be irregular. If I don’t see any of those, I couldn’t care less how fast the horse is going in the video.”

Tim, how much is price a factor in your purchases?

“Obviously it’s of prime importance. We’ve bought horses at all price ranges. We’ve even hit six figures. Having said that, we’ve not been very successful when swinging for the fences. Our comfort zone is between $20K-$60K, but I think we both prefer $40K to $60K. We are not only more comfortable in that price range, but we’ve also been more successful there.”

Tim and Blake, you’ve had a few good winners in your partnership this season. However, the star achievement thus far has been in Monalishi winning the $288,000 Peaceful Way at Mohawk. Tell us how you came about acquiring her and her progress to that race.

“She is a filly that we might have normally crossed off before we had even looked at her. Her dam Pretty Phylly G was a fairly ordinary race filly, but she is a sister to the Hambletonian winner Royalty For Life. Looking further, even though her three previous foals had not raced, we looked at our notes on them. They were not the kind of individuals that we would have bid on. So, her ‘excuse’ for them not having raced was a valid one. When we looked at Monalishi, we both liked her. Maybe not ‘WOW’ liked her, but we felt she was very acceptable.

“Her sire Green Manalishi was a pretty good drawing card for us. It was his first crop. He was a very good well-bred son of Muscle Hill. We had looked at all of his yearlings in Kentucky. We had bought a filly by him there. That filly had broke well. We looked at all his yearlings at Harrisburg as well. An added asset, but not a necessary one is that his foals were eligible in Ontario, home for us and where we mostly race.

“Monalishi was selling on Day Three, where one might find the proverbial diamond in the rough. We looked at her. We both liked her. She was a far better individual than her dam’s three previous foals had been. We bought her for $28,000. The price was certainly right. I don’t know if, or how much further we might have gone.

“All winter long, she trained well, doing everything asked of her. We never thought she was great, but we never thought that we didn’t want to own her anymore. She was a nice filly, but we also had two others that we might have thought were a little better.

WHERE CHAMPIONS ARE MADE

“We started racing her and she was very good, maybe not great, but certainly very good. Coming into the race, she had won four of her six starts. Her only losses came when cutting the mile. As with most horses, we thought that racing off the helmet might have been her preferred style.

“In the elimination of the Peaceful Way, she finished second, but she raced well. We were pleased with her and thought that if the stars were aligned properly, we had a fair shot of winning it all. Then her regular driver Jody Jamieson took off to drive a filly that I guess he thought had a better chance. I certainly didn’t blame him for that. He is a catch driver. Catch drivers do that all the time. As fate would have it, we instead ‘inherited’ Canada’s number one driver James MacDonald. Such is the way the cookie crumbles. I know that James spoke with Jody about the filly and that Jody was helpful to him. I don’t recall saying much to James, other than mentioning that I thought the filly was fit and I expected her to race well. I might have said that I believed she would race well coming from off the pace. The rest is history. James gave her a masterful drive and she won the race. We thought we owned a very nice filly. We now own one that may be a whole lot better than what we initially thought.”

RACING INTO THE FUTURE

with BOB DUFF

Sportsbooks making power move into ADW industry

by Bob Duff

The major online sportsbooks in North America aren't allowed by law to offer wagering on horse racing. This differs greatly from the United Kingdom, where online sportsbooks have been offering fixed odds betting on horse racing for decades.

In Ontario, bet365 and the Woodbine Entertainment Group (WEG) reached an agreement in 2023 to begin offering pari-mutuel wagering on the bet365 sportsbook app through the Woodbine pools. While that hasn't happened yet on the U.S. side of the border, the major players in the online sports betting industry are finding another method to make a power move into wagering on horse racing.

FanDuel, DraftKings and BetMGM have all launched their own standalone advance deposit wagering (ADW) sites in U.S. markets.

Flutter, the parent company of FanDuel, rebranded their TVG ADW as FanDuel Racing. DK Horse launched in partnership with the Churchill Downs-operated Twin Spires and BetMGM Horse Racing is working with NYRA Bets.

In 2022, The Stronach Group's ADW company, 1/ST Technology, reached an agreement with PointsBet to form a sports betting/ADW partnership. However, that deal was left in limbo with the 2023 sale of PointsBet's U.S. assets to Fanatics. Fanatics did acquire the ADW holdings of PointsBet in the transaction, but there's been no movement to date regarding the formation of a Fanatics-1/ST partnership.

The betting numbers on horse racing might suggest that these changes being made by the online sportsbooks could be a welcome addition to the sport.

A recent report from Equibase indicated that the overall thoroughbred handle on horse racing in the U.S. during 2023 was the lowest number in 12 years. There was $11.6 billion wagered across the country in 2023, down 3.7 per cent from the $12.1 billion wagered in 2022. It was also the fourth time in five years that the handle on U.S. horse racing declined from the previous year.

If these sportsbook-operated ADWs can get sports bettors intrigued by the notion of betting on horse racing, perhaps it can help to generate an uptick in overall wagering on the sport.

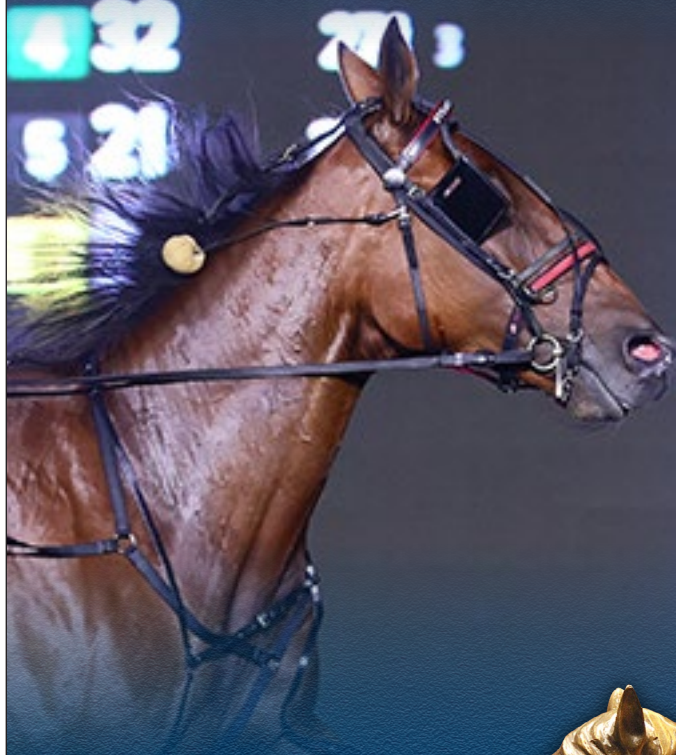

From the perspective of the sportsbooks, they're seeking to become one-stop shopping experiences for betting on all sports and they'd certainly love to slice off a piece of the more than $4 billion pie that's wagered annually via ADW sites.

Let's look at these sportsbook-based ADWs in the USA and see what they offer in terms of betting on harness racing.

FANDUEL RACING

This wasn't so much a launch as it was a changeover. TVG was well-known in the ADW industry. FanDuel Racing is live in 28 states. There's racing from more than 150 tracks and all races are live streamed. You can also download a FanDuel Racing app. And if you already have an existing TVG account or TVG app, you can still go that route to bet on the races.

Harness tracks on offer at FanDuel Racing include: The Meadowlands, Dover Downs, Yonkers Raceway, Northfield Park, Pocono Downs, Batavia Downs, the Delaware State Fair, and Hoosier Park. There's also harness racing from Canada, Sweden, Australia and France.

DK HORSE

There are 20 states in which you can access ADW via DK Horse. It's offered on a standalone app, but if you are a DraftKings customer, you may access DK Horse with the same login credentials as your sportsbook or daily fantasy sports account. All racing can be live streamed. DraftKings is working in partnership with Twin Spires, the ADW operated by Churchill Downs, home of the Kentucky Derby.

Harness racing tracks offered include: The Meadowlands, Northfield Park, The Meadows, Vernon Downs, Tioga Downs, Pocono Downs, Batavia Downs, Freehold, Hoosier Park, Scioto Downs and Saratoga, as well as harness racing from Canada, France, Sweden and Australia.

BETMGM HORSE RACING

Offered in Ohio, Florida and Louisiana, BetMGM Horse Racing is an affiliate of NYRA Bets, the official ADW of the New York Racing Association.

Providing racing from 200 tracks worldwide, you'll find all the major U.S. harness tracks such as The Meadowlands, The Red Mile and Harrah's Philadelphia, top harness tracks in European locales like France and Sweden, right down to tiny Canadian facilities such as Leamington Raceway.

You can download the BetMGM horse Racing app and there's live streaming available of all of the races offered through the BetMGM site.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Lilium Sisu, Meghan B.R. impressive at Bjerke

by Thomas Hedlund

Bjerke racetrack in Oslo, Norway, played host to the country's classic stakes for 3- and 4-year-old trotters on Saturday (Sept. 7) and continuing today (Sept. 8).

On Saturday, in the $125,000 Stokriterium for 3-year-old fillies, Petri Salmela-trained Lilium Sisu (Face Time Bourbon) impressed a lot for driver Mika Forss, but it was undefeated Skylight (six-for-six) that took the lead in the first turn. Forss was not satisfied as Lilium Sisu was parked first over, so he put strong pressure on the leader, Skylight, up the backstretch. That elevated the pace.

The unexpected duel (Skylight had bested Lilium Sisu under similar conditions at Biri in early August) ended with an easy advantage for outside trotter Lilium Sisu in the stretch and Salmela's filly claimed the big trophy in a mile rate of 1:57.2 over 1.3 miles. Lady Nova finished second and Taminara third.

Meanwhile, another Face Time Bourbon offspring dominated the $165,000 Derby for mares. Frode Hamre's favorite Meghan B.R. (Face Time Bourbon) hit the lead for driver Tom Erik Solberg and got company on the outside from Monalisa B.R. The outside trotter showed no respect for the big favorite on the lead and for a while it seemed like Monalisa B.R. would be the winner. However, Meghan B.R. battled back on the inside and won in a tight finish in a mile rate of 1:57.1 over 1.3 miles. Runner up Monalisa B.R. was strong to the wire and Waterloo Bonanza saved ground on the inside and finished third.

The classic stakes for colts and geldings continue today (Sept. 8) and the race card ends with the prestigious $165,000 Derby for 4-year-olds. Geir Vegard Gundersen's Just Like Heaven (Maharajah) will be the probable favorite, but there are some strong opponents that will try to capture the trophy.

COMFORTABLE WIN FOR FRENCH STAR

Thierry Duvaldestin-trained Idao de Tillard (Severino) claimed the $135,000 Grand Prix Federation Regionale du Nord in La Capelle in northern France on Wednesday (Sept. 4) afternoon.

Idao de Tillard tried Elitloppet at Solvalla in May and went into that race as the current emperor of French harness racing. But his crown began to slip after some losses, most notably to Horsy Dream.

But in La Capelle, Idao de Tillard proved best again. After an initial outside trip, Clément Duvaldestin pushed Idao de Tillard to the lead with a half-mile to go and the duo relaxed and collected a safe win in a moderate mile rate of 1:56.2 over 1.1 miles.

WHERE CHAMPIONS ARE MADE

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Annie Stoebe is living the dream with Elista Hanover

by Victoria Howard

Annie Stoebe was born and raised in Montana, a place known as “Big Sky Country.” It’s the same state where harness racing’s Hall of Famer Ron Pierce decided to retire and hang up his colors after a phenomenal career. I also lived in Montana for one year and I have to say that it is one of the most beautiful, tranquil places on earth. I can see why Pierce relocated there.

But, back to this edition’s subject.

After graduating from high school, Stoebe attended college in Weather, TX, on a rodeo scholarship, then moved back to Montana for a few years before relocating to the Garden State, NJ, in 2015. It was there that she was introduced to standardbreds.

A few months after moving Stoebe got a job working for trainer Brett Bittle. Little did she know that less than a decade later she would be the trainer and co-owner of one of the best trotting fillies in the sport this year.

“After a year in New Jersey I claimed my first racehorse, Uriel, and began driving in the amateur races,” Stoebe said.

The road to getting that first horse was not as smooth as Stoebe would have liked it to be.

“When I went to claim Uriel at Pocono Downs both the race office and the commissioner made it impossible,” she said. “They wouldn’t give me an owner’s license without me owning a horse. Thus, I was unable to put in a claim. At the time, I had a trainer, driver and a groom’s license.

“In 2020, I met Lynn Curry who wanted to purchase a trotting filly at the [Harrisburg] sale. Lynn had previously groomed for several years at The Meadows while he was a teenager and wanted to get back into it.”

The experience for Stoebe and Curry at the Standardbred Horse Sale was a good one.

“Lynn and I were able to walk away from that sale with two very nice Bar Hopping fillies named [Mimi Ocean Hanover] and Champagne Hanover,” Stoebe said. “Call it beginner’s luck but ‘Mimi O’ won her very first lifetime start at The Meadows in a sires stake. That win was not only extra special to have won that caliber of race with my first baby, but it was especially nice for Lynn to go back to his stomping grounds that gave him the love he had for the sport he loved so much.”

Adam Ström staltz
Annie Stoebe and Elista Hanover.

“The following year we went to the Harrisburg sale and fell head-over-heels in love with a tall, chestnut filly named Elista Hanover. There are some horsemen who stay away from chestnut horses and especially a chestnut filly, but ‘Elista’ has proven that is only an old wives’ tale or a spurious claim.”

~ Annie Stoebe

At the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, Stoebe said she and Curry were “lucky and blessed” to walk away with a horse named Instagram Model who gave them “many firsts.”

Instagram Model won the Jim Doherty Memorial which included the “golden ticket” to the Breeders Crown, where she finished a respectable fifth.

“The following year we went to the Harrisburg sale and fell head-over-heels in love with a tall, chestnut filly named Elista Hanover,” Stoebe said. “There are some horsemen who stay away from chestnut horses and especially a chestnut filly, but ‘Elista’ has proven that is only an old wives’ tale or a spurious claim.

“I loved Elista the moment I saw her, despite the fact she was chestnut. She was gorgeous and because of her color we thought (and hoped) that she wouldn’t go too high. Up until this time Lynn never had a partner in a horse except for his wife, but he said that I could go in for a percentage.

“Well, when the hammer went down, we were shocked and thrilled that our bid was the winning one. Although it cost us $240,000, we were thrilled that she was coming home with us!”

Stoebe said they were about eight weeks into jogging Elista when a hiccup occurred.

“She injured her knee,” Stoebe said. “We were skeptical that she would make it as a 2-year-old. Once she recovered and began training, I knew that there was talent there – despite her size and length of stride – making it difficult for her to accelerate.

“But our girl did break her maiden at Harrah’s [Philadelphia] at 2 before we put her away as a 2-year-old.”

According to Stoebe, in January when they started up again with Elista, she was a different horse all around.

“Thankfully we kept her eligible to all the major stake races,” she said. “I wanted to use the Weiss to see exactly what caliber Elista was and what kind of year lie ahead for us. She improved so much each start and then her winning streak began.”

Elista had won nine straight heading into the Hambletonian Oaks eliminations.

“Winning the Hambletonian Oaks elim was such a surreal moment,” Stoebe said, adding with a laugh, “Elista continues to rise to the occasion and looks so stunning doing it; she is such as cool horse to be around despite that she is chestnut.”

Stoebe said Elista is also very smart.

“She manages to teach everyone who is around her where the treat bucket is,” she said.

According to Stoebe, Elista, who finished fourth in the Delmonica Hanover on Aug. 17, will race locally until the Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands.

“Her driver is the great David Miller; the two have developed a special bond,” she said. “Besides Elista, I currently have six in training. I stable at Winners Training Center in Chesterfield, NJ.

“Needless to say, I am definitely living the dream and owe it all to that chestnut filly, Elista. I’m so glad I am not one for superstitions.”

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Ghislain Paquet's a triple threat

The Mohawk handicapper talks about his return to the bike and mic on the Québec circuit régional.

by Melissa Keith

Ghislain Paquet is a well-known harness racing personality in his native Quebec and across Canada. He is host of Passion Courses, a popular French-language harness racing podcast which appears on dedicated Facebook and YouTube channels.

In January, freelance handicapping statistician Gabe Di Paolo determined that Paquet was the Woodbine Mohawk Park racing analyst with the most top-choice winners (846) of 2023.

Every summer, Paquet returns to his roots as a racecaller for the Circuit régional des courses de chevaux du Québec, the fair racing circuit directly responsible for the survival of harness racing in the province where the last pari-mutuel tracks closed in 2009. Although Hippodrome 3R has since been revived with help from investors, the Circuit régional is the beating heart of the Québec industry, and Paquet is its voice.

"I started in the 1990s when I was the announcer at the Hippodrome de Québec racetrack," Paquet told HRU, adding that handicapping the races was as important as calling the action. "I thought it was important for our fans to have a different way of analyzing races on the microphone."

Later, his dedication to picking winners in Québec perfectly translated into finding them at Mohawk.

"With my Facebook page Passion Courses, I was already in contact with the director of the Mohawk Park TV show Luke Van Belkom, with whom I had collaborated on a few projects – with him including some translations of 'Mic'd Up' videos made in French – and it was at the beginning of the 2020s that the offer to represent French-speaking Québécois in handicapping arrived," said Paquet.

"I obviously accepted willingly. Winning the 2023 Mohawk handicappers' competition for the most winners in a year makes me love this feature of helping fans with their betting even more."

Courtesy Ghislain Paquet

Ghislain Paquet's June 28 driving win at Hippodrome 3R with Troublewiththecurv.

Mohawk bettors and fans may be unaware that Randy Waples is not the only WMP handicapper with perspective from the sulky.

“I started my passion for driving in races in 2001, on a track of the Regional Circuit that no longer exists today, Saint-Sylvère,” said Paquet. “I won my first race in front of none other than our queen of the sulky in Québec, Marie-Claude Auger, who was also in her debut on the track. It was with the mare Marquise De Provence from the Pascal Bérubé stable. Great memories!”

Auger, one of the top drivers at Hippodrome 3R and Rideau Carleton Raceway, has enjoyed success on her rare visits to Mohawk.

On Saturday (Aug. 24), Paquet had two drives at Ayer’s Cliff, a Circuit régional track located in Québec’s Eastern Townships. He called all but the last two races of the 12-race card.

Asked whether driving in pari-mutuel races allows him to better analyze races as a handicapper, there was no clear answer for Paquet.

“Yes and no,” Paquet said. “It certainly helps you to better understand the drivers’ decisions, why he made a certain movement at a certain point in the race, why he made a certain decision, etcetera, but from there to having an advantage over the other handicappers, I don’t think so.”

While politely unwilling to name his favorite Mohawk drivers, Paquet called the Campbellville, ON track’s top 10 consistently “very powerful.”

“On the other hand, I can tell you that I am the biggest supporter of my good old friend ‘LPR,’ Louis-Philippe Roy,” he said. “I was the announcer of his first drives ever in 2008. My friend ‘J-Mac,’ James MacDonald, has impressed me enormously for two years.”

What happened with Paquet’s Aug. 24 drives at Ayer’s Cliff? Alas, less success than his selections that same Saturday night at Mohawk. He finished on top of the handicappers’ standings Aug. 24, with seven top-choice winners and an impressive $12.10 true return on investment, as calculated by Gabe Di Paolo (@noahurstats on Twitter/X).

“I am not proud of my driving at Ayer’s Cliff,” Paquet said. “It can happen. I would like to come back to all that, but it is impossible. On the way to victory with Camealongway [p, 2, 1:52.2s; $99,065], he made a break in the last turn because of me. I should have protected him in the final turn, because the track is very small and the turns are very tight. And for Sports Bettor [p, 5, 1:50.3f; $654,623], I should have taken my time. I had the horse to win. I was disturbed by a small break by the leader when I was first-over at the quarter. I made a bad decision at the half.”

Paquet added, with a laugh, “I had put too much pressure on myself, maybe.”

A June 28 win at Hippodrome 3R with favorite Troublewiththecurve (p, 3, 1:56.4h; $15,377) provided Paquet with his first driving victory since 2021. To date, he has six wins and five place finishes from 31 intermittent starts as an amateur driver since 2001.

“ I started my passion for driving in races in 2001, on a track of the Regional Circuit that no longer exists today, Saint-Sylvère. I won my first race in front of none other than our queen of the sulky in Québec, Marie-Claude Auger, who was also in her debut on the track. It was with the mare Marquise De Provence from the Pascal Bérubé stable. Great memories! ”

~ Ghislain Paquet

“It’s always extremely pleasant to win a race, especially on a professional racetrack where I was an announcer for 10 years before it closed in 2008,” Paquet said. “It’s always an exceptional moment that you experience with your family members, your friends, moments that you can’t forget.”

“I would have liked to win in front of the big crowd at Ayer’s Cliff, but it is only a postponement.”

Although some bettors remain skeptical about amateur races at major racetracks, Paquet told HRU he’s seen that handle is not adversely affected when less-experienced drivers take the lines.

“The evidence is there; amateur driver races are often heavily bet on by fans,” Paquet said. “A host of factors must be considered in an analysis of amateur driver races; because they are not professional drivers, that changes the situation. Go to the betting stats on amateur races everywhere, and you will be surprised.”

Yet to drive in Ontario, let alone at industry showplace Mohawk, Paquet admitted he considered it “a dream” to take part in an amateur race there someday.

“I would love the experience, whether it is at Mohawk in the Billings Circuit [i.e. the C.K.G. Billings Amateur Driving Series] or on any Ontario track,” he said. “I strongly encourage tracks

“With my Facebook page Passion Courses, I was already in contact with the director of the Mohawk Park TV show Luke Van Belkom, with whom I had collaborated on a few projects – with him including some translations of ‘Mic’d Up’ videos made in French – and it was at the beginning of the 2020s that the offer to represent French-speaking Québécois in handicapping arrived.”

to get behind this formula of amateur drivers that brings new fans to our racetracks.”

With another week of racing in full swing at Mohawk, Paquet’s picks can be found alongside those of the track’s better-known driver-handicapper on the simulcast show.

“Having a Hall of Famer like Randy Waples on Mohawk TV is a huge asset to our fans,” Paquet said. “He knows the game like no one else, and he has a great talent for conveying it to us on camera. We’ve met at a big event before, but we haven’t had a chance to talk at length. Randy and Chad [Rozema] on TV as a team is a treat.”

Triple-threat Paquet said he would concentrate on race calling and handicapping ahead of driving right now, but only because he is a professional in the first two occupations.

“I love all three,” he said. “If you forced me to remove one, I would remove the driving in races because of my lack of experience. It’s not that I don’t like it, but the role of announcing and analyzing for me is also a job in addition to a passion, unlike that of driving in races.”

As the 2024 Circuit régional des courses de chevaux du Québec season winds down, Paquet reflected on its relevance to Mohawk and beyond.

“Louis-Philippe Roy has been a 100-per cent Circuit régional student since 2008, just like Samuel Fillion since 2016, who is now climbing the ladder in a great way in Ontario,” Paquet said. “Two great local prides for the CRCCQ.”

“Québec is lucky to have this superb school at hand to guide young drivers or trainers who aspire to make a career out of it.”

Paquet added, with a laugh, “For my part, my goal is really not to become a professional driver. Anyway, it’s too late for me.”

There are two more dates this year for CRCCQ racing: Sept. 21 at the Ormstown Fair and the 2024 finals on Oct. 5 at Hippodrome 3R.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Cams Card Shark and other famous racing finales

by Bob Heyden

Thirty years ago marked the end of Cam's Card Sharks spectacular 1994 season where he went 15-2-0 from 18 starts and set the new all-time single season's record of $2.264 million. That record had been established an incredible three times in the prior four seasons with Beach Towel in 1990 becoming the first double millionaire, then HOY Precious Bunny bettering that in 1991 and then Presidential Ball tipping past $2.2 million in 1993, the first ever into that territory.

Cam's Card Shark first started on April 9 and ended on Sept. 3, less than five full months. His finale was not supposed to be that, but he came up lame two weeks later warming up for the Jug and never did compete again.

If you don't either remember or know much about Cam's Card Shark, this is what now matters most: His son from crop #3, Bettors Delight, was born on May 4, 1998.

OTHER FAMOUS FINALES

- Cardigan Bay on Sept. 14, 1968 at Freehold when he tipped past $1 million in career earnings. It was never done previously.
- Donato Hanover had 19-straight wins at 2 and 3 combined entering his final career weekend in 2007 at The Meadowlands but could only manage 2nd and 3rd with Arch Madness emerging victorious both times. Because of the improbable double defeat, the 2007 HOY fell a couple bucks shy of $3 million lifetime.
- Somebeachsomewhere on Nov. 29, 2008, wound up his brilliant career with a 1:48.3 Breeders Crown score and a new $2.44 single-season pacing record which stands today. That night was also the only race card ever, anywhere, that had both Muscle Hill (2YOCT winner) and Somebeachsomewhere on it together.
- Valley Victory won the 1989 Yonkers Trot in mid-July and nobody knew that would be it. A virus kept him from entering the Hambletonian in the dead-heat year and he was soon syndicated for $3 million.
- Cam Fella in 1983 he called it a career on Dec. 10 leaving with a new money record edging past Niatross and Rambling Willie. The last pacing male to go back-to-back as HOY he may even have topped himself as a stallion, living to 2001, with a stat that defies belief. He had a double millionaire from his first crop, Camtastic, and a triple millionaire from his last, Eternal Carnation.

- Always B Miki would up his career in November 2016 taking the TVG in style. Though he didn't set any earnings records, he and Wiggle It Jiggleit had a fierce rivalry and their 1-2 finish in the HOY balloting marked the only time in the 21st century that the top two HOY finishers competed against each other.
- Bonefish, 49 years ago, remains the last Hambletonian winner (1975) to never to race again! He was entered again yes, but was scratched and that was that.
- Beach Towel romped in the Nov. 2, 1990 Breeders Crown in 1:51.2 at Pompano and called it a career. His first crop as a stallion yielded none other than Jennas Beach Boy. Ray Remmen remains the last driver/trainer of a male pacer named HOY.
- Glidemaster won the richest Yonkers Trot up to that point, $728,930, in 2006, wrapped up the Triple Crown, and solidified HOY honors. His single season of $1.9 million would only last a couple of seasons as Deweycheatumnhowe, Muscle Hill, and Market Share all surpassed $2 million in the following half dozen years.
- Niatross ended his unbelievable 1980 season at Pompano Park on Dec. 27. An overflow crowd saw the two-time HOY romp en route to extending his bankroll to $2.019 million, the sports very first double millionaire. Five years minus a month later and his son Nihilator would wave adieu at Garden State Park on Nov. 29 in the second year of the Breeders Crown and his effortless score made him the sports first $3-million earner.

SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER

Was there such a thing as a September Hambletonian? Oh, yes. Ten times as a matter of fact. The first was due to a week of never-ending rain in 1927 that made Syracuse hand off to The Red Mile on Sept. 27, 1927 and watch as the first ever filly losola's Worthy, took home the cheese. There'd be a 32-year gap until the next September Classic, the 1959 edition in DuQuoin.

The last time a September Hambletonian took place was 1979 on the first of the month with Legend Hanover taking first prize in the second-to-last ever DuQuoin Hambletonian. (Trivia buff alert: Corinne Tripp was the first female caretaker ever listed on a Hambletonian winner in 54th edition).

The last four-heat Hambletonian also was a September event. The 4th of September 1976, three days after a place named The Meadowlands opened its doors, Steve Lobell somehow survived the grueling day 14-1-4-1 in summary over Zoot Suit 1-6-2-2 and Armbr Regina 17-2-1-3. Four heats were later abolished in 1978.

Missed connections

by Trey Nosrac

"Fate is like a strange, unpopular restaurant filled with odd waiters who bring you things you never asked for and don't always like."
– Lemony Snicket.

Mystical randomness and inexplicable connections happen. The random wheel turns in our sport. Sometimes, fate is kind. Sometimes fate is cruel with a bowed tendon, an aborted foal, or a dozen perils that await players in our game.

The chain of events for this horse began when, on a whim and without forethought, we sent a racehorse in training for breeding during a once-in-a-lifetime pandemic, and she got in foal. In the breeding game, events can spin out of control quickly.

Suddenly, we had:

A young broodmare.

A weanling still on the farm.

And now foal number two is standing on wobbly legs.

We had a mother and two daughters who had not raced a single step. We had no income between the trio, only receipts from stud fees and a boatload of bills. At this point, aside from the fact they make a lovely-looking trio in the barn and the field, we have no information about racing performance and need to get deeper into the madness and breed the broodmare AGAIN.

Here, I must confess that my process for selecting a standardbred sire for a broodmare is... problematic. Please stop reading if you are a professional breeding operation.

A procrastinator at heart, I never select a sire for our mare until the baby is born. To have a breeding contract signed and sealed feels pushy and smacks of bad luck to me. Of course, my unorthodox, well, silly, philosophy eliminates the top stallions in the state who fill their books without consulting me. Another ridiculous hangup is that I never breed twice to a stallion. In my bizarre world, giving other sires a chance only seems reasonable. And third, I like to patronize new stallions.

So, there we were. It was May, we had a red foal standing on wobbly legs, and the stallion world was wide open (except for the extremely popular commercial stallions that filled their book five months ago). Never fear. I still have many options for procuring a sire breeding, including charity auctions and onGait listings.

I had not been entirely asleep at the wheel. The previous week, I noticed a charity listing for breeding a minor stallion on their website. I returned to the website. Oops, it was too late; he was off the board. So, I knocked on door number two. My second choice was a very obscure stallion with a touch of Swedish and a very odd name. I had never heard of this horse until I saw a blurb that mentioned him in a paragraph in some harness racing publication. I immediately became infatuated with this potential sire. I called the number listed to acquire a breeding contract. No answer. I waited a day and emailed for information and a breeding contract. No reply. I gave the folks responsible for this stallion a couple of days. Nothing, maybe it was an error on my part, or they did not check their mail – who knows what happened?

Now, we were in a bit of a rush to catch the first breeding cycle of our mare. I took the most straightforward route possible. Just down the road was Dublin Valley Farm. I called and asked Joe Yoder, "Who you got?" He suggested Volstead, who at the time had two tiny crops. We quickly agreed.

As you probably know, Volstead has become a sensation in America and across the pond. This stallion's booking history was moderate for three seasons in three nations (in the U.S. - 46, 29, and 20). His small crops did big things on the racetrack in each venue, so his stud fee increased, and his book quickly filled. Who saw that coming? Not me. Usually, I get a little overly enthusiastic about the sire that we breed to, but this one, while we very much liked the stallion, was a meh.

Here are some simple twists of fate; If I'm responsible and book early, there is no Volstead yearling in the barn. If the charity website breeding is still on the board the day I looked, there is no Volstead yearling in the barn. If the mysterious Swedish stallion connections answer my phone call, there is no Volstead yearling in the barn.

"Fate, time, occasion, chance, and change, to these all things, are subject," – William Shakespeare.

BTW, I just looked up the mysterious secret sauce Swedish stallion I desired and took a wild swing at it. He has very few registered foals. I see this as a sign. Maybe if he is still in the stallion game, I'll try him next year because this situation feels like another fun fate twist.

Winner's Bet wins Charlie Hill Memorial in 1:50.4, Little Rocket Man takes Jim Ewart Memorial

by Dave Briggs

Mere hours after winning the MGM Yonkers International Trot in New York City on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 7), driver Dexter Dunn jetted to Columbus, OH and picked up another trotting stakes triumph by piloting favorite Winner's Bet to victory in the $260,000 Charlie Hill Memorial for older trotters at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

Starting from post 5, Dunn bided his time in the middle of the pack in the early part of the race as first Lexus Kody and then Chapercraz led the field through quarter times of :26.4, :56.3 and 1:23.3. But by that third-quarter station, Dunn had Winner's Bet on the move. By the head of the lane he pulled wide to challenge while Lexus Kody ducked into the passing lane.

Though Lexus Kody was game to the wire, Winner's Best trotted past, posting a 1:50.4 track record for 4-year-old trotting stallions. Lexus Kody was second, followed by Chapercraz, Hillexotic and Adamsville Road in the field of 10 that had one trailer.

The win improved Winner's Bet to 5-0-0 in eight starts this year and 11-5-1 in 28 lifetime outings under the tutelage of Nancy Takter. The $130,000 payday pushed the 4-year-old son of Walner out of Side Bet Hanover to earnings just over $900,000 for owners Lindy Farms of Connecticut and Robert Rudolph.

Winner's Bet, bred by S R F Stable of Florida was a $200,000 yearling purchase at the 2021 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

One race later, in the $250,000 Jim Ewart Memorial for older pacers, Little Rocket Man and David Miller powered home in the stretch to win in 1:48 at odds of 6-5.

I Did It Myway (Matt Kakaley) led the field through fractions of :26.3 and :53.3, but Little Rocket Man was slowly advancing. By the time I Did It Myway reached the three-quarter pole in 1:20.3, Little Rocket Man was looming large in second and pounced in stretch.

Buzzsaw Russ (Yannick Gingras) was an impressive second despite starting from the trailing 10-hole in the 10-horse field.

There was a six-horse photo for third won by Charlie May, followed in fourth by Bythemissal.

The triumph was the 64th career victory in 111 starts for Little Rocket Man, an 8-year-old gelded son of Rockin Image out of Gt Miss Royal trained by Ken Rucker and owned by Russell Beeman and Jack Freeman.

Bred by Victory Hill Farm in Indiana, Little Rocket Man improved his bankroll to $1,462,299 lifetime.

Two-year-old filly pacers shine in BSS at Scioto Downs

by Eldorado Scioto Downs

Four divisions of the $20,000 Buckeye Stallion Series for 2-year-old filly pacers were held at Eldorado Scioto Downs on Friday (Sept. 6).

The fastest division went to Seaside Wishes and driver/trainer Kayne Kauffman in 1:53.3. The duo got away second off the car but quickly took the lead before the first turn and led through fractions of :28.1, :56.1 and 1:25.2 before coming home in :28.1 to win by 6½ lengths. Bluey (Austin Hanners) was second with Seaside Lover (Chris Page) third.

Owned by Redline Racing Stables, Redracer LLC and David Van Dusen, Seaside Wishes now has $44,500 earned in seven starts with two wins. The Downbytheseaside filly is out of the Village Jolt mare Hallie Gallie and was a $41,000 Lexington Selected purchase from breeder Winbak Farm.

The last division of the evening was won in gate-to-wire fashion when Maddie's Delite (Dan Noble) left from the 9-hole to finish first in 1:53.4. The Steve Carter trainee led through fractions of :26.4, :54.4 and 1:24.4 to win by three lengths over Maa Honey (Hanners). Lucy Hill (Eric Goodell) came from the back of the pack to finish third.

Maddie's Delite is owned by SCP Stable and has $78,490 earned in 13 starts with 12 wins. The filly by Lather Up out of the Western Hanover mare Moonlite Delite was a homebred by Steven Price.

My Hare Legend (Goodell) won gate-to-wire from the 8-hole in 1:54.4. After leading through fractions of :29, :58.4 and 1:27, the Bit Of A Legend N filly kicked home in :27.4 to win by 2½ lengths over Anna Loves Bananas (Aaron Merriman). Lily Grace Hill (Kauffman) was third.

My Hare Legend, who is owned by Ronald Rust and trained by Logan Ebersole, has earned $23,950 in six starts with two wins. She is out of the Jereme's Jet mare My Hare Lady and was a $35,000 Ohio Selected Sale purchase, bred by Schare Adams.

Angel In Paradise (Justin Irvine) took the early lead at the :27.1 quarter with Pink Jammies (Dan Noble) applying early pressure. Pink Jammies took over and led through the :57 half and 1:26 third-quarter. Guard The Fire was second over going down the backside and went three-wide around the last turn to win by a half-length over Pink Jammies. Judge Me Again (Merriman) was third.

Guard The Fire is owned by Hutchison Harness and has earned $21,960 in six starts with two wins. The Catch The Fire filly is out of the mare Gargantua Hanover who is by The Panderosa. She was a $35,000 Ohio Select Sale purchase, bred by CT Stables.

Wagner doubles in Maryland Sire Stakes rookie finals

by Ocean Downs racing publicity

Trainer John Wagner captured two of the four $87,500 Maryland Sire Stakes championship events for 2-year-olds on Wednesday (Sept. 4) at Ocean Downs, sending Brooksforreal and K J The Thirteenth to victory in their respective events. Ragtime Red and Yall Keep Dreaming captured their divisional finals as well, resulting in clean sweeps of the series by all four champions.

Brooksforreal, who won at odds-on in both his preliminary legs, captured the Earl M. Wagner Memorial, for 2-year-old male pacers, as the 5-2 second choice, upending 2-5 favorite Rusty's Lancelot heading to the final turn en route to a 6¼-length score. Driver Corey Braden had Brooksforreal in motion out of third after Rusty's Lancelot rated a :59 first half, and the Rusty's For Real—Brooks Range gelding pushed to the lead past three-quarters in 1:29 before accelerating home in :28.1 for a lifetime-best 1:57.1 triumph. Rusty's Lancelot held second narrowly over Whosabrat.

Kelsey Wagner owns three-time winner Brooksforreal, who paid $7.80 to win.

Wagner drove his other victorious trainee, K J The Thirteenth, to a 2:02 victory over Yall Just Love Me in the Hubert Jackson Memorial, for 2-year-old trotting fillies. The Il Mago—My Kid Sister filly rolled unopposed through splits of :30.4, 1:01.4 and 1:33.1 before picking up the tempo through a :28.4 last quarter to stave off Yall Just Love Me by a nose. Y'all Know Me finished third.

K J The Thirteenth has now won four times in seven starts for owners Kelsey Wagner and Scott Woogen. She paid $3 to win.

Yall Keep Dreaming kept his undefeated career record intact with a 2:03.2 win in the W.W. "Pete" Shaw Memorial, for 2-year-old male trotters. Johnathan Ahle controlled the terms with Yall Keep Dreaming for owner/trainer Richard Hans, who also bred the Yall Beneath Me—Upside Blue Chip colt. After rating splits of :30.1, 1:02.1 and 1:33, Yall Keep Dreaming strode clear of pocket rival Swervingmervin to win for the fourth time in as many lifetime starts by a widening 6¼ lengths and pay $2.10. Magoo Will Do overcame an early break to save third.

The Dale Massey Memorial, for 2-year-old pacing fillies, saw Ragtime Red and driver Trae Porter sprint clear of Lu's Darling from post 8 to control a :58 first half before widening her lead steadily up the backstretch. After leaving Lu's Darling in her wake, Ragtime Red evaded runner-up Toys Little Tinker by 13 lengths to win in 1:56.2. Post Jolene finished third.

Now a four-time winner, Ragtime Red paid $2.20 as the overwhelming 1-9 favorite. Michael Hall trains the Getitoffyourchest—Red High Heels filly, who competes as a homebred for David Banks.

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Freshman trotters go for gold at Grand River

by Standardbred Canada

Two-year-old trotters invaded Grand River Raceway on Friday evening (Sept. 6) for the fourth Gold Series leg of the Ontario Sires Stakes.

Marcus Melander's homebred Galen Erso, the leading colt in the Gold Series, kicked off the stakes action with a 1:57.1 victory in a $95,000 division for the local father and son team of trainer Gregg McNair and driver Doug McNair.

Returning to action after back-to-back Gold wins in July and a close runner-up finish in the Mid-Season Gold Final a month ago at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Galen Erso swept up from midfield at the :28.1 quarter mark to take command and never looked back. The Green Manalishi S—Wygant Princess colt clocked middle splits of :57.3 and 1:27 en route to the 1¼-length victory over early leader Shutter Green (Bob McClure), with Chicago Hall (James MacDonald) holding on for third.

While the colt was a dominant winner, Doug McNair noted he wasn't trotting at his best.

"I didn't like the way he was trotting, even scoring down," said McNair. "He was still good enough to win and hopefully they get him sharpened up for the Super Final.

"I think he is one of the best or the best in the division. He got beat in the mid-season's challenge there. Sylvain [Filion's] horse [winner You Got It Kemp] raced great. He got a better trip than mine; I had to remove mine to the front again and he just got picked off at the wire. I think he's got lots of trot, he's just got to get there."

Having hit the board in his first five career starts, Galen Erso has already banked $166,168.

He paid $2.90 to win as the 2-5 favorite.

The second and fastest division for the male trotters was won by that Mid-Season Gold Final champion, You Got It Kemp, in 1:56.3 with Hall of Fame reinsman Sylvain Filion working out a third-consecutive winning trip for the Dan Lagace trainee.

Filion and the quick-leaving You Got It Kemp gave way to Lookatmegoamigo (Louis-Philippe Roy) at the :28 quarter pole and tracked in the 2-hole through a half in :57.2 and three-quarters in 1:26.2 while the leader fought off a forceful challenge from Manforce (Jody Jamieson) to the final turn. That's when Filion slipped out of the pocket with the 3-5 favorite and defeated Lookatmegoamigo by three-quarters of a length, with the wide-rallying Rising Interest (Tyler Borth) just to their outside in third.

You Got It Kemp's 1:56.3 winning time equaled the Canadian record for a freshman trotting gelding on a five-eighths-mile track and was three-fifths of a second off the overall male record held by colt Windsong Espoir.

"The 2-hole trip is his cup of tea," said Brady Lagace, the winner's caretaker and co-owner and an up-and-coming driver. "He loves to just get out and shoot late. So that's what we like, that's what he likes as well."

A $12,000 yearling purchase at last fall's Standardbred Horse Sale, You Got It Kemp missed by a just a neck in his career debut before winning a Gold division on July 25 and the Aug. 5 mid-season event last time out. Scratched sick from his next scheduled start in the William Wellwood Memorial Stakes eliminations, he returned to winning form, paying $3.50 as the bettors' choice.

Picking up his third straight stakes win, the Muscle Mass—Speed Titan gelding boosted his bankroll to $158,167 for the ownership group of Brady & Brooke & Daniel Lagace and Suojalampi Stable.

Medley Seelster also turned in a 1:56.3 victory in the fastest filly division, getting her second Gold win with Jody Jamieson in the bike for trainer Blake MacIntosh.

Jamieson sent the 8-5 favorite to the front from the outside post 6 through a :28 opening quarter and set subsequent fractions of :57.3 and 1:26.4 on the way to a 1½-length victory over pocket-pursuer Lil

Sweet (Doug McNair) and a first-up Sprite Seelster (Tyler Borth).

“My filly is really professional,” Jamieson said. “She’s getting better each and every start. She’s shown talent right from the get-go and tonight was no different.”

Medley Seelster is now three-for-nine in her career with earnings totaling $141,010. Owned by Glenn Dyke, the daughter of Wheeling N Dealin out of Daylon Melody was a $24,000 yearling purchase from the London Classic Sale.

She paid $5.30 to win.

Foxy Amee stepped into the spotlight with her first Gold Series win in 1:57.4 for Hall of Fame driver Paul MacDonell, who also trains the filly.

Leaving from the outside post, Foxy Amee crossed to command into the first turn and cruised unopposed through opening fractions of :28.1 and :59.1. The challengers came during the second half, but the 3-5 favorite fended off a first-over Supergirl Molly (Trevor Henry) through three-quarters in 1:28.4 and held off the pocket-sitting TH Monica (James MacDonald) up the passing lane by a neck. Supergirl Molly finished 1½ lengths behind in third.

“I wasn’t sure what was going to play out, but looking at the horses on the gate when we left, she had her nose right up there and I thought I better just get her in play and she responded to it, so I was happy with her effort,” said MacDonell, noting she finished well in hand. “There’s some nice fillies in there and when you put $95,000 on the line, they come to race so you’ve got to be prepared.”

A Grassroots winner in her career debut, Foxy Amee stepped up to take on the division’s best, finishing second in the Gold leg on July 25 at Mohawk and the Mid-Season Gold Final on Aug. 5, both times behind point leader Monalishi, who went on to win the Peaceful Way Stakes and skipped this leg.

A $48,000 London Classic yearling buy, the Muscle Mass—Highland Foxytrotr filly now has three wins in five starts with $122,575 banked for owners Chris and Michael Storms.

Foxy Amee paid $3.20 to win.

The final preliminary leg of the Gold Series for the 2-year-old trotters is scheduled for Sept. 30 at Woodbine Mohawk Park with the season-ending Super Finals on Oct. 12.

Capitalize on 2025 NYSS increases at Goshen Yearling Sale

If you have not yet made plans to attend the upcoming Goshen Yearling Sale on Monday (Sept. 9), this might be a good time to pencil it in as it will be your first opportunity to purchase high quality, New York-bred yearlings that will be eligible to participate in the substantial purse increases for next year that were just announced by the Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund.

Starting in 2025, the New York Sire Stake finals will increase from $225,000 to $300,000, the Excelsior finals will go from $55,000 to $100,000 and the County Fair finals will go from $15,000 to $25,000.

The Fund has also announced they will introduce an entirely new race for 2-year-olds in 2025 with a total value of $1 million (four divisions by sex and gait worth $250,000 each).

From the 84 horses being offered in this year's Goshen Yearling Sale, 62 are New York-bred, making this sale a must for anyone planning on racing in the NYSS next year. All the top New York sires have offspring in the sale including 13 by Huntsville, eight by Courtly Choice, four by American Ideal, four by Devious Man and one by Chapter Seven.

With the new enhanced purse structure in place for next year, the prices on New York-breds are sure to climb substantially this fall and the Goshen Yearling Sale is the perfect opportunity to get in on the action early.

The 2024 Goshen Yearling Sale will be held at noon on Monday (Sept. 9) at the Mark Ford Training Center in Middletown, NY, and the site is currently undergoing the final touches to help make sure this year's buying and selling experience is the best it can be. The facility is expecting a sizable crowd with the number of excellent New York-bred prospects for sale that day.

Catalogs are still available at most tracks and training centers in the northeast and can be downloaded right from the GYS website (goshenyearlingsale.com).

Live video of the entire sale and online bidding will be available through Cattle In Motion. Their website (cattleinmotion.com) is your one-stop shop for everything pertaining to the GYS but you will need to register in advance of the sale for all the available benefits.

You can register now by going to cattleinmotion.com, scroll down to click on Goshen Yearling Sale on their homepage and then follow the process to bid online. This includes creating an account, completing the lifetime verification (which gives you access to all future online auctions) and then signing up for the Goshen Yearling Sale. The whole process takes about five minutes and when you are done, it will show "you are eligible to bid on this auction" at the bottom of the page.

You can also download their mobile app for your phone at the Apple App Store or the Google Play Store.

Should you need any assistance or have any questions concerning this sale registration, please call 888-554-8437 or email info@cattleinmotion.com.

Cattle In Motion will also be providing the live video feed for the auction. This will start at approximately 11:15 a.m. (45 minutes before the sale at noon) and run for the duration. This feed will be available through your Cattle In Motion account and includes live and pre-recorded video of all the horses in the sale.

Once you are registered you can also sign up for sale updates that can be received via text or email or both. These will be sent out in real time as they become available right through the end of the sale.

The sales facility is located at 90 Slaughter Road, Middletown, NY, which is within a 90-minute drive of many major race tracks and training centers in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, making it a very convenient location.

For any other inquiries please contact Mark Ford directly at 973-568-3253 (cell) or by email at fordstable@frontiernet.net.

It's My Show returns in a plethora of stakes action at The Red Mile

Although the four $80,000 legs of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series contests for freshman and sophomore trotters and pacers are complete, there is plenty of stakes action from today (Sept. 8) through Tuesday (Sept. 10) on the agenda at The Red Mile as the anticipation for the eight $400,000 finals on Sunday (Sept. 15) continues to build.

Today, the Lexington oval will conduct a 12-race card, with seven of those events consisting of one $30,000 fourth round leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for sophomore male trotters, four $15,000 fourth round divisions of the Kentucky Golden Rod Series for 3-year-old male trotters and 3-year-old pacing fillies and two $10,000 fourth legs of the newly minted Kentucky Wildcat Series for sophomore male trotters and 3-year-old filly pacers.

While most of the attention has been focused on the Championship Series, two of last year's top 3-year-old male pacers, 2023 Horse of the Year Confederate, and Kentucky champion Cannibal, commenced their careers in the Commonwealth Series as 2-year-olds. Cannibal debuted in the Golden Rod Series.

Today's Commonwealth Series final will feature the regally bred Skydiver. The son of Greenshoe and multiple Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Ariana G, did not break his maiden until this season. The colt, however, has a record of 10 3-2-1 in 2024 with $45,575 in the bank.

Skydiver drew the coveted rail in the field of eight and is 7-2 on the morning line. Yannick Gingras will be holding the lines for trainer Marcus Melander.

The $350,000 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase was bred by Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld. The colt is owned by Brixton Medical, Katz and Hatfield Stables.

Monday's 14-race slate is highlighted by two $35,000 third round legs of the Kentucky Sire Stakes (KYSS) for 4-year-old male and female trotters. There are also five $10,000 fifth legs of the Wildcat Series for 2-year-old and 3-year-old male and female trotters and pacers.

The up-and-coming driver, Marvin Luna, will be in the bike behind the heavily favored Bestfriend Volo for trainer Nancy Takter in the KYSS event for males. The son of Walner—Bank Of Newport seeks his fourth consecutive triumph when he begins trotting from post position 2.

The gelding is 6-5 on the morning line and has shown an affinity for the red clay, as he was second in the $100,000 Commonwealth Series final last year.

Bestfriend Volo sports a resume of 24 14-4-1 from his two-year career and has banked $310,120. He was bred by Kentuckiana Farms and Jorgen Jahre, Jr. and is owned by Christina Takter, Nancy Takter, 3 Brothers Stables and Deja Blu.

Pennsylvania champion Railee Something will have Tyler Smith at the controls for conditioner Roger Cullipher in the Commonwealth race for mares. The daughter of International Moni—Railee Pritti is no stranger to the Bluegrass and was fourth in last year's Championship final.

The mare has competed in top company throughout her career with a fifth in the 2023 Hambletonian Oaks final and a third in the $600,000 Breeders Crown final for her age, sex and gait last year.

Railee Something was previously trained by Ron Burke with Cullipher taking over in 2024 for owner/breeder Ronald Mersky. The mare possesses a record of 12 6-2-1 and has earned $822,936. She will start from post position 3 in the field of seven and is 7-5 on the morning line.

On Tuesday, The Red Mile will offer 15 races with two $35,000 third round legs of the of KYSS for 4-year-old pacers and five $10,000 fifth round legs of the Wildcat Series for 2- and 3-year-old male and female trotters and pacers. The real draw, however, is the appearance of the winner of the 2023 $760,000 North America Cup, last year's $850,000 Little Brown Jug and this year's $399,600 Canadian Pacing Derby, It's My Show.

The son of Sweet Lou and the world champion Put On A Show, will leave from post position 4 in the field of six in rein to regular pilot Scott Zeron for trainer Linda Toscano.

It's My Show has earned $1.46 million from a resume of 35 11-8-3. The stallion was second to Cannibal as the favorite in last year's Championship final but has performed admirably at this venue including a setting a previous world record of 1:46.4, which remains his lifetime mark.

It's My Show competes as a homebred for Richard and Joanne Young.

The gifted Strong Poison, who provided some scintillating stretch drives with Twin B Joe Fresh last year, headlines the KYSS event for mares. The daughter of Always B Miki—Fiyonce will be guided by Yannick Gingras for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr.

Strong Poison has captured three of her last four starts and will leave from post position in the compact field of five.

Previously trained by Burke, the mare has been the model of consistency throughout her career. Strong Poison has compiled a record of 40 16-11-4 and amassed $1.06 million.

She was purchased privately by Let It Ride Stables and Odds On Racing from Burke Racing Stable, J&T Silva Stables, Knox Services and Beastly LLC last November.

Strong Poison was bred by Steve Stewart, Charlie Nash and Julie Nash.

Next week will showcase the finest Kentucky harness racing has to offer at The Red Mile. In addition to the Championship finals on Sunday, Monday (Sept. 16) will provide the $100,000 finals for the Commonwealth Series while Tuesday (Sept. 17) will feature the $50,000 finals for the Golden Rod Series.

First post on Sundays is 5:05 p.m. with post time on Monday and Tuesday established as 1 p.m.

No eliminations needed for Milton, Twin B Joe Fresh leads field of six

Twin B Joe Fresh, the top-ranked standardbred in the Hambletonian/Breeders Crown weekly poll, leads a talented group of six for the $205,000 Milton Stakes on Saturday (Sept. 14) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Eliminations were not required with six pacing mares entered for this year's Milton.

Twin B Joe Fresh has been practically unstoppable this season, winning eight of nine starts, including all stakes race that she has entered. The Chris Ryder trained 4-year-old won the Roses Are Red in June at Mohawk and has since added victories in the Perfect Sting, Dorothy Haughton Memorial, Lady Liberty and Cleopatra Invitational.

While Twin B Joe Fresh has hogged the top spot, the other five pacing mares entered in the Milton all sport impressive resumes.

Sylvia Hanover has been the main rival of Twin B Joe Fresh throughout their racing careers. The defending Canadian Horse of the Year has just one win in 10 starts this season, but was second in the Roses Are Red and Perfect Sting as part of five overall runner-up finishes.

The lone victory for 'Sylvia' came in the Clara Barton Pace at Plainridge.

The Millar Farms homebreds Silver Label and Prohibition Legal will take another crack at 'Joe Fresh' for trainer Nick Gallucci. Silver Label was second and Prohibition Legal fourth in the Lady Liberty on Aug. 3. Both 5-year-olds have made over $1 million in their careers.

Another 4-year-old in the mix is Always B Naughty. The Nancy Takter trainee won an elimination for the Roses Are Red back in June before finishing third in the final. A three-time winner this season, she enters off a strong 1:52.2 (:25.4 last-quarter) qualifier on Aug. 30 at Mohawk.

Completing the six-pack for the Milton is local standout Tells On A Roll. The 4-year-old Indiana bred has been this season's top preferred mare at Mohawk, posting 10 wins and 16 top-three finishes from 17 starts. The only-time the Jodie Cullen trainee missed the top-three was a fourth-place finish in the Roses Are Red.

The field of six is listed below in alphabetical order:

Always B Naughty
Prohibition Legal
Silver Label
Sylvia Hanover
Tells On A Roll
Twin B Joe Fresh

10-straight for streaking Sabonis in Hoosier Cup elims

The beat goes on for one of the hottest horses in North America as Sabonis extended his win-streak to 10 on the season by winning his $15,000 elimination for the Hoosier Cup on Friday (Sept. 6) at Harrah's Hoosier Park. One of two eliminations featured on the card, M-M-s Bud delivered as the favorite in the second elim, with the top-five finishers from each advancing to the $75,000 final on Friday (Sept. 13) for Indiana-sired 3-year-old pacing colts.

Sabonis was sent off as the 1-5 favorite in the field of seven, leaving from post 4 with regular pilot Joey Putnam in the bike. Sabonis was aggressive off the gate, but outsprinted by a fired-up Noblesville (Devon Tharps) who rode the tailwind entering the first turn to a blistering quarter of :25. Sabonis sat the loose pocket while Noblesville slowed things down to the halfway point into the wind in :55.1. Noblesville kicked-away once more entering the final turn before Sabonis began to find his best stride to close the gap back down to 2½ lengths at three-quarters in 1:23.1.

The early speed began to take its toll on Noblesville who tired turning for home. Sabonis quickly took advantage and grabbed command by two-lengths at the eighth pole while Dale Yea (Marvin Luna) moved into contention up the passing lane in second. Dale Yea gave the bettor's choice a fright in deep stretch, but Sabonis utilized a :26 final quarter to hold Dale Yea at bay by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:49.3. Packed with luck (Trace Tetrack) finished third, while Stat That (LeWayne Miller) and Skyway Masterpiece (Jordan Ross) finished fourth and fifth, respectively to advance to the final.

Trained by Aaron Stutzman, Sabonis has won 13 of 14 on the year while banking $350,750 this season. The 3-year-old son of Tellitlikeitis—Gypsy Bellevue is owned by Pat Miller and is yet to finish off the board in his 16-race career.

The second elimination provided a thriller where the photo-finish camera was needed to catch 3-5 favorite M-M-s Bud get his nose on the wire first between two foes. Driver Pete Wrenn picked up the drive this week, putting M-M-s Bud in his usual spot atop the field early through an opening quarter of :26.1. M-M-s Bud had things his way to the half in :55.4 before A New Endeavor (John De Long) was the first to provide a threat in the outer-flow, moving into third on the outside through three-quarters in 1:24.3.

Turning for home, A New Endeavor continued to bear-down on M-M-s Bud, while pocket-sitter Midnight Rocker (Tetrack) took his shot up the passing lane. Digging in gamely to fend off the two-pronged attack, M-M-s Bud fought to the wire a nose clear of a surging Midnight Rocker and quarter-length in front of A New Endeavor in 1:51.1. The final two advancing to the final were fourth-place finisher Play Action Pass (Luna), and Evileye Feegle (Miller) who finished fifth.

Alvin Miller trains and co-owns M-M-s Bud along with Ted Comerford and Marvin Schwartz. The gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—Climate Hanover picked up his second win of the season in 10 starts. M-M-s Bud has banked $84,085 on the year and $184,846 lifetime.

Along with the lion's share of the $75,000 purse, the winner of the 2024 Hoosier Cup will also receive an auto-nomination to the $150,000est Jenna's Beach Boy for three-year-old pacers on Friday, Sept. 20 as part of the Caesars Trotting Classic card.

To go along with the Hoosier Cup final, the card on Friday (Sept. 13) will also include the $400,000 (est.) finals for both the Peter Haughton and Jim Doherty Memorials. Two of the premier stakes races for 2-year-old trotters, The Peter Haughton and Jim Doherty were raced at Harrah's Hoosier Park for the first time in 2023 since moving from The Meadowlands. T C I captured the 2023 Peter Haughton for trotting colts in a campaign that saw him bank over a million dollars, while Soiree Hanover took the Doherty on her way to winning Dan Patch Award honors for the division at season's end. First post for the card on Sept. 13 will be 6:15 p.m.

For more information on the 2024 live racing season, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Welcome home Dawnelle Mock

The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association (MSOA) is thrilled to introduce their new executive director, Dawnelle Mock, who brings a bundle of experience and passion for the horse racing industry.

Born into a family deeply rooted in standardbred racing, Mock's upbringing alongside her parents Dan and Lisa Mock instilled in her a lifelong love for horses. With her parents owning and training racehorses and her sister and brother-in-law starting their own stable, Dawnelle's connection to the sport runs deep. Her first taste of ownership came when Dana and Spencer Kahrig gifted her a share in Wingman Lauxmont.

While initially studying computer science at Youngstown State University, she never strayed far from her horse racing roots. She spent summers and breaks caring for horses with her family while helping Heather Wilder, marketing director of the MSOA at that time, with the promotional events during live Meadows' racing. Her passion was further fueled to promote the sport she loved after attending the prestigious Dan Patch Awards event in Florida, which solidified her desire to pursue a career in marketing within the horse racing industry.

Transitioning her major to marketing, Mock interned at The Meadowlands before graduating from Youngstown State University and joining the MSOA as the social media director, later rising to the position of marketing director. Seeking new challenges, she expanded her horizons by working at the PA Horse Racing Association (PHRA) as the digital content director. Notably, she spearheaded initiatives to boost social media engagement and launched the successful podcast "Hot 2 Trot" to enhance awareness in the racing community.

Now, after valuable experiences in Pennsylvania racing, Mock returns to her roots at the MSOA, eager to apply her diverse expertise and innovative ideas to benefit the standardbred racing community.

"I am beyond excited to come back to The Meadows and hope to be a great representative to the amazing horsemen and horsewomen at The Meadows," she said.

Lisa Dunn, MSOA president, said: "The MSOA Board is very happy to have Dawnelle re-joining our organization. She brings her enthusiasm and knowledge of current industry trends back to The Meadows. I'd like to personally welcome her back and know that our members are also anxious to do so."
