Guinevere Hall stays undefeated with Ohio Sires Stakes Final romp

by Jay Wolf

Brad Conrad

Guinevere Hall (Peter Wrenn) remained undefeated with a 1:53.1 victory in the $300,000 OHSS Final for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

The undefeated Guinevere Hall overcame post #8, used a patient drive by Peter Wrenn and showed why she's the best 3-year-old filly trotter in the Buckeye State as she captured the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes (OHSS) Final during Sunday night's (Sept. 6) Super Night action at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

As the field of nine was sent on their way, Wrenn floated Guinevere Hall off the gates wings and found a seat sixth at the rail in the opening quarter in :27.1. The eventual winner used the cover of Delovely Hall (Aaron Merriman) to steadily advance past the half in :56.2 and the three-quarters in 1:24.3.

As Delovely Hall started to tire in the final turn, Guinevere Hall went three wide and cruised past the pacesetter A Fancy Face (Chris Page) by 3 ½ lengths. The final time of 1:53.1 was just a fifth of a second off the Scioto track record.

"Everything kind of worked out for us. The mare (A Fancy Face) was forced to cut the mile, something she hasn't done a lot of," said Wrenn. "Once we passed Delovely Hall, she switched into a different gear and finished really strong."

Guinevere Hall is trained by Melanie Wrenn and owned by the M T Pockets Stable and David McDuffee.

The Cash Hall-Garbo Hall filly was a $35,000 yearling purchase from breeder Alan Leavitt at the 2018 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. She is a perfect seven-for-seven in 2020 and has career earnings of $415,081 and is a leading candidate for Ohio 'Horse of the Year' honors.

"The mare has been ultra-consistent all year for us," said Wrenn. "We have the Ohio Breeders Championship next and three or four stakes at Hoosier Park. We hope to finish the year in the Matron at Dover (Downs)."

The combo of Ron Burke and Chris Page started the 2020 Ohio Super Night with a bang taking the first two $300,000 OHSS events – the 2-year-old filly trot and pace.

In the freshman filly trot, Page and Merry Ann were saddled with post #7 and when the starting gates wings opened, Page was hoping to leave and find an early spot on the rail. Their best plans need adjusted when Swizzle Hanover (Mike Wilder) closed the hole and forced them to the lead before the three-eighths pole.

"I was pushing forward and I wasn't sure if I would get to the front," said Page. "(Swizzle Hanover) took away one of my options and pushed my hand early."

Action Uncle (Brett Miller) became a two-time Ohio Sires Stakes champion when he captured the 3-year-old colt trot in 1:53.

Merry Ann was pressured by Celebrate With Me (Kurt Sugg) but had enough in reserve to hold off her by a half-length in 1:57.

"Ronnie (Burke) made a bridle change. He put an open bridle on her and that was a gutsy move," said Page. "It definitely worked out."

The Southwind Spirit--Witty Girl lass scored for the fifth time in seven starts and has now earned $245,200 for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi and breeder Knox Services.

The freshman filly pace went to the heavy favorite, Summer Touch, who recorded a 3 ¾ length gate to wire

"I wanted to get away close to the lead, not necessarily on the lead," said Page. "When Ronnie Wrenn's horse (Lady Arthur) ran in the first turn, it made my decision very easy."

The Well Said--Real Touch filly has won five straight and has earned $255,000 for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, Slaughter Racing and Knox Services.

The Page/Burke duo went on to win five races on the 17-race card.

Perron (1, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) won the freshman colt trot in 1:58.

The glamour division, the 3-year-old colt pace, went to Ocean Rock (Dan Noble) in 1:49.4.

Elver Hanover (Chris Page) made Ocean Rock work hard for the early lead, but the latter, a gelded son of Rockin Amadeus—Ocean Pearl showed why he was the 1-5 bettor's choice, controlling the fractions and sprinted home for a 1 ¾ length victory. Elver Hanover held on for second and Gray Dragon (Brett Miller) rallied for the show spot.

Ocean Rock is trained by Christi Noble for breeder Sandra Burnett. With the $150,000 first place check, his career earnings jump to $495,677.

Action Uncle became a two-time Ohio Sires Stakes champion when he captured the 3-year-old colt trot by 3 ¾ lengths over Wading Boots (David Miller) in 1:53.

Driven by Brett Miller and trained by Virgil Morgan Jr., the son of Uncle Peter—Action-broadway picked up his 10th career win for Carl Howard, Joyce McClelland and Larry Wills. Action Uncle upped his career earnings to $545,825.

Action Uncle won the 2019 OHSS championship for breeder and then owner Kenneth Sommer Trust. The current ownership group purchased the colt in December 2019.

Charlie May captured the freshman colt pace after a classic stretch duel with Heart Of Chewbacca (Dan Noble).

When the field of nine was sent on their way, Charlie May and Heart Of Chewbacca tussled early and Noble put his Bring On The Beach colt on the lead at the quarter in :26.3, forcing Charlie May into a pocket sitting trip. Heart Of Chewbacca tripped the half mile beam in :55 and rebuffed a challenge by Hardt At Work (Mike Micallif) at the three-quarters in 1:23.

Brett Miller eased the eventual winner off the rail in the final turn and sprinted past Heart Of Chewbacca by 1 ½ lengths in 1:50.2. The winning time established a new national season's record and Scioto track mark for freshman gelding pacers.

The homebred son of McArdle—Stipple Hanover has now earned $295,181 for Don R. Tiger.

The biggest upset of the night came in the 3-year-old filly pace. The 12-1 Penpaperpaige was the benefactor of a patient drive by Tyler Smith and passed the betting favorite and pacesetter Artful Dancer (Dan Noble) in the lane to score a 1 1/2 length win in a lifetime best 1:52.1.

Penpaperpaige won for the ninth time in 17 career starts for Shirley Le Vin. The Pet Rock—Park Lane Paige filly is trained by Jeff Smith.

The freshman colt trot went to Perron and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. in 1:58. The My MVP—Long Island Tea brown lad defeated Street Gossip (Brett Miller) by a neck.

Chris Beaver conditioned the homebred for Steve Stewart, David Wright, Greg Wilcoxen and Kevin Doherty. Perron now has $198,300 in career earnings.

Beaver also trained the third place (Tango With Me) and fourth place (Panzano) finishers.

The Ohio Super Night undercard featured a pair of $100,000 #senditin Invitational paces.

In the first division, the pocket sitting Brassy Hanover (Andrew McCarthy) sprinted past the Indiana sensation, Little Rocket Man (Trace Tetrack) late in the mile to score a half-length victory in 1:48.3. The winning time equaled the Scioto track mark for 4-year-old gelded pacers.

Brassy Hanover (Well Said—Bold Pink) is owned by Pollack Racing and trainer Jeff Cullipher.

Workin Ona Mystery (Tim Tetrack) went gate-to-wire in 1:48.3 to take the second #senditin Pace by five lengths.

The 4-year-old Captaintreacherous—Dragon's Tale colt is conditioned by Brian Brown for Diamond Creek Racing, Stambaugh Leeman Stable, Alan Keith and Wingfield Brothers.

Sectionline Bigry (Tyler Smith) overcame the outside post and rallied to take second, Escapetothebeach (George Brennan) was third.

Eldorado Scioto Downs concludes its record-setting 2020 season on Saturday, Sept. 12.

Perfect Party Girl Hill romps in PASS final

No Lou Zing, Amigo Volo and Crucial also win $253,000 sophomore Championship events at Harrah's Philadelphia.

by James Witherite / Harrah's Philadelphia racing media

Party Girl Hill ($2.40) looked every bit the part of a divisional champion on Sunday (Sept. 6) at Harrah's Philadelphia, keeping her undefeated record intact with a decisive 1:48.4 score in the $253,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes (PASS) final for sophomore pacing fillies.

Just eight days removed from her 1:49.2 victory in the Fan Hanover at Woodbine Mohawk Park, the daughter of Captaintreacherous—Look Cheap once again asserted her superiority — and in almost identical fashion to her recent Grand Circuit triumph. Dexter Dunn floated Party Girl Hill forward from her pole position, but allowed Rocknificent (Scott Zeron) and New Year (George Napolitano Jr.) to dispute a :26.4 first quarter before brushing from third to clear command with just over a lap to go. After rating a :55.1 half, Party Girl Hill braced for a first-over challenge from JK First Lady (Andy McCarthy), who steadily advanced from fourth up the far side to force a :26.4 third sectional. Party Girl Hill's lead slipped to a length off the home turn, but she responded with a :26.4 quarter of her own, sprinting off at first asking before being taken in hand in the final yards of her 2-1/2 length victory. JK First Lady was a clear second, 2-1/4 lengths ahead of tiring pocket rival Rocknificent.

Chris Ryder trains Party Girl Hill, whose 1:48.4 mile broke the existing track and stakes records for 3-year-old pacing fillies, for owner/breeder Tom Hill. She has won all nine of her career starts and amassed $482,181 in purses.

Party Girl Hill completed a sire stakes hat trick for Dunn, who also captured the $252,000 finals for 3-year-old colts and geldings aboard pacer No Lou Zing ($6.60) and trotter Amigo Volo ($2.80).

No Lou Zing, who only broke maiden on June 20, has since vaulted into the upper echelon of sophomore pacers and proved his place among them with a sharp 1:49.3 effort.

Dunn was reserved early on with the Sweet Lou—Terroronthebeach gelding and remained in midfield while 3-5 favorite Allywag Hanover (Tim Tetrack) brushed from fourth after stalking a :25.4 quarter. Allywag Hanover maintained a spritely pace through middle splits of :53.4 and 1:21.1 and was forced to exert even more into the far turn while Sandbetweenmytoes (Andy McCarthy) encroached on the outside and No Lou Zing stalked from second-over. With just over a furlong remaining, Dunn flipped No Lou Zing three-wide, and he vaulted to the lead in upper stretch before striding two lengths clear. The Greek Freak (Matt Kakaley) saved second from a hard-earned pocket, while Cattlewash (David Miller) narrowly upended Allwag Hanover for third.

Nancy Takter trains five-time winner No Lou Zing for the 3 Brothers Stables, Rojan Stables and Caviart Farms. No Lou Zing, bred by Concord Stud Farm LLC and Birnam Wood Farms was purchased for $145,000 at the 2018 Standardbred Horse Sales Company's Harrisburg, PA sale.

Amigo Volo lived up to odds-on billing in the 3-year-old male trot, scooting away from EL Ideal's stern head-stretch challenge by 2-3/4 lengths and delivering a 1:52.3 victory.

Amigo Volo yielded to early speedster EL Ideal (Andy Miller) on the first turn, only for Dunn to angle him out and claim control just beyond a :27.3 first quarter. After stealing a :57.2 half-mile split, the Father Patrick--Margarita Momma gelding accelerated up the far side, reaching three-quarters in 1:24.4 before EL Ideal again emerged from the pocket. Amigo Volo made easy work of his challenger, sprinting off in upper stretch to record the 10th win of his career. EL Ideal was an isolated second, 5-1/2 lengths better than Patriarch Hanover (Kakaley).

Richard 'Nifty' Norman trains Amigo Volo, whose career earnings now stand at $946,719, for the Pinske Stables and David J. Miller.

Amigo Volo, bred by Kentuckiana Farms LLC and Jorgen Jahre, Jr., was purchased for $42,000 at the 2018 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Dunn's lone sire stakes defeat came in the $252,000 final for 3-year-old trotting fillies, which saw Ron Burke trainee Crucial ($42.80) and David Miller spring a massive upset in a race that figured to be a showdown between Sister Sledge and Next Level Stuff.

Predictably, Next Level Stuff (Tetrack) assumed early control, but kept early challenger Queen Of The Hill – and Dunn – parked through early splits of :27 and :56 while Crucial established the pocket and 2-5 favorite Sister Sledge (Brian Sears) assumed second-over position. As Queen Of The Hill worsened in the breeze nearing three-quarters in 1:24, Sister Sledge angled three-wide but failed to fire, but Next Level Stuff wasn't home free. Crucial (Father Patrick--Jolene Jolene) angled out of the pocket turning for home and lifted clear by 1-1/2 lengths to win in 1:52.4. Sweet Shirley Mae (Andy Miller) and Dip Me Hanover (Scott Zeron) emerged to take second and third respectively over an engulfed Next Level Stuff.

It was the seventh career win for Crucial, who campaigns for the Burke Racing Stable, Bill Donovan, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby, and Weaver Brusceci.

Crucial, bred by Steve Stewart, Maumee River Stables, Black Creek Farm and Martin Schmucker, was purchased for $200,000 at the 2018 Lexington Selected Yearling sale.

In addition to his win with Amigo Volo, Norman captured two of the four $50,000 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes consolations on the card: Annabelle Hanover ($9.40, Dunn) took the 3-year-old filly pace in 1:50.3, and Chestnut Hill ($8.20, David Miller) won the 3-year-old colt and gelding trot in 1:53.2.

Sherry Lyns Lady ($10.60, Tetrack) wired her foes in the 3-year-old filly trot in 1:54.4 for trainer Jim Campbell, and Manticore ($2.80, Jordan Stratton) delivered a dynamite 1:49.2 mile in the 3-year-old colt pace consolation for trainer Bruce Saunders.

Dune Hill completes Stallion Series sweep, gives Burke career win 11,000

by Evan Pattak for The Meadows Standardbred Owners Association

When Dune Hill won her $40,000 Pennsylvania Stallion Series championship Monday (Sept. 7) at The Meadows, it was historic on several counts. Not only did it complete the 3-year-old filly trotter's sweep of the four preliminary legs and the final, but it also gave trainer Ron Burke career win 11,000.

The Meadows played host to all eight $40,000 stallion series finals Monday, and there was action aplenty, as four championship records fell. But Dune Hill and Burke clearly took center stage.

Dune Hill got away fifth for Matt Kakaley and moved with cover before attacking the leader, Alittlebitofsugar. Kakaley said he had no doubt the daughter of Muscle Hill—Quite Possible would get by.

"She felt really good in the last turn; I wasn't too worried," Kakaley said. "As long as you keep her out of trouble and she has her manners right, she's better than these."

She downed Aittlebitofsugar by 2-3/4 lengths in 1:54.4, lowering the previous stake mark of 1:55.1 set by Dressed To Impress in 2017. The first-over Hannah earned show. Dune Hill now has banked $151,886 for owner Joseph DiScala, Jr.

Burke, harness racing's perennial leading trainer, just keeps rolling. Since 2009, he's won at least 762 races every year; during that period, his UTR hasn't been below .321 in any season. Overall, Burke trainees have earned just shy of $244 million.

Jim Pantaleano and Tim Tetrick each collected a pair of titles. Highlights of the other championships:

2-Year-Old Filly Trot — Love Muffin

When he learned that Love Muffin had drawn post 8, trainer David Wiest indicated he wasn't concerned.

"I know she'll leave and get a good spot," he said. "I wasn't worried at all."

Love Muffin justified Wiest's confidence, zipping to the point for Pantaleano and scoring in 1:55.4, which shattered Day Lily's previous record of 1:57.2 set in 2014. The first-over Rebel Girl raced well for second, beaten 1-1/2 lengths, with Trend third.

Wiest said owners Edward Kimmel and Don Wiest have consigned the daughter of Andover Hall—Pine Yankee to the Harrisburg sale; she'll contest several Pennsylvania stakes before then.

2-Year-Old Filly Pace — Odds On Whitney

She was forced six wide in the lane, but the full sister to world champion Papi Rob Hanover showed her determination, overcoming Darby Hanover by a head to prevail in 1:52.2. Skyy completed the ticket. It was the second consecutive stallion series record for Odds on Whitney; this one eliminated the old mark of 1:53.3 set by Sidewalk Dancer in 2017.

"I put a lot of trust in her," said winning driver Tetrick. "We got away in a bad spot, but she overcame it. It's hard to come that wide through the turn. She has a lot of power and pedigree, so who knows what she can be next year."

Tony Alagna conditions the daughter of Somebeachsomewhere—Panera Hanover for Odds On Racing.

3-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Trot – Overserved

The son of Explosive Matter—Afterimage moved first over for Tetrick to win his fourth straight for owners William Donovan, Stephen Michaels, Joe Sbrocco and Jim Winske, setting a stake record 1:54.2 in the process. Frost Free Hanover established the previous record of 1:55.2 in 2014. Early leader Town Victor was second, 1-3/4 lengths back, while Stickler Hanover earned show.

"The biggest thing about him — he's matured," said winning trainer George Ducharme. "Like last week when he went on the lead, he would never have done that a year ago, or even earlier this spring."

3-Year-Old Filly Pace – Going Gone Hanover

Yankeeland Partners' daughter of Captaintreacherous—Go On BB was the day's most decisive winner, drawing off late for Andrew McCarthy to beat Wayside by 5-3/4 lengths in 1:51.3. Keystone Eureka completed the ticket.

"It looked like a pretty good spot for this mare — she's been good all year," McCarthy said. "I think she was a little sick her last start, but she got the job done."

Winning trainer Brett Bittle said his filly is eligible to several of the rich stakes at the Red Mile.

2-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Pace – Somewhereinverona

Somewhereinverona (Somebeachsomewhere—Northern Duchess) shot the Lightning Lane to triumph in 1:53.1 for Aaron Merriman and trainer Blake MacIntosh, who owns with Petitpas Stables, Ozzie Mackay, and Gilles Landry.

"I didn't really have a choice but the Lightning Lane after getting away third," Merriman said. "The horse really responded when he saw air, so it was really easy."

Captain Fancy was second, beaten 1-1/2 lengths, with Rifleman third.

Chris Gooden

3-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Pace – Seriously Hanover

Seriously Hanover went wide through the lane to collect a hard-fought win for Andy Miller in 1:51.3, 1/2 length ahead of Ruthless Hanover. Mankat earned show.

"It's hard to make up ground when you're that wide, but thankfully, he stuck his nose up," said Ron Coyne, who trains the son of Western Ideal—Stolly Up Bluechip for Michael Cimaglio, Stephen Demeter and Stephen Giagni. "He'll go to Lexington, where he'll have a couple options. We'll see what makes the most sense."

2-Year-Old Colt & Gelding Trot – Lepanto

Lepanto made it look easy for the second straight week, notching a front-end win in 1:56 for Pantaleano. Sunny Crockett and Lindys Goin Crazy completed the ticket.

"He was a pleasure to drive; he did everything right, especially for a baby," Pantaleano said. "He's probably a notch below the Grand Circuit horses. I think he'll make most of his money because of his quick speed, and you can put him in good spots."

Ake Svanstedt conditions the son of Bar Hopping—Woman of Character for Esa Lahtinen, Jussi Hietalahti and Arvo Risto.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Kyle Cummings has been preparing for a career as a driver since he was 8

by Chris Lomon

Not many 8-year-olds would know what they wanted to do for a career. But Kyle Cummings certainly did.

“When did I know I wanted to be a harness driver?” repeated Cummings. “It was the first time I ever jogged a horse. I was eight, and it was a great feeling. The speed and the adrenaline rush you get from sitting in the sulky is an amazing feeling. I love going fast. I pretty much knew at the moment what I was going to be.”

His grandfather, John P. Cummings Sr., was a longtime New York horseman who first got involved in the sport in 1968.

The most notable horse he trained was Arm And A Leg (1:54, $320,791) that won 13 out of 39 starts in 2009 en route to Western New York Horse of the Year honors.

John Cummings Jr., Tony Cummings, Todd Cummings and Kevin Cummings all learned the tools of the trade from their father, each one of them training and driving standardbreds from an early age.

Kyle, now 20, has followed in those very footsteps.

On the night of April 3, 2019, the young reinsman partnered then 9-year-old Jude Hall ($4.60 to win), a pacing son of Southwind Lynx (KY), to victory at Buffalo Raceway in a Class D race.

It was his first pari-mutuel driving win, a gate-to-wire one-length score timed in 1:59.2.

The victory, aside from being a milestone, was special for another reason.

Cummings mother, Tammy, owns the horse bred by Walnut Hall Limited and Steven Katz.

“It was pretty awesome, especially winning with my mom’s horse. We had the rail and it was nice and easy. He pretty much did it for me. I just sat there, and he took me around the track. No one was ever really that close to him. He did it all by himself. You love those types of wins. It’s, ‘get ready and smile for the winner’s circle picture.’

“My uncle, who drives at Buffalo, he was there in the winner's circle with us. My mom was so proud and told me I did a great job. My sister, unfortunately, she couldn't be there, but she's a big supporter of mine. My dad, he couldn't be there, but he was watching it at home."

Support is never in shortage for Cummings, something he understood well before that first win.

Having family and friends in his corner makes the rough patches on the racetrack easier to deal with.

"It's great. My parents let me drive all of their horses. It means a lot for them to give you that opportunity, and you want to make the most of it. From the moment I started driving, when I was 18, they told me I could drive the horses they own. They started out with just a few horses, and now they have eight. They're looking to buy some more, so that means that I'll be able to drive more. My parents have played a huge role in my career."

After 24 wins in his 2019 rookie season, Cummings was eager to improve upon that total this year.

The impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic might prevent him from reaching that goal, but it's not going to diminish his desire to heighten his skills in the sulky.

He's learned plenty about the sport and his role over the past two racing campaigns.

"I think patience is something that has really helped me. I've worked hard to put my horses in the best spot to win, or to at least pick up a check. Each race night, it's something new every time. You're able to pick up more knowledge every time you drive. The way I look at it, there's never a race you can't win."

Cummings has also never forgotten the one bit of advice he heard early on in his career, words that he reminds himself of each time he takes hold of the reins.

"You always want to be going forward in the stretch, not backwards. That's easier said than done, but that's always the goal. Anything can happen at any point in a race where you have to make a change of plans in a split-second. Hopefully, whatever you choose to do helps you move forward down the lane, and you're not backing up instead."

When he's not driving on the western New York racing circuit or at Pennsylvania racetracks, Cummings is taking his best swing, literally, on the golf course.

It's the ideal chance to leave behind any of the racetrack stresses to focus on netting a few pars and birdies with his buddies.

"We play a lot of golf. My golf game, it's good on some days, and it's bad on other days. Sometimes I can keep the ball straight, and other times, I'm hitting it either left or right. I would say driving is the best part of my game. My putting and my short game aren't great. But I'm working on it."

Just as Cummings is with his driving skills.

"I'm constantly looking at ways to improve, watch tapes of the races, and going over every detail, big or small. That's important, especially for a young driver. You always want to prepare the best you can, be at your best when you are on the racetrack, and whatever happens, you try not to let anything affect your focus on the next drive."

Not having a lot of time between races to overthink what just transpired is ideal, he noted.

"You try not to stay stuck on what just happened the race before. If you win, that boosts your confidence, and you use that to your advantage for the next race. If it was a tough result, you let it go because it might affect the next horse you drive. You're going to make mistakes, so you move on and move forward."

Never backwards, right?

"Exactly. When you're driving, you have eight horses, and seven other drivers trying to put their horse in the best spot. You just have to adapt and you just always try to keep going forward."

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Pacing-bred trotter Hail Mary wins $910,000 Derby in Sweden

by Thomas Hedlund

Four Googoo Gaagaa offsprings and one contender out of pacer mare Kissed By The West were gathered around the Jägersro racetrack in Malmö, Sweden on Sunday afternoon (Sept. 6) and a pacing-bred trotter did indeed win one of the biggest races in Europe.

Googoo Gaagaa son Power won the $910,000 Svenskt Travkriterium last year, as a 3-year-old and Robert Bergh's horse was one of the elimination winners ahead of the Derby this year.

But Bergh also had Hail Mary (Googoo Gaagaa—Dream

U.S., by Victory Dream-Nan's Catch) in the field of 12 horses on Sunday afternoon and Hail Mary became Bergh's choice when the drivers decision had to be made among his three finalists. The story of Hail Mary as a racehorse took its serious start in Gävle on Aug. 22 last year. Not an early horse thus, but Bergh was very clear that he had something extra in the barn after the convincing debut win that day in August.

"Yes, I knew that I had two really great Googoo Gaagaa colts in my stable and Hail Mary hasn't done anything wrong after that day," said Bergh.

The funny thing about Aug. 22 in Gävle is that another, then lower-classed trotter made his third start at that track, and won. Don Fanucci Zet (Hard Livin—Kissed By The West) grabbed his third consecutive win that day and if someone would have said that two of the favorites in the Derby 2020 showed off on that very day, probably no one would have taken that statement seriously.

But the fact is that Hail Mary and Don Fanucci Zet were the horses that fought for victory and glory when the Derby field turned for home on Sunday afternoon.

Hail Mary and Robert Bergh managed to keep the lead from post 1, even if Wim Paal and Usain Töll begged for the front position after a quarter of a mile. That situation was quickly solved by Bergh, who let Usain Töll pass Hail Mary whereupon Bergh again claimed the lead with two laps to go in the 1.6 miles long Derby.

Don Fanucci Zet attacked three wide midway through the race and landed outside of Hail Mary with a little more than 5/8ths of a mile to go. These two horses seemed to leave the rest of the gang in the last turn and pretty soon it was understood that Hail Mary was the stronger one this day. Bergh, a three-time Derby winner ahead of Sunday's edition, noted that his horse was better than the rest and Hail Mary came home in a mile rate 1:57.1.

Don Fanucci Zet held to second place ahead of splendid finisher Aetos Kronos (Bold Eagle). Aetos Kronos had at least 20 meters to pick up from last position when the home stretch was close and much credits are delivered to the top three in the Derby 2020.

"I'm very proud of Hail Mary and it feels so good that he and we can look back in the books and see his name after a victory in a race like this. I really wanted him to win so he could show what a great horse he is. For me as a trainer I'm pleased with the whole journey with him, the plans we've made along the way and most of all it feels nice to know that I won with a horse that raced with shoes, with an open bridle and in an ordinary sulky. We haven't pushed to this victory, but just letting him being a horse", said Bergh after his fourth triumph in the Derby.

Queen Diana won again

Daniel Redén's Diana Zet had been the queen of the 2016 born crop ahead of the $456,500 Derbystoet for 4-year-old mares at Jägersro on Sunday afternoon. The $225,000 Drottningpokalen, $545,000 Stochampionatet and $456,500 Derbystoet are the biggest races for 4-year-old mares in Sweden and after the race at Jägersro, no one needed to question who's the best mare in the crop since Diana Zet held stablemate Milady Grace behind her in a quick finish. Örjan Kihlström pushed Diana Zet to the lead and hit the front after 600 meters, when third stablemate Alaska Kronos needed cover after a rapid start for Carl Johan Jepson.

When Milady Grace connected as first on the outside, Redén's fourth finalist, Award Kronos, was given a second over trip for Adrian Kolgjini.

With four Redén horses in front, the race was locked and the attacks three wide from horses in the back of the field during the race's last half mile became too tough since the last quarter of a mile was quick, :27.2 for the two horses in front.

Diana Zet lost her gait and nearly made a break with 50 meters to go, but Kihlström solved the situation and the Hard Livin mare held a brave Milady Grace behind her in a mile rate of 1:57 over 1.3 miles.

Redén didn't just grab the gold and silver in Derbystoet, but also the bronze medal since Alaska Kronos finished third after a trip behind the leader. Grande Diva Sisu made a strong effort as fourth from third over and broke Redén's dominance in the race. Award Kronos finished fifth and the outcome couldn't have been much better for Daniel Redén.

"It's very unclear everything right now. I don't know if Diana Zet broke before the wire and in that case we've won anyway," said Redén directly after the race, before he knew if Diana Zet had won the race.

"Diana is just incredible. At home, when we train her, she's just not so interested and it's pretty impressive of her to win all these big races since she was a 3-year-old. Unfortunately she lost her gait after the wire and she got injured at that moment, so she will most probably stay out of competition for the rest of the year."

Two heat win for Vernissage Grif

Alessandro Gocciadoro is practically unstoppable in his homeland Italy and on Saturday night he claimed $213,000 Campionato Europeo in Cesena.

Campionato Europeo is a two-heat race and Vernissage Grif had no problem in winning both races. The first heat became a one man show when the 6-year-old Varenne son won in 1:54.2 while runner up Arazi Boko came home in 1:55.4.

1:55.1 was the winner time in heat two and Vernissage Grif made Campionato Europeo to his own race in the Italian night.

Holger Ehlert trained Barbaresco Grif (Conway Hall), driven by Enrico Bellei, won the $235,750 Gran Premio Nazionale in Milan on Sunday afternoon after a trip third on the inside. Barbaresco Grif finished strongly when Enrico Bellei found space between horses and the duo won in mile rate 1:56 over 1.3 miles.

McClure and MacDonald triumph on record-setting card in Clinton

Bob McClure did not have much luck in the Charity Driver's Challenge that kicked off a record-setting closing day at Clinton Raceway on Sunday (Sept. 6), but Canada's leading reinsman finished things up with a natural hat trick in the last three $22,000 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots events.

"When the first four horses you drive in a driver's challenge are picked for last, you pretty well know that you're not going to be a big threat," said McClure with a laugh. "But it's all fun, it's for charity, we all had a blast. They always do a great job, the track's always good, they always have competitive races, the whole thing is fun."

Clinton's leading reinsman Brett MacDonald triumphed in the Charity Driver's Challenge, which raised over $7,000 for the Clinton Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion. Through the eight driver's challenge races and four Grassroots divisions, Clinton Raceway fans wagered a total of $118,041, an all-time high for the half-mile oval.

After his driver's challenge mounts failed to serve up a victory, McClure made his debut in the winner's circle in the second of four Grassroots divisions for the 2-year-old pacing fillies, guiding Sports Duchess to a gate-to-wire score from Post 4. The fan favorite kept a stubborn neck in front of Siri Blue Chip at the wire to claim her first Ontario Sires Stakes win in a personal best 1:57.3. Celia Bayama was two lengths back in third.

"I think that's the first time I ever drove a horse for Blake that was competitive, usually I'm fifth choice so we don't usually have very much luck. It's a running joke between us, he actually fist bumped me in the winner's circle and laughed and said, 'Hey look we got a cheque together,'" said McClure of trainer Blake MacIntosh. "But she's real slick gaited through the turns, which helps at a track like that. She raced great."

MacIntosh trains Sports Duchess for breeder Leanne Murphy of St. George and her co-owner Stuart McIntosh of Essex, ON. The Sportswriter daughter started her provincial career at the Gold Series level before making the move to the Grassroots for the third leg. With Sunday's win and a third in the Aug. 14 Grassroots event she boasts a point tally of 62 and currently sits in a three-way tie for eighth in the division standings.

McClure was right back in the Clinton Raceway winner's circle after the third division, making a bold three-wide move down the backstretch with CL Sportsextreme to grab control of the race and cruise home to a 1:58.3 victory. Miscues by Patina Seelster and Steelmeatreasure in the last quarter caused some confusion behind CL Sportsextreme, leaving Treasures Gem and Control The Thong to cross the wire 16 lengths after the winner.

"I think she was the best one I drove today actually, she was wicked. I mean we were five lengths off at the five-eighths pole, but when I moved her she was on top at the three-quarter pole, so she's got a real good turn of foot," said McClure of the Sportswriter daughter, who started from the trailing Post 8. "She tries real hard for a little filly and she just motored around that last turn. I know there was some chaos going on behind me, but she won very, very easily."

Dany Fontaine trains CL Sportsextreme for owner/breeder Ecuries C. LeBlanc Inc. of Saint-Eustache, QC. In six career starts the filly boasts four wins, with three of them coming in the Grassroots program. With one regular season leg remaining, CL Sportsextreme is tied for top spot in the division standings with 150 points.

McClure finished the hat trick in the last division, putting Sweet Pink on the front heading by the half and cruising home to a three length victory in 1:59.2. Sportsfire finished second and Shes Got It All rounded out the top three.

"She's been a little bit of a project for Nick. When he first baby raced her I liked her a lot, she's well-bred and everything, and then she made a break in the second baby race and I don't know what it was about," said McClure of the Nick Gallucci trainee who started from Post 2. "She's got quite a bit of ability and I think next year she's going to really make some money."

Gallucci trains the Bettors Delight daughter for owner-breeder Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON. Sunday's win was Sweet Pink's first in four career starts and gives her a Grassroots point total of 53, good enough for a share of eleventh heading into the last leg at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Sept. 15.

Amini captured the other Grassroots division, sprinting away from Post 7 to take control of the tempo and hanging on for a head decision in 1:58.2. Chiefs Dream Girl finished second and fan favorite Betchuloveme was third.

Sylvain Filion piloted the Sportswriter daughter to her second Grassroots win for trainer Richard Moreau and owners Tess Waxman of Ridgeville and David Morgan of Hamilton, ON. With two wins and one second, Amini currently sits third with 127 points.

Driver's challenge winner Brett MacDonald had the opposite experience to McClure, finding the winner's circle twice in the early part of the card and missing the board with his two Grassroots mounts. In his eight challenge drives MacDonald posted two wins, one second, one fourth, one fifth and had one of his mounts scratched for a total of 148 points, eight more than runner-up Doug McNair.

"It comes down to the type of horses you drive, especially when you drive with that many good drivers, the horses and the trips you get are how you win that type of thing," said MacDonald, who led all drivers at the Clinton meet with 17 wins. "It's nice to do something for charity too."

Brittany posts virtual inspections

This year, for the first time, Brittany Farms has added complete, "virtual inspections" of its yearlings to its video-only website, available now at <https://brittanyfarms.smugmug.com>.

At the beginning of each yearling's traditional action video, there is now additional, comprehensive video of each horse being led in both directions — toward and away from the camera — along with zoom-in closeups at every angle to show conformation from the side, front, and behind.

"With travel restrictions due to the COVID-19 situation, especially from other countries, we felt it was important this year to give buyers every pre-sale opportunity to inspect our yearlings," said farm manager Art Zubrod.

"Of course we still welcome buyers to visit the farm for a personal inspection, but for those unable to do so, these should satisfy giving them a good, close look at each horse that's for sale. The videos have slow, zoom-in closeups of knees, ankles and hocks... everything a potential buyer would want to see."

The videos, filmed by Larry Cohen, are believed to be the first of their kind in the horse racing industry. "The thoroughbreds offer 'walking videos,' but these are much more detailed. I expect this is something we'll continue to do in the years ahead," Zubrod said.

Brittany Farms, the sport's "Breeder of the Year" in 2019, will sell its yearlings exclusively at the Lexington Selected Sale, which begins Monday, Oct. 5 and continues through Friday, Oct. 9.

The farm's yearlings will be available for inspection at the Fasig-Tipton sales grounds beginning Saturday, Oct. 3 at 9 a.m. They will be located, as usual, in Barn 10.

For additional information please contact Art Zubrod at Brittany Farms: (859) 873-3878; email art@britfarms.com.

Sophomore colts sharp in fourth Grassroots leg

With less than one month remaining in the regular season, the 3-year-old pacing colts were on their toes in Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots action at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Monday (Sept. 7).

The talented sophomore kicked things off with a thrilling performance in the first race, which saw the top three finishers hit the wire together, separated by a short nose. The finish-line photo revealed Poseidon Seelster as the winner by a whisker, with Gonnahaveonemore second and Better Take It third. All three colts were clocked in 1:51.1, which was a personal best for Poseidon Seelster.

"We're really excited about the win. Bob gave him a perfect drive, even if he didn't win it was an awesome drive," said Matt Dupuis, who trains the Sunshine Beach colt for Keith Cassell of Smiths Falls, ON. "He needed the win to get more points for the Semi-Finals."

Bob McClure engineered the victory, which saw Poseidon Seelster get away mid-pack from Post 4 and hug the rail until he powered out in the stretch for the battle to the wire. The win was the gelding's second straight and his first of the season in Grassroots action, launching him from 31st to 10th in the division standings with 61 points.

"I was really looking forward to him coming back at 3, but he didn't come back to be what I thought he would," said McClure, who drove the pacer through his $25,500 freshman campaign, but was making just his third appearance in the gelding's race bike Monday. "He's amazing gaited, big, strong and very fast, but just never seemed to put all the tools together, but I'd say Matt has him peaking at a perfect time."

The second $22,800 division saw fan favorite Bettorbuckleup get away fourth from Post 7, take command heading by the half and cruise home to a three and one-half length victory in a personal best 1:50.3. Bettor At Hightide finished second and Solid Man was third.

"I was a little surprised he was on the lead, just because he's never really done that well on the lead on the big track, but he's so brave right now it seems like that was probably the only spot he could be today," said trainer Nick Gallucci of the trip worked out by driver James MacDonald. "I was really happy with how everything worked out."

"James said after the race, 'He almost feels like a Gold horse now,'" Gallucci continued. "His last couple races he seems to have really turned the corner."

The win was Bettorbuckleup's second in Grassroots action and his third of the season. The Bettors Delight son tested his skills against the Gold Series colts in the Aug. 16 leg at Rideau Carleton Raceway, finishing third, but Gallucci and owner Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON felt he was better positioned for success in the Grassroots program where he now sits second in the standings with 125 points.

Fan favorite The Wild Card romped to his fourth straight Grassroots victory in the third division, cruising under the wire two lengths ahead of Menlo Park and Captivate Hanover in a personal best 1:51.2. Doug McNair engineered the front-stepping win for trainer Dr. Ian Moore of Cambridge and his co-owners R G McGroup Ltd. of Bathurst, NB and Serge Savard of St-Bruno, QC.

"He's one of the best feeling horses that I've ever had, every day he seems to be full of himself. I jogged him yesterday, because I trained him a little bit Saturday and if they're racing Monday I do jog them on Sunday, and even after training Saturday he goes out on the track in a big hurry, like a fast walk all the time," said Dr. Moore of the Bettors Delight son. "And then when he gets to the track he's leaping up in the air like 'Heigh-ho Silver, away!' sort of thing and takes off 100 miles an hour. He does that every time he steps on the racetrack, and then after one lap around the sand track he slows down. He's always feeling good like that. He does it every day, like it doesn't seem to be wearing on him, the season, at all."

With a flawless record of four wins in four Grassroots starts, The Wild Card leads the sophomore pacing colts into the Sept. 20 leg at Flamboro Downs with 200 points. The top 20 point earners from the five regular season events will advance to the Oct. 2 Semi-Finals at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the top five finishers from each Semi-Final will move on to the $75,000 Grassroots Championship on Oct. 10.

Doug McNair was back in the winner's circle after the last division, guiding National Sport to a 1:50.3 personal best off a front-end effort. The lightly regarded son of Sportswriter bested Delightful Terror by half a length after giving ground to the fan favorite at the top of the stretch. Sundown Kid was two lengths back in third.

"I thought he was going to be 10th, but he was tough," said McNair of the second wind National Sport found late in the stretch. "He showed last year that he had some talent, and that's the first time this year he's shown a real good mile again."

A Grassroots winner at two, National Sport posted a fourth and a seventh in his first two sophomore Grassroots starts had not found the winner's circle before Monday's effort. Jared Bako trains the gelding, who jumped from thirty-second to eleventh in the standings, for 1362313 Ontario Ltd. of Windsor, ON.

Loyal Fox Hanover sets track record in Landmark Stakes at Goshen

Loyal Fox Hanover made his first win of the season a memorable one, winning Sunday's (Sept. 6) $16,150 Landmark Stakes 3-year-old open trot by 4-1/2 lengths over Askmelater Hanover in a track-record 1:57.3 at Historic Track. Sloanie finished third.

The previous track record for a 3-year-old trotting gelding was 1:58 set by Keenan in 2011.

Askmelater Hanover led through the first half of the race before Loyal Fox Hanover took a slim lead at three-quarters. The two trotters battled around the final turn before Loyal Fox Hanover pulled away nearing the wire.

"I wasn't sure if he was going to get around the half-mile (track) but he liked it," trainer Chuck Sylvester said. "He got around there very good. I'd say that was one of his best performances of the year."

Loyal Fox Hanover had four wins and four second-place finishes in 10 starts last year, earning $76,118. He finished second in a division of the John Simpson Memorial and concluded last season with a victory in a division of the Liberty Bell. This year, though, he was winless in nine starts heading into the Landmark.

"We were pretty high on him all winter and he's been pretty disappointing to us," Sylvester said. "He could trot as much last year as he's been trotting this year. For some reason, he didn't pick up any speed. He's just been steady. Last year, he battled every time. This year, he hasn't tried very hard. Maybe this is what he needed."

Ray Schnittker drove Loyal Fox Hanover for Sylvester. Loyal Fox Hanover, a son of Andover Hall out of Lady Luck Hanover, has won five of 20 career races, earning $98,833. The gelding is owned by Steve Jones, Mary Kinsey Arnold, Paul Bordogna, and Sylvester. Hanover Shoe Farms bred the winner.

Other Landmark Stakes winners were Levine in the $16,550 3-year-old open pace, Rodeo Beach in the $7,900 3-year-old filly pace, Credit Con in the $12,000 2-year-old open trot, and Mullinax in the $10,500 2-year-old open pace.

Jason Bartlett drove Levine and Mullinax, two of his seven wins on the day. He also won five New York Sire Stakes County Fair finals.

"I knew some of the horses I had were pretty good and I had some good post positions too," Bartlett said. "But you can't expect you're going to win seven on the day, that everything is going to go perfect. I just was in good spots."

Levine won by 6-3/4 lengths over 2019 New York Sire Stakes champion Cigars And Port in 1:54. He took the lead following a first-turn skirmish with Stop Action and Cigars And Port and rebuffed a first-over challenge from Cigars And Port on the backstretch en route to victory. Always On The Hunt finished third.

"He has really good gate speed," Bartlett said. "He's very quick and he's very good in the turns. I knew when I got to the front as easy as I did that he would be tough to beat. He was very good. And Scott Zeron owns that horse, so I had a lot of pressure on me."

Levine is owned by driver Zeron, who was unable to attend Sunday's Historic Track races because of commitments at Harrah's Philadelphia, which was hosting the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championships and consolations for 3-year-olds.

It was Zeron's connection with Levine's full brother, Pointomygranson, that led to the purchase of Levine for $24,000 at the 2018 Lexington Selected Sale. Zeron had driven Pointomygranson to multiple New York Sire Stakes wins the previous season.

"Scott really liked Pointomygranson," trainer Megan Scran said. "That is what attracted us to (Levine). He's really come into himself as a 3-year-old."

Levine, a gelded son of American Ideal-Sangaal bred by Ken Solomon, has won four of seven races this year and five of 16 lifetime, earning $55,955. He is the points leader in the New York Sire Stakes Excelsior "A" Series.

Mullinax won his Landmark Stakes by 5-3/4 lengths over Stop Staring in 1:57.4. He's A Snob finished third.

Fourth through the first half of the race, Mullinax charged forward from there and became the race's fourth and final leader.

"He's been very good," Bartlett said. "I love that little horse. He got beat last week because he was very sick. I knew today that I just needed a clean trip. There was a lot of movement to the half and some of those horses were struggling in the turns. I attacked in the turn and cleared pretty easy. He won very easily."

Mullinax has won three of eight races and $27,152 for owner Bill Varney. He was bred by Mark Ford and Ed Mullinax, who passed away in 2018. Ford trains the colt.

"He's very versatile, quick, and has a great attitude," Bartlett said. "I've been racing him from the front and today he won from off the pace just as well. He's just a handy little horse and that's what you need on the New York Sire Stakes circuit."

Schnittker returned to the winner's circle for the Landmark for 3-year-old filly pacers after driving Rodeo Beach to victory in 1:55.4. Flirty Forty finished second and Hurrikanemyshannon was third.

Rodeo Beach led through the first quarter before yielding the top spot to Flirty Forty, who guided the field to the three-quarter point. Rodeo Beach moved to the outside coming off the final turn and paced to a 3-3/4 length triumph.

Schnittker owns Rodeo Beach with Arnold and Bordogna. He bred the filly, a daughter of Somebeachsomewhere out of Wild West Show, with Charles Iannazzo. She is a full sister to Dan Patch Award winner Huntsville as well as six-figure earners Cowboy Terrier, Stevensville, Wild Bill, and Branquinho.

Rodeo Beach has won two of 11 races this season and three of 19 lifetime, earning $31,086.

Credit Con held off a late charge from Seven Nation Army to capture the $12,000 Landmark Stakes 2-year-old open trot by three-quarters of a length in 2:00.4. Manuka finished third.

Cory Stratton drove Credit Con for trainer Todd Buter and breeder/owner Lee Sitto. The victory was the first for the gelding, a son of Credit Winner out of Jesse's Con, in six career starts. He has won $31,080.

NYSS “Night of Champions” set for Sept. 12 at Yonkers Raceway

New York's richest night of racing returns to Yonkers Raceway this Saturday (Sept. 12) with the $1.8 million New York Sire Stakes (NYSS) Night of Champions. Eight finals races featuring the best state-bred 2- and 3-year-olds will be contested for $225,000 purses each. Post time is 7:12 p.m. A full list of entries can be found here.

American Courage (American Ideal) will be heavily favored among the 2-year-old colt pacers. It's been seven wins in seven starts for trainer Travis Alexander and driver Matt Kakaley, including four wins in the NYSS. The freshman has proven he knows how to win at Yonkers with three wins on the track this year, including a win in the $104,250 MGM Springfield Stakes Final. American Courage will start from the 5 post for owner Fiddler's Creek Stables LLC.

Test of Faith (Art Major) will be the filly to watch as the points leader looks to cement her place as the best 2-year-old pacer this season. In five NYSS starts, she's recorded four wins and a second-place finish. She's also the top earner among 2-year-olds in the series this year with $145,250 for trainer Brett Pelling and owners Melvin Segal, Kentuckiana Racing Stable, and Eddie Gran. She starts from post 6 in the final.

Ambassador Hanover (Chapter Seven) is undefeated in four NYSS starts. Ambassador Hanover is trained by Ake Svanstedt and is owned by Howard Taylor, Judith Taylor, Order By Stable.

Destined To Dance (Chapter Seven) stands atop the points among 2-year-old filly trotters at a perfect five-for-five in NYSS starts this season. John Butenschoen trains for co-owner/breeder Crawford Farms and co-owners Heritage Standardbreds and Rich Preziotti. Destined To Dance drew the 3 post in her division final.

Chapter Seven has sired the point leaders in each of the four NYSS trotting divisions.

Standout rivals Major Betts (Art Major) and Splash Brother (So Surreal) will be favorites looking to settle their score in the final for 3-year-old colt pacers. Major Betts is trained by Mark Harder for owners by Joe Jannuzzelli and Deena Frost. Splash Brother is trained by Ray Schnittker, who co-owns with Steven Arnold, Tammy Flannery and Nola Maura Racing.

Hen Party (Roll With Joe) sits atop the points standing for 3-year-old filly pacers with four wins in five NYSS starts. This past week, the Empire Breeders Classic winner tied the track record for her division with a 1:52 at Saratoga. She starts from post 3 for trainer Tony Alagna and owner Crawford Farms Racing.

Chaptiama (Chapter Seven) will want to avenge a second-place finish in last year's final as a 2-year-old in what's proven to be the most competitive division in the NYSS this season: 3-year-old colt trotters. Chaptiama is facing challengers Hobbs, Barn Holden, Berkery J, and Bourbon Express, all finalists last year. Chaptiama is trained by Trond Smedshammer for owner Purple Haze Stables.

Top overall earner in the NYSS this season, Love A Good Story (Chapter Seven), will look to bolster her already impressive $226,850 in purse money in the final for 3-year-old filly trotters. Finishing the season with a perfect record will be the goal for trainer Julie Miller and owners Pinske Stables, Kentuckiana Racing Stable and Daniel Plouffe.

“We saw great performances from our New York-breds in what proved to be a very competitive season, despite it being a little shorter than usual due to the current pandemic,” said M. Kelly Young, executive director, Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund. “We'd like to congratulate all the owners, trainers and drivers representing the New York Sire Stakes at the Night of Champions, and thank all of our participants throughout our program for their flexibility this season.”

Race sponsors for the event include New York-based breeders and institutions: Allerage Farm, Blue Chip Farms, Cameo Hills Farm, Crawford Farms and Winbak Farm.

The Finals for the NYSS Excelsior Series are scheduled for Sept. 11 at Tioga Downs, post time is 3 p.m. The County Fair Finals were raced on Sept. 6 at Goshen Historic Track. A livestream of the event can be viewed here.

Consignor's comment on upcoming Goshen Yearling Sale

With the Goshen Yearling Sale fast approaching on Monday (Sept. 14), the 90 yearlings being offered this year are currently being examined by many interested parties in person, on video and in the catalog. However no one has observed these horses closer than the respective managers of each farm at which they were bred. Here are some opinions they have offered about who stands out to them from their groups.

Steve Jones - Owner - Cameo Hills Farms:

"We are excited to be selling 14 yearlings from the first crop of Huntsville. They are exceptional individuals and very athletic.

"(H#48) The tower from power (Huntsville—Under Your Spell) is an outstanding colt out of the $465,000 performer Under Your Spell. (H#87) Koepka (Huntsville—Dune In Red) a very nice colt out of Dune in Red who earned $385,000 racing. (H#89) Greg The Leg (Huntsville—Encore Deo) is out of Encore Deo who earned $195,000 racing and is from the maternal family of the great Eternal Camnation (1:49.2 $3,748,574). (H#29) Instant Expert (Huntsville—Pedigree Snob) is out of $439,000 performer Pedigree Snob. (H#32) Yes Indeed (Huntsville—Please Me Please) is a filly from Please Me Please, who earned $756,000 racing and has produced five $100,000 winners to date.

"Also in the consignment is (H#43) Speed It Up (So Surreal—Sugarcoated) who is a full brother to Splash Brother, who just won the $240,000 Empire Breeders Classic at Tioga.

"We are very proud to have bred, raised and sold Splash Brother and Hick from Frenchlick – both sired by our stallion So Surreal and both winners of the Empire Breeders Classic for 3-year-old pacing colts, in 2019 and 2020. Both colts were sold at the Goshen Sale. We also sold three of the four 2019 New York Sire Stake Finals pacing winners at the Goshen Sale.

"We have 23 yearlings consigned to Goshen as agent from several reputable farms that include 10 trotters headlined by (H#51) Middleman (Devious Man—Vivica Hall) who is a colt from the first crop of Devious Man out of Vivica Hall, who is the dam of $725,000 winner Shaq Is Back, a very nice trotting colt (H#66) Beam Me Up (Trixtion—Athena's Mission) and several others."

"Anyone that wants to inspect the yearlings can do so at Cameo Hills Farm between now and Friday (Sept. 11) but please call ahead."

Garrett Bell - General Manager - Winbak Farm:

"We have 39 in the Goshen consignment this year and the ones I like most are (H#6) Blue Label (Bolt The Duer—Hasty Dewar) who comes from a nice solid family and has good size. (H#46) Spinoff Time (Bolt The Duer—Topless Hall) also comes from a good family and is very sharp looking. (H#47) River Belle (Heston Blue Chip—Tug River Della) has a nice pedigree and a solid body as well.

"Yearling Manager Jim Ladwig likes (H#31) Blue jeans boots (Andover Hall—Pink cowgirl boots) who is long, racy and athletic. (H#54) Holly Hall (Heston Blue Chip—Wilma Hall) has nice size and is long leggy and athletic. (H#46) Spinoff time (Bolt The Duer—Topless Hal) is also very athletic and acts very racy. And (H#62) The Crowd Loves Me (Heston Blue Chip—All The Ladies) and (H#67) Armed Bandit (Heston Blue Chip—Bandolera Hanover) who are also real athletic and have great size."

Jean Brown - General Manager - Blue Chip Farm:

"Blue Chip has five yearlings in the sale this year. Two that stand out are (H#50) Tantalize Bluechip (Devious Man—Vivacious Lady) and (H#60) Twix Blue Chip (Devious Man—Mars Bar). They are from the first crop of Devious Man which is very exciting. Devious Man is Credit Winner's leading money winning son.

"We also have a very nice Rock N Roll Heaven filly (H#71) Tithing Blue Chip (Rock N Roll Heaven—Ace Of Pace). She is the first filly from the mare Ace Of Pace, who made almost $490,000 lifetime."

The 2020 Goshen Yearling Sale will be held on Monday (Sept. 14) at noon and promises to be deep in quality. And with the recent news that all New York casinos and racinos will be reopening this week, it's a good time to buy and be ready for the 2020 NYSS season.

Some major enhancements for GYS customers have been added this year to make the buying experience easier and more efficient.

Live video of the entire sale and online bidding will be available through Cattle In Motion. Their website is your one-stop shop for everything pertaining to the GYS but you will need to register in advance of the sale for all the available benefits.

You can register now by going to cattleinmotion.com, scroll down and click on Goshen Yearling Sale from their homepage and then follow the process to bid online. This includes creating an account, completing the lifetime verification (which gives you access to all future online auctions) and then signing up for the Goshen Yearling Sale. The whole process takes about five minutes and when completed, it will show “you are eligible to bid on this auction” at the bottom of the page.

Should you need any assistance or have any questions concerning this sale registration, please call 888.554.8437 or email info@cattleinmotion.com.

Cattle In Motion will also be providing the live video feed for the auction. This will start at approximately 11:15 a.m. (45 minutes before the sale at noon) and run for the duration. This feed will be available through your Cattle In Motion account and include live and pre-recorded video of all the horses in the sale.

Once you are registered you can also sign up for sale updates that can be received via text, email or both. These will be sent out in real time as they become available right through the end of the sale.

You can access a free FlippingBook version of the catalog through a link at Ongait.com or by clicking here. (<https://online.flippingbook.com/view/657189/>) The FlippingBook is perfect for smart phone or tablet use as it is presented in a page turning format just like a paper catalog.

The sales facility is located at 90 Slaughter Road, Middletown, NY, which is within a 90-minute drive of many major race tracks and training centers in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, making it a very convenient location.

For any other inquiries please contact Mark Ford directly at 973-568-3253 (cell) or by email at fordstable@frontiernet.net.
